Sad-Eyed Reporter Depicts Plight Of July 4th Vacation-Picnickers

Ed's note: This dissertation, written by a Tribune cub reporter, is supposed to be an outline of a typical day's outing on the 4th. Maybe you'll recognize the setting, especially if you have just returned from a holiday vacation.

If our forefathers could have looked ahead and saw what happened on the Fourth of July in later years, they would probably not have signed the Declaration of Independence.

The utter state of confusion of the average American family trying to celebrate this day with a picnic and a few fireworks would have mortified our seekers of independence. Let's take a look at one of those typical families on the great American holiday . . .

With a huge lunch balanced in the laps of the family, they lurch forth in the old jalopy, spilling the baked beans. A chorus of anxious voices cry they didn't want any beans anyhow, so the journey grinds on.

The jovial crowd heads for the picnic grounds, but first, a stop at the fireworks stand is in order. Junior and Little Sis want everything the stand has to offer, but are unable to understand why they can't have it. Pop's spirits are struck a low blow when he is forced to pay an abominable sum for a tiny sack of fireworks.

Two flats and an empty gas tank later, the valiant fun-seekers arrive at the park just in time to be too late for a table. The best place the now grimy group can find is a barren, rocky spot devoid of shade, and inhabited by the little creeping, crawling green things.

Ignoring the discomforts, they spread the lunch, minus baked beans, and prepare to enjoy themselves. Before starting to eat, everyone gets his share of potato salad. (Junior dropped a lighted firecracker into it.) The lunch is quickly consumed along with a little dirt, a few insects, and anything else that gets in the way.

The family mutt was last seen speeding north with a rocket tied to his tail and has not been seen since. Little Sis burnt her hand on a sparkler; Pop was showered with a cluster of gravel from a torpedo, but Mom was lucky—all she got was an excellent case of shattered nerves.

Wearily packing the left-overs into the car, now simmering from a blistering sun, the family try to make themselves believe they have had a good time, but in their private thinking they know better.

Tempers are strained when the disconsolate patriots reach home, but time's yearly pilgrimage will find them going through identical horrors next July 4th—the All-American holiday!

Mass Meeting Called To Talk Health Deal

Aroused to action by the appearance of a case of polio right in our own front yard, a mass meeting of all people in Texico-Farwell has been called for Thursday night at the Legion Hall to formulate plans for launching a health program for the Twin Cities.

The meeting has been called for 8:30 p. m., and every family in Texico should be represented. Ladies of the community especially are urged to be present.

It is already too late to prevent the appearance of infantile paralysis here, but drastic and immediate action may keep this dread disease from striking your home next. Let's start some action without further delay.

Harvest Nears Conclusion In Parmer County Area

Favored by ideal weather conditions, harvesting operations of Parmer County's satisfactory wheat crop began to reach the final stages here this week, with the prediction that all grain would be under cover within the next few days.

As the harvest neared its finish, reports of satisfactory yields continued to hold forth with practically all fields yielding 20 bushels to the acre and upward, with some fields running as high as 40 and 45 bushels. There were a number of 30-bushel reports from over the county.

This is in sharp contrast to much of the yield in the north plains, where fields that were estimated to run 30 bushels and better are reported to be turning out 15 to 18 bushels.

Elevator men over the country, when contacted the first of the week, gave it as their opinion the harvest was virtually completed in the southern part of the country, and that another week would complete the combining up in the extreme northeastern part of the county.

Except for brief delays at Friona when the harvest began to get into full swing, there have been no bottlenecks reported. During the past week all trucks have been dumped promptly and sent on their way for another load.

Predictions made before harvest began that there would be ample storage in the county for all the grain are holding true. Some shifting from one elevator to another has been necessary occasionally, but all trucks have been able to dispose of their cargos.

Grain men are still holding to their early estimate of a three-million bushel crop in the county, despite a severe strip of hail that crossed the county diagonally, claiming some of the best grain in the county.

It may be several weeks before a more accurate estimate of the county yield may be determined by records kept at the various elevators of the county.

Construction Begins On Osteopathic Clinic

Construction was started over the past weekend on a six-room building to be used as an osteopathic clinic and will be operated by Mary Leone McNeff, local osteopath.

Mrs. W. H. Osborne is erecting the building, which will be frame stucco construction and is scheduled to be completed August 15.

