Victory Day Program Proves Success

An estimated five hundred people gathered at Bovina last Saturday to attend the Victory Day Harvest program arranged by the Home Demonstration Clubs of Parmer County in cooperation with the Bovina Chamber of Commerce.

The program was highlighted by a number of interesting speakers and demonstrations of vital interest to rural people at this particular time.

At noon the crowd enjoyed a basket dinner featured by an abundance of barbecued beef prepared by Press Abbott and Bill Venable.

The program opened in the forenoon with a demonstration on the production of clean milk by the Parmer county dairy team, Leon Grissom and Foster Watkins, and carried on through the day with few absences, the day being pronounced highly successful in every particular.

County Judge Lee Thompson addressed the assembly in the afternoon on the subject "America At War", which was followed by Capt. Roberts' talk on "What Our Army Expects Of Our Farmers".

Jason O. Gordon, former county agent of Parmer county, gave a demonstration on the storing of winter vegetables and a talk on the subject "Back Yard Orchards". Visiting specialists were E. R. Eudaly, A. L. Smith, Mrs. Dora Barnes, and Miss Kates Adele Hill.

Musical numbers were interspersed with the afternoon program and Miss Willie Ellen Williams gave a reading, "The Star Spangled Banner".

Exhibits Arranged
Of particular interest to women at the show were the booths arranged by home demonstration clubs at the county and a great deal of interest was evidenced in the demonstration by Miss Beatrice McCurdy on use of whole grain cereals.

The Victory Day program was conceived this year in lieu of a county fair. All in all the program was highly successful, and a large part of its success was due to the energetic cooperation on the part of Bovina business men.

Meeting Called To Discuss Soy Beans

John Martin, supervisor of the Parmer county AAA, was called to Dimmitt Tuesday to meet with representatives of the state office for the purpose of discussing the soy bean problem in this area.

Representative dealers and grain men of this section were expected to attend the meeting in order that a clear picture of the bean issue might be made.

Parmer county farmers have produced a large crop of beans this year, and since the crop seems to be strictly a government controlled crop, both dealers and farmers are admittedly at a loss to know just how this crop is to be marketed. The Dimmitt meeting has been called to clarify this matter to the growers and grain dealers.

Mr. Martin is expected to be able to discuss the bean problem intelligently on his return from the meeting, and The Tribune hopes to have a definite statement on the subject next week.

In New Caledonia

When Wanda Engle, U. S. army nurse of Toledo, Ohio, visited the Kanakas in New Caledonia they presented her with a grass skirt—ample proof of her popularity as well as of her success as a diplomat. Wanda poses here with a local chief, who puffs at an American-made cigarette with considerable enjoyment.

Large Taxpayers Are Paying Current Taxes

Many of the large taxpayers of the county are taking advantage of the 3% discount on state taxes and paying their assessments now, it was revealed by Mrs. Bess Mansfield, deputy collector, this week.

She said that the tax payments for the month of October were above the average, with practically all of the taxpayers in the larger brackets taking advantage of the discount.

A discount of 3% on current taxes due the state during the month of October has been announced. There is no discount on county and school taxes, Mrs. Mansfield said.

On and after November 1st, the discount will be reduced to 2% and after December 1st, the reduction will drop to only 1%. All taxes for the current year will become delinquent on Jan. 31st, after which time penalties and interest will be added to unpaid assessments.

Lack of Shepherd Proves Serious Loss

The draft and high wages in the defense plants is proving a serious loss to at least one Parmer county sheepman, it was learned here this week.

Lee Sudderth reports that loss of sheep amounting to not less than $200 was sustained on his farm northeast of here in a three-week period. The sheep were killed by stray dogs, he stated.

Inability to secure a competent shepherd was assigned by Sudderth as the cause of his loss. He said that he had employed a number of herders during the past several months only to have them drafted or leave for higher wages in defense plants.

Ginnings Slow Due To Picker Shortage

Shortage of pickers and wet weather since the first of the week have very definitely affected cotton gathering in this locality.

Up to Tuesday night only 33 bales had been ginned at the Farwell and Lariat plants, with the latter gin handling two-thirds of the amount.

Many fields are well open and there is a strong demand for pickers. Some Mexican laborers are reported in the West Camp community, but unless there is a heavy influx of pickers soon farmers confess they will be unable to gather their crops.

RAIN AND MORE RAIN

As The Tribune prepared to go to press Wednesday morning, J. C. Temple reported that 2.32 inches of rain had fallen during Tuesday night, bringing the total to 3.05 this week.

DEER HUNTERS HOME

Aubrey Brock, Reagan and Perry Looney of Bovina returned home the latter part of last week from Colorado, where they went on a deer hunt that proved fairly successful, with the Looneys each getting a buck while Brock came home empty-handed.

Due to the extremely warm weather, the hunters report that the deer have not yet been driven to the lower levels. Several elk were taken in the area where they hunted, they said.

Buddy Jones, who went with a Muleshoe party, failed to get his deer, it is understood, but two elk were taken by other members of the party.

