

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

I see in the papers where Price Daniel, Texas attorney general, has asked for permission to enter suit against New Mexico for several million acres of water the latter has not delivered to Texas in accordance with a pact between the two states.

It would be just as reasonable to ask New Mexico to move the White Mountain range into Texas.

In the business world, all contracts and agreements for delivery of goods and merchandise are based on "acts of God" and other unforeseen obstacles.

It is a well-known fact that many of the usual fresh-running streams in New Mexico are now completely dry. Many of her lakes are nothing but mud flats. How can she be expected to deliver something that she does not possess?

The Texas attorney general might be able to get "blood out of a turnip", but it will be the first time I have ever heard of such a feat.

And here's a letter from Gale Hendrickson, formerly of this city, who now lives in Carmichael, Calif. He writes:

"We enjoy The Tribune so very much. It's the same as having a cup of coffee and a morning visit with an old friend."

Thanks, Gale, for those complimentary remarks. We do appreciate them. We at The Tribune office make a desperate effort to get all the local news in the paper every week, and if we do say it ourselves, we have more local news every week than any newspaper coming across our desk.

We take the position that our readers are more interested in local news than the big breaks that are happening in state, national and international affairs, so we leave that affair up to the daily press and the radio boys.

Noble Goldsmith, custodian at the county courthouse, is feeling rather "chesty" this week following a visit of John Ben Sheppard, secretary of state, to the building last week.

Said Sheppard, "This is the neatest-kept courthouse and surrounding grounds I have seen in the entire state of Texas."

Noble's friends will join me in offering congratulations for a well-deserved compliment.

The big game hunting season never fails to produce a good number of stories. But the best one that has come to me so far is on Ralph Humble, local implement dealer and sportsman.

Before taking off for Colorado with Bill Bradshaw and Donald Roland, Ralph bought him a brand new high-powered rifle, complete with scope sights and everything.

Hardly had the season opened till Ralph came upon a buck, which he describes as "big as a pick-up truck" standing broad-sided at a comfortable shooting distance. He raised his new firearm to draw a bead, but all he could see was the brush between him and the animal. He took his gun down, looked at the deer and drew up the second time with the same results.

For the third time he tried to get a bead on his prize buck with the same results. Then, in his own words, "I just blasted away at him" only to see the deer bound off.

Returning to camp in utter disgust, Ralph discarded his new firearm and took up his trusted automatic rifle and took up the hunt again. But, as might be suspected, he never had another chance—and came home empty-handed.

Members of the Pleasant Hill Club are reported to be on the hide-out this week, dodging liquor-enforcement officers.

According to a news story appearing in last week's Tribune, the ladies served barbecued beef at a home-coming dinner last week. The officers, picking up this tip of a law violation, are understood to be looking for the violators. Or it is just possible there was a mistake, and the ladies actually served beef instead of beer.

GOP LEADER HERE

Miss Ruthelle Bacon, Republican Committeewoman of the 18th District, of Amarillo, was a business visitor in Parmer County the first of the week. Miss Bacon said that at present Parmer County was without a Republican county chairman, and she was here in the interest of securing a chairman for the party. Floyd Reeve of Friona, has been county chairman for several years, but he has become inactive of late, Miss Bacon said.

Much Wheat Being Planted In Parmer

Grain dealers over the county report an exceptionally heavy run on seed wheat during the past two weeks with farmers putting in thousands of acres of new wheat, following the good rains of the latter part of October.

One grain dealer, contacted this week, gave it as his opinion that at least 100,000 additional acres of wheat would be sowed in this county as a result of the good moisture. Most of the late sowings are being made on stubble ground where feed crops have just been harvested.

Tractors have been in operation all over Parmer and Curry counties the past several days getting the seed in the ground. Early plantings, most of which were sowed on summer tilled land, have taken on new life and will soon be affording pasturage for livestock grazing.

"Americanism" Is Theme For Address

Secretary of State John Ben Sheppard of Austin, addressed a gathering at the Legion Hall in this city last Thursday, using as his theme, "Americanism."

Pointing out that history reveals that twenty-two governments having some form of democracy had been launched and eighteen of that number had fallen away, the speaker stressed the importance of Americans taking a more lively interest in our form of government.

He declared that less than seventeen per cent of the duly qualified voters in the United States elected the last president, and from that point he stressed the importance of voting in every election.

"We don't vote, and we think it is smart when we can escape jury service," Sheppard declared.

In conclusion, he declared that what we need is, "More Bible, backbone, brain and ballots" in governmental affairs.

Secretary Sheppard was introduced by Attorney Sam Aldridge, who paid high tribute to the young man. (He is only 34.) He is one man who has long been an advocate of economy in government. He took a reduction in his own salary, and today he is running the office of Secretary of State cheaper than it has ever been operated before.

The Farwell School band rendered a brief concert and a boys' glee club offered a couple of numbers. The Band Mothers of the school provided the dinner.

Mrs. Troy Wyrick Is Returned To Texico

Mrs. Troy Wyrick, who was recently badly burned in a fire which destroyed the home of her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Dess Palmer, in Missouri, was returned to the home of relatives in Texico this week.

Mrs. Palmer's life was claimed in the Missouri fire, and burns of a lesser nature were sustained by Mr. Palmer and two other daughters, Marjorie and Eva Lee. The two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyrick, Jackie, received minor burns, and was brought to the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Toll Wyrick, in Texico, shortly after the fire.

Mrs. Wyrick has been receiving treatment at an Army hospital at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and was accompanied here this week by her husband, home on emergency leave from the Naval Air Corps. Further treatment of the burned areas on the young woman's body is expected in the future.

In 58 Years, She Never Saw Anything Like It

It took an Englishwoman to sum it up in a nutshell.

Mrs. Florence Grover, who is here from England visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Kaltwasser, remarked of Tuesday's terrific sand storm: "In 58 years I've never seen anything like it."