It is located one block south of the Security State Bank on the lots formerly occupied by the 2-story red residence.

Dr. McNeff said today she planned to have a delivery room, an X-ray room, a room for minor surgery, and as many bed rooms as the limited space will accommodate.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drace and daughter, Mona Lynn, of Abernathy, spent the weekend visiting in the home of Mrs. Drace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore in Texico.

Safe, Sane Fourth Of July Backfires On Careful Father

Just to make sure all three of his small children would pull through the observance of Independence Day in a safe, sane manner, Sterlyn Billington was instructing his small fry on the art of lighting firecrackers early the day of the Fourth.

Unfortunately, the careful father was not the expert at lighting firecrackers he had imagined himself.

You guessed it. A cracker exploded and the local barber is wearing a bandage, well smeared with burn ointment, on his right hand.

Car And Truck Crash Near Bovina Elevator

Cotton Barnes, resident of the Lazzibuddy community, is reported to be seriously hurt from injuries received when his car collided with two Bovina grain trucks near Sheryl's elevator last Wednesday afternoon.

According to the spectators of the collision, Barnes was entering the city limits in his late model Studebaker when he sideswiped the truck of I. W. Quickel, Bovina resident. The impact from the first crash directed Barnes' car directly into a Chevrolet pickup loaded with wheat, owned by Buck Ellison, also of Bovina.

Neither of the two truck drivers, who were reported to be leaving the elevator, was injured, but Barnes' car badly smashed by the impact, was cut about the head as he was thrown from the car.

The pickup and the car, which received the brunt of the smashup, both careened into the ditch north of the road. State highway patrolmen investigated the accident, but could not be contacted for comment.

Thundershowers had visited the community the afternoon of the wreck, but spectators said very little if any rain was falling at the time of the accident, which was about 7:30.

Superintendent Williams Outlines New State Aid

"The over-all picture for Farwell schools is much brighter," said Jack Williams, superintendent of Farwell schools, last week after he had returned from a meeting of district superintendents at Plainview.

Williams and the other superintendents were called to Plainview in order that the new Gilmer-Aikin bill, a new policy for state aid to public schools, might be thrashed out.

The superintendent said one of the major concerns of the school was the question of how many teachers would be allowed by the new legislation. According to him, teachers are distributed to schools on a daily average attendance.

This would mean that the local school would contain thirteen-classroom units, or enough groups of students to warrant thirteen full-time teachers.

The teachers allowed by the state have the exclusion of vocational instructors, principals, and superintendents, so the teacher total would probably be raised to 17, when these others are added.

Considerably more money would be granted this year for buses, disclosed Williams, and added that this would be the first year in a long time the school would come close to operating buses within the budget allowed by state aid.

Formerly the bus aid rate was $35 for every student transported per year. Now the total has been raised to $49.50, giving the transportation situation a definite "shot in the arm."

Also, more money will be given by the state to boost aid for operation. Up until enactment of the Gilmer-Aikin bill, the school was allowed $350 per student for one year of operation. Now the total has been raised to $400.

Williams, in explaining the new Gilmer-Aikin program, said there existed for the state school system a $45 million foundation fund. Parts of this fund were to be measured out to every county in order to determine how much they would be able to return to the fund.

"Districts that have a larger income than ours, like an oil-producing area, will have a much higher pay-back rate," said superintendent Williams.

The Parmer County Commissioners Court, in session here Monday, issued an order for a special election to be held Saturday, August 13, at which time voters of the county will either approve or reject a bond issue in the amount of $800,000 to be used in construction of a series of hard-surfaced farm-to-market roads in the county.

Previously, on May 28, voters of the county turned down by a margin of eight votes a bond issue in the amount of $1,150,000 for a road program in the county.

The overall program calls for approximately 140 miles of paved roads to be distributed among four precincts of the county. Final allocation of the number of miles to be placed in the various precincts of the county will be determined by distribution of funds realized from the bonds, should the issue be adopted.

The Commissioners Court agreed on the following distribution of the bond monies: Precinct 1, 30 percent; Precinct 2, 25 percent; Precinct 3, 23 percent; Precinct 4, 22 percent. It was explained this distribution is the same used in dividing road and bridge monies of the county at the present time.

Officials expressed the belief that all routes designated in the various precincts of the county could probably be built with funds realized from the bonds, with the possible exception of the Friona precinct, which is asking for more miles of paving than any other precinct in the county.

