Former County Agent Predicts Record Crop

FROM THE HOPPER

A local merchant was heard to complain this week that the telephone service patrons of Texico-Farwell were receiving was "the biggest gyp of the century." And there are lots of us, including this columnist, who are prone to agree with his observation. Telephone patrons are rendered bills for services which have not been rendered in full measure, and we dislike to pay for anything we do not receive. Telephone service is indispensable . . . we cannot get along without it—but when we pay for a service we have the right to expect that service shall be rendered. Overloaded lines are said to be responsible for the poor service we have received in the past.

Frankly, we don't propose to know where the trouble lies, but we do have the right to register a complaint. Few things are more irritating than a dead telephone when you need it. Equally as bad is a busy signal when you pick up the receiver to call a number. The Mountain States Telephone Company, which holds the local franchise, owes it to the patrons of Texico-Farwell to give better service, and the patrons have the right to demand just that.

This publisher has been in the newspaper business for 35 years. During that period, we have tried many methods of handling the subscription list, and none of them have proven entirely satisfactory. Our present policy is to send out statements every month, calling the subscriber's attention to the fact that his subscription will expire on a certain date in the immediate future. If the subscriber does not pay up on or before the date of his expiration, he is dropped from the mailing list. This means much additional trouble for the mailing clerk to pull a name from the list and then reinsert it again, but it is the most satisfactory way we have found in 35 years of experience in handling the mailing list. Readers should keep in mind that there are two classes of subscribers, viz: the ones who want the paper stopped when the time it out, and the ones who think you should continue sending the paper. The publisher does not always know to which class you belong. It has been our experience over and over again to allow a subscriber to become delinquent for two and three years, and when approached for a settlement, he would ask you to stop the paper without taking care of his back debt. Furthermore, the postal laws now require that all subscribers be kept on a paid-in-advance basis.

Mildred Moore was reporting the arrival of a new baby to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drace. "She weighed 13 pounds and 8 ounces, and was born in a Lubbock park," she said. Mildred was slightly confused, however, when facts became known. It was a boy, weighing 8 pounds and 13 ounces, and he made his appearance in a Lubbock hospital.

Not a few citizens of the Oklahoma Lane community would like to know the party guilty of dumping a dead calf and a dead dog (along a right-of-way) in that community one day last week. Those inspecting the dead animals expressed the belief the calf was only a few hours old when it died, probably from being attacked by the dog. The irate owner of the calf probably killed the dog and hauled them off together, dumping them just off the traveled road.

Rev. J. J. Terry, Baptist preacher at Oklahoma Lane, says the only reason he keeps subscribing to this newspaper is that he keeps hoping to find some news in it some day. Stay in there, preacher, we may surprise you yet.

Two Good Milk Cows Stolen From Widow

Mrs. Ann Bradshaw, widow, living southeast of town, reports the loss of two good milk cows Thursday night of last week. Sheriff Chas. Lovelace said today no trace of the cows had been found.

Sheriff Lovelace said the two cows had evidently been loaded in a pickup from a bar ditch directly west of Mrs. Bradshaw's home. They were taken from a small Sudan patch near the widow's home.

The cows were described as one Jersey, weighing about 700 pounds, light cream color with white spots; one red brindle cow, weighing about 1000 pounds.

Sheriff Lovelace said considerable cattle stealing had been going on in adjoining Castro County during recent weeks, and that in most instances milk cows—in pairs—were being stolen. He cautioned milk cow owners to be on the alert.

Two Burglaries Are Committed At Friona

Two burglaries were committed at Friona Saturday night, and up until early this week no important clues had been uncovered by investigating officers.

The Santa Fe passenger station and the office of Bert Shackelford, Texas Company representative, were entered by the intruders. Money seemed to be the only objective of the thieves and $12 was reported to have been taken from the safe at the Santa Fe freight depot, and seven or eight dollars in small change was missing at the Texas Company office.

Sheriff Lovelace, who inspected the jobs, said they bore all the evidence of professionals, and he gave it as his opinion it was done by the same persons who have pulled a number of similar jobs in the Texas Panhandle in recent weeks.

Oddly enough, the Santa Fe station was entered the first night it was closed in recent years, in keeping with the new 40-hour week inaugurated last Saturday. The knobs of the safe were knocked off at the depot after the burglars had pried open the doors of the waiting room and a second door into the office.

