Parmer Represented at Water Conference

A number of Parmer County farmers, some of whom already own irrigation set-ups, and other county businessmen were in Plainview on Monday, when Plains men met to discuss the water control situation.

Due to the heavy increase of irrigation wells the past few years, several cries have been heard from farmers—for a water control system to be instigated by the state, and Plains farmers met Monday to draw up some resolutions to protect themselves, if the situation does eventually demand proration.

W. L. Edelman acted as spokesman for the Parmer county delegation, and joined other representatives in insisting that when and if water proration becomes necessary that local controls are allowed, rather than be state controlled.

The more than 700 delegates also went on record as demanding that the state recognize the fact that underground water belonged to the farm where it existed, the same as any underground mineral resource.

W. L. Broadhurst, district engineer for the US Geological Survey, reported that "facts obtained during the past 15 years show that without a reasonable doubt every drop of fresh water under the High Plains is water that fell on the High Plains."

Broadhurst also declared that he doubted if it would ever be established as to the amount of underground water, and thus far no data has been discovered that would indicate where it all comes from.

A survey is now being made of underground water facilities in the High Plains, and it is possible that this report, when complete, will shed light on the ticklish subject.

Boys Start Work On FFA Judging Meets

Members of the Texico FFA department are concentrating this week on preparation for the annual district judging contests and meeting, which will be held in Portales on March 20th, according to F. D. Stout.

Teams have not yet been named, but selection will be made during the week, the director added.

On April 8-9-10, the boys and their supervisor plan to go to Las Cruces for the state-wide meeting.

Hospital Members To Meet On Thursday

The annual meeting of the members of the Parmer County Community Hospital, Inc., will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Friona high school auditorium, it is announced by officials.

All members are requested to attend. A review will be made of the first year of operation of the cooperative hospital, and business will be discussed.

HAS EYE INJURY

T. A. Autrey, 12-year-old Texico boy, was returned to his home late Tuesday afternoon from a Clovis hospital where he had been receiving treatment for an eye injury, received last weekend. The lad was hit in the left eye by a BB shot fired from a rifle in the hands of one of the McDonald twins while the youngsters were at play. First reports were that the eye would have to be removed, but later reports indicate that this is not the case.

A deal has been closed whereby Guy Nichols becomes the sole owner of the only cotton gin at Lariat, nine miles southeast of this city.

Nichols, who has managed the gin the past season, has bought the interests of Johnnie and Willie Williams, and will have complete charge of the gin hereafter. Under his management, the Lariat gin has become one of the best cotton gins in this section of the country, and handled a large volume of business the past season.

Near Blizzard Engulfs Plains Region Again

Local residents awoke Wednesday morning to find the region engulfed in a severe cold snap that was near blizzard proportions.

A cold wave moved in Tuesday night, bringing a light covering of snow that was continuing to fall as The Tribune prepared to go to press Wednesday morning. The mercury reading stood at 8 degrees, and the forecast was for continued snow and cold throughout the day and Wednesday night.

Snow, amounting for .12 of an inch of moisture fell here last Thursday, bringing the total precipitation since Feb. 1st to .97 of an inch.

GRAIN DEALER HERE

Leo Potishman, president of the Transient Grain Co. of Fort Worth, accompanied by his wife, was here the past weekend looking after business interests in Parmer County.

Speaking of the recent drop in grain prices, Potishman said that few of his various elevators were caught with any large amounts of grain on hand. "We are grain merchants, and do not speculate," he boasted.

Death Claims Oldest Citizen At 94 Years

TEXAS CITY REMEMBERS

TEXAS CITY, Tex.—Disaster-struck Texas City remembered what the Red Cross did for it when an explosion last year claimed more than 500 lives.

Texas City oversubscribed its annual Red Cross quota last week. And the campaign hasn't begun here yet.

The quota was $14,070. More than $15,000 has been subscribed.

SCS Supervisors Will Be Named Tuesday

Supervisors of three Parmer County Soil Conservation sub-districts will be named next Tuesday, when farmers from the South Friona, Lubbud and Bovina-Rhea areas name their choice of directors.

