5-Inch Snow Brings First Winter Touch

The first real touch of winter weather struck here over the weekend when a five-inch blanket of snow covered the landscape over the entire region. The fall is reported general over all of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

The snow, first of the winter, began falling shortly after midnight Saturday and continued throughout most of Sunday. It followed a light rain, which on Friday deposited .23 of an inch of moisture.

The snow and rain will be of immeasurable benefit to wheat and barley fields in the area, but it put a very definite halt to harvesting operations which have been progressing at a very satisfactory pace during the past several weeks of clear weather.

The majority of farmers are still far behind with crop gathering; very few have finished gathering grain crops and only a limited number have completed threshing operations.

Wheat fields, which have never suffered for moisture since being planted last fall, will be greatly benefited by the moisture of the weekend. All early plantings are affording abundant grazing for hundreds of head of cattle, and prospects for good yields of wheat next summer were never more favorable at this time of year, farmers agree.

Holiday Dates Set For Local Schools

Students at both Texico and Farwell schools will enjoy one week's holiday during the Yuletide season, according to Supt. B. A. Rogers and Supt. J. T. Carter, who stated today that classes would be dismissed on Friday, Dec. 18 and resumed on Monday, Dec. 28.

Arrangements were made Monday at a faculty meeting held at Texico for an all-school Christmas program which will be given on Friday afternoon, the 18th, immediately preceding dismissal for the holidays.

Various classes of the school will take part in presenting the program, Supt. Rogers said, and at the conclusion treats will be given from a be-decked Christmas tree. In Farwell, the students will hold their Christmas exchange of gifts in their separate rooms, Supt. Carter has announced. However, there will be a grade school Christmas program at 11:30 Thursday, Dec. 17, to which all patrons of the school are cordially invited.

No community tree has been planned at either school.

Draft Board Passes On Classifications

The Parmer County Selective Service board was in session Sunday for the purpose of passing on classifications. During the session, 5 registrants were considered, with the following tabulations: Class 1-A, 4; class 1-C, 3; 2-C, 17; 3-A, 2; 3-B, 6; 3-C, 12; 4-F, 1; pending physical examinations, 9.

The nine registrants placed temporarily in 1-A and ordered to take their first physical exams are: Wm. Charles Preston, Wm. Robert Brand, Neil Eugene Talkington, Ernest Leroy Hughes, Robert Lee Douglas Jr., Robert Edward McGlothlin, John Eddy Bonds, Chester Morris Ivan, and Junior Dell Dodson.

CREWS AT WORK

Two Santa Fe crews are at work this week making improvements on local properties of the railroad company. An extra gang is stationed here, engaged in placing drain tile along the new grade recently built between Texico and Clovis.

The other crew is making replacements in the signal system in the local yards. A new signal plant is to be installed in the local station. The work is expected to last some six months, officials say.

Cotton Referendum Vote Comes Dec. 12

Nine voting boxes have been arranged in Parmer County for cotton farmers who on Saturday will vote "yes" or "no" on the cotton marketing quota referendum.

Polls will be open from 8:00 a. m. until 7:00 p. m. officials have announced, and polling places are conveniently located.

Locations of the various boxes are:

- Bovina, school house.
- Oklahoma Lane, school house.
- Farwell, first door east of AAA office.
- Midway, school house.
- Rhea, school house.
- Friena, school house.
- Black, school house.
- Lakeview, school house.

Plenty of Cotton

Supplies of cotton for both military and civilian use are sufficient to last two years but there is not nearly that much food. That's why Walter S. Menefee, chairman Parmer County AAA Committee, is asking all cotton farmers again to vote in the referendum.

Production of food and other scarce war crops should be of primary concern to all farmers this year for the same reason that making war materials has become the chief concern of manufacturers, the chairman said in explaining that companies which used to make automobiles and typewriters are now making airplanes and machine guns.

By holding cotton production within the limits of the nation's needs dwindling supplies of labor, machinery, chemicals, transportation and storage facilities can be used to the best advantage in producing such crops as peanuts, soybeans, pork, beef and poultry and dairy products.