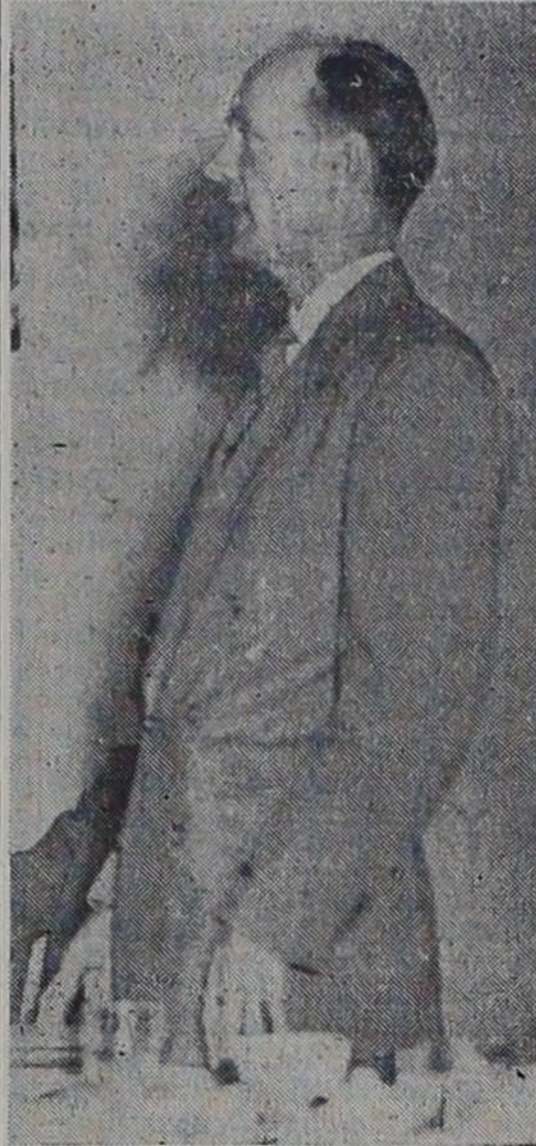

Mrs. Grover even added that she preferred England's dampness to Texas' offering of Tuesday, which was probably the worst impression she's had of America since arriving here in October.

Sand storms, it might be pointed out, are not something one sees in England.

OLD SETTLERS HERE

Mrs. Homer Chapman of Las Cruces, N. M., and Mrs. W. J. Phillips of the State of Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smart Sr., in Clovis the first of the week. Both ladies formerly lived in Farwell back shortly after the turn of the century.

WALTER ROGERS

Rogers Sees U. S. Calling Russia's Hand Before Long

Congressman Walter Rogers of the 18th Congressional District, making his first appearance here since being elected, predicted in a talk at the Legion Hall Monday night that the United States will call a halt to Russia's encroachment on free nations.

"The time will come when we will call Russia's hand, and that is not far away," Congressman Rogers predicted in his talk before some 100 local citizens, and he gave it as his opinion "another 8 to 10 months" should see the United States prepared to take a determined stand against the aggressor of world peace.

Congressman Rogers, in his opening remarks, delt at length on the subject of war and its huge costs. He said that at present 81 per cent of the taxes are going to pay for past and future wars.

Referring to Joe Stalin as the "international prevaricator", Congressman Rogers laid the blame of our present plight at the door of the Russian dictator.

Explaining his opposition to a relief bill for India, he said that it was his information that a large part of the grain sent that nation was used in feeding the millions of monkeys in that land. "I feel that we should send them guns to kill off the monkeys" before undertaking to feed the millions of starving Indians.

In conclusion he touched on the labor situation in this county and illustrated our plight by showing how children under 16 years of age had been taken from the cotton fields by unfair legislation.

He deplored some of the provisions of the Fair Trades and Practice Act, whereby farmers might reasonably be required to pay time and a half for all overtime farm work in excess of 40 hours per week.

"America has been great because of self-government, and we need to do away with bureaucracy in high places," he said.

The meeting was sponsored by the American Legion. Loyde Brewer, county clerk, introduced the speaker. PTA members of the Texico school prepared and served the dinner.

Adams To Have Charge Of Lions Program

John Adams, of the Texico faculty, is in charge of program arrangements for the forthcoming meeting of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club, slated for next Tuesday night, Nov. 20th.

Adams could not definitely announce his program this week, saying only that he is contacting the Army recruiting officer in Clovis regarding the program.

On Wednesday evening of next week, a zone meeting is to be held in Fort Sumner, with C. F. Bieler and Otis Huggins named as delegates from the local Club. Others interested are invited to attend and sit in on the discussions, officials added.

The last Lions meeting was featured by an official Navy film, showing evacuation of troops in Korea. Twenty-three enjoyed the ham dinner served by Mary's Cafe.

Revisions Necessary For Phone Program

Three major revisions are currently holding up the rural telephone program in Parmer, Deaf Smith and Castro counties, according to a telephone conversation with Leo Forrest, in Hereford, Wednesday.

Members of the board of directors held a meeting in Hereford this week, hoping to be able to advertise for bids on the contract, but word from Washington was to the effect that three changes would be necessary on the area coverage plan before the program could be finally approved and a contract ordered.

"The engineers promise to get it all straightened out in the shortest time possible," Forrest said Wednesday afternoon but added his doubts that a contract would be let on the initial phase of the work before the first of the year.

CROP Loading In County Postponed

Wilbur Charles, who is serving as chairman of the drive for donations to the Christian Rural Overseas Program, announced this week that shipment of the Parmer County grain had been postponed.

Previously scheduled for Thursday of this week, Charles said Tuesday night that bad weather during the final days of the canvassing period, followed by a rush of planting and combining, had put workers behind on the project.

"I think, however, that we already have sufficient grain on hand to fill our boxcar," Charles said, adding that the current rush of farm work would make it easier, in all probability, to hold the shipping ceremonies some time later.

Asked about a definite date, the chairman declined to specify, stating that the announcement would be made next week. The carload of grain will be loaded at the Santa Fe Grain elevator in Friona, going from there by rail to Houston to join the Texas-wide contributions. The Texas friendship donations are to be shipped out of Houston in December, headed for overseas relief.

Building Bonds Are Sold By City of Bovina

Following a meeting of the Bovina City Commission on Monday night, Mayor J. T. Hammonds announced that the bonds recently voted by the citizens of Bovina in the amount of $40,000 had been sold.

The bonds were voted for the erection of combination city hall and fire station, and the extension of water mains in the city. Mayor Hammonds said that plans for the building were being made and bids would be opened in the near future, with construction work expected to get under way within the next two or three weeks.

The new building will be located between the Masonic Hall and the Gaines Hardware on Main Street.

Plans for some street improvement were worked out and bids in the city will be filled with caliche, Mayor Hammonds announced, adding that it would likely be some time before improvements in the water system could be undertaken.

Brother-In-Law Dies In Portales, Sunday

Les McDonald of Clovis, a brother-in-law of O. C. Pullam of Farwell, died at the Portales hospital at an early hour Sunday morning, following a brief week-long illness.

McDonald, 49, had been showing improvement from a kidney condition on Thursday, and at that time it was thought that he would be released from the hospital shortly. His condition suddenly began to get worse, with death claiming the victim around 3:30 Sunday morning.

Funeral services were held in Steed Memorial Chapel in Clovis at 11 o'clock Monday morning, with interment being made in the Mission Garden of Memories under the direction of Steed's.

Immediate family survivors include his wife, Mrs. Frances McDonald, and one daughter, Joyce Dell, both of Clovis; and a son, Bruce McCloskey, who is with the New Mexico State Police.

HAS RHEUMATIC FEVER

Mrs. Sol Morgan, wife of the local Church of Christ minister, has been confined to her bed for the past three weeks with rheumatic fever. Discussing her confinement on Monday, Mrs. Morgan reported that she did not have a "serious case" of the fever, but had no idea when her physician would permit her to be up and around again.

