

Mustangs Blank Steers, Loom as Conference Crown Contenders

Win 27-0, Push Skein to 5 Straight By JEANNE KERBY

The Bovina Mustangs continued undefeated Friday night as they met the Mustang Steers and won 27-0, on Mustang field. This gives the team five wins, two on the conference ledger.

The Steers kicked to get the game underway and Bovina started on their own 15. The Mustangs marched up the field on four first downs with some nice runs by Read and Ezell and two completed passes from Smith to Read and Smith to Ezell. On their try for more yardage they made eight, then just lacked inches of a first. Offside on third down, they were penalized five yards, two passes failed and the Steers took over on their own 45.

The Steers moved to the Bovina 43; lost yardage on two plays, had an incomplete pass and had to kick. Bovina returned the ball to their own 38, then picked up a first on the Farwell 48. On the next play Smith passed to Norman Taylor on the 30 and Taylor went on over the double stripe for the first Bovina touchdown. Read's conversion kick was good. Farwell received and opened up action on their 33, where the quarter ended. Farwell failed to make a first and Bovina took over on downs on their own 31. Ezell carried to the 10, but the half ended before the play could begin. Farwell played, starting their longest drive of the evening from their own 35. Sparked by some nice running by Gene Hardage the Steers moved to the Bovina 10 but there they bogged down and lost the ball on the Bovina two. Bovina made one first down, then on their fourth down fumbled, Farwell recovered. Farwell was held for no gain and the ball changed hands. Bovina had made one first down as the quarter ended.

In the last period the Mustangs got another first, then later had to punt, Farwell going to the offense on their 33. On third down Read again intercepted a Steer pass, taking the ball on his own 40 and returning it seven yards. Bovina went on to score again, the tally coming on a 20-yard pass from Read to Ware. Ware, the regular quarterback, had not been in the game due to illness. On fourth down, with still almost 10 to go, he came in, and the strategy worked as he took the pass and ran about two yards. Read again converted and Bovina led 20-0. Farwell received and shortly had another pass intercepted, this time by Ezell, putting Bovina in action on the Farwell 41. They again went all the way, Read passing to Erith Hawkins, in the end zone, for the score. Read converted. Farwell received and had gone downfield from their own 40 to the Bovina 20 when the final whistle ended the game at 27-0. Bovina racked up 15 first downs; Farwell had five. The bands from the two schools presented interesting half-time activities. The Wolverines will play on the Friona field this Friday night opposite the Friona Chiefs. It will be the third conference match. Time, 8:00 p. m.

Two Indictments By Parmer Grand Jury

The Parmer County grand jury, in session Monday for the October term of district court, returned two indictments against persons who will be arraigned tomorrow (Friday).

One indictment is for burglary, returned against Howard Brewer. He is free on $1500 bond. The indictment reads that on or about March 28 Brewer and John Holloway unlawfully entered the home of A. B. Wilkerson, Bovina.

Holloway is now serving sentence. Arlie R. Robertson, Earth, is charged with forgery. He also is free on $1500 bond. He is alleged to have forged a check for $70 made payable to W. A. Allen and signed by R. W. Prescott, and then endorsed it over to A. M. Wilson, grocery store operator in Bovina.

If the two men enter pleas of guilty, they will be tried Friday without jury. If they plead not guilty, Judge E. A. Bills will set a date for trial and call in a jury for the case. The grand jury took little time to return the two bills. They were through by noon Monday. Included on the jury are Vernon Estes, Oscar Baxter, Earl Derrick, G. Cranfill, C. V. Potts, George Magness, H. W. Hardage, M. A. Snider, Aubrey Brock, Glenn Reeve, O. B. Roberson, and B. K. Greeson.

Petit Jury Has Job The petit jury did not have such an easy time of it Monday. They were in session until 11:30 that night considering the case of Fleet Gill et al vs. F. W. Cogdill. The plaintiff is from Levelland, Cogdill from Friona.

The nature of the suit involved a dispute between the parties over commission on a real estate transaction. The jury was asked to decide three "special issues," and the ruling on the case will then be handed down by Judge Bills at a later date.

The jury was asked if it believed there existed a dispute between the two parties when a check in the amount of $352.80 was written. They took the affirmative.

The jury then indicated it believed the real estate firm did not "accept check in full satisfaction for their services."

The jury also decided there was no evidence to indicate that an instrument of listing besides the check existed. That is, the defendant was not bound by a separate contract. Members of the petit jury were Vernon Jamison, Glenn Phillips, Gene White, L. L. Norton, Carl Rea, Tom Caldwell, J. T. Jones, Albert Drager, Clarence Johnson, Wendol Christian, Preston Martin, and T. W. Bewley.

The verdict in the case probably will be rendered tomorrow (Friday) when Judge Bills returns for non-jury matters.

