Santa Fe Official Promoted

John Neal Landreth, trainmaster for the Santa Fe Railway at Las Vegas, N. M., has been promoted to superintendent, Plains Division, Amarillo, succeeding Jerry B. Briscoe retired, according to announcement made today by G. C. Jefferis, general manager of Santa Fe's Western Lines, Amarillo. The appointment is effective August 1.

Landreth's Santa Fe career dates from July, 1924, when he went to work at Slaton, Texas, as a telegrapher for the Panhandle & Santa Fe railway. He advanced through several positions to chief dispatcher at Slaton in 1941. In 1942, Landreth was appointed trainmaster of Santa Fe's Western Lines at Wellington, Kans., and was transferred to Las Vegas as trainmaster in November of 1943. He has since served in that capacity for two months in 1945 when he was acting superintendent, Slaton Division, P. & S. F. Ry., at Slaton, and again in 1946 when he was superintendent, Eastern Division of Santa Fe's Eastern Lines at Emporia, Kans., for a five-month period.

Landreth was born in Shady Point, Okla., in April, 1902, and educated in the schools of Chillicothe, Missouri. Before affiliating with the Santa Fe he worked as operator-agent for another Western railroad at Denver, and later operated his own lumber yard at Wister, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Landreth and daughter, Mary Frances, 21, will make their home in Amarillo soon.

A warehouse completely hidden from sight is being planned in Norway. Three storage rooms, with more than 365,000 square feet of space, are to be blasted out of a hillside on the shores of Oslofjord. The idea is similar to Norway's plan for a subterranean power plant.

ELEANOR EXPRESSES HER OPINION . . . Members of the press clustered around Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt for a news conference before she addressed 2,500 delegates to the 56th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in New York. Mrs. Roosevelt confided to reporters that the Taft-Hartley labor act "will undoubtedly create disunity in the country instead of unity—and women are vitally concerned."

Health Notes
By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—Despite the fact that modern medicine does much to help the diabetic live out a normal life span, nevertheless diabetes took a toll of several hundred lives in Texas during the past year, according to Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "While deaths from the communicable diseases such as typhoid fever, malaria, diphtheria, and smallpox are annually decreasing in this country, diabetes is still taking a tragic number of human lives each year, especially in the middle aged group," Dr. Cox said.

"Until recent years diabetes was not noted as a major health problem, but it became accepted as such in direct ratio to the development of medical laboratory procedures, which made the disease more easily diagnosed."

Dr. Cox said that diabetes is generally recognized as a class disease. It seems to attack the white collar class of indoor men and women much more frequently than it does the outdoor person whose work is more vigorous and calls for more exercise. Whatever the actual cause of the disease may be, vocational and economic conditions apparently are factors, since it seems a fact that those persons whose occupations call for manual labor and simple living are not frequently affected.

Dr. Cox said that simple, wholesome diets, exercise and sleep are factors in the prevention of diabetes, and an annual physical examination, especially in middle aged persons, is important so that if the disease is present, competent treatment can be instituted while the disease is in its early stage.

True Stories of West Texans

THE LOST ARROWHEAD

An air of peacefulness permeated the Old Stone Ranch on that April morning of 1867. Located in an open valley that was crossed by the Clear Fork of the Brazos, its nearest neighbor was Camp Cooper, five miles to William, had joined other settlers, uncluttered by people, for neither Fort Griffin nor the later county seat of Albany had yet been founded.

But there was no peace for the agitated man pacing the stone enclosed yard of the old ranch. Two days before two of his sons, George and William, had joined other settlers, going in pursuit of a band of marauding Indians. And last night he had dreamed that one of his boys was severely wounded. Now, he was waiting for a messenger, fearing the worst.

He was still pacing the yard when William and John Anderson, weary with an all night's ride, came with the news.

George had been shot. The arrow entering his body above the navel had broken when the shaft was pulled out, and its head could not be found. They thought that perhaps it might have become lost in the loose sand when jerked out.

While their elders were making preparations to receive the wounded boy, should he still be alive, the children took turns acting as look outs; but a full hour before the party's expected arrival the boys were all on the smoke house together. As the scouting group wound slowly into sight, a shout of joy went up and the news was called to the anxious parents. The full number of horsemen had been counted!

George Reynolds was indeed sitting on his horse. But it was only from grim determination he wanted to reassure those waiting loved ones. As they had come into sight of the Old Stone Ranch he had insisted that he be taken from the litter. This litter was made of the men's kayaks or cowhide packs swung between two horses. Thus they had traveled the 35 or 40 miles, except when the horses had to go single file; he was then laid across the saddle.

