

COURT PROGRAM HEADED FOR SHOWDOWN FIGHT

Texas Legislators Vote To End Current Regular Term May 22

Reviewing The BIG SPRING WEEK by Joe Pickle

Rain is always news in West Texas, and invariably it is good news. Naturally the downpours over the northern half of the county during the forepart of the past week had their cheering effect. Timely falling of the showers left plenty of moisture for planting in most of the northern area, but by the end of the week another native crop menace, high winds were threatening to minimize the benefits of the rain. Because the rains were spotted, especially in interest, and because the winds have remained high enough to blow sand, crop prospects are still jeopardized.

Compromise Talk Thrown Into Discard

Opponents Take Up Challenge For 'Straight-Out' Vote

MODERATES LIKELY TO FIGHT PRESIDENT

Tribunal Decision Might Have An Outcome On The Contest

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—The administration's "no compromise" edict on the Roosevelt court bill was the signal today for opposing forces to square away for a senate battle that may go down as one of the historic debates of all time, or may suddenly be dissolved by a surprise development.

Steel Strike Hinted Unless Labor Contracts Are Signed

PITTSBURGH, May 15 (AP)—Philip Murray, delegated the power to force signed contracts with five big independent steel corporations, hinted tonight a strike call might be issued "within 10 days" unless agreements were reached.

"We are handling each case as separate and distinct problems, but I would say that a very definite announcement will be made in each case within 10 days," asserted the soft-spoken chairman of the steel workers organizing committee, a unit of the John L. Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization.

PHILIP MURRAY

after the conference," said Murray.

Another conference has been scheduled for Tuesday, May 25, with the chairman of the Inland Steel corporation in Chicago. Lodge president also will be present, ready to transmit other orders should this meeting fail to bring a signature, the union chief said.

Between these two meetings, will be held the government supervised election at Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation plants to determine whether the union will be the exclusive bargaining agent of the men.

Another oil pool was indicated for Howard county last week in the Moore Bros. No. 1 TXL, midway between the producing Chalk and East Howard areas. The test is interesting, first of all, because of its location, miles removed from production, and second, because of its showing. It made three separate heads, or it flowed of its own accord. Each time the heads came, they continued for 2 hours and produced nearly 90 barrels of oil. This showing would be considered a bit unusual even in the producing East Howard area. In three more weeks, the outcome of a test in the Harding area will have been known, and perhaps more pools will be in prospect.

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP)—A roar of ayes in the senate today settled the question of when the long general session of the legislature would end.

Over protests that had dwindled almost to the vanishing point, the upper legislative branch voted viva voce to quit work May 22, adopting a resolution previously passed by the house of representatives.

Security Decision May Come Monday

Age Pensions, Job Insurance Facing Final Test

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—The supreme court met in secret conference today to prepare for a session Monday which may produce an epochal opinion on constitutionality of the administration's social security legislation.

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—The unyielding "die-hards" among the opponents expressed gratification that the issue would be drawn on the unmodified bill. But from the moderates who had hoped for a compromise settlement, came a defiant statement that they might withdraw their offers and "kick" the administration on a "straight-out-vote."

Texas Chain Store Tax Is Ruled Valid

Appellate Court's Action Speeds Case To Highest Tribunal

DALLAS, May 15 (AP)—The Texas chain store tax law today was tentatively held constitutional in an opinion written by Justice Ben F. Looney of the fifth court of civil appeals.

MERCURY ABOVE 97 FOR THE TOP READING OF YEAR

If you complained about the heat Saturday, you had just cause.

Thermometer at the airport touched a top of 97 1/2 degrees, highest mark of the season. Big Spring wasn't alone in the season's hot weather, however. The mercury reached a high of 102 at Wink, department of commerce stations reported, and readings in the high 90's were common.

Spanish Govt. Reorganized 'To Win War'

Insurgent Attacks Go On As Loyalists Map New Plans

VALENCIA, Spain, May 15 (AP)—Spain's government sought tonight to bolster its defenses against the fascist insurgents by a cabinet shakedown which left Socialist Premier Francisco Largo Caballero at the helm.

Farmers of Howard county, at least a few of them, have come to the conclusion that a bit of organization in the basis American industry would not be amiss. Accordingly 77 of them have formed an agricultural association, to be affiliated with a state body, to make their wants known to lawmakers and to educate farmers in matters of program and production. Not long ago a man who has had years of experience with farmers as a federal agricultural agent, said here: "The farmers have the prettiest set up for getting what they would demand. It wouldn't take them but a matter of days to start the nation, particularly the large cities, into submission. But farmers won't organize." Doubtless he was right on the first count, but perhaps farmers may prove him wrong on the second.

Work To Be Done

Chief arguments against fixing a definite date for sine die adjournment, which requires consent of both houses, were that work on the big "money" bills, making appropriations for the next two years, might not be completed, but those taking an opposite view asserted sufficient time remained if the legislators buckled down to business.

COALGATE, Okla., May 15 (AP)—Percy L. Gassaway, 52, the colorful Coal county rancher who rose to political prominence as Oklahoma's "cowboy congressman" died unexpectedly today after suffering a heart attack at his ranch home near here.

Chief Justice Ben L. Jones and Associate Justice Joel R. Bond expressed doubt as to Justice Looney's holding, but gave assent in order to certify the case to the state supreme court for speedy action. Justice Looney said that the temporary injunction restraining collection of the tax issued here in 1936 would not be dissolved pending a supreme court ruling.

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, E. H. Kroes company and other organizations representing 827 stores filed the injunction suit. They claim the law was unconstitutional, discriminatory and violated property rights.

Five were dead and seven injured as the first casualties were marked up Saturday in the week-end's traffic toll on Texas highways.

(By The Associated Press)

Several persons were reported wounded.

The premier reported the resignation of his government to President Manuel Azaña at 10 a. m. Four hours later Azaña asked him to form a new administration to "win the war."

Curiosity killed a cat and sometimes it comes near killing your faith in the fundamental sanity of the human race. Last week, when a trial involving sordid testimony came up for a hearing, the usually vacant courtroom was crowded and stayed that way until the last bit of dirt was strewn. Some brought their lunches and carried drinking water in jars as to retain their places and not make a word. It was a field day for those who would not have walked half a block for one hour of something clean and elevating.

As evidence that the senate meant business, it immediately passed the important bill to tighten enforcement of liquor laws, over a minority, and another bill to reduce the legal maximum of hours for employing women.

At stake in the litigation are: 1. Constitutionality of the old age pension provisions of the federal act under which employers and employees are taxed to provide benefit for the workers when they reach 65. A total of 26,610,000 employees and 2,700,000 employers are paying the assessment.

While they prepared for the first showdown vote on the bill in the senate judiciary committee Tuesday, both sides watched anxiously for outer developments that might suddenly change the entire course.

Today's tentative opinion was the first appellate court action on validity of the chain store tax which provided for a graduated tax of from $1 to $750 per store for units of a chain.

Seven Others Injured In Early Weekend Mishaps In Texas

(By The Associated Press)

For more than eight months the 65-year-old Largo Caballero has led the government in its fight to crush Gen. Francisco Franco and his men. The insurgents got to the threshold of Madrid and the government fled to Valencia, but Franco's attack stalled; his men swept part of the southern seaboard but were badly beaten on the Guadalajara front, northeast of Madrid. Now they are hammering at the northern Basque capital of Bilbao.

McCraw Again To Appear Before The Supreme Court In Behalf Of State's Tax Levy On Green Estate

AUSTIN, May 15.—With $5,000,000 or more at stake, Attorney General William McCraw will leave for Washington Tuesday for his seventh, and possibly most important, appearance before the United States supreme court.

In the week beginning Monday he will represent Texas before the supreme court for the fourth time in the state's action looking to ultimate collection of inheritance taxes on the multi-million-dollar estate of Col. E. H. Green. At the last appearance of Texas' attorneys, the court accepted the state's bill of complaint in the Green case and next week McCraw will make the necessary formal motion that a master be named to take evidence on the controlling question the court has been asked to decide: The legal domicile of Green at the time of his death.

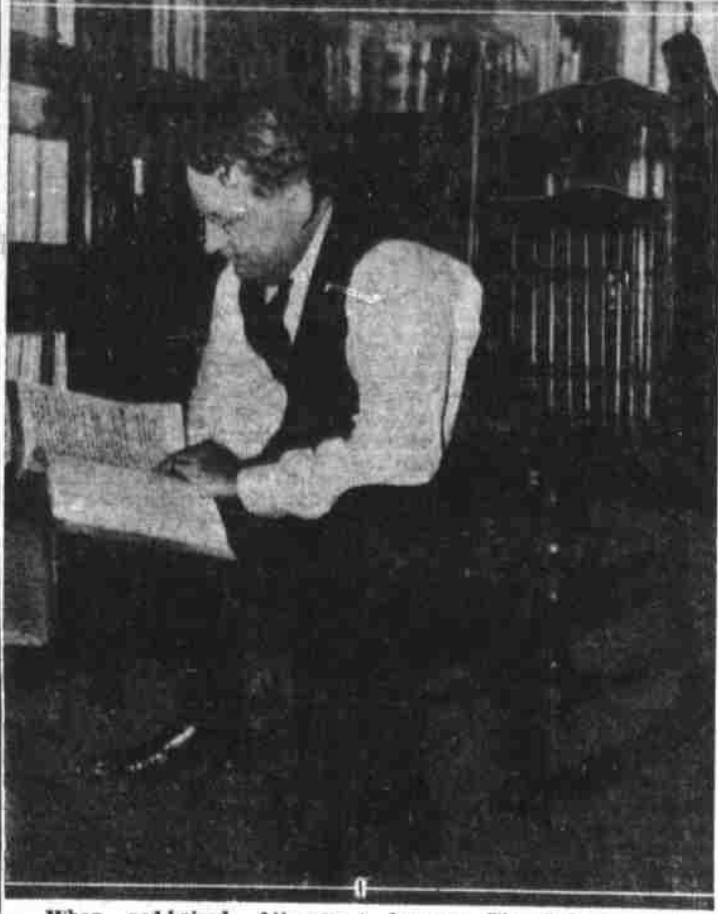

This procedure, McCraw pointed out, seeks to avoid the long and much more costly proceedings such as are now being conducted by a master of the surrogate court of Essex county, New York, in connection with probate of the Green estate. This probate almost certainly will be decided eventually by the Supreme Court and Texas sought to eliminate the intermediate steps.

Battling 1,000

So far, the Texas attorney general has a perfect batting average for his supreme court cases, which were:

1. The Green case, which the court has accepted.
2. The suit known as the Cook case, in which the oil tax law was under fire, particularly that section which requires royalty owners to pay a tax on their share of production. It has been estimated this victory saved Texas a million dollars a year.
3. The Texas and Pacific right-of-way case. The T. & P. claimed the minerals in its right-of-way extending from Fort Worth to El Paso, and sought to drill oil wells in those oil producing counties

ATTORNEY-GENERAL AT WORK

When red-haired Attorney General Bill McCraw shakes his coat to pore over his law books, likely as not he drops comfortably into a wide-armed chair that holds particular significance to him and other lawyers. The chair is one of a duo known as "The Twins" a name bestowed by the great James Stephen-Hogg, who used them in his office while attorney general.

The Markets

SLIGHT GAIN SHOWN BY A FEW ISSUES ON STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—The going was slow and a trifle rough in today's stock market although a handful of industrials and rails managed to gain ground moderately.

Trading forces were shy and shifty from the start and few backed judgment with extensive commitments either way. Those who appeared in the boardrooms confined themselves principally to tape watching.

Stimulus seemed to have faded from the truce in the Jones & Laughlin and General Motors strikes. Current business news was still cheering so far as it went, but talk of a summer set-back was again heard in analytical quarters.

Rails swung up at the start of the two-hour proceedings but found the track slippery before the close and the majority yielded a large part of their gains in final dealing. Steels, motors, utilities and tobaccos were backward throughout.

Transfers of 342,560 shares compared with 285,390 last Saturday. With the exception of the latter date it was the smallest turnover since June of last year. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended with an advance of .2 of a point at 66.3.

COTTON

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Further moderate advances were registered in cotton today on a small trade and foreign demand while offerings were light. July, which had sold up to 12.84, closed at 12.76, with final prices 8 to 14 points net higher.

The market opened 8 to 12 points higher on price fixing, continental and Bombay buying as well as covering for over the week-end. Contracts were scarce and prices soon got up to 15 to 17 points. A little local realizing appeared at these levels and partial reactions from the best followed.

Loan cotton releases for the week were restricted to 70 bales and Washington advices indicated the Commodity Credit Corporation was considering either modification of its release terms or suspension of the disposal program but corporation officials refrained from expressing opinions as to which course would be followed.

NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, May 15 (AP)—Cotton advanced slightly in today's abbreviated session in quiet trading. Final prices were steady and showed net gains of 7 to 9 points.

Selling pressure was lacking and a moderate demand was influenced by reports of cooler weather over the belt. Most traders took the view that the lower temperatures may prove harmful to the crop by preventing proper germination of the seed.

July contracts closed at 12.67, Oct. 12.57, Jan. 12.09 and March 12.71. Spots were 9 points higher with middling at New Orleans selling at 12.07.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 15 (AP)—Unfavorable crop advices, particularly from Canada, and a strengthening wheat export situation helped bring out buying that lifted wheat prices as much as 2 5-8 cents business today.

Other grains rose with wheat. One stage, stimulated by export sales of 150,000 bushels to Norway and 250,000 to Germany, representing deliveries on contracts here. There was talk of further similar business.