Parmer Favors Only One Constitutional Change

Who Did? Me Did? No, Jeanne Did

Question: how do "kids" ever grow up to be intelligent human beings, or how do adults remain sane after a verbal encounter with a youngster?

The story began when Miss Jeanne Dudley was home over the past weekend. She was comfortably content when her small 2½-year-old sister came rushing up, and commented breathlessly, "Jeanne, you know what I did?" Jeanne was very stern, and hoping to correct the child's youthful grammar, answered the younger Dudley: "No, Connie, do you know what I did?"

With wide-eyed innocence, Connie immediately quipped, "No, what did you do?" Trying to maintain her patience as the remainder of the Dudley family became convulsed in laughter, Miss Dudley explained once again that Connie was merely using the wrong word, that she should say "did", not "done".

To conclude her explanation, she told the child, "Now Connie, ask Daddy what you asked Jeanne, only say, 'Daddy, do you know what I did?'" Rather bored with the complete situation, but willing to see the things through, despite the fact that she couldn't quite understand it all, Connie then turned to the elder Dudley and bluntly asked, "Daddy, do you know what Jeanne 'done'?"

That concluded the evening's lesson in grammar.

Two-Day Sandstorm Lashes This Area

A two-day sandstorm lashed this area on Monday and Tuesday when high winds from the west bore down to an uncomfortable degree.

Visibility most of Tuesday afternoon was reduced to less than a mile when the winds reached a velocity of 30 to 40 miles per hour. Most outside work, especially cotton pulling, was suspended during the two-day blow.

Oddly enough, reports from Friona and the northeastern corner of the county, say that Monday and Tuesday were reasonably calm in those regions with farm work going forward without interruption.

The unfavorable two-day spell followed a light rain on Sunday night that brought about a quarter of an inch of moisture to most of the region.

733 Bales Of Cotton Ginned In Parmer

A total of 733 bales of cotton had been ginned in Parmer County up to Nov. 1, according to the U. S. Department of Commerce, which was made public this week.

The same report shows that a total of 4,401 bales had been ginned in Bailey County up to that time.

The Tribune is a NEWSPAPER.

With Lakeview still unreported early Thursday morning, it appears that only one of the proposed constitutional amendments, submitted in a special election on Tuesday, had carried in Parmer County.

This was amendment No. 4 on the ballot, which would increase state funds to allow veterans to buy land in the state. Incomplete tabulations in this county give this amendment a narrow margin of only three votes with 110 for and 107 against. All other proposals were defeated by safe margin.

In casting their ballots, Parmer countians seem to have strung along with the rest of the voters over the entire state. According to press reports only amendment No. 4 on the ballot seems to have a chance of passing in the state-wide balloting.

With Lakeview still to be counted, here is how the voters of the county balloted on the proposed amendments:

	For	Against
No. 1	39	178
No. 2	86	128
No. 3	46	166
No. 4	110	107
No. 5	83	130

Complete Right Of Way Easements For Farm Road Program

County Judge A. D. Smith announced Tuesday that with one exception the right of way easements along the new farm-to-market road in this county had been completed. And he added that the land owner involved in the last sign-up had promised to attach his signature next time he came to town.

This completes the right-of-way easements all along the entire route of the new road that will begin at the Oklahoma Legion school house and run north to Bovina, thence a distance of some eight miles north of that city to the "cross roads".

W. H. Garrett, resident engineer of the State Highway Department, who was here last week, stated that it was the plan of the Highway Department to let the contract for the grade and drainage structures at an early date to be completed during the winter months, with the black-topping to be applied next summer.

The next farm-to-market road, now under schedule in the county, calls for a permanent road to be built from Friona west to the "cross roads" junction. Officials expressed the belief that this job would not be undertaken before next year, at the earliest.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The County Commissioners Court met in regular session here Monday. Aside from approving the current bills, the minutes reveal that the Court voted to place all Parmer employees under Social Security agreement, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1951.

Help Is No Problem For 'Sage of the Sandhills'

K. K. Runnels, former Texico business man, and ex-school teacher, was in town from his large ranch south of town Monday afternoon.

Runnels, who is commonly called K. K., and also known far and wide as the Sage of the Sandhills, rarely ever leaves his large ranch, except to attend to urgent business. He lives alone at his cattle ranch and never employs extra help except when working his 125 head of cows with their calves in the early spring and fall.

The spry 76-year-old ex-school teacher does all his own feeding, keeps the fences in repair, attends the windmills, one of which is 40 feet high, and never a day passes that he does not personally inspect every animal on the ranch. He keeps two good saddle horses and can gallop to the far corners of the ranch with the vitality of a young cowpoke.

Wiped out financially a few years ago by bank failures, Runnels has fought a determined comeback in recent years, and today his ranch and cattle are clear of debt. In addition he has invested considerable in government bonds.

The Sage of the Sandhills, who stands well over six erect feet, is well preserved in body, mind and spirit. To see him in his best clothes, complete with high, stiff collar, one is made to think of an old time college professor. He even possesses most of his original teeth. Even in his work clothes, he presents a neat appearance, which is somewhat unusual for a man of his age who lives alone.

"I've got my health back since I went to the ranch," he boasts with pride.

He keeps well posted with current affairs and has an exceptionally brilliant mind to discuss most any subject that comes up. As a conversationalist, he has few equals, and if you don't have at least an hour to spend, don't engage K. K. in a conversation. Yet, his conversations are interesting although he, like most persons his age, delights in retelling experiences of his past colorful life.

Jovial and happy, he gets a great deal of satisfaction out of life. But don't ever molest him nor members of his family unless you are looking for trouble. On more than one occasion this writer has seen him stand flat footed and "cuss out" a man 40 years his junior, and dare him to resist the tongue-lashings and "cussings."

The Sage of the Sandhills; he's quite an interesting character!

Animals Warned Away From Hardage Family

Just in case you're an animal, this is a warning to steer clear of the Walter Hardage family, whose recent hard luck with pets of all kinds is getting out of hand.

Not too long ago, young Gerald received a cocker spaniel to his great delight. The fun didn't last long, however, as the animal was killed.

Then, Gerald and mother Fern took on the raising of two orphan pigs, by bottle. For some days, it appeared that the piglets were holding their own, but they finally gave up the ghost—and the bottle.

Ducks were the next addition to the family, donated by friends—but these, too, went the way of all pets. Seems as though Fern didn't like the web-feet digging in her flowers, and she shipped them back to their original owners.

The Navy's newest attack submarines will be powered by a compact 16 cylinder radial-type diesel engine which is now ready after five years of development work.

Auxiliary Sets Date For Rummage Sale

Date of the rummage sale, to be held in Clovis, was announced today by the local American Legion Auxiliary as Saturday, November 17th, according to Dorothy Quickel, one of the finance committee members.

