Temporary OIC At Post Office

"A young man with extensive experience in post office operations is currently helping out at the Farwell office," stated Elmer J. Reid, postmaster and sectional center manager in Lubbock.

Joe Billups, who has served as postmaster at Seminole for the past year, is coordinating activities at the local office as Officer in Charge (OIC).

Along with Billups, David

Sears, a trainer postmaster, has been working in the local office since Jan. 27 in a "temporary situation" to take care of business in the absence of a postal employee who has been ill and to keep the office in shape so that when a postmaster is selected he or she can do a good job for the community.

Reid further commented that the postal inspectors are "probably in the process of making a transfer now" to fill the vacancy. He emphasized the fact that the postal service is very interested in any help, information, compliments or complaints which could possibly aid in the functions of the post office.

Multiple Year License Plates Available To Vehicle Owners

New license plates for Texas vehicle owners are now available in the office of Hugh Moseley, Parmer County tax assessor-collector. Deadline for displaying the new plates is midnight, April 1, according to Moseley.

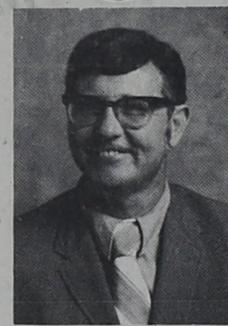

Texas vehicle owners are in store for a "first" this year with the new multiple-year plates. The plates will be used through 1979, with an adhesive validation tag to be affixed to the plates each year for the next five years.

According to Moseley, this is the first year for Texans to purchase the multiple year plates. He also pointed out that there are three classes of passenger plates: up to 3,500 pounds, $12.30; between 3,501 and 4,500 pounds, $22.30; and between 4,501 and 6,000 pounds, $30.30.

Moseley stated that persons desiring personalized plates will have to purchase new plates each year. Orders for personalized plates may be made through his office.

Motor vehicle owners may order their plates by mailing the three-part renewal application, registration fee and $1.00 to cover cost of mailing to the Parmer County Tax-Assessor, Drawer G, Farwell, Tex. LICENSE PLATES ON SALE - New license plates for Texas residents went on sale Monday, Feb. 3, in the office of Hugh Moseley, Parmer County tax assessor-collector. One of the first purchasers in line was Mary Bryant of Farwell, who is assisted by Doris Darby, a clerk in the tax-assessor's office. The new plates are renewable through the year 1979, which means that instead of purchasing new license plates each year, vehicle owners may simply affix a validation tag to the plates each year. The new plates must be displayed by midnight April 1.

We are regular readers of the Lovington Daily Leader newspaper because of its very perceptive front page column "From The Hopper" written by the Tribune's former publisher, W.H. "Hop" Graham. Because of our habit of reading his column we also peruse the front page of the paper.

To our great pleasure, we learn that "Hop" was named Lovington's Citizen of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet last week.

In the years that he and his family have left Farwell and resided in that New Mexico community, he has done an outstanding job of publishing its daily paper. It is good to see that the community appreciates his efforts.

Well done, Hop. The eyes of Texas are still upon you.

Tis often said that if you don't like the weather in the Panhandle just stick around a few minutes and it will change. This is often a truism. The Panhandle has more diverse weather going on at the same time than probably any other section of the country.

A good example of this was last Tuesday afternoon when the Amarillo weather bureau was issuing snow and winter storm warnings for the northern Panhandle and also giving a rain and tornado alert for the southern parts of the area. We suspected that being sort of in the middle we might wind up with a snow tornado, so took our snow shoes and dog sled to the tornado shelter and hoped for the best.

Found this next item in one of the many papers we receive here at the Tribune. Thought you might like to read it, so will pass it along.

From time to time we and other editors are asked various things and we decided this week (with the help of some material borrowed from one of our exchanges) to answer some of those questions.

Question: Why don't you write an editorial and tell those guys on the city commission what they can do to improve the town?

Answer: Why don't you go down to the next commission meeting and tell them yourself?

