The appointment is effective July 1.

Ater will be in charge of public relations work on Santa Fe's Western lines and the Panhandle and Santa Fe, including the states of New Mexico, Colorado and West Texas.

Born in Crowell, Texas, January 9, 1913, Ater received his education in the public schools and junior colleges at San Angelo, Texas, after which he attended the University of Texas, Austin, graduating in 1937 with a B. F. since October 1937, is promoted to the position of special representative at Galveston, Texas, succeeding J. G. Fitzhugh who is retiring. ### Loans, Purchase Agreements Offered On '47 Wheat

Both purchase agreements and commodity loans will be available to growers on their 1947 wheat crops under the Department of Agriculture's Price Support Program," according to Gray Barton, Specialist for the Production and Marketing Administration. "Purchase agreements," he said, "will be offered growers through December 31, 1947. Under these agreements, farmers will be able to sell wheat to the Commodity Credit Corporation at a price corresponding to loan rates." Barton explained the farmers may elect to sell any quantity of eligible wheat to CCC during the 60 day period following April 30, 1948, the maturity date of wheat loans. He said that loan rates on the 1947 crop wheat will be based on 90 percent of parity as of July 1, 1947. These rates will also reflect freight and handling charges. Only wheat grading number 3 or better, or number 4 or number 5 because of test weight only, will be eligible for loan or purchase. In general, the loan program will operate the same as in 1946. Barton added that interim wheat loans are also available to wheat growers in Southwestern states, where harvest is under way before July 1, the date on which loan rates are established for the coming marketing year. These rates are based on an established parity price of $2.00 per bushel and will be adjusted when the official loan rates are announced.

Hot winds accompanied the heat of last weekend with Sunday being one of those still days with Old Sol beaming down.

12 Head of Cattle Perish for Water

At least 12 head of good cows died for lack of water early this week in one of Robert Rundell's pastures east of town, and at least that many more came near suffering the same fate.

Dick Doshier discovered the plight of the cattle early Sunday morning, when five of them had perished. Seven more were dead when the owner, whose name was not learned here, got to them Monday afternoon.

The stock was being run on a grass pasture leased from Rundell, and the owner is said to have gotten so busy in his harvesting operations that he failed to check on them as regularly as had been his custom. Doshier said that the "sucker rod" on the windmill became disconnected and the mill was not lifting any water.

Rundell, who had been harvesting wheat in a nearby field, said that he had observed the windmill in operation from a distance and presumed that it was functioning properly.

County Row Crops In Need of Rain

While the wheat growers have been enjoying excellent harvesting weather the past two weeks, row crops of the county are beginning to need moisture, and farmers report that young feed crops will begin to suffer if rain is not forthcoming before long.

For the most part, Farmer County farmers have appreciated the hot dry weather for the past two weeks, making harvesting conditions ideal. On the other hand, they have seen the need of moisture on their feed crops. The result has been that most farmers did not know which they needed most; rain or dry weather.

Housing Needed for School Teachers

Supt. B. A. Rogers of the Texico schools, today called attention to the desperate need of suitable housing for school teachers who are now beginning to look for locations for the coming school year.

Pointing out that the housing situation had been responsible for the loss of some members of his faculty, Rogers stressed the importance of making proper preparations for school teachers in advance of the opening of school.

Any suitable vacancies that might be available for school teachers this fall should be reported to the heads of the Texico and Farwell schools.

TARGET, NEW YORK CITY . . . Brooklyn bridge was in the bomb-sights of this flight of B-29 Superfortresses when, as part of an armada of 100 such planes, they flew over New York City in a simulated bombing raid. The 100 giant airships, nearly all the strategic air command could muster, according to Gen. George C. Kenney, converged on metropolitan New York from six different fields in various parts of the country.

With widely scattered showers temporarily halting the wheat harvest in some sections of the county early this week, growers began to get a breathing spell from the rust harvest operations that have been in full swing in this section the past week.

