Twin City MOD Total Could Reach $1000

March of Dimes activities in Texico-Farwell have come to a close and total collections appear to be nearing the $1000 mark. As of Tuesday of this week, $820.66 had been derived for the polo fund with more yet to be reported.

A total of $468.78 has been collected in Texico, according to Mrs. John Adams, community chairman for the '57 drive. Several coffees were given in the community which netted a total of $41, the annual ESA Mothers'

March raised $58.73 and the talent show at the school accounted for $106.35.

An ESA coffee, given by Mrs. Joe Helton, netted $31.50 and the coffee day at the Texico Cafe made $30.

In Farwell, the ESA Mothers' March netted $195.11 and an ESA coffee at the home of Mrs. Nell Walling raised $15. Collections from the containers placed in business places over town, accounted for $141.77.

Several of the card containers in the Farwell businesses were full. They included the ones at Lone Star Elevator, Southern Union Gas, McKillip Motor Company, and Hardage Motor Company. The iron lung container placed in the post office netted $11.93.

The figure for Farwell is not yet complete, as the report from Farwell School has not been received. Contributions at the school have been high in the past, and the collections could boost Farwell's total considerably.

Mrs. Adams says that a few of the posters and cards in Texico containing dimes have not yet been turned in. She also expressed her thanks to all for their splendid co-operation and said that she was well pleased with the generous response shown.

Farmers Urged to Get Banquet Tickets

Farmers in the Farwell area have been urged to buy their tickets to the annual Farwell Chamber of Commerce banquet, which is set for Saturday night, February 16, at the school cafeteria.

Cotton John Smith of KGNC in Amarillo will be the guest speaker and he will have an interesting talk for the farmers, report members of the speaker committee. A fried chicken dinner, with "all the trimmings" will be served and the program will consist of local talent.

To perform at the banquet will be Susan Levins, Charlie Phillips, and Snuffy Anderson and his combo.

Tickets to the feed may be purchased from any Chamber member.

Nine Participate In Practice Alert

Nine members of the local Ground Observer Corps were on hand Sunday for the practice alert from 2 to 5 p. m.

Seven planes were spotted by the group and reports on these were made to the Air Defense infiltration center in Oklahoma City.

Next regular meeting of the GOC will be Thursday, February 14, at the City Hall. Wings will be presented to two members who did not have in 26 hours of time until Sunday. Certificates will also be awarded to those members who have as many as six hours but fewer than 26.

All members and interested parties are urged to attend the GOC meetings.

Curry Square Dancers To Have MOD Benefit

Curry County Square Dance Club extends a cordial invitation to everyone to attend their annual March or Dimes benefit dance to be held on Friday night, February 8, at the VFW Hall west of Clovis on the air base highway.

The dance is scheduled to get underway about 8:30.

Music and special singing is being featured at each service, beginning at 8 p. m. (CST). Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Storeys Purchase Automatic Laundry

Mr. and Mrs. George Storey of Amarillo are the new owners of the Texico Automatic Laundry. They purchased the business from Mrs. Waugetta Morin, who has been operating it since last summer.

The new owners took over the operation on January 26.

Steers, Morton in Big Game

One-half of the District 3-A basketball championship will be at stake tomorrow (Friday) night when the Farwell Steers play host to the Morton Indians. Currently, both teams have 5-1 records in district play and a win for either team would assure them of a tie for the double round-robin championship.

It is hoped that a good crowd will be on hand to witness this crucial game, which is to be the next-to-the-last conference clash for the Steers, before the district tournament at Springlake, February 19.

Thus far this season, attendance has been light at all home games, in spite of the fact that the Steers have come up with a first-class outfit which is threatening for the district crown.

Three games will be on tap for tomorrow night with the boys B team game set for 6:30 and the high school girls game immediately following.

Under the conference ruling, regular season games count half in determining the district championship and the tournament counts full.

Should one team place first in regular season play and another come out on top in the tourney, ament and once in conference play, Morton has been the victor on both occasions, so Farwell will be the underdog. However, the tournament game was early in the season when the Steers didn't have much practice behind them, and in the other encounter the Indians were exceptionally hot from the field, rolling up a 75-55 win.

