FROM THE HOPPER

Bowden Darr had such good luck on his recent hunting trip to Colorado that he had a horrible nightmare after he returned home. Bowden says that he thought a bear was chasing him, and when his father came into his room to see about the commotion, Bowden was climbing up a chest of drawers as though it were a tree. He suffered slight lacerations on his bare feet as he attempted to get away from the charging bear.

Our thanks go to Beale Stewart, Texico 4-H clubber, for a pound of fresh home-made butter, the product of his choice Jersey cow, which is his project. During late months, the editor's family table has been served with oleo, and we had about decided that it was a fair substitute for butter. But it is doubtful now whether we will be able to take oleo any more.

Lavoyda Billington, six-grade student, approached her father in his barber shop and solicited his aid in helping her with her lessons for the next day. The father shoved her away on the pretense that he was too busy just at that time. A chorus of barber shop loafers joined in asking him why didn't he tell his child the truth . . . that he didn't know the answer to her questions.

We got quite a bit of reaction to our article appearing in last week's paper, suggesting that the people of Texas should vote for Jack Porter, the Republican candidate for U. S. Senator. We still believe that Johnson did not receive a majority of the votes in the second primary, and therefore, is not the nominee of the Democratic party. It is being conceded on almost every hand that we are to have a Republican administration in Washington for the next four years, and it is our contention that a Republican senator from Texas would be in a better position to serve the state than a Democrat whose nomination is to be the subject of a senatorial investigation. I furthermore am of the opinion that should Johnson be elected, he will not be seated. When we recall the events that took place at the so-called Democratic convention at Fort Worth, when duly elected delegates were thrown out and brass collar henchmen seated in their stead, it is high time we begin to clean house in the Democratic party and show them that we are not going to stand for Gestapo procedure.

Farm Tools And Shop Equipment Feature Large Farm Sale

The M. E. Heady public farm sale, which is being handled by Col. Dick Doshier and Orval Francis of this city, will take place on Tuesday November 9, starting at 10 a. m. The location is 6 miles west of Lazbuddy. An exceptionally large collection of first class farming implements and an equally large assortment of blacksmithing tools will feature the sale. A number of miscellaneous items, some household goods, poultry and feed, make up the remainder of the list. The Baptist ladies of Lazbuddy will serve lunch at noon, and there will be plenty of free coffee.

Champion Berkshire Is Purchased By Geries

Herman Geries, a Farwell FFA member, this week purchased the junior champion Berkshire boar of the Texas State Fair, buying the animal from A. D. Wenzel, of Brownfield. Geries selected the animal approximately a month ago, but was unable to complete the deal until the boar was shown at Dallas in the state competition.

In addition, Robert Morton, local ag instructor, has purchased a gilt which was a litter mate to the junior champion gilt of the same breed. Nickie Foster, of the Farwell FFA, is ordering a young Duroc boar from the Mississippi Breeding Association. These hogs are being purchased to improve local breeding animals. The swine project is one in which the FFA boys have done extensive work during the past several years.

Steers Rest Up Before Contest With Amherst

The Farwell Steers, who have run through seven consecutive grid contests this year with only one defeat to mar their record, are taking a breather this week, preparatory to their meeting with Amherst on November 5th, on the local gridiron. Both Coach Louis Purvis and the players are admittedly glad of an open weekend, with Coach Purvis explaining that several members of the team had sustained minor injuries and bruises, and "we'll be glad of a chance to recuperate before starting the last round of the season."

Terry, who sustained an injured ankle in the Vega game two weeks ago, was still out of action Friday night at Tahoka, but it is expected that with an extra week to rest, he will be back on the field against the Amherst eleven. Pool also got a banged up leg in the Vega game and was not up to par last weekend, while Holland was sporting a trick knee that gave him trouble. Grid workouts will be fairly light this week, with the boys settling back down to heavy practice the first of next week.

Lazbuddy Voters Will Go To Polls, Nov. 3

Voters in Subdivision 5 of the Farmer County Soil Conservation Service—Lazbuddy—are reminded of a special election to be held in their community next Wednesday, November 3rd, at which time they are to elect a supervisor for the SCS division for another year.

