Hear New Water Law

Irrigation farmers of Parmer County attended a meeting designed to acquaint them with new regulations concerning use of underground water...

Engineer Broadhurst admitted to the group that it was difficult to improve use and control of water during busy watering season...

Broadhurst, a $200 fine is imposed every time water flows from an irrigated field into the bar ditch...

Representative Jesse Osborn said he was keenly aware of the pressure being applied by some groups to secure legislation giving the state possession and control of underground water...

Citizens of Farwell, may we call your attention to the first editorial on the next page, please.

A popular after-dinner subject for clubs and fraternal organizations is of the "Wake Up, Americans!" variety. Speakers constantly barrage the easy-going public to take notice of what's going on around them by thoroughly reading the newspapers...

It is a loyal and patient patriot that can stay with a running mud-slinging contest such as has been going on at Capitol Hill the past two weeks.

Speaking for ourselves, we have quit reading the front page of the daily newspaper, and don't bother to listen to radio newscasts anymore. And we will be that way until this McCarthy-army fued blows over.

Why, you may ask? The outcome of the bitter, ridiculous squabble is going to prove exactly nothing—except perhaps that many shallow-minded leaders of our country are most interested in giving one another black eyes than doing something about the desperate situation of the world.

We sold an ad to a couple of lumber yards this week promoting the construction of on-the-farm storage. The Secretary of Agriculture has warned on several occasions of the impending bumper crop of fall grain, and it looks as though that is going to be especially true of our area.

Now comes the pronouncement from Frank White of Dallas, veteran crop yield forecaster for Burrus Mills, who says that farmers are going to "plant the face of the earth in grain sorghums" this year—at least in Texas and Oklahoma.

Parmer County will have at least 30,000 acres of irrigated land turned to sorghums that were not planted in grain last year. This is because of the cotton acreage allotment program, in addition to several hundred more new wells put down during the past year.

And we had grain running out of our ears in 1953—what will it be like this year?

Of course, the weather is one factor that should always be taken into consideration in the matter of yields. Good weather could mean a much larger crop than last year. Bad weather could change the picture entirely.

The two new elevators being constructed in Farwell will mean over a million bushels of commercial storage, too. That will have a bearing on the picture. Still, we're betting that the fall grain crop in this part of the country reaches a new all-time high in 1954.

A rather sobering reminder is that if support prices are continued for sorghums, there will, in all probability, be planting restrictions applied in the near future.

Some forecasters are saying 1955 will be the year for this. We say 1956.

This newspaper is getting to be a big operation. For those of you who think small-town papers aren't big business, we remind you that it takes an investment in equipment of about $30,000 (pre-war prices, by the way) for The Tribune to set up shop for business.

In addition, there are 12 persons on our payroll, excluding the names of the owner, the publisher, and his wife. Sometimes we almost long for the days when we used to print 6 or eight pages every week, and go fishing at least once a month.

It sounds like a real dream, but a little realistic figuring shows us that we couldn't make a living any more on the small operation of yesteryear.

County Democratic Chairman G. D. Anderson says that nobody slipped in under the wire to file at the last minute this week. We have noticed some rather relieved expressions on the faces of County office holders who were up for re-election and had no opponent announce to run.

City House Numbers Available Now

House numbers for Farwell homes and businesses are now available and may be purchased at the Farwell Hardware, according to Otis Huggins, Chamber of Commerce president. The Chamber is pushing the drive and urges numbering on a city-wide basis.

For a time, some digits were out of stock because of heavy demand, in addition to a shortage of number brackets, but everything is now available, notes Huggins, and he expressed "the hope that citizens would cooperate in the numbering program.

The numbers are luminous, durable, and low in cost. A person may obtain his house number from a chart kept in the office of Farwell Hardware.

Honor Students Named at Farwell

Mary Joyce Rolland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnel Rolland and Betty Lovvorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lovvorn, have been named as honor students for the senior class of Farwell School, officials say.

Miss Rolland, who is valedictorian with an average of 94.181, has had varied activities, besides the attainment of her scholastic goal. She has served as historian of the Future Homemakers of America; vice-president of the pep squad; business manager of the annual, and has entered in school sports.

Miss Lovvorn, with less than one point difference in her grade and the one of Miss Rolland, had an average of 93.685. She has been particularly outstanding in athletics, especially basketball; has been a member of the choral group; and president of the pep squad this year.

County Receives Additional Two Miles of Paving

The County Commissioners, in a called session Tuesday, accepted a proposition from the State Highway Department to pave an additional two miles of farm-to-market road as the next project in the county's hard-surfaced highway system.

The paving would take up at the termination of Farm-to-Market Road 690 and go two miles east. The paving is located in the Lazbuddie area.

Already booked for construction was slightly over 6 miles of paving from the "Crossroads" or old "Twin Houses" location eastward to a point due south of the Lazbuddie community.

This week's minute would move the pavement eastward two more miles, or about two miles west of the eastern edge of Parmer County.

Parmer County has agreed to furnish right-of-way for the paving at no cost to the State.

★ HOW ABOUT A STUFFED SHIRT?

Workers on the drive for funds for construction of a new building for the Parmer County Hospital in Friona are whomping up a big auction sale to raise money.

And from the looks of things, it's going to be quite an event. To go under the hammer May 15 will be a nice display of equipment, including:

A 1951 International pickup, a regular Farmall tractor, an Allis Chalmers tractor, a Kenmore washing machine, a two-wheel trailer, several windows and frames, and an Angel one-way with nearly new discs.

But the outstanding consignment to the sale to date is found further on down the list: "one stuffed badger—good shape." Hospital Manager Jimmy Baxter says he expects many other outstanding articles to be consigned for the event, too. A portion or all of the proceeds from sale of these goods is scheduled to go to the hospital fund.

FROM FISHING TRIP

Rev. Vernon Willard, James Roach, Owen Patton, George Douglas, and Loyd Gober, returned Saturday from a fishing trip to Conchas Lake in New Mexico. They reported fair luck.

Bovina Will Get New Dry Goods Business Soon

Announcement that a new dry goods store will open soon in Bovina was made this week by E. E. (Gene) Harman of Dimmitt, who has leased the building on Main Street, formerly occupied by the C. R. Elliott Company.

Harman, who has been in the mercantile business for a number of years in his previous location, said he was hoping to get the store open by the 14th of this month.

Redecorations are now going forth inside the location, the interior being brightened up with new colors, shelving, and fluorescent lighting.

Harman indicated that he would stock complete lines of men's and ladies' ready-to-wear, and feature nationally advertised merchandise.

He and his wife, who have four small children, plan to make Bovina their home when school is out. They will operate the store. The business will be known as "Harman's." A grand opening will be announced next week.

Mother Of Local Men Dies Tuesday

Mrs. Porter was born in Marietta and moved to Lubbock about a year ago from Oklahoma City. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

