Master Sergeant Leonard L. Hanna, of Farwell, was selected "The Soldier of the Week" at Fort Hood last week, it is reported by the Fort Hood information office.

The selection is made by a number of ranking officers, and the man is picked on his ability as a soldier and the ability to do the job assigned him, plus neatness and appearance. Sgt. Hanna has been in the Army for 38 months. He spent 21 months in Germany where he took many high honors in sports, including being nominated "Mr. Football" of 1950.

Marine Recruiter Opens Office In Clovis

T-Sgt. Edward F. Huffman, the Marine Recruiter for West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, reports that Marine headquarters for this area is now located in the State Employment Office at 207 Mitchell Street, Clovis.

A veteran of nine years service in the Marines, Sgt. Huffman served in the South Pacific during World War II with the Third Marine division. He holds the Navy Unit Citation, Good Conduct medal with one star, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with two battle stars, American theatre ribbon, World War II Victory medal and the China Service ribbon.

The sergeant states the Marine Corps offers unequalled opportunities for young men going into the service, as all categories are in need of men in the Land, Sea, and Air units. The Corps is enlisting men between the age of 17 and 32 years, he says, adding that the period of enlistment is three or four years and another enlistment similar to the period served by men entering through selective service.

The quota for January has been filled and applications are being accepted from young men that desire to enlist during the month of February. The Marine recruiter will make occasional visits to your community and can be contacted at the office. Persons interested may write to Marine Recruiting, Box 914, Clovis, N.M.

North Dakota and South Dakota were admitted to the Union on the same date, November 2, 1889.

Deadline For Some PMA Loans Jan. 31

Joe Camp, PMA secretary, reminds farmers that Jan. 31 is the final date for putting 1951 grain sorghum and wheat in the loan. Camp adds that the report should have been turned in by Monday, in order that the PMA office will have time to process the loan by the 31st.

Cotton loans will be available to April 30, 1952, Camp continues. A farmer may obtain a cotton loan by contacting clerks that have been approved by the County Committee. These clerks are located at the gins and banks.

The 1952 ACP program has been in operation for three weeks. "Remember that in order to receive assistance for carrying out a practice under the program, you must turn in for a prior approval before the practice is begun," Camp warns.

Giving figures for 1951, Camp says that the county received a total allocation of $181,400, which was spent in the following method (figures are approximately correct): Large ridge terraces, $2,939.67; Diversion terraces, $9,937.36;

Subsoiling, $125,367.25; Summerfallow, $5,685.84; Contour listing and chiseling, $17,844.71; Bindweed control, $204.40; Levelling land for irrigation, $1,212.10; Reorganization of farm irrigation systems, $6,928.52; Applying superphosphate to legumes and pasture, $2,218.29; Winter legumes, $1,930.95; Seeding permanent pasture, $5,474.28.

According to Camp, the above money was spent on 581 farms.

Amarillo Man Named Cooperative Prexy

Amarillo—Leonard F. Cowden, prominent southwestern agricultural leader and well-known Amarillo businessman, was re-elected president of National Cooperatives at the annual meeting of that organization in Chicago, for his third consecutive term. Mr. Cowden is executive vice-president and general manager of Consumers Cooperatives Associated, a wholesale farm supply cooperative operating in Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Louisiana with headquarters in Amarillo.

National Cooperatives is the national organization of farm supply cooperatives and is recognized as the largest farm organization in the world with over 3,000,000 members in the United States and Canada. Integrated into this national organization are 28 regional wholesale type cooperatives, 5,800 local cooperative organizations and the "grass-roots" membership, made of farmers, ranchers and other agricultural producers throughout the North American continent.

Mr. Cowden was first elected to his post as president of the organization three years ago; the first southerner to ever hold that position. During his tenure of office as president, the national organization has enjoyed considerable growth and expansion.

Chas. Baker of Walla Walla, Washington, was elected vice-president and Arnold Walker of Minneapolis was elected secretary.

Wash your towels in piping hot water unless they are of a delicate color. Textile scientists say that water at 140 degrees F. takes more soil out of cotton materials and removed it faster than does lukewarm water.

Do not let towels become too soiled. Hard rubbing to remove grime is hard on the towels.

