FROM THE HOPPER By HOP

The most shocking news that has been broadcast over the Plains country in recent years was the announcement Wednesday morning of the death of Gene Howe (Old Tack) publisher of the Amarillo News and Globe-Times.

Howe had been a resident of Amarillo for only fifteen years, but he left his imprint on the people of the Plains as possibly no other individual, considering his length of residence.

A great and good man has gone!

I was thrilled when Elbert Landrum began the construction of a new home just across the street from me until I began looking for a place to dump trash, dead cats and what-have-you.

For twenty years it afforded me a place to pile my surplus trash for burning. It was handy too, for the kids of the neighborhood to have a place to dig caves and cellars.

Even progress has its disadvantages!

The Old Woman and I got home Sunday from a most delightful trip to Eagle Nest and Red River, where we spent the greater part of a full week, sleeping underneath three to five blankets and enjoying a complete rest.

We have been frequenting Red River for the past twenty-five years or more, and we always look forward to the time when we can go again. It's a great place to get away from the heat and relax in the cool mountain air; fish if you care to, and just enjoy life generally.

We always pick Tall Pine Camp, located at the foot of Red River pass, for our hanging-out place. Operated by the congenial Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamilton, who always make every effort to see that their guests are comfortable and happy. Yes, Tall Pine is still our favorite stopping place in spite of the numerous other desirable places in the valley.

Due to high water along the stream, occasioned by the heavy snows of last winter, fishing was not up to the usual standard, and it is predicted that it will be the latter part of July before the streams will subside sufficiently for good fishing.

But who wants to fish when the sleeping is so good!

Fishing was also poor at Eagle Nest, generally regarded as one of the hot spots of the state, with nobody being able to give a satisfactory explanation. The lake, which ran almost dry last fall, has refilled to about two-thirds its normal stage.

Tourist court operators in the northern part of New Mexico will readily admit that if it were not for the Texans, they would probably be in some other kind of business.

Fully eighty percent of the cars seen along the highways and mountain trails bear Texas tags, with a pretty liberal sprinkle of Oklahoma cars. The rest are from almost every state in the union.

Young men, starting out on their own, need to be reminded that they cannot "get by" simply because they had an honest and trustworthy father in front of them.

Which is another way of saying that you cannot ride on the coat tail of a deceased father, who always could be relied on to carry out any obligation. Simply because you are John Doe's son, does not give you a license to flagrantly disregard your obligations and promises.

Father was an honorable and upright citizen, worthy of every trust placed in him. Some young men that I know would be doing well to follow his example rather than trying to ride on his reputation.

Merchants have a peculiar habit of frowning and letting out a big grunt when they see some young men drive by in a brand new automobile. They can't help but think of that long past due account they have on their books.

Local Woman's Mother Passes In Amarillo

Mrs. Jim O. Mayes, 58, mother of Mrs. Ray Sudderth of this city, passed away June 10 in Amarillo after an illness of about a year. Services were held at Blackburn-Shaw in Amarillo. Attending from Parmer were Mr. and Mrs. Sudderth and their son and his wife and daughter, the Bob Sudderths.

Mrs. Mayes is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Sudderth and Ila Faye Johnson of Abilene; and a son, Ralph Burt of Morton.

Edith Ann, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitz Walling, accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Rob Lindsay, home Thursday. The Lindsay family reside in Houston.

No Water Shortage Here Evident As Yet, But . . .

John S. Potts, Bovina Pioneer, Laid to Rest

Funeral services for John Stephen Potts, 79-year-old pioneer resident of Bovina, were held at the Bovina Baptist Church last Thursday afternoon, Rev. M. D. Durham, pastor, officiating.

Under the direction of the Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford, burial took place in the Bovina cemetery. Pallbearers were W. E. Williams, Reagan Looney, Joe Wilson, A. B. Wilkerson, Bedford Caldwell, and Aubrey Brock.

He had been in failing health for the past two years and his death was due to cancer of the bladder. He died at the family home in Bovina.

Nov. 27, 1904, he was married to the former Sarah Jane Collett at Valley View in Coke County. From there the couple moved to Parmer County, coming here in 1913 and settling at Black. Two years later they moved to Bovina, where they have resided since that time.

During the period from March 1, 1915 until June 1, 1923, he served as section foreman for the Santa Fe, during which time the first heavy steel rails were laid through this section. Due to his accurate bookkeeping ability, his books always balanced to a penny with those of the Santa Fe officials.

For four years he served as tax assessor of Parmer County, and compiled the first tax rolls of the Bovina Independent School District in 1928. He was a self-educated man with very little schooling in his early years. For a number of years he was teacher of the Men's Bible Class of the Bovina Baptist Church, where he had also served as an active deacon for many years. He was ordained a deacon in Comanche County in 1911.

Potts was born in Pottsville, Texas, March 16, 1873, the son of William and Carolyn Potts.