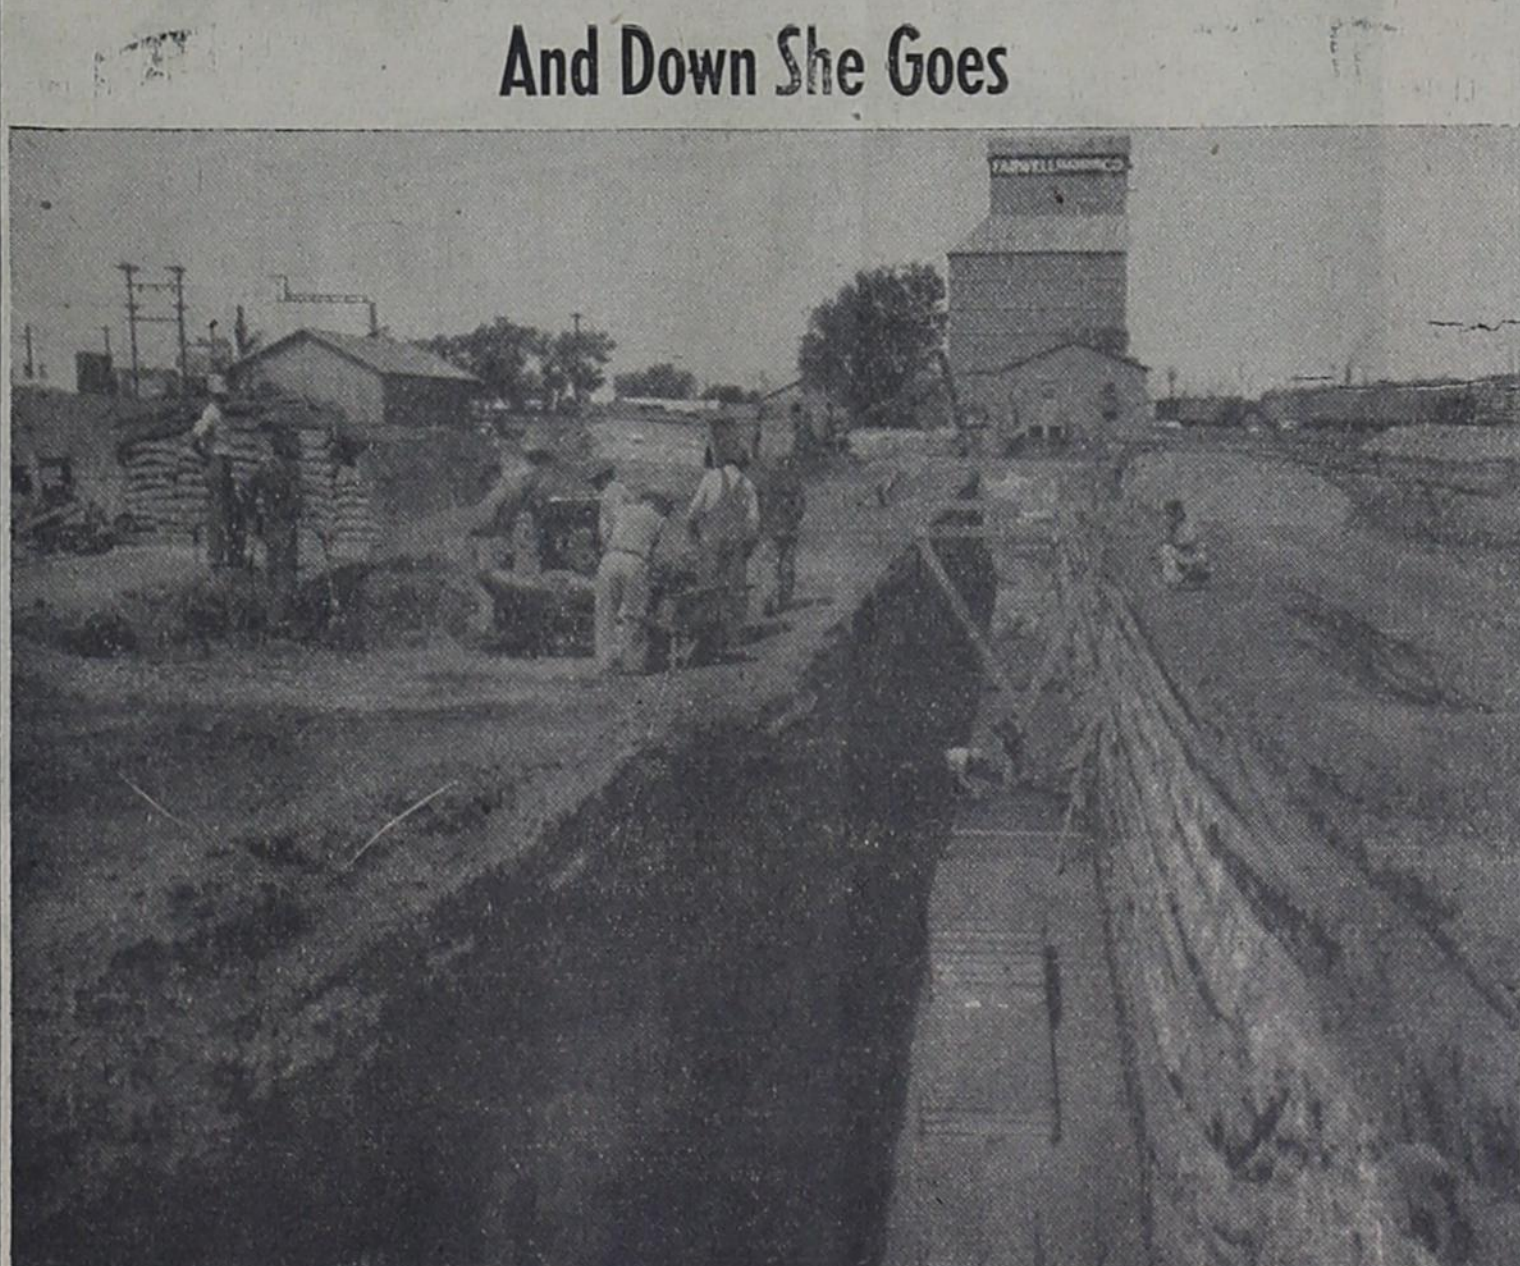

Survivors include the local men, two daughters, four brothers, two sisters, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A person might think that Worley Mills are going in the wrong direction with the construction of their new 600,000-bushel elevator in Farwell, but workmen say such an excavation is necessary to provide adequate foundation and room for grain-moving machinery. The 24-tube structure is scheduled for completion within 70 days.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Need More Cooperation For Twin City Fire Departments

Of interest to residents of Texico-Farwell was the announcement last week that the local fire department is in need of a pick-up truck or panel truck to carry auxiliary equipment and the proposition was made that Farwell pay for such an addition.

One may well wonder why Farwell, as a city, or on a cooperative individual basis, be asked to buy equipment valued at somewhere around $1500. The question is easily answered by persons acquainted with the facts, however, inasmuch as Farwell, for all practical purposes, is getting a "free ride" for fire protection.

The equipment resting in the station in Texico is valued at over $20,000, and a figure of around $3,000 represents the contribution made by Farwell—a sum collected through subscription to buy equipment several years ago.

A tax of 25 cents, by the way, which is assessed water meters and collected as a "fire protection fund" is used as operation capital only by the fire department. Money raised from this tax pays for socials, help for the needy, contributions to the Red Cross, and the like. It does not go to pay for the department itself.

In addition to the investment, the volunteers for this essential municipal service from Texico outnumber their Farwell neighbors at a ratio of about two to one.

Taxes collected in the State of New Mexico are currently being used to purchase and maintain equipment for the Texico-Farwell fire department. This equipment is housed in a building paid for by New Mexico taxpayers.

On the other hand, Farwell currently is receiving virtually the same protection that is Texico, and because of the excellent record set by the local department, Farwell property owners are enjoying a 25 percent discount on their fire insurance. In other words, a businessman or home owner whose premium would normally be $100 is paying only $75 for his insurance.

At this rate of saving, it certainly would not take very long for the fire insurance premium rebate in the City of Farwell to pay for a $1500 vehicle.

One other thing in connection with this matter that should be brought out is that the department is currently protecting Farwell in the face of regulations which provide that the equipment be used in Texico—not elsewhere. Farwell is receiving service from the department as an accommodation.

The state line has separated the two towns on too many occasions, we are hasty to admit, but it occurs to us that sooner or later it will become necessary for citizens of Farwell to provide their own fire protection through their own taxes, simply because the local fire department, subject to regulations from the State of New Mexico, will sooner or later find it impossible to continue the accommodation they now extend their Texas neighbors.

The Tribune believes that as a gesture of appreciation, if for no other reason, the City of Farwell should dig down into its pocket and pay for this needed pickup or panel vehicle, and offer the Texico-Farwell Fire Department its use.

We further believe that the title of ownership should be retained by Farwell inasmuch as at some future date it will be necessary to establish separate fire houses. However, for all purposes of practicality, the local department would "own" the equipment.

Farwell city officials say that this Texas town is presently not in financial shape to purchase the vehicle, chiefly because of the payments being made to retire the sewer system.

The Tribune believes, then, that those who are benefiting from the service of the department (everyone living in Farwell) should be glad to make a subscription which would contribute not only the needed equipment, but good will as well.

Therefore, this newspaper is offering a $100 contribution toward purchase of the truck with the proviso that other civic minded Farwell property holders who see our obligation to our Twin City neighbor of Texico will also participate in paying for the truck.

And we also suggest to the city commission of Farwell that they consider the long-term aspects of this problem, and establish a fund for the purchase of equipment. This fund need not be large at all, as the city is bound to grow, tax collections will increase, and within ten years a very substantial amount could be resting in this fund.

How about it, citizens of Farwell. Don't we owe this debt?

Were you one of the suckers who turned off the pilot lights in the heating units before Sunday? We were. Brrrr.

We're Glad To See This!

If any editorial bouquet are tossed this week, we think they should go in the direction of a number of local ladies who pitched in last week and spent an entire day panting and puffing under the water tower to get the park tidied up.

They did a good job too, and if you'll drive by and take a look, you'll have to admit the old place has changed overnight. This small park could very well be a spot of beauty for the community, and indeed there is no reason why it should not be except for the laziness of the townspeople.

However, things are certainly looking up, and the "get things done gals" should be extended a vote of appreciation for their efforts. They say they aren't anywhere near through, either, so we're looking for even more improvements.

It's Another "Let's" Suggestion

Weekly newspaper editors, the critics say, drive their readers nuts with a constant barrage of "let's do this," and "let's all do that" stuff in every edition.

Okay, okay. So we have too much of it. But one last "let's" before we swear off: Let's have a little more interest in the Scouting program trying so hard to get another start here.

The boys themselves have requested this vital organization to undertake another program of work here, and workers are struggling along without the assistance they need and deserve to make the movement a success.

Cubbing seems to be going over pretty well, although those giving their time toward this program say they could use a lot more helpers. Scouting, on the other hand, is currently in the dust; there being no individual willing to serve as Scoutmaster.

