FORTY-FIRST YEAR

FARWELL, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1952

NUMBER 50

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

While prices on almost everything else continue to rise, the rancher who is producing only stocker and feeder cattle is taking it on the chin as the prices of his products continue to show a downward trend.

As an illustration of how the stockman is being hit, K. K. Runnels, who ranches southwest of town, has this to say this week:

"I have just contracted to sell the same number of cattle from my ranch that I sold last year. My check this year is about thirty-five hundred dollars less than I received last year."

The businessmen of Bovina have come up with a fine example of promoting their own community in the four-page special section of this week's paper.

In addition to carrying the special section in this newspaper, several hundred extra copies are to be printed for distribution among the prospective land-buyers downstate, who are reported to be looking this way to get out away from boll weevils and continued drought.

The businessmen are telling a true story of conditions in and around Bovina with the hopes of attracting many new comers to their section, and they are to be congratulated for this forward movement.

And here's a note from Claude Thomas, living out north of Melrose in the Field community. He says he got a good rain Monday and his wheat it already up. On the strength of these, he says he had borrowed enough money to renew his subscription.

If a band doesn't do anything else to a school, it teaches the kids how to walk again. It is a safe bet that these kids have done more walking in practice marching than they have done all year in other activities.

Hub Gin Gets First Bale Past Friday

The Mills & Fleming Gin, located one mile south of the Hub, near the center of the county, received its first bale of the season last Friday.

The first bale to be delivered to this new and modern gin was brought in by James W. Burleson, who farms 3 miles west and 3 south of Lazbuddy. Burleson also delivered the first bale of the season to the North Plains Gin at Friona on Wednesday of last week.

A 546 pound bale of lint was obtained from a gross load of 2090 pounds of pulled cotton. Seed accounted for 1040 of the gross load. The bale was ginned free of charge.

Meanwhile, the Morison & Ely Gin at Bovina, was still awaiting the arrival of the season's first bale. Morison told The Tribune on Monday that he felt certain delivery of the initial bale had been held up there by the rains of early in the week.

Kindergarten To Close Tomorrow

Mrs. Tom Foster, director of Texico-Farwell kindergarten, announces that the classes for pre-school children will be discontinued tomorrow (Friday), because of the small enrollment this year. "I had hoped to build up the number of enrollees to enable me to keep the school open," says Mrs. Foster, "but at present, this doesn't look favorable."

The kindergarten was opened on September 1 and continued through this month. The instructor did say, however, that if more students decided to enroll later, that there is a possibility that she would re-open the school. She states that at least 12 children are needed in classes to merit the opening of the school.

"It has been most interesting work and I sincerely regret having to close the school," says Mrs. Foster. Enrolled in classes the past month have been Sarah Jane Miller, Betty Fields, Linda Smart, Teresa Quicquel, Danny Huffaker, Bob Scott Martin, Diane Lovelace, Steve Milford, and Edith Ann Walling. Bob Scott is the only returning pupil from last year's group.

The regular kindergarten program has been followed during the month. "This group of children is particularly talented in singing," says the instructor.

Asked about the kindergarten building, Mrs. Foster says it will probably be placed for rent, and may be converted into a residence.

HERE OCTOBER 13

Judge E. A. Bills of Littlefield is scheduled to be in Farwell October 13 to open the new term, and attend to grand jury matters, County Clerk Loyde A. Brewer says.

What! No Kids On Pro Football Teams?

One Farwell family that will probably be glad to see television come is represented by Mr. and Mrs. Lenton Pool. When football is available on a TV set in the living room, it will be a relief to the local couple which is having a time getting to meet the demands of football-playing sons.

For instance, their son, Sam, played in the junior high game at Vega last Thursday night. Friday night at Farwell, Don helped beat the Vega varsity, and Saturday night at Portales, Jerry was instrumental in helping bring Panhandle A & M down for the ENMU Greyhounds.

Of course, all three boys expected their parents to be on hand to see them perform.

Rex, another son, also attends ENMU, but is a freshman this year.

New Cotton Gin At Lazbuddy To Open

Drew Watkins of Sudan, who has just completed the erection of a new cotton gin at Lazbuddy, in the southeastern part of the county, announced today that the new plant was now ready for operation and a formal opening would be held on Tuesday, Sept. 30.

The formal opening has been set for Tuesday, September 30, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. A free dinner will be served on the grounds at noon and the public is invited. All visitors will be shown through the new plant.

Watkins, who has had 15 years of ginning experience in Oklahoma and Texas, said the gin was a Hardwicke-Etter, 4-90 plant, electrically operated and fireproof throughout. It is equipped with a double I cleaning system.

Doyle Watkins, son of the owner, will be the manager of the gin, it was stated.

"We are ready to go and we want the people to inspect our plant," Watkins told The Tribune in a long distance message, adding that the gin would be in operation on opening day, if weather conditions permitted.

Money Needed To Pay Texico Park Paving

The work of paving the playgrounds at the Texico city park has been completed, and the Park Committee said this week they were in need of funds to complete payment for the project.

Members of the committee said that all the money had been spent and there remained a small unpaid balance, and donations were being solicited. Some unpaid pledges are out, it was stated. These and any additional contributions will be appreciated.

Payments may be made to either Leroy Faville or John Getz.

Local Gin Operates On Limited Schedule

The Farwell Gin, owned and operated by N. L. Tharp, will be operated on a somewhat limited schedule this season, Mr. Tharp informed the Tribune on Tuesday.

He said that he had contracted to do the ginning for the cotton produced on his ranch, five miles north of the city and that there was a possibility the local plant would not be able to handle any ginning for the public.

Tharp said there were 700 acres of cotton on his ranch this year, "all pretty good cotton," which will require the greater part of the operations of the local plant.

"We will gin for the public if we have the time," Tharp added.

Parmer Counties Place At Curry Fair

For the second consecutive year, Parmer County won first place for the community exhibits booth at the Curry County Fair in Clovis. Exhibited were vegetables, hay, grain and other products from this county and were arranged by County Agent Joe Jones, M. A. Snider, John Aldridge, Mrs. Derb Kittrell, and Mrs. Mabel Reynolds.

Elmer Langford and Eddie B. Smith were Parmer County exhibitors who brought home blue ribbons. Langford was owner of the Grand Champion bull in the Hereford division; also had a first in get of sire; first, pair of calves; and some second and third place ribbons.

Eddie B. Smith had four first places in the chicken division. In the swine division, Smith owned the Grand Champion Sow, Poland China division; two reserve champions, two firsts and a second and third.

Tom Wagner Receives Special Recognition

Town Plant Manager Thomas M. Wagner of Farwell was among the 32 employees from throughout Southern Union Gas Company's eastern New Mexico district to receive special recognition for outstanding safety records at the annual safety meeting in Clovis, Friday, September 19.

Wagner had driven company automobiles five years without an accident. The combined record of the 32 employees represented a total of 201 years of safe driving.

One hundred guests, including Southern Union employees and their families from Farwell and Clovis, Portales and Tucumcari, New Mexico, attended the dinner.

C. H. Zachry of Dallas, Southern Union president, presented awards to the drivers and congratulated them for bringing credit to themselves and to the company in the practice of traffic safety. All of the employees were praised by Zachry for their observance of safety practices in the day-to-day operations of the company. J. H. Wilson of Clovis, district manager, was master of ceremonies for the meeting.

Also attending were vice president J. R. Cole, III, of Santa Fe, and the following other company representatives from Dallas: vice president and operating manager H. N. Oldham, vice president Scott Hughes, R. C. Harrison, tax, insurance and safety director; Roy R. Gleason, safety engineer; Allen D. Schrodt, merchandise sales coordinator; and Wayne Alvord, personnel assistant. Hancel McCord of Dallas, pension plan analyst and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company representatives Sid Kelly and W. A. Bullis of Albuquerque also attended.

New Electric Repair Shop Opens In Farwell

E. W. Stidham and Jimmie Pearson, both of Portales, are opening a new business in Farwell, and will devote their time to electrical repair work, specializing in motor, generator and starter repair.

They have secured the Ed Muckelroy building, just west of the State Line Grocery on main street in Farwell, and announced the first of the week they were ready for business.

Both are young men, starting out on their first business venture, with considerable experience behind them. "We will guarantee all our work," Pearson said as he helped in putting the new business in shape for operation.

Schizophrenia is a speech disorder in which the person produces meaningless sounds.