Cupid Takes Holiday In Parmer (Officially)

After a boom of marriage license sales were reported for 1951, just across the state line, a Tribune reporter checked at the clerk's office to see if there were similar circumstances in Parmer County. From records here, young couples must immigrate to Clovis or other places; either that or cupid has taken a holiday the past year.

During the entire year of 1951, clerk deputies issued only 14 licenses, an average of a little over one a month. Four months in the year, no licenses at all were issued, in March, April, August and November. Business was rather uniform the remainder of the time with two marriage certificates issued each of the remaining months with the exception of September and October, when only one couple obtained licenses each of the periods.

With the beginning of Leap Year, members of the clerk's office hope for better business, County Clerk Loyde A. Brewer says. Two marriage licenses have already been issued this year, both in the past week.

Obtaining licenses in the past year were: Doris June Phipps and G. A. Collins Jr., both of Friona, January 12; Frank Morris Jr., Friona, and Betty Carol Paik, Denton, January 29; Kay Clements, Lubbock, and Bob D'Wayne Davis, Friona, February 3; Annie Pearl Lee and Roy Lee Smith, both of Portales, February 24;

Also Angela Armigo and Rosario Richard Gallega, both of Friona, May 15; Johnnie Louella White, Muleshoe, and Merrill Glenn Rundell, Farwell, May 29; Wanda Marie Ellison and Wayland Gene Dunlap, both of Portales, June 9; June Gay Looney, Bovina, and Leonard Lynn Hanna, Farwell, June 9;

Also Elenor Lucille Schuler and Reuben Gredolin Meissner, both of Friona, July 19; Joyce Yvonne James and Hollie Bruce Merrill, both of Clovis, July 28; Lolita Murline Hawes and Edgar Joe Joutet, both of Clovis, September 21; Anelina Davila and Herman Martinez, both of Meadow, October 24; Irma Jo Kelly and Bobby Ernest Englant, both of Bovina, December 21; and Mattie Sue Gibson and Horace Verne Nazworth, both of Friona, December 22.

Marriage licenses issued in 1952 were to: Mildred Veliera Watters of Littlefield, and Edgar Walters of Bovina, January 15; and Bobbie Ann Christian, Farwell, and John Melford McFarland, Trail City, South Dakota, January 17.

Remaining Ball Games Listed For Texico

The business of the meeting included the changing of the name of the organization. In compliance with a national move on the part of the women of the denomination, the Ladies Aid is to be known in the future as "The Woman's Fellowship."

The Fellowship voted to buy new folding tables and chairs, voted fifty dollars to general benevolences of the denomination, to conduct a rummage sale in the near future with Mrs. Maurer in charge, and to hold a public dinner as soon as the new tables and chairs arrive. Bills for the nursery room and the storage room were allowed and ordered paid.

Lovelace Elevator Back In Operation

The large concrete elevator at the Lovelace Grain & Storage Co. in Farwell was put back in operation last Friday after a forced shut-down of several days.

The shut-down was the result of a fire that developed in the head-house Jan. 11, doing about $2000 worth of damage to the plant. New elevating belts and cups had to be installed before the plant could operate.

Water damage to stored grain was only slight. Herbert Potts, manager, stated.

Jones Recommends Cattlemen Watch For Record of Performance

Cattlemen are finding that looks alone are not always the most reliable consideration when breeding stock is bought, according to information received by County Agent Joe Jones.

Many ask for a record of performance on each beef animal they buy and are finding that tested stock pays well.

According to U. D. Thompson, assistant animal husbandman of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the progeny testing program on bulls conducted by the Agricultural Experiment Station at Balmorhea and more recently at Bluebonnet Farm in cooperation with Texas Tech at Pantex farms, shows the value of the program.

Animals very similar in outward appearance, he says, responded differently in the tests.

Rate of gain and maturity varied considerably between the different lots tested and both are very important in meat production.

Thompson emphasizes that type, quality, size, growth ability, disposition, and the milk production of the mothers of both the cows and bulls to be used in the herd for replacements should be considered when purchases are made. Large, well-developed cows tend to produce large calves, and mammary development is considered a mighty important part of a well-developed cow.

Cows should be culled from the herd that do a poor job of raising their calves. Thompson emphasizes that herd culling should be continuous and cattle that show evidences of disease should be removed from the herd as soon as they are discovered.

