

Time To Water and Fertilize?

Jarrell Curtis, young farmer south of Farwell, inspects the growth of his wheat field while attempting to determine the stage at which water and fertilizer might prove to be most effective. The picture indicates the lush appearance of the field, and it is obvious that furrows have been installed for irrigating, but up until now, no water at all has been applied to the crop—before planting or after—asserts Curtis. He is putting in a new irrigation well near the field which no doubt will be used to water the wheat later on, however.

20,000 Acres Wheat Get Water, Fertilizer

Warmer weather, thrusting life into young wheat that either has been grazed off or frozen back during cold winter months, is now stirring both man and plant into action as another growing season approaches.

Spring is traditionally thought of as planting time for the farmer, and so it is, but at the moment, there is one crop on the High Plains that is way ahead of "planting season." It is irrigated wheat.

In Parmer County, an estimated 20,000 acres of this winter grain are greening up now that most of the severe cold is past, and farmers anxious to take every means of insuring a top yield are fertilizing and watering—or getting ready to.

There's not much that can be done for the 80,000 acres of dryland wheat that is trying to "hang-on" for more moisture. That's pretty well up to the mind of Mother Nature.

But on wheat that's under irrigation, it's a different story.

Wheat is beginning to joint out, and soon heads will form as the plant enters another stage of growth. This, says County Agent Joe Jones, is a critical point in successful irrigated wheat production, and one that requires careful timing by the farmer.

"It is important to encourage the plant to form the largest head possible, because from these heads will come the possibilities of a bigger yield," explains the agent.

"To insure success, for those who plan to fertilize, it is advisable to have fertilizer and plenty of water available for the young wheat at the point when the heads begin to form."

That's just what many farmers are doing, too. Wells are running long hours and many fertilization rigs are in operation to make available plenty of water and needed plant food for development.

Top dressing is being done on many farms in the area, farmers making sure that the young wheat gets its needed 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre. For crops (Continued on last page.)

Parmer FFA Show Set for March 25-26

At a meeting held in Friona Tuesday night with towns in the county represented, it was decided to hold the County FFA Livestock Show March 25 and 26 at the Friona fair grounds.

J. T. Gee, ag instructor, stated that he hoped the interest in the show this year is as good as it has been in past livestock shows.

The FFA boys do not have as many animals as they have had in the past, but if things go well, it should be a very good show, Gee adds.

Livestock included in this show will be all classes of dairy cattle, all classes of beef cattle, swine and sheep. The animals are to be in the barn Friday and judging will take place Saturday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m.

Board members present at this meeting were Jack Black from Lazbuddie; Walter Kaltwasser, Lariat; Robert Morton, Farwell; Herman Henson, Bovina; and William Sheehan from Friona.

Other representatives who attended were Joe Jones, county agent; Flody Schlenker, Clyde Hayes, Arlin Hartzog, and Raymond Euler.

Texico and Farwell Get Facilities

The cities of Texico and Farwell were given the water facilities of the Santa Fe Railroad in a brief ceremony here Friday morning. Since dieselization of the railroad, Santa Fe no longer has use for the equipment, whereas the two towns can make use of it. From left to right are Hamlin Overstreet of the Texico-Farwell Waterworks, Scotty Levins, Texico mayor; Johnnie Williams, Farwell mayor; T. J. Anderson, superintendent of the Plains Division, Santa Fe Railroad; and W. W. Vinyard, local freight agent.

Farm Bureau Drive To Start March First

The directors of the Parmer County Farm Bureau met in Friona Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 8 in the evening. In the business meeting that followed, the members decided to start their membership drive with a kick-off supper, March 1. Goal for this year is 775 members in Parmer County.

A letter from A. R. Grauer on cotton allotment investigation was read by A. J. Ellison, member, and was then discussed by the other members. Hadley Reeve was appointed secretary of the organization, and a weed committee will be appointed by Archie McCutchan and Gilbert Kaltwasser and they will give a report on their findings at the next meeting.

A discussion was held on butane and a committee consisting of J. T. Jones, Ralph Miller, L. F. Bruns and Bruce Parr was appointed to arrange a county-wide meeting on this subject and road tax procedure.

The kick-off supper to start the membership drive will be held at Friona School-cafeteria at 8:00 in the evening on March 1, as mentioned above. The captains of the drive will meet Tuesday, Feb. 21, and these captains are Charlie Calaway, Archie McCutchan, J. T.

Jones, Gilbert Kaltwasser, Ralph Miller, Ellis Tatum, Bruce Parr, Claude Miller, E. T. Ford, L. F. Bruns and O. B. Moyer.

Those present, other than the ones mentioned above were T. E.

Lovett, T. L. Kent and Hadley Reeve, directors; guests were Raymond Euler, Charlie Christian, O. K. Hoyle, State Field Representative, and Odel Frazier, District Field Representative.

Gin, De-Linting Plant To Be Built at the Hub

Reduced cotton acreage for Parmer County this year apparently is not dimming the outlook from the standpoint of the ginner, who is showing an ever-increasing interest in the area as a cotton-producing section.

This week an announcement was made that another gin would be added to the county, this one to be one-half mile west of the Hub community, and in addition, a de-linting plant would be installed—the first industry of its kind in the area.

Seven local stockholders joined together to make the venture a reality, organizing and receiving their charter as a corporation only a short time ago.

Included in the group are W.

P. "Bill" Elliott, Walter Mabry, Dalton Caffey, James Mabry, O. D. Bingham, Doyle Elliott, and Leo Ruzicka. Together, their investment will be an aggregate of around $210,000 for the gin and de-linting plant.

Ruzicka, who formerly managed a gin in Morton for six years, will manage the new business, which has been named the West Hub Gin Company.

He plans to move with his wife and two children to a home near the plant, which will be ready in the near future.

In fact, work on all parts of the project have been accelerated, and Ruzicka now says that the de-linting plant should be ready to go by March 15—less than a month away.

All-new, electrically-driven equipment will be featured in the gin. (Continued On Last Page)

Illini Courts Hit By Fire Tuesday

A fire which started in the room of a court occupant destroyed one unit and heavily damaged two others at the Illini Courts in Texico Tuesday afternoon. No one was injured, but damage from fire, smoke and water was severe.

