

Every Day Fishing Day in Maine

Father and son admire their catch, a nice string of salmon. Father and son teams are becoming quite popular in the Maine forests and lakes, where sports enthusiasts are giving their sons an early start in the pleasures of hunting and fishing. Young Joe deserves as much credit for the catch as does his father.

Conservation Work For 1946 Outlined

Following the recent allocation of $168,400 to Parmer County for use in paying approved practices under the Agricultural Conservation program, county committeemen have set up a budget under which conservation practices will be paid in 1946, John Martin, AAA supervisor, reported this week.

The 1946 program has one wide divergence from previous years, he said, viz: In the past, farmers carried out various soil building and conserving practices and then applied for payment, with no specific pro rata of funds being made before the practices were followed. In 1946, each approved practice for Parmer County is entitled to so much of the county funds, and this amount will not be exceeded. To be eligible for payment on any practice, Martin said definitely, a farmer must have prior approval of the committee before the work is done, and the application for payment okayed.

"Through this means," Martin explained, "a record can be kept as to the amount approved for each practice, and when that maximum has been reached, no other applications for that particular work will be approved for 1946 payment."

Contour listing of crop land, contour farming of entailed crops, and contour seeding of drill crops are the largest-paying items on the budget drawn up.

The complete list of practices approved, the goal set, amount of money allotted, and percent of the total allotment follow:

- Terracing, 5,500 linear feet, $5,250; 3.12 percent of total.
- Diversionary terracing, 31,575 cubic yards, $2,526; .50 percent.
- Construction of earthen dams, 12,630 cubic yards; $1263; .75 per cent.
- Drilling stock water wells, 3,368 feet; $6,736; 4.00 percent.
- Contour chiseling non-crop land, 33,000,680 feet; $5,052; 3 percent.
- Strip-cropping on contour, 2,526 acres; $2,626; 1.5 percent.
- Strip cropping not on contour, 1,684 acres; $842; .50 percent.
- Contour listing on summer-fallow, 11,555 acres; $8,591.25; 5.15 percent.
- Flat or straight-listed summer-fallow, 10,104 acres; $5,052; 3 percent.
- Contour listing of crop land, 123,500 acres; $37,050; 22 percent.
- Contour farming entailed crops, 64,654 acres, $48,490.50; 28.79 per cent.
- Contour seeding of drill crops, 135,000 acres; $33,750; 20.04 per cent.
- Pit cultivation, 1,480 acres; $1,684; 1 per cent.
- Leaving stubble on fields, 20,000 acres; $7,000 4.16 per cent.
- Seeding crested wheat grass, 2,243 pounds, $400.14; .24 per cent.
- Seeding Buffalo grass (in burr), 243 pounds, $155.52; .09 per cent.
- Application of 20 per cent super phosphate, 1717 cwt.; $1871.53; 1.1 per cent.
- Contour binder planting, 16 acres; $160; .10 per cent.

In making the list public, Martin revealed that he expected more difficulty in securing approved practices to secure the full county allotment, saying "only in 1944 did the county ever draw as much money for conservation as we are allotted this year".

Too many girls show everything but common sense.

Fickle Public Is Still Fickle

Proving the old adage that what people can get they don't want, Bill Hall was laughing this week about what happened at his meat counter when rationing was ended on meat last week.

"There was a swarm of women around talking points," he grinned "when somebody stuck his head in the door and announced that rationing was over. . . . and do you know those women melted away without buying a thing!"

"Look at that shelf," he continued, "a few weeks ago people ate me out every day because I didn't have any canned corn—now I've got stacks of it, and hardly sell a can."

Levy Starts Street Work in Farwell

County Commissioner T. E. Levy has begun a series of street improvement work in Farwell, which he says will last for several days.

Caliche material is being brought in from the pit north of town and fills are being made on First street west of the Security State Bank. Other fills he said will be made where necessary, he said, explaining that the topping surface of caliche on the streets here had been worn off to the rock base, necessitating new material to cover the exposed base.

He has equipped a 20-ton roller to use on the job as well as other road work in this precinct.

Leaves For Chicago On November 29th

C. W. Grissom, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Grissom of the Oklahoma Lane community, will leave on Thursday, November 29th, for Dallas, where he will join a group of Texas boys making the trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, convening in Chicago on December 2.

Grissom is making the trip through the courtesy of the Santa Fe Railway, which annually sponsors a 4-H contest in which winners receive a trip to the Congress, with all expenses paid by the Santa Fe.