The sale is to be held in Clovis, at 913 West Grand, beginning at 8 a. m., Clovis time, on Saturday morning, and continuing throughout the day, or "until we are sold out," workers added.

Contributions of dishes, clothing, household appliances, children's clothing, and old curtains particularly are still being sought, Mrs. Quickel said, adding that donations could be left at the Helton Oil Co. or Farmer's Supply.

Band Boosters Report Generous Patronage

Members of the Texico Band Boosters Club this week reported generous response to the recent show and auction sale, Mrs. Ira S. Levins, said today, adding that all proceeds will go to help buy uniforms for the Texico school band.

Total proceeds from the show and auction were $272.69, with an additional $32.60 being brought in from the food sale.

The Boosters expressed their appreciation to merchants who helped make the auction a success, with all merchants in the city donating credit slips. Thanks also go to Dick Doshier, Orval Francis and Vernon Symcox for their assistance in holding the auction; to Scott Levins for the proceeds from the picture show; and Carrie Lane Anderson for her help on ticket sales.

Soothing Dessert Served To Guests

Mrs. Clyde Perkins didn't want any nervous guests. At least, that is what members of the Variety Club figured out, Tuesday.

Praising their hostess' cookery in turning out a superb date-nut cake, the guests were plainly puzzled when Mrs. Perkins kept asking if it tasted all right—until she finally revealed that in reaching for the vanilla, she inadvertently grabbed up the family bottle of "Nervene" and doused the dessert liberally, then didn't have time to turn around and make something else before her guests arrived.

"Excuse My Dust" To Be Sponsored By Club

A movie, "Excuse My Dust", featuring Red Skelton, is to be sponsored by the Farwell band and Band Mothers Club, at the Border Theatre on November 20-21, Mrs. Jack Williams, of the club, reported today.

Proceeds from the movie will be given by Ira S. Levins, owner of the club, for purchasing additional equipment for the school band.

Currently, the group is buying new stands and music for the musicians, Mrs. Williams said.

Bobby G. Free Boards Carrier Valley Forge

Bobby G. Free, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Free of Route 2, Muleshoe, Texas, recently reported aboard the 27,000-ton aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge at San Diego, Calif., where the ship is awaiting further orders with the Pacific Fleet.

The carrier was the first to launch air strikes against the North Koreans when they crossed the 38th parallel, July 3, last year.

Scout Finance Drive Not Yet Completed

Otis Huggins head of the local Boy Scout drive, states that all reports on the drive have not been turned in, but he is certain that over $200 has been contributed in this area.

"We have difficulty soliciting money for the drive," says Huggins, "because no active troops are in Texico-Farwell." The chairman urges workers to turn in money from the drive as soon as possible.

BUS SALE DELAYED

The sale of a 1942 model Chevrolet school bus, which was scheduled for Nov. 13, has been postponed till Nov. 20 at 11 o'clock, when sealed bids will be opened.

The sale was delayed when it was discovered that the law specifies that a notice of the sale be run twice in the local newspaper, and only one insertion was given the notice.

Health Nurse Checks Grade Students Eyes

Mrs. Margie Dixon, county school health nurse, was at Texico schools, Friday, checking eyes. Approximately 110 grade school students were checked.

Nurse Dixon stated, "All parents of children with eye defects will be notified in the near future."

He said he bribed the jury because the wheels of justice needed a little grease.

Mrs. Marine Reynolds, of Clovis, advises The Tribune that her father, W. S. McDaniel, of this city, has been removed from a Clovis hospital to her home and is greatly improved. She adds that he will probably spend several days in Clovis in the Reynolds home before returning to his home in Farwell.

Jones Explains How To Get More Beef From Same Pasture

College Station, November—Clifton Wheeler Jr., a McMullen county ranchman, has demonstrated that it pays to balance livestock numbers with range forage production, according to Joe W. Jones, Farmer county agent, who adds the same method can be used in this area. In 1949, with assistance from agent L. E. Franks Jr., Mr. Wheeler established a demonstration on his ranch to show the value of proper stocking rates along with other range management practices.

A 1,250 acre pasture was used to graze 100 head of grown cows. In 1949 these cows produced a 60 per cent calf crop and at weaning time the 60 calves weighed an average of 300 pounds each. The range vegetation was eaten to the ground and the mother cows were in poor condition.

In 1950 the number of cows on the pasture was reduced to 65 head. This increased the number of acres available for each cow from 12.5 to 19. The calf crop jumped from 60 to 95 per cent or 62 calves from the 65 cows. These calves averaged 425 pounds each at selling time and the gain in pounds of beef was more than 8,000.

In 1951 despite the serious drought, balancing livestock numbers and the available range forage again paid off. The number of cows on the pasture was increased to 74 head in order to lighten the load on other pastures but the calf crop still went to 88 per cent and the calves average 340 pounds each in June. This demonstration pasture despite the drought was rated fair. Overstocking, says Wheeler, costs the ranchman in four ways; smaller calf crops, ruins the turf, the breeding cattle do not stay in good condition and the calves do not bring the top market prices.

A. H. Walker, Extension range specialist of Texas A & M College, points out another big advantage for balancing the livestock numbers with the available range forage and that is water penetration and absorption. He cites as an example another demonstration. Moisture penetration tests were made on two adjoining ranches following a two and one-half inch rain. On one of the ranches, range improvement practices including proper stocking and deferred grazing had been used and a good cover of grass and litter covered the ground. Moisture on this ranch penetrated to a depth of 15 inches. Just across the fence on the other ranch, Walker says the ground was practically bare of vegetation due to excessive grazing. Moisture penetration here amounted to only four inches. Most of the badly needed moisture was lost as run-off.

Walker adds that it is not good business to stock heavily during periods of above average rainfall following a drought. This heavy stocking prevents recovery of density and vigor of the range plants. He says many ranchers practice running only three-fourths the number of breeding animals they think their range will carry. In the good years they carry over their calves or lambs through the winter and in bad years, such as this year, they sell in the fall.

By balancing livestock numbers with the available range forage supplies, Walker says ranchmen can go a long way toward removing one of the biggest range problems; namely, keeping a good cover of grass and litter on the ground at all times. This would result in more feed for the livestock, less damage from erosion, less winter feeding better conditioned livestock, larger calf crops, more meat production and deeper moisture penetration which means more water stored in the soil where it is needed. It all adds up to more income for the operator over the long haul, says Walker.

Urged To Report Status At Once

Austin.—A young married man at Port Arthur must leave his wife, who is expecting their first child, for service in the armed forces because he didn't notify his draft board at Orange before he was mailed his order to report for induction.

Regulations promulgated under amendments to the draft law, passed last June by Congress, require that a draft registrant with an unborn child be deferred if he files with his board prior to the time his induction order is mailed the certificate of a licensed physician that the child has been conceived.