More Parmer Selectees Enter Service Oct. 23

Twenty-two more Parmer county selectees will entrain here on October 23 for Fort Sill, Okla., where they will be inducted into the armed forces.

Out of a total of 23 men sent out of here last Sunday to the Army examining station at Lubbock, only one was rejected. In addition to the 22 to be accepted at Lubbock, two men were transferred to other boards for induction and two enlisted in other branches of the service to bring the total to 27 for the month.

John Henry Hudson and Charles Augustine (Gus) Johnson have been transferred to California and Oklahoma, respectively; and Travis Winston White and Marvin Eugene Weir have enlisted in the Navy.

Those accepted at Lubbock on Monday include:

John Spivey Dial, Harry Sylvester Lookingbill, Aubrey Lee Carlton, Jay Wayne Henington, Emsley Asaberry Walker, Parham Dobbs, Roy B. Ezell, Jr., Louie Baker, R. V. Ivy, Ovy Allen Sisk, Gordon Cortez Billington, Clarence Milford Jasper, Merion Caption Dennis, Barney Dean Crume, Charlie William Dotson, Paul Helmke, Andrew Henley Wilson, Claude Lorane Lillard, Ivan Levi Williams, W. T. Meeks, Rex B. Dady, Sylvester Alexander Fangman.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The Parmer County Commissioners Court was in session here Monday. Aside from the regular routine of business, the county dads made two transfers of county funds.

An order transferring $300 from the Road and Bridge Sinking to the Road and Bridge fund was passed, and another order transferring $800 from the Road and Bridge Auto Fund to the Road and Bridge fund was passed.

Absentee Voting to Open this Weekend

County Clerk D. K. Roberts announced today that parties desiring to cast absentee votes in the general election may do so at any time now.

Absentee voting opens on Oct. 14 and closes on Oct. 30, Clerk Roberts stated.

The general election will be held on Nov. 3 and there are three state tickets in the file this year: Democratic, Republican and People's Unity Party.

In addition to the three state tickets, the voters will be asked to accept or reject five amendments to the State Constitution.

The general opinion here is that there will be very little interest in the general election in Parmer county this year. There are no local issues to be decided at the polls and only the Democratic ticket is represented on the ballots so far as Parmer county is concerned.

In some counties the prohibition question is being submitted, which is calculated to draw out a good vote in such counties, but political observers generally believe that throughout the state the forthcoming election will be a very tame affair.

Polls will be open and voting hours will be maintained at the customary places and hours throughout the county, it has been announced.

Local Church Closes Out Successful Year

The Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church of this city closed a very successful year last Sunday, according to reports made at the Fourth Quarterly Conference, which was conducted Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Sims, district superintendent.

All financial claims were reported paid in full, which showed total finances raised for all purposes to be slightly under $3,400. Rev. E. J. Sloan, the pastor, reported additions to the church during the past year at 30, making a total of 121 additions during his four years as pastor of the local congregation.

Rev. Sims virtually stated that Rev. Sloan would not be returned here for another year.

W. J. Matthews was elected as delegate to the Annual Conference, being held in El Paso this week, and Mrs. E. J. Sloan was named as alternate. Those in attendance at the El Paso meeting, from here are Rev. and Mrs. Sloan, W. J. Matthews and Mrs. Anne Overstreet.

The appointments will be announced by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt at the conclusion of the conference on Thursday evening.

JOIN PANTEX PLANT

Buck Bradshaw and Felix Monroe of this city are listed as two more local men to join the Pantex plant at Amarillo this week. Bradshaw reported on Monday and Monroe followed on Tuesday.

SUDDERTH OUT

Lee Sudderth, prominent stock-farmer of northeast of this city, was in town last Saturday for the first time since he was injured several weeks ago. Sudderth fell from a rafter while building a small barn at his farm and sustained back injuries that have kept him confined to his bed since that time.

Resultant complications from the fall have given Sudderth more trouble than the original injury.

One-Act Play Highlight Of Men's Club Meeting

The woes of a speaker who is to appear on a club program will be the main entertainment at the gathering of the local Men's Club, Thursday evening, when the group is audience to a playlet, "Unaccustomed As I Am".

English students of Mrs. Clyde Barton Farwell teacher, will present the play with Paul Roberson as unhappy Fred Saunders, slated to speak at the club in the title role.

Other members of the cast are his wife, Agnes (Dorothea Deaton) who does not take her husband's speech seriously; Bud, the teen age son responsible for his father's lost speech, played by Duane Sprawls; Billy, the younger daughter, Jean Ann Hart, and Ruby, the negro maid, by Joan Booth.

The meeting will be held at the Methodist church at 8:30, and all members are urged to attend.

More General Rains Delay Crop Harvest

More general rains this week have delayed harvesting of Parmer county's immense feed crop, with operations definitely stopped on Tuesday.

An all-night rain fell throughout this section Monday, just when harvesting operations were getting underway on an enlarged scale.

However, farmers point out that the rain will be of immense value to freshly sowed wheat, most of which is up and off to a good start.