Hereford Businessmen Coming For Meeting

A delegation of Hereford businessmen are coming here for a meeting with the businessmen of Texico-Farwell Thursday, Sept. 8, and every businessman of Texico and Farwell has been urged to meet with the visiting delegation at 11 a. m. at the Border Theatre.

Matters of importance pertaining to Highway 60 are to be discussed at the meeting. Frank Seale, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, stated.

LAD BREAKS ARM

Doanld Niel, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Roland, living south of town, had the misfortune to break his right arm when he fell from a horse last Sunday.

TEXICO CLINIC CHANGES DATE

Alex Bateman, Parmer County first county agent, who is now connected with Farwell Pipe and Pump Co., made the prediction here the first of the week that this year's feed crop in Parmer County would be the largest ever produced in the history of the county.

Bateman made this prediction after visiting every part of the county in his rounds with the firm with which he is employed. "Better farming methods and large acreage are going to be responsible for the large yield, despite the lack of sufficient rainfall in some sections," Bateman commented.

He compared present methods used by farmers here with those employed when he was agent in the early 30's, and declared growers have made wonderful strides in their farming methods. "You don't see fields full of rank weed growth any more, which was common a few years ago," he pointed out.

Irrigation has also been stepped up in the past few years, he said, which is going to add to the enormous feed crop produced here this year.

The former county agent said he was already becoming concerned about where the farmers were to keep this year's feed crop, pointing out that grain sorghums cannot be safely stored in dead storage unless it is thoroughly dry.

Grain sorghums with a moisture content will cake unless they are stored where they can be worked occasionally, he said.

Two Good Milk Cows Stolen From Widow

The Farwell coach said he had no report at all from the New Mexico opponents, and said the two teams simply would have to "feel each other out" before much definite strategy could be drawn.

Purvis held practice regularly all this week, even Monday afternoon during moderate rainstorms, on the old field east of the courthouse. In last week's practice scrimmage with the Clovis Wildcats, it was apparent that many of the boys were not satisfactorily in shape, and the coach was making an effort to whip the players into trim.

Several prospective players were added to the roster with the beginning of school this Monday, said Purvis, and added that "about twenty" were attending practice pretty regularly.

The game Friday night, on the Farwell field at 8 p. m., is not a conference game, explained the coach adding conference play would not begin until the Steers met the Frioona Chiefs here next week. Most observers felt the Farwell team was fortunate in securing a game with a non-conference rival to start the season, thus making apparent corrections and revisions that should be in order for the club before another contest.

The Steers met the Buffaloes last year on the home field, and defeated the visitors by a pretty sound margin, and boosters of the home team speculated that there would be considerable rivalry between the two teams because of last year's upset.

Texas State Department of Health

AUSTIN—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, in speaking of cancer, said that it ranked second as a cause of death in Texas, being exceeded only by heart disease. Last year approximately 6900 Texans died of this disease. One of the reasons so many people die of cancer is because the disease usually exists some time before it is recognized. By then it has progressed from a small local cancer to be a large and dangerous one.

In the beginning cancer is not painful, so many persons do not consult a doctor. Any lump, especially in the breast, should be looked upon with suspicion. Other suspicious symptoms are any sore that does not heal about the tongue, mouth or lips; sores caused by broken teeth or ill-fitting dental plates should receive attention; irregular bleeding or discharge from any opening of the body is a danger signal.

Persistent indigestion with loss of weight is a symptom of cancer of the stomach. With any of these signs one should go immediately to a doctor. Many times the suspicion of cancer will have been unfounded but it is much better to be safe.

It is desirable to treat all diseases in their early stages, but in no case is it more important than cancer. Periodic examinations made with cancer in mind affords the best protection against this disease. Surgery, x-ray, and radium are the main weapons which are used to combat cancer.

Peace Officers Get Training Programs

AUSTIN—Nine hundred and thirty-seven Texas peace officers participated in law enforcement training programs conducted by the Texas Department of Public Safety Training division during the 12-month period ending August 31st, according to an announcement today by Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the public safety department.

A total of 19 schools were conducted with 201 rookie Highway Patrolmen and Drivers License examiners graduated; 185 members of the department received inservice training, and 551 city and county officers were enrolled and graduated from schools offered by the department of public safety.

The latter group included a school for newly elected sheriffs and their deputies, which was held last fall, as well as classes held in several cities over the state for the benefit of local officers.