We have the private suspicion that several people could be talked into leading the Scout movement if they thought they wouldn't have to do all the work themselves. Some of the persons who have boys who would benefit from the movement should volunteer their time, even though they feel they couldn't hold down the Scoutmastership. With a little cooperation and assistance, we feel that a Scoutmaster could be found.

The boys want and need this type of activity. Let's help them! Have you ever thought that your coolness toward programs of this type might actually be acts that contributed to the great social problem of juvenile delinquency?

Mrs. J. T. Coburn of Texico was kind enough to permit us to print her recipe for cream pie. This is the favorite pie recipe at the Coburn home.

CREAM PIE

Pour a pint of sweet cream on two cups sugar (to which two tablespoons of flour has been added). Let stand until whites of three eggs have been beaten to a stiff froth, add this to cream and sugar and beat thoroughly. Pour into two unbaked pie crusts, sprinkle with nutmeg and bake in moderate oven about 30 minutes.

Thank you Mrs. Coburn! We can't resist a good cream pie.

A garden hose can wash away the chore of hand sprinkling starched clothes on busy laundry days.

Without ever gathering the starched clothes from the line, the homemaker sets the nozzle of the hose on a very fine spray and gently plays the water on the starched clothes.

Minnie Bell, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, advises the house wife to sprinkle clothes on one side only when she uses the garden-hose technique. All of the garments will absorb moisture while it is folded awaiting ironing.

As the sprinkled clothes are removed from the line, they should be folded and placed in a plastic bag-ready for ironing, she says.

We ran across the following poem in an exchange the other day and thought it would be a good practice for most of us to follow.

Think good thoughts and you'll be surprised

There are more good folks than you'd realized.

Think the good

In yourself, and then you'll see the good that's in other men.

Think bad thoughts

And you'll bring them out in the folks you meet or just see about.

Think the bad

And you'll feel that way; think the good

To enjoy each day!

We will be celebrating Mother's Day Sunday, when for one day, we try in some way to pay in a small way the debt we owe to our mothers. Mother love is as old as the world and we feel, a good mother is one of the greatest forces for good on earth.

Be lazy, and do a better job, say homemaking experts. Leave anything undone that you can, get someone else to do it, or don't do it at all. Of course, experts call it "smart lazy" or good management. Relax while you ask yourself three questions. (1) What can you leave undone? (2) What can you get someone else to do? (3) Does the job have to be done at all?

Knowing what to leave undone, as well as what to do, makes the load lighter, says Minnie Bell, the home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Consider what you can leave undone. If you don't want to bend, stoop, stretch or reach too far, THINK, and you can avoid it. Store things within easy reach. Hang pots and pans on hooks.

Let someone else or something else do the job. Let dishes dry themselves.

Does the job have to be done at all? You don't need to iron sheets, towels, cup towels, socks, knitted underwear.

Since some things do have to be done, leave out all the steps possible. Use a tray or utility table to carry dishes and food to and from the table. Store all cleaning supplies in a basket so one trip takes them from room to room.

Store together things that are used together. Sit when you sprinkle, iron, or prepare food.

Whew! Sounds like a great big beautiful dream, doesn't it?

The great physiologist, Claude Bernard, in 1854 determined scientifically that sugar is more rapidly available for energy than any other common food.

One of the earliest humor publications in Texas was the Texas Siftings, established at Austin in 1881 by Alexander E. Sweet and J. Armory Know.

Texas Gets Steam Press

First steam-power printing press was introduced into Texas in 1850 by Hamilton Stuart, of the old Galveston Clilian.

In 1860, a newspaper called The South West was issued from a power press at Waco by W. H. Parsons, who commanded a brigade of Texas cavalry during the War Between the States.

Spaniard Has Own Method

A Spaniard named Mena brought the second printed press to Texas in 1817 and set up shop at Galveston. A member of the Liberals in Spain, he left that country for political reasons. Most of his material published in Texas was of a political nature.

His type was very limited, and in some of his printing matter, his supply of needed letters would be exhausted. Whereupon, he simply substituted another letter which most resembled the one needed.

BACK HOME

The Koeltzows returned from Austin a week ago Saturday, tired, dirty, and broke. Did we have a good time. We certainly did!

By the way, we went fishing, too. The kids caught 16 perch every where from three to six inches long. One fisherman in our group pulled out three carp approximately three pounds each in weight. Boy, they were good.

Paul had a good time sitting at the convention. He did derive much spiritual benefit from it. What he enjoyed most was singing in the male and mixed choir. Now, if you want to hear a solo, just call on Paul. He feels as if he learned a little.

Our time was spent with relatives. The boys especially enjoyed TV. It is so very good there. Also, we went to see a few places of interest. It's really pretty there at this time of year.

Mother Wagner returned home a week later.

THE WEATHER

Last Sunday evening made us think that Mother Nature had sort of changed seasons for us. The thermometer showed 28 degrees. Feather beds and quilts went on those first green sprigs in the garden. Some folks tried smudge pots. Heard a few remarks on wondering what the freeze did to the wheat.

With recent showers, we had quiet a bit of hail. If the wheat does make, we surely know it can take the obstacles.

Parents And Cubs Have Fun Night

Cub Scouts and their dads and mothers enjoyed an evening of fun and entertainment at the first Cub Pack meeting Thursday, April 29, at the Legion Hall. Oscar Cantwell, district Scout representative, opened the meeting with an explanation of what Cub Scouting means to both the boys and their parents, and the way they should work together.

The Cubs presented an "automobile" skit for their parents. Then the mother and dads were called upon to perform several stunts, which provided hilarious entertainment for all. Three of the mothers were introduced as mesdemoiselles from Paris, famous hat designers, and were given a paper plate, a pink napkin and a green paper napkin, two straws, a wooden spoon, two toothpicks and crepe paper ribbon. Three dads were called upon to be the models and the women had but a few minutes to turn out lovely French chapeaus. The designs were exquisite and the men paraded around the room to show the audience what charming models they were.

A humorous "follow directions" pantomime was given by all the dads of the Cubs as they lined up across the front of the room and the Cubs enjoyed seeing their dads in undignified poses. Twelve boys received the Bobcat badge, which is the first award given for knowing laws and promises of the pack. Boys receiving badges were Marshall Lee, Mike Bartlett, Leon Lovelace, Mike Getz, David Watkins, Van Crume, Steve Smart, Tommy Wurster, Darrel Crook, Pete Vestal, Bill Quicke, Jimmie Armstrong.

Next den meeting will be today (Thursday) at the Legion Hall at 4:00 p. m.

NOTES

From the Parmer County SCD

By STEVE BAVOURETT

I was out by Roy Euler's place last Monday. He has a beautiful patch of madrid clover. It is just past above knee high and just beginning to bloom. Come next Monday, Mr. Euler is going to start turning the clover under. Now is the time to plow under your winter cover crops if you intend to plant the land to grain sorghums.

Tom O'Brian who lives over on the eastern side of the district caught me the other day. He was interested in some work next fall. We appreciate his attitude. He knows now that he wants to make some changes before another year. This summer, when we are not so rushed, we can collect all the information that we need to help Mr. O'Brian decide what and how he wants the changes made. Then this fall and spring it will take only a little time to lay out his system.

Guess you have received your pamphlet published by the Parmer County Soil Conservation District. It discusses the use of summer legumes and water application.

Vernon Jamison has started his bench leveling project. Gene Scott from Lazbuddie is doing the work. Gene has a "cat" and carry-all, which is the type of equipment needed to make bench leveling easy.

Seniors Honored At Mardi Gras

"Mardi Gras" was the theme of the Farwell junior-senior banquet held in the school cafeteria Friday night, with the seniors as special guests. Toastmaster for the evening was Wendell Pike.

The grand parade was made by the seniors, who marched into the banquet hall as Douglas Hillcock, Dan Hammonds and Gerald Hardage played "Fanfare". Each guest was presented a carnival hat and a mask.

The room was decorated with gaily-colored balloons and streamers with minute chariots of silver, and black half-masks interspersed along the walls. Centerpieces for the banquet tables were seasonal flowers in bouquets.

After everyone was seated, prayer books were given the seniors and there was a short silent prayer. Gene Hardage, president of the junior class, gave the welcome, and Dudley Hughes, president of the seniors, presented the response. Mrs. Shelby Jobs directed her swing band for musical conditions.

Students in Fifth Grade Make Plans For Vacation

Students in the fifth grade are making varied plans for summer vacations. A visit with grandparents seems to hold the spotlight with these fifth grade pupils as Anna Lois Thatcher plans to visit in Phoenix, Arizona, while Patricia Patterson will visit her grandmother in Avery, Texas. Linda Stinnett will be in Nashville, Tennessee, with her grandparents. Opal Tadlock is looking forward to the visit with her grandmother in Elk City, Oklahoma. Glendon Moss will be on the farm with his grandparents. Gary Singleterry plans to visit in Albuquerque. Patsy Ruth Fain will be making a visit to Roswell to see her father. Jerry Thigpen, is going to Abilene, Texas, to visit an aunt. Billy Roth will be in Maud, Oklahoma, visiting with an uncle, while Patsy Young will be in San Miguel, California. Lee Spears will be in the wheat harvest. Richard Martin will be with a sister in Amarillo. Peggy Goldsmith will be in El Paso, with a brother. Margie Ortiz will be in Las Vegas, New Mexico, for the summer.

