FROM THE HOPPER By HOP

"If these d---- towns would leave us alone, we could settle 'these road locations."

The above quotation came from one of the members of the precinct | road committee, named to locate roads in Precinct No. 3.

The committee was composed entirely of farmers of this community who were working to designate the farm-to-market roads in the precinct for future construction. And I might add that these committee members rolled up their respective sleeves and agreed on the location of the roads before anybody knew they had hardly begun to function.

Too often, it seems the town boys want to have a say in locating the roads that properly belong to the farmers. And judging, from past experiences, the town boys only tend to mess up the deal, so

Certainly, our town organizations have their proper functions to perform, and every town should have a good organization of civic-minded men who promote the interests of their towns. But when it comes to locating farm roads, that duty should rest with the farmers themselves.

Here's a letter from Mrs. J. C. Cummins of Limon, Colo., who encloses a check for a renewal of her subscription, and adds:

"It was worth the price of the subscription just to see the picture of the Retired Farmer (Hi, Johnny)".

March of Dimes Tops $2300 in County

March of Dimes contributions in Parmer County for the 1952 drive reached a total of $2,349.41 last week. Raymond Euler, head of the drive, says. Euler adds that the contributions were 100 per cent voluntary with no actual pressure on residents. "All of the people working in conjunction with the drive did a good job," the chairman adds.

Each community in the county has staged various benefits during the past month, though handicapped by the flu epidemic which was in evidence through the country.

Friona topped the county with the largest donation of $888.01, which was derived by contribution, and various entertainments. A drive by the girl scouts netted $165; Legion dance, $71; coffee day, $80; Outsiders basketball game, $35; Modern Study club, $5; and Progressive Study club, $10; grade school, $103; seniors, $20.45; high school card donations, $7.50; Lions club, $21; Ladies club, $5. Iron lungs were kept in business around town for contributions.

In Bovina, citizens pushed ahead with a donation of $570.42. Contributing to the grand total for Bovina were functions at the school, iron lung containers around town, and personal gifts. A pie supper netted the most money for the drive, $264 .-50. Other means of obtaining money were: basketball game, $39.20; cards given out at school, $92.10; Study club, $10; iron lung containers, $33. 71; Rhinehart Insurance Agency,

Final total for Farwell was "Underground Water On the High | $382.82. Groundhog Glimpses Shadow and Scats

If there is anything to the groundhog fable, we can most certainly look for another six weeks of winter weather before the arrival of spring.

The committee merely designated ing job. the general course of the projects, without naming specifically what exact routes were to be followed. This leaves the Highway Department free to make locations that are the most feasible from an engineering standpoint.

The No. 1 project in the precinct would continue the paving from the Oklahoma Lane school house south some 51/2 miles to the Bailey County line.

No. 2 would begin at a point selected by the State Highway Department on Highway 60 north of Farwell and run north to connect with the 80-foot road west of Boyina. Some three routes were considered by the committee for this connecting length but no definite designation was adop-

No. 3-A would begin at the Earl Billingsley corner northeast of Lariat and run east to connect with the Muleshoe-Friona pavement. No. 3-B would tap Highway 60 north of town and extend east along the Sudderth lane to the Bovina-Oklahoma Lane pavement or to the Friona-Muleshoe pave-

You won't believe your eyes when you see the big, new '52 Ford! For never before has a low priced car offered such power, such fine car styling, such big car comfort! You'll see such built-for keeps advances as Ford's new longer stronger Coachcraft Bodies . . . its more powerful, high compression V 8 and Six engines . . . and the many other features described at right.

Ford's 110 h.p. Strato-Star V 8 is the most powerful engine- the only V 8 offered in a low priced car. Ford's 101 h.p. Mileage Maker Six is an all new low friction Powerhouse with new free turning overhead valves and shorter piston stroke. Both engines feature the Automatic Power Pilot which gives you high-compression "go" with regular gas.

White sidewall tires if available, and Fordomatic Drive optional at extra

Full-Circle Visibility New curved one-piece wind-shield . . . new car-wide rear window . . . picture windows all around give you visibility "unlimited." A Ford exclusive in the low-price field.