COLLEGE STATION—The ringing of school bells is starting thousands of rural boys and girls back to school, and many will be leaving home for the first time. This first day at school will long be remembered not only by the pupil but probably by dad and mother as well. There is a lot more to getting Junior or Sister off to school these days than providing them with new shoes and a dinner pail, says Miss Eloise Johnson, extension family life specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

A complete physical checkup is in order, she says. Special attention should be given to the ears, eyes, teeth, and throat. If it hasn't already been done, the child should be immunized against diphtheria and vaccinated against smallpox. A healthy child is a better student, will learn faster, and enter into the school activities, says Mrs. Johnson.

The beginner should be able to take care of himself and above all he must be able to get along with other children. He must know something about safety. For there are automobiles to watch, streets and highways to cross, and there will be new dangers on the playground that he may never have experienced at home.

Mrs. Johnson suggests that you do a little pre-school teaching at home to familiarize the beginner with the new experiences that go with attendance at school. He should understand what discipline means and that his teacher is his friend. Parents should build up a desire in the child so he'll want to go to school.

Efficiency Of Radar To Be Increased

AUSTIN — Efficiency of radar, wartime development for electronic "seeing," is expected to be greatly increased as result of experiments recently completed at Galveston by University of Texas scientists.

The researchers, headed by Dr. F. E. Brooks, Jr., associate professor of electrical engineering, spent six weeks measuring the effects of weather on radar waves.

Moisture in the air has a bending effect on the waves, sometimes extending their range far beyond the horizon, Dr. Brooks explains. He and his associates hope to compile data that will enable ship pilots to determine, by studying moisture conditions, the efficient range of their radar equipment.

Local Ford Dealer Joins Nation-Wide Safety Campaign

O. C. Sikes, head of the Sikes Motor Company, Ford dealer of this city, has entered his dealership in a $100,000 car safety contest sponsored by the Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Sikes is one of 6,400 Ford dealers throughout the nation who has entered his dealership in the contest during September and October.

Seven hundred prizes totaling $100,000 will be awarded winners of the safety contest. The prizes are 25 new Fords including five Ford trucks; 25 $1,000 U. S. Savings bonds; $100 Bonds, 200 $50 Bonds and 350 $25 Bonds.

The contest has the support of the National Safety Council, the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee and other safety organizations.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, in a letter to L. D. Crusoe, Vice-President and General Manager of the Ford Division, said:

"Certainly every motorist should check and double check the mechanical condition of his car for safety's sake, and you at Ford are making a check easily available for all drivers throughout the country."

"And I am sure that this free check-up and safety contest, with its attractive prizes, will make Americans more safety conscious—it will save lives."

In order to participate in the contest, Mr. Sikes pointed out, motorists must bring their car or truck, of any make, to the dealership for a safety check at absolutely no cost or obligation to the motorist.

Free checks will be made on the brakes, steering, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, glass, horn and rear view mirror.

The Sikes Motor Company will place an attractive safe driver reflector insignia on the car or truck in question and motorist will be given an entry blank to participate in the contest.

The motorist must then complete in no more than 50 additional words the following statement:

"All cars and trucks should be safety-checked periodically, because

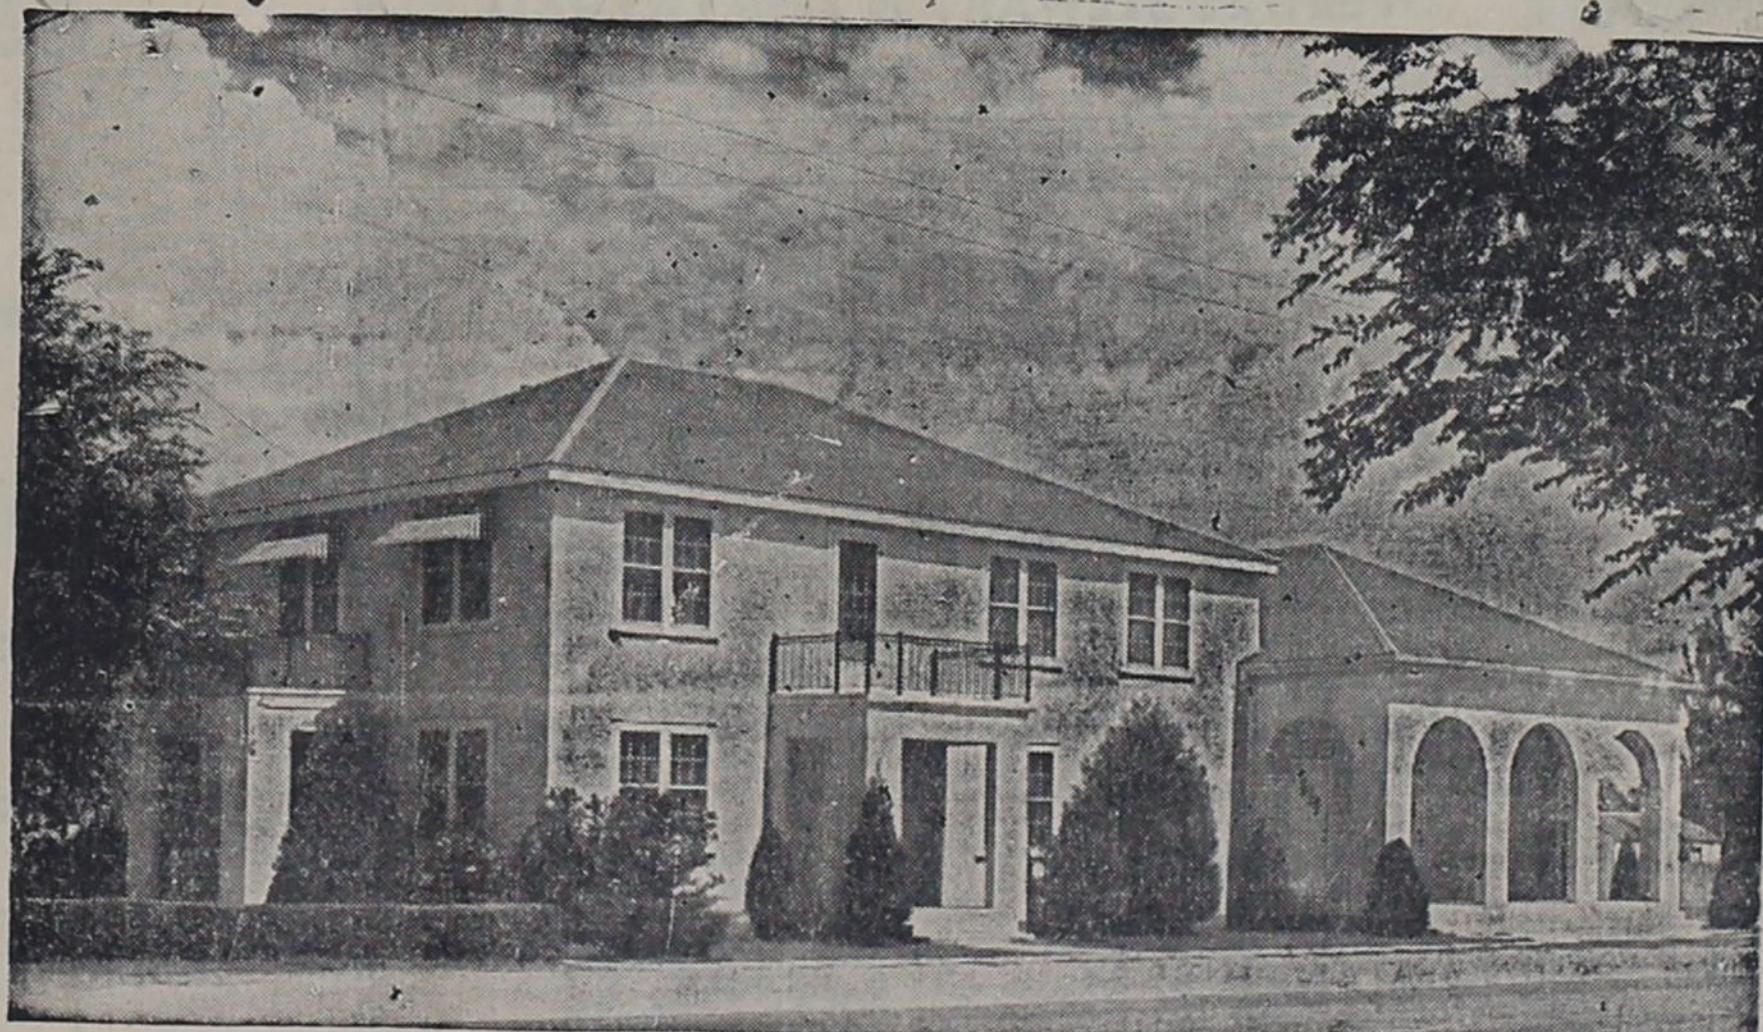

A jury of prominent persons in national safety circles will judge the winners. Only one entry per car or truck may be entered.