Fifth graders in the May Day Program were Koleta Doshier, Glendon Moss, Pauline Servatius, Gary Singleterry, Marie Moore, Alfred Stover, Patsy Young, Eugene Servatius, Malinda Martin, Billy Roth, Jerry Thigpen, Richard Martin, Linda Jo Stinnett, Kenneth Murdick, Anna Lois Thatcher, and Lee Spears.

The king and queen candidates were Bill Reid and Marilyn Turner.

Glendon Moss and Lee Spears can have all the praise for keeping the room decorated with beautiful spring flowers. The class has completed "Why and Wherefore Reader" and have checked out new readers.

Those taking part in the talent show were Patricia Patterson who sang "Mr. Tap Toe"; Patsy Fain, Jerry Thigpen, and Patsy Young who sang "I Love You"; and Judy Adams was in a trio with Phyllis Kelley and Connie Sharp. They sang "Secret Love".

Reading awards for this semester were given to Margaret Hudson and Kenneth Murdick for reading the most books.

Perfect attendance awards in the fifth grade for the year were earned by Glendon Moss, Kenneth Murdick, Bill Reid, Gary Singleterry, and Lee Spears.

Mrs. Quant Caudle of Levelland visited her daughter and husband, the Curtis Millers in Texico over the weekend. Accompanying her were two other daughters, Mrs. Morris Hudson and three children and Mrs. Doris White and son, also of Levelland.

FILL-INS BY PHYLLIS

With the end of school approaching, you hear some of the students and teachers saying they are glad school will soon be out and are making plans for their summer vacations, while others are disappointed because school is drawing to a close.

The student council really did a swell job on their election and play day program. Congratulations, student council.

Mrs. Danforth and her helpers really did work up a nice May Day Program. Nice going Mrs. Danforth.

Biology students have surely been having a time finding Darwin's theory.

The seniors are really excited about going on their trip. They plan to leave early Monday morning and go to points of interest in Colorado.

It was really surprising to see talent exhibited at the talent show that we didn't even realize we had.

Congratulations to the track team this year for their good work.

Tuesday, a hot election was ended when Bobby Richardson edged by Kenneth Reid 64-62 to take the position of Student Council President for 1954-1955.

All of the kids were swell sports even though their candidates lost out in this big election.

All students attending the business education dinner meeting reported that they learned a lot and had a wonderful time. Everyone really looked nice, too.

I wish to take this last opportunity on the behalf of the senior class to thank all of the wonderful teachers for their untiring efforts and patience with us for the past twelve years.

I guess this will be the last issue of the paper this year as we get out of school tomorrow. I want to take this opportunity to tell everyone that we have thoroughly enjoyed working on the paper and have appreciated the patience and efforts of the teachers in helping us put it out. There will be no more Fill-ins. I just hope that you readers have enjoyed reading them as much as I have enjoyed writing them.

Thanks, Phyllis Tucker.

Word Received From Dyer Family

"The third grade boys and girls are very sorry to lose Jackie Dyer, who left April 10, for England", says teacher, Mrs. Frank Seale. He and his brother and mother flew to New York and stayed in the Henry Hudson Hotel for one night. While there, they went to the top of the Empire State Building.

They sailed from New York on the Queen Mary and had a wonderful time all the way across. Classmates are proud of the fact that Jackie didn't get sea sick. The Dyers are now in the village of Evesham, Worcestershire, England.

Play Day Is Big Success

Monday afternoon beginning at 1:00 the seventh through the 12th grades were entertained with an all high school party sponsored by the student council. Events included volleyball games, three legged races, class relays, 880, potato grab, caterpillar races and the mile relay in which 20 girls ran against Kenneth Doolittle.

To begin the afternoon, the six groups met in the assembly room where the campaign managers and candidates for student council president gave speeches. The candidates included Bobby Richardson, Kenneth Reid and Jimmy Don Moss. The campaign managers were Catherine Bell, Aloma Palmateer, Roxie Henson, Marvin Pendergrass, Phyllis Tucker and Patricia Morgan. The candidates were then elected by secret ballot. The election was really a tight race as Richardson and Reid tied. On the second ballot, Richardson edged ahead of Reid for student council president for 1954-55.

After the election, a volleyball tournament was held in which the first team making eight points was declared winner. The seniors won this honor by winning three games over the faculty, juniors, and the freshman, respectively.

This team was composed of four girls and four boys. They were Catherine Bell, Aloma Palmateer, Phyllis Tucker, Roxie Henson, Paul Crooks, Jimmy L. Moss, Carlton Kyle and Darral Harris.

The groups then journeyed to the baseball field where couples from each class entered in the three legged race. Winning the race were Pat Morgan and Jimmy D. Moss, juniors. Coming in second were Moiley Barnes and Sherman Owens, eighth graders; and taking third were Catherine Bell and Jimmy L. Moss, seniors.

The next event was one in which 20 girls, 10 from high school and 10 from junior high school, ran against Kenneth Doolittle in the mile relay in which he took the lead at the finish. These girls were: Wilma Doshier, Susan Caldwell, Malinda Faville, Barbara Caldwell, Doris Harriman, Sue Stover, Joyce Gillean, Onieta Autrey and Fay Autrey, from junior high, and Roxie Henson, Phyllis Tucker, Sue Reid, Sue Doolittle, Shirley Doshier, Shirley Stover, Anita Sharp, D'Tanis Caldwell, Ruth Winkles, and Nadine Thornton from high school.

The 880-class relay was won by the seniors in which Aloma Palmateer, Catherine Bell, Roxie Henson, Phyllis Tucker, J. B. Taylor, Paul Crooks, Jimmy L. Moss and Bobby Pendergrass participated.

Phyllis Tucker represented the senior class in the girl's potato grab and came out winner over Sue Doolittle who represented the sophomore class.

The freshman were represented by Alfred Doshier, who won first in the boy's potato grab over Bobby Spears, sophomore.

A game called caterpillar concluded the afternoon of games in which event the 7th grade won.

The seniors accumulated the most game points and were awarded jaw breakers.

Talent Round-up Presented At Texico

Thursday night at 8:00 at the Texico auditorium, the curtain was opened and the Talent Round-up was presented. Aloma Palmateer acted as master of ceremonies. Opening the show was "The Wind Jam Jivers," playing the "Jonson Rag" featuring Jerry Johnson on the cornet.

Highlights of the evening were Susan Levins attired in a 1920 costume singing the song, "Five Feet Two, Eyes of Blue," assisted by Bobby Patterson on his trombone; little Linda Palmateer, of the third grade gave her rendition of "The Angels are Lighting God's Little Candles." Bobby Richardson with her lovely voice, gave her version of "Italian Street Song". Another highlight was Marvin Pendergrass with the song "Up the Lazy River."

Miss Sandra Bell, a ten year old twirler of Clovis, entertained the group with some outstanding twirling. Miss Bell was given an encore and came back on stage with a two baton exhibition.

Concluding the program was an acrobatic stunt performed by D-Rene Danforth.

Other performers were: the girls trio consisting of Catherine Bell, Bobby Richardson, and Marge Bradshaw, singing the songs, "The Waltz You Saved For Me" and "April Showers". J. B. Taylor, a popular senior, played a trumpet solo entitled "Hold Me". Doris Harriman sang two solo numbers. Others singing were, Lena Mae Steel, Darlene Glaze, Judy Sharp, Carol White, Kay Hall, Priscilla

Pichardo, Gale Hadley, Pat Patterson, Rex Harris, Patsy Fain, Patsy Young, Jerry Thigpen, Judy Adams, Connie Sharp, Phyllis Kelley, Anita Moss, Wilma Walton, accompanied by Connie Bakkerud playing the steel guitar, Hap Danforth sang and danced to a western tune, "Dead-Eye Dick" two piano solos were given by Betty Ruth Lockhart and Sharon Hendrix.

The music club netted approximately $65. Proceeds will be used to pay for the choir robes purchased this year. The Talent

Roundup was directed and produced by Fred Danforth, music director.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

Austin—All the questions having been resolved concerning who is going to run for what, the big political season is now underway.

Ralph Yarborough of Austin, who announced that he would be a candidate against Allan Shivers for governor, declared himself against breaking the two-term tradition in the chief executive's office.

Yarborough contends that Shivers actually is seeking a fourth term; the incumbent has served two elective terms in office, plus the unexpired term of the late Beauford Jester.

Machine politics and one-man domination of the state government were also charged by Yarborough as he put his name on the ticket.

Shivers had previously announced for an unprecedented third term for governor. He had stated prior to the announcement that there remain some things that need to be done, such as putting through a water conservation program.

