Friona Leads In Red Cross Donations

Texico Will Discuss Bond Issue Friday

A special meeting of all patrons of the Texico school is called for Friday night of this week, March 19th, for the purpose of discussing a bond issue for the erection of a new gymnasium at the school.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association of the school, but Mrs. Ira S. Levins, president, said in making the announcement that all persons interested in the bond issue were invited to attend, whether or not they are PTA members.

"We are anxious to have a good turn-out at the meeting," she added. "If you are opposed to voting a bond issue in order to secure a badly-needed new gym at the school, be present and express your views. If you are for the idea, we would like to hear your opinions." The meeting is called at 7:30 Texas time, and will be held at the school.

Alex Steinbock Enters Commissioner Race

Alex Steinbock, a resident of the Lazbuddy community, has authorized his announcement as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, Parmer County, and his name appears in the political announcement column this week.

Mr. Steinbock has been a resident of Parmer County for the past 23 years, having moved here from Tillman County, Okla. He located some 30 miles east of Farwell, where he has been engaged in farming since that time.

In making his announcement subject to the will of the voters in the Democratic primary election on July 24, Steinbock will appreciate any support given his candidacy.

Water Discussion At Friona, Saturday

W. L. Edelson, head of the Parmer County Water Conservation Board, has called a meeting of water users to be held at Friona on Saturday of this week to discuss the water situation as it affects users of this county.

All residents of the county, particularly those interested in irrigation, are asked to be present for the meeting, which is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. at the grade school auditorium.

Edelson has been attending a number of water conservation meetings held over the Plains during the past few weeks, and plans to review some of the high points brought out at these meetings with reference to the underground water supply for the Plains region.

Highways Of County Damaged By Freeze

Parmer County's two main cross-county pavement strips have been badly damaged by the wet, freezing weather of the past several weeks, reports here are beginning to indicate.

Most seriously damaged is Highway 60 between Farwell and Friona, with the heaviest damage being noted along the slope of Parmerton hill toward Bovina. Holes, varying from the size of a wasp's nest to several feet in length are beginning to show up along the route. Most of the damage is showing up along the outer edges of the pavement.

Routes 70-84 and 86 have not been hurt as badly as Highway 60, but reports reveal that several holes are making their appearance. Highway crews were out Tuesday afternoon repairing the spots along the Farwell-Friona route.

OHIO VETERANS

Loyde Brewer, county service office, has announced that he has the forms for making application for pensions for Ohio veterans who may be living in this county. The ex-service veteran must have been inducted from the state of Ohio to be eligible for the pension, Brewer said.

Rev. Thurman Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Portales, who will conduct a series of Holy Week services at the Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, beginning Monday, March 22 and continuing through the following Friday. Services will be conducted each evening, starting at 8:00 o'clock.

Rev. Harris has announced that he will deliver a series of sermons based on statements found in the Apostles' Creed. The public is invited to attend the services.

Injured Child Seems To Be Recovering

Jolene, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Donaldson, who was quite seriously injured the first of last week, seems to be recovering satisfactorily, and was permitted to leave a Clovis hospital last Saturday.

The little girl fell from an automobile her mother was driving on Tuesday afternoon of last week and struck the caliche road surfacing with such force that a double concussion of the forehead resulted. She was rushed to a Clovis hospital, where she did not regain consciousness for several hours.

The accident happened when Mrs. Donaldson was returning to her home in the Oklahoma Lane community from Bovina, with Jolene in the back seat. It is presumed that she opened the rear door of the car while it was traveling at a fast rate.

In addition to the fractures of the skull, the little girl sustained ugly lacerations about the face, and it is believed that she hit on her face as she tumbled from the machine.

Two Get Jail Terms, Fines, Saturday

Entering pleas of guilty to theft of property of value less than $50, Allen Prestholt and Ralph Rexford were assessed fines of $100 and nine months in jail by County Judge A. D. Smith last Saturday, when they were arraigned in county court.

Both men are understood to be members of a Santa Fe extra gang that is laying trackage in the Parmer section of the county.

Readers Find Fault With Old News

Subscribers at Bovina were taking the publisher to a good razzing last week, for publishing news items that were too stale to appear in any newspaper.

An investigation finally revealed that Bovina citizens were reading copies of the State Line Tribune that were five weeks old when they arrived at the Bovina postoffice.

For some unknown reason, the Bovina package of our issue of Feb. 10 miscarried in the mails—and was delivered at Bovina on March 10th.

Attaches at the Bovina postoffice said the delayed bundle of papers arrived there via baggage and were not in a regular mail pouch.

Friona has stepped out in front of the rest of the county in contributions raised in the annual Red Cross drive, it was revealed this week by W. E. Williams, chapter chairman, who is also supervising the financial campaign this year.

A total of $409.00 had been reported collected in Friona when Mr. Williams was contacted early this week. The Girl Scouts took an active part in the Friona solicitations, being responsible for $126.88 of the amount collected there.

Bovina stood next in line with the amount of Red Cross money raised, having a total of $211.00, and Williams said that he had received no reports from other communities of the county. He expressed confidence that Parmer County would oversubscribe its quota of $792.00 before the campaign is scheduled to close on March 31st.

The chairman gave the following list of solicitors for the respective communities:

Farwell, H. Y. Overstreet.
Lariat, Oslee Miller, Mrs. C. M. Evans.

Bovina, Mrs. Lady Armstrong and W. E. Williams.

Lazbuddy, Mrs. Glenn Dunn.
Lakeview, Mrs. M. B. Buchanan.

Black, J. R. Braxon.
Rhea, Mrs. Floyd Schlenker.

Five File For City Jobs In Texico

The names of five candidates had been filed with Town Clerk Walter Freeman for vacancies in the official body of the Town of Texico early Tuesday afternoon, and Clerk Freeman said that filings would be accepted at his office until Friday night of this week.

The Town election will be held on Tuesday, April 6, at which time two councilmen, a mayor and clerk-treasurer will be named by the voters. Candidates filed to date include, Orval Francis for mayor; Raymond Mears, Les Means and Edgar Blain for councilmen; and Walter Freeman, clerk-treasurer. A mayor, two councilmen and a clerk-treasurer are to be named in the forthcoming election.