Wheat closed 1 to 2 1-4 cents higher compared with Friday's finish. May 1.25 7-8-26, July 1.18 1-8, September 1.16 3-8-1-2, corn was 5-8-3 up, May new 1.30 3-8, July new 1.17 3-8-3-4, September 1.09 1-5.

through which the railroad passes. The state contended that the road had been given the land only for railroad right-of-way purposes, and that the projected oil wells would have drained the oil from beneath adjacent lands belonging rightfully to the Texas school fund.

4. In the Henderson case, the supreme court held the Texas law which restricts the use of sweet gas to light and fuel, in the interest of conserving this natural resource.

Convict Labor Case

5. McCraw took an active part in a case which, although not originating in Texas, was of vital interest to Texas labor, the so-called Whip and Collar company case. Involved was the federal law prohibiting interstate shipments of merchandise manufactured by convict labor. McCraw filed an intervention on behalf of Texas, and the supreme court sustained constitutionality of the law.

YOUNG FARMER TO GO TO TRIAL MONDAY

BRADY, May 15 (AP)—Fred Parker, young Milburn community farmer, is scheduled to go to trial here Monday for the murder of his wife last Jan. 22. A special venire of 72 men has been summoned.

Mrs. Parker, a former Fort Worth school teacher, was killed, the state alleges, by a blow on the head. Parker first told officers his wife died after being kicked in the head by a horse. He later changed his statement.

It must keep them fresh

THIS IS the essence of all refrigeration, but the thing you take more or less for granted is the way the fresh stands up to the rigors of the refrigerator. The refrigerator is whether mechanical, or ice, each refrigerator goes through a drastic engineering test to determine the effectiveness of the refrigerator to maintain the proper conditions of the refrigerator with economical ice, or power consumption. The tests are made under actual conditions, with sensitive devices that give accurate readings of all variations within the refrigerator.

Then each refrigerator is given a kitchen service test in which observations are made as to the way the fresh stands up to the rigors of the refrigerator. The refrigerator is examined to see if it is substantially constructed and properly put together; and the hardware is inspected to see if it is heavy enough and operates properly. Because of these tests Good Housekeeping can answer authoritatively inquiries from thousands of readers asking many questions about refrigerators. Because of these tests, more than two million readers have faith in Good Housekeeping and its advertising pages.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE OIL FIELD COMMUNITIES

At the Overton Home Demonstration club Thursday, Mrs. G. F. Painter gave helpful suggestions to prevent moths in the clothes closet. "Light and air are essential to a clothes closet. Where it is possible have a window in the wall and a light in the closet. Moths will not stay where the light is and a smooth wall, therefore it is best to have the wall painted a light color," stated Mrs. Painter. Mrs. Jesse Overton, wardrobe demonstrator, gave a talk on adequate clothes storage. Mrs. Hart Phillips will give a talk on parliamentary law in the next meeting which will be with Mrs. Frank Tate. The hostess, Mrs. G. F. Painter served refreshments at the close of the meeting to Mrs. Jesse Overton, Mrs. Jesse Green, Mrs. Frank Tate and Mrs. Hart Phillips.

HUBBELL GETS 1936 PLAYER AWARD

Although he asserted his economic policy would not "diminish the volume of world trade," political sources said they felt his speech indicated Italy was not in a mood to make active contributions to solution of the world's economic difficulties.

Testimony Of Importance In Zep Inquiry

One Of Crew In Stern Of Dirigible, Near First Blast

LAKEHURST, N. J., May 15 (AP)—The investigators of the Hindenburg disaster unexpectedly discovered today a man who could tell them what he saw happen in the dirigible's stern when it was torn with a flaming explosion.

Considered one of the most important crew survivors yet found, told the commerce department investigating board and its staff of American and German advisors that he was on duty in the ship's tail at the time and near the spot where disaster struck so suddenly.

Freund had been called as another routine crew survivor witness so that he might mail for his German home tonight with 20 other comrades who have told their stories. His apparent knowledge of the moment of disaster so impressed the investigators, however, that he was suddenly withdrawn from the stand and his thorough examination deferred until Monday.

While today's brief hearing was in progress, the loss of life from the airliner tragedy of May 6 increased to thirty-six. A German passenger on the last flight, Otto Ernst, 78, a Hanburg cotton importer, died this morning at Paul Kimball hospital, in nearby Lakewood, from the burns and injuries he suffered in the crash. His wife, less seriously hurt, remained under medical care in the same hospital. The condition of two other survivors in a Point Pleasant hospital has not been considered favorable since the wreck.

Baldwin Takes Troubles To His Premiers

Empire Economics, As Well As Wally, Issues Before Him

LONDON, May 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin was believed in authoritative quarters tonight to have taken his renewed difficulties with British royalty to the premiers of the dominions.

As the head of the cabinet retired to Chequers, his official country house, for the long Whit Sunday week-end, accompanied by some of the dominions leaders, two outstanding problems on his mind were empire economics and Wally Warfield.

Close observers considered Baldwin leader of the government element which would prevent the bride-to-be of the Duke of Windsor from becoming "her royal highness" when she becomes a duchess, probably early in June. The former King Edward VII, who opposed Baldwin in the crisis of last December, once more is

MUSSOLINI IS DETERMINED TO MAKE ITALY SELF-SUFFICIENT

ROME, May 15 (AP)—Italy will make herself economically self-sufficient even if she has to work "25 hours a day," Premier Benito Mussolini proclaimed today.

He called this program a guarantee of peace and a surety of "the life, the future and the power" of the Italian people.

The hard-jawed premier laid down his dictum before cheering members of the Corporative Guild, which includes representatives of all phases of fascist life, at their annual meeting in the Julius Caesar hall of the old capitol building.

Dr. Duce's black-uniformed audience laughed and applauded his ironic references to democracies, which, he declared, wished Italy to abandon her self-sufficiency program "for we know not what."

He provoked a demonstration by an apparent reference to the United States when he spoke of a coun-terposing him by insisting that his wife shall enjoy a royal title. This controversy, like the December crisis until it neared the climax, is being kept from public knowledge.

Privately persons in high places have expressed anxiety over possible political consequences of the "H. R. H." conflict.

The imminent retirement of Baldwin as prime minister—many believe it will come within a month—would not weaken the opposition to the future Duchess of Windsor, it was said, because his prospective successor, Neville Chamberlain, now chancellor of the exchequer, is known to see eye to eye with his chief on this issue.

Woe-Beset Paris Exposition Labors Toward Late Opening

PARIS, May 15 (AP)—The Paris exposition rising along the Seine has been praised by the People's Front government as a symbol of political truce—but criticized by the opposition as a "foyer of revolution."

Strikes and demonstrations, accidents and floods, have marked the laborious growth of the 190 pavilions of France and 42 visiting nations.

Originally planned for May 1, inauguration of the show, which will run to November 25, has been delayed to May 24.

"Never On Time"
The government has indicated its defense will be that the show far surpassed that originally planned, and in any case, it is a tradition of Paris expositions that they never are on time.

The Seine flooded some of the grounds during the winter, and the rains and winds of the wet spring caused minor accidents.

Laborers took part in several organized stoppages of work, once, February 11, to hear Premier Blum exhort them to greater efforts, and again March 18 in the general strike of protest against the Clichy riot.

Many foreign buildings were started late. Work on the American pavilion, on the left bank near the Eiffel tower, began only in mid-April.

Red Flags Stir Rumpus
The cabinet had its most serious exposition disputes with its own supporters among the working class.

Carpenters, erecting the two monumental towers of wood at the Place de l'Alma entrance, floated a giant tri-color, adorned with decorations of their own making, over each of the columns.

The flags bore the three parallel arrows of the socialist party on the field of blue, the liberty bonnet of the radical-socialists on the white and the hammer and sickle of the communists on the red.

Police took down the emblems, because it is an offense to disgrace the national flag, and the next day a whole array of red banners appeared.

The incident, petty at the start, became a test of the government's power to control extremists in its own camp.

Bases Hoped On Visitors
A new quarrel loomed over release of the workers upon completion of the exposition. To prevent unemployment among the 22,000 men working on the pavilions, the building trades union demanded a 10 billion franc public works program, financed by a new loan, despite a government stand against either further expenses or increased borrowing.

The government has pressed on with the work, hoping that once the visitors arrive, political passions will subside.

It counts, too, upon 400,000 Americans and millions of Europeans bringing to France a vast supply of the foreign exchange needed to help make up the deficit in the country's trade balance.

FAIRBANKS FACES DISEASE THREAT IN WAKE OF FLOODS

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, May 15 (AP)—Flooded Fairbanks, alternately cheered and dismayed as the Tanana and Chena rivers dropped and rose, emphasized precautions against disease tonight as surveys indicated no immediate relief from the inundation.

Mayor E. B. Collins warned against use of domestic water without boiling, and offered free inoculations against typhoid. There was an ample supply of serum.

Flood waters rose 4 1/2 inches early today, then dropped an inch. But another rise was forecast when the temperature climbed to 39 degrees above. Reports were received, however, that the Tanana river at Big Delta, 90 miles above Fairbanks, dropped seven inches last night due to cooler weather there.

AN ANGLE ON THE EXPOSITION
Paris famous Eiffel tower leans crasily in the background as the camera rides the roller coaster on the exposition grounds.

SKELETON GOES RIDING, AS A TIP TO AUTOMOBILE DRIVERS

SAFETY WARNING: Death At the Wheel

MARLIN, May 15 (AP)—A grinning human skeleton, prop at many a lodge initiation here, has taken to the highway in a campaign to reduce automobile accidents.

"I'm with you on every trip" is the message the musty bones rattle along the roads, and into schools, churches and clubs.

"Drive carefully and I won't go," reads the sign under the grinning death head.

The state department of public safety was so impressed with the idea, presented by George S. Buchanan, it is sending a patrol of highway officers along as an escort.

Buchanan says he got the idea for the safety project when he bumped into the skeleton in a lodge-room closet.

Knox Cases On Court Docket

Klapproth To Return To Bench Here For The Week's Sessions

Judge Charles L. Klapproth returns to the bench of the 70th district court here Monday for the final week of the current term in Howard county. He will replace W. M. Taylor, local attorney named as special judge last week to sit in the absence of Judge Klapproth who presided over the 190th district court in Lamesa.

Among the cases slated for trial this week are the forgery counts against Hiram A. Knox. The cases were due to have been called last week, but the state's attorney passed the cases while the defendant attempted restitution to his former employers, against whom he is alleged to have committed his offenses.

Eight other criminal cases were on the docket for action in the last week. Defendants and charges against each include H. O. Sandlin, driving while intoxicated; H. R. Bryan, swindling; Charles Eugene Clark, burglary; Eusebio Martinez and Cruz Abrado, two counts of burglary; J. H. Stokes, perjury; J. H. Stump, driving while intoxicated; and J. W. Conway, forgery.

Several civil cases are to come up for disposition during the last week.

Petit jurors called for duty Monday at 10 a. m., according to District Clerk Hugh Dubberly, are J. W. Fryar, C. B. Lawrence, M. M. Denton, Dock Wallace, G. F. Hall, Noel T. Lawson, R. C. Leatherwood, J. C. Wallis, Jr., W. A. Sheets, R. N. Adams, Grady Acuff, Steve Baker, C. B. Edwards, E. Anderson, G. M. Matthews, Donaldson Adkins, B. L. LeFever.

Guests At Hotel Do Own Work As Employees Strike

ST. LOUIS, May 15 (AP)—Guests lugged their own baggage, made their own beds and with apparent good nature put up with other limited services today in eight leading St. Louis hotels affected by a strike of union chambermaids, bellhops, cooks and other employees seeking a closed shop.

Hotel managers and their assistants ran elevators and attempted to fill in as best they could the gap left by the walkout of an estimated 2,000 workers. The president of a national hotel company assisted in preparing and serving breakfast in a hotel kitchen.

When a closed shop was gained, the unions intended to negotiate on questions of wages and hours. Failure to reach a closed shop agreement by Monday or Tuesday will result in a strike at all of the hotels, union leaders declared.

William Victor, president of the hotel association, issued a statement in which he said "a closed shop is impractical in the hotel business."

Building Activity Takes Spurt Here

Building activities spurred here last week, sending the month total to near $15,000 in permits.

Heading the list of building jobs was that of a brick and tile business structure by Frank Lester at 404 Johnson street, to cost $7,360. Next was a permit to T. E. Baker to construct a residence at 502 Collard street at a cost of $3,800.

Among the extensive remodeling jobs to business structures was those in the Collins Bros. store, where the awning was changed and new windows installed, and in the interior of Frost drug store.

Face of permits thus far during May have given promise of exceeding the $18,000 of a year ago and thus becoming the largest May on record since 1930.

New Nazi Drive On Catholics Seen

BERLIN, May 15 (AP)—The closing of a Catholic boys seminary in Heiligenstadt by Nazi state police was interpreted in some quarters today as the opening of a police campaign against Catholic educational institutions throughout Germany.

Catholic circles were particularly aroused because the Gestapo action coincided with nation-wide publicity given trials of priests and lay brothers on charges of immorality and because of official recognition of Gen. Erich Ludendorff's pagan "German god" movement.

The Heiligenstadt seminary, where secondary school youths prepared for later priesthood training, was shut today because, the police said, of "wretched moral conditions prevailing among youthful inmates."

More than 1,000 lay brothers and numerous priests throughout the Reich are on trial or awaiting trial on charges of improper conduct, official German figures disclosed. There have been 53 recent convictions.

Catholic attorneys have stated that information for the Nazi "immorality" prosecutions was taken from Catholic archives seized by police during earlier trials of months and runs accused of violating money transfer restrictions.

These records, they said, show that many of the "immorality" de-

Shaw Appeals For United Work In Making London School Bigger, Safer

HENDERSON, May 15 (AP)—W. C. Shaw, who yesterday was relieved of the superintendency of the London independent school district where an explosion in March claimed the lives of several hundred students and teachers, today issued a statement to express "my feelings and position in regard to my dismissal."