County Agent Ollie Limer said the supervisors would be elected by farmers voting in a convention-type election. In each area, the farmers interested are called to meet at 2 o'clock. The Bovina-Rhea meeting will be in the Bovina ag room, the other two groups will meet in their respective school houses.

Supervisors from Farwell and the North Friona districts were appointed some time ago. The five supervisors will form an advisory board, which, with the help of the farmers in general, will draw up a plan of work in order that an actual SCS office man be established in Parmer County.

Weather Holding Up Curb and Gutter Job

Cold weather continues to hold up the Farwell street improvement project that was launched some months ago by the Chamber of Commerce.

Contractor Felix Monroe, who has been awarded the contract for installing the curb and guttering along Main Street, said late Tuesday that he was "all set and ready to go" as soon as weather conditions would permit. He said there were several little preliminary jobs to be worked out in the meantime. Some advertising signs have to be set back and some curbing along the route has to be removed, he said.

Installation of the curb and guttering is the first step in getting the main street of the town paved from curb to curb. The State Highway Department has agreed to install the paving when the property owners put in the curb and gutters.

Coming Events Slated At Local School

Dates for important activities of the Farwell school during the closing weeks of the school term were announced this week.

First on schedule comes the annual senior play, which will be presented in the auditorium on the night of April 2nd, Jack Williams said today. Play books were distributed this week, and the cast will be selected next Monday, following which rehearsals will start.

On April 9th, the juniors will entertain the senior class for the big event of the year, the traditional inter-class banquet. Tentative plans are for the affair to be held in the new Legion hall in Farwell, class president A. C. Henneman said on Monday.

Dates have also been listed for closing of school activities. Due to the year that classes have been dismissed during bad weather, school will wind up this year on Tuesday, May 18th. Baccalaureate services for the seniors will be held in the school auditorium on Sunday, May 16, at 11 a. m., with Minister L. C. Cox, of the local Church of Christ, as the speaker. On Monday night, May 17th, the class will receive diplomas and hear a commencement address by Rev. R. L. Butler, former local Methodist minister, now of Merkel, Texas.

No arrangements had as yet been made for grade school graduation activities, school officials said today

Death finally overtook James G. (Grandpa) Charles at the comfortable little home in Bovina, where Mr. and Mrs. Charles have resided the past two years. He had attained the ripe old age of 94 years and six months at the time of his passing.

Leading an active life for almost a full century, Charles' death was attributed to heart failure after several weeks of inactivity, during which time his only complaint was that he was "just tired", and preferred spending most of his time in bed. Mr. and Mrs. Charles came to Bovina from Woodward, Okla., in 1927, and until two years ago made their home on the farm of their son, Wilbur, a short distance northwest of Bovina.

They then moved to a newly-completed small house in Bovina, built especially for them, and it was there that Charles passed away at noon on Thursday, March 4th.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church in Bovina Sunday afternoon by Rev. I. E. Briggs, of Paducah, former Bovina pastor, in the absence of Rev. Geo. York, current pastor, who is recuperating from an operation at his former home in Mississippi. With the Steed Funeral Home in charge, burial took place in the Bovina cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles were married 63 years ago at Lithfield, Ill. Three sons, Frank, Mark and Harry, preceded their father in death, and he is survived by one son, Wilbur, of Bovina, and his widow, Mrs. Mary M. Charles, 88, of Bovina. Seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren are also listed among the survivors.

Four Nominated For School Board Posts

A nominating committee appointed by the Farwell school board to name a ticket for the forthcoming school trustee election met Saturday afternoon and placed four candidates on the ticket.

Two vacancies occur on the local board this year with the expiration of terms held by H. Y. Overstreet and A. F. Phillips.

Nominees selected for the election on April 3 include John Armstrong, Sterlyn Billington, Dick Gerles and Albert Smith.

Local Attorneys Meet With Bailey Co. Bar

All members of the Parmer County Bar Association, including Judge A. D. Smith, and Attorneys Sam Aldridge, E. F. Lokey, Roy E. Cook and John Aldridge, were in attendance at a meeting of the Bailey County Bar Association, Saturday night, at Muleshoe.

