Auto Flop Takes Life

The body of Willie (Bill) Evett was shipped to Tipton, Okla., last Saturday for burial, after being prepared by the Steed Mortuary of Clovis.

Evett died at the Clovis Memorial hospital early Friday morning, where he had been removed for treatment after his car turned over two miles east of this city shortly after midnight Thursday.

Officers who investigated the accident say that Evett was alone at the time. He was traveling west on Highway 70 just west of the Oklahoma Lane underpass when the car swerved from the pavement and flopped over, throwing the driver cut and into a barbed wire fence.

Neal Hendrickson and Chas. Hurst were the first to find the victim and brought him to Farwell. Evett insisted that his injuries were not serious and wanted to be taken home. He was taken to Clovis, where he passed away a few hours later. It is reported that X-ray pictures revealed that he sustained fractures at the base of the skull and shattered vertebrae in the spinal column.

Evett was a bachelor, 46 years old. He came here a few years ago and had been engaged in farming operations. He is a nephew of W. A. Doshier. It is understood that his mother lives at Tipton, where the body was taken for burial.

Death Claims Grier Resident Tuesday

Connie D. Owens, age 60, died at his home in the Grier, N. M., community the past Tuesday, following a lingering illness. He was the father of Mrs. Charlie Nix of Farwell.

Owens had lived in the Grier vicinity for nine years, moving there from northeast of Farwell, where he resided about ten years. He came to this country from Eastland, Texas.

Funeral services were held at the Steed Memorial chapel in Clovis, Thursday afternoon at 3:00, with Rev. C. A. Calhoun in charge. Interment was made in the Bovina cemetery.

Of his immediate family he is survived by his wife and nine children, Inez, Dora Nell, Elton, Velton and Wayne, all of Grier; Mrs. W. T. Black of Nederland, Tex.; Mrs. Jeff Roberson of Amarillo; Mrs. Charlie Nix of Farwell and Miss Virlie Mae Owens of Las Vegas. Six grandchildren also survive.

Out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral were a sister, Mrs. Alta Walker of Houston, and a brother, O. C. Owens, of Abilene.

Two More Local Boys Get Wings This Week

Two more Parmer county boys will get their wings this week, in addition to those previously announced.

They are Wm. R. Thornton and Tom M. Caldwell.

Thornton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Thornton of this city. He is now a Naval Cadet at Corpus Christi, Texas, and has recently been promoted to a Cadet Lieutenant. At the graduation exercises on Friday, he will be commissioned as a Sub Commander, one of the senior ranking cadets at Corpus Christi.

Caldwell has already received his official airman insignia, with graduating exercises being held at the Lubbock Army Air Field on Tuesday of this week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Caldwell of south of Bovina.

WILL GRADUATE

Warren G. Harding, son of N. R. Harding of Farwell, will receive his degree from Eastern New Mexico College, Portales, in May. Recently he has been employed as mathematics teacher in the Portales Junior high school. He has enlisted in the Naval Reserve, and expects to be called to duty during the summer. Warren G. is well known here, having finished high school at Farwell.

TEACHERS ABSENT

Two regular faculty members are absent from the Farwell school this week, Supt. J. T. Carter reports. Miss Dorothy Shaw, of the home-making department, is on leave, with Mrs. Sewell acting as substitute, and Mrs. Loren West is also off duty, Rev. Paul Tripp serving in her place.

Housewives Fidget As Food Point Rationing Approaches

What a Spot for a 'Block-Buster'!

Although there is little to laugh about among the citizenry of Germany these days, there are smiles all around among the top kicks of the military machines gathered around Hitler. General of Infantry Zeidler, right front, is talking to his Fuehrer. In the right background is General Field Marshal Keitel.

With point rationing only two weeks in the offing, a majority of housewives were this week wondering "just how it is going to work out" concerning this business of holding consumption of rationed goods down to 48 points per person per month.