"Immediately after the great disaster of March 15 that brought incommensurable sorrow and grief to our community, of which I had my share, I reluctantly continued my services after appeals from the board of trustees, representatives of the oil companies operating in the district, and friends," he said, the statement being addressed to the patrons, teachers and pupils of the London school.

"After undertaking this job of rebuilding a school which was the pride of my life, and feeling that I was no more responsible for what happened on that fateful afternoon than any member of the board, and others who claimed to know better than I the danger of gas and its explosive character, I did not propose to resign, and by so doing assume the whole responsibility of this disaster, and especially while pathy for I feel that the whole civilized world has heaped its beautiful sympathy upon us all. But I would appeal to the patrons, teachers who will be permitted to continue their services, and the pupils who have been spared, to rally to the authorities of the school and help it be a bigger, better and safer school than ever before. To any ill feeling that may exist I would ask for that grace of the Great Teacher when he said: 'Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.'

"With my best wishes and thanks for the splendid spirit of helpfulness you have shown me in the past I am, sincerely yours, W. C. Shaw."

SNARK WINS MET MILE

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Wheatley Stable's Snark ran like the champion he is to win the historic Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park before 15,000 chilled spectators today.

Snark, holder of the world record for 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:15 4/5, finished the mile in 1:37 4/5, brilliant time over a muddy track.

He won two lengths over Greentree Stable's Memory Book and paid 10 to 1 to win.

The favorite, Hal Price Headley's Whopper was third in the field of eight, a length and a half behind Memory Book.

When his dog and a coyote it was fighting fell into a creek, Olaf Segen of El Dorado, Kas., waded into the water and killed the coyote with a club.

What is "The Low-Price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it.

So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low—with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than the prices of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more.

It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service—for parts—and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85-horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the 60-horsepower delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.

THE SPORTS CIRCUIT War Admiral Runs Earnings To $100,000

BY TOM BEASLEY MAN O' WAR is 20 years old. That's mighty old—for a thoroughbred. Yet the most famous racehorse in American turf history is being acclaimed as the sire of War Admiral, winner of the third renewal of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, run Saturday.

War Admiral's victory in the Preakness ran his earnings for the year to well over the $100,000 mark. War Admiral is a real Man O' War colt even though he may not be as big as his famous daddy. He has his sire's mean disposition at the post, can break fast and get into his full stride quickly, cut out his own pace and keep himself in reserve for the long drive down the home-stretch. Man O' War was like that.

In his starts as a three-year-old, War Admiral has shown the Man O' War characteristic of breaking on top and showing the way from barrier to finish line. There are many, however, who believe Pomponio would have fared better than War Admiral in a longer race.

WAGERING ON THE Preakness and the seven other races reached pre-depression figures Saturday as $1,059,447 passed through the pari-mutuel machines. With $230,981 bet on the Preakness alone, the total figures marked the greatest display of wagering at Pimlico since 1929 when $1,341,225 went through the machines. Last year the total play on Preakness day was only $783,053.

MANAGER RALPH LaLonde, who entered a formal protest during last Wednesday's Anderson Devil-T&P Shopper softball game, brought up a problem that should be straightened out immediately if the league is to survive. Thirteen players will be eligible to make the team—Craig Wood, Dick Metz, Paul Runyan, Ed Dudley, Sam Snead, Vic Ghezzi, Jimmy Hines, Ray Mangrum, Harold McSpaden, Byron Nelson, Ralph Guldahl, Olin Dutra, and Ky Laffoon. Out of that group are expected to come the other four players.

TEXAS STEERS TRIUMPH IN TRACK AND FIELD MEET

Sixth Consecutive Win For Longhorns Stave Off Threat Of Rice Institute's Great Crop Of Sprinters

By RAY NEUMANN AUSTIN, May 15 (AP)—The University of Texas today triumphed a sixth consecutive time in the annual Southwest Conference track and field meet, successfully withstanding the threat of Rice Institute's great crop of sprinters and hurdlers.

The Longhorns, featuring well-balanced power, totaled 66 points to the Owl's 52, with Texas A&M scoring 24, Arkansas 14, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian, eight each, and Baylor four.

High point honors went to Jack Patterson, Rice's crack timber-topper, who won both hurdle events and shaved 1-10 second off the old mark of 14.6 in the high, set by Harlan of A. & M. in 1931. The wins netted him 10 points.

H. V. Reeves, Jr., of Texas won the century in 9.7, finished second in the 220 yard dash and anchored the record-breaking 440-yard relay team for second honors, his performance giving him 9-1-4 points. A number scored seven each, including Willard Moser, Paul Sanders and E. Y. Steakley of Rice, Doc O'Neill of Southern Methodist and Nelson Hall of Texas.

Besides the high hurdles, old records were smashed in the quarter-mile relay, won by Texas, the high jump, the quarter-mile and the javelin throw.

Texas' quarter-mile quartet of Graves, Atchison, Ramsdell and Reeves ripped around the oval in 41.6 seconds as compared with the old mark of 41.8 set two years ago by another Longhorn combination of Pickett, Austin, Grunstein and Wallender.

Paul Sanders, Rice's winged-footed sophomore of Oklahoma City, sped the quarter mile in 48 seconds flat, taking nearly a full second off the old mark of 48.8 set by Cox of Texas five years ago.

Doc O'Neill of Southern Methodist hurled the javelin 208 feet, one-half inch for a new entry in the record files. Skripka of A. & M. held the former mark of 206 feet, 3-2 inches, established in 1935.

In the high jump, leaping Jack Vickery of Texas, making his final appearance on his home field, outscored his previous mark nearly three inches by leaping 6 feet, 6-1/2 inches.

Rice's quarter-mile relay team without the services of Jack Elliott, who pulled a muscle in the 100-yard dash. He was replaced by Bert Carr.

The Owl mile relay combination came within three-tenths of a second of the conference record and marked up the first loss for Texas in that event in many years. Carr, Moser, Sanders and Steakley were clocked in 2:19.2.

Dave Weichert, Rice's stellar pole vaulter, failed to better his own record of 13 feet, 10-1/8 inches set last year. The best he could do was 13 feet, 6 inches.

Co-Capt. Remus Thomas of Texas brought the crowd to its feet when he won the grueling mile race, which he pulled a muscle in the 100-yard dash. Trailing Bell at the turn, Thomas pushed ahead in the stretch.

Dressen Leads Terry In '37 Clothes Derby

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—That grin you see on Chuck Dressen's brick-red face these days is there because the Cincinnati Reds' manager is one up on Pilot Bill Terry of the New York Giants.

They make an annual bet. Dressen has won two bets so far and is leading, two games to one, on this year's wager.

Two years ago Dressen bet Terry the Reds would win at least seven games from the Giants; they won eight and Dressen collected a $100 suit of clothes. Last season, Dressen bet they'd win at least nine from the Giants; they did just that and Terry bought his extra another $100 set of finery.

Now Dressen has a bet that the Reds will at least split with the Giants, take 11 games out of 25. In making the wager he said he feared no Giant pitcher except Carl Hubbell.

The first time they tangled this season, the Reds bombarded Hubbell to the showers, but King Carl was credited with winning that day—his 19th consecutive league victory. The Reds, however, won the next two games and hold the edge over their arch rivals when they resume hostilities at Cincinnati on May 25.

Dressen also bet Terry a hat that Pitcher Lloyd Moore, one-time protegee of immortal Cy Young in semi-pro ball, would succeed in making the jump from the Class C El Dorado (Ark.) club to a regular post with the Reds.

Pogi Returns To Main Event For Bout With Tricky 'Ace' Freeman

Ace Freeman, stocky Big Spring favorite, returns to the local wrestling arena Tuesday to go two out of three falls with Gorilla Pogi who copped a two-fall decision over Jerry Markus in last week's main bout.

The svelte South American ape-man, who admits using rough tactics but says he's never mean, seems to be improving with each match.

WAR ADMIRAL RUNS TRUE TO FORM IN WINNING PREAKNESS

REYNOLDS SMITH TAKES OUT COFFEY FOR STATE AMATEUR GOLF TITLE

POMPOON IS DEFEATED BY A HEAD

By ORLO ROBERTSON
BALTIMORE, May 15 (AP)—Samuel Riddle's War Admiral strengthened his claim to the three-year-old turf title today as he thrust back the game stretch challenge of J. H. Loughheim's Pompoon to win the $50,000 Preakness.

With between 40,000 and 45,000 spectators on their feet, the two horses came to the finish line of the mile and three-sixteenths test separated by the narrow margin of a head to furnish one of the most exciting climaxes in the 47 years of the Pimlico classics and duplicate their order of finish in the Kentucky Derby.

War Admiral, diminutive son of Wan O'War, had no easy time as he did in the derby, in which he beat Pompoon by a length and a half. Today he was driving all through the stretch but proved himself a true champion by running the distance in 1:58 2-5.

Track Trifle Slow
The track was still a trifle slow from yesterday's rains, but the time was only a fifth of a second slower than the Preakness record hung up by High Quest three years ago.

The judges flashed the "photo finish" sign as the two horses hit the finish line, but it was evident that War Admiral was in front. The margin was so small, however, that many, viewing the race from a difficult angle, had to wait until the picture was developed before their hopes were confirmed. Then the yell that had cheered the Man O'War colt all around the course swelled into a mighty roar.

The greater part of the $200,981 which passed through the mutuels on the race went to the support of War Admiral. As a result, he was the shortest priced winner in the history of the "old hilltop" stake.

Short Odds
A $2 win ticket on the Admiral returned only $2.70. He paid $2.30 to place and $2.40 to show. As the second choice, Pompoon returned $2.40 and $2.70 to place and show, respectively. Flying Scot, one of the outsiders in the wagering that favored little but the first two horses, paid 2 to 1 to show.

Riddle, 76 year old Philadelphia who was unable to see his colt win the derby because of illness, but was present today, fared much bet-

Garden Continues Struggle To Protest Jim Braddock's Contract

By EDDIE BRIEZE
NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Few along Broadway could make any more out of the jumbled heavyweight situation today than they could before Judge Guy L. Fabe announced his long-awaited decision to Newark yesterday.

It now is pretty well established that Champion James J. Braddock will fight Joe Louis in Chicago, June 2, but beyond that, one guess is as good as another.

The German challenger, Max Schmeling who once again finds himself on the outside looking in, occupies one of the key positions. The New York state athletic commission is firmly ensconced in another.

Whether the disappointed Schmeling, faithfully training for the phantom June 3 title bout with Braddock, will be content to stock around for a fight with the Chicago winner, dash into the courts or take a few easy money bouts with Bob Pastor, John Henry Lewis, et al and return to Germany in time to prevent the Chicago fight.

Cummings 'Burns Up' Indianapolis Track

INDIANAPOLIS, May 15 (AP)—"Wild Bill" Cummings, a grinning hometown boy with a heavy foot, left broken speedway records in his wake today as he won the pole position for the 500-mile automobile race here May 31.

Cummings, one of the eleven drivers to qualify today for the race, broke the all-time official speedway record for one lap when he wheeled his four-cylinder front drive creation around the track on the last lap of the 25-mile qualifying sprint at 123.130 miles an hour.

That gave him a qualifying speed of 123.445 miles an hour for the full 25 miles—also an all-time speedway record.

The speedway record for qualifying was broken twice during the day. About an hour preceding Cummings' run Wilbur Shaw, another Indianapolis driver, turned the 25 miles in 122.751 miles an hour.

The previous one-lap record at the speedway was set in 1928 by Leon Duray. It was 124.018 miles an hour. Duray also held the old qualifying record of 122.091 miles an hour.

Finley Signs Contract With Boston Red Sox

DALLAS, May 15 (AP)—Bob Finley, Southern Methodist university's 200 pound baseball captain and catcher, who also helped make Mustang football history, said today he had signed a contract with the Boston Red Sox, and would report about June 4.

Finley, who hails from Corsicana, boasts a batting average of .350 for the Southwest conference season and last year wound up with a .359 average. Roswell G. Higginbotham, his coach, recently described him "as good a professional baseball prospect as there is in the conference."

RALPH BUXTON BLANKS SAN ANTONIO, 1-0

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 15 (AP)—Ralph Buxton, Oklahoma City right-hander, who has had little success this season, covered himself with glory here tonight with a brilliant 1 to 0 shutout of the San Antonio Mission in a Texas League series opener. Buxton allowed only two hits.

SNEAD POSTS 70 IN SECOND ROUND OF MET

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., May 15 (AP)—Sam Snead, the long-hitting West Virginian, today came up with a 70 in the second round of the Metropolitan open golf championship for a total of 128 and one-stroke lead over blond Jimmy Hines of Garden City, N. Y.

Only five strokes separated as many leaders at the half-way mark in this $2,000 tournament over the Forest Hill field club course. Trailing Hines, with his 68-70, came Paul Runyan, 1934 titleholder, with a consistent 70-70-140, followed by Henry Picard, the 1935 champion from Hershey, Pa., at 70-71-141, and Bert McDougall, wee Scottish pro from Essex Falls, N. J., with a pair of 71's for 142.

6TH WIN FOR POWELL

TUCSON, Ariz., May 15 (AP)—Lawrence (Lefty) Powell chalked up his sixth pitching victory of the season here this afternoon, a 13 to 4 triumph over the Albuquerque Cardinals, but his Tucson Cowboy team mates played sandlot baseball by contributing seven misplays.

Tucson's star portlander limited Bill Delancey's Redbirds to six scattered safeties and struck out 10 batsmen.

The victory was Tucson's seventh in a row over Albuquerque.

Elbow Clouts Out 7-5 Win Over Gassers

L. D. Cunningham's Wildness Big Factor In Owen Defeat
Elbow's aroused Raiders clouted out a 7-5 win over the Owens Gassers Friday night on the Mundy diamond to score their first softball victory in league play.