The Bailey County Bar was host to the annual meeting of the 64th Judicial District Bar Association, and Associate Justice Hart of Austin, was the principal speaker. Six counties were represented at the meeting, which was held at the Methodist Church in Muleshoe. E. A. Bills of Littlefield, presided as toastmaster.

BACK IN ARMY

Lewis Meeks, local lad, has re-entered the Army and reported to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, the first of the week. Meeks will get his former rating of staff sergeant and is scheduled to be assigned to the detail of accompanying war dead from San Antonio to various places in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Sterlyn Billington, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Billington and Cortez Billington, all of this city, returned home the first of last week from Erick, Okla., where they attended the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Florence Roper, 76, who was buried at Erick.

Buy — Sell — Trade — Here!

Texico's newest industry, the Foster Brothers sales ring, will be formally opened on Thursday, March 25, with an auction sale of quarter horses.

Already more than 100 quarter horses have been assigned to the sale by breeders from Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma, it was announced here today. The sale ring is being operated by Foster Brothers, with Red Foster, who recently came here from Quemado, N. M., in charge of the ring. His brother partner lives at Portales.

Horse sales will be held every two weeks, the announcement said, and Col. Dick Doshier of this city, will serve as head auctioneer. The next sale is booked for April 8, when common horse and mules will go under the hammer. The auctions will be alternated between quarter horses and common horses every other week, it was learned.

Construction of the sheds, pens, and auction barn got underway some several weeks ago, but progress has been hampered by weather conditions. At present 28 individual stalls have been completed and the auction barn is just being finished. Additional outside small pens and large corrals are being added just as rapidly as weather conditions will permit.

The new auction ring is located just west of the Texico Port of Entry along the new 4-lane Texico-Clovis highway now under construction.

There is local talk that the ring might eventually be enlarged to include cattle sales, but Foster was out of town when a reporter called and this could not be confirmed.

Street Light Project Gets Started Monday

Farwell's long-awaited street lighting project is at last about to become a reality with the arrival of a crew of workmen here Monday and the setting of poles begun.

A crew of seven men under Earl Williams, the contractor, began setting the poles in the residential section Monday, and he stated that it would require about two or three weeks to complete the installation, provided weather conditions are favorable.

The concrete bases for the iron brackets along the principal business street were set last week, and all the street lights will be installed by the crew now here.

Nine large lights, mounted on iron brackets are to be placed along main street, and the residential lights will be suspended from wooden poles. The project calls for a total of 44 lights to be placed over the town.

"DEMON IN THE DARK" IS TITLE OF CLASS PLAY

"Demon in the Dark", the ghost of a murdered man, will fascinate local playgoers on Friday, April 26, when the Texico seniors present the mystery play on the school stage, under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Prescott.

The play deals with the weird adventures of Sondra and Ethelind Trevor, who inherit haunted Lafite's Lookout Lodge.

TO DENVER MEETING

E. M. Roop, manager of the Houston Lumber Co., of this city, plans to leave here Friday for Denver, Colo., where he will attend a meeting of company yard managers on Saturday and Sunday. Twenty-seven yard managers are scheduled to attend the meeting, Roop said. Jack Mitchell, of Clovis, and Tye Cobb of Melrose, local yard supervisors in their respective towns, will accompany Roop to the meeting.

Double funeral services for A. A. Crow and George S. Stowers, both of whom were instantly killed last Friday evening when their car was struck by a train at the Friona depot crossing, were held at the Methodist Church in Friona, Sunday afternoon. The small auditorium was overflowing and the floral offerings were the most profuse ever seen in this area.

Rev. H. D. Seago, pastor of the church, and Rev. L. L. Hill, formerly the Friona pastor and now of Spur, Texas, administered the last rites for the two friends who met death together. Both had been members of the Methodist church. Interment was made in the Friona cemetery under the direction of the Black Funeral Home, of Hereford.

The accident in which the two Friona men were killed occurred at 6:22 Friday evening, when the car driven by Crow was struck dead-center by the second section of passenger train No. 24 of the Santa Fe. Relatives reported that Crow and Stowers were enroute to the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Juanita Gray, south of Friona, and apparently never saw the fast east-bound train. Mrs. T. W. Bewley is understood to have been stopped at the crossing, waiting for the train to clear, and Miss Juanita Esquibel, operator on duty in the station, reported that the "wig-wag" signal was in operation, and that the engineer apparently saw the car, for he had his warning whistle wide open at the impact.