Terms of office expiring this year are those of Mayor M. C. Roberts, Councilman Frank Jones and C. E. Sanders and Clerk-Treasurer Walter Freeman.

Freeman is the only present official who has agreed to stand for reelection.

Bovina City Election Ticket Is Selected

A nominating committee of Bovina citizens met last week and submitted a ticket for the forthcoming Bovina city election, which will be held on Tuesday, April 6th.

J. W. Kimbrow, Bovina druggist, was nominated to head the ticket as a candidate for mayor, and J. O. Glover and J. T. Hammonds were placed on the ticket for the two commissioner posts. Mayor O. W. Rhinehart declined to allow his name to go up for re-election, on the grounds that he planned to spend most of the summer in California.

Kimbrow and Hammonds have agreed to allow their names to go on the ticket for re-election, with Hammonds running for commissioner and Kimbrow moving up to the mayor slot. Glover is a new candidate in the field.

REGULAR MEETING NIGHT SET BY FARWELL LEGION

Adj. Champ Porter stated today that the Farwell American Legion had decided on the fourth Monday night in each month as the regular monthly meeting date for the local post.

The first meeting under the new schedule will come on Monday, March 22, Adj. Porter stated and he asked a full attendance on the part of the Legionnaires. The meeting will be held in the new Legion Hall.

Supt. B. A. Rogers said Tuesday that he planned to spend part of Friday in Portales, attending a district teachers' meeting, at ENMC. Due to several closings occasioned by bad weather, the school will not be dismissed Friday in order that teachers may attend, he added.

The annual Fat Stock Show for 4-H and FFA club boys in Parmer county will be held in the new N. L. Tharp building in Farwell on Saturday of this week, March 20th, County Agent Ollie Linder announced on Monday.

This year, separate shows are being held for fat stock—calves and pigs—and dairy animals, officials of the show report. The dairy phase of the spring contest will be held later, in Friona, at the show barns.

Deadline for entry of animals is 10 o'clock on show morning, Saturday, Agent Linder said, and judging is slated to begin at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, with Castro County Agent Raymond King selecting the winners.

Following the judging, an auction sale will be held, with Col. Dick Doshier as auctioneer and Orval Francis as clerk. Both men are donating the services. This is something new at the show, Agent Linder said, adding that boys who put animals in the auction ring retain the privilege of rejecting bids they consider too low.

Four separate classes are set up for the swine entries. Class I is light pigs, ranging in weight from 160 to 249 pounds; Class II is heavy pigs, the weight running from 250 to 325 pounds; Class III is the pen of three, and Class IV is the fat litter, consisting of a pen of five or more pigs. Cash prizes for the first two groups run $4, $3, $2, and $1, with the last two drawing prize money of $5, $4, $3, $2, and $1.

Two divisions are arranged for calf entries, the light animals, weighing 849 pounds and under, and the heavy entries, weighing 850 pounds and over. Prize money runs $7, $6, $5, $4, and $3 for each group.

Grand champions in both the swine and calf division will also be named.

Sponsors of the affair are the Farwell and Bovina Chamber of Commerce organizations and the Friona Lions Club, Agent Linder said.

Plan Organization Of Chamber Commerce

At a meeting of some 30 men from over the entire county, held in Friona on Monday night, plans were started to form a Chamber of Commerce for that city, it was reported here. The meeting was called by J. C. Wilkinson and County Commissioner W. H. Flippin, with W. L. Edelson serving as chairman during the gathering.

Special guest was Mr. Phelps, manager of the Portales Chamber of Commerce, who spoke to the group, outlining work of such an organization, and offering assistance in drawing up tentative plans.

During the meeting, a group of nine men was named as temporary directors, taking over the job of preparing a constitution and by-laws for the proposed Chamber. Edelson serves as chairman, being assisted by J. C. Wilkinson, Otho Whitefield, Nelson Welch, Weldon Dickson, Ray Landrum, Hoyt Smith, C. W. Dixon and Dan Ethridge.

When the group is organized, those behind the movement hope to work with the other two Chambers in the county—at Farwell and Bovina—in drawing up a county-wide plan for rural road improvement.

Coburn Announces Farm Sale For 23rd

Cleve Coburn, who lives three miles south of Clovis on the Clovis-Portales highway, then 2 miles east, has announced a general farm clean-up sale to be held at his place on Tuesday, March 23, starting at 10 a. m., New Mexico time.

Fourteen head of good milk stock and 12 head of hogs will comprise the livestock to be sold at auction. A good collection of farm implements will be included, together with some feed, several items of household furniture, and miscellaneous items.

Col. Dick Doshier, of this city, will be in charge of the sale, and Orval W. Francis will serve as clerk. The ladies of the Fairfield community will serve lunch at the noon hour.

EMPLOY MECHANIC

The Harding & Seale Equipment Co., of this city, agents for the Allis Chalmers farm implements, have employed W. C. Hardage as mechanic in their work shop and will maintain a repair department in connection with their business.

COMPASSION . . . It happened in Montrose, Calif. There was the usual tumult and omnipresent curious throng that accompany every automobile accident. Then, beside the crumpled body of five-year-old Wesley Leske who was killed in the wreck, an unknown but compassionate passerby knelt briefly in prayer, then disappeared in the crowd.

First Sandstorm of Spring Does Damage

Wheat fields took a real beating, plate glass windows were blown out and small buildings were damaged in the first real sandstorm of the spring season that swept this region for two successive days, on Sunday and Monday.

Reports seem to indicate that the greater part of the damage to crop lands was south and southwest of here, in the lighter soil sectors, but the erosion damage was not confined to that area. Young wheat that has been struggling against late planting, drouth and extremely cold weather during the entire winter, took a severe beating, and the actual damage cannot be ascertained as yet.

A large plate glass window in the Pace Brothers garage in the Texico Hotel building was shattered by the wind, and small buildings were whipped around by the high wind that raged throughout the two days.