A playoff game would be necessitated.

The Steers and Morton have met twice this season, once in a tour-ament and once in conference play.

DR. T. J. GLENN

T. J. Glenn, 29, of Hamilton, Texas, has accepted the doctor's position at the Farwell Clinic. The announcement came after the doctor had rejected the offer last week. Dr. Glenn and his family are scheduled to arrive in Farwell this weekend and the clinic will be opened next week. Plans call for a grand opening of the hospital soon after his arrival. It is planned as an opportunity for local citizens to inspect the clinic and equipment and to get acquainted with the doctor and his family. The date of the grand opening will be announced later.

A graduate of the Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, Dr.

Glenn has been engaged in general practice at Hamilton for the past seven months. Prior to attending the medical school, he received his pre-med training at Sam Houston State College. His internship was completed at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas.

A Navy veteran, the new doctor served 18½ months in the hospital corps. He was born and raised at Alto, Texas, and his wife, Anna Marie, a registered nurse, is from Benton, Mo.

Dr. Glenn is a member of the Methodist Church and he and his wife have a four-year-old son, Jerry.

The new physician will fill the position left vacant by Dr. Marion F. Green last September. The clinic has been closed since that time.

The telephone number at the clinic is 8-6835 and Dr. Glenn's home phone will be 8-6904.

School Board Members Re-Elected to Posts

John Hadley and Glenn Singletary were re-elected for another six year term of office as members of the Texico School board at an election held Tuesday at the City Hall.

One hundred and fourteen votes were cast and Hadley and Singletary received 92 and 110, respectively. Morgan Billington, the other name on the ballot, received 19 votes.

Other school board members are Claude Curry, T. T. Doolittle and Murray White.

Citizens Petition City Commission

A petition, signed by 13 qualified voters of Farwell, has been sent to the Farwell City Commission, requesting that three names be placed on the ballot for the April 2 election of city officers.

The names include Sam Aldridge for mayor and L. E. McKillip and C. C. Christian for commissioners.

Clayton Sanders Selected No. 1 Sesame Seed Farmer

Clayton W. Sanders, of Oklahoma Lane, who is Texas' and the nation's No. 1 sesame farmer, is going out on new production records when he plants his third big crop this spring. He is going to plant all of his 320-acre farm except 20 acres to the ancient oilseed, which became a new cash crop in Texas in 1953, and shoot for 1,500 pounds of clean seed per acre.

Sanders is the country's top sesame farmer by virtue of both total tonnage produced and yield per acre. His 300 acres of sesame in 1956 yielded 1,250 pounds of excellent seed per acre, and his gross income from the crop will exceed $125 per acre. He also produced the top tonnage in 1955 when he grew sesame on his entire 300 acres, plus 225 acres leased in New Mexico.

He and his father, Sam Sanders, form a father-and-son combination who team up to solve many of their sesame farming problems. Sam Sanders grew 225 acres of sesame on the same land in 1956 which his son had leased in 1955 and plans this year again to plant this same acreage to the new crop on the High Plains.

The Sanderses have decided that the key to top production of sesame is a simple recipe of three ingredients—thick sand, high fertility and plenty of irrigation water.

Clayton Sanders, who fertilized lightly last year, believes he will fertilize with a combination of nitrogen and phosphate, probably 13-39-0, this year. "I'll plant it thick late in May," he said, "pour the water to it, and hope for 1,500 pounds per acre."

The younger Sanders' farm is in Parmer County 12 miles east of Farwell. His father lives at Idalou but farms 3½ miles southwest of Texico in New Mexico.

Clayton Sanders first became interested in sesame in the spring of 1955 when he attended one of a series of production meetings conducted by Texas Sesame Seed Growers, the organization which is carrying on an extensive production and marketing program to better the position of the domestic sesame crop.

Sesame sounded like the answer to his needs. He had just purchased half a section of land; his cotton allotment was very small (12 acres), and he did not think he could count on grain sorghum for a satisfactory basic income on high priced land which needs to gross $100 per acre every year.