County Agent Ollie Linder stated that the election, to be held at 2:30 p. m. in the school, would be convention style, and urged all farmers of the area to take part in the balloting, in order that they might express their preference in choosing a supervisor.

Absentee Voting Will Close on Oct. 29th

Persons who will be out of their residence areas on November 2nd, the date of the coming general election, were reminded today by County Clerk Loyde A. Brewer that they have little time left in which to cast absentee ballots. So far, very few absentees have been cast at the local office, it was reported. The deadline is closing time on Friday, October 29th.

Campaigns Intensify In Bid For Votes

School Carnival Attractions Arranged

With sixteen booths at which they may be fed or entertained, the fun-loving public is guaranteed a big evening Friday, when the annual Halloween carnival is held at the auditorium of the Farwell school.

Supt. Jack Williams announced on Tuesday that all types of typical Halloween pranks and carnival stunts were being planned, with the yearly coronation festivities as the finale of the evening.

The doors to the carnival will open at 7:30, with no admission being assessed. Up to 8:40, reports on the progress of the queen candidates will be posted every 15 minutes, with the deadline for voting being set at 9 p. m., promptly. After 8:40, no announcement will be made until the crowning ceremonies actually get underway.

All booths are slated to close by 9:15, after which the floors will be cleared in preparation for the entrance of the King and Queen and their royal attendance, starting at 9:30. Both grade and high school sovereigns will be crowned.

Up to Tuesday, no report had been made on the progress of the races, with the various sponsors declining to issue any statements regarding the number of votes on hand for the respective candidates, Supt. Williams said.

PTA patrons who wish to donate pies to the PTA booth at the carnival, and who do not have time to make the pastries, are advised that the local junior class is taking on the pie-baking chore. Contact any member of the junior class at the school, not later than 10 o'clock Friday morning to place orders.

School will be dismissed at 12:30 Friday noon, in order that the sponsors and teachers may wind up the last-minute details for the carnival.

Fortune Smiles, On Big Game Hunters

A party of four hunters, upon whom fortune smiled, returned home last week from a very successful hunt up in Colorado, 30 miles northwest of Durango.

Three elk, two deer, and one bear made up the collection of game the locals brought in, with high honors going to Bowden Darr, of Farwell. Darr got a yearling cow elk and a 10-point deer.

Others in the party did not fare so well, but each of them succeeded in bringing home some meat. Jess Hicks bagged a 10-point deer, while his brother, Essie Hicks of Plainview, downed a cow elk and a small brown bear. Lester Norton brought in only one carcass, but it was the prize of the hunt, a bull elk.

J-A Grain Elevator Nears Completion

The new grain elevator being erected at Lariat by John Aldridge, of this city, and Buddy Jones, of Lariat, is nearing completion and will probably be ready to receive grain by early next week.

Built primarily to handle their own grain, Aldridge and Jones have announced that the elevator will be operated by C. M. Henderson of this city. The plant is something new in this region, being built of interlocking concrete blocks. Five large upright tanks, all connected with chutes, make up the elevator.

It will be operated under the name of the J-A Grain Company of Lariat.

Democratic Rally In Texico Draws Crowd

A fairly good turn-out greeted the speakers who appeared at the Texico high school auditorium last Wednesday night in the interest of the Democratic cause.

The meeting was presided over by Precinct Chairman W. J. Matthews, and among those present were A. W. Skarda, State Chairman, and Max Meadors, County Chairman. Talks in the interest of the state and national Democratic ticket were made.

Music was furnished by the Joy Boys.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Raymond Martin was removed to her home here on Monday, following a major operation she underwent in a Clovis hospital some few days ago. She was reported to be getting along nicely.

Redistricting Proposal Important To West

FRANK ELLIOTT OUT

Frank Elliott, father of Mrs. John Armstrong, who has been doing meat cutting at the Les Means locker the past several weeks, was able to be out again last weekend, following an emergency operation two weeks ago. He was rushed to a Clovis hospital, following an acute attack of strangulated hernia.

Former Citizen Hurt In Fall From Barn

Rupert Paul, former Texico farmer who now lives near Carthage, Mo., sustained a broken arm and a fractured leg in a fall from the top of a barn on his farm. The accident occurred Monday morning, according to information received here.