Q. Why don't you print more letters to the editor?

A. Why don't you write me one? And sign it with your name, please -- don't be chicken.

Q. Why don't you run more pages in the paper?

A. Because the outgo would exceed the income and then out I'd go.

Q. Why don't you print in color, say red, more often?

A. Our entire supply of red ink is used in the bookkeeping department.

Q. Why don't you have an "Advice to the Lovelorn" column, like Dear Abby?

A. None of our readers has any such problems.

Q. Why don't you carry TV reviews?

A. They can pay for their advertising.

Q. Why don't you run a pin-up picture once in a while?

A. Why not?

Q. Why do you make so many grammatical mistakes?

A. Cause we ain't never learned no better.

Q. Why don't you run recipes?

A. We did and left a line out. Twenty people got sick and cancelled their subscriptions.

Q. Why do you devote space to such trivialities as "John Doe entered the hospital this week?"

A. Because good old Joe has many friends who are concerned about his health, even if you're not. And some of them might send him cards which he would appreciate.

Q. Who cares about questions like this anyway?

A. We do.

These questions and answers have not solved a lot of problems, but at least they should not have created any which is quite an accomplishment in these times.

Do you have trouble with gullies washing across your field? David Marnell of Friona has this type problem. He is solving the problem with the installation of a grassed waterway.

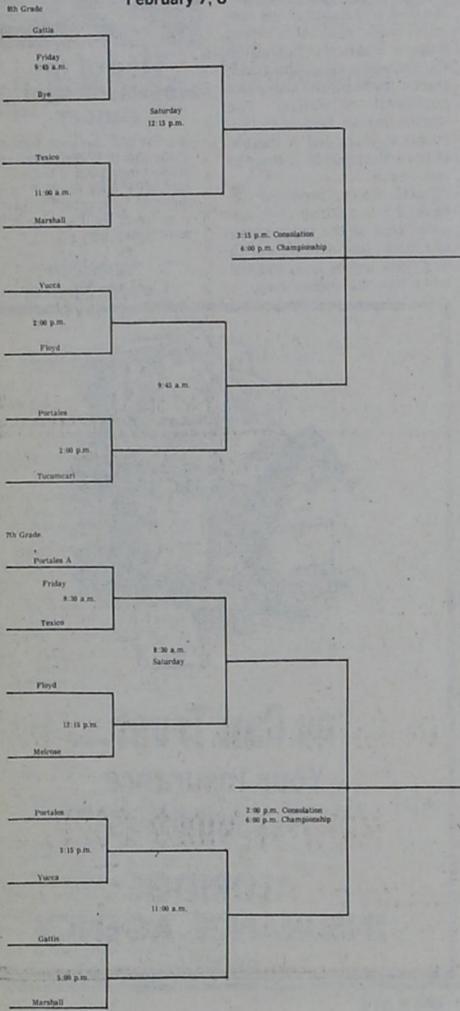

The waterway will reduce erosion and allow his runoff water to move through his farm in a controlled manner. The waterway was engineered and designed by the Soil Conservation Service.

David is convinced the waterway will pay for itself in the reduction of soil loss. This is not even taking into consideration the aesthetics of removing an ugly gully from his farm.

David's waterway will also provide cover for pheasants in the neighborhood.

Texico Planning Council Discusses Community Plans

The Texico Planning Council met Monday, Feb. 3, at 7 p.m. in the Texico Branch of the Citizens Bank, with president Ann Ledbetter presiding.

Present for the meeting were Jim Pierce, Alma Hendrix, Marie Christian, Marcia Leavell, Louise Engram, Clara Wiehl, Joe Caywood, Bill Christian, Ruby Goforth and Mrs. Ledbetter.

During the business portion of the meeting, Bill Christian reported that a check for $4,000 had been issued from the City of Texico for the last remaining lots for the new city park. He also said that the park would contain a baseball field, playground equipment and other items.

Three members of the Planning Council are to meet with the Curry County Commissioners soon to encourage them to assist with road repairs around Texico.

Joe Caywood, director of the Community Senior Citizens Center, asked members of the Planning Council to write to their state legislators and ask their support of the Area Agency on Aging, head-quartered at the Curry County Courthouse in Clovis.

Caywood also announced that new equipment for the Community Building is planned in the near future. He also discussed a class in leathercraft which will be starting soon at the Community Senior Citizens Center.