At a special program held in the Oklahoma Lane school last Wednesday afternoon at 3:30, Grissom was presented with his certificate of award by L. J. Cassell, representative of the Santa Fe, from Amarillo. A large crowd of parents and students were on hand for the short program, County Agent Lee McElroy said today.

When the Texas winners gather in Dallas, a special car will be made up by the Santa Fe, in which they will travel to Chicago. The Congress adjourns on December 6th.

INOCULATIONS GIVEN AT TEXICO SCHOOL

Dr. Newman and Mrs. Gladys Haws, representing the district health office which serves Curry county schools, were at the Texico school on Monday of this week.

The health officials administered inoculation shots for diphtheria and smallpox, Supt. B. A. Rogers said today, adding that a number of diphtheria cases had been reported in the Texico district.

Local Captain Sits In On Nazi Hearings

Capt. Jesse Landrum, who will turn in his bars for a civilian rating at the end of his terminal leave (early next year), arrived home the past week, after spending a year in the European theatre.

Landrum had one of the most unusual jobs of any local boy, having served with the staff of the United States Chief of Counsel, Justice Marshall, as a court reporter during the trials of arch Nazi war criminals.

In speaking of this phase of his work, Capt. Landrum explained that he did not sit in on the actual trials, but took testimony from the prisoners during the interrogations preceding the trials. He sat in on 13 such interviews before he was relieved and sent back to the States—including Goering, Ribbentrop, Godt, Streiker and Ley.

"Goering was quite deflated," Jesse grinned, "he came shuffling in like an old lion, with his head down on his chest, but the others were in their uniforms with the ribbons plastered all over them. . . . clean shaven, hair cropped close, and quite military."

Questioned as to the testimony of the Germans, the local boy said, "they talked freely, but I don't think they told much that would incriminate them," indicating that details came out later in the trials.

During this period, Landrum was stationed at Nuernberg, and "we had quite a set-up there. . . . they tried to fix things up for the big shots and we all benefited. . . . lived in the Grand Hotel for a time, then they took over private homes for billets. . . . hot water. . . . even bus service down to the courthouse."

Before going to France and Germany on his last job, Landrum spent five months in Italy, serving with OSS, the outfit that sent supplies to the partisans behind enemy lines, as well as planting a few well-chosen men to assist in sabotage operations. "Of course, I was back doing the paper work, but it was really an interesting job," he said.

Leaving the States last November he landed at Naples, Italy on Christmas Eve, after a 24-day crossing during which he was "plenty seasick". The OSS group to which he was attached engineered the surrender in Italy, he said, adding that he visited many Italian cities, and was in Venice on V-E day. "That is a beautiful place, all the gondolas and canals. . . . Milan is nice, too, and Rome, but lots of the places were so filthy." He was also in Paris for several weeks.

He plans to return to his job as court reporter at Laguna, near El Paso, but expects to remain with his wife and the twins in Farwell through the coming Christmas season. Landrum spent four years in service.

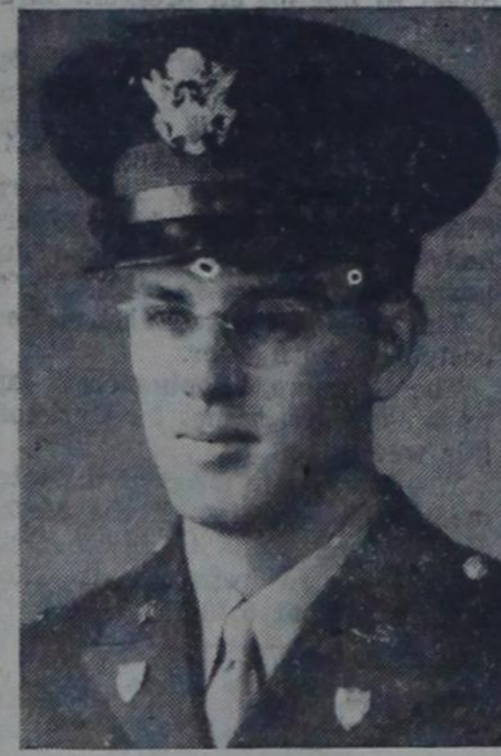

Parmer Among Top In War Chest Campaign

In figures just released by the state office of the United War Chest, Parmer County is tenth on the list of the 254 counties in Texas. Further proof that Parmer made an enviable record in the recent drive is shown by the standing of the counties in Region 18, which places this county in third place.