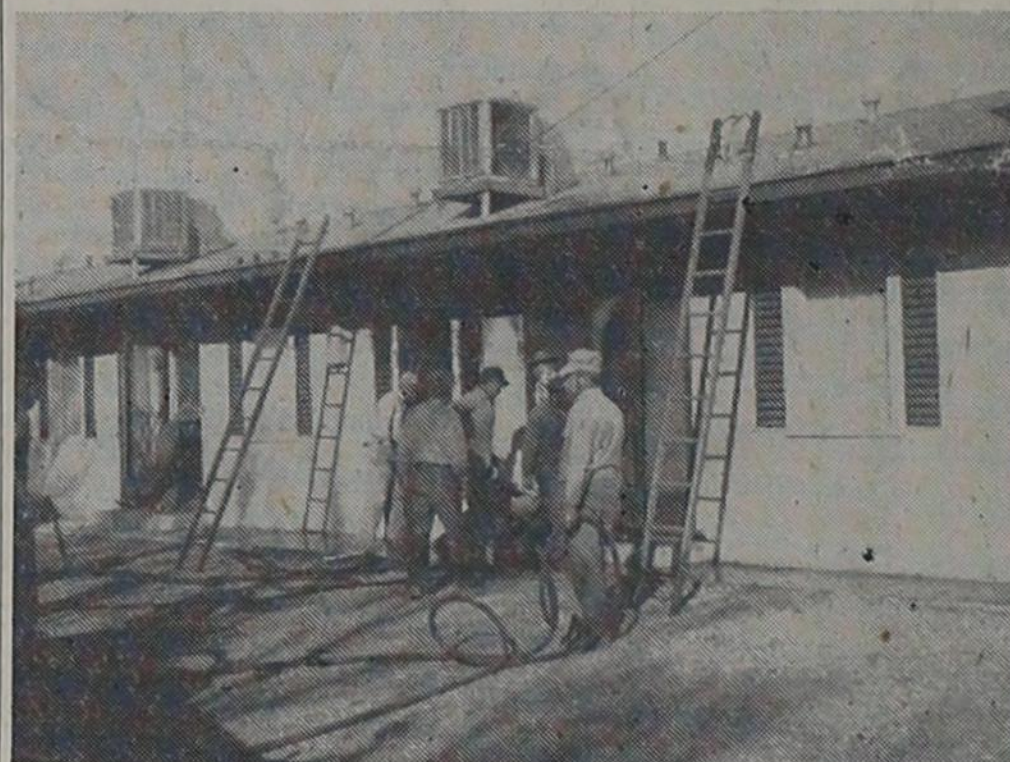

No estimate on the amount of the damage is available to date, although A. C. Newberry, manager of the court, Wednesday said that insurance adjusters were expected to soon appraise the damage to the units.

Newberry reported that the furniture and fixtures of the building were insured for $5000, and the court itself was backed up by $50,000 worth of fire insurance. Dewey Hicks of Amarillo owns the courts.

Several persons seemed to notice the smoke from the fire about the same time and almost simultaneous alarms were turned in from several residents. The fire was discovered about 4:30.

The Newberrys were out of town when the blaze started, and had left the courts in charge of Mr. (Continued On Last Page)

FIRE DAMAGES COURTS

Firemen were credited with quenching a fire which likely would have destroyed the Illini Courts Tuesday afternoon. Even though brought under control at an early moment, the hungry flames destroyed one unit and seriously damaged two others.

Two Farm Sales Are Announced

Two farm auction sales—one to be today (Thursday) and one to be next Thursday, Feb. 24—were announced this week.

The sale of R. Tilden Slagle is to start this morning at 11 o'clock, and will be conducted 6 miles west of Hereford on the Harrison Highway, and 3 1/2 miles north.

Machinery, cattle, poultry, dairy equipment, and miscellaneous items make up the bill, which will be auctioned by Lloyd Otten. Clinton Jackson is to be clerk.

The sale of Mrs. Willie McMillan will be next Thursday, 5 miles east of Farwell on Highway 70, and 3/4 mile south; or 3 miles west of Lariat.

Dosher and Francis will conduct the sale, which will feature machinery, furniture, and miscellaneous items. The sale will start at 10 o'clock.

Texico, Farwell Get Santa Fe Facilities

Because a modern, dieselized railroad has no use for water pumping and storage facilities, and because the Santa Fe Railroad is interested in assisting the communities which it serves whenever possible, the cities of Texico and Farwell were jointly given water facilities valued in the thousands of dollars by that company Friday morning.

T. J. Anderson, superintendent of the Plains Division for Santa Fe, was in Farwell Friday morning, along with a delegation of several other officials, to make the official presentation to Mayors (Continued on last page)

SHE'S UP, SHE'S DOWN, SHE'S UP

It has been quite a merry-go-round at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spurlin the past few weeks. Donna Gail, their 6-year-old daughter has been ill.

It's nothing out of the ordinary for children to take the various childhood diseases, but Donna Gail doesn't believe in doing anything halfway. First, she obligingly stayed home from first grade studies, while her face swelled to mammoth proportions and she recovered from the mumps.

She was doing fine, then began having trouble with her tonsils, so Mama and Daddy took her to the hospital where she had her tonsils removed. She did wonderfully after her surgery, and the family was making plans for her return to school Monday morning.

But such was not the case. Saturday, she came down with the measles. She is now home recuperating again and the Spurlins are wondering if she will be able to return to school soon.

In the meantime, Donna Gail is letting them do the worrying while she plays with her new doll house—her prize "for being sick."

HAVE THE FLU

Meredith and Will, small children of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Anderson, have been recuperating from the flu. They were much better this week.

March of Dimes Reaches $4000

March of Dimes contributions climbed to a total of over $4000 this week, as last minute additions were made to the fund by citizens over the county, Raymond Euler says.

Euler adds that the work done by everyone in the community is appreciated. "All workers did an excellent job of this worthwhile cause," he emphasizes.