A good portion of the southeast corner of the county was visited by showers—and some hail—late Tuesday afternoon, bringing combining to a standstill. But the rain was confined to small areas and the flow of wheat to the already clogged elevators continued to move in.

The railcar shortage, which has shown no improvement since the harvest got under way, continues to be the real bottleneck in the movement of grain to terminal centers. Santa Fe officials are very definite in promising no relief in the immediate future. Literally hundreds of carloads have been moved out since the harvest started but these movements have amounted to a mere trickle when the record harvest is taken into consideration. The number of cars suitable for hauling grain has not improved over last year and yet there is fully twice the amount of wheat to be moved.

So acute has been the car shortage that some grain elevator operators have resorted to the use of gondola (or open) cars in helping to move out their overflowing elevators. Elevator operators, generally, promised no relief until cars are provided.

All local elevators were filled over the past weekend and the only relief they have experienced was when the railroad furnished a few cars—and that has been fully inadequate.

The only relief in sight from the congested condition locally was seen at the Henderson Grain Company in Farwell, where all possible speed was being maintained to complete a new large storage warehouse. It is estimated that this warehouse will accommodate at least 250,000 bushels. C. M. Henderson, operator, said today that he expected to have the new plant ready for operation by the latter part of the present week. At the same time, he warned that only thoroughly dry wheat can be accepted for storage in his new warehouse for the reason that no drying facilities have been provided.

The new 200,000 Shereley elevator at Bovina was opened early last week, only to hang out "no room" signs early Saturday morning. Like conditions prevailed at every elevator in the county, and the only relief can be when railcars are furnished. Local elevator men said that many loads of grain from Dimmitt and even as far as Plainview were unloaded here early last week.

As the harvest began to be completed in some small fields in the extreme south end of the county, some accurate information on the yield began to come to light. Growers interviewed early this week said their yield was running all the way from 9 to 42 bushels to the acre, with practically all of them placing their yield in the 20-25 bushel average categories. Considering the estimated acreage of 250,000 in Farmer County, it is now being predicted that this county will produce around 5 million bushels of wheat this year, which will be a record never before approached in the county.

It was being freely predicted that the harvest would likely be continued over a period of several days yet. Many thousands of acres are yet to be cut and combining this year has been slow due to the fallen condition of the wheat fields, making it necessary that the machines operate at a rather slow pace. Much of the grain in the north part of the county remains uncut, while it was being claimed that practically 75 percent of the cuttings had been completed in the south part of the county.

Much of the best grain in the county this year has been produced in the Lazbuddy sections, where reports of 35 to 40 bushel yields are not uncommon.

Much of the grain was being piled out in the open as farmers rushing harvesting operations with the view of providing storage facilities after the harvest was completed. Every available bit of storage in the county will be used and more is being arranged. Leg Sudderth just completed the conversion of a large sheep shed to storage space the first of the week at his farm. Other farmers are making similar conversion. (Continued on Last Page)

Health Notes
By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—With the incidence of measles usually being somewhat high in the summer time, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a statement concerning the use of immune globulin for protecting very young or frail children from an attack of this perennial childhood disease and its often serious complications.

"If you have a child less than five years old who has been exposed to measles, your family doctor may recommend giving immune globulin," Dr. Cox said. "Through city, county or state health departments, doctors can obtain immune globulin free, to be used as they think advisable. Infants and children, whose health makes it inadvisable for them to suffer an attack of the measles, may avoid the disease if immune globulin is administered within eight days from the time of exposure."

The State Health Officer emphasized the fact that immune globulin cannot give a child a permanent protection against measles, but explained that the protection is ordinarily of about three weeks duration. However, there is no limit to the number of times it can be used, and a baby who is protected by it once can be protected by it again if exposed later. Immune globulin can go on shielding him against measles until he is old enough and strong enough to stand an attack without risking serious consequences.

