Many Changes Made In Game, Fish Laws For West Texans

AUSTIN—The Texas Game, Fish, and Oyster Commission recommended a straight 45-day waterfowl shooting season beginning November 10.

An earlier request for a zoning season to benefit Panhandle counties has been placed before the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service as has also a proposed bag limit of eight ducks per day and eight in possession instead of the four ducks per day and four in possession allowed last fall.

The Commission authorized a nine-day antelope season west of the Pecos to be patterned after the 1948 special season in which 702 permits were issued to bag male antelope. The number of 1950 permits to be issued has not been determined.

Game and fish seasons for the newly created regulatory authority Panhandle area also were approved. They call for a deer and turkey season from Nov. 17 to Nov. 26 for all Panhandle counties excepting Armstrong, Randall, and Briscoe.

The limit will be one buck deer and two turkey gobblers for each hunter. The three counties were exempted because of recent restocking activities by the Game Department.

The commission approved a white-winged dove season for September 15, 17, and 19 beginning at 4 p. m. and lasting until sunset with a limit of ten birds a day and ten in possession.

The commissioners voted for a statewide dove season of 45 days, beginning Oct. 20 and lasting until Dec. 3 in the south zone and beginning Sept. 1 and running through Oct. 15 in the north zone, with a daily bag limit of ten and a possession limit of ten.

The Panhandle area was granted a quail season from Dec. 1 to January 16, which are the same dates as the general state law, but the bag limits for the new regulatory area were cut from 12 per day to 10 per day and the possession limit was cut from 36 per week to 20 in possession at any one time.

The commission abandoned plans for open season on antelope, prairie chicken, and pheasants in the Panhandle because of insufficient data and a policy of "playing safe" until more information on those species could be obtained.

For the regulatory area west of the Pecos, the commission authorized a deer season and a quail season similar to 1949. In this area, El Paso and Terrell counties were eliminated from the antelope shooting regulations.

The statewide deer and turkey season as well as the quail season set by law and are not affected by the latest commission action. Deer and turkey seasons for the state are run from Nov. 16 through Dec. 31 inclusive, with a limit per hunter of 2 buck deer and 3 gobblers. The quail season is from Dec. 1 to Jan. 16, inclusive, with a bag limit of 12 per day and a possession limit of 36 per week.

The commission, after a lengthy hearing, authorized an increase in the quota of commercial fishing boat licenses from 1550 to 2325. It also approved experimental studies in connection with authorizing issuance of licenses for 14 additional menhaden seines, to be used until Sept. 1.

The Panhandle regulatory district comprises these counties: Randall, Potter, Oldham, Gray, Roberts, Motley, Hemphill, Cottle, Dallam, Hartley, Childress, Hollingsworth, Sherman, Hansford, Moore, Wheeler, Carson, Donley, Hall, Hutchinson, Deaf Smith, Armstrong, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Lipscomb, Ochiltree.

Fire Department Clears $93 with Amateur Play

The Texico-Farwell Fire Department netted $93 from their home-talent production of "Uncle Ezzy's Dayloft Jamboree" last week.

Otis Huggins, secretary of the department, said this amount was retained after all expenses, including producer's fees, were deducted.

Amateur talent from both Texico and Farwell was engaged by Anna Mae Bird Kelley, director, for the production, staged two nights.

Purpose of the play had been to initiate a fund designed to purchase a resuscitator for the department. The new equipment is on display in the Southwestern Public Service window.

Huggins said the resuscitator cost $465, and added that "any contributions to this fund are now in order."

A resuscitator is used in several different types of emergency. Among them are polio, respiration after drowning, and treatment for electrical shock.

Chamois leather does not come from chamois, but from the fleshy part of the sheep.