He is survived by his wife at Bovina; one daughter, and four sons: Mrs. A. A. Kennedy, Amarillo; Bonnie and Garland of Amarillo; John A. of Shamrock; and Herbert of Farwell; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Other survivors include the following brothers and sisters: A. C. Potts, Brownwood; A. E. Potts, Vallejo, Calif.; Mrs. Will Jenkins, Pottsville; and Mrs. Lennie Clayton; half-sisters Mattie Kadiang, Levelland; and Mrs. Bertha Raley, Wichita Falls.

Graveside Services Conducted for Infant

Graveside services for Nancy Gay, two-day-old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Black, were held Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the Oklahoma Lane cemetery, Rev. Vernon Willard, Methodist pastor, officiating.

Nancy Gay was one of twin girls born at Memorial Hospital in Clovis Saturday morning and passed away Sunday night. Besides her parents, she is survived by four sisters, Verna Mae, Phillis, Patricia, and Donna Kay, her twin. Other survivors include her grandmother, Mrs. Ollie Smith, Neosho, Mo.; who has been here the past several weeks.

The Black family came here about a year and a half ago and have resided on the John West farm in the Oklahoma Lane community since that time.

"Whenever the fire whistle blows, cut off your water faucets immediately!"

This firm warning was issued today by V. C. Venable, superintendent of the Texico-Farwell Waterworks, who went on to add, "this even applies to air-conditioners."

Asked about the water situation, Venable replied, "We are having quite a hard struggle keeping the users supplied with water," and he warned serious consequences could result in event a serious fire should break out in the Twin Cities.

Venable said that he had been attending the local water system for five years, "and the water consumption this month is by far the highest I have ever known." Most consumers who usually use only the minimum have used around 10,000 gallons of water during the month of June, he said.

Many of the users, particularly those who are striving to keep their parched lawns alive, are using upwards of 100,000 gallons per month, and many of them average far above that figure, Venable reports after reading meters for this month. One customer consumed 187,000 gallons, he illustrated.

"We are not asking people to begin conserving water; the company is in business to sell water, but caution should be observed in case of fire," he pointed out.

Venable said that the three pumps on as many wells are kept operating at full capacity, but "in spite of this our two tanks are emptied before nightfall every day," he added.

The water superintendent pointed out that Texico-Farwell was more fortunate than many towns in the country who have to depend on the underground supply for their water, and he cited Amarillo as an example, where the water situation is nothing short of desperate.

The combined pumping facilities of the local plant are capable of affording 1500 gallons per minute, and under ordinary circumstances, this amount of water will take care of the needs of the Twin Cities.

The continued hot, dry weather is blamed for the inability of the pumps to keep abreast with the consumption. Storage facilities provide for a total of 260,000 gallons of water in the two storage tanks.

"But I can start the day with both tanks full, and it will all be gone by mid-afternoon," Venable said in explaining the situation that exists.

In Texico, particularly in the north part of town, the water situation is critical. One lady from that part of town called Venable the first of the week and reported that she could not get enough water to prepare her dinner. Venable explained that this situation is due to inadequate mains that serve that part of town. Water users in north Texico can only sprinkle their lawn with an area "about the size of a washtub" on account of the low pressure.

The voters of Texico took steps to remedy this situation in a recent election by voting $12,000 in water improvement bonds, but it probably will be several weeks before all the details incident to a bond election can be carried out and larger mains actually installed.

Venable insisted that tests being made often reveal that there is no indication of failure on the part of the three wells.

"It's just a case of being unable to pump the water into the mains fast enough to meet demand," he concluded.

New Church of Christ Minister Arrives Here

Eugene Sofford, new Church of Christ minister, arrived Tuesday afternoon, to assume his duties here. He was accompanied by his mother and sister, Mrs. Gladys Sofford and Myra.

The young pastor came from Canadian, where he has been a minister for 1½ years. He has also been in the church at Weatherford, Okla. for a little over two years.

The new minister has a BA degree from Central College at Edmond, Oklahoma. He also attended Abilene Christian College.

DISTRICT COURT TUESDAY

District Judge E. A. Bills will be here on Tuesday for a session of the district court, to consider whatever matters might come before the body. District Clerk Loyde Brewer said today that no cases had been docketed for that date, and added that Judge Bills may hear some non-jury civil matters while here.

Rural 'Phones Progress Made

Easements Holding Up Telephone Deal

"I see now . . . that we are not going to be able to get the easements in time to let the contract this year."

Thus wrote Leo Forrest, project manager of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, to Harold W. Carpenter, local director, early this week.

In his letter to Carpenter, Forrest said it would be necessary that at least 90 percent of the right-of-way easement contracts be in hand before the contract for the actual construction of the lines could be let. "Actually, only about 60 easements are in hand, leaving some 2000 yet to be secured," Forrest says in his letter.

Forrest then suggests that efforts be made at once to get these easements signed up and turned in without delay, and he offered some helpful suggestions to this end.

Carpenter said that he didn't feel "the picture was as dark" as Forrest had stated, but admitted that easement contracts had been slow over the whole area to be served.

"We had planned to let the contract for the construction of the line the latter part of July," Carpenter said. He did not say, however, this would be possible in view of the easement situation.