Suggestions for the beautification of Texico were heard, with discussion centering on planter boxes in front of businesses in Texico. The possibility of planting flowers in the triangle in front of the Port of Entry was also discussed.

Marie Christian, president of the Texico Woman's Club, reported on a letter from the New Mexico Highway Department regarding highway problems in the city.

Slow Rains And Fog Usher In February

The month of February was ushered in with low hanging clouds, a steady slow drizzle and fog shrouded mornings throughout the area.

According to farmers in the area, the slow rain has been quite beneficial to the wheat.

Howard Whitener, north of Texico, reported a total of .65 for Sunday and Monday. "The nice and slow rain was good on the wheat and was beneficial to us," Whitener stated. "I will take some more rain like this," he commented.

Fred Chandler at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman in Farwell measured .8 for the past week, as of Tuesday morning. "This slow rainfall is the best kind of rain on the wheat," he said.

Mrs. B.A. Rogers reported one-half inch of rain measured at her home in Texico through Monday. The rain came at the right time for them, Mrs. Rogers stated, as they had just finished fertilizing at their farm. "Every drop of rain is worth something," Mrs. Rogers said.

Ted Magness, south of Farwell, stated that he had no exact measurement of the moisture received but "I believe it has been close to an inch since Sunday." Magness further stated, "It's a very beneficial rain right now."

Mrs. Harold Carpenter of the Oklahoma Lane Community reported they had received .90 inch precipitation since Sunday. "It seemed like more and it soaked in so well," she commented. Also from Oklahoma Lane, Mrs. E.E. Rounton reported approximately .50 inch had been received.

Lonnice McFarland reports that .90 inch was registered at Lariat. "It was good and wet out here. And, although we didn't get a large amount, it was stretched out," remarked McFarland.

Several Cases Heard In J.P. And County Courts

A case involving a charge of drunkenness was heard in Justice of the Peace Ray Mears' court Monday, and several cases were heard and disposed of in Judge Paul Fortenberry's county court.

John Noland, 40, of Lazbudie appeared before Mears on a charge of drunkenness. Bond was set at $100 and Noland made the bond. The case will be heard at a later date.

In Judge Fortenberry's court, Luke Govan, 74, of Farwell, was charged with DWI. Judge Fortenberry heard the evidence and took the case under advisement. Govan was released on his own recognizance.

Also in county court, Benito Mejia Jr., 24, of Friona, was

John Getz, Editor

Farwell, Texas

Mr. Getz,
I am writing this letter in regard to your January 17 column about the teachers' salary. You stated the teachers are making unrealistic demands for a raise in salary. Before making a statement like that, I feel it is important to ask if you feel you could raise a family and live on $6,600 a year. If you couldn't, you shouldn't expect anyone else to. I don't find it "unrealistic" for teachers to try to make ends meet, which is pretty hard with today's inflation and $6,600 a year. In 1970, in Dallas, Texas, the cost of living for a family of four was $9,894.* You can imagine how much it has risen in five years. After looking at certain statistics, I hardly find it "extravagant" ask for $8,200 a year which is the proposed salary for teachers.

I want to thank Kathy Weems for her letter in the January 24 issue. I heartily agree with her about the importance of communication and cooperation between city and school. I think we are already seeing some of the damage that can occur without the proper relationship.

Thanks for letting me say what I believe.

Dear Editor,
A recent letter by Ms. Weems made the statement that New Mexico School Boards were in favor of closing most meetings to the public. I hope Ms. Weems uses more accuracy in her classroom teaching than she does in her letter writing as this statement is very misleading as I will explain.

The last session of the New Mexico legislature passed on open meeting law prohibiting boards of education and other public bodies from holding meetings that are not open to the public. Before this law was passed it was possible for boards to hold "executive meetings" for the purpose of discussing sensitive subjects such as land purchase, personnel and etc. Due to this new law, the New Mexico School Boards Association is supporting legislation that modifies the Open Meeting Law to permit closed meetings for the purpose of work sessions where no action is taken, meetings for the purpose of purchasing land (this prevents speculators from costing the taxpayers by driving up proposed land purchases) and for the discussion of personnel. There are valid reasons for all of these exclusions.