NO. 1 PROBLEMS

Governors of five Southwestern states attended a White House conference to talk about the drought.

"Agriculture and livestock are our No. 1 problem," Shivers said at the conference and "a permanent solution for them must be found. Past efforts over many years have not been more than temporary expedients."

Present to confer with Mr. Eisenhower, Agriculture Secretary Benson, and other federal officials were the governors of Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Asked by the governors was a $15 million appropriation to deal with emergency dust and wind problems.

Placed before the President was a long-range problem designed to climate conditions causing droughts in the Southwest.

Among the recommendations, drawn up by the governors, were: reseeding grasses and other cover crops, coordination of all federal and state agriculture agencies, more incentive for soil conservation practices, parity procedures to guarantee farmers in drought areas adequate prices for their crops, and tax policies designed to promote proper land management.

Shivers said that suitable farm land should be kept in farms, but land better suited to pasture should remain or be converted to pasture.

CLOSE TO HOME

Prior to the Washington conference, Shivers had said that water conservation should begin at home, with towns and districts taking the lead in financing and supplementary money to come from the state.

In a session here, directors of the Texas Water Conservation Association echoed that opinion, calling for financing at the "lowest practical political subdivision level."

Urged by the directors was a constitutional amendment setting up a state fund to underwrite local communities in building dams.

Money so used by the state would be recovered from the sale of water and electricity.

J. E. Sturrock, general manager of the association, was doubtful that the state would ever solve the water problem.

Sturrock said he had opposed federal participation in the water conservation program. But he said the people who are suffering from the drought don't care whether the water comes from the state tap or a federal tap.

"The governor's in Washington today asking for drought aid," Sturrock commented. "If we'd had water conservation in Texas, we wouldn't need drought aid."

Senator Lyndon Johnson spoke for action to combat drought and asked for a $15 million increase in soil conservation funds.

"This money," said Johnson, "would be used to fight the wind erosion that could so quickly turn one of the most fertile sections of our nation into a barren wasteland."

BIG CRIME STORY

Texas is about to become known as the biggest and best place for criminals to work.

That being so, says John Ben Shepperd, we had better hire more police officers at higher pay, give them better equipment, and re-write the criminal code.

Shepperd was speaking at the fourth law enforcement conference in Waco.

Texas' crime rate is rising faster than the national average, Shepperd declared. "We will never bring crime in Texas down to a normal level if we continue trying to buy average, cut-rate law enforcements."

Worst features of the Texas crime situation are narcotics, obscene literature and Communism, Shepperd declared.

Texas police officers in general are doing a good job, but they are called upon for much duplication of effort, the speaker asserted.

He pointed out that more than half of the offenders arrested are repeaters who have been freed or who have made bond while awaiting trial.

More than half of Texas crimes, said the attorney general, are committed by persons who are under indictments and free on bail, free on appeal bond, or fresh out of jail.

DUVAL COUNTY SUIT

Before the Court of Criminal Appeals is a question as to whether District Judge A. S. Broadfoot was within his rights in discharging a Duval County grand jury commission.

Judge Broadfoot's attorney, Atwood McDonald of Fort Worth, argued that the suit is not properly before the court and should be thrown out.

E. B. Votaw of Beaumont, speaking for the jury commissioners, said they had been held up to scorn and ridicule. "They're reputable citizens. They're entitled to their civil rights," Votaw argued.

Texico Farm Bureau To Meet Monday

Texico Farm Bureau meets in regular session Monday, May 10, in the school lunchroom at 8:30 p. m. Olan Schleuter, local chairman, will preside. Barney Harding, secretary, will read minutes of the last meeting. Business session will follow.

James Harding will show pictures he took while overseas. Musical selection will be given and refreshments will be served. All members are urged to be present and visitors are welcome.

W. J. Matthews Injures Hand

W. J. Matthews of Texico was released from the hospital Friday and was recuperating from a badly crushed hand. Tuesday, Matthews was hooking up a stalk cutter to a pickup and raising the cutter, when he was thrown backward over the cutter.

The trailer hitch went through his hand, causing four breaks on the fingers and knuckles. Five stitches were taken.

Elmer Joe Johnson and Ginger Kendrick of Brownfield visited the Clay Hensons Sunday afternoon and evening.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Whether it is a vegetable garden or flower bed, your horticultural activities are good material for a snapshot record.

"How Does Your Garden Grow?"

WE'RE all familiar with the nursery rhyme in which Mary, who was famed for her contrariness is asked, "How does your garden grow?" Mary replied in words about silver bells, and cockle shells, and pretty maids all in a row.

That was all very well, but we've got a suggestion of how you might reply to that question which is asked of so many of us at this time of year. You can whip a package of snapshots out of your pocket to show your questioner just exactly how your garden is growing.

Whether it is a big vegetable garden, designed to feed the family, or a two foot square box of flowers—it's very important to the person who planted it. That's why we are suggesting that you gardeners keep a picture record of your activities this year. Start taking your pictures the day you break ground and plant the first seed. Take them regularly from then on... then you will know how your garden grows week by week. And you can share it with your friends.

Put people in at least part of your gardening pictures. They'll add interest. But don't have them grinning into the camera. Then it will become a picture of the person and the garden will only be incidental. Let them show interest in the garden, be working or calling attention to the plant or whatever you want to stress in the pictures.

Start your garden pictures early so the snapshots will truly tell a story of your garden and how it grew.

Parmer County Farmers Hear Latest Information on Control of Weed Pests

A group of Parmer County farmers were in Amarillo last week to attend a weed control forum at Amarillo Experiment Station. Going from the county were: Melvin Sachs, Aubrey Ellison, Roy Euler, Bruce Parr, Joe Jones. The meeting is annual to inform farmers on the up-to-date practices for weed control. Of particular note this year was bindweed.

Dr. Allen Weise, in charge of weed control research, pointed out how difficult farmers find bindweed to control, and he emphatically stressed the importance to begin eradication procedures as soon as the weed is found because "it is so hard to kill." "Farmers should not take bindweed lightly, they should do something immediately," Joe Jones, county agent adds.

For large areas, cultivation at short intervals of about every two weeks, is recommended. This is done during the growing season to try to thin out the weed. 2-4-D at the rate of 1 lb. of active ingredient mixed with water per acre will do a good job in helping to control the weed, Jones adds. He points out that the farmer should catch the plant in the vegetative growth in order to get the best kill. He recommends the weed be actively growing in the bud or early bloom stage.

Also discussed in Amarillo was the use of soil sterilants such as poly-bor chlorate, atalacide, sodium chlorate and others. The speaker pointed out that when these soil sterilants are used, the percentage kill is usually directly in proportion to the amount of rainfall. This is due to the fact that it takes rainfall to dissolve the sterilants and carry them into the ground.

It was suggested that farmers who have small plots that can be irrigated to isolate the spots by the use of a ridge of dirt around it to make a reservoir so the sterilants can be applied and the area flooded with water.

An area covering about four or five feet more than the infested area should be treated because roots extend out from the area and the weed might crop up again.

The meeting in general didn't cover just bindweed, says Jones, but the facts on this weed are more important to farmers of this area at this time. The county agent suggests that farmers follow the advice of experts and "do something as soon as bindweed is found." He stresses that the weed is aggressive, and "once you get it, you have to live with it for several years, for there is no known kill for it, that can be effective in one application or one year." For further information, farmers may contact Jones.

Parmer County Farm Bureau has appointed a committee to help push weed control in this county. The committee is working closely with the county agent and they plan to carry on a program that will give everybody an opportunity to know how to identify bindweed, as well as the best known control methods to date.

Cartoonist To Entertain Here

Bob Wood will present "Dramatic Adventures with Chalk" at Farwell Schools Tuesday at 9 a. m.

Wood, ex-Marine and veteran of World War II, is an artist and cartoonist extraordinary. "His unique serio-comic entertainment sparkles with humor, wit, and originality," says his publicity manager.

Wood uses a large easel, and a score of colors to produce his pictures, which are enhanced by electrical effects controlled by a special switchboard, accompanied by a public address system. Musical scores and sound are added to enrich the quality of the pictures.

Wood is a master of stunt effects, and springs many surprises on his audiences.

Wood reads as he sketches bits of humor, pathos, and romance. For children, he draws cartoon sketches of boys in comic postures; he often draws someone well known in the audience. He writes names on his easel and transforms them into pictures with rapidity.

One of the most interesting features of his program is his exhibition of double mindedness—visualization and concentration—writing backwards and upside down, and reading quotations on a different subject.

Nor does Wood neglect the literary side of his program. His big feature sketches in brilliant color made more beautiful by lighting effects include the "Cremation of Sam McGee," by Robert Service; Longfellow's "Skeleton in Armor"; "East and West," based on Kipling's ballad; "President's Faces," "Flander's Field," Holman Hunt's "Light of the World," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe," and others.

For a number of years Wood has been a student in the Art Institute of Chicago.

Just As We Predicted ! BUICK Is Going Over Big !

