BRONX BELTER ABROAD . . . Steve Belleise, the balding Bronx belter who holds the distinction of being one of the world's top welter-weight prizefighters, shows admiring Parisians the mitts with which he hoped to pummel Frenchman Jean Stock when the two met in the capital. Martell LeVeque, former local boy, who now lives with his parents at Muleshoe, has just completed two years in college and is home for the summer. In conversation with Wilber, the lad's father, he said Martell was now excavation engineer for the West Texas Gas Co., and went on to explain that the son was digging ditches with a pick and shovel at Muleshoe. Friends of the former Farwell had congratulated him on the rapid progress he is making.

V. C. Venable is convinced that bargain hunting in Clovis is not as profitable as it might appear. He went over the latter part of the week expecting to save some money. Actually, he claims that he came out loser. After paying a 5-cent parking fee, then drawing an over-time ticket that cost him a dollar, he figures he lost about 80 cents besides the expense of his trip to the "cattle capital of the Southwest."

Dr. Mary McNeff celebrated her birthday over the weekend by closing her office and making a trip to Ruidoso. She says she slept under three blankets and a bedspread the two nights she spent high up in the mountains.

A local couple was being chided for building their house beyond the borders of their property lines. "Well, you see," one of them explained, "we are located on a dead-end street, we are a dead-end couple and expect to raise dead-end kids." All of which should make the location of their home satisfactory to all concerned.

Ten proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution are to be submitted to voters of Texas in a special election next September. The text of these proposed amendments is being published in The Tribune this week. If you will begin now, and, with the assistance of a competent lawyer, you might be able to figure out their meaning between now and election.

A local young lady's visit to relatives in Oklahoma was interrupted by a telephone message from her mother to come home at once "on important business." She revealed Tuesday she was "washing, ironing and keeping house" for the family.

Neighbors Work Out Crop For Deceased Farmer Tuesday

A true spirit of neighborliness manifested itself early Tuesday morning when seventeen neighbor farmers appeared at the farm of the late Travis Rundell with their tractors and proceeded to cultivate the 300-acre crop of the young farmer, who was buried at the Oklahoma Lane cemetery Sunday afternoon.

All tractors moved onto the scene at 7:30 a. m. and the job was completed shortly before noon.

Rundell, who had farmed in the Oklahoma Lane community since 1924, died in a Clovis hospital Friday afternoon following a brief illness.

Young Farmer Passes After Brief Illness

Thomas Travis Rundell, age 37 who has farmed in the Oklahoma Lane community since 1925, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rundell, passed away at a Clovis hospital Friday afternoon after a very brief illness. He entered the hospital on Monday before his death the following Friday. His physician attributed his death to a brain tumor.

What is believed to have been the largest crowd ever to attend a funeral at Oklahoma Lane, gathered at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon to pay respects to the memory of a good and beloved young man. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. J. Terry, assisted by Rev. A. D. Moore, Methodist pastor of that community. Steeds had charge of the burial, which took place at Oklahoma Lane cemetery.

Of his immediate family, he is survived by his wife, one son, Leonard; and one daughter, Cathie. Another son, Dwayne, died in 1942. Other survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rundell; four sisters, Mrs. Anabell Hillock, Mrs. Willie Doshier, Mrs. Julia Hillcock, Mrs. Rita Dollar; four brothers, Cecil, L. D., Robert, and Weldon Rundell; ten nieces and ten nephews, off of this community.

Deceased was married to Miss Lena Hurst Nov. 10, 1934, and they have lived in the Oklahoma Lane community except for a few months during the war when they went to Washington.

Surviving relatives are listed as Mrs. Virgil Ellis, Corsicana; Mrs. Velma Sanderson, Haskell; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Doshier, Tipton, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rundell, Farwell; Willie Hurst, Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Doshier, Farwell; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barber, Farwell; Mr. and Mrs. John Hammonds, Fort Sumner, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Doshier, Texico; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Tipton, Amarillo; Greg, Pinky and Red Wainscott, Olney.

Replantings Delaying Feed Crop Operations

Thousands of acres of feed crops that normally should be off to a good start are just barely up to a stand . . . and some are yet to be planted over this section.

Repeated heavy rains have necessitated replantings, with some farmers reporting the third planting now in progress. This is particularly true in the West Camp community and in a small area southwest of Texico, where heavy rains have occurred as the young crops were peeping above the ground.

Much cotton has been lost to heavy rains of past weeks, and many fields are being planted to feeds since the time is growing too late for cotton planting.

Many farmers of this area are faced with a three-fold undertaking at this time—harvesting wheat, replanting feed crops, and cultivating young feed that survived the rains.

MRS. OSBORNE HOME

Mrs. W. H. Osborne, 80, who sustained a fractured hip in a fall at her home some ten days ago, has been removed from a Clovis hospital to her home in Farwell, where she is reported to be doing satisfactorily.

Texico Street Lights Being Installed

A series of modern street lights, long delayed because of inability to get materials, is being installed this week by a crew of Southwestern Public Service workmen.

Odus Huggins, local manager for the company, said a total of 21 lights were to be installed throughout the city. Nine of the lights will be erected along Wheeler Avenue, commonly called main street, five of which will have an illumination of 400 lumens and the remaining four 2500 lumens. All the Avenue lights will be mounted on steel standards.

Four traffic lights will go up between Wheeler Ave. and the school house, and an additional eight lights will be installed throughout the residential section in the north part of town.

The installations are being made without cost to the Town of Texico, which will pay the cost of operation after the installations are completed.

This will complete the street lighting program in the Twin Cities, some 40-odd lights having been installed in Farwell about two years ago.

First Polio Case Of Year Reported Here

The first case of infantile paralysis to be reported for the current year, came last Friday morning with the announcement from Farmer County Community hospital at Friona.