"When the boys come back home, it would be pretty hard to explain to them why we kept on growing more cotton when they needed food and other things so badly. It's bad enough to be hungry but it's worse when you have to fight while your hungry," Menefee said.

Menefee went on to explain that insofar as possible applications for payment in connection with the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program will be segregated by communities, making it possible for farmers to sign applications when they visit the polling places Saturday.

VICTORY PROGRAM PLANNED

Faculty members of the Oklahoma Lane school are planning a Victory Program to be held in that auditorium Thursday night, Dec. 17, it is announced today by Supt. H. D. Bentley. The sale of war bonds and stamps will be featured during the evening. A complete program will be announced next week.

Child Dies From Injuries in Car Crash

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock for Willis Wayne Hedgecock, 20-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hedgecock, with Rev. W. C. Wright in charge assisted by Rev. Paul H. Tripp.

The child died in a Clovis hospital Sunday morning from injuries received in a three-car crash in West Texico early Saturday evening, in which seven other persons were injured.

Dr. T. L. Green, Muleshoe physician, was among those injured and is still confined in a Clovis hospital, where his injuries are described as critical. It is understood he is suffering with skull injuries and possibly a dislocated neck, as well as had lacerations about the face and head.

Also injured were Mr. and Mrs. Hedgecock, parents of the dead child; Dorothy Hedgecock, age 8; Florence Hedgecock, age 3; and Betty Ann Hedgecock, age 5. The mother and injured children were removed to the home of relatives near Tucumcari and the father was the only member of the family able to attend the funeral.

The Hedgecocks came to Farwell only a short time ago, and he has been employed as a laborer.

Police Investigate Crash
New Mexico State Police, who investigated the crash, reported that Dr. Green was driving east on Highway 60 when his car and a pick-up driven by J. E. Foreman of Texico, sideswiped. The Hedgecock car was traveling west behind the pickup and was struck by Dr. Green's auto when it went out of control following the collision with the Foreman pick-up.

Foreman was uninjured, but badly shaken and bruised. The two passenger cars were demolished while the pick-up was only slightly damaged. Reports are that State Police are still investigating the cause of the crash.

Many Subscriptions Expire During Month

Quite a number of statements have been mailed out to subscribers during the past week—and already, the response has been very gratifying.

The established custom of this newspaper in putting on a special Christmas offer will not be repeated this year. Costs of production have been rising steadily during the past several months which makes the special offer impossible. So if you are waiting for the Christmas special to be announced, forget it—there ain't gonna be none this year.

Renewals and new subscribers are being accepted at the regular rate of $1.50 per year while most weekly newspapers have advanced their prices to $2.00 and $2.50 per year.

Delinquent subscribers will be removed from the list January 1st.

Supplemental Ration Books Going Out

Gasoline ration books in the "B", "C", and "R" categories are being mailed out this week from the local ration office, entitling their holders to supplemental fuel rations.

Irene Gober, attache in the local office, stated that at present there were no figures available for release on the number of supplemental books issued, as "we are issuing them over the counter here and they are also going out in Friena."

To date, she added, the local office force is "pretty well up" on applications that have come in, and within the next few days "B" and "C" stickers may be expected to appear on Parmer county passenger cars. "R" books are issued for gasoline purchased expressly for non-way use, it was stated.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Clyde Perkins of the Oklahoma Lane community, underwent a major operation in an Amarillo hospital the past weekend. It is understood that she is convalescing.

NO DOPE ON STAMP

No information is available at the ration office regarding the No. 10 stamp. The stamp becomes valuable only when it is used for the purchase of a ration book. A complete program will be announced next week.

Carbon Monoxide Affects Twin Sisters

The timely arrival of their parents is believed to have saved the lives of Peggy June and Emma Jean 12-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rogers, in their home in Texico at noon Sunday.

When Mr. and Mrs. Rogers arrived home from church, both children were almost overcome by the deadly gas that saturated the entire house. They are believed to have been rescued just in the nick of time.