State Highway Engineer Greer, in a conference with members of the Commissioners Court in Austin recently, stated it was the intention of the State to proceed just as rapidly as possible with the State's designations in the county, and advised members of the Court to exclude any and all State designations from the county's program of road building.

Some changes in road designations have come about during the past week, all of which will be fully set forth in subsequent issues of this newspaper.

Changes in designations of most interest to people of Precinct 3 call for five miles east from Lariat along the H. T. Edwards road, and two miles on the Farwell townsite, which will take care of approximately 25 blocks of street paving.

Bovina Citizen Loses $700 To Sneak Thief

L. A. (Lawrence) Darsey, Bovina laborer, sustained a loss of $700 in cash Thursday night of last week when an unknown sneak thief entered his home in west Hereford and relieved him of that amount in greenbacks, he reported Friday.

Darsey, who, for the most part, devotes his time to repairing windmills and well equipment, said he had the money in a billfold, tucked in the bib pocket of his overalls when it disappeared.

He said when he and his wife retired Thursday night, he placed his clothes on a chair near his bed, "close enough I could reach out and touch them." And when he got up the next morning to put on his clothes, "I didn't have any clothes."

He said his overalls were found in the yard near the house, but his purse and money were gone. A case containing his eyeglasses and a second small purse had been pitched down on his clothing.

Darsey explained he had two purses, "one that contained the seven hundred dollars, that I kept in the bib pocket of my overalls, and another purse that I carried in my side pocket. I had a dollar bill in the second purse, and they left it after taking out the dollar bill, but the purse was gone."

He said he had no idea who the sneak thief might be, adding, "I don't know of a person in the world that knew I had that money."

Darsey said the sneak left him so completely "broke" that he had to borrow money Friday morning to buy his breakfast.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Mrs. Jerry Meeks returned home Monday evening from Plainview, where she visited her brother, Donald Ray Verner, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Verner, who is receiving treatment there for polio. Mrs. Meeks said her brother seemed to be "somewhat brighter," although he continues to spend most of his time in an iron lung.

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

Well, we have sat around and done nothing about the eradication of flies and mosquitoes until we have at least one case of infantile paralysis in Farwell. Whether or not flies and mosquitoes are directly responsible for polio, we are not in a position to state definitely. The best guide we can go by on this score is the advice of the department of health, which has repeatedly stated both these insects may be responsible. Recently, a meeting of local citizens suggested an assessment be placed against every water meter in the Twin Cities as a means of raising funds to carry out a health program. Naturally, there has been some objection to such an assessment, but we have failed to find a single person who has come forth with a better suggestion for raising and maintaining a permanent health fund. Neither have we found a single individual who does not agree we need to rid our community of disease-carrying insects as well as cut the weeds. But the fact remains that WE ARE DOING NOTHING. The health of our citizenship—especially our children, who are the most susceptible to polio—is the most important thing we need to think about. Let's get behind a workable health plan of some kind. Personally, we are in favor of the meter assessment plan. But if you have a better, workable plan, where all the citizenship will share in the program, let's hear from you. Something must be done and at once . . . let's face that fact and then gird ourselves to the task!

Elliott Returned To Home From Hospital

C. R. Elliott, hardware dealer, who suffered second- and third-degree burns June 16, was permitted to leave a Friona hospital last Friday, and was returned to his home in Bovina.

Elliott was burned while engaged in operating a weed burner near some implements he had on a vacant lot in Bovina, when the hose burst and sprayed gasoline on him above the waist. The gasoline ignited and he was quite severely burned about arms, chest, hands, and back.

Family members said his most serious burn was on the upper right arm. He was reported to be recovering slowly from the burns.

BOVINA MINISTER OPERATED

Rev. Oscar Bruce, who only recently assumed his duties as pastor of the Methodist Church as Bovina, was taken to Amarillo last Thursday for surgical attention.

Fifty-Seven City Lots Go To Highest Bidders

Fifty-seven town lots, all located in Farwell, went to highest bidders at the courthouse Tuesday at sheriff's sale, conducted by Sheriff Charley Lovelace, to satisfy delinquent tax judgments rendered against the property by the district court.

C. M. Henderson bought the largest number of lots, being high bidder on 25 of them, all located in the northeast part of the townsite near his present holdings.