The rain gauge here in Farwell measured .73 of an inch, with reports from the outlying sections indicating that the precipitation was generally as heavy in other localities.

NEW CAFETERIA WORKER

Mrs. Lona Logan has been named by the WPA as a worker in the school cafeteria in Texico, Supt. E. A. Rogers reported on Tuesday, beginning her work on Monday.

At present there are three WPA workers in the lunch room, with women of the community assisting in the work, he added.

More than one-fourth of the total land area of Texas is now under lease for oil and gas activity.

Early Panhandle Cowboy Is Buried

The following account, taken from the Amarillo News of Monday morning, will be of interest to many local residents who were acquainted with the subject of the article.

Jim Oden, as he was known here, owned extensive ranching interests south of this city in the early days. Later, after he met reverses in the cattle business, he and the family moved to Farwell where they lived for some time before going to Canyon, where he continued in the cattle business on a small scale.

The account of his passing follows:

CARLSBAD, Oct. 11—Another of the early-day cowboys of the Texas Panhandle has answered the call of the "last round up". He is James A. Oden, who died at Memorial Hospital at Carlsbad, N. M., early Friday morning. He had been ill about 10 days with heart ailment, and was removed to the hospital on Thursday.

James A. Oden was born in Corsicana, January 31, 1872, and was in his 70th year at the date of death.

He married Lulu Conner at Tulia and reared a family of seven boys and one girl who, with the widow, survive. The children are: Conner, of Floydada; James C., of St. Louis, Mo.; Pascal of Omaha, Neb.; Glenn C. of Carlsbad; Leslie A. of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Lieut. J. A., a member of Battery F, 200th Coast Artillery, Anti-Aircraft, New Mexico National Guard, who is known to have seen service at Bataan, Philippine Islands and is believed to be a prisoner of the Japanese; Mrs. Paul Graham of Carlsbad, and William F., last heard from at the U. S. Navy Training School at Columbia, Mo.

Mr. Oden was one of the early settlers at what is now Lubbock. He with other cowboys, purchased lots when the town was laid out.

Oden settled in the Panhandle of Texas from Corsicana, and in 1890, and for many years thereafter, worked for the XIT ranch at Dalhart. Later he ranched on his own account in Parmer and Oldham counties and located his home at Canyon, for the education of his children.

He was one of the first commissioners of Castro County about 1904 and 1906. He was well known among his cowboy friends as a good roper, but as he frequently said: "When in a contest, something always happened."

Oden moved to Carlsbad in 1923 and erected the Texas Apartment Camp and engaged in the tourist court activity until his death. He was the uncle of Clyde Oden, a commissioner of Albuquerque and for many years a member of the State Highway Commission of New Mexico.

Fire protection for Texico-Farwell property hangs in the balance with no solution for the continuance of the Texico Fire Department in prospect.

This was the emphatic warning of Chief I. F. Selman in a statement made Tuesday night at the regular weekly meeting of the fire boys.

Finances with which to maintain the department and manpower to handle the equipment were given by Chief Selman as obstacles that threatened the loss of fire protection for the twin cities. Selman said that the actual cost of operating the equipment, including gasoline, oil, and chemicals, had been running from $350 to $375 per year, and added "most of this money has been paid by the fire boys themselves" with funds raised from various entertainments.

Crew Is Short

Furthermore, he pointed out, at present his crew is far below the required number of men with only five crew members who have been with the department any length of time. "Arch Green is the only man left in town now that can operate the pumper truck," Selman revealed.

Selman said that he had made many appeals to the local citizenship for firemen to replace the boys who are being called to the service and are going to defense plants and some response has been made. But the crew is far below the requirements of a 15-man organization, he said.

Money Is Drawback

The matter of finances is also a serious hindrance to the continuance of the department with no solution in prospect for the immediate future. Rev. W. C. Wright reported he had been discussing the financial end of the department's continuance with local business men, and added that he had made little progress.

Those attending the meeting seem agreed that the most reasonable way of providing the department with money with which to operate was to place a small meter assessment—about ten cents—on each water meter in Texico-Farwell and make the collections through the regular monthly water bills.

May Train Women

Chief Selman said that in many places the fire fighting equipment was being operated by women and gave it as his opinion that such a situation may face the local department. He expressed his willingness to devote all the time he could to train women or men to take over the department. He furthermore pointed out that at present no one is living in the department headquarters to receive fire calls either day or night.

Texico now has one of the best small town equipments to be found anywhere, but without money or manpower it is worthless, the Chief observed.

COOKING VEGETABLES—
how to do it to preserve the vitamins and minerals

Dorothy Greig

Baked stuffed peppers are rich in vitamins and full of flavor.

LATELY, it's the scientists rather than the cooks who've been teaching us new wrinkles about cooking vegetables.

They tell us that some of the health giving vitamins and minerals in vegetables evaporate when exposed to air. Some dissolve in water. Therefore, to prevent that we must do these simple things:

In boiling vegetables, use the least possible amount of liquid. (And save the liquor for sauces, gravies and soups.)