A physician was called immediately and after first aid treatment was administered the twins were rushed to a hospital in Clovis, where they were under treatment until Monday afternoon.

Find Children Overcome

Mrs. Rogers explained that she and her husband came home from church and she entered the house ahead of Mr. Rogers, who stopped in the garage to attend to an errand.

"When I entered the house I called and received no response—and I knew something was wrong." She then explained how she found Peggy June slumped in a living room chair and her sister lying down in one of the bedrooms, "giggling and crying in a hysterical manner."

She called to her husband but he did not respond and Mrs. Rogers picked up Peggy June and rushed her into the open again called Mr. Rogers, who came rushing in and removed Emma Jean from the bed into the open air. A physician was then called.

Birds' Nests Stop Flue

Bob Barton, attendant at the local gas company, investigated later and reported that a large accumulation of birds' nests was found in the flue that was used in venting the floor furnace in the room. There was no other fire in the building. Barton said that the clogged flue forced the fumes under the building, which in turn found their way through the floor into the house.

The twins are reported to be recovering satisfactorily today, but are not expected to resume their school duties until next week, the parents said.

Red Cross Shipment Goes From Parmer

Mrs. Minnie Aldridge, secretary of the Parmer County Chapter of the American Red Cross, reports that three boxes of garments have been shipped from the county during the past few days.

Included in the shipment were 78 hospital gowns, two baby quilts, two beanies, one pair socks, one sweater, two mufflers, one hospital quilt, one rug and 79 bathrobes, all the products of volunteer sewers.

No Christmas Lights On City Streets

No gaily colored Christmas lights will be strung down the streets of Texico-Farwell this year in observance of the Yuletide season.

Due to expense in stringing and maintaining lights, as well as the difficulty in securing workers for the job, it has been agreed that the decorations will be passed up.

Local stores likely will come out with a touch of Christmas decorations, and the usual house trees will be seen around town.

Youths To Register With Clerk of Board

Registration of 18-19-year old boys will begin at the office of the local board in Farwell Friday, Dec. 11, with Mrs. Bessie Lee Henneman, clerk, in charge.

All youths who reached their 18th birthday between July 1 1942 and Aug. 1, 1942, inclusive, will be registered during the week beginning Friday and ending Thursday, Dec. 17.

Those who attain their 18th birthday between Sept. 1, 1942 and Dec. 31, 1942, inclusive, will be registered during the week commencing Saturday, Dec. 26, and ending Thursday, Dec. 31.

During the remaining period of the war those who reach their 18th birthday on or after Jan. 1, 1943, will register on the day they attain such age. All registrations will be conducted at the office of the board in Farwell.

Boys away from home may register where they are and their cards will be forwarded to the office of their local boards.

Texico Ex-Student Banquet Is Cancelled

Joe Blair, president of the Texico Alumni Association, announced this week that the customary ex-student banquet will not be held at the high school this year.

"With both tire and gas rationing in effect we decided that it would be futile to attempt to gather the group together," Blair stated today, after officials had conferred on the advisability of holding the banquet.

Ordinarily, the banquet and get-together is held during the Christmas holidays, when a large majority of "exes" from distant points are in town.

Some fellow with nothing better to do has figured out that there are 293 ways of making change for a dollar.

Christmas Shopping Simplified by War Demands This Year

Done your Christmas shopping yet?

Well, don't look now, but you'd better rush it up, or the stores may be pretty well stripped when you finally make up your mind what to buy Aunt Sue and Cousin Ed and all the other assorted in-laws.

Despite the fact that merchants in larger cities have reported heavy rushes, due to an influx of workers, local merchants are not overstocking their Christmas goods this year, it is noticed after a check-up around town.

The first snow of the season, however, which fell here Sunday, has brought on a flurry of Yuletide buying, and shoppers are urged to make their selections early.

Things are somewhat simplified for a large number of lady shoppers this year since a good majority of the men are in some arm of the service, and everybody knows that nothing is more appreciated by the boys away from home than some of Mother's cake or Sis's candy, whether or not the family has sugar at Christmastime.