Do you remember when we introduced the brand new Buick verticle-valve V-8 to you a couple of months ago? At that time we predicted that this 200 HP engine would be the power sensation of 1954 for irrigation installations.

Well, as each week goes by, it looks more and more as though this prediction is holding true, because BUICK V-8's have been going in by the score! More and more farmers are accepting this modern power unit as the answer to their pumping problems.

With power to spare, this big Buick V-8 fits the needs of most irrigation farmers on the High Plains like a glove. Even when being installed on a natural gas line, the Buick has enough reserve power left to lift all the water you need. See us for more facts on this great engine right away.

J. F. MOUNT of the Oklahoma Lane community east of Farwell is another purchaser of the big 1954 Buick verticle-valve V-8. His pump, which is set on 170, kicks out a full pipe of water with ease when the Buick throttle is about half-way out.

Hereford Group To Have Autograph Party For Dr. Hill's Book

An invitation is being extended by the Hereford Chapter of the West Texas State Ex-Students' Association to an autograph party honoring Dr. J. A. Hill on his new book, "One Man's Faith," which is just off the press. All West Texas exes, personal friends of Dr. Hill, and others in the area who are interested are invited to attend the party to be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberson of Hereford on Thursday, May 13.

Calling hours are from 3 until 5 in the afternoon and from 7:30 until 9:30 in the evening, according to Mrs. Elmer Patterson, president of the Hereford Exes. Proceeds from the sale of the book will go to the West Texas Ex-Students' Association for the publication of the history of West Texas State College, a project on which Dr. Hill already has started work.

Dr. Hill, now president-emeritus of WT, served that institution as president for 30 years. Through his speeches delivered to the student body and to other groups throughout the Panhandle, this "One Man's Faith" was revealed. It was at the suggestion of Will G. Harris of Hereford that Dr. Hill decided to compile a book from the manuscripts of his addresses.

"As to the content of the speeches themselves, the best that can be said for them is that they represent faithfully what was believed and said at the time they were spoken. If they were being made now, some of them might appear considerably different, but they would not express or imply any substantial variation in the essential substance of the author's faith," Dr. Hill comments in his introduction to the book.

Harris was in Farwell last week, and enthusiastically endorsed the volume. He is the father of Mrs. Dee Brown of this county.

Harris undertook a crusade to put Dr. Hill's words in printed form, and has seen his hopes become a reality. "We are pioneers," he says, "because we not only pioneered the publication of this book, but it is the first such edition ever to be published by the college press.

Several Parmer County people who assisted financially with the book have been invited to a dinner Saturday night at 7 o'clock at the new student union building on the WT campus. Included on the invitation list are Hamlin Overstreet, G. D. Anderson, Farwell; Mrs. Dee Brown, Bovina; and Carl Maurer and Glen Reeve, Friona.

Mothers Day To Be Observed At Church

The evening service at 8 o'clock will feature the singing of the old hymns of the church, led by the youth choir. Sermon subject, "A Blessed Rule of Life," will be by the pastor.

The Sunday School hour is 10 a. m., the senior MYF will meet for supper at 6:30 p. m., followed by the worship program at 7 p. m. The recreational period will be held after the evening service.

An Elegant Dish 'Tis True—Made With Left-Over Turkey or Chicken

For a simple solution to that old problem of what to do with left-over turkey or chicken, bake a pie! Not the sweet variety but a good casserole dish, topped with a golden brown crust. The turkey is combined with what we call a casserole natural—Niblets brand corn. The golden field-fresh flavor and stalk-fresh color of Niblets make it an outstanding casserole ingredient. The flavor is distinctive enough to be easily recognized even when used in a seasoned sauce as in this recipe. This is another famous recipe from the test kitchens of the Green Giant Company.

Left-Over Turkey Pie

|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 3 tablespoons butter or margarine | pinch of Tarragon |
| 4 tablespoons flour | 2 cups milk |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 1 can Niblets brand corn |
| ¼ teaspoon pepper | 1 can mushrooms, if desired |

Melt butter in double boiler, stir in flour, salt, pepper, mace and tarragon. Stir in milk gradually; cook over boiling water, stirring until thickened. Add corn and mushrooms. Pour sauce into buttered 11x7x1½ inch casserole. Cover with turkey slices. Top with pastry crust, rolled ½ inch thick. Bake about ½ hour in a hot oven (450°F.).

First Grader Back in School After Tonsillectomy

R. D. Clayton was absent last week as he had a tonsillectomy. He is feeling fine and is back in school now.

Many of the first grade children are happily planning to spend part of the summer vacation visiting relatives. Some are planning to help on their irrigation farms.

Karen Sue Burton, with her parents, will visit in Long Beach, California.

The first graders wish to thank the other grades for helping them have a happy school year. They also wish to express appreciation to the room mothers, Mrs. A. B. Bell and Mrs. Pruitt, who gave them the nice parties.

Students Participate In Program

Sixth grade students worked hard on their May Day program and they also made nice colorful May baskets. Students missed Charles Stockton while he was out of school when his grandfather died.

Freddy Goldsmith withdrew from school and moved to Roswell, New Mexico, to live with his sister.

SENIOR PERSONALITY

One of the most popular students around THS is the senior personality for the week, Phyllis Tucker.

Besides maintaining a good grade average and being co-valedictorian of the senior class, Phyllis takes part in many extra-curricular activities of the school. She is editor of the Wolverines Tale, president of FHA, secretary of student council, secretary of senior class, president of press club, and is a member of the business education club.

Phyllis was chosen as best athlete and best all-around girl of the 1954 school year. Evidence of the combined characteristics of scholarship, citizenship, sportsmanship and personality is the fact that she was selected by the faculty to attend the 1953 session of Girls' State.

Enrolled in typing II, stenotype, athletics, journalism, sociology, and working in the office, she has a well-rounded school life.

As she works in the drug store, it is not surprising to find that her hobby is making Cokes. It seems that her future ambition is to get married or become a secretary.

When asked how she felt about being a senior, Phyllis replied, "That I'll be out in a few days!" Miss Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tucker, who reside in Texico.

MEMORIES OF '54 By Patricia Morgan

There is an old saying that all good things come to an end, and that is just the way we feel about this school year. In looking back over the past year, we recall many incidents which have helped to make our school year an enjoyable one.

Memories of school activities come into our mind as we sit reminiscing. There have been the club meetings, each different to add variety to school life. We've enjoyed those class meetings too. Of course, the main topic of each seemed to be a party!

Big event of the year was, of course, the junior-senior banquet, "April Showers". Everyone decked out in his best and gave us a chance to see what a fine group of young people we have in our school.

Putting out the Wolverine's Tale and our annual has certainly added a lot to a wonderful school year. Seeing the finished products has made us all proud of our school.

Yes, we each have fond memories of 1954, and although everyone seems to be pretty glad to be getting out of school, I think we're all a little reluctant to be leaving dear old THS. For the seniors, before long they'll be walking for the last time as students through the halls and classrooms. Others will be making plans for another school year, as time marches on to 1955.

One thing that we'll always remember about Texico is the friendliness of all students and teachers. When we came as a newcomer at the beginning of this year, we didn't know quite what to expect, but we certainly found that Texico students are among the friendliest anywhere. We would like to thank everyone for giving us wonderful memories of this year.

In closing, we would like to thank all the readers of the Wolverines' Tale and we sincerely hope each of you students will have cherished memories of 1954!

Faculty Play Aids Hospital Drive

"For Pete's Sake," a three-act comedy, was given in the high school auditorium, last Friday night by the faculty.

Action was built around Peter Pepperdine and his pal, Bill Bradshaw. As punishment for failure in his Latin class, Peter was left home by his Aunt Sarah when she decides to visit the Holy Land. His pal was selected to stay with him and coach him in Latin. In order to make some much needed money, they rented Aunt Sarah's house. Before her return, they must get rid of the tenants who have no desire to leave. A real comedy was produced while working out problems of these young men.

Peter Pepperdine was played by John Parish, Bill Bradshaw by Ed Lehnick. The supporting cast included Peggy Hanson, Miss Sarah Pepperdine; Estelle Caffey, Jasmine Jackson; Steve Scott, Cicero Murglethorpe; John Hanscom, Mugsy Murglethorpe; Joyeline Costen, Mrs. Georgiana Clarkston; Rosemary Ford, Nadine Clarkston; Emmarie Lehnick, Peggy Clarkston; Tacy Smith, Malvina Potts; Murry Ford, John Boliver; Lee Burnett, Dupont Darby.

John Parish, grade school principal, announced that the proceeds were $602. All of the money will go to the Parmer County Hospital building fund.

Little Damage From Light Frost Here

Belief was expressed the first of the week that little damage was experienced in the Friona area from a light frost which accompanied a delayed-action norther across the country during the weekend.

Although freezing temperatures were reported at some points in the High Plains on Saturday night, the only frost in evidence locally was noted on Monday morning, following a reading of around 28 degrees on Sunday night.

