Germany Retake Italian Points

ROME, Nov. 30 (AP)—Uncorking their strongest counterattacks in recent weeks German troops have recaptured three Fifth Army strong points in the sector southeast and southwest of Bologna.

Further west in the difficult mountain country west of the Bologna-Pistoia highway the Germans recaptured Corona and Monte Belvedere.

Steel Lend-Lease To Britain Will Halt January 1

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The United States plans to halt lend-lease shipments of iron and steel to Britain January 1.

It was announced officially today in a statement summing up lengthy British-American lend-lease conferences just concluded here.

Elimination of cost-free shipments of steel and some other "raw and semi-fabricated materials" to Britain has been ordered into effect January 1 in order to smooth the way for reconversion of British industry to civilian production on an "equitable basis" with reconversion in this country.

Roosevelt Fires Attorney Littell

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt, stepping into a red-hot justice department row, fired Assistant Attorney General Norman Littell today for "insubordination."

Littell had been warring with his chief Attorney General Biddle, in exchanges that followed Biddle's demand for Littell's resignation.

Whether this Biddle knockout, scored with White House help, ends the battle entirely is problematical.

In a statement given out at the justice department, the president said:

"When statements made by Norman Littell first appeared in the papers I wrote to him that it was primarily an executive matter; and that I hoped for his own career he would resign."

"Since then he has volunteered a long statement, thus substantiating what the attorney general had said about his insubordination."

"This is inexcusable; and under these circumstances my only alternative is to remove him from office, which I have done today."

Attorney General Biddle simultaneously issued the following statement:

"I have read Norman Littell's statement filed with the Mead committee before the committee had determined whether or not it should hold any investigation."

"I do not propose to discuss Mr. Littell's reckless and unfounded statements, or to enter into any controversy with him in the public press."

"As the head of the department of justice I must take responsibility for its operation, and will not tolerate such serious disloyalty or insubordination from any member of the department even if he thinks that it is his public duty to remain in office after he has been asked to resign."

President Roosevelt intervened after the senate was investigating committee headed by Senator Mead (D-N.Y.) had sidestepped an immediate session on whether to investigate "irreconcilable" differences between the two justice officials.

C. H. DeVaney Is Named Delegate By Farm Bureau

C. H. DeVaney, Coahoma, has been approved as director for election by voting delegates from district No. 6 at the Texas Farm Bureau convention which concluded sessions at Waco.

The district comprises 43 counties. DeVaney will succeed T. R. Haggard, Westbrook. Deputy district director is C. N. Von Roeder of Borden county.

Stress was placed on membership as an influence in legislation by W. R. Ogg, Washington, director of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Grover B. Hill, under-secretary of agriculture, called for increased production by using new methods and ranching.

As assistant to War Food Administrator Marvin Jones he spends eight million dollars a month for food destined for overseas soldiers. Farmers have done a marvelous job of production despite equipment and manpower shortages, he said.

V. C. Marshall, Temple, administrative officer of the state soil conservation service, warned that the US soil is being depleted at a faster rate than any nation in history over a comparable time because of a policy of "taking out but never putting back." It will take decades to repair the damage, he said.

Governmental agricultural agencies are attempting to work together toward the common goal of benefitting agriculture, according to C. D. Walker, director of the Southern division of the AAA.

Every resolution recommended by the resolution committee was for actual financial and up-building of the agricultural industry and all were adopted, according to Durward Lewter, county agent. Delegates attending from Howard county were DeVaney, R. E. Martin, J. F. Winans, W. I. Broadus, and O. D. O'Daniels. County Agent Durward Lewter accompanied the group.

Germans Say 'Ike' Using 70 Divisions

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—A German military spokesman was quoted by the Berlin radio today as saying Gen. Eisenhower had thrown 70 divisions into the great offensive on the western front.

This suggested a minimum of 850,000 combat troops were opposing the outnumbered Germans along the whole front.

The official DNB dispatch placed the crucial battlefield in the Aachen area and said the fighting was in progress in a sector 16 miles wide and nine deep. This tallied roughly with Allied front reports.

The Nazis asserted that British attacks south of the Dutch town of Helmond were repulsed "before the enemy was able to launch his apparently planned big offensive."

Stettinius Gets Senate Approval

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The senate today confirmed President Roosevelt's nomination of Edward R. Stettinius, Jr. to be secretary of state, succeeding Cordell Hull, who resigned because of ill health.

Stettinius, 44, thus becomes the youngest secretary of state since George Washington appointed 41-year-old Edmund Randolph to the post in 1794.

The former chairman of United States Steel corporation won approval of the senate despite a one-man fight against him by Senator Langer (R-ND).

Langer charged in the senate that Stettinius had delayed the nation's war preparations by failing to sponsor an increase in steel production in 1940. Stettinius then was a member of the raw materials division of the national defense council.

Senators McKellar (D-Tenn.), White (R-Mich.), Vandenberg (R-Mich.), Clark (D-Mo.), Connally (D-Tex.) and Davis (R-Pa.) defended Stettinius' record and his qualifications.

Russians Thrust Forward West Of Danube Barriers

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Russian and Yugoslav Partisan forces thrust forward 25 miles west of the Danube in southwestern Hungary today in a huge offensive that has the three-fold possibility of encircling Budapest, driving straight into Austria and of sealing off all Nazi troops in the Balkans.

Premier Stalin in an order of the day yesterday announced the capture of 350 communities in southern Hungary and northern Yugoslavia, confirming the drive about which the German radio has spoken for the last week.

Pecs, coal mining and railway center 98 miles southwest of Budapest was seized, as was Mohacs, a like distance directly south of the Hungarian capital and Batazsek, 85 miles south of Budapest, Moscow said.

The broadcast Russian communique said the breakthrough was on a 92-mile wide front that extended on its northern flank to within 37 miles of the Hungarian capital.

Budapest, meanwhile, was under close siege from the northeast by parts of Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukraine army.

Another Soviet army continued to push its way westward in Slovakia across rain-drenched terrain.

The U. S. 7th Army, flanking the Third to the southeast, was bursting the bonds of German resistance along its line. It sidestepped the strongly held French center of Haguenau, 31 miles southwest of Karlsruhe, where the Germans have stores of ammunition and fuel. Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch aimed his divisions straight at Karlsruhe, a city of 190,000 beyond the Rhine in the shelter of the Siegfried line.

The Seventh and the French First Army had wrestled half the Alsatian plain from the enemy and had beat 25 miles south of Strasbourg. The French were moving slowly up from Mulhouse to tighten the Colmar clamp to roughly 40 miles.

Big Spring Faces 'Sharpest Norther'

Big Spring faced one of the sharpest "northers" of the season Thursday, and continued cold was in prospect through Thursday night.

Temperatures dipped to 30 in the face of a rising north wind but were above freezing at noon. No intense cold was foreseen, forecasters anticipating minimum temperatures around 28 degrees with fair weather.

JAP CRUELITIES

CANBERRA, Australia, Nov. 29 (AP)—Evidence the Japanese have massacred, tortured and mistreated Australians, both military and civilian, as well as New Guinea natives, was reported today to the Queensland house of representatives by Herbert V. Ewart, Australian attorney-general.

Eisenhower War On Germans Held Back By Supplies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—General Eisenhower had to delay his general offensive until enough artillery ammunition accumulated, Secretary of War Stimson disclosed today.

In a news conference discussion of the critical need for ammunition, Stimson gave this outline of the situation in Europe.

Following the rush across France, "we experienced a series of artillery difficulties. First was the limitation imposed by disrupted railroad lines for the delivery of ammunition available in the ports. As the railroad situation greatly improved, the next bottleneck was the incapacity of the ports to deliver the ammunition available in Great Britain."

Following this as the armies approached the Rhine "it became necessary for General Eisenhower to delay a general offensive until an adequate reserve of artillery ammunition could be accumulated."

"As (rail and port) factors improve we are reaching another limitation and that is the availability of ammunition in the United States."

Stimson said the ammunition situation bids fair to be more critical "unless production rates in the United States are greatly increased."

Farmers Get Chance To Vote For Committeemen

A second election limited to the farmers of the nation will be held between December 11 and 16. Every farmer taking part in AAA programs will have an opportunity to vote for community committeemen.

Places and dates of community election meetings in Howard county include Knott, Thursday 14 at 1 p. m., Gay Hill at 3 p. m. and Big Spring Friday 15 at 2 p. m.

Farmers elected at these meetings will be responsible for insuring maximum benefits to farmers of their communities for the many programs and activities of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. Work of local committeemen includes explaining AAA practices, certifying applications for payment, assisting with storage and loan programs, and working on the disposition of surplus war property.

All farm operators who take part in the program in 1945 are eligible to vote in community elections. In addition to electing community committeemen, the meetings also will name delegates to a county convention to be held later in election of county committeemen.