Randall leads Region 18 with 191.5 of its goal, to be followed by Oldham at 123.1. Parmer County topped its quota by 116.7. Potter (Amarillo) is at the bottom of the list in Region 18, with only 22.2 percent of its quota being subscribed.

Taking into account a credit Parmer county had for oversubscribing its quota in the two previous drives, this county raised a total of $3571.50 against an assigned quota of $3037. H. Y. Overstreet acted as chairman of the drive in this county and had the assistance of competent workers.

Someone has said that we're only sure of two things, death and taxes. Anyway, the death rate doesn't increase every time Congress meets.

No Takers Found For Free Tire

Bill Moss, local service station operator, advertised a free tire last Saturday, to the first customer who drove a car the tire would fit.

"We had lots of customers, but we still have the tire," Bill reported Monday.

And no wonder! He rolled the tire from a rear room—a brand new Goodrich Silvertown—size 35x4 1/2. The tire is said to have become obsolete in 1923.

New Business Building Planned For Farwell

D. K. Roberts and Walter Hardage have purchased the building and lots of Ray Ford, where his produce business has been operated the past few years.

They announced today that plans were under consideration for the erection of a new and larger building on the site, which will be used to house their tire and auto accessory business.

As a result of the deal, the Ford Produce Company passes from the scene of action, and Bert McClure, who has operated the business, said today that he has no definite plans for the future.

Committee Elections Slated By Triple A

Parmer County farmers will take time out from seasonal work in the next two weeks to elect AAA community and county committeemen for the coming year.

Three committeemen and two alternates, as well as a delegate to the county convention, will be chosen in each of the county's nine farming communities. The delegates will later elect the three-man committee which will administer Triple A activities within the county.

Chairman W. M. Sherley, of the county AAA committee, said today that dates, hours, and places for holding the annual election are now being determined. Announcement will be made within the next few days.

In Parmer County, Sherley said, approximately 850 farmers are eligible to vote on committeemen this year. "Eligible" farmers are those who participate in the 1945 agricultural conservation, flaxseed payment, sugar or crop insurance program.

"Solution of the postwar problems ahead of us is the vital concern of every farmer. Consequently, it is to his own best interest to vote in the coming elections, to make sure that the men administering AAA programs are the ones he wants to represent him," the chairman said, appealing for full participation in the coming election.

Parmer County has exceeded its quota in the purchase of bonds in one phase of the Victory Loan Drive, but is still lagging far short of the E Bond goal. Chairman G. D. Anderson of the War Finance Committee, revealed here today.

Anderson said that purchases of F and G Bonds and Treasury Certificates in this county had amounted to $88,250.00 against a quota of $80,000.00.

"But we are still far from our E Bond quota," he sighed, going on to say that to date Parmer has sold only about twenty percent of its assigned quota. Figures compiled by the War Finance Chairman show that only $17,637.50 in E Bond sales have been made during the present drive. The county has been asked to sell $85,000.00 of this series.

Anderson said that most of the difficulty now in placing E bonds lies in the fact that many of the best bond buyers of the county have already purchased their limit of this series and consequently were shifting their purchases to other series.

Explains Misunderstanding
Explaining a slight misunderstanding to the limit in E Bond purchases, Anderson said that while it is a fact that individuals are limited to $5000 in such bonds during any calendar year, it is also true that individuals may purchase the limit for each member of his family. "As long as the purchaser is listed as a co-owner, he can claim them as his own and cash them," Anderson explained.

Calling attention to the fast-approaching deadline, he said that only little more than a week remains to put this county over the top in the present drive.

Former County Judge Dies at San Antonio

Walter Lander, county judge of Parmer County from 1935 to 1939, passed away at his home in San Antonio, last Tuesday night, November 20th, according to a telegram received here from Charles W. Lander.

Judge Lander was a resident of this county for a number of years, first holding office as county treasurer, from 1933 to 1935, after which he was elected to the position of county judge and held that office for two terms.

He moved to San Antonio shortly after going out of office in 1939 and had made his home there since that time.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday in San Antonio, with burial in that city. Lander's wife passed away before he left Farwell, and of his immediate family he is survived by a daughter, Elizabeth, whose married name is not known here.

Fall From Truck Puts Williams in Hospital

Johnnie Williams, prominent and successful farmer of the West Camp Community, was rushed to a Clovis hospital, Tuesday forenoon, suffering from injuries received when he fell from atop a truck of bundle feed while working in his field.

An examination revealed that the sixth vertebra in his spine was fractured, and he will likely be confined to the hospital for some time.