No schedule as to the number of points which various articles will require has been released, and attaches at the ration office were of the belief that it would not be made public until actual rationing begins, March 1.

In the meantime, housewives look forward to making a check of all commercially canned goods on hand as of Feb. 21. At midnight, Saturday of this week, a freeze order goes into effect, and goods listed under the new program may not be sold prior to opening of rationing.

Register Next Week

Registration in Parmer county, at the schools, is set up to begin Wednesday the 24th, following school hours, to continue through Thursday, Friday and Saturday. However, Supt. J. T. Carter said today that in Farwell, school would be dismissed both Thursday and Friday, with registration beginning Thursday morning and continuing through Saturday.

Supt. B. A. Rogers of Texico announces that a meeting is being held in Clovis, this (Wednesday) afternoon, at which time hours of registration will be set. It was his opinion that Curry registrants will be signed up Monday and Tuesday. The Texico school will be dismissed all day Monday and registrants are requested to come in on this day.

To receive a book, the registrant must present Ration Book 1 and make a declaration of all canned goods on hand. An allowance of five cans per person is made; all goods above that will draw penalty, although in no case will more than eight points be removed from a single book.

Persons having canned goods in abnormal excess will be relieved of eight points, and on the face of the book will be written the "carry-over". Then, when War Ration Book 3 is eventually issued, such excess will be charged against the points in that book.

All commercially canned goods under the order, with the exception of those containing less than eight ounces or more than one gallon must be declared when application is made. Home-preserved foods are exempt.

List Is Given

Specifically, the following goods come under the new set-up:

Canned and bottled fruits and juices—apples, applesauce, apricots, all berries, cherries (red, sour pitted and others), cranberries and sauer, fruits for salad or cocktails, grapefruit and juice, grape juice, peaches, pears, pineapple and juice and "all others and combinations".

Frozen fruits—cherries, peaches, strawberries, berries, and others. Dried and dehydrated fruits—prunes, raisins, all others.

Canned and bottled vegetables and juices—asparagus, beans (all kinds, fresh lima, green or wax, baked, pork and beans, kidney, lentils), beets (including pickles), corn, peas, sauer kraut, tomatoes, catsup, chili sauce, tomato juice, and all others.

Frozen vegetables — asparagus, beans, corn, peas, spinach, others. Canned soups and baby foods.

WAAC Drive Due In Clovis Next Week

A special drive to secure enlistments in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps will be held in Clovis, Feb. 22 to 25, according to Cpl. L. E. Buck, recruiting officer.

Lt. Leslie H. Smith and a medical officer from the New Mexico recruiting and induction office in Santa Fe will be present to give examinations to applicants, and a public ceremony for those who qualify will be held Thursday evening, with the applicants taking their vows.

Lt. Lillian Boyar of the WAAC, is expected to be in Clovis for the swearing-in ceremonies Thursday.

All women citizens of the United States between the ages of 21 and 44 inclusive are eligible, except married women with children under 14 years. Each applicant must present a birth certificate or other proof of birth and citizenship a time of enlistment.

A quota of 39 has been set for the Clovis subdistrict, which includes Roosevelt, Curry, DeBaca and Quay counties, Cpl. Buck stated.

Linguists are especially needed, particularly those who can read and write Spanish easily. School teachers and college seniors may enlist and remain in a reserve corps until the present school year is closed.

Application blanks may be secured from Cpl. Buck, room 3, post office building, Clovis. Further information may be secured by letter or personal contact.

Renewal Tags For License Plates Here

The tax collector's office has announced the arrival of the small renewal tags to be used as auto license plates for the year 1943, which replace regular license tags.

The renewal tags are of metal but much smaller than the conventional size. They will be affixed to the 1942 plates for the year 1943.

All automobile and truck registration fees will remain the same as last year, it was announced at the collector's office.