Dr. James D. Ray soon arrived from Weatherford having been brought by Sam Newcomb, a brother-in-law of young Reynolds. They had ridden night and day to cover the hundred and some odd intervening miles.

George Reynolds, future cattle baron and assistant founder of the First National banks of both Albany and Oklahoma City, regained his health. But his father's psychic premonition of death was not without foundation. Sixteen years and three and a half months after that fateful shot, an iron arrowhead, blunt and scaled with rust, was removed from George Reynolds's back.

A GOOD START

COLLEGE STATION—Wilbarger County farmers, after their first attempt to grow hairy vetch as a soil building and seed crop, are satisfied with results.

On the sandy soils of the Rolling Plains, hairy vetch has lived up to its advanced notices, as far as Wilbarger County is concerned.

Frank Wendt, county agricultural agent, reports that the farmers are "elated" over the outcome of planting hairy vetch with the rye. The crop has been "invaluable" as a cover crop in holding down sandy soils and has furnished good winter pasture.

The most troublesome part of the vetch-growing—seed harvest—is over, now, says County Agent Wendt. After a few bad starts and some trial and error experiences, the farmers harvested from 150 to 800 pounds of seed an acre.

Wilbarger County producer about 250,000 pounds of hairy vetch seed, estimates that county agent, most of which will be used in the county for fall planting.

Q—Are there any penalties in case the veteran accepts readjustment allowance to which he is not entitled?

Furthermore, anyone who receives money, check or allowance under the readjustment allowance provisions of the law, to which he is not entitled and with intent to defraud the U. S., shall be punished by fine of not more than $1,000 or one year in prison or both.

Texas Leads 45 Other States In Meat Production

Texas led 45 other states in meat production last year, according to a statement just issued by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Proof of the outstanding role of Texas as a livestock and meat state is also revealed by figures showing that the cash income received from meat animals by its ranchers and farmers in 1946 totaled $298,699,000 of this total, $315,109,000 was received from cattle sales, $50,838,000 from the sale of hogs and $32,752,000 from the sale of sheep and lambs.

Calling attention to the national livestock and meat picture, the Board asserts that 1946 was the fifth consecutive year in which meat production exceeded 20 billion pounds, the meat output for the year, reaching 22 billion, 961 million pounds. To produce his meat supply 131,050,000 cattle, hogs and sheep were marketed and processed.

Meat consumption in the United States is on the increase, the Board points out. Civilian consumption of meat in 1946 reached an all-time high with a total of 21 billion, 234 million pounds—or an average of 60 million pounds per day.

Showing further the upward trend in the use of meat on America's tables is the fact that the per capita consumption of this food product last year was 152.8 pounds—27 more pounds per person than was consumed annually in the pre-war period, 1935-39.

Under Secretary of State Will F. Clayton talked bluntly to the British during his visit to London, and the Britans didn't like it. Some of them are interpreting Clayton's remarks as criticism of the way Britain has spent the U. S. loan and of Britain's inability to produce enough coal, both at home and in Germany.

Fried Chicken For Next Winter

COLLEGE STATION—Fried chicken can be a year round food for the family table if some of them are saved for the freezer locker, Gwendolyn Jones, food preservation specialist for the A. and M. Extension Service, suggests.

She says the young birds are best for fried chicken and getting them ready for freezing is the same as for eating. But, it is easy to pick the chicken if it's dipped into a semi-scalding water, for half a minute. This means the water should be about 128 degrees.

Suggestions on freezing include cutting up the chicken into pieces as you would cut them for frying. The next step is to cool the pieces and pack into moisture-, vapor-proof containers or wrapping paper. Put the amount needed for each meal into a package. Make the package as airtight as possible.

Freeze quickly, and store at zero degrees or lower. If the home freezer is used, the chicken may be killed in the afternoon and frozen that night. If a commercial freezer locker is used, the chicken may be killed in the morning, and taken to the locker early in the afternoon.

Life would practically perfect, if somebody would invent a process for taking the hard work out of it.

Curtis-Stone Rites Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Pearl Cordelia Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Curtis of Los Alamos, N. M., and James Halcut Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone of this City was solemnized in a double ring ceremony read by Min. J. E. Randol, Thursday night at eight o'clock in the home of the groom's parents.

The ceremony was read by candle light before an altar which was gold with delicate shades of gladioli and a mirrored background with fern.