Other details of the contest are available at Sikes Motor Company, Farwell.

Feed The Land And Fatten The Crops

COLLEGE STATION—The slogan, "Feed the Land and Fatten the Crops," is a good one for Texas farmers to adopt. Plants need plenty of the right kind of food in order to thrive and produce profitable yields. It is not possible, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. & M.

M. College, to produce good crops unless sufficient plant food is available, regardless of how good the seed or cultural methods may be.

In addition to the plant food, plants also need a good home in which to live and lots of water to drink, adds Miller, and one of the best ways to provide these important items is to feed the land with inoculated and fertilized legumes. They not only supply plant food—especially the high priced and badly needed nitrogen they get from the air—but they also make a better home for the plants. The action of the organic matter supplied by the legumes when plowed under improves the home for the plants and provides more water by increasing the water-holding capacity of the soil.

Results of experiments and hundreds of extension service demonstrations furnish the proof that it pays to feed the land with inoculated and fertilized legumes, says Miller. Hairy vetch increased cotton yields on the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations at Nacogdoches and Tyler by more than 100 pounds of lint per acre and doubled the corn yields.

At the Temple Station in the blackland area, cotton, following Humab sweetclover, which was harvested for seed, produced a five year average of 315 pounds of lint per acre as compared with 165 pounds from cotton grown continuously without clover. The yields of corn, oats, barley and wheat following clover were also increased. Similar results have been obtained from demonstrations conducted by county agents.

Cotton root rot is again taking a heavy toll of cotton on many farms in the blackland section this summer where clover was not used in the rotation. The best method so far developed to increase cotton yields and reduce the losses from cotton root rot in the blackland section is by using sweetclover in the rotation plans for the farm, says Miller. The recommended varieties are Hubam, Madrid and annual yellow blossom—the latter mainly in South Texas and the Gulf Coast Prairie.

Hairy vetch, Willamette vetch, winter peas and other legumes also increase yields and reduce root rot losses but they are not as effective on the blacklands as sweetclover. This may be due to the fact that the clovers with their extensive and deep root system opens up the soil and this in turn permits better soil aeration, allowing more water to be absorbed, in addition to adding nitrogen. This leaves the soil in very fine shape to produce, says Miller.

Black District Now Consolidated With Friona District

An agreement was reached by all parties concerned here last Friday night with the County Board of Education, meeting in special session which lasted until midnight, whereby the Black common school district was ordered consolidated with the Friona Independent school district.

Under the arrangement, all students above the seventh grade will be transported to Friona, where they will receive their instructions, while the children below the seventh grade will be retained at Black, where they will be taught by Mrs. Emma P. Stark and Mrs. Mabel Jones, present instructors in the Black school.

The unsettled condition of the Friona-Black situation has been pending for several weeks, with Friona maintaining that consolidation was the best solution to financing the transportation costs of the Black students.

Because of the low enrollment, Black is not able to meet the requirements of the state law in maintaining a high school.

Joan Mauldin Is Bride Of O. L. Thompson

In an impressive candlelight ceremony performed at the first Presbyterian church in Clovis, Miss Joan Mauldin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Mauldin, became the bride of Odes L. Thompson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Odes L. Thompson, Sr.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. B. P. Maddox, pastor of the First Baptist church in Clovis, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, September 1.

All-pink marked the decorations of the church, with lighted pink tapers, clusters of pink asters, and pink satin bows marking each pew. A profusion of lighted pink tapers in floor candelabra cast a soft glow over the altar setting. Woodwardia fern, pedestals holding bowls of pink asters, and garlands of pink asters were used for the background.

A prelude of nuptial selection was played by Harry Barton, Jr., who accompanied Mrs. Howard Martin as she sang "I Love Thee," "Because," and "O Promise Me." A solo, "Through The Years," was sung by Reuben Nieves.

The bride was charming in an ivory satin gown, featuring a fitted bodice with a marquisette yoke with lace insertion and ruffles marking the dropped shoulder line. The skirt of her gown was scalloped in front to reveal three tiers of lace, with the lace continuing on the long train.

The fitted bodice was buttoned down the back with tiny satin covered buttons and the sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Her long bridal veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap featuring a frill across the front and a rose of seed pearls caught at each side by a cluster of lillies of the valley.