The Raiders counted in the second frame to take a one run lead, fell behind when the Gassers tallied once in their part of the second and again in the third, but stepped out in the next three innings to take a comfortable lead.

L. D. Cunningham's wildness was a big factor in the defeat. He gave up 11 passes and 13 base hits while McKinnon was limiting the Gassers to 15 scattered blows.

COSDEN WINS FROM LORAIN TEAM, 10 TO 4

LORAIN, May 15 — While the Cosden Oilers were jumping all over Truman Henderson in the first three innings, Manager Pepper Martin uncovered a brilliant pitching prospect as the Big Spring Cosden Oilers walloped the Loraine Independents, 10-4, here Saturday afternoon.

The "diamond in the rough" was Pat Stacey who recently joined the Cosdenites with promise as a hitting outfielder. He showed he could hit even before he took the hill in the fourth frame. The result was patrolling centerfield and Allen Wiggins was doing the mound work for the Oilers, but Allen was "beaten" by a Henderson pitch and had to leave the game. Stacey took the hill and put the Loraine crew down in great style, striking out six men.

The youngster also led the batting attack, collecting three base hits in four tries, including two stalling doubles.

The Oilers garnered 11 base hits off the combined offerings of Henderson and Lee Dorn, while Wiggins and Stacey were giving up seven.

Carmen Brandon, Tommy Hutto and Horace Wallin contributed doubles to the Big Spring attack. Brandon also hit a triple.

WALKER CUP STAR WINS 10 AND 9

By LEWIS T. NORDYKE
HOUSTON, May 15 (AP)—Reynolds Smith, 24 year old Walker Cup player from Dallas, won the Texas amateur golf championship on the River Oaks course today by beating Young Billy Bob Coffey of Fort Worth, 10 and 9.

It was Smith's second title. He won it the first time in 1934, the same year he went to the semi-finals in the national amateur. Coffey, 20 year old University of Texas freshman, was playing in his first state tournament.

The favorite because of his excellent career on the links and his decisive wins over defending champion Don Schumacher and former tiltist Harry Todd in the quarter and semi-finals, Smith was never behind.

Except for putter trouble on the first 18, Smith played exceptionally fine golf all day. Coffey, a game little fighter, turned in a fair game on the first 18 but failed to win a hole on the last nine. Smith was four up on him midway and took six and halved three of the last nine.

Smith was three over par on the first 18 but went two under on the last nine.

In Woods Airl Traps
Coffey had trouble all the way around. He was in traps or the woods nearly a dozen times. Several times he saved holes with his fine recovery shots.

Lee Brandt, Jr., of San Antonio defeated Milton Ward of Corpus Christi, 5 and 4, to win the first flight.

Gene Darby of Edinburg beat D. Lehman of Fort Worth, 1 up, for the championship consolation title.

Schools

Classes of approximately 100 seventh graders in the county rural school rally day program here May 25. However, the program will be essentially the same as in seven preceding years with the presentation of diplomas and awards in the morning, a picnic luncheon at the park at noon, and an all school program in the auditorium in the afternoon.

Gerald Mann To Be Here

Gerald C. Mann, prominent young Dallas attorney, will be the featured speaker on the Big Spring high school program May 28. Mann, former secretary of state and executive secretary of the Texas planning board and one-time football star of S.M.U., was chosen because of his ability as a speaker and because his profession is the same as that of Horace Mann, whose Centennial schools are observing in America this year.

Mann, a member of the Massachusetts legislature, resigned his position in 1837 to assume duties of a position corresponding to the modern state superintendent's post, where he made an active fight for tax supported public schools, and schooling for the masses.

Two student speakers, not yet named, will give historical background on Horace Mann, while the Dallas attorney will speak of Horace Mann as "A Practical Idealist."

Big Spring seniors will hear Rev. P. Walter Henckel, rector of the St. Mary's Episcopal church, in baccalaureate services scheduled for the evening of May 23.

Among the schools which will send students here for the rural school day festivities are R-Bar, Vincent, Morris, Gay Hill, Center Point, Hartwell, Morgan, Richland, Soash, Moore, Midway, Cauble, Lomax, Fairview, and Venmoor.

Legislature

Work in rural areas, and domestic help, stenographers and secretaries would be among certain classes expected.

"Under this bill, you would arrest people for giving women an opportunity to make a living," said Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, one of its sharpest critics. A violation would be a misdemeanor.

With the matter of this session's adjournment decided definitely, interest was intensified in the deadlock between Gov. James V. Allred and a group in the senate — some claim it is a minority, others a majority — over what should be done with a bill to repeal the race betting law already passed by the house.

The governor reiterated with emphasis that there would be another session called immediately on adjournment of the current one if the senate refused as it has done for many weeks to vote directly one way or the other on the repeal bill.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Court

Security Decision Their eyes were centered on the supreme court itself—for a decision on the constitutionality of the social security act or for any indication of retirements. Either development, they said, might have a decisive influence on the outcome of the contest.

There were hints, in some quarters, that Justice Van Devanter would soon announce his retirement without waiting for the outcome of the conflict.

Some of the court bill opponents said, however, that they felt certain there would be no retirements as long as the bill is pending. On the other hand, they added, there were indications that if the president would withdraw the court bill, three retirements would follow quickly.

In addition to Van Devanter, they said, Justices Brandeis and Sutherland would drop out of the court. All three of these justices are now past 75 years of age. Brandeis has been one of the "liberals," but the other two have voted consistently with the "conservative" group.

The Week

Five bid for the next convention of the state Tax Collectors and Assessors association, and the state County Clerks gathering. At Brownwood, Big Spring fired the opening salvo for the WTCC convention here in 1938. And there are several smaller towns in the fire in the hopes of bringing convention dollars and state publicity to this city.

And speaking of the chamber of commerce, three major objectives may be ahead for the body this year. First and foremost is that of seeking location of the state hospital for insane here. This will necessitate, and there is little doubt about it, the provision of 320 acres of good land for the site. Without making herself feel good, Big Spring can truthfully say that it has an excellent chance of landing the hospital. Second, the Andrews road, which would be combined with a lateral road program for Martin county, is demanding attention. At least one member of the highway commission strongly favors the road. Martin county has developed a keen interest in the road which would link Stanton with an east and west outlet through the northern end of the county. Andrews has always favored it. A third project being talked, probably with some chamber support, is an oil mill. Not a few locals are beginning to feel that the answer to the mill problem is to be found right here in local capital.

Howard county is making the kind of history posterity will enjoy when it accomplishes such projects as the surfacing of the Chalk road. Completion of the WFA road will give the county 18 miles of surfaced lateral road, that many less miles to maintain, that many less miles to be gone with the wind, or in which to mire. It is very fitting that the project runs through the heart of the oil field, for the first paved lateral road the county built should have been there. Oil is responsible for no little amount of revenues to the county, and those who work with it should get something in return for their tax money.

Farmers and ranchers will have an opportunity to look at some fine fed beef here Friday when the annual feeders day program is held. The fat steers should be an object lesson to many that home raised beef does not have to go north to make good top meat. West Texas cattle can be fed almost as effectively right here at home with West Texas feed.

INTERVIEWS SLATED FOR APPLICANTS TO STATE POSITIONS

Syd Lowry, in charge of the local national re-employment office, announced Saturday that interviews would be given from May 17 to June 4 for approximately 1,000 applicants for positions in the staff of the Texas state employment service.

Only those candidates who successfully competed in written examinations early last March for positions will be admitted to the oral tests, Prof. J. Alton Burdine, University of Texas, in charge of the tests as supervisor of the merit system of the service, said.

The examining boards will conduct personal interviews in Abilene on May 22-26; Austin May 20-26; Dallas May 17-21; El Paso May 27-28; Lubbock May 31-June 3; and other Texas points.

In grading applicants, four factors are considered: Education, type and amount of education, written test grade, and oral interview rating. The final average must be 70 or above to give the applicant a place on the eligible list.

Lowry said that several from Big Spring took the tests and that a few would be eligible for the oral interviews.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD IN ENGLAND FOR LORD CONWAY

Word has been received here of memorial services for the late Lord Conway of Allington at St. Margaret's, Westminster, in England. Lord Conway was the husband of the former Iva Christian daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Christian of this city.

He was the son of the earon of Westminster, was educated in English colleges including Cambridge, was a professor of art at the University College in Liverpool, several times chairman of the Society of Authors, director general of the Imperial War Museum in 1917, and was a voluminous writer, his last book having been "A Pilgrim's Quest for the Divine."

He was knighted in 1895 and was raised to the peerage as Baron of Conway in 1931. In 1934 he married Iva, widow of Reginald Lawson of Saltwood Castle, Kent. Their friendship had been fostered by their joint enthusiasm for the restoration of two fine old castles.

Two Entered In Contest

C. Of C. Seeks Other Nominations For 'Sweetheart'

Saturday only two young women had been nominated to represent Big Spring next Saturday night in the Frontier Fiesta contest at Fort Worth for the title of Texas Sweetheart No. 1.

They were Rozelle Stephens and Minnie Belle Williamson. Jimmie Greene, chamber of commerce manager, was anxious to have other nominations.

Those thus listed with the chamber will be included in an elimination contest at the Ritz theatre Tuesday evening. Because of the short time, Greene urged many nominations, either by young women who wish to enter the contest, or friends on their behalf.

Expenses of the winner will be paid to Fort Worth for the state contest. Last year Miss Faye Cotton of Borger won the contest and home one mile northwest of here with the Rev. A. H. Cole, Broken Bow, and the Rev. J. R. Finley, Coalgate, officiating. Burial will be in the Coalgate cemetery.

Gussie Bell Ragsdale was adjudged winner of a contest Friday evening in Lamesa to name that city's representative to the Frontier Fiesta state judging at Fort Worth May 22 when Texas Sweetheart No. 1 will be chosen.

Wilda Boldin was a close second to Miss Ragsdale. Judges for the affair were Max M. Merrick, R. F. Schermerhorn, Mrs. R. W. Cooper and Jimmie Greene of Big Spring, and Forrest L. McFarland of Hobbs, N. M.

Entries were Jackie Hart, Pauline Morris, Charlotte Lockhart, Catherine Webb, Eloise Summerall, Maurine Womack, Melvin Norris, Marjorie Billingsley, Ramah Eager, Tajana Smith, and Dorris Billingsley.

PAMPA BOY KILLED BY ELECTRIC WIRE

PAMPA, Tex., May 15 (AP)—Frantic parents who searched all night for their missing 15-year-old son found him dead today on a city dump—electrocuted.

Officials said Carl White, son of Mr. and Mrs. William White, Lefors, was killed instantly when he threw a wire over a transmission line carrying 56,000 volts of electricity.

Members of the family said they believed the boy had gone to the dump, a mile from Lefors, to ride back on a truck with a relative who had been hauling trash.

FALL OFF PILEDRIVER FATAL TO FOUR MEN

BELLINGHAM, Wash., May 15 (AP)—Four men fell to their deaths from a piledriver at Maple Falls, 35 miles northeast of here, late today.

The dead were tentatively identified as: Lee T. Tison, Otto Johnson, and William Borrowes of Seattle, and William Worstman, Sumas, Wash.

The crew had been driving piling in repairing the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul Pacific railroad trestle at Maple Falls. Cause of the accident was not immediately ascertained.

"Composers" in Phone Book CLEVELAND (UP)—Famous composers are well represented in Cleveland's newest telephone directory. The book reveals nine Bachs, eight Mendelssohns, seven Schuberts, five Handels, three Haydns, three MacDowells, two Nevins, and a Verdi.

Terrell Man Heads Press Association

PARIS, May 15 (AP)—Fred Masengill, editor of the Terrell Tribune, was elected president of the North and East Texas Press association today.

Lot Boynton, publisher of the Lamar County Echo, Paris, was named vice-president, and Fred Masengill, Sr., Terrell publisher, was unanimously re-elected secretary-treasurer.

New directors were C. C. Hudson, Wichita Falls and Iowa Park; John Hart, Commerce, W. H. Bradford, Garland, and Claude Coussart, Detroit.

The group went on record favoring a unicameral legislature voting to editorialize in favor of such a system for Texas.

The trophy for rendering the most outstanding community service during the past year was awarded the Galveston Register, published by Joe and C. H. Leonard.

Two Wood county weeklies, the Minola Monitor, published by R. H. Carraway, and the Wood County Democrat at Quitman, published by E. B. Shoaf, were adjudged the best in cities of 2,500 population and under 2,500 respectively, each receiving trophies.

A picnic and outing at Lake Crook park ended the convention.

Anti-Jewish Riots Sweeping Poland

WARSAW, May 15 (AP)—Bombing of a Jewish building in Warsaw and rioting against Jews in Grabow, Lodz province, today marked the spread of anti-semitic disorders in Poland in spite of nationwide police precautions.

A bomb exploded at the entrance of the Jewish community building in the capital, damaging the building but causing no casualties.

A mob that collected in Grabow, after a Jewish shopkeeper had knifed a gentile competitor, beat all Jews it could find and smashed 250 windows in Jewish homes. Frightened Jews barred their houses until the riot subsided.

Also in Breslau—the war-time Breslau-Litovek—some 30,000 Jews remained hidden in their homes while a large crowd followed a coffin of a policeman whose stabbing by a Jew Thursday precipitated serious disorders.

MAN CHARGED AFTER FARMER IS KILLED

PARIS, May 15 (AP)—D. A. Lynch was charged with murder today following the death of Greer W. Griffin, farmer near Roxton, in southwest Lamar county.

Griffin died at noon in a hospital here from cuts made by a hoe. Lynch was also badly cut by a hoe. He waived examining trial and made $1,200 bond. A disagreement over wages arose. Deputy Sheriff Jack Reeves said.

Funeral services for Griffin will be held tomorrow. Surviving are his widow, daughter and two brothers.