Totals by communities are county wide envelopes, $168.79; TV contributions, $287.40; Friona, $1191.79; Farwell and Oklahoma Lane, $995.18; Bovina, $696.24; Rhea, $352; Lazbuddie, $269.10; and Black, $97.18.

Gast New Mechanic At Sikes Motor Co.

The association of Buster Gast as mechanic for Sikes Motor Company was announced this week by Oliver Sikes, owner.

"Buster is a first-class mechanic and we feel fortunate in acquiring his services," says Sikes.

Gast formerly was in the auto repair business with his father and brother, but in recent months has been employed at the Farwell Feed Lots.

OUR MISTAKE

The Tribune wishes to extend its apologies to members of the Texico Farm Bureau for erroneously reporting the February meeting to be Feb. 10.

The date had been changed to Feb. 17, and Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, reporter, had informed the Tribune staff, the change was not made in the "Calendar of Events" booklet, and therefore, was reported incorrectly.

Farm Bureau members are reminded—the meeting is tonight (Thursday).

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP JR.

The Santa Fe Railroad gave away a sizeable investment in water facilities to the towns of Texico and Farwell last Friday morning, and The Tribune didn't carry a line on it.

This was a little embarrassing for us and seemed to be a trifle disappointing to several of our readers, who wondered, for instance, why we didn't print anything on the transfer when the Clovis paper did.

We have to admit that we do not always have a good reason for our actions, but this time we did. For reasons still a mystery to us and the railroad, a news release carrying in detail the story behind the transaction never reached our desk.

It was supposed to have been mailed Feb. 7 from the company in Amarillo, but up until now it still has never reached us.

This is offered to the general public in the way of an explanation, and not necessarily as a condemnation of the company for letting us get "scooped" on a story under our noses by a newspaper 10 miles distant.

The management of The Tribune is justly sympathetic with the Santa Fe officials, who were very apologetic over the entire affair. Things like this pop up continually in the dizzy world we newspaper folk live in, except that we usually are the ones who are handing out explanations.

Well, no hard feelings, John Santa Fe, and let us express to you our thanks for your generosity in giving the water facilities of this community, and several other communities which you serve, to the citizens of these towns.

Your thoughtfulness will be remembered through the years, and our exclamations while waiting for those long freights to clear the crossings will be a little less vivid from now on!

The writer's family, after a quick look at our bank account and forthcoming expenses, made what it considered at the time to be a wise decision about six weeks ago, when we postponed buying a new car until later. The old heap would be good for a few more miles, we decided.

This sound judgment was interrupted by a loud crash a few evenings later, and as we surveyed the remains of the car which we had decided to "tough it out" with for a while longer, the opportunity to succumb to the lure of a new automobile proved to be too great, and we used the wreck as a face-saving excuse for spending money we didn't need to spend, on a new car.

Now that we are proudly piloting a '55 model, however, it puts us in the position of being able to say authoritatively what we have thought about these new styles ever since they were introduced.

Swept-back windshields, for instance. All new cars have 'em, so what's the advantage, style-wise, to have a car with a swept-back windshield today?

The only thing that we have discovered this fad to be good for is to curve out of proportion objects which are viewed from the extreme left or extreme right side of the windshield. As we drive along, it is mildly amusing to observe a passing object swell in size, then suddenly twist into a grotesque shape as our line of vision moves through the curved area. This diversion can be dangerous, however.

And if you hadn't noticed it before, we will now call your attention to the fact that the highly popular "ventilator" glass in the forward part of the front doors is now about three inches wide. This width is just about what is normally needed to discharge a wad of worn out bubble gum, but for purposes of admitting air, its usefulness is questionable.

Also, with the advent of the swept-back windshield comes now the swept-back door jamb, or whatever you call the piece of body where the door hooks on.

If you have a '55 car, have you ever tried setting Grandma's pot of hot bean soup for the church supper in the floorboard of the front seat, and then getting the pot out without leaving a liberal sprinkling of bean soup all over the front seat because you had to bend around that dumb windshield that is sticking out in front of you?

One other poke at these swept-back windshields: They told us that we would be able to see more with them. In a sense, this might be true, but we still notice that whenever we approach an intersection, the post supporting the roof still interferes with driver's line of vision, and for us, this is the test of practicality.

Swept-back windshields? Fooyey!

MYF COFFEE SET

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of The Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church will serve a benefit "coffee" Saturday, Feb. 26, in the undercroft of the church. The hours are 9 a. m. until noon. There will be no charge, but a free will offering will be accepted.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

This Will Get Mind Off Yourself (Unless You're a Preacher)

We think the following from the Andrews paper is worth a reprint.

SO YOU HAVE ULCERS

We rather enjoy the following article by a Baptist preacher in a neighboring city that appeared in print recently and pass it along to our readers. We imagine the epistle represents the feelings of not only Baptist preachers but leaders of all flocks:

"I read an article sometime ago which stated that nearly every modern business man was supposed to have at least one ulcer. Several reasons were listed as being chiefly responsible—one was the labor problem, another was the keen competition, high overhead and several other things.

When I read this article I could not help from thinking how many ulcers the poor business man would have if he worked under such trying circumstances as a Baptist preacher.

Suppose, Mr. Business Man, you were overseer of 2,000 workers, (about the membership of our church) suppose that only 50 percent ever showed up for work at any one time, and of the remaining 50 percent only about half of them with any degree of regularity. And suppose that if only one out of every five of your workers showed up after lunch (like our evening service) and every time one of them had a slight headache or company to visit them they "took off" that day. And every time it thundered or even a slight flash of lightning appeared in the sky 75 percent of your workers pulled the cover over their heads and never appeared for duty that day. Suppose your workers only worked "when they felt like it" and still you must be very sweet and never fire one of them. To get them to work you beg them, plead with them, pat them on the head, pet them, tickle them on the chin, and use every means under the sun to try to get them to do the work. And suppose you were in competition with a notorious rascal (the devil) who had no scruples and was far more clever than Suppose your firm was heavily obligated to meet certain financial responsibilities and you had to depend upon your people to "give as they felt led" to carry out the biggest business in the world.

