FARWELL, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1952

FROM THE HOPPER By HOP

It is common saying that "every dog has his day," which is not so bad. But the dogs on south Second Street have taken over the nights too with their constant yapping and howling.

Wilfred Quickel says his book on raising of dogs contends that dogs are not supposed to howl at night if they are properly fed late in the afternoon.

Evidently, Wilfred needs to get his dog to read the book.

A young lady writes me to inquire, "What is a June bug?"

Bless your heart, honey, for making the inquiry about June bugs. It brings back memories of the past. If you haven't tied a string of your mother's sewing thread to a June bug's leg and followed him in his flight through the early spring air, you haven't really lived.

Furthermore, if you haven't fished for craw dads in the old mud hole; if you haven't watched a tumble bug rolling his round ball down the path on the farm; if you haven't gathered wild honey from an old hollow tree; if you haven't spent the entire day in the old swimming hole down on the creek in the shade of big cottonwoods; if you haven't spent the night hunting 'possums and coons; if you haven't fought bumble bees with a paddle; if you haven't gathered wild berries along the fence rows; if you haven't followed the path of a plow with your bare feet pressing against the cool earth; if you haven't gathered wild plums along the river bottoms; if you haven't twisted cotton tail rabbits from a hollow log; if you haven't dug up an old Indian grave; if you haven't enticed a doodle bug from his hole by calling him to "come and get your bread and butter"; if you haven't heard the chirp of a chickadee and the red bird. If you haven't experienced any of these never-to-be forgotten delights of a lad, you haven't really lived at all.

Children born and reared on the Plains are an unfortunate lot. They'll never really know many of the delights of nature that surrounded their mothers and dads in their early childhood.

TWO WINNERS
Billy Jack Gibson and Mrs. Clarence Brown smile easily after receiving big prizes Saturday. Mrs. Brown won a new Gibson refrigerator, standing behind the two; Gibson exhibits his new silverware.

Texico, Friona People Receive Big Prizes

Mrs. Clarence Brown, Rt. 1 Texico, and Billy Jack Gibson, Rt. 2 Friona, are happier people this week after being awarded big prizes by seven Texico-Farwell businesses.

Mrs. Brown won first prize, a new Gibson refrigerator. Gibson took home a 52-piece set of Tudor silverware. Both prizes are from the Piggly Wiggly store in Farwell.

A crowd which numbered in the thousands clogged downtown Texico-Farwell Saturday afternoon when the prizes were to be awarded. Scott Levins, Border Theatre owner, officiated the event.

Mrs. Brown was plainly elated over her good fortune. "This is the first time I've ever been lucky in my life," she said happily.

Perhaps Mrs. Brown has reason to be happy. She is the mother of four small children (two are 10-month-old twins) and the farm family does not have an ice box.

Gibson was equally pleased with the silverware. "I've never won anything before either," he said.

The seven local merchants which cooperated in sponsorship of the event include Hardage Hudson Company, Farwell; Meeks' Service Station, Farwell; Ray Mears Produce, Farwell; Electric Shoe Shop, Texico; Border Theatre, Rose Drug & Gift Store, and Piggly Wiggly, all at Farwell.

Feed Crops Suffer As Hot Dry Spell Continues Its Hold

A dashing shower that was confined to a very limited area brought slight relief to local residents late Tuesday afternoon when it dumped a quarter of an inch of moisture to the parched area.

Reports indicate the shower, very limited in its scope and for the most part the entire area continues to suffer under the intensive heat and dry weather.

Local, widely scattered showers have brought some relief to sections of the country the past week, but the general cry is for more rainfall to save feed crops. Cotton, while needing rain, is withstanding the drought better than the feed crops. Many fields of maize that gave promise of a good yield weeks ago, are blighted by the lack of rain with many fields heading out although slightly over two feet in height.

Irrigated crops, while fairing better, are keeping farmers busy pouring the water to them day and night.

The entire picture, however, is not so discouraging. A wide fan-shaped section lying southwest of Texico-Farwell, boasts of better crop prospects with both feed and cotton looking good. Sam Randol says he believes his crop is as good as he ever saw in 40 years of farming in that section.

County Republicans Name Leo McClellan To Three Conventions

Leo McClellan, Friona, must be "Mr. Republican" for Parmer County. He was named by the county convention Saturday to attend three other conventions.

He will represent Parmer at a district convention in Amarillo Aug. 12, then hop down to Plainview the same day for the 30th Senatorial District conclave at Plainview.

After those political battles, he carries the Parmer banner to the state Republican convention in San Antonio Aug. 26.

Six delegates attended the Parmer convention at the district court room in Farwell. The meeting began at 5 p.m., and lasted only a short time.

The only other business that was taken care of was acceptance of a motion to retain the present officers for another term.

Farwell Season Tickets To Go On Sale Soon

Season tickets for all athletic events at Farwell schools during the coming year, will go on sale soon.

When the football bleachers were constructed for the school, year before last, it was agreed that certain businessmen in Farwell, would take five season tickets each year and sell them until the bleachers were paid for, says Jack Williams, superintendent of schools. "With a good ticket sale this season, we will be able to pay off the note on the bleachers," Williams continues.

School officials appeal to the good will of the community in buying the tickets. According to the report, this is the third year that season tickets have been on sale.

Cost is $10 and entitles the holder of the ticket to attend all athletic events at the school.

Some of the people who originally signed up to sell tickets have moved, states Williams. He asks that any other business men who will help to sell them, to notify him.

Tickets will be mailed out in the next week.

Agent Jones Reports Cotton Looks Good

County Agent Joe Jones reports that he has been over the county in the past weeks; and generally speaking, cotton looks pretty good. Very few cotton insects have been found, but he did notice a build-up in the cotton fleahopper and the bollworm, over what it had been in past weeks.

Jones cautions farmers to keep a sharp lookout for bollworms this time of year. During this time is when experts expect the insect to begin work on cotton.

Guides for control of cotton insects are available in the office of the county agent.

MOTHER QUITE ILL

Mrs. H. Y. Overstreet has been called to the bedside of her mother in Mansfield, Texas, where her mother is quite ill with a heart ailment.

4-H TRIP CHAPERONES

Five of the nine chaperones of a Parmer 4-H trip catch their breath Monday morning before rolling out to the New Mexico mountains. Over 70 men and boys made the trip.

Three Candidates On Run-off Ballots

County Democratic Chairman G. D. Anderson today released the names of the candidates whose names will appear on the ballots in the run-off primary election on August 23.