Cook quickly until just done—and serve immediately. Keep the pot tightly covered and don't stir the vegetables.

Boil potatoes in their skins (skins slip off easily after cooking.) Don't force hot vegetables through a ricer. Treated in this kindly fashion vegetables not only retain their vitamins and minerals but their natural fresh flavor, too. Now dad and the youngsters won't balk at vegetables—they'll ask for 'em.

With these general directions in mind we can then use our imaginations. For instance, let's cook carrots in consomme instead of water—like this:

Savory Glazed Carrots

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons onions, chopped
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 9-10 whole scraped carrots (5-6 inches long)
- 1 can condensed consomme
- 1/4 cup water

Cook the chopped onions in the butter until soft but not brown. Roll the carrots in the flour and salt and saute with the onions and butter for about 10 minutes. Then pour the consomme with 1/2 cup water over the carrots. Cover tightly and cook until tender. Garnish the dish with sprigs of parsley or, even better, sprinkle the carrots themselves with chopped parsley just before serving.

Then, too, green peppers stuffed deliciously with rice, cheese and vegetables and baked whole are wonderfully good:

Baked Peppers Stuffed with Rice and Vegetables

- 4 slices bacon, diced
 - 4 tablespoons chopped onions
 - 2 cans condensed vegetable soup
 - 3 cups cooked rice
 - 1/2 cups grated cheese
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - Pinch of pepper
 - 6 tablespoons buttered crumbs
 - 6 green peppers (medium size)
- Cook the diced bacon until brown. Remove bacon from fat and cook onions until soft and yellow. Then add bacon, vegetable soup, cooked rice, grated cheese and seasonings and mix thoroughly.
- Wash peppers, cut a slice from stem end. Remove seeds and cut away seed parts, leaving a clean shell. Place in boiling salted water and boil 5 to 8 minutes or until almost tender. Drain and stuff with the "Rice and Vegetable" filling. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Between a half and 3-4 of an inch of moisture was received here.

All Seed Should Be Tagged and Tested

AUSTIN—"A seed dealer who sells untested and untagged seed is endangering our most vital war production that of food and feeds. Commissioner of Agriculture J. E. McDonald said today, and reminded dealers they could avoid this at no cost to themselves by having their seed tested free at the State Seed Laboratory in Austin or Lubbock.

"Before the war, dealers who sold untested seed were breaking the state law which requires that each container of field seed bear an official Texas seed tag showing germination and purity," Linden Jones, chief of the Seed Laboratory Division, said. "Now, with our food production every day becoming a more serious problem, gambling the productivity of a farm and of the farmers' labor on unsafe seed shows lack of patriotism."

Farmers, too, must realize their responsibility in seeing that their seed is tested, the official stated. Formerly it was merely good business to help insure a crop by buying tested seed. But now it is the patriotic duty of every farmer, he said.

There is never a month in Texas when seed is not being planted in some section, Jones stated. "Therefore, the seed business is one of the largest in Texas. We need the cooperation of every seed dealer and farmer in the state to be sure seed planted in Texas produces crops to feed our fighting men and allies."

The average Texas oil well has to produce nearly three months out of the year to pay its owner's taxes and the land-owner's royalty.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE

The fourth and fifth grades bought $4 worth of defense stamps this week, which is $1.30 more than we had last week. Keep up the good work, fourth and fifth graders.

Mrs. J. D. Thomas substituted for Mrs. V. S. Page last week.

We have some pictures in our room. One group is autumn scenes. The other group is patriotic, including flags, soldiers, etc.

We, the students of Farwell high school and grades wish all the persons that feel interested in our school work would come and spend a day with us. There is a war going on now and we feel as if we are sort of lost but are helping in every way to win this war soon. We buy defense stamps each week and have a scrap drive on now. We are doing our part.

Tire Sellers Must File Reports by Oct. 15th

All tire sellers must file Sept. 30 inventory reports of all serviceable tires and tubes before Oct. 15th to comply with the revised tire rationing regulations, John R. Armstrong, chairman of the Parmar County board, warned today.

The inventory report, mandatory quarterly, is to show stocks of all new and used tires and tubes, retreads and recaps held by all persons who have any of the items for sale.

Filing of reports is particularly important at this time, Armstrong emphasized, since they will provide a record of persons engaged in the business of selling tires, and who will be eligible to receive additional stocks of tires if larger inventories become necessary by reason of any change in the rationing program made to meet the Baruch Committee recommendations.

Reporting forms are being sent by mail to most of those required to file the returns, but those who do not get them and have tires to report must obtain the forms from the local board in Farwell.