The new renewal tags will go on sale March 1, and must be affixed to the vehicle by April 1.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Supt. B. A. Rogers stated this week that the Texico school owed an expression of thanks to R. Vernon Hunter, state director of the New Mexico WPA art project, through whose efforts the local school is in receipt of a number of paintings from the dismantled project.

IS OPERATED

Sam Dunlap, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunlap of Dallas and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Booth of Farwell, underwent an appendectomy in a Dallas hospital, Sunday morning.

Want Ads Are Still Getting Results

More evidence that Tribune want ads are result-getters was revealed last week when Joe Magness inserted an ad to trade an electric refrigerator for an oil burner.

He got results the day the paper was circulated when F. E. Booth read the ad.

And it might be added that Sterlyn Billington got his hat back two weeks ago by using a want ad.

Baptist Men To Have Charge Club Program

The program to be given on Thursday night before the local Men's Club, in the parlors of the Methodist Church, will be arranged by men of the Baptist Church, it was announced today.

No definite announcement as to the program arrangements had been made here early this week, but it was understood that an outstanding speaker, probably A. W. Hockenbuhl, former governor of New Mexico, would appear on the program.

The Baptist men have also agreed to be responsible for the light lunch that will be served.

These meetings have proven to be one of the most beneficial and interesting projects of the community life, and the forthcoming program gives promise of being one of the most enjoyable ever rendered.

The meeting is open to all members of the community and is scheduled to get underway at 8 p. m.

Consideration of New Draft Regulations Up

The Parmer County draft board will be in session here Saturday afternoon in what promises to be one of the most important sessions held in recent months.

Board members stated today that the task of applying the new classification regulations, with reference to deferrable and non-deferrable occupations would be considered. New regulations received here this week clearly indicate that hereafter deferments are to be considered in the light of the registrant's occupation with no regard for dependency status.

"If I interpret the new regulations correctly," one member of the board said, "it means that all able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 31 will have to hold a 'necessary man' classification or face Army induction."

Goes To Tahoka As AAA Supervisor

Lenton Pool left the past week for Tahoka, Texas, where he took over the duty of Triple A administrator in that county.

Mr. Pool was a member of the Farwell faculty for several years, resigning the past spring to enter defense work in Amarillo. Recently he returned to Farwell and was employed at the local AAA office prior to his appointment as supervisor.

Mrs. Pool and the children plan to leave Thursday of this week to join Mr. Pool.

VICTORY PROGRAM

Supt. H. D. Bentley of the Oklahoma Lane school, announces the regular monthly Victory Program at the school auditorium on Thursday evening of this week, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The complete program had not been arranged early this week, and Supt. Bentley said that most of evening would be given over to musical numbers. He also plans to have one or two speakers appear.

NEW MANAGER AT KEMP

C. G. Philip, who has been with the Kemp Lumber Company in Clovis for the past few weeks, has been temporarily assigned here as manager of the local yard to succeed Roy W. Bobst, deceased. Mr. Philip has been in the lumber business "most of my life", but insisted that his connection here would doubtless be only temporary. "I am just in charge until they can get somebody," he said.

LEAVES FOR ARMY

J. W. Miller, Parmer county registrant, left here Monday by bus for the reception center at Fort Sill, Okla., where he begins military training. Miller was scheduled to leave Thursday of last week with a group, but he had not recovered sufficiently from injuries received in a highway accident to make the trip at that time.

Miller was injured when two trucks collided eight miles north of here on Highway 60, as he was returning from Lubbock, where he had passed his Army physical.

Origin of 'Grenade'

The word grenade was taken from the French word for pomegranate, because of resemblance in shape to the fruit.

FSA Loans Available For Wells

Today, more than ever before in American history, food is needed.

Today, more than ever before in American history, a large part of the world looks to this country for food.

Much of this food can be grown in areas where water from underground sources can be tapped to supplement scant and erratic rainfall.