Three of the listings failed to bring a satisfactory bid and were declared "no sale" by Sheriff Lovelace.

Sales listed were as follows: Lots 29 and 30, block 18, W. H. Graham; Lots 7, 8, 9, 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, block 10, C. M. Henderson; Lots 10, 11, 17, 18, 19, 31, 32, block 11, "Smokey" Gast; Lots 7, 28, 29, block 14, John Aldridge; Lots 13, 14, block 21, C. M. Henderson; Lots 7, 8, 9, block 24, W. H. Graham; Lots 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 17, 18, E. E. Booth; Lots 7, 8, 9, block 20, C. M. Henderson; Lot 26, block 18, J. R. Thornton; Lots 27, 28, block 28, John Aldridge; Lot 20, block 16, Billy G. Meeks; Lots 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 17, 18, 19, block 7, C. M. Henderson.

Growers Rush Local Office For Loans

Joe Camp, secretary of the local ACA office, said today his office was being swamped with government loan applications on the current wheat crop.

Up until Tuesday noon, 228 loans had been made to growers of the county on wheat kept in approved storage of the county, and "a few" applications for farm storage had been made. Tuesday morning's business at the Parmer office saw 59 loans being approved before the noon hour.

Camp said since approved government storage was available in the county, practically all farmers were using this avenue for storing their wheat, and saving their storage on the farms for grain sorghums this fall.

The loan rate in Farwell as this was written Tuesday afternoon was $1.66 per bushel. The rate was due an increase of "about three cents" any day, but no information on the increase has been received here.

FATHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pruitt of the Oklahoma Lane community, were called to Lamesa last Sunday by the death of Mr. Pruitt's father. Funeral services were held at Lamesa Tuesday, and the body was taken to Oklahoma for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadley and children of Rule, Texas, spent the weekend visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hadley.

Health Notes

By State Department of Health

AUSTIN—A deficiency of salt in the human system can cause serious consequences, and for this reason Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises every person whose work is such that it causes excessive perspiration to add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water taken during the day.

Farmers, mechanics, carpenters, construction men and all others whose work causes them to sweat profusely are in danger of having their body salt content seriously depleted, and as a result may suffer from heat cramps or heat fag. Salt is prominent constituent of sweat, and when the thermometer hits the high register, the human body may lose as much as 40 to 50 grams of salt during a single day.

In many industrial plants, workmen are furnished with and urged to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Many find this is a pleasant way of taking extra salt, but others prefer to add the needed amount of extra salt to their food.

"Take your extra salt in any manner that is agreeable to you," says Dr. Cox, "but take it. Heat cramps are very painful and exhausting. They are characterized by cramps in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases there may be nausea and vomiting. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until a deficiency occurs then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp."

According to the State Health Officer, it is a wise precaution to keep the body supplied with salt, and thus avoid much possible suffering and loss of time from heat cramps.

First Annual Basketball Tourney Planned

PLAINVIEW—The first annual high school basketball tournament at Wayland College is being planned for next fall, Athletic Director Harley Redin announced here today. He has informed 18 top notch basketball schools from the surrounding area of the general plans for the tournament and has asked them to express ideas of their own to be incorporated in the tournament so that the eight teams who accept the bid will be getting the experience they need most.

Dates for the tournament are December 16 and 17. Redin stated that in an early season tournament such as this he believes the participants will want the strongest competition available. The tournament will be planned with this idea as a guide.

The eight entries will be announced and final plans made within a few days, he announced. Several schools have already expressed a desire to enter the tournament.

Coach Redin stated this tournament will give each entrant a chance to be in competition with top teams from different sections of the area surrounding Plainview.

Schools that have been written in regard to this tournament are Childress, Memphis, Hollis, Oklahoma; Lubbock, Dimmitt, Sudan, Plainview, Big Springs, Gruver, Phillips, Abernathy, Lamesa, Tulia, Pampa, Canyon, Carey, Tuncumaci, New Mexico and Clovis, New Mexico.

Carpenters To Have Book Learning Under New Program

AUSTIN—Carpenters' apprentices who have had to depend upon experience only to learn their trade will soon be supplementing it with "book learning" under a program prepared by the University of Texas Industrial and Business Training bureau.

A standard course of study with instructional material is being readied. The Associated General Contractors of Texas and the State Council of Carpenters each chipped in $1,000 and asked the bureau to do the job. State and federal vocational funds brought the grants-in-aid up to $8,000.