With the assistance of a driver of the truck, Williams was gathering bundles from his field when the accident happened. It is believed that he lost his balance and fell over the cab as the truck was being driven in the field.

HUGHES DISMISSED FROM HOSPITAL

Jim Hughes, local citizen who has been receiving treatment in a Clovis hospital the past five weeks, was dismissed Monday and permitted to return to his home here.

Hughes got his right hand caught in a circular saw at the Houston Brothers lumber yard some time ago and suffered the loss of the thumb and the first two fingers from the injured hand. He underwent two operations while in the hospital.

He said Tuesday that he was feeling well and was regaining his strength rapidly.

Letting of the contract for the construction of approximately 26 miles of black-topping on Highway 86, extending from Bovina to the Castro County line, may be expected during the next few days, in the opinion of County Judge A. D. Smith, who stated today that he believes advertising for bids on the project can be expected at any time.

Judge Smith said Highway Resident Engineer W. H. Garrett was here a few days ago from his Lubbock office, making all the preliminary arrangements looking toward advertising for bids.

Judge Smith also said that as yet only one small right-of-way detail remains to be settled. No definite agreement has been reached with E. W. Culler for about one-tenth of an acre of land on the corner of his farm, where the highway routing will slice a small corner off his holdings. "However," Judge Smith explained, "we are proceeding with our plans to open the right-of-way, and if no agreement can be reached with Culler, condemnation proceedings will be instituted." He added that such proceedings would not delay the actual letting of the contract for the construction of the road.

"We plan to go right ahead with our part of providing the right-of-way and if the land has to be condemned, that can be settled later," he said.

The Texas Highway Department announced only recently that they were ready to pave Highway 86 from Bovina to the Castro County line when this county furnished the necessary right-of-way.

Students Not Required To Take Physicals

A new ruling in Selective Service regulations was received here the first of the week, which does away with the necessity of young registrants who are actually in school being required to take pre-induction physical examinations, as has been required in the past.

The registrant, however, will be required to show that he is actually enrolled in school and making satisfactory grades, and furthermore, he is required to make a written request for postponement of such physical until the end of the school term.

It was suggested at the office of the local board that, hereafter when 18-year-old students are registering, they make application for postponement of their physical at that time.

Under the present regulations, students may be postponed until they have graduated from high school or attained their 20th birthday, whichever comes first.

Graham Resigns As Draft Chairman

W. H. Graham of this city, today tendered his resignation to Gen. J. Watt Page as a member of the Parmer County Selective Service Board, asking to be relieved at once.

In offering his resignation, Graham said that he did not feel that he could conscientiously continue to be instrumental in drafting young men for the armed forces since the actual hostilities are at an end.

He said he would tender his resignation to the local board at its next meeting. Graham is the oldest member in service of the local board, having served as chairman since Selective Service became a law in September of 1940.

SMALL FIRE AT BOVINA

Coyotes Killing Sheep And Cattle in Co.

The Hardage Brothers of this city have been on numerous coyote chases with their pack of hounds the past few weeks, trying to cut down the depredations of a number of large coyotes that have been killing sheep and young calves in the county.

During recent weeks, they have succeeded in ridding the county of several of the killers that have been preying on livestock.

The heaviest livestock loss is reported in the Lazbuddy section, where Bill Sherley is understood to have lost about 35 head of sheep. The most recent outbreak occurred just east of Farwell, where Gene Lovelace is reported to have lost five young calves during the past few days.

The Hardage boys, with their dogs, are scheduled to go after that killer today.

Some Like It Hot... Some Like It Cold

COLLEGE STATION—To the rule that salad dressing should be added cold and at the last minute, Miss Edith Lawrence, specialist in food preparation for the Extension Service, says there are two familiar exceptions—potato salad and cole slaw, which are often "hot dressed".

These salads may well appear more often in family meals this winter, she suggests, because cabbage and potatoes are in such abundant supply. Housewives may be especially interested in different ways of preparing them.

One way to make the old favorite, potato salad, is to add hot dressing and a little minced onion to diced cooked potatoes. Then chill the mixture, and add chopped green pepper, celery or dill pickle, as desired. Some cooks believe this hot dressing penetrates the potato better and adds flavor to the salad; others prefer to use a cold dressing adding chopped onion and perhaps sliced hardboiled eggs. Still another potato salad is made hot and served hot. Enough to serve six people is prepared by cooking 3-4 cup of diced salt pork until crisp, then adding 1/4 cup each of vinegar and water, 1 chopped onion, 1 quart diced cooked potatoes, salt and pepper. Heat well and serve.