Rhea, Hub, Bovina Phones Activated About 235 farm homes in Parmer County have been cut in on telephone service over the past week, announces Harold Carpenter, one RTA director, who has worked on the project for four years.

Carpenter says the directors are "disappointed" that it will be necessary for phone users to pay a toll fee for some services under the present operating agreement, but he says there is hope that the fee will be eliminated "by Christmas."

Subscribers now are able to call anyone on their own exchange without toll. If they make a call into town, or to a party on another exchange, they will have a toll charged to their account.

The effect of this toll service is greatly minimized, however, by a reduction of basic rates from 4.75 to $3.00 per month. Thus, at 15 cents per call, a person can telephone outside his own exchange 11 times and still be under the $4.75 rate.

There are about 75 parties on the Bovina exchange, and about 80 parties on each of the Rhea and Hub exchanges. It is now possible to telephone into almost any rural area of the county.

The toll service is necessary because of a previous disagreement between the RTA and General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Still No Rain—Land Is Parched Under October Sun The spectre of additional drought burned on with renewed fury this week, as Parmer County missed out on the scattered showers across the High Plains the middle of the week.

Cool morning and evening temperatures are being recorded, but Old Sol still turns on the heat every afternoon. Farmers, who expected a freeze by this date at least, are surprised by the unseasonal balmy weather.

Irrigation has made it possible for Parmer County to raise bumper cotton and row crops this fall, but for the farms without wells—there just isn't much.

Native pastureland is tinder dry, and except in the bottom of a few draws in the county, grass is non-existent. Wheatland, now trying to get a start for the winter, is in desperate straits for rainfall. Unless moisture comes—and soon—there's little prospect for winter wheat pasture in this area.

Saturday Big Day For City Dump Yard Officials of the City of Farwell registered surprise at the number of Twin City citizens who paid 50 cents per load for the privilege of dumping trash at the modified grounds east of town Saturday.

Wilfred Quickel, tax collector, reported the city, took in $20 during the day, indicating that 40 persons hauled trash to the yard. An attendant is maintained at city expense each Saturday to supervise dumping activity so that the yard can be kept in an orderly manner.

★ SECOND CONTEST IS CLOSE RACE

The four winners of the second "pick the finisher" football contest finished in a bunch this week. All of them missed but one guess each, and prizes were awarded on the basis of time entries were turned in.

One tie resulted in the 10-game card, and was not counted in compiling game results.

Nat Read said Tech would beat A&M Saturday, but that was his only mistake. He turned in his blank at 1 o'clock Tuesday. Bob Pittard thought N. M. A&M would beat McMurry, so he missed one also. No time was recorded on his blank, although it was turned in Tuesday, so he gets second place.

Allen Cumpton picked Ohio State over Illinois for a loss, turning his in Wednesday at 7:59 a.m. J. A. Denton did the same thing but his time was 9:05 of the same day.

Of the sixty-odd entries, only three picked Farwell to beat Bovina, so the 27-0 score is no surprise, apparently.

Cotton Referendum Called by Benson

A national marketing quota of 10 million bales of cotton has been proclaimed for the 1954 cotton crop, and a grower referendum will be held in conjunction with this matter Dec. 15.

An affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the cotton growers will be necessary to make quotas binding. The referendum will be quite similar to the recent wheat vote, which saw farmers vote for the reinstatement of acreage controls and the accompanying support program.

Whereas there are about 24,500 acres of cotton in the country this year, the acreage will be reduced to about 17,910,000 acres for 1954.

Just what this will mean for Parmer County cotton growers is not known at the present time. Joe Camp, PMA secretary, says measuring of the 1953 crop has not yet been completed.

Unofficially, growers are expecting a severe cut in allowable acres because of the decision to make allotments on the basis of crops over the past five years, excluding 1949.

Football Game To Be Played Tonight

Farwell Steers will meet the Anton football team tonight (Thursday) on the local field, instead of Friday as previously announced, school officials say. Game is to be played a day early to enable some of the visiting team members to get away to Dallas to the State Fair.

Game time is 8 o'clock. Tribune Ads Gets Results

PEGGY HARDAGE IS SWEETHEART OF FARWELL F. F. A. CHAPTER

Peggy Hardage, 17-year-old junior in Farwell schools and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hardage, has been named FFA sweetheart by Farwell FFA chapter and will represent the group at further contests.

Miss Hardage is reporter of the Student Council, cheer leader, FFA pianist, and princess of her class for the annual Halloween carnival.

She was runner-up of the Farm Bureau queen contest held in the county the latter part of the summer.

Larry Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Berry, miraculously escaped serious injury Friday afternoon in an accident on Highway 60.

Berry was driving a tractor and pulling a binder, headed toward Bovina. The farm vehicle was near a roadside park when an elderly man from Black hit the binder with his car. The binder flipped into the tractor, overturning the machinery.

