

Never pass up a good opportunity, no matter what it may be. Some months ago, the wife, who has from time to time expressed a longing to hear our record collection that we picked up here and there during the more light-hearted moments of our youth, came wagging in a dandy record player for our birthday. We evened that score in a rather handy fashion this past week when her birthday rolled around. She was presented with a handsome vacuum cleaner. She took it in pretty good humor, we must admit.

The Little Man, who thinks he is getting to be somebody nowadays, puts on a good show occasionally. One of his favorite stunts is "playing Mama."

He does this by vigorously shaking his head from side to side and saying "No, no, no!" Sometimes he even slaps himself with one hand. It's a very realistic portrayal. You should see it.

Over the past week as we were visiting a business early one morning just as it was about to start the day, we were mildly startled to have the proprietor ask if we would join with himself and several employees in a short devotional period.

This we did, and were pleased to discover that as we left the store about 10 minutes later that things looked a little bit brighter than they did before we walked in. We venture to say that there is not another business within 100 miles that even considers such a simple, yet inspirational, way to start the day.

Why do we as citizens of a "Christian" nation find ourselves embarrassed and fidgety whenever someone suggests anything pertaining to religion anywhere else but inside church? Are not a man's convictions about God fit for daily conversation? Perhaps our daily lives would not be such jungles of confusion and worry if we had a little more time for religion.

Has it ever occurred to you that we who live in and around this immediate area are one of the most "unattached" sections of the entire Southwest?

Whether it is an asset or a liability is dependent upon the way you look at it. We can say that we owe our allegiance to no one, or we can also claim that we are a part of just about most anything you can name.

To illustrate, we still sometimes say we are living in the Texas Panhandle, but that's a debatable point. We also consider that we live in West Texas, but if we look at the map, we will see that there is a tremendous area of Texas that lies further west than we.

If we are not in the Panhandle, do we live on the South Plains? Nobody from that particular area seems to ever claim us. Also, those of us who may grow tired of being Texans don't have very far to move to be New Mexicans.

And those of us who already live on the western side of the state line can be a Texan with little difficulty if that should be our choice. Have you ever thought of it? We seem to be a sovereign country all to ourselves.

Regardless of these geographical features, anyone who lives within a 250-mile radius of Borger should include somewhere in his life's plan a visit to the tremendous petro-chemical industries of that city in the Panhandle.

It is truly a marvelous example of American enterprise and ingenuity. We had a chance to see this industry last week, and took it, and we are glad that we did.

Included on our tour were four separate plants, all operated by the Phillips Petroleum Company. One was a fractionating plant, one a refinery, one a butadiene plant, and one a carbon black plant.

Seeing this incredible display of equipment opened some of the mysteries of where all of our petroleum products come from today, but the sight of the industry also brought new questions: Like, how in the world could anyone ever organize such a maze of pipes, furnaces, towers and buildings into the close-knit group that they are, producing a select group of products?

Perhaps we have lived in ignorance for a number of years, (we suspect that others have too), but we were frankly astounded to find that the refinery is making gasoline and a hundred other "solid" products from natural gas, just as they would from oil. We had never suspected such a possibility.

Also, it was hard for us to stand at the end of the synthetic rubber production line and see big 75-pound chunks of the stuff roll off and be told that what we were looking at was butane gas in one of its many forms.

That's the "cold rubber" that we hear so much about from tire manufacturers today. If you

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY!" (Ugh)

Being careful not to interfere with the regular schedule of activities, a houseful of thoughtful, but noisy neighbors paid a call on the Wendol Christians of Oklahoma Lane about 4:30 Sunday morning.

As things later developed, the "friends" were using the occasion of Louise's (Mrs. Christian's) birthday for the outrageous behavior, but all who participated in the merry-making had to admit that it turned out to be a lot of fun.

The nonsense started at 4 o'clock when Louise dragged herself out of a sound sleep to answer a ringing telephone. There was no one on the line. Fifteen minutes later, the phone jangled again.

Still no answer, and the harassed housewife was saying to herself that it was high time that farm folks got used to telephones and stopped making a novelty or a joke out of them.

Then about 15 minutes later, a noisy crowd of about 20 persons trooped up to the Christian's door and banged for admittance. "Happy birthday," they announced in unison, and proceeded to set about the task of cooking breakfast for everyone, including Wendol and Louise. Menu was waffles and bacon and the trimmings.

Early-birds were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Grissom and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Roach and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Christian, Troy and Phyllis, June Christian of Clarendon, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Willard.

The uninvited guests remained until about 8:30. Each had brought a gift, all of which were part of the joke. But afterwards Louise received a corsage and head scarf.

TEXAS-SIZE YAM

The folks over in Portales have been growing sweet potatoes for a good many years, but we wonder if they grow very many of them this size? Here, Jerry Vestal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Vestal of Farwell, shows a huge 6-pound yam grown on his granddad's place near Bovina.

His granddad is Jess Vestal.

Commissioners Buy Two County Pickups

Parmer County commissioners purchased two pickups this week, one for Precinct 3 and the other for Precinct 4, when they met Monday at the courthouse.

The vehicles, which were bought from Sikes Motor Co., were purchased for $1200 each plus the trade-in.

A road petition by S. E. Redden and others was accepted and a jury of view appointed. The petition is for a road southwest of Bovina. On the jury of view are S. E. Redden, Jesse Walling, T. P. Griffith, Charley Gray and O. W. Rhinehart.

Visiting Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wurster and Tommy were Paul's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fellingham of Portland, Oregon.

Car Wreck Kills Two

In one of the most grisly wrecks in memory of residents of this area, the lives of two young Bovina men were snuffed out in a split second early Wednesday morning when the car in which they were riding crashed into the rear of a large transport-type truck near the Port of Entry in Texico.

The victims were Kenneth Joe Lowrie, 21; and Billy Dale Robertson, 26.

They were homeward bound in a late model sedan, traveling east at what was believed to be a high rate of speed. The accident occurred at about 5:30 before sunrise, and witnesses say it was not likely that the boys saw the large truck pull onto the four-lane highway from the Port of Entry.

The impact of the collision was such that the car passed completely under the end of the trailer and out the right side about midway down the length of the trailer.

The car's top was sheared off, and the bodies of both young men were severed at about shoulder height.

Robertson Services
Funeral services for Billy Dale Robertson are to be held this afternoon (Thursday) at the Bovina Baptist Church at 1:30. Rev. V. L. Goodwin and Grady Pricer, minister, will conduct the final rites.

Pallbearers will be Buster Blount, Buddy Reed, Pete Huggins, Hoyt Wilcox, Hoyt Curry Jr., and Kenneth Evans. Burial will be in Floydada with Steed Funeral Home of Clovis in charge.

Robertson, a farmer and Navy veteran of World War II, is survived by his wife, Doris Mauldin Robertson; a three month old son, Wick Thomas; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robertson, all of Bovina; three sisters, Mrs. Rex Sheffey of Dimmitt; Mrs. Darrell Robbins of Blunt, S. D.; and Karolyn Robertson of Bovina; his grand-

Farwell To Plains For Next Game

The Farwell Steers will take to the road tomorrow (Friday) night for their fourth conference game. It will be with Plains, and will be the homecoming occasion for the hosts.

Plains, which is reported by Farwell Coach Smokey Cates to have a "heavy team," is expected to be keyed up for the contest since it is their homecoming.

They were beaten by Bovina 25-14 a week ago, and will be anxious to earn their first conference win.

Some switching is taking place in the Farwell backfield. Troy Christian has been pulled out of the Steer forward wall to fill the full-back slot vacated by Gene Hardage who injured a leg in the Whitharral game last week. Wendol Pike is moving in to the left tackle position formerly played by Christian.

Cates described the Plains offense as similar to that employed by his own team—the "split T". He added that Plains has a large squad, and they are operating two teams that were hard to tell apart as far as ability is concerned.

TWO GO TO HOUSE

Paul Frederick, high school principal and C. B. Stockton, Texico coach, were in House Thursday night to attend the monthly Schoolmasters meeting. Details for the county tournament were completed.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Robertson; and a grandmother, Mrs. S. H. Horn, of Floydada.

Lowrie Rites Set
Kenneth Joe Lowrie is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lowrie of Bovina; and three brothers, Harold Lee, who is with the Army stationed at Banker, Maine; Huey and David, both of Bovina.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and also a farmer. He was a veteran of the Korean war.