Summer fallowed land that was void of any vegetation suffered the heaviest damage, as the wind swept valuable topsoil from thousands of acres of land. Owners took to the fields, in the face of Monday's storm, to chisel the land in an effort to halt blowing soil. Few fields, even where wheat is up, had attained sufficient coverage from the wheat to withstand the heavy push of the high wind, with the result that many fields are believed damaged beyond recovery so far as the wheat is concerned.

Farmers contacted here early this week expressed the opinion that much of the wheat land, damaged by the wind, would be listed up and made ready for row crops to be planted later in the season.

Three Cases Disposed In District Court

District Judge C. D. Russell was here from Plainview Tuesday and heard three non-jury cases in district court, including a land case involving the title and one divorce.

Rochelle Christian was granted a verdict in his action against Alta Bolton on a land title, and Willie Iva Smith was granted a divorce from Frank A. Smith in the divorce action.

Judge Russell named a jury commission, composed of H. Y. Overstreet, Bedford Caldwell and Carl Maurer, who drew members of the petit and grand jury. The grand jury has been called for April 12th, it was announced by officials.

TAKE OVER STATION

Vernon Estes of Bovina, was here the first of the week, and announced that the firm of Estes & Charles Oil Co., agents for Phillips products in Bovina, had taken over the retail station in Bovina. The firm will continue the wholesale business, and Estes will be in charge of the retail station.

Red Cross Worker Gets The Works

Failing to get anybody to head up the Red Cross drive in Parmer County this year, County Chairman W. E. Williams decided to tackle the job himself.

Saturday he told of his experiences:

Drove better than 100 miles collecting works, gained a perfectly good tire, and got stuck in the snow, all of which wasn't too bad. Finally he was making his last call at the farm home of Bev Buchanan, southeast of Friona.

There he suffered dog bite, a ruined pair of trousers (don't ask particulars), and wound up in a doctor's office.

Men's Meeting Will Air Scout Program

C. M. Henderson, chairman of the local Men's Club, has announced that the monthly meetings of the Club are being revived this week with a meeting at the Legion Hall on Thursday evening, starting at 7 p. m., Texas time.

The men are asked to bring their wives to the meeting, which will be given over primarily to the discussion of the Scouting program in Texico-Farwell. All adults interested in Scouting are especially urged to attend.

Potluck supper will be furnished by those attending.

Henderson said that other projects of community interest might be discussed at the meeting, and he urged a good attendance on the part of the local populace.

Graduation Dates Set By Texico Seniors

Graduation dates for the 1948 Texico seniors have been set, providing there are no further weather interruptions of the school year, Supt. B. A. Rogers said on Tuesday.

Baccalaureate services for the graduates will be held at the auditorium on Sunday, May 9th. The speaker is yet to be selected, and the class has not decided on the hour of the services, both of which will be announced later.

On Thursday night, May 13, the final commencement exercises will be held at the school, Supt. Rogers said, adding that a speaker will be chosen later.

Grade school graduation exercises are tentatively announced for Tuesday evening, May 11th.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

Austin.—The recent death of a child in South Texas from rabies emphasizes the danger of this disease and its importance to public health.

According to statements just released by Dr. Goe. W. Cox, State Health Officer, there were 1,099 rabid animals discovered by laboratory examination in Texas last year. There were undoubtedly many more rabid animals running loose which were never examined. Since most of these animals were dogs, children are especially vulnerable to this dreaded disease.

"All dogs should be vaccinated annually as a rabies control measure," Dr. Cox said. "When a child is bitten by an infected dog, the dog should be penned up for observation for 10 days. If he shows no signs of illness in that time he is not rabid, but if he sickens, he should be killed in such a manner as not to injure the brain. The brain should be packed immediately in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. If rabies is shown to be present there is still time to begin anti-rabies treatment on the child."

Cities and towns should take firm steps to control the presence of stray and ownerless dogs since they remain unvaccinated and are usually the principal source of rabies.

Legumes, pastures and succulent feeds aid production and profit and affords one of the best ways of saving high-priced grain.

600 Post Holes a Day

Farmers dig post-holes quickly and easily with the hydraulically-operated digger using power from the tractor's power take-off. Even on hills, as farmer Walt Kemppainen shows above, holes are true as the auger acts as a plumb, assuring a vertical drilling position regardless of tractor tilt. The average operator can dig 600 holes in one day.

Lint cotton that would have made more than 464,700 bales worth approximately $35 million dollars, were destroyed by insects during the 10-year period 1937-47 in Texas. The annual loss from weeds in the U. S. has been placed at $3 billion. A little lemon added to dried fruits will increase flavor appeal.

CORYZA A COLD WEATHER THREAT

As long as the cold weather remains with us the danger of a coryza outbreak in your poultry flock is ever present. Watch for signs of this respiratory disease and if it appears, don't waste time in taking steps to control it. Unless it is checked, you will lose heavily in egg production.

Clean, Warm House

The first rule for preventing infectious coryza (commonly called colds) is to give the flock a clean and comfortable place in which to live. The house should be warm and dry, free of drafts, well-ventilated, clean and sanitary.

If your flock sustains an outbreak of infectious coryza despite your precautions, you will find that the disease can be controlled by using sodium sulfathiazole. This drug, which is available in commercial form as a drinking-water medicine, is effective against Hemophilus gallinarum, the organism which causes infectious coryza. It should be administered as soon as the first coryza symptoms are noted.

Watery Nasal Discharge

In the early stages of coryza, the infected chickens have a watery nasal discharge; later, this mucus becomes thick and sticky. The diseased bird's face, its wattles, and the skin of its neck are swollen. A post-mortem examination reveals that the swellings are filled with fluid. Often, coryza is confined to the nasal passages and sinuses, but sometimes the windpipe and lungs are also involved. Difficult breathing and coughing may be symptoms.

While mortality resulting from this disease is usually negligible, most poultry raisers fear it because it causes heavy losses in production. Among younger stock, it often creates culls.

VETERAN'S QUESTION BOX

Q. Do World War II veterans who are entitled to out-patient dental care have the right to select any dentist they want?

A. Where the VA dental clinic service is not feasibly available, the VA has adopted the policy that any veteran entitled to out-patient dental care at the expense of VA may choose any dentist participating in the program of dental care of veterans.