Although I'm sure Ms. Weems is a dedicated teacher, I doubt that her dedication will ever drive her to serve for the same remuneration that School Board Members receive.

Sincerely,
David Turner, President

Senator To Introduce Hospital Legislation

According to Don Williams, president of the Farwell Development Commission, State Senator Max Sherman of the 31st senatorial district in Texas will introduce "in the near future" legislation to establish a hospital district in Parmer County.

Senator Sherman will present the measure to Texas legislators for approval or disapproval to create the hospital district encompassing the area included in the Farwell Independent School District, which takes in Parmer County and a portion of Bailey County.

Hopes for a nursing home in Farwell rest with the legislature and ultimately with the voters in Parmer County. Should the legislation be passed, it will then go to Governor Dolph Briscoe for his signature. Williams expects notification very soon after the legislation is enacted on.

If the Texas legislature passes the act creating the hospital district, then the measure would be submitted to voters in Parmer County. Voters would have the opportunity to approve or disapprove the hospital district and the financing of the nursing home in a bond issue.

The act creating the hospital district would prescribe a procedure for an election to authorize the district and the levying of a tax for its maintenance, support and payment of indebtedness.

Texico Civil Defense Organized, Meets Set

The Texico Civil Defense was formally organized during a meeting which was conducted Thursday, Jan. 30, and membership had reached 40 early this week.

Officers for the newly-organized unit are Jim Fritz, president; Mike Jaynes, vice-president; and Susan Capps, secretary-treasurer. Regular meeting dates have been established for every Monday evening at 7:30 MST.

At the current time, meetings of the organization are to be conducted at Texico City Hall. "We are in the process of locating permanent facilities to house our equipment," explained Fritz, who continued by stating the organization needs accommodations, preferably basement or underground, in which they can set up headquarters for their operations and conduct regular meetings. "A good-sized garage would work for us, so long as we could set up radios and other equipment needed," he continued.

In explaining the duties of the Texico Civil Defense, Fritz commented that the unit is sponsored by the state of New Mexico and objectives of the organization are to serve as spotters for severe storms and to assist anywhere they are needed. "We are conducting a meeting Monday, Feb. 10, during which we hope to work out a usable warning system to be used in the event severe storms are in the area," he stated and continued that training will begin at the Monday, Feb. 10, meeting in the area of severe storm operations.

The organization was set up to serve Texico, Farwell and the surrounding area and, according to Fritz, within two days of its organization the Texico Civil Defense had been called by the state of New Mexico and the Texico Police Department to aid in several instances.

"Anyone who is 18 years of age and over is invited and encouraged to attend our meetings to participate or to observe the work of our group," stressed Fritz, who added, "At the current time our greatest needs are facilities which we can use as headquarters and the support of area residents."

Presently, the only equipment which is used by the Civil Defense is the personal vehicles of the members. These vehicles are all equipped with two-way Citizen Band radios.

"Anyone who has facilities large enough to accommodate our operations or is interested in the Civil Defense in any way may contact our secretary, Susan Capps at 762-1947, for any additional information," concluded Fritz.

Fire Calls

The Farwell Fire Department reports one call during the past week. Monday, Feb. 3, the emergency unit was summoned to transport a stroke victim to the Clovis Hospital.

No calls were reported by the Texico Fire Department.

NOW COOKING WITH GAS MAY HELP KEEP US ALL OUT OF A STEW.

People who cook with gas ranges have always had very good reasons. One is the instant off and on burner control. Something that gas offers.

Another is economy. Because when you cook with gas, it costs almost a third less than with an electric range.

And now, there's another good reason for using a gas range.

Efficiency. The truth is that a gas range uses less than two-thirds the natural energy of an electric range to do the same job. (See chart.)

So, add one more to the list of reasons for buying a gas range: energy conservation. Today, maybe that's the best reason of all.

That's something we all care about today.

A comparison of costs and efficiency for cooking.

	Average annual energy cost to homeowner (1)	Energy utilization efficiency (2)
Natural Gas	$14.65	37%
Electricity	43.49	21%
With gas you save	$28.84 every year.	and use less than 2/3 the energy.

Ten Local Couples Report Glorious Week In Hawaii

by Linda Mast

For several local couples, Hawaii seems to be the "in place" this winter to get away from the cold winds and chilly rains of West Texas.