Services are set for Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist Church in Bovina, with Rev. Roscoe Trostle of Lubbock and Rev. W. G. White in charge of the rites. Burial will be in Wheeler, also under the direction of Steed Funeral Home of Clovis.

Pallbearers were not known at press time.

Annual Halloween Carnival Set For Saturday Night

The halls at Farwell Schools are humming with activity this week, as both students and teachers complete plans for the annual Halloween carnival to be Saturday night in the gymnasium.

A king and queen will be named from a group of high school candidates and will be crowned in a special coronation ceremony at the end of the festivities.

Sponsors urge patrons to eat supper at the school that evening, when various food booths will be set up to feed the public. A variety of foods can be found on a stick to be served by the second grade, along with soda pop. There will be plenty for everyone and the hot dogs will be served hot.

The fourth graders will have charge of the ice cream and cake booth, and candy, popcorn balls and taffy apples may be obtained from the fifth graders. The Parent-Teachers Association will sell homemade pie and coffee.

The carnival is to begin at 7 o'clock Saturday evening and will continue until the coronation. The deadline for the king and queen contest is 10 o'clock, and votes will be counted immediately before the formal service.

No raffling of articles will be permitted at the entertainment, sponsors emphasize.

Included in the round of booths will be the fishing pond sponsored by the first grade; darts at balloons by the third grade; turkey ring and bean guessing, sixth grade; basketball throw, seventh grade; jail, eighth grade; House of horrors, freshmen; confetti and dunking board, sophomores; cake and pie walk, and sale of old hats, juniors; and seniors will operate their annual booth, a game table.

Candidates for the title of king and queen are Naomi Hubbell and Mitchell Walls, freshmen; Marion Smith and Jerry Primrose, sophomores; Betty Curtis and Harvey Lesley, juniors; and Barbara Metcalf and Jerry Potect, seniors.

Students named as attendants to participate in the coronation as princes and princesses are Zella Marie Martin and Tommy Lovelace, freshmen; Lucille Carpenter and Donnie Carpenter, sophomores; Linda Kube and Jerry Don Utsman, juniors; Mona McDorman

Huggins Honored At Award Dinner

Otis Huggins, Farwell manager for the Southwestern Public Service Company, will be one of fifty employees honored this evening at the company's Plains Division service award dinner in Plainview.

W. L. Pearson, industrial manager of the company, will present Mr. Huggins with a 10 year service award. J. M. Collins, division manager, will serve as toastmaster for the occasion.

Clovis men will take the top service awards this evening, with R. E. Bain and G. D. Sanders scheduled to be honored for 35 years of service. Awards will be given in five year groupings for service ranging from 5 through 35 years.

The company's new color motion picture, a wide screen production which depicts the growth of the area, will be shown as part of the evening's entertainment.

Whitharral Victim Of Farwell Steers In Conference Tilt

The Whitharral Panthers, playing hard but falling behind in scoring, were beaten 26-0 by the Farwell Steers Friday night in a conference game played here.

It was the third conference win for the Steers, who rolled to a 19-0 lead at halftime and had little trouble holding their margin for the second half.

Gene Hardage, fullback, broke into the end zone for the Steers from about 30 yards out to start scoring Friday night. He had snared a pass from Quarterback Doyle Ford to start the run. Don Gerie's attempted extra point was kicked wide.

Don Pool, halfback, scored next crashing over from the 10. There was no extra point. Fullback Hardage came back again with another score, and this time Gerie's kick was good, making the score 19-0 at the half.

Whitharral perked up in the third quarter as fullback James Fagan scored on a 12-yard off-tackle run. A pass was attempted for the extra point, but it was incomplete.

Gerie's scored on a pass play for the final touchdown of the game, and also added the extra point, to end the game 26-6.

Texico "42" Teams Have Three Wins

Texico "42" teams will go to Portair Monday night to play games there. The play will begin at 7 o'clock in the evening MST.

In games thus far, the Spears team won over Clovis Fish team 37-35 last week. A session scheduled with Rosedale was not held and will be played at a later date. The Gillean team of Texico has started the season with two wins. First win was over Clovis Fish

Parmer County and the nation will march to the polls on Tuesday of next week for another general election. Locally, at least, it may prove to be one of the least exciting elections in history, as the only race that is amounting to anything is that for representative of the 18th Congressional District.

In that particular contest, Democrat Walter Rogers of Pampa, the incumbent, is being challenged by LeRoy "Pete" LaMaster of Perryton on the Republican ticket. LaMaster cleared his way into the general election through a primary that did not produce any opponent on the GOP filing.

Few political forecasters give LaMaster much hope even though he was a strong "also ran" in the primary of 1950 which saw Republican Ben Guill lose his temporary position in the House to Rogers.

Absentee balloting this week indicated the expected extremely light vote will likely prove to be fact next Tuesday. The first of this week, only two absentee ballots had been cast.

The deadline for absentee voting is Friday, October 29.

This year the ballot is divided into five columns, one each for the four parties represented, and a column for write-ins. Most Democratic nominees will be shoe-in candidates, and other parties don't forecast a single victory.

Allan Shivers, Democratic nominee for governor, is opposed by Tod R. Adams on the GOP ticket; but Ben Ramsey, Democratic selection for lieutenant governor, has no opposition.

Lyndon Johnson, Democratic U. S. senator, is expected to have no difficulty disposing of Carlos G. Watson, GOP; and Fred T. Spangler, Constitutionist.

Martin Dies, Texas' Democratic congressman at large, is opposed by Tom Nolan in the Republican column.

The Texas commissioner of agriculture, John White (Democrat), has opposition from Harry W. Linderman, Republican; and E. E. Wells of the Constitution Party.

All other candidates are Democratic and have no opposition, save for the U. S. Representative race already mentioned.

The Independent ticket is listed on the ballot, but carries no candidates under its name.

Other nominees include the following: For Land Commissioner: Bascom Giles; for Treasurer of the State of Texas: Jesse James; for Railroad Commissioner: Ernest O. Thompson; for Comptroller of Public Accounts: Robert S. Calvert; for Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Texas: J. E. Hickman; for Supreme Court of Texas, Place 1: Few Brewster; for Supreme Court of Texas, Place 2: Clyde E. Smith; for Supreme Court of Texas, Place 3: (Unexpired Term): Ruel C. Walker;

For Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals: Lloyd W. Davidson; for Congressman, 18th Congressional District: Walter Rogers, of Gray County; For Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District: E. L. Pitts, of Lubbock County; for State Senator, 30th District: A. J. (Andy) Rogers, of Childress County; for Representative, 96th District: Jesse M. Osborn, of Bailey County; for District Judge, 64th Judicial District: E. A. Bills, of Lamb County;

For District Attorney: Joe L. Cox, of Hale County; for County Judge and Ex-Officio School Superintendent: A. D. Smith; for County Attorney: William H. Sheehan; for County and District Clerk: Hugh Moseley; for Sheriff, Tax Assessor & Collector: Chas. Lovelace;

For County Treasurer: Mrs. Mabel Reynolds; for County Commissioner, Pct. No. 1: Forrest M. Osborn; for County Commissioner, Pct. No. 2: C. H. Jefferson; for County Commissioner, Pct. No. 3: J. H. McDonald; for County Commissioner, Pct. No. 4: H. L. Ivy; for Justice of the Peace, Pct. No. 1: B. N. Graham; for Justice of the Peace, Pct. No. 2: Walter Lovelace; for Constable:

Regarded by many people as a matter of importance equal to the political races are the proposed amendments listed at the bottom of the general election ballot. There are 11 of them this year, and during the past three weeks, The Tribune has carried a detailed explanation of them, and they will not be repeated here because of their length. The polls will be open from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m. County and city offices in the courthouse are to be closed on election day, as will be the ASC office. It was not known by press time if other offices would be open.

BEAUTY INSTEAD OF BEEF

Gals Will Butt Heads In Topsy-Turvy Football Game at Bovina Saturday

Look twice and you may be able to discover that the players above aren't quite what you might suspect—they're girls. The ladies will battle it out among themselves Saturday night. In the picture, Donna Jean Hobdy, left, and Pat Burnam, right, "protect" Lillie Ellison, center, who is dropping back for a quick pass.

A most unusual way to observe Halloween is being tried out by students of Bovina Schools this weekend. The girls of the senior and sophomore classes have challenged the lasses of the freshman and junior classes to a rock 'em-sock 'em football game.

This will be no powder puff match, assert the girls of both teams, who say that tackling will go on as usual, just as though it was a regularly scheduled football game.