Underground Water Meeting Is Called

A county-wide underground water meeting of Parmer County farmers has been called for next Monday night at Bovina School Auditorium. This meeting, called by county committee men, Bruce Parr, Raymond Euler and Tom Caldwell, is intended for learning from farmers what regulations, if any, are desired for issuance of permits for drilling of irrigation wells. Permits will be required beginning February 1, 1953.

It is the desire of county committeemen that every person interested in irrigation be present to participate in this discussion. Thursday, at Hereford, the committee will be called upon to present Parmer farmers' views, and they desire to know who they want. Willis Hawkins Sr., of Hart, director for Parmer, Bailey and Castro Counties, will be present to assist in conducting the meeting.

Red Cross Plans Blood Donor Meet

Anyone interested in the nationwide campaign for blood donations to the American Red Cross, is asked to attend a meeting in the South room of the Clovis High School library Tuesday night, September 30 at 7:30 in the evening (M.S.T.), a Red Cross executive says.

Purpose of the meeting Tuesday night is to make plans for donations of blood when the Bloodmobile unit stops in Clovis. Sgt. Bibbie of Clovis Air Force Base is chairman of the donors committee.

The Red Cross asks that Parmer County leaders in civic organizations, church and the school, attend the meeting. The Bloodmobile unit in Clovis will also serve Parmer and Roosevelt counties.

The Red Cross emphasizes that a pledge list of donors will be made up before the Bloodmobile unit arrives to begin work.

Hogs To Be Given Away At Barbecue

John's Farm Store is feeding out the two Hampshire shoats that were given to the Texico FFA chapter by Elmwood Farm. Two different rations are being fed, and the contest will close when the first hog reaches the weight of 225 pounds.

Mike and Ike, the two swine, will be given away Oct. 10 at the Texico FFA barbecue, planned at 8 o'clock at the Texico school lunchroom. First to be given away will be the larger of the two hogs, and second will be the smaller one, Carl Schmitt, agriculture instructor, says.

Tickets for the barbecue may be obtained from any FFA member.

The Texico boys erected a booth at the Curry County Fair and were named in the third place. Theme of the booth was "Control Soil Erosion by Use of Contour Channels and Contour Farming." The chapter will enter the same booth in the New Mexico State Fair.

A group of FFA members will leave Saturday morning for Albuquerque to attend the Fair, and are to return Monday evening. Carl Schmitt will sponsor the boys.

Carrie Chapman Catt was a leader in the campaign that led to the adoption of the 19th Amendment to the Federal Constitution, which granted suffrage to woman on equal terms with men.

Taxes for Current Year Due Soon

Tax payments for state, county, school and municipal taxes will begin after October 1, it was announced here today by the local collecting agencies.

Statements for state, county and school taxes will be in the mails on October 1, it was announced by Chas. Lovelace, collector for the state and county, and Wilfred Quicquel, collector for the school district.

Quicquel said that statements for the municipal taxes would not be ready until a later date, explaining that much of the city's new property had not been valued for this year as yet.

Lovelace said that the same discounts on state and county taxes that have prevailed the past several years would be in effect again this year. A 3 per cent discount will be given on payments made during the month of October, 2 per cent discount during November, and 1 per cent during December, he explained. "These discounts apply to state and county taxes only," Collector Lovelace emphasized.

Quicquel said that no discounts would be allowed on school and city taxes. "The statements for the city and the school districts are for the net amounts," he said.

All taxes are due and payable after October 1st. But they do not become delinquent until February 1st of next year.

Details of awarding the second Hudson automobile to some lucky person were completed early this week and announcement is being made in The Tribune today.

With ten merchants of Texico-Farwell and Clovis cooperating, the second car in successive years will be awarded on Saturday, Jan. 3, 1953, with the award taking place at the Farwell football field.

The model of the car, yet to be determined, is being furnished by the Hardage Hudson Company, local Hudson dealers of this city, and nine additional merchants are assisting in the huge event that is calculated to draw many hundreds of people to this city on the day the car is given away.

This will be the second event of this kind to be conducted here. Last year, a brand new Hudson Hollywood Coupe was given away, with Mrs. Earl Moore of Earth driving off the attractive prize, valued at around $3000.

The prize has been made possible by an accumulated advertising fund due the local Hudson agency the past year by their sales record for the year. Rather than take this fund as credit to himself, Walter Hardage has chosen to allow the credit to go to his community as a good-will builder for the co-operating businessmen.

The time of making the award has been set at 4 o'clock p.m., Texas time, and will take place at that time regardless of weather conditions. The only condition is that the winner must be present to claim the award. There are no other obligations.

A public-address system will be set up at the football field in order that all announcements may be heard throughout the vast throng expected to be on hand.

Cooperating merchants of Texico-Farwell and Clovis, where details of the award may be obtained, are:

Lone Star Equipment Co., Clovis; Kemp Lumber Co., Farwell; Rose Drug & Gift Shop, Farwell; Hardage Hudson Co., Farwell; The Furniture Mart, Texico; Ray Mears Produce, Farwell; Pop Spurlin Service Station, Farwell; Furniture Mart, Clovis; Aldridge Insurance Agency, Farwell; Bradshaw's Grocery & Market, Farwell.

Nominating Committee Named by Farm Bureau

Directors of Parmer County Farm Bureau met Monday night at Rhea. Committeemen were named for nomination of 1953 officers. The committee consists of Earl Stevenson, chairman, J. J. McDonald, Hadley Reeve, Vernon Symcox and Paul Koeltzow.

Scheduled for election are a president, vice-president and three directors whose terms expire.

The Annual County convention will be held in Bovina at a date in November to be announced next week. The resolutions committee was instructed to prepare resolutions from farmer's suggestions to be adopted at the convention and submitted at the State Convention in San Antonio in November.

Present were: Walter Kaltwasser, Vernon Symcox, Melvin Sachs, Carl Schlenker, T. E. Lovett, Joe Menefee, Gene Snell and Raymond Euler.

FAIR BOOSTERS HERE

A bus load of Lubbock's leading businessmen were to visit here at 12:35 today to publicize the Panhandle South Plains Fair, which begins September 29. The Harmonicas, a trio from Reese Air Force Base, were to furnish musical entertainment.

The most general rain to fall in this region in several months was welcomed here the first of the week when a cool front moved in from the northeast, bringing moisture-laden clouds that dumped almost an inch of badly needed moisture over the area.

A check-up early Wednesday revealed that rain gauges located at various points over the county caught from sixty to ninety hundredths of an inch, with the heaviest fall being recorded here in town. Bovina readings ranged from .60 to .75 of an inch, which seems to be in line with most readings over most of Parmer County and Bailey Counties.

The rain began falling here Sunday night in a light, steady downpour that continued intermittently throughout Monday, soaking in the thirsty soil at it descended. Heavily overcast skies continued through Tuesday, topping off with a light shower during the night.

The cool front that brought in the rain also sent thermometer readings down for the lowest readings of the Fall season with a reading of 45 early Tuesday morning. Topcoats, and jackets and sweaters were brought from storage and pressed into service. Fires and furnaces were turned on to afford indoor comfort.

Farmers generally agree that the moisture came too late to be of any material benefit to dry land feed crops and it has also delayed cotton gathering, which was just getting underway.

The moisture has not been sufficient to stimulate wheat sowing on a large scale, although some small patches, particularly on stubble land, are being planted. For the most part, however, summer tilled fields will not be planted until additional moisture is forthcoming.

Meanwhile, farmers are hoping for more moisture in the near future to justify wheat seeding on a large scale, which would afford pasturage for livestock to supplement the short feed yield.

Methodists To Occupy New Building Soon

The Methodist congregation at Oklahoma Lane will occupy its newly converted church building at an early date, it was stated here this week by a member of the official board.

Lee Jones, member of the board, said that they were expecting to occupy the converted building "shortly after the first of the month." The building that has served the congregation for the past several years will be sold and moved off the location according to present plans. Sealed bids for the building have been asked for by Oct. 1.

The Oklahoma Lane Methodist purchased the large brick building, formerly used as the school house in that community, several months ago, and the building has been in the process of remodeling and rearranging for the past few months. The building became obsolete for school purposes when the Oklahoma Lane school district was merged with the Farwell and Bovina districts.

Most of the huge auditorium has been converted into the main sanctuary, with the west end of the auditorium formerly used as a stage, being converted into a fellowship hall. Rooms formerly used as class rooms are to be used for Sunday school rooms.

Practically all of the reconversion work has been completed, and the heating system is now being installed, Jones said.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyde Brewer and boys will leave this weekend for McAllen, Texas, where they will attend the County Clerk's convention, to convene there. The sessions are slated October 2-4.