Cows that do not pay their way are too expensive to maintain because of the present high labor and feed costs. Finally, Thompson says, select stock that will produce fast-growing animals that yield desirable carcasses when they are marketed.

Performance tests assure buyers that they are getting this kind of livestock.

Bovina, Lazbuddie, Texico Take Honors At Farwell Junior Invitation Tournament

Three area teams carried home first place trophies from the Farwell junior tournament last weekend, which probably represented one of the best balanced tournaments to be played in any of the towns represented. With four divisions listed, Bovina won two trophies, and Lazbuddie and Texico carried home one each.

Four divisions included boys and girls eighth grade teams and boys and girls freshmen teams. Schools entered were Farwell, Bovina, Texico and Lazbuddie.

No all-tournament teams were named. Tommy Hestand and W. M. Roberts were officials.

Grade Girls Division
In the grade girl's division, Farwell was pitted against Bovina in the first round of play.

Farwell made only one field goal in the first half, to Bovina's count of 17. Score at the end of the third was 24-6 and final tally, 27-6. Brito made 16 points for her team and Barbara Ham tallied four of Farwell's points.

Lazbuddie gained an early lead in their tilt with Texico, leading 11-4 at the end of the first period. Neither team made a counter in the second canto, then the Parmer team surged to a 15-8 tally in the third. Not to be ousted, Texico tied the game 16-16 by the end of the period. In an overtime, the New Mexicoers made two counters to win the game. On Texico's squad, Anita Tharp hit 7 points, Barbara Caldwell, 6, and Sue Reid, 3. For Lazbuddie, Sherry Steinbock made 6 and Beavers and Nealy Steinbock made three each.

Going into consolation play, Lazbuddie won over Farwell, 17-13. Score was tied in the first period and Lazbuddie only led a scant one point at the half. They picked up a 13-11 score by the third period. Glenna Ruth Davis and Barbara Ham made six points each for the locals and Clark made 8 and Beavers 7 for the opponents.

In the winner's bracket for this division, Bovina almost doubled Texico for the championship. Off to a slow start, score stood 2-1 at the end of the first, but Bovina picked up and was leading 13-4 by halftime. By the end of the third quarter, count was 17-7 and the final score was 25-13. Threlkeld of Bovina made 17 counters and Reid hit 5 for Texico. Also for Texico, Tharp made 4 and Levins made 2.

Grade Boys Division
Farwell boys were placed in the winning bracket of the eighth grade boys division when they beat Bovina 26-21. Score by quarters was 6-3 first; 14-6, second; and 20-14 third, Farwell leading all the way. Smith of Farwell made 12. Hawkins hit 8 for Bovina. Also for Bovina, Smith made 6 counters and Calaway hit 4.

Texico topped Lazbuddie 17 points in the second game of the eighth grade boys division. Scores were top heavy for New Mexico from the beginning. At the end of the first, the count was 8-1; halftime, the score-board read 13-5. The greenclads tallied 29-14 in the third, and won 37-20. Henson made 21 points for Texico, and Oliver made 13 for Lazbuddie.

In the consolation match, Bovina outclassed Lazbuddie 50-24. Gaining a 26-10 lead in the first, the Bovinaites maintained a 30-11 lead by halftime. Moving into the third, the count was 42-16. Hawkins and Calaway of Bovina made 12 each, and Smith made 10. For Lazbuddie, Oliver tallied 16.

In the championship match, Texico topped Farwell 26-21. Farwell gained a one-point lead in the first, then allowed the New Mexico team to edge ahead 16-13 by halftime. Third quarter score was 22-21, Texico leading. Smith made 11 points for Farwell and Henson made 11 for Texico.

Freshman Girls Games

Bovina swamped the Farwell freshman girls, 16-4 in the first game in that division. Leading 4-2 at the end of the first period, the Bovina visitors were ahead 8-2 by halftime. They were leading 14-3 at the end of the third. Brown made 2, and Billington and Sanders made one each for Farwell; Verner made 8, and Bradshaw 6 for Bovina.

In another top-heavy game, Lazbuddie quadrupled Texico in the second game of the division, score being 32-8. Lazbuddie racked up 8 points, holding Texico to zero in the first.