As no Halloween carnival is planned for the school this year, the students are hoping they can make money from this activity that will take the place of the earnings formerly made with the carnivals.

An admission charge of 25 and 50 cents has been announced, with the game scheduled to get underway at 7:30 on the Bovina football field.

Female football players won't be the only novel touch for the evening, either. There will be an all-male pep squad, led by husky football players who vow they're really going to cheer their favorites on to victory.

Boy twirlers will strut their stuff for the public's enjoyment, crowned "football queen." His attendants will include Lyn Isham, Neil Smith, Julius Bradshaw, and Edmund Hobdy. Pep squad leaders are Dennie Ware, Norman Kellough, Pappy Calaway, and James Stevens. Here is a roster of the two teams: Marcella Verner, Margaret Verner, Lillie Ellison, Sandra Jefferson, Sandra Patton, Wilbur Dee Pound, Sue Moody, Evelyn Steelman, Ellen Berry, Robbie Routt, Lucy Brito, Wannette Turner, Dyalitha Bradshaw; Sue Hoffer, Lois Ellison, Donna Jean Hobdy, Nellie Cherrie, Glena Berry, Janie Alverson, Patsy Steelman, Pauline Lloyd, Wella Mae Wilcox, Matilda Brito, Verna Lee Hall, Beverly Roberts, Kay Leake, Patricia Lloyd, and Pat Burnam.

Eat With Faculty

Previous to the football game, a pancake supper will be held in the school cafeteria, beginning at 6 o'clock in the evening, sponsored by the faculty. Cost will be 35c and 60c. Everyone is invited to eat supper at the cafeteria.

Also, coffee will be served in the cafeteria throughout the ball game

Glasscock, Bingham Partners In Business

An announcement was made this week of the business partnership of Alvin Glasscock and O. D. Bingham, both farmers near the Hub community in central Parmer County.

The two men have opened a real estate office near the intersection of Highway 86 and the Friona-Muleshoe farm-to-market road, and are now ready for business, they say.

In addition to handling real estate transactions, the men will buy cotton. The firm will be known as Hub Real Estate. Bingham has had previous experience in a real estate business in Lubbock, although both are engaged in farming at the present time.

Exes Urged To Assist Tuesday

Smokey Gast urges cooperation from all local ex-students in making the annual homecoming of Farwell Schools a successful one.

A meeting is called for Tuesday night in the home of Gast at 8 o'clock, and any exes who can attend are urged to be there. Program plans will have to be completed soon, as homecoming is scheduled for November.

A speaker has been contacted, but a letter has not yet been received. Joe Crume is vice-president and Miss Irene Hardage is secretary of the organization.

Carl Schlenker Is New Supervisor

Carl Schlenker was elected as new soil conservation district supervisor Thursday night when supervisors met in Bovina. Henry Reynolds was outgoing official.

The meeting was a joint session with the county 4-H boys who viewed the films taken at the 1953 and 1954 4-H camps at Holy Ghost

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Winding Up Our Review Of the Amendments

Discussed in two previous issues of The Tribune have been seven proposed amendments to the state constitution which could possibly vitally affect everyone. We appreciate the interest that has been shown in our discussions, even though not all persons who have mentioned reading our views have been in accordance with them. That is a matter of purely secondary importance. The important thing is to get the voter to THINK FOR HIMSELF.

This week we present the final four of the 11 amendments under our scrutiny:

NUMBER TWO: The writer was prepared to endorse this amendment last week, which, if accepted by the voters of Texas, would allow teachers and state employees to receive credit for services of either field when considering retirement systems.

However, we postponed endorsing this proposed amendment until having spoken with several Texas teachers, and it now develops that they are fearful that the amendment, if accepted, might let the bars down to such an extent that their system would be damaged.

They tell us that such an amendment might pave the way for future legislation that would enable state-employed persons to slip into the teacher retirement system after a much shorter period of service than is required for the teachers themselves.

This is a matter that interests relatively few of the voters, and the writer, like many other voters, is not acquainted with many of the facts pertaining to this particular proposal. However, we think highly of the judgment of our teachers, and if they feel that there is a real danger in the proposal, we will oppose it in consideration of their interests.

NUMBER FIVE—Allowing the legislature to fix salaries of the governor and several other important elective offices, and raising the salary of state legislators from $10 to $25 per day.

Like many constitutional amendments, this is one that deals with two entirely separate and only mildly related proposals, and it is likely that some voters will be for one part of the amendment, but not for another. That, at least, is the predicament in which we find ourselves.

We would much prefer to see the salaries set by the voters as they are now set, thus affording a protection to all taxpayers from the danger of the pay of certain favored officials being boosted sky high almost overnight. There would be nothing the public could do in the event this amendment is approved. In addition, what about the interests of the office holder?

The proposed amendment is written in such a fashion as to make it possible for the legislature to raise or lower his salary in any amount (except below what it is at the present time) without notice and within an elected term. This would open the avenue for political intimidation of a number of sorts.

If you are interested, the governor now gets $12,000 per year. Other affected offices: attorney general, $10,000; treasurer, comptroller, secretary of state, and land commissioner, all of whom are paid $6,000 yearly.

As for the second part of the amendment, we heartily endorse it. The present pay scale for Texas legislators is preposterous—$10 a day for 120 days, or $1200 per year.

What man qualified for one of these important positions, would be interested in it for the money he could earn? None! Therefore, there are only two reasons for which men now run for a seat in the Texas senate or house: Prestige and political advantage, or a genuine desire to be of service to their state.

It's a sad state of affairs, but we had just as well face the fact that the day of doing something for nothing is about over. And we haven't very many "landed gentlemen" left around who can so graciously give of their time and talent without at least getting enough to meet their expenses while living in Austin.

Something should and must be done about this matter, but we are voting against it this time for the simple reason that we consider the other half of the amendment dangerous. We want our legislators to get a badly needed raise in pay to at least bring them up to the "break-even" point, but we cannot support their cause in the present circumstances.

NUMBER SIX—Prohibiting the legislature from lending money or assuming indebtedness of toll roads or turnpikes in Texas. Voters are simply being asked to endorse what the state legislature has already set down on this matter, and it should be done by all means.