Donal Ray Verner, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Verner, who live northeast of this city, was removed to the Plainview Center Friday, following a diagnosis at Friona. He was taken ill Thursday and removed to Friona for medical attention Friday morning, where he was pronounced to be suffering with polio. He was then taken to Plainview immediately.

Family members said Tuesday the young man spent four hours in an iron lung Monday as an aid to breathing. He appears not to be paralyzed, but his body remains rigid.

Elliott's Condition Reported Favorable

The condition of C. R. Elliott, 57, who sustained second and third degree burns early the past Thursday morning, was reported to be satisfactory by his physician, Dr. Paul Spring, at the Farmer County Community hospital, Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Spring said the patient was suffering with second and third degree burns about both arms and hands, under the right arm, regions of the back, underneath the chin and other sections of the body above the waist.

Elliott was rushed to the hospital last Thursday morning by his son, Bass, immediately following the accident. He and Harold Dow were engaged in burning weeds at the road of Bonds' service station, when the hose of the weed burner burst, throwing flaming gasoline on the merchant. His son, Bass, who was nearby, ran and grabbed his father and threw him to the ground and smothered the flames with his own body.

Elliott was applying the flaming torch to weeds while Dow carried the pressure tank of gasoline when the accident occurred. The 40 pounds of air bursted the hose leading from the tank to the burner.

Says Wheat Blighted In Friona Section

E. L. Clark, living near Friona, was here the past weekend and gave out the report that some of the wheat in his section has been blighted and is not yielding what had been expected.

At that time he had not begun to harvest his grain, but said he would "settle for ten bushels to the acre" whereas he had anticipated a yield of 15 bushels. He said one of his neighbors, Ed Steinbock, was reported to be getting only 17 bushels from an irrigated field, with the test running only 53 pounds to the bushel.

New York Times editorial: "In a broad sense it may be said that the President's new budget reflects, in its general outlines, the state of world affairs."

Texico High Youths Attend State Meet

AWARDED DEGREE—John White, son of Mr. and Mrs. John White Sr. Texico, was awarded a state farmers' degree at the 21st annual convention at Estancia last week.

Texico FFA Youth Receives Award

Being one of twenty-eight selected members of the Future Farmers of America in New Mexico, John White, Texico High student, was awarded a state farmers' degree for his work in the organization last week.

He was given the recognition at the 21st annual FFA state convention at Estancia. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John White Sr., both residents of Texico.

While attending the convention, White was nominated for a state office, but was defeated for the position. He went to the meeting with two others; F. D. Stout, adviser for Texico FFA, and Jimmy Doshier, a member of the Texico chapter.

White said the convention was scheduled to last three days, but owing to rainy weather, its length was extended somewhat.

Hot Check Artist Is Still Unapprehended

A hot check artist has been operating in Oklahoma and Texas the past several days, drawing checks on the Security State Bank of this city, and up to noon Tuesday a total of $825 in worthless notes had been sent to the local bank for payment.

Bank officials here had no idea who the offender might be and how far he might carry on his game before being apprehended.

The first bad check to reach here was cashed at Sapulpa, Okla., and the most recent arrival of worthless paper came Monday from Gainesville, Texas, bank officials said.

All checks are identical, it was disclosed at the local bank. All are drawn for $75, and are made out on regular counter checks of the local bank. All checks bear the same number—1202—and all are filled out on a typewriter, except the signature. All instruments are made payable to J. D. Loveless and are drawn on the account of Cline & Sons, and signed by L. C. Cline.

In the lower left-hand corner of the checks the notation, "Road Expense" (notice incorrect spelling) is typed in with red ink. The checks are endorsed on the back by J. D. Loveless, and bank officials here said they thought Loveless and Cline are one and the same person, neither of which is his true name.

None of the checks, it appears, has been cashed by banks. Rather, they have been turned in at filling stations and mercantile establishments all the way from Sapulpa to Gainesville.

HEALTH CHECK-UP FRIDAY

Last pre-school health clinic for Farwell grade children will be Friday at 2:30, announced Jack Williams, superintendent of Farwell schools. He said that this was positively the last time pre-schoolers would have to be checked before the coming school term.

Grain Men See Ample Storage

Harvesting operations, which were getting off to a good start the first of the week, were brought to an abrupt standstill when moderately heavy showers fell late Tuesday night. It is believed that combines will not be able to return to the fields before Thursday or Friday, even with the most favorable weather conditions.

Wheat harvest in this section, which began to get under way on a small scale over the past weekend, was being stepped up early this week with an increased number of combines entering the fields of golden grain.

The real peak of the harvest is not expected to get in full swing before the end of the present week, observers are predicting. Fields are maturing at a rapid rate with the hot weather which has prevailed over most of the area since the latter part of last week. Light to moderately heavy rains in widely scattered sections have delayed the harvest in some sectors, but for the most part, ideal harvest weather has prevailed.

Parmer County's expected three-million-bushel yield suffered a setback early last week when a severe hail storm ripped diagonally across the county, exacting a heavy toll of choice wheat.

The storm, which was described as from one to two miles in width, is reported to have originated in the vicinity of Garcia Lake, some 22 miles north of Bovina, in Deaf Smith County, and moved southeast across the county. Reports here say the storm extended as far as Olton, in Lamb County. Some fields in this county are reported as being completely wiped out, while others suffered lighter losses. Many of the fields destroyed had been estimated to yield as high as 30 bushels to the acre.

Following the arrival of the first load of 1949 grain at Lariat last Tuesday afternoon, other "first loads" were reported over the weekend. Pearl Singletary of Pleasant Hill marketed the first load at Bovina last Wednesday afternoon. The grain was dumped at Macon Elevator. It was the Early Black Hull variety and was yielding 25 bushels to the acre.