Only one state office, one district office and one precinct office remained unsettled in the first primary, and the voters will vote on these candidates in the second primary. Offices to be settled are:

Associate Justice of Supreme Court, place No. 1: Spurgeon Bell of Harris County, Frank P. Culver, of Tarrant County.

Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District: Joe S. Moss of Garza County, Ernest O. Northcutt of Potter County. County Commissioner, Parmer County, Precinct No. 3: E. R. Billingsley, T. E. Levy.

Absentee voting in the second primary, which has been delayed by the arrival of the state ticket from Austin, will begin as soon as the ballots are prepared on Friday of this week.

Sikes Is Authorized For Auto Inspections

Sikes Motor Company is now authorized to make official automobile and truck safety inspections says L. W. Wilhite of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, Texas Dept. of Public Safety.

Gene "Weedy" Coffman, Sikes Motor Manager, announced that the firm has received a large amount of special equipment in order to qualify for the rating, and is now ready for inspection orders.

Last week the official windshield stickers arrived at the Farwell business. Equipment had been on hand for some time, Coffman says.

Sikes Motor, along with Hardage Hudson, are the only two official inspection stations in Farwell.

Inspection deadline is September 6.

HOME FROM KOREA

Pvt. J. C. Robertson Jr. arrived home Sunday for a leave in the home of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Robertson. The local boy, who has been on the front lines of Korea for the past year, landed in Seattle the latter part of last week, and was shipped to Fort Sill, Okla.

He will remain here until Sept. 1 when he will return to Ft. Sill.

MUSTA WENT THATAWAY

Nervy Thief Swipes Attorney's Sedan

A hard-driving thief who had more nerve than good sense got away with a late model Hudson Super Wednesday night. And he did it right under the nose of Sam Aldridge, county attorney.

Aldridge stepped from his home in south Farwell toward his parked car, planning to run an errand to town. His car shot out of the driveway, a man hunched over the wheel.

The attorney attempted to call down the man, but he drove on. Aldridge climbed into his Ford pickup and gave chase. He overtook the car as it went northward up Second Street, near the B. N. Graham residence. However, he was unable to "ditch" it.

The thief, who was driving without any lights, soon disappeared into the

Cooking Is Big Job For 76 4-H Campers

Have you ever tried to cook over an open camp fire for 76 hungry males? It's quite an experience, according to County Agent Joe Jones.

Jones, along with eight other adult sponsors, returned Wednesday of last week from a three-day 4-H camping trip to Holy Ghost canyon in New Mexico. The boys camped at the head of the Pecos river.

They devised all sorts of entertainment including fishing, horseback riding, swimming, hiking and softball. They slept in the open at night, and had lots of food, says Jones.

At one meal, adult sponsors cooked 54 lbs. of chicken; and everything was eaten with the exception of about three pounds. For breakfast each day, chief cooks would fry 18 lbs. of bacon, scramble 16 1/2 dozen eggs, and pour up 1 1/2 gallons of tomato juice.

The group left their camping site Wednesday morning on the first lap of their trip home. They stopped in Santa Rosa at the park, where they swam, and played softball, then had lunch.

The trip will be an annual affair if the boys and leaders want it, says Jones.

While in camp, Troy Christian was elected chairman of Parmer 4-H club council. Other officers are: Leon Langford, vice chairman; Jerry Gleason, secretary; and Dwain Menefee, reporter. Boys took four rolls of movie film which will be shown in the near future, says Jones.

More Service Offered After Re-Location

Announcing that his aim is to give more and better service to his customers, F. W. Watts this week moved the Watt's Machine and Pump Company to a new location.

It will now be situated at Third and Main, northeast of the Farwell Piggly Wiggly store.

"We will devote our full time to machine and pump work," Watts explained, "and will specialize in irrigation service."

As a result of the move, blacksmithing will be discontinued by the firm.

Watts is an authorized dealer for Layne-Bowler Irrigation pumps.

Robert "Prof" Morton, agriculture instructor at Farwell schools, is in summer conference at Lubbock this week. The conference is for Areas I and II.

Texico Pavement Plans Continue To Be Heard

Trib Causes Near-Riot In Dakota Wheat Fields

It's not very often that a newspaper will admit that it has been the cause of a fight, but this week we heard of a fight we're not ashamed to tell about.

Donald Joe Pipkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Pipkin of Farwell writes home to tell about what a mad scramble there was when a copy of The Tribune finally caught up with him.

Donald Joe (Pip) is way up in yankee land in the Dakotas with Ed Hardage and other men, where he is helping with the wheat harvest.

"When we saw that paper, Ed grabbed a hunk and went one way, and I grabbed a handful and went the other," relates Pip.

The boys are a long way from home, and happy to get hometown news any way they can.

County Demos Meet, Name State Delegates

Parmer County Democratic convention delegates met at the courthouse in Farwell Saturday afternoon and named eight persons to the state convention in Amarillo to be in September.

State delegates include Mrs. Joe Jesko, Bill Sherley, J. B. Williams, Mrs. Henry Ivy, all of Lazbuddy; Lee Thompson, Mrs. G. D. Anderson Jr., all of Bovina; and Sam Aldridge and Robert R. Anderson, Farwell.

Soon after the meeting opened, Hammonds moved that the convention recommend adoption of the "unit rule" to be used at the state convention. Under this system, all the voting weight is carried under the will of a majority of a delegation.

The theory is that this permits more strength per delegation, because the vote is not "watered down" by minority votes.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

A resolution offered by Aldridge was also accepted without opposition. It read:

"Be it resolved the delegates of this convention call upon the proper authorities in the State Democratic party of Texas to request the nominees of the national Democratic Party for president and vice-president to clearly state their position in regard to state ownership of Texas Tidelands."

No other business was disposed of. The convention lasted approximately forty minutes.

Action Soon On Texico Water Line Extensions

With the sale of the $12,000 waterworks bond issue completed, Texico officials are looking forward to the beginning of the waterworks extension system in the immediate future.

Mayor M. C. Roberts announced the sale of the bond issue to the State of New Mexico at 2 1/2 per cent interest, and said that steps were being taken to let the contract and get the work underway as rapidly as possible.

He said bids for furnishing the pipe and doing the installation work were already being compiled by interested contractors and some definite improvements are expected to be underway at an early date.

At the time of voting the $12,000 bond issue April 1st, voters gave their approval by a heavy majority of 94 to 11. Some concern was expressed at that time that the funds might not be sufficient to meet the expense of the proposed improvements in the water distribution system, but officials explained that the amount voted was the limit on the town's assessed valuation.

Asked by The Tribune if the funds will be sufficient, Mayor Roberts replied, "Looks like we might need three or four thousand dollars more, which we will have to work out some way."