And of course for those men away from home, practically all stores are displaying ties and swell knit socks in regulation colors. Probably he smokes, so a carton of his favorites would not be amiss.

Stay-at-home Dad can look forward to some run-of-the-mill packages, but on the other hand, have you seen the glamorized shaving sets on display in assorted smells? And lives there a man with soul so dead that he wouldn't like to have his very own smoking stand or even just a new billfold to carry his allowance?

With women on the go more this year than ever before, it's liable to be a luggage Christmas for a goodly number. Or maybe she'd like some swanky house shoes or those other things known as "intimates" when she goes gadding.

Toilet articles are ever popular, no woman is really happy unless she

Men engaged in agriculture and production of livestock are to be given even more consideration in their present occupations in the future, it was revealed here this week through the local Selective Service office.

In addition to preference to be given farmers in the future, all men who have attained their 38th birthdays are now to be excluded from compulsory military service, a telegram from the State Office of Selective Service advises.

There has been a general "ease-up" on drafting essential farmers during the past few weeks, but in order to receive any consideration the registrant or his employer was required to have a fairly good-sized livestock and poultry lay-out. Until this week, no consideration has been given the farmer who produced only crops on his farm.

This led board members to point out that even though a farmer might have as high as 1,000 acres in cultivation, he was still not considered as contributing to the war effort for the very simple reason that he did not have sufficient livestock to justify a deferment.

Crops Now Counted

Under the old ruling, a prospective deferment seeker was required to have not less than eight war units and all these units were based on livestock and poultry. Under the new plan, a man is required to have a total of 16 war units to be eligible for deferred classification but his cultivated acres now are eligible for earning units in addition to the livestock and poultry he possesses.

Fifteen acres in cultivation in the crops commonly produced locally (except cotton) are required to earn one war unit. This scale applies to grain sorghums, wheat, rye, etc. but does not apply to short staple cotton, which has no war unit earning capacity. On the other hand, only five acres of corn are required for a war unit.

Generally speaking, the amount of livestock required to earn a single war unit has been stepped up. However, producing dairy cows are still accepted as a credit for a full war unit for each such cow.

In order to earn credits on cotton acreage, that produced must be classed as long staple, and it was the general opinion of board members that very little, if any, cotton of this type is produced in Parmer county.

Heavy Calls Expected

Also received this week at the office of the local board was information to the effect that volunteer enlistments are now "out of the picture". Which is interpreted to mean that henceforth all military calls will be handled direct through Selective Service. This is calculated to increase the tempo of inductions required on all local boards.

The December call for ten men from Parmer county was made in advance of the new orders and will have to be made as per induction orders already mailed from the office of the local board, with the exception of one man who is past his 38th birthday whose induction has been postponed. However, board members expressed the belief that

WAR changes a famous slogan

FOR THE DURATION, a famous and friendly slogan goes into retirement.

With gasoline being rationed to lengthen the calendar life of your tires and thus conserve the Nation's wartime stock-pile of rubber, we no longer invite you to Phillips-up with Phillips.

But you are still as welcome as ever at any Phillips 66 Service Station. The Phillips man is anxious to get and hold your business, even though your gasoline purchases are greatly reduced.

If anything, he is more anxious than ever to give you those pleasant, friendly services which make your car and your tires last longer and go farther. That is his way of showing his appreciation for your business. And more, he has pledged himself to "Keep 'em Rolling", as a patriotic duty.

In the meantime, hundreds of Phillips research workers and many thousands of production employees are speeding up their good work for victory. With Phillips vast resources of raw materials, their efforts have made the company one of the largest suppliers of 100 octane aviation gasoline to the Army Air Corps, the Navy, and the United Nations' air forces; have made the company an important participant in the U. S. synthetic rubber program.

Remember these facts, and drive in where you see the Orange and Black 66 Shield. That's where you get Phillips 66 Poly Gas and Phillips 66 Motor Oil . . . two famous products which are everything you can expect in times like these, when the needs of Uncle Sam's fighting forces naturally come first.