J. C. Howard dumped the second load to arrive in Bovina Friday afternoon. It was the Westar variety and tested 59 pounds to the bushel. The estimated yield was not learned.

R. S. Smalts, who farms southeast of Bovina, was the first customer to reach Bovina Wheat Growers Elevator with a load of Early Triumph, testing 62 pounds and was estimated to be yielding 25 bushels.

Receipts in Texico-Farwell since the latter part of the week have been light, but the grain is of good quality and yields are running from 16 to yielding 25 bushels.

At Lariat, the story was about the same. Adolph Haseloff and John Mounts, who were among the first to bring in 1949 grain there, said it was turning out about 25 bushels to the acre.

Most of the early-harvested grain is showing a satisfactory moisture content, with tests running from 11 to 13 percent. Buyers warned that no grain exceeding 13 percent moisture content can be accepted for storage.

Ample Storage Seen

All grain buyers contacted during the past few days are of the opinion that there will be ample storage space in the county to handle the current crop. With exception of Henderson Grain & Seed Company in this city, all elevator bins were virtually empty, and there was an abundance of cars along sidings to take care of shipments.

Shipping orders on stored milo at Henderson's had been finally received and a crew of workmen were loading out cars as fast as their facilities would permit. The three elevators at Lariat, with a combined storage space of 150,000 bushels, were empty the first of the week.

In Texico-Farwell, Farwell Elevator and Roberts Seed Co., with a combined storage for around 200,000 bushels, were reported completely full.

Health Notes

By State Department of Health

AUSTIN—In view of the fact that June has been proclaimed National Dairy Month, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges that with the more extensive use of milk, both producer and consumer be concerned as to its quality. The use of clean safe milk is a health measure.

Local interest in improved methods of producing wholesome milk has increased greatly in the past two decades and the striking advance in milk control has been responsible for the enormous saving in infant life.

Milk is perishable and especially during hot weather. To insure milk of good quality requires cleanliness, sterile utensils, protection against flies, careful bottling and maintenance at low temperature. The presence in fresh milk of large numbers of bacteria, due to insanitary methods of production is a health hazard.

Dr. Cox added, "Among the diseases which may be transmitted through milk are tuberculosis, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, septic sore throat, undulant fever, diarrhea and enteritis. Numerous milk-borne outbreaks of disease occur every year in this country from the use of milk that might have been safe with proper care."

"We should firmly insist that the milk we drink be carefully produced, so that we will have the maximum protection along the line from the cow to the consumer."

Close To Calamity If Every Blossom Bore Fruit The Same Year

COLLEGE STATION—It would be close to a calamity if the average five-year old peach tree's 25,000 blossoms all bore fruit the same year. Fortunately, nature allows only about 250 to 1,250 of these 25,000 to bear fruit.

A total set of fruit would result in undersized fruit of poor quality and weakened or broken trees, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A. and M. College.

Although blossoms shed from the time they first form until the fruit matures, there are three periods or "waves" of blossoms shedding. The last shedding takes place in late May or early June. By this time the fruit is easy to spot in the tree. Three distinct "drops" do not occur in all fruits, but are common in peaches, plums and apples, Rosborough says.

Insects and bad weather account for part of the fruit crop. Even so, fruit must be thinned by the grower. Thinning improves the size and quality of the fruit left on the tree, reduces the number of culls and increases the uniformity of ripening.

This is the best time to thin peaches—when the fruit is about the size of the end of the thumb. A second thinning may be needed two or three weeks later. Sometimes an orchardist may thin from 600 to 1,200 peaches on a single tree. But he's not losing money in terms of pounds of fruit, since a tree wouldn't produce large fruit if it were not thinned.

The easiest way to thin fruit is to pull them off. On the higher branches, a six-foot stick with a piece of rubber hose 8 to 12 inches long attached makes a handy tool for fruit thinning, Rosborough says.

For a few cents per tree, thinning the fruit increases the size of the fruit left, improves its quality and brings a higher price on the market.

TEXAS TOPS NJVGA MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Texas farm boys and girls, carrying on the state's traditional reputation for leadership, currently are leading the nation in the membership standings of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, it was revealed today.

The announcement, coming one month before the deadline for entries in the association's production-marketing contest, was made in the NJVGA News, circulated among the thousands of members throughout the country. It reported that the Lone Star state moved into first place this month, with New York and Mississippi close behind.

Hundreds of Texas farm youths, between the ages of 14 through 21, will compete against boys and girls from all over the nation for the $6,000 in agricultural scholarships and cash provided by A & P Food Stores to teach the country's young farmers methods of producing and marketing vegetables.

Other Lone Star boys and girls can enter the competition by contacting their local 4-H Club agent, FFA leader, or by writing to the NJVGA regional chairman, Chesley Hines, Extension Horticulturist, Mississippi State College, State College, Mississippi.

Silence isn't always golden; sometimes it's just plain yellow.

Two Farwell Soldiers In Same German Camp

Herewith is a letter received from Pfc. Cortez Billington, now stationed at Augsburg, Germany, with the U. S. Armed forces. Also stationed in the same camp is another Farwell lad, Pfc. Leonard L. Hanna. Billington's letter follows:

Augsburg, Germany
June 4, 1949

Hello Hop,

We got to thinking it over and decided you should make a daily out of the Tribune. After reading some of these Kraut papers, it looks pretty good. It seems as though Farwell is pretty well represented here in Augsburg, since two Farwell men met here and are in the same camp only three blocks apart.

We thought we might drop you a line and tell you how it is in Germany. You can tell the people in your paper that if they think living conditions are hard over here, they should come over and try it. When, for breakfast, they have a piece of bread and a piece of bologna, and for dinner they have a piece of bread and a piece of bologna, and the same for supper.

