Conservation Program Plans Are Completed County Grain Loans Above Million Figures released by Joe Camp, se-

by Agent Ollie Liner, following a meeting of county supervisors and district SCS workers, held at the courthouse on Wednesday of last week.

The county outline must now pass approval at the Temple state office, the regional Fort Worth office, and the final Washington, D. C., higherups, Liner said.

Stressing the fact that the wishes of the farmers of the county had Liner went on to say that cooperation by individual farmers is strictly voluntary. No money is offered for carrying out conservation practices, but neither is any charge made for the technical work offered by SCS personnel.

The supervisors agreed last Wednesday to locate the county's office at the Friona Legion Hall, when the final approval comes through, and hopes are high that personnel will be the year.

that the winter season brings its lan Building, Dallas, Tex. quota of "winter complaints" from which young children must be carefully protected.

In stressing this important fact, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health officer, says: "Certain winter diseases are just as harmful and just as likely to make their appearance as summer ailments, unless children are safeguarded against them."

In the group of winter health hazards, Dr. Cox included influenza, colds, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and diphtheria when no immunization has been given.

Any such disease affecting the respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and in many cases it is fatal. Pneumonia develops from a neglected cold, or may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchial conditions may also prove to be an after effect of these diseases, and certainly these respiratory illnesses are much more difficult to combat than the digestive disturbances commonly called summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," he said. "Nearly all of them are spread from the secretions of the nose and mouth. Children not in good health are naturally more susceptible than those who are stronger, and the first line of defense is to keep the child's resistance built up to the highest possible point; the second is to keep him under competent medical supervision, and the third is to make sure that they avoid contact with persons who have coughs or colds."

Who Preserves Foods at Home -Preserve Foods by Freezing

it's easier, quicker—results are better

Freezing foods is simple. It's the easiest way of preserving . . . requires half the time, half the effort. There are only seven steps to follow for freezing . . . fourteen for canning.

With a Deepfreeze home freezer, you no longer spend long tiresome hours over a hot stove, or go through the drudgery of washing and sterilizing jars. You save time, work, food and money.

Freezing is nature's way of preserving foods. It seals in all the quality, flavor and food value . . . it retains the appearance, texture and color of the choice fruits and vegetables you grow or buy. And it keeps them SAFE from food spoilage.

The Journal of the American Dietetics Association (June issue, 1948), Cornell University, states that no case of food poisoning from frozen foods has ever been reported.

You Can't Monkey with Texans!

Joe Stalin can tell the Russians what to think. But if anybody tried that in Texas they'd ship the body back home.

These Texans get their facts from their newspapers. They do their own deciding. And, they'll pull a shootin' iron to protect the other fellow's right to disagree.

Texico Cage Squads

'The Rosedale squads took a clean sweep over the visiting Texico cagesters, last Friday night, downing the local boys 22-19 and soundly defeating the Texico girls, 27-18, coaches at Texico reported today.

Coach C. E. Sanders, who heads the boys' activities, said that a number of his boys were on the sick list, with the result that their playing was not up to par, although the con-