P.S. In place of our slogan at the bottom of this advertisement, we have placed a slogan that is yours, ours, and every American's.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Gober of the Oklahoma Lane community and a graduate of that school. He has also attended Texas Tech, in Lubbock. Gober volunteered into the Navy a short time ago and is stationed at the training camp near Savannah.

Walther Leaguers Have Farewell Gathering

Members of the Walther League of St. John's Lutheran Church, Lariat, gathered in the home of Albert Kube on Sunday night, tendering a farewell social to Paul Evans, who is volunteering for Air Corps service.

Preceding the social, a business meeting of the League was held, at which time Miss Lillymae Kaltwasser, Christian Knowledge chairman, gave a report on the Wheat Ridge Sanatorium film which was shown in the church Nov. 29. The offering amounted to $10.45. The window display committee, Misses Velma Kube and Lillymae Kaltwasser, reported their progress.

The society accepted the invitation to a Christmas social to be given in the J. A. Kaltwasser home, honoring their son, Private Walter, who will spend a few days' furlough with his parents and friends. He is stationed at Robins Field, Warner Robins, Ga.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to the social in honor of Paul Evans. Special feature of the evening was an "airplane ride" game. Refreshments were served by the honoree's mother, Mrs. Bert Stoval, and his aunt, Mrs. A. Kube.

Mrs. Johnnie Williams and Mrs. Garlon Harper directed the entertainment.

Members brought a number of Christmas packages which are to be given to the USO at Clovis for soldiers stationed in that city.

A refreshment plate was served by the hostess to Mesdames W. B. Hill, Johnnie Williams, Garlon A. Harper, Clyde Magness, E. E. Booth, T. A. McCuiston, Fred Kepley, A. D. Smith and W. H. Graham.

Tid-Bits »

Christmas is came,
Or maybe you knew.
Maybe you even
Saw the snow flew.

Dash to the stores
Your money will went
And you'll be wondering
How it was spent!

Freak of the week: Bess Mansfield, who is wondering what in the world to do with all her gas! Bess filled her tank to the brim the weekend before rationing went on, then had to stay in and nurse a wisdom tooth and now she's wondering how she'll have time off from work to use up what she has and her coupons before Jan. 21.

And Garlon Harper, county agent, reports the discovery of the year: what County Judge Lee Thompson does while at the courthouse. A tasty piece of embroidery on the judge's desk drew the attention of every worker in the building.

County Clerk D. K. Roberts admits that he isn't quite as young as he used to be. After playing basketball with some of the younger men about town for approximately an hour and a half Monday night, D. K. was scarcely able to navigate on Tuesday.

After months of stepping softly, Aubrey Brock was in Tuesday being very saucy to the draft board chairman. "Now that they've passed this 38-year business," Aubrey explains, "I don't have to pamper the draft board any more."

John Martin, down at the Triple A office, has decided that crime does not pay. Missing all Monday from the office, Martin was accosted on Tuesday with "Where've you been?" to which he just grinned and replied "I wouldn't ask you that with gas rationing on!" The questioner went on to say that he had had a full tank, too, and had traveled over the weekend, at which Martin finally admitted that he got caught in the snow, used up his full tank (put in before rationing)—but that wasn't all, he had to use the five-gallon can he had stored!

And one thing that has worried us all week. Jim Landrum, nightwatchman at Roberts Seed, was seen going to work the other evening with all his paraphenalia—including a pillow!

Embarrassing moment of a local reporter caused a good laugh the first of the week when it was discovered that the gasoline ration book bore the 1941 car license number rather than the current one, which would have made things rather rough had the holder decided to buy gas while out of town.

Church officials of the Methodist Church were discussing a social at which they proposed to serve coffee. One member said slowly that he "had a little extra coffee", another came in with the same remark, and finally one bold one said, "Well, just to be frank boys I've got some hoarded coffee too."

Celebrates Birthday

Little Lavoyda Billington celebrated her sixth birthday last Thursday evening with a party. Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mariella Doose, Pudge Rose, Jim Billington, Jerry and Gay Malone, Zena Ann Merrill, Betty Hillhouse, Garland Bryan, Katherine Billington and Lavoyda Billington.