Mrs. Dorothy Hallman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul, who had been here a week visiting friends and relatives, was called home by the misfortune of her father.

The Pauls formerly lived west of Texico, where he had extensive farming interests. He disposed of a large share of his interests and moved to Missouri a few years ago.

Seeking More Roads For Parmer County

County Judge A. D. Smith and County Commissioners C. L. Calaway, W. S. Menefee, and T. E. Levy have made an appointment with the State Highway Commission at Austin on Friday, October 29, where the Parmer County group will seek additional farm to market roads in the county during the coming year.

The 10-mile extension from Oklahoma Lane east on the newly constructed farm to market project has been agreed upon as the first project for the coming year. Next in line to be pushed is a road from Oklahoma Lane through Bovina north to the Rhea settlement. Judge Smith said that it was his understanding that additional federal funds were to be available during 1949, "and we want to get our bid in early for more roads in this county," he added.

Light Cotton Season For Lariat Gin

With the cotton gathering season fairly well along, the Lariat Gin had handled slightly less than 700 bales up to late Monday afternoon, and indications are that the receipts will be light during the year.

Guy Nickle, sole owner and operator of the gin, had made plans for a big season this year by installing much new equipment and otherwise improving the plant. Unfavorable dry weather right at the critical part of the summer reduced the cotton yield, with only a few fields of dry land cotton turning out favorably.

Most of the ginnings are coming from irrigated fields in the Lariat and West Camp regions.

COURT HAS LIGHT DAY

The Parmer County Commissioners Court, meeting here Monday, had a light day of business, an examination of the minutes reveal. Aside from approving the current bills, the Court reappointed Dan Ethridge of Friona as Parmer County Director of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority, to conclude the day's business.

TO CHICAGO

H. Y. Overstreet, resident representative of the Capitol Freehold Land Trust, left Monday for Chicago, where he will spend a few days attending business in connection with the firm, whose principal office is located in the Windy City.

NEW CHAIRS INSTALLED

Sterlyn Billington has installed two new barber chairs at his tonsorial parlor in Farwell. They are the products of the Koken company and represent the very latest design.

Regardless of which party wins November 2 election, Texas voters will chalk up another first in the state's political history, according to John Ben Shepperd, chairman of the non-political Texas Committee for Redistricting.

"For the first time, Texans are being given the opportunity to vote for automatic redistricting," Shepperd pointed out. "Constitutional Amendment Two, which provides for state-wide redistricting, has been hailed as one of the most important amendments ever submitted to the voters."

Shepperd predicted overwhelming voter approval for Constitutional Amendment 2 which will replace the present antiquated system of apportionment under which many sections of Texas are denied fair representation in the State Legislature.

Under the Amendment, a board is provided to redistrict the state according to population after every Federal census if the Legislature fails to do so.

"Amendment Two assures fair representation for all Texans in the Legislature," Shepperd declared, and added, "Therefore, it deserves the support of ever fair-minded Texan at the polls on November 2."

Action Delayed On Brass Collar Deal

"We haven't done a thing about it" Democratic County Chairman, G. D. Anderson said today when asked what action had been taken regarding the brass collar demand made upon all members of the Democratic Central Committee by the State Democratic Executive Committee, wherein the members of the county committee were required to sign pledges to support the Democratic nominees or be purged from the party.

Anderson said that due to the fact that some of the members of the Central Committee were "out of pocket" he had not had an opportunity to contact all of them. He added, however, that those whom he had been able to contact had readily declined to sign the pledge. When the pledge sheets were submitted some weeks ago, it was stipulated that they should be signed and returned within a week.

Holiday Calendar Is Set For Farwell

Holiday dates for the Farwell school were determined at a meeting of the school's official body, Monday night, Supt. Jack Williams reported, and in addition, dates for plays, tournaments and mid-term examinations were set.

First on the list of coming events is the Halloween carnival, which occurs on Friday night of this week, October 29th.

The junior class play will be presented on November 19th, and Thanksgiving holidays will be observed at the school on November 25-26.