We are leaving for maneuvers the 6th of this month and will stay at least six weeks and maybe longer, and we are afraid our living conditions aren't going to be too easy because it gets kinda tiresome living in a pup tent for that length of time.

By the way, Hop, we would like for you to run an ad in the paper for us like so: "Two very beautiful girls between 9 and 90 wanted for cooks and housekeepers. The price makes no difference because we're always broke anyway." Think you could do it? We noticed in your paper, "Tribune ads bring home the bacon," so we thought we would try it.

By the way, tell little George Magness he will never know what he is missing over here, and tell everyone "Hello" for us and keep the paper coming this way.

Yours truly,

Pfc. Gordon (Cortez) Billington, who works in the supply department of Co. A. 73rd Ord. Maint. Bn.

And Pfc. Leonard L. Hanna, who is a light tank driver in the Co. B 1st Bn. 2nd Arm. Cav. Regt, both of the U. S. Constabulary.

TEN LITTLE MORORISTS

An interesting Little Jingle is going the rounds of newspapers which are continually preaching the gospel of safety on the highways. Here it is:

Ten Little Motorists, driving in line one tried to pass the rest, then there were nine.

Nine Little Motorists, sadly I relate, one jumped a traffic light, then there were eight.

Eight Little Motorists, young and not so deft, one tried to show his skill, and seven were left.

Seven Little Motorists, touring in the sticks, one failed to dim his lights and then there were six.

Six Little Motorists, very much alive, one did not see a train, then there were five.

Five Little Motorists, speeding to the shore, one skidded in the rain, then there were four.

Four Little Motorists, coming from a tea, one faced about to chat, then there were three.

Three Little Motorists, this is sad but true, one slumbered from fatigue, then there were two.

Two Little Motorists, racing just for fun, one passed upon a crest, then there was but one.

One Little Motorist, though it's seldom done, lit a match to gauge his tank, now there are none!

If you have ever wondered how much water comes out of a hose, here's your answer. A half-inch hose with a nozzle delivers 200 gallons of water an hour at normal pressure. A three-fourths-inch hose with a nozzle delivers 275 to 300 gallons of water an hour. And the average lawn sprinkler head will spray 120 gallons an hour over the yard.

Oiled dustcloths and mops do a good job of picking up the dust, but should never be used on waxed surfaces. An oiled cloth used on furniture finished with wax makes the wax sticky and dingy because the oil softens it up, just as an oil mop does on a waxed floor.

Of course, there's only one answer.

Here's your family forever "on-the-go" and also "on-the-grow."

And here are you right at the center of it all. Trying to make ends meet, queezing past one tight place after another. No let up. Don't you ever get tired? If I could pass out orchids!—but's that something else.

Let's put it this way: you fathers and mothers are doing a perfectly grand job. Considering the toughness of times. Considering the rocky time you have keeping up with your youngsters. Considering how everybody feels free to jump on you and blame you for almost anything and everything.

Being good parents isn't easy—not this year!

You have sometimes felt the restfulness that comes in church? Bowed down when others did? Helped swell the volume of song? Listened to the words from the Book? Felt the jangling nerves go quiet? Forgotten some of the worries? Grown strong? Built up fresh courage? Felt good?

But—just suppose now for a moment that you had never been given that chance!

Not a nice thought. Not true to facts, either. For somebody saw to it in your early years—they gave you this. And now—this week and every week—you can give this to those who belong to you.

Want to be a good parent? Take your family to Sunday school.

Two human lives with possibilities of usefulness to others and of happiness to themselves! Who knows what they might be worth to society; muscles capable of hard work, minds developed to shrewdness of planning, hearts that could respond to love, persons who are the product of ages of divine providence?

You and I "waked up" a little late to appreciate the potential good they represent. The officers of the Law represent you and me coming a bit too late to do what we could have done yesterday. Words of interest and of helpful guidance were wanted and we were too busy to speak them; homes of love and of moral ideals are the right of every child and we forgot to inquire whether their parents were able to provide them; the Church could have instilled love of wisdom and of goodness had someone seen to it that they were regularly in their place of education of religious nurture.

It is "a little late" to expect these boys to become good citizens in your community; they may feel that you and I and the rest forsook them when they needed us, and on the inside is bitterness that will be difficult to overcome. And yet it may not be too late for something to be done, if we are willing to make the sacrifice. They need love and understanding sympathy and good comradeship; but all of these will demand time from someone. We have paid police and prison guards and judges in the courts and they will doubtless do all that they can to help. Did you ever ask the court to parole a girl or a boy to you instead of allowing him to go to jail? Girls and boys have been redeemed and made into good citizens, when most people thought it was too late to help. "Big Brothers" have come to the aid of many a boy for his good. "Alcoholics Anonymous" has become one of the major redemptive forces of our time. Here are men willing to take time to help and the returns are almost miraculous. Let the Church help you before it is a little late.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial and a stronger alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Fibber's Favorite Is Ham and Cheese

Fibber McGee's favorite sandwich, as made by Molly, is a super duper ham and cheese on enriched white bread. The famous stars of the Johnson's Wax radio program often go on picnics, and here's how Molly makes Fibber's favorite sandwich. Frizzle slices of cooked ham in hot butter or margarine, adding 1½ teaspoons of drained prepared horseradish to each 2 tablespoons of butter or margarine. Place the ham between slices of enriched white bread with a slice of cheese and crisp lettuce.

Five Features That Every Farm Home Should Have

COLLEGE STATION—Housing experts agree on five features that every well-planned farmhouse should have.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A. and M. College, says these features have been named "Farmhouse Specials" by Mrs. Lenore Sater Thye, who is in charge of housing and household equipment research in the USDA's Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics.