The reporting requirements apply not only to recappers and dealers in new tires, but also to those who have only used tires for sale, and to automobile supply companies, motor vehicle dealers and finance companies. Tires mounted on vehicles, however, are not to be reported.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—Because of the fact that a venereal disease is no respecter of persons, people of every class and color, rich and poor, educated and ignorant are numbered among the victims, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

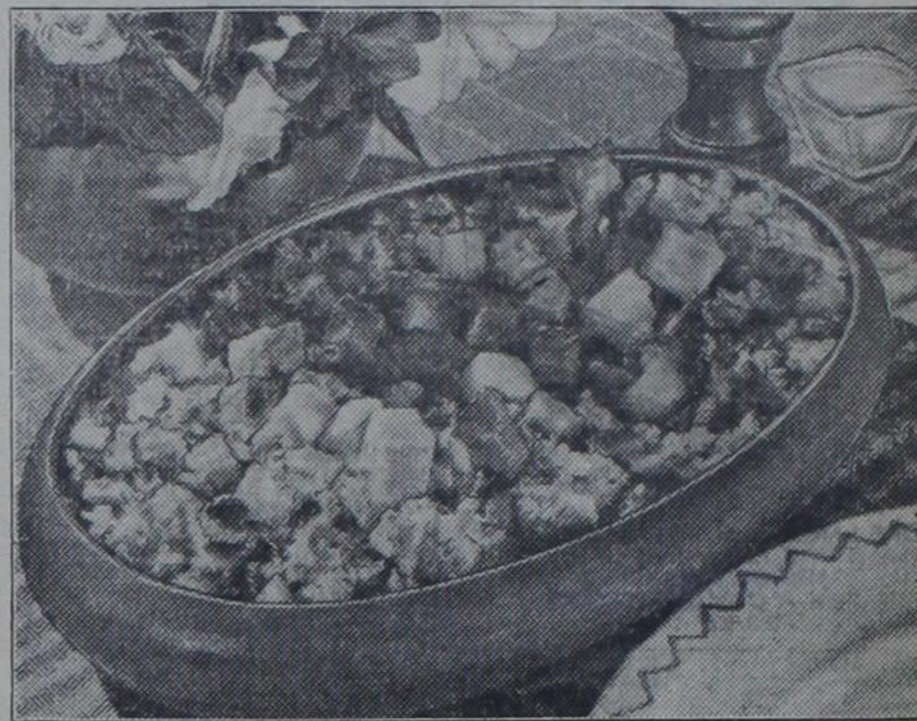

"Venereal diseases, of which syphilis and gonorrhoea are the more commonplace, are among the most vital health problems in the State of Texas today," Dr. Cox said. "This state has been chosen as the location for dozens of army camps, naval bases, training fields, shipbuilding yards, airplane construction plants, and other major defense industries. The resulting influx of workers and armed forces has emphasized the need for exerting every known means in the control of venereal diseases."

The State Health Officer pointed out that self diagnosis and self-treatment are extremely dangerous and advised consulting a physician or determining definitely whether or not a venereal disease is present.

"Only a reputable physician can properly diagnose such a disease. The presence of gonorrhoea is not disclosed by a routine blood test and the diagnosis of syphilis requires more than a blood examination," declared Dr. Cox. "Both syphilis and gonorrhoea are almost 100% curable if discovered and treated in their very earliest stages. Thousands

Ham-Potato Casserole —with ASPARAGUS SAUCE

By Dorothy Greig

In our house there's no such thing as a "leftover" dish. We call them "second time round" dishes because they're as appetizing as the original roast—sometimes more so.

Take this ham casserole as an example. To be sure, for it we use the tender pieces left clinging to the bone of a once proud baked ham. But when this dish emerges from the oven smoking hot and fresh, the ham and potatoes in a cheese-sharp-ened asparagus sauce, and topped with buttery browned crumbs—who would insult it with the name left-over? It's a winner in its own right!

2 cups cooked potatoes, diced
 2 cups cooked ham, diced
 1 can condensed asparagus soup
 1/2 cup milk
 1 1/2 ounces milk processed cheese
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 6 tablespoons buttered bread crumbs

Mix the diced potatoes and ham together and put into a casserole. Combine the condensed asparagus soup, milk, cheese and salt. Then heat until the cheese has melted. Pour the hot sauce over the potatoes and ham and sprinkle the top with buttered bread crumbs. Put casserole into a moderate oven (350°) for 20 to 30 minutes. Serves 6.

of deaths annually could be prevented," Dr. Cox said, "if sufficient attention were given to the early diagnosis and thorough treatment of syphilis. Delay reduces the chance of cure and in many cases is the direct cause of death."

COLLEGE STATION—Before the days of radio rural telephone lines were used extensively to get weather forecasts out into the country, but with the war-time ban on general forecasting by radio, the Weather Bureau is discouraging dispatching weather information by telephone and other non-radio channels.

H. H. Williamson, director of the A. & M. College Extension Service, points out that rural families especially need to know about forecasts of severe weather conditions potentially dangerous to lives, property, crops and damage. Warnings about possible frosts and freezes may prevent losses of some truck and fruit crops.

Recent experience during and following a hurricane which struck the Texas coast and swept on toward San Antonio revealed that the neighborhood leader system which was set up five months ago can function to keep in contact with farm families when all other lines of communication was destroyed. In Jackson, Goliad, Medina, and Calhoun counties, for example, this neighbor-to-neighbor chain of communication performed one or more of these services: Helped supply water where wells were contaminated, notified families where they might obtain typhoid "shots", helped estimate storm damages, and a stated the Red Cross is setting up its relief services.