FEED IS IMPORTANT

The animals and fowl you raise depend on you for a very important decision. They have likes and dislikes and a mediocre feed will not do the job of satisfying their body needs for nourishment, growth and pep. It takes a feed like the one in the STANTON'S bag to guarantee such favorable results. STANTON'S Feeds have been accepted at face value for years due to their wide usage in this part of the West, that has provided close-up proof of the exceptional results. You may be the owner of a dairy herd or a poultry man or a stockman. STANTON'S Feeds can be of vital importance to your work. STANTON'S Dairy Feeds are known throughout the Southwest as the means of gaining real ground in production and herd health. STANTON'S poultry feeds are second to none, because they are mixed for every phase of life from the hatching eggs to full maturity. If it bears the name STANTON'S—its a quality feed.

Texico Is Outdoing 'em All--Has Two Petshops

By JEANNE DUDLEY

Lots of larger towns have pet shops, and a few smaller towns boast this type business, but Little Texico has surpassed all of them—with the opening of two pet shops this summer.

Both of the businesses are located on the Clovis highway, and both specialize in fish, birds, and dogs.

Helen's Hobby House is operated by Mrs. Louis Calliouet and Mrs. Johnnie Lewis. Mrs. J. D. Morgan is proprietor of the other new business.

When asked how long her business had been established, Mrs. Morgan answered that her shop is not actually open, since she has been busy most of the summer working and getting things in order. She probably will have everything ready to operate in a few weeks.

She plans to raise all of her own animals. At the present time, however, she doesn't have all of them in stock.

Although Mrs. Morgan has Great Dane dogs, she doesn't plan to keep them. They don't seem to sell in this section of the country.

The large mother dog which she now has is quite an accomplished animal:

She says her prayers, pretends to read a book, will roll over, or crawl when commanded. If one tells her that her food is trusted, she will not eat.

If, instead, she is told that it is paid for, she will eat. Mrs. Morgan also has a 6-month-old Great Dane pup.

Other dogs which she has are a few Cocker Spaniels (she plans to discontinue this line also), and Belgian Schipperke, a small bear-type black dog with short hair, short perked ears, and a small face. The animals are quite playful, and they walk a lot on their hind feet. There aren't too many dogs of this type in this section of the country.

Mrs. Morgan plans to obtain Mexican Chihuahuas for sale.

Stocks Many Birds

Discussing birds that will be included in the shop, Mrs. Morgan relates that she will have finches of various kinds, parakeets, canaries, and love birds. She already has parakeets and Zebra finches. Some are not for sale, however.

She has a parrot, a family pet, which she is teaching to talk. The animal has not mastered linguistics as yet, but he does scold her a good deal.

Other pets which are not for sale are a baby alligator and a ground squirrel.

Mrs. Morgan states that in the future, she would like to build a small zoo for the children's entertainment. She does not yet know if this will be possible.

The pet shop features Hampsters, small guinea-pig-type pets, which have no odor.

Also in stock are fish, including any tropical ones, which are a minute one-eighth of an inch long when small and grow to be two or three inches long. Others are goldfish, angel fish, moons, red sword-tails, and chinchillad.

Mrs. Morgan says that later, she probably will add various other animals. Next year, she will carry baby monkeys, but it is too late to add them this summer.

She and Husband Like Pets

Asked why she decided to install a pet shop here, she said that both she and her husband like pets and they thought it would make an interesting business. They have lived in Texico before, and decided to make their home here.

Mrs. Morgan will do all her own work, including making souvenir animals for sale.

Naturally, the pet shop is still more or less in the planning stage; much work is yet to be done. The yards have to be landscaped and all of the animals obtained.

One other attraction in the Morgan array of pets is Jocko, the monkey. He likes to chew gum, chatters to Mr. Morgan as he "hugs his neck," and wears his hat.

Two black crows complete the Morgans' animals.

Helen's Has Fish Specialty

Mrs. Calliouet and Mrs. Lewis of Helen's Hobby House state that they have had fish of their own for about three years, but they have only been open as a pet shop for a month.

They plan to keep enlarging to the extent that they can get any kind of fish a customer desires. They also have aquariums and water grass plants for sale.

Included in the fish they have in stock are snails, tropical fish, and gold fish. They will specialize in tropical fish, however.