Briefly, the five features are:

- 1) Entrance to both living and work rooms convenient to the main driveway, which also should be convenient to the farm buildings.
- 2) A well-located kitchen, with a view of the drive and farm buildings. "This feature has a number of advantages," Mrs. Thye says. "The housewife can see any visitor arriving, keep in touch with the children outdoors and have a watchful eye on the farmstead when the men are in the fields."
- 3) Good traffic lanes, so that all parts of the house may be reached without passing through the kitchen work areas and other centers of activity.
- 4) Adequate work areas for preparing and preserving food.
- 5) Adequate dining area in a pleasant place, with enough space to serve and eat regular meals.

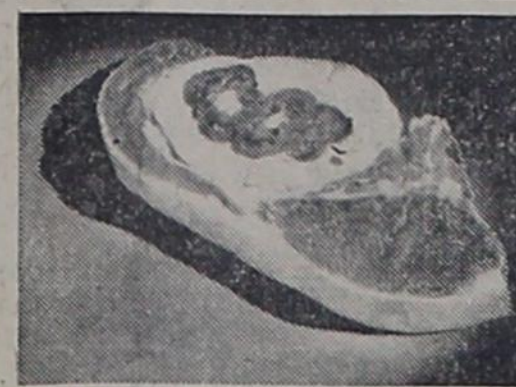

"These farmhouse specials are important in any farm and ranch home, whether in Texas or in some other part of the country," Mrs. Claytor points out. "They are also points to be considered in building a home in town."

Tips On How To Pack Suits In A Bag

COLLEGE STATION—Packing a man's suit in a traveling bag often presents a problem—especially to men. It's a pretty hard job trying to pack a man's suit without winding up at the end of the journey with more creases than there should be.

Mary Routh, extension clothing specialist of Texas A. and M. College, has a few tips on how to get where you're going with the least number of wrinkles. Such practice lengthens the life of the suit and saves pressing bills as well.

Don't spare the tissue paper in suit packing, Miss Routh advises. Use it generously. It helps keep the wrinkles out of suits. Now, for the average suitcase—wider than the gladstone—lay the coat flat on a table or bed, with the collar and lapels turned up. Lap the right front over the left front, bringing both sides over as far as possible without wrinkling the suit.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. This is a veal kidney chop.

Q. Where does the cut come from and how is it identified?

A. The veal kidney chop is cut from the rib end of loin. It is a loin chop cut to contain a cross-section of the kidney.

Q. How should this cut be prepared?

A. The veal kidney chop should be braised, as should all veal chops or steaks, since veal has little fat. Brown the meat in a small amount of hot fat. When browned, add a small amount of liquid (¼ cup) and cook the meat slowly, with the pan covered, until the chops are tender. This takes from 45 to 60 minutes.

Sleeves should lie smoothly along the coat. Turn them a little above the elbow and fold up. Then pick up the lower edge of the suit and fold toward suit's top.

With a gladstone bag, the only difference is making one more fold in the body of the coat—up and back. The coat sleeves are not folded separately as for the suitcase.

Trousers are no problem, Miss Routh says. Just make sure the creases are straight and the pockets smooth inside. Fold them over once or twice, depending on the size of the bag.

Suits aren't hard to pack if the job is done right.

These eight preventable causes account for most of the farm fire losses: sparks on combustible roofs, defective chimneys, spontaneous combustion, improper use of kerosene and gasoline, unsafe furnace and stove installations, misuse of electricity and appliances, carelessness with matches and inadequate lighting protection.

Harvest Season

... Finds Us Ready

The wheat harvest season finds us in better shape to handle your grain than we have been in recent years.

Our 60,000 bushel elevator at Lariat is empty and we have a good number of railroad cars on the siding awaiting our use. We will be able to handle your grain in any manner you wish . . . either storage or outright sale.

The Kernes Grain & Seed Co., of which this firm is an affiliate, has a new one and one-half million bushel storage elevator under construction at Fort Worth, which will be ready for use in the near future.

In the meantime, however, we have made arrangements to store your wheat elsewhere if such should be necessary. At any rate, you may rest assured your grain will be taken care of in the proper manner when it is brought to us.

The same service and satisfaction that we have always given goes with each transaction when you dump with us, and your business will be greatly appreciated.

Yes, a penny's BIG money!

When you spend it for electricity, of course! That important little penny will do any one of these things for you . . .

 1¢ ... vacuum clean 6 large rugs	 1¢ ... toast 3 full loaves of bread
 1¢ ... beat and mix 6 layer cakes	 1¢ ... wash and dry 6 loads of dishes
 1¢ ... bring you an evening of radio	 1¢ ... light a 100-watt lamp more than 3 hours

It's amazing what your electric penny buys in comfort and efficiency and real living values. It takes a lot of skill and experience—yes, and sound business management—to keep electric service the biggest bargain in your budget today. (And this, remember, in spite of the rising costs of making and delivering electricity to you!) Truly, electricity does a lot for a little!

Baptists Commemorate Fortieth Anniversary

Baptist men of Texas will commemorate the fortieth anniversary of their Brotherhood organization Thursday, June 23. Men of the First Baptist church, Gatesville, where the organization began, will be hosts for the statewide meeting.

The Brotherhood is a study and fellowship group for laymen in Baptist churches. It corresponds to the Woman's Missionary society for Baptist women.

The celebration will begin Thursday evening with a band concert by the Gatesville high school and the Baylor university bands. This will be followed by a barbecue with the men from all over the state as guests.