THESE ARE YOUR Friends & Neighbors

(Fourteenth in a series of informative articles revealing little known facts about well known people in and around Texico-Farwell and nearby communities. Our sole purpose is to promote better acquaintances—in the hope of promoting better friendships.)

County Agent Joe Jones was born on a farm near Ireland, Texas on November 19, 1922, and lived and worked on his dad's farm until he went away to college.

Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones.

After graduation from high school at Evant, Texas, Joe received a basketball scholarship to John Tarleton Junior College in Stephenville and attended classes there for two years, while he took advantage of the scholarship.

Joe then went to the Navy where he entered training for submarine duty. In round figures, the county agent spent about 40 months as a member of Uncle Sam's armed forces. Twenty-two months of that time was spent overseas, where he was a member of submarine squadron No. 10 in the Pacific.

After his discharge from the service, Joe decided to continue his education and entered Texas A & M college at College Station, where he received his BA degree in agriculture in 1948.

After graduation, Jones went to Stamford where he served as assistant county agent for four months. He was then assistant county agent in Lubbock, Texas for 17 months. Then a little over two years ago, Jones moved to Farwell as new county agent for this area. He has been here since that time.

Jones, who is unmarried, resides in the Loyd Cain apartment in south Farwell. He is a member of the American Legion, and works with the 4-H club and farm activities.

Asked about any notable experiences while he was in the service, Jones says, "Oh, nothing ever happened to me." But Jones has become a part of this community in the short time he has been here.

Fifth Graders Have Class Field Trip

The thirty-five members of the fifth grade went on a field trip Tuesday. In science class, they have been studying ornamental trees, shrubs, and flowers suited to this section. Notebooks and pencils in hand, they went to look over the yards of the homes east of the school. They identified more than 20 shade trees and shrubs. Two memorable sights were of the maple trees in J. D. Thomas' yard, and the venerable green ash in the Vinyard yard.

After the tour, the class went to the Coffman house. They had refreshments of pop and cookies. The class truly appreciated the hospitality of Mrs. Coffman, and the assistant hostess, Mrs. Moss.

Fourth Graders Have Many School Interests

"Our room is fragrant with all the lovely flowers that have been brought. All of us appreciate them very much," the fourth grade teacher says.

Children are much interested in the display table, having rocks as examples of non-living things, and reptiles, insects, fish and plants as example of living things.

Congratulations to Jerry McCuan on his tenth birthday Sept. 10. Jerry's mother treated the class with punch and cookies to honor Jerry.

Fourth graders were thrilled to learn they won the attendance prize at PTA meeting, and thank all the parents for attending.

WHAT'S IN A NAME ! ! !

No offense, please. If your name is mentioned in this, please remember that it is personal opinion, No. 18365562. They are all well and good, there is no doubt, but it just strikes this party as funny that people could call their kids such gosh-awful names as: Abner, for instance. This is a Hebrew name, and it means, literally, "father of light." But anyone who would name . . . Just imagine a wife calling her husband in from the field—"Ab-ner! Abner!" See? And then there's Cadwallar, which means "battle arranger." If someone names us that, we can see right away where a battle would be arranged!

Girls have those names, too. For instance, there's Ursula. How on earth could anybody shorten that to a reasonably decent nickname. "Urs," maybe, but what if somebody put a "w" in front of it? And there's Mehetabel and Hepzibah! and Phoebe and Justina. And Octavius and Rudolphus. And Rupert and Hannibal. Ugh!

And give a listen to what some of these names mean!

Calvin means "bald"; Crispus or Crispin—"having curly hair;" Alan means "hound"; Algernon is "whiskered"; Claude means "lame"; Marcus—"hammer"; Rufus means "red-haired."

Abigail—"My father's joy;" Barbara means "strange"; Rosamond means, of all things, "a hore-protector"; Selina is "parsley."

And the combinations of some of these are out of this world. There's Mary Rebecca when Rebecca Mary would separate the "r's" a little bit. And Myrtle Pearl. And Agnes Frances. And Miriam Letitia. And Hortensia Antoinette. This could go on forever.

But we must admit that it is much more interesting than if everyone were named Mary or Suzy or Nancy or Jane or Joe or Bill or Bob or John.

Paul Frederick, principal of Texico Schools, was elected president of the Curry County Schoolmasters association when they met Thursday night at Texico.

Frederick fills the position left vacant by the resignation of Fern Stout, who is now managing his implement store at Broadview.

Other business discussed during the meeting was the softball schedule for the county. Also, umpires were selected for the County Tournament. They were: Powers, Field; Gibson, Clovis; Chitwood, Broadview; Lavendar, Forest; Whitener, Pleasant Hill; Burnett, Rosedale; Sandy, Rosedale; and Stockton, Clovis.

A musical program was presented by the Texico girls' chorus. They sang, "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "At Last."

Mrs. Jimmie Allman was in charge of the meal. Menu included baked ham, candied yams, lima beans, tomatoes rolls, coffee and apple pie.

Farwell Steers Win Over Vega Longhorns

BY JESSE COX

Coming from behind in the fourth quarter after a three-period deficit, the Farwell Steers got their first trophy of the 1952 season Friday night as they defeated the Vega Longhorns 18-14.

The Steer ground game was badly bogged down in the first half of the game, the exceptionally heavy Vega line turning thumbs down on most attempts by the Steers to penetrate it.

The opening minutes of the game were strikingly similar to the manner in which Springlake overpowered the local club two weeks ago. With an impressive show of a planned, methodical ground game, the Longhorns pushed across the first touchdown after five consecutive first downs.

However, scoring came harder for the Longhorns as time went on, and they could not account for any points in the second half.

By way of contrast, Farwell's game picked up considerably in the second half, when they made a touchdown in each quarter. For some time, it appeared that conversions might make the final score different, and in this respect, the Steers were noticeably outclassed.

Attempts to kick, pass, and run over the point-after were all unsuccessful, while both Vega's tries were successfully booted.

Vega topped the locals on first downs making 11 to the 10 made by the Steers; but the Farwell eleven racked up 264 yards rushing and Vega made 208.

The visiting team began the scoring for the night on a handoff play to Skee Price through Farwell's line. The extra point was good, also by Price, giving the visitors a 7 point edge. The Steers seemed to get on their feet somewhat before the end of the period, and Lynn Carpenter ran all the way from Vega's 40 for a touchdown. The conversion was no good, and the opponent's were in the lead a scant, 7-6.

Moving into the second quarter, Vega again went across the line into the end zone, on a unique pass play. The 18 yard pass was caught in the end zone by John Hobbs, who nearly dropped the pigskin, then regained his hold for the second counter. Another kick was again good for a point. Only a few minutes before the half, Farwell lost a chance for a second count, when they received the punt and fumbled on the return play, giving the visitors the ball. Score at halftime was 14-6, with the locals on the bottom half of the tally.

Farwell's second touchdown was made in the third quarter, after a series of hard luck plays by the Longhorns. Vega was penalized five yards on two successive plays for being offside, then the opponent's team fumbled, and Farwell recovered the ball on the 48 yard line. A completed pass to Gene Hardage took the Steers to the 11 yard line, and Eddie Smith made a touchdown on an end run. The conversion was no good. With no more scoring in the third, Vega was still in the lead, 14-12.

The game was cinched by the Steers in the last period, when Lynn Carpenter made his second touchdown of the evening, taking a hand-off through the middle for nine yards. Again the point was no good, and the game ended with a four point lead for the Steers, 18-14.

A meeting of coaches and administrators was slated last night (Wednesday) in Friona, to discuss the 11-B district basketball season, and begin organizational plans for the coming season.

Whirlwinds Win Over Grady Friday, 10-9

Texico's Whirlwinds showed their power again Friday when they came through to win over Grady by a score of 10-9. Anita Brown was pitching them over the plate for the locals. Sue Doolittle hit a triple to bring in the winning run.

The Whirlwinds are working for the traveling trophy which is given to the team that wins the most games during the season.

Friday, September 26, the Texico softball teams will play their last home game of the season against Ranchvale.

Farwell, Vega Scoreless In Junior High Contest, Play at Bovina Thursday

Neither Farwell nor Vega managed to push across a touchdown last Thursday night in a junior high football game held at Vega. The 0-0 game was the season opener for both the Shortorns and the Yearlings.

Coach W. M. Roberts had praise for Dan Hammonds and Jerry Owens, Farwell backs, "did some mighty good running."