During an outbreak of the measles, Dr. Cox said that it is well to keep children under five years of age, and more especially frail children, from all other youngsters who might serve as sources of infection. Statistics show that nine-tenths of all measles deaths occur in children under five years of age.

Good Seed, Good Wheat

COLLEGE STATION — Maybe there is a lot of luck connected with growing the kind of wheat crop harvested in West Texas now, but Castro County farmers believe good seed is important too.

Castro County Agricultural Agent Raymond L. King reports that 14 farmers in that county made application to the State Department of Agriculture to certify 1,726 acres of wheat. The Castro County Certified Seed Growers Association is sponsoring the movement.

Cecil Curry, Castro wheat grower and association member, testifies that certified seed pays off. A section of wheat he has this year is planted to three different pure varieties, along with some grain that is "only elevator run wheat."

"The three pure varieties are all uniform, the same height, and they all headed out at the same time. The elevator run wheat has some short, some tall plants and did not head out uniformly," says Curry.

FALL GARDEN PLANNING

COLLEGE STATION—It isn't too early to start thinking about planting that fall garden, say horticulturists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Now, while supply and selection of garden materials are good, the smart gardener will begin to plan and lay in supplies of seed, inoculating dust, seed testing materials, insecticides and fertilizers. Planning wheat to plant, when and how much is just another wise step in modern vegetable raising, the horticulturists say.

Here are a few things to do in the future fall garden site that will start things off right. "Shave" the plot where the garden will go. Add well-rotted barnyard fertilizer, applied broadcast, and plow or spade it in near the top of the ground. Keep the site well pulverized, and watered if it needs moisture. Start now controlling weeds and grasses, to get a headstart on the pests.

CAREFUL WITH THE IRON

COLLEGE STATION—Among the items that help start household fires as the housewife goes about her daily tasks, the electric iron ranks up among the worst of them.

Ordinarily the blame can't be put on the iron, but on the person who goes off for a few minutes and forgets to turn it off.

Home management specialists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service say that if a housewife is really safety-minded, she will not only turn off her iron when she leaves it, but disconnect it as well, even if she leaves only for a few minutes.

"Octopus connections"—several electrical connections from one outlet—are another serious household fire hazard, the specialists say. A safe rule is to make only one or two connections from an outlet and avoid the use of extension cords except as temporary wiring.

Other electrical "don'ts" around the house are: don't hang extension cords over nails, or run them through doors or underneath rugs; don't use worn cords on lamps and appliances; don't let clothing, draperies, or other inflammable materials come too close to light bulbs.

Business Tells a Story

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

TIME WAS when it was fashionable for everyone to talk about big business and count over the gross and net sins of corporations. Of course, there were mighty good stories even then about our steadily rising standards of living. But the busy-bodies didn't bother with those success stories, big or little. I have said that America is now beginning to assume her task in public relations, that of selling her ways and her freedoms and her institutions to people everywhere.

I should like to say that some of our groups and institutions have special responsibilities in this job. I think that labor does, as well as business. The task is important to agriculture, to tradesmen, to education, to the professions, and to civic minded folks in every walk. Certainly labor and industry are each so important in our economic system, that they must be interested in reawakening the people to an appreciation of America.

A Report I WOULD LIKE to To Workers tell you about a company that is doing its part, thereby shouldering its responsibility for this kind of public re-education. Somebody sent me a copy of a report this company makes to its employees. The report answers questions employees want to know. The answers are frank, fair, and simply stated. There is no doubt the report has made its readers better informed Americans. It did so to me.

It takes $7,507 worth of capital to give a person a job in this company. Naturally, there would be no jobs for their 3,951 people if it were not for this $29,660,626. Shareholders who put up this money out of what they earn and save, hope to get "a fair rental" for their money. These folks, the report tells us, are capitalists — "and so are you!" Because we own our possessions, we are "capitalists" and this is a "capitalist" country.