The greenclads only made two free throws before the half, and their opponents scored 16 points. Count at the end of the third was 26-3. Point-makers for Texico were Stover, 5; Thornton, 2; and Richardson, 1. Jesko made 18 for her team.

Farwell won consolation over Texico with a 13-6 tally. The New Mexico team failed to score in the first half, while the locals made 6. Count at the end of the third was 10-2. Billington hit 5, Dial 4, and Sanders 3 for Farwell; while Stover made 4 and Thornton 2 for Texico.

In the winning bracket, Lazbuddie beat Bovina 19-5 for the championship trophy. Scores by quarters were 3-1, first; 7-1 second; and 3-16, third. Bradshaw made 3 points and Brito made two for Bovina; and Gonsler made 12 for Lazbuddie.

Freshman Boys Bracket
Bovina beat out Farwell by a bare 27-24 margin in the first game of the freshman boys' division. Farwell gained the first quarter lead, 11-4; and were still leading, 16-1, at intermission. They were ahead 20-16 at the end of the third, but then Bovina surged ahead. James Roberts made 6, Joe Roberts 5, and Watters 4 for Farwell. Read of Bovina tallied 10, Newton 8, and Ezell 6.

Lazbuddie swamped Texico in the second session, 31-7. The Parmer team gained an easy 14-2 lead and held its opponents to zero in the second quarter. Texico hit two tosses in the third quarter and the score read 28-4. Scorers for the wearers of the green were Johnson and Goldsmith, 3 each, and Pendergrass 1. Jerry Gleason made 23 for Lazbuddie.

Farwell boys won the consolation bracket, with a 21-6 win over Texico. Farwell made 9 and Texico 1 in the first half. Third quarter count was 15-4. Hardage made 12 points for the locals. Scorer for Texico was Goldsmith, who made the Texico team's only field goal of the game.

In the championship game, Bovina whipped Lazbuddie 35-20. The Bovinaites gained a quick lead and refused to rest the remainder of the game. Score by quarters: 12-4, first; 16-6, second; 28-16, third. Read of Bovina made 20 points, and Gleason of Lazbuddie made 11.

COMING GAMES GIVEN

Farwell basketball teams are slated to play Lazbuddie on the opponent's court Friday night, in conference tilts. The two local teams travel to Rosedale Tuesday night for non-conference sessions.

Boys Win One, Lose One; Girls Top Field

Texico boys and girls lost one game and won another in battles over the weekend; and the girls won the only session they played.

Meeting Portales on the opponent's court Friday night, the boys were trounced after a valiant first half effort to gain the lead. In the second canto, it was the Portales team's game when they surged ahead in a matter of seconds.

Making only one field goal in the first quarter, the Wolverines held their opponents to eight points; and during the second period, tied the count 16-16. Moving into the third the opponents pulled ahead to lead 14 points by the end of that quarter; and made a final score of 42 over 28 for the locals.

Meeting Ft. Sumner on Saturday night on the home court, the Wolverines turned the tables and went on a scoring spree. Leading all the way, the locals racked up a 13-6 count in the first period, and doubled their opponents for the score to read 26-13 by halftime.

Still playing winning ball, Texico maintained their score for the count to read 37-29 by the end of the third; with a final score of 44-38.

Arlve Crooks paced the local team with 17 points, scoring being evenly distributed on the visitor's team. Martin made 10; Pena, 9; and Sweet, 8.

Girls Session Given

In the girl's game played against Field, the Whirlwinds were the top players with a final score of 38-28. The locals gained an early lead of 10-4, and were leading 14-9 by halftime.

At the end of the third, count was at 26-17. McDaniel made 16 points for the Texico team, and J. Swinford was close with 15 for Field.

Bovina Independents Win Over Hereford

The U Down girls independent team of Bovina went to Hereford on Tuesday night to play for a March of Dimes benefit game. In a game that was close all the way and the outcome not certain until the final whistle, the U Down girls won by a slim one point 22-21.

Bovina took the lead early in the game and held that lead except for a short time when Hereford led by two points. The U Down girls held the lead but they were never able to build up the lead to more than three points. Wilkerson of Bovina topped the scoring with 17 points while Borwen, Hereford, was counting for 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Randol were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holland Sunday.