A good part of the residential section of the town has been virtually without water service for several months, due, not to the lack of water, but to the inadequacy in the distribution system, with several homes attached to 2-inch mains.

Under present plans new 6-inch and 4-inch mains will be installed to insure ample pressure to all parts of the residential sections.

Walter Hardage was in Wichita Falls on business Saturday.

With prospects already favorable for several blocks of street paving in Texico, the Town Council in a special meeting Monday night, gave the "green light" to the D. & T. Construction Company, currently engaged in Farwell, to undertake a paving project in Texico.

Meeting with the Town Council and a number of interested citizens Monday night, Edgar Martin of the construction company explained his program and gave an outline of the cost to the individual property owners for paving, including curbing and gutter, along the property frontage.

After much consideration, during which time various angles of the paving program were discussed, the Town Council decided to give Mr. Martin and his solicitors permission to make a canvass of the property owners to be affected with the view of securing voluntary contracts for the paving.

No definite action was taken regarding the creation of a paving district until the voluntary method has been given a trial. Mayor M. C. Roberts stated following the meeting.

Mrs. Fay Anderson, representing the D. & T. Construction Company, began making canvasses of the property owners Tuesday.

Asked how many streets were under consideration, Mayor Roberts replied "at least four" running north from the main business section of town at Hereford Street, which is the principal business thoroughfare of the town.

Paving is now being considered on Turner, Garwood, Anderson and Lamar Streets, with the possibility of Griffin Street also being included. An east-west strip of paving from Turner to Griffin is also under consideration.

Since the various street names are not familiar with many residents, they may be identified in this manner: Turner begins at the Sheets & Son location and runs north, commonly known as the "church street." Garwood runs north from the Red Cross Pharmacy; Anderson extends north from the fire station; Lamar starts at the Home Grocery and runs north; Griffin runs north from the home of Mrs. "Ma" Green.

The east-west street being considered extends west from Turner Street to the school property on the west.

Martin said that he was in the paving business and since he already had his machinery and crews on the ground he would be interested in paving any amount "from a block on up."

Members of the Council pointed out that paving done on a voluntary basis can be accomplished in much less time than taking legal steps of creating a paving district. Voluntary contracts can be executed without delay; whereas the creation of a paving district would necessitate a delay of at least two months, possibly longer.

SIKES RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sikes returned to their home here Tuesday after an absence of several weeks, spent in Wichita Falls, where Mr. Sikes was under treatment for a nervous disorder.

Mrs. Christine Sikes, mother of the local man, returned home with them. Sikes says he will have to "take it easy" for some time yet and will be able to give very little time to his business until he regains his full strength.

HAS SERIOUS OPERATION

John Porter of the State Line Grocery, was taken to the Northwest Texas Hospital last Friday and underwent a serious head operation on Saturday morning. Reports received here describe his condition as favorable, although still serious.

Frank Elliott and Mrs. Ruby Meeks are in charge of the business during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Porter.

THESE ARE YOUR

Friends & Neighbors

(Eighth in a series of informative articles revealing little known facts about well known people in and around Texico-Farwell and nearby communities. Our sole purpose is to promote better acquaintances—in the hope of promoting better friendships.)

"When I first came out here, I thought Texico was the most wonderful place" says Mrs. J. H. Ross who has been a resident of this area since 1920, and the local woman still admits that she is partial to this section of the country. She lived on a farm outside of Texico for many years, and moved to town about three years ago.

Born in Bosque County, Mrs. Ross is a native Texan. She lived at her birthplace until she was about six years of age; the family then moved to Erath County close to Dublin. Her parents were farmers. When she was about 12 years old, the family then went to Comanche, where Mrs. Ross lived until after her marriage when she and her husband and family moved to Texico.

She and Mr. Ross were married in 1904, when she was 21 years of age and he was 25. Asked where she met her husband, Mrs. Ross said she saw him for the first time when she was just a girl.

His dog and her dog were engaged in a fight; and she and her future husband were pretty angry with each other too. She remembers hitting his dog with a stick trying to break up the dog fight, and he didn't like it at all, she laughs.

It was about two years later that the young couple were formally introduced at a dance. Within three months time, they were dating regularly. But they "went together" about four years before their marriage.

Mr. Ross was a farmer, so the young couple lived on a farm for many years. When they decided to move to Texico, they traveled in a Model T Ford, and shipped their belongings by train. They moved to a farm about a mile south of town.

The house into which they moved had five rooms, and the Rosses set up housekeeping. "It was wonderful out here," states Mrs. Ross, "I didn't want to do anything but eat and sleep." Weighing only 109 pounds upon their arrival here, Mrs. Ross immediately began to pick up some weight.

It was about their second year here that the Rosses experienced the worst hail storm "that I've ever seen or ever hope to see," says the local woman. She recalls how terrified the family was. The storm literally beat the roof off the family home. Seeing the cloud before it hit, the Rosses and their five children immediately went to the storm cellar. But even the cellar was not free from the rain and hail. The excavation began filling with water, and the occupants were forced to stand on buckets or anything that was elevated.

Mrs. Ross remembers that the cellar had a tin door, which made the sound of the hail stones more evident. The family was huddled in the cellar, when one of the twin daughters looked at her mother and exclaimed "Mama, it sure is a hellin', isn't it?"

As the storm continued, the family was forced to move back to the house. One corner in one of the bedrooms was a little more sheltered from the storm, and the family sat on the bed "just piled up together," says Mrs. Ross, until daylight. She remarked that there wasn't a dry spot in the house and all pictures and wall decorations were on the floor. It was really a mess. We haven't seen anything like it since," she remarks.

Garrett Blair was carrying the mail and stopped by the next day to see if any of the Ross family was injured. They then went to a neighbor's house, where they were forced to remain for about two weeks.

"We couldn't even cook anything to eat at our house," she says. The rain continued for about a week without letting up enough so repairs could begin on the roof of the Ross home. Then after the end of the rain, it took another week to get everything dried out and repaired.

Mrs. Ross also remembers the awful black sandstorms in about 1935 and 1936. One Sunday about 11 or 12 o'clock, it became so dark, you could hardly see your hand in front of your face, she says. But it only lasted a short time.

Recalling her childhood days, Mrs. Ross said her parents felt that she was pretty mischievous. She had four sisters and four brothers and was the oldest child, so she had to look after the younger children.

She would stay at the house and watch the younger sisters and brothers while her mother helped her father in the field.

A country school was located about two miles from their home. They would travel horseback everywhere they went. But in later years, the father bought a buggy, and the children were really thrilled. Mrs. Ross remembers witnessing buggy races.