The juniors take on a man-sized opponent when they play the Bovina junior team tonight (Thursday) at Farwell field. The visiting team blasted Friona's juniors 27-6 last week. Game time is 7:30.

Reserves seeing action last week included Mitchell Walls, Frankie Coffman, and Sam Pool.

Farwell To Bovina For Non-Con Game

A traditional grid rivalry of long standing will be renewed Friday night when the Farwell Steers and the Bovina Mustangs face each other on the Bovina field.

The Mustangs and the Steers, both fresh from first victories the past week, are expected to be closely matched. Although this will be a non-conference game, it is safe

OUR SPECIAL THIS WEEK
CIGARETTES, per ctn. $1.95

ROSE DRUG & GIFT STORE

to predict that it will be hard-played as has always been true of Farwell-Bovina games.

The Mustangs ended a victory drought over Farwell last year when they banged the Steers to earth 24-18. That was the first 11-man year for Bovina. In 1950, the Mustangs overhauled a six-man squad late in the season to play a 11-man game with Farwell. They narrowly lost that one, 14-13.

There is little statistical comparison of the two teams. Bovina was whipped badly by Melrose in the first game, but so was Farwell by Springlake. The Steers beat Vega 18-14 last week, and Bovina beat Gruver 6-0.

Farwell Outweighed Again Bovina will have a beefy line from all indications, says S. S. Jobs, who is helping coach the Steers. "They'll likely outweigh us pretty much in the line, although I believe their backfield is somewhat lighter."

The Steers, a little bruised after last week's game, will again be at full strength Friday night. Carpenter and Medley, pulled from the Vega game because of injuries, have recovered.

Branscum and Cassidy, troubled with a touch of the flu and colds, probably will be able to play, also.

Farwell, unable to cash in on conversions last week, still plans to kick point-after, according to Jobs. Ronny Dial, Farwell fullback, is converting steadily in practice sessions, Jobs explains.

A heavy scrimmage was held under the lights Tuesday night in preparation for the coming game.

No changes in the Farwell lineups were announced, and the Bovina starting lineup is not available at this time.

Derb Kittrell of Farwell suffered no serious effects when a centipede bit him on the finger the first of the week.

Texico Juniors Win Two Tilts With Center

In a thrilling close softball game, Texico Junior boys won over Center in the last inning of play by a score of 17-16 last week. The Texico junior girls also came out in the lead in their first game of the season, against the Center girls, winning 7-2.

Starting line-up for the boys was: Andrew Jackson, catcher; Rodney Powell, pitcher; Allen Kelly, first base; Weldon Bell, second base; Joe Glaze, third base; Bobby Spears, short stop; Donal Arnold, left field; Leon McDaniel, short field; Manfred Hanneman, center field; and Billy Sparks, right field.

On the team for the girls were: Barbara Caldwell, catcher; Bessie Vaught, pitcher; D'Tanis Caldwell, first base; Sue Reid, second base; Peggy Hasell, third base; Sue Doolittle, short stop; Mary Harriman, left field; Ruth Ann Winkles, center field; and Anita Tharp, right field.

MEET IN DIMMITT

Jack Williams, superintendent of Farwell schools, and W. M. Roberts, principal, attended a district football meeting recently in Dimmitt to check on eligibility blanks and status of eligible players in district schools.

Corn Kernel Muffins

For breakfast, brunch or lunch—here is a menu to please all comers. It's so delicious, nobody believes that it's a "breeze" to make!

Pamper your family with these easy-to-make Corn Kernel Muffins—hot, golden brown and tender. They are so quickly prepared you may wonder why you long ago didn't adopt the Southern practice of making quick breads.

Corn Kernel Muffins have many hidden assets, too—especially when you use enriched flour. Enriched flour contains extra B-vitamins and food iron. And these "extras" are available at no added cost to you.

With Corn Kernel Muffins, bring on baked eggs topped with bacon strips. A good starter is cantaloupe wedges or chilled tomato juice. Don't limit Corn Kernel Muffins and baked eggs to breakfast time. This menu is an easy and "fun" way to entertain at brunch. Serve it with a fruit salad, coffee and assorted cookies for dessert. Buy the cookies at the bakery when time is limited.

Corn Kernel Muffins and baked eggs make a hearty lunch for school children. Accompany with a tossed salad and milk, followed by fresh, sliced peaches and cream.

|----------------------------------|--|
| 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour | 1 egg, beaten |
| 2 teaspoons baking powder | 1/4 cup milk |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | 1 1/2 cups whole kernel corn (fresh or canned) |
| 2 tablespoons sugar | 2 tablespoons melted shortening |

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine egg, milk, corn and shortening. Add to flour mixture. Mix until flour is moistened. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 25 minutes. Makes 12 3-inch muffins.

DON'T LOSE PRECIOUS HARVEST TIME!

It isn't necessary for us to remind you farmers just how precious your harvest time is to you. Now, as never before, men of agriculture realize to what an extent they benefit from a service that they sometimes take nearly for granted — farm delivery of petroleum products. This, of course, has been a free feature of Charles Oil Company for a long time.

It's just another service that Phillips bulk men offer to the public. And too, now more than ever farmers realize how heavily they depend upon a product of uniform quality—Phillips.

Gasoline, oils, heavy lubricants, tires — all these are yours at a moments notice!

THE MANAGEMENT WILL HAVE TWO THINGS IN MIND:

- (A) To give the farmers of this region a good cash market for their grains.
- (B) To also provide them with handy local storage, under the Federal Bonded Warehouse Law.

Mr. G. D. Anderson Jr. of Bovina will serve as general manager of the business.

Thoughts While Not Thinking

BY KAYLA FELTS

The cheer leaders' uniforms are really cute this year, aren't they? And has everybody noticed the new majorette uniforms? They're just like the other, only of different material. Noticed that several of the junior-senior girls have started calling themselves by their middle names or something? We have Tillie and Beatrice, and Pearl and Maude, Gertrude and Tess, Agnes and Inez, and Etcetera. The earring craze seems to be sweeping the county. All the costume jewelry has come out with some really sharp numbers, and the gals are wearing earrings with everthing from their pajamas to blue jeans. Everyone knows that girls usually plan on what to wear to school the next day. But I didn't know boys did. The other day in the study hall, for instance, I heard a group of boys planning to wear cover-alls or something the next day. There are only two complaints about the new building that I have heard registered to any extent. No gum!! And the halls are too slick and waxed to do any fast traveling. This is the first year in a long time where the HS students are science minded to any extent. But go down the halls after second or third period and the kids are "H2SO4-ing" and "Protoplasm-ing" and everything else. They all really seem to enjoy it, and are learning something different for a change. And a mortician is supposed to talk to a group of them in the near future. Guess most of you have read that article in the Amarillo Daily. News where the Russians claim that they invented baseball. Wonder if they have the spirit and sis-boom-rah fight that we put into it. And wonder if they even care who wins the pennant this year? The article said that old and "Crippled" ball-players (crippled because of the bloody roughness of the game) were thrown out into the streets to starve. Did they hear of a fellow by the name of Joe Di Maggio? Pins and people amount to very little if they lose their heads. Man's interest in woman's knees rises and falls with the breeze.

Farwell Band Begins Activities For Year

This year, the Farwell High band is going to be very busy. It is planned at the present time, that the Band will play and attend all football games this season. They will participate in the parade at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, and ENMU homecoming Nov. 1, 1952. The band performed at half time last Friday night during the game between the Steers and Springlake. They marched onto the field playing the W.M.B. March. At the 50-yard line, they broke ranks and formed a compass with the majorettes as the needle. As the needle pointed east, the band played "Sidewalks of New York," south, "Swanee River;" west, "Home on the Range," north, "Jingle Bells." Band officers for this year are: captain, Howard Jenkins; 1st lieutenant, Dick Felts; 2nd lieutenant, Lavon Jones; Staff sergeant, Dudley Hughes; quartermaster, Don Gerles; librarian, Elaine Magness; secretary, Lavoyda Billington; reporter, Gloria Dial. Majorettes for this year are: Betty Billingsley, Darlene Sprawls, Glenna Davis, Shirley Smith, Ann Whitely and Jerri Allison. Kayla Felts will resume her position as drum major. The girls are very proud of their new wool gabardine uniforms, and wish to thank Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Jamison, and Mrs. Allison for making the skirts and slacks, the reporter says. The number in the band dropped this year since Nancy Aldridge, Gloria Sanders, Barbara Jacks, Leroy Williams, Jerry Dee Owens, and two graduates, Marcia Foster and Rose Hines won't be with the group. Kathryn Pullam, a new student, brings the total enrollment up to forty-seven. The following students celebrated birthdays this month: Dennis Raney, Ted Magness, Laverna Christian, Agnes Kriegel, Ima Jean McKillip, Joe Roberts, Don Pool, Verna Mae Black, Phillip Cassidy.