Q. If a veteran contracted a disease or was injured in line of duty while he was in service, is the line-of-duty determination, as made by departments of the Armed Services, binding on VA?

A. No. However, the record of the Service Departments generally will be accepted in determining line-of-duty status of diseases and injuries, unless considerations and legal presumptions of the various laws warrant a different finding.

Q. Does the age of World War I and II veterans affect the amount of compensation or pension paid?

A. Compensation is not affected but pension for non-service-connected, permanent total disability is increased upon reaching age 65.

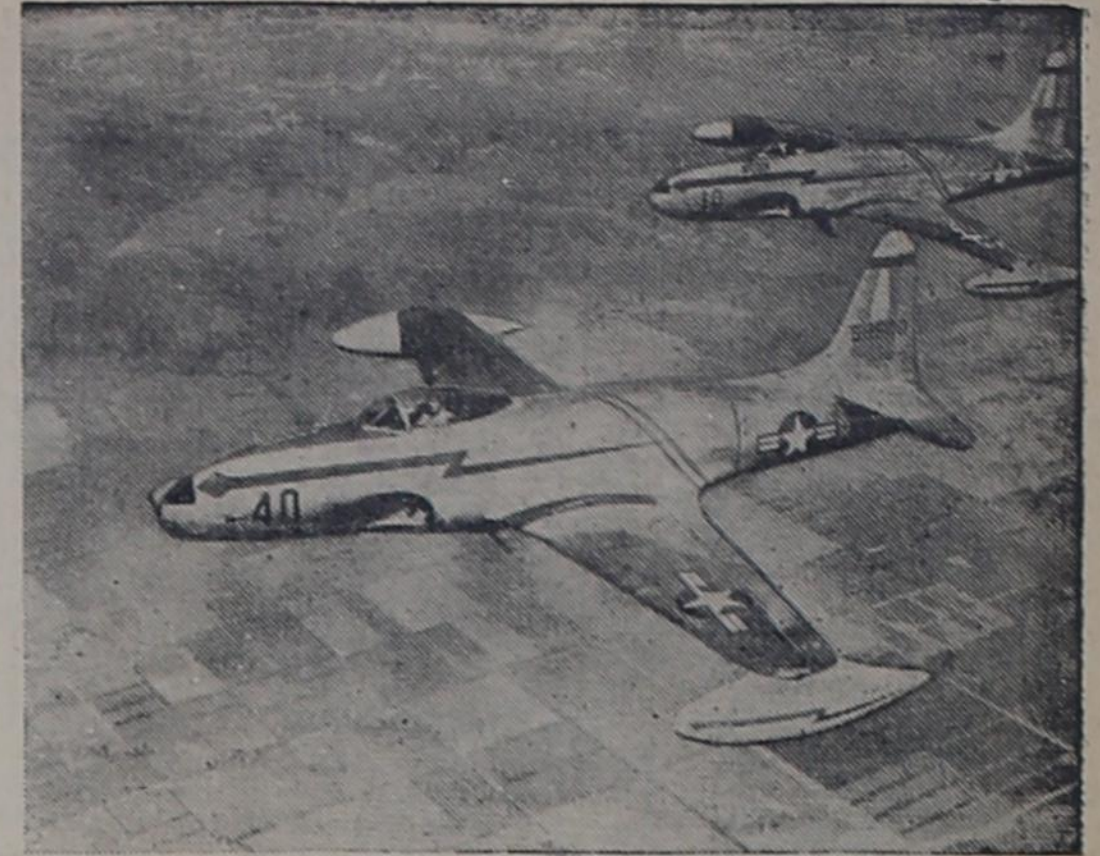

Q. I have completed my job-training course and find that I still have entitlement time left under the educational provisions of the GI Bill. Will I be permitted to go to another school for the remainder of my entitlement?

A. If you have entitlement time left, you may use the remainder either for job training or for educational training with VA prior approval.

Why the Marshall Plan For European Recovery?

By ROBERT P. PATTERSON
(Former Secretary of War)

The Committee for the Marshall Plan to Aid European Recovery feels that the success of the European recovery program will mean the difference between peace in a world of free nations and war in a world dominated by dictatorships.

We believe that the European Recovery Program is the front line of American security. In the past quarter of a century we have learned that vital as is the role of our military establishments, our security and freedom depend in the first instance upon the actions of other nations and other peoples. The course which the people of Western Europe must take in the next four years is the most important decision affecting our national safety which is still open in the world today.

At the end of the war everyone believed that enduring peace and economic recovery from the war was most assured by political settlement and economic problems which were firmly founded on agreement between the great powers. The United Nations would, it was planned, go forward from this start on the basis of principle and organization which would bring to the settlement of international questions the conscience of mankind and the justice of laws and procedures which dealt equally with the strong and the weak.

Since that period of high hopes and particularly in the past year, there has been a worsening of conditions, politically and economically, in western Europe. Today we face a crisis and a choice—whether to let conditions there degenerate into chaos or to take bold steps to help restore the balance in favor of democracy. We propose to do this in cooperation with Europe and within the spirit of the United Nations.

We now have a plan, the European Recovery Program, to enable sixteen nations of western Europe again to become self-supporting. The basis of this program is not relief but full long-range recovery.

This program recommends that for fifteen months, April 1, 1948, to June 30, 1949, the United States government provide $6.8 billion for recovery among the sixteen nations participating in the plan. Additionally it recommends that we authorize the European Recovery Program for the full four years required to achieve economic stability.

America has learned through the painful lessons of two world wars that it cannot isolate itself from economic and social disruption in other parts of the world. We share in its prosperity or ruin. Our peak level of production is only possible because we have access to goods from every other country. In turn, continued American prosperity depends upon our ability to sell our industrial and agricultural goods outside as well as inside the United States.

President Truman has asked that this Program be approved by April 1. Every week the European Recovery Program is delayed means a further cut in Europe's dwindling gold and dollar reserves. Every week of delay makes eventual recovery more costly and difficult to achieve.

What will Congress do? That rests with the American people. Weigh the evidence, make up your mind, then write to your Senators and Congressmen. It is up to you, Citizens of the U.S.A.