In emphasizing the importance of full attendance at the election meetings, I. H. Thomas, county AAA chairman, quotes N. E. Dodd, national AAA chief: "These elections, such as the same as local school elections, constitute real democracy in action. Solving of farm problems at this stage of the war, and those that face the nation from here on out will require the best possible leadership and the full participation of farmers."

Sub-Debs Trample HHS With A 20-0 Win

For the first time in the history of Big Spring a football game was played by girls. The High Heel Slipper Club met the Sub-Deb Club for a fast game played Wednesday night at Steer Stadium. The Sub-Debs came through with a 20-0 victory but the HHS girls really showed some good running. The HHS girls were out-weighted.

The girls will have numerous bruises to display today but the only real casualties of the game last night was that Janet Robb got the breath knocked out of her twice and Bobby Green was hurt when she tackled Helen Blount. Both clubs had practiced five times and if the boys keep going into service Big Spring may have a girls football team next year and if so, those girls may give a good show.

Referees for the game were Harold Holmes, and Bobo Hardy, water girls were the sponsors of the clubs. Mrs. Mon Battle for the Sub-Debs, Champe Phillips for the High Heel Slipper.

Coaches for the Sub-Debs were Pete Cook, Robert Miller, and Jimmie Tolbert, for the HHS were Hugh Cochran and Leo Rusk. Captains for the Sub-Debs was

From 5 o'Clock On

By JONANNA TERRY

Today Thanksgiving is being celebrated by many Americans all over the United States. Most firms in Big Spring were closed last Thursday as a remembrance of the special day set aside to be thankful but all of us should be most thankful to be living under the Star Spangled Banner and in a land of freedom no matter what day we observe as Thanksgiving day. So let us again be thankful for our many blessings.

Chatted with Billie Cain this morning and she said they had a nice trip home from school on the train yesterday but that it sure was crowded. Billie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cain Sr. and is a sophomore student at John Tarleton College in Stephenville. Accompanying Billie home for the holidays was her room mate, Marcy Kuhn of Olden, Texas. They will return to school Sunday night.

Jan Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickerson, arrived last night from Hardin Simmons University in Abilene to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents.

Those Sub-Deb girls really played for "blood" (and I am not spoofing) at the football game Wednesday night between the High Heel Slipper club and the Sub-Deb club. Helen Blount should make "all state" because she really carried that ball, with the aid of Janet Robb, the Sub-Debs racket the High Heel Slipper girls for a win of 20-0. There is an art to winning a game gracefully, as it is an art to lose a game and smile just the same. Both teams did a fine job of winning and losing.

Champe Phillips, sponsor of the HHS club, and water-girl for her team, furnished the entertainment during the half when she raced across the football field to carry her girls some water. Champe wore a pink flannel night gown and a red nightcap.

Mrs. Clarence Pressley returned to Fort Worth Wednesday morning, following a week's visit with her brother and wife, Marvin House, Sr. Mrs. Marvin House, Sr., accompanied her on her return for a two weeks visit in Fort Worth and Dallas.

Cpl. Marvin House, Jr., was in Big Spring a short time Wednesday morning on his return trip to camp at Marfa, from attending the wedding of Lieut. Wayne Martin in Weatherford, which occurred Tuesday night.

Marilyn Keaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Keaton, is home from John Tarleton College in Stephenville, visiting her parents during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Catherine Redding, assistant circulation manager for the Big Spring Herald, is recovering from an appendectomy at the Malone and Hogan Clinic Hospital.

Virginia Irwin left Wednesday night by plane for Monroe, La. to visit friends and relatives.

The best way that we can show our thanks to our war heroes and to our men in the armed forces is to invest all we can in buying bonds during this 6th War Loan Drive, so be sure and attend the G. I. Jamboree today.

The Etiquette Of Christmas Cards

Sending Christmas cards is one of our very friendliest customs, but that doesn't mean we can ignore a few points of etiquette that will help our holiday greetings conform to the standards of good taste. Let's check on them before we mail our Christmas cards this year.

The way we sign our cards and the way we address them have always been the important things about the socially correct Christmas card. Now, of course, with so many friends in the service, or we ourselves married to servicemen, the code of military etiquette is equally important.

Whatever kind of Christmas cards you are sending this year—the jolly type, the ultra-dignified or the "homey" types—or all three, if you prefer assortments—are all proper if they reflect your own tastes. But it's generally wise, and may save some slight embarrassments, to be sure that the card you choose to send to this or that friend or acquaintance reflects the degree of intimacy that exists between you. You can almost always find exactly the right remembrance that will do this for you.

Using first names, or even affectionate nicknames, is permissible on Christmas cards for your immediate circle of friends and relatives. Some married couples still retain the formal "Mr. (or Captain) and Mrs. Jones." Most younger couples, however, prefer the friendlier "John and Alice Jones." And yes, it's perfectly proper to include the children's names and even the name of the family Scottie. Or make the signature all-inclusive and simpler by writing "The John Lanes."

When sending greeting cards to commissioned officers, the rank must be designated. However, when sending a Christmas card to non-coms or enlisted men, it is optional whether or not you use the rank. The best thing is to follow the form the serviceman or woman has used as return address.

If you are sending out Christmas cards and your husband is not home on furlough at the time, but you know that he would like his wishes extended along with yours, you might add a simple note to the greeting saying, "John's wishes are included with mine, and we hope to see you when next he is home on furlough."

Christmas 1944 is our fourth Christmas of the war. Because Christmas cards mean so much more to people this year, the very best etiquette of all is a double check to be sure that all the cards you send are correctly signed and addressed—and mailed with first-class postage on your Christmas cards you are, in effect, saying to your friends "Not taking any chances that this will be delayed on its way to you. You're an important person on my list."

Dance Given At Post Gym For Civil Service Personnel

More than 500 persons attended at the post gymnasium Wednesday night for a colorful Thanksgiving dance staged by civilian employees of the Big Spring Bombardier school. It was the first affair held by civil service employees since the field opened.

The gymnasium was gaily decorated with fall flowers and other Thanksgiving motifs.

Food Point Values To Be Unchanged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—

The OPA said today current food point values will be unchanged when the new ration period begins next Sunday. The War Food Administration rejected OPA proposals to put most point-free meat and some major canned vegetables back on the ration list. The OPA announcement made no mention of sharp differences between the two agencies over basic rationing policy. These developed when OPA urged more food rationing, claiming that short supplies and heavy sales warranted it. Today's announcement was a victory for the present for WFA. The dispute has been referred to Stabilization Director Fred M.

Venson. Should he side with OPA, point changes may be made in mid-December, an OPA spokesman said. WFA, in turning down OPA's appeal, asserted the overall food supply is good and that substitutes are available for any scarce items. It contended high consumption should be encouraged to avoid a large food surplus on V-E (Victory in Europe) day. Read The Herald Want Ads.

Time Near For Setting Orchards In Texas

Any Texas family which has suitable ground space can have an orchard or fruit plot to supply its needs. The climate and soils in most sections of the state are adapted to producing several types of wholesome, health-giving fruits, including peaches, pears, plums, figs, cherries and grapes. A program of care and management must be followed after an orchard is set out in order to obtain the best yields. This means fertilizing, maintaining organic matter in the soil, spraying for control of diseases and destructive insects, pruning and other good management practices. From December 1 to March 1 is the best time to set an orchard. The three months allows leeway to suit the work to local weather conditions. Strawberries, however, are an exception, because November 15 is the deadline for setting out plants. As a general rule, fruit trees two to three feet high are more desirable in dry areas than larger ones. Almost without exception orchards will do best on rich, well-drained, sandy or sandy loam soils which are free from nematode and root rot. But some varieties of fruit trees are more tolerant of heavy soils than others. Plant only varieties which have proved to be best suited to local conditions. This alone, may mean the difference between profit and loss.

The advice of the county Extension agents should be asked on details of planting and caring for an orchard. They have helpful printed material on orcharding which was prepared by specialists and is free for the asking. This material will answer many of the questions which arise in growing fruit at home.

Pleasant Way For Serving Hot Juice

A pleasant way to serve fruit juice in chilly weather is spiced and hot. Cider and grape juice are favorites for spicing. This is a suggested method of preparing hot spiced cider: To 1 quart of cider add 1-4 cup sugar; 1-8 teaspoon salt; 8 short sticks cinnamon; 12 whole cloves; 8 whole allspice. Heat to boiling, then cool and let stand a few hours for flavors to blend. Just before serving, reheat and strain out spices.

Grape juice is spiced by the same method but twice as much sugar and no allspice is used and a little lemon juice is added just before serving.

Canned grapefruit juice is another possibility for spicing. It calls for more sugar and more spice. Spices suggested are cloves, cinnamon, and nutmeg. For a pink color add a little grape juice.

Use Tailor's Trick To Get Neat Pleats

To press a neat pleat in wool or rayon skirts so the fold will not leave an imprint or shiny mark that shows when the pleat swings open, take a tip from the tailor and use a strip of lightweight cardboard or heavy paper. Cut the strip from an old suit box or the cardboard stiffening in shirts returned from the laundry. Have the strip the length of the longest pleat and 3 or 4 inches wide. The strip must be wide enough to slip into the inside fold of the pleat and also extend several inches past the outside fold. Insert the cardboard and press. Remove just before finishing the press job.