Farwell Wins Third Place At Amherst

The Farwell Steers brought home a third-place trophy at Amherst last weekend, after winning from Littlefield and Bula and dropping their game to Amherst.

Drawing a bye in the first round of play, the locals were pitted next to Littlefield in the winning bracket in their first session. Littlefield led 12-8 at the end of the first quarter, but the score was knotted 20-20 at halftime.

Littlefield again threatened 31-29 at the conclusion of the third, but Farwell edged past for a one-point win, 33-37, in the final seconds. Coburn paced the Farwell five with 15, and Skeety made 16 for the opponents.

In the second session, the locals were defeated by Amherst four points, 47-42. The opponents led 9-8 at the end of the first, and 25-22 at halftime. At the end of the third, their margin was a slight 33-31. Dial hit 14 and Coburn made 13 for Farwell, and Baird of Amherst collected 27.

Farwell totally swamped Bula 44-24. Score by quarters: 9-6, 14-10, and 26-20. Scorers for Farwell were Coburn 10, Crume 8, Carpenter 8, Bogard of Bula made 10.

Bovina Teams Win Over Lazbuddie

The Bovina girls basketball team won their sixth consecutive conference game against no losses on Friday night when they defeated the Lazbuddie team at Lazbuddie. Bovina led throughout the game with the final score reading 39-24.

The Mustangs also won their game with the Lazbuddie Longhorns but it was by a closer margin. They took an early lead but Lazbuddie gained on them towards the last of the game and they were able to pull the game out of the fire by a very small one point with the final score, 42-41.

Bovina Loses Two Games To Rosedale

Both of the Bovina teams were beaten on Tuesday night by Rosedale, N. M. in two non-conference games. The girls led all the way until the last quarter when Rosedale pushed ahead to win. Although Bovina was in the lead during the first three quarters it was never a very large margin. They led 25-23 at the half but when the final whistle sounded, Rosedale was leading 40-33.

Harrington of the Rosedale team paced the scoring with 25 points while Young led the Bovina girls with 15.

Home Economic Girls Plan Future Work

The Homemaking Girls have been very busy lately. The ninth grade girls have been busy making a study of kitchens. The school board is going to purchase a new cook stove for the department, but the girls have the privilege of studying the different makes and types of stoves and purchasing the one they think is the wisest buy.

They are also making new organ-dy curtains for the kitchen and are buying a set of silver for the department. Miss Little of the Southwestern Public Service Company from Clovis was at Bovina on Monday to show them films on kitchen arrangements and selecting stoves and refrigerators.

WSCS Groups Have Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the WSCS was held at the Methodist Church parlor, Tuesday afternoon. The business meeting was called to order by Mrs. Earl Richards, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Billie Sudderth.

Mrs. Richards also served as leader of the worship, entitled "Because We Have Been So Greatly Blessed". Mrs. Vernon Estes and Mrs. I. W. Quickel took part on the program.

The group then sang "A Charge To Keep I Have", and following the benediction, light refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Earl Ware and Mrs. William Thornton.

Band Parents Meet

The Band Parents Club met in the band room, Tuesday night with Mrs. Earl Richards, president, in charge. Due to the small group attending, very little business was discussed. It was decided to change the meeting date from the second Tuesday of each month to the second Thursday. They also decided to help serve meals during the district cage tournament in February.

Plan Family Night

Wednesday night will be Family Night for members of the Methodist Church, when they will gather in Fellowship Hall of the church at 7. A covered dish supper will be served and film strips on Latin America will be shown, followed by a recreational hour. Children will play games in the intermediate room, while young people and adults can play 42 if desired.

Have '42 Party

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hardy entertained in their home recently with a "42" party. Guests present were Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Durham and Marvalynne, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shanks and Mike. Refreshments of hot chocolate and muffins were served.

A truly sensible girl is not as sensible as she looks, because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hardy and Judy Ann visited here recently with friends and relatives. They formerly lived in the Pleasant Hill community, now residing in Holdenville, Okla. They left on Tuesday for Lubbock to visit a daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kunselman and son, Rickey, left last week for Pennsylvania where they plan to make their home. Mrs. Kunselman is the former Pat Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Venable and family, of Amarillo, spent the week end here with friends and relatives.