Through the Farm Security's water facilities program, loans can be made to farmers for drilling and equipping wells for livestock and domestic use and to irrigate up to one acre of garden land.

Farm Security's water facilities lending program also is available to low-income farmers for farmstead facilities, and in certain areas approved for irrigation, to drill wells and buy pumps and other equipment or to purchase water stock in existing irrigation companies.

Many existing farmstead water facilities can be repaired, enlarged or extended to make better use of water for livestock production, vegetable production, etc. FSA loans are available for these purposes.

"Uncle Sam," said Raleigh Middleton, rural rehabilitation supervisor in Parmer county, "cannot afford to miss any opportunity to increase the nation's food supply in 1943. We hope to increase production this year by making water available to livestock and food producers who otherwise could not attain maximum production."

Middleton said water facilities loans are made for a period of time to cover the life of the facility, or up to 20 years, at 3 percent interest. He invites all farmers and ranchers interested in improving water supplies to contact him at his office in the local courthouse.

THE MAVERICK

Issued by Farwell High School

FIRST GRADE

The most interesting thing in the first grade the past week was the Valentine box, which was almost as exciting as the Christmas tree.

We are studying Washington and Lincoln this month and are enjoying them very much. We give the flag salute quite well and almost know "America".

SECOND AND THIRD GRADE

James and Roy Middleton are new pupils in our room. They moved here last week from Lubbock.

We made a postoffice in our room with a box for each pupil. Valentines were mailed and sorted into individual boxes by mail clerks. Each one in the room will serve as mail clerk some time during the month.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE

Friday afternoon we had our Valentine party with 47 room members and some of our mothers and little brothers and sisters present. Carey Joe Magness was chairman of the party committee. Hazel Pretree, Mary Belle Aldridge, Jack Lindsey and Jerry Pool helped as co-chairmen.

We are glad to have with us Carol Middleton, who has been attending school in Lubbock. We had as a guest during the week Rosamond Booth's cousin, Mary Belle Perryman, also of Lubbock.

We extend our sympathy to our classmates, Margaret and Bob Bobst, who recently lost their father.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Freshman class has a new pupil, Waynelle Brown. She is from Friona and we are glad to have her.

Scandal I wonder who that junior boy is that invited Jeatonne to the banquet? Wonder if Muggins knows?

Tommie, who was the nice Valentine box of candy from, it couldn't be on the boy that was going to the Army, or could it?

What Freshman boy came to Dorothy Mae's party with lipstick on his face? Earl, who is the lucky girl?

J. W., we wonder if Peggy Cummings is as cute as Jeatonne? Why don't you show us her picture?

Earl, what has happened to you and Mary Latrille? Crash bang! what a bust up.

When Imogene moved she thought she was going to leave dear old Farwell High School, so she told everybody goodbye. Especially Chester T. Eh, Ches?

Walter, who is that girl you always sit behind in the study hall? Is it Tommie?

The freshmen hate to lose one of their members, La Honda Wells. La Honda, we have enjoyed your being in our class and hate to see you leave. We hope your future friends in California will like you as well as we do, and hope you will make friends quickly and have happiness in California.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

IT'S SPREAD-THE-BUTTER NOW!

COLLEGE STATION—This country's share-the-meat campaign necessarily is being followed by a spread-the-butter movement.

With 30 percent of the country's butter supplies consigned to the armed forces and with quantities of other fats in the fight, it is important that homemakers study the situation intelligently, says Hazel Phipps, specialist in food preparation for the A. & M. College Extension Service.

She explains that some fat is necessary to a complete diet, since it not only provides calories but performs other functions essential to health. There is fat in many foods, such as whole milk, meats, soy beans, nuts and avocados. Several fats contain one or more vitamins. Butter, for instance, contains Vitamin A.

Some fat makes a meal satisfying, the specialist says. And it gives richness and flavor to make many foods more appetizing.

Miss Phipps offers these suggestions for "spreading the butter". Serve butter thriftily and eat up all you get.