He had been stationed at Pearl Harbor for two years, and Mrs. Glasscock is of the opinion he has been seeing "plenty of action". Excerpts from the letter are given below:

"I could tell you a lot of things that have happened in the last 3½ months but I don't think you would like to hear some of them and it would never pass the censor, anyhow. That Jap report you heard that our ship was sunk was certainly false. I don't believe they can sink her now after what she's been thru. And don't worry about me, I don't think they can get me either."

Groups May Apply For Extra Sugar

Christmas goodies to boys in service need not be skipped this year because of sugar rationing, Chairman John Armstrong of the Parmer County Board pointed out today.

Special provisions have been set up to allow extra sugar to any club, organization or group of women who plan to fix up boxes of candy, cookies, cakes, etc. to be sent to members in any branch of the service.

A representative of the group may make application at the local board office for the sugar and no limit is set on the amount that will be issued. "We'll allow them all they'll use," was Armstrong's cryptic comment.

It is not required that the group be organized for any length of time. Several women or girls may band together with the idea of preparing goodies for service men and may apply for the needed sugar, Armstrong said today.

Clovis Teams Will Play Here Friday

First and second strings of the Clovis high school will challenge the Texico players on Friday night of this week, when two of the few basketball games of the season will be played in the local gymnasium.

Coach C. E. Sanders, in reviewing the situation this week, stated that he gave his boys a fair chance providing they are all eligible by game time. Several students who have been out of school during harvest are behind in class work, it was pointed out, with make-up necessary before Friday.

Clovis recently lost to Grady, it is reported, and the fact that the Grady squad is composed mainly of small and more or less "green" players gives the locals a bright side to gaze on.

Second stringers will start the evening, the game to be called at 7:30, and regular admission prices will be charged.

Oldsters Have Sport Night At Local Gym

A sports club of business men—both employers and employees—of the Twin Cities was instigated at Farwell on Monday night, when a group of local men met at the gymnasium.

Supt. J. T. Carter states that the gym will be available for such gatherings on Monday night of each week and is urging that all men interested be on hand by 7:30.

Games of any and all types will be arranged, including badminton, shuffleboard, table tennis, basketball and volleyball. "Since gas rationing means more nights in home towns, it is hoped that this will provide a recreation period for local men," Carter said.

New Process

More new processes in the manufacture of gasoline have been developed during the past decade than in any other similar period in the history of the petroleum industry.

Vacancies Open For Prospective Workers

War production industry needs men and women in aircraft sheet metal and riveting, machine tool operations and electric arc welding. Courses for training for these jobs are given by the Vocational Education Department of the Clovis high school, and there are immediate vacancies in all of the courses for both men and women to take the place of those who have completed training and have gone into employment.

Upon completion of the course, the trainee is given a certificate recognized by war production industry and by the War Department. Jobs are available all over the United States.

The courses are without cost to the trainee. Those willing to take advantage of this opportunity may apply at 720 Pile, Clovis, or telephone 878-M and call for Alice Maddox, or contact Carl A. Miller, local director or any of the war production training instructors.

Good Record Must Be Kept, OPA Orders

Records of virtually all foods served in boarding houses, restaurants, hotels, clubs, hospitals and institutions in the month of December must be kept for later use by the OPA, Chairman John Armstrong of the Farmer Ration Board, said today.

The Board has now received copies of precise instructions as to records which such institutional users of food must keep in December and such records will be required of all such users after Dec. 31.

"The OPA has explained that the facts are necessary so it may have accurate information as to the effect of current rationing programs on meal service and on use of foods not rationed," Armstrong said. "It is expected that valuable information especially will be provided on present coffee and sugar rationing programs."

Exact information to be kept during December includes: (1) number persons served in month, each counted separately every time he eats a meal; (2) gross dollar revenue from service of food and non-alcoholic beverages; (3) quantity of each of a number of specified foods used during December; (4) quantity of each of the specified foods on hand at close of business Dec. 31.