Those appearing on the program include Judge Thomas J. Pitts, Odessa, state Brotherhood president; L. H. Tapscott, executive secretary of the state organization; Dr. R. E. Bell, Decatur, pastor of the Gatesville church when the laymen organized; and R. E. Dudley, Dallas, executive editor, The Baptist Standard.

Among the prominent Baptist laymen who are to be special guests for the evening are Dr. Gordon C. Singleton, president of Mary Hardin-Baylor college, Belton; Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor university, Waco; Hon. Pat M. Neff, former governor of Texas; and A. D. Foreman Sr., Abilene, first president of the Southern Baptist Laymen's convention.

First called the Laymen's council, the Brotherhood was organized in 1909 at the suggestion of Dan E. Graves, still living in Gatesville. The late A. D. Homeycutt served as the first president, and the Hon. H. E. Bell, now of Houston, was the first secretary.

The organization later spread over the state, becoming the Southern Baptist Laymen's convention. Still later, it was named the Baptist Brotherhood.

Presiding over the evening's activities will be Ted Brumalaw, president of the Gatesville group. Moving pictures of the program are to be made for showing at the state Brotherhood convention in El Paso in November.

Double-Ring Ceremony Reception Tendered For Hammonds-Gulley New Pastor, Family

Miss Bobbie Joe Hammonds, daughter of Mrs. R. G. Hammonds of the Oklahoma Lane community, became the bride of Bobby Gulley of Muleshoe, in a double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., in the home of the bride's mother.

Minister Lewis C. Cox, pastor of the Lariat Church of Christ, performed the candlelight ceremony before an altar of cut flowers surrounded with green fern.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Bob Hammonds, who gave her in marriage, as the traditional wedding march, "Here Comes The Bride", and "I Love You Truly" were played softly by Herbert Jenkins.

The bride was beautifully attired in a street length dress of brown net with matching linen accessories, and carried a white Bible topped with a nosegay of white talisman roses. The traditional "something old, new, blue and borrowed" was carried out by the bride.

Miss Bettie Gulley, sister of the groom, was maid-of-honor, wearing a yellow eyelet embroidery dress with brown accessories, and carried a bouquet of yellow lillies.

Leonard Jennings served as best man, and Misses Barbara Foster and Jo Veta Billingsley were candle lighters.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the brides home.

After the first piece of cake had been traditionally cut by the bride and groom, cake and punch was served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hammonds, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilkinson, Miss Barbara Foster, Howard Jennings, Dudley Hughes, Mrs. E. J. Gulley and children, Mrs. D. O. Hobson Jr., of Amarillo, Mrs. H. H. Henson, Lamesa, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Billingsley, Bo Jenkins, Dug Smith, Portales, Jim Bob Smith, Portales, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Cox and Janie, Clovis, Deb Smith, Portales, Mrs. J. L. Garrett, Clovis, Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Clovis, Mrs. Jessie Sarraus, Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jennings, and the bride's mother, Mrs. R. G. Hammonds.

After a honeymoon trip to Carlsbad, the couple will be at home in Hereford where Mr. Gulley is employed.

Mrs. Gulley is a graduate of the Oklahoma Lane school of 1948, and Mr. Gulley graduated from the same school in 1946.

Special Services For Methodist Church

Rev. Murphy Duncan, pastor of the local Methodist church, stated today that special services will be held at the church next Sunday, with visiting ministers occupying the pulpit.

At the 11 o'clock hour, Clifton Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Henderson of this city, and a divinity student at the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., will deliver the sermon.

At 8:30 p. m., Rev. Carl Clements, district superintendent, will preach, after which he will preside at the meeting of the first quarterly conference.

Morton Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham spent Sunday in Morton, as guests in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Ross and family, observing Father's Day.

Reception Tendered New Pastor, Family

A good representation of membership of the local Methodist church gathered in the church parlors last Thursday evening to tender a reception to Rev. and Mrs. Murphy Duncan and family, who were sent here to head the church for the next year.

Following an informal gathering, presided over by B. N. Graham, during which time the crowd sang a number of hymns, Mrs. Graham presented the Duncans to those present.

Following this, punch and wafers was served to the attending members.

Concluding the evening gathering, a generous "pounding" was presented by the new pastor and family. Rev. Duncan, in behalf of the family, expressed their appreciation and pledged for the whole-hearted support of the church membership in order that "the Kingdom of God might be advanced in this community."

Bruce-Barnes Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Ardith Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Barnes, of Mountain Home, Ark., and James B. Bruce, son of Mrs. W. H. Koon's, exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony performed in the Methodist church, at Mountain Home, Ark., March 19, at 2 o'clock.

The bride was lovely in a grey suit with brown accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of pink carnations.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Norfolk Lake in Arkansas.

Mrs. Bruce graduated from the Mountain Grove, Ark., high school with the class of 1949, and Bruce graduated from Augusta, Kan., high school in 1939.

The marriage of the couple was made known locally when they came to make their home on the Mose Glasscock farm south of Farwell. Mrs. Glasscock is a sister of Mrs. Bruce.

New Officers Elected For Youth Group

Mr. Carter was formerly superintendent of the Farwell schools, and is now educational director of the First Methodist church in Lubbock.

A group of local ladies plan to attend an inter-post meeting in Pampa Thursday night. The meeting will be concluded with a covered luncheon.

The next regular meeting, which will be held the third Monday night in July, will be election of new officers. The president has appointed Miss Iris Thornton, Mrs. Ruth Meeks, and Mrs. Carolyn Martin as a nominating committee, and the officers nominated will be put before the entire group for the election.

High Speed Cotton
Chopper Does Quick Job

COLLEGE STATION—The rotary hoe is doing a speed-up job of cotton cultivation, especially in West Texas and the Plains area.

Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton work specialist of Texas A. and M. College, says it works best on the young cotton seedlings in getting rid of the grass and weeds early, the cheapest time to do it.