The program is being prepared in cooperation with the State Board for vocational education.

A pouny man was asked what his father did.

He replied: "He cleans out the bank."

"Janitor or president?" asked the questioner.

Bobby: "Sister must be able to see in the dark."

Mother: "How so?"

Bobby: "Because last night when she was sitting with Mr. Staylate, in the parlor, I heard her say, 'Why Tom, you haven't shaved.'"

"Jim will be in the hospital a long time."

"Why, have you seen the doctor?"

"No, the nurse."

Cut Down On Glass Breakage This Summer

COLLEGE STATION—Summer months call for heavy use of glassware for cool drinks and chilled desserts. The glassware casualty list is likely to be heavy before the summer is over.

Sudden changes in temperature are responsible for the untimely end of glassware, Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A. & M. College, points out. That is why hot water should not be poured over glass in washing or rinsing, but instead, the glass should be laid gently into the water.

"Glass should not go directly from the refrigerator to warm dishwater; neither should jars of food, hot from the canner, stand in a breeze to cool," Mrs. Claytor said. "Glass expands with heat, contracts with cold; if forced to do either too suddenly, it often cracks or breaks."

She suggests that in making iced tea or coffee in glass, pour the hot beverage slowly onto the ice rather than against the glass or—more safely—make the beverage in a china or pottery pitcher and then pour into the glasses.

To save glass from taking a rap in dishwashing, there are circular rubber gaskets which fit over the end of faucets; rubber mats for the bottom of the sink or dishpan, or for the counters on either side of the sink. The rubber-covered dish drainers also give protection.

"The time-honored dishwashing rule is 'glass first, silver second, china third'," Mrs. Claytor said. "Glass gets first place because it needs clean suds with no trace of grease to come out clear and shining."

Last but not least, save glassware with convenient, safe storage arrangements. Narrow shelves for tumblers allow each to stand separately with no stacking or doubling up, and no reaching behind, the specialist concluded.

4-H Rifle Club Is Organized In Texas

COLLEGE STATION—Coaches and instructors of 4-H junior rifle clubs in Texas formed the Texas State 4-H Junior Rifle Club at a meeting held during the annual 4-H Round-Up on June 15. All 4-H junior rifle clubs that are affiliated with the National Rifle Association are eligible for membership.

The purpose of the new organization is to unify procedures and methods used in training and conducting rifle matches on the county, district and state levels.

Representatives from 16 counties attended the organizational meeting. They were from Harris, Lamb, McMullen, Jim Wells, Bexar, Refugio, Potter, Matagorda, Mason, Upshur, Kent, Washington, Austin, Wharton, Calhoun and Waller. State directors elected were: D. F. Eaton, Jr., Lamb county; C. W. Wilhoit, Archer; B. F. LaRue Anderson; Wesley Sherrill, Washington; Bob Lilly, Calhoun; W. E. A. Meinscher, Austin, and J. H. Rothe, Brown. R. E. Callender, extension specialist in wildlife conservation, College Station, was named an advisor to the board of directors. All members of the board are either county agricultural agents or assistants.

W. E. A. Meinscher was named chairman, Wesley Sherrill, vice-chairman, and Bob Lilly, secretary-treasurer of the organization. Meinscher is also a member of the National Junior Advisory Committee of the National Rifle Association.

Rifle shooting has been conducted in Texas as a regular part of the camping program for 4-H boys for ten years and state matches have been fired for almost as many years. The program was started to teach the young farm boys how to handle and use firearms safely, and this is still a prime objective of the program. So far as is known, no boy who has been trained in this program has ever had a fatal accident with a rifle.

Counties To Be Credited For Savings Bond Sales

DALLAS—Purchases of Series E Savings Bonds through Saturday, July 16, will be credited to county and state quotas in the Opportunity Drive.

This announcement was made in Dallas by Nathan Adams, Chairman of the Treasury Department's Advisory Committee for Texas, who explained that although the promotional phase of the drive ended June 30, the accounting period continues through July 16.

Adams said Texas would substantially exceed its drive quota of $36,950,000 if sales continue at their present rate.

He said sales as of Saturday, June 25, were $32,637,000, or 88.3 per cent of the quota. He also reported that 79 counties already had exceeded their individual quotas and the others were expected to do so by the end of the accounting period.