"This is the first case under this phase of the regulations to come to our attention," Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, commented. "It's just another case where a man has slept on his rights. Congress has made it the personal responsibility of every man to notify his board of changes in his status immediately."

State draft headquarters said that the Port Arthur registrant did not notify his board when he got married and did not furnish the doctors certificate when his wife became pregnant, either before or after being notified his classification had been changed from III-A to I-A.

He did not act until after he received the induction order of the Orange board, which, under the law, is too late.

"This man would never have been classified from III-A to I-A if he had seen that the doctor's certificate got in his file immediately after his wife was found pregnant by the doctor," General Wakefield declared.

General Wakefield, would not disclose the registrant's name, as he said regulations forbade it, and that, further, he wished to cause the man no possible embarrassment by disclosing his name to the public.

"The only reason we are anxious to talk about the case at all is that we hope it will serve as a warning to young men in similar circumstances and cause them to comply with the law," the state director commented.

General Wakefield said he was anxious to dispel any notion that young married men with only dependent wives must be reclassified into I-A.

"They have to be removed from III-A if they have no children, born or unborn," he said. "If some other status entitles them to deferment under law and regulations, they get consideration for it before they are considered for I-A," he concluded.

Here's Correct Way To Broil Ham

When purchasing a ham slice for broiling, have it cut at least one inch thick. If cut thinner than one inch the ham is best panbroiled, points out Reba Staggs, home economist.

According to this meat expert, in broiling a ham slice, place the meat on the broiler rack so that it is 2 inches from the heat. This produces a moderate cooking temperature. Broil for 8 to 10 minutes, turn and finish cooking on the second side. For one colorful serving, place plump apricot halves around the edge of the ham slice near the end of cooking time in order to allow them to heat through.

Another important way of preparing ham slices is by baking. For instance, a slice may be spread with a glaze mixture of flour, brown sugar, mustard and vinegar, stuck with whole cloves, then baked covered. The oven should be set at 300° F. and the ham slice allowed to cook for 1 hour or until tender.

The flag of the 11 Confederate States of America was known as the "Stars and Bars".

Only once in the history of the United States (1835) has this country been entirely free from debt.

The song "Maryland, My Maryland" was written as an appeal that state to secede from the Union.

"Do Not Pick the Flowers" is a common sign in America's parks. But in Ireland they read more subtly, "Let it be said of these flowers that they died with their roots cut."

Former Pastor Writes From Japanese Post

Rev. C. M. Fields, of this city, is in receipt of a letter to the congregation of this Texico-Farwell Baptist Church, written by Chaplain Otis O. Holladay, former local minister.

Lt. Holladay, who entered service as a chaplain a little over a year ago, writes that he was at Camp Stoneman for two weeks, then shipped to Japan on the ship General John Pope, where he was assigned to the 314th Air Division.

"While at Nagoya, I heard Dr. Cauthen in a preaching mission. The work there is just opening, and he spoke through an interpreter. Our new missionaries are Brother and Mrs. Holladay," he writes.

The former pastor's assignment overseas, he advised, will be to take care of about seven outposts that cover hundreds of miles. Most of these are in Hokkaido Island, he says, adding "at one place I will minister to men only a few miles from a Russian military installation. This is the only place in the Far East where we can see Russian guns and men."

"The temperature here," he adds, "is about the same as Maine."
Mrs. Holladay and family are residing in East Texas during Lt. Holladay's overseas assignment.

Celebrates 101st Birthday

Mrs. Nan Thornton

Century Plus One Noted By 'Grandma' Thornton

Family talk featured the observance of November 7th, when Mrs. Nancy Thornton, of Friona, known far and wide as "Grandma" Thornton, noted the passing of the 101st year since she was born.

Spry and quick-witted despite her years, Grandma Thornton spent a good many weeks of her past year confined in hospitals, the result of a fall, in February, in which she broke her hip and arm. Able to move now only in a wheel chair, the elderly lady begrudges only the stiffness in her arm, which interferes with crocheting.

A little dim on long-past dates, Mrs. Thornton isn't definite about when she became a Farmer resident, but does remember the trip to Texas from Mississippi, when she was a youngster.

At present, she is making her home with a niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Morey Bussell, in Friona.

Children of Mrs. Thornton include W. C. Thornton, of Clovis, Mrs. Lou Bussell of Friona, Mrs. Julia Hoover and Mrs. Sue Bussell, both of Portales. In addition, the centenarian has 17 grandchildren, plus a number of great-grandchildren and great-great-grand-children.

Family members gathered in the Bussell home in Friona on Sunday November 4th, for a social with the honoree.

Over 100 Persons Attend P-TA Thanksgiving Feed Tuesday Night

Approximately 150 persons were present at the Farwell school Tuesday night, when the annual Thanksgiving supper was held by the Parent Teacher Association in the cafeteria department of the school.

Honored during the evening were members of the current senior class, and the visiting speaker, Frank Phillips, of the agriculture department of WTSC, Canyon, addressed his remarks particularly to the seniors as he spoke on "Why A College Education?"

In his brief, pertinent talk, Phillips pointed out that usually "he who thinks he can, can do the job" in reference to attending college. In most instances, he emphasizes, a college education is of immense benefit to young people.

Thanksgiving decorations were used on the speaker's table, with the typical horn of plenty being featured, plus a picture turkey surrounded by greenery. On the table devoted to the seniors, miniature graduates complete in blue caps and gowns were plate favors, and inside the tiny diplomas held by the figurines were individual fortunes for the class members.

Mrs. Sterlyn Billington, as program chairman, introduced the visiting speaker, and the invocation of the evening was given by Rev. Geisler, of Canyon, who accompanied Mr. Phillips here. The business session, held before the meal, was in charge of Mrs. Jack McManigal, president of the PTA.

Seniors this year include JoVeta Billingsley, Jesse Coburn, Bobby Joe Crume, Marcia Foster, Delores Goldsmith, Rose Hines, Donald Jesko, Pike Jordan, Jo Ella Lavorn, Katherine Magness, Duane Martin, Lueta McKillip, Georgia Lee Mears, Leon Meeks, Darrell Norton, Donald Joe Pipkin, Rex Pool, Charles Phillips, Wilma Nell Smith, Joan Spurlin, Sonny Spurlin, Doyle Vaughn.

Vernon Hunter, Former Local Artist, Gives Famous Paintings To Twin City Schools

Through the courtesy of Vernon Hunter, manager of the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts, the Texico and Farwell schools were presented with reproductions of famous paintings this week.

Both paintings, originally done in oil, and now on display in the National Gallery of Arts, Washington D. C., were lent to the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts during the recent State Fair of Texas. One painting is of George Washington by Gilbert

Stuart, while the other portrays the scene of Washington Crossing the Delaware by Emanuel Leutze.

The latter reproduction was loaned the Dallas Museum by the Metropolitan Museum of Arts for the State Fair showing. In speaking of this particular picture, Hunter said that this was the first reproduction of the original painting by Leutze.