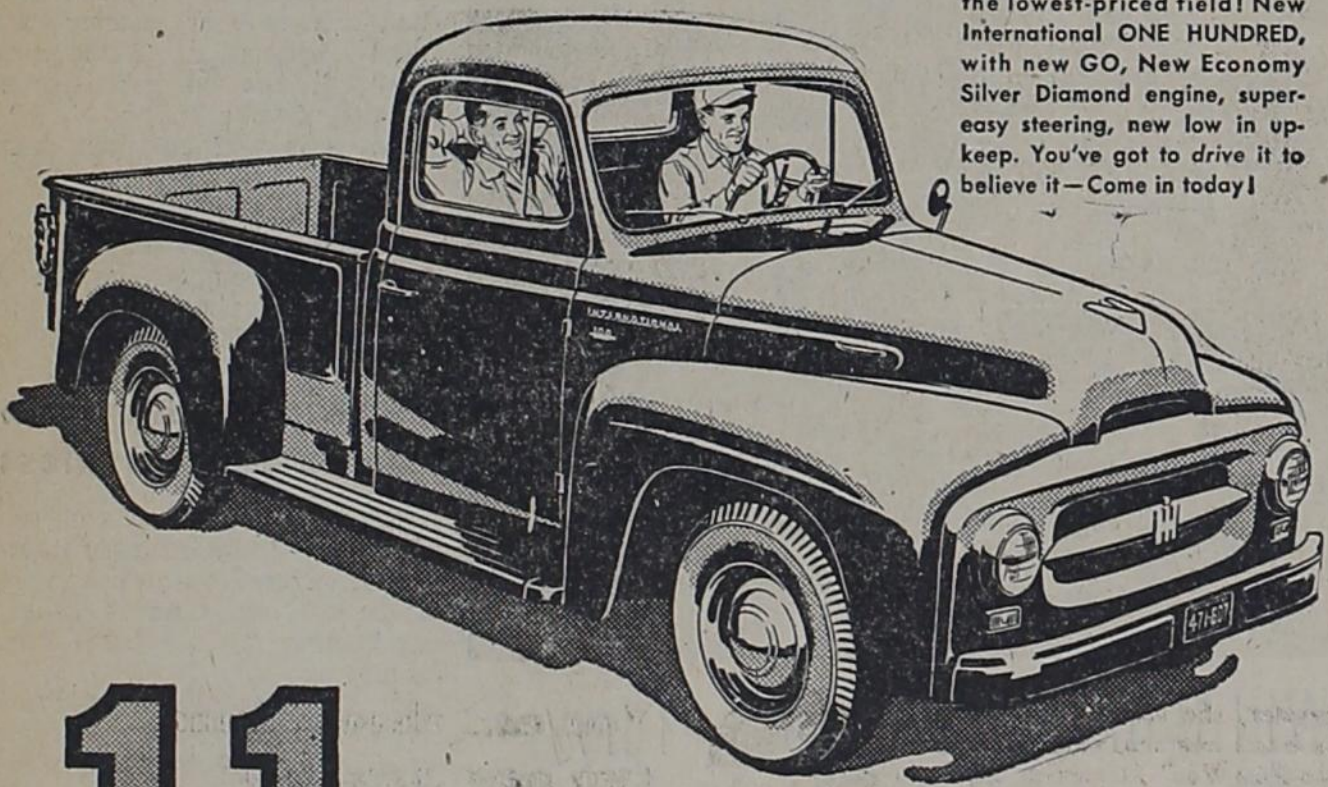

The state legislature has passed a law to this effect, but without a constitutional provision such as is being proposed, there is nothing to prevent later sessions of the legislature from changing the law entirely. The state has no business underwriting private ventures, as toll roads are, and this would be a protection to the taxpayer. The amendment does not mean that there will never be any turnpikes or toll roads in Texas if it passes, because the amendment would not interfere with the present laws enabling the state to authorize certain groups to enter into this type business.

Our own state representative, Jesse Osborn of Muleshoe, is in favor of the amendment. So are we.

NUMBER 9—Authorizing counties having population of over 190,000 to create county-wide hospital districts. This is an amendment which does not concern the residents of this area, and apparently there is little reason for us to oppose it.

The reason that the amendment has come up is because officials of the counties involved—Galveston, Bexar, Dallas, El Paso, Harris, Jefferson, and Tarrant—and their large cities, say they are up against it with problems relating to medical facilities.

LaMaster Says That Farmers In Need Of More Representation

"I'm campaigning for two things: Support for President Eisenhower's program, and a 'do-something' Congressman for the 18th Congressional district," said Congressman Candidate LeRoy "Pete" LaMaster, speaking before a group of precinct workers in Amarillo this week.

LaMaster, a farmer and stockman from Perryton, said the two issues went hand-in-hand.

"First," he said, "President Eisenhower must have a favorable Congress during the next two years. It's only natural to expect the left-wingers to try to get back in the White House in '56—and they'll do everything they can to wreck Ike's program in the meantime."

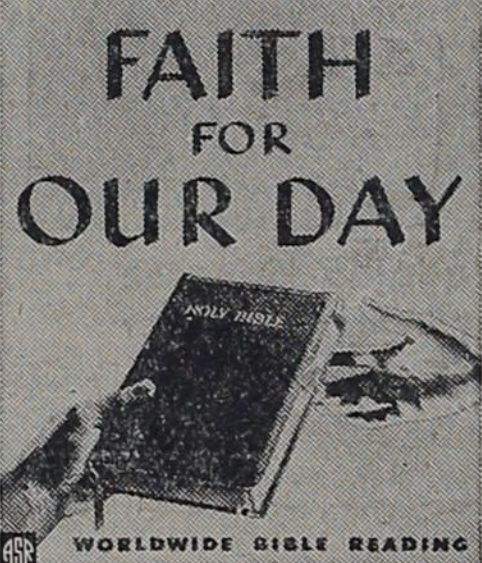

"And then," said LaMaster, "to get any real representation in this District we need to send a man to Washington who'll be on Ike's team—a man who can make your voice heard—after all, that's what you expect of a Representative."

LaMaster named a few of the problems he said needed attention. "The Canadian River Dam Project needs to be carried through to a successful conclusion," he said. "And, too, it's time the farmers had representation in Washington." He pointed out that there were over 200 lawyers in the House of Representatives and only 25 farmers.

Another matter of importance, according to LaMaster, was the Natural Gas issue—not only from the standpoint of elimination of regulating gas prices at the well-head—but for a clear cut ruling that the farmer be permitted to use the natural gas for irrigation purposes.

"I pledge myself to support the Eisenhower program, just as far as I can, and still keep the best interests of the people in my district uppermost," he said.

Avenue A & 7th St. Ph. Farwell 6569

AUSTIN—Democratic State Committee, led by Governor Allan Shivers, has taken steps, some of them unprecedented, to keep Texas politically conservative.

With the goal being a strong conservative backlog when the national election comes up, committee members made several moves, beginning at Texas grassroots, to insure that conservative forces can present a strong front in the campaign.

The committee created a special statewide group to keep conservative party leadership active through 1956, added 27 "special advisers" of Governor Shivers to work over the state, and decided to hold quarterly meetings from the precinct level up, for closer contact with voters.

It also voted to hold $50-a-plate fund-raising dinners to maintain interest in the off-election year, and increased the committee budget from $12,000 to $20,000 a year.

Shivers emphasized the importance of maintaining political interest over the state. He told the committee that it would determine Texas' role in the election campaign, and said that Texas could be a pivotal factor in 1956 national politics.

UT Growth
Suggestions of Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, that the giant college's enrollment should be halted at 20,000 students stirred up quite a ruckus in the state capital.

Wilson made the remark in an explanation of the University's problems of meeting space requirements for an increasing student body. The present "forty acres," he said, were not capable of providing facilities or space for many more than the present 16,000 students.

Opposing the "freeze" were Austin Chamber of Commerce Manager John D. Simpson Jr., and Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, who urged that other University property in Austin be used for expansion.

After the matter had been discussed pro and con for several days, President Wilson, made a vigorous restatement that "educational excellence"—not bigness—is the number-one consideration for the university.

In his annual report to the faculty, Dr. Wilson put the immediate future of the school into the collective lap of the 1955 Legislative session.

"We believe our case is a strong one," Dr. Wilson said, "and that the proper approach should be informative rather than manipulative."

Since the legislature holds the university's purse strings—and with an increasing number of students apparently headed for the "forty-acres" in coming years, the upcoming legislative session could be the most important in UT's history.

Union Law
A law giving a union member full protection if he disagrees with union politics is proposed by a University of Texas professor.

Jerre S. Williams of the University law school suggested that the National Labor Relations Act be amended to let the federal labor board settle cases involving union discipline.

That would determine whether a member was thrown out of a union for just cause, said Williams.

He said that union officials have been promising for fifty years to set up better methods of handling such disputes.

Gasoline Suit
Gasoline wholesalers involved in a state-anti-trust suit have asked the Supreme Court to review its charges.

Firms asked the court to write an opinion on certain key questions involved in the case, saying that it would save both money and time for an Austin district court that will be assigned the suit. Attorneys for the companies argued that the trial court now has insufficient guidance on interpretation of anti-trust laws.

Oil Allowance
An increase of 64,300 barrels of crude oil per day in November has been ordered by the Railroad Commission.

The boost will jump total permissive flow to 2,864,749 barrels daily.

Truckers Protest
Texas truck operators are protesting a suggestion of the Texas Railroad Association that increased financing for Texas highways be derived from a ton-mile tax on truck freight.

Spokesman for the Texas Motor Transportation Association, state trucking organization, vetoed the suggestion on grounds that: The tax would necessitate an increase of truck freight rates and a reduction in service.

Similar taxes in other states have been repealed as unfair, expensive, and not in the public interest.

The suggestion was made at a group meeting called by the Texas Highway Department to discuss ways of obtaining additional financing for highways.

Savings Bonds
Governor Allan Shivers has designated the remainder of 1954 as a "Put-Texas-Over-The-Top 1954 Savings Bonds Drive."

Shivers urged that everyone help make the drive a success, pointing out that $75 million in additional bonds are needed to reach the state goal.

Water
Streamflows continued to decrease over Texas in September but storage in reservoirs still can meet needs, the Board of Water Engineers has reported.

Storage capacity of the state's nine largest reservoirs fell from 62 to 50 per cent during the dry month, the board said.

DINNER POSTPONED

A dinner scheduled for next Tuesday by Texico Cemetery Association has been postponed because of conflicts with other engagements and illnesses of some of the workers, says Jim Bob Smart, secretary of the group.