Methuselah is supposed to have lived 969 years.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Massongill And Erwin In Church Rites

In an impressive double-ring ceremony performed at Calvary Baptist church in Paramount, Calif., Miss Virginia Massongill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Massongill, of Paramount, became the bride of Jack Erwin, Jr., also of that city, Friday evening, June 24, at 8 p. m.

The candlelight services were performed by the pastor, Rev. Milton Gould, before an improvised altar of soft pastel flowers, beneath an archway of white flowers, with candles burning softly in the background.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a bridal gown of white slipper satin, with a finger tip veil of white net held in place with a teira of pearls. She wore white satin ballerina slippers, and carried a spray of orchids surrounded by white steffens and streamers of white satin ribbon, which extended almost to the floor. For "something old and borrowed," the bride carried a lace trimmed handkerchief belonging to the grandmother of the groom. "Something new" was a string of pearls, a gift from the groom, and for "something blue," she wore the traditional blue garter. For good luck she wore a penny in her shoe.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Harriet Andrews, aunt of the groom. She was dressed in a pastel blue net over a taffeta, with a lace bolero. She carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds surrounded by delicate white flowers and a net edging.

Bridesmaids were two school mates of the bride, Miss Dorothy Lyons, who was attired in a green taffeta with a matching net dress, and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies; and Miss Barbara August, who was dressed in orchid net over a matching taffeta slip, and she also carried yellow daisies.

Little Miss Dianne Massongill, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, dressed in yellow organdy, and carrying a basket of orchid petals. Bill Jordan was ring bearer.

Allen Hale performed the duties of best man, and Jim Erwin and Carl Greenler acted as ushers.

Miss Joyce Schanche of Long Beach, Calif., furnished soft music during the ceremony, and Miss Judy Schanche sang "Always," and "Because," and at the conclusion of the services she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother was dressed in a navy and gray suit with navy accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a navy dress with white accessories with a corsage of pink rosebuds for the occasion.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor, with Mrs. Clyde Massongill, aunt of the bride, registering the 150 guests.

The three-tiered wedding cake was baked by the groom's grandmother, which was traditionally sliced by the bride and groom. Mrs. Francis Evans and Mrs. Ann August presided at the serving table during the reception.

Following the reception, the couple left for a week long honeymoon trip to Sequoia, Calif. For traveling the bride chose a pink linen suit with white accessories. They will be at home in Compton, Calif., following the honeymoon trip.

Mrs. Erwin is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Massongill of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crume and family enjoyed a weekend visit to Tres Ritos, N. M.

Pruitt-Coston Exchange Vows In Garden Rite

Miss Wanda Joy Pruitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pruitt of the Oklahoma Lane community, exchanged vows with T. J. Coston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Coston, of Clovis, in a beautiful double-ring ceremony Sunday morning, June 26, at 10:45. The Rev. Hughes, pastor of the Ranchvale Baptist church performed the ceremony amid the floral setting of the lovely garden of the bride's home before an archway of roses.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Thompson, cousins of the bride sang, "I Love You Truly," after which Mrs. Thompson played the traditional wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harold Pruitt, Texico, who escorted her to the improvised altar. She was dressed in a white satin dress with a sweetheart neckline, long petal point sleeves, and featured tiny covered buttons down the bodice back which came to a point at the waistline. She carried a white Bible topped with a nosegay of white gardenias.

In observing the bridal tradition of "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue," the bride wore pearl earrings belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. H. Pruitt; a pair of garters with blue bows; a new penny in her shoe; and she wore her grandmother's wedding band, which was attached to a ribbon, around her neck.

Matron-of-honor, Mrs. J. C. Miller, was dressed in a white dress with gardenias. Miss Joanne Spurling, bridesmaid, wore white and blue organdy. J. C. Miller attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Pruitt, mother of the bride, chose for occasion a navy blue dress with a corsage of white gardenias. Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Coston, wore an aquamarine dress with a gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with roses and love birds. After the bride and bridegroom had cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. E. M. Pruitt and Mrs. O. A. Pruitt, sisters-in-law of the bride, served the cake and punch to the 63 guests.

After the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in east Texas. For her going-away costume, the bride chose a dress of navy blue taffeta and pink accessories.

Mrs. Coston was a sophomore at Farwell High school. Mr. Coston was graduated from the House High school in the class of '47.