At least three different local groups with about 10 to 15 couples in each group have planned for several weeks their visits to the Hawaiian Islands. One group of ten couples who traveled to Hawaii via jet from Lubbock, Friday, Jan. 24, have returned after a week's tour. The other two groups are scheduled to make the round trips very shortly.

Couples returning from the Hawaiian Islands last weekend were Fred and Dickie Chandler, Troy and Lillie Christian, Doyle and Doris Ford, Bill and Kay Hagler, Elmer and Peggy Hargrove, Johnnie and Sandra Rucker, Mitz and Nell Walling, Bert and La Moin Williams, Don and Maxine Williams, and Johnnie and Beulah Williams.

"Hawaii is a beautiful, tropical land filled with such friendly people," commented the Fords.

"Our favorite event of the trip was the traditional luau held one night on the terrace of a hotel near the beach. We feasted on roasted pig that had been cooked in banana leaves slowly for hours in an earthen pit and were entertained by hula dancers," Doris related.

"Their hula dancing accompanied by native chants and rhythmic drumming captivated me," admitted Dickie Chandler. And she added that she noticed, at times, the men of the group seemed pretty fascinated, too.

"I experienced a whole new view of the hula as a dance," stressed Maxine Williams.

"We had considered the hula sensual and exotic," explained the Don Williamses, "but we began to understand the dance as a cultural way of folk story telling before we left the islands," Maxine added, "It's really a beautiful way of putting words into feelings."

Dickie Chandler commented on the lushness of the tropical landscape. "Although Hawaii was in the winter season, flowers bloomed everywhere. But the amazing fact was that they emitted no odor of any kind in the winter. However, we learned that in April and May they would smell fragrantly."

"We too enjoyed the tropical ferns and flowers," said the Bert Williamses. "On our way to view the volcanoes of the Island of Hawaii, we traveled through a fern and moss forest. We were told that the wild plant growth is attributed to the warm climate and over 260 inches annual rain fall."

"The highlight of our visit to the volcano area was our walk through a 'lava tube,'" reported La Moin. She pointed out that the tube was created thousands of years ago by a lava flow stream several feet thick. As the outside layer cooled and hardened, circular walls were formed. The inner hot core of lava flowed outward leaving a hollow tube about eight feet in diameter and one-quarter mile long.

Lillie Christian said, "We also viewed several volcanoes reported to be active. One was still steaming from its eruption last July after a hundred years of silence."

Besides the volcanoes, Lillie noted that another interesting site was the 240,000-acre ranch belonging to the Parker family of Hawaii. She stated that it was the largest ranch in the United States owned by a single family. "Within the ranch acreage the owner had built a large shopping center for the benefit of the ranch workers," continued Lillie, "and we were permitted to shop there."

Peg Hargrove discussed another facet of their trip. "We had the chance to fish for oysters that had been brought over from the pearl beds of Japan. I really got a big kick out of opening the oyster and finding a cultured pearl inside. I had three of the pearls that I found set into rings."

The Don Williamses choose as their most memorable tour their visit to Pearl Harbor. They crossed over the USS Arizona's hull in a small navy boat and boarded. Their guide related the history of Dec. 7, 1941, explaining how this ship had almost been destroyed by attacking Japanese.

"As we stood silently listening to those events, I felt extremely close to those American sailors that died here on that day," confided Maxine.

Mitz and Nell Walling along with Bill and Kay Hagler experienced the same solemn, patriotic feelings that Maxine spoke of as they viewed the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific. This cemetery was set aside for Americans who died in wars fought in the Pacific.

"Rows and rows of graves, some with brothers side by side, impressed us with how much has been sacrificed for our freedom," emphasized Nell.

For Beulah Williams, the high point of the trip was the performance of Don Ho, a famous Hawaiian singer, at his Polynesian Palace. She was the featured grandmother on stage with him as he instructed her on the proper way to hula.

The couples planned to leave the Hawaiian Islands together at the end of the week's stay. However, because of the large number of people in the overall tour group and the bad weather, the ten local couples were separated.