Automatic Ride Control New wider front tread, lower center of gravity, longer rear springs, new tailored-to-model front springs and diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers help take the bounce out of bumps, the tilt out of turns.

Coachcraft Bodies The newest, most advanced bodies in the low-price field . . . styled to stay beautiful and designed to stay young.

FARWELL

TEXAS

Out of 35,000 lives lost in traffic accidents in 1950, 26,700 were sacrificed on the altar of carelessness. Speed-excessive, killing speed-accounted for nearly half that number. Speed, claiming 13,300 dead and 475,000 injured victims in a single year, is the nation's Killer No. 1.

While all traffic deaths declined from 1946 through 1949, even then fatalities on the open road kept creeping up. In 1950 a deadly spurt of speed accidents claimed 3,200 more victims in rural areas than it had the year before. Last year speed deaths again mounted.

Why do drivers race so heedlessly to destruction on the highway? Hardly to save time. Scorching at 70 is an invitation to disaster. Over any distance, 50 m.p.h. takes only a few minutes longer and offers a better chance of a safe arrival.

When you start our with your family or friends, discount speed before you take off. Give yourself and others in your car an extra margin of safety by leaving earlier and holding your speed within bounds. It's your responsibility to them and to others on the road.

Remember-more than one out of every three fatal accidents is due to speed.

Local Teams Wind Up Conference Games

The Bovina basketball teams played their last home conference games on Friday night when they met the Adrian teams. For the Bovnia girls it was another victory added to their string of conference wins, but the boys suffered their second de-

The Bovina girls took the lead at the beginning of the game and led all the way building up their lead throughout the game. They led 28-10 at the halftime and the final score read Bovina 51 and Adrian 29.

The scoring was very close with Donna Smith of Bovina taking the honors with 21 points. Lilian Young of Bovina scored 19 and Perry of Adrian tossed in 18.

The boys game was a close, hardfought game. Adrian grabbed the lead at the beginning of the game and held the lead until about midway in the third quarter, when Bovina went ahead for the first time during the evening.

Adrian had a scant one-point lead as the first period ended with an 11-10 score but they had built up their lead to five points at the half and led 20-15.

Bovina came to life during the third quarter and had pulled three of the last canto 29-26 but they could not hold the lead during the last eight minutes. Two of their first string boys left the game for fouls about midway during the last quarter. The final score was 40-37 in favor of Adrian.

Jim Proctor of Adrian hit the net for 17 points and high scoring honors, Brown of Adrian made 13. The scoring for Bovina was pretty well distributed. Roy Young, tall lanky center for Bovina, topped their scoring with 10 points but he couldn't find the bucket for his usual average of about 20 points per game.

Hromas and Pounds each scored 8 while Ware counted for 6 and Tid- test held in conection with the enberg tallied 5.

How Valentines Day Originated By Bettye Bridges

When you receive that box of candy from that certain person this St. Valentines day, will you stop to garded as betrothed. Later, the cus- Dear Aunt Het: wonder just how Saint Valentine's Day came to be?

It seems that there were two saints who lived in the third century, and died on the same day. One of them was a priest at Rome, and the other a bishop in Umbria. The traditional anniversary of their death, February 14, has become known as Saint Valentine's Day, and has long been observed as a lovers' festival with the saints. This has no connections with the saints, and the association of the lovers' festival with Saint Valentine is purely accidental. It seems to have really come from the fact that the feast of the two saints falls toward spring.

Several other explanations are given for the familiar custom of sending love tokens, cards of greettings, and other gifts to one's favorites. Some say that one Saint Valentine was accustomed to go around from house to house leaving food on the doorsteps of the poor. The custom of sending Valentine greetings at first were anonymously developed from that fart. Another explanation connects the modern celebration of the day which the survival of the Roman festival Lupercalia, which occurred on February 15. A festival of a similar nature was observed in Old England and Scotland, and to some extent in other European countries.