You wonder why we do not throw in the towel or run to the bridge and end it all? That's what many of you have done. We probably would if it were not for the number who love the Lord more than anything else in the world and who put God first in their lives and consider no sacrifice too great for their Lord. fected the recipe herself, adding and changing amounts of the ingredients until she has arrived at what she feels is the best method for a good pie every time.

EGG CUSTARD PIE

5 eggs, beaten lightly
3/4 cup sugar
2 cups milk
1 tsp. nutmeg
Pour into 10 in. unbaked pie shell, and cook in slow oven until done.

A variation for the pie is to substitute about one tablespoon lemon flavoring for the nutmeg.

We haven't had an opportunity to talk with Dick Felts, but he was staying in the Adolphus Hotel last weekend when they had the big fire. Dick wasn't at the hotel at the time of the blaze, we understand, so he missed all the excitement.

That is one time we would be more than glad to miss a little excitement.

For any of you who noticed our Yule recipes in last week's paper, and wondered why we were including such at this time of year—we might remind you that Christmas is only 311 days away, (we think). Also, when that deadline draws near on Thursday afternoon and you are short on copy, sometimes you will do anything to fill up space.

Our nation seems never to tire of honoring its great men, and George Washington, father of our country, seems to head the list. Again as we note his birthday, we remember him as a model of American youth.

Still no matter what we remember about his accomplishments in later life, all school children are more familiar with the one incident, that seems symbolical in the development of his character. Most any child when asked about Washington can remember when he replied to his dad "I cannot tell a lie, I cut down the cherry tree."

FATHER IS ILL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert "Prof" Morton and family were in Matador and Whiteface over the weekend to visit his father, who had been severely ill. The father, Rev. M. J. Morton, was to be released from the hospital this week.

Girls Lead District In Basketball

Lazbuddie girls came out on top by a large margin over Adrian, in a game played Tuesday night, winning by a score of 72-40. This gives the girls a conference standing of six wins and one loss, and places them as top team in this district, and leading contenders for the district crown.

Lazbuddie got off to a good start and led 19-4 at the end of the first quarter. The girls kept piling up the score and they led 37-18 at the end of the second quarter.

In the third quarter, Lazbuddie guards continued to hold Adrian while the forwards continued to score. The third quarter score was 51-25 and the final score was 72-40.

Tying for high honors for Lazbuddie were Janice Oliver and Clara Jean Jesko who both had 23 points. Joy Smith had 12, Jean Gammon had 8, and Maryellen Thompson had 6. For Adrian, Jordan was high with 19 points to her credit.

In the boys game, Lazbuddie took their second conference victory from Adrian by a score of 59-38. This gives them two vicories and four losses and places them in fourth place in this district.

Adrian took a lead in the first quarter by a score of 13-10, but Lazbuddie held them down to four points while they scored 16, and the second quarter score was 26-17, Lazbuddie leading.

Lazbuddie outscored Adrian again in the third quarter and led 40-24 at the end of this period of play.

In the fourth and final period of play, Lazbuddie continued to hit and the score at the end of this time was 59-38.

High point for Lazbuddie was Jimmie Oliver with 14, Leon Smith had 12, Glen Watkins had 8, Jim Roy Daniel had 5, Elmer Houston had 4, and Johnny Gammon and Durwood Teague both had 2 each.

High for Adrian was Pounds with 13, Pinnell had 10, Harris had 9, Proctor had 4, and Gruhlkey with 2.

In the final conference game played here on Friday night, February 11, Lazbuddie defeated Farwell girls to end up the winners of the double round-robin in this district. If the girls win the district tournament, to be held in Vega, they will automatically become winners of the district. If they do not win the tournament, they will play the winners, to see who is to represent the district in regional play.

In the first quarter of this game played Friday night, Lazbuddie led all the way with quarter scores as follows: first quarter, 15-10; second quarter, 29-21; third quarter, 41-34 and then final score of 55-36.

With the assistance of Dr. Smith, the school men discussed intricate points of the evaluation program that they had not discussed in four previous sessions.

The schools of the area begin next week on the evaluation program. The purpose of the idea is to make appraisals of each school in the state to discover the strong and weak points, in relation to the needs of the community. Next step is to try to strengthen the points.

The teachers work with the students in the appraisal, which will be a continuous operation, with a re-evaluation to be made each year.

POPPIN' OFF... WITH POP

Lots of folks have a good aim in life—but most of them don't know when to pull the trigger.

In a reportedly true story a politician was asked in the recent state elections what he thought about Formosa. "I'll take it by 3,000 votes" was his confident and unhesitating reply.

I told the Reverend not to buy that second-hand car—he doesn't have the vocabulary to run it.

"Could you," the specialist asked, "pay for an operation if I found one necessary?" "Would you," countered the patient, "find one necessary if I couldn't pay for it?"

If you get a buzz out of these jokes, friends, give me and your car a break by buying your gas at Pop's. I'm always glad to serve you—any day!

Letters To The EDITOR

In Reply To A Paid-Up Farm Bureau Member:

Let's start with first things first. You state you are a Paid-Up member of FB. May we ask if you are an active member of FB? Were you at the county convention? Did you make an effort to instill your thinking into our county resolutions? It is a known fact that you are repaid in proportion to your efforts. Perhaps FB isn't representing your interests exactly as you wish but it is a democratic organization and is guided by majority vote. You indicate something is wrong with your local FB. Let us tell you exactly what it is! We are not strong enough.

Texas ranks first in the number of farms (approximately 330,000) and farmers. Texas ranks third in total cash ($2.2 billion) receipts from farming. Is there any doubt that farming is the most important industry in the state?

Yet, there are 11 states which have more FB members. In 1953 Texas had 53,195 members. Illinois, which has 135,000 fewer farmers than Texas and $175,000,000 less annual farm income, had nearly four times as many FB members in 1953.

Nine states which outrank Texas in FB members actually have less annual farm income than Texas. Illinois and Iowa have only a combined total of approximately 70,000 more farmers than Texas. Yet, these same two states have approximately 280,000 more members than Texas. Even our southern neighbors, Arkansas, Kentucky and Alabama, lead us in FB members. Their combined income is about 1/2 billion less than Texas, yet in 1953 these three states had 203,620 FB members; nearly four times Texas membership.