STREET PAVING IS MAKING PROGRESS

Satisfactory progress is being made on Farwell's street paving project this week, Edgar Martin of the D. and T. Construction Co., contractors for the job, reveals.

At present, grading work is moving forward on Third Street after completion of the curb and gutter work in the south part of town.

Martin said today that he planned to do the curb and gutter work along the entire distance of Third Street before moving onto the loop around the courthouse. A number of large trees are to be removed along the court yard in order to make room for the 34 foot wide driveway.

Meanwhile, the Second Street project is still hanging in the balance with no new developments in late weeks. Several contracts are yet out and there was little indication Wednesday noon that the paving program would include that street.

City officials have suggested that the property owners along Second Street meet at an early date with Mr. Martin in an effort to "iron out" some kind of agreement whereby this street might be paved. Martin said today he would make plans to move his curb and gutter crews to another location within the next few days if there was no prospect of getting additional work here.

Texico School Band To Have New Hall

Texico schools, both building and grounds, are receiving a face-lifting this summer, Agrie Jones, superintendent, reports.

Newest addition planned for the campus is a combination band hall and stage, and dressing rooms. The new addition is to be located on the west end of the gymnasium, and is planned for completion before the beginning of school in September. The addition is to be 24x76.

The auditorium and all the older classrooms are receiving a paint job in pastel colors, with the auditorium finished in white. Henry Jacks, T. A. Ritchie, and Jones are completing the work. Also, floors in all older classrooms have been refinished.

Workmen are also building up the lawn on the school grounds, and a large area of grass has been developed.

The lunchroom will also be refinished this summer. Workmen are putting a knotty pine wainscoting four foot high around the building; and on the inside, everything will be painted and linoleum placed on the floor.

Two steel quonset huts have been received from war surplus, and will also be utilized. They will be used as combination storage and barns; and will be located in the sheep pasture across from the school. The vocational agricultural department will be allowed to use the buildings in their work. Each quonset is 20x36, Jones says.

REA Granted Loan For Local Project

WASHINGTON—A loan of $357,000 to the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, Hereford, has been approved by the Rural Electrification Administration, REA officials announced today.

The money will be used to complete projects planned to be carried out by a loan made in December of 1950 which has since proved insufficient because of rising costs.

In addition, the new loan will make it possible to add approximately 240 miles of line to the system, making a total of more than 980 miles. Two additional central dial offices will be built, making a total of seven, and twenty new subscribers will be added, making a total of 120.

The Coop operates in Deaf Smith, Parmer, and Castro Counties.

Izzard Cancels Date As Banquet Speaker

Due to the death of Gene Howe, publisher of the Amarillo News and Globe-Times, Wes Izzard has cancelled his speaking date with the Farwell Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night.

Carl Davis, vice-president of the organization, said late Wednesday afternoon as The Tribune was going to

- BULLETIN -

The services of D. D. Monroe, noted after-dinner speaker of Clayton, N. M., have been secured for the Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night. The Tribune was informed after this story was already in type.

Monroe, who is now on a speaking tour, was located at Hobbs, where he made an address Wednesday night, and will go from there to Graham for another engagement Thursday.

He was scheduled for an address in Santa Fe Friday night, but agreed to cancel the Santa Fe engagement owing to circumstances which made Mr. Izzard's appearance here impossible. He is a personal friend of Izzard.

press that efforts were being made to secure another speaker for the occasion, but at that time he was unable to state definitely who it will be.

Meanwhile, plans are going forward to hold the banquet at the high school as originally scheduled. "So far as I know now, we are going ahead," Davis told The Tribune.

Preparations are being made to entertain a large group of local and out-of-town visitors. Aside from the guest speaker, the program will be strictly informal, with Davis acting as toastmaster, and Jack Williams listed to introduce the speaker.

A number of reservations have been made by visitors from nearby towns, including Bovina, Friona, Muleshoe, Lubbock, and Portales.

Veterans' School Ends Sessions at Farwell

Wilfred Quickel, instructor of the veterans' classes taught here under the GI Bill for the past few years, reports that the classes were completed the past week, and final sessions were held Thursday night. Remaining students in the group were transferred to Bovina to complete training.

The class was conducted here for four years, 10 months and 18 days, Quickel says, having opened in 1947. About 80 men were enrolled for instruction during the four years, with the maximum enrollment of 25 at various times. The lowest enrollment was 11 in the past weeks. At least 15 students were required by the state; therefore the transfer of remaining enrollees to Bovina.

The instruction included general agriculture and farm shop work, and the average course per student continued for about 25 months. Students were paid a subsistence while they were going to school.

Quickel thanks the public school officials and everyone else who cooperated to make the program a success.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Park and Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Bandy and daughter, Beth, are visiting relatives in California.

Switchboards For Rural Telephones Given Dallas Firm

Harold W. Carpenter, a director of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, in the Tribune today that contract for seven switchboards, including the central offices and equipment, had been let to the Graybar Electric of Dallas.