Both Chaucer and Shakespeare refer the observance of the festival Future Plans: To be a farmer and on the day in early spring when rancher.

Speech Department Presents Plays

Members of the Speech Department under the direction of Mrs. Jimmy Allman, presented two plays in a pay-assembly in the school auditorium, Thursday.

The first play entitled, "Dear Lady Be Brave" had the following characters: Dr. Clark, Charles Ott, who was trying to help his friend and patient; William Tandy, James King, to deceive three young ladies: Miss Sweet, Aloma Palmateer; Miss Montgomery, Koleta Smith; and Miss MacClindon, Phyllis Tucker. The result was that the doctor won the fair lady.

The second play entitled "Little Oscar" presented Aloma and Andre Palmateer as Fred and Gussie, the parents of Little Oscar. Robert and Phyllis Tucker, Henry and Josy, were friends who had a baby of their own and were tired of hearing about little Oscar.

Proceeds from the plays will be used to purchase additional speech supplies.

"That's the Smartest Million Dollars BUICK Ever Spent"

THEN we tell you that every 1952 Buick rides like a million dollars, we're not just slinging slang-we're talking real money-right-on-thebarrelhead cash.

A million dollars and more were poured into research and testing - design and tools-engineering, production and components-to team up the combination of ride features you'll find on a Buick-and on no other car in the world.

A million dollars and more was the price paid to work out control of endsway and side-roll on curves-to doublecheck vertical "throw" with shock absorbers and big soft-acting coil springs for all four wheels - to V-brace the torque-tube keel and X-brace the frame - to cushion body and engine and to silk out the whole operation with Dynaflow Drive.*

You may not care how the job was done, or what it cost. But we'll lay you this:

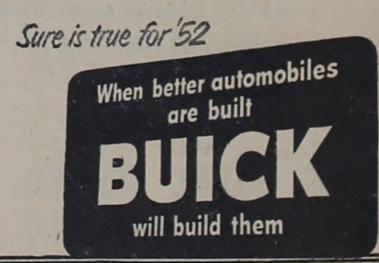

You're going to say "thanks a million" to Buick engineers once you get this spirited smoothie under your hands and haunches.

Old familiar roads take on a new smoothness. Gone are the weave and wander, the jitter and jounce that you've felt in lesser cars. You ride with roadhugging assurance and level ease.

All of which only begins to tell you what really great cars these 1952 Buicks turned out to be.

Never before have style and staminacomfort and character-power, performance and price been brought together with such satisfying skill.