Despite the fact that it was his first year of sesame growing, the younger Sanders produced 1,000 pounds per acre on 160 acres of his 525-acre crop. The rest of the farm produced less, and the farm in New Mexico only grew 440 pounds per acre. "The stands were thin, and we did not irrigate enough," Sanders said. "With a good stand and plenty of irrigation water, the story would have been entirely different."

"I knew I could do better," he said, "so in the spring of 1956 I thought about what I had learned from my experience, then went back to the Texas Sesame Seed Growers' specialists for more information and planted sesame again."

To be certain that the fertility level of his soil was adequate, he put down 70 pounds of anhydrous ammonia before planting time at a cost of $8 per acre. He felt that this was sufficient since his gently rolling, heavy sandy loam farm is naturally very fertile.

Even though he planted four pounds of seed per acre in 30-inch rows to insure an adequate stand, rains in May and early June made it necessary for him to replant.

The fine stand which eventually emerged in mid-June, after the usual slow start, "began to grow faster than careless weeds and became a very pretty crop," Sanders said.

He began irrigating when the sesame started blooming and irrigated a total of three times in addition to the preplanting irrigation. He is firmly convinced one more irrigation would have resulted in a considerably higher yield of seed.

The crop was farmed about like grain sorghum. It was rotary hoed, knifed once, cultivated once, and finally the irrigation middles were run. The crop matured in 110 days from planting date—which is faster than usual for this section of the state.

The field was cut with three-row broadcast binders during the first week of October and Mexican nationals were employed to place the bundles in shocks. Twenty to 40 bundles were placed in each shock in an effort to prevent them from being blown over by the wind. He believes now, however, that 20 to 25 bundles will stand up well and will be easier to handle at combine time.

The bundles were somewhat slow to dry in October and as a fact that Morton can be stopped was proved Tuesday night when Friona pulled an upset, setting down the Indians 50-41. The Steers defeated Friona 42-30 in the first round of district play.

Should the Steers get by Morton they will still have to top Friona here Tuesday night for the crown. The Tuesday night game will be the last one for Farwell before entering the tourney.

After getting off to a dismal start, due chiefly to getting a late start in practice, the Steers have been improving steadily with each game. In the past seven, the Blue and White have won six, one of those against Muleshoe, the leader in District 2-AA. The overall record for the year is 9-8.

Susan Levins Home From New York

Miss Susan Levins and her mother, Mrs. Ira S. Levins, returned home Monday night from New York City where Susan appeared on the Ted Mack television show, Sunday night, February 2.

Susan and her mother left Amarillo by plane last Sunday and her first audition for the show was on Tuesday. Many of those who auditioned Tuesday were asked back Wednesday for further auditioning. Sunday, 13 of the group spent the day rehearsing for Sunday night's show.

Voting on the show is by telephone or write-in balloting, and when the show went off the air Sunday evening, Susan had collected 900 votes.

Write-in votes must be post-marked by today (Thursday) and may be sent to The Ted Mack Show, Box 191, Radio City Station, New York, N. Y., and Susan will appreciate your voting for her. Only one vote per card is allowed, and all that is necessary to vote is to write "Susan Palmer" on the card.

Clayton Sanders, left, and his father, Sam Sanders, look over a good harvest of sesame seed. The picture was made in the Oklahoma Lane community.

Nevertheless, it does seek to put human talents to full use. It con-

MR. AND MRS. P. M. OWENS HONORED ON GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Over 100 well-wishers called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Owens south of Texico, Sunday afternoon in celebration of the Golden Wedding anniversary of the pioneer couple.

The theme of the decorations for the home was "50 years on the same farm" and guest registration desk featured a miniature replica of the first home in which the couple began their married life.

The replica even featured a small windmill which was built by the son-in-law and grandson of the couple. A typewritten explanation of the centerpiece, read "1907-1957—Homesteaded February 3, 1907."

"Perry and his father had homesteaded two quarter sections of land and the first house built was 12x14 feet. Perry brought his bride here and lived with his father. It is the house where Perry Jr. was born and was 50 yards south of the present home, which the couple moved into in 1912."