The Bovina boy managed to stay from under the tractor and escaped with bruises and cuts. Damage to the binder was estimated at $150 and $300 tractor damage. The car was not damaged.

Lazbuddie Falls To Bula in Tight Game

In a hard-fought ball game played in Bula-Friday, the Longhorns fell to the Bulldogs by a tight score of 24-26.

The game got off to a swift start as the Longhorns kicked off to Bula and the Bulldogs went over for a touchdown on the third play. The try for extra point was no good. White received the Bula kick and went 78 yards for a touchdown.

The Longhorn try for extra point was also no good making the score tied 6-6 in the first minute of play. The score still stood 6-6 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter the Bulldogs managed to run over another touchdown. The try for extra point was good and the score at halftime as 13-6 with Bula out front.

In the third quarter Lazbuddie came back strong. The Longhorns were able to score two touchdowns to put them out in front by a score of 18-13. Joe Briggs caught a pass in the end zone for one of the touchdowns and David White ran the other one over. Both tries for extra points were no good. The defense did itself proud as it held Bula scoreless the third quarter, making the score still 18-13 as the quarter closed.

Lazbuddie continued to do well as Gleason made another touchdown early in the fourth quarter and Lazbuddie led 24-13.

The teams played on even terms until the last four minutes when Bula came to life and scored two touchdowns to win the game by a score of 26-24.

Lazbuddie has won four of the five games played. We would like all fans to be present at their next game which will be played Thursday, Oct. 15, at 2:30. The game will be with Spade at Lazbuddie.

Offices of Bovina Butane Service, formerly located in the C. R. Elliott Hardware store, have been moved to a new location, says Bob Pittard, firm manager. The offices are now across the street from Wilson Grocery.

Hamlin-Memorial Methodist Revival Begins Sunday; Rev. Graves Speaker

"Christ Can Change the World with You" is the theme of the Methodist Simultaneous Evangelistic Program, which is being launched next week in The Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church with Rev. Henry L. Graves of Odessa, Texas preaching each evening at 7:30 and directing visitation. No greater stress has been placed on Evangelism than is being done right now in the Methodist Church.

Rev. Miller H. Stroup announces that the Methodist Church feels "the hour has struck"; "It is later than we think". If the world and especially our generation is to be saved from impending chaos we must turn now to the Church and to spiritual forces to shape our lives and change human destiny, he says. Everyone is invited to hear the Rev. Graves each evening during this next week. These are important times of decision.

"Christ Can Change the World for you and with you if you will give Him a chance," the pastor says.

Rev. Massey Resigns As Pastoralist At Oklahoma Lane

Rev. Barto Massey, pastor of the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church since November of 1952, tendered his resignation last week, effective Sunday.

In leaving, Rev. and Mrs. Massey made a statement of their appreciation during their stay in that community, "We would like to express our sincere thanks for the cooperation we have received from not only the people of our church and community, but from the surrounding area."

During Rev. Massey's pastorate, a new church building was started, and if all goes well, the structure will be completed by late this fall after harvest is past.

The Masseys, who left the first of this week, indicated they are returning to Dallas to await another church call. He was pastor of a Dallas church before coming to Oklahoma Lane.

Man Picked Up At McAlister Connected With Parmer Crime

Allen B. Morehead, wanted since March of this year for burglary, was picked up last week in McAlister, reports Sheriff Chas. Lovelace, and will be returned here for arraignment in the near future.

He is alleged to have participated in the burglary of the H. H. Elmore home of about $200 worth of property in March. The grand jury indicted he and Raymond Wilson. Wilson has already been convicted and is serving time.

Morehead, a two-time loser, was released from Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., in December of this year. Within two months, the 28-year-old man was back at his old tricks.

If Morehead enters a plea of guilty, his trial will be Oct. 30.

Is it the fault of the teacher? Well, for the most part, we suspect not. Neither can all the blame be charged off to the school administration.

An increased interest by the parents in the progress of the students through their studies—as well as their outside activities—would result in a better balanced system of education for future Americans.

Our experience here in the newspaper business with students just emerged from high school has led us to the sad conclusion that only about one in eight or ten is adequately prepared to cope with the present demands for an education on the fundamentals of graceful living.

Halloween Carnival To Be Held

The student council met Tuesday after school to complete the officers for the year. The meeting was called to order by chairman H. K. Milford. The officers elected were secretary, JoAnne Cochran and reporter, Peggy Hardage. The faculty committee is composed of W. M. Roberts, Mrs. Cates, Mrs. Milford, Miss Mayhew, and Mrs. Fields.

Superintendent Williams made a short talk to the council stressing the need for cooperation of teachers and students in a harmonious way. Also, the council with the aid of the faculty committee will work out all of the school policies for the remainder of the year.