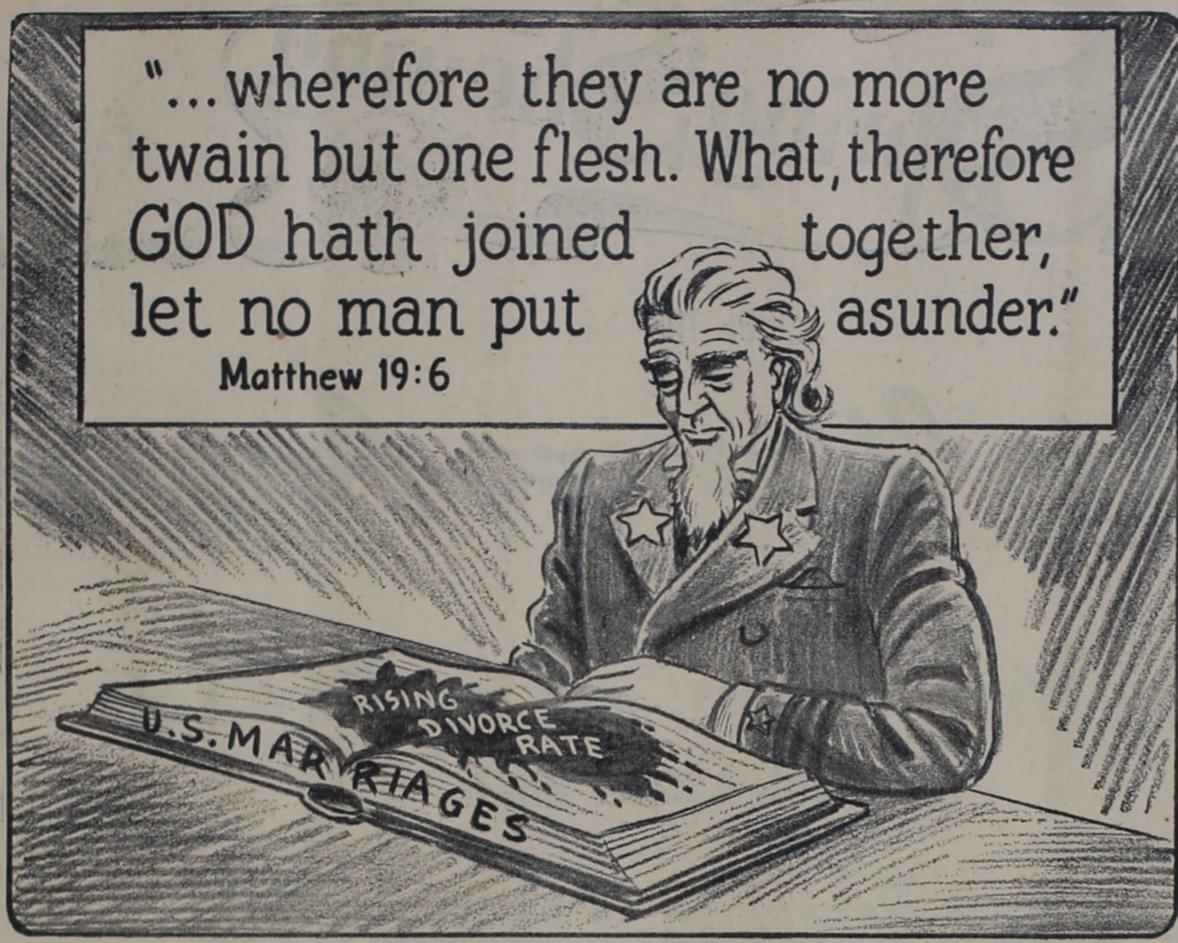

The obvious thing for you to do is come in and look them over. How about taking half an hour off to do that - today? Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without $Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

CLOVIS, NEW MEXICO

Homes are wrecked and lives estranged; children are pulled this way and that by divorced parents. What can be done? For the nation, one divorce for each four marriages and in some cities, as many divorces as marriages. Think on these things.

Let's see to it that we respect and honor marriage as the most delicate and perhaps the most important of all human relations. No man or woman ought to laugh or make sport of the family, or of the relation of women and men in the home. Let's have done with the mother-in-law jokes and all other caricatures of this sacred union of hearts and minds.

Let's prepare our young people for successful marriage. Do we give as much attention as did our fathers to the direction of our children toward making good homes? It is about the most important task that falls to mothers and fathers and teachers and preachers, in fact, to all of us. We must get our young people well married. Then tell them the truth about this intimate and familiar human relation. Warn them and counsel them, as did the writer of Proverbs in the Old Testament.

Let's make marriage a sacrament, entered upon in the reverent mood of prayer, and supported by the aids of religion. Surround this union of immortal spirits with every sacred and wholesome influence from the very beginning. Dedicate every new home as a shrine where the children of God shall expect the guidance of their Heavenly Father in their conduct toward each other.

Marriage is not only the mating of bodies; it is the mating of souls. Two souls do not become one in a few hours of courtship or in a few weeks of marriage. Only patience and good will and mutual respect and faithful affection will equip two different persons to live together with growing union of body and soul. Divorce means the failure of the home, the failure of us all in the building of a good society. Less haste and more care in preparation for marriage will make fewer divorces after marriage. Every home requires God's aid and blessing, if it succeeds. "Wherefore they are no more twain but one flesh. What, therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

A fact to all of us about teachers is how occasionally and unjustly they has to do in order to be good?

Developing your child's mind along the level of books is only half their job. Much of your child's culture and social life is developed at school; therefore, the responsibility for this falls to the teacher.