Keeth And Snelgrove Join Freshman Class

Thelma Louise Keeth from Fort Townson, Oklahoma, and Bernadean Snelgrove from Ranchvale, N. M. are the two welcome additions to the freshman class. The class has an enrollment of 30. The first meeting was held Sept. 8 and students organized for the present school year. The following officers were elected: Glenna Davis, president; Gerald Hardage, vice president; Gerald Hardage, vice president; Truitt Hardage, reporter; and James Norton, secretary. Herman Milford and Miss Jessie Condon were selected for sponsors. Class colors are white and yellow. Class flower is the rosebud, and class parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Schell. Ten boys are going out for football, 10 members are in the pep squad, 11 members are in the pep squad. All the girls are FHA members, and 13 boys plan on participating in FFA. Nine are active 4-H members. On Sept. 17, a special meeting was called with Glenna Davis, president, presiding. Selected were: favorite boy, Eddie Smith; Favorite girl, Betty Routh; class song, "Rack up the Balls," queen of the year, Barbara Ham; king of the year, Troy Christian; prince, James Norton; princess, Shirley Atchley. The first part will be held early in October.

Seniors Receive Rings, Elect Administrators

"Rings are being shown to all students by the seniors of the Farwell High School. They were so proud of them and had waited so long to get them, they could not resist a little showing off," a reporter says. The following officers were elected: president, Ted Magness; vice president, Lynn Carpenter; secretary, Ruby Kittrell; reporter, Elanda White; sponsors, W. M. Roberts and Jack Williams. Student Council—Darla Doshier, Dennis Raney, Ted Magness; class parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Dial, Mr. and Mrs. Everette Christian. All the seniors had their pictures taken Sept. 18. At the second senior meeting on Sept. 17, the following were elected: queen, Ruby Kittrell; king, Lynn Carpenter; princess, Darla Doshier; prince, Jesse Cox; class favorites, Elanda White and Howard Jenkins. Class dues are to be $2 a semester. Sophs Plan Hayride Last Of September

The sophomore class elected class officers, sponsors, room parents, and representatives for student council recently. Elected for the offices were: president, Dick Felts; vice president, Don Gerles; secretary-treasurer, Betty Billingsley; reporter, Loretta Stancell; sponsors, Robert Morton and Mrs. Otis Prescott. Class parents are Mr. and Mrs. Branscum and Mr. and Mrs. McDorman. Student Council representatives are Dick Felts and Mona McDorman. The sophomore class held a second class meeting on Wednesday Sept. 17, to elect their queen for the queens race. They are: queen, Betty Billingsley; king, Don Pool; princess, Lavoyda Billington; prince, James Roberts. The sophomore class also elected their class favorites: favorite girl, Mona McDorman; favorite boy, Gene Hardage. It was decided the Sophomore class would have a hay ride on Saturday, September 27. (Cont. on last page, this section) Tribune Ads get Results

Occupation Can Have Bearing On Accidents

CHICAGO—If you drive a car your chances of being involved in an accident may depend on how you earn your living. The reason is that you drive more in some jobs, and when you drive more, you have more chances for an accident.

"Accident Facts," the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, which is just off the press, lists the following classifications of workers and their percentages of traffic accidents:

Professional and business men, 9% fatal accidents; all accidents 10%. Farmers and farm laborers, fatal accidents, 14%; all accidents 9%. Clerical, sales, etc., fatal accidents, 5%, all accidents 10%; commercial drivers (including traveling salesmen) 21%, all accidents 16%; All other workers (excluding domestic servants) 32%, fatal accidents, all accidents, 36%; Housewives and domestic servants, fatal accidents, 5%, all accidents, 7% Military personnel, fatal accidents, 6%, all accidents, 4%; Students, 6% fatal accidents, all accidents, 6%; All others fatal accidents, 2%, all accidents 2%.

Persons classified as "all other workers" (drivers and non-drivers) make up about half of all workers, the council said.

New Polio Aid Granted Texas

AUSTIN—Robert J. Smith, president of Pioneer Airlines and chairman of the Texas 1953 March of Dimes, announced that 63 Texas chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis have received epidemic aid advances for continued patient care in 1952.

He said that through August 30, a total of $774,955.00 was sent by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to the Texas chapters after local March of Dimes funds were depleted.

Chairman Smith, serving the MOD post for the first time, added the during the last week of the 1952 period, nine Texas chapters received $19,300 from NFIP headquarters.

The counties in which the chapters are located are and the sums received are:

Erio, $850; Gonzales, $1,500; Hill, $1,700; Houston, $800; Milam, $2,200; Runnels, $1,300; Smith, $7,500; Wilbacy, $1,850; Zavala, $1,600.

Besides the cash aid, according to Chairman Smith, additional equipment was sent by the National Foundation during the last week in August. This included 11 respirators, making a total of 125 respirators supplied Texas by the NFIP this year.

TRIPLE-THREAT

CHICAGO—This sweater set, according to fashion forecasters, will make fall headlines. Imported from France by Marshall Field & Company, it shows the new trend toward sweaters trimmed with jewels, beads or fur. More than that, this sweater is a triple threat, with matching gloves and earrings. It leads the way to new fashion importance for sweaters.

Happenings at Friona

MRS. OSCAR BAXTER, SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Marguerite Meyer Tells More Of Trip Abroad

Marguerite Sheffed Meyer of Boston, Mass. writes to her parents, the Reverends Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer of the Congregational Church of Friona, Texas.

Dear dad and mother,
We—Jane and I—have had our farewell dinner together. We had it at a small French restaurant in the Latin quarter of Paris, France. I will be leaving Paris within a few hours on the final lap of my wonderful trip and Jane will within an hour, be boarding her plane for Oslo, Norway. Our final hours preceding our dinner were spent in the Louvre, that greatest of the great art galleries where we saw many of the masterpieces of the centuries including Mona Lisa by Da Vinci and the Venus de Milo.

Paris is so beautiful and such a gay place. Everything that's written or said about it seems to me to be right. It is a fabulous city and I could stay a very long time and never tire. It is the most exciting place I've ever been.

We went to the L'Arc de Triomphe; as you know the "unknown soldier of France" is interred there which adds to his luster as a most historic spot in Paris. It figures in every great event of Paris and has for many years. Lovely avenues spread from it in every direction, broad and tree lined.

We went through Notre Dame Cathedral. It is truly breath-taking. The outside is very ornate; many statues, and gargoyles and flying buttresses; just like Victor Hugo describes them in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." Inside, the stained glass windows are indescribable, the colors are magnificent. The nave, thought tremendous, is done with the utmost simplicity and the effect is very awesome.

We walked through the flower market, saw the river Seine, which isn't very broad, it sure doesn't get its fame from its width. The book stalls, famous the world over, were very interesting. They are along the bridge. The old houses of brick, mellowed by time, along the old crooked narrow streets are most interesting.

We met a sociology professor from Leige, Belgium on the train coming into Paris and he introduced us to a little of the night life of Paris. We went to the Place Pigalle and Montmartre. People there swarm the streets all night long.

Before Paris, we had a night and a day in Brussels, Belgium where we took a very thorough sight-seeing trip. It is a beautiful old city. Most famous is its Grand Place, a square surrounded by ancient buildings including the town hall. The day before that, we were in Cologne, Germany, the famous Cathedral which is magnificent, is about all that's left of the grand old city. We took a boat ride on the River Rhine and here we saw the real spectacle of the ravages of war.

Nine tenths of Cologne was destroyed, and there are blocks and blocks of skeleton buildings and houses standing there like ghosts of a wonderful past. Buildings, collections of inestimable cultural value are just heaps of rubble. They point out with controlled voices where once a hospital stood or a museum or an art gallery. It just makes you sick to see these things.

The Ruhr Valley was most interesting. It is the "Pittsburgh of Germany." It has been rebuilt and the allies are making ammunition there at a "mile a minute speed."

I liked Germany very much for it is the place where they make you feel most at home. One is fully aware of the infiltration of German life in America. Germans and Germany are far bigger than Nazism.

Hamburg, compared to Cologne, wasn't damaged at all, although the tremendous harbor from which we took a boat, was demolished once it is largely restored. It is a beautiful city. The people there weren't hostile by any manner of means although many of them had reason to be.