Cabbage salad may be hot dressed or cold dressed, depending on whether a wilted or a crisp slaw is wanted. Some cole slaw epicures prefer the wilted shredded cabbage made with hot dressing; those who want their cabbage crisp, add cold dressing just before serving. For cole slaw many people like a sweet-sour cooked dressing, well seasoned with mustard and celery seed.

By the way, "cole" is derived from an ancient word for cabbage, and "slaw" is an old word for salad. Therefore, the term, "cole slaw" is correct for cabbage salad, not "cold slaw".

WT Closes Hectic Football Season

CANYON—West Texas State's most hectic football season is over. The second comeback year for the Panhandle-Plains college produced two wins and six defeats, but that is only part of the story.

In defeat, the Buffaloes were supported by students and fans with an enthusiasm born of the realization that the smallish squad was tackling bigger, heavier and better manned teams every week. The Buffs have been warmly praised by President J. A. Hill and by Coach W. A. (Gus) Miller and W. W. Nicklaus for never having given up despite the odds. And in their final game at Colorado College, the locals were brilliant on offense despite a 19-20 loss.

The season's record: West Texas 56; ENMC 7. WT 0; Baylor 32. WT 0; Tulsa 32. WT 0; New Mexico U. 13. WT 12; Amarillo AAF 21. WT 6; Texas Tech 12. WT 21; Dalhart AAF 0. WT 19; Colorado College 20. Totals, WT 114; opponents 137.

The loose-leaf system dates back to the Garden of Eden.

That's Phillips 66

The Honest Oil—from deep in the heart of Oklahoma!

Mister, when all that's between you and no car at all is a thin film of oil—you want an oil that will stand up and not lay down!

You want an oil that's tough and strong as a red-eyed, rip-snorting bull!

Well, Mother Nature was a long time making this oil deep in the heart of Oklahoma, but what she made was rugged! Rugged enough to take the grinding, pounding punishment those engine parts get.

Not many folks can improve on Mother Nature. That's why we pump this lubricant from the heart of the finest oil lands... give it some special refining—and that's all! It's a natural alright! All its God-given lubricating qualities are unimpaired!

Why not keep an oil in your engine you can be sure about. Next time you see that Orange-and-Black "66" sign drive in and tell the man, "Fill 'er full o' Phillips!"

You won't find a more honest, natural lubricating oil in America!

"Fill 'er Full o' Phillips!"

Railroads Seek Purchase Of Pullman Company

Twenty-seven railroads of the United States, representing 150,000 miles or 81 per cent of all sleeping car service, are seeking purchase of the Pullman Company for approximately $75,000,000, planning to operate necessary sleeping car service for themselves and any other railroads desiring the service.

Of the four groups seeking to purchase the Pullman Company, the offer of the railroads is most acceptable to the company, and it so advised the Court in Philadelphia, which will hold a hearing to pass on the Pullman recommendation about December 10.

The railroads are primarily responsible for furnishing of sleeping car service on their lines, with the Pullman Company a contractee. The Company does not operate sleeping cars on the several railroads, but its function has been to furnish cars and adequately man and maintain them. The railroad company makes the schedules and hauls the cars.

Subject to the control of regulatory commissions and to the needs of the traveling public, the quantity and quality of sleeping car service must be determined by the railroad company. There are a large number of railroads on which sleeping car service is conducted at an out-of-pocket loss. In these instances, generally speaking, the railroads are under necessity of making up to the Pullman Company the deficit in operating expenses, including depreciation charges. It is clear that the Pullman company not having the obligation to furnish sleeping car service on any particular railroad where such service is unprofitable, could not be expected to render that service unless operation cost was underwritten.

From a business point of view it does not seem the railroads can properly be denied the opportunity of owning and controlling the sleeping car business to be rendered on their lines. They must have the determination of the identity of the contractee, if any, and must be in position to determine the character and quantity of sleeping cars. Otherwise, the railroads are at the mercy of an outside organization which is imposed upon it against its will for the performance of one of its own functions.

The court, it is understood, has recognized that the railroads have a financial stake in the sleeping car business and that should support the belief that only by having the opportunity of controlling that business and its service on their lines can that stake be protected.

December Good Time To Plant New Orchard

COLLEGE STATION—December is a suitable time for planting a new fruit orchard in Texas. Accordingly, says J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist for the Extension Service, nursery stock should be ordered at once for delivery next month. Stock is scarce and orchardists should be prepared both for new plantings and for replacement of worn-out trees in the old orchard.