Wreckage of the 1947 Chevrolet, which belonged to Crow, was strewn for some 200 feet along the crossing. Identification of the victims was not known for several minutes, after which the bodies were removed to Hereford.

Wayne B. Stark, of the Friona depot, said this was the first fatal accident at the crossing, which lies at the foot of Friona's main street. Four tracks run through town at that point.

Survivors Named

Crow was born July 23, 1889 and married Miss Myrtle Rogers in Brown County on Sept. 11, 1911. For some 20 years he had been a resident of Friona, having operated a produce house there, and serving as manager of the Consumers. More recently he had a zero locker plant, selling last October to Ray Landrum, after which he moved to Hot Springs, N. M., and operated a filling station. He had come to Friona on business the night before his death.

Survivors include the widow, two sons, J. B. Crow of Hot Springs, and Clyde Crow of Fort Worth; a daughter, Mrs. Juanita Gray of Friona; four grandchildren; six brothers, L. M. Dameron of Wellington and Mrs. W. D. Herral of Snyder.

Stowers was born on January 5 1893, and married Miss Bertha Pauline Regan on December 10, 1911. He came to Friona some 20 years ago and was engaged in farming. Immediate family survivors include his wife and two sons, Floyd and Tolbert, all of Friona.

Other survivors include three brothers, John W. Stowers of El Paso, Jessie Stowers of Friona, and Alpha D. Stowers of Friona; two sisters, Mrs. Ethyl Corley of Waco and Mrs. Maude Clark of Friona; four half-brothers, Melford, Alexander, Yancy and Hershel Stowers; two half-sisters, Mrs. Francis Davis and Dorothy Faye Stowers; and one step-brother, Elmer Wilson.

Stone Soon To Open New Variety Store

J. E. (Jud) Stone announced today that he was making preparations to open a variety store in Texico with a complete new stock, in the near future.

Stone has leased the building formerly occupied by Paul Roberts, now owned by R. E. Williams, and workmen are putting the building in shape for the opening of the new store. Stone said he hoped to be ready to open for business shortly after the first of April. "We will carry a complete line of variety goods and plan to have a line that will be a credit to the town," he added.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—"Carelessness and ignorance represent two of the most powerful factors in spreading communicable disease from man to man. No more emphatic example of this fact exists than the continued ravages of tuberculosis. In spite of the knowledge of its causes and spread, and of curative methods, tuberculosis is still a very serious problem not only in Texas, but throughout the United States," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"It is true that tuberculosis no longer is first on the list of killing diseases as it was formerly," Dr. Cox said, "but despite having been reduced to fifth place in Texas, it still is responsible for more deaths between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease. And this fact exists even though the majority of tuberculosis patients could have their condition arrested if it were recognized early and proper treatment applied.

"Treatment of the early recognized case is essential. It is of equal importance, from a public health standpoint, that the spread of this devastating infection be prevented. A more intelligent appreciation of this fact would result in the saving of thousands of lives.

"When a diagnosis of active tuberculosis has been made, examination of all of the other members of the immediate family should follow as a matter of course. Tuberculosis runs in families, not because of any especial susceptibility to the disease but because it is communicable, being usually transmitted through close and prolonged contact with the active case."

To reduce the number of deaths caused by tuberculosis, Dr. Cox suggests periodic examination of all adults, a check-up by physicians of the known active cases and contacts, regular examinations of high school children, isolation or hospitalization of the active tuberculosis case, and a more intelligent application of hygienic living principles.

Do Your Landscape Changing Now

COLLEGE STATION—"If you've not made all the changes which you plan in your landscape, there's still time to get it done before the growing starts", Sadie Hatfield, extension landscape gardening specialist of Texas A. & M. College, points out.

If shrubs around the house are crowded some of them can be moved to a border or used for screening out-buildings she says. Or go to nurseries and select the plants which will fit into the home landscape, as they can be successfully transplanted now.