The annual invitation basketball tournament will be held in the gymnasium on December 16-17-18, and the school Christmas program is slated for the night of December 23rd, with the Christmas holidays extending from December 24 through January 2nd.

Mid-term examinations will be held at the school on January 12-13-14, and other spring events will be slated following the mid-term, Williams added.

NAMED AS RED CROSS STUDENT WORKER

Howard Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham of this city, and a student at McMurry college in Abilene, has been chosen as the McMurry college student representative of the Taylor County Red Cross chapter.

According to a new plan, college and university Red Cross organizations will not be formed, but students will be allowed benefits through representatives on county chapters.

As campaigns wax warmer every day on both state and national politics, the fight will culminate next Tuesday when a record number of voters are expected to find their way to the voting polls.

In the last presidential election, only 56% of the qualified voters participated, but this year all concerned are making a determined effort to get out the full voting strength.

With four presidential aspirants shaking the bushes in quest of votes, all indications are that only two who would grace the White House will actually be in the running, Governor Thomas Dewey of New York, is carrying the Republican banner, and President Harry S. Truman is campaigning on the Democratic ticket.

Various polls and press reports from over the nation indicate that Dewey will be elected by heavy odds.

Fight In Texas

In Texas, the spotlight is centered on the U. S. Senatorial race, with Jack Porter, on the Republican ticket, contesting Lyndon Johnson, Democratic nominee. Political observers give Porter a "slim chance" to defeat Johnson. Many staunch Democrats, including the former Governor Coke Stevenson, have bolted the Democratic cause this year in favor of Porter (and the Republican nominee is also having good backing from the State's Righters, who have no senatorial candidate in the race.

Close In New Mexico

The Democrats are slated to sweep the state in the New Mexico contests, but it is agreed that they will have no walk-away.

Bringing the campaign down close to home, Parmer County Democratic nominees have no opposition, and will be swept into office. However, in Curry County, the office of sheriff is being contested with incumbent Bill Collins drawing an opponent in a lady contender.

Both Texas and New Mexico are submitting proposed constitutional amendments this year, which will give the voters additional worry as they enter the polling places to cast their votes.

WTCC Favors All 8 Con. Amendments

ABILENE.—Support of each of the Constitutional Amendments to be voted on at the general election Nov. 2 is recommended by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The organization points out that the amendments are nonpolitical in nature and "will enhance the efficiency and economy of our government."

Two of the amendments have been on the agenda of WTCC for many years and their passage is stressed by Manager D. A. Bandeen. First of these is SJR 2, which occupies second place on the ballot, calling for the redistricting of Texas. This amendment provides that the legislature shall redistrict after each decennial. If this is not done, then an automatic board is set up, and if this board fails to function, it can be mandamused by the supreme court.

"Although West Texas stands to lose some votes in redistricting, there is at present an unbalance in our legislative redistricting which will be corrected," Bandeen said.

The organization also strongly recommends passage of HJR 24, which is No. 7, on the ballot and provides for abolishing the state ad valorem tax and enables counties to levy the tax for local revenue purposes. The measure would permit the counties, which do not at present receive tax remissions, to have the 30 cents for flood control and farm-to-market road purposes.

This would make additional funds available to local governments, which they do not now have.

Hill Property Being Repaired For Use

One of the old Texico landmarks in Texico, which has been vacant the past several years, is undergoing repairs this week in preparation to restore it to use.

The C. W. Hill brick building on main street, which housed the general merchandise business of W. B. Hill for many years, is being replastered on the outside and will be given a coat of white. The interior of the building will also be remodeled.

W. B. Hill, who is here from Glenrose, overseeing the work, said the building would be offered as rental property when the work is complete.

Health Notes
By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN.—From statistics compiled by the State Health Department, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer has disclosed that a lack of proper refrigeration contributes materially to the total distase outbreaks for one year, caused from foods other than milk and milk products.

During the year, there were 299 outbreaks of diseases from contaminated foods, incapacitating 12,526 persons, 17 of whom died.

"The food poisoning was usually caused from contamination through insanitary conditions, infections of food handlers, or of even more significance, lack of early and adequate refrigeration," Dr Cox said. "Even when contaminated, foods will seldom develop toxins sufficient to cause poisoning if properly refrigerated promptly after preparation. Outbreaks caused from foods have totaled nearly six time the number caused from water of milk."