Use butter where it will taste best. Many people prefer to use it on bread. Others may want it for seasoning vegetables.

Store butter properly. Keep it tightly covered in a cold, dark place.

The specialist adds that butter will spread farther if it is creamed or slightly softened, not melted. Remember, she says, that fats fight on two fronts. "They are a food weapon to keep us fit and a material for munitions of war. Waste none."

Class Members Gather For Annual Banquet

Highlight of the social calendar so far as juniors and seniors of the Farwell school are concerned fell on Friday evening of last week, when the classes gathered to observe the annual banquet.

The Valentine motif was predominant in the banquet hall, with colors of red and white being featured. Bouquets of red and white carnations were arranged for table centerpieces, candy hearts were favors, and placecards were in the shape of Valentines.

Marilyn Claire Anderson presided at the table and offered the welcome, to which Twila Strickland responded. The class prophecy was read by Theda White, and the senior will be bestowed upon the juniors by Billie Louise Sharpe.

Those in attendance were Marilyn Anderson, Pete Booth, Irene Burgess, Mary Bobst, Jewel Dean Francis, Frank Ford, Theda White, Juanita Billington, Lavelle Hurst, Dove Hightower, Maxine Hughes, Peggy Williams, Tommie Ruth Shelley, Lucile Ramm, Pat Miles, Muggins Graham, Jack Knowles, Jeatonne Morris;

Remember this is Our War!

DON'T WORRY! THERE IS NO REAL FOOD SHORTAGE!

We still have plenty of meal to make corn bread, and it sells for 35c for ten pounds. Sometimes we have salt side to season with at about two bits a pound. You can get 3 pounds of choice dry beans for about two bits. Who can beat that for a good dinner?

For breakfast we have a 20 oz. package of pancake flour for ten cents. Syrup in half-gallon size for around 40c, and sometimes we have sliced bacon for 38c per pound. It lasts about 30 minutes on an extra dull day.

Do not let this so-called food shortage get you down. There is plenty of food, although the variety is limited.

We often think that the various rationing programs with which we must cooperate are a handicap. This may be true in certain instances, but we should always remember that our small difficulties here at home are rather insignificant to those being shared by our fighting men. We should also remember that rationing and price control have been instituted by our duly elected representatives for the good of the people as a whole. As I see the rationing and price control programs, they have three definite aims, which are (1) Assurance of adequate supply of food and clothing for our fighting men, (2) Assurance of a fair distribution of food and clothing for civilians; (3) Avoid pyramiding of prices which will cause a complete collapse of our economic structure after the war.

If our fighting men can face the hardships and dangers which they are facing every day for us, surely we can face a few difficulties in rationing and price control which are designed to insure them adequate supplies and to protect the principles for which they are fighting. I think you would probably be interested in a part of what Lt. Col. Evans F. Carlson said over the graves of members of his unit who fell on Guadalcanal between Nov. 4 and Dec. 4. Here it is:

"It is not given to us to know the process by which certain of us are chosen for sacrifice while others remain. * * * As I ponder the names of those we honor, it seems to me as if the most worthy among us are selected for separation in this way. * * * These comrades of ours have given convincing proof of their determination, their courage and their sincerity. They also loved life. Only yesterday their voices were heard among us as they joined in our songs, rejoiced over letters from home or rang out with lusty exuberance as they participated in contests of sport. But when the time came to face the enemy they did not flinch or hold back.

"What of the future of us who remain? Our course is clear. It is for us at this moment, with the memory of the sacrifices of our brothers still fresh, to dedicate again our hearts, our minds, and our bodies to the great task that lies ahead. * * * We must go further and dedicate ourselves also to the monumental task of assuring that the peace which follows this holocaust will be a just and equitable and conclusive peace. And beyond that lies the mission of making certain that the social order which we bequeath to our sons and daughters is truly based on the four freedoms for which these men died. Any resolution less than this will spell betrayal of the faith which these staunch comrades reposed in us."