"While we certainly hope there won't be any more such disasters, it's comforting to know that farm people can be reached with weather warnings and other emergency information under conditions similar to the devastation of war," Director Williamson adds.

THE "WHY" MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE

COLLEGE STATION—American people are willing to get along without a great many things if they know the why behind the shortage.

Louise Bryant, specialist in home management for the A. & M. College Extension Service, explains that the needs of war strike at unexpected spots. Here are some examples.

The expanding of the air force requires an expanded supply of parachutes and every one of them uses enough silk to make 185 pairs of stockings.

Until recently, when airplane motors were shipped abroad, they were coated in a heavy grease to protect them during shipment. When they arrived, the grease was removed. Now they are wrapped in cellophane and arrive in perfect condition. So cellophane may not continue to be so plentiful.

Meeting the production goals for 60,000 planes this year and twice that number next year there will be no aluminum for cooking utensils in fact, there is not enough aluminum, even when it is all taken away from the kitchen, so that plywood airplanes are now being used for training purposes.

Because a pair of Army shoes takes two and a half times as much leather as a pair of civilian oxfords, consumers are being urged to make last year's shoes wear as long as possible.

Miss Bryant says the 200,000 patriotic rural Texans who have signed

FIREPROOF COTTON MATERIAL

COLLEGE STATION—Fireproofing clothing, curtains, and other household fabrics is quite simple.

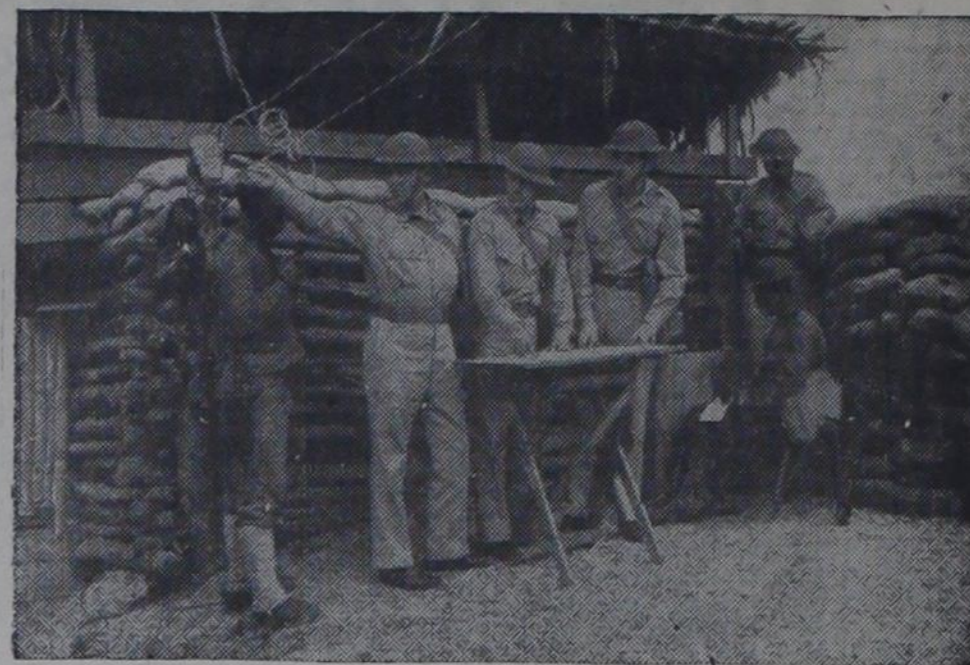

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the A. & M. College Extension Service, says the prevention-wise homemaker can fireproof any cotton fabrics which water will not damage. This is done by dipping them in a solution of borax and boric acid and water. It is necessary to re-dip the cloth whenever it is laundered, because the solution washes out.

"Make a solution of seven ounces of borax, three ounces of boric acid and two quarts of hot water," the specialist directs. "Keep stirring it until the water looks clear. Then dip the article you want to fireproof into the solution just as if you were rinsing it in water. Wring it out, hang it up to dry, and press in the usual way with a warm iron."

Here is one caution the specialist offers. The cloth must be dry when it is dipped—for otherwise the solution will be diluted and much less effective.

It is practical to fireproof such things as a man's work suit this way, or curtains for the kitchen, a cotton rug which lies in front of the living room fire, cloth pot lifters, an ironing board cover, or cotton insulation, Mrs. Claytor says. She adds that it is also possible to fireproof large articles of cloth such as upholstery, slip covers or large rugs by spraying the solution of them.

Demonstration Club Notes

By Special Staff Reporters

Hub Club

The Hub home demonstration club met in regular session Oct. 9 with Mrs. R. F. Jones hostess. Council report was given by Mrs. A. H. Boatman.