Carpenter said the Dallas firm was low bidder for the equipment at "approximately $97,000." Delivery is scheduled to start within 130 days, Carpenter added.

Speaking further concerning the subject, Carpenter said that "this equipment is automatic dial of the most modern design and free trunking service into the nearest town will be available to the subscribers."

"This means," the director explained, "that a person in the country can call anyone on his switchboard, plus anyone in the town into which his switchboard trunk leads without a long distance fee. Of course the same applies to the town people who desire to make calls to the rural sections."

Seven switchboards have been included in the contract and they will be located at strategic points over the three-county area. One will be placed at Dawn, two at Hereford, two at Friona, one each at Bovina and Farwell.

Carpenter said that the Farwell board would be situated somewhere north of Lariat at about the center of the area to be served, and will offer service to the rural sections of Oklahoma Lane, Lariat, and West Camp.

The board at Bovina will be located just north of the townsite and will serve patrons to the north and along the north portion of the Oklahoma Lane community. Definite locations of the switchboards have not been made, Carpenter added.

HARVEST OF LIGHT WHEAT CROP NEAR

Harvesting of the light wheat crop in this section moved toward the final stages early this week, with most grain operators predicting that practically all grain would be in bins and elevators by July 1st.

Aided by hot, windy weather for the past several days, fields have ripened rapidly, to yield a good quality of grain.

Grain men contacted Wednesday agreed that the crop this year was light, as had been predicted. But an occasional field has turned out a satisfactory yield on dry land, with 20 bushels to the acre reported here and there. A majority of the fields, however, are running far below that figure.

Elevator operators were also reluctant about predicting the receipts from the current crop. Tabulations compiled from estimates made at Bovina indicated that about 150 carloads might be expected there. Estimates at Texico-Farwell ran at about the same figure.

The quality of the grain being produced this year is better than usual, grain men added. The moisture content is low, with some of the grain running as low as 9 and 10 percent, while the crop has a high protein content.

One elevator operator summed up the local situation pretty accurately when he observed, "Everything is fine except the short yield."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Magness returned Monday from Vernon where she had been receiving medical treatment.

THESE ARE YOUR Friends & Neighbors

(Second in a series of informative articles revealing little known facts about well known people in and around Texico-Farwell and nearby communities. Our sole purpose is to promote better acquaintances—in the hope of promoting better friendships.)

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Atchley of Texico are among the pioneer residents of Texico-Farwell, having lived in this area since 1924. Their first home in this immediate vicinity was in Oklahoma Lane, then in 1940 they moved to town and have resided in Texico since then.

The Atchleys were born and reared in Alabama, were married there, and their first child was born there. They grew up in the same home town, and went to school together, but he was four years older than she, so they weren't sweethearts until he came back from the Spanish-American war.

Mr. Atchley was 18 when he volunteered for the service in the war. The army was made up of 100-percent volunteers, he says. The local man was shipped to the Philippines, but stayed mostly in Manila and Luzon. He was in the service a little over 21 months.

"The army in that day and time was a he-man's army," he says, relating some of his experiences. He remembers that upon signing up for the army, he didn't get a chance to come home until he was mustered out for good. He didn't have a furlough or leave of any kind.

As for pay, while a private he received $13.60 a month. "We just had one kind of private in those days," he laughs, "a buck private."

Upon being promoted to corporal, he received the benefits of a higher wage bracket, $18.60. Men were allowed so much for food and clothing and over that amount, they paid for it themselves. "Of course," Atchley adds, "warfare was different then. We didn't have to worry about bombs and modern weapons."

Mr. Atchley registered for the service again in World War I, but did not serve. He was married and raising a family by then. The local pioneers had two sons, Milton and Willard, in the service in World War II. Milton was in the army and Willard in the navy.

After his service in the war back at the turn of the century, Atchley returned to Paint Creek, Ala., and he and Willie Fears, his future wife, began going around together. They were married Sept. 20, 1903. He was 21 years old and she was 17.

Asked if she had dated her husband at all before his war service, Mrs. Atchley says, "No, I wasn't old enough. I had to grow up first." They dated for about a year before their marriage, however.

Mr. Atchley related that he could remember the situation which gained him the first date with his future wife.

Another boy had told the local man "he would buy me a box of candy if I beat his time with Willie. I got the candy," he adds, "but the other boy never did like me too well after that."

The Atchleys remember that they had to walk everywhere they went back in those days. And in the country where they lived, "if you went very far, you were going either uphill or downhill." They had neighborhood parties and attended church services in groups.

The Atchleys farmed in Alabama about a year after their marriage, and then decided they wanted to go west "and come up with the country, like everyone else."

They settled in Ellis County, which was comparatively new country. They had traveled to Texas with Mrs. Atchley's parents and their family. They thought Texas was all right from the beginning, almost better than now. They farmed lots of cotton while in Ellis, planting the crop with teams and plow and picking it by hand. From Ellis County, they went to Navarro, then to Freestone, and on to Oklahoma Lane.