The State Health Officer pointed out that the consuming public is, in many areas, protected by proper enforcement of sanitation standards for eating establishments such as are set up in the United States Public Health Service Milk Ordinance and Code. The public is entitled to a good clean, safe and wholesome food supply, including milk which has been produced under strict sanitary conditions and properly refrigerated. This is a great protection against disease outbreaks caused by contaminated foods of various kinds, and Dr. Cox said this was especially obvious in view of the fact that no disease outbreak has yet been traced to pasteurized grade A milk, which has been adequately refrigerated.

Thank goodness there are still a few people who can radiate friendship and conversation without running for office.

Waldrip Experiments With Hillside Pasture

COLLEGE STATION.—"This is how I thresh grass seed like little bluestem," said Reverend Olen E. Waldrip to Limestone County Agent M. H. Brown, Jr. Reverend Waldrip is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Grosbeck and a Limestone county farmer.

Reverend Waldrip picked up a handful of seed hay and struck it against 20 six-penny nails that were driven in the wall. The downy little bluestem seed were stripped from the stems and settled to the floor when the stems were pulled through the nails.

After threshing a while, he swept up the seed and sacked it. "All this grass came from the park," said Mr. Waldrip. He goes out there every few days, cuts the ripe seed by hand and stacks it in a dry shed. Mr. Waldrip says he plans to use this seed in a reproduction plot next spring, and will put the straw out on the pasture. The straw still contains some seed.

Mr. Waldrip has a badly eroded hillside pasture on his farm that he is experimenting with. This hillside grows bluebonnets, johnsongrass, bur-clover and weeds of all kinds. He has already seeded sweetclover, and plans to improve the grasses as he produces the seed.

Little bluestem is only one of several. Mr. Waldrip now has a plot of subterranean clover, and the seed for an acre of KR bluestem. Last spring with a garden rake he harvested about 100 pounds of spotted bur-clover seed on a vacant lot in town.

"I'm going to build the best pasture in Limestone county," says Mr. Waldrip. And County Agent Brown says he probably will if he keeps up at his present rate.

Because people don't spend enough time making little things grow into big ones, harvesting, testing to local conditions, and multiplying seed, many new grasses have never got into production from the experimental plots.

The excellence of yellow beard-grass has been known in the experimental plots for a quarter of a century, says Robert R. Lancaster, extension pasture specialist of Texas A. and M. College. It needed some one like Brother Waldrip to get it started. Lancaster highly commends Mr. Waldrip's work.

Radio Broadcast Over WTAW, October 30

COLLEGE STATION.—On October 30th, "The American Farmer", a coast to coast radio program, will originate in the studios of WTAW at College Station, from 11:30 a. m. to 12 noon.

"Conservation pays and soil building builds people" will be the theme of the broadcast over the American Broadcasting Company.

R. E. Dickson, superintendent of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Substation at Spur, will tell of 25 years of soil building and soil and water conservation at the Spur substation. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stockton, of Enloe, Delta County, will give their story of soil building and what it has done for their family, their farm and their community as a Farm Unit Demonstration. The Stocktons are farm unit demonstrators under the direction of County Agent L. M. Henley and County Home Demonstration Agent Geraldine Ashford, of Cooper.

Also taking part on the program will be Robert B. White, agricultural public relations director for ABC, D. A. Adam and Frances Arnold, extension radio editors of Texas A. and M. College. Adam and Miss Arnold regularly present the Texas Farm and Home Program and the Texas A. and M. Farm Revue.

Nordyke Has Feature In Holiday Magazine

The Panhandle will be featured in a 4,000-word article in the December issue of Holiday, the third issue of the magazine devoted principally to Texas.

Written by Lewis Nordyke, well-known Amarillo newspaperman, the article traces the regions' colorful history and tells of the vast wealth in its modern oil industry, cattle raising and wheat farming.

The current November Holiday, second in the Texas series, carries five articles on the State, dealing with Austin, San Antonio, the Texas Rangers, the Magic Valley, and one on the state as a whole, written by J. Frank Dobie.