"KAR KINKS" by Smokey & Fred THE EXHAUST SYSTEM

Now that cooler days are here, and you'll spend most of your time driving with the windows rolled tightly shut, is a good time to pass on a warning or two about your car's exhaust system.

There is more danger in carbon monoxide than most people realize. That's the odorless, colorless gas that is discharged from your engine when it is running.

If you have a leak somewhere in your car's exhaust system, you should have it taken care of right away, as there is always the danger of asphyxiation to passengers in the car.

A leak usually betrays itself by a hissing or roaring sound as it develops. However, this is not always the case, and if you find that you are having headaches or your eyes are burning while you are driving, be sure to get the exhaust system thoroughly checked.

New Federal Tax Code May Benefit Hospitals

CHICAGO—Hospitals may benefit from provisions in the new federal tax code granting more liberal tax deductions for philanthropic gifts, it was suggested here last month.

Provisions affecting donations to hospitals were explained in the Public Relations and Fund Raising Digest published by Gonsler and Gerber, public relations counsel. They are:

"1. The current 20 per cent charitable contributions limit for individuals has been extended to 30 per cent, where the extra 10 per cent consists of gifts made to churches, schools, and hospitals.

"2. A corporation giving beyond the 5 per cent corporate limitation in any one year can carry the excess over as deductions to two succeeding years, subject to the 5 per cent limitation for each of the three years.

"3. A person may create a short-term trust, the income from which is committed irrevocably to a charitable institution for a specified period of time. Formerly, in order to obtain total tax exemption of such income, the donor could not regain his interest in the property within 10 years. Under the new code, short-term trusts can now be committed to charitable purposes for as little as two years, during which time the giver will be entirely tax exempt on the income therefrom.

"4. Annuity income will now be taxed on a new life expectancy basis which is more favorable than the former method of taxing up to 3 per cent of annuity cost. This adds to the attractiveness of the practice of making capital gifts to charitable institutions with an annuity arrangement between institution and donor."

Farwell Teams Split Games The Past Week

Farwell junior football team came out as the winner in their game with Bovina last week, while the B team failed to score in their encounter with Muleshoe.

The juniors went to Bovina Tuesday of last week and scored 9 to 7 for their opponents. Johnny Lovelace made two touchdowns and Gerald Christian made one for the local team. The boys have improved a lot and looked pretty fair, says Shelby Jobs, junior coach.

In the B game, Farwell was defeated 26-0. Although they lost the game, they showed lots of promise, says Coach Jobs. It wasn't a poor game, the boys were just outclassed by a AA school, he added.

Sixth Graders Give Numbers

An assembly program was presented at Farwell schools Tuesday by the sixth graders, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Marie Ellyson.

A playlet was entitled "Their Friday Afternoon Program." Special numbers were by Darlene Hromas, piano solo; Mike Booth, reading; Emalee Tucker, piano solo.

Selections by the junior band were "Crusader's Hymn", "Over The Waves", "The Spook Speaks Up" and "Song Time." Approximately 26 students are in the junior band.

Farm Welding High School Award Program

An illustrated booklet showing over 50 farm shop projects announces the Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation's $7000 Farm Welding Award Program for High Schools. The Program offers awards to high school students who live on farms or ranches for the best description of welded farm projects. Projects shown in the Rules booklet are ones for which awards were made in a similar program sponsored in previous years. Copies of the Rules may be obtained from The James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland 17, Ohio.

Agricultural educators and leaders in 44 different states helped formulate the Rules for the Program, the purpose of which is stated as being to encourage students to study how welding can be used on farms to increase self-sufficiency, save time and labor. High school students can compete for $5000 in awards ranging from $600 to $25 by describing projects that have or could be made at home or school. Awards totaling $2000 will also be given to schools in honor of the main award winners. School awards are to be used for the improvement of shop mechanic courses.

THE CROPS ARE COMING IN AND SO IS THE CASH

Anybody who knows anything about farming in this part of the country knows that farm folks make most of their money at one time of the year—right about now.

And if you know anything about auction sales, you know that most of them are for cash on the barrelhead. Put these two things together and you will be able to see that NOW is a good time to think about having that sale of yours.

Call us for any kind of help you may need. We are always glad to assist you with your sale problems.

Dates Designated For Legion Days

October 20 through November 11 has been designated by President Eisenhower, Governor Allan Shivers and many mayors as "American Legion Days" and the local Post of the American Legion is planning to dedicate that period to acquainting Texas citizens with the program of the organization, according to Post Commander Kirt Crume.

According to Commander Crume, October 20 is the beginning of the new fiscal year of the American Legion and since World War I, November 11 has been known as "Armistice Day".

"American Legion Days" will be concluded locally with a full scale observance of November 11 which has now become known as "Veteran Day."

Commander Crume explained that Armistice Day, VJ Day, VE Day and other dates were all of great importance but it was decided to name one day in the year when all veterans will be honored.

The Texas Legislature and the United States Congress have designated November 11 as "Veterans Day" and the American Legion plans to make its first observance a banner one in Texico-Farwell.

A parade is planned for November 11. Full co-operation from business houses, schools, and other organizations has been assured.

During the "American Legion Days" observance, Legionnaires will make a special effort to inform veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict with the aims and purposes of the American Legion, Commander Crume stated.

We have decided that all fathers are alike, young and old. Danny Huffaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Huffaker, played the part of father of the bride in the ESA Tom Thumb Wedding. When he arrived home that evening, he commented to his parents "Why did I have to give the bride away—why, I wanted to keep her."

Anyone who saw Deborah Hargrove at the program would surely appreciate Danny's viewpoint, we think. She was the prettiest little girl in satin and lace one could imagine.

This is gingerbread weather and Mrs. Chas. Lunsford of Farwell has a very special recipe for this favorite dessert and is permitting us to use it.

- DELUXE GINGERBREAD
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 egg
 3/4 cup molasses
 2 c. flour
 1 tsp. soda
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1 tsp. ginger
 1 tsp. cinnamon
 1 cup thick sour milk

Cream shortening, add sugar. Blend in beaten egg and molasses. Sift flour before measuring, then sift soda, salt, cinnamon, ginger with flour. Add to creamed mixture. Then add milk. Bake 30 minutes in moderate oven. Serve with whipped cream.

From the news stories we receive about the Bovina Widow's Club, we have come to the conclusion that they have more fun than just about any organization in the county. As far as we can tell, their purpose is to have fun, and just enjoy a nice visit and social once a month.

And the programs they plan are some of the most clever and original ones that we have noticed. Read some of their news reports and you will enjoy them as we do. They meet once a month, and the theme of the program is different each time. Mrs. Margaret Caldwell and Mrs. H. T. Hastings plan the programs, we understand.

Mrs. Hastings was in the shop this week, and we enjoyed talking to her about the group. She is definitely enthusiastic about the club. Mrs. Hastings is the youngest member of the group, and is 67 years young.

The University of Texas News Service informs us that the flavor of your coffee may be affected by increasing activity of Central American volcanoes. This comes from a University of Texas volcanologist.

Dr. Fred M. Bullard says Santiago volcano in Nicaragua is pouring fumes over surrounding land which produces "mountain grown" coffee, a richly flavored bean used in several more-expensive blends.

So far, farmers have not been able to grow the famed beans anywhere except mountainsides in Nicaragua and Costa Rica. Dr. Bullard surveyed volcanoes in those two countries in a preliminary move to establish observation posts near more-active vents.

The Pan American Institute of Geography and History is sponsoring his work.

Douglas Meador, who writes the noted column, "Trail Dust" in the Matador Tribune says that "whiskey does not make fools of men, it just points them out."

We culled the following from the Stanton Reporter and think it is worth repeating. What do you think?

DID YOU GIVE TO MARCH OF DIMES?

What are little boys made of? Who knows? But whatever it is, it is wonderful.

The other day, Judge Bruce Frazier got a letter from one of his grandsons who lives in Big Spring. The little fellow is a recent victim of polio. He is better now.

Without editorializing, the young man's letter to his granddaddy is quoted verbatim, herewith. You can make up your own mind as to whether you should have given that ten-cent piece during the recent Emergency March of Dimes.

"Dear granddaddy how are you. 'we bought a tv set. 'i am just find. 'we hope you are just find. 'how is wetfoot? (Editor's Note: Wetfoot is a dog.) 'we have 3 baby kittens born last night one is dead. i hope your cat is find. 'i am going to school in one week. 'i hope you come to see us soon. 'i can walk and play. 'i went to church sunday night and saw some of my friends but not all of them. love. james bruce frazier."