The Rosses bought their first car about a year before they moved to Texico. She was scared to drive, and has never learned to manipulate a car. "The worst thing about the old cars, was the way they would have to be cranked," she states.

The Rosses had five children, three girls and two boys. The oldest daughter and also Mr. Ross passed away in 1935, and the local woman reared the daughter's son, Billy Bob Drace.

Children include: the twins, Mrs. Clona Leonard of Corpus Christi; and Mrs. Mona Coburn of Texico; Frank Ross of Stockton, Calif.; and Jim Ross, who resides with his mother in Texico. Mrs. Ross has two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

And she still thinks Texico and this area is a pretty wonderful country.

IRRIGATION FARMERS, WHERE IS YOUR WATER GOING?

If someone told you that you are losing about one-third of the costly water you are pumping out of the ground for your crops, would you say he is crazy?

We really wouldn't blame you, but why don't you take time to read the article printed here?

Then, whether you believe it or not, come in and talk with us. Let us tell you about some of the other advantages of concrete pipe for irrigation that also will surprise you.

Here Are Some of Them:

Grow crops on ALL your land. No broken ditches. No evaporation. Run water uphill, downhill, at controlled speeds. No weeds around ditches. No bogs to cross in your car. Greater convenience and safety.

CONCRETE PIPES SAID TO SAVE 30 TO 40% WATER

LUBBOCK, July 15—Can you imagine losing 30 to 50 per cent of every class of water you try to drink?

Of course, the example is far-fetched, but the figures are right for water loss in open-ditch irrigation, according to Dr. Arthur Young, head of the department of agriculture engineering and agronomy at Texas Tech.

Tech has eliminated water loss in a 200-acre, livestock pasture irrigation venture installed in April. Dr. Young said its all done with underground concrete pipes and risers, spaced at desired intervals. Surface caps allow the water to be used or shut off as needed.

Dr. Young estimates the cost of installing such a system from $1 to $1.10 a foot, depending on the number of rises. Water savings from evaporation and seepage offset the cost of installation, he said. In addition, there are no longer the open ditch problems of how to get water uphill and keeping weeds from growing around the ditch.

Dr. Young pointed out that seepage loss in the open ditch will always be the same regardless of the amount of water used in any situation. From this, he explains, the farmer with a low-flowing well should be particularly benefitted by an underground system.

Proper joint fittings and the use of rubber seals, both to stop underground seepage will increase water use efficiency, he said.

These and other problems have been worked out, and Tech's livestock pasture irrigation system stands as an example of efficient underground watering.

Timely Talks

FROM THE TRIBUNE

This Week:

"It's Not All Hard Work"

Aside from these perplexing conditions in weekly newspapering, sensible people are still attracted to the business because of some of the more lasting and worthwhile satisfactions that come from associating with friendly, busy people. The editor feels well repaid for his time and labor if someone makes a remark that his column on state politics hit the nail on the head. Likewise, the society editor flushes with pleasure if a subscriber takes time to comment that he or she appreciated the thoroughness and accuracy on an account of a wedding.

The daily contact with happy Plains people is one of the motivating reasons for our liking the newspaper business. We know just as surely as the sky looks blue that it is a happier and richer experience to live and work in a small city, away from traffic nightmares, the noonhour rush, and high local taxes.

Our neighbor's smiles are bigger, their manner friendlier, their kidding more good-natured, their friendships more sincere than those in a big, bustling, impersonal city. And there's the secret of the weekly's salvation.

People read weekly newspapers because they are interested in reading about individuals in their town; not cinema celebrities, New York financiers, congressional squabbles, Treasury Department scandals, or the like. They want to know what John and Mary did on the weekend. And that's why we're here.

Next week: "The Weekly Newspaper's Trust."

Roof Is Shingled in 6½ Hours

14 Men Pool Work To Finish Project

Farwell Schools last week found a friend in fourteen men and several boys who pitched in together to shingle the new school field house. And they did it all in the amazing time of six hours and 35 minutes.

"These men completed the shingling of the field house, which is 24' x 72', in that short time," said Jack Williams, superintendent. "They gave their time to help the maintenance personnel at school out of a 'hole' and we certainly appreciate this good will gesture."

Work has progressed on and off the house for several months, and the project is at last reaching its final stages.

Not all of the volunteers were carpenters. The men and their normal walks of life are as follows:

Charlie Hromas, carpenter; Henry Henderson, painter; Bill Liles, painter; Tommy Hestand, coach; Cecil Rundell, carpenter; Robert Morton, agriculture teacher; Morgan Billington, carpenter (worked in place of Johnny Williams);

Buck Bradshaw, grocery; H. K. Millford, science teacher; Murray Dial, wheat farmer, Prather Shelly, farmer; W. M. Roberts, principal of high school; James Berry, carpenter; Joe Crumle, Mgr. Kemp Lumber

Five men attack the Field House roof. It was this kind of voluntary cooperation which made possible the rapid completion of the Farwell school project.

Boys who assisted the men included Bert Williams, Rex Pool, and Benji

Tornado Safety Rules Given In Bulletin

Dallas, Texas, July—The U. S. Commerce Department's Weather Bureau has issued a bulletin giving tornado safety rules.

It contains such pointers as:

If you're in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. Given no time to escape, lie flat in a ditch or ravine.

If in a city or town, seek shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building. Stay away from windows. In homes, the southwest corner of the lowest floor in the basement offers greatest safety. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage.

The publication points out that the big storms are most apt to appear between 3 and 7 p.m., but "don't depend on it!"

How to recognize a tornado by its cloud formations is also explained.

Says Ernest Tutt, Commerce Department director for four states: "Better stop in at your nearest Commerce office and get a free copy of this tornado information before the next big blow."

Gasoline and Autos Keep America Moving

The typical U. S. car on a winter day makes 3.9 trips, averaging 8.2 miles per trip, or a total of 32 miles per day carrying 1.8 persons. Of all car trips, 48 per cent are for the purpose of driving to work. Without the efficient cars produced by the nation's auto industry, and the plentiful motor fuel supplies from the oil industry, the daily living habits of Americans would be radically different and far more circumscribed.

RECEIVE TRANSFERS

Twenty-seven school transfers were received by the deadline on August 1, County Judge A. D. Smith, ex-officio school superintendent, reported this week.

How About YOU?

Are you one of the more than 1700 vehicle owners in Parmer County who have not had their car given the safety check-up? Don't give yourself and your county a black eye.

Have Your Car Inspected Now!

JUDGMENT DAY'S COMIN'

Parmer Still Lagging On Auto Inspections

This story appeared in last week's Tribune. It shows just how bad the situation is. Since that time, SIKES MOTOR CO. has been authorized as an official inspection station.