Why Make "WE HAVE a 'capitalist' industry in the United States because millions . . . use part of their 'capital' to own and operate the most productive farms, stores, mines, and factories on this earth. And that is the reason why we, as a people, have the highest standard living of any nation in the world. No other system in any country, at any time, by any other means has ever produced so much for so many at such little cost as our 'capitalist' business does in America."

The company says frankly that it made money in 1946 — about seven and one-half cents on every dollar's worth of products sold. While this record is termed a narrow margin that calls for economy all along the line, the report makes it plain that the company expects to keep on making money. All this, amidst healthy competitors that cause them to keep putting out better products for less money. Tribute is paid to the keen competition they meet as an effective price regulator.

"A company that can't make money is like a ship that can't float. Neither is safe for you and your family. A company may lose money for a short time, just as a ship may spring a leak and take in water for a short time, but if the losses and the leak can't be stopped soon, the ship sinks and the company goes out of business. Passengers on the ship that sinks and employees of the company that fails are victims of disaster."

Seeking Dinosaurs

LUBBOCK—Seeking bones or skeletons of dinosaurs for addition to the West Texas museum and for research at Texas Technological College, a scientific expedition will enter Big Bend National park next month.

Wann Langston, geology instructor, will head the expedition, accompanied by H. C. Bailey of Clarksville and Owen Hofacket of Levelland. Bailey will complete requirements for a bachelor of science degree in geology at the end of the current summer term. Hofacket is also a geology student.

The Department of the Interior recently issued the party a permit to excavate dinosaur remains in the park during 1947.

The group will search specifically for remains of sauropod dinosaurs of the Uppen Cretaceous age, which closed about 75 million years ago. Only two skeletons of this type, both incomplete, have been discovered in North America. One is in the National museum, Washington, and the other at the University of Oklahoma museum.

Langston hopes to supplement this material with further discoveries this summer. He also expressed hopes that the party may unearth remains of an entirely new dinosaur fauna, one never previously described.

The sauropod dinosaur is one of the largest of the group. Sometimes attaining an overall length of 82 ft. it is characterized by a short body and long neck and tail.

Leaving Lubbock July 18, the party will search for prehistoric remains about seven weeks. Center of the search will be about 100 miles south of Marathon.

Raising food for the two billion people of the world is a big job, and already millions of those people are going hungry because the soil was not cared for properly.

Seed Saving

COLLEGE STATION—Horticulturists of the Texas A & M College Extension Service believe that the many new and inexperienced gardeners in Texas now may be interested in some pointers on saving vegetable seed.

Seed saving, say the horticulturists, is commonly practiced among experienced Texas gardeners only on such vegetables as okra, corn, beans, peas, squash, cucumbers, cushaw, tomatoes, pepper, lettuce, mustard, eggplant, cantaloupe, watermelons and sweet potatoes. Cabbage, beet and carrot seed will not mature in less than two years time. Seed saving on those vegetables doesn't go so well in Texas climate.

The veteran gardener, in saving seed, picks out particular plants that are true to variety, and which show productiveness and fruitfulness. He takes special care of the plants until time to harvest the seed.

Time of harvesting seed differs with the plant, the horticulturists explain. On English peas and beans, the harvest sign is a browned pod; field peas and corn are left in the field until ready to harvest and store; cucumbers, squash, cushaw, watermelon and cantaloupe seed can be taken when the plants are fully mature; on peppers and tomatoes, the seed is ready when the fruit is dead ripe and brilliant red. Mustard, lettuce, radishes, collards and the like can be cut as soon as the seed pods are well matured, and hung in a cool dry spot.

NEW STADIUM DELAYED

LUBBOCK — Completion of the new stadium at Texas Technological College will be delayed three months as the result of a fire which wrecked most construction in the east stands, officials have been advised by Floyd Oldt, Dallas contractor in charge.