Many miles covered, and never a verb wasted. Is there a lesson here? Think it over. And next time the polio drive comes around, if you can resist giving, we'd like to hear about it.

Sylvia Watkins was in a hurry to leave the school Monday, so when she found her car hemmed in by another automobile, she rushed into the school and asked the owner if she would mind moving her car so she could get out.

The kind lady had already complied with Sylvia's wishes before the embarrassed requester realized that it wasn't her car that was blocked after all—it belonged to Nell Walling.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Morgan of Texico Baptist Church are often asked for food by hungry people who pass through the Twin Cities, and the pastor and his wife always comply with such requests.

Denny Graham, son of the John Grahams of Lubbock, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham, along with his parents and brother and sister, recently.

They attended Sunday School at the Methodist Church, and afterwards, Denny, who is about six, hurried up to Mrs. W. H. Graham, department superintendent, and informed her that he just had to have a written statement that he had attended Sunday School. It seems that his church was having an attendance campaign and he wanted definite proof that he hadn't been negligent just because he was away visiting.

So Mrs. Graham wrote the note, with Denny standing at her elbow and telling her exactly what to say.

Competition Opens For Fashion Awards

St. Louis, Mo.—Competition for the third annual Forest City Fashion Scholarship awards has been opened to high school seniors, with invitations to participate available through the offices of principals of accredited high schools in every state.

The scholarships are offered by Forest City Manufacturing Company of St. Louis, one of the largest firms in the American fashion industry, as a practical way of encouraging more talented young people to study for careers in fashion design.

Two national winners will receive full tuition scholarship in fashion design at the Washington University School of Fine Arts, Department of Dress Design, in St. Louis. Each scholarship is for a two-year period. Students competing for the scholarships will submit sketches of original fashion designs, together with letters of recommendation from the principals of their high schools.

The competition will close on March 1, 1955, when all entries must be in the hands of competition judges in St. Louis. Winners will be announced May 1. Judges will include faculty members of the University and working designers.

Begun in 1935, the annual competition for the Forest City Fashion Scholarships has grown rapidly in number of entries and in quality of work submitted. Winners have come from New York, Oklahoma, Utah and California, and the finalists, from which the winners are selected, represent schools in more than 15 states.

Interested students may get information and competition requirements from high school principals. Entry blanks are also available at stores featuring Forest City fashions, which are Carole King and Doris Dodson junior fashions, Martha Manning and Peg Palmer misses' and half size dresses, and Shirley Lee Junior Petties.

Good Crowd Attends Chili Supper Monday

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Food Processing in a Nut Shell

Man has no corner on processing food. Look at the squirrels and look at the birds. They always have shelled nuts and hulled seeds to find food to their liking and which they could digest.

Few foods, as they are grown by nature, appeal to man. Eggs must be shelled, the shell discarded, although its calcium could be used to build teeth and bones. Grains as harvested, must be ground and cooked. The rough coat of bran which protects the wheat kernel, is not to man's taste and the germ causes flour to become rancid, so they are removed in milling. This is despite the fact that nature stocked these parts with many necessary vitamins. It is not as wasteful as it might seem, for this processing of wheat makes available the endosperm—that tremendous part of the wheat which is a veritable mine of protein, energy, minerals and vitamins in a form which can be used in an endless array of good foods.

The miller and the baker take care of the loss of B vitamins—thiamine, niacin and riboflavin—and the important mineral iron by returning them to the flour or bread. This is known as the enrichment program. In a recent report, "Role of Wheat and Wheat Products in Human Nutrition" from the Harvard Medical School, Drs. D. M. Hegsted, Martha F. Trulson and Fredrick J. Stare, indicate that in some respects the use of enriched flour products may contribute more to the nutrition of man than that of whole wheat products.

The report points out that by removing the bran and the germ, a substance known as phytic acid is eliminated from the diet. This substance holds calcium and iron so tightly that these minerals are not absorbed by the digestive system of man. Furthermore, by removing the bran, the indigestible cellulose is removed. It is because of its bulk that cellulose—bran—interferes with the absorption of part of the food we eat. Although the processing of wheat, thru refining, may cause a loss of its total nutrient content, in reality, this processing increases its nutritive value. It makes its nutrients more available as well as those of other foods eaten.

POPPIN' OFF... WITH POP

"How'd you get along with your wife in that fight the other night?"

"Aw, she came crawling to me on her knees."

"Yeah? What did she say?"

"Come out from under the bed, you coward."

All through the game an excited fan had been yelling his home team to victory. Suddenly he became silent, turned to his companion and whispered, "I've lost my voice."

"Don't worry," was the reply. "You'll find it in my left ear."

"Mighty big tip you handed that cloak-room girl," commented Woody.

"It seemed only fair," said Jennings. "Look at the beautiful new coat she gave me."

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

CROP—We hope that as you take your bountiful harvest of maize to the elevator you will tell them to put a few thousand pounds of it in the Christian Rural Overseas Program and ship 20 times that amount to hungry people.

If there is a more desirable agricultural area than this one, taking everything into consideration, we wonder where it is. We are reasonably sure there is no land anywhere that will produce with as little attention as this. Even the careless farmer makes a pretty good crop quite often. The ones who choose to give better care and attention to their operations can be reasonably sure they will receive comparative dividends. It's a dependable country. It seems strange that yields can now exceed by a hundred bushels per acre, what, before irrigation, would have been considered an exceptionally good crop.

Knowing the value of our irrigation opportunities, we believe there will be added evidence of conservation measures on every farm in the immediate future. There are several definite projects underway already. Resident farmers can influence their less permanent fellow farmers, if they wish, in the same direction. One pretty good way to insure cooperation in this matter is to include such an agreement in lease contracts, as some are doing.

County Farm Bureau directors will meet in the Bovina Legion Hall, Monday night at seven thirty. You are welcome, too. A word of gratitude is due Legionnaires, incidentally, for the facilities they have available for meetings like these.

Bruce Parr, aggressive young farmer near Black, called our attention to the impending shortage of cars for quick movement of sorghum grains, and suggested Farm Bureau again make an effort to secure more cars. President Ellison made a quick survey of area needs and talked to Hammond, Texas Farm Bureau Presi-

On October 21, this message was transmitted to us from Mr. Hammond's office in Waco: "Orders being issued which return cars to lines serving grain sorghums areas. Condition about which we visited yesterday should be alleviated shortly. If not, let me know." (Don Tarrell)

We received this note from Cary Magness, who is stationed in Georgia. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Magness. Cary sent us a clipping which we thought you might all enjoy—so we will reprint it here.

His letter reads:

Dear Folks: Thought the folks back home might be interested in how good we've got it. This was taken from "The Rambler", Post Newspaper. All I've got to say is, don't you believe it!

Sincerely,
Cary
P. S. Still enjoy the Tribune.

IT SAYS HERE!

Soldier, you have no idea what a deal you've got. Why, in the Army, you're required to work but one day a year. And it can be proved.

The Army work-day is divided into three segments roughly. Eight hours for duty, eight hours for sleep and eight hours for recreation. That means in a year—which for our purpose has 366 days—you work 122 days, sleep 122 days and relax 122 days.

Of the 122 days you are on duty each year, there are 52 Sundays, leaving a total of 70 days worked. Now deduct 26 days for the half-day off you have on Saturdays and only 44 days are left. But don't stop here.

Now lop off those 30 days of leave each year and only 14 days remain and the legal Army holidays take care of 13 of these days. So, you see, actually the Army requires you to work only one day a year.

With the fall weather, the minds of many folks will once again be turning to the traditional farm auction sales which are a mark of rural America.

Bill Hall brought in a clipping from the Frisco Journal last week, and said that he thought it might make interesting reading, especially for some of the old timers. It's about a farm sale of 1839. We've read it some place before, but don't think it ever appeared in The Tribune, so here it is:

"Having sold my farm and I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox team will offer on March 1, 1839, all my personal property to wit:

"All ox teams, two teams Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; 1 milk cow, 1 gray mare colt, 1 pair of oxen and yokes, 1 baby yoke, 1 ox cart, 1 iron, 2,000 feet poplar weatherboard, plow and mold board, 10,000 three-ft. clap-boards, 1500 ten-ft. fence rail, 1 60-gal.

soap kettle, 95 sugar troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons maple syrup, 3 spinning wheels, 20 lbs. mutton tallow, 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 300 poles, 100 spit hoops, 100 empty barrels, 1 32-gal. barrel of Johnson Miller whiskey 7 years old, 300 gal. apple brandy, 140 gal. copper still, 1 doz. real hooks, 2 hand e hooks, 2 scythes and cradles, 2 doz. pitchforks, one-half interest in tan yard, 32-calibre rifle made by Ben Mills, 50-gal. of sorghum molasses, 6 head of fox hounds, all are soft mouth except Ben and Tom and Jerry.