I see and hear the people talking and expecting to make some road improvements over in the City of Farwell, just as soon as the weather permits.

We the people over on the west side of the town of Texico, want the public to know: We are not dead when it comes to road work.

About six years ago, I called on the Mayor of the town of Texico, wanted some road work done just south of my house, the road which goes east and west. I received an answer at once that the town of Texico did not have any money to do road work where I wanted it done.

Due to the fact that the traffic has been increasing, we the people who are living on this road kept on talking.

Thanks be to Mr. Tucker Monk and the man who is working with him, whose name I did not learn, because they did good work when they graded the two blocks in west Texico which the people who are living on this road have wanted for a long time. We feel sure it will help other people also, as I see people who are living over in Farwell go over this road very often.

Underground Water Belongs To Land, Farmers Believe

Some 700 farmers and ranchers from the Plains and Winte Garden areas of Texas unanimously adopted a resolution at a water hearing in Plainview March 8, emphatically setting forth their views "that this natural resource, the same as oil, gas sulphur and other underground resources belongs to and is the property of the surface owners of the land and that the unconstitutional proposition that underground water belongs to the state be forever, forgotten and discarded."

The meeting was called by J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation. Principal speakers of the day included Senator Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo; Representative I. G. Holt of Lockney and Sterling Williams of Snyder; W. L. Broadhurst, U. S. Geological Survey district engineer; D. A. Bantee, manager of the West Texas hamber of commerce; and a number of farmers, spokesmen who voiced what they believed was the general attitude to the surface and underground water situation.

The resolution was drafted by a committee including A. B. Tarwater of Plainview, vice-president of the High Plains Water Use and Conservation Association; Ernest Wehman of Pleasanton, president of the Atascosa County Farm Bureau, who represented the Winter Garden area of Texas; Clyde Bradford, member of the Swisher County Farm Bureau; Joe M. Hatton of Amarillo, state Farm Bureau director, and Fritz Struve of Lubbock.

The resolution further provided that if it becomes necessary to pass legislation to carry forward the conservation and development of the water resources, that the marked differences in the two types of water be recognized and that legislation affecting both service and underground water should be in separate Acts, one for surface water and the other for underground water.

The proposal also asked that agriculture take precedence over other industries in the use of underground water.

Garden Lettuce Is Good Idea

COLLEGE STATION—In sections of the High Plains where deep irrigation wells have been dug to bring in the necessary water for truck crops, farmers are finding a new source of income, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A. & M. College. This area of Texas has been very successful with its production of truck crops.

Lubbock county came out with a brand new truck crop last year; 1947 was the first year that lettuce had been tried. Several farmers in the Monroe community grew a potato crop using intensive fertilizer and irrigation methods: the potatoes were followed by lettuce, grossing $600 acre. The truck crops in Lubbock County included 1000 acres of potatoes with a yield of 130 sacks per acre; 230 acres of lettuce yielding 230 crates per acre; 360 acres of sugar beets, 14 tons per acre; 150 acres of sweet potatoes at 400 bushels per acre; and 400 acres of blackeyed peas.

Vegetable farming in 1947 paid high gross returns per acre in Baily county. Two hundred and fifty acres of green beans were planted, producing a little over 30,000 cases—30 train carloads—for the crop. One venture in tomato growing aroused much enthusiasm throughout the county. Seventy acres of tomatoes were planted with an ordinary grain sorghum planter, and germination results were high. Five tons of "green pack" tomatoes per acre were shipped out to a ready market, and about 10 tons of tomatoes per acre could have been produced if they had ripened for canning.

Hale county reports that vegetable production in that area is new, but such crops as carrots, onions, lettuce, beets, tomatoes, sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes have been grown in sufficient quantities to show that exceptionally good yields may be produced.

KITCHEN OF COMFORT

COLLEGE STATION—A kitchen with maximum amount of comfort and convenience has been designed and built by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to demonstrate to farm women an arrangement where two women may work with the minimum amount of walking, stooping, lifting and stretching. Although planned primarily for farm women, it fits other homes in most respects. The room was on exhibit in Washington, D. C. the first part of February.

Mrs. Bernice Clayton, extension home specialist for the Texas A. and M. College, says that there are several outstanding features in the kitchen which Texas women might use in planning or remodeling kitchens. The unbroken U-arrangement of equipment around three adjoining walls forms a compact work center and provides a convenient dining center outside the work area.

The three key pieces of equipment—sink, refrigerator and range—are placed within easy reach of each other, yet there is enough space for two to work comfortably. The work moves from right to left and there is adequate counter space for each job. Ample storage space is planned and all supplies and equipment are within comfortable reach of the place where they are used first.