The live bearing snail, angel fish, bettas, zebras, fancy guppies, sword-tails, ports, and mollies can be found at the Hobby House, and the Japanese weather fish can be obtained for scavengers.

All birds sold by the two proprietors are registered. They don't have the parakeets now, but they will have later. Also included in the stock are hamsters, pedigreed rabbits, and dogs.

A complete line of pedigreed Persian cats in blue and grey colors are sold. All of these cats are named; Roger and Baby Blue are house pets.

"The cats are extremely friendly," says Mrs. Calliouet. In fact, she can never do anything unless they are right there.

Discussing some of the phases of their work, the proprietors say one of the most interesting fish is the Port. They have all the way from 500 to 1000 offspring at one time.

"They fuss, fight, and when they have their families, if one of them doesn't treat the babies right, they whip each other with their fins. They are really amusing to watch."

Suzette, the Cocker Spaniel, is another member of the pet shop.

This type dog will be featured strictly by the Hobby House unless someone just brings in a dog they wish to be sold. They have in stock black and blonde cockers and some puppies.

Also, Mrs. Calliouet and Mrs. Lewis will sell handwork, handle hand-made toys, baby things, and ceramics as soon as they can get them.

Discussing the Hampsters, the proprietors say they make good pets, even the old "grandparentish" ones. They are very clean and eat lettuce, carrots, or table scraps. Mrs. Calliouet says they are "part squirrel, bear, and rabbit." They do have pouches like squirrels for food.

The Hobby House did have about 200 rabbits, but now have 5 does and one pedigreed male. They plan to keep only enough to sell breeders.

By the end of the summer, the unique business of Texico should be officially open for pet lovers.

Titles of a few of the sermons to be delivered during the remainder of the revival are: "Who Is On The Lord's Side?", "The Truth About The Youth", "Why I Believe There Is A God", "The Judgment of the Great White Throne," and "How To Serve Christ".

Approximately 60 people from Aiken, Texas, attended the services Tuesday night. Preceding the worship, a picnic was held for the visitors, with Rev. Speegle in charge of arrangements.

During the meetings, young people will have a "problem" night in which anyone who has a problem for discussion will present it on a card and leaders in the revival will discuss the matter and try to assist the young person.

A testimonial night will also be observed.

Morning services are held at 10 o'clock, with the evening worship at 8:30. The series will last through Sunday.

Rev. Speegle extends an invitation to members of neighboring churches to attend the meeting.

LEARNERS' MINIMUM

As an inducement to industry to train new workers, Secretary of Labor Tobin has announced that the wage-hour act allows establishments to hire learners for special jobs, below the 75 cent minimum hourly wage rate set by the act.

Bovina Youth Meet Draws Good Crowds

Jerry Autrey of Monroe, La., who is in the pulpit for the youth-led revival services at the Bovina Baptist Church, is described as "one of the best preachers who ever stepped up into the pulpit," by Rev. E. J. Speegle, pastor of the church.

Seventy people were present at the Monday morning services with approximately 150 attending the evening service. Five additions to the church have already been made, Rev. Speegle said.

Jack Albright of Plainview is song leader for the meetings and Lee Dale Meeks is pianist. All of these young people are college students with experience as youth leaders, the pastor emphasized.

The double-ring ceremony was read by Father Nathaniel Madden of Hereford, at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, August 26th.

The altar was decorated with tall vases of white gladioli and pink and blue asters. The white tapers on gold candelabras softly glowed on the center altar. Wedding selections were played by Miss Ester Armijo of Clovis, who also accompanied Mrs. Elroy Marion, of Clovis, in nuptial selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional bridal gown of white satin featuring a full hooped skirt with a fitted bodice which had a sheer yoke trimmed in lace. Radell Pleads Guilty To Drunken Driving

Edward Lawrence Radell, who gives his home as Fort Scott, Kansas, and who has been employed at a Friona elevator, entered a plea of guilty to driving an automobile on a public highway while intoxicated before County Judge A. D. Smith in County Court, here, Tuesday morning, and was assessed a fine of $100 and costs.