"While living on the farm, originally Roosevelt County, it became State of New Mexico. The Owens have lived in two counties, a territory and a state."

With the centerpiece were historic pictures of the early days with the Owens in Texico.

Centerpiece for the serving table was a floral arrangement of wood pulp, made by Mrs. Lillie Patton of Trent, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Owens. Mrs. Patton sent corsages for members of the house party and made floral displays to be used throughout the house.

A four-tiered cake was iced in white and decorated with yellow and green, with a miniature bride and bridegroom topping the confection. The cake was made by Mrs. John Hadley and Mrs. Roscoe Burris and decorated by Alice Kleeman, for the occasion.

Coffee or punch were served with the cake to guests who called throughout the afternoon, from 2 o'clock until 6 p. m.

Mrs. Owens was born in Trent, Texas, and lived there until she moved to Texico with her family in 1902. She was 14 years old at that time. She recalls that the family traveled in covered wagons invited by her father to stay for dinner. He accepted, "and just kept coming back every week or two" she comments. He teases his wife and says "I just wanted to see if you could cook."

The two knew one another for about a year, before their marriage. The ceremony was read in the half-dugout, which was her home. She wore a blue taffeta dress with a bolero, which she had made herself.

After the wedding, the couple started to Texico, and it was so very cold that they had to turn back and stop at a neighbor's house for the night. The next day, they went to their little home on the Owens farm.

Their shared the two room house with Perry's father.

Mrs. Owens remembers an early Texico, which she says, burned and was rebuilt. She remembers people that have come and gone while they have lived in the area, but one thing remains the same, she says. "We have the best neighbors in the whole world."

Mr. Owens is now bedfast, and has been for the past four years, when an accident caused a broken hip. He was 84 years old at that time, and was out helping with calves. He had hold of a rope which broke and caused him to fall, breaking a bone. Other than this injury, he is in good health, according to the family, and has a lively sense of humor. He and his good friend, Uncle Tom Randall, who is also a pioneer of the area, like to swap yarns of the early days, and periodically have two and three day visits.

In fact, on Uncle Tom's card to the couple for the gala occasion were the words "Don't know who puts up with who—but guess it's love with both of you." But Mrs. Owens says her advice to those beginning marriage is to remember "there's lots of give and take for both."

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Walter C. Baldock, Mrs. M. O. Baldock, and Mrs. Andrew House. Loretta and Andrea House presided at the serving table.

Signing the guest register for the afternoon were: a daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baldock Jr., Steve and Leslie of Clovis; a son, Perry Owens, Jr., G. A. Coursey, his brother-in-law, and Mrs. E. W. Texico Club Members Work on Building

A large number of Texico Woman's Club members and their husbands met at the community building on Monday night to repair, paint and build. The walls of the building have been painted green and the ceiling has been painted white.

Water is now available in the building and a bath room has been installed. The cook stove is undergoing a general cleaning and cabinets are being constructed. Front coil springs have been completely eliminated. There's up to 56% more glass area to enhance its roomy feel. The wide, low grille features hooded dual headlights. And if you want to find out what "go" really is, wait till you boss its up-to-325 horsepower engine and pushbutton TorqueFlite transmission. The real tingle is waiting for you. CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone for their kindnesses to me during and since my recent contest in New York. Receiving the wires and notes of encouragement was the biggest thrill I had while there.

And to all of you who have been so sweet to vote for me, all I can say is I most humbly thank you. Even though I probably won't win the contest, I feel that I will still have something of much more value—such wonderful friends.

Steers Win Over Springlake, Sudan

The Farwell Steers moved in to a tie for first place in the District 3-A basketball race this past week with wins over Sudan and Springlake. On Friday night the Steers overpowered Sudan 65-53, and on Tuesday night they trounced Springlake 68-43.

While the Steers were winning their fifth and sixth games against district foes (they have lost one) the Farwell girls team came up on the short end of the scores. In losing, though, the local lasses played some top-notch ball, the Sudan score being 51-43 and the Springlake margin being 66-51.

Against Sudan, Coach Calvin Murray's Steers broke up a 23-23 half-time deadlock with a 23-point total in the third quarter to win. The tremendous scoring spree gave Farwell a 46-29 lead at the third-quarter point, and in spite of 24 points by the Hornets in the final period, the locals coasted to the win.