The bride carried a bouquet of gardenias and tulle with white satin ribbon. She wore a twostrand pearl necklace belonging to the groom's aunt, Mrs. Robert Hurst, for something borrowed, and she also wore the traditional blue garter. For good luck she wore a Chinese coin in her shoe.

Attending the bride as maid-of-honor was Miss Carol Green, and matron-of-honor was Mrs. Don Summers. Both ladies were dressed in rose organdy over rose taffeta and wore halos of rose tulle in their hair.

They carried colonial bouquets of blue button mums arranged with a pink background and pink lace.

Other attendants of the bride were Misses Yvonne Austin, Ann Maples, and Jane Staubus' as bridesmaids.

They wore matched gowns of ice blue organdy over matching taffeta, and halos of rose tulle. They carried bouquets of blue button mums with blue lace.

Petite Sue Austin, flower girl, wore a blue organdy frock and carried a dainty pink basket of pink tulle which was filled with blue button mums. Robert Hurst served as ring bearer, carrying the rings on a small white satin pillow.

Candlelighters were the brides sister, Jean Mauldin, and the groom's sister, Betty Lou Thompson. They were dressed in ice blue taffeta and wore headdresses of pink asters and blue button mums.

Don Summers attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Richard Albright, Oakie McGregor, Kenneth Albright, and Dwight Sheriff.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the undercroft of the church, after which the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Pueblo and Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Magness were visitors in Friona, Monday.

ENMU Frosh Receive A Tested Reception

PORTALES—Freshmen days are here again and at Eastern New Mexico University each freshman is considered an individual entirely different from other freshmen, and a program is planned accordingly.

On Sept. 6 all beginning freshmen report to the campus, and under the direction of Dr. Jack W. Mears, dean of personnel, a freshman week program is conducted prior to arrival of upper-classmen Sept. 12.

By that time, the faculty and dean of personnel know pretty well what types of individuals the freshmen are. As a result beginning students no longer flounder aimlessly in choosing courses and making other important college adjustments.

A battery of tests is administered to all incoming freshmen to obtain information about their abilities, aptitudes, vocational interests, personalities, and probable course of study the student should pursue.

If necessary this testing program is followed by individual testing to verify information received from the previous testing. These tests may include muscular and motor coordination as well as further testing in specific skills. The personnel office of the university has an accumulation of more than 75 different types of tests to draw from in connection with this program.

The tests are only a part of the university program aimed at giving the student an opportunity to make the most of himself and to make his best contribution to life.

A counseling service is another part of the program. Careful counseling is carried on during freshman week and during the entire college year. Each student is assigned a permanent counselor. After consultation with the student the adviser may refer the student to the dean of personnel and two other university psychologists who are devoting much of their time to working with students who are referred to them by the counselors.

Another part of the program is a course in personality and vocational adjustment required of all freshmen during their first semester of residence.

In addition the dean of personnel and his staff have at least one personal counseling period with each new student during his first year. In some cases this runs into several conferences before the case is satisfactorily adjusted.

During the spring of each year the university dismisses classes for a day which is devoted to vocations. At this time representatives of the professional fields are invited to the campus to discuss their professions with the students interested in their fields.

Eastern New Mexico University believes its guidance program, including the freshman week activities, is one of the most complete in the country, according to Dr. Mears.

Every phase of the individual student's life is included and every effort is made to aid the student in making maximum adjustment to his college life and his future life after he leaves college.

When The CHURCH BELLS TOLL

MILLET has done us all rich service in painting The Angelus. A workman in the field, head bowed in reverent worship, has turned from his toil to remember the great God, because the distant church bell tolled, reminding him of his dependence on his Maker and Friend and Saviour. Gratitude, humility, and worship make this man worthy of our thought and honor. Man at worship is man at his best.

How much richer we should be as a people if not only once a week, but many times through the week the Church Bell should summon us to remember our Divine Creator! The people of Adano were right; community life is not complete without the Bell tolling men to prayer and to reverent living. It would be a noble act if every person in the community would join in providing the Bell for their common religious living. The man who puts a dollar into the Church Bell makes it in a very real sense his own voice calling him and all men to their knees. The Church which lifts the Bell again to its place of eminence in the Church Tower may again make religion the heart of the common life.