Foods for which records are to be kept in total pounds used are: sugar, coffee, butter, poultry, meats—including canned and edible parts such as livers, hearts and kidneys. Meats are to be listed separately by pounds for beef, pork, veal, lamb and mutton; sausage, scrapple, luncheon meats, etc.; and canned fish. The list continues with cheese, except cottage cheese pot cheese and bakers' cheese; margarine; lard and compound shortening; cooking and salad oil; canned soup; canned vegetables and fruits; canned fruit and vegetable juices; commercially frozen fruits and vegetables; dried or dehydrated fruits; dried peas and beans; canned, evaporated and condensed milk.

Foods for which records must be kept in gallons include fresh milk, fresh cream and ice cream.

The weight of canned foods can be the weight given on labels. Canned fruits and vegetables include all those in tins, jars or bottles. Catsup and chili sauce should be included, but not olives, pickles, jams and jellies.

County Agent News

One of the greatest needs for improvement in the agriculture of Parmer County is in dairying. Most of our farms have some type of dairy cows and the number on each farm ranges from one or two to 25 or 30. It is true that many of our dairy herds are of good quality but the majority of the "milk cows" of Parmer County are what would be termed "boarders" by any first class dairyman. Right now dairying is paying those farmers who own cows which will produce. Right now dairy products are needed badly in food to win the war. For these reasons, right now is the proper time to start a long time improvement program in the dairy industry of Parmer County.

Any livestock improvement program must be based first on the proper care of the animals now on the farms and second, on improvement of the type of animal on the farm by the use of better sires and foundation female animals. Those farmers who have only one or two cows cannot afford to keep a bull of any kind much less a purebred bull from approved and tested cows. But a group of these men can afford to buy a bull cooperatively and even buy one of high quality. This sort of arrangement is known as a bull circle. In one community a group of farmers go together and buy a bull of known ability to get calves which will produce more milk. The same thing happens in several other communities in the county. When a bull has been kept in one community until he has daughters old enough to breed then that community can trade sires with another community. In this way a bull of proven quality can be kept for a long time.

Such an arrangement will call for organization. It will call for the designation of one farmer in each community to keep and care for the bull and be paid for the job. But it will mean a great improvement in the type of dairy cattle you will have on your farms and it will be at a lower cost than you could possibly have in keeping even a scrub bull all alone on your farm.

Let's not use a scrub bull and lower our quality of dairy cattle so long as the job can be done so much easier this way. How about coming in and talking this situation over? You will be surprised just how easy it will be to do this improvement.

For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the terms of Selective Service with reference to the use of numerals and letters used in classification of registrants, Mrs. Mrs. Bessie Lee Henneman, clerk of the local board, this week prepared a complete list of the classifications and they are published herewith for the benefit of public information.

Cards mailed out this week to local registrants have been confusing to many for the reason that two classifications, II-C and III-C, have been recently added to the list.

Here is a list of the classification codes now used in connection with Selective Service. Clip it out for future reference.

I-A—available for military service after first physical examination.

I-AO—Conscientious objector, available for non-combatant military service.

II-A—Necessary man in active support of the war effort.

II-B—Necessary man in actual war production.

II-C—Necessary man in agriculture without dependents.

III-A—Deferred by reason of dependency only.

III-B—Deferred by reason of dependency and activity.

III-C—Necessary man in agriculture with dependents.

IV-H—Man between 38 and 45 years old, not subject to compulsory military training.

IV-D—Minister of the gospel or in preparation therefore.

IV-E—Conscientious objector available for work of national importance.

IV-F—Morally, mentally or physically unfit for military service.

I-C—Man already in military training.

Farmers Favored

The January call would likely be quite heavy in view of the suspension of voluntary enlistments.

The question naturally arises: With all men over 38 being set aside and deferred classification expected to be given farmers and farm hands, how are these anticipated heavy calls to be filled?

This question led board members to explain that it appeared likely that most of the calls for the next few quotas would have to come from the ranks of the young men registering this month and those who have already been classified in I-A. Among these, too, it was admitted that there may be many who can qualify as necessary men, in which case they will not be called for military training unless present regulations are changed.