Joe Camp, Secretary

We have just been notified by the State office that Parmer county has an additional $2,000 to be spent on soil building practices during the 1948 program year. Anyone who wants assistance in a conservation practice, i. e., building terraces, is invited to visit us here at the AAA office and we will be glad to help you.

Annual elections in Texas for county and community committees will be held during December and all farmers who have participated in the 1948 Agricultural Conservation, or Sugar Programs, or the Federal Crop Insurance Program are eligible to vote. It might be well for you to be thinking who you want to represent you on these committees for 1949.

Production of Grass Seed Down

Production of brome grass and crested wheat, both important in conservation, is short this year.

The expected crop of brome grass, according to the latest USDA report, will be 5,220,000 pounds, 40 percent below the average 1942-46 crops. Clean seed prices received by growers currently vary from $15 to $16 per cwt.

Crested wheat grass is forecast at 2,070,000 pounds. It is the smallest crop in 7 years, and is less than one-fourth as large as the average production in the 1942-46 period. Prices to growers in commercial areas are ranging from $19 to $20 cwt.

Attention, Farmers

The Secretary of Commerce has appealed to Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan to advise farmers of the great need of scrap iron and steel in order to keep steel mills running to capacity to furnish enough steel required for equipment needed for national security, for industry, farms, and homes.

Secretary Brannan is therefore asking farmers to again help in aiding this drive. Farmers made a wonderful contribution to the scrap drive effort during the war. Farm scrap is particularly desirable because most of it is of iron grade and more valuable than steel scrap. Farmers are particularly interested because of the present high production of farm machinery, fencing, steel roofing, nails, trucks, automobiles, and many other items. One-third of the raw materials going into castings is purchased scrap. Every ton of scrap the farmer sells, when combined with other materials, produces between 3 and 4 tons of new steel. Here are the facts:

(1) This scrap is now in critically short supply.

(2) At the rate of present high production of 88,000,000 tons of steel, there is not nearly enough to meet the needs of our domestic economy, military needs, and ERP.

(3) Scrap materials were drained off closely during World War II causing a shortage of the general flow of such materials to scrap dealers.

Parasites Cost Money Too Warns King

COLLEGE STATION.—Most of the stockmen know there hasn't been much grass in the pastures and on the range this year. There hasn't been enough to feed cattle, so there sure isn't enough to feed the cattle parasites too. But lots of farmers and ranchmen are feeding them, and it's costing an awful lot of money to do so, says C. A. King, associate extension entomologist of Texas A. and M. College.

Cattle that are free of parasites have a better appearance, are healthier and more productive than cattle that have to keep switching flies off, or rubbing against the fencepost to scratch the ticks. Cattle lice and four kinds of ticks are the parasites that bother cattle most in the winter time.

Cattle are bothered by lice more in the winter and early spring when the hair is long, so the best time to treat cattle for lice is the fall of the year. Both rotenone and DDT are good for the control of lousy cattle. If you use rotenone, to treatments two weeks apart will give a good lice control. Here's the recipe: one pound of 5 per cent rotenone and 10 pounds of wettable sulphur for each 100 gallons of water. Or you can use 50 per cent DDT wettable powder to each 100 gallons of water.

Four ticks common to Texas cattle are the Lone Star tick, the spinose ear tick, the Gulf Coast ear tick and the winter tick. All are blood suckers and cause the cattle to lose weight if there are enough ticks.

The Lone Star tick can be controlled by dipping every two weeks, beginning when the first ticks are found and stopping when they are gone. Eight pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT in 100 gallons of water used as a spray or dip is recommended for tick control. The spinose ear tick is a common cattle parasite throughout most of Texas, and can be controlled by treating the ears of livestock with Stock 10291, using a small paint brush. Also it's important to treat all salt, mineral and feed troughs with equal parts of kerosene and lubricating oil.

The Gulf Coast ear ticks are found in a 100 mile area from the coastline along the Gulf of Mexico. A good treatment inside the ear and out with Stock 1037 kills any ticks present and holds them off from three to six weeks. The winter tick is found down around San Antonio. A spray or wash with eight-tenths per cent DDT will get rid of these winter ticks.