Six children were born to the Atchleys, five of whom survive. Their son, Earl, the eldest, passed away in 1948. Other children are Cecil of Lariat; Mrs. Tom Lindop of Oklahoma Lane; Milton of Anthony; Willard of Yuma; and Joe of Tulare. They only had the one daughter.

"We are like the common run of people," the Atchleys say, "with no great tragedies in our lives. We have been wonderfully blessed, and have been awfully lucky."

FROM THE TRIBUNE

This Week:

How To Prepare Copy for an Advertisement

The Tribune stands at all times anxious to assist prospective advertisers in the preparation of copy for the space they may purchase. Yet, it is apparent that the advertiser best knows what he wants to advertise, so scheduling an ad with this newspaper should not be attempted without at least some mental notes with respect to its organization and what is desired to be "played up."

The most easily understood and the most practical phase of display advertising is that devoted to selling goods. Suppose you are a merchant. Business is a little slack and you look around for some economical means of getting volume up. If you select, say, half a dozen items that are likely to be in fair demand at the time (not many wool coats will sell anywhere in the northern hemisphere in July), cut the price a little (you know how much you can afford to) to make the item more attractive, and describe it clearly and adequately, it is quite likely that if you insert these items in 10 or 12 display inches where they can command proper attention, they will sell quite well.

A very significant point to remember is that consistency plays an important part in determining the success of your advertisement. That is, don't run the same copy week after week if it produces no results, but change it up a little, probing for new avenues of response, from week to week.

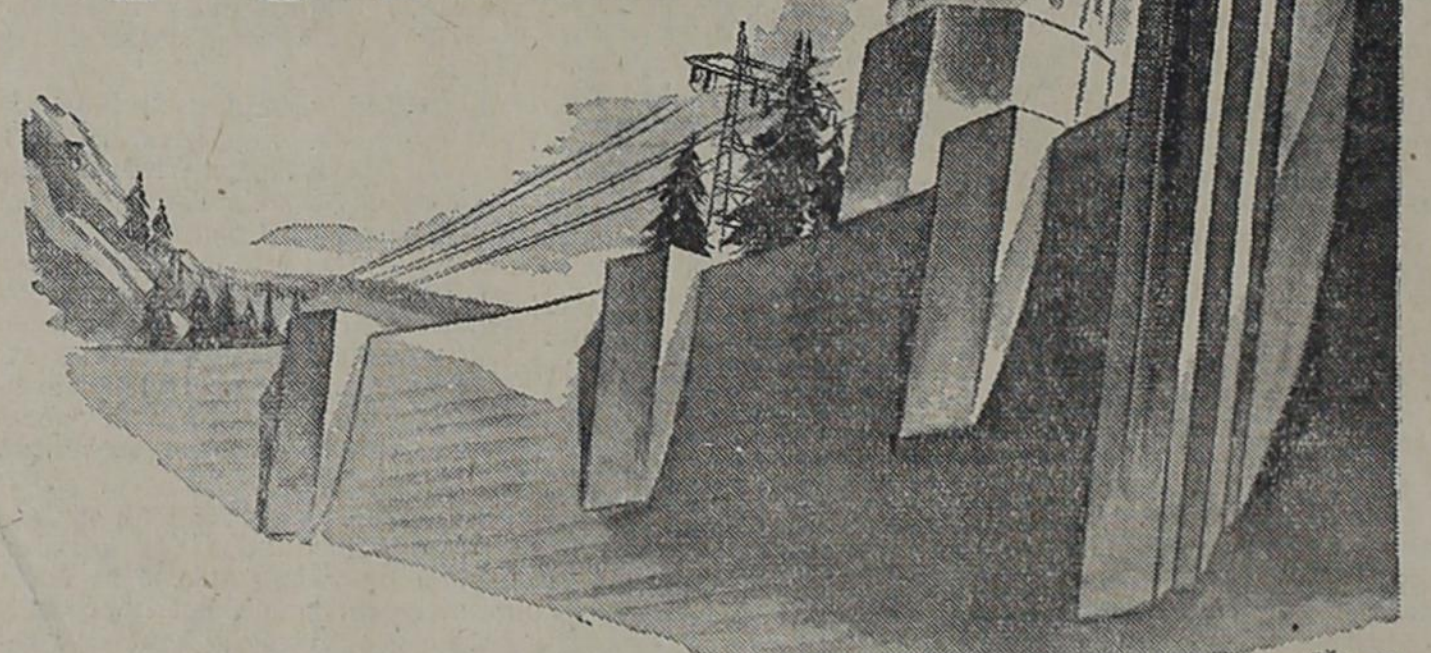

If you run an advertisement consistently, it often is quite advantageous to change the copy in it every week or two. In this manner, the reader will automatically inspect your ad each issue to see what new thing you may have to offer him.

Do not forget that one issue of The Tribune with your advertisement in it is usually read by more than one person. Conservative estimates place readings at three to three and one-half per issue, depending upon the size of the family to which the paper is circulated. The State Line Tribune is not distributed free of charge. It is a publication which is read. We know this because our subscribers pay for their paper. This means simply and irrefutably that they want it and are willing to pay for it to read it. In this respect, The Tribune holds a distinct advantage over the direct-mail circular-type advertising you receive in your mailbox occasionally.