Don't put it off any longer—the deadline is only five short weeks away. Don't get caught in the last-minute rush!

It may sound monotonous to a lot of people by this time, but the fact is that Parmer County is still dragging its feet about getting automobiles inspected for the safety sticker. This is the opinion of L. W. Wilhite of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, Texas Dept. of Public Safety.

The safety official very calmly invited car-owners in this county to figure it out for themselves. There are 2705 vehicles registered in Parmer. Only 904 have passed the safety inspection. That leaves 1761 to go.

"Figure it this way" Wilhite suggests: There are five official inspection stations in Parmer—Hardage Hudson Company, Farwell; Ward's Garage & Welding Shop, Bovina; Parmer County Implement Company, Reeve Chevrolet Company, and Friona Motor Company, Friona.

Approximately six weeks remain in the inspection period, the deadline set at Sept. 6. If automobile inspection began now at an even flow and the quota was met Sept. 6, an average of close to 60 vehicles would pass through each station every week.

"That's a lot of cars," Wilhite says, "and we don't have any promise that people will get started early, either."

It boils down to this, he warns. If you put the inspection off until the last week, or even two weeks, there is danger of a rush and you may get "left out."

Since the deadline has already been liberally extended, it is rather unlikely that it will be tampered with again, officials feel.

Inspection has been rather slow all over the Panhandle, the safety expert says, but Parmer is behind most of the others. He concluded by saying that the seriousness of the situation can not be exaggerated, and urged vehicle operators to be expedient.

Picnic Sandwiches

Celebrate "August Is Sandwich Time" picnic fashion with the favorite sandwiches pictured here. Sandwiches are so easy to make you can organize an outing in a jiffy.

Picnic time is fun time! Keep food preparation to a minimum. You can quickly make up ham and cheese sandwiches. Everyone likes 'em. Or, you might even take the "fixings" along and let each one make his special favorite.

Potato salad is a high ranking escort for sandwiches. On hurry-up occasions buy a big bag of potato chips. Make a big thermos jug of lemonade and take along a sack of fresh fruit. Your menu is complete!

Ham and cheese make ideal fillings for sandwiches because they travel well. Other good pre-made picnic sandwiches include all of the luncheon meats and sausages, roast beef, sliced chicken, tongue and corned beef. If you want your sandwich to take on "Dagwood" proportions, take along picalilli, mustard, tomatoes, lettuce leaves, chili sauce and salad dressing.

There are many other delicious sandwich fillings which are at their best when made at the picnic site. Choose from the wide variety of cheese and meat spreads available in jars. Take along a can of sardines and hard cooked eggs for "make-your-own" specialties. Another good one is made by mixing cream cheese with crushed crisp bacon, chipped beef or crushed fruits.

If you have a camp stove, or facilities for making a fire, you'll probably want to take along frankfurters and long buns. Other "best sellers" are the mighty hamburger and the luxury steak. Perhaps you haven't ever made toasted cheese sandwiches over a fire. You'll like them. Heat pork and beans, too, over the fire and make bean sandwiches with Boston brown bread. Bacon is especially good with this.

Add variety to picnic sandwiches by using different breads. Of course, enriched white bread is most popular. But you will enjoy occasionally, whole wheat, rye, pumpernickel, raisin and cinnamon breads. Fruit and nut breads are especially good with cheese spreads.

Jobs Gives Review Of New Football Rules

All high schools in Texas had spring training and will be in fall practice about Sept. 1, Shelby Jobs, junior coach at Farwell schools, relates. He adds that this includes six men, and classes G, 1A, 2A, 3A and 4A.

Jobs adds that 882 high schools, 26 senior colleges and universities and eighteen junior colleges will be playing football in Texas this fall. But according to the local man, the big trouble this year will be the lack of competent officials in some areas. "Many good officials are quitting because of the pressure of fans and the small pay involved," says Jobs.

Discussing the football situation further, Jobs says that there was a great deal of rough play in football last fall over the country, and adds "it seems like the rule makers have passed the buck or at least have given the officials more leeway in enforcing rough tactics for 1952."

Two changes for 1952 rules are: Rule 9, section 1, article 1: Mandatory suspension for striking with the forearm, elbow or locked hands; and Rule 9, section, article 2: Mandatory suspension for flagrantly rough play or unsportsmanlike conduct.

Jobs lists 1952 rules changes in which he feels local football fans might be interested.

Rule changes are: rubber football is legalized; clipping redefined; coin tossing ceremony three minutes before game time; a fair catcher is allowed two steps in which to regain balance; 15-yard penalty for invalid fair catch signal;

A referee time out following any kick which a team is awarded a first down; ball is not to be inclined more than 45 degrees prior to snap; 15 yard penalty for illegal shift, must hold a full second.

Illegally touching a forward pass by eligible receiver who goes out of bounds, penalty loss of down; 15 yard penalty for defensive holding; penalty for foul against passer, measured from previous spot and use of whistle by field judge is prescribed.

Baptists Plan Weekend Youth Revival Soon

A weekend youth revival is planned at the Baptist church, August 15-17, Rev. C. M. Fields, pastor of the church, says. Jackie Taylor of Allison has consented to conduct the preaching.

Taylor is a student at Hardin-Simmons university.

Gives Sure Way To Kill Johnson Grass

Mrs. Claude Rose of this city recommends a sure way of killing Johnson grass, which she admits appeared in Old Tack's column in the Amarillo News last year.

She can recommend it, she says, because she has tried it and found that it works. Here it is:

On August 20, 21, or 22 rip up the roots and leave them exposed. That's all there is to it. But she cautions that there are four layers of roots and all must be uprooted. This is the time of the year when the sign of the Zodiac is in the heart, is the explanation.

FFA Boys To Plan Annual Trip Monday

Farwell Future Farmers of America will meet Monday night to plan their annual summer trip, Robert "Prof" Morton, agriculture instructor, announces. Session will begin at 8:30 at the ag building on the school campus.

Texico Youth Program To Conclude Soon

Texico youth program, which has consisted mostly of softball instruction, should conclude in the next few weeks, says Kirt Miller, director of activities.

Workmen have been busy on the park, trying to get courts for tennis, basketball and other activities, and equipment cannot be installed until the work is finished. Administrators hope to get the courts rolled and black topped in the next week or two.

Lights for the tennis courts have been investigated, but nothing definite has been released.

A weiner roast was held at Texico school house recently for those enrolled in the youth program. About 30 young people were on hand for the function, says Miller. Assisting in the planning of the program was Mrs. Ray Tharp.