Film Strikers Make Offers

Craftsmen Await Reply From Hollywood Producers

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., May 15 (AP)—Movie studio craftsmen and laborers "sat tight" today awaiting a response from producers on new proposals to end their 15-day-old strike.

Each of 10 striking unions affiliated with the Federated Motion Picture crafts presented individual demands to the producers last night. All of them re-emphasized the F.M.P.C. demand for a union shop, but for the first time, definite wage and hour schedules which each union wants were included. These schedules were not made public.

As bargainer for all the unions, the F.M.P.C. has been holding out for a closed shop as a prerequisite of any wage-hour negotiations.

The F.M.P.C. called a mass meeting of the unions tonight to hear reports on progress toward strike settlement.

Picketing continued at the major studios.

More than 100 persons, including men in evening dress, and many pretty girls from the hairdressers' union, picketed a film premiere last night at the pretentious Carthay Circle theatre which several prominent players attended. There were some shouts and taunts from the picketers and their sympathizers lining the approaches to the theatre as stars rolled up in their limousines, but in general, the picketing was quiet and orderly.

CONNALLY FAVORS CONTINUED 3-1-2 RATE OF INTEREST

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally of Texas said today he would support a house bill providing for the extension of the 3-1-2 per cent interest rate on federal land bank farm loans.

Unless extended, the existing law providing such a rate expires July 1 and the old rates, varying from 4 to 5 per cent, will become effective. The house bill, reported favorably out of the agriculture committee by Chairman Marvin Jones of Amarillo, Tex., extends the 3-1-2 per cent rate until July 1, 1938, and provides that interest the following year, ending July 1, 1939, shall not exceed 4 per cent.

Connally said it would be "utterly unwise" to increase the interest rate on farms at this time.

SWITCHMAN KILLED

WELLINGTON, Kans., May 15 (AP)—Joe Cummins, 34, switchman was crushed to death between the couplings of a switch engine and a freight car in the Santa Fe railroad yards last night. He came here from Borger, Tex., in 1928. The widow and two children survive.

Most Of Those In Search Of Work Termed Unskilled

Bulk of the 15,976 workers actively seeking employment through the national re-employment service included in the semi-skilled and unskilled classes, Syd Lowry, local sub-district head said Saturday.

Of the total, 9,000 fall into the two classes mentioned. However, the per cent of that unskilled applicants had declined from 26.2 to 23.7 since Dec. 18.

A total of 610 different occupations were represented. Largest industrial group of applicants in the active file on April 1 was that of agriculture.

Nine months ago 28.1 per cent of those seeking employment in the district fell into the age group from 16-24 years. The current report had 23.1 per cent of that age while 27.1 were from 25 to 34 years of age. Only two per cent were over 65 years.

WILL SPUD TEST IN CALLAHAN COUNTY

Clever Chinese Party Is Given By ME Children

Culminating a month's study of China, members of the junior and primary departments of the First Methodist church entertained for their mothers Friday afternoon in the church basement to exhibit their handiwork and knowledge of the Oriental country with a Chinese party.

Invitations mailed to the mothers requested their "honorable" presence at a "trifling" entertainment. The basement was decorated with Chinese lanterns many of which had been fashioned by the children, richshas and kites.

At the refreshment hour, tea cakes topped with sesame seed, and puffed rice balls on sticks were served by several girls in Chinese costumes and boys similarly dressed carrying the baskets on poles in true Chinese style.

Hayes Stripling, Jr., was program announcer and presented the following:

Marilyn Keaton, Chinese poem; Woody Baker, story of two Chinese generals; Virginia Burns, Katherine Redding and Betty Jean Holt, dramatization of Chinese customs; Joyce Martin, story of a Chinese watermelon party; Helen Weaver, explanation of objects from China.

After the program the guests were invited to inspect the display of the children's work that included posters made by Mrs. Cecil Collins' class, picture map painted by Miss Edith Gay's pupils, and a Chinese cut-out village arranged by children in Mrs. Albert Smith's group. Also on exhibition were pictures of Chinese life.

Mrs. L. W. Beavers is superintendent of the junior group and Mrs. C. L. Rowe heads the primary department.

Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. Clyde Waitz Jr., were visitors in ent for the occasion this evening.

Miss Edith Gay, accompanied by Miss Roberta Gay at the piano and Miss Valdeva Childers violinist sang "By the Waters of Minnetonka," pianist, played Concert Waltz and gave a short summary of the life of the composer, Max Zappa. Violin selection was given by Mrs. Childers, accompanied by Miss Gay. As a closing program number the group sang a number of songs written by Stephen Foster.

Plans were made for the annual picnic that will be in charge of Mrs. J. W. Maddrey, the date for which has been set on May 25.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mrs. Blount, Mrs. Childers and Miss Ogden. Members attending were Mrs. W. J. McAdams, Mrs. Ladonia Strickland, Mrs. G. G. Sawelle, Mrs. W. T. Roberts, Mrs. Cecil Reed and Miss Beverly Franklin.

Reading AND Writing

By John Selby

"BUGLES BLOW NO MORE," by Clifford Dowdley (Little, Brown; $2.50); "THE RING IS CLOSED," by Knut Hamsun (Coward-McCann; $2.50); "WASHINGTON CALLING," by Marquis W. Childs (Morrow; $2.50); "CAN ALL THIS GRANDEUR PERISH?" by James T. Farrell (Vanguard; $2.50).

That sheep-like trust which leads publishers to believe that because one civil war novel has made a great success, every publisher's list should contain a civil war novel has led to the publication of Clifford Dowdley's "Bugles Blow No More."

This is the fourth of war, focused on Virginia and particularly on Richmond. It is also the story of aristocratic Mildred Wade and Brose Kirby, who was her father's clerk. The reader is washed about by the surge of war; she waits with the women at home, he fights with the men, fearful with the cowards and exults with the brave. At the end he has read a good, perhaps very good novel. And he has read the same old story all over again.

Knut Hamsun is telling his same old story once more, too. He does it in one of the best novels he has written, which he calls "The Ring Is Closed," and in which he returns to a study of the type of individualism which tends only toward a result in itself. His new hero is called Abel, but of course his right name is Hamsun—or rather Pederson, since Hamsun is a pen-name.

And it is nice to find that Marquis W. Childs, who did such a good job of understanding Scandinavia in "Sweden: The Middle Way," is up to an equally shrewd view of our own bedeviled Washington, D. C. "Washington Calling" is a novel which somehow catches up and utilizes the old patterns of Washington in a quite different way. Mr. Childs writes prose that moves along. His people have a pleasant fleshy form, not to say carnal, at times. The political situation is rather shrewdly recast, but there is more. There is a good love story, particularly a girl who is frank and real.

Should John Summer have failed to scare you away from James T. Farrell, you now may read him some more. He has 20-odd short pieces ready for you, neatly assembled in a book called "Can All This Grandeur Perish?" Some of these are capital, some read like dull studies for the Lonigan books. All read like Mr. Farrell.

Junior-Senior Affair At Settles Is Followed By Dance At Gym

All of the sparkling color and lively gaiety of a circus was packed in the Settles hotel ballroom Friday evening when the juniors of Big Spring high school entertained for the seniors with one of the gayest end-of-school affairs.

The ballroom was an improvised circus tent and serpentine, confetti, balloons and noisemakers of every description kept the occasion from getting serious at any time. Emblems of various colors joined the tables together and colorful pictures decorated the walls.

Programs were shaped as pinpoints and inside the features were arranged in three ring groups. On each was the invitation from the juniors asking the seniors to join them in a circus of "fun, food and frivolity."

"Musicians" Jane Marie Tingler called the attractions and introduced first, Leon Miller who gave a Dixie tap dance which was followed by Jacqueline Faw's interpretation of the St. Louis Blues. The popular Swing Sisters, Misses Clarinda Mary Sanders, Wanda McQuinn and Jane Lee Hannah, swung several Hawaiian numbers, and little Charlie Petty joined in with a hula-hula. Loretta Young, Tyrone Power In Second Co-Starring Film, Booked Today At Ritz

Menjou In Supporting Cast Of 'Cafe Metropole'

Remember the gay comedy romance, "Love Is News"?

Well, the two young players who merged talents to make that picture a popular success are teamed again in a new production that is said to contain the same highlights of gaiety, and humorous and romantic situation. The stars are, of course, Loretta Young and Tyrone Power. The new film is "Cafe Metropole," headlining the Sunday-Monday program at the Ritz theatre.

They are added and abetted in the entertainment by such capable stars as Adolphe Menjou, Charles Winninger of "Showboat" fame, Gregory Ratoff, and Helen Westley. Ratoff, incidentally, is author of the story on which the picture is based. He is one of Hollywood's most capable comedians.

Darryl F. Zanuck, vice president in charge of production at Twentieth Century-Fox, planned "Cafe Metropole" as one of the costliest and most elaborately staged films of the season. The cafe set itself is an immense one.

She's Rich, He's Broke. Comely Miss Young and personable young Power carry the romantic young-love story of an American heiress and an American boy "broke" in Paris. Menjou suavely guides the course of events as the proprietor of the cafe. Winninger, as Miss Young's father, Ratoff and Helen Westley contribute to the comedy sequences.

It seems that Power has gotten himself in debt to Menjou, who himself is not overburdened with funds, and the two frame up a plot whereby the young man, posing as a Russian nobleman, can wed the American girl, gain access to her father's funds and straighten out the whole financial difficulty.

The catch occurs when the girl—although suspecting something from the "nobleman's" phoney accent—falls in love with Power. He returns the affection and determines to drop the whole pose. He had reckoned, however, without Menjou, and the story comes to a climax when all the mix-up is ironed out. It's a happy ending, of course.

Twenty-two-year-old Tyrone Power seems destined to reach the heights of movie popularity occupied in turn by Clark Gable and Robert Taylor. Beginning with a small part in "Girls Dormitory," he has progressed to larger parts, appearing in "Ladies in Love," "Loyals of London" and then "Love Is News."

Sam, 9, Sues Father LONDON (UP)—Nine-year-old Herbert Harris sued his father, Herbert George Harris, for damages for injuries to his face received in a motor accident. Judge Druggan agreed to a settlement of $500, out of which he set aside $26.50 costs for the father on behalf of the boy.

Paul Muni In Prize Winning Role At Lyric

Honored For Performance In 'The Story Of Louis Pasteur'

"The Story of Louis Pasteur," one of the noteworthy film productions of last year and the one in which Paul Muni won the Motion Picture Academy award, comes to the Lyric theatre Sunday for a two-day showing.

Muni, who had won fame by his stage characterizations, has made one artistic success after another since he began motion picture work, including such outstanding attractions as "Scarface," "I Am A Fugitive From A Chain Gang," "Black Fury," "Border Town" and "Dr. Socrates."

Now, in a superb screen drama, he has a role that was recognized as the best executed in cinema last year. He portrays a real person—a man recognized as one of the world's greatest benefactors, Louis Pasteur.

Hated and scorned, a pariah and an outcast, branded as a quack, a charlatan and an enemy of man, Pasteur lived to see his work recognized and himself acclaimed as the greatest scientist of his age.

It is this great character that Muni brings to life on the screen. It is the thrilling drama of Pasteur's battle for the human race, that is unfolded in "The Story of Louis Pasteur."

Josephine Hutchinson, noted stage star who recently leaped to fame in pictures, particularly in "Happiness Ahead" and "Oil for the Lamps of China," plays opposite Muni as Marie Pasteur, his wife, while charming Anita Louise is seen in the role of their daughter.

Together with Donald Woods, Miss Louise carries the love angle of the picture. Woods has the role of a young doctor, one of the few who believed in Pasteur and his work.

Fritz Leiber, Porter Hall and Raymond Brown play the roles of leading doctors of the day who fought Pasteur and succeeded in banishing him from Paris, although they afterwards admitted him.

Henry O'Neill and Frank Reicher are others in the cast.

Seniors Restrict Fresh CORVALLIS, Ore. (UP)—Oregon State college interfraternity council has barred a custom that allowed freshmen some retaliation for the indignities traditionally heaped upon them. The practice known as the "senior ride," whereby upper classmen were forcibly seized and taken for a long ride by freshmen, is now out. The seniors have occasionally been forced to walk 30 or more miles from home.

IN COMEDY ROMANCE AT RITZ

Tyrone Power and Loretta Young scored such a success in "Love Is News," that they were teamed again for another comedy romance, "Cafe Metropole." The new production is offered at the Ritz Sunday and Monday. Adolphe Menjou, Gregory Ratoff, Charles Winninger and Helen Westley are in the supporting cast.

Oliver-Hardy Carry Antics To Wild West

Comedy Team At Queen Theatre In 'Way Out West'

Those swaggering, swashbuckling sons of the west, Stanley Laurel and Oliver Hardy, are on the road back in their newest production, "Way Out West" which shows at the Queen theatre for a two-day engagement beginning Sunday.

It's a typical Star-Ollie picture for it includes all the humor, the tragedy and the romance that have made these Hal Roach stars the top ranking comedy team in motion pictures.

The pair have a new leading lady in this one in the person of Rosina Lawrence who has finally gotten out of short comedies and is appearing with the two playboys for the first time. Also appearing in the picture are James Finlayson, Sharon Lynne, Stanley Fields, Vivian Oakland, The Avon Boys and Dinah.

Laurel and Hardy are cast as desert prospectors in the wild and wacky west of the '30s. As the picture opens they are on their way to Brushwood Gulch to deliver a deed to a valuable gold mine to the daughter of a former mining partner.

They encounter difficulties en route and manage to hitch hike a ride on a stagecoach. Ollie and Stan make the mistake of flirting with the sheriff's wife and upon arriving in Brushwood Gulch, are immediately ordered out of town by the enraged sheriff.