The council decided to meet every two weeks on Wednesday after school.

A special meeting was called on Thursday to decide about a Halloween Carnival. Five grade school teachers were present at this meeting to state their opinions about the carnival. Also eight of the high school faculty, and the student council stated their opinions. Every one was in favor of having the carnival this year. It is to be held Saturday night, October 31, in the High School Gymnasium.

George Pitts To Be on Program

A Southern School assemblies sponsored program is slated for Farwell Schools at 9 o'clock in the morning on October 16, in the auditorium. The "Sound" act impressions with a difference is by George Pitts.

Pitts of radio, stage, and television was born in Bradford, Yorkshire, England and at an early age took up the stage according to a press release. His boyhood was spent roaming the fields and woods of England learning to imitate the sounds he heard of birds and animals.

As a young man, he won an all England talent contest, receiving 3000 out of 5000 votes, for the best entertainer in the British Isles. After this, he started in radio, vaudeville, television and recording. He broadcasted from Europe-Radio Lyons, Radio Normandy, CBS BBC. He has moved with the times, and does an exceptional descriptive version of an air raid over London.

He started the programs aboard His Majesty Ship, the Queen Mary. He played major theatres in England and Europe. He was featured in George Black's show at the Hippodrome Theatre, London, "Black Velvet". Not only does he imitate, but also has a novelty act featuring a fantasy in paper, whistling solos

MEET THE SENIORS

Shirley Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Smith, is the senior of the week. Shirley's main interest is music; her future plans are to attend Wayland, Shirley is editor of the annual, and is hoping for the best one ever. Shirley likes sport clothes (depends), also tight skirts and sweaters. She loves earrings, big or small. She is a majorette, and is very interested in seeing Farwell win their game with Anton. Shirley has a pleasing personality and is liked very well. She also has a great interest in Bovina. Wonder why???

IT'S WELL DRILLING TIME AGAIN!

And progressive farmers are getting ready to start or expand their irrigation program. Are YOU ready? Figure with us on a well like the one above!

This well is on the farm of Mrs. Maitha Heinz, six miles north of Texico. Watts Machine & Pump has just finished installing this well, and as can be seen in the photograph, there is a wealth of water in the area. The well was still under development when the picture was made, and was producing a full pipe of water, using a five-foot discharge pipe.

In the picture are Mrs. Heinz and Mr. and Mrs. John Spearman and son, Bobby. The well is drilled to 393 feet, and the Layne-Bowler pump set on 320. That's way down there, but the G. M. Diesel engine can handle the job with lots of power to spare.

If you'd like to have a well like this on YOUR farm, come by and talk irrigation with the boys at Watts. They'll be happy to give you a free estimate.

ACTIVITY BUZZ
By Mary Joyce Rolland

Now that the World Series is over and every one is extremely happy or otherwise sad as to the outcome, we can go to class each period without having to wait so long to find out what the score is. I guess it is a good thing that they only come once a year, but isn't it exciting while they do last.

By the way, F. H. S. is doing very well in keeping her sports rolling. The Steers will tangle with Bovina Friday night for a victory, (we hope). This will be their first conference game for this season, so be there and bring along all of your support. It will always be appreciated.

The girls basketball team has also been experiencing some rugged workouts, with plenty of sore muscles and several scratches here and there. Pop, candy, and late hours always aid long workouts. If you don't believe it, please don't try or you'll be s-o-r-r-y. The score of the first game played last Monday night was 23-7 in favor of the local girls. The score of the second game was 26-32 with the opponents taking home the victory.

Twelve girls of the pep squad enjoyed a slumber party after the football game Friday night. I must say that JoAnne furnished lots of good food with very little sleep. Too bad that several had to get out of bed so early Saturday morning to take part in various deeds of the day, but from all reports some were found sleeping before the day was over, or otherwise an early bedtime for Saturday night.

I have noticed several fine performances on the part of the band lately. I am sure all enjoyed the marching at half-time at the football games for this season. The twirling duet presented by Darlene and Glenna at our first home game was really a treat. Keep up the good work girls, and also the band.

Our teachers have really been busy on things other than lessons, as you who attended the "Womanless Divorce" probably noticed. My, doesn't Mr. Murray, Mr. Cates, Mr. Fields and Mr. Roberts do well on a stage (wonder how much practicing they did).

The annual Staff has been working diligently to get things off to a good start, the Junior class is busy preparing "A Trip To the Holy Land" which will be presented October 19. Among these activities and several others most all find time to get their lessons, (Believe it or not). Which reminds me, I have some lessons to get, so for now, so long.

DO "YOU" DRIVE A CAR?
By Darlene Sprawls

Do "you" drive a car? If so, this is for you! Do you stop where there are stop signs? Do you stay within the speed limit in town and out? Do you give proper signals?