Other jobs which can be done to the home landscape now are listed by Miss Hatfield. Flower beds for late spring or summer planting can be prepared, as barnyard fertilizer will have about six weeks to decay before planting seeds. Order rose bushes from reliable sources and set them out in soil where only grass has grown for the past five years. That will insure healthy plants and many blooms.

Evergreens which have grown too large and are crowding other plants can be pruned. Do not prune early blooming shrubs, such as spirea, flowering peach and forsythia until they finish blooming, she warns. Shrubs which have not begun to bud can be sprayed with oil emulsion to control scale. If the spray emulsion has been frozen or if the oil has separated, it's a good idea to get fresh material and follow directions exactly so the plants won't be injured.

As a final job, Miss Hatfield says, remove and burn all diseased plants, diseased and dead limbs and take out unhealthy plants. The general appearance of the landscape will be improved.

Approximately one-seventh of the Texas cotton crop is destroyed annually by insects.

Harvard University is in Cambridge, Mass.

JUDGING CONTESTS

LUBBOCK—Vocational agriculture students representing approximately 90 high schools will compete in the 21st annual vocational agriculture judging contest at Tech April 24, Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel reports. Approximately 650 boys are expected to compete. Judging is divided in six groups: cotton classing, poultry, dairy cattle, dairy products, livestock, and crops.

Louis XIV was the great grandfather of Louis XV.

From the cotton seed destroyed annually by insects in Texas, more than 50 million pounds of cotton seed oil could have been produced in the 10-year period 1937-47.

Texas farm pastures and ranch land extends over a 100 million acres of deserts, mountains, basins, prairies, plains, plateaus and eastern timber ranges.

Approximately 90 percent of the South Texas Rio Grande Plains is rangeland.

"HINTS ON HOW TO GET IN 'SOLID' AT SCHOOL"

Rosie Booth, Guest Ed.
We've all heard lectures and talks given on how we should get in solid at school, but THIS is the real thing. Here is some hip-high advice—straight to the shoulder!

Now, when you first get to school, don't uselessly waste your efforts by going up the right stairs—go on the left side. You might bump into someone descending them, and really hit SOLID.

If you have chewing gum, don't think of putting the paper into a wastebasket. Just drop it on the stairs, so some unwary person might slip, fall and hit it off solid at the bottom.

When your stomach tells you it's time for dinner, but the office-girl won't ring the bell, ask the teacher what time it is, and sometime later, ask her again. (Her watch may be wrong.) Then, after a minute or two, ask her again, just to make sure her watch is running. When she notices how careful you are about time, you will (or may) find yourself in SOLID with her—hand.

Don't wear yourself out studying and keeping up with your assignments. After all, they're changes every day! Instead of studying to learn, study to keep from learning—don't overwork your brain. If you MUST take books home, sleep on them. That's the best way NOT to absorb knowledge. When your teacher fuses, at you about your failure to get your lessons up, don't fret. Anyway, what did she expect, a budding genius—or a blooming idiot? After you have mastered the art of ignorance you'll find your report card each term SOLID—F's!

If your shooting arm misaims and your paperwad accidentally hits the teacher, don't dispar. Go boldly up and claim it as yours. You were just trying to have a little fun, and she'll understand. You can only be sent to the principal's office, and I hear his paddle is SOLID—oak.

We fished for our Valentines and everyone seemed to have plenty of luck, especially the teacher who was surprised with many birthday gifts. I wish to thank the children and their parents for the lovely gifts.

We are glad the Six-Weeks tests are over. The pupils making the highest grade in the room are: Morris Reed, Niel Hancock, Dick Williams, Jackie Stancell, Ross Langham and Freddy Magness.

We are sorry that Jackie Goldsmith has the flu. This is the first time Jackie has been absent from school. We hope he will be back soon.

The seventh and eighth grade girls played Texico and beat them 22 to 11. The boys lost so bad we will not mention the score. The girls played Muleshoe and beat them, too.

It looks like the time has come to play volley-ball since the basketball season is about over. We liked basketball very much and hate to see the season end, but we will try to like volley-ball.

SENIOR NEWS

The Senior Class received a letter from Brother Butler saying that he would be here to deliver the commencement address. We are very glad.

Sonny Graham is to be commended on his wonderful work with the annual. We worked very hard and has been a wonderful editor. The annual has been sent off this week, and all the thanks go to Sonny.