"At the same time I will sell my six Negro slaves—2 men 35 and 40 years old; 2 mulattos past 40 and 30 years old; will sell together to same party as will not separate them.

"Terms of sale, cash in hand or note to draw 4 percent interest with Bob McConnell as security.

"My home is two miles south of Versailles, Ky., on the McCoune ferry pike. Sale begins at 8 o'clock a. m. Plenty to drink and eat.—J. L. Moss." The Cumberland (Ky.) News.

MYF To Trick Or Treat For Overseas Relief Sunday

Sunday night, following the worship service, the senior MYF and Intermediate Fellowship of the Methodist church, will go on a "trick or treat" party in behalf of the starving children of the Orient. Instead of asking for candy, gum, and other treats, the youth will take a collection to buy milk for children in war torn countries. The project of the Methodist youth is sponsored over Texas CROP.

Following the project, the senior MYF will go to the home of E. B. Caldwell for refreshments and the Intermediates will also be provided with refreshments.

Statewide "trick or treat" this Halloween means the youth of Texas are collecting money to send milk to the world's needy millions thru Christian Rural Overseas Program. (CROP).

On Halloween night the youth of Texas will knock at many homes for a Halloween Trick or Treat. Treats in the form of money will enable CROP to send milk to the world's hungry at the rate of $20 worth of milk for every $1 contributed. Last year, the youth of Texas sent $10,000 thru CHOP which was used to send milk to hungry children in Korea. This year the youth have pledged $50,000 which will be used to send one million dollars worth of surplus milk to children, mothers, and invalids who need it and are waiting for it. As one of the major agencies through which churches cooperate, CROP is accepting this opportunity and challenge.

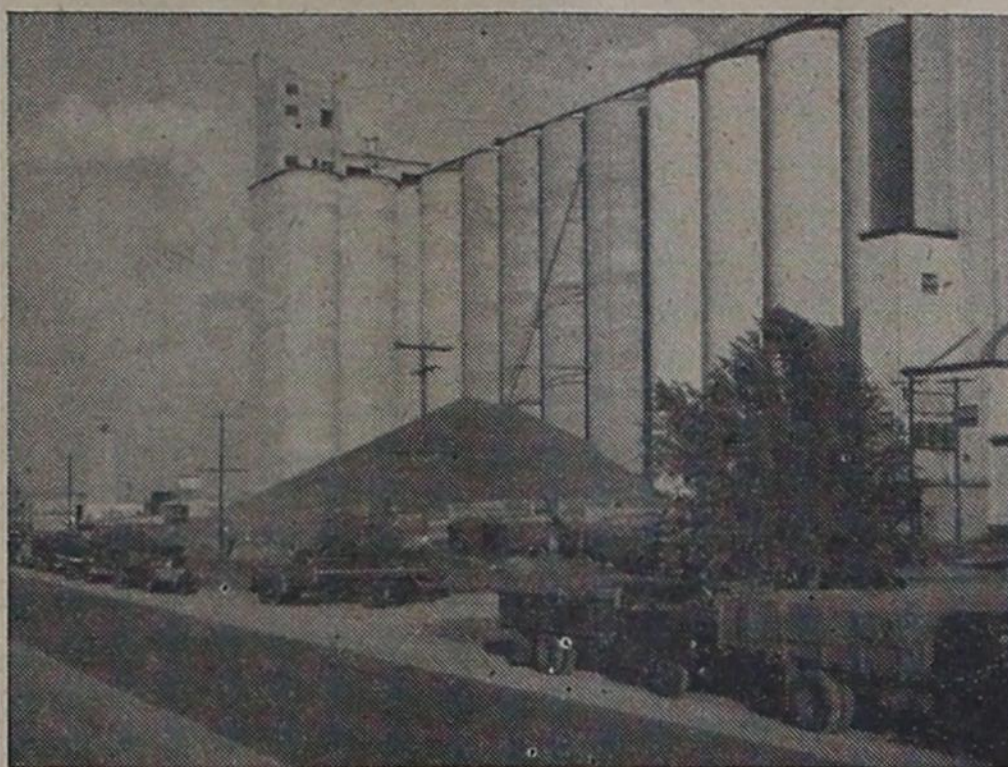

CROP is the agency for 35 denominations, collecting food or fiber (or cash in lieu of commodities) to be sent thru Church World Service to Church Agencies overseas for distribution to the needy without regard to race, color or creed. Contributions will be accepted by the youth of your community when they knock at your door on Halloween night. Each will wear an official badge and carry a specially marked carton.

Circus Cake Served For First Birthday

A birthday cake decorated with circus animals was served with punch and ice cream. Each guest received favors of suckers and balloons.

WHAT A MILO CROP

This was the scene that greeted passing motorists Monday at Bovina, when the grain trucks were rolling into town by the hundreds with their loads of grain sorghums. Here are some of the 32 trucks lined up at one time to weigh in at the Sherley Elevator. Notice the huge pile of grain on the ground near the uncompleted addition of the elevator.

Boys Show Calves At State Fair

Don Owens and Donald Ray Barron returned Saturday night from the Texas State Fair at Dallas. They had spent a week there showing calves.

The boys were very well satisfied with the showing that their calves made. One brought 32c per pound and the other 35c per pound.

Nine Greenhands were initiated into the Bovina FFA chapter the past week. They were Charles Sherrill, Julius Bradshaw, George Baca, Jerry Burnett, Sonny Brito, James Whiteside, James Stevens, Dickie Steelman, and Charles Harvey. Everyone reported a good time.

All the ag boys are busy building panels for the FFA feed pens and trying to get water piped and electricity to their farming houses before cold weather, Phil Caldwell, chapter reporter, says.

Bovina Teachers Enrolled In Course

Mrs. Hodge Ridgion, fourth grade, Mrs. Fisher, fifth grade, Mrs. June Rhodes, third grade, and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, high school social studies, are enrolled in the extension course in Philosophy of Education held at Hereford each Thursday night.

Halloween Motif Used For Party

Mrs. J. W. Gooch, Mrs. P. A. Adams, and Mrs. A. L. Glasscock were hostesses to a Halloween social Friday night, at the Baptist church, for the Gleaners Sunday School class.

Each lady attending brought a pumpkin pie, and the pie was served with whipped cream and coffee to Mesdames Frank Truitt, A. D. Crompton, Henry Minter, J. W. Gooch, A. L. Glasscock, O. D. Bingham, Wanda Huggins and P. A. Adams.

Adding a Halloween touch to the decorations were jack-o-lanterns placed around the recreation room. Other decorations were "horns of plenty" and flowers.

Bovina FHA Plans Week-long Initiation

Beverly Roberts, Patricia Lloyd, Sandra Martin, Sandra Rhinehart and their homemaking teacher, Mrs. Allen, of the Bovina Chapter of Future Homemakers of America, attended the formal initiation of the Lazbuddie FHA chapter on Monday, Oct. 18.

The Bovina Future Homemakers have enjoyed planning the initiation for their own chapter. The initiation will be in the form of courtesy week during National FHA Week, October 31 to November 6. Posters will be made for placing in various businesses; the initiates will wear the FHA colors—red and white—all week and conform to the many acts of courtesy and kindness requested by their big sisters.

Those being initiated are Nellie Cherry, Glenna Berry, Sandra Rhinehart, Sandra Martin, Beverly Roberts, Patricia Lloyd, Marie Drager, Irene Drager, Kay Leake, and Verna Lee Hall.

The girls are interested in clothing classes at present. A variety of garments are being constructed—formal dresses, pajamas, house coats, dusters, corduroy skirts, skirts and blouses, jumpers, and one and two piece dresses with the princess style predominating in choice among the girls.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning services will begin with Sunday School at 9:45, the evening services will begin at 7 p. m. The public is welcome to any or every service.

Thursday, November 4, the Association Workers Conference will meet with the First Baptist Church of Tulsa, C. M. Fields, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Friona, and moderator of the association, will preside. The theme of the program will center around the Texas Baptist General Convention, which met in Ft. Worth last week.