For a long time people of our town wanted paved streets. With the work of a lot of people the streets were paved, and now what? We are tearing up our streets by sliding tires and "digging off" around corners or flying low (as the expression goes) and then coming to a sliding stop. We surely don't want two cars coming to a Dead stop head-on!

We all know laws are made for the benefit of all of us. If they weren't necessary for our own good safety, they would never have been made. So with these thoughts in mind, let's try to slow down and take life easy in Farwell. "If healthy and wealthy you want to stay—then watch the speed limit and slow down today!"

WE NEED

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

New Conoco Super Gasoline

with TCP

Start the "TWO-TANK TEST" today!

Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP has been rightfully called the greatest advance in motor fuels since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922. For here, at last, is a gasoline so dramatically different that the average motorist can feel the improvement in his car after just two tankfuls. Yes, after your second tankful, chances are you will know why we say Conoco Super with TCP will:

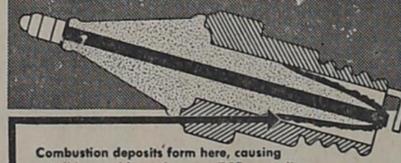

- Boost power as much as 15%!
- Increase spark-plug life up to 150%!
- Give you extra gas mileage!

For Conoco Super is a new kind of gasoline—a gasoline especially developed to correct the greatest single cause of power loss affecting most of the cars on the road today.

Combustion deposits drastically reduce power

When you drive your car, deposits constantly build up on spark plugs and in the combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power two ways. First, they short-circuit spark plugs—causing them to mis-fire. Second, deposits in the combustion chambers cause fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The combined effect of mis-firing and pre-ignition is loss of power, lack of "pop" and wasted gas.

CROSS SECTION OF TYPICAL SPARK PLUG

How Conoco Super with TCP works

TCP is a special chemical additive which is added to Conoco Super Gasoline. It was specifically developed to overcome the loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs—your plugs spark as they should. It prevents deposits in the combustion chambers from causing pre-ignition—"wild ping" is controlled. Thus, every time you fill up with new Conoco Super, it's like getting your spark plugs cleaned and your engine tuned-up.

TCP helps your car, whether new or old

If you are driving a new car, with a high-compression engine, you need Conoco Super Gasoline to keep your car delivering all the power that was built into it. If you drive an older car, with tens of thousands of miles on the speedometer, Conoco Super can restore much of the "new car" performance and power you've been missing.

Start your "TWO-TANK TEST" today

When your gasoline tank is one-quarter full or less, fill it with Conoco Super with TCP. Now, there will still be some ordinary gasoline mixed in with your Conoco Super. So make sure your next tankful is Conoco Super, too. So rapidly does Conoco Super work, that with this second tankful, chances are you'll feel as if your engine has had a tune-up. You'll feel a boost in power. Try it today. We're sure you'll stay with Conoco Super.

Now—at your Conoco dealer!

Letters to the EDITOR

Dear Hop Junior:

Your mother sent me one of the special editions you and your staff got out on the occasion of your Fair.

This was a very creditable edition and I want to congratulate you on the results of your effort. One feature of the edition struck me forcibly was your treatment of the stories on the History of Bovina, Friona, etc.

Those were interesting, and such stories should be a feature of any special edition. The bouquets you threw at the members of your staff for their part in the work shows you have sense of appreciation that is missing altogether too often these days of selfishness.

Keep up the good work and hope your effort will be attended by the success you will deserve. YOURS TRULY JACK HUI

PREPARE for Cold Weather NOW!

Now is a very good time to prepare your automobile for winter driving. Here are some suggestions you should remember.

- TIPS FROM SIKES: ENGINE—Should be tuned, checked over. Use winter-weight oil for quick starting, better lubrication. COOLING SYSTEM—Very important: have Ford, Zerex, or Prestone put in today. We will clean and check the entire system for you. SPECIAL, $3 gal. ELECTRICAL SYSTEM—Your battery carries a heavy load during winter because of hard starting, and the use of heaters and defrosters. Don't go into cold weather with a bad battery! TIRES—Good tread is essential to traction in ice and snow. Even better, let us sell you a set of chains for cold-weather motoring. IT ALL ADDS UP: When you're prepared for cold weather you won't have trouble.

We thought of Parmer County's Joe Jones when we read the following story in the Hamlin Herald, and couldn't resist including the story here. Jones is not only an A&M graduate, but proud of it. The story below is self-explanatory.

COUSIN SI KNUTTY almost gave up his plans for a college education recently when he had a hard time getting into one of the big schools.

When he applied at the registrar's office at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, he was informed they were full up. "But if you are a Methodist," he was told "we might manage to place you." He wasn't a Methodist, he admitted. "Then why don't you go over to Texas Christian University at Fort Worth?"