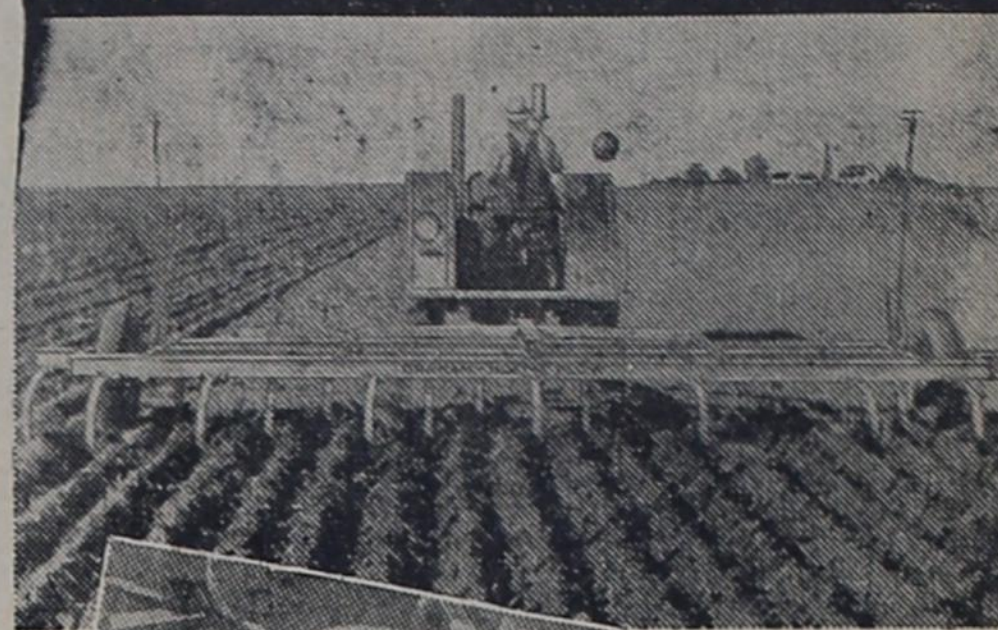

Special features of the kitchen, Mrs. Clayton says, are double-deck flour bins. A small bin is just above the mixing center and above that is a big reserve flour bin which quickly feeds flour into the small bin when a metal shutter is opened. The pull-out boards automatically lock into place when pulled out. They push back under counters when a simple gravity-stop underneath is released. The corner cupboards are circular, "lazy Suzan" shelves which turn on center poles and are built in the two corners of the kitchen, above and below counter space. Mrs. Clayton points out that shelves of this type require skilled workmanship and excellent materials.

Plans are being made, Mrs. Clayton says, to make working drawings of this experimental kitchen available to the public.

DOUBLE FOR YOUR MONEY

THAT'S THE BARGAIN YOU GET TODAY ELECTRICALLY

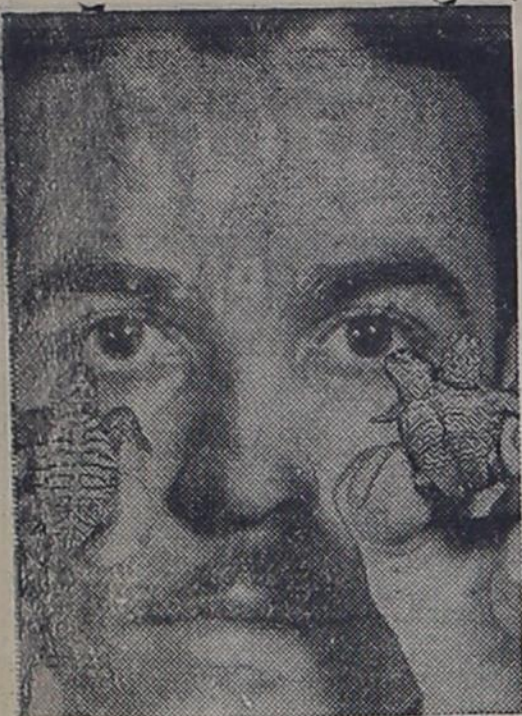

Sports fans know that there's twice as much excitement, twice as many thrills, twice as much for their money at a double-header.

Smart folks feel the same way about their low cost electric service. They realize that today, in times of high prices, they're getting twice as much service, twice as much convenience, twice as much luxury for the same amount of money as they paid a few years ago.

Use more electricity... it's your biggest bargain.

Farm Garden Income Adds Up Rapidly

COLLEGE STATION — Texans may not realize it, but farm gardens produce a sizable portion of the farm income in the state.

There were approximately 400,000 farm gardens in Texas in 1947, according to an estimate made by J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist for Texas A. and M. College. The figure includes gardens up to an acer in size. The value of the vegetables and fruits produced, including those processed for home use as well as fresh for the table, averaged $110 per garden. That figures out to a total income from the gardens of $44,000,000.

"Cotton and wheat, the two crops that we figure make the most money, actually brought in an income only a little over eleven times, in the case of cotton, and about six times, in the case of wheat, that of the value of the gardens," Rosborough says. "The value of the gardens was over ten times that of flaxseed, an up-and-coming crop in the southern part of the state."

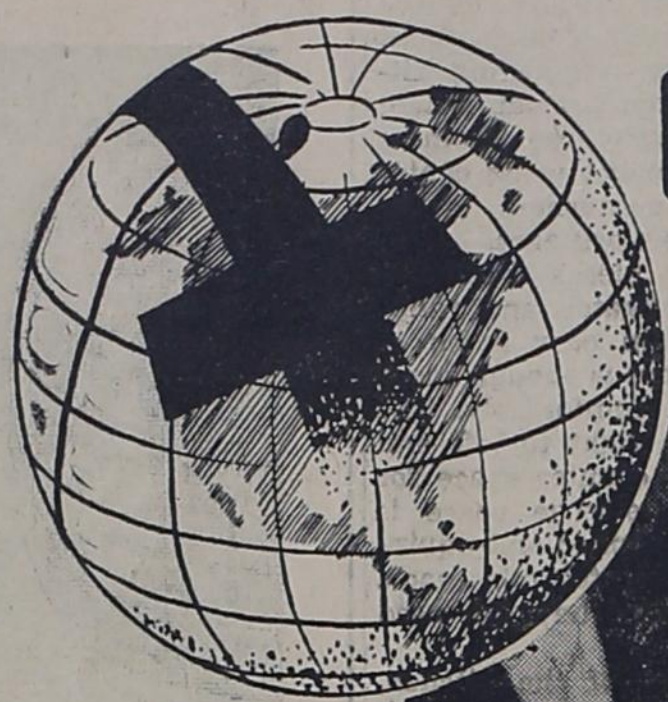

According to a recent report from the USDA's bureau of Agricultural Economics office in Austin, sorghum for grain, cottonseed, corn, and sorghum for forage, and rice follow cotton and wheat in income value, in that order. Using Rosborough's figures, the income from farm gardens ranks just below rice, and above peanuts, oats, hay (all kinds), flaxseed, and truck crops.

As a result of the higher costs of food, and in answer to the government's request for an increase in gardens in 1948, Texans will probably come close to doubling last year's garden figures, Rosborough says. If the weather is favorable, the other money-making crops in the state will have to "step lively" to stay ahead of farm gardens.

