8 Indictments By Grand Jury

Eight indictments were returned by members of the Parmer County grand jury Monday during the opening session of the October term of court. Three of the cases were tried by Judge E. A. Bills Tuesday morning and all of the defendants entered pleas of guilty and the jury was waived.

One indictment was against Willie Wolfe, Junior Parks, and Troy Bridgeman, for burglary of O. C. Pullam's Gulf Service Station in Farwell on February 12. The three pleaded guilty and were sentenced to serve two years in the state prison.

Robert Lee Burks, Hereford, was indicted and pled guilty to forgery and knowingly passing a forged instrument. He passed a check on J. W. Parmer of Friona on June 23. Burks also received two years in the penitentiary at Huntsville. Indicted for passing a worthless check was W. O. Carnes, Plainview. Entering a plea of guilty for passing such check in the amount of $301.00 to Ellis Tatum for a load of alfalfa on May 7, Carnes was sentenced to three years at the state prison. * * * *

Another indictment was against Paul Bush, formerly of Friona. Bush is presently out on bond and is being charged with the embezzlement of $122.50 from Parmer County Implement Company in Friona, the firm where he was formerly employed. The date for Bush's trial will be set later.

Four other indictments returned were two for burglary, one for forgery, and one for theft. The four cases will be tried in district court at a later date, according to Chas. Lovelace, Parmer County sheriff.

Several other cases were investigated by the grand jury, but no indictments were issued, pending further investigation, Lovelace says.

Texico FB Officers Are Re-Elected

All officers of the Texico Farm Bureau were re-elected for the coming year with the exception of Mrs. Olan Schlueter as reporter who requested that this office be filled by someone else. Mrs. Virgie Harding was elected to fill this position.

Other officers of the Texico organization include chairman, B. A. Rogers; vice-chairman, Clyde McDaniel; chairwoman, Mrs. Levi Reid; and secretary, James Gillean.

These officers were re-elected for their second term at a regular meeting of the group on Monday night, October 8, at the school lunchroom.

A chicken supper was served prior to the meeting and approximately 35 persons attended.

During the business session, Bill Reid of the Texico FFA Chapter gave a report of the FFA boys trip to the New Mexico State Fair at Albuquerque, N. M. Members of the local Chapter brought home several awards from the fair.

A report was also given on the Curry County Fair in which the local Farm Bureau booth was awarded second place.

Present to give talks on Farm Bureau were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Worrell, county chairman and county chairwoman, who announced that the county Farm Bureau meeting will be held on the evening of November 1 at Center, N. M. County officers will be elected at this meeting and it is hoped that a large delegation from the local Bureau will attend. New resolutions will also be adopted.

Next regular meeting of the local group will be on Monday night, November 12.

Steers to Lazbuddie

With both teams having had two weeks in which to make preparations, the Farwell Steers and the Lazbuddie Longhorns will lock horns at Lazbuddie Friday night. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The football meeting will be the first in history of the two schools and going into the game, the Steers of Coaches Russell Young and Shelby Jobs have a 3-0-1 record and Coach George Washington's Longhorns stand at 2-1.

This is Lazbuddie's first year for 11-man football and they hold wins over Friona B and New Home, and have lost to Whitharral. The Steers, after tying Melrose 0-0 in the season opener, hold shutout wins

STATE FAIR WINNERS—Five members of the Texico FFA returned last week from the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque, where they won numerous ribbons in showing their swine. Pictured (clockwise) are Raymond Hadley, J. C. Kelly, Tom Hudson, Nathan Sharp, and Jerry Reid. Hudson is the group's advisor. Not pictured is Dwayne Winkles, who also was a winner at the fair.

Bringing home three championships, 22 ribbons, one medal, and $350 in prize money, five Texico FFA boys and their advisor, were back in school Monday after a week at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque.

The local boys entered their swine against 400 head from all over the state, and competition was keen in all divisions, according to Tom Hudson, FFA advisor.

Texico completely dominated the senior Duroc gilt class by taking the first five places and showing the champion in this division. The boys were unfortunate in that they had transportation difficulties and were on the road 16 or 17 hours, which caused the fat barrows to be sifted out because of lack of weight.

Carrying off high honors for the Texico boys was Jerry Reid, who took first place with his junior Duroc sow, first with his senior Duroc sow, and showed the champion Duroc gilt.

J. C. Allen, and Leon Kelley took first with their senior Duroc boar, first with their senior Chesterwhite boar, as well as two thirds, and a fifth place. Their third place Chesterwhite fat barrow sold in the junior livestock fat sale for $103. J. C. also received a third place medal in swine showmanship.

Raymond Hadley placed second with his junior Hampshire gilt, second with his senior Hampshire gilt, and seventh with his Hampshire fat barrow. His father, John Hadley, edged him out in honors by showing the senior champion and grand champion bull as well as taking two firsts, two thirds, and one fourth place in the milking shorthorn division.

Dwayne Winkles came back with a second place ribbon from the senior Duroc gilt show and a fourth in the senior Duroc gilt division. Nathan Sharp received three fifth place ribbons and two fourth place ribbons.

Hudson expressed satisfaction over the boys showing at the fair, but added, "Although the boys have good breeding stock, they found out that it's not good enough and improvements are going to have to be made."

At the fair, Winkles purchased the Poland gilt which won first place, from McCurdy School at Santa Cruz. "The gilt is a sister to the grand champion Poland gilt and cost Dwayne a considerable sum of money," Hudson says.

Two Texico FFA Lads To National Meet

Dick Lockhart and Raymond Hadley, members of the Texico FFA, will represent the chapter at the National FFA Convention at Kansas City next week.

The two will board a Santa Fe train here Sunday, which will be carrying 200 delegates from New Mexico. While in Kansas City, they will stay at the Mule Box Hotel. They plan to return next Friday.

Ground Observers To Meet Tonight

Regular meeting of the local Ground Observer Corps will be at the City Hall in Farwell tonight (Thursday), beginning at 8 p. m. John Armstrong will be in charge of the session and all members are asked to attend.

One horsepower is the power required to lift 33,000 pounds one foot in one minute.

Ed Engram Prexy Of Cemetery Board

Edward Engram was elected president of the Texico Cemetery Board at its first meeting Monday night in the City Hall. Serving with Engram will be J. H. Young, vice-president, and W. L. Freeman, secretary.