Stockholm is a jewel of a city, untouched by any scars of war. It is a clean, airy town, built on many islands, very sophisticated in many ways and very self contained.
I have traveled every way, planes, boats, buses, trains, in sleeping cars and even first, second and third class. I've crammed so many experiences into my trip that it will take me a very long time to unravel them all, but I do feel them all profoundly and in the end it isn't the sights you've seen, or the number of countries you have visited, but the experience itself that counts. Long after I've forgotten which thing I saw where, I will remember the whole trip. Seeing beautiful things helps you to know that all such things are related and part of a whole. Whether it is a flower in the market, or a new Swedish glass, or the delicate line of the flying buttress on Notre Dame. I guess I'm saying that if you are open to it, traveling can help you to live more fully and so much more completely.

Much Love, Mar.

Friona Church To Be Host To Visitors Soon

The Reverend George E. Meyer chairman of the program committee for the Central Association of the Central South Conference of Congregational Christian Churches for its session to be held in the Union Congregational Church of Friona, states that the opening session of the conference is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. Tuesday Oct. 7th, when the moderator of the association, Clark Botkin of Lawton, will call the conference into session. Friona Tops Morton On Last Period Score

The Friona Chiefs and Morton Indians were closely matched when they met for a football game Friday night. Friona kicked off to the Indians and recovered their own kick, but the glory was short-lived when they fumbled the first two plays and were forced to punt.

Neither team could get rolling on offense in the first half, as both kept a heavy defense.

Friona received the kickoff in the second half and began a continuous drive down the field. Using off-tackle plays most of the time, the Chiefs moved all the way to the one yard line, only to lose their rabbit's foot and failed to get the pigskin into the end zone.

Play continued on Morton's territory, then D. O. Robason of Friona scored off tackle from the 12 yard line, about midway in the fourth quarter. David Patterson kicked the extra point to leave the score at 7-0 when the final whistle blew.

Ten years ago, this Company was serving 38,000 telephones in New Mexico. Since then the number has tripled! Back of these telephones is a vast amount of equipment — and during this period of greatest growth, the price of everything we need to provide service has gone up.

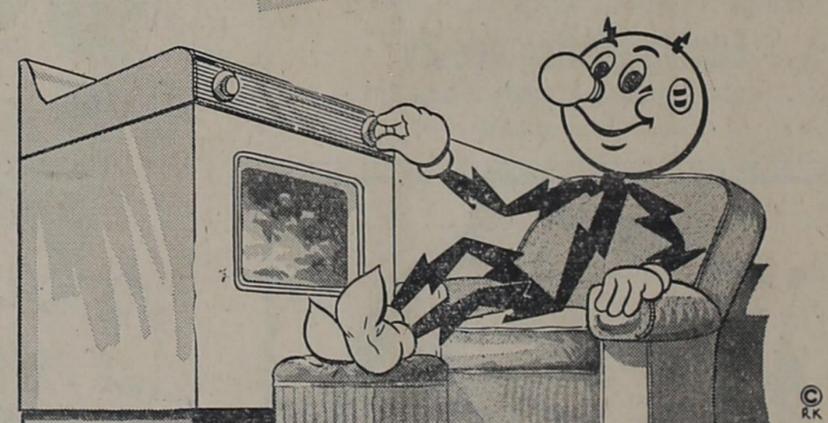

With higher wage costs, higher taxes, higher prices for materials, we face the same problem you do — inflation. We, like any other business, must receive enough for our service to cover our higher costs, with enough left over to pay a fair return to the investors who have made expansion of your service possible.

AN EXPLANATION ABOUT THIS EDITION

This is the Bovina Area Irrigation Development Edition. You may want to know what this means, or how the idea began. This edition was brought about through the combined efforts of a number of businessmen and others interested in letting the people know about Bovina and the potentialities of the rich agricultural land that surrounds it.

The idea sprang from a section on irrigation taken from the Parmer County Fair Edition of The State Line Tribune. The Bovina area received prominent mention in this edition, and as a result, numerous people commented it would be wise for additional information to be circulated concerning the area.

So, the project was "talked up" for several days, and businessmen and farmers who wished to participate were encouraged to express their ideas and convictions on the subject. Thus grew this special Irrigation Development Edition.

A. L. Glasscock from Greenville, Texas, expressed the opinions of many other far-sighted people in and around Bovina when he said, "I have never in my life seen such a fertile, undeveloped section for irrigation anywhere else."

Just as he is enthusiastic, talk to an owner of one of the new gins that has been built in the past several months. One owner was asked why he did not put his gin in at XXXXX, which is the center of a cotton-producing area under fully-developed irrigation.

"The reason," he said simply enough, "is because the future promises so much more out here. Whereas XXXXX has developed about 85 percent of its irrigation potential, this Bovina area is only developed to an extent of about 30 percent. However," he expressed firmly, "the people are waking up, and development will proceed at a rapid pace in the near future."

It is because of the faith of men like him who KNOW what is in store for the Bovina area that this special edition is published. The businessmen and farmers of Bovina want you to know about the tremendous agricultural potentialities that lie untouched as yet.

All material published in this four-page edition was assimilated and paid for by businessmen and farmers whose names appear on advertisements. They are confident any claim they make with respect to agricultural production can be substantiated.

BOVINA AREA THOUGHT TO BE BEST UNDEVELOPED IRRIGATION LAND IN STATE

Parmer County is leading all counties of the Panhandle in the development of irrigation, Bovina businessmen and farmers are convinced.

During the last three years the farmers of Parmer County have awakened to the fact that there is an apparently unlimited amount of water underneath their land and that this water can be pumped out for irrigation and unlimited agricultural possibilities are at their fingertips.

During these past three years many wells have been developed to flow 800 to 1500 gallons of water per minute. At the present writing there are dozens of wells under contract being drilled immediately within a few miles of Bovina, and a potential 100 or more to be developed by spring. The wells which have been developed during the past two and three years have paid the largest dividends of any industry in West Texas. Many have paid 100 percent of cost the first year and nearly all have paid back their cost twice since installed.

Many of these wells have 100 feet of water sand and some have as much as 200 feet of water sand. Some farmers have harvested 100 bushels of grain sorghums per acre each year. Many have harvested 60 to 80 bushels per acre.

The 1951 cotton crop yielded three-fourth to one bale per acre. Some harvested more than one bale per acre. The 1952 crop prospects look as good as 1951. The acreage of cotton which is under irrigation near Bovina and Bovina trade territory is estimated at some 14,000 acres.

This has opened the field for two new gins of the latest type and model that money can buy with a potential good for two more gins next year.

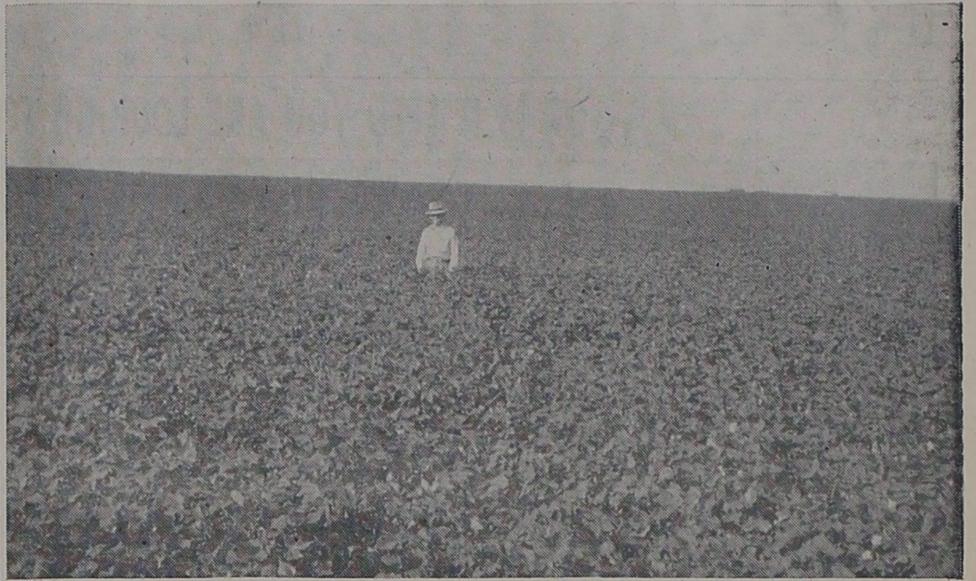

The cost of irrigating these row crops has been low compared with the dividends received. With the right kind of supervision one 8 inch well will furnish sufficient water with which to irrigate 160 to 200 acres of row crop.