Many home owners tossed light blankets over their favorite flowers, blooming or just in bud, to protect them from the weather. However, unprotected plants, despite the fact that they appeared a

★ PLUGS —From Paul—

The chorus girl was telling the other girls in the dressing room about her birthday party. "You should have seen the cake," she told her companions. "It was marvelous. There were seventeen candles on it—one for each year."

There was a disbelieving silence for a moment or two, and then her best friend smiled. "Seventeen candles, eh?" she purred. "What did you do—burn them at both ends?"

Material Ordered to Extend Phone Service

Roy Wilson, manager at the local city office, has been informed that General Telephone has ordered the necessary materials to give Friona and its rural areas extended service.

Wilson reported this week that the actual contract signing between the city and General Telephone was made at the commission meeting Monday evening.

Cotton Planting Is Delayed By Cold

Farmers report that the touch of frost was not sufficiently heavy to damage wheat in the boot stage. Mild weather here on Thursday was replaced by steadily dropping temperatures during the weekend, with considerable blowing dust noted over the territory on Saturday as the wind howled. Tornado alerts were issued for parts of the South Plains, but no notice of funnels was recorded in this area.

A number of cotton producers who had been getting things "ready to go" were forced to suspend action the first of this week as they waited for the ground to warm up following the freeze recorded here Sunday night.

Wright Williams, local ginner, said that some cotton is already in the ground over the country, but added that the majority of farmers had been waiting for warmer weather to sow their seed. Asked about the cotton outlook for 1954, Williams predicted that planting in the county would reach the maximum of 54,000 acres allotted to Parmer. Last year, he pointed out, 90,000 acres of cotton was planted within the county.

And apparently producers won't have to do much waiting around to get their crop ginned next fall. With installation of a gin between Black and Summerfield, there will be 11 gins (in the on-the-border-line) available for service.

Boys to Go to Camp in June

A good crowd was out at the school cafeteria Monday night for the potluck supper given for the Boy Scouts. Steve Bavousett, scoutmaster, reports a good time with plenty of sandwiches, Cokes and pie for everyone.

Bill Phillips of Hereford was present for the election of the Order of the Arrow, an Honorary Organization of Campers.

The Scouts will go to summer camp at Camp Don Herrington, June 13th through 19th. Fee for period will be $13. Each boy desiring to go is requested to bring $1 to the meeting next Monday night. All scouts are urged to attend this meeting.

The Explorer Scouts will go on Bivouac to the Carswell Air Force Base in Amarillo May 14, 15, and 16th. They will take plane rides and receive instruction in the general routine of the Air Corps.

Spanish Classes to Be Held Locally

Persons interested in learning to speak and understand Spanish, in both the "printed" and idiomatic versions, are invited to take part in classes which began Tuesday evening of this week in the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Absher of the Friona school faculty, has been conducting classes along this line during the winter months, but will not be here for lessons this summer.

Dr. Paul Spring and Frank Spring were out of town several days on a fishing trip.

Legion Zone Meet Slated for 11th

The Friona Post American Legion and Auxiliary will be hosts on Tuesday evening of next week, May 11, when the regular zone meeting for the two organizations is held here.

Genn Sparkman, of the Legion, said Monday of this week that program arrangements are made by the Zone Commander, and that he had not at that time been notified regarding the evening's activities.

The meeting will begin at 7:30, when supper will be served to the group by the local members. The affair will be held in the Legion Hall.

Three Friona Boys Transferred

Word was received here this week that three Friona boys have been transferred from El Paso to two different bases. Pvt. Billy Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Cobb has been transferred to the Amarillo base for about 9 months.

Pvt. James Wiley, son of Mrs. Irene Wiley, has been sent to the Denver, Colorado base for nine months training.

Pvt. Odell Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vaughn, was sent to Denver, for a 11-weeks special training. It was not learned where he will go from there.

Ladies Night to Be Noted By Lions Club

A special program has been planned for the evening of Thursday, May 13th, when the Friona Lions Club will hold "ladies night" at the club house.

Tom Lewis was in Amarillo during the weekend, to welcome her new nephew, born on April 29th to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones. This is the first youngster for the couple.

Despite threatening weather conditions, a good crowd was on hand for the regular Trades Day event the past Saturday, with some $110 in coupons being awarded.

Elda Hart, city office steno, clerk, etc., spent the first three days of the week in Lubbock, where she was in attendance at a regional tax assessor's school. And boss Roy Wilson was kept tied in the office, since it was the first of the month and utilities payments (usually taken in by Elda) were pouring over the desk.

Recently, O. J. Beene was elected city commissioner. At that time wife, Dessie Mae, expressed her dubiousness about the affair, predicting direly "you just wait and see... every time you have a meeting will be on the night you're supposed to work (at the City Drug) and I'll have to go to the store." The commission held a regular meeting on Monday night of this week, when O. J. was sworn in. Guess who's night it was to work?

Acting postmaster Leo McLellan reported this week that he had received no word on the outcome of the recent exams for postmaster, held at Muleshoe, which were taken by a number of local applicants. Possibly Washington

Take this home, the world has never been any closer to universal peace, nor farther from all-out war with Russia, but we must be on the alert at all times, since the Communists will attempt to win through infiltration and subversion."

"WHERE WILL WE PUT THE 1954 GRAIN CROP?"

The following is taken from an article in the April 4 issue of Texas Ranch and Farm—a supplement of the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram.

By BILL DURHAM

Texas grain farmers had better start thinking about what they're going to do with this year's crop.

If they want to put their grain in the government loan, now's the time to find some storage which will meet the requirements of the loan program.

Grain storage is going to be short all over the country this year.

It is evident that much of the land going out of cotton and wheat and some of the land removed from peanut production will go into grain sorghums.

Grain sorghum is supported by the government program. There are no acreage controls on grain sorghums and since farmers know they will be able to put the crop in the loan they are planning to plant sorghums on the diverted acres.

Commercial elevators are building considerable extra storage to be ready to take care of the crop.

A government program which guarantees occupancy of elevator space has been a stimulus for this construction. The Commodity Credit Corporation has approved 63 applications for Texas for this type of construction with the applications covering 24,800,000 bushels of storage.

But this will be just a drop in the bucket if the state makes a wheat crop of any consequence and if the grain sorghum comes along like agricultural observers believe that it will.

Farmers are being encouraged to build storage on the farm to handle their own grain crop. Government officials believe every farmer should have enough storage on the farm to handle one year's crop and would be most happy if every farm had sufficient storage to handle two years' crop.

Without farm storage, many Texas farmers may be in the position of having to sell their grain below the loan rate on the cash market during harvest time.

The loan rate on grain sorghum in Texas this year has been set at 85 per cent of parity. This averages $2.28 per 100 pounds, 15 cents under last year although the parity rate is the same. Parity formula changes account for the cut in price.

J. A. McConnell, executive vice president of the Commodity Credit Corporation, doesn't believe the grain storage problem will reach a peak until 1956 or 1957.

He thinks farm storage is a good bet.

If a farmer wants to build some storage on his farm, it's pretty easy to do so.

And it's not too difficult from a financial angle since government loans can be used to finance it up to 80 per cent and the cost can be amortized over a five-year period through federal income tax payments. Drying equipment if needed can be financed up to 75 per cent through a government loan program.

In recent years, farmers have sold grain at harvest time at from 30 to 50 cents a bushel under support prices.

"This difference will pay for the storage," said McConnell.

Farmers who already have grain under loan and in farm storage will find the "reseal" program offered to them. The government will pay them so much per bushel to reseal the grain for another year. This is working well in the Corn Belt.

FARMERS: You know that the above applies especially to us in this part of the High Plains. And we can help you solve the program if you will let us!

BUILD YOUR OWN STORAGE !

Here's good news: Loans are now available at 4% interest, pay back in 4 years. Borrow up to 80%, and amortize the cost through taxes in 5 years! With such liberal terms, how can you afford NOT to build?

CONVERT YOUR TRACTOR TO

BUTANE FUEL

SAVE MONEY TWO WAYS...

Here are the facts: You save money with butane because it costs less than other tractor fuels. Butane also saves you money on tractor maintenance. It burns clean, you have less oil contamination and engine deposits on rings and valves. This adds up to fewer costly overhauls—more working hours for your tractor engine.

And you can take advantage of these savings. Your tractor can easily be converted to use butane. This can be done quickly, without excessive cost. Or, if you plan to buy a new tractor, insist on one factory-made to utilize the advantages of butane.

Besides saving money, you get smooth, anti-knock performance with butane. This low cost 100 octane fuel gives you plenty of power, for even the heavy pulls.

Smiths Have Scenic Trip Past Month

"We left Friona April 1, for Miami Beach, Fla." states Mrs. Tom Smith, "and stopped long enough to see some of the points of interest in Mobile, Ala., arriving in Miami Beach April 4, where we were met by Dr. Smith's mother."

The meeting of the American College of Allergists was held in the Roney Plaza Hotel. It lasted five days and was climaxed the evening of April 9 with a social hour given by the Sherring Corp. This was followed with a banquet for the physicians and guests.