WAA HAS BUILDING BARGAINS

For those who are interested in building bargains, the WAA has 31 surplus structures at North Camp Hood, near Gatesville. Since this is a residue of buildings to be cleared from this Texas camp, the sale will be by sealed bid on a non-priority basis. Dental wards, officers mess, guesthouse and standard GI construction are included. The camp is open for inspection from March 1 to 12, final date when bids are acceptable. Special forms and other details are available at the awarding office, in the WAA plant, Grand Prairie, Texas.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Never in the history of civilization has there been such a united return to the church. The effort on the part of churchdom to lead their memberships back to regular and active participation in the church programs is also without parallel. Need for the blessings from the great God of Nations has never been so great. Pastors, Priests and Rabbis are pooling their efforts so that nations everywhere may be challenged to an understanding of the term Peace. Prayers from literally thousands of churches go up regularly in behalf of the great international Peace Tribunal in its effort to effect a lasting Peace.

Your church needs you as never before. Attend the church of your choice with your family regularly. Be an influence for good.

True Stories of West Texans

(By N. H. KINCAID)

MYSTERY WOMAN OF FT. GRIFFIN'S FLATS

Lottie Deno had disappeared. Mystery woman though she was, the gambling halls of Ft. Griffin's flats had begun to idly wonder at her repeated absence. Her neat and richly furnished shanty, when finally entered, revealed little. Only a small, leather-bound trunk was missing and a note, tersely written in a cultured eastern boarding-school hand, was found pinned to her bedspread. It read, "Sell this outfit and give the money to someone in need of assistance."

As mysteriously as she had come, so had Lottie Deno vanished. She had arrived by stage and had departed the same way, and only her sojourn among them was definite.

But old timers long conjectured about her identity and her whereabouts. They heard that she had been known as "Mystic Maude" in Ft. Concho, arriving there from San Antonio in 1870. Her living habits there, however, had been as impeccable as later when at Ft. Griffin. For, other than her gambling, she was a perfect lady, attractive, well dressed and cultured. As a gambler, she played for high stakes, and her success was phenomenal.

One night, so the story goes, a tight poker game was being played to a filled room in Ft. Griffin between Monte Bill, Arizona card shark, and Smokey Joe of Texas gambling fame. Lottie Deno sat at a nearby table playing in a game with a $50 limit. One thousand dollars was in the pot when Smokey met Monte's challenge to raise the limit. But Monte laid down three aces and a pair of queens; and Smokey reached for his gun.

When the smoke had cleared away and the sheriff arrived, he found the crowd scattered and the two contestants dead on the floor. Only Lottie Deno had remained in the room. She stood in the corner, a calm and serene spectator.

And since Lottie would never admit getting off with the pot of more than a thousand dollars, that was that; and there the matter ended.

Whether conjecture or fact, the story is told that Lottie later married a ranchman of Deming, New Mexico, and settled down to a quiet and respectable life. Much of her time was devoted to church and charitable work and to looking after the coses of distress.

But certain it is that a few years ago a very old lady of Deming died. In order to defray funeral expenses and a few bills, her property and household effects were sold at public auction. And a Rev. J. E. Fuller chanced to buy a small leather-bound trunk.

TRAFFIC SAFETY

(Seventh of a Series)

"Don't throw your weight around," advises W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"Remember that when you are sitting behind the wheel, you are driving a car that weighs more than 2000 pounds, and the pedestrian crossing the street only weighs an average of 150 pounds. It isn't quite fair, is it?"

The Texas Highway Patrol is co-operating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program, and Chief Elliott said that accidents involving pedestrians are one of the biggest killers. He pointed out National Safety Council statistics to back up this assertion.

Pedestrians at intersections account for 28 per cent of all urban fatal accidents, and 35 per cent of all fatal accidents are non-intersection pedestrian mishaps. In addition, 27 per cent of all pedestrians killed in business and residential areas were crossing at intersections without signals, and 38 per cent were crossing between intersections.

Captain Polk Ivy of the Amarillo District emphasized the following things to remember for the driver in giving pedestrians right-of-way.

1. When pedestrians are crossing at unsignalized intersections, drivers must give them the right-of-way if they are walking in the crosswalk or where a crosswalk might be.

2. When pedestrians are crossing at signalized intersections, they should obey the signals, but drivers turning right or left must yield the right-of-way to pedestrians crossing on the "green" or "walk" light.

3. Pedestrians do not have the right-of-way between intersections, and therefore they should cross only at corners.

4. Drivers must be alert for pedestrians crossing between intersections, particularly at night, even though the walkers should look out for the cars.

5. Know and obey the rules!

WAINWRIGHT TAKES OVER

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Gen. Jonathan Wainwright retired hero of Corregidor and Bataan, recently took over the leadership of the Military Order of the Caraboa from retired Admiral William F. "Bull" Halsey, last year's head of the Order. Both Gen. Wainwright and Adm. Halsey are veterans of the Moro Insurrection in the Philippine Islands during the early years of the American control of the islands. The Military Order of the Caraboa is an exclusive organization whose membership is restricted to veterans of that campaign.

Insect pests that destroy food in the pantry can be controlled by these steps: Clean the shelves thoroughly, spray with 5 percent DDT and store food in tight containers. Food that is lightly infested may be sterilized by heating to 140 deg. F. for one-half hour.

Track Workouts Slowed By Weather Conditions

Track workouts, slated to begin last week, have been practically negligible at the Texico school, according to Coach C. E. Sanders, due to weather conditions, but with a bright sun on Tuesday, the locals hope to be going at it in full swing within a few days.

Although the county meet is not due until the middle of next month, Sanders said that his boys planned to take part in a number of invitation meets, prior to county competition.

A large group of boys have signified their intention of taking part in the various activities, including a number of returnees from the past year, and a number of newcomers.

Pearce is scheduled to work out for broad jump and field events, with Blain taking in the hurdles, the relay and broad jump, and javelin. Baldock is versatile, doing field work, the hurdles, the 100-yard dash and relay, and White will enter the hurdles, the 440, and toss the javelin. A. Doolittle will run the mile and 440 and participate in hurdles, with M. Doolittle entering the same events, plus the high jump. Curtis is slated for the 440, the relay and jump events, with Tucker trying to run the gamut of both field and track. Stewart is coming out for the high jump, while Curry is attempting discus and javelin tossing.

Judging Contests Come Saturday At Portales

District judging contest for FFA teams in this district come off Saturday at Portales, F. D. Stout, head of the Texico agriculture department, reported today, adding that he planned to take around 14 boys to Portales for the events.