A cardboard strip is also helpful in pressing facings or seam edges that are likely to mark through.

US Gets Requests From Other Nations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dean Acheson, assistant secretary of state, disclosed today that the United States already has received requests for loans from several foreign governments. He proposed expanding the credit facilities of the Export-Import bank to handle them.

Acheson also urged upon the trade sub-committee of the house postwar economic committee repeal of the Johnson act which prohibits private lending to governments in default of American loans. He described the act as "a barrier to American participation in the rehabilitation of international trade."

Along with removal of the Johnson act, the assistant secretary also proposed repeal of a provision in the Export-Import bank expansion. The institution now has a credit maximum of $700,000,000 but a total available for new operations of only about $200,000,000. Officials have said its credit facilities would have to be increased to several billions if it were to function effectively in international trade.

Kirk Named Italian Ambassador By FDR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Alexander C. Kirk of Illinois was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be American ambassador to Italy.
 Kirk now is United States representative on the Allied advisory commission for Italy. He was American charge d'affaires in Rome at the time Italy came into the war in June, 1940.

 William Phillips was the last previous ambassador in Italy.

Sedition Trial Halted By Judge Eicher's Death

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Death during the night of President Justice Edward C. Eicher today apparently brought to an end the seven-month-old mass sedition trial in federal district court.
 Eicher, 65-year-old former Iowa congressman, died at his home in nearby Alexandria, Va.

A justice department official, declining to be quoted by name, said the jurist's death would mean that the current trial would have to be terminated and the hearing started all over again.
 The 27 defendants are accused of conspiring to disaffect the loyalty of American armed forces and to set up a Nazi form of government in this country.

 The trial opened last April 17 with 30 defendants. One later died and two won severances.

After a summer recess, the hearings have recently been confined to afternoon sessions to permit defense attorneys to carry on their own law practices. Most of the attorneys have been serving without compensation.

From its outset, the mass hearing was marked by uproar and confusion. Selection of a jury proceeded at a snail's pace throughout the first two weeks. Then with the box still not filled, the task had to be started from scratch again with the expiration at month's end of the district court jury panels.

The courtroom clamor grew to such a pitch that Eicher was forced to resort to numerous contempt fines to keep defense council in line. All told, six attorneys and a defendant were fined an aggregate of $1,220. All appealed their fines to the court of appeals, where the cases still are pending.

Government counsel, too, came in for criticism from the bench. Eicher late in September formally reprimanded Chief Prosecutor O. John Rogge for "improper conduct" in granting interviews to a newspaper and a magazine.

Masses of exhibits were entered in the trial record, but only after bitter defense objections. Quantities remained to be entered, and many witnesses to be heard before the government would have been prepared to rest its case.

Casualties Reach 536,950 Since 1941

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Casualties for the armed forces have reached 536,950.
 From Pearl Harbor through November 15, Army casualties amounted to 461,058, Secretary of War Stimson said today.
 This was an increase of 6,878 in one week from November 7.
 Navy casualties are 75,892, an increase of 1,277 for the week.
 Here are the Army casualties, together with those a week ago:
 Killed 89,840 and 88,245; wounded 258,106 and 254,283; missing 57,514 and 56,442; prisoners 55,598 and 55,210.
 The Navy casualties: Killed 29,480 and 29,208; wounded 32,600 and 31,574; missing 9,326 and 9,347; prisoners 4,486 and 4,486 (unchanged).

SCOTCH TOFFEE MAKES AN IDEAL "ALL-ROUND" PACKAGE

If you have a boy or girl in the services or away from home—at school, in defense work, etc.—then you know the delight of finding some new delicacy—especially one high in food value and low in ration points—to send in one of your gift packages. This recipe for Scotch Toffee is especially praiseworthy for it packs easily, ships well and stays fresh for a long, long time.
 Actually it's a hard candy—that's why it ships so well—but it has a tendency to be chewy, prolonging its goodness just that much more. From first reports we'd say that those "way-from-homes" really go for this candy treat—for they've sent back lip-smacking requests of "Send us more!"
 Scotch Toffee is great for the home front, too! It makes a tasty treat for afternoons, or parties, and from junior right on up it's voted a favorite candy. Make up a batch today. It's easy—takes so little time—and one batch makes 40 pieces.

SCOTCH TOFFEE (Makes 40 pieces)

er than a jar or two of home-made jellies or jams. Perhaps you put up enough last summer so that you can afford to be generous with your supply at Christmas time. If not, there are very good winter jellies which you can make right now.

Honey Orange Marmalade
1½ cups prepared orange and lemon (see below)
2½ cups honey
½ bottle fruit pectin
To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters from 1 medium orange and 1 medium lemon. Lay skins flat; shave off and discard about half of white part. With a very sharp knife cut remaining rind into fine shreds. Add ¼ cup honey, ¼ cup water and 1/16 teaspoon soda. (This honey is in addition to the 2½ cups specified above.) Bring to a boil and simmer, covered, ten minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove sections of fruit pulp free from membrane. Add pulp and juice to cooked rind;

simmer twenty minutes longer. (If orange is very sweet, add juice of 1 extra lemon.)

Measure honey and prepared fruit, solidly packed, into large kettle, flooding each cup with juice or, if necessary, with water. Bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just five minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot marmalade at once. Makes about 6 glasses of 6 fluid ounces each.

Cranberry and Fresh Orange Jelly
3½ cups sugar
1½ cups cranberry juice (canned or fresh)
1½ cups fresh orange juice, strained

1 box powdered fruit pectin
Measure sugar into dry dish and set aside until needed.

Measure juice into a 3-to-4 quart saucepan and place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar, stirring constantly. Continue stirring.

Bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard for half a minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 7 glasses of 6 fluid ounces each.

Dried Herb Jelly
1 cup herb infusion
¼ cup vinegar
3 cups sugar
Coloring
½ bottle fruit pectin
To make herb infusion: pour 1¼ cups boiling water over 2 tablespoons herbs. Cover, let stand herbs. Measure infusion into 3-quart sauce-pan, adding water if necessary, to make 1 cup. Add vinegar and sugar, and mix.

Place over hottest fire and while mixture is coming to a boil add coloring to give desired shade. Be sure that it is a coloring which fruit acids do not cause to fade. As soon as mixture boils, add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard for half a minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. This makes about four six ounce glasses.

NOTE: The following herbs, or any three or four of them mixed together, make a good infusion:

Rosemary, thyme, tarragon, marjoram, basil, sage and savory.

The above jelly is a particularly good present for the household of a hunter, as it is delicious served with wild game.

With very little trouble you can decorate your jars of home-made preserves so that they make gay as well as delectable presents. Cover the tops of the jars smoothly with paper and decorate with stickers in the shape of the fruits inside. Make decorative handwritten labels. And if you feel slightly ambitious about the whole thing, make a "coaster" trim for the glasses by twisting crepe paper of three colors, braiding it, and covering the bottom and the lid of the jelly glass with the resulting trimming. This makes a jar hand-

Cranberry Jelly Adds Sparkle To Menus

Plump, juicy cranberries are dotting the markets again, ready to add color and sparkle to holiday menus. Whether they're made into jelly relish or jam, it's best to use a porcelain enameled utensil with its sanitary coating so that the berries keep their bright red color.

Cranberries may be ground raw with oranges and apples to make a delicious relish. Sugar is added to taste. Store in an enameled pudding or utility dish.

For cranberry jelly, use 4 cups cranberries, 2 cups sugar and 2-3 cup water. Place cranberries and water into enameled saucepan and bring to a boil. Cook until berries burst, then put mixture through sieve. Add sugar and bring to a boil. Cook three minutes and pour into molds.

Is Your Home Life Like This?

Everything moves along its accustomed routine, easily, smoothly, gracefully. Few complaints ever arise. Anniversaries are regularly and lovingly remembered. Each meal is an occasion for compliment. Well, it could be that the coffee has a mighty lot to do with it. Sounds far-fetched? Not if you'd believe a current issue of a famous national magazine. It says good coffee is one of the tremendous trifles that's vital. What's more, it just about proves it too!

Maybe it's the Coffee

A rich, inviting blend like Admiration certainly can add much to family harmony. Its fragrant flavor is a delight at any hour of the day, lends something to all occasions, and helps make commonplace meals appetizing and interesting. It could well be therefore that Admiration Coffee plays a silent but important role in family affairs, unnoticed and unsung.

Or is it Like This?

Too often bad coffee unhinges otherwise good dispositions. Usually it's right at the breakfast table too. One word leads to another—and then the family explosion occurs. The rest of the day is spent in multiplying imagined wrongs. Better look over your situation. Perhaps Admiration, one of the Great Aids to a Happy Married Life, is just what your family needs.