Also alfalfa is paying larger dividends than row crop—or $150 to $250 per acre.

These irrigation well pumps are being powered by electricity, butane gas, diesel fuel, and natural gas, butane being used most extensively.

A check has been made on wells on which the pumps are set at 240 feet. They deliver 1000 gallons of water per minute, with the engine burning seven to eight gallons of butane per hour.

IS IT COTTON YOU WANT?

LOOK AT IT—stretching out over flat, fertile land until it disappears from sight! This cotton field, located five miles east of Bovina, is typical of the crops possible with the development of irrigation. J. W. Wright owns the crop shown here.

The crop potential of the fertile land surrounding Bovina is almost incredible. Virtually all feed crops, cotton, wheat, any legume, and even truck gardening is not only possible, but actually in practice. In addition, soy beans, sugar beets, castor beans, and other crops are coming on up through the development stages and promise to yield a steady income to farmers.

It is true that irrigation in Parmer County and the Bovina territory is new and many farmers have not used the best methods of irrigation and cultivation for the best results. However, it is only natural that as time goes on, the farmers will learn and realize that better methods will be much more profitable.

Here is what has been possible with the addition of irrigation to land around Bovina:

Last year A. L. Carter harvested 95 to 100 bushels of grain sorghum per acre. Mr. Carter expects to average 100 bushels per acre this year. Last year another farmer harvested 147 bales of cotton from 160 acres under cultivation. Some parts averaged more than one bale per acre.

Stories like these are not exaggerated. They are commonplace. Where a farmer has made a decision to invest some money in an irrigation pro-

IRRIGATION SUCCESS FOR CATTLE RAISING, ALSO

Irrigation in conjunction with cattle raising and feeding is proving to be very profitable, as proven by Triplet & Pringle Cattle Company. This company has a ranch eight miles northwest of Bovina on which they run cattle on irrigated rye and vetch. Cattle which were grazed on rye and vetch an average of 1½ head per acre gained 1¼ pounds per day per head, beginning the month of October ject, in practically every case he has reaped substantial rewards. What is the reason for all this?

The reason is that Parmer County in general and Bovina in particular are moving toward becoming an irrigation capital in the Plains of Texas. The lay of the land is ideal. The fertility of the soil is unquestioned. The irrigation possibilities are unlimited.

Simple arithmetic shows that even with only moderate "luck" a land owner is justified to make almost any size investment he can in irrigated farm land.

There is an irrigation land boom on. No doubt about it.

through next June, or 258 days days or 322 pounds per head or 483 pounds per acre.

To figure 30 cents per pound would be $144.90 per acre gross income. On this same ranch with sweet sudan they grazed through summer until frost four head per acre with a gain of two pounds per head per day, or a gain of eight pounds per day per acre, and at 30 cents per pounds would be $2.40 per day per acre.

This has proven to be more profitable than the average permanent pasture. This firm finds that the soil around Bovina is ideal for this kind of operation. They keep an average of 650 cattle on two irrigated farms.

They also have feed lots located in Bovina of about 3000-head capacity and feed cattle to grade choice and sell at home and to Southwest packers.

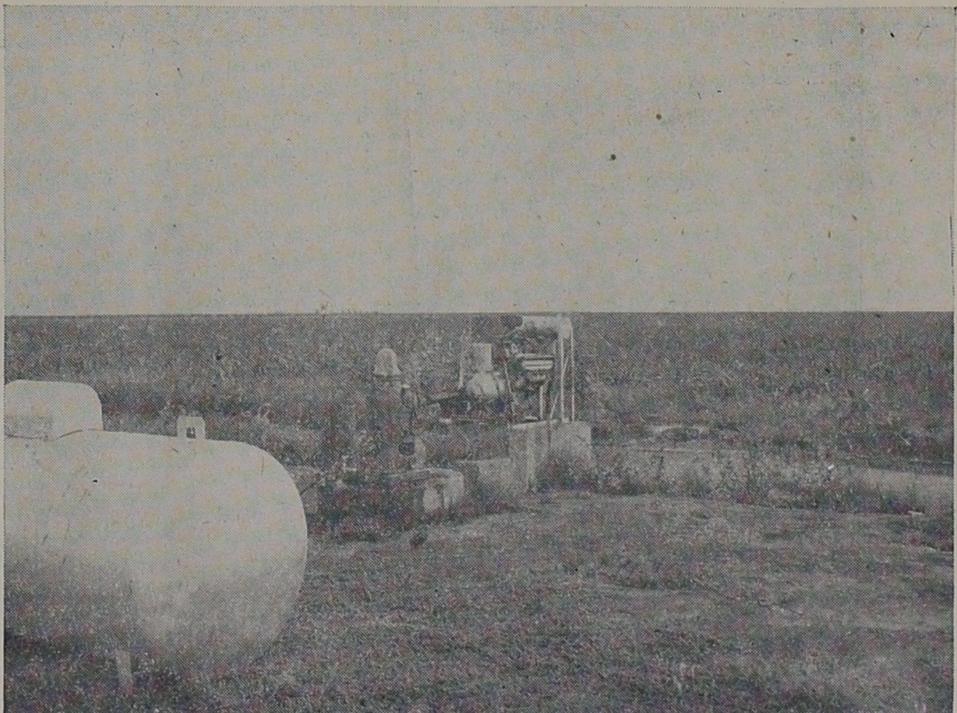

Benjamin Franklin introduced the broom to America.

A draft is a written order to pay; a note, a written promise.

This Bovina Farming Area Has It!

Now, I'm in the real estate business and I HAVE to know what the land is capable of producing. Well, let me say this: the Bovina Agricultural Area has it!

Here is a good example of how real estate values in and around Bovina have increased tremendously in the past few years. In the picture at the right, O. W. Rhinehart sold this farm for $66 per acre in 1949. This year, the farm re-sold for $150 per acre. The well pictured was not included in either transaction. It was added only recently. Think how much more the land is worth NOW.

Since time began, the conquest for land has been the foremost consideration of mankind. Columbus sailed the seas to discover a new continent in the conquest for land. Early pioneers settled America in the conquest for land. Almost every war that has been fought on land or sea has been for conquest of land. The turmoil today has as its basic background, one point first and foremost: the quest for land.

Wealth, position, recognition, and even social standing have been since early days reckoned by a great measure by land ownership. The Old South, its old time planters of which history has shed its illustrious past, the pioneers of Texas, and cattle barons with their vast domains, have all been measured in acres of land.

Home ownership pays in more ways than dollars and cents. It pays in a feeling of something owned by the family, whether a humble cottage, a well improved farm, or a ranch covering vast acres, there is a spirit of appreciation—a pride of ownership—something that is mine, or yours; something not measured by the dollar alone, but something that breeds the spirit of more respect from the community, from the neighbors, from the fellow man toward the home owner, or the land owner.

We take pride in rendering a constructive service to those in quest of land today. No more land is being made, but the increase in population continues. No better time for land investment has been known in the history of the past than today. The laggard has never been known of his own accord to progress. No better time to act than now!

We have here on the Plains of West Texas and especially in Parmer County, the only spot in the United States where you can buy a nice smooth level, fertile block of land and at the same time have all the water you will ever need within two hundred feet of where you want it to irrigate with. We know of some localities that have invested millions of dollars developing irrigation projects. Not so in Parmer County. Nature developed it for us free.

We have dedicated our office to the proposition of rendering a valuable service to both the seller and buyer by searching throughout the community for property that is for sale, thereby rendering a one-stop service for the buyer whose privilege it is to survey more property for sale in our office than he could possibly find by weeks of driving. This same service also applies to the seller. We invite both the seller and the buyer to use our services for the mutual benefit of all.

This is another example of this area's amazing productivity. Here, C. R. Elliott, Bovina businessman, stands in his son's field of hegari. Notice the full, handsome heads on the feed. Bass Elliott, owner of the crop, and C. R. estimate the expected yield to be 100 bushels per acre. DEAR SIR:

At your request I am giving you the below report, analysis, and statistics, also comments which I have compiled from Parmer County in comparison with other parts of the country.

As you know, my business is making reports for use of individuals and firms and I specialize in reports on agriculture. This report is an overall report and is not always 100 percent correct. Some of it is personal opinion.

In the beginning, let me say that you people of Parmer County are located in one of the best garden spots of Texas. You have untold undeveloped resources and many that you do not seem to know about and many of you do not seem to be concerned.

You are located in a territory which has the most fertile soil and the biggest percent tillable land of any place I know not developed.