The bride wore a palomito suit with brown accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Miss Laura Upchurch of Clovis, maid of honor, wore a teal blue suit, navy accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Gene Templeman of Clovis served as best man.

A reception was given in the Stone home following the ceremony. The table was laid with a white linen cloth and decorated with white candles and a white dahlia centerpiece. A wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was served from one end of the table and punch from a giant cut glass bowl from the other.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home here in Farwell. The bride will continue working for the Bell Telephone Co. in Clovis and the groom is employed by the Williams Oil Co., also of Clovis.

Okla. Lane Ladies Home From Outing

The Oklahoma Lane Demonstration Club ladies and girls have returned to their homes. The first thing that happened was that Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Wilkenson tried to make us believe they had seen monkeys with feathers up in Colorado and that was before we got to Ft. Sumner too. The first night we stayed in Taos, N. M. Our table was beautifully covered with a linoleum top. Tea was poured out of a three gallon granite steamer by Mrs. Dickie Magness, who was gracefully dressed in a pair of blue jeans and that was the beginning of we ladies losing our girlish figures.

We spent the evening sitting in Taos around the square, wondering why those Indians wore those hot blankets around their lower part. Some said it was a custom of theirs. But we decided their squaws were not keeping their pants patched or that was a new way of wearing a girdle on the outside.

We had a very nice visit over at Red River and Eagle Nest. On our way back we had dinner at the La Placita in Santa Fe, and as hot as the weather was, we ate Spanish food. It was delicious, even if it did require a lot of ice water drinking.

We arrived home at 6:30 Friday evening and all were tired and oh, so glad to be home again. Those enjoying the trip were Mesdames; J. R. Caldwell, Thad Watkins, Jewel Barry, Fred Kepley, Clyde Perkins, A. B. Wilkerson, Lee Thompson, Clyde Magness, John Porter, Misses; Loneta Thompson, Gloria Kepley, Louise Rundell, Betty Rose Johnson.

Mr. Don Cantrell and Mr. Walter Honser of Lazbuddie were the bus drivers.—(contributed)

JELLYMAKERS HAIL THE RETURN OF SUGAR

Your little girl will enjoy making jellies and jams—the new way! Yes, the new short boil recipes for jams and jellies are so well tested, anyone who follows the directions can turn out perfect sweet spreads every time.

So now that we can have all the sugar we want—why not let your daughter help you with your jams and jellies? Or, even better, why not tell her she may make a "batch" all by herself? She'll be thrilled—and you'll be so proud! All she has to do is follow the directions for preparation and time the boiling to the second. Natural fruit pectin does the rest. And when natural fruit pectin is added, you can use fully ripe fruit. No need to sacrifice flavor now-a-days. So why not start today and have a real "jam session" with your daughter? You'll have lots of fun and you'll remember your jam party every time you open a jar of your jam or jelly. For a "starter" try these new recipes:

Cherry and Peach Jam
(Using sour cherries)
4 cups prepared fruit
7 cups sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare the fruit. Stem and pit about 1 1/4 pounds fully ripe sour cherries. Chop fine. Peel and pit about 1 1/2 pounds soft ripe peaches. Grind or chop very fine. Combine fruits and measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan.

To make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 11 six-ounce glasses.

Peach Jam

3 1/2 cups prepared fruit
4 1/2 cups sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 2 1/2 pounds of soft ripe peaches. Grind. Measure 3 1/2 cups into a large saucepan.

To make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding fruit over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, ladle quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 8 six-ounce glasses.

PICKLED PEACHES

COLLEGE STATION — Pickled peaches are one of America's favorite sweet spicy relishes, says Gwendolene Jones, food preservation specialist from the Texas Extension Service.

The specialist recommends this recipe using 8 pounds of small or medium sized peaches: after peaches are washed and pared, two cloves are stuck in each peach, or the 8 two-inch sticks of cinnamon and two tablespoons of whole cloves may be tied loosely in a clean, thin, white cloth and placed to cook with 2 lbs. of sugar, 1 quart vinegar and 1 cup water for 10 minutes. The peaches are added to the liquid and cooked slowly until tender but not broken. After standing overnight, sirup is drained from the peaches and spices removed. The sirup is boiled rapidly until thickened, and poured over peaches already packed in clean, hot sterile jars. The jars are sealed tightly.

To give time for the flavor to be blended, the jars of peaches should be kept in a cool place for several weeks before serving.