Prime Minister Reveals Lend-Lease To Be Halved

By JOHN F. CHESTER
LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill revealed today a far-reaching British-American trade arrangement whereby, after the defeat of Germany, lend-lease would be cut nearly in half but Britain would pay cash for American materials intended for eventual re-export from England.

Hammering home Britain's necessity for, and intention of, rebuilding her largely-destroyed export trade, the prime minister told commons that "it is no part of the lend-lease act to provide general relief, or to provide for postwar reconstruction or to aid our export trade."

"We shall pay cash for any additional supplies we may wish to take from the United States for export purposes," he declared. He added that the removal of uncertainties should make it possible for exporters to lay plans now with assurance that they could become effective after the war with Germany ends.

Churchill said that after Germany's defeat England hoped to be able to cut the lend-lease inflow from America by about half.

"Lend-lease—that very great act—has stood us and our Allies in good stead and we have never asked nor expected any assistance which is not strictly within its terms and provisions," the premier declared.

Arrangements already had been made in Washington, he said, as to "what the American administration feels it is proper and right for us to have in accordance with the terms" of the act. He added: "The end of the war with Germany will make possible large reductions in some of our requirements. We expect our needs will be met by a program at a rate not much more than half of what we have been receiving in 1944. All of these supplies and services will be exchanged for the joint war effort against the common enemy."

Churchill reminded the house that lend-lease was an act which "was for the defense of the United States and is strictly limited to what is necessary for the most effective prosecution of the war by the United States and its Allies."

The prolongation of the war into what will be for us the sixth and seventh year means that certain improvements are essential if our national economy is to be as fully effective as possible for the prosecution of the war," Churchill said.

"Fatigue and abstinence carried too far and endured too long can impede the effectiveness of a people at war at least as much as a more sensational form of privation."

"After the defeat of Germany some release of manpower to increase the supplies available for essential civilian consumption must follow in due course, and some improvements in the standards and variety of national diet."

Churchill said Britain also must make a serious effort to rebuild the export trade "which we deliberately gave up in the extremity of our emergency but without which we cannot live in the future."

Motion For Farmers To Secede From Federation Defeated Amid Cheers

WACO, Nov. 30 (AP)—A motion to secede from the American Farm Bureau Federation was defeated amid cheers as delegates to the Texas Farm Bureau Federation ended its convention here yesterday.

The motion was in the form of a resolution by N. Foote, Gatesville. J. Walter Hammond, president, suggested if Foote was in a seceding mood, he should secede from the Coryell County (Gatesville) bureau.

The directors re-elected Hammond, of Tye, Taylor county, president; named Frank Taylor, Waco, vice president, and re-elected J. H. West, Bishop, secretary-treasurer.

Resolutions adopted favored: Social security for farm owners and operators.

Retention of the basic principles of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Expansion of rural electrification and telephone service.

Revision of parity farm prices to include increased labor costs and establishment of a floor under all farm prices. Shift of the production credit corporations out of the U.S. Department of Agriculture to a bipartisan board.

Study of a correct spread between farm prices and consumer payments.

Dedistricting of congressional districts.

Elimination of state trade barriers.

Morgenthau Tells Nation That Bonds Will Not Be Burned

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau assured the nation from Dallas yesterday that war bonds will live their full life to maturity and no bond burning bees will ever be sanctioned by the United States government.

Only in Dallas a few hours before planning to an unannounced destination, Secretary Morgenthau said:

"In this nation today are 85,000,000 owners of war bonds. They have purchased 700,000,000 Series E bonds alone. Our nation has grown great upon the principle of paying its obligations. We have asked the people of the United States to aid our war effort. They will be paid in full."

The secretary made his emphatic statement to quell rumors of bond burning parties which had cropped up in scattered sectors of the nation.

"Texas has done a marvelous job on war bonds in the past and it is now repeating its performance. We are proud of the Texans who have always made their quota among the early finishers."

Secretary Morgenthau voiced the hope that war bond redemptions, admittedly high in October, first month in which it became a comparatively easy task for bond owners to redeem bonds, would steadily decline.

Boll Worm Harms Cotton Harvesting

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—P. N. Annand, chief of the Bureau of Entomology, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, told the closing session of the National Cotton Council Seminar here yesterday that pink bollworm infestation had spread considerably during the past year and threatens to wipe out gains made in other fields.

Where the pest is strongly entrenched, he said, cotton production has declined 15 to 20 per cent.

Southern cotton growers may receive from 20 to 30 per cent more value from fertilizer than they do now if they take full advantage of the advances in chemical technology, F. W. Parker, assistant chief of the bureau of plant industry, said.

An education program was planned, and committee members from eight states were assigned the task of cotton research.

SAINT NICK VISITS BOY

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Nov. 29 (AP)—Santa Claus' pack bulged today with everything but the priceless gift of life for Joey Stazenski, four-year-old boy dying in a lonely Arizona ranch house. Old Saint Nick, making a heartaick 18 mile journey from this mountain town, hoped to bring a few last smiles today to the death-shadowed face of Joey, victim of an incurable throat tumor.

Potatoes and tomatoes are both members of the nightshade family of plants.

Daughter Marrying President's Son; Mother Not Present

BEAUMONT, Nov. 30 (AP)—Her daughter will marry the son of the president of the United States but she's not planning to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Jean Young of San Diego, Calif., mother of film actress Faye Emerson who, it has been announced, will marry Col. Elliott Roosevelt this week, says the illness of her own mother, Mrs. Emma Emythe of Beaumont, would prevent her from witnessing the ceremony.

Today's Thanksgiving Celebrations Are "On Governor Coke Stevenson"

By The Associated Press
This one is on the governor. This Nov. 30 Thanksgiving Day.

By proclamation of the governor today (Thursday) is Thanksgiving Day in Texas but most of the United States—as well as most of Texas—celebrated last Thursday. Seven states, including Texas, are trying to find turkeys for belated Thanksgiving dinners today.

Banks have elected to honor Governor Coke Stevenson's proclamation and will close.

A few business places also plan to close in the smaller communities, but in the larger cities stores will remain open. They celebrated last Thursday.

Some Texans will celebrate for the second time. Courthouse employes in Dallas will receive a holiday. They received one last week.

Sellers Charges Injunction Violated

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Grover Sellers charged in court here yesterday that an injunction order against polluting the Angelina river with salt from the Smith county oil wells had been violated.

Sellers named Sam Roosth and A. S. Genevov of the Roosth and Genevov Production Company, Tyler, in his charges and filed a motion for contempt in the 118th district court. Judge John A. Rawlins set a hearing for Jan. 2.

The temporary injunction, which the petition alleges is still effective, was issued by Judge Rawlins on Sept. 13, 1943. Alleged violations of this order are said to have occurred in March, April, May, June, July, August and September.

Roving Congressmen In Aerial School

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
A BOMBER BASE IN BRITAIN, Nov. 29 (AP)—The roving congressmen of the House Military committee underwent a swift schooling in aerial warfare today.

Four hours before dawn they left a special train and drove shivering through twisting English country lanes to this big bomber base. Some of them were still suffering from lingering attacks of dysentery, apparently the result of one of the several incursions they took for their trip.

Sitting at the briefing of pilots before the day's mission to Germany, the congressmen had Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle as schoolmaster.

The eighth airforce commander elaborated and translated for the military committee the aerial jargon of the day's guidance.

As they tramped through the mud to the messhall, one congressman turned to a companion and observed:

"Perhaps there have been as many congressmen up as late before but I'll take a bet there have never been as many up this early."

But the wind and the hour whipped up congressional appetites. They ate scrambled dried eggs, bacon, hot rolls and coffee before going to control towers to watch the bombers shuttle off to Germany.

Later they visited two other bases and saw how the work of fighter pilots and the bomber airman was coordinated.

For many of the congressmen it was a day of reunion with old constituents. For some of them it was a day, too, for the protests which fall to congressional lots.

And the greatest of these was the current shortage of cigars.

Prisoner Total For Allied Armies Given

By The Associated Press
Allied armies have captured at least 730,749 prisoners on the western front since D-day, the equivalent of 73 German divisions as now constituted.

The four American armies have waged at least 451,628, the veteran First army leading the field with 208,866. Actually the total captives are probably thousands greater because latest official figures as of today are from two to three weeks old for the U. S. Ninth, the British Second and Canadian First armies.

Strohmeier And Kutner Named To Mid-Western All-Service Eleven

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Great Lake's Bluejackets beaten only by Ohio State and closing a 12-game season Saturday against Notre Dame, edged once-defeated Iowa Pre-Flight, five berths to four, on the 1944 midwestern all-service team selected today by the Associated Press.

Century In 9 Flat?

FORT PIERCE, Fla., Nov. 30—The 100-yard dash in nine seconds flat—considered an impossibility a few years back—will be achieved after the war by some well-trained youngster with lightning in his legs, says Lt. (jg) Clyde Jeffrey, himself one of the world's fastest runners.