His driver's license was also automatically revoked for a period of six months.

Radell was picked up by highway patrolmen Monday afternoon, 11 miles west of Hereford on Highway 60, following a crash of his 1950 Chevrolet sedan and a 1948 Ford pickup, being driven by Ray Terry of Hereford. Terry, who was alone in the pickup, said that Radell hit him from here as he (Radell) was attempting to pass the Ford pickup. The Terry machine was upset and the driver injured slightly. The Chevrolet, driven by Radell, remained upright. Both machines were badly damaged, Terry said.

The damaged Ford pickup belonged to Roy E. Hughes of Hereford.

Nuptial Vows Read Saturday Afternoon

Nuptial vows for Miss Betty Louise McLellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McLellan of Friona, and Lloyd Rector, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foister Rector, also of Friona, were read at 6:30 Saturday afternoon, Aug. 26, in the Friona Methodist Church.

Rev. James E. Tidwell, pastor of the church, performed the lovely double-ring ceremony in the presence of more than one hundred relatives and friends.

Decorations featured banks of greenery, with large bouquets of yellow asters and pale lemon-yellow gladioli being arranged.

Miss Lunell McFarland served as maid of honor, wearing a green formal, while Miss Jo Hannah Schuster, Tulia, and Miss Sue Edmonds, Happy, were the bridesmaids, dressed identically in yellow and green organdy over taffeta. All three carried bouquets of yellow asters with long green maline streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss McLellan wore a formal gown of white nylon with an appliqued border, while her wrist-length mitts were of the same material. The dress was fashioned with a full skirt, which was emphasized by hoops in the net slip.

Her veil of imported illusion fell to her waist from a head-dress of satin embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible on which lay a bouquet of white rosebuds, with long white satin streamers.

Mrs. McLellan, mother of the bride, was attired in a street-length dress of cocoa crepe, with navy accessories and wore a gardenia corsage, while Mrs. Rector, mother of the groom, wore pink taffeta with white accessories and also had a gardenia corsage.

Best man was Lee Crafill; and ushers were Floyd Rector, brother of the groom, Kenneth McLellan, and Kenneth and Wayne Bainum.

The bride is a graduate of the Friona school, and attended West Texas State College at Canyon the past year. Mrs. Rector also is a graduate of Friona, since finishing high school has been engaged in farming and raising dairy animals. After a honeymoon to New Mexico, the couple will be at home on the Rector farm near Friona.

Reception Held

A reception honoring the bridal party was held following the ceremony in the Friona Woman's Club House, where the serving table featured the three-tiered wedding cake. Yellow asters were arranged about the punch bowl, and yellow tapers were used.

Miss Gay Ann McFarland presided at the guest book, and Miss Murna Loy Welch and Mrs. Floyd Rector was in charge of the serving table.

The bride was honored with a pre-nuptial shower Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 23, when Mmes. Raymond Jones, Opal Jones, F. N. Welch, George Treider, and Bill Tinney served as hostesses at the Club House.

WSCS Will Resume Meetings, Fifth

The Woman's Society for Christian Service of the Friona Methodist Church, which has been inactive during the month of August, will resume its regular meetings in September, with the first scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 5.

The meeting is to be held at the church at 3 p. m., and will feature a business session, during which time the program of work will be outlined, and meeting dates agreed upon. All ladies of the church who are not current members of the group are cordially invited to be on hand and take membership.

School Registration Starts On Sept. 1st

Registration at the Friona School for the 1950-51 term begins Friday, Sept. 1, Supt. Dalton Caffey announced Monday, with high school and eighth grade pupils being listed during that day, while grade registration is to be conducted on Monday, Sept. 4.

Juniors and seniors are asked to be present Friday between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m., with sophomores, freshmen, and eighth graders called to report for their sign-up from 1 to 3 p. m.

Grade pupils will register in their various rooms and be assigned their books Monday, the 4th, and their first classes are to be held Tuesday, while the high school classes will get underway Monday morning.

Mohammed died by poisoning.