RELIGION must become again a matter of every day; the Church must call men more frequently to prayer, even when they cannot enter the church door; the beautiful chimes may send their music of Heaven and Eternity into our hearts and homes. Why not see to it that every town and hamlet shall have at least one Bell to speak for the interests of the soul in an age gone Power-mad? Above the sound of rushing train and speeding automobile let men hear the sweet music of the Church Bell tolling men to God. We are the eternal children of the Eternal Father. The Church Bell summons us to remember and to pray.

Treat Winter Grain Seed Now

COLLEGE STATION—Planting time for winter grain crops is just around the corner and now is the time to get the seed ready. It is important to plant good seed and of the right varieties. E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. and M. College, suggests that you check with your local county agent on the varieties that are best adapted to your particular section of the state.

If the seed you intend to plant are mixed with weed seed, they should be cleaned and then treated chemically as a safeguard against losses from grain smuts, seed rots and seedling blights, says Miller.

Stinking smut is the most serious wheat disease. If there are smut spores on the seed, they will germinate with the wheat seed—if conditions are favorable—and will grow up with the wheat plant. Stinking smut is hard to detect in the field, says Miller. If the infestation is severe, you may notice a foul odor and the heads will take on a darker green color. At heading time, the heads will have masses of smut spores where the kernels should be and during combining operations these smut balls break open and scatter millions of black spores over the healthy seed.

Oats and barley are often attacked by smut but here it is easily detected by the black barren stalks in the field.

An effective method of control for these smuts is to treat each bushel of seed with  $\frac{1}{2}$  ounce of new improved ceresin or with a like amount of the new chemical ceresin M.

Loose smut is something else. It causes the grainless black heads that you have probably seen in your wheat field, says Miller. It cannot be controlled by chemical treatment—only by a difficult hot water treatment—and for that reason Miller says it is best to get seed from growers who do not have the disease in their fields.

The same chemical treatment can be used on oats and it will also help control the new disease called helminthosporium blight to which Victoria oat crosses including Fultex, Ranger, Rustler and Victor Grain are susceptible. One symptom of this disease is weakening of the stalks which causes lodging.

Miller says that treating grain seed is good insurance against losses in yields due to smuts and other seed borne diseases and against dockage losses when you sell. Your local county agent will be glad to supply you with additional information.

tion on seed treatment methods and he can also furnish plans for making the seed treating equipment, adds Miller.

Slash in losses by U. S. airlines in the last year are shown.

There is no limit to the amount of money some people think the government can spend.

FARWELL, TEXAS

A FRIGID DARE!!—The driver of the car pictured here might say that he receives a cold shoulder, but actually he doesn't, for he is one of the drivers featured with the "Lucky" Lott Hell drivers who are slated to appear at the 32nd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, to be held in Lubbock, Sept. 26 through Oct. 1.

The original of this event was actually witnessed on the highway when a truck loaded with ice stopped in front of an automobile traveling too close at its rear.

P-TA To Be Organized Soon For Local School

The first meeting of the school year for Farwell P-TA will be Tuesday, September 13 at 8 p. m. at the schoolhouse, disclosed Mrs. Jack Williams, reporter for the organization.

Mrs. Williams, in making the announcement, urged all patrons to be active in the association, and to enjoy the interesting programs planned for the year.

This year the different school classes again will participate in a contest to determine which group can maintain the best attendance of parents and teachers representing them in the meetings, said Mrs. Williams.

Dues for the year will be 75 cents per person, and will be collected at the first meeting.

DEADLINE NEARS FOR QUEEN CANDIDATES

Parmer County 4-H clubs and Future Farmers of America chapters have only until noon Saturday, September 10 to file their entry for the queen contest in connection with the Southwestern Cattle Festival to be staged in Clovis, October 3, 4, and 5.

The candidate's name must be submitted to Preston Grove, secretary-manager of the Clovis Chamber of Commerce by that time in order to compete in the event.

Clubs and chapters in the county last month were invited to enter a candidate in the contest, which will embrace two Texas and five eastern New Mexico counties. The contest will close Oct. 1, two days prior to the event.

Members of the festival governing committee decided that since the festival primarily was a rural function, a farm girl or a girl representing a farm youth group should reign over the event. The winner of each county will be named an attendant to the queen.

MOVES TO FRIONA

Mrs. Bessie Lee Henneman and son, A. ### Pep Club Organized This Week At School

Athletes of the Farwell schools will have plenty of lusty backing this year, if the girls in the high school have anything to say about it. Thirty-five of them got their heads together Monday of this week and came up with an organized club that would appear at most of the contests to cheer on the Steers.