Despite the fact that we are big producers of basic and non-basic crops we are being outvoted on some issues vital to us by states with bigger and more active FB memberships.

We think it is a personal challenge to each farmer in Parmer County to aid in making the 1955 FB membership drive a Bang-Up success. If he is an active member, become more active. If he is not active, become active.

We have a potential of nearly six times as many members in Texas. Let's get them and make ourselves heard.

Now, then what are the Farm Bureau policies relative to the support price of grain sorghums?

We quote from our 1955 Texas FB policies as adopted at our last convention by the majority of the voting delegates of the entire state organization. These policies, incidentally, were adopted verbatim by American Farm Bureau Federation at the national convention.

WE QUOTE: "We recommend a price support level of 90% of parity for basic and non-basic commodities as long as supplies are in line with demand. We will diligently try to set up a crop allotment program that will effectively bring supplies in line with demand. If supplies are not in line with demand, we favor a price support level that will decrease 1% in support level for each 2% increase above normal supply."

Fellow member, we suggest that you and all members of Farm Bureau think long and thoroughly before you even suggest the possibility of one commodity group fighting another commodity group. The reason we say this is that FB is well aware of the fact that we never were able to legislate a satisfactory Farm Program until after years of hard work when we were finally able to pull all commodity groups (on a large scale) into one farm organization, thereby having power enough to effectively legislate a farm program.

For the past several weeks Parmer County Farm Bureau has been assembling information (one of the necessary tools of accomplishment) relative to the grain sorghum support price question.

Our board of directors feels that this was too drastic a cut in grain sorghum support price; but we are well aware of the fact that feelings and sentiment alone will get you nowhere in a plan of action.

We must obtain all the facts possible relating to grain sorghums before we can expect to be effective in an effort to bring about justice in this situation.

As you probably realize, the channels through which our action and thinking must go are perhaps slightly slower than individual action. However, at the same time, we get more solid thinking in our action and through the strength of our organization build up more supports and recognition for our efforts.

Yours For a Better Farm Bureau E. T. Ford, Chairman Commodity Committee Aubra Ellison, President

Two Texico '42' Teams To Play

Texico '42' teams racked up a win and a tie in games played Monday evening. The local Gilleans won over the Clovis Railroaders 41-31, and the Spears team tied Broadview, 36-36.

Monday night, the two local teams will be pitted against one another. Clyde McDaniel, president, asks that all players arrive at the school at 7:30, Texas time, so officers can be elected for the coming year, before play begins. Merchants who subscribed to advertising on the "42" tables are invited to attend, also.

Murray Dial Has Surgery

Murray Dial underwent surgery at a Clovis hospital Tuesday afternoon, and was resting reasonably well Wednesday, according to family members. He had entered the hospital Thursday. His daughter, Mrs. A. C. Henneman, arrived from Wichita Falls, to be at her father's bedside, Saturday. She was accompanied by her baby daughter.

WHEAT—

which have been grazed, this fertilizing and watering should be done in February or as soon as livestock is removed in early March.

Jones points out that irrigation should be avoided after the wheat has passed into the late boot stage, unless the crop shows signs of wilting.

"The wheat plant is susceptible to injury from lack of oxygen which may occur after rains or irrigation late in the growing season," he explains.

In addition, late irrigation may produce conditions favorable for the spread of plant rusts.

Up until now, farmers striving for top production under irrigated conditions have:

1. Pre-irrigated their seedbeds.
2. Seeded an adapted variety.
3. Increased the seeding rate to 60-90 pounds per acre.
4. Fertilized at seeding time with nitrogen and phosphorus fertilizer.
5. Irrigated the crop soon after stands had been established, and after fertilizer had been applied.

Other tips for high yields: Water should be applied early and allowed to penetrate deeply into the soil so that it will be available to the plant during the fruiting period.

"With proper attention to improved practices, it should be possible under irrigation to produce average yields of 40 to 60 bushels per acre," says Jones.

Verified reports of 70 to 85 bushels are on hand now. Greenbugs—annual threat to a wheat crop—are beginning to show up pretty generally over the county, according to Agent Jones, but "not in alarming numbers as yet."

Many farmers are wondering if irrigating their wheat will help control the bugs, using as a theory the possibility of drowning them or "running them out of the fields."

The answer to this, says Jones, is no. At least, experience would seem to point to that conclusion. About the only thing that might be considered an asset in irrigating wheat for the purpose of controlling insects is that the water will supply a little extra plant vigor which might enable it to better resist the onslaught of the greenbugs. However, believes Jones, this benefit is considered negligible.

The years of 1950 and 1951 were disastrous for wheat farmers, when greenbugs were considered even more responsible than dry weather for stopping the wheat crop in its tracks.

Although in some instances large numbers of the bugs have been sighted, Jones believes that conditions are not comparable to those four years ago, and he expects that as weather warms and permits ladybugs (the natural greenbug control insect) to multiply, they will take control of the situation.

Insecticides have been known to be effective at certain times and under certain conditions, observes the county agent, but attempts to control bugs by these methods in this area have largely met with little success.

Jones urges farmers who are anxious to learn the latest methods in control measures to call on him at his office for literature and advice.

WEST HUB GIN—

which will house 5-90 Continental gin stands and Continental lint cleaners. A fan-type burr treater will be installed to permit farmers to return burrs to their land.

Up until now, the nearest delinting facilities have been located at Plainview, says Ruzicka, which has resulted in inconvenience for farmers or dealers handling seed.

Now, however, a brand new plant complete with facilities for germination testing will be provided area farmers, which is expected to be very popular.

De-linted seed, says Ruzicka, eliminates many planting difficulties encountered with lint-covered seed, and in addition, special treatment when going through the de-linter impregnates the seed with resistance to pre-germination diseases, thus insuring greater stands.

Seed going into the de-linting plant will first be cleaned, then de-linted, says Ruzicka. It will then pass through another cleaner, then the slurry-type seed treater—the operation which is designed to control diseases.

To be engaged by the company as head ginner will be Otto Owens, now of Lubbock, who has had much experience with both cotton gins and de-linting plants, says Ruzicka.