Slightly Injured as Car Overtakes

Dr. Paul Spring's vacation trip to New Mexico was cut short the past Wednesday evening, when his new Oldsmobile left the road near Delia, between Santa Rosa and Las Vegas, and overturned several times.

Fortunately, Dr. Spring sustained only superficial cuts about the face and hands, for which he received treatment at a Las Vegas hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spring drove to Las Vegas after the local medico the following day, and he was returned to his home in Friona. Stitches in the wounds were removed the first of the week.

It was believed that the accident occurred when one wheel dropped off a rather rhibb pavement shoulder, causing the car to go out of control. Dr. Spring was thrown clear of the tumbling vehicle.

Scout Day School Closes on Friday

Day school for the Friona Girl Scouts closed the past Friday evening with a camp fire program and supper honoring mothers of the girls, held in the local park.

Some 38 girls were registered for the daily classes, which featured various types of nature study, Mrs. J. G. McFarland reported. Highlights included cooking breakfast on two mornings, and cooking supper one evening. Rev. James E. Tidwell, local Methodist pastor, served as camp director.

Men Will be Hosts Friday Evening

Men of the Methodist Church will be hosts Friday evening of this week, September 1, when they are inviting all ladies of the church to be their guests at a "ham 'n' beans" supper to be served in the annex of the church.

The evening activity is slated to get underway at 7:30, and special guest and speaker will be Rev. Don Davidson, Methodist pastor from Hereford. All ladies of the church are extended a special invitation for the social.

Thursday Mrs. Reeve took her two sons, Glenn Evan and Don, to Amarillo, from where they went on to Oklahoma to spend the week with relatives, and Curtis O'Rear of Amarillo returned here with Mrs. Reeve for a few days.

Cousin Visits Here

Mrs. Viola Sheffield of Shreveport, La., a cousin of Mrs. J. G. Mc-

Farland, arrived here last week for a visit in the McFarland home. She plans to spend the week here.

IS SNAKE BITTEN
Mrs. Steve Struve suffered a bad scare but no ill after-effects the past Tuesday evening, when she was snake-bitten on the little finger as she was working in the garden of her home. Parmer County Hospital attaches reported that the wound had been lacerated and a tourniquet applied to her wrist before she was rushed in for treatment and two anti-venom shots were given the patient.
A large rattlesnake was killed near the Struve garden the following morning, and it was presumed it was the snake which struck Mrs. Struve. Ralph Roden, hospital manager, said the hospital was fortunate in having anti-venom on hand, as he had heard that some hospitals in the area were short on the anti-toxin.

Sherley Grain Co. Offers Top Service

The installation of the very latest type of cleansing and treating equipment has been completed at Sherley Grain Co., Bovina, and according to G. D. Anderson, Jr., manager of this well known concern, they are now equipped to do custom recleaning and treating of your planting seed.

They also have a choice stock of selected seed wheat in all of the popular varieties, types that are acceptable to flour millers everywhere, and invite you to figure with them on your seed wheat requirements.

Sherley Grain Co. and G. D. Anderson, Jr., have been active in this territory and have always directed their efforts toward the improvement of agricultural conditions, particularly among the growers of wheat and row crops. They stand ready at all times to be of service to their customers and go out of their way to furnish helpful information in connection with any problem that may confront them with respect to crop loans, market information, or the proper type of seeds to be planted.

Sherley Grain Co. has always been known to pay the highest market prices for grain, and their customers are always assured of honest weights and grades.

We take pleasure in this review editon of our paper in singling out Sherley Grain Co. and complimenting them on the good service that they render our farmers, and wish for them continued success in the years to come.

Aerial Dusting and Spraying Offered By Elvie Jennings

Modern developments in agricultural research have brought us many good things, especially certain chemicals for the eradication of insects that heretofore have caused millions of dollars in damage and totally destroyed, in many cases, our crops. The most effective way to combat these devastating pests is by aerial dusting or spraying, which in the long run will pay our farmers most handsomely.