Farmers and stockmen will notice better and bigger gain on their livestock if they keep the lice, ticks and mites away, especially during winter months, says King.

Meeting Called Friday To Explain "CROP"

All residents of the county are cordially invited to be at the local courthouse at 10 o'clock on Friday morning, October 29th, at which time a representative of the Texas office will be on hand to explain the "Christian Rural Overseas Program", more commonly known as CROP.

This announcement was made here by County Agent Ollie Liner, who stated that he expected Bennie Gray, in charge of the state CROP office, to be the visitor at the meeting Friday. This program is sponsored by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service and Lutheran World Relief, through which gifts are accepted from American farmers and distributed to the needy overseas. The purpose of the program is to speed rehabilitation, feed the hungry, and build toward a better world.

Especially needed from American producers are whole grains, soy beans, canned and dried meats, dairy products, dairy fruits, nuts, raw cotton and wool. Sponsors point out that CROP supplements government overseas aid by reaching special groups, such as orphans, widows, the deceased, and institutions, including hospitals.

Distribution overseas is handled through church agencies, with competent and experienced administrators, which assures the contributions reaching the people for whom they are intended. No discrimination will be made because of creed or nationality, it was stressed.

Following the meeting here, it is hoped that contribution points will be established, and all residents of Parmer county are urged to hear the program explained.

Predicts Wide Range Of Porter Voters

"Political tradition will be broken in Texas in the general election next Tuesday when Jack Porter, former Democrat, now a candidate on the Republican ticket, is elected to the U. S. Senate," Lloyd Wheelock, state campaign manager, declared today.

"Democrats, Dixiecrats, and other Texans who believe in clean government and honest elections, form the backbone of Porter's strength," said Wheelock.

"Porter's strength is not confined to any one section of Texas or any group of citizens," he said. "It is statewide and comes from people in all walks of life. Texans are convinced that Porter is qualified to fill the high office of U. S. Senator and they have serious doubts about the legality of the Democratic nominee. They also know that Porter will be seated when elected."

Wheelock said that the belief of most Texans that fraud had been committed in several South Texas counties was one of the main factors in the swing to Jack Porter. He cited the overwhelming vote cast in Duval county in favor of Lyndon Johnson as one of the big reasons Texans will break party lines and split the ticket.

Porter, who was born on a farm in Parker county, is a strong advocate of states' rights, protecting the Tidelands for the school children of Texas, the Bill of Rights, and constitutional government. In his campaign he has stated that he will bitterly oppose the FEPC legislation of both Republicans and Democrats and that he will vote his own convictions and not those of any party.

"My first consideration will be whether it is good for my country and state," said Porter.

A private in World War I, Porter came up the American way from a poor boy to a successful businessman. He has been married 31 years, has one son and two grandchildren. He is a member of the Methodist Church.

CHURCH ACTIVITY MEETING CALLED

Rev. Weldon Franks called for a special meeting Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church at 3 p. m.

The church activity program was set up for the current associational year. A well planned program was arranged and the immediate plans will be started off in the enlargement campaign with a Sunday School Training course which was designated to be held beginning November 1, and will run through November 5. This will be climaxed by a city-wide religious census.

Following this it was decided that the fall revival will start with the special services Thanksgiving Day, and will continue through December 5th.

All members of the church are urged by the pastor to participate in these programs and activities. A full years work has been organized which may have to be changed to some extent depending on the prevailing circumstances at the designated time but will go through basically as planned.

Farmers Are Asked For Wayland Donations

PLAINVIEW.—Farmers in this area already are responding to the chance to help Wayland College by donations of cotton or grain, according to an announcement today by Gerald Horton, Wayland student who conceived the plan.

He stated that nearly 3000 letters have gone out to farmers from the students, pastors and other interested people to share the harvest with this Christian college by giving a bale of cotton or a hopper of grain.

Many of the grain elevators in this area have offered a premium of about five cents a hundred pounds for all grain sold in the name of the Wayland College. They can arrange to send the college a check for the grain and also give the name of the donor.

Horton stated that the college could arrange to pick up and carry through the sale of farm produce given Wayland. The proceeds are deductible on income tax payments as gifts to a religious or charitable institution.