Cousin Si went to Cowtown, and heard about the same story. "Are you a member of the Christian Church?" he was asked. "No," he said. "Well, why don't you go down to Baylor University at Waco? Maybe they can care of you."

So off to Waco he went. "We are just about running to capacity," the registrar informed him "but if you are a Baptist . . ."

"I'm a son-of-a-gun," Si uttered in disgust.

"Young man, if you can prove that," declared the registrar, "I believe I can get you into A & M."

Mrs. W. W. Vinyard called our attention to a quip which we find to be quite true. "The first thing to learn about driving an automobile is how to stop, the same thing applies to making a speech."

A dollar saved is no longer earned. Gotta pay taxes on it.

The Maderis of Clovis, operators of a flower shop, were here Tuesday night to conduct an illustrated lecture on flower arrangement, particularly emphasizing the novelty theme. The lecture was sponsored by Texico-Farwell Woman's Club, who invited special guests to the social. Program chairman is Mrs. M. A. Snider.

Upon arrival, guests were served punch and cookies. The serving table was centered with a fall arrangement of yellow and white mums, emphasized by tall yellow vases on either side. Hostesses were Mesdames E. G. Williams, Annie Williams, and Willie Williams.

One of the most unusual arrangements of the evening, given the professional people was a Halloween centerpiece, with a tall jack-o-lantern in the foreground, with attention shifting to 11 cacti enclosed in hot dog cans held in place by toothpicks. Color was added by small yellow flowers interspersed through the arrangement.

For Thanksgiving, the lecturers displayed a horn of plenty with fruits flowing from it, and tall yellow mums to add interest. A suggestion for the door at Christmas time was a minute tree made from hardware cloth and twined with green and yellow tinsel. Dried flowers were used for modern and Oriental themes.

Other variations were six red candles arranged to follow the shape of an unusual green candy bowl, a white elephant vase with bundle of small red flowers, and a hot poker in a flat dish, accented by brown and yellow flowers. White mums, red candles, hite deer and silver foliage were used with snow for the Christmas centerpiece, and the modern treatment was given by placing a small vase in the center of a wrought on candleholder and arranging roses with small white flowers.

Attending the lecture were, Mesdames E. F. Lokey, L. R. Vincent, John Armstrong, D. W. Bagley, Travis Brown and Ysleta, M. C. Roberts, J. J. Spurlin, Ralph Stanger, J. W. Patrick, Chas. Shaw, Z. N. Kaltwassers Return From London, England

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kaltwasser and daughters returned last week from London, England, where they had visited her mother and other relatives. They left this community Aug. 23 on the first jaunt of the trip.

The first three days were spent in New Jersey with friends, then the local people boarded the Queen Mary the 26th from New York. They describe the big ship as "very pleasant," just like a floating hotel, with picture shows, lounges, swimming, and choice foods. Evenings were spent playing games.

On the 31st, the Kaltwassers landed at Southampton, England—and all of Gladys's (Mrs. Kaltwasser's) folks were there to greet them. "The nieces and nephews have really grown up in the past five years," Gladys quips.

Traveling on into London by train, the Kaltwasser children noticed the cars on the train were much smaller than in the States.

Walter and Gladys and the girls stayed with Gladys's mother, Mrs. Florence Grover. They took the children to Buckingham Palace, the tower of London where the crown jewels are kept; Westminster Abbey, and numerous other places. One complete day was spent at the zoo, and the family still didn't have time to see everything there. The girls particularly enjoyed the llamas, camels, and elephants.

The local family renewed acquaintances while away, and found that great changes are evident in England. Food is plentiful in the stores and London clothing stores have "things to sell." People, however, still are short on money to buy these things.

Things are about back to normal after the war years, the Kaltwassers say. They noted signs of progress everywhere, especially in the housing projects and the schools being built.

The Kaltwassers began their return voyage Oct. 1, and landed in Nova Scotia, Canada, because of the waterfront strike in New York. They traveled back to the States by train. "We had fun, but were certainly glad to get home," they relate.

Victi and Pat, the girls, amused their English relatives by their Texas accent. Pat made friends more readily than Victi, who became quite homesick for Texas.

Mrs. E. M. Davis of Littlefield visited her daughters, Mrs. Mae Porter and Mrs. Dale McCuan last weekend.

When they arrived home late Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crume and boys of Artesia were waiting for them. They were all enjoying a family get together when at 3 a. m. two of Mr. Poteet's brothers and their families of Colorado, stopped by on their way to California.

The entire group ate cake and drank coffee while they visited, before the guests left for California. Then on Sunday, Bobby and Junior left for college and the Crumes left for Artesia. Travis returned to Wyoming Monday morning.

MRS. OSCAR BAXTER AND MRS. ABIE CRUME, CORRESPONDENTS, PH. 3801

Workers Needed For Cotton Harvest

"We could use 500 laborers in the cotton fields in this area right now," Wright Williams, manager of the North Plains Gin said on Monday, but added in the same breath "... but where would we house them?"