Other members of the board, recently appointed by the City Commission, are Mrs. Tena Roth and Mrs. Gladys Johnson. Meeting with the board Monday night was Mrs. Juanita Autrey, city clerk.

Jury Dismissed On Civil Cases

An out of court settlement on one civil case caused the dismissal of members of the jury panel called for the opening session of the October term of district court this week.

Several other cases which were scheduled to be tried were postponed until January by Judge E. A. Bills. Due to this being a busy time of year for most members of the jury panel, it was decided to wait until the January session for the few civil cases on docket.

Texico Teams Take Two Victories Friday

Texico High School softball teams won a doubleheader from Ranchvale Friday night at Jaycee park in Clovis in two very well played games. The Wolverines won 5-4 and the girls outscored the Trojanettes 4-2.

Wilma Walton gave up 5 hits and 3 walks in getting credit for the win. The Whirlwinds collected 9 hits and 1 walk to score their 4 runs. Patsy Davis of the Trojanettes was the loser after pitching a fine game.

The Wolverines scored one run in the last half of the 7th inning to take the win after the two teams battled to a 4-4 deadlock after 6½ innings.

Ranchvale started the game off with 2 runs in the top of the first on 2 errors by the Wolverines, but Texico scored 4 runs in the home half of the first on a walk and two singles by Johnny Brown and Jerry Bowers and a double by Dick Lockhart.

The Trojanettes scored one run in the second to make the score 4-3. Texico Jimmy Moore led off with a single in the second but the next three Wolverines up went down in order to retire the side.

In the third, the Trojans and Wolverines both were out without scoring any runs. Pierce started off the fourth inning for the Trojans with a single, but the Wolverines retired the next three batters without a run scoring. In the bottom half of the stanza the Wolverines had a rally going with two out and the bases loaded after 3 singles, but Dicky Adams was picked off third after an attempted bunt was missed by Weldon Bell.

Both teams were three up and three down in the fifth, but in the sixth Ranchvale scored 1 run to tie up the game 4-4. In the Wolverines half they were put out without scoring a run.

Ranchvale, at their last time at bat, had 2 runners on bases with two out, but Joe Berry Glaze bore down and struck out the last batter retiring the side without any damage.

When the Wolverines came to bat in the seventh, Jimmy Moore and Joe Glaze drew walks to put men on first and second. Weldon Bell then hit an easy out ball to shortstop but the shortstop threw the ball wide at third and Moore went all the way to score the winning run.

The win for the Wolverines put them in a tie with Ranchvale for first place in the county, both teams having 3-1 records.

Mrs. Coffman Elected Farwell PTA Prexy

Mrs. Joyce Coffman was elected president of the Farwell Parent-Teacher Association at the organization's regular meeting on Tuesday evening, October 9, when Carl Davis resigned from this position.

Presiding in the absence of Davis was John Getz, PTA vice-president. About 110 persons were present for Tuesday's meeting.

Mrs. Huffaker's third grade won the room count prize and the membership award went to Mrs. Patum's third grade. Both third grades presented an operetta "Cinderella."

Getz, who was speaker for the evening, used "Teacher Retirement" as his subject. He then urged parents to encourage their children to continue to participate in the school band. He pointed out that the band, is a very important part of school activities and that all children should be urged to participate.

The financial committee gave a report and announced that the organization would sponsor a booth at the Halloween carnival and would sell Christmas cards again this year.

Hostesses for this meeting were Mesdames Audie McManigal, Joe Magness, Dale McCuan, Earl Routon, Scott Billingsley, Joe Crume, Asa Smith, Ernest Kube, R. B. Tucker and Oscar Hubbard. Next regular meeting of the PTA will be held on Tuesday, November 13. Rev. R. C. Cantrell, pastor of the Methodist Church, will be guest speaker of the evening.

Second Rummage Sale Is Saturday

The second rummage sale in a series, is planned Saturday afternoon in the Ed Muckleroy building in Farwell, by members of ESA, and citizens of the Twin Cities are once again asked to assist with the sale, by telling others about it. Also, more rummage is needed and anyone wishing to help is asked to call any ESA member.

The organization was well pleased with the results of the first sale, says Sylvia Watkins, president, but hopes that better returns will be realized this week.

Money from the project is used in ESA's Christmas projects, which include not only treats to the younger set of Texico-Farwell, but Christmas baskets to worthy families as well.

Especially needed for the sale are old curtains, rugs, bedspreads, children's pajamas and children's clothes from ages 5 to 10.

Sales begin at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Weldon Rundell Injures Hand

Weldon Rundell was to have been released from the hospital in Muleshoe today following treatment for a hand injury he received early Tuesday morning while threshing sudan on the Merrill Rundell farm in the Oklahoma Lane Community.

Rundell was greasing the threshing machine when a chain caught his glove forcing his left hand into the machine. His index and middle fingers were mangled very severely, but no amputation was necessary as was first thought. Rundell's condition was reported as good on Wednesday afternoon.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Slavery Still Here— But In a Different Sense

At the close of the Civil War, slavery in the United States came to an end. At least, that's what our history books tell us, and in one sense it did.

Today, however, most of the American people are condoning a slavery, of which they themselves are being held in bondage.

The slavery which exists today is all brought on by a thing called installment buying. Installment buying is all right in that it helps some families acquire some necessities which they could otherwise never afford.

They soon delve into luxury after luxury, simply because they are eye-appealing and "what's a few dollars down and a few dollars a week, anyway?" seems to be the logic.

One thing leads to another and all of a sudden, people find themselves with monthly payments taking the bulk of their regular salary.

In some instances the lady of the house starts to work to help out in order that they might continue to "enjoy" modern conveniences.

So, what happens? First off, an automatic washer is needed. Then, the hiring of someone to do the house cleaning, baby sitting, and so on we could go.

Too, the man of the house may find himself

We could go on, but this somewhat illustrates how many Americans are becoming slaves to their material possessions. We believe that people could better enjoy life if they lived within their means.

Someone once said that the best things of life are free. We think that to be true. What could be more gratifying than to not have numerous monthly bills staring one in the face each month, and to have enough leisure time to spend with one's family, his friends and neighbors, as well as devoting some of his time and effort to civic projects?

Willie Williams must have a most understanding wife.