Leading in this type of service in our area is Elvie Jennings who operates the Benger Air Park at Friona, and Muleshoe Flying School at Muleshoe. Elvie Jennings has made an extensive study of the proper chemicals and insecticides to be used to accomplish the proper results in aerial dusting and spraying.

His equipment is the very latest. He has two dusters and two sprayers with separate equipment for 2-4-D and for other insecticides, which insures maximum safety. "Crop Insects Haven't a Chance When You Put Us on the Job," is the claim of Elvie Jennings. A telephone call to either place, Elvie Jennings, Benger Air Park, Friona, will make an appointment and they will be glad to go into details and furnish cost and estimates for the aerial dusting and spraying service.

His study and wide experience in this line will enable him to be most helpful to you in solving your crop insect problem. Those that he has served are most enthusiastic about the results obtained and reasonable price charged for this service.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are providing religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Today the 'Great God of Nations' is pleading for unity of mind, for brotherly love between men and for peace on earth. Jesus the greatest of teachers presented to men truths, which were then as they are now, of great importance to all mankind. His utterances, without revision, are most pertinent to modern life and make universal appeal. In them are heights which no man has scaled; depths which no man has sounded; reaches of length and breadth which no man has explored. Universally the need for blessings from the great 'God of Nations' has never been so great. He commanded men to learn of Him and promised to show them the way.

Pastors, Priests and Rabbis are pooling their interests in an effort to challenge All Nations to an understanding of the term 'Peace.' Prayers from millions of earnest seeking, warm hearted, religious people, go up to the great 'God of Nations' every day for those men who are entrusted with our destinies.

Millions are now saying of Jesus: "There was the true light, even the light which lighteth every man, coming into the world." Whether judged by subject matter, the method of its presentation, or its effectiveness in influencing life... Jesus enjoys pre-eminence among teachers. If men would but seek out His will; if world leaders would but ask His guidance when difficult, international problems arise... then solving them would not be such a surprise, for in Him men of faith find all things possible.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By: Bill Kennedy

Oil Cans Used In Irrigation Work

Irrigation farmers as far back as the Egyptians have had trouble with steep ditches. If you are an irrigation farmer, you know that steep ditches mean hard work. The water banks up against the canvas dam and only a few tubes can be set. The ditch washes badly, until it is waist deep or more.

Engineers have known for a long time how to remedy this situation. Concrete structures are the technical answer—but the hitch has always been the high cost.

Steep ditches need drop structures, and two SCS technicians assisting the Parmer County soil conservation district came up with a practical and economical way of handling steep ditches.

John Aldridge and J. Sanders wondered why old oil barrels could not be made into drop structures. Sanders made models out of quart oil cans and set them up for farmers to see.

Steve Struve, farmer five miles northeast of Friona, had some of these homemade drops made up.

The idea spread along the grapevine. Roscoe Ivie tried some. Earl Drake followed suit and so did Eric Rushing.

We don't know how many have tried them since, but the latest drop structures of this kind that we have seen are on the Ralph Wilson farm.

Everyone who has tried them is still using them.

Some of the farmers have asked whether this type structure really gets the job done.

The best answer is: anything that tends to reduce the speed of water in steep ditches is good.

It may be oil drums, sand bags, crossties, rock dams or canvas socks. None of these are as efficient or as durable as the more elaborate masonry drops, but they cost less. And Parmer County SCD farmers are doing a good job with their homemade devices.

Why Not Pheasants In Parmer County?

Conservation and wildlife are, to an extent, interdependent. The relationship between pheasants and soil conservation becomes apparent when one considers the basic requirements of each.

Pheasants, for example, thrive better in fields where stubbles are allowed to remain. The habits of this ornamental fowl are such that he enjoys the seclusion he finds in stubble mulches.

Residue vegetation that is allowed to remain on the land serves two valuable purposes. It reduces wind and water erosion and it provides a refuge for wildlife.

The Parmer County soil conservation district is greatly interested in wildlife. Farmers could cause an important soil conservation practice to become a wide-spread reality.