They escape the clutches of the sheriff, however, and work their way into a honkytonk where they reveal their mission to a crooked bartender.

Pushed by the barkeep, they present the deed to the wrong girl. It isn't long before they discover their mistake and demand justice from the town's sheriff but the city "gumbos" is looking for them and again they are ejected from town.

Undaunted Ollie and Stan return under cover of darkness to rectify their blunder and fulfill their promise to their partner. In a series of thrilling adventures they recover the deed to the mine, rescue the daughter and make good their escape to the desert.

Mitchell County Group To Appear Labor Fight On KBST Farm-Home Hour Monday; Sandusky's Orchestra New Feature

AS PASTEUR

Paul Muni, shown above in the role which won him an award for the best film characterization of last year—that of Louis Pasteur, in the photograph, "The Story of Louis Pasteur." The picture is at the Lyric Sunday and Monday.

Two Mitchell county home demonstration club women and two 4-H club girls will have leading parts on the Farm and Home radio hour of station KBST Monday morning from 11 to 11:15.

Announcement is made from Colorado that Miss Ruby Gordon Coe, demonstrator in yard improvement from the Horn's Chapel club, will discuss yard improvement, telling about "Native Materials Available in Mitchell County." Mrs. Will Berry, cooper in yard improvement from the Fairview club, will speak on "How We Have Improved Our Home."

Two girls from the Loney 4-H club, Polly and Molly Emma, will sing.

Bob Sandusky and his orchestra will appear over KBST all this coming week for thirty minutes each afternoon starting at 5:30. The boys are well known in this territory, having played several engagements in West Texas. Featured with the band is Dorothy Lewis, a young lady whose vocalizing has brought to her much deserved praise from dancers all over Texas.

The American Family Robinson, a quarter hour dramatic sketch which has been broadcast over KBST each week-day afternoon 4:30, will be heard starting tomorrow afternoon at 5:15. The Robinson family seems to hinge around old man trouble in the person of Windy Bill Winkle.

The Church of Christ program heretofore presented each Sunday afternoon from 2 until 2:30, has been discontinued for the summer months, according to an announcement by the minister, Forrest J. Waldrop. According to present plans, the series of half hour programs will be resumed in the fall.

Olive M. Broughton, accordionist heard over KBST since the station has been on air, has moved to Sweetwater. Her program was presented over the station every Monday afternoon at 4:45.

Frances Stamper has returned from a short vacation and will resume her regular Saturday afternoon broadcasts over KBST. Her "Music in Blue" quarter hour is scheduled each Saturday afternoon at 4:45.

Junior Hubbard, who has appeared as guest artist on Glenn Quier's program each Wednesday evening at 7, now has a program of his own each Thursday at 4:45. Junior is another of Big Spring's youthful artists to make their debut musically over KBST.

George Fischer, writer of the "Hollywood Brevities" program heard over KBST each weekday morning except Saturday, went transcontinental over the Mutual Broadcasting System May 1. He has been conducting an air-gossip column about movieland for four years, and is well-liked in the industry. He really has the real low-down at his disposal.

Balloon Barrage Rehearsed CARDINGTON, Eng. (UP)—The balloon barrage which will defend London in the event of air raids is undergoing rehearsals here. Five sausage-shaped balloons, each moored to trucks manned by crews of R.A.F. auxiliaries, were placed into similar positions to those they will take up over London when giant nets will hang from them to ensnare enemy aircraft.

No CIO Adherents Will Be Sent By Texas Federation

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whipkey were to leave this morning on an automobile trip to Mexico City. They will be accompanied by R. E. Merritt of Abilene.

TYLER, May 15 (UP)—The clash between William Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, and John L. Lewis of the Committee for Industrial Organization will echo in the Texas state federation of labor convention here when the gavel sounds Monday morning.

All delegates who cannot swear allegiance to the A. F. of L. will be ousted, President W. B. Arnold of San Antonio said.

Arnold said he did not expect any trouble but he is determined no CIO delegates will be given recognition.

"My intention is to have every delegate rise to his feet at the opening of the session and swear allegiance to the American Federation of Labor," he said.

"Those who cannot and are not willing will have to leave the hall." "We have no room for CIO members in the A. F. of L. and especially the Texas state federation of labor."

Arnold said he is voluntarily stepping down from the post of president at this convention. There are two candidates for the job, Harry Carroll, San Antonio, of the painters' union, and A. S. McBeum of Houston, bricklayer.

Beaumont is asking for the next convention.

In addition to the convention proper, four groups will hold their conferences here. They are the Allied Painters Trades Council, the Painters' conference, the State Association of Journeymen Barbers and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The printers' union, the painters' union, the electrical workers on Sunday and the Barbers Monday.

Mrs. E. V. Spence left Saturday for a visit with relatives on their ranch near Alice.

Room 1, Settles office
"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, May 16.

The Golden Text is: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But we are not in the flesh, but but in the Spirit if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you" (Romans 8:8, 9).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Know ye that the Lord he is God: It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture" (Psalms 100, 3).

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and co-eternal with that Mind" (page 336).

The famed gate-crasher, One-Eye Connolly, disguised (?) by a scrape and sombrero, didn't fool this gate-keeper at the Pan American Exposition. Senior One-Eye claimed he wasn't trying very hard but just getting his bearings so that when Dallas international fair opens June 12 he will be on the inside with the crowds, seeing the spectacular show . . . free.

Glenn Cunningham, champion miler, was the first on hand as athletes gathered for the annual Texas Relays at Lawrence. A young admirer, John Harris, is photographing Cunningham during a workout.

Adolph Fischer, a member of the Hindenburg's crew when the giant Nazi sky queen crashed in flames, although badly injured in the mishap, was strong enough to sit up a little just before he was transferred to a New York hospital. "He's strong," said Nurse Martha Zimmer, as she fixed a pillow under his shoulders. "He'll be himself again before long though lucky he is to be alive."

They're in again, and this time in person—Jack Benny and the quipping Mary Livingstone, radio's favorites, who will appear July 3, 4 and 5 at the Pan American Exposition in Dallas. In a glass broadcasting booth, the No. 1 comedy team of the air will perform in the Cotton Bowl stadium, where 47,000 international fair-goers can sit and watch. They headline the fourth week of the Exposition, which opens June 12.

Mrs. Marie Ogden is shown signing by candlelight, after a two-year delay, the death certificate for her cult follower, Mrs. Edith Peshak, whose resurrection she sought. Only a dozen people live in the tiny religious colony on a pinon-covered, sun-baked hill in an isolated section near the Colorado line.

Petite LaVerne Busher dons skates as her only concession to icy winds when she does her famous dance on ice at Black Forest, the Swiss village at the Pan American Exposition. Advance ticket bargains to the international fair which opens in Dallas June 12 already are on sale, and include an admission to Black Forest and its ice skating entertainment snooterie.

Ending an 11-day fishing cruise, President Roosevelt is shown at Galveston, Tex., as he disembarked from the U. S. S. Potomac. He was greeted by Gov. Alford of Texas (center), and Congressman-Elect Lyndon Johnson (right).

Commissioned "Flying Texanita" of the Pan American Exposition in Dallas opening June 12, Larnie Bowman, 16, accompanied by her Flying Chew will pilot her own plane on special missions for the international fair in Dallas this summer. Larnie, Dallas junior high school student, is known as the youngest licensed girl pilot in the United States.

Gen. John J. Pershing is shown in this radio photo from London as he started for Buckingham palace with other notables to line with King George and Queen Elizabeth as a representative of the United States.

Back in the "mauve decade," papa used to make excuses for staying out late at night at the corner pool room. There will be an old fashioned pool hall back of Steve Brodie's joint in the Bowery, feature show at the Texas and Pan American Exposition. Players will wear costumes of the gay nineties and the act will be free. The picture shows a couple of Bowery experts in action on the green baize.

Tom Monagan, one-time cyclist champion, rides again on a high wheel bike at the Bowery on La Rambla, the Pan American Exposition midway. It's the same kind of wheel he once rode to win championships, and will find much company familiar to his own day on the "very streets of the replica of the old New York in the Gay Nineties built at the international fair in Dallas, which opens June 12.

Effie Downing (left), a Cherokee from Locust Grove, Okla., was named "All-American" Beauty queen, and Richard Green, right, a Mohawk from Lewiston, N. Y., as Campus Brave of Haskell Institute at Lawrence, Kas., in "coronation" ceremonies.

J. Henry Hill (left), of Georgia, captain of the House of Representatives pages baseball team, is shown matching with Phil Bassford of Missouri, captain of the Senate pages, to see who goes to bat first. William B. Bankhead, speaker of the house, looks on.

Mrs. Tuppis Seymour (above), whipped her husband with a dog leash when she saw a blonde sitting near him in a fashionable New York restaurant, but he posted bail for her when she was booked on a disorderly charge.

A tip given by Miss Pauline Swanson (above), Hollywood publicity woman, was reported responsible for the capture of J. Turner Watson, 25, on charges of stealing a fortune of more than $220,000 in cash and bonds from Mrs. Martha Blous, eccentric Denver widow. Watson was captured at sea near Panama.

Rep. W. R. Foage (D. Texas), one time university professor, has arrived at a personal solution of Washington's flower garden space problem. In his spare time he does old clothes and works in the federal government's botanical plots. Within the very shadow of the capitol dome he goes daily for an hour or two of soading, raking and trimming.

Charming Eleanor Akers, of the Texas and Pan American Exposition, wrestles with the giant steering wheel of Show Boat, which will be one of the main Midway attractions this year at the great Dallas amusement and educational enterprise. Show Boat will offer in new surroundings an old fashioned melodrama literally bathed in bathos. It will be "Murder in the Red Barn," in which the villain will be hanged and the heroine cheered while the audience beat time with beer mugs.

Eppensauer and others' No. 1 Rector-Monroe, 1 1/4 miles east of Shilplay and others' No. 1 Monroe, lone Delaware producer in western Ward county, showed of 1 dangas from 4,670 feet, top of the Delaware sand, to 4,675, struck one-half barrel of sulphur water from 4,696 to 4,700 feet and prepared to plug back to shoot. The test topped the Delaware lime at 4,535 feet. It is 330 feet out of the east corner of section 3-1-W&N.W. Gribsham-Hunter Corp. No. 1 Montgomery, Reeves county wildcat northeast of Toyah, struck 10 barrels of sulphur water hourly from 4,064-65 feet, plugged back to 4,059 feet and prepared to shoot from 3,936 and 4,043 feet, where it had slight oil showings and puffs of gas, the last of which, at 3,987 feet, blew tops up the hole. The test is in the northwest quarter of section 7, W. B. King survey.

Thirteen miles northwest of No. 1 Montgomery, Reeves county wildcat northeast of Toyah, struck 10 barrels of sulphur water hourly from 4,064-65 feet, plugged back to 4,059 feet and prepared to shoot from 3,936 and 4,043 feet, where it had slight oil showings and puffs of gas, the last of which, at 3,987 feet, blew tops up the hole. The test is in the northwest quarter of section 7, W. B. King survey.

1 Montgomery, Barnett Petroleum Corp., of Dallas and J. C. Hill apud their No. 1 Ely, in the center of the northwest quarter of section 38-71-pal. It is scheduled to test the Delaware.

Shows Salt Water — Running higher than Mason No. 2 Kyle, the discovery well in the Kyle field in northwestern Loving county, which it offsets on the south, Stanolind No. 1 Kyle was believed by some not to have reached the main pay at 3,906-07 feet, where it showed salt water. Only two to four gallons of fluid, 15 to 25 per cent free oil, was recovered in hourly runs in overnight balling, and deepening was scheduled. The test, with elevation of 3,969 feet, topped the Delaware lime at 3,845 feet and showed oil from 3,870, top of the sand, to 3,874. It is 2,310 feet from the south and east lines of section 20-55-1-T&P.

Mason No. 3 Kyle, west offset to the discovery, was completed at 3,902 feet, flowing 468.74 barrels of oil in 24 hours through casing and tubing. It was shot with 206 quarts. Mason No. 2 Kyle was completed for a flow of 350 barrels.

R. A. Westbrook of Fort Worth staked two locations in the northeast of the northeast of section 20-55-1-T&P, No. 1 Kyle 990 feet out of the northeast corner of the 40-acre tract and No. 2 Kyle 3 1/2 feet out of the same corner. Barnett Petroleum corporation dug cellar and pits for a wildcat on W. D. Johnson's land nine miles northwest of the Kyle pool near the Eddy county, N. M., line and 990 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line of section 20-55-1-T&P.

Crane County Test — Sinclair-Prairie and five other companies dug cellar and pits for No. 2 Tubb, a unit test in western Crane county, 2,310 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the west line of section 3-237-pal. It is one-half mile southeast of Gulf No. 4 Waddell, first major Ordovician producer outside the Big Lake field outside Reagan county. These companies' No. 1 Tubb, in the southeast corner of section 3-237-pal, produces from the Tubb deep Permian lime, bottomed at 3,490 feet.

While plugging back from 3,615 feet to shut off sulphur water that developed after acidizing, Sinclair-Prairie No. 1-24 University in northern Crane county flowed 212 barrels of oil in 24 hours. The Texas Company staked a location for a north offset, 2,310 feet from the north and west lines of section 13-35-U. Snowden & McSwiney were moving in materials for No. 1 University, one location south of the Texas Company's No. 1 University.

Largest Producer — Largest completed producer this week was Ohio's No. 39-B Yates in the Yates field in Pecos county, making a natural flow of 1,248.08 barrels of oil in one hour at 1,434 feet. It is in the northwest part of section 6-1-T&C.N. The original Goldsmith pool in Rector county appeared defined on the southeast when Phillips No. 2 Jesse Cowden, in the center of the southwest quarter of section 26-44-1s-T&P, showed only eight gallons of oil in 40 feet of fluid following a 14-hour shutdown at 4,396 feet. Landreth added his sixteenth and seventeenth producers in the Cummins northwest extension to the Goldsmith field. Rogers & Rogers of Oklahoma City started No. 1 TXL, 330 feet out of the north corner of section 45-45-1n-T&P, half mile southwest of production that has linked the two areas.