Another day was spent in Miami Beach fishing, boating, touring, visiting the Everglades, Coral Gables, Orchid Jungles and many more scenic spots too numerous to mention. It was here that Dr. Tom brought tickets for a "Boating Tour" that turned out to be a "Bus Trip" that was enjoyed even though the Smiths were all dressed for the boat. They went to Ft. Lauderdale, "Little Venice," next, and the children, Susan and Berkeley, were very impressed with the canals and their boats.

"We fished out on Pompano Beach and were witnesses to the taking of a 7 foot long, 52 pound sailfish by a lady. It took her 30 minutes to land her catch. We met Mr. Mustadt whose family has manufactured and sold fish hooks for 80 years in Norway and were privileged to fish with some of his hooks," Mrs. Smith continued.

At Moorehead, N. C. they visited with her grandmother and other relatives, for two days and continued on to Ashland, Va., home of Dr. Smith's mother. They made a trip to Washington D. C. to see friends and to York, Pa. to the York Barbell Co.

On the return trip, the Smiths visited Rock City in Chattanooga, Tenn. where five states can be seen from the look-out point, then took the children to see the beautiful and interesting "Mothergood Land". They came back to their "Texas Home" by way of Southern Tennessee, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Place cards were clouds. All through the banquet, Don Lewis, the master of ceremonies, did a good job.

Tributes TO HOSPITAL BENEFITS

It seems there are so many benefits occurring for the Hospital that we are hard pressed to keep them all well advertised. Nevertheless, we shall try to express our gratitude to those who have already completed some project and put out the good word to those that are coming due.

First, though, an individual tribute to a couple of fine performers, Uncle Pat and Aunt Phyllis of KGNC, Amarillo. These nice people came to Friona to help with the American Legion Baby Show. They made the program a success by helping the show function as smoothly as could be possible, considering there were over 100 small children to cope with. The work was donated as the check, which was sent to them, was returned with a request that the money be used in connection with the new Hospital. Three cheers for two fine people!

A pat on the back is also due two good doctors from our neighboring town of Hereford. Those two being Dr. Bud Barnett and Dr. A. T. Mims. Besides being fine medical men, these fellows have both made substantial subscriptions to the building program through doing work at our Hospital. Hospitals, their personnel, and doctors are unique in the respect that while they may be in competition, no animosity is prevalent—all that is thought of is the patient's welfare and recovery.

The Friona school faculty also deserves some recognition as they put on one of the best performances that has been witnessed in a mighty long time. It took a lot of work on each and everyone's part to make the play such a wonderful success.

Coming events are the Otis Echols Show, sponsored by the Modern Study Club, May 8th, in the Friona Auditorium, the Community Auction Sale, May 15, in Friona, and the Benefit Air Lift, May 16, at the Airport in Friona.

The Auction will be advertised in this issue and that of next week, with a list of items consigned. BE SURE IF YOU HAVE ANY ITEM TO LIST THEM AT THE HOSPITAL SO THIS ADVERTISING MAY BE UTILIZED. (See story on page 1).

The Benefit Air Lift is sponsored by Elvie Jennings. All proceeds are going to the building program. Rides are $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for 8 years to high school, and no charge under 8 when accompanied by parent. These charges are for the routine flight. Longer rides will be given if desired and charged according to the distance. Night flights will be given with a charge of $2.00. Tickets are on sale at the Airport, Maurer Machinery, Buske-Magness, Ethridge-Spring Agency, and the Hospital. In case of adverse weather, flights will be given the following Sunday, May 23.

We thank all these different individuals and organizations and realize that with this kind of aid, our program is sure of success.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Brownie Scout troop III met at the Bovina City Park Wednesday afternoon with their leader, Mrs. J. W. Gooch. The troop was celebrating its birthday.

The troop had a very short business session and then spent the rest of the meeting time roasting weiners and enjoying themselves.

Their two future leaders, Mrs. Bill Whitesides and Mrs. Tommy Bonds, were present and Mrs. Bonds was introduced to the troop. Mrs. Whitesides and Mrs. Bonds will take over the troop next week and will be invested May 12.

The girls will also have their fly-up ceremony at that time.

Troop No. II had their weekly meeting Wednesday. They continued to work on their tin can stoves and tin can skillets.

In their business session, they made plans to clean the park next week during their meeting time and also after school.

The group then enjoyed refreshments and spent the remainder of the meeting singing.

Connie Thomas was a visitor at the meeting.

Bovina Girl Scout troop V met at the usual time and place last Wednesday and continued to work on their glasses.

They began also an experiment at this meeting which should prove very interesting to everyone. They placed acid on a piece of glass to see whether it would eat through the glass. They won't know the result of this experiment until next week.

Troop VI met Wednesday in Mrs. Hammond's room. After the business meeting, the troop began with crepe paper and tin cans to make useful gifts for their mothers.

Next week, the troop plans to treat all of the children in Mrs. Hammond's room, who do not belong to Scouts, to ice cream in the city park. During the summer, the troop will meet in the recreation rooms of the Baptist Church. However, when the weather is nice the troop will probably meet in the city park.

FHA Spends Money On Plants for Cottage, City Park

This past week, the Bovina FHA girls purchased and gave the city park one-half dozen red rose bushes. These were planted between the two small Arizona cypress trees on the southwest portion of the Bovina City Park.

Just recently, the FHA had the cottage grounds plowed and leveled. Following this, a Plainview nurseryman planted African Bermuda grass on all the grounds up to within five feet of the cottage itself. In this five foot clearing, the foundation plantings consisting of suitable shrubs, bulbs and flowers were planted. Two trees planted were a blue spruce, that will be the cottage's outdoor Christmas tree in the years to come, and a large weeping willow tree.

One of the most impressive parts of the planting will probably be four climbing red rose bushes that will cover a trellis circling the front porch entrance. The total expense for plantings for the cottage grounds has been over $200.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

We are sure all casualty insurance agents in the county will appreciate your patience and study as your policies come up for renewal under the newly effective classes. Since May 1st, there are seven, instead of three classes for passenger cars and pickups. Those benefited most are farmers who live on the farm, or garage their vehicles principally on the farm.

Your office secretary, Cynthia Bell, and service representative, Raymond Euler, attended a joint meeting of these workers in Plainview last Friday at the Hilton Hotel. About sixty were present to study office procedure and services offered.

We hope you cotton farmers read the ads published by your Cotton Improvement Association relative to returning unused acres to your county committee before June 4th, the deadline. If you planted cotton on your farm in 1952 or 1953, the released acreage will be credited to you as planted if you release it before the deadline.

Farm Bureau Directors will have their regular monthly meeting Monday night in Bovina Legion Hall at about 8:00. Remember that you are warmly welcome to attend any and all of these meetings. They concern your business and you may want

Seventh Graders Have Class Party

The seventh graders had a class party last week, that they had been planning for a long time. In spite of the cold weather, they went on a hayride and then ate their supper at the park.

They had fried chicken, deviled eggs, carrot sticks, celery sticks, cookies and soda pops.

After the supper, they all went to the show.

The supper was furnished by Mrs. Truitt, their teacher, and Mrs. Earl Richards, Mrs. Gene Ezell, Mrs. C. M. Huggins, and Mrs. Carl Rae, the room mothers. All of these were present at the party.

The hay and the truck were furnished by Carl Rae and C. M. Huggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Langer and Sherri Lynn and Joe Langer went to Hot Springs, N. M. recently visiting Joe Lawrence Langer and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kerby and Paula Kay spent the weekend in Carlsbad visiting with her brother and family, the Roscoe Fredericks.

to present some helpful ideas to your directors. They earnestly solicit your suggestions and promise you sincere consideration.

A financial report will be published next week, and we would appreciate your reading it and making any comments you wish. We think you will appreciate the appearance of this report; but if you don't, we want to know that, too.

Mrs. Dorothy Magness of Hereford and Mr. W. T. Johnson of Friona, are, we believe the two newest members of Parmer County Farm Bureau. Maybe you should be next. If you're not a member, you are far in the minority.

Congratulations to Director Les Bruns and wife, who are the parents of a new son, Robert Bruce, born last Friday.

We are told that you farmers who have been asking about availability of Varsol No. 1, one of the oils to kill Johnson Grass, can get it from Humble Oil Co. in Lubbock for 20c per gallon. We understand it is not available locally.

SHERLEY GRAIN COMPANY

"SERVING PARMER COUNTY FARMERS THE YEAR 'ROUND"

BOVINA, TEXAS

FARMERS: You can help protect our county's COTTON HISTORY

If there is any possibility that you may not plan to use all of your allotted cotton acreage, the Parmer County Cotton Improvement Association, together with the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, urge you to plan to return your unused acres to the county committee for reallocation purposes.

In this manner, Parmer County will be assured of using all of its 1954 allotment, which will be needed to preserve our cotton history.

The deadline for returning acres to the county committee is June 4, but we strongly urge that you act before that date, as it will then be too late for these allocated acres to be planted.