The main advantage to the rotary hoe is that it speeds up cultivation of early growing cotton. Later on, as the cotton gets taller, this weeding machine doesn't work so well because the plants outgrow it. So the cotton farmer turns to other methods of hoeing.

With all the spring rains farmers got the past months, they're growing a pretty good crop of weeds right along with their cotton. Hand hoeing costs quite a bit, but the rotary hoe cuts hoeing costs down, Elliott says. A common mistake with rotary hoe owners is not operating fast enough. Most of the time a farmer figures he's tearing the seedlings up if he goes too fast. Not so with the rotary hoe.

There are a couple of things to remember when using this machine, Elliott reminds. First, don't set it any deeper than enough to break the crust of the soil. The shallow picking action of the picks pulls up the tender weeds and grass, leaving them to dry out in the wind and sun. The best time to do the job is about a week after a rain.

And second, the best operating speed for the rotary hoe is between six and eight miles per hour—least four and a half mph., running in third gear.

By keeping the bed flat, you'll avoid throwing seed and grass around the cotton seedlings. It's a good idea to delay "dirting" the cotton until it gets a good start, Elliott concludes.

Gather eggs three time a day—mid-morning, noon and evening. Poultry men have found that about 75 percent of the eggs laid are laid by noon.

We used to read the fashion stories to see what was going on. Now we read them to see what's coming off.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

1. Are there any figures to show the effects of treating stock cattle with DDT?

Yes, Kansas State College has put out a bulletin giving actual results in test demonstrations using DDT to control the horn fly. More than two million cattle were successfully treated with DDT for horn flies during the 1946 grazing season. These cattle gained about 50 lbs. a head more than untreated cattle. According to this, horn flies were causing a loss of at least 10 million dollars annually to Kansas cattlemen.

2. What is a pedigree registry certificate, and how does it differ from a breeding certificate?

A pedigree registry certificate certifies that an animal is accepted as eligible for registration in its breed while a breeding certificate merely certifies that the signer's bull, stallion, boar or ram served the specified female on a certain date.

3. What is the proper age for breeding a Jersey heifer?

Tests made over a period of years at the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company show that it is better to breed heifers according to body size rather than age. A Jersey heifer weighing 500 lbs. is fully big enough to breed. Jersey heifers at the Purina Research Farm usually reach this weight by 12 months of age.

"Make Hay While The Sun Shines", Says Miller

COLLEGE STATION—The old proverb goes "Make hay while the sun shines." That's fine, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. and M. College. But he reminds Texas farmers not to let the sun shine to long on their hay.

There's a "best time" to cut every kind of hay. When to cut depends on what hay crop is harvested. If hay is left too long before cutting, it becomes coarse and loses much of its feed value, especially the protein. Prairie grass, for example, can generally wait until there's time and labor available. But even with prairie grass, you can't wait too long, because—like the rest—will lose quality, Miller says.

Sudan and johnson grass can be cut as soon as the first seed head begins to form, or even a little earlier to get the full benefit of high quality protein-rich hay. Cowpeas should be left until the first pods start to ripen.

Sweet clover cut for hay should be cut before the stems get tough and woody—before it blooms. And don't forget to leave five or six inches of stem on the sweet clover so there'll be enough to grow another cutting or two. Alfalfa hay is ripe for harvest when the fields is one-tenth to one-fourth in bloom—or when the young shoots begin to show up at the base of the plants.

If you're growing alfalfa in a field for the first time, it's a good idea to let the crop go to seed—or at least to the full bloom stage—to develop a stronger root system and build longer lived fields, Miller points out.

Legume hay—alfalfa, the clovers and cowpeas—must be raked into rows before the leaves shatter. Grass hay may be left in the swath until fairly well cured. If pickup balers are not handy, stack the hay in small piles before the leaves shatter. Then bale or place in haystacks when sufficiently cured.

The two important processes in hay curing are loss of water—from about 75 percent to 15 or 20 percent, and the chemical change known as "sweating" or fermenting. It is during this sweating process the hay develops an aroma and becomes more palatable, Miller says.

One of the most important things about the hay curing process is getting rid of the hay moisture as quickly as possible and still keep the green hay color. In the humid sections of Texas drying hay in barns with artificial heat is important if you're going to produce a high quality hay with plenty of vitamin A, concludes Miller.

Imagination was given to man to complete him for what he is not, and a sense of humor was provided to console him for what he is.

Clovis Mattress Firms Fined Here Wednesday

Two Clovis firms—the City Mattress Company and the Clovis Mattress Company—paid fines in Justice Jess Newton's court here Wednesday for violations of the Texas health laws.

Specifically, both firms were charged with selling used materials that had been labeled "new material". Two charges were filed against both firms after their drivers had been picked up in Farwell by O. H. Howard and W. A. Roach of the Bedding Division of the State Health Department of Texas.

The City Mattress Co. drew a fine of $50 and costs on one charge, with the second charge being continued. The Clovis Mattress Co. was fined $65 and costs on two charges. County Attorney Sam Aldridge told the driver for the latter firm that he was subjecting himself to prosecution for operating a truck in this state without a Texas vehicle license or a Texas drivers license.

Inspectors Howard and Roach, who filed the complaints, said such violations were common all over the 100 counties in Texas where they operate. They told of instance after instance where mattress factories had been found guilty of selling "stained and bug-infested cotton" covered with new ticking as "new mattresses."

They said if purchasers of mattresses who suspected they had been "gypped" by such operators should ask that their purchases be inspected. This service is offered to the public without cost. Simply notify the State Department of Health, Bedding Division, Austin, Texas, and an inspector will be sent to investigate complaints.