Joseph P. Fylnn, pastor of the church.

Styled on the princess lines, the bride's gown had an off-the-shoulder effect and a full skirt which extended to form a long, chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of shirred tulle with rosebud trim. She carried an orchid on a mother of pearl prayer book with shower streamers, of lily of the valley.

Attending the bride were her sisters, Mrs. Jack Williams, matron of honor, of Clovis; Mrs. Otho Hammonds of Bovina; and one of the groom's sisters, Mrs. Leo P. Martin.

The bridal attendants were dressed in identical gowns of rose pink satin, with matching mitts, and they carried heart-shaped bouquets of pink roses. In their hats they wore pink net tiaras.

Denise Martin, niece of the groom, served as flower girl wearing a white frock with a circlet of pink rosebuds. She carried a dainty little flower basket filled with sweetpeas and rose petals.

John J. Hagens, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man, while Charles Kalen, John O. Findeisen, Garfield Randall and Earl Donovan were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rhinehart wore a dress of chartreuse crepe with matching hat and a corsage of cimbidium orchids. The groom's mother was dressed in a soft gray crepe dress with a large matching hat with roses.

A reception for members of the bridal party was attended by friends and relatives at the Hagens residence immediately following the ceremony.

TU Accepts Graduates Now On Probation

AUSTIN—Beginning this fall, Texas high school graduates who finish in the third or fourth quarters of their classes will be accepted on probation as University of Texas freshmen.

But the probation will be removed immediately if such students rank in the top half of the group taking the psychological test or pre-engineering inventory test required of all entering freshmen.

Indication that the University's facilities are catching up with the tremendous postwar enrollment increase is also shown in the relaxation of restrictions on admission of out-of-state students.

Non-resident transfers from other colleges will need a 1.5 grade average (midway between "C" and "B") instead of a 2.0 "B" average required since 1946, and non-Texan high school graduates will need to rank only in the top half of their class instead of the top quarter.

Cinnamon Bread Sandwiches

Thought for a backyard supper or a spur-of-the-moment picnic are flavorful sandwiches made with enriched cinnamon bread.

Because sandwiches are so popular for everyday meals as well as for picnics, make them with a variety of breads to keep them interesting.

Most people like cinnamon loaf, with its wonderful spicy taste. It contributes the same good food values provided by enriched white bread.

When making several sandwiches at a time, cream the butter or margarine slightly so that it will spread easily and go further. Spread butter or margarine to edges of bread, then apply filling with spatula and distribute it evenly over slice. Cover with another slice of bread and cut as desired. Sandwiches keep fresh for picnics or lunchboxes when wrapped and sealed in waxed paper or aluminum foil.

Here are suggested fillings for cinnamon bread:

- Mix an equal amount of raisins and peanut butter for a rich, crunchy filling.
- Fill with sliced American cheese or cheese spreads, which blend well with the cinnamon-flavored loaf.
- Slice thin apple wedges for filling, or spread slices with apple butter.
- Jams and jellies are also good.

FEW PEOPLE RETURN FOR WEED PULLING

Farwell school's new football field has become coated with an admirable layer of unwanted vegetation, so supervisors of the project, who had already tried everything they could think of to rid the field of weeds, called two community "weed pullings" last week.

The first of these, staged under lights Tuesday night, boasted an attendance of better than half a hundred grunting weeders. With the promise that they would be fed watermelon at the conclusion of a little work, Superintendent Jack Williams called another attack for Thursday night.

Either the weed-yankers didn't have an appetite for watermelon, or their knees were too stiff to return to work, because only a few more than twenty came.

Still, evidence of their efforts is to be seen on the south portion of the field, where 40 yards have been almost completely cleared of weeds. Workers on the field reported the two "pullings" helped the situation considerably.

Extra Section Gang Lays New Railing

New rails for Santa Fe Railway have been laid on the main double track running 10 miles from Clovis through Farwell by an extra section gang of the company, disclosed E. C. Mendoza, Santa Fe employee, Monday.

He said the old rails, 120-pound stock, were being replaced by larger and heavier steel, 132-pound. Asked why the old rails were being replaced, Mendoza replied the old rails, although by no means worn out, had become outmoded for present use. He said speed was continually being increased on the line, and the new rails were installed more for safety's sake than any other.