The unit in which the fire started was rented, although unoccupied at the time, and Chief Stanton Thigpen said it was not possible to determine the cause of the fire.

"We thought we had a dilly of a fire when we first got there," said the chief. The smoke had passed all through the building by way of overhead ventilation system, and to outside observers, it appeared that the entire building was ablaze.

This was not the case, however, and the fireboys soon quenched the flames in the burning court.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

We have always wondered a little about the motive of the writer of a "Letter to the Editor" with the name withheld by request of the writer. We understand this procedure of course, when the writer feels he must publish something of a nature that may endanger his life, or even his reputation; but when he claims a desire to have his ideas put into practice by an organization of which he is a member in good standing, it seems only logical to us that he should at least let the officials of that organization know who he is and what his suggestions are.

We know of no organization or institution to which we belong that is perfect, even in our far-from-perfect judgment; but when we have complaints or suggestions to make regarding improvement, we go to someone within the organization who can or could take action on our suggestions. We may as well go on and say that our ideas have not always received enthusiastic support where they have been heard, though sometimes they have.

These experiences have helped us to understand, rather forcibly in some cases, that our ideas and those of some of our fellow members are not exactly alike. When it was possible to get those ideas before the delegate body and have a decision made by majority vote, a democratic method, we have been able to see whether we had a popular suggestion, whether it was right or wrong, notwithstanding. The vote did not, of course, change our personal opinion in most cases.

Regarding the grain sorghum support price, which is a popular subject among local farmers at present, 55,670 Texas Farm Bureau members are backing this resolution passed upon by voting delegates sent to the annual convention in Galveston in November 1954:

"We recommend a price support level of 90 per cent of parity for basic and non-basic commodities as long as supplies are in line with demand. We will diligently try to set up a crop allotment program that will effectively bring supplies in line with demand." Parmer County Delegates voted with this recommendation.

Your Farm Bureau, county, district, state, and finally national, inaugurated the export recommendations that are resulting in commodity exports of about 12 per cent of our production, the highest since pre-war days. This marketing action is the only possible premanent hope for good stable prices for our farm commodities. We certainly know that we cannot expect the government to be the purchaser of our produce.

Consider this: Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou knowest not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbor hath put thee to shame. Proverbs 25:8.

Music Students Return Sunday

Mrs. Shelby Jobs, Farwell music director, and two music students, Dick Felts and Betty Curtis, returned home Sunday from Dallas, where they attended the Texas Music Educators Convention, and the students participated in band and choral work with young musicians from all over Texas.

The Farwell group left by train early last week and arrived in Dallas Wednesday. They spent four hours practice each day, Dick with the band and Betty with the chorus. After an all-day practice Friday, a concert was presented that evening.

Recordings were made of the presentations.

Building Permits Now Required For Construction

Planning to build? If your plans include the city limits of Farwell, it will be necessary for you to first apply for a building permit, according to Mayor Johnie Williams.

City commissioners meeting last night drafted a construction ordinance, which became effective today (Thursday). Its intent, according to the commissioners, is to permit as rapid a growth of the city as possible, while at the same time affording protection to residents from undesirable property being placed near enough to cause already established buildings to decrease in value.

The ordinance, although flexible, has "teeth" in it, believe the city dads, and will effectively control all types of construction in the future.

Since Farwell was incorporated five years ago, it never had been necessary to require building ordinances, and up until today only the business district was under a code.

Now, however, property is changing hands so often and so quickly that the commissioners feel that the time has come for the city to protect its citizens along these lines.

Thus far, the city has managed to get along with remarkably few ordinances. The new building code is only the ninth city law on the books, according to Wilfred Quickel, city clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams were in Muleshoe Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ford.

SANTA FE—

Scotty Levins of Texico and Johnie Williams of Farwell.

Bills of sale covering a steel tank 24 feet around and 60 feet high, with all connections, a pump house, pumping equipment, casing, and 146 feet of iron pipeline, were given the two civic representatives.

This week, both mayors were still undecided as to what use would be made of the facilities by the towns. The Texico-Farwell Waterworks only recently completed a 400,000-gallon storage tank near its plant in Farwell, and the City of Texico is getting ready to install a system with a 100,000-gallon overhead storage tank.

The most likely outcome, probably, will be as emergency storage facilities for both towns in the event of fire, windstorm, or other calamity which might interrupt regular service.

Citizens of the two towns have been joshing each other as to who owns what part of the system. One man boasted that this town owned the bottom half, while his neighbor across the state line would have to settle for the top portion.

Besides the men in the picture accompanying this story, those present for the short ceremony included W. R. Henry, train master; H. J. Wheeler, general foreman, water service; and W. H. Clark, division engineer; all of Santa Fe's Amarillo office.

Happenings at Friona

MRS. OSCAR BAXTER

THELMA WATKINS

Start of Paving Is Undecided

The date has not been set by the city of Friona, for the bond election or the beginning of the city paving project now under consideration, says Roy Wilson, city manager.

It is hoped that it will include installation of gutter and curb facilities.

Voters in the bond election must qualify by state law and must also have lived in the city six months prior to the election. They must own or have paid taxes on city property in the last taxable year, which was 1954.

Eighty-four blocks are now paved, although not all of them have gutters and curbs, among these are the lower part of main street by the Santa Fe tracks and the cut-off by the old bank building.

The last project of this sort, on a large scale, was completed in 1950, but in 1953, the state paved the cut-off, known as the West Loop.

On the project completed in 1950, one-fifth was paid down with four equal installments to follow and 6% interest was added onto the balance. This paving will be paid-in-full in November of this year. Figures on the cost of this past paving are not on file in the city manager's office.

Friona Wins Games With Amherst

Both the Friona boys and girls won their games with Amherst, played last week. The boys score was Friona, 56, and Amherst, 38, and the girls score was 45-33.

In the boys game, the score by quarters was as follows: Friona made 7 points in the first quarter while Amherst made 4 points and in the second quarter, Friona made 14 points and Amherst made 7 to bring the score up to 21-11 with Friona out in front. After the half, Friona slowed down and Amherst almost caught up with them, as the score was 29-27. In the fourth quarter Friona managed to stay ahead of the boys from Amherst, to win the game 46-38.