Rosborough suggests ordering a large variety of fruits for the home orchard and to consult county agents regarding adapted varieties. He suggests also that nursery stock be examined as soon as delivered. If it has knots or bead-like growths on the roots it should not be accepted. The roots of all plants chosen for the orchard should be kept moist and protected from heat. If it should be necessary to hold plants for several days before planting, trench or "heel" them in, and keep well watered.

In replacing old trees in the orchard, Rosborough advises replacing the soil which supported with new, rich sandy leaf mold to prevent possible disease attacks which may have caused the older tree to die. The site for the new orchard should be away from the older one and be free of nematode. "New" ground and air-pockets should be avoided. After these precautions, a well-drained sandy loam site, if available, is a very desirable choice. Of course, Rosborough adds, a site having a slight slope and near the house is no less desirable.

The last step before planting is preparing the soil, which first should be broken, disced and rowed. If terraces are necessary the trees should be planted on the contour. Give the terraces a slight fall if rainfall is heavy and drainage is needed, but run them level if moisture conservation is necessary.

Rosborough suggests following carefully the recommendations given in Extension Service publication B-73, "Orchard Management" in laying out and handling a young orchard.

WT Chapel Fund Still Growing

CANYON—President J. A. Hill of West Texas State reports that contributions to the college chapel building fund are coming in at an accelerated rate.

Latest large offer is a $500 gift from a Canyon woman, who wishes to be known only as a friend of the project. Dr. Hill is requesting that contributions be made as soon as possible by those who have expressed intentions of making them.

Hundreds of small gifts are being received. The completed chapel will be used for religious services, weddings, lectures, conferences, and similar purposes, but its program will not conflict with the schedules of local churches.

Research Bureau Offers Retail Trade Picture

AUSTIN—To the veteran (or others) wanting to go into business for himself, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has done a vast amount of basic research, which gives a picture of Texas retail trade, and a comparison with other states, which will serve as a background for any specific business he wants to enter, Mrs. Clara H. Lewis, editor, reports.

In five compact volumes, titled "Texas Retail Trade", available through the Bureau, any person interested in any phase of retail business in the state can find valuable statistics.

The data on retail trade has been made for a 10-year period, 1930 to 1940, and each of the five volumes contain information such as total retail sales, number of stores, number of employees, payrolls, stocks on hand, rank among all stores in the state, rank among all states in dollar value of sales, and a description of the trade.

Volume I, for example, contains data on 23 kinds of stores included in the "food group"—general stores with food, eating places, drinking places, drug stores, and liquor stores. These groups comprised 42,300 stores or 50.2 per cent of all retail stores in Texas in 1939 and accounted for $666,874,000 or 37 per cent of the retail sales.

Volume II contains the general merchandise group, apparel group, furniture, household and radio. The apparel group in Texas consists of 16 kinds of stores. Total sales in this group amounted to $109,093,000 or 6.05 per cent of the total retail sales in Texas for 1939.

Sales in stores in the general merchandise group in 1939 comprised 12.92 per cent of the total retail sales. The furniture-household-radio group includes eleven kinds of stores, and sales in 1939 amounted to $70,185,000.

Volume III contains retail trade statistics on the automotive group, filling stations, lumber-building group and hardware group.

"A study of data on these stores not only gives a picture of these kinds of businesses in Texas, but it also reveals much about Texas and its economy," Mrs. Lewis says.

"The rank of Texas in the number and sales of heating, plumbing and equipment dealers reflects both climate conditions and the still relatively large rural populations. As contrasted with this picture, Texas ranks second in number of lumber yards and third in sales of lumber, which is a strong reflection of the growth of the state and the shift of population from rural to urban centers.

"The importance and nature of agriculture and agricultural production in Texas is revealed in the relative number and sales of farm implement-tractor dealers," she added.

Other retail stores and second-hand stores are considered in Volume IV of the study. In the "other stores" group are fuel, ice and fuel-oil dealers, feed, farm and garden supply stores, jewelry stores and fioral shops.

Second-hand stores in Texas in 1939 totaled 1,781 stores with sales amounting to $8,443,000, or 47 per cent of the total retail sales.

Volume V contains a summary of the entire study.

Chairmen Are Named For Clothing Drive

More than 2900 men and women thus far have agreed to serve as local chairmen in their communities for the Victory Clothing Collection for overseas relief, scheduled for January 7-31, Henry J. Kaiser, national chairman for the drive, says.