Date Scheduled for Coming Youth Revival

Date for the youth revival at Texico-Farwell Methodist church has been set for August 24 through August 31, Rev. M. H. Stroup, pastor of the church, says. J. Noble Atkins, pastor of the Methodist church at Grady, has consented to do the preaching.

Rev. Atkins is a young preacher, serving his first pastorate. He recently finished seminary, with a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist university in Dallas.

Rex Pool will lead the singing for the special services; and special musical numbers are planned each night, Rev. Stroup says.

Solitary trees are struck by lightning more often than trees in a group.

New Notes in Cooking

A stuffed baked potato is fine, but even finer is the potato pulp mixed with creamed salt codfish or creamed finnan haddie and put back into the potato shell. Bake, of course, to reheat and brown lightly.

Mix crisp-fried bacon bits with canned cream-style corn; season with Ac'cent (pure monosodium glutamate), salt, pepper. Heat, serve, and sit back for compliments.

Alternate buttered and seasoned layers of cooked macaroni, drained chopped spinach, and grated cheese in a buttered baking dish. Bake in moderate oven until cheese on top is browned and bubbly. A wonderful no-meat treat.

Sunday or holiday supper, in a wink, is no trick at all. Spread deviled ham paste on split, toasted, and buttered English muffins. Top with creamy scrambled eggs. Good!

Stewing lamb cubes, flavored with garlic and seasoned with Ac'cent, then browned, are a good start for a one-dish meal. Bake with liquid until partly done; add cooked barley, carrots, and peas. Fragrant, flavorful and satisfying is this dish.

Equalization Board Convenes August 15

Farwell School Equalization board will be in session in the County Court room August 15 from 1 o'clock to 4 in the afternoon, Clyde Magness, assessor of the Farwell school district says.

Buildings or residences that have been added to or altered will come up for discussion at the meeting, Magness states.

Pentecostal Revival To Begin August 18

Rev. C. A. Hatcher announces a revival meeting to begin August 18 at the United Pentecostal church in Texico, with Rev. Aaron Thames as evangelist. Rev. Thames is from Borger.

GOOD NEWS for HOMEMAKERS

HAMBURGERS RISE to deluxe rating when they have a rich tomato sauce. To prepare them, shape 4 patties from a mixture of 1 pound ground beef, 1 small onion chopped, 1 egg, 1/2 cup soft bread cubes, and salt and pepper. Cook till done in shortening in a skillet. Put hamburgers on a platter. Then pour 1 can (1 1/4 cups) of condensed tomato soup into the skillet, stir to loosen browned bits of meat. When sauce is hot, pour over patties.

"A-TISKET, A-TASKET", go pack the picnic basket and get ready to celebrate the month of July. A dish you'll be glad to have in the basket is pork and beans mixed with browned chunks of frankfurters. You can prepare the beans over the campfire First brown 2 or 3 sliced frankfurters and some chopped onion in shortening in a skillet. Then stir in a can of beans (1-pound size) plus 1/2 cup tomato ketchup and 1 1/2 teaspoons mustard. Simmer about 15 minutes to blend the flavors. One can of beans makes enough for 3 people. Count on extra active appetites.

COOL AS A CUCUMBER is the way you'll feel when you keep meals completely simple in the summertime. And they'll be big-hit meals with your family if you star such favorites as soups and salads. Give them brimming bowls of chicken noodle soup; and for salad have a luscious combination of tuna, chopped celery and stuffed olives on lettuce. A fittingly fine dessert to go with this menu is luscious red raspberries poured over plain cake squares (made with a mix), top with vanilla ice cream.

TO SHOW FILMS

Rev. M. H. Stroup, pastor of the Methodist church, announces that a motion picture in sound will be presented one Sunday evening each month in place of the sermon. The films stress religious education.

BIGROW Guaranteed LIQUID FERTILIZER — EASY TO USE (Read carefully)

Apply at rate of 1 to 3 gallons per acre diluted with 5 to 20 gallons of water, depending on type of sprayer equipment available, for leaf or foliage absorption. Also through overhead sprinkler system or as side dressing along sides of rows with converted cultivator attachment.

U. S. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, January, 1952. "Atomic Energy in Plant Science" reports results of use by college researchers of "tagged" liquid fertilizer atoms in proving that foliage spraying of plant nutrients is an efficient, economical and rapid method of applying a portion of all of the plants' nutrient requirements. Foliage spraying can be incorporated in with insecticidal and fungicidal spraying. Thus two tasks are performed at the same time. Foliage spraying of liquid fertilizers is readily adaptable to aerial applications.

Typical spray equipment for leaf feeding with liquid fertilizer. The liquid plant food often is mixed with compatible weed killer, insecticide or fungicide spray solutions to do two jobs at once.

Advantages of BIGROW Guaranteed LIQUID FERTILIZER

- 1. For use on corn, small grains, forage crops, legume crops, cotton, peanuts, sugar beets, potatoes and vine crops, etc.
2. Applied to the foliage, enters the sap stream immediately to supply the plant with a complete balanced plant fertilizer. . . Plant response is fast.
3. Is more economical because it produces more, influences earlier emergence, better quality, higher yield and shortens the growing season. . . Can be used on any kind of crop requiring fertilizer.
4. All of Bigrow Guaranteed Liquid Fertilizer is immediately available to plant life.
5. Is easy and convenient to handle. . . Eliminates hard, wasted labor as in handling 800 lbs. of useless filler in each 1,000 lbs. of dry fertilizer.
6. Cannot be lost by leaching or be blown away or remain in soil, unused.
7. Cannot burn or otherwise harm plant life, used as recommended.
8. Reduces mortality of young plants—helps them resist blight.
9. Can be mixed and applied with 2-4-D, or bug dope.
10. Contains trace elements of manganese, copper, zinc, iron and boron, in a balanced, soluble mixture.

Community PMA Elections Announced

Community PMA elections will be held in each of Parmer county's 9 farm communities in near future, Joe Camp, Secretary of the county PMA committee announced today.

At these elections, farmers in each community will vote for three farmers to serve on the community committee, for a delegate to the county convention to elect the county PMA committee for 1953, and for alternates. In general, any farmer is eligible to vote if he is owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper, is participating or is carrying out practices in accord with programs administered by the county PMA committee.

Secretary Camp emphasizes that the effectiveness of Agricultural Conservation Program operation and of price support and marketing programs will depend a great deal on the community committees who are voted in at these elections.

The concentration of Agricultural Conservation Program operations in 1953 on the problems of individual farms adds to the need for able committees. Committees will be expected to help each farmer in determining the conservation needs on his farm and in making the most effective use of ACP assistance and available services in carrying out needed practices.