Rogers Gives Planks For Senate Platform

This is a critical time for our nation. It IS "time for a change." But let us remember that new faces in Washington will make no real difference if we have not changed things here at home.

At all levels of government we must return to the great principle upon which this country was founded and built; and if it is to stand, upon which it must stand.

This great principle is Americanism. It says that man is created free, that his Creator gave him certain "inalienable" rights, that the sole purpose and reason for government is to see that these sacred rights are protected. Government is not meant to take away these rights or to create substitutes.

We can have such a government ONLY when it is kept in the hands of the people. Through our representative form of government we can do this. But it will not be done for us. We, the people, must do that. Too often in the past 20 years we have let "George" do it for us. "George" has almost taken our government out of our hands—and our God-given freedom with it.

We must act—NOW. It will take hard work and sacrifice—and courage, and faith in our Great American Principle.

Washington and Austin are full of "smart boys" and "big shots." I believe that it is time for Mr. Average Citizen to step into the forefront in Austin, as well as in Washington. Our primary need is for honesty and moral integrity.

I believe we need much new blood in all of our law-making bodies. I do not believe we need more men who have fed at the public trough for eighteen or twenty years—and have grown wealthy in the process.

I also believe we need some of the vigor and courage young men and women have to offer. At the very least, the young men did not get us in our present mess, yet they live and pay in the same manner as others—and will for a longer period of time to come. Also, it is they who often lay down their lives on foreign soil as their payment.

I offer the above way of thinking and the following summary of my qualifications and own actions to my fellow citizens so that they may decide if Andy Rogers is the man to work with them as their State Senator toward the great goal of Freedom:

I am a West Texan by birth, training, and education. I was raised on a farm and dairy. My business is farming, and it will continue to be. I am a land owner and taxpayer.

I have prepared myself for service with seven years of college education—law, government, economics, and agriculture.

I have proven my willingness to sacrifice voluntarily by giving three years' service in the United States Army during World War II.

I have had two terms' experience serving West Texas in our State House of Representatives. I have served on these following important committees: Appropriations, agriculture, insurance, highways and roads, and conservation and reclamation.

Andy Rogers is not a lawyer. Therefore I can represent only the people who elect me. I cannot hope for financial gain by serving you as State Senator—an important job that pays only an approximate $700 per year.

I am not a professional politician. I have consistently fought corruption in all government, and will continue to do so.

As a State Representative, I have opposed an increased rate of spending and taxing in State Government, and will continue to do so. Andy Rogers has fought for economic development of West Texas in the following ways:

1. Continually supporting our Rural Road and Primary Highway development.
2. Voting against and helping kill legislation for State control of our underground water. I will continue to do so.
3. Fighting to protect our surface water rights as they now stand.
4. Writing and getting passed legislation giving West Texas $10,000.00 for preliminary study of its surface water possibilities.
5. Writing and getting passed legislation which will soon bring into being a new Agriculture Experiment Station to study the particular needs of our Blow-Sand areas of West Texas.

6. Writing and getting passed legislation requiring the labeling of "drip" gasoline when offered for sale, so consumers and honest service station operators are protected.

7. Supporting a sound, sensible Public School program.

Andy Rogers will continue to fight for a fair break for West Texas and for the protection of your rights.

I will run my race and serve you in the only way I know—BY CLEAN HARD WORK.

I will not be able to visit all of the people in our fifteen county State Senatorial Districts but I humbly and sincerely ask for your vote and support.

Billingsley-Glenn Wedding Vows Repeated at Oklahoma Lane

Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church was the scene of a double-ring marriage ceremony of Miss JoVeta Billingsley and Billy Frank Glenn on Friday, June 13. Vows were read at 8:30 in the evening by Rev. A. D. Moore of Channing, former pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Billingsley of Oklahoma Lane and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glenn, also of Oklahoma Lane.

Background for the ceremony featured palm trees, fern, and baskets of white and pink flowers, arranged by Earl Roberts of Oklahoma Lane. Lighted white tapers in wrought-iron candelabra were on either side of a large picture of Christ, and a large basket of white gliadioli.

Curtis Dickinson of Clovis, Earl Roberts, and Twila Strickland sang "My Isle of Golden Dreams" and "My Happiness." Miss Caryetta Grissom played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss June Christian and Earl Roberts as they sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Candlelighters were Misses Katherine Magness and Dot Kent, who wore salmon-colored dresses, and corsages of white carnations. Flower girls were Sharon and Karen Ruthart, nieces of the bride from Canyon, who chose yellow nylon dresses, with pink carnation corsages; and ring bearer was Jimmie Blair, wearing an orchid nylon dress, and flowers were white carnations.