Wisconsin leads the states with 237 acceptances, topping New York's 178. Texas is third with 163, Pennsylvania has 132, Illinois 131 and Nebraska, 127 chairmen.

The majority of these men and women organized their communities last spring in the collection of serviceable used clothing which furnished sorely needed garments to 25,000,000 war victims of Europe, China, and the Philippine Islands.

The goal of the January drive is 100,000,000 garments, in addition to shoes and bedding, for the needy and destitute in war-devastated lands. The collection is conducted on behalf of UNRRA.

The plot is based on the decision of a young—and single—doctor to adopt a mountain lad who has been left homeless, and the catch develops when "Charlie" arrives—a girl, actually named "Charlotte".

The play was originally scheduled for this week, but illness of one of the principal members of the cast caused postponement, director Tom Hudson said today.

The curtain will go up next Wednesday at 7:30, Texas time, and admission has been set at 20 and 35 cents.

Increase in Parcel Size To Army Overseas

An increase in the size and weight limitations on parcels which may be mailed to American troops stationed outside the continental limits of the United States became effective November 15, the War Department announced.

Under this relaxation of the overseas package size and weight limitations, it is now possible to mail packages (upon request from the soldier) up to 42 inches in length or 72 inches in length and girth combined, and 11 pounds in weight.

The former regulations held the weight down to 5 pounds, with size set at 36 inches in length and girth combined.

In making the announcement, the War Department pointed out that it is still necessary to have a specific request in writing from the soldier overseas in order to send any packages weighing in excess of eight ounces, the first-class weight limit on overseas mail. There has been no change in the policy with respect to sending such packages without a request.

Mrs. S. E. Morris and children visited the past weekend in Amarillo.

Mrs. A. J. Routh spent Tuesday visiting in Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith, of Clovis, visited with friends in this city, Sunday.

Farwell Cagesters Go To Bovina, Friday

Preliminary games for the Farwell and Bovina cage teams will be held Friday night of this week, when Bovina entertains the blue-and-white payers from the local school.

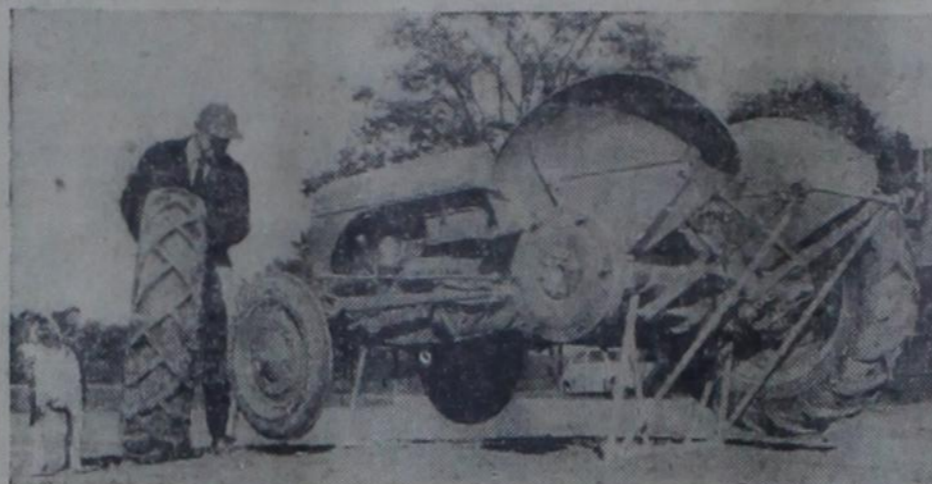

Coach Jack Williams, who directs the boys' activities, reported the first of the week that the games Friday night would not have any bearing on conference standing, as they are listed only form warm-up. Actual conference play for the year will begin on December 7th, when the Laz-buddy and Farwell teams lock horns.

The Farwell boys, conference or not, will be out to avenge a defeat which split the county championship in the spring tournament. Farwell, having beaten the best team in the tourney, was then upset by Bovina—and that was a loss the remaining lettermen are not likely to forget.

Both boys and girls, the latter being coached by Misses Ann Nabors and Berthamie Thomas, have been negotiating heavy practice workouts during the past three weeks, and coaches expect to see fairly smooth teams when their players take the floor, in spite of greenhands on the squads.