He and his wife, Bonnie, have been used to having a car each, so when they get ready to go somewhere, they don't inconvenience each other.

Willie had been in the habit of taking the car unless Bonnie said something about needing it. But recently, she asked him if he would ride downtown with someone else since she had errands to do.

So a couple of hours later, Bonnie went over to the variety store to make some purchases.

After her first minutes of panic, she began asking questions and learned Willie had come out of the pool hall, and had driven away in the car, which had been parked right there.

He drove the auto home, parked it in the garage, and got in an auto with a friend enroute to the football game at Vega.

Sure enough, she had to find a

When the parents told him he'd have to go to the doctor, his only comment was "will they sew it up with a string?"

He was right, "they" sewed it up with a string, and Milton Lee wouldn't let them put him to sleep for the medical attention.

Mrs. Alfred Hapke, who keeps the little Graham house-wreckers when we work on Wednesdays, had a new story to tell us last week, but it didn't involve the kids.

Monday, she kept hearing a noise and was trying to convince herself that she hadn't left the water running outside the house.

When it continued, she went outdoors to check, and found that her interpretation of the noise was far from correct.

Mrs. Hapke rushed across the street and Mr. Cohee killed the reptile which had six rattles and a button. Now the Hapkes are keeping their eyes peeled for a mate, and hoping all the while that the reptile was a lone one.

We took the boys to the mountains a recent weekend. They really had a wonderful time. When we left, we thought a three-day vacation was awfully short, but after spending the time keeping up with two energetic children, we were ready to come home when the time was up.

They played from morning 'til night, and being in a strange place, were ready to burn the midnight oil, long after we were ready to fall into bed.

Ronny thought the "aspirin" trees were "boo-ti-ful," Hal growled happily at the stuffed bears and the other stuffed animals in a museum; and all of us enjoyed picnicking by the mountain streams.

All in all, little wide-eyed boys make a trip to the mountains more fun than ever.

Business Ed Club Plans Carnival

The Business Education Club of Texico High School, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Agrie Jones, is planning a Halloween festival to be presented at the school on Tuesday night, October 30.

Classes throughout the school are already campaigning for their candidates for the festival court. A king and queen will be crowned for the high school with a prince and princess to be crowned for the grade school.

Coronation services will be held at the new gymnasium from 8 until 8:30 p. m. At this time a special musical program will be presented by the band and chorus.

Following the coronation, those attending will adjourn to the old gymnasium where the various booths will be set up. Among the booths to be sponsored by school organizations and classes are cake walk, country store, grab bag, ton and Terry Niece; sixth grade:

fish pond, dart board, movie show, marriage booth, fortune teller, money-toss, and dunking pond.

All proceeds from the festival will be divided on a 60-40 percent basis with the classes and organizations receiving the 60 percent of the funds and the Business Ed Club getting 40.

The purposes of the festival, as listed by Business Ed Club members, are to raise funds for the Club to use for attending the State Commerce Club Day to be held at Las Vegas, N. M.; to raise funds to aid in costs of repairing the auditorium; and to give other organizations in the school a chance to make some money for their own use.

Votes for candidates in the royalty race are one cent each, and the deadline for voting is 4 p. m., Tuesday, October 30.

Candidates for grade school are as follows: Mrs. Fawille's first grade: Patricia Thompson and Gregory Burns; Mrs. Weisler's first grade: Janet Wilson and George Porter; Mrs. Miller's second grade: Jill Billington and Donnie Morris; Mrs. Stockton's second grade: Pamela Roberts and Jackie Billingsley;

Also, third grade: Velda Wilson and Jerry Miles; Mrs. Patterson's fourth grade: Jo Doshier and Wayne Watts; Mrs. Byrd's fourth grade: Cynthia Spence and Jimmy Wakefield; fifth grade: Sue Walk- ton and Terry Niece; sixth grade:

Carol White and Lynn Doshier; seventh grade: Pat Hill and Kenneth Taylor;

And, eighth grade: Jerrie Thigpen and Eugene Servatius; ninth grade: Christine Bowers and Travis Taylor; tenth grade: Anita Moss and Kenneth Hawkins; eleventh grade: Wilma Walton and Matt Pendergrass; and twelfth grade: Betty Pendergrass and Joe Berry Glaze.

Delegate Says Convention Was "Dirty Deal"

By W. H. Graham Jr.

The September convention of the Texas Democratic Party is gone but not forgotten.

Amid rumblings of discontent within the ranks of the party across the state, there is more than just occasional mention of some of the goings-on at the Demo clambake in Fort Worth in September, and apparently the general public has not been fully exposed to the happenings there.

After reading a few—and hearing several—comments on discontent that the liberal delegations of Texas were bearing, this reporter thought it might not hurt to talk with one of the Parmer County delegates who was there.

Sure enough, some interesting conversation developed.

Loyde Brewer of Friona and Wiley Bullock of Lazbuddie were the county delegates. Alternates were Joe Douglas and Oscar Baxter, both of Friona.

Our interview dealt only with Brewer, but he is confident that his views are shared by the others who were along.

Fans of state politics will remember that the September convention was a rugged one. The liberal and conservative factions were closely divided, and control of the party machinery hung in the balance.

The outcome of the session was the handing to Price Daniel—the Democratic nominee—the brake, throttle and steering wheel of the state political machinery.

This development, as one might suspect, hardly sat well with liberal delegations, which, for the most part, were still feeling pretty riled at the squeaky win Daniel registered over their leader, Yarborough. To make things worse, the liberals claim to have outnumbered the conservatives in delegate strength. How, then, did this happen?

"It was parliamentary manipulation that beat us," declares Brewer. "We think we got a dirty deal. It was a rotten affair in which the outcome had been decided before we ever went to the convention."

Parmer County didn't have any trouble being seated in the convention. A two-vote representation for the liberals was hardly worth fighting over. However, when it came time to see who would be seated from big vote counties, namely Harris, Bexar, El Paso, and Wichita, things were different, and heated contests arose.

The conservatives delegations from such counties were first temporarily placed by the party's credentials committee, a group which Brewer says had been appointed by a previous Shivers (conservative) convention.

Then, as the contest arose on whether such seating could be termed legitimate, a roll call vote was taken in which the conservative members of the contested delegations, which were then on the floor, were permitted to vote on their own dispute.