Hunter, a former Texico lad, and son of the late S. C. and Mrs. Hunter, is an artist in his own right, having devoted the past several years to that calling, and has won much recognition in the east for his works. One of his works, entitled, Sunday Afternoon, was a reproduction in oil of the McDaniel homestead, located west of Texico. He also did the mural painting that now hangs in the DeBaca county courthouse at Fort Sumner, N. M.

Cerebral Palsy Clinic Planned Nov. 26th

A clinic for the examination of cerebral palsied children will be held Monday, November 26, at the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, 3502 Avenue N, Lubbock.

Orthopedic specialists from Midland, Plainview, and Lubbock, a neuropsychiatrist, pediatrician, eye specialist, and a dentist will be present to examine children.

Cerebral palsy is sometimes referred to as spastic paralysis or birth injury and may be evidenced by the child's inability to sit alone, stand alone, walk or hold objects at the age these things are accomplished by the average child. Research has shown that treatment is more effective if started within the first few months of the child's life although children respond to treatment begun at a much later age.

Parents planning to bring children to the clinic are requested to register the children at the Center prior to the date of the clinic. Information regarding the clinic may be obtained by writing Dr. Esther Snell, Director, or calling Lubbock 6541.

PMA Elections Slated Over Parmer County

Elections have been scheduled as follows: At Parmer County Implement Co., Friona; Lazbuddy Store; and PMA office, Farwell, from 8 to 5 o'clock on November 20. In each community three members of a community (township) committee and two alternates and a delegate to the county convention are to be elected. The delegates to the county convention will meet Nov. 27, 9 a.m., at PMA office, to name a county committee consisting of a chairman, vice chairman, member and two alternates to administer PMA programs in the county.

The programs administered by the committeemen include the agricultural conservation program, price supports, marketing quotas and acreage allotments, and the sugar program, as well as defense production goals, and Federal Crop Insurance—the latter two in cooperation with other agencies.

Expressing themselves as highly pleased with the response given by local residents the past Saturday in the annual Poppy Day Sale, members of the local American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors, reported on Monday that a total of $98.22 was taken in from sale of the memorial flowers.

"In fact," one of the committee members said, "we sold all the poppies which were issued."

Mrs. Raymond Sudderth was in charge of the drive, assisted by Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Joe Helton, with the three making contacts on the streets of the Twin Cities during Saturday. Poppies were also sold in business houses, where members of the Auxiliary had charge of the flowers.

I'm sure you'll like Ford's new 4-Speed Transmission

Maybe you enjoy slow farming... but there's no money in it. If I can show you faster farming... with no more work, you'll be interested, won't you?

All right, just take one feature of the Ford Tractor, the 4-speed transmission. On the road I'll give you up to 12½ miles per hour. In third speed (top field working speed), I'll give you 6 miles per hour. And so on down... each speed, even the reverse, is faster. Saves lots of hours in a year.

Won't you let me demonstrate this Ford Tractor (and its Dearborn Implements) on your farm? I have something special in parts and service, too.

Bovina Mustangs Top Farwell Steers By One Touchdown In Conference Tilt

In perfect football weather and before the largest crowd of the season, the Bovina Mustangs met the Farwell Steers on the local field last Friday night. It was a very close game all the way with the Mustangs coming out on the long end of a 24-18 score.

Farwell kicked to Bovina to start the game and Leon Ware, Bovina backfield man, took the ball around his own ten yard line picking up interference and following the sidelines romped all the way for the Bovina touchdown. On the attempt for the extra point, the pass was incomplete and the Mustangs led 6-0.

Leon Ware kicked off for Bovina and Farwell returned the ball to their own 32 yard line. Carpenter went to the right for a gain of a little over yard with Jordan following with a run to the left that picked up about three yards. With third down and five to go, Jordan hit the center of the line and missed a first down by about a yard. On fourth down, Norton tried a quarter back sneak and went all the way to the 47 yard line for a first down.

Carpenter hit the center of the line for no gain, but made another quick first down on the next play going all the way to the Bovina 40-yard-line.

Farwell had bad luck on the next two plays with two fumbles. They recovered both fumbles, the first one for no gain and the second resulted in a three yard loss. They were thrown for another loss back to their own 40 yard line. This was fourth down and about thirty yards to go. Cassidy faded back and fake a punt but instead handed off to Raney who went wide to the left and ran all the way to within the Bovina twenty yard line.

Carpenter took the ball and carried it to the 12 yard line and the next play, Jordan went around left end for the Steers first touchdown. Pipkin attempted the conversion but it was wide. Farwell was off-side and the penalty was refused and the score was tied 6-6.

Pipkin kicked off for Farwell with Ware taking the ball for Bovina and making it back up field to his own 3 yard line. A bad pass from center resulted in a fumble and a Farwell recovery but Farwell was off-side on the play, so it was called back and Bovina had first down and five to go. Ware tried the center of the line and gained about a yard. Hromas passed to Oakley Stevenson on the next play for a first down to the 45 yard line.

Ware again took the ball and went to the right and made another first down to the Farwell 40 yard line. Another quick first down resulted from a pass from Hromas to Pounds to the 28 yard line. It looked as if Bovina was on the way to paydirt, but a fumble on the next play changed the scene with the Steers recovering on their own 28.

Carpenter carried the ball for Farwell going to the right and making a first down on their 45. He again went to the right and made eight yards and then handed off to Raney who scampered to the 22 yard line in the Bovina half of the field. Jordan ran the next two plays picking up three and four yards respectively. On a double hand off Farwell was thrown for a loss of four yards as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

On the first play of the second quarter, Cassidy passed to Coburn who then ran thirteen yards for another Steer touchdown. Pipkin again tried the conversion but the kick was blocked. Farwell 12 Bovina 6.

Pipkin again kicked off to the Mustangs and Stevenson took the ball and was downed on the Bovina 24. Bovina failed to get started with practically no gain on third down when Hromas passed to Stevenson for eight yards and then Hromas punted on fourth down and the Steers took over on their own 47.

Carpenter made four yards to the right with Jordan hitting center and was about a half yard from a first down. Norton tried the center and made a first down just shy of the Bovina 40 yard line. Farwell was guilty of holding on the next play and was penalized back to their own 43. Cassidy was caught by Tid- enberg behind the line of scrimmage for a ten yard loss and then Cassidy made it back to his 40 but they lost another five yards on the next play and were forced to punt on fourth down. They got off a good kick that went through the Bovina safety man and Bovina finally took over on their own 10.

Ware ran nineteen yards for a first down, Stevenson made two and Ware again took the ball and made eighteen yards to the Farwell 49 yard line. Stevenson carried the ball on the next two plays and another first down on the next play going to the twenty-five around left end.