The self-lifting tractor is now a reality. It rises any height, up to four inches, virtually drawing itself up "by its own bootstraps." The lifting operation is accomplished by placing light tubular frames beneath the axles, connecting the rear to the two arms of a Ford-Ferguson tractor's hydraulic linkage and lightly touching the "finger-tip control" lever which is one feature of the Ferguson System. The entire operation takes less than one minute.

Texico, Pleasant Hill Divide Cage Honors

Opening the season with a bang, the Texico boys stepped off down the line to take their initial game over Pleasant Hill, last Wednesday night, with a final score of 20-7, while the local girls fought it out with Pleasant Hill to the final whistle, only to take a heartbreaking four-point loss, 25-29.

The boys, though far out in front of Pleasant Hill all the way, did below par playing. Coach C. E. Sanders reported this week, "We missed shots all over the place, and let the ball get away repeatedly," he said Tuesday, adding that two of his players slated for the game were out due to illness.

But Coach Tom Hudson was the sickest about his loss, which came to the girls in the final two minutes of play, after the teams had swapped leads off and on during the game. Flye, mainstay forward, went out on fouls at that time, and the Pleasant Hill squad grabbed the opportunity to push up and hold desperately to their lead.

Had the Texico guards been able to handle tall basket-wise Porter, the ending of the game might have been different, as a checkup of the scorebook shows that she took 23 of her team's points. Flye banged in 14 for Texico, while Baker and B. Brown assisted in the scoring.

Johnson led the Texico boys in their scoring spree, tossing in a total of 10. Only two field goals were racked up by the Pleasant Hill boys, one by Bocox and one by Holland, the latter adding a free toss to take high point honors for his team.

In a preliminary, the Texico boys went down before a tall fast-moving junior squad from Pleasant Hill, with the final tally at 8-21. Haynes took four of Texico's points, while Porter led the Pleasant Hill winners, with 14.

Oklahoma Lane Takes Two Over Farwell

Two Oklahoma Lane teams, showing improvement of former contests this season, dumped the local squads, Tuesday night, in the season opener at the Farwell gym.

The girls' score stood 12-17 at the end of the final period, but was not as interesting as the score might indicate, with both squads repeatedly missing shots and losing the ball on bad passes. The Farwell girls had possession of the ball in their forward zone a good portion of the time, but were unable to make their shots count, while the Oklahoma Lane players grabbed practically every opportunity to score.

Sudderth, of the Oklahoma Lane squad, led the scoring for the evening, while T. Randol, who shifted from forward to guard and back again, snagged 6 of the local points. Jones turned in a nice game at guard for the locals, while Meeks and Randol proved themselves as ball hustlers.

The Farwell boys started off the game by drawing first blood, with the visitors quickly retaliating to knot the score, and throughout the first period the count stayed tight. At the end of the third round, Farwell had lost a 6-point lead which had been carried at the half and the teams were within two points of each other, 17-19, but the last quarter told the tale—when Oklahoma Lane banged in several and pushed out ahead to win 27-24.

The boys loss could be blamed in one respect to the refusal of the men to break, with Williams and Ford doing practically all the goal shooting, which gave Oklahoma Lane an opportunity to set up an almost air-tight defense.

Young was the high man of the game, banging in five field goals from the corner for the winners, and adding a free toss, while Williams led Farwell with 10. The locals handled the ball nicely, but lost a number of points through failure to make their gratis tosses count.

Floyd, Ranchvale On Weekend Cage List

Opening home games for the season will be played at Texico on Friday night of this week, when two boys' teams from Floyd will visit here, Coach C. E. Sanders announced today.

Judging by standards of past years, Floyd will turn out a hard-playing, fast-breaking senior team, although it is too early in the season actually to predict much about the visiting squad—or the local one, for that matter.

Coach Sanders said on Tuesday that it was quite likely that Baldock and Fought would be out, both having been on the sick list the past several days.

On Saturday night, the Texico boys and girls will go to Ranchvale, the schedule shows, for games that are expected to be anything but easy.

The local girls are grimly going to a grudge fight, hoping to tumble a strong Ranchvale delegation which last year defeated them three times by one-or-two-point margins, while the boys hope to keep a clean slate.

The first game here Friday night will begin at 8 o'clock, Texas time, and admission will be 15c and 30c.

FAILURE AT LEVELLAND

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bozeman, who formerly lived here, were here this week from their present home at Levelland. Bozeman said he farmed 440 acres of land near Levelland this year "and never made a thing." They are considering moving back here the first of the year and taking over a farm they own near Oklahoma Lane school.