Sunday School attendance last Sunday was 189 and Training Union attendance was 106.

Chiefs Stung 27-13 By Sudan Hornets

The Sudan Hornets scored in the first and third quarters to outdistance the Friona Chiefs 27-13 in a conference football game played in Friona last Friday night.

It was the second conference loss for the Chiefs.

The Hornets drew first blood as James Gore, a halfback, dashed around left end for 40 yards and a TD early in the first quarter. Dickie Hanna ran over the extra point to make it 7-0, Sudan.

The Chiefs countered quickly, however, as Quarterback Wesley Barnett passed to end Phillip Weatherly for 6 yards and a score. Dudley Bainum's kick was no good.

Leading with a single point, the Hornets turned on more steam and pushed across their second score as Quarterback Don Dykes passed to Ronny Fisher for 7 yards and a TD. Halfback Jimmy Williams ran over the extra point.

Roaring back with a score of their own were the Chiefs when Jerry Chiles, halfback, broke through for a 40-yard touchdown run. Bainum's kick was good, and the score at the end of the first quarter was 14-13, Sudan leading.

The second quarter produced no scores or threats, but did result in the loss of Wesley Barnett, the Friona quarterback, who pulled a hip muscle on a running play.

He was withdrawn from the game and Coach Raymond Cook indicates that the Chief first stringer may be out for two weeks.

Sudan scored twice in the third quarter. Dykes carried around left end from 14 yards out for 6 points, and Williams ran over the extra.

Williams also made the last touchdown on a 10-yard run around right end, and Dykes failed to convert. There was no scoring in the fourth quarter.

in & around FRIONA with the gang

After introducing Mrs. Fred Barker as our new Lakeview correspondent last week, she winds up in the hospital a few days afterwards with high blood pressure. This newspaper game is pretty rugged.

However, old Fred says he is "pinch hitting" for her this week, and he did scout up some news items from out that way. Fred would make a good newspaper editor. His and The Tribune editor's handwriting are just about the same.

No kidding, though, we hope that the Mrs. is soon up and about, Fred.

The reports of milo and cotton yields really make everyone feel good. Nearly all of it around the Friona area is beating what had been hoped for.

In fact, this may turn out to be the greatest year for the farmers of this area yet, if yield means anything. Of course, we realize that costs of producing this big crop are very high this year, too. The truth of the matter is that it costs just about EVERYBODY a lot of money to do business today. Somebody told us that Estes Beaton, who farms northwest of town, is getting 1 1/4 bales of cotton on his first pulling. We didn't hear this from Estes himself, but if it's true, it is about the best we have learned of so far.

Along with this good news, we have some bad news for the men-folks in our audience. Come to think of it, maybe we aren't telling them anything they haven't found out already.

At any rate, here are some shocking facts, fellows, on just to what an extent our better halves have moved in on us. Walter Rogers sent us this:

Women influence 85 percent of all purchases of consumer goods. Women are beneficiaries of 80 percent of all life insurances. Women inherit 70 percent of the estates left by men. Women own 66 percent of all privately owned government bonds. Women own 50 percent of all privately owned stock in corporations. Women hold 65 percent of all the accounts in mutual savings banks.

ADD BEAUTY TO THE GRIDIRON

These five pretty misses will add beauty to the gridiron festivities between Friona and Dimmitt Friday night during the homecoming game. Mary Tatum, center, was voted football queen by the football boys the first of this week; and she will be crowned at halftime tomorrow night. Attendants are, left to right, Bennie Grubbs, Phyllis Fairchild, Deloris Fleming, and Phyllis Dean.

Friona Methodists Complete Plans For 40th Anniversary

Friona Methodists are looking forward to a big day next Sunday when they will observe the fortieth anniversary of the organization of the Methodist Church there, with a homecoming. The church had only nine members at its beginning and worshiped in a vacant store building on main street. It now has a membership of 470 and worships in a beautiful brick sanctuary.

Rev. H. DeWitt Seago, pastor of the Forrest Methodist Church in Lubbock, will preach the anniversary sermon at 11:00 a. m. Rev. Lester L. Hill will preach at the evening service at 7:30 p. m.

An old fashioned basket dinner will be served at the school cafeteria at noon, and a buffet supper will be served at the church annex at 6:00 p. m.

The afternoon meeting will be at 2:30 o'clock, at which time the organ will be dedicated. The organ is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. London and family, who now reside in Cassville, Missouri. They will be present at the homecoming and organ dedication.

Following the dedication of the organ, and singing by the choir, former members and pastors will be introduced. "All former members and friends, and the general public, are invited to worship with us, and enjoy the Christian fellowship of the day," said Ural S. Sherrill, present pastor.

Dr. Tom Smith and Mike Panalus returned home last Tuesday from Colorado where they went deer hunting. Each brought home a deer.

Scootin' Around FRIONA SCHOOLS WITH PATSY ANTHONY AND GLADYS BAXTER

The eighth grade class is planning a Halloween party October 30, in the school gym.

They are already missing La Von Flemming who moved to Lubbock.

The class has selected another vice-president, Bobby Fuks.

"WHY WE ARE GIVING TO THE BUILDING FUND OF THE PARMER COUNTY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL"

This is Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Billington of Texico. They moved to the community in 1936 from Erick, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Billington have eight children: Sterlyn and Morgan of Texico-Farwell; Victor, Lubbock; Cortez, now in France with the U. S. Army; Inez Montgomery, Whittier, Calif.; Vernice Hulsey, Downey, Calif.; and Juanita Watkins, Longbeach, Calif.; and Jim, Bandan, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Billington are one of many families of a wide area who are very interested in seeing that a new building is put up for the Parmer County Community Hospital. Their interest stems from the association they had with the hospital early this summer.

It became necessary for Mr. Billington to have an operation, and so he was admitted to the hospital June 17. Mrs. Billington went with him, and she is eager to say that she appreciates very much the understanding of the hospital staff who allowed her to be near her husband when he was ill.

S. G. is up and feeling vigorous now, but he hasn't forgotten the many kind things done for him while he was sick. Mr. Billington says "I think more of those doctors than any I've ever known before. The way they took care of us was wonderful." "They certainly treated us royally," adds Mrs. Billington. "They have the best staff of nurses I've ever seen, and they were all so kind and helpful." Both Mr. and Mrs. Billington are happy to endorse the building fund which is getting started this fall. "We sure think it's a good cause," they say.

Like so many other persons who have come to the Parmer County Community Hospital in years past, the Billingtons have been impressed with the friendliness and capability of the hospital staff, but they also realize that overcrowded conditions have about reached the limit. With better facilities, the Billingtons know that the hospital will be able to give even better service in the future, and they are making plans to help get the new building started if possible.

The hospital needs at least $50,000 in cash before it can start its desperately needed program of expansion. You, as a patron of the hospital, are helping YOURSELF when you get this building started.

We have made it just as easy to give to the building fund as to do the weekend shopping. You will likely be called upon for a contribution, and if you don't happen to have the money at the moment, we have a system of pledges which will enable you to make regular contributions in small amounts until you have retired your pledge.

This is a campaign for you and your family—not for the doctors and nurses of the Parmer County Hospital. This is a community-owned hospital and as such its only interest is in YOU. It has helped you in the past—why not help the Hospital this time?

gress. So many points are given for each degree, and points help each girl to go on the FHA trip.

In "The Arrow" last Friday, Jim Dixon gave advice on "Reasons for Studying." Jim said, "If you plan to go to college, you will find that you wish you had studied in high school. Jim is a freshman at Texas A&M College and a graduate of Friona High School last year."

The seniors are a proud group—the senior rings came in. Each one is getting a pretty smile, and into his best clothes for senior pictures.

One thing that each student looks forward to in Friona High is the "Arrow." The "Arrow" comes out every two weeks. There are a lot of interesting stories such as ideal boy, ideal teacher and ideal girl. The "Arrow" was put out after school.

"For the next two years the welfare of our nation requires a republican-led congress."

"Pete" LaMaster

You elected "Ike" Eisenhower to office in 1952 . . . and in the two short years he has been president, he has done much to stabilize our economy, bring our soldiers home from Korea, establish a workable peace plan for the world, and reinstate America to the position of leadership that is rightfully ours.

You gave this great American a job to do. Now . . . give him the help he needs to complete his dynamic program. Your vote for Pete LaMaster on November 2 will be a vote of confidence for President Eisenhower and will give him a cooperative Congressman from the Texas Panhandle.