Best man was Jack Glenn, father of the bridegroom; and Glenn Smith and Leon Meeks served as ushers and groomsmen. Maid-of-honor was Patricia Berry of Portales, who was attired in a pink nylon dress with a full skirt and sweetheart neckline. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Serving the bride as bridesmaids were Misses Ruby Kittrell and Rose Hines, who wore dresses of orchid organdy, accented by corsages of pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Billingsley chose a white nylon dress, with a high neckline accented by a tiny lace ruffle, self-covered buttons down the back of the fitted bodice, and three-quarter-length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of orange blossoms. Other accessories were white.

She carried a white Bible topped with white gardenias. For "something old," she carried a white lace handkerchief, belonging to Granny Jones; "something new" was her wedding ensemble; "something bor-

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. The lace-covered serving table was centered with a bouquet of snapdragons and fern; and basket arrangements of flowers were used throughout the reception room.

A three-tiered wedding cake and punch were served to guests by Miss LaVerna Christian and Mrs. Joe Blair. Miss Marcia Foster presided at the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn left immediately for a short wedding trip to Carlsbad. For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a brown organdy dress over a gold petticoat, with gold and brown accessories.

To produce a MONEY-MAKING CROP!

That's why every week more and more of them are turning to Concrete Irrigation Pipe to assure conservation of their expensive water. Every irrigationist knows that it takes lots of money to pump water out of the ground. But that's only half the story. After the water has been surfaced, it still must be fed to thirsty crops. And the more efficiently this job is done, the better and more rewarding will be the irrigationist's crop.

Don't waste water. Don't waste time. Don't inconvenience yourself or your men. Don't waste valuable land. Don't isolate a field with impassable ditches. Don't let your water get out of control.

Recreational Project Plans Continuing

Summer recreation program plans for Texico young people are coming along fine, state Agrie Jones, president of the Texico Chamber of Commerce, and Curtis Miller, director of the youth program. The function is sponsored jointly by the CC and Texico schools.

Jones states that workers have had a nice response to the program by Texico citizens, not only from the financial standpoint, but donations of labor in readying the park. "Through the efforts of some of the local people, it looks as though we will be able to put caliche and asphalt on the courts," Jones adds, and he continues, "We are also very happy over the response given the newly-organized Chamber of Commerce, and if this continues, we will certainly be able to accomplish something in the town."

At a meeting Tuesday night, the council approved $78 spent for equipment for the recreation program, including two croquet sets, softball equipment, golf balls for clock golf, badminton set, two basketballs and two volleyballs. Directors hope to get horizontal bars for the park later. Miller says that golf clubs are badly needed for the golf classes and asked at anyone with available clubs donate them for use of the youngsters.

Courses listed on the recreational program include: basketball, volleyball, tennis, croquet, tither ball, horseshoe pitching, softball, badminton, clock golf, and work on horizontal bars and trapeze rings. Directors are planning a sand box for younger children.

Texico young people between the ages of 7 and 18 are eligible for participation in the program, which will be divided into three age groups: 7-10, 11-14, and 14 and over.

Softball begins Monday afternoon at 6:30, and all boys enrolled in the program are asked to be on hand, Miller says. They will then have softball practice each following Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Practice for girl's softball will be on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 6:30.

Students who have registered for the youth program are: Roy Thornton, Bobby Hapke, Jimmy Moore, Sue Levins, Nadine Thornton, Naomi Hapke, Audrey Hapke, Mike Getz, Teddy Roth, Billy Roth, Don Johnson, Gloria Johnson, Weldon Bell, Dick Lockhart, Dick Adams, David Lockhart, Judy Adams, Janice Adams, Donel Caillouet, Doyle Winegeart, Billy Thigpen, Dee Tharp, Eldon

Thatcher, Ruth Lockhart, Katherine Curd, Carolyn Curd, Walter Curd, Mike Crawley, Betty Crawley, Charlotte Crawley, Pat Bufford, D'Tanis Caldwell, Anita Tharp, Darlene Day, Verlene Thigpen, Jerry Thigpen.

Anna Louise Thatcher, Anita Moss, Jimmy Moss, Jerry Moss, Vernon Thigpen, Charles Stockton, Donald Arnold, Sue Fields and Joe Fields.

Miller expects a few other enrollees before the course actually gets underway, and points out that young people can enter the program at any time.

Texas Farmers Sign Up For Castor Beans

Texas farmers have signed up with Commodity Credit Corporation to plant 59,794 acres of dry land and 11,253 acres of irrigated land to castor beans, Joe Camp PMA secretary, says. In addition to this the Baker Castor Oil Company has contracts with Texas farmers for 11,759 acres dry land, 5,129 acres of irrigated land in castor beans. It is expected that additional acreage will be signed up before the planting date has past.

The National goal for castor beans was set at 191,000 acres. Indications are that about one half of all the acres seeded to castor beans in the Nation this year will be in Texas.

Castor beans are being grown in about 125 counties in the State this year. Hulling plants are being located at strategic points throughout the State.

Castor beans are being produced at this time as a war material and are playing an important part in jet planes and tanks and other war materials.