Spring Registration Slated At Portales

PORTALES—Spring semester registration at Eastern New Mexico University is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 28 and 29, Miss Ruth Wheeler, registrar, announces.

Registration will be in the ENMU Student Union Building, however, the usual alphabetical order will be reversed. Students whose names begin with S and Z may register first. This is being done, Miss Wheeler said, to give normally late-registering students an opportunity to enroll in classes which are quickly filled.

The Monday, Jan. 28, schedule of registration will conclude with the L through P group.

Students from the Twin Cities, enrolled at ENMU, are Mary Ruth Petree, Lona Mae Jones, W. H. Graham Jr., Peggy Hill, Jean Rogers, Jerry Pool, Nelma Jean Branscum, and Charles Felts of Lariat.

A banquet was held in January 1935, during Andrew Jackson's administration, to celebrate the fact that the country was almost free of debt.

Peggy Hardage Cited For Writing Top Short Story In Freshman English Class

In a recent class assignment, freshmen of Farwell schools were asked to write a short story, as a portion of their semester's work, by Ed Rierson, instructor. Mr. Rierson selected the story written by Peggy Hardage as the best contribution of the class.

The story appears below. "Elizabeth Hart as Stewardess" By Peggy Hardage

Elizabeth Hart had just graduated from college and was flying home on a Pan American Airline plane that evening at two. Liz had said good-bye to all her friends, and to her aunt and uncle which were the deans of the college.

Liz lived in New York, but it was because her aunt and uncle were the deans of the college in Chicago that she went there. Liz had as long as she could remember, wanted to be an airline stewardess and she was going to see the personnel director for information when she got home. Liz had learned to fly a light plane at home from her brother Bob.

That evening when Liz boarded the plane, she noticed that there were only five men and herself aboard besides the two pilots and stewardess, but she thought it was because of what the radio and papers said about there being several hold-ups during flights because of valuable cargo aboard. The bandits who had got the cargo before had shot both pilots, and then parachuted out with the plane crashing and killing all of the passengers aboard, looked both pilots were dead. Liz looked around and was wondering if anything like that would happen on this flight but she soon forgot about it, while watching the stewardess make the passengers comfortable.

About thirty minutes after take off, two men rose and went into the cockpit. They were gone a few minutes when one returned with some keys and went to the back of the plane and unlocked a steel door which was marked private. When the stewardess asked him what he was doing, he pulled a gun from his coat and made all of the passengers go to the back of the plane. The other man returned, also with a gun. He had shot both the pilot and co-pilot and they parachuted out quickly before the plane crashed.

As they left, Liz ran to the cockpit and grasped the controls to try to straighten the plane out, before it was too late. The three men in the back of the plane were so afraid that one had a heart attack—the stewardess told the other two to sit down and lock their safety belts around them.

Liz pulled hard at the wheel and after pulling for ages, it felt like the plane finally straightened out.

Liz had never handed a passenger plane before and she found it wasn't as easy as a light plane, but she was grateful for the experience that she had had because she was able to guess at most of the dials and controls. Liz tried the ear phones to try to get in touch with some airline. After an hour, she was in contact with some airline in New York. The man from the control tower was giving Liz directions on the ear phone, after she had told him what had happened and that they had a sick man aboard, but the Stewardess was taking good care of him. The news got around fast about there being a girl bringing in a plane that had been held up and two dead pilots aboard.

The Hart family came to the Airport as soon as they had heard about Liz bringing in a passenger plane. Soon there were so many people at the airport that they had to call the police to come and hold them back off the run ways. The stewardess had taken care of her three passengers and was bringing coffee to Liz and they were both on the lookout for spotlights because it was about time they would see them if they saw them at all.

Like an answered prayer, they both saw the lights going around and then Liz felt both relieved and weak. She was glad that they had found the airport, but then she didn't know if she could land the big passenger plane without crashing up.

The man on the ear phones was giving Liz instructions on how to land while the stewardess and three men had all put their safety belts on. Then the plane came down for the landing, but Liz was afraid she didn't even try; she circled and came in again, but being about to hit a tall building, went up again. Everyone on the ground was holding his breath with eyes strained, because if she didn't make it this time, she never would.

The time came and Liz pushed the wheel down once more for a landing. This time she made it although it was a little bumpy when she made contact with the ground.