STRICKLAND'S TRUCK STOP

in & around FRIONA with the gang

We would like to commend all service station attendants and owners for their wonderful attitude. Seems as if they should get pretty peeved at some people and perhaps they do, but they don't show it. Can you imagine getting up in the middle of the night to go out and change a flat? And this time of year we have trouble with our anti-freeze and they are more than happy to check it for us even if their hands freeze in the process.

You will read elsewhere in the paper about the tractor fire in Friona. We were talking to Charlie Bainum, the fire chief, and he informed us that on this particular tractor, the tires cost $135 a piece. Most of you probably knew that, but since we are from a part of the country where they have very little of the type of farming done here, we were amazed to hear it. Can't imagine paying $135 for a tire even if they are the large, economy size.

We have often wondered what made dogs run and bark after cars. Some people think it is from feeding them scraps from the table, but what that has to do with it, we wouldn't know. We believe that it is just a bad habit, but of course we could be wrong. We only wish that they didn't do it 'cause they scare us and make us mad all at the same time.

We turned on the radio bright and early this morning and were listening to a radio station in Los Angeles (we usually turn it to this particular station). The announcer disk-jockey, was saying that another disk-jockey in New Orleans, La., was trying to set a new record for playing the same record over and over again. Last we heard it had been going strong for 25 hours. Wouldn't it be something to turn on the radio and hear the same record over and over and over again?

Noticed that they have been moving a lot of old barracks around lately. Where they are going, we wouldn't know, but it sure is an odd feeling to come up on one on the highway, which we did the other day. We've heard of cars hitting houses, but not while the house was moving. It would be a pretty easy thing to do if a person wasn't very careful because the houses take up about three-fourths of the road.

Miss Eva Woolbright spent Monday night with Miss Patsy Anthony. Evening visitors were Don McMahan and Roy Young. The group spent the evening watching television.

The 6-A grade had a Valentine party. Donna Blackburn and Karen Treider sang two songs and several boys told riddles.

Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Mrs. Douglas served pop and cup cakes with Valentine decorations, then students received valentines from the big red and white valentine box.

FHA gave the program for assembly Thursday. Millie Bennett discussed Germany. Millie's home town is Stratford and she is now a student of West Texas College at Canyon. She is an English major.

Millie and her roommate are going to Alaska next year to teach.

She wrote an Essay on "Why I Would Like to Go To Germany," and was one of 24 young people selected to go to a foreign country, as a 4-H exchange. She went to Germany last summer and stayed three months. While there, she stayed with three different families.

This makes 181 speeches for her since her return from Germany.

She showed a film on how they make sauerkraut, and many other foods.

She told of many of her experiences. She helped with some of the farming and noted there are very few tractors, but their wheat averages 60 bushels an acre. About 40 inches of rainfall are recorded in a year and the average farm was from three to 14 acres.

Women work in the field and men work in factories. The barn and house is under one roof, and the barn is kept as clean as American homes. Miss Bennett had some films which she showed to the students.

She said the food there was different. They have five meals a day. The farmers have most of their own food.

The band and choir have made another order for jackets and sweaters. The groups are practicing on contest music.

The grade school students had their Valentine parties Monday afternoon. Some rooms had one large Valentine box and some had individual Valentine boxes. Teachers or room mothers served refreshments to the students.

There is a lot about Dallas being heard around high school. Phyllis Treider, Deneise Magness and Don Lewis are telling all the exciting things about all-state choir. These three students and their mothers, Mrs. George Treider, Mrs. H. T. Magness, Mrs. Henry Lewis and director, J. D. Fry, left for Dallas Wednesday and returned Saturday night. They arrived at the Dallas Hotel Wednesday afternoon, and a rehearsal was held that evening, then again Thursday morning. That morning, the all-state choir heard the Denton Civic Boys Choir, under the direction of George Bragg. They also heard The Singing Sergeant and US Air Force band. Afterwards, a dance was held for the students and chaperones in the Cactus room.

Friday, all 384 all-state choir students went to practice at the fair park and they practiced most of the day. The grand concert consisting of the all-state band, orchestra, and choir, was that night.

The group from Friona looked over Dallas Saturday morning and returned home that evening. They all reported a wonderful time in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baxter and family, Mrs. L. B. McLain, Mrs. I. T. Graves and sons, Mrs. Ralph Taylor and family and Mrs. Hop Lewis were in Clovis recently shopping and attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Day Jr. and Deborah Sue of Lubbock spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Day Sr.

There is a twentieth century establishment under the able direction of men who have always had at heart the best interests of the community in which their valued enterprises are located, and is one of the firms that keeps the wheels of progress turning in the right direction.

This is one of our best industries and is fully worthy of more than passing notice at our hands, for not only is it one of the leading concerns engaged in its special fields of endeavor, but its building products have gained wide reputation for general excellence and are considered standard products among the trade the country over.

It may be of interest to know that the idea of this enterprise originated in the resourceful minds of energetic businessmen, with a restless ambition, a broad vision of the future of the industry of the country.

Today it is one of the most substantial concerns in this section, and its growth is the result of hard work on the part of its officers.

The kitchen, where home-cooked meals are prepared, and other rooms, are clean, and sanitary and furnished to make the patient very comfortable within surroundings that are pleasant in every way.

can get around are at leisure to spend their time out of doors, when weather permits.

This rest home, where they feature a general service, general practice and give the most understanding care, is convenient in every way, being so located as to conveniently accommodate the people of this section. The management is to be commended upon devoting their lives to this work, that is so much needed and for illustrating the change in methods from the olden times, when the people who needed care of this type found it very hard to secure any type of care at all.

This accounts for the rapid recovery of almost anyone coming to Jones Nursing Home for care.

A striking example of a successful organization of this type, the Rancho Packing Company services its rancher members with an unparalleled service in the marketing and custom slaughtering of their livestock at the most advantageous price.