SEES DANGER IN ANY INCREASE IN PETROLEUM STOCKS

DALLAS, May 15 (AP)—Charles F. Roesser, president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, said today "A serious situation" exists in the increase of petroleum stocks.

He expressed the hope that regulatory bodies, in setting June allowable, will "keep them down at least as low as the recommendations of the bureau of mines, so as to endeavor, during that 30-day period, to bring production down to consumptive demand."

Location Is Made For Test In Stonewall

New Wildcat Six Miles From Production In Fisher County

ABILENE, May 15—Staking of location for a Stonewall county wildcat test and broadening of four pools in this area held attention of operators this week.

The Stonewall test will be rotary-drilled by General Crude Oil company of Houston on the W. J. Bryan ranch 11 miles southeast of Appertmont and about six miles north of production in Fisher county's Royston field. Location is north of a Barnsdall wildcat failure drilled on geophysical exploration last year.

The contract calls for drilling to 3,250 feet; it is 5,402 feet from the north and 2,035 feet from the west lines of section 10, Wm. Vardeman survey No. 347.

An extension for the Fisher county field loomed this week as a southern outpost, the Martin & Brubaker No. 1 M. M. Brown, was estimated from 130 to 150 barrels daily after treatment with acid in regular Fisher county pay.

Saturation was topped at 3,190 and drilled to 3,193 feet, when the hole began filling with oil. It is 700 feet south of a producer drilled by General Crude, both being a full mile from proven limits of the field. Location is in section 4-R-W. E. Richardson survey, about nine miles southwest of Hamlin.

Pools Extended — In Jones county, the Hawley, Guitlar and Sandy Ridge fields were given extensions, and one new wildcat test was showing as a possible producer.

Second largest well in the Guitlar pool, the R. B. Farris No. 3 Guitlar trust estate, was completed on railroad commission gauge flowing 624 barrels in 24 hours from Cook lime at 1,977-2,014 feet after treatment with 2,000 gallons of acid.

It is a direct west offset to the largest producer, the Danciger No. 3 Guitlar, which rated 688 barrels; and is located 220 feet from the north and 190 feet from the west lines of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 44-15-T&P survey. The Dallas operator purchased 15 acres and the well from Guitlar interests last week at a reported price of $28,000, part cash.

725-Barrel Completion — Ungren Franier No. 5-D Dorsey, northwestern outpost to the Hawley field, broadened limits of the Lower Hope lime production in that direction with a completion of 725 barrels flowing in 24 hours this week. It was given a 2,000-gallon treatment of acid in lime topped at 2,215 feet. Location is 400 feet west of the owners' No. 4-D Dorsey in section 8, Buono survey No. 197.

A 440-foot southeast extension for the eastern Jones county Sandy Ridge field loomed in the Sandy Ridge Corporation No. 2 Dr. W. J. McCright, estimated from 50 to 100 barrels daily after a 20-quart shot in Bluff Creek sand from 1,922-38 feet. Total depth is 1,947 feet. Location is 220 feet from the east lines of the southwest quarter of section 5-15-T&P survey. It is a south offset to a recent extension.

Northeast of the Sandy Ridge field about three miles, the A. P. Kouri No. 1 J. D. Winkles, in the J. M. Polk survey, was showing as a possible producer from lime encountered at 1,808-12 feet. Operators were underreaming casing to that depth, with between 400 and 500 feet of oil in the hole. The test is one mile south of the N. H. Martin & Son No. 1 Spurrier, lone producer from the same zone, which was completed for 72 barrels daily last June. Empire Oil & Gas company has drilled a dry hole between the two tests, however.

In Shackelford county, the Owens-Snebold Oil Corporation No. 2 D. A. Ivey, third producer for the new northwestern Shackelford King sand pool, rated a potential of 341 barrels in 24 hours pumping from lime at 1,933-41 feet after treatment with 2,000 gallons of acid. The test is a south offset to the discovery well for the pool, being 710 feet from the north and 220 feet from the west lines of the south half of the southwest quarter of section 15B-BBB&C survey.

Forest Development Corporation No. 1 J. S. McKeever, a mile and a half north of the pool, was drilling past 1,460 feet.

Northeast of Abilene in Taylor county, two tests were spudded; the Dunn & Adair No. 1 Mrs. A. L. Pittman, a diagonal southeast offset to the Dunn & McAllister No. 1 Blackwell, half a mile west of the No. 1 Bowles.

Moore Bros. No. 1 TXL (Texas and Pacific Land Trust, wildcat midway between the East Howard and Chalk pools, 330 feet out of the northeast corner of section 33-30-1s, T&P, Saturday was running tubing and rods, preparing for a test.

Drilling ceased Friday night and in six hours the test swabbed 100 barrels of oil, leaving 700 feet of oil in the hole at the end of the run. Showing of the test on pump will determine whether it will be acidized or shot.

Thursday night the test made its third head within a week, flowing 89 barrels in two hours. Intervals between the heads was cut short five hours, flowing 42 barrels after the second head.

Storage for 1,000 barrels has been erected near the test. Another interesting Moore Bros. test, the No. 1 J. B. Harding, 2,310 feet from the north and 350 feet from the west line of section 19-33-1s, T&P, was drilling ahead Saturday at 1,945 feet in redrock after landing 16-inch at 837 feet in redrock.

Two miles west, the Moore Bros. No. 1 Mabel Guitlar, 600 feet out of the northwest corner of section 23-34-1s, T&P, had set one joint of 20-inch casing as had the Moore Bros. No. 1 I. R. Cumble, 330 feet out of the northeast corner of section 21-33-1s, T&P.

May Reacidize Albaugh Well

No. 1 Robinson Pumps 37 Barrels Of Oil In 4 1/2 Hours

SAN ANGELO, May 15—Treated with 2,000 gallons of acid, Ray Albaugh and others' No. 1 John Robinson in northwestern Dawson county, the county's only producer, this week pumped 37 barrels of net oil in 4 1/2 hours, and may be reacidized. It was shot late in April with 100 quarts from 4,995 to 5,035 feet, the total depth. The well is in the center of the northwest quarter of section 46-M-EL&RR. Until shot it had been inactive since December when it pumped 4 1/2 to 5 barrels of oil hourly.

W. Grant Blanchard and H. J. Post staked location for No. 1 Cox, northwestern Andrews county wildcat, 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 4-A30-pal. Amerada dug cellar and pits for No. 1 A. H. Fasken, Gaines county wildcat, one mile south of Seminole and 660 feet out of the northwest

Potential Is Increased By 5 Completions

Superior 34 Roberts Finished With Test Of 2120 Barrels

Five completions boosted the Howard-Glascock potential by 4,000 barrels last week. Largest of the new producers was the Superior No. 34 Roberts, section 134-29, W&N.W., which was completed at 2,976 feet for a daily potential of 2,120.88 barrels on a two hour test. It topped the pay at 2,962 feet.

Continental's No. 3-A Eason section 7-32, T&P, was second heaviest with 1,223 barrels a day after treatment with 1,500 gallons of acid. It is bottomed at 2,450 feet.

Continental No. 30-S Settles and No. 31-S Settles, both shallow sand producers in section 159-29, W&N.W., were finished, each for a potential of 454.56 barrels. The No. 30-S was bottomed at 1,240 feet and the 31-S Settles at 1,245 feet.

Other completion was that of Tribal Oil Co. No. 2 Baker, section 21-33-2s, T&P, a deepening test from 2,125 to 2,374 feet for a new potential of 34 barrels a day.

Fishing Job — One of Sevier county's two wildcats, the Bristow and Cantrell No. 1 Tomlinson, section 122-97, H&TC, was in trouble with a bad fishing job at 2,780 feet.

Three miles northwest, the Hinesman, et al. No. 1 J. H. Henderson, section 148-97, H&TC, was drilling near 1,600 feet in lime, reportedly running around 44 feet higher on structure than any of the tests drilled in the area.

Shell 3-A Roberts, section 3-37-2s, T&P, drilled into pay from 2,993-99 feet after setting casing at 2,953 feet and was pumping at the rate of 105 barrels a day. Ward Oil No. 21 Roberts, section 137-29, W&N.W., was drilling ahead at 1,350 feet after encountering two pay streaks from 1,288-92 feet and corner of section 160-G-WTRR. Shell No. 1 Amerada-Humble, east offset to Amerada No. 1-A Averitt, opener of Gaines county's second oil pool three miles northwest of Seminole, prepared to drill plugs from 7-inch casing that was cemented at 4,912 feet to shut off heavy gas, total depth being 5,002 feet.

E. L. Wilson and others No. 1 Yellow House Land company, southeastern Bailey county wildcat and the farthest north drilling test in the West Texas Permian Basin, attracted attention by topping the anhydrite at 2,905 feet and the salt at 2,110, according to the driller. The anhydrite top, 1,682 feet above sea level, was 107 feet higher than in Cochran county's discovery well to the south.

1,340-47 feet. It set the eighth-best string at 1,285 feet.

Merrick and Bristow No. 4 Hooks, section 140-29, W&N.W., was pumping at the rate of 60 barrels a day with pay from 2,130 to 2,206 feet. Merrick and Lamb No. 15 Clay, section 149-29, W&N.W., pumped at the rate of 15 barrels a day after plugging back from 2,404 to 2,535 feet.

Continental No. 32-S Settles, new location 460 feet from the west and 2,200 feet from the south lines of section 159-29, W&N.W., drilled to 173 feet in redbeds where 10 3/4 inch casing was cemented. Continental No. 32-S Settles, new location 860 feet from the west and 1,750 feet from the north lines of section 159-29, W&N.W., was rigging for a spudder.

Continental No. 7 Klok, section 5-32-2s, T&P, drilled to 515 feet in red rock. Continental No. 13-Clay, a deepening test, drilled to 3,340 feet. Moore Bros. No. 3 McDowell, section 21-34-2s, T&P, was at 2,500 feet in red rock after carrying the 8 5/8-inch string to 1,651 feet.

New locations for the week included a wildcat test two miles north of Iatan in Mitchell county by Gribsham and Hunter of Abilene. The well will be known as the No. 1 Morrison and is 328 feet from the west and north lines of section 34-29-1n, T&P, and is about two miles east of a test sunk two years ago by Gib Sawtelle with shows.

THE TIME IS COMING

Speaking to delegates at the recent West Texas chamber of commerce meeting, Karl Crowley, a Texan who is solicitor of the post office department, told them that the time had come for "our citizens to stop making demands on the federal government."

At almost the same time the republican minority in congress was reported to have agreed to support a measure to return relief to the states—to make an appropriation for relief and divide it among the states, which would require to contribute at least twenty-five percent of the cost of carrying for the needy for direct relief.

It is probable that both the solicitor and the minority congressmen will be like the voice of one crying in the wilderness. Having received manna for so long, the recipients will not willingly agree to have it stopped or greatly diminished.

But they are wrong. There must be a stopping place some time, and it will be easier to stop now than when the burden becomes too great and the resources for carrying it are lessened. The claim of the republican proposition, that the overhead cost would be greatly reduced, and that more dollars would go directly to relief, is well grounded.

Speaking with authority, for no government official nowadays makes statements until he knows they are acceptable to the administration, Crowley said spending must be reduced unless we want the government levying heavier taxes and new taxes.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—A few weeks hence there will be loosed on the country a horde of eager, ambitious young men, waving sheepskin diplomas in their hands, ready to tackle the sterner side of life—which, shorn of its glamor, amounts roughly to earning one's bread and butter.

This essay is a warning to those hopefuls. Don't make any foolish bets that your career will turn into the channel you decided on in college. It doesn't necessarily follow that if you majored in ceramics you will become an engineer.

Take, for instance, the sad case of Eddy Duchin. He devoted his undergraduate days to the study of pharmacy, but did he become a druggist? Ladies and gentlemen, he never realized that ambition. He slipped into devious routes and wound up in New York as merely a master pianist and one of the crack orchestra leaders of the country.

Now his days and nights are filled with a seldom-varying routine of making money. Vulgar stuff, money.

Let's follow Duchin around the clock for a day, and see for ourselves. We'll begin at the Plaza, where he lives and where, for three seasons, his orchestra has provided the gaiety and the music for the famed Persian room:

10 a. m.—Is roughly awakened by a valet. You have to handle him roughly or he won't get up.

10:09—Breakfast in bed, shave, shower, dresses.

10:45—Hurries by cab to Frances Robinson-Duff for elocution lesson.

11:30—Another lesson in breathing exercises and dramatics.

12:45—Lunch.

1:30—Hurries to the music publishers to hear the new tunes. They're "hope" melodies—manuscripts not yet published, which their sponsors "hope" will become hits.

2:30—Makes recordings.

3:30—Listens to auditions at N.B.C. and at Columbia, then confers with his managers in the Squibbs building.

4:45—Brisk work-out in gymnasium, swim, and rub-down.

5:30—Tub, shave (yep, he has to shave twice a day), dresses, dines.

7:30—Goes to work in Persian room, playing until 2 a. m. (3 a. m. on Saturdays).

2:15 a. m.—Rehearses new tunes with band.

3:15—Slips out for a bite to eat; buys papers, and scans sports pages to see whether Boston Red Sox won. He's an incorrigible Boston fan. Then up to bed.

Wouldn't you think, with all that spare time on his hands, Eddy would go crazy!

BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLOTT

Washington-London gold arrangement seen. Purchase by Bank of England aids U. S. policy.