Since this program has to do with the protection and improvement of the soil and conservation of water on the farms of Parmer county, community committees are in a key position in the fight for continued production.

The chairman urges farmers in each community in Parmer county to look over the field carefully and make sure that farmers are elected who are best qualified and who will have the time to devote to the job.

Only Six Cases Tried In Court

Sam Lewis, police magistrate of Texico, reports fewer cases in the month of July than have been recorded in quite sometime.

Only one case of overloading was tried and five cases for violating sections 68-1305 of the New Mexico State Corporation Commission rules and regulations, which deal with operating in interstate commerce without a permit.

All cases drew fines from $10 to $25 plus court costs.

Texico Farm Bureau To Meet Monday Night

Everyone is welcome at the Texico Farm Bureau meeting Monday night at the Texico school lunchroom, says Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, reporter.

The meeting begins at 8:00 in the evening, and details of the program have not yet been released.

John Aldridge Named To Grievance Committee

J. Glenn Turner of Dallas, newly elected president of the attorneys' association announced the appointments.

Aggrieved clients may make complaints against lawyers and be assured of a fair and impartial hearing. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against erring members of the legal profession the Bar president indicated.

Committeemen named by Turner includes John Aldridge, Farwell. William Q. Boyce Amarillo, State Bar director for the 18th District, will serve as an ex-officio member of the grievance group. ### MAIN STREET OVERFLOWED

Cars and people clug Farwell's main thoroughfare Saturday afternoon just before 4 o'clock. They were in town to participate in a program sponsored by seven Texico-Farwell merchants. Most of the people are crowded around the Border Theatre where a refrigerator and a set of silverware were given away.

Two Farwell Students Get Degrees Friday

Two Farwell students received degrees from Eastern New Mexico university in Portales Friday evening; in commencement exercises in the quadrangle building patio.

William Halbert Graham Jr. received his bachelor of arts degree in journalism; and Mrs. Erma Jobes, was awarded her bachelor of music education with honors in music. Mrs. Jobes is music instructor at Farwell schools.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College was speaker for the occasion. He stated that "we so often miss the things that really count in life," and added that upon realization, people seem to find the most pleasure in smaller experiences. He emphasized happiness as the goal to strive for and told students that material things are not those which gain the most in life.

The summer session band, under the direction of Floren Thompson, played the professional and recreational; and Rev. Harold I. Wollard gave the invocation and benediction.

Presentation of the speaker was made by Dr. Floyd D. Golden, president of the university. A summer vocal ensemble sang "The Beatitudes". Presentation of graduates was made by Dean Martin Cole; President Golden conferred degrees; and Glenn Staley, president of the Board of Regents, made the presentation of diplomas.

Petroleum pipe line construction throughout the world has amounted to about 20,000 miles for each of the past three years, and fully as big a program lies ahead for 1952.

About 80 Youngsters Enrolled in School

Final program for the Vacation Bible school at the Methodist church was held Friday morning at the church. About 80 children had been enrolled in the classes for the school; with fourteen regular workers assisting with the program, and four part-time helpers.

Each department of the program was featured on the concluding school, and handwork of the children was on display for parents to see. A preschool rhythm band was a special feature.

Group singing was also a portion of the program. An offering was taken among the children each day; and a contribution of $53.62 was gained for the Navajo Methodist Mission School at Farmington, N. M.

Mrs. Jim Moss, general superintendent for the school, expresses her appreciation to everyone who helped to make the Vacation Bible school a success.

Officers here said that he was still in the county jail, awaiting trial at Hereford on a similar charge.

TB and the X-Ray Bus

Time was when the TB victim innocently walked the streets of his town undetected—and undetectable

For who had the millionaire's pocketbook to pay for examining a whole town of a thousand people to sieve out one possible victim?

Now comes the x-ray bus, able to be TB detective for whole cities, for a few pennies a person. Millions of people now have their TB worries erased when the doctor says "Okay."

How long did it take to get the x-ray bus? Well, for its part, General Electric had been working on x rays for 57 years. Costs of diagnosis have come down by better and better equipment. No year passes without some new development. So this was another big chapter in a long book of events.

Notice the nice way these buses get into service. They are usually purchased by voluntary contributions of plain people trying to get a job done.

It is always hard to write a definition of the "American Way." But this hand-in-hand achievement of state and national health associations, General Electric, and the local communities comes close to being a perfect example.

Improved Gasoline And Autos Mean Savings In Dollars And Oil

Because of improvements that have been made in gasoline quality, automobile manufacturers have been able to equip cars during the past few years with engines of higher and higher compression ratios. A conservative estimate indicates that using these engines with today's superior gasoline cuts about 10 per cent of the nation's annual gasoline consumption. This economy not only represents a saving of $600 million, but also conserves petroleum equivalent to the output of about 500 oil wells, each producing a thousand barrels a day.

Our Greatest Asset

Have you a heart? Of course you have. And yet it is not really your own. For hearts were given us that we might give them away. If you have come to yourself, you know that your heart belongs to the child whom you love. It is only when we have lost ourselves that we forget; that we try to satisfy these loving hearts with things. Not even gold or precious stones will long satisfy the hearts of men. Not even grown women and men will permanently satisfy us; we were made to be lovers of children. Only after they come into the house do we really have a home. So our children are the spiritual assets of every life and of every home.

How true must this be in the life of the nation! Why did the Pioneers seek a home in this new land? Surely not primarily for themselves, but for their children. Why do you toil through the long, hot day? Only partly for yourself and for the things that will satisfy your appetite. Children make our lives worth living; and they remain our real reason for being, no matter how old they may become.

How foolish then to deceive ourselves into serving other earthly causes! Like the great Father in Heaven we were made for loving; love is the very essence of our nature. God is love; man at his best also is love. And only our children give us adequate room for loving.

The future of our nation is with our children; the Kingdom belongs to them. Why not set them in the very midst of our planning and of our hoping for the future? We shall build wisely if we care not only for their physical well being, but even more for the furnishing of their minds and hearts. What great thoughts are we putting into their minds? What noble souls are we teaching them to love and to cherish? They are our insurance for the days ahead; they alone will be able to bring to pass the dreams that have urged us on. Let's invest our best in our greatest asset; the child of today; the woman and the man of tomorrow.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. 'You in the Church and the Church in you'—form a combination for good.