The blaze, late Thursday, burned oil-soaked forms for concrete tiers which were to be poured Friday. Heat twisted and cracked concrete and steel columns and ruined materials to be used in other sections. Standing portions have been condemned and must be removed before reconstruction of the wrecked area is started.

Oldt shifted workers to the west stands and said he is hopeful of completing work there and of having two of five east stand sections ready by fall. He said difficulty will be encountered in getting new pre-fabricated steel for the burned area without delay.

The east stand was to be used almost exclusively for students of Texas Tech and gridiron opponents. Whether the new stadium or old Tech field will be used for games in the fall will not be determined for about two weeks, it was said.

Car Shortage Continues

LUBBOCK—Prospective auto purchasers will probably have to wait until 1949 before they can expect immediate or early delivery of cars upon placing orders, according to Bates Thornton, former Texas Technological College student who is now director of planning for the Ford Motor company. Thornton visited in Lubbock recently.

Thornton agrees with the general consensus that the nation is headed for a business recession in six or seven months, but, taking an optimistic view, denies that any sound reason exists for the United States ever entering another economic depression.

In 1946, 1,220 Americans were killed and 85,000 injured in accidents involving automobiles which were turning left at time of the accident. Know your hand signals—and use them!

THE Eagle and the Flag, precious symbols of the land we love! the land where every man may worship God according to the dictates of his own Conscience! The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose, the Flag for loyalty and sacrifice; one tells us ever of the greater dreams for the tomorrows, the other calls to mind the heroic service rendered by the good and the great. We have had a glorious history, for which we are proud and grateful as an inheritance; we are in turn making the history which our children will inherit. The Eagle is summoning us ever to keep our love of freedom and our zest for the things that are high, the flag is reminding us that a free people had to learn to be united people. Out of the many had to come one nation, E Pluribus Unum. The Eagle seems to be saying to the forty-eight states, "Be free and at the same time be united." The time has come when freedom depends more on cooperation than upon individual strength in armaments. We must cultivate increasing understanding and good will between the states. Let no racial or religious intolerance divide us from each other; let no sectional interests make us forgetful of the common good. Unless we can build within the Democracy a good fellowship of peoples, unless we put our vaunted principles into real relationships, this noble experiment of a government, "of the people, by the people, for the people" will go down before the advance of a better order than ours. God bless America and make her a channel of blessing to all the nations of the world.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. State-men today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Attention, Picnickers

COLLEGE STATION — Vacuum bottles are jugs are nice things for travelers and picnickers to have these days, but they need special care if they are to render the best service, Mrs. Florence Low, associate specialist in home management for the A. and M. College Extension Service, points out.

Ordinary dish-washing will not do for these containers because if they are put in water, the outside insulation may be injured. It is a better idea to fill the container with warm soapy water and soak for an hour or so. A soft bottle brush may be used. Finally, rinse with clear, lukewarm water and then with water containing a small amount of chlorine. Turn upside down to drain, dry and air. Scrub corks and screw tops with soapy water, then rinse and dry.

Here's a warning from Mrs. Low: Sudden changes of temperature may crack the glass in the glass-lined bottles. Before filling a bottle with hot liquid, warm it gradually by rinsing first in lukewarm water and then in warmer water. Chill gradually before filling the vacuum with cold liquid.

Parteurized and very cold milk may be kept in vacuum containers, if the bottle is well chilled. Mrs. Low says that cocoa or soup should be brought to a boil and poured into the container while still very hot. The bottle should be heated in advance. Foods of this type should not be kept in a vacuum bottle for more than an hour or two before using.

TEST FOR TERRACES

COLLEGE STATION—Heavy May rains, measuring up to 9 inches in some sections, provided a real test for new terraces built by West Texas farmers.

Most of the terraces stood the water well. In Coke County, J. R. Emmons, county agricultural agent, reports that a few lessons were learned when poorly built terraces broke under the heavy rainfall.