U. S. prices for metal viewed as too high. Administration indicates no change is contemplated.

Help WASHINGTON, May 15—The Bank of England seems to have become big-hearted all of a sudden about President Roosevelt's gold predicament. It bought the other day about $25,000,000 worth of this mysterious commodity which Mr. R. has been unwillingly hoarding.

Now, there will be many explanations of this transaction. As no one, including Professor Warren, really seems to understand gold with any degree of certainty, everyone can speak freely. However, the best explanation accepted in gilt-edged quarters is that it indicates the existence of some sort of gold arrangement between Washington and London.

It likewise tends to confirm the vague story which has been kicking around the best circles for some months, namely that Mr. R. reached some indefinite and vague price-making basis with Walter Runciman and Lord Tweedsmuir, and hopes to carry it forward when Premier Van Zeeland of Belgium comes over.

Concern The story that cooperation exists is being denied officially, of course. In the official explanation it is pointed out that British gold stocks have fallen 25 to 35 per cent in the last few months. The bank and the British government naturally are concerned.

The reason the stocks have been falling is that the world seems to have reached the conclusion that the United States set the gold price too high. There is agreement abroad that it will have to be changed eventually.

From this Washington end, however, convincing evidence is available that no change in the price can or will be made, as has been previously reported. It seems certain Washington intends to let the matter slide until the inactive gold fund reaches over a billion dollars.

At the rate the metal was coming in from abroad in April and early in May, that reckoning day would not be far distant, but now that the British are concerned, the inflow may decrease.

Brakes This policy of play and delay also may be helped by the recent arresting of stock and commodity prices here. Some authorities are convinced the real reason gold has been coming in is that there was a flight of foreign capital toward American investments. What makes the American investment field appear inviting to foreigners is that the government has been following an unbalanced budget policy, looking definitely toward higher prices. Furthermore, if there is any crack in exchange, the foreigners figure it will be in their favor.

Orthodox Washington economists will tell you there is nothing in that. They blame the excess balance of American trade for the inflow. But computations recently have been indicating that, if you estimate the invisible trade (tourist travel, etc.), there is no excess in balanced volume sufficient to warrant the gold imports.

Thus the adoption of sounder policy here (curtailment of relief, balancing the budget, etc.), plus British concern and whatever working arrangement it represents, may tend to solve the gold problem in the "right" side of the account, which was supposed to be insoluble in the master minds.

Remoteness What happened in the Dodd case is that the ambassador extraordinary (official title) in Berlin got hold of a rumor which was two years old, and which was sour, even when it was new.

That old story about the billion-dollar backing a dictatorship was current, but not very current, in the last campaign. It was supposed to be aimed at Henry Ford then. Also a variation of it mentioned the DuPonts. However, no one this side of Berlin was expected to believe it.

The state department is inclined to be easy on Dodd because he is on the "right" side of the court question. However, it will prove, if pressed, that Dodd did not give up the letter voluntarily, but merely confirmed it when news of its contents leaked out in this country.

Notes The poor congressmen have troubles too. One got a letter from a constituent requesting that he go to all embassies and legations and get a collection of their foreign stamps—immediately.

Despite the coronation, there are more visitors to Washington this spring than ever before. Capitol guides find flocks of visitors asking mostly where Huey Long sat.

Those who are apprehensive over the absence of all peace negotiations in the international situation will be relieved to know the U. S.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD — The previews we're seeing now invite one and all to have a good cry. Hollywood cried most at the specter of itself, projected in color for the first time in "A Star Is Born."

Photographs Well in Color This picture should serve as a brake for she's never seen a better performance, and color photography reveals a new and captivating personality. As for March, he'll be busier than ever because he gives the portrait of a fallen star you'd expect from a star who hasn't fallen.

Hollywood commented on the fact that color, when magnificent, is less important in this film than stardom. Warner Baxter, currently making his first color film, "Vogues of 1938," saw it and joined the ranks of those predicting the end of black-and-white within a year.

William Wellman's lusty humor is directed in his direction, and his treatment of this crazy comedy is marked with satire, occasional bitterness, and hit-deep thrusts. Unlike many previous Hollywood films, this one carries a sure-fire Cinderella yarn and intriguing glimpses of "inside" Hollywood, together with comedy, to offset the satire which somehow doomed the others to box-office indifference.

The tragic ending is off key, but it gave Hollywood a good cry and might do the same for you.

Fewer Tears Here Some cried and some didn't at "Make Way for Tomorrow," a telling study of the eternal breach between youth and age. This film (based on Josephine Lawrence's "The Years Are So Long") carries all the tear-jerking thunder of such silent films as "Over the Hill" and "The Old Nest," but rakes deeper than either because it is done with artful intelligence and fairness.

Benah Bondi and Victor Moore deliver splendid performances as the aged parents forced to appeal to their children for shelter.

New X-Ray Demonstrated ST. LOUIS (UP) — A laminagraph, a device to take accurate X-ray "picture slices" of body tissue at any depth, was demonstrated for the first time here before the American College of Physicians. Radiologists termed the invention the greatest diagnostic aid since discovery of X-rays.

STANDARD ATTACKS FEDERAL SURTAX

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) in its annual report for 1936 stated it launched an attack on the federal surtax of undistributed profits charging it injects "another element of pure guess-work" into tax structure.

Net income for 1936 was $97,774,583 or $3.73 a common share, compared with $63,863,182 or $2.43 a share in 1935.

Taxation, generally, the report said, "continues with increasing emphasis to provide a major uncertainty in business management."

The profits surtax, the report declared, put "heavy penalties" on the poor guesser in the matter of dividend determination.

Simplification of the federal revenue laws "is in the long run just as important to the governments' revenues as it is to the corporate taxpayer," the report said.

If the surtax continues to operate on its present basis, it added, "corporate earnings will bear an excessive and a larger share of the tax burden than any other kind of income."

The company, a holding corporation, with domestic and foreign subsidiaries, reported increased world-wide demand for petroleum products.

Gross production by domestic and foreign subsidiaries totaled 206,856,932 barrels in 1936, a gain of 6.64 per cent.

Domestic production averaged 186,879 barrels a day, a rise of 9.69 per cent. This, the report said, was much below the capacity of the wells. Foreign production averaged 377,137 barrels daily, an increase of 5.20 per cent.

Farmers Must Aid In Dust Bowl Fight WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Agriculture department officials said today farmers in the dust bowl area must take the initiative in long-time measures to lessen the menace of dust storms.

Federal agencies are cooperating with state and local officials, they said, but police power to enforce preventive measures rests with the farmers themselves.

EVE'S ORCHARD

By MARGARET WIDDEMER

Chapter 41 DENNY COMES BACK Eve stood at the door in the blue-misted September weather, dreaming and quiet.

"I am all alone in my house," she thought. "Perhaps I shall be alone for a great part of my life now." She watched the white ribbon of the road, the low blue veiled hills. The thought was not painful. A sense of the house itself, its arms around her, calmed her. She walked slowly through the hall and stood at the portico at the other end. This way one faced the lawn and the garden, the mounting slope of the orchard.

The house was empty except for herself, yet the feeling was only of space and quiet, not of emptiness. She could almost sense moving soundlessly about her, the kindly people who were her own, the generations of her people, happy and light behind her in the old beautiful rooms. She was theirs now. She had come back, and she was doing what they would have her do. She stood a while in the lovely friendly silence. Then she went upstairs to bathe and change for the afternoon, to be ready when Ellen came back.

She stood in her bedroom on the high maple bureau, putting on the tall white silk frock, stopping to fasten the white sandals, slowly, as if she were dressing herself for some event. She stepped quickly down the broad shallow stairs through the bars of noted sunshine and into the parlor she had made so beautiful again.

George and Ellen would go away; his work took him, she had learned, all over the world. The Seymour place would only be one of a dozen experiment stations for him now the house was gone. But Eve would not go away, now. She would stay here. Nowhere, since she could not be married to the man she loved, could she be so much at peace, so right, so comforted, as in this house where the sense of generations of her own people upheld her. They understood, they cared, they were her kin. Sitting in the bay window at her table, alone in the late gold light, the aura of them still held her and loved her.

She had courage to face the life before her, and she knew that it might be full and pleasant some day. There were old links to pick up in the village, interests, friendships, here and beyond. Judge would grow up, responsible and devoted; she would have Uncle Henry's tactful faithfulness and protection. The real love of two people, that she was sure of and a work that she dignified by doing successfully and well—most people didn't have as much as that to be sure of.

For a few moments more she stood at the long front window, idly watching the wind bend the chrysanthemums that bordered the drive. The sun outlined her bright hair, like an aureole, the wind blew her thin dress against her. She felt the warmth and the freshness of the wind.

Again, there in the great beautiful old room, came a sense of release, complete quiet and freedom. The hot cross currents of pain and love and desire and frustration were still. In that quiet moment all was very well that day. Denny, Older And Thinner

The front door crashed open and shut. It did not disturb her mood of freed peace. Judge, bless his heart, didn't walk soberly these days, he ran and banged like any other careless boy. She turned to smile at the child. But it was a man who stood in the doorway.

Denny. She had time to see as he came swiftly to her, hands out, that he looked somewhat older and thinner; better groomed, immaculate in his sharply-pressed flannels and serge coat, his fair hair brushed smooth. That would be a requisite of Mitzel's life, the life he lived now. "Eve I was scared to death you got hurt in the fire. . . I've come back!" He caught her passive hand. "Eve, you look like a happy angel, all white there in the sunlight! . . . Eve darling, I'm all over my mad, are you?"

She saw the old crinkling confident smile half shutting the long jade-green eyes and wondered because it meant nothing to her. Trivial. . . Was this the only word she wondered at herself, she could find for the man she had once dreaded seeing for fear she would love him too much and be too wounded? This gay, egotistical whimsiness, this easily-made love scattered to everyone? All a trivium.

"I'm not angry with you, if you mean that. Is Mitzel with you?" She smiled at him courteously, dropping his hands.

"Mitzel?" he queried, flinging himself down on the seat beside her. "Why on earth should he be?" "Because unless she is very much changed she wouldn't like her husband coming alone to see another woman."

He stared at her. "You're crazy, darling, I'm not Mitzel's husband! It's you I'm in love with!" "At least you were marrying Mitzel in a month from the time you both wrote Marilyn."

He flushed, but he answered her. "Oh come, darling, Mitzel always said a lot more than her prayers. We had a hot flirtation, the usual Mitzel routine, six romantic scenes and a parting forever except for cocktails tomorrow afternoon!"

What did you expect me to do when you threw me?" "Oh, Denny, why discuss it?" It all seemed so very far away, memories that she did not want to recall. "Marilyn mailed me Mitzel's letter. With your postscript."

She faced him now, safe and stouter and able to go on with life in measurable content; but her own speech brought back to her that dreadful time when everything had crashed. When she stood helpless, with that terrified ing helplessness which the loss of money and work gives a woman alone even more than it does a man; hurt and shocked at the discovery that the friends she had believed in could be as selfish and irresponsible toward her as if she was an abandoned cat on a tree-top of all this, had failed her; taken love away after her loss of everything else.

Mitzel Prefers Killian It swirled away. She was safe now. She had painfully achieved peace and safety. The memory made a long shiver go over her, there in the fresh sunlight of the late September afternoon. His sensitive face contracted. "My poor darling," he cried, coming close and trying to take her in his arms. "You've had a dreadful time. I was so angry I didn't know what I was doing. You cared more for that kid and the household you'd set up than you did for me. And I behaved like a fool, carrying on with Mitzel. Just tried to forget my Eve—but I couldn't—couldn't, sweetheart!" "But you took that letter too hard. As a matter of fact, she's probably writing the same one about Killian this minute, and Killian is postscripting it as her arch request. The cards are out to the best of my knowledge. And what about you and George? . . . But you and I belong to each other in spite of everything. Eve, let's forget everything, shall we, and start fresh?"

Eve did not answer him immediately. She saw what had happened. Mitzel had thrown Denny over for Killian who—detestable as he was—had many more things Mitzel liked. Perhaps she hadn't known she would get Killian when she took Denny on. So Denny had come back. He probably did like her best, she thought, coolly. Denny's ardent face was close to hers, his hands alive on her shoulders through the thin silk. "Come on, sweet, put a coat over that pretty dress and we'll drive over and find a county seat and a village justice with straw in his hair, and get it over with!" His long smiling eyes looked down into hers, his breath was in her mouth. And yet he was really hundreds of miles away. Beautiful eyes, turning true jade when, as now, he was moved or excited. She had loved them as she had loved everything about Denny. But now they did not matter at all. Because of George Killian's eyes, blue as a hundred other men's eyes were blue, ordinary except in the kindness, real wisdom and real love and patience and tenderness which had always looked at her out of them. "Eve, hurry, sweet!" It was the old phrase, demanding, affectionate, familiar. She stood in the window, looking at him. She did not love him in the least, but she began to work with a cold clarity.

STANTON PUTS IN BID AS LOCATION FOR STATE HOSPITAL

STANTON, May 15—This town added another to the list of those seeking location of the proposed West Texas insane asylum this week when a letter making application for the location of the institution here was forwarded to the state board of control at Austin.

Stanton's location nearly halfway between Fort Worth and El Paso on the Broadway of America and the main line of the Texas and Pacific railroad was cited as reason for bringing the asylum here. In addition, the abundance of shallow water, fertile land, and gas, electric, and telephone facilities are regarded as assets of the town in competition for the institution. Application was made by letter by Mayor J. E. Moffett and County Judge C. E. Storey.

WILL SHIP STEERS TO KANSAS MARKET

W. P. Edwards will ship 900 head of three-year-old steers from his Gaines county pastures Monday to market in Kansas.

The stock losses about 900 pounds on the average and are in top shape, having been fed cake during all the winter months. With the exception of about two dozen head killed by early growth shyness, the steers came through the winter months better than herds in many areas.