Bailey Co. Electric Co-Op Receives Loan

"The Bailey County Electric Co-operative Association, better known as the REA co-op, has received notice that a loan of $1,050,000.00 has been made for building transmission lines, building substations, and extending service to more than 200 irrigation wells and 6 cotton gins in Bailey, Farmer, Castro, Lamb and Cochran Counties," D. B. Lancaster, Manager of the Cooperative, announced.

"The loan was made by the Government through the Rural Electrification Administration for a period of thirty-five (35) years with two per cent (2%) interest which will be repaid by money received from electric bills," Lancaster said. He went on to say that so far the Cooperative had borrowed $2,434,000.00 previous to this loan and that all interest and principal had been paid up to date with a reserve for maintenance and breaks due to storms.

Lancaster stated, "The Cooperative is sound financially and locally controlled by people that are elected by members of users of electric service."

The manager indicated that when the proposed lines, and the lines now under construction, were completed there would be eight substations in different communities which would make power available for any size irrigation wells, gins, and other uses. A high-voltage line will extend from Muleshoe to Morton with substations at Needmore, Enochs, Maple, and Morton. Other substations will be located east and west of Muleshoe.

"Construction will start on new lines as fast as materials are available and the wells are ready," the Manager stated.

New Mexico State Fair Begins on September 27

Albuquerque (Special)—The agricultural department of the 1952 New Mexico State Fair, September 27, October 5, has been completely revised and brought up to date, according to an announcement by Leon H. Harms, Secretary-Manager. Premiums for farm products have been increased in several classes and 51 new classes have been added. The new classes cover grains, seeds, cotton, vegetables and fruits.

A new superintendent also has been selected to administer the agricultural division, Harms announced. The new superintendent is Robert B. Storey, Albuquerque, organization director for the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau. Assistant superintendent will be Jack Wayne, of the Indian School, Albuquerque.

The revision of the department was made under the supervision of a committee of agricultural specialists including Mr. Storey; J. K. Stovall, State College; R. I. Cross, agricultural agent for the Santa Fe Railway; G. L. Boykin, Las Cruces; J. F. Sprowls, San Juan County Agent; and L. J. Knight, San Jon.

A special division of the Fair's agricultural department will be offered by the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association, with headquarters in Las Cruces. This division is limited to members of the association. To qualify all exhibits competing for the special awards must have been field inspected and passed by an inspector of the NMCA and must show a satisfactory laboratory germination and purity test prior to exhibition. The Crop Improvement Ass'n. will duplicate all premiums won in open competition.

Closing date for entries in the agricultural department is Saturday, September 27, 9:00 p.m.

Information, premium book and entry forms can be secured from Leon H. Harms, Secretary-Manager, New Mexico State Fair, P. O. Box 1693, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Oil Search Intensive In Basin Area

Probably the most significant oil well drilled in 1951 was the Williston Basin well in N. Dakota. Oil men, who realize what discovery of oil in this area can mean to the nation's future petroleum supplies, increased the number of seismograph crews looking for oil in the Williston Basin from a handful to more than three score in a few months.

Have A Drink Of Ink? Don't Mind If I Do

If you want the inside story, Craig Phillips looks a little blue. Who wouldn't after guzzling one-half bottle of permanent blue writing ink?

Craig, who's less than two years old but ready to try anything, gave his mother, Liz, quite a jar last week as she finished a telephone conversation.

He had been out of sight while she was conversing, and as she replaced the telephone receiver, she remarked to herself that he seemed to be mighty quiet.

When she could see him, she received a surprise. Craig was having a party all his own. He was sitting on the floor, holding a half-drained ink bottle in one hand, and licking his lips in a satisfied way. The blue "mustache" told the terrible truth. The other half-bottle of ink was inside him.

A doctor hurriedly assured Mrs. Phillips no harm would likely come of it.

Jobs To Attend Coaching School

Shelby Jobs, grade school coach at Farwell schools, will attend the Coaching school at Albuquerque Aug. 10-16. The school is sponsored by the University of New Mexico and Lions club.

According to Jobs, this will be the last year for the school at New Mexico University; because the school is a member of the Sky Line Conference which outlaws coaching schools and all-star games on its member's campus.

Eastern New Mexico in Portales is making a bid for the school next year.

Faculty for the six days training includes Football: Sikes of Kansas U. T formation; and Bowden Wyott of Wyoming U., single wing formation; Basketball: Jack Gardner of Kansas State; and Harry Combs of Illinois University.

The all-star basketball game will be at Highland High on Friday, Aug. 15; and all-star football game will be played on the 16th.

Jones Gives Tips on Swine Management

Neglecting the pig crop now can cause trouble this fall. Growing pigs need attention during the hot summer months if they are to be ready for the early fall market, says Joe Jones, County Agent.

Plenty of shade, water and a balanced diet are musts for growing pigs in the summer time. But because of the rush of farm work and shortage of labor, the pigs are often not provided with even the essentials for proper growth. If shade is not available in the hog pasture in the form of trees, then it should be provided. A brush arbor type structure, provided it is large enough, is entirely satisfactory, says Jones, or an upright frame covered with a thick layer of hay makes a good shade.

Jones recommends running the pigs on a legume pasture if possible. If legumes are not available, he likes sudan. Pigs on good pasture are not likely to become infested with worms and will be healthy. Protein requirements, too, can be cut in half by using pasture.

The easiest and surest way to have water in the hog lot at all times is with an automatic watering system. Pigs need much more water during the summer months and unless plenty of good, clean and preferably cool water is available at all times, they will not do good.

The use of self-feeders will save time, feed and labor and will insure that the pigs get their feed when they need it. The feeders can be filled during slack times or between other farm jobs. Growing pigs also need a supplement along with the grain. This can be fed free-choice or mixed with the grain as can minerals if needed.

Flight Training Is Open for Graduates

Denver, Colo.—The Marine Corps has opened up flight training for college graduates who have entered its Office Candidate program.

These college graduates, according to Sgt. Gene Lawler, must successfully complete at least 14 of their 20 weeks Special Basic Course at Quantico, Virginia, before applying, because all Marine aviators must know tactics of ground warfare for their coordinated air-ground teamwork in attack.

Sergeant Lawler said that applicants for the next Officer Candidate Class, beginning September 30 were now being accepted. He said that college graduates accepted for flight training under the Marine Corps Reserve Officer program would be sent to the U. S. Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, for their pilot training.

For information, contact your local Marine Corps recruiter.

Oil Industry Spends Billions on Expansion

The U. S. oil industry has spent over $15 billion since World War II for new facilities and development of existing ones, making it possible to meet the growing needs of our civilian and defense economy. This has meant an expansion of from 30 to 50 per cent in all phases of the industry. Most of the capital expenditures came from earnings which were plowed back into history.