The Christians, Fords, Chandlers and Haglers were able to jet out of Honolulu and arrive back in Lubbock at noon Friday, Jan. 31. The others were unable to leave due to the bad weather and were treated to a 24-hour stay at a hotel near Wakiki Beach by the host airlines.

"The beach was so crowded, but Johnnie did have a try at surfing," stated Sandra Rucker, "and wound up not standing on the board, but clinging to it."

Peg Hargrove declared, "We were luckier than the four couples who caught the earlier flight to Lubbock in that we were given a free stay at an elegant hotel at Wakiki. However, our luck certainly ever, our luck certainly changed before we reached home."

She further explained that they did board their plane at 7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 31, but had to return to Dallas after failing to land because of fog at Lubbock. On the second trip from Dallas the plane managed to land but minus their luggage. Their luggage finally arrived in Lubbock; however, it was late Saturday night, Feb. 1, before the last of the group drove into Farwell.

"And yet, despite that last bit of bad luck, we did have such a wonderful time," concluded the Hargroves.

LUAU INDULGERS - Ten local couples, during their week-long excursion in the Hawaiian Islands, attended a traditional luau. Dressed in colorful island floral patterns, the group feasted at the luau on a main course of roasted pig wrapped in banana leaves and cooked slowly for hours in an earthen pit, and poi, island bread. Women attending were, left to right, Kay Hagler, Doris Ford, Lillie Christian, Beulah Williams (front), Peggy Hargrove, Nell Walling, Maxine Williams (front), Sandra Rucker, La Moin Williams and Dickie Chandler. Men present for the feast were, left to right, Bill Hagler, Doyle Ford, Troy Christian, Johnnie Williams, Elmer Hargrove, Mitz Walling, Don Williams, Johnnie Rucker, Bert Williams and Fred Chandler.

GETTING IN THE "SWAY" OF THINGS - Mrs. Johnnie (Beulah) Williams, while recently touring Hawaii, was the featured grandmother on stage with Don Ho, famous Hawaiian entertainer, at his Polynesian Palace performance in Wakiki. Holding Mrs. Williams' shoes, Ho is explaining to her that bare feet are essential for the proper hula movements. During her appearance with Ho, Beulah had a chance to talk about her hometown of Farwell and learn "a little bit" about dancing the hula.

Scarves Make News

It takes a lot of imagination these days to look fashionably dressed while staying within the family budget, one clothing specialist said this week.

"Adding accessories such as scarves can change the style of last season's wardrobe," Marlene Odle, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, noted.

Scarves are setting the pace for fall fashions. They come in muted colors of green, rust, pale peach, beige and off-white. All shapes and sizes - square and oblong, wide and long, printed and solids - are popular.

The specialist suggested several ways to accent your wardrobe using scarves.

-Tying at the neck is the most popular, but use your imagination to create fashion.

-Once around the head and tied in front creates a turban.

-Drape it over your shoulders and pin it in place with a decorative pin.

-Weaving it through a chain belt adds color to last year's basic dress.

-Tie it in a sash around your waist for a belt.

-Wrap it around the neck twice and tie it at the side for a western look.

It's celery, a 17-million pound crop that's grown chiefly in California and Florida.

White Says Buy Baling Wire Now

AUSTIN--Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has advised farmers and ranchers to buy baling wire now to prevent shortages during periods of peak demand.

White said the two major suppliers of baling wire to Texas, Colorado Fuel and Iron and Armco Steel Co., are working at full capacity but are likely to cut back on production if the flow to market is not steady.

"If this happens, there won't be enough baling wire to go around when everyone wants it during the haying season in the spring and summer," the commissioner said.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. SERAAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

GOD'S PROMISE vs. MAN'S EFFORTS

"For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: Because the law worketh wrath..." (Rom. 4:14,15).

This should be self-evident to us. If blessing is gained by the works of the law, it is earned. This is why Galatians 3:18 says: "If the inheritance be of the law it is no more of promise, but God gave it to Abraham by promise."

The Apostle Paul, God's great apostle of grace, declares in Romans 4:4,5: "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

But let's go back to that phrase: "the law worketh wrath." Many people just don't want to see this. Even some clergymen tell us that the law was given to help us to be good. But God Himself says, "the law worketh wrath." Every criminal knows this, and every sinner should know it. God certainly places strong emphasis on it.

"Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions" (Gal. 3:19), "that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God" (Rom. 3:19). "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin" (Rom. 3:20).

If we come to God expecting eternal life because of our good works, are we not offering Him our terms, which He will never accept? He will never sell salvation at any price, and certainly not for a few paltry "good" works, when our lives have been filled with failure and sin.

Our only hope: God has promised to give eternal life to those who trust in His Son (John 3:35, 36; Acts 16:31; etc.) "The gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 6:23). So simply trust Christ and accept salvation as the precious gift He purchased for you.

Deaf Smith Cooperative Announces 3 Promotions

Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative has begun a new year with some new faces in new places, and with high anticipation for progress in 1975. The cooperative is announcing the promotion of three employees.

Upon the retirement of Sam Morgan, executive assistant, a big job was left to be filled in overseeing the entire operation of the cooperative. Working under manager James Hull, Dick Montgomery has filled this position as assistant manager.

In his new position, Montgomery will work in the area of construction contracts, material bid proposals, engineering and accounting. He will also continue his duties with commercial accounts and industrial development.

Montgomery's employment with the cooperative began in July 1969 as director of industrial relations. He assumed this job coming from Farm-land Industries, Texas Division, as petroleum merchandiser.

In his community, Montgomery is very active in many varied functions. He is a member of the Hereford Kiwanis Club; serves on the Industrial Development Board of the Chamber of Commerce, and is a past officer of Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee and Panhandle Economic Program.

The new assistant manager was reared in Oklahoma and graduated from Altus High School. He later attended Altus Junior College and Oklahoma State University where he received his degree.

Montgomery and his wife, Pat, reside at 137 Mimosa in Hereford. They have two sons, Mauri, a freshman at Southwest Texas State University, and Jay, an eighth grade student at La Plata Junior High. Mrs. Montgomery teaches at Stanton Junior High.

David Pruitt is assuming the position of area development manager upon the promotion of Montgomery. This new position will have some new responsibilities for Pruitt, as well as keeping some of his previous interests.

Pruitt will be in charge of developing and overseeing member and public service programs for the area served by the cooperative. He will also be available to members in a consulting capacity concerning electrical use, and directly available to the members for helping them determine their best location and utilization for maximum efficiency. He also works in both the agricultural and industrial development areas with interested citizens in securing new business.

Pruitt was raised on a farm at Celeste, Tex., where he graduated from high school. He later attended Texas A&M University, receiving his B.S. degree in agricultural economics, and Texas Tech University, where he received his M.S. degree in the same field.

Following his formal education, Pruitt began his employment at Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative May 15, 1971, as sales coordinator.

Pruitt and his wife, Pat, have one child, Jana Alison, and reside at 147 Juniper in Hereford. Mrs. Pruitt has been teaching special education at Northwest Elementary School since 1971.

Pruitt is presently serving as chairman of the Texas Member Services Association, is a member of the Kiwanis Club and is on the Board of Directors of the Big Brothers and Big Sisters Association.

Steve Louder has assumed the role of sales coordinator upon the promotion of Pruitt. Hired immediately upon graduation from Texas Tech University, Louder has been in a training program to learn about all aspects of the cooperative.

The new position will call upon Louder for member and public relations. He will be available in offering help about electric heating and water heating and also offer assistance in testing for electric irrigation wells. In addition, he will be responsible in organizing youth programs which the cooperative offers to help the youth of the area.

Louder and his wife, Pam, met at a lay-witness mission in Hereford in 1971, and were married last June before moving to Hereford. Mrs. Louder is a math teacher at Stanton Junior High.

NEWS OF EDUCATION

EARLY LEARNING TIPS

Educators have estimated that almost half of a child's intellectual development takes place between birth and five years of age. Assuming that this estimate is true, parents are a child's most important teachers, and those first five years significantly shape the child's future intellectual development.

A pamphlet entitled, "Reading Begins At Home," is being made available by the American Library Association and the publishers of World Book Encyclopedia. The booklet gives parents some basic guidance on stimulating a child's early intellectual development. The pamphlet can be obtained by writing to Reading Begins At Home, Box L, Reading, Michigan 49274.