You have, as far as I know, the most bountiful supply of irrigation water, and it is amazing how quickly and easily this water can be made to flow across your farms.

Example: I passed through your community on a Monday and saw a well drilling machine pulling into a man's farm. The following Thursday I passed this same farm and saw water flowing at the rate of 1000 gallons per minute.

You have thousands of acres of nice level and rich farming land which does not have wells. However, it has only been a few short years since your community was in pasture land, at least the majority of it.

There are many thousands of farmers and others living in different parts of Texas and elsewhere who would want a chance to live on and irrigate a 160 acre farm in your county. I note that many of the large ranches and farms are breaking up into smaller tracts and as this continues then the large land owners come to realize that it is profitable for them to turn loose a part of their holdings to be developed by smaller farmers.

In turn, the farm land which these large land holders retain will be much more valuable.

As I see the situation: the irrigation development which already has come to pass has increased the market value of your land 50 to 100 percent. With large tracts breaking up into 160 and 320 acre tracts with irrigations wells being drilled, leaves Bovina with a potential never before dreamed of.

I note that you have a new gin about complete at Bovina and you will find that this gin is the most modern which money can buy. Also, you have another gin just east of Bovina near or in the Hub community which is the latest and very best.

With reasonable cotton crop harvest this fall it is my opinion that you will have at least two more gins within your territory in another year.

These gins will be a source of inspiration to farmers to drill more wells and plant more cotton, which, with near present prices of cotton, is bound to make you a better town, schools, and churches.

As the demand increases for more cotton acreage, more irrigation wells will be put into operation and as time goes on many of these irrigated farms will be planted to grain sorghums, alfalfa, sudan, soy beans, permanent pasture, and many other crops not even through of at this time.

I note that many of your farmers are trying to irrigate too many acres and as a result they are not realizing as much profit as they would with less land well cultivated and irrigated at the right time.

These farmers will profit more by leasing a part of their land to good farmers who are crying for a chance to get started irrigating some land in your community. I find that 90 percent of your land owners with and without wells, are agreeing that the irrigation wells are very profitable.

It has been proven many times that summer following your farm land in your territory is very profitable, and also storing moisture by irrigation has likewise proved very profitable.

Example: during the spring of 19-50 one man irrigated grain sorghums one time in order to get a stand. In the same field and same rows on part not irrigated proved to be a near failure, while the part which was irrigated yielded about 3000 lbs. per acre.

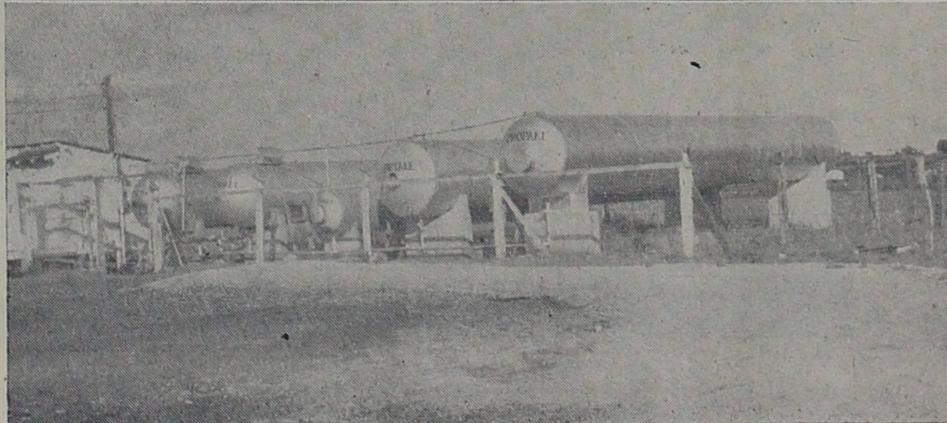

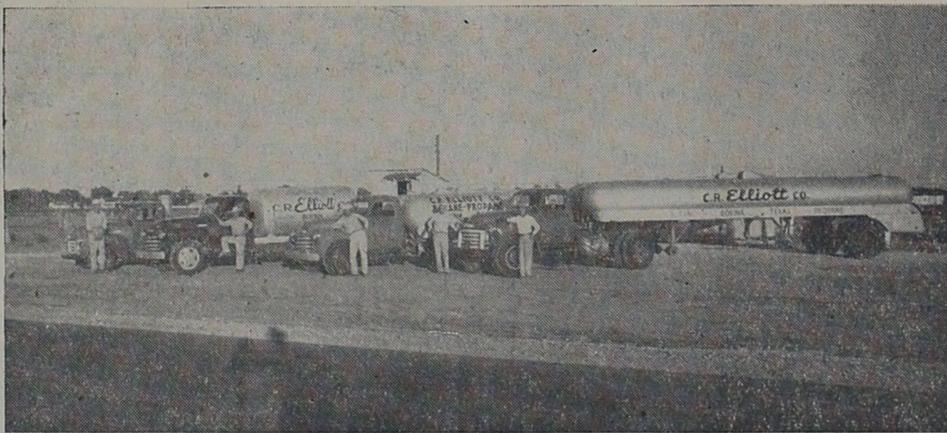

In this same field all planted to grain sorghum in 1951 the yield was about 2500 lbs. per acre where irrigated during 1950 and the balance of this field near nothing.

In other words, that part of this field which was irrigated only one time yielded about 5500 lbs. per acre in two years, while the other part only yielded about 2000 lbs. per acre in the same two years.

This goes to prove that with the right kind of supervision and plowing, water can be stored over a period of time which as you know, is unusual for any country.

Yes! We Believe in The Potentialities of Bovina!

Of course we believe in Bovina! Bovina is our "bread and butter." And we know the future of this fertile area is assured by the coming development of irrigation. As this fine area expands, so will we, to keep pace with progress. In the picture above, you see our "on the ball" truck fleet at the top, and our modern plant in the lower section.

YOU CAN COUNT US IN ON BOVINA, TOO!

Yes indeed! We've been here in Bovina for a long time now, and we have to admit that we've never seen anything like the activity and optimism that our people are displaying at the present time.

If you don't think the irrigation possibilities don't affect a man in the grocery business, you're all wrong! We are banking on a better future for Bovina, because we know it's bound to come.

Vernon Estes, Jimmy Charles Both Convinced Irrigation Worthwhile

Vernon Estes and Jimmy Charles are neighbors. They both farm about six or seven miles northwest of Bovina. As is true of a good many neighbors, they both have the same convictions on a lot of things.

For instance, both of them are convinced that irrigation is profitable. And to the doubter, one look at either of their farms is sure to convince him, too.

In the lower photograph is Vernon with his crop of Atlas Sargo. At least, it's Vernon's best hat. No, he wasn't down on his knees, and he isn't undersized. The sargo is just that high.

Estes figures the sargo will make 20 tons per acre. At $11 per ton, it sounds worthwhile. He planted the crop June 15, watered it four times. He has 400 acres of irrigated row crop, and 200 acres of wheatland under irrigation. This acreage is watered with two eight-inch wells.

In the upper half of the picture is a field of Caprock Milo belonging to Jimmy Charles. He expects a yield of 4000-5000 pounds per acre after frost.

Charles pre-watered in April, planted in June, and has watered the crop three times. To help things along, he applied 60 pounds of anhydrous ammonia per acre.

He has one eight-inch well with a Caterpillar diesel engine, but plans to install another well this winter sometime. He is well satisfied with performance and result of irrigation.

To emphasize how he feels about farming under irrigation, Charles said pointedly, "Boy, if it wasn't for irrigation, I'd leave this country."

IN A FUTURE

PROMPTED US TO BRING A NEW GIN TO BOVINA

In selecting a gin for this section, we have chosen a 4-90, all-electric Murray and Hardwick-Etter plant, complete with burr machine and dryers of the latest type. We are capable of giving you an extra good sample and turn-out.

We want to invite the cotton growers of this and adjoining counties to come in and inspect our plant, and compare our equipment and bring your cotton to us with the assurance that our equipment, backed by a thorough knowledge of the ginning business, will give you complete satisfaction.

I think so much of Bovina's possibilities that I went out and bought another drug store. How's that for confidence?

You may know it—or maybe you don't—but we'd like to remind you that a new Gin such as the one we have just installed represents an investment of considerable size.

What we are trying to say is that it is necessary for us to know that there will exist a demand for such new industry as we represent, before we can justify our locating here just south of The Hub community.

We are looking forward to seeing great things happen to this part of the country, especially in regard to the potential cotton producing capacity of this area.