MAY LOSE FINGER

DETROIT, Nov. 30 (AP)—Hal Newhouse, Detroit left-handed pitcher who was voted the American league's most valuable player for 1944, may lose use of the second finger of his right hand. He accidentally cut it while sharpening a knife and infection has set in.

Bible Pins Hope On Bobby Layne; Game Is Toss-Up

AUSTIN, Nov. 30 (AP)—The University of Texas pinned its hopes on Bobby Layne, that passin' man, to uphold the jinx of Memorial Stadium against the gridiron legions of AggieLand today with a confident word from the coaching staff that he would get the job done.

As the Longhorns prepared to battle a versatile Texas A. and M. team, Headman Dana X. Bible had this to say: "All I wanted was fair weather and Bobby to be in shape. It seems we'll have both. I feel we will come through."

Forty-four thousand fans were expected to jam the big horseshoe for the fifty-first battle between Longhorns and Cadets, lured there by promise of a grand offensive duel between two teams in top condition and each hitting on all eleven cylinders.

Coach Homer Norton, whose Aggies haven't won from Texas in five seasons, said his main concern like that of the Longhorn coaches, was Layne. "His great passing ability has given us cause for worry," said the genial mentor of the Aggies, whose team is generally regarded to have more all-around strength than the Longhorns but still is not the favorite.

In fact, it was called a toss-up because Texas, at top form and playing on its own field with a great tradition to uphold—no Aggie team ever has triumphed in Memorial Stadium—was given an even chance even with the betting genius.

Layne has been used but little of recent weeks due to a knee sprain but yesterday, as the Longhorns went through their final drill, he showed no signs of a limp and Bible announced he was ready for 60 minutes of play.

The Aggies, mostly a ground team, can pass well, too. They actually have a better aerial record than Texas. This, however, was rolled up during Layne's absence from the Longhorn line-up.

Nothing much depends on the result of the game. Neither team has an outstanding record and both were eliminated last week from the Southwest conference title race. However, this battle is tops for the season not only for the two schools but for thousands of exes everywhere. Steeped in tradition, packing football glamor and always a brilliant, bitter struggle, it is THE game.

The weatherman gave his o.k. with a forecast of bright sunshine, light wind and cool, pleasant weather for the kickoff. In the all-time standings Texas has won 31 games, the Aggies 15 and there have been 4 ties. The game has been played through two wars and is in the midst of its third. The teams started swapping touchdowns back in 1894.

Galveston Tightens On Gambling Laws

GALVESTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Strict enforcement of gambling laws in Galveston was pledged by city and county officials yesterday when a grand jury report said a "thorough investigation" had revealed gambling to be prevalent. An indictment charging Sheriff Frank L. Biagne of Galveston county with negligently permitting a prisoner to escape was also returned by the grand jury to Judge Russel H. Markwell in the tenth district court yesterday.

The report on gambling, read in open court by Judge Markwell, said gambling was prevalent in the city of Galveston and in Galveston county, with the exception of Texas City.

Sheriff Biagne was arrested an hour after the indictment was returned in open court. Bond of $250 was made for him. "It's all politics," said the Sheriff to a Galveston news reporter. "One of my bitterest political enemies was on the grand jury."

Churches Of Christ Oppose Diplomats

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 30 (AP)—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America, claiming to represent approximately 26,000,000 Protestants, opposed establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Vatican in a resolution adopted at its biennial convention yesterday.

Delegates representing 26 denominations said in the resolution such action would "confer upon one church a special preferential status in relation to the American government."

Sliding Down The Sports Chute

with BILL

With no intentions of attempting to become a prophet or a person who knows every other person's business best, with out knowing his own, I would like to issue a warning to high school athletes and their proud parents.

The fact that a 17-year-old boy has been a good high school ball player, and that he is a flash in District Three (or any other district), does not mean that said lad would make a college football star.

It has come to my attention several times during the past few months that most parents wish their sons to graduate from high school and enter a college for at least one year before they enter service. This, in itself, is as it should be. But I would like to remind these parents that the war will not last forever, and the man who comes back from war will be a great deal more mature than the boy who left home for service.

This will be only a greater aid to this boy in pursuing an education. He will, by that time, have reached a mature age where his future lies plainly before him and not in a confused muddle, and he will be able to choose his own profession and the type of training he needs.

That will make a difference and save a lot of time and trouble than if he enters college now and gets off on the wrong foot.

Back to the athletic setup. College life for a grid player is not all headlines and workout. Every college places a demand on players far above his ability as an athlete. He must keep his grades up to par with normal students, and some coaches even have asked boys to turn in their uniforms because of low grades. This, in my opinion, is as it should be.

The boy with the best background in high school is the one who usually proves the better student, although there have been exceptions. As football is also a science dedicated to the better coordination of the mind and body, brainwork is an important element in its requirements. There again you have the need for a good background. From personal study and experience I can tell my readers that college studies are becoming more and more strict and are being speeded to such an extent that only the most alert and best prepared mind will reap any great deal of good from studies.

Also, it is not always true that the 17-year-old flash will make a college player. Many high school stars have graduated into the ranks of the more experienced gridsters to find themselves not quite ready for the faster competition. During the past two years it has been necessary for college clubs to

Marion Opines That Cards Will Reign

ATLANTA, Nov. 30 (AP)—The matter of baseball supremacy for the next few years can be settled here and now, in the opinion of Martin (Slate) Marion.

The St. Louis Cardinals shortstop predicted today that the world's champions would "dominate baseball in the National league, perhaps in both leagues, for five or six years."

"We have enough players in the armed forces to make up another pennant-winning team, especially pitchers," said this year's most valuable player award winner. "The club has resources that will keep us up there for years to come."

Wakefield Back To Induction Center

DETROIT, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dick Wakefield lanky outfielder whose big bat sparked the Detroit Tigers to within a game of the American league pennant after he received an honorable discharge from the navy, was slated for reinduction into that service here today.

Released by the Navy Pre-Flight School at Iowa City in July because of an excess of fliers, Wakefield did not expect to finish the season before being recalled.

The elevation at which a gun will hit a target is affected by temperature, height of barometer, degree of wear of the gun and other factors.

depend upon this field for its material. The scene is rapidly changing, and by next season will practically be a thing of the past, with only the very best newcomers finding their names on lineups across the Southwest.

Discharges are coming regularly and often in this late third year of war. More and more veterans are returning to their schools to continue their education and their gridiron careers. This shows the new student down one notch. Experience and age will tell in the long run every time, and coaches know this better than anyone... therefore giving their vets first call on lineups.

So my bit of unasked advice for the day to local players and gridiron candidates (and to their parents) would be to take that extra year in high school if it is possible to do so without hampering your education. I would be against returning to school simply for a few easy courses, but it would prove, I think, a boon to the individual to return and take a constructive curricula as well as giving one more year of experience, age and weight to the football careers. It is a serious problem, and one that should most certainly be given the maximum amount of thought. See you...

Bombardiers Win Opener 47 To 21 From Rattlers

The Bombardiers of AAFBS got off to a flying start in their season basketball opener at the post gymnasium last night, defeating the Rattlers of Fayette AAF by a 47-21 score.

Superior fight enabled the Bombardiers to handle the visitors with ease. Sparked by Pfc. Rex Alexander and Sgt. Flinn Dunham, the Bombardiers jumped into an early lead and never were headed. The score at half-time was 22-11 in favor of the home team.

Alexander, who led both teams in scoring with 16 points, looks better with each appearance on the courts. The former Murray State Teachers College star is a hustler, a fine ball handler, and deadly under the basket.

A crowd-pleaser was Dunham who played only part of the first half, took five shots from mid-court and made all five of them count.

S/Sgt. Mel Vice, wearing a brace on his injured leg, was held to six points during the first half that he played.

Sgt. Marty Joyce, former star at Youngstown College in Ohio, led the scoring for the visitors with eight points. The Rattlers, who have won two and lost six games this season, were hampered by the loss of Sgt. Bill Hogan, ex-player at CCNY, who was injured recently.

Missing from the Bombardier lineup was Capt. Floyd B. Burdette, who is on temporary duty at Randolph Field. During his absence the team is being coached by Lt. Joseph Mariana.

The Bombardiers return to action at the post gym Friday night when they entertain a strong five from Concho Field of San Angelo at 8:15 p. m.

In a thriller preliminary game between two aviation cadet teams Class 44-48B nosed out 44-52B by a 32-31 score. A/C Willis Biggerstaff, former Iowa high school star, was the sparkplug for the winners.

Max Minor To Vie With Ellsworth For Honors In Army-Navy Battle

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30 (AP)—If anyone pines a touchdown furrow through the newly-sodded landscape of Municipal stadium Saturday for Army or Navy, it's more than an even bet he'll be from south of the Mason-Dixon line.