When Liz stepped from the plane, everyone began cheering and jumping up and down. Newspaper men all had their cameras and they were taking pictures of Liz and the plane and asking questions. Suddenly she saw her parents coming toward her with tears in their eyes. After Liz and the stewardess had explained all that had happened, she and her parents started for home.

The next day, Liz's picture was in all of the papers, and the story about the two men robbing the plane and killing the two pilots and Liz's heroic action in bringing the plane in without accident.

The manager of the airline came and saw Liz to thank her for what she had done and asked if there was anything he could do to show his appreciation. Liz said that she appreciated his kindness, but that anyone else would have done the same and that the stewardess on the plane did as much as she because when the man had taken over the plane she, the stewardess, had taken care of the passengers. Before the man left, Liz happened to think that maybe she could tell him about her desire to be a stewardess. Mr. Hardington said she could come down that day and have an interview and if she passed she could go to the six week's training school for stewardess.

Liz talked to her parents about being a stewardess and they did not like the idea too well even if her brother, Bob Hart, was a flyer in the air corps. She finally talked and talked until they agreed to let her join if she could pass the health test and the six weeks school. Liz passed her health test and then she went to check in at the new school. All wished her luck and success.

A kind looking woman met Liz at the door and then showed her, and the other girls that had checked in, to their room. Liz's room mates introduced themselves as Ysleta Hickentiemer and Betty Melville and Joyce Millet. They all became very good friends in the dormitory except Joyce and she was a trouble maker and always causing trouble for someone. In classes when she was corrected, she always said if she wanted to, she could fire the teachers because her uncle had in- (Continued on last page, this section)

MORE WOLVERINE — Jones Reports 25 Percent of Pupils Art Out with Flu

The flu situation at Texico Schools is getting to the epidemic stage, unless some change is evidenced, Aggie Jones, superintendent, states. According to the administrator, more students were out on Tuesday than had been reported before.

Approximately 25 percent of the pupils in the lower grades were out of school Tuesday because of the spread of flu, Jones continued. Only one teacher, George Hill, instructor in music, has been reported ill.

Grade Teams Honored At School Assembly

Boys and girls grade teams of Texico Schools were honored in an assembly Monday afternoon.

Recognition went to the boys' team for winning first place and to the girls, who won second place in the Farwell tournament last weekend.

Girls and boys teams are from the seventh and eighth grades and are coached by Curtis Miller.

MORE AUNT HET —

Dear Aunt Het,
I have always thought myself to be of perfectly sound mind until last Thursday night.

I attended a schoolmasters' banquet at Rosedale that night. Upon coming out, I climbed into my car, started it, and prepared to take off. But the car merely rocked back and forth. But, when I looked at my speedometer it was registering 90 miles per hour. Do you think this was an hallucination or had someone been tampering with my car? What do you suggest that I do?

Charles Stockton

Dear Mr. Stockton,
I have looked up the name and address of a very good psychiatrist for you. His name is Judge Garrett, from Rosedale. If you get in touch with him, I am sure he can explain the case to you.

He was taken to Portales by F. D. Stout, where he is recuperating.

SHORT STORY —

fluence in the school. Liz became very popular with the girls and she made fair grades. Joyce had it in for all the girls that might be more popular than she and she was doing all she could to Connie Jones and Liz to cause trouble. Liz and Connie were the most popular girls in school and Joyce was starting on Connie. Connie and Liz also were real good friends and both were aware of what Joyce was trying to do. Joyce started by making Connie look silly, and talking about her and Liz. Finally, after getting Connie in trouble with the teachers and with some of the girls, Connie had a nervous breakdown and had to leave school. After this, none of the girls would be around Joyce more than they had to, to keep peace.

After three weeks, the girls had learned quite a bit about helping passengers be comfortable and serving the meals, and what to do if a person became sick during flight. On the next day, they were going to learn to parachute from planes. That evening, Liz was wired that her brother had been killed in a crash when his plane had caught on fire. Now with Connie gone, Joyce put all her time in on baiting Liz. When Joyce heard about Liz's brother, since she didn't care how Liz felt about her brother, she did all she could to make Liz suffer and that night when Liz was in her room by herself, Joyce came in and asked her, "What was the matter with your brother that he didn't have enough sense to bail out?" This really made Liz mad, but she did not want Joyce to know it bothered her. Liz tried not to show it, but finally she didn't care and told Joyce she wasn't going to treat her the way she treated Connie and if she did not leave the room she would be sorry.