What this soldier said of his fallen comrades is clearer than any reason I could give you for doing your part to make a rationing program work. As was said in an editorial of the New York Times, "These men were realists, as all must be under such circumstances. We might give them a thought some day soon, when we have bread but not quite enough butter, a motor car but not quite enough gasoline. They can teach us something if we are wise and humble enough to learn."

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for the week ending Feb. 13, 1943, were 20,571 compared with 20,966 for the same week in 1942. Cars received from connections totaled 12,350 compared with 8,422 for the same week in 1942. Total cars moved were 32,921 compared with 29,388 for the same week in 1942. Santa Fe handled a total of 32,901 cars in the preceding week of this year.

HAVE A CARE—FOR YOUR SHOES

By Elsie Cunningham
Home Demo. Agent
Extension Service, Texas A. & M.

With this nation rolling up its sleeves for a victory effort, clothing must last as well as tires and automobiles. That goes for shoes, too. Leather is so valuable as a wartime material that the government has taken a hand in conserving it for essential uses. The armed forces need shoes, belts, gloves, straps and other apparel. Civilians must have shoes, leather to repair shoes, and leather health articles such as braces and surgical supports.

Now that the government has rationed shoes and prohibited the use of leather in nonessential articles such as women's handbags, all of us will be wise to take care of the leather goods we have.

Lubricate leather to keep it soft, strong and pliant. For street or "best" shoes, polishing with shoe polish is all that's needed unless they get wet. If they do get wet, rub with a little castor oil—it's the only kind you can put shoe polish over.

Heavy shoes for farm work and gardening have to stand up under moisture and mud, day after day. Neat's foot-oil, castor oil, tallow, wool grease, or mixtures of these, slightly warm, should be put on the shoes with a soft cloth, then rubbed in thoroughly.

Many shoes come to an early end because they get wet and aren't properly dried. Shoes should be dried slowly, never in a hot place like an oven, or in front of an open fire.

This is the correct way to dry shoes: First, wash off all mud with a damp cloth and wipe the surface as dry as possible. Oil the shoe lightly all over with castor oil. Rub it in well with the palm of the hand. Then stuff the shoes with crumpled paper to hold them in shape and absorb the moisture from the inside. Set the shoes in a moderately warm place for several hours or overnight. Polish them when they're dry.

Leather handbags will last longer and look better if rubbed occasionally with a damp soapy cloth, dried, and waxed with some good floor wax. The wax preserves the color and will not stain your clothing if it is rubbed into the leather thoroughly.

Culling And Better Feeding Aids Herds

COLLEGE STATION—Herd culling and a better job of feeding and milking are progressive steps in solving the dairyman's twin problem of labor and feed.

The government does not expect dairymen to produce milk at a loss, says E. R. Eudaly, Extension Service dairyman, but it wants as much milk as each farm can produce. The only solution of one horn of the problem is to cull the cows to a number which can be handled with the labor available, he believes. To relieve the other half of the difficulty he suggests culling the herd and feeding the roughage available.

In some cases, the feed situation especially roughage, is hampering dairymen more than labor, he explains. In many cases a herd can be reduced in size and by doing a better job of feeding and milking as much or more milk can be obtained from the cows as formerly. The specialist does not recommend sending to market for slaughter culled cows still capable of profitable production. There is a market for such animals among farmers who want a cow or two for home milk production and those who want to buy a few to increase a herd. An unprofitable cow should be sold for slaughter, the dairyman will have to decide for himself when she reaches that stage. To help reach a definition, Eudaly offers this broad general rule: Where milk is being sold for manufacture a cow should produce an average of at least 175 lbs. butterfat a year to return a profit. In other instances, where milk is sold for drinking, a dairyman might make a little profit on a cow producing no more than 150 lbs. butterfat yearly.