One development which cut liberals to the quick was the apparent desertion of their ranks by Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn. These two high-ranking members of the national legislature, who had previously figured prominently in guiding county conventions into the liberal camp, have been charged with a collusion with the Daniel conservative forces.

"I think Lyndon Johnson is mainly interested in Lyndon," says Brewer. "And Sam Rayburn's skin is an inch thick. He doesn't care what a few delegations think of him so long as he can turn up on the winning side and use it to his political advantage."

Brewer also hit at coverage of the convention by the state's press. "We don't believe the daily papers gave an accurate presentation of the convention," he said.

At one point several major dailies reported Daniel as announcing he would support the Democratic nominees in November's election. This charge the liberals, was just a means of swaying some liberal votes to his side. After the crucial roll-call vote which decided who was going to call the plays, the word went out that Daniel had not committed himself to such an endorsement.

(It should be mentioned here that Daniel has since again announced he will support the Democratic nominees.)

"It was evident to us that the will of the people of Texas was ignored at the Fort Worth convention," says Brewer.

The Parmer County delegation went to the meeting uninstructed, but having come from a liberal-controlled county meeting, it was a foregone conclusion which way they would cast their votes.

The Brazos River Authority foresees a constant supply of water for the people of the Brazos River basin in the future. According to a booklet published by the Authority, the proposed Six-Dam Program will hold flood waters in storage for use during drouth. It is estimated that 90 per cent of the present water supply of all our rivers is being lost for lack of storage reservoirs.

'56 Sign-Up Deadline Near for Soil Bank

After a sluggish start, the government's new conservation reserve program—phase two of the soil bank plan—was kicked off in Parmer County last week.

Applications are now being received at the county ASC office in Farwell, and a deadline of October 15, is pointed out for farmers who want to get in under the wire on the 1956 part of the program.

The bulk of the government's new land-tiling plan will not get rolling until next year, and March 15 of 1957 is the deadline for signing up for land to be put into the bank beginning that year.

In other words, if a farmer wants to rush his land into the program for 1956, he'll have to do it by next Monday. If he wants to study things over until next spring, that's okay with the government, but that delays the plan until the calendar year of 1957.

In the case of farmers who want to start immediately, it is possible for cropland on which nothing was produced this year to be included and payment made. That would apply to failures of wheat, cotton, or grain sorghum on dryland, for example. It must not have been harvested.

Payment in Parmer County is based on a flat $10 per acre per year. This applies to irrigated, dryland, and regardless of the crops removed from production. The maximum payment in Texas is $13 per acre. The minimum is $8. Minimum acreage is five acres. Maximum payment is $5,000 per year.

Mills points out that agreements which will be made between farmers and the government will be for five and 10-year periods. Those are the only two plans, and once an agreement has been entered into, it will remain in force throughout the length of the contract.

Farmers will be required to establish cover crops, although government payments will make it possible for up to 80 percent to be paid on getting these crops started.

County agricultural officials had at first planned a series of meetings in the county to explain the program to farmers, but the sessions have been postponed.

Harvest would cut down attendance, believes Mills, and the meetings probably will not be announced until December.

Water Line Case Flukes in Austin

The Bi-State Water Commission lost a step or two in its march to stop Lubbock from piping water from the Bailey County sandhills last week.

A case in Austin pitting C. C. Morgan against the City of Lubbock was thrown out of court on the grounds that the plaintiff could not establish clear title to the land in question.

The Commission had nursed this along in the hope that they would be able to prove that a right-of-way easement to the State Highway Department was for highway construction purposes only, and did not grant the privilege of water lines.

The land on which the Commission had hoped to stop Lubbock was in Hockley County. Whether the Commission will encourage another property owner along the water line route to take action similar to Morgan's has not been announced.

THE PARMER FARMER

In spite of the tremendous acreage under irrigation in the Parmer County area, we can look forward to a lot of blowing dirt this winter and next spring.

In our opinion, this is one of the few real discomforts of life on the rich farming country of the Plains. The sand blows about a third of the year, and anybody who claims it isn't uncomfortable is just kidding himself. He won't fool very many others.

Even if it were possible for us to control all dust of local origin—which we'll never be able to do, naturally—this coming windy season would still look pretty rugged.

There are a lot of days ahead when we will have more New Mexico, Colorado and Kansas soil in our skies and eyes than the good earth of our own area. In fact, on account of the extreme dryness of those other areas, we may pick up more topsoil than we will lose.

At any rate, the weather forecast for the windy months is "slightly cloudy."

Looks like we're down to two rains a year. One comes too early. The other comes too late.

Hale County, our neighbor a little ways to the east, is getting all the headlines these days for its fabulous irrigated farming development. As the richest agricultural county in Texas, it deserves everything that is being said.

All of Hale County's abundance, however, can be traced to two things: a great supply of irrigation water, and a rich soil. All progress of that famous area has stemmed from development of these two natural resources.

This ought to make Parmer County farmers and land owners feel pretty good about the future. Our land, just as rich as Hale's to start with, likely is in better shape than Hale's because it hasn't been heavily cropped for so long.

Our water inventory gives every indication of being just as great or greater than Hale's.

The only difference between the two counties is the time factor. They got started making money several years sooner than we did. If we can match Hale County with diversification and smart, business-like farming, we can catch 'em.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

If you have a small daughter who wants to wear saddle oxfords to school and you hesitate to buy them because of the difficulty involved in keeping them clean, try rubbing a thin coat of paste wax over them when they are new.

Here is a formula which any homemaker can use:

FORMULA

To start the phone a-ringing,
(At almost any hour)
The surest way I know,
Is to step into the shower!
And to bring the world a-beating
A path up to my door,
(I know that answer, too)
I simply mop the floor.

Do you have trouble making pie crust? If so, try this recipe. It is really fool proof and is very good for beginners. Beat together 1/3 cup hot water, 2/3 cup shortening and 1/2 teaspoon salt until smooth. Roll out as for any pie crust. This will make enough for two nine inch crusts.

A lot of farm homemakers that we know are helping with the harvest this fall. There is no better way for a busy homemaker to get caught up on her thinking than to help out in the field a few days. If she is driving a tractor, she can do a lot of concentrating without any interruptions. The tractor makes so much noise it is impossible for anyone to talk even if they are close enough.