In June of 1949, Art Fallwell and Mac Bainum purchased 175 baby pheasants. These baby ringnecks were kept in a pen for a while. They were then sold and distributed to other Parmer County farmers including John Lynn, O. B. Moyer, Bev Buchanan, I. C. McFarland, H. C. Wells and Sloan Osborn. Today, there are from 6 to 50 pheasants on each of these farms. Fifty pheasants were turned loose on Bainum's farm. Wells, who started with four hens and two roosters, now claims 37 little pheasants.

Zoologists hold that the main diet of pheasants, as indicated by stomach records, consists of insects, soybeans, clover, vetch, partridge pea and American hog peanut. Naturalists claim that pheasants will not wander over a mile and a half from their hatching place. Pheasant eggs can be hatched in an incubator or under domestic chickens, and raised similar to chickens.

It is very probable that these beautiful birds will thrive well in Parmer County. If so, this will be a step toward getting the important soil conservation practice of wildlife area improvement off paper and out where one may actually see it in operation.

Manure Being Spread By Triplett-Pringle

Five tons of barnyard manure per acre is being applied to 160 acres on the Triplett & Pringle farm, five miles northwest of Bovina.

Nearly all farmers agree that this is a good practice, and modern machinery makes manure spreading easier. Pringle, for example, is having the manure loaded by means of a front-end loader attached to his tractor. The manure is placed in the spreaders and distributed over the field.

Several Parmer County SCD farmers have made good use of manure by spreading it on their fields.

We wish to tip our hats to R. W. Pringle, C. C. Christian, Carl Shlenker, Billie Sudeith and all other Parmer County farmers who are carrying out this important practice.

Need 300 Pledges for Phone Co-Op

Rural residents over a three-county area including Parmer, Deaf Smith and Castro, are still a good way off from obtaining a cooperative telephone system.

For several months, interested persons in the three counties have worked toward sufficient "customers" on the network to merit action for a loan from the federal government.

Harold Carpenter, head of the south half of Parmer County, said this week that the co-op had been promised negotiation for a federal loan if 1000 subscribers to the extension were secured.

Carpenter said officials of the organization, the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, met early this month with a delegate from Washington, who measured progress of the project here, and said he would start negotiations for a loan if you can get 300 more subscribers. They now have 700, Carpenter estimated.

Work on the co-op is now being carried on under the auspices of the Rural Electrification Association, already a well-tested rural project agent.

Carpenter pointed out that a program initiated in Curry County, in New Mexico, had been unusually successful. They already have been granted a loan, and will soon have the system installed.

"The Curry system will serve as a trial for testing the practicability of such a program," Carpenter explained. "It is already 'cut and dried' over there as far as negotiations go." Naturally, all work on rural telephone improvements may be halted by the Korean war. Federal projects such as this were postponed during World War II, it was pointed out.

"If we get our system, there will be an office in every town," Carpenter said. "To join the line, there will be a $5 preliminary fee, but in reality it will be no more expensive service than town residents get."

Service will be over co-op lines in the three counties, should the project go through, but all long-distance calls will go through the same channels and be assessed the same rates as present city users.

FFA Members Return From Annual Tour

Twelve members of the Farwell chapter of Future Farmers of America are back with their sponsor, Robert L. Morton, from their annual summer encampment.

This year the boys, continuing the trip that has become a veritable institution for the chapter, went to Daingerfield State Park in the extreme eastern part of Texas, near the Louisiana and Arkansas state lines.

They made the trip in a truck owned by Meryl Glenn Rundell of Oklahoma Lane, and camped out in Boy Scout quarters in the park.

Included in the group were Orie Jones, Beryl Nix, Junior Potest, Charles Phillips, Darrell Norton, Neal Wall, Ted Magness, Melbourn Jones, Bob Geries, Jessie Coburn, Jerald Norton, Ronnie Dial, and Morton.

The trippers took a northern route on the way to the grounds, going through Seymour, Denton, and Mt. Pleasant. On the return trip, they camped overnight near Seymour.