For the eleven from West Point and Annapolis are banking on the ball-toters from Dixie in their climatic contest, on the outcome of which Army's national championship hopes are dangling. Bob Jenkins, Navy's plunging-passing - punting paragon, may not be able to toe the starting line — the toe being infected — but even with the No. 1 Middle threat on the sidelines the Annapolis aggregation will present plenty of pigskin talent from the sunny southland.

Up there in the first two backfields for Navy will be such luminaries as Bill Barron of Lewisburg, Tenn.; Fred Earley of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Ralph Ellsworth of San Antonio, Tex.; Clyde Scott of Smackover, Ark.; and Bruce Smith of Miami, Fla. Jenkins, if he goes, won't hurt the southern cause a bit, for he's from Talladega, Ala.

Army's top threats in the touchdown category include Fells Blanchard of Bishopville, S. C.; Bobby Dobbs of Frederick, Okla.; Dale Hall of Parsons, Kan.; Ed Kenna of Jackson, Miss.; Capt. Tom Lombardo of St. Louis, Mo.; Johnny Minor of Tahoka, Tex., and Arnold Tucker of Miami, Fla.

Lamar Downs Milby 6-0 To Take Title In Houston League

The famed Turkey Day classic at Austin will be just a lot of noise on the radio to red-hot football fans of Paris and Greenville as high school teams of those two cities meet at Greenville today for the championship of District 3.

It will be the only Texas district championship game to be played on Thanksgiving Day. Last night Lamar Redskins of Houston scored in the third quarter to win a 6-0 victory over the Milby Buffaloes, also of Houston, to clinch an undisputed first place in Houston's District 13.

Lamar will meet the Port Arthur Yellowjackets, winners of District 14, in the bi-district tilt to be played at Port Arthur Dec. 9. A flip of a coin decided the site of the bi-district game yesterday. The home team won the privilege of setting the time of the game, and Port Arthur chose to play in the afternoon. The game will start at 3:15 p. m.

Four other titles go on the line tomorrow. San Angelo will play Sweetwater at Sweetwater for the District 3 title. San Angelo can win the title with either a victory or a tie. A defeat would tie them with Abilene and a district committee would have to settle the puzzle of who's champ.

Highland Park (Dallas) will go to Sulphur Springs Friday. Here, also, a tie or victory would give the championship to the Dallas team, but a loss might give Sulphur Springs the title. A loss would make the two teams co-champions, and by virtue of having beaten Highland Park, Sulphur Springs would be awarded the championship.

Biggest Battle In Hollywood Enters Courtroom Finals

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30 (AP)—The story of one of Hollywood's best battles of 1944, the bout between handleader Tommy Dorsey and movie Romeo Jon Hall, was to be unfolded today for a jury trying Tommy, his good-looking wife and his friend, Allen Smiley, on felonious assault charges.

There are going to be several versions of the fracas. A tall and statuesque blonde singer, Miss Jane Churchill of Kansas City, Mo., was ready to present the first. She went to a party celebrating Mrs. Dorsey's 26th birthday last Aug. 4.

About 3 o'clock the following morning the fight broke out. Miss Churchill told a grand jury that indicted the Dorseys and Smiley that she and Tommy's wife, Pat Dane, had a torrid battle of their own.

Inside Government Officials Try To Make Official Write As Humans

(Editor's Note: This is the second of two stories on efforts being made inside government to get clear and simple English written.)

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Government officials ask: Are government workers people?

Then they say: "Yes, even though we often don't seem so when we write."

"We are usually normal when we talk but put a pencil in our hand or a stenographer at our side and a mysterious change takes place. Some claim that the flesh turns to stone and the blood to ice water."

So these officials—of the Social Security board—have started a campaign for better, simpler, clearer writing by people working for SS.

They have a slogan: "Let's write the way we talk—let's be human."

The officials make these suggestions:

1. Cut off unessential words and phrases.

Don't say "You are advised that the schedule should be sent directly to the office as quickly as possible."

But say "The schedule should be sent to this office promptly."

2. Substitute a word for a phrase.
3. Avoid repetition.

Don't say "This will enable the states to get started sooner than if they wait until some later date."

But say "This will enable the states to get started sooner."

Anyone wishing copies of instructions compiled by SS officials can get them for the asking. Write to: The Training Division, Social Security Board, Washington, D. C.

The pictures vividly portray the equipment and ordnance which bond dollars buy as well as the heroic part servicemen are playing in the war. Several other bond displays are in store windows, among them a $25 loaf of bread (if inflation came) at Shaw's, displays at the Record Shop, McCrory's, Wacker's, Woolworth's, Franklin's, and a striking prisoner of war display at A. Air Student Now Heroine Of Wreck

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 30 (AP)—Pretty Peggy Parsley, 22-year-old art student, is a heroine today at Douglas Airport where she is an airline agent but she modestly protests "I didn't do a thing, really I didn't."

All she did was start a sequence of events yesterday that halted a speeding passenger train from smashing into a Flying Fortress that had crashed onto the tracks near the airport, trapping five flyers in the wreckage.

"I just heard someone say get a red flag," Miss Parsley explained. "We didn't have any red flags so I did the next best thing."

"The next best thing" was to stuff a broom in the airport guard-house stove and set it alight for use as a torch to flag the train which she could hear approaching around a bend.

"I didn't halt the train. I handed the broom to a man (a railroad workman) standing there." The man ran down the track waving the flaming broom.

The Morris Field public relations office said the fortress which overshot a landing strip in foggy weather, was based at McDill Field, Fla.

Engineer J. C. Milton said that when the train stopped "there wasn't room for the thickness of my finger between my train and that plane."

Members of the plane crew were not injured when their big craft came to a stop on the railroad tracks.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Ever hear of people who wanted to give away money? ... That's getting to be a hot subject in minor league baseball and one which will be argued over again at next week's Buffalo convention.

Last year the Southern association asked that class A-1 leagues be allowed the privilege of paying bonuses to players other than first-year men. ... Leagues of lower classification asked to be declared in and the whole business was voted down. ... This year the Southern is trying a new tack by asking the right to pay bonuses for signing players coming out of the armed forces and the Atlanta club proposes giving the player his choice between a cash bonus and ten per cent of the price when he is sold into a higher class.

First stringers—When three members of the Pampa, Tex., high school football team received a call from their draft board to report Nov. 30 it called for some fast work by the coach. ... Nov. 30 is Thanksgiving in Texas and the day of Pampa's big game. ... So the coach pulled some strings to keep strings on his first stringers and by promising to deliver the boys to the Oklahoma City induction station in time for their examinations, he was allowed to keep them for the game.

Shorts and shells—Capt. Al Frazin, former Madison Square Garden announcer and publicist, has been added to Col. Esly Clark's staff in the Army's athletic branch of the special services division. ... Gunder Haegg will make up the salary he loses as a necktie salesman by corresponding for a Swedish newspaper during his United States visit. ... Wonder if that comes under the rule about capitalizing on athletic fame?

Service dept.—Although the Norfolk naval station basketball team lost such players as Matt Zunic, Ralph Bishop and Bill Strannigan since last season, the new coach, Lt. Bill Stobbs, can call on John Norlander, Don Smith, Bob Gant, Albie Ingerman and a lot of others for the opener against the Camp Shelton armed guard school tomorrow so don't expect the blue-jackets to lose many games. ... If you think it's been hard to pronounce football names this season, how about three long cheers for the Khurramabad Khurrama Badgers of the Persian Gulf conference?

Man Held In Midland With Forged Checks

MIDLAND, Nov. 30—A 20-year-old Detroit, Michigan, man was arrested by police Sunday with two forged checks in his possession.

The man had been working at a Big Spring cafe, and when he left there he stole some of the cafe's imprinted checks, police said. He filled the checks out and attempted to pass one of them at a Midland department store.

The man is wanted in Detroit for bond forfeiture. He has been turned over to county officials.

Spectacular Parachute Jump Seen At Post As Lt. Salvo Gives Show

A spectacular parachute descent from a plane in flight was made over the Big Spring Bombarider School by First Lieut. Joseph D. Salvo yesterday as a demonstration in the parachute-landing training program being conducted at the Post.

Lieut. Salvo, who has been conducting the training program for Flying Officers and Aviation cadets, staged the parachute jump to show students how to manipulate the shrouds in mid-air and how to hit the ground properly to minimize the danger of injury.

Crowds of students and GIs lined the ramp along the flight line, from which vantage point they watched the jump. Lieut. Salvo escaped without injury and veteran combat officers who returned recently from war theaters called the jump flawless.

At 2 p. m. Lieut. Salvo took off in an AT-11 bombing plane with a door removed to facilitate the jump and piloted by Capt. Grover W. Ferguson.

The plane ascended to 8,000 feet, circled the field, then swung into the wind. At the extreme west end of the runways a white silk parachute was seen to open, but attached to it was a dummy that had been released to determine in what direction the 15-mile an hour wind would drive the chute. The dummy landed in the field near Highway 80.