Ware made three yards and Hromas picked up four yards, then Hromas made a short pass to Ware who ran the remaining 15 yards to again knot the score. The conversion was not good and the score was 12-12.

Ware kicked for Bovina with Carpenter taking the ball and racing to the Farwell 9 before he was stopped. Jordan went to the right and made a first down with the ball resting on the mid-field stripe. Two incomplete passes and the first half ended.

Third Quarter

Ware again kicked for Bovina to start the second half with Carpenter returning to his own 5, and then carried the pigskin to the Bovina 46. The Steers lost on the next two plays and on third down they fumbled and Bovina came up with the ball on their own 33.

Ware picked up a yard and Stevenson followed with a gain of seven and Ware made a first down to the 44. Hromas passed to Stevenson to the Farwell 47 and it was short of a first down.

Hromas passed, but it was incomplete and then Ware picked up fourteen yards on a right end run to put the ball on the Farwell 30. Stevenson made five and Hromas made two and Ware again made a first down to the 19. Stevenson made four and Ware failed to gain followed with an incomplete pass. On fourth down, Ware went off right tackle for thirteen yards and another score. The conversion attempt failed and Bovina was again in the lead 18-12.

Bovina kicked and Farwell brought it back to their own 18. On their first play, there was a fumble recovered on the 15 by Venable of Bovina. Ware made six yards and Stevenson made a first down on the four yard line. The quarter ended before another play could get under way. Following the time out Hromas went to the left and scored. Once again the conversion failed and Bovina was again in the lead 18-12.

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.

Laymen's Day Held At Local Church

Laymen's Day at the Friona Congregational Church proved to be a highlight in many ways in the life of the church, pastored by Rev. Geo. E. Meyer. Walter Graham, executive director of the National Laymen's Fellowship of the Congregational Christian Church, and a member of the board of the General Department of United Church Men of the National Council of Churches, was the principal speaker and honored guest.

Graham delivered the sermon at the morning worship hour, taking as his subject "On Being a Christian". Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson sang a duet, "My God And I", with Mrs. C. C. Maurer accompanying.

A community-wide men's meeting was held at 3 o'clock, with the visitor addressing the crowd on "What Church Men Can Do Together." A quartette composed of Cecil Robinson, Dalton Caffey, P. L. London and Earl Hise sang two numbers. Clyde Goodwine presided and Mrs. Maurer was at the piano for the hymn singing led by Robinson.

The Rev. Royal John Gibson, conference minister of the Central South Conference of Congregational Churches, spoke at a meeting of the women of the church, also held in the afternoon.

Concluding the eventful day, the November family night program began with a feed at 7:30, under the direction of Carl C. Maurer and Glenn E. Reeve and ably assisted by men of the church. The church orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. G. L. Cranfill, played three numbers and accompanied the hymn singing led by Mrs. J. H. O'Rear. In the orchestra are Curtis O'Rear, Glenn Evan Reeve, Dudley Bainum, Don Reeve, Sue Cranfill, and Phyllis Treider. The young people were delighted with the fine compliment paid them by the guest of honor.

The junior department of the Church School conducted the opening worship, consisting a song by the group, "Are Ye Able," with the verses introduced by proper scriptural references read by Pat Cranfill; a litany based on the Beatitudes with Joyce O'Rear reading the leader's part, closing with a free prayer by Pat Cranfill.

Graham was the principal speaker, with Rev. Gibson also appearing. The evening on the whole was pronounced "the best ever" by many of the almost one hundred present.

Construction Crew Winds Up Project

Construction crews of Brown & Root, Inc., which have been busy in Friona for the past several months putting in residential paving, wound up their contract last weekend, except for a few minor patching and clean-up details.

With the completion of the work, approved by city residents in a bond issue some time ago, Friona boasts about sixty blocks of all-weather street paving about the city, plus a large parking lot in front of the local hospital and extra work around some of the church properties.

Hospital officials, incidentally, reminded that the work done around the hospital is being paid by public subscription and asked those who had not donated previously to make their contributions in the near future.

The remaining workers of the construction gang have been doing some clean-up work along curbs over the city, and are expected to take their leave in a few days.

Thanksgiving Services Planned By Baptists

Special services will be held at the First Baptist Church in Friona on Thursday morning, November 22nd, in observance of Thanksgiving. Rev. Russell Pogue, pastor, announced today.

Pointing out the current state of world affairs, Rev. Pogue admonished Friona residents that "we have a great deal to be thankful for, and the place to offer our thanks is in our churches."

The services will begin at 9 a. m. and are open to any residents of the area.

Fund Drive Launched For CARE Packages

A drive to raise $100 in Friona and surrounding community was launched this week by the Modern Study Club, which voted last week to sponsor the CARE program in the area.

Mrs. Glenn E. Reeve, explaining the program, stated that CARE food packages are sent out all over the world to distressed areas, with participation of women's clubs being sponsored by the General Federation of Clubs.

Mrs. Ruth Edelman, Mrs. Jane Williams and Mrs. Mabel Romich are committee members for the Club, and are asking donations from the community. All donations, it was stated, are to be in cash, with the money forwarded to the General Federation, which will in turn deliver it to CARE for purchasing foodstuffs to go in the packages for abroad.

Deadline for the local drive is November 24th, and Club members this week urged that all local residents participate in the campaign.

Cage Season Nears For Local Teams

Basketball for Friona fans and players got underway here on Tuesday night in the brand-new school gymnasium, when girls' teams held scrimmage games with Bovina. For the first time this year, Friona's not inconsiderable number of fans will find ample seating room to enjoy the games.

The Squaws, coached by Cecil Robinson, have been undergoing workouts for several weeks, while Coach Raymond Cook's Chiefs are slated to begin drills this week with the conclusion of the football season.

Asked about prospects, both Cook and Robinson were fairly optimistic, reporting that graduation did not take a great number of players from either squad.

Other than the practice game on Tuesday night, the schedule reads:

Harvest Nearing Finale For Year

Combines were busy in fields over the Friona area during the past weekend and early part of this week, as farmers made desperate efforts to get their feed crops in the bin before wind and weather put more of the stalks on the ground.

A large portion of feed stuff in the Friona area just was too green to be cut before the recent damp weather arrived, followed by a heavy freeze and all grain remaining in the area was ready for the combine crews by the middle of last week.

Primarily, the feed being cut now is irrigated, although some dry-land crops were not ready until recently.

Cub Scout Program To Be Started In Friona, Shortly

In connection with the project, a parents' training course is to be held on the evenings of November 27th and 29th, in the Congregational Church basement, at which time Mr. Hiatt and Mr. Delashmutp, both of the Amarillo district Scout office, will be in charge.

The program is sponsored by the Modern Study Club of the city, and is open to boys eight, nine and ten years of age.

Further plans are to get the local Boy Scout program, which has been stagnant the past several years, in action again, officials said this week.