Someone will probably say, "How can you think on a tractor?" It is easily done. Just forget about the noise and pretty soon you will not even notice it. Then you can concentrate on any subject as long as you like without any questions to answer, telephones to ring, radio announcers to distract your attention, or any of the dozen and one other things that come up every day.

Have you ever thought of trying to improve the radio programs which are designed for the woman of the house? Maybe you are one of the listeners who thoroughly enjoys the soap box operas. If so, you are probably pleased with what most stations have to offer during the hours that children are in school and men are at work.

If not, what type program would you prefer? If enough homemakers would request the type program they prefer, the powers that be would probably comply with the request. Why couldn't we have at least one program given by a good book reviewer on the current best sellers? Possibly because no one has suggested one.

The hours that a homemaker spends alone could be used to a good advantage, and usually are. However, a few really good programs designed to broaden our horizons would be welcomed by most of us. What do you think?

Sorghum Growers Asked To Support Producers Group

Growers of grain sorghum in Parmer County are being asked this week by the Grain Sorghum Producers Association to support the activities of the organization to promote a better future for the commodity.

The Association, which last year was credited with obtaining an increase in the price support of milo, is asking farmers to set aside one-fourth of one-cent per hundredweight to further the work of the group.

R. G. Peeler, president of the Association, was in Parmer County last week and this week in the interest of the activities of the organization. A Hereford farmer, he points out that Parmer County benefitted to the tune of more than $1,000,000 this year in a better price for this primary feed grain product.

This achievement was done in the field of legislation. However, Peeler is quick to point out that legislative activity is not the only field which the Association thinks needs cultivating.

There are tremendous markets that need opening. Feeders the nation over who are now using corn can be converted to grain sorghums if a hard-hitting marketing and promotion program is advanced, he believes.

Grain sorghums, though considerably cheaper than corn, are in most cases an equal to corn in feed value.

Elevators and banks in Parmer County are being asked to act as receiving points for the money which will go into the Association. Forms are available which will make it a simple matter for farmers to set aside the recommended portion of their crop.

The Association was started only last year, when prices and markets for grain sorghums looked dim. Support of the Association's work has been strong in some localities on the Plains, but no drive has ever been made in Parmer County.

That, in effect, gave Parmer County farmers the benefits of the 19-cent increase in price without their having given more than token support to the work of the organization that made the increase possible.

Labor Department Gives Wage Rate

The U. S. Department of Labor has announced the wage rate for cotton pulling in Parmer County. According to information contained in a wire which was sent by Ed McDonald, regional director of bureau of employment security, the rate effective October 4 is $1.50 per hundred.

This information was released by Maurice Oden of the Texas employment office at Muleshoe. These findings are based on irrigated acreage only.

Take It Easy—Keep Grade Up

Cotton farmers who pack more cotton into their trailers than the units are designed to carry are penalizing themselves, says County Agent Joe Jones.

"If you tromp cotton into a trailer, and load up four bales on a three-bale trailer, or three on a two-bale trailer, you are going to grind a lot of trash into the lint that will cut the cotton's grade," he says.

The well equipped and operated gins of the area can do a lot to keep a farmer's grade high, but it's impossible for them to turn out a better grade than the farmer brings to them, believes the agent.

"There are modern improvements such as lint cleaners that can pull a lot of trash out, but then again, this has the farmer hurting himself because every piece of trash removed takes with it a little bit of lint," says Jones.

Another thing that he recommends cotton farmers watch for is putting wet cotton into the trailer. Moisture from dew or other sources will contribute to lowering the grades.

Slat and wire trailers give trash a chance to postle out while the bolls are in transit and are probably an advantage in this respect, says Agent Jones.

If Texas continues its present rate of growth for the next fifty years, water use by urban dwellers alone will be doubled. This fact is pointed out in a publication released by the Brazos River Authority. It is noted that this expected increase in water use does not include industrial needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Osborn from Hope, Arkansas, visited here with Mr. Osborn's sons the past two weeks. They visited Jess Osborn in Muleshoe also. Mrs. Osborn says she'd like to move to Friona, but not Mr. Osborn—he says he's too old. Mrs. Osborn is 79 and Mr. Osborn is 85 years young.

Douglas Connelley says if it's parts you need, he has them. You are as close to us as your telephone. 2091 or 2201 is the number.

Have you seen the wonderful booklets about Friona which the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture published? These booklets have a lot of information about Friona, "brightest spot in the golden spread." The Parmer County Implement Company has a number of the booklets on hand and will be glad to give you one or one dozen to send to your friends and relatives.

We hear every day how good the corn in Parmer County is this year. Better get an IH Corn Picker and get your corn gathered.

In 1521, fighting bulls were imported from Spain. Those too tough to handle were chased into Texas where they had to get tougher and grow longer horns to compete with the buffalo and the buffalo the Indians on the vast plains. Wild herds gave birth to the Texas cattle industry even before the railroads came. Their ruggedness made it possible to drive them upwards of 1500 miles to railheads and markets in the North. Today's highly bred, short-legged, beef cattle could not stand up under such treatment, but the long-legged, rangy, tough Longhorns had little to lose except meanness. Texas' first "packing houses" killed wild Longhorns for their tallow and hides. The carcasses were thrown away.

We know the weather is warm, but all the same it is about time to get ready for winter. If you are going to buy one or one hundred gallons of antifreeze, get our price first.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boggess are building a beautiful new house in Friona. It is located just north of the Ralph Smith home and Mr. and Mrs. Boggess hope to be able to move in before the first of the year.

A good many ranchers have been in our store looking for some bundle feed. If you have any or will have any bundles to sell, we will be glad to tell someone about it.

Friday is football night in Friona. This is homecoming week at the Friona schools. There will be a parade downtown about 2 o'clock Friday. The homecoming queen will be crowned at 2:35 in the auditorium and everybody is invited.

Barbecue is an institution of the State of Texas. Beef, pork, mutton, chicken—or, as someone has said, "anything that will stand still" is barbecued, and that includes goat.

A tourist was admiring a necklace being made by a Texas native. "Beautiful," she said. "What is it made of?" "Alligator teeth," said the Texan. "Oh," said the visitor. "I suppose they have the same value to you that pearls have to me." "Not quite," said the Texan. "You see ANYBODY can open an oyster!"