Again the plane circled and swung into position. Suddenly there was the cry: "There he goes!" The chute opened beautifully and Lieut. Salvo started to drift toward the ground. As he approached the ground, a sudden gust of wind caught the chute and sent him hurtling onto the pavement of the north runway.

As his feet struck the concrete he completed a body roll and grabbed the shroud lines to avert being dragged along the ground. In landing he suffered only a skinned knee.

Lieut. Salvo, who completed a parachute landing course at Randolph Field, never before had made a jump. For the 12-weeks training course at AAFBS, he supervised installation of a jump platform, outlined a vigorous physical training program with emphasis on tumbling, and had his students practice ground landings as plane motes churned up wind for the chutes.

The training program was launched here after Army Air Forces officials disclosed that the bulk of accidents in parachute jumps are caused by improper landings.

For the jump Lieut. Salvo wore an emergency chute.

How to Care for Your Stockings

To get the most wear from every pair... pamper them. Here are a few suggestions: Wash them each time you wear them—body acid is hard on them. Use warm water and lots of mild soap—don't rub. Squeeze water gently through hose—rinse thoroughly. Remove excess water by rolling hose in towel—don't ring or twist them. Allow 24 to 48 hours for them to dry before wearing them again.

Please, Take It Easy

Blame it on the war, blame it on the tempo of the times, blame it on a lack of manpower and patrol cars in the police department, blame it on whatever you like—but the unvarnished truth is that too many people in Big Spring are in too great a hurry on public streets.

One of the early blessings of the war was in a compelling realization that war had cut off hope of additional tires, that those we had would not safely stand rough treatment and high speeds, that our automobiles were growing constantly older and therefore liable to more mechanical failures. So we slowed down.

But in recent months, for some unaccountable reason, there has been a tendency to put just a little more pressure on the accelerator. Worst of all, there seems to be something infectious about the habit. Let a few speed and more join them. Pretty soon, the habit is general.

It is true that we are short-handed in the police department and patrol cars are not always available, particularly to cruise about solely with an idea of taming down traffic offenders. Really, this is the least satisfactory way to correct this condition. You ought not to be compelled to do your plain duty.

So, count this as an appeal to your common sense to take it just a little easier, to pull down within the 25 miles limit. It won't take you over a minute longer to go anywhere in the city, and it may mean years more life to someone else. Please, let's slow down.

From The "Best Homes"

Something is lacking in family life, and in education, else there could never be such a condition as has been discovered in Portland, Ore. were shoplifting, the society name for stealing, to the extent of thousands of dollars, has been going on by school girls, some of whom are from what the newspaper reports call "the best homes."

They may be the best homes so far as quality of the buildings are concerned, or best on the basis used by some people, of having large income; but certainly they are not best, nor even good, as a home, else their members would never have been allowed to steal from stores. The good home has parents that are well enough acquainted with the children to know if they are doing wrong things, and to take steps to stop them. The schools perhaps do not stress common personal honesty as strongly as they might . . . It is a disturbing condition, and

Washington— Demos Had Smallest Headquarters

WASHINGTON — Your capital in wartime: The Democrats won this year with the least national headquarters manpower of any recent general election. National headquarters in this campaign had about 250 paid employees. In 1936, for example — the big Roosevelt landslide year — there were nearly three times that.

At this writing, I hadn't been able to find Robert Hannegan, chairman of the Democratic national committee, but Paul Porter, public relations chief for the committee, thinks maybe it's because they had so many other organizations working for them that there was no need for struggling over details as in many previous campaigns. As recently as 1936, the burden of getting out the vote rested mostly on the national committees of the two parties. Since then, several infant organizations devoted wholly to that one purpose have come of age. Probably the one that did the best jobs, the CIO's Political Action Committee, actually mushroomed in less than a year before the convention. And because it supported mainly Democratic candidates, it naturally took much of the burden off the party's national committee.

When those three topflight executives of the War Labor Board (and War Mobilization Director "Jimmy" Byrnes, for that matter) agreed to string along with the President until the war in Europe, at least, is over, a lot of minor manpower executives shucked their insomnia and started snoring more easily.

For a long time now, government little wigs and just plain workers have found it almost impossible to resign from their jobs to go back to private industry, higher salaries and possibly more secure postwar civilian positions. The war manpower rules forbid it.

The fact that key executives could resign, and they couldn't, created a lot of grumbling in the low brackets of federal employment. Now they are quite gleeful over the fact that the President has put the screws on the big wigs to make them string along for at least a portion of the duration.

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

The American Ninth army's fresh drive against the German northern flank, along the flooded valley of the Roer river in the Rhineland, strengthens the belief that another big Allied push in this vital zone is imminent.

One suspects that this was the subject of the mysterious conference Tuesday night "somewhere in Belgium" between General Eisenhower and Field Marshal Montgomery, commanding the 21st army group in the north.

If the present push does develop into a full-fledged offensive it likely will be calculated to turn the Nazi flank, compelling the Hitlerites to fall back from the Roer and accept battle in the open plain west of the Cologne-Dusseldorf sector of the Rhine. The grim purpose of these tactics is to force Nazi Field Marshal von Rundstedt's armies up against the Rhine and annihilate them.

That's the main business of the Allied command right now—to kill or capture German soldiers. Hitler's fighting machine must be smashed. Territorial gains are secondary and will take care of themselves later. We mustn't forget that the developing battle of the Cologne plain probably is the decisive engagement.

Von Rundstedt himself has invited these tactics by electing to defend the Cologne plain to the last ditch. With this in view he has massed in this area all the troops he can rake up.

Why should the Nazi commander take such chances? Because the Ruhr manufacturing area which lies behind the Rhine opposite the Allied northern flank, is vastly more important than the Saar. Without it the reich couldn't carry on.

General Duffy Dies In Dublin At 52

Hal Boyle: First Look At London Is Distinct Shock To Writer

By CHARLES FOLTZ, JR. (Substituting for Hal Boyle) LONDON, Nov. 22 (Delayed AP)—Since 1939 I've heard and read of people at war in Switzerland, the Balkans and in Portugal. Until now I have never been in one of the United Nations at war. I've just left Spain, where the story of free men fighting was once almost submerged by German propaganda. For an American out of Europe, the first look at London is a shock.

We stepped off the Madrid plane, into an assembly line of swift movement. White bread and good beer and hot food and warmth were found on the train and there was not a single stop from the airport to London. Porters—yes, porters—were at the station. Phone calls, tuppenny each, confirm hotel reservations made by the airfield officials.

Hollywood— 'Why Are There So Many Bad Pictures'?

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — Dore Schary is a tall, black-haired young man who found the answer to that oft-heard query, "Why does Hollywood make so many bad pictures?"

And he did something about it, so successfully that he lifted many "B" (for bad) pictures out of their rut at one studio and lifted himself with them. Ten years ago he was a junior writer (making about $100 a week which is small change for screenwriters) at Columbia. He thought he was getting nowhere, picking away at the B's to which new writers generally are assigned. So he began thinking up ways to give "B" pictures—"A" ideas.

His corrective scheme: to call on good writers, offer them opportunity for experimentation and ideas, and enlist their full enthusiasm. Results: "Joe Smith, American," made in 19 days for $108,000, "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," similarly small-budgeted. By the time Schary and company had reached "Journey for Margaret" ($410,000), "Lost Angel" and "Lassie Come Home" their "B's" were being regarded as "A's" and so budgeted.

Matter Of Regent Selection Gets Into 'Reactionaries' And 'Liberals'

(Third of a Series) By PAUL BOLTON Herald Austin Correspondent

AUSTIN, Nov. 30—What kind of a person would make an ideal regent for the University of Texas, or any other state school? A group interested in restoring the University of Texas' prestige after the current storm has passed have found that any practical answer to this question is their thorniest problem.

And in exploring the problem they found it full of political and social equations. You can find some who have watched the unfolding of the university fight bold enough to say that its beginnings may be traced back four years when a substantial group of Texans broke away from the democratic party.

These political implications (regardless of whether true) become one of the points at issue which the senate investigating committee headed by Penrose Metcalf will find it difficult to set down in black and white when the committee comes to write its report.

Sponsors of this view cite this circumstantial evidence. The "new deal" democratic party is accused of harboring communistic tendencies. The university was accused of harboring communistic tendencies.

Doctor Rainey found it incumbent to deny not only that he had ever held a job in the new deal. He also denied that he was a communist. The new deal is accused of stirring racial troubles by flouting southern tradition. Dr. Rainey's attitudes on the negro question occupied a good part of his and regent Frank Strickland's testimony.

Any discussion between the "liberal" wing of the democrats on the one hand, and the "conservative" or "Jeffersonian" wing on the other, has a tendency to wind up by liberal use of the words "communist" and "fascist." Certainly the witnesses on Doctor Rainey's side of the case have accused the regents of being reactionary, as witness the testimony of Frank Dobie the writer: "A certain element of capitalists which walk around with eyes in the back of their heads because they're afraid to face the future." And Karl Hohltzelle, dragged willy-nilly into the controversy, found it necessary to deny his reactionary-ism and reaffirm his liberalism.