The boys have had a very successful basketball season and everyone is proud of them. It is too bad that they lost the regional at Lubbock on the 27th. Still, we knew they did their best and we are proud of them.

Six weeks tests are over which means only 12 more weeks left until school is out. Some of us are going to need to get to work and VERY SOON.

We hear the Juniors are working on the Jr.-Sr. banquet. Well, all the success to the Jrs. We Srs. are READY.

We always heard to scatter bouquets while you were living and we'd like to give a bouquet to Jack and Mrs. Booth. What those two don't put up with! We Seniors are a rowdy bunch but we would like for you to know we surely appreciate all the teachers do for us. I'm afraid if we were to change places, we wouldn't be so patient. Anyway, we would like to say THANKS.

Two out of every three automobile accidents in the United States last year involved mistakes by drivers.

Plant Boxes Start Summer Gardens

COLLEGE STATION — A plant box is a handy thing to have around when it comes to starting tender plants such as tomatoes, lettuce, and peppers, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A. & M. College. Eggplant, cauliflower and Brussels sprouts may also be started in plant boxes. The boxes are easy to build. The plants are seeded in rich, well prepared soil, watered when they need it, and insects and diseases are easily controlled.

By using a plant box the small tender plants have a chance to get started earlier in the spring, giving the gardener stronger plants and better stands. Plant boxes give the slow growing plants a chance to get a head start in their long growing season, and the "cool weather" plants have time to grow before the weather gets too hot and dry. And the fall garden can be started early in the plant box if it is kept in the shade.

Make the plant boxes of good lumber, and nail together well so the weight of the dirt does not cause the box to fall apart. Size of the box is up to the gardener, but don't build them too big. You will want to move them frequently, and if they are big, they're heavy. Most people make them 18 inches wide, 30 inches long and 4 inches deep or they can be 15 inches by 24 by 3 inches. Lumber can be 1 inch by 3 inches, 1 by 4 or 1 by 6; any of these are good. Leave a one-eighth to one-fourth inch space between the bottom boards so the box is easily drained.

To get the young seedlings into the box after the last spring frost, plant the seeds in the box six to eight weeks before it is time to move them into the field or garden. It is unnecessary to paint the box, but it will make the box last a little longer, and a red or blue color adds a bit of decoration. If the lumber is not handy, dishpans, wash-tubs, buckets, tin cans or paper cartons can be used, but not to such advantage as the wooden boxes.

These plant boxes are not for the large scale commercial grower, reminds Rosborough, but for the home garden, where only a few dozen plants of each kind are needed. If the home gardener wants to go on a little larger scale, and have vegetables to sell, a hot bed or a coldframe will be needed.