"Well, how do you like this?" Then she slapped Liz across the face. This really started it. Liz came back fighting like a wild cat, there was hair pulling, biting, scratching, and yelling. Suddenly the door opened and there were all the girls peeping in the door.

The room was turned up side down and two mirrors broken. Liz was on top, just about to pull all of Joyce's hair out when Mrs. Smith stopped her and asked what was going on. All of the girls were not surprised when Joyce blamed it all on Liz (but they stood by Liz. Mrs. Smith let them off with a warning that if anything like that ever happened again, she would have to expel them both. While Mrs. Smith was leaving Joyce decided that she had better leave with her as it might not be safe to remain. Liz then explained to the girls just what had taken place.

Liz cried herself to sleep that night thinking about her brother. The next morning all of the girls were taken up for the parachute jumps and Joyce, although she was black and blue, was still needing Liz. They all were preparing to jump and Ysleta and Betty were the first two to jump. When it was time, they called out their numbers and jumped. Joyce was determined to pay Liz back by making her afraid to jump and make everyone think she was yellow. Liz's turn came and she just could not jump, her brother's face was always before her eyes.

When the plane landed, all of the girls had landed except Liz and she was having her share of trouble with Joyce. After Liz removed her parachute, she asked the director if he would let her take her jump the following day.

The next day, Liz and the director went up. All the girls were watching and waiting for the jump. Liz jumped into endless space and pulled her cord, but the chute refused to open. Then she gave a yank to the safety cord and with a snap and jerk the chute opened. Everyone was crying with joy when Liz landed, even Joyce—she knew she would be blamed for the accident if Liz had been killed. Joyce told Liz that she was sorry. All the girls knew Joyce was sincere when she told Mrs. Smith that she was sorry for all the trouble she had caused both Liz and Connie.

All graduated and became airline stewardesses.

Livestock Men Hunt Roughage For Stock

COLLEGE STATION—Texas livestock men are searching far and wide for roughages to feed their cattle this winter, have been importing this winter, have been importing hay from the Midwest since last July, Joe Jones, county agent, says.

This search has uncovered several emergency roughage materials. Some of these are low in quality but may be used if fed with other roughages of higher quality and a protein supplement, such as cottonseed meal.

According to John H. Jones, animal husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, reports that corn-cob-and-shuck meal, ground peanut hulls, dehydrated green cotton stalks and gin trash are some of the emergency roughages now being fed.

The gin trash being used is free of dirt and consists of cottonburs, leaf trash, small amounts of immature seed and lint. Samples of gin trash have shown from 8 to 12 per cent crude protein.

"Most of the corn cobs and shucks in Central Texas have been ground into meal for roughage," says Jones. "Although this feed has a low protein content, it has more fattening value than most of the other emergency roughages. It makes a good bulky kind of feed, suitable as a carrier for cottonseed meal."

Ground peanut hulls are low in protein and very high in crude fiber. Grinding improves the hulls for feeding, and they may be used as part of the filler for cattle. A commonly used mixture consists of 40 per cent ground peanut hulls, 40 per cent cottonseed hulls and 20 per cent cottonseed meal.

One of the most promising emergency roughages is dehydrated green cotton stalks. The preparation of this material resulted from a scarcity of alfalfa for dehydration and the urgent need for feed. Green, leafy cotton stalks were available, and Joe Carisco of College Station was able to prepare a small tonnage of dehydrated cotton stalk material before frost.

Analysis of a sample of the dehydrated cotton stalks at the State Chemist's Laboratory showed a crude protein content of 10.35 per cent and a nitrogen-free extract content of 45.66 per cent. The material has good quality, color and smell.

Varisco gave several sacks of the dehydrated stalks to the Experiment Station. J. E. Roberts, superintendent of the Main Station Farm at College Station, reports that cattle eat the material very readily.

In 1950 Texas farmers and ranchmen purchased 228,286 tons of superphosphate. It was used primarily under legumes and on pastures.