According to Valarie Dial, newly-elected club reporter, the girls chose Dot Kent, Billie Christian, and Hazel Petree for cheer leaders. Other officers elected by the club included Dot Kent, president; Hazel Petree, vice-president; Billie Christian, secretary-treasurer; and Sandra Bate-man and Hettye Randolph, sergeants-at-arms.

The members discussed design for new suits in a business meeting, and decided to use blue corduroy skirts and waistcoats with white long-sleeve blouses.

Farwell School Plans Large Band This Year

For the first time in many years there will be a uniformed band boosting Farwell's school activities, it was announced early this week by Mrs. Shelby Jobes, music instructor for the school.

This is the second year of formal organization for the band, and the leader was satisfied they would be able to make a creditable showing for themselves after a short time had been spent for preparation.

Membership for the organization was set at 32 by Mrs. Jobes, but she added a large figure would be reached at the conclusion of the current football season, as some of the members were foregoing band for the gridiron sport.

The number includes two majorettes and one drum major, Mrs. Jobes explained, and expected the band to be composed of 24 pieces.

"At least two weeks of work must be done before any formal playing can be scheduled," said the leader, going on to state that members were "out of practice over the summer months."

Mrs. Jobes hoped to soon organize a beginner's band in order that the younger and inexperienced students would be prepared for more advanced work.

"We are particularly short on clarinets in the woodwind section," she said. "The brass rather outshines balancing parts of the band." She agreed, however, that "it was good and loud, anyhow."

Construction Underway For Texico Gymnasium

Foundations were being run and ground work was shaping up early this week, as Bell-Erhard, Clovis construction company, began work on the new Texico gymnasium.

Superintendent Agrie Jones, who announced the contract had been let to the company last week, said the building was scheduled to be completed "within 120 days," which should be somewhere near the first of the year.

The new gymnasium will be 107x74 feet, and will house a playing court 90x50 feet, affording ample room for sports such as basketball, volleyball, and the like. The remainder of the space will be occupied by two dressing rooms and facilities as well as a lobby in the entrance of the structure.

The gymnasium will be erected directly south of the main building on the schoolground, facing east. It will have a brick face, and the remaining sides will be tile.

Most repeated complaint of the old gymnasium was its inadequate seating capacity, particularly when the court was being used for an athletic contest. The new building overcomes this difficulty, however, and will seat 800 spectators.

Jones said it would be put into use late this year, if completed on schedule, and probably would house games for the latter part of the basketball season.

Local Methodist Church Begins Revival Sept. 21

The annual fall revival of Texico-Farwell Methodist church was set this week by officials of the church to be Sept. 21, according to information received at The Tribune from the Rev. Murphy Duncan, pastor.

Asked about plans for the meeting, Rev. Duncan said H. H. Allen of Trinity Methodist church in Clovis had been secured for the evangelistic preaching, and added a song leader soon would be appointed for the services. At present, plans are not entirely complete for the meeting, said the pastor, hence no singer has been selected.

The revival will be 10 days in length, and it was planned that two services daily would be held; one in the early afternoon, and one in the evening.

"We will try this for a while," explained Rev. Duncan, "but we may have to go back to morning services if we intend to hold two daily."

ME Church To Launch Promotional Rally Day For Sunday School Dept.

With the aim of increasing Sunday school attendance, the workers in the Sunday school of Texico-Farwell Methodist church will hold a promotional rally day September 18, informed the Rev. Murphy Duncan, pastor, Monday.

Rev. Duncan, in making the announcement, said the day had been planned for some time, and it was decided that the best time for a rally would be promotion day for the Sunday school departments; when all children are graduated into a new class.

The pastor had no figures available for an attendance goal, saying a survey must be made of Sunday school enrollment before such information could be released.

Workers were to meet Monday night at the church to formulate final plans for the attendance drive.

Other copies would be available at the county's four schools, and the county agent's office in Farwell. Liner said it was impossible to distribute the catalog to every interested party in Farmer, but hoped that they would be available in sufficient numbers to satisfy the needs of those connected with the fair.

Merchants from various businesses over the county will display their firms in a section of exhibitions designed to acquaint the public with Farmer County businesses.

Prizes including cash, banners, and ribbons will be awarded to winners of the show, closed Liner.

Residents of Texico-Farwell soon will be studied by workers of the local Methodist church in a religious census of the Twin Cities, designed to determine church membership of the people.