David Willard connected for 25 points, in leading the Farwell team. He was followed by Johnny Lovelace with 18 and Alan Price with 13. Woods of Sudan was high man of the game with 27 points.

The Farwell girls played Sudan a close game all the way but were behind at all stopping points. Sudan led 17-13 at the first quarter, 26-21 at halftime, and 43-29 at the third quarter point. Mary Ann Walls was the leading scorer for Farwell with 25 points.

Going to Springlake on Tuesday of this week, the Steers had little trouble in winning over the Wolverines. Jumping to a 13-8 lead in the first period, Farwell had increased it to 34-18 at halftime. With reserves playing much of the last half Farwell increased the lead to 49-30 at the end of the third quarter.

Willard and Lovelace tied for high-point honors, both dunking 14. All of the Steers, who suited out, saw action and nine of them entered into the scoring column.

In the girls game, both teams got off to a fast start and at the end of the first period, Springlake had only a 20-17 lead. The half-time score was 38-30 and the third quarter count was 55-42.

Angela Williams had 24 points for Farwell and Mary Ann Walls scored 13. Rutherford of Springlake copped scoring honors for the night with 29.

1759 Pay Poll Tax In Parmer County

A total of 1,759 Parmer County citizens paid their poll taxes this year. That number along with the 17 exemptions run the total to 1776 eligible voters in the county, plus the ones over 60 years of age.

The number of poll tax receipts was considered high since it is an off year. However, a special election for naming a United States senator and city elections were listed as reasons for the large number.

The number of eligible voters in the county last year was 2486.

consequence, the field remained in the shock for about seven weeks before combining was begun. Sanders believes that earlier planting of sesame and smaller shocks would dry more quickly, but states that no significant loss of seed resulted from shattering while the sesame was waiting to be combined.

Cecil Tabers, custom combine operator from Muleshoe, did the combining, using two Model 90 self-propelled Massey-Harris combines to harvest the heavy-yielding sesame. Both machines were equipped with large wooden platforms which made the combining much easier and quicker and prevented loss of the valuable seed.

His combining cost was approximately $8.25 per acre and his total harvest cost about $13.50 per acre. He says it costs between $30 and $35 per acre to grow and harvest a sesame crop. On the basis of these figures he averaged about $90 an acre for his crop after all expenses were paid.

"I think sesame is a lot better money making crop than grain sorghum," he says. "We have whipped the harvesting problem, and there is less risk in harvesting sesame than wheat or sudan because sesame can stand so much punishment after you get it in the shock."

Sam Sanders, following his son's example, feels that his 1,000 pounds of sesame per acre on the 225 acres of land over in New Mexico is pretty good, but that he can do better in 1957. He plans to follow the same farming practices which have worked out so well for Clayton.

Farwell Teams Take Three From Bovina

Three basketball games were played at the Farwell gymnasium Monday night and the local teams came out on top in each contest. Bovina furnished the opposition and the Farwell high school boys B team won 27-20, the grade school boys won 31-7, and the grade girls came out on top by a 38-7 count.

After trailing 13-12 at halftime, the local B boys held the visitors scoreless in the third period. Farwell scored nine points in the period and Bovina could never make up the deficit.

Dickie Williams was the top scorer for Farwell with 14 points. Brandon and Burnham each had six for the losers.

In the boys junior game Farwell jumped off to a 6-2 lead in the first period, increasing it to 15-3 at halftime and 27-3 at the end of the third quarter. J. F. Mounts led the scoring with 12 points.

It was a similar situation in the girls game as the locals built up an 8-2 lead in the first quarter, increasing it to 17-4 at halftime and 25-7 at the third-quarter point. Janice Routon had 21 points for the locals and Emalee Tucker had 15.

Both Farwell junior teams are in the race for their district crowns and season play will end next week. The winner of the district in each division will receive a trophy. The championships are determined by won-lost records on all district games.