Officers elected for the coming year were: president, Mrs. Will Jones; vice president, Mrs. John Thomas; secretary, Mrs. S. L. McLellan; council delegate, Mrs. A. H. Boatman; parliamentarian, Mrs. Mayme Adams; reporter, Mrs. R. F. Jones.

Refreshments were served to eight members and one visitor, Mesdames G. A. Collier, John Thomas, Will Jones, Mayme Adams, Dorothy Gee, A. H. Boatman, S. L. McLellan, R. F. Jones, and Fred Thomas.

Our next meeting will be Oct. 23 in the home of Mrs. E. L. Thomas with Mrs. John Thomas hostess. Miss Elsie Cunningham will give a demonstration on "Casserole of Whole Grain Cereals and Vegetables." Every member is urged to be present.

Fastest Runner

Whenever a new athletic record is broken, people say, "Well, I suppose they will always be pushing it up a little higher," and assume that the present record beats all athletic accomplishments of all time. The truth is that nobody has ever beaten the long-distance run of Mensen Ernst, a Norwegian, who ran from Paris to Moscow, more than a hundred years ago, in a record time of two weeks, averaging 125 miles a day over poor roads. Later he ran from Constantinople to Calcutta, India, and returned—a distance of 5,625 miles, and averaged 95 miles a day for 59 days. No modern athlete has anywhere near approached this.

Victory Club

On Friday, Oct. 9, the club met in the home of Mrs. W. M. Moody. Due to misunderstanding there was not many present. Miss Cunningham conducted an interesting demonstration on making peanut butter as our club has been talking of disbanding due to rationing. Miss Cunningham has asked that we meet at Mrs. Moody's on our next regular day and discuss the situation, so all club members please be present. The Farmerton club will be asked to meet with us on that date.

Economic Director

James F. Byrnes, formerly associate justice of the U. S. Supreme court, now director of economic stabilization, is shown arriving at the White House for a conference with President Roosevelt. The general stabilization order puts a clamp on wages, salaries and prices at September 15 levels. Byrnes has been vested with powers exceeding those of Leon Henderson, head of the Office of Price Administration, and other key governmental figures.

Texico Teams Lose Out In Tournament

Weakened by absences of essential team members, the Texico boys and girls softball teams went out in the initial round of the county tournament held at Grady, the past Saturday.

Playing Ranchvale, whom they had defeated earlier in the season, in the opener, the boys had what looked like a win for Texico until the final inning, when they were nosed out, 8-9.

With two out and one on base, a Ranchvale player lammed the ball far into the field and on the throw the ball slipped out of the hands of the catcher and was touched by a spectator on the sidelines, automatically allowing two runs to come in for Ranchvale.

The girls were badly beaten by the Grady squad, winners of the tournament, with the final score at 34-4.

Both Grady teams carried off pennant honors at the meet.

Many housewives are going to the local store to buy bacon and are finding that there is no bacon to be bought. This has begun to make many people wonder just why we have no bacon to be sold, or a less amount of bacon, when this country can produce pork so quickly and so cheaply. The truth of the matter is that more pork is being produced now than was being produced in the days when bacon could be bought in any amount, but the demand for meats is much greater now. We have an army to feed, and men in the army are eating more meat than when they were in civilian life. We are shipping great quantities of meats to our Allies under Lease-Lend provisions. The third factor is that American families are eating more meats today than they were formerly. Increased paychecks mean more money to spend on foods as well as other things.

With a situation like this it is very important that our county do its share in producing more meats with the cheap grains we have produced on our farms. Pork is one form of meat production which can be increased rapidly and with the present feed and pork prices, pork production is a form of meat production which will pay off in a financial way. A farmer can take a weaning pig and in 12 months have a litter just like the original he started with. Hogs can take grains and use them more economically in turning them into meat than any other animal. The spread in price between feeds and finished pork is also highly in favor of the feeder. Our market in this section is very favorable. All of the reasons make a combination which simply cannot be beat in farming enterprise.

Pork production is not complicated but there are a few fundamental rules which must be followed. The first is a good supply of home grown grains. Nearly all our farms have that. The second is a balanced ration. This simply means a balance between grains, which are primarily carbohydrates, and proteins, which come from milk, cottonseed meal, and tankage. A good way to feed hogs is to self-feed them using a feeder with a compartment for grains and a separate compartment for protein supplement. Mix the protein supplement one half cottonseed meal and one half tankage. If the hog is getting all the milk it will drink then cut out cottonseed meal and tankage.

Feed some good mineral. If cottonseed meal is fed use oyster shell flour or limestone flour. If no cottonseed meal is fed use bone meal. If the pigs are not on pasture add 5% of the ration in alfalfa leaf meal. Provide plenty of fresh water which is cool in summer and warm in winter. Worm the pigs when 60 to 80 pounds in weight with a good commercial worm capsule. Provide adequate but not expensive shelter. Take care of sows and pigs at farrowing time.

Just a little thought and consideration put into action will make farmers a lot of money from hogs and will help to remedy the meat shortage situation.