Many peace time uses have been discovered of late and it is now believed that there will be a demand for all the castor beans that can be produced and at fair prices. One company alone markets 185 different products from castor beans and has 100 more in the development stage. Motor oils and many other valuable

CCC To Pool 1951-Crop Cotton On August 1

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced recently that all 1951 crop loan cotton still under loan on August 1, 1952, will be pooled on that date by Commodity Credit Corporation for producers' accounts. The loans mature July 31, 1952.

About 1,111,000 bales of 1951-crop cotton were put under loan. Through May 29, a total of about 675,000 bales had been redeemed, leaving loans outstanding on about 436,000 bales.

Producers may either sell their "equity" in the loan cotton or redeem the cotton from the loan and then sell it in the open market. The market price of the various qualities of cotton has varied materially during the year, but at present prices farmers should be able to dispose of most qualities of cotton at prices that will give them some net profits above the loan and charges against the cotton.

The 1951-crop loan cotton not redeemed prior to August 1, will be placed in a pool as provided in the loan agreements, and sold in an orderly manner by Commodity Credit Corporation. On final liquidation of all cotton in the pool, the net proceeds if any, after deduction of all advances, interest and accrued costs—including storage, insurance, and handling charges—will be distributed among the producers whose cotton was placed in the pool, in proportion to the amount of the loans on the cotton placed in such pool. No payment will be made to producers at the time the cotton is placed in the pool, and after July 31, 1952, producers will not be entitled to order the sale of the cotton.

Parmer Citizens Plant Five Varieties of Trees

Newton County, for the second successive year, exceeded all other Texas counties in reforestation for the past planting season, according to a summary of tree planting activities released by Don Young, head, Management Department of the Texas Forest Service.

More than 11,707,000 seedlings were planted by Texas farmers and forest industries in the 1951-52 season, extending from December, 1951 through March, 1952. The distribution of tree seedlings was approximately six million less than the 1950-51 season.

In the compilation for Parmer County, number of planters was listed as 42. Types of trees and number were: red cedar, 250; Chinese elm, 450; honey locust, 150; Russian mulberry, 300; Osage orange, 300; and others, 450.

Clarendon Officials Announce Celebration

Vary Ground Meat Patties: Here's How

Meat patties—they draw youngsters to the table in a hurry. For a new blend of flavors, why not introduce different ingredients into your ground-meat mixture. Here are some suggestions.

For instance, you might add grated raw apple to ground beef, says Reba Staggs, home economist. Season this mixture with a little Worcestershire sauce or nutmeg in addition to the usual salt and pepper.

Other additions to beef, veal, pork or smoked pork patty mixtures (and this stands for meat loaves too) may be grated raw potato, carrot, cracker or bread crumbs, rolled oats or rice.

Seasonings are important when adding these additional ingredients to your ground-meat mixture. For each pound of meat use approximately 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1/4 teaspoon of pepper and two or three tablespoons of liquid. Use enough liquid to moisten in the form of milk, canned or cooked tomatoes, catsup or soup stock. Use an egg to bind the ingredients.

Slow Roast Veal For Best Results

Slow cooking is the rule in preparing a veal roast. When roasted at a low temperature you'll have more meat to serve and juicier, more tender meat.

Slow roasting means a 300° F. oven. Use this same temperature for roasting beef, smoked pork or lamb, as well, says Reba Staggs, meat expert.

When roasting veal, place it in an open roasting pan, using a rack to hold the meat up off the bottom of the pan. Place strips of salt pork or bacon over the top of the roast. This is suggested because veal is from a young animal and lacks sufficient fat. If you use a roast meat thermometer you will know when the meat is cooked. Insert it into the thickest section of the meat, but not on bone or in fat.

Do not cover the roast and do not add water. If you add water and cover the roast you're cooking this tender meat as a pot-roast. Your roast meat thermometer will register 170° F. when the veal is roasted. The time varies with the roast—leg or shoulder roasts approximately 25 to 35 minutes per pound; loin or rib roasts, 30 to 35 minutes; boned and rolled shoulder, 40 to 45 minutes per pound.

An Alaskan Naval Air patrol squadron keeps watch over an area nearly as large as the entire United States.

For an intimate glimpse of the family life of the Tafts, read this exclusive story by Mary McSherry, in the new American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

Let Fritters Brighten A Plain Meal

Dress up a plain meal with crispy fritters. Make them with meat for a main dish, with vegetables or fruits to accompany the meat course.

Leftover meat such as a roast or pot-roast, or fresh meat cubed or sliced or ready-to-serve meat may be used for fritters, says Reba Staggs, home economist. Just add the meat to fritter batter and deep fat fry. Vegetable fritters, ideal for serving with a roast or many other meat dishes, may be prepared with carrots, sweet potatoes or whole kernel corn. Main dish or dessert fruit fritters include pineapple, apple and banana.

The important point to remember in deep-frying fritters is that you keep the fat at a 360° F. temperature. Cooked at this degree, you know the fritters will be done inside by the time the outside surface is crisp.

ROAST LAMB SUPPER

Thoroughly chilled roast lamb is perfect for supper or snack sandwiches. Place thin lamb slices between bread, lightly spread with mint jelly.