When Friona meets White Deer at the homecoming game Friday night, the Pep club and both junior and senior bands will perform at half time—that makes more than 200 of Friona's younger folks who will be on the field. Plan to attend—starting time is 8 p. m.

Have you seen the new Farm-all 400 in action? We invite you to come by and drive one for proof that it will make your farming easier and more profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Baxter will attend a meeting of pharmacists in Dallas this week. Mr. and Mrs. Newman Jarrell will go with the Baxters and they will all attend the O. U. and Texas ball game. Jimmy and Newman are both O. U. alumni.

All stalks on irrigated fields should be shredded. We have I. H. and Servis shredders. Either, with an eight foot tandem disc will do two operations at a time.

"Texas" is derived from an Indian word meaning "Friends." The state motto is "Friendship." The State flag is the Lone Star flag. The State tree, the pecan. The State flower, the blue bonnet. The State bird, the mockingbird. The State song, "Texas, Our Texas."

Texas is the land where exaggerations are the truth. Our state has known six flags and is the only one that won its own independence and was a republic all by itself. ## Ike Can't Make It Rain, But He's Still Best Man

The other day I asked a farmer if it was dry out his way. He said it sure was. "Looks like we just can't get any rain," he said. "Why, when Noah had his 40-day flood, we didn't get over half an inch."

There's no mistake about it, Texas is having itself a real drought. Some of the farmers and ranchers in our county are in such bad shape that they may vote for Stevenson.

Old Man Jones, from across the river, said he wasn't going to go to any such extreme. He said he needed rain as bad as anybody else. He claimed water was so scarce in his community that the preacher was baptizing new members with a wet handkerchief. But he was holding out awhile longer, anyway.

"I may be stubborn," said Old Man Jones, "but I just ain't been convinced that President Eisenhower is keeping it from raining."

He said he knew that Stevenson and Kefauver acted like they thought so, and they had a right to their opinion. Lyndon Johnson, he figured, knew better, but he was sticking with Adlai and Estes for the sake of unity. He said he didn't figure Mr. Sam Rayburn had known whether it was raining or not for the last 25 years.

"I hate not to go along with such a widely known crowd of weather observers," Old Man Jones said. "If there's anybody who keeps up with which way the wind is blowing, generally speaking, it's Stevenson, Kefauver and Johnson."

Then he went on to say that he realized the national farm program hadn't pleased everybody—including him. If he was in the White House, he would do things different, at least in our county. He allowed that the $61,000,000 spent by the Eisenhower administration for drought relief in Texas could have been doubled and still not made all the farmers happy and prosperous.

"But," said Old Man Jones, "I keep remembering that the main reason for our troubles, besides the drought, is the fact that we are not at war. Now, if Adlai and Estes really want to jump on President Eisenhower, there is a real issue. They've sure got the goods on Ike in that respect. If he hadn't stopped that Korean War, farm prices would be higher, no doubt. I wonder why they never mention that."

Old Man Jones was kidding a little, of course, in his usual way, but I think he had something there. We have got to adjust to peace-time, which is taking awhile but President Eisenhower is working at it. And meanwhile our boys aren't fighting and dying on foreign soil. It's worth thinking about.

Yours truly,
Jex

Restrictions Lifted On Wheat, Cotton

Parmer County farmers who want to preserve their planted history of wheat and cotton will no longer have to sow full or near-maximum plantings in order to keep their history.

Prentice Mills, county ASC office manager, this week announced that if farmers will come in and sign a form requesting that their allotments be held and put into the history records, it will not matter then how much of these two basic crops they wish to plant.

Previously, it was necessary for a farmer to sow 75 percent of his wheat allotment and 90 percent of his cotton allotment in order to keep maximum history.

This, in effect, was forcing farmers to plant all the acreage they were able in order to keep allotment history.

Forms for the sign-ups should be in next week, says Mills.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

"I don't mean to say that we are any smarter than our other farmer friends, but as directors, we do keep up with matters affecting all farmers, and we have a responsibility to talk to those less informed so that they can share in the facts, and not just popular hearsay.

"By that, I don't mean we should necessarily try to change their minds, if they differ, but get the facts to them and let them make up their own minds with full information at their disposal."

This is a quotation from President Gilbert Kaltwasser near the close of the regular director's meeting last week. If you, as a member, and some of your friends will attend some of these meetings of your county directors, we believe you will be amazed at the constant effort they are putting forth in your behalf. They're not spasmodic, but you'll find nearly everyone of them in their place in the office the first Monday night of each month.

Donald Christian, one of the newly elected directors, said he enjoyed his first meeting last week. Donald lives south of Bovina on the farm formerly occupied by Clarence Christian, his father. He is well informed and will give good representation to his area, we are convinced.

Any of you people who wish to attend the National Farm Bureau Convention December 10 to 13, in Miami, Florida, should request reservations at the Farm Bureau Office. It looks like there will be at least four families make this trip, and we hope there will be more.

Here are three points of Farm Bureau operation, as listed in the Missouri Farm Bureau paper, which are applicable to all local, state and national Farm Bureaus: 1. Our program is built by the members. 2. Our program makes economic sense. 3. We have a long record of achievement. 4. We stand between the farmer and socialization of agriculture.

Consider this: He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough. Proverbs 28:19.

THE H. D. AGENT'S CORNER

Jimmie Lou Wainscott

You know, some day or night we will be awakened to the fact that summer is no longer with us and that winter is here. Have you thought much about how you are going to store your summer clothes. Remember that right storage will increase the life of summer clothing.

Here are some suggestions for keeping out-of-season clothing in good condition until next summer: Mend any ripped seam, tears, loose buttons or other damages. A few stitches can save the life of a garment. Wash or dry clean all garments before storing. Store cottons and linens unironed. Make certain all starch is removed. It can cause fabric to deteriorate and may attract silverfish. Dry garments thoroughly and store them in a dry place to prevent mildew. Store in large boxes or trunks to make room in closets for fall clothing.

Also something housewives and mothers are looking for is a way to cut down on that ironing. Have you bought any of these new drip-dry fabrics? They help cut down on the homemaker's work. But remember to follow directions. Dripping is essential for smooth drying of cotton and rayons with a minimum-care finish, according to extension clothing specialists. Lift the clothes from the rinse water after laundering. Hang smoothly on a hanger. Don't wring, twist or squeeze to remove water.