Asked what activities they participated in while at Daingerfield, Morton answered "about the same as last year," which meant swimming, fishing, and friendly games of cards.

"We planned to see a county fair while there, but it was postponed because of an outbreak of Anthrax," he said.

Leaving a week ago Friday morning the group returned to Farwell the following Thursday.

Holiness Church Has Jackson as Pastor

Rev. L. E. Jackson has been assigned the pastorate of the Pentecostal Holiness Church of Bovina by the Panhandle Conference of the church. He was formerly pastor of a church in Clayton, N. M.

Rev. Jackson, discussing his new home, says, "I believe I have moved to a good community of friendly people, a nice clean town, a goodly number of courteous business people, fellow ministers of other denominations who will admit me into their fellowship and friendship, and a splendid group of members and friends of the local Pentecostal Holiness church."

Announcing the evangelistic campaign of Oral Roberts, September 1-17, on highway 87 between Amarillo and Pleasant Valley, Rev. Jackson says the Bovina church will dismiss night services until Sept. 20.

A mid-week prayer service will be held on that night.

Sunday school will meet as usual at 10 o'clock in the morning, followed by the worship hour, the pastor reported.

Hens that are not now laying are likely to be early molters and poor layers. These non-producers should be removed from the flock for there is no profit in feeding non-laying hens.

Farwell Boasts First
 Fall Kindergarten

Farwell will boast its first kindergarten this fall, when Mrs. Tom Foster, of the Oklahoma Lane community, will formally open the school for small children on Monday, September 4th, in the building erected this summer for that purpose.

The building is located immediately north of the football field, and Mrs. Foster has a complete set-up of equipment and supplies necessary to carry on the school.

Mrs. Foster asked that children who plan to enter the kindergarten, and who have not previously enrolled, be on hand at 8:45 the morning of the fourth. Those who have already registered are scheduled to arrive at 9:00 a. m. that day.

Parents who wish to enter children are urged to be on hand at the opening day. However, if pre-registration is desired, blanks may be obtained and filled in at Estellene's beauty shop in Farwell.

Mrs. Foster reminded interested residents that the school is open to children living in Texico, as well as those residing in Farwell.

The school will be open Monday through Friday, in the mornings.

Otis Huggins Speaks At Vocational School

Otis Huggins, manager of Southwestern Public Service Company in Farwell, recently took part in a school for vocational agriculture instructors that was held in Clovis.

He addressed the assemblage, explaining electric wire splicing, and accompanied his address with some demonstrations.

LOUIS CALLIOUET IS ILL IN GREENVILLE, MISS.

Mrs. Louis Calliouet returned Monday afternoon from Greenville, Miss., where her husband has been hospitalized for the past six weeks.

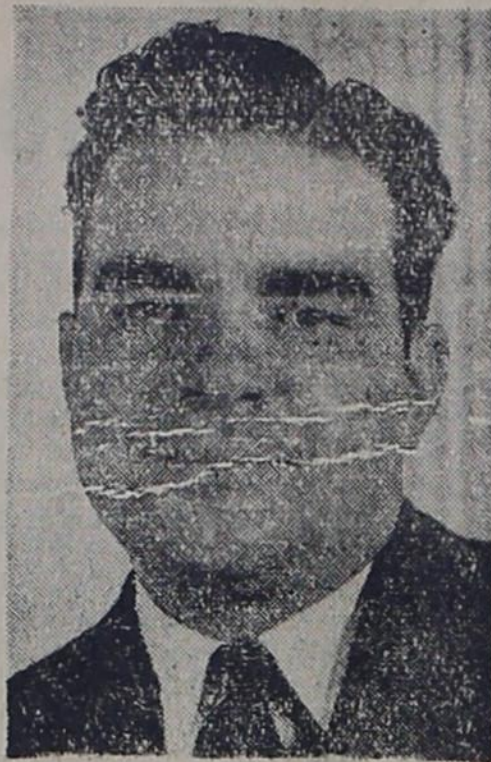

She reports that Mr. Calliouet is in a very serious condition.