Rot on late peaches, plums and related fruits can be controlled with a spray consisting of three to five lbs. of wettable sulphur in 50 gallons of water.

The Texico-Farwell Fire Dept. is still in need of a larger membership, to meet the requirements of the insurance commissioners of Texas. New Mexico does not require as large a voluntary fire department for it to be recognized, but Texas must have a minimum of twenty members.

There will be several new faces from Farwell at drill practice, Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock. If you are a businessman in Farwell, and would like to pay a lower rate of fire insurance on your property, it will pay you to be present at the next meeting.

THE WEAKER SEX — OH DEAH!

Did you know that more boy babies die before birth than girls?—That widows outnumber widowers—ten to one? Statistics go on, and on to prove that hardness of so-called delicate womanhood. You can read these facts in the American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

AAA Conservation Program Restored

The Agricultural Conservation program is in full swing again, according to C. V. Hemphill, Chairman of the New Mexico State P. M. A. Committee. "Congress has appropriated funds enough to cover all commitments made to farmers and ranchers for ACP practices carried out under the 1947 program. Congress also has authorized a 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program to the extent of 150 million dollars," Mr. Hemphill reported.

"The continuation of the program may be attributed largely to support given it by city folks who realize that protection of our soil and water resources is a public responsibility," he continued.

SWEET CORN PROFITABLE

LUBBOCK — Profitable commercial production of sweet corn in West Texas is indicated by results of crops grown during the past two years at Texas Technological College.

Small plots of sweet corn have been produced on an experimental basis by the college plant industry department during the past two years. One plot of Asgrow Golden Hybrid variety, the best variety tested, indicated a gross profit of $300 per acre.

West Texas farmers and gardeners have long planted only the Honey June variety because of its resistance to the corn ear worm. If sweet corn is planted during March or April, however, it matures before worms become a menace. Producers are cautioned not to plant for August maturity by George Elle, assistant professor of horticulture, who reported the crop results.

Ears average 10 inches long on the Texas Tech farms. Varieties showing good results in addition to the Asgrow Golden Hybrid were Golden Cross Bantam, tender gold and Iowana. Iowana and tender gold reach maturity about a week earlier than others tested.

TURKEY STEAKS

LUBBOCK—Preparation of turkey steaks, one of the newest methods of serving turkey, will be demonstrated Aug. 13 to students in the farm meats class at Texas Technological College by F. Z. Beanblossom, poultry marketing specialist of the Texas A and M Extension Service.

Primarily for student instruction, the demonstration is also open to the public. It is scheduled from 1 to 5 p. m., in the Agriculture Division meats laboratory.

The process includes boning the chilled turkey carcass, dividing white and dark meat into four-ounce portions and running the portions through a meat tenderizer as cutlets. Meat is then ready to be fried or broiled.

The public hearing for the formation of a local Soil Conservation Service District at Friona last week was met with far more enthusiasm than anyone had hoped for. There appeared to be at least 150 landowners present which was about 100 more than is usually at such a gathering. Whether or not we earned the right to hold an election for a district will be announced in a week or 10 days. If such a district is formed in Parmer County we will have our friends Preach Edelman, Red McFarland and a host of other aggressive farmers at Friona to thank for putting it off. Which all goes to prove that if anything needs to be done, turn it over to Friona.

Just about all of the first appli-

Prior approvals for payment for contour chiseling or listing wheat land are being mailed out to producers in response to their previous request. Please take care of these forms and report the acreages carried out on them.

Local Softballers Go To Finals

Sikes Softball Club downed the Snazzy Pigers of Clovis, Thursday night, 8-0, in a five-inning game to go to the finals.

Host, twirler for the locals, pitched a two-hit game, allowing both batters to get only as far as second base. No errors were chalked up against the local team and every player showed a determination to move to the finals.

However, Monday night found the 20-30 Club of Clovis too hot for Sikes', who lost 15-2, to oust them from the tournament. The game lasted 5 innings.

Tractor Awarded Barker At Legion Shindig

The American Legion Post No. 206, of Friona, climaxed a full day of entertainment and fun Saturday night, by awarding Fred Barker, who lives south of Friona and a farmer of that community, a John Deere tractor.

The day of fun began at 2:00 p. m., with a parade, followed by a calf roping and team tying contest. Later in the evening bingo was enjoyed by a large crowd, and at 8:00 o'clock, free bar-B-Q and iced lemonade was served by the ladies.

Dancing began at 9:30, starting off with an old-time square dance, followed by the more modern style of musical entertainment on a platform built by the Legion members.