As the water drips off, it smooths out creases or wrinkles left from laundering. A final touch-up with the iron may be needed to make hems, seams and edges as smooth as new. Some of the synthetic fibers, as dacron, also have this drip-dry quality. Clothes made of these synthetics will be wrinkle-free when dry only if lifted from the rinse water and hung to dry with the least possible handling. The more they drip, the smoother they dry.

Best footwear for deer hunting in all except extremely steep, snow-covered mountains, is the lumberman's rubber shoe with sharply corrugated rubber bottom and leather top, not over eight inches high.—Sports Afield

2, 4-D Weed Spray May Be Restricted By Commissioners

Restriction of the sale, use, and transportation of herbicides in Parmer County is being considered by the county commissioners, who will conduct a hearing on the subject Monday, October 22.

Aim of this action is designed to reduce or eliminate the possibility of damage to cotton by 2, 4-D, a popular weed killer which in numerous instances has drifted from maize fields to cotton several hundred yards away.

The effect of this is well known to many Parmer County farmers by now. The broad-leaved cotton is susceptible to the weed killer, which uses the principal of plant hormone. The cotton "goes crazy" and its growth is contorted. Yields in some cases are materially reduced.

Some incidence of dosing cotton with the chemical has been turning up for several years, but this summer proved worst of all. Hundreds of acres of cotton in the county have been hit by the drifting spray, and lawsuits by the score have been threatened, although none have been filed in the county so far.

If the commissioners invoke the law, severe restrictions will be put on 2, 4-D. Dealers will have to keep track of who buys the chemical, and in what amounts.

Buyers will have to post bond for its use and will be required to keep careful records of when they apply, and weather conditions that prevail at the time.

The over-all effect of such action, believe commissioners, would be to largely discourage use by individuals of the chemical. Bonded commercial operators might very well expect to enjoy a substantial increase in business.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

There are many factors that enter into soil fertility. One of the most important factors is the organic matter content of the soil.

Virgin soils of Parmer County contain approximately 3 to 5 percent of organic matter. Under cultivation this percentage is reduced. The average dryland farm has about 1 per cent. The average content of the irrigated land is about 0.7 per cent. These figures are considerably lower than the figures for the virgin pasture land.

Organic matter is any form of plant or animal bodies that are in the process of decomposition. This includes any part of a crop left on the fields, any crop plowed under green, any barnyard manure that is added, and the bodies of dead animals.

The organic matter present in the soil directly affects the water-holding capacity of the soil. The small fragments of organic matter have the ability to hold up to ten times as much water as a soil particle the same size. Therefore, any increase in organic matter content will increase the amount of water a soil can store. This is extremely valuable to the dryland farmer who depends on water stored in the fall and winter to produce the next crop and to the irrigation farmer who pre-irrigates. Crop production depends on the water stored in the soil.

Organic matter increases the water intake rate of the soil. During the process of decomposition of organic matter, there is given off a glue-like substance. This substance tends to stick the soil particles together in small clumps called aggregates. A soil that is well aggregated will take water more rapidly than will a soil in poor condition. This is especially true in tighter soils.

To increase the permeability of a soil is helpful in this area where many of the rains fall in a short period of time. A well aggregated soil tends to resist both wind and water erosion. This resistance is due to the fact that several of the smaller particles are stuck together creating a larger aggregate which is not easily moved.

Another important function of organic matter is the increase in bacterial activity. An abundant supply of microscopic bacteria are necessary for plants to be able to use the nitrogen plant foods. The bacteria use decaying organic matter for food to supply the energy required to change the nitrogen to a form that plants can use.

Bacteria are also helpful in the plant utilization of phosphates by storing the phosphorus in their bodies to be released all during the growing season. The number of bacteria in the soil is amazing. One gram of soil contains from 100,000 to several billion. This means that there are approximately 5,000 pounds per acre on dryland and 20,000 pounds or more per acre on irrigated land of these bacteria in our soils.

Without these bacteria working for us our soils would be infertile. Anyway that we can increase the food supply of these bacteria will increase our soil fertility.

The most economical way to supply this needed organic matter is by the efficient use of crop residues and green manure crops. The addition of organic matter increases the amount of plant food available to the plant by speeding the breakdown of the rocks and minerals of the soil. Acids are given off in the decomposition of organic matter. These acids help eat away these minerals leaving the plant foods.

The organic matter content of a soil is related to the ease of tillage. Soils that are low in organic matter tend to pack and form clay pans or plow pans much more rapidly than soils high in organic matter. A packed soil reduces the infiltration of the rain and restricts the development of plant roots.

The addition of organic matter will not solve all of your fertility problems; however, it is a step in the right direction.

Asks for Workers To Preserve History

Nearly 200 Texas counties have named county historical survey committees, but Parmer County is not one of them, says George W. Hill, executive director of the Texas State Historical Survey committee.

"If you are interested in the preservation of our historical heritage and are willing to serve on the county committee of Parmer County, contact County Judge A. D. Smith or write directly," Hill requests.

A state wide meeting is scheduled in Austin October 27, to discuss the state and county programs.

The address of the historical group is 202 First Federal Building, Austin.

Irrigation Is Top Water User in Texas

MINERAL WELLS—Seventy-nine percent of the water used in Texas is used for irrigation, according to a new publication of the Brazos River Authority. The remaining water is almost equally shared by municipal and industrial users. Irrigation accounts for a daily use of 8½ billion gallons of water.

Parmer Near Top In Well Drilling

Partly emerging from a long-time slump, Parmer County again ranks among the top counties of the High Plains Water District in irrigation well drilling.

Statistics for August show that 18 wells were completed in Parmer County. Castro finished 20 wells, Deaf Smith 18, and Floyd 17. Lubbock and Hockley, which have been leading the field, had 14 and 11 completions, respectively.

About seven percent of Parmer County's 100,000-acre 1957 wheat allotment will go into the soil bank next year, says Prentice Mills, ASC office manager.

A total of 91 agreements have been made on 6,667 acres, virtually all of it dryland.

This is a part of the acreage reserve, a companion program to the new conservation reserve, just introduced under the soil bank plan.

Farwell Band Goes Full "Swing" Ahead

Football is a season in itself. A season of brisk autumn nights or bright, sunny afternoons, a green turf, an array of color as eye catching as a huge patchwork quilt and the snappy, smart music of the band.