FFA BOYS BACK FROM A & M

Darrell Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Norton, and James Tidenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Tidenberg of Bovina, returned from College Station this week after representing Parmer County at a 4-H conference there. They made the trip with county agent Ollie Liner, who attended a meeting of county agents while there.

The front of the Border Theatre, including the marquee, has been treated to fresh coats of paint this week.

WHEAT HARVEST—

(Continued from front page empty, and more than 700,000 bushels of storage space was available at Bovina, with all three of the grain buyers there reporting empty bins.

At Sherley Grain Co., 50,000 bushels of storage has been made available with the completion early this week of an addition to the elevator. J. P. Macon said he had space for 110,000 bushels and Lee Thompson announced that an even 100,000 bushels of storage was ready at Bovina Wheat Growers.

At Friona and Black, where there is more than a million and a quarter bushels of storage, reports from there were to the effect that all bins were standing ready to receive new grain.

As the harvest began to move to a peak, predictions made earlier that there would be plenty of machines, trucks and men, were not altered materially. Some extra tractor and truck drivers have been in demand this week, but the shortage is not expected to become as acute as is the condition reported on the north plains.

Liner Returns Here From College Station

Ollie Liner, county agent for Parmer county, is back in his office this week after a 6-day stay in College Station, where he attended the Texas County Agent's Conference at Texas A & M College.

Liner said that work done there was fairly routine, and was more in form of lectures, a departure from the old method of visiting the campus to see work done in experiments conducted there.

When asked about the response to the government's proposition for new granaries on the farm in order to avert a shortage of storage, Liner said only a few farmers had applied for blueprints for the structures at his office this week.

The county agent said that as best as he could ascertain, Parmer county would be able to use "about a hundred" additional combines to assist in wheat cutting operations. He said he had notified the U. S. Employment Service that it was likely Parmer would be short on cutting machinery.

BOY SCOUTS CAUSE NIGHT FIRE RUN

The fire department made a run to the Texico school ground about 10:30 the past Thursday night to extinguish a small camp fire that was said to have been left by Boy Scouts.

B. A. Rogers, Texico superintendent, said that the boys had gathered at the school grounds for a weimer roast and has failed to put out their fire completely before leaving the scene. Fresh winds from the east fanned the embers into a blaze after the boys had departed. No damage was done.

 GRANARIES

The Commodity Credit Corporation has agreed to lend farmers money to build needed farm storage facilities. These facilities may be built for wheat or grain sorghums or both. Commodity Credit Corporation will loan the money direct or through the local lending agencies.

The amount of money loaned you will depend on your need for farm storage; not to exceed 85 per cent of the cost of the granary or 45 cents per bushel, whichever is the smaller.

Following are a few questions and answers regarding these loans:

1.—Who is eligible for a loan?

A—Any producer who is in need of additional storage capacity on or nearby his farm to store his own production of wheat and grain sorghums.

2.—Are tenants eligible?

A—Yes. Tenants as well as owner-operators are eligible.

3.—How does a producer file application?

A—At the County ACA office.

4.—Who approves or disapproves the application for a loan?

A—The County ACA committee.

5.—Will the completed storage structures be inspected?

A—Yes. An inspection will be made after the construction is completed.

6.—What interest rate will be charged?

A—The interest rate will be 4 per cent per annum.

7.—For how long a period may the loans be made?

A—For a period not to exceed five years.

We will be glad to help with any other questions you have concerning the loan program if you will call at the local ACA office.

Life is full of ups and downs. But the most difficult of all is keeping appearances up and expenses down.

Local Fireboys Home From State Meeting

Four members of the Texico-Farwell Fire Department returned home last Thursday night from Silver City, where they attended the four-day session of the New Mexico State Firemen's Association.

Those representing the local department were Odas Huggins, Sam Lewis, Olin Harding and Willard Dykes. They made the trip in Dyke's car.

The annual convention drew 250 fire fighters from all over New Mexico and West Texas.

Several men of prominence over the Southwest addressed the convention. The uppermost theme of many talks was to be on the alert for arsonists.

"Your first duty is to rescue persons in danger, and then put out the fire," said Herb Watson, Denver, representing the National Board of Fire Underwriters. "After that," he said, "look for evidence of arson."

Seeking the re-establishment of a school for firemen with roving instructors to hold classes in various towns, was the chief item of business.

Re-establishment of the school, which was discontinued at the beginning of the war, was sought in a resolution adopted at the convention. Dr. H. W. James, president of State Teachers College, Silver City, promised his support in revising the instruction setup.

Instructors would be hired, under the present plan, and would travel from town to town helping organize and train fire departments. Dr.

James said that about $10,000 should be set up the program.

He said that $5,000 of that amount could be raised from federal vocational education funds if the state or some other group could match the initial amount. He suggested asking the state board of finance for the funds.

New Power Line Work Completed In Farwell

Installation of badly needed new power lines for a large part of Farwell was completed last week by Southwestern Public Service, reported Odas Huggins, secretary for the company branch here.

Huggins said power for two main streets in Farwell was re-routed through alleys behind city homes in order that lines might be free from interference aggravated by contact with low-hanging tree branches in many front yards.

About forty old power poles were rooted from in front of homes and were replaced with new equipment coursing through the alleys.

Huggins said the company would do the work for installation of the forthcoming street lighting system to be added in Texico, but was uncertain when work would begin.

Some people are just like taxi drivers. They go through life just missing everything.

SUFFERS BURNED ARM

Linda Phillips, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. (Bunk) Phillips, was burned, but not seriously, last Thursday when an electric iron fell from the ironing board and onto the youngster, who was on a divan near her mother. The hot iron contacted the arm and caused painful burns. Family members said Tuesday she was getting along nicely and it did not appear likely that a scar would remain.