CONTENDERS FOR TITLE

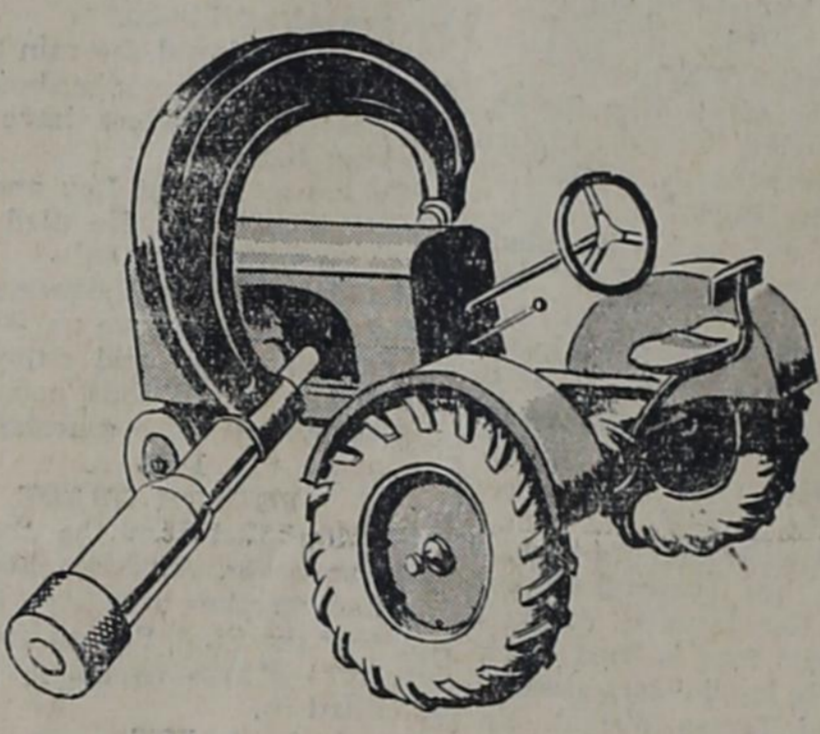

Champions of the West and Central zone of the Texas Junior College Basketball conference, the Wayland College Pioneers this season constitute one of the best teams in the 40-year history of the college. With dual wins over Amarillo College, Odessa, and Howard County College, the Wayland team maintained a perfect six-game conference season. Although they have ended regular season play with 22 wins out of 27 starts, the Pioneers will play in Amarillo Regional tournament to be held later this month. Winners will enter the national AAU meet.

Henry Young, second from far left, is one of the mainsprings of the squad. He is from Farwell, and is going after his second stripe. Last year he was the top point maker for the Pioneers, then known as the Jackrabbits. His brother, Paul, is one of the strong reserve forwards.

Superior-Type Chickens Will Be Hatched Soon

EASTON—A total of 1,440 Texas hatching eggs that may make poultry history, were placed in special incubators at Bradley's Hatchery here, today.

The eggs were shipped by Western Hatcheries of Dallas and Frank W. Allenson of Brenham, two of 40 breeders from 26 states in the national Chicken-of Tomorrow contest which Dewey H. Termohlen, chief of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's poultry branch, predicts "will revolutionize the poultry industry within the next five years."

The contest will illuminate a three year search for a superior meat-type chicken. The finalists, winners of regional and statewide trials conducted during the past two years in 44 states, are competing for $7,000 in cash prizes donated by A & P Food Stores. Each contestant has entered 720 eggs in the contest supervised by a national committee of government experts and poultry industry leaders.

By March 21, the precious eggs will be hatched, and flocks of 400 super chicks selected from each batch. The 16,000 birds will be raised under identical conditions for a 12-week period. Birds will be rated for meat characteristics, feed consumption, hatchability, growth and mortality. They will go to the dressing plant on June 21, and the judges will name the winner of A & P's $5,000 grand prize on June 24.

Western Hatcheries, with a White Wyndotte-White Rock Cross, won top honors in both the 1947 state and the Southwestern regional contests. Allenson, with a White Giant, Cornish-White Rock cross, won top honors in the 1946 state contest, fourth in 1947, and sixth in the Southwestern regional.

Grade Boys Are Second In County Tournament

The Texico grade boys took the second place trophy in the tournament held in Clovis last weekend for Curry county cage squads, losing their final game to a much larger Melrose quintet by a 25-16 count, Coach B. A. Rogers said Tuesday.

The local youngsters drew the long way to the finals, and actually won as many games as the tourney champs. They opened play against Grady and took a good decision, following it up with a 36-22 win over the Rosedale five. In the semi-finals, Texico met Ranchvale, ousting them 23-19.

The second string boys went out in their second round of the meet, Coach C. E. Sanders said. After taking the first game from Field they dropped a heartbreaker to the Pleasant Hill squad, 15-18. Grady downed Pleasant Hill in the finals to win the crown.

Texico's grade girls drew a tough assignment to open play, and went down before Center, 13-17. Officials reported that Center won the division, defeating Rosedale 17-18 in the finals of the meet.

Track, Tennis And Softball Workouts Start At School

Coach Jack Williams said the first of this week that, weather permitting, activities in track, softball, volleyball and tennis would be engaged in this week by boys of the school.

Some interest is being manifest in track work, with six boys active along this line, Coach Williams reported. Since there is no longer any county competition, those who wish are eligible to attend the regional meet in Canyon, later this spring.

Tennis and volleyball are being played inside on the gymnasium courts.