And that seems to be the big question in the minds of cotton producers, who are gearing themselves to harvest the "biggest and best" yield ever seen in this area.

Only one small labor camp set-up has been completed here, by Bert Chitwood, and it is already full, observers reported. Where the help may come from is something else to be considered seriously, Williams pointed out, stating that Littlefield issued a call for "6,000 workers this (Wednesday) morning".

As to the yield itself, it promises to be even better than hoped. J. L. Stowers, who brought in the first bale of cotton to be ginned this year in Farmer County, reported a total of 40 bales from 38 acres. Eyes are on a 100-acre patch of cotton on the farm of Wes Long, near Friona. This particular field was de-foliated about three weeks ago, and Long said on Monday that he was expecting to "get 200 bales" which would throw the yield at around two bales per acre. Incidentally, one bale per acre is considered a good yield.

Staple length is also better than early indications, the gin manager reported. The longest staple turned in thus far came from cotton produced by Steve Struve, which measured out at 1-16 inch, an unusual length for this area. "We are expecting to get quite a bit of cotton with a staple length of around one inch," Williams added.

Some use will doubtless be made of mechanical pickers, producers and the gin man agreed, but they were quick to point out that such pickers cannot be successfully used until frost causes leaves to fall, which could mean losing some of the crop in the field.

"We haven't been pushed yet," he said, in speaking of ginning conditions at the local plant. Usually some cotton comes in during the morning, then there is a slow-down about the middle of the afternoon. Toward evening cotton begins to move again and the crew so far has been working until the yard is cleaned, sometimes around 10 at night.

In the meantime, producers are scrambling around trying to get help on hand, as most acres not now being worked will be ready for pickers in a few more days.

Friona Area Grain Harvest Moving

The combines are rolling in the Friona vicinity, and indications this week were that yields of grain sorghums, in most instances, would be in the above-average figures.

With practically all of the feed being produced on irrigated acres, yields are running all the way from 3,000 to 6,000 pounds. Naturally there are a few exceptions that will run unusually high or unusually low, but the median probably will be between 3000 and 4000 according to grain men.

Many of the fields are as yet untouched, however, reports on Monday confirmed the expectation that practically the entire area will be buzzing with combines within the next ten days to two weeks, as the crop matures rapidly.

Storage space locally should not be much of a problem. Both the Santa Fe Grain and Friona Wheat Growers elevators earlier reported that they had considerable space on hand. As Arthur D. ... at Friona Wheat Growers, put it, "We'll have to get an awful lot of grain to fill up the 1,000,000 bushel capacity we had on hand when the first cuttings began."

A checkup this week did not indicate a shortage of labor in the area, and hopes are that the harvest should move smoothly.

Elevator operators reported that the majority of grain being hauled in was sufficiently dry to be accepted for storage, and is going into government loan.

Mrs. Lucy Welch left Wednesday for Houston to visit her son. She will return via Dallas to attend market for LuNora's Shop.

Three Well Permits Issued on Saturday

Permits for drilling of three more irrigation wells in Farmer County were issued by the district the past Saturday, Raymond Euler reports, adding that all three new locations were in the Rhea area.

Zoning of wells within the district in order that they may be properly spaced was instigated some time ago, and permits have been issued for new drillings as they were petitioned, providing they did not conflict with previously installed systems.

Asked about how many wells were in operation in Farmer at the present time, Euler admitted that he actually didn't know. Estimates place the number between 1000 and 1500, probably nearer the latter figure, he added. Some consideration has been given to compiling a county map which would show exact locations of all wells within the county, but nothing definite has been done along that line to date.

Parking Areas Are Marked over City

New stripes denoting the proper spaces for angle parking have been painted in white along Main Street in Friona, as well as around local churches and club buildings, City Manager Roy Wilson pointed out Monday.

Yellow lines also have been re-done around corners, putting parked cars back to a point where the downtown corners are not "blind" to approaching motorists.

Although traffic rules are not stringently enforced in Friona, city officials this week urged particularly that drivers park within lined areas, and keep their autos out of spaces outlined in yellow.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Vandalism, Old as Man Himself, Still Has No Place in Society

Vandalism, the misdeed that is difficult to account for because it seemingly never has motive, is one of the disgraces of society that is as old as society itself.

A local movie house owner is complaining of heavy damage sustained to his property by willfully destructive patrons who have carved, slashed, and torn the seats of the theatre.

The owner estimates the number of damaged seats to be around 100, and says he is certain that the damage was willfully caused, probably starting with a few deft strokes of a pocketknife.

We are reminded of the recent desecration of a Methodist church in Canadian, where church literature was ripped, religious symbols smashed, and obscene signs scrawled upon the walls of the sanctuary.