Steers Take Surprise Win From Tahoka, 19-20

The Tahoka Bulldogs were served a hair-raising defeat of 19-20 at their home field last Friday night at the hands of the Farwell Steers.

This was another one of those unexpected wins for the home town aggregation, as they were seemingly far outclassed by the Bulldogs, who play ball in an "A" conference. However, it became apparent that the local eleven was not out to make a reputation of the pitiful showing here last week when they were soundly licked by the Vega squad, whom had previously been defeated 12-7.

Thomas Scores All TD's

Warlick Thomas, quarterback and Co-captain of the Steers, capped honors for the game, by pushing the pigskin into enemy territory a total of three times—all of the Farwell touchdowns.

Steers Pull From Behind

Farwell elected to kick, and the hosts made a sustained drive for the first touchdown of the game. The ball was passed for the score. The try at conversion was foiled. It was the only score made in the first quarter, and it ended 6-0, Tahoka.

Early in the second stanza, Thomas went around end for the first count of the game for the Steers. The Steer play of faking a kick and passing to end Don Ford worked again for the extra point. This put Farwell out in front, 7-6. After receiving the kick Tahoka made another sustained drive into the Farwell end of the field, where it seemed apparent that the locals would be able to hold, but the Steers received a penalty for interfering with the pass receiver, and this put the ball on the Steer 6. They rammed over on the next play. The kick was good and the score ran up 13-7 favoring Tahoka.

Don Ford took the Tahoka return kick on the home 25, and made a beautiful run back to the midfield marker. Farwell continued the march to the hosts' 20, and Holland missed a pass in the end zone. Time began to run out, and frantic passes by QB Thomas proved to no avail.

Farwell Deserts Aerial Attack

Farwell deserted its traditional aerial attack and began to roll on the ground, because the star pass receiver, Don Ford, was repeatedly boxed in by the defense, and was unable to get under the passes. Our ground offense took a definite trend for the better, and the Steers steamrolled the length of the field, where Thomas again scored from a quarterback plunge. Booth finally got another extra point and set the score 14-13, in our favor. This ended the third quarter.

Fourth Quarter Proves Hectic

Troy McKillip intercepted a pass over center early in the final period, and set up the last home touchdown. Thomas made the final count by an end sweep, where he ran approximately 25 yards for the score. No conversion.

Determined to even the score, the Tahoka boys received the kick on their ten and completed the length of the field to make the score a hair-raising 19-20. They chose to try to run the extra point, which, if made, would knot the score 20-20. Jerry Pool slipped through the offensive line and knocked the feet out from under the would-be scorer, and Thomas piled him only two feet short of paydirt. Only one minute of play remained, and the home eleven stalled off impending disaster by killing the time with end sweeps.

Texico Girls Second in County Tourney

Losing in the finals to Ranchvale, whom they had previously defeated in seasonal play, the Texico girls were ranked second in the annual Curry county softball tournament, held the past weekend in Clovis.

The girls first met Grady, whom they downed 7-4, but were unable to click in the final match, dropping before Ranchvale to the score of 9-3. Although ousted in their first game -- after having drawn a bye to get past the first round -- the Texico boys game against Rosedale was the talk of the tournament.

Starting off in good style, Texico grabbed a 4-0 lead, which they held through several innings, with Rosedale finally knotting the count. The last regular inning came up with the score still 4-4. Texico, first at bat, slammed in three runs for what looked like a sure win, only to have Rosedale do the same thing, and the count was again tied, 7-7. Three extra innings of play were necessary before Rosedale finally punched over the winning run. Score, 7-8.

The Rosedale team went on to win the championship. Coach C. E. Sanders reported. Trophies were presented to both first and second place teams at the conclusion of play.

ON GRID TEAM

LEXINGTON, Mo.—Cadet Ernest Lokey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lokey, Farwell, is playing on the Company C football team at Wentworth Military academy here this fall. The team, coached by Captain Parks, plays a complete schedule with other companies on the campus. Competition is keen and all teams are interested in winning the Wentworth company championship. Members of the winning squad are given a steak dinner at the end of the season.