Considering these facts, the group of ex-students which have been taking a most active interest in the affair seriously hope that feeling will be less strong now that the national election is behind us. At least, they say, it should not further complicate the already complicated situation.

All of this points up to the obvious in an immediately prospective problem. The qualifications of a man who directs the affairs of any educational institution are intangibles such as his attitude of mind and his outlook on life, economics and politics in general. That inevitably leads back to the appointing official, presuming that a governor will name to office men with whom he's pretty much in harmony on those very intangibles which govern the disposition of a man and his probable reaction to any given set of circumstances.

By this perhaps devious chain of thought, some of the ex-student group are impelled to believe their course must be—to get men into their school with probable reactions similar to their own—to influence the selection of the appointing agency.

More bluntly stated, they've got to take an interest in politics and the election of governors and legislators.

Time was when the ex-students did constitute a political power. But the war, the cleavage over national politics, the preoccupation of individuals with personal affairs, have served to disintegrate whatever there was of concerted action. Today they face a decision which has unmistakable political implications, which will be discussed in the next of this series.

Boundary Dispute May Be Settled Amicably

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 29 (AP)—Deputy Manuel Moreno Sanchez issued a statement to the press yesterday in which he expressed the opinion that the Chamizal boundary dispute between Mexico and the United States might be settled "on a basis of just compensation without detriment to the sovereignty of Mexico."

The Chamizal case was clearly decided in favor of Mexico by a ruling was previously accepted by both sides to the controversy," he said, "but the Mexican constitution provides exceptions for international treaties. Therefore, if a new treaty were signed to cover the Chamizal case, it would be binding as soon as approved by the senate of the republic."

Japs Resent Yanks Climbing In Trees

WITH THE 24TH DIVISION, Leyte, Philippines—(delayed) (AP)—The communications men get it from all sides.

Pvt. Alfred Carlier, Brawley, Calif., a signal corpsman, started stringing wire on palm trees when the Leyte beachhead was "a little larger than a dime," he strung wire all the way across the island.

"By the time I got across I didn't even turn around when a sniper fired," he said.

Signal corpsman Pfc. Arthur C. Smith, Tyler, Tex., opined that Japanese snipers fired on the wire stringers rather than the Doughboys.

"They seemed to resent our climbing their trees," he remarked.

Yank Prisoners Are Treated Humanely

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The house military committee reported today that American prisoners of Germany are, in the main, humanely treated. It said prisoners in Japan proper seem to be faring better than those in Japanese-occupied territories.

And Axis prisoners in the United States, it said, are well treated but not pampered.

The committee's report to the house grew out of the complaints which Chairman May (D-Ky.) said indicated laxity in the handling of German and Italian prisoners, especially the latter.

Committee investigators who made first-hand inquiries in prison camps throughout the country reported no evidence of too-lenient treatment of inmates. They did relate reports that in many cases prisoners received better attention and more privileges than United States soldiers.

American prisoners of Germany receive good medical care, the committee said.

Although Japan did not ratify the Geneva convention, the committee said, "it has undertaken to apply, with some modifications, the provisions of the convention to war prisoners and American civilian internees 'insofar as its provisions are adaptable.'"

The committee said Swiss representatives confirmed reports that the food given prisoners in Japanese camps is superior to that available to Japanese civilians.

Japs Say America Is "A Barbaric Nation"

By The Associated Press

America, a Japanese propagandist told his countrymen in a broadcast today, "is a barbaric nation unparalleled in the world."

The propagandist, Goro Nakano, former New York correspondent of the Tokyo newspaper Asahi, said he "stripped the mask of justice and humanity" from "the enemy-Americans" to inspire a "feeling of hatred toward the American people."

In the broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, he cited evidence of American barbarism wrestling matches, blackface comedians, plays like "Tobacco Road," and actresses selling kisses for war bonds.

Nakano said he was "amazed at the bloody barbarity" of wrestling in America where "huge and horrible looking monsters" are imported from distant lands and pitted against "good-looking athletic American youths. In the end, the good-looking youth completely defeats the monster who looks like a ghost, carrying out a cruel revenge."

Canadian Crisis Nearing Solution

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (AP)—The parliamentary phase of Canada's conscription crisis approached solution today, with Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King's government apparently saved from overthrow, but rebellious draftee troops resisting dispatch to the western front kept the nation tense.

The King government appeared definitely out of danger of defeat after the former defense minister, Col. R. L. Ralston, told parliament last night he would support the government's motion of confidence, to be voted on late this week or early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Selby of Dallas visited over night with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Donaldson. They are enroute to El Paso.

Congregation Hears Chappell Discuss Position In Life

Lot and Abraham, both religious men, were as different as day and night because of the direction of their lives, Dr. Clovis Chappell told a growing audience at the First Baptist church Wednesday evening in the fourth of the series of special worship services under sponsorship of the Big Spring Pastors association.

"It's not where you are today in your life that counts, but the direction in which you are going," declared Dr. Chappell. Sinners are temporary in intentions, he added, but the direction is dangerous and frequently fatal. Those who do not make their religious life the most important thing are "dwelling in the suburbs of Christian happiness," he said. His sermon was climaxed by an appeal for lives so positive that "people know where you stand."

In his Thanksgiving message Thursday morning, Dr. Chappell declared that people are not grateful enough for the things that they have. He stated that too many people are collectors of grudges and forget the good things that are done for them.

"Most people are too conceited," he said. "A person can always tell about another person by the things he thinks." They take too many things for granted and have no appreciation for the things they have. Another evidence of ingratitude which Dr. Chappell pointed out is that there are too many people too much in the habit of seeing what they missed to see what they have.

"When most people finally realize that they have something to be grateful for," he concluded, "they fail to express their appreciation. Tell folks you appreciate the things they do for you."

Services are held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. with prayer services at 7 p. m. at the First Baptist church.

Icy Temperatures Invade Panhandle

By The Associated Press

Icy temperatures enveloped the Texas Panhandle today (Thursday) and slowly spread over the state.

Lowest recording was 15 degrees at Pampa. West, central and east Texas temperatures ranged in the low 30's, many below freezing and were falling. Still comparatively warm was the lower Rio Grande valley where Brownsville reported a maximum of 44 degrees.

The Panhandle bore the brunt of a cold front moving from the north and slanting across a narrow ridge of Texas to Houston, which had a low 33. Nearby Galveston reported 43.

Amarillo and Clarendon were at the season's low of 16. Dalhart had 17. In West Texas, Abilene reported 34, San Angelo 31 and Lubbock 24. Wichita Falls recorded 29 and Texarkana 31.

Other temperatures reported by the U. S. weather bureau at Love Field, Dallas, were Gainesville 30, Dallas 34, San Antonio 31, Waco 34, Alice 36 and Laredo 43.

Crop Insurance Plan Is Rejected

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—A proposed experiment with free government crop insurance was rejected today by the senate agriculture committee which approved instead a system of incentive payments to induce farmers to plant more flax in 1945.

Chairman Thomas (D-Okla.) said the committee turned down the free insurance idea in an executive session "because we did not want to set a precedent that would lead to similar free insurance demands for other crops."

Roving Congressmen Battle For Publicity

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce and the male members of the roving house military committee are feuding over publicity.

Several of the battlefront-bound lawmakers are annoyed because the Connecticut republican—in point of service the committee's "freshman"—has received most headlines since their tour began.

The situation wasn't improved yesterday.

Independently, Mrs. Luce sallied forth on a short flight in a Fortress while her male colleagues remained grounded, plodding through the mud in an inspection of three air bases.

She rejoined the party several hours later in time to welcome home some bombers from their mission to Germany.

Rep. Mait Merritt (D-NY), acting chairman, said he had nothing to do with the flight—that he wasn't consulted.

"I thought," observed another representative, "that we were going to stick together on this trip. Maybe we've got two investigations here, one for Mrs. Luce and one for the rest of the committee."

Texas Highway Grant Is Passed By House

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The annual Texas allocation in the $1,673,000,000 federal postwar highways program passed yesterday by the house would approximate $30,000,000.

Adopted by a voice vote, the bill is generally similar to legislation passed by the senate. It cannot go to the president until the two branches agree on specific terms.

Included in construction contemplated in the house bill are scenic drives in the Big Bend National Park of Texas and a 60-mile road linking the park with U.S. Highway No. 90 at Alpine.

Rep. Thomason (D-Tex.) said the measure contained a lump sum of $12,750,000 for building approach roads to national parks, and that another section of the bill provided for roads within parks.

Somervell Summoned Before House Group

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The man who controls the Army's supply lines was called to Capitol Hill today to tell about the reportedly hampering lack of ammunition.

Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, head of the army service forces, was called to testify before the house military committee, Chairman May (D-Ky.) said, because:

"There have been reports that General Patton's advance toward Germany was stopped for two full days because he ran out of ammunition.