Teams will stage judging contests on livestock, poultry, crops, dairy cattle, and parliamentary procedure, the supervisor said.

The state meeting will be held on April 8-9-10, in Las Cruces, and Stout said that the showing made by individual boys this weekend would determine the teams to attend the state contests.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The Farwell 4-H Club met March 15, at 11:30 in the 8th grade room at the Farwell school. Two new members joined, Bob Magness and Gerald Hardage.

Some of the boys plan to show calves and pigs at the county Fat Stock show on March 20. After the show an auction will be held. Winners at the show will likely be taken to Lubbock for the Fat Stock Show on March 22-23-24.

County Agent Ollie Liner had some 4-H shirts, issued to the boys at the meeting.

MOVIE SCHEDULED

County Agent Ollie Liner today announced that a film entitled "Agriculture's New Conquest" would be shown in the county court room in Farwell this (Wednesday) evening, starting at 8:00 o'clock. There will be no admission charge and the film will deal with chemical weed-killing processes recently developed. Liner said the film would be of particular interest to farmers who have been troubled with bindweed and other noxious weeds and grass.

Volleyball Games Are Played at Ranchvale

Volleyball games between the Texico, Field and Ranchvale girls' teams were held the past weekend at Ranchvale.

The local girls defeated Field, but lost their engagement to Ranchvale, Coach F. D. Stout reported.

The Curry county tournament is to be held in Texico on April 1-2, and brackets will be drawn within a few days.

Fat Stock Show Opens At Lubbock Monday

The Fifteenth Annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show opens in Lubbock Monday morning, March 22, to continue for three days at the Panhandle South Plains Fairgrounds.

More and bigger fat steers, barrows and lambs than ever before will be competing for bigger prizes, according to Superintendent of the Show, Dave Sherrill, and Secretary M. D. Fanning.

Highlights of the three-day program include sifting of steers, barrows and lambs at 8 o'clock Monday morning, with judging of steers starting at 10 a. m.; judging of lambs at 3 p. m. Monday; a theater party Monday night; judging of barrows Tuesday morning; open house Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning and the auction sale at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Premium checks will be presented to the winners at a barbecue at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night in the judging Pavilion A Tech. The barbecue will be given for all exhibitors and their parents, county agents, vocational teachers, judges, superintendents and assistant superintendents by the civic clubs of Lubbock. Vernice Ford, general chairman of the Executive Committee for the show, will preside at the Tuesday night meeting.

Teacher Shortage Is Now World-Wide

AUSTIN—The United States isn't the only place with a teacher shortage.

Calls for American teachers have come from Europe, the Far East, and South American countries, Dr. Hob Gray, teacher placement service director at the University of Texas, says.

Salaries in all jobs are good, particularly in Europe and Far Eastern countries where schools for dependents of American military and civilian personnel are in operation.

Latin American schools are seeking teachers in Buenos Aires, Guayaquil, Havana and Barranquilla.

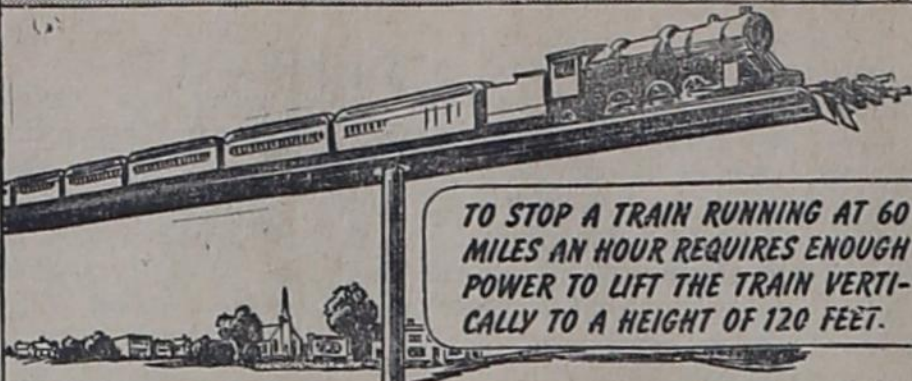

Any teacher 35 years of age or under who is interested in making application may write to Dr. Gray for further information.

MISS McNEW IMPROVING

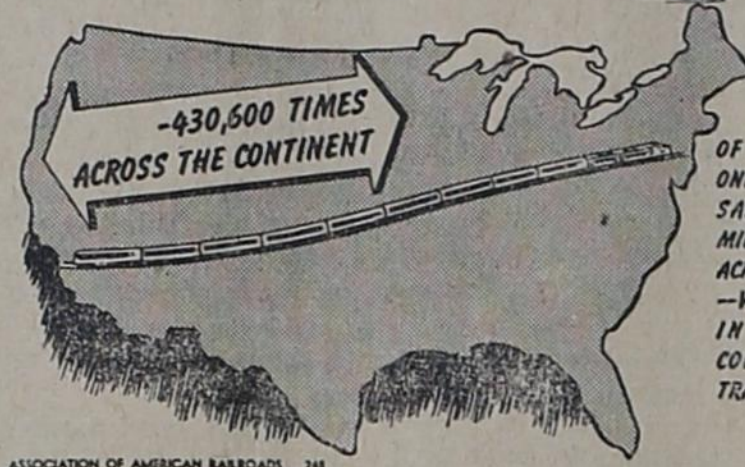

Miss Alice McNew, former Bovina resident who was critically injured in an automobile accident near Bend, Ore., which claimed the life of her father, is reported to be improving in a Portland, Ore., hospital. She has been hospitalized since the accident last November and has undergone numerous operations, being reported near death on a number of occasions.

License Sales Drag As Deadline Nears

Mrs. Bess Mansfield, deputy in the office of Collector Earl Booth, said on Monday that sales of 1948 license plates were "very slow" in the local office, with only a few hundred of the new plates being issued thus far.

In the same breath, she reminded car owners that the 1948 tags are due to be attached to their vehicles on April 1st.

The new plates have a black background, superimposed with yellow lettering and numbers. Parmer County serial letters are "AR", the same as those designating this county during 1947.