Of the terraces built with the county rig in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, only two gave way, and one of them was on a farm where the terracing system had not been completed.

Shelton Hainey, Flomont farmer, has a "syrup pan" system that catches water from about 700 acres. After the rains, Hainey told County Agent Emmons that the terraces held perfectly; each lister ridge was full of water. He figures that the rainfall he saved with his terraces will make lots of difference next July when the weather turns hot and dry.

FRIENDLY WORDS . . . Mme. Andrei Gromyko, wife of Soviet delegate to the United Nations, made radio address from U. N. information and hospitality center. She took as her subject international friendship. Her audience was composed of United Nations personnel and their families.

Allred-Bell Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Margaret Allred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Allred of Texico, and Charles C. Bell of Clovis, were united in marriage last Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the Advent Christian Church in Clovis.

The Reverend Holiver Hasting Duch performed the simple single ring ceremony, with Marvin J. Bell acting as best man, and Lena B. Bell the bridesmaid. Only relatives and a few close friends were present for the occasion.

Newlywed: "Because I figured it would be easier to live with 200 pounds of curves than with 100 pounds of nerves."

Mistress: "Then why did you bring back the three cents?"

Production on Fords Almost to Par

According to a release from the Ford Motor Co. of Denver for the month of June, the production of automobiles, trucks and tractors at the Ford Motor Co. during the first three weeks of the foreman's strike was within two and one-half percent of schedule, stated Del S. Harder, vice-president and director of manufacturing.

A total of 62,906 units have been turned out since May 21 compared with a scheduled 64,400 units. During this period, the Mercury line at the Rouge plant was shut down for a week when the Mercury Corporation was unable to furnish frames and body parts because of a labor dispute.

In the past three weeks, striking foremen in the Rouge, Highland Park and Lincoln plants have lost more than $900,000 in salaries, Mr. Harder said.

The strike has not affected the 13 assembly plants in the United States. In many cases, these plants have been able to produce more than the scheduled number of cars and trucks.

More Ford passenger cars were produced than scheduled. Since May 21, 32,905 Fords were assembled, compared with a scheduled 32,550. Trucks were slightly under schedule, 17,269 having been produced, compared with a schedule of 17,360. Mercurys and Lincolns also were slightly under schedule.

The average person is drinking less milk this year than last, due in part to the fact that he is spending more for other goods and foods which were still scarce last year.

We can accept warehouse receipts from eligible elevators in other counties as long as the wheat is raised in Farmer County by an eligible producer.

A new loan rate will be set as of July 1st and is expected to be slightly higher than the one now in effect.

For those farmers who do not want a loan on their wheat but who would like to hold their grain and still be eligible or the support price we have a purchase agreement plan. This agreement plan, much like the loan program, must be executed before the first of next year. The producer is not advanced the actual cash but eligible for the loan price when he delivers his wheat.

Farmers are expressing their intentions to carry out soil building practices on their wheat land despite the act that PMA has discontinued issuing any more prior approvals for payment.

Maybe we have outgrown this phase of the old AAA program. If the time has come when we will carry out these practices without government aid then it is time that they cease payments. The purpose of assistance given farmers was to induce them to carry out the sound soil building practices that they would not have carried out otherwise. When the stage is reached where the producer voluntarily carries out these practices at his own expense, then the government is wasting money on a cause already accomplished.

The question of where to put the wheat is uppermost in everyone's thinking.

Store as much as possible on the farm. This will give your neighbor who isn't fortunate enough to have a granary a better chance to get his grain off the ground and in the elevator.

We're Doing Our Best To Serve You

The wheat harvest has thrown a pleasant burden on us, and we are doing our best to take care of your wheat.

Due to the shortage of cars, we have been compelled to turn down some of our customers. This we sincerely regret.

We are rushing completion of our new warehouse and hope to be able to start filling it by the latter part of this week. You can count on us doing everything we can to help you with your harvesting problems.