The fact that vandalism is commonplace does not make it excusable. Destruction of the property of another just for "spite" or for a "thrill" is a sign of the moral degeneration of a community.

In most instances, acts of this nature are attributed to young people. While it is true that teenagers engage in this sort of disgusting activity, they should not be held exclusively accountable.

Discipline, the proper rearing of the child, has been overlooked in the mad struggle of the modern man and wife to earn the living, have the fun, and receive the relaxation they are "entitled" to.

As the show owner remarked, "If their mothers and fathers wouldn't have let them take pocket knives to the show, there wouldn't have been any damage."

One Natural Resource Nobody Ever Thinks Of

This part of the Southwest has grown up with quite a reputation for tall tales, which of course, is all right with us. The hot air of good-natured story-spinners from these parts is known 'round the world.

The more obvious type of wind—that is produced by Mother Nature—is also respected for its ferocity in this part of the country. To date, man has made only a start in his work to harness some of the billions of horsepower that come whistling over the Plains day after day.

The spindle-legged windmills that dot the High Plains by the thousands revolutionized the ranching industry in this predominantly dry territory. They, however, are only a beginning.

Before the era of the Rural Electrification Administration, the "windcharger" was a popular farm home device for providing a modest supply of that modern servant, electricity.

What is holding back the development of this tremendous natural reservoir of power? Other people have harnessed raging rivers and put them to work for the good of man. Cannot the same thing be done with the astounding amount of power present in the winds that sweep across our Plains?

STEPHEN A. HABOUSH and his former Shepherd's Rod

'Notches' For Hyenas Shepherd Recalls Peril

Not at all unlike the notches on a gangster's gun are the 28 big spikes imbedded in the shepherd's rod of Stephen A. Haboush. The difference is that each spike represents a dead jackal, hyena, or wolf—not a human life.

Nowadays he spends his time lecturing before church and social groups, telling them of his boyhood as a Palestinian shepherd and showing his color motion pictures of the Holy Land. The much-scarred rod more than once has meant the difference between life and death for him and his flocks on the lonely western slopes of the Sea of Galilee.

"For several years I was a nursemaid to a flock of 85 sheep and a dozen goats," he said recently. "It wasn't an easy job. The goats made my life miserable and the stray sheep unhappy. Most of my trouble was with the goats, however. And I love goats as much as the Irish like the English. Nevertheless, thanks to my trusty black oak rod, I never lost more than seven or eight animals a year. That's a pretty good record among even the Palestinian tribes of today."

His father was maktar, or head, of the Haboush tribe in old Galilee—north of the city of Nazareth. When the father died several years ago, Stephen became patriarchal head of the tribe despite the fact that he lived in the United States and had become a citizen.

"As a result, I have to return to my homeland every four years," he said. "In the meantime our tribal affairs are handled by a council of sheiks."

When he first came to the United States he "hit the chautauqua trail" with such figures as the late William Jennings Bryan, former Ambassador Josephus Daniels, and Vilhjalmur Stefansson, arctic explorer. He has been at it ever since, turning to churches and the schools when the chautauqua vanished.

Therefore, it is going to be a rare opportunity for the people of Texico-Farwell to meet and hear this native son of Galilee when he and Madame Haboush present their Bible land musical travogue of the Holy Land in natural color films and other special features.

They will appear at the Farwell auditorium on Monday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 p. m., auspices of the school, Jack Williams, superintendent, says.

It is a program that will be a delight and an inspiration to all who are fortunate enough to attend. Madame Haboush will have charge of music and two young men will operate the equipment. Tickets are sold at the school at a reduced rate. Admission at the door, the night of the program, is higher.

Mrs. Richard E. Jackson OF 2510 37th, LUBBOCK, TEXAS, LIKES

ELECTRIC COOKING!

Mrs. Jackson finds electric top-of-range cooking cool and clean. All the heat goes into the food to be cooked—none spills over to heat up the kitchen.

She likes the even baking and economy of electric oven-baked cookies and other pastries, pies and meats. Meat shrinkage is at minimum with electric baking.

Too, she likes the easy method of preparing timely meals. Before going out, Mrs. Jackson sets oven controls—meals cook electrically while she's gone.

She says -

"Some of the outstanding features I like about electric cooking are the cleanliness and the coolness of my kitchen, the easy method of preparing timely meals, the even baking and economy. For my family of four, it costs only a few cents a day to prepare the meals."

Can't decide who is going to be more nervous Friday night at the wedding of Tila Rue Day and Dave Hester—us or the mother of the bride. Tillie, you see, has asked our six-year-old Judy to be one of the performers as flower girl and we just hope she doesn't throw the basket instead of the petals. To top it off, we're to be the "stand-in" for the bride at rehearsal tonight (Thursday). After 12 1/2 years of married life and three kids that should be quite an experience.