The hometown band adds a special something to the air of festivity, and Farwell's 51 piece marching band is no exception. Mrs. Erma Jobs is director of the Farwell Band.

This group has participated in two parades thus far this year and will this weekend be in Portales to compete in the marching contest in the Eastern New Mexico University homecoming parade. Farwell will compete with other class B bands and three places will be awarded in this group.

On September 17, the Farwell Band was among some 35 music-making organizations to march in the Tri-State parade in Amarillo. September 20 found the Farwellites marching in the parade at Friona to start the 50th Anniversary Celebration of that city.

The Band has also presented half time performances at the Farwell home games and has made one trip out of town to support the Steers. This trip was to Vega.

Farwell's drum major, Alan Price, is making history this year as the first boy ever to lead the Farwell Band. During the summer, Alan participated in band camps and training sessions to enable him to perform his duties like an old hand.

Also fronting the Band are five majorettes, including Wilma Norton, Jeanette Hughes, Phyllis Magness, Doris Harriman and Gwenlynn Potts. These twirlers practiced together during the summer and after school hours to learn new routines which add color to the Band's performances. The five girls will attend a twirling clinic at West Texas State in Canyon next weekend.

Officers for the Band this year are captain, Johnny McCuan; 1st Lt., Douglas Hillock; 2nd Lt., Roland Hillock; quartermaster, Sam Pool; staff sergeant, Johnny Lovelace; librarian, Phyllis Magness; reporter, Dickie Williams; and student council representative, Doris Harriman.

The Band student council is composed of Dickie Gerles and Jerry Lovelace from the seventh grade, Bill Owen and Benjy Dial from the eighth grade, Gwenlynn Potts from the ninth grade, Wilma Norton from the tenth grade, Johnny Armstrong from the eleventh and Doris Pond from the twelfth.

Doris Harriman and Johnny Lovelace have been selected as band sweethearts for this year.

At the remaining home football games for the Steers, Steer supporters will have a chance to see and hear the Farwell Band and to believe that there's really "something about a hometown band."

Junior 4-H Boys Meet Thursday

After the election of officers, the group discussed their club project for this year.

County Teachers Hear Cunningham

Parmer County teachers turned out about 100 percent for their first meeting of the year recently, with Farwell Schools, as hosts.

Preceding the business session, a banquet of roast beef, sweet potatoes, green beans, hot rolls, salad, tea or coffee and dessert were served to about 135 attendants. Decorative motif for the banquet tables featured a fall theme, with colorful bouquets centering each table, and leaves trailing down the center of the tables.

Judge A. D. Smith gave the invocation for the meal, and L. B. Penick was toastmaster.

Fred Cunningham, superintendent of Hereford schools, was featured speaker of the evening, and told Parmer County members of the association the importance of teacher retirement amendment No. 4, which will be voted on by the people of Texas in November. He urged the teachers to actively campaign for the passage of the amendment, and emphasized that if the majority of Texans vote "for" the amendment, the provisions will become effective immediately.

He explained that the retirement system was planned in 1937 "but we have outgrown its provisions."

Among points stressed by Cunningham on why the amendment is needed were "to recruit additional teachers and to hold the teachers now in service, to bring up-to-date a program enacted in 1937 during the depressions" and others.

gram to push the bill had already been ordered and was distributed among those present. Anyone wishing to know more about the amendment may ask any teacher in the county for information, officials say.

James H. Haynes of Lazbuddie, was elected president of the group, to replace George Childress, who resigned his position at Farwell Schools last year. Named as vice-president to succeed Haynes was Raymond Cook of Friona. Second vice-president is Wayne Stephens of Bovina and Mrs. Otie Ellison of Bovina is treasurer. Mrs. Irene Jones of Farwell is secretary.

Committees to "get out the vote for amendment 4" were named and work is to continue until election day.

Bovina will be host school for the next meeting.

Farwell Juniors Trip Bovina 13-6

Farwell's junior football squad was back in the win column this week after handing the Bovina junior eleven a 13-6 defeat at the junior Mustang field on Tuesday night.

Bovina made two first downs on a march to the Farwell 35 after receiving the opening kick. Gambling on the ground, Bovina lost the ball on downs and the visitors were operating from their own 35, the origin of their first touchdown drive.

Carroll Huggins started the march with a run to the Bovina 43 yard line. Jerry Lovelace plowed to the 37, but a backfield in motion penalty set the Steers back to the 48.

On third down, Tommie Williams got loose and ran all the way for Farwell's first count. Jerry Lovelace crossed pay dirt for the extra point and Farwell was out front 7-0.

Bovina returned this Farwell kick to their own 22 just as the first stanza ended. Three more downs found the junior Mustangs kicking to Carroll Huggins who returned the ball to his own 30. Benjy Dial counted for another Farwell first down on a long run and after still another first down, making it goal to go for the guests, Farwell's fumble was recovered by Bovina to set the home team in business on their own three.

In this drive, Bovina managed one first down before kicking. Farwell's 43 was the point the visitors started another touchdown march.

Two runs, one good for a first to the Bovina 48, and another good for a first on the Bovina 31, put the Steers in scoring position again. Carroll Huggins was the man as he turned and twisted his way downfield to paydirt. J. F. Mount's kick for the point after touchdown was blocked.

Bovina fumbled on the kickoff, but recovered just as the first half of play was completed.

Farwell started second half activity by returning the Bovina kick to Farwell's 40. They lost no time getting a first down, but then lost the ball on downs. Bovina had the ball for three downs and a fourth down try failed. Farwell counted for another first down before the third quarter ended.

After making another first down, Bovina pounced on a Farwell fumble on the Bovina 20. From here, an unidentified Bovina lad scampered his way 80 yards for Bovina's only touchdown. Try for extra point failed.

Farwell kept the ball for three downs before kicking then Bovina started a drive from the Farwell 40. Farwell's line knuckled down at this point, throwing the Bovina lads for a 30 yard loss on three consecutive plays. Farwell then recovered a home team miscue on Bovina's 35. Farwell was thrown for a five yard loss then Carroll Huggins got loose to the two where he was pushed out of bounds just as the final whistle blew.

Coaching the Farwell juniors is Shelby Jobs. Next game for this crew will be with Sudan at Farwell, Tuesday, October 16. Game time is 7 p. m.

Several Schools Planned For Farmers