Now suppose that it's in the heat of summer, your family needs fresh meat, bacon and hams. We will cut and pack the fresh part and quick-freeze it, ready for your locker. You can do the same thing with cattle, yearlings; going to your own locker any time and getting the things you need at any season of the year. Quick-freezing in our quick-freezer will preserve the food, and adds to the flavor.

Frankly, we could say a lot about the advantage of using facilities of a frozen food plant. We could say that all agricultural authorities highly recommend it and know that it will benefit farm people.

But we can't show you in an advertisement, you must see this plant and let us explain it fully to you. Since there are many advantages, and a real education besides, why not come by and see our new plant, the next time you are in the city of Clovis.

John C. Roberts Shoes for Men

Located at 415 Main Downtown Clovis, N. M.
Dial 9144

Speaking from a personal standpoint, there is nothing that makes one so low in spirits, cross or ill-tempered as an uncomfortable, ill-fitting shoe. On the other hand, there is nothing from which we derive more pleasure or satisfaction than comfortable, well-fitting shoes. It is absolutely essential to our peace of mind that our feet are comfortable. While our feet are supported by snug fitting, flexible shoes, they also must have style and quality.

Nowhere in this community will you find this combination better suited to your needs than at the Dayhoff Shoe Store. Here you will find shoes that, from the tip of their modestly rounded toes to their snug-fitting heels, are beautiful—shoes in which there is no restriction of any kind to tire your feet. In their flexible shoes, you enjoy the cool comfort of feet that are free and well-fitted, shoes shaped in the latest style. Their shoes are up-to-date in every way. No part of our wearing apparel is subject to more strain than a pair of shoes. Dayhoff's sell shoes that wear well and through this achievement, they have built up a growing business in this community.

There is a completeness of stock here seldom found outside of metropolitan districts. In making this review, we wish to compliment this reliable establishment upon their most enviable standing in the community, and unhesitatingly recommend them to the public. A shoe for every foot.

Located at North Commerce Way Clovis, N. M.

As one of the leading establishments of its kind in this section of the country, the Farmers Electric Cooperative has been a dominating element in the progress of the community. Being one of the first to realize the importance of Electric service, it is a greater convenience to the isolated resident and those living in the small communities, for by its perfection, the country home is given the same satisfactory convenience as the city dweller.

Since REA really does not give anyone electricity; it furnishes individual localities the necessary funds to make it possible for that locality to serve itself with electricity. The people of each vicinity organize and form a cooperative organization, then request a loan from REA for constructing lines in their respective area.

Every person receiving electricity from the Farmers Cooperative is a member-owner of the Co-op. Many farmers have realized the added profits this service makes possible for them, as well as raising their living standards and making their farm living more pleasant and enjoyable. In this community, as well as others, the Farmers Electric Cooperative has made its mark in the progress of this entire section of the state.

There is no reason why the farm home of today cannot be as modern and beautifully equipped with as modern electric equipment as that enjoyed by "her" city sister.

With the ever-growing demand for electric services, the Farmers Electric Cooperative is gaining in popularity because of the excellent services they render along these lines. The people of Curry County and adjoining areas can justly be proud of their Farmers Electric Cooperative.

He added, "You are certainly to be congratulated on this unusual promotional medium and I hope we can work together to develop a feature on it."

Reception Set
All new members received into the church since last conference year began will be honored Sunday evening with a reception, which is being provided for by the official board of the Bovina Methodist Church. Church School begins at 9:45 a. m. next Sunday morning. We hope that you might come. At 6:30 p. m. the Adult Fellowship will continue its study on India with M. E. Ezell leading on the topic "Christian Missions in India." Too, the Intermediate Fellowship and the Senior MYF will meet at this same hour. Everyone is invited to participate in these Christian studies.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

This week, the Baptist Churches from Farwell, Oklahoma Lane, Lazbuddie, and Friona with their

Sunday School workers are meeting with the people of our church to study Sunday School work. The course is being well attended by members from these churches.

Monday night, February 21, the women of the church will give to all the Bovina High School juniors and seniors a banquet. Dr. A. Hope Owen, President of Wayland College, Plainview, has been asked to be the main speaker.

The church Brotherhood will meet Monday for a program given by the men under the direction of the program chairman, Allen Cumpton.

Saturday, our Young People will attend an Associational Youth Rally in the First Baptist Church, Canyon. A youth led revival is in progress there, and we will join in with them in this meeting.

Tuesday, February 22, District Nine Convention will meet for its annual convention. This meeting will be with First Church of Tahoka.

On the 13th, Sunday School attendance was 208, Training Union attendance was 80.

AT FT. ORD

Norman Taylor left last week for service with the armed forces and his family has received word that he was flown to Ft. Ord, Calif., last Friday. Norman will take his basic training there and he should feel about as home as you could in the army. Norman makes the sixth boy from around Bovina that is taking basic training at Ft. Ord. The others are Paul Lloyd, Pee Wee Cherry, Jack Haney, Frank Mullins and J. B. Sudderth.

DRAW BYES

Both the girls and boys basketball teams have drawn byes in the first round of play this Thursday and Friday in the district tournament at Vega. Both of the teams will have their first game on Friday. The girls will meet the Vega girls at 9:00 Friday morning and if they win this game, they will play in the finals that night. The boys will play at 1:00 o'clock and they will meet Lazbuddie. They will also play in the finals that night if they win this game.

The entire grade school of Bovina was taken to the show Monday afternoon. They saw the technical production "The Living Desert." All of the children seemed to thoroughly enjoy the show and it was also a very good lesson in natural science.

4. "Everything comes out of the electric dryer so fluffy and soft."
5. "I don't trample our new lawn by having to hang clothes on the line."
6. "The electricity cost is surprisingly low."
7. "The electric dryer gives me more leisure time."
8. "It's a big help in Spring house-cleaning time for freshening draperies and bedspreads."

Partnership

... means a joint interest. But in family life it means more than that. It means planning together, working together, going together and doing together ...

It means sharing the finer things of life. The husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. The wife is to be devoted to her husband as the church to Christ. It takes more than thrills in courtship to avoid spills in marriage. Be he governor or gravel shoveller, he is happiest who finds his happiness in his home and in his church. This is proof of a truly great partnership.