Season Finale Played Here, Friday Night

The wind-up of the current football season for the Friona Chiefs came on the local gridiron last Friday night when a visiting team from New Deal bowed to the strong Redskins, 32-0.

Conclusion of the 3-B conference season, so far as the locals are concerned, left them standing in the No. 2 position in the district, just behind Happy who has not lost a conference battle, although they have Bovina yet to play, it is reported. The Chiefs during the season were dropped only by Happy and Hereford, the latter being a non-conference scramble.

Action Friday night was highlighted by the 52-yard touchdown pass from Darrell Robbins to Ross Miller, standing in the end zone.

Other counters were credited to Frank Reed, who reached the picnic grounds twice and added one extra point; Jay Cobb, a solitary six-pointer; Darrell Robbins, also a six; and Walter Haws, who booted one conversion.

CONSERVATION NEWS

PEAS PAY OFF

A. W. Anthony, seven miles north of Friona, planted 50 acres of Austrian winter peas in September 1950. On about April 15 of this year he turned them under and followed the peas with combine kaffir. A trial run showed that the kaffir was making 4500 pounds per acre. Anthony reported that the greenbugs had damaged the top growth badly before he turned the peas under. He is pleased with the results and plans to start a rotation system with one-third of his land in peas each year.

TERRACE SYSTEMS MADE

A terrace system was finished this week on the A. L. Carter and L. L. Chisum farm, nine miles north of Bovina. This was one of the largest jobs completed in several weeks, with 4.8 miles of standard terraces and a 3,280 cubic yard diversion in the system. The structures were graded to spill on Jack Woltman's native grass.

A diversion terrace was checked as complete for Roy White, four miles south and one-half mile east of Hub. White's place sloped toward the Running Water Draw and the 4,800 foot-5,800 cubic yard diversion was graded to spill on native grass leading down to the draw.

Interior of the new business is especially attractive, being done by Krueger in knotty pine paneling which contrasts with booths and tables in forest green. Tile is used extensively throughout the building. The cafe will offer 24-hour service with the exception of alternate Sundays, beginning the 25th of this month, when it will be closed.

EDITORIAL

When people work together, much will be accomplished.

Witness the situation in our school fund. We started the year with only a promise of a band. First the school board invested approximately $1000.00 in band instruments, stands, music and other equipment. Next our music director Mr. Hill convinced us that he is not afraid to work overtime to make a real music program in our school. The almost natural consequence of this is parent participation.

The band boosters club organized and began a campaign to get band uniforms.

This at first looked like a hopeless task, but after the campaign last week, they were able to put $272, in the bank which along with the $39 they had in their fund make, over $300 cash. This is only a beginning for the uniforms but after the very nice showing our band made in the homecoming parade at Portales, where they were a part of 13 band parade, we are sure we shall never stop until our band can be as well uniformed as others.

Mrs. Rogers reports, "The class wishes to express its appreciation to the room mothers for a most enjoyable time, and to James Gillelan for his help in selecting and fitting the skates."

Transportation to Pleasant Hill was provided by the room mothers and sponsor.

Agrie Jones, superintendent, stated "This is not an easy thing to accomplish, but one worthy of emulation."

Jones continued "If all children in school set the same record of attendance, we could add two more teachers to make a better school. Stay in there Spears, you are doing your part."

Weekly average of students that eat in the Texico lunch room is 150.

Junior Play Displays Rare Characterization

By JANE MOSS

Maybe the junior class of Texico boasts an exceptional number of talented dramatists, or maybe they are merely hard workers, but the class presented one of the best plays that has been on stage at Texico schools in quite some time, when they opened the curtain on "Everybody's Crazy", Friday night. Of the 21 students in the class, 19 were featured in the cast.

The presentation was made to a capacity crowd, despite extremely cold and uncomfortable weather and the group grossed $105.57.

Gene Armstrong, who played Tommy Wilkins, attracted a favorable audience reaction when he donned a long blonde wig and feminine finery, and impersonated a dancer.

The play involved a haunted hotel, buried treasure, a psychiatrist who had plenty of business, a sleepwalker, a mixed-up series of romances, and the gum-chewing daughter who was sure all movie stars were in love with her.

Most of the cast members portrayed character parts, which involved a total change of personality. The old maid who dabbled in spiritualism, played by June Breeze; a nervous widow Marjorie Brown; the old bachelor who had nightmares, Robert Tucker; the cook who was afraid of spooks, Jo Sondra Magerus; and the colored maid, Anita Brown; negro porter and bellhop, James King, all required unusual impersonations.

Other characters were Herb Stanley, joint owner of the Treasure Trove Tavern, Bonnie Ferguson; Elmer Sneed, interested in psychiatry, Billy Goldsmith; William Bates, the money-mad landlord Aryle Crooks; Julie Mather who presented the romantic aspect of the play, Doris Leavell; Godfrey Van Gordon, the sleep walker, Roger Powell; Caroline, who enjoys poor health, Bettye Bridges; Celia, the gum-chewer, Yvonne Horton; messenger boy, Earl McDaniel; and three guests, Norma Jean Jacks, Esther McDaniel and Jeanine Donahey.

Directors for the drama were Mrs. Jimmie Allmon and Carl Schmitt. Announcer was Miss Jacks.

Between-acts entertainment included The Melody Bells, a high school octette, who sang "Mighty Lak A Rose"; and a trio, Charles Bennett Stockton, Alex Brown and Dicky Lockhart, who presented an ensemble, "Desert Song".

Farwell Band Members Visit Texico Band

Formal Presentation Of Band Made

First formal presentation of Texico Band was made Friday afternoon in the Texico high school auditorium. The band played two numbers.

George Hill stated "This is a young band made up of young musicians."

Drum major, Catherine Bell, and majorettes, Pat Doshier, Darlene Rhoten, Barbara Templeman, Susan Levins, and Madge Richardson, performed.

Characters for the junior play were introduced by Norma Jean Jacks. Several skits from the junior play were also presented.

$186 was made from the auction and $86 from tickets sales, sold by Texico Band members under the supervision of George Hill, band director.

Majorettes for the band ushered the evening of October 30.

Mrs. Moss continued, "the group would like to thank Scott Levins, Ben Smart, and all the Texico merchants who made the auction possible. Thanks, also to Dick Doshier, Vernon Symcox, and Orville Frances, auctioneers."

The money will be used to buy new uniforms for the band.

Lounges Installed For Texico Teachers

For the first time in the history of Texico schools, teachers have been provided with lounges, in both grade and high school, states Fern Stout, principal of schools. This improvement was made so teachers would have a place to grade papers, relax for a few minutes, or have a place to spend a free period, the principal continues.

The high school lounge was ready for use at the beginning of the year and is located in the former principal's offices. The grade school lounge for teachers is a more recent addition, and has been installed in the office formerly utilized as a cloak room. The lounges are furnished with desks, tables and chairs, and typewriters and duplicators, Stout concludes.