WHEN MEN COOK

By ELSIE CUNNINGHAM
Home Demo. Agent
Texas A. & M. Extension Service

Usually I can supply a recipe for almost anything when it is requested, but I'll tell you before you ask—J am no authority on barbecue. If you want instruction for barbecuing 500 lbs. of beef to perfection ask Bill Venable and Joe Langer.

If you want to know how to cook washpots full of pinto beans and how to stir them with a shovel ask Press Abbott. He can really show you how to cook quantities of beans.

I know the two above statements to be facts—I watched these men work and later ate some of the barbecue and beans at the Victory Harvest Show last Saturday at Bovina.

Miss Kate Adele Hill, my supervisor, and dozens of other folks said the food was the best they ever ate.

One thing we will have to admit, ladies, is that when a man consents to cook you can count on the food being done to a turn.

My hat is off to the men behind the scene—to these "super-super" cooks—Mr. Venable, Mr. Langer and Mr. Abbott.

Now that we are on the subject of food let's continue. One of the popular speakers at the Victory Harvest Show was Miss Beatrice McCurdy, Lamb county home demonstrator, who promised you recipes for the foods used in her demonstration would be printed in this column.

Miss McCurdy, you recall, showed us many lovely dishes made from home grown grains and peanuts. She pointed out the need for eating at least one whole grain product each day in order to get essential minerals and vitamins.

Before you try these recipes take some of your nice home-grown wheat and corn to the mill and have it ground, bring it home and store it in tight containers to keep the bugs from it, then prepare some of these nourishing foods for your family.

Home Made Grape Nuts

2 cups flour, 3 cups oatmeal, 3 cups corn meal, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 cups whole wheat flour, ½ cups sorghum or molasses, milk to make stiff dough, about 1 quart.

Roll out like pie crust, bake until brown, run through food chopper. Makes 3 quarts. Serve with sugar and whole milk or thin cream.

Whole Wheat Crackers

2 cups finely ground whole wheat, 3 tablespoons solid fat, 1 teaspoon salt, 6 teaspoons water, 3 tablespoons sugar ¼ teaspoon soda, 2 tablespoons molasses.

Mix dry ingredients and cut in fat with biscuit cutter. Mix molasses and water and stir into dry ingredients. Spread the mixture on baking sheet. Cut into squares 3x5 and bake at 425 F.

Corn Pone

2 cups yellow cornmeal, sifted, 1 teaspoon salt, hot water to hold mixture together (about 2-3 cup).

Shape into pones, place on greased pan; bake in a hot oven until brown (45 minutes to 1 hour).

Some of you are now harvesting peanuts and others will be buying peanuts brought in by truck from Fortales during the next few weeks so next week I'll give you timely instructions for homemade peanut butter which Miss McCurdy demonstrated.

GOBER NAMED TO BOARD

The local office of Selective Service has been advised that the appointment of J. I. Gober as a member of the local board has been made by Governor Coke Stevenson.

Gober was nominated to succeed Sam Sides, resigned.

Medals Arrive For Parmer 4-H Club

Medals arrived this week for Foster Watkins and Leon Grissom, who make up the Parmer county 4-H dairy demonstration team, in recognition of their first-place rating in the district.

The contest which the Parmer boys won was held in Lubbock a short time ago and in addition to receiving first place in the district, the team rated second in the state.

County Agent Garlon A. Harper stated that the medals would be presented the boys in the near future.

Fine Attends Meeting At Goodwell, Okla.

Earl L. Fine, supervisor of the Parmer county FSA office, was in Goodwell, Oklahoma, the first of this week attending a Short Course for county supervisors over this area.

President Morrison, head of the Panhandle A. & M. College, along with Warren McMillian and Clay Terrell of the agriculture department, directed the program.

Phases of farming brought up for discussion included care of farm equipment, feed rationing, crops in both field and garden, home and farm management, and as a special feature, the supervisors themselves did a little "brush up" work at the slaughter house.

Freeze Is Lifted, But Certificates Necessary

Rubber boots and other rubber footwear no longer are frozen and may now be purchased, providing the would-be buyer has the proper rationing certificates from his local ration board, John R. Armstrong, chairman of the Parmer county board, pointed out today.

In general, he said, the eligibility requirement for persons to obtain purchase certificates is that they be engaged in some occupation that contributes directly to the war effort or to public health and safety.

Merchants are allowed 60 days from Oct. 5th in which to adjust stocks of rubber footwear to the new rationing program. During that period they will be able to buy replacement stocks or obtain delivery of goods already on order if they provide the jobber or manufacturer with the merchant's authorization certificate number. At the end of the 60 days, however, replacement stocks will be limited by the number of customers' ration certificates which a merchant can pass on to the wholesaler or manufacturer.

Demo Clubs To Hold Meetings This Week

Miss Elsie Cunningham, home demonstration agent, stated that Parmer county women's clubs would hold meetings this week, at which time it would be decided whether to continue the work or disband the demonstration clubs.

"With tire and gasoline rationing an actuality," she said, "the women may vote to meet less frequently or decide to discontinue club work, and we are anxious that all members be on hand to cast their votes."