State Tourney Brackets Announced for Girls

Brackets for the girls' state tournament, which opens today (Wednesday) at Hillsboro, Texas, have been released, and announcement from Leslie Hines, coach of the Friona Squaws, district title winners, is to the effect that the Squaws play their first game this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Winners of District 20, the Friona girls meet the District 9 champions, Aledo, at 2 Wednesday. If they take their first game, the Squaws play Thursday at 6:30, meeting the winner of the Cranfill's Gap-Maydelle game. If losers, they take on the Cranfill's Gap-Maydelle low team at 1 p. m., Thursday.

Semi-finals will be played in the consolation bracket at 6:30 and 7:30 Friday evening, and in the winning bracket at 8:30 and 9:30 Friday night. The finals come Saturday.

This is the fourth time the Friona girls have made the trip to the state meet, and have come within a hairbreadth of taking the title repeatedly, but have never quite won the championship. This year they are hoping to turn the tide, and fans of the county are watching reports out of Hillsboro with great interest.

TRAFFIC SAFETY

(Sixth of a Series)

There are Emily Post rules of etiquette for the highway, just as there are for the drawing-room, according to W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"And traffic rules not only make for gracious living, they make for living—period!" he said. "No driver is a good driver unless he knows and obeys these rules, to insure his own safety as well as the safety of other drivers and pedestrians."

Chief Elliott pointed out that nearly half of all accidents in business and residential areas involve two vehicles at an intersection, and half of these are the result of two vehicles entering at right angles intent on going straight through.

He said that statistics of the National Safety Council show 15 percent of all drivers in fatal city accidents failed to yield the right-of-way, the most frequent violation.

The Texas Highway Patrol is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program, and Captain Polk Ivy of the Amarillo District listed the following facts to remember about right-of-way at intersections:

1. A car already in the intersection has the right-of-way over cars approaching. You must give way to any car already there as you come up to the intersection.

2. If two cars arrive at an intersection at about the same time, the one on the right has the right-of-way, and the other must give way to him.

3. Slow down before you reach the intersection in order to be ready for a car on the cross street. Don't wait to slow down after you reach the corner—it may be too late.

4. Despite the rule, don't insist on your right-of-way at the risk of an accident. Humility is a small price to pay for safety.

5. If there are stop signs at the intersection, or if one vehicle is turning left, special rules are applicable.

Conservation Supers Meet At A. & M.

COLLEGE STATION—Members of the Texas State Soil Conservation board met on the campus of Texas A. & M. College with officials of the college this week in an effort to determine what part Texas A. and M. is able to play in working cooperatively with the 145 soil and water conservation district supervisors over the state of Texas, said D. L. Williams, vice-president for agriculture of Texas A. & M.

The place of the College with respect to the question of stabilization and building of the soils of Texas through the 145 established soil and water districts of Texas was clearly outlined by President Gibb Gilchrist in an interview with Horace K. Fawcett, chairman of the state soil conservation board.

In the interview Mr. Gilchrist said that the "A. & M. College of Texas is sensitive to the needs and desires of the farmers and ranchmen of this state. Texas A. & M. College and its personnel are committed to do the educational phases of the soil and water conservation program. They are to assist the supervisors in any and every way possible to do everything we can to more quickly solve the problems of soil and water conservation. Furthermore, it is the definite policy of Texas A. & M. College to cooperate with all agencies in a sound and unselfish program looking to the benefit of agriculture."

Gilchrist went on to say that since the job of the college is educational in nature, its representatives are expected to work with district supervisors of the soil conservation districts in an educational way to advance the whole program.

In response to Gilchrist's statement, Fawcett answered: It is a responsibility, and we are charged under the state soil conservation law to bring the assistance of the various agencies, both federal and state, to the elected supervisors of soil conservation districts, and through them the farmers and ranchmen of Texas in their effort to stabilize and build the soil. This program might well be termed an inventory of conditions as it relates to the soil. Then they follow with a well defined plan of work in which they determine what shall be done and how it shall be done. Our meeting here with the A. & M. College has been very satisfactory. A definite, clear-cut understanding as to the part the college will perform in assistance to these districts has been arrived at, and I am confident that great progress will result."

Besides Fawcett, other members included Walter W. Cardell, Luling; C. M. Caraway, DeLeon; J. P. Martin, Martinsville; and Sid Payne, Tulia.