Mendoza said work had been going on for the project since June 10, and added the job was expected to be completed this week or early next week. Workers in the extra gang number 20, and they are making temporary quarters in Texico, near the Railway yards.

County Agent Says Farmers Due Benefits

Ollie Liner, Farmer County Agent, announced early this week that according to L. O. Buchanan, who is in charge of the Lubbock cotton branch office, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, this week marks the beginning of the eleventh season of operation of the Lubbock cotton classing office. The Lubbock office serves cotton farmers in Parmer county.

Last year 100 percent of the cotton ginned in this county was classed by the Lubbock office, Liner said. This amounted to 2,144 bales.

Farmers belonging to organized cotton improvement groups under the Smith-Doxey act can get their cotton classed without cost. Also, they can get free market news service.

Applications for these Smith-Doxey act benefits should be filed immediately after the group members have planted their cotton with the ginner, 1701 Avenue H, Lubbock, or with the office of the county agent. Applications can be secured from county PMA office, ginner, Lubbock Cotton Office, or the office of county agent.

To date no applications have been filed with the Lubbock office. "To make sure farmers secure all benefits due them under this program, their group application should reach the Lubbock office by July 15," Liner said. However, applications will be accepted by the Lubbock office until August 15.

Transfer Of School Students Must Be Made During July

County Judge A. D. Smith, who is ex-officio superintendent of schools, today called attention to the importance of making transfers of school students during the month of July.

Patrons desiring to transfer students from one school district to another, are required to file application for such transfer with the county judge and all such applications must be approved by the county board of education, Judge Smith said. "We are powerless to grant transfers after the deadline on August 1," he concluded.

REMODELING AT CLEANERS

Woody McDermitt, manager of City Cleaners, was celebrating the 4th in his own manner this Monday, when he set to work remodeling a front section of the building.

His work, consisting mainly of plumbing fixtures and floor work, was done in order to make ready for the moving of Southwestern Public Service offices later this month.

He plans to expand his cleaning concern into the west part of the building, now occupied by the Public Service offices, and transfer them to the portion now undergoing remodeling.

McDermitt said the moving would not take place until July 18.

Hollis Hughes, employee of Santa Fe Railway at Angora, Kan., spent Sunday here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hughes.

FFA To Take Trip To Daingerfield

Farwell school's chapter of Future Farmers of America met Friday night at the schoolhouse to decide where they would go this summer for their annual trip, which, through past years, has come to be one of the most colorful activities taken by any organization of the school.

Robert L. Morton, chapter advisor, said Monday the boys had reached an agreement to go to Daingerfield state park, "about 130 miles east of Dallas."

He said the boys had gone westward into New Mexico Rockies for a number of times, and now they wanted to see some of Texas' own mountains. "We just want a nice, quiet place where we can camp and fish," answered Morton, when asked why the chapter had chosen the particular section of Texas.

Information received by the chapter at Farwell indicated the park was just what they were looking for. Morton said the park was in a country of heavy timber, and it was apparent that camping, swimming, and fishing facilities would be adequate.

The group plans to leave August 15, "probably in a truck, and will be gone about a week." The advisor disclosed that about 20 members of the organization would be expected to make the trip.

CAR CUSHIONS AFIRE

The fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Aldridge early Saturday evening to extinguish a fire that flared up in the upholstery of the Aldridge automobile. Damage was slight, and Aldridge gave it as his opinion that the fire had been smoldering in the rear seat cushions for "at least two hours." He recalled having smelled something burning the last time he used the car earlier in the late afternoon.

PLAN REVIVAL

Rev. J. J. Terry, pastor of Oklahoma Lane Baptist church, today announced plans for an 8-day revival meeting at the church, beginning Sunday, July 31. Rev. Jessie Allen of Carrozo, N. M., will do the evangelistic preaching, he stated.

FORD ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

J. O. Ford, long-time Farwell resident now living five miles northeast of here, was taken ill Sunday evening. His condition was diagnosed as pneumonia upon arrival at a Clovis hospital, but his recovery was rapid. He was expected to return to his home Thursday or Wednesday.

Lt. Phillips To Keesler Field

Lt. and Mrs. Carthan Phillips, who had been here the past few days visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, departed last Friday for Keesler Field, Miss., where he will spend the next 12 months studying electronics. Until recently, Lt. Phillips had been stationed at Omaha, Neb.