Tax Receipts Listed as Good

Last Thursday, January 31, was the deadline for paying city, school, county, and state taxes, and the percentage collected before the deadline was good, report local tax collectors. A penalty will now be assessed against those who did not meet the deadline.

Highest percentage collected were the city taxes. Ninety-six percent of the figure on the tax rolls had been received, reports Wilfred Quickel, city secretary.

School taxes collected amounted to 85 percent. The exact percentage of the county and state taxes received was not known, but there were not too many delinquent, according to Lee Thompson, assessor-collector.

All delinquent taxpayers will be assessed a penalty from here on out and the fine increases with each month until the taxes are paid.

Miss Day Crowned Band Sweetheart

"My Wild Irish Rose" was the theme of the recent crowning of Miss Darlene Day, Texico Band Sweetheart.

Miss Day was crowned before a group of spectators at the Texico-Melrose basketball games, Friday Night, January 25.

The Texico Band played the theme song, "My Wild Irish Rose," as Darlene was escorted by Dick Lockhart to the center of the treble cleft formation made by the members of the band. Dicky Adams, member of the band, then crowned her with a bouquet of red roses.

Darlene is a very popular student in the high school being enrolled as a sophomore student. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Day.

Jerry Walker Enrolls In Seventh Grade

The seventh graders are glad to welcome Jerry Walker who enrolled in this class last week. Jerry is formerly from Three-Way, Texas.

Barbara Raulie and James Arnold have been on the sick list this week.

The eighth graders have finished their prose and poetry book and have begun science. The first chapter was based on the stars, and the students drew the planets in their orbits around the sun.

Entering the eighth grade from Bovina recently was Charlene Johnson. The eighth graders are glad to welcome her to Texico.

Yearbook Copy Goes to Press

The annual staff is feeling a certain amount of pride as the remaining pages of the 1957 edition of "The Wolverine" were mailed Friday to the Newfoto Publishing Company in San Angelo, Texas.

Several new features have been combined with the traditional things for the new annual. Sepia color of wine will add interest to the administration section. The padded cover is to be green and white with silver overtones and outline. The cover features the modern "forward look" with complimentary end sheets to carry out the theme, "A forward look into a democratic world."

Further carrying out the theme is the dedication to the preservation of democracy in the Texico School with education for all its children. The dedication, originated by the layout editor, Susan Levins, uses the words of the song, "In Christ There is no East or West, in Him no North or South, But One Great Fellowship of God Throughout the Whole Wide World."

Adding accent to the theme are original division pages designed by the staff to divide the sections of the 104 page annual.

Sections include administration, classes, organizations, sports, favorites, student activities, and snapshots.

Students featured in the annual for honors they have received will be Joyce Gillean as FFA sweetheart; Glen Hancock as FHA Sweetheart; Barbara Sapp and Jerry Henson as basketball king and queen; Mikala Faville as DAR Pilgrim; Jerry Henson as Pep Club Beau; Barbara Sapp, Gwenette Powell, Susan Levins, Jerry Henson, and Buddy Spears as best athletes; and Darlene Day as band sweetheart.

Honors to be withheld until the yearly "Wolverine Variety Show" will be Wolverine Beauty, most handsome, best personality, best all around and most popular.

The editor of the 1957 Wolverine is Betty Pendergrass. Associate editor is Carolyn Curd, layout editor is Susan Levins, and sports editor is Weldon Bell.

Working as staff members were Joyce Gillean, Melba Doshier, Oneita Autry, Audrey Hapke, Anita Watts, Peggy Weeks, Barbara Sapp, Glenda Richardson, Verlene Thigpen, Mikala Faville, Glenda Weisler, and Rebecca Richardson.

The sponsor of the annual is Mrs. Jimmie Allman.

Senior Personality GLENDA RICHARDSON

By Glenda Weisler

This week in paying tribute to Miss Glenda Richardson, we'd like to give a few of Glenda's favorites and some interesting facts about her.

Glenda, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Richardson, was born 18 years ago, at Belen, New Mexico on a fall day, October 26, 1938. She says it just happened to be snowing that day, too.

Glenda came to Texico in her junior year and is enrolled in American government, economics, typing II, homemaking III, journalism, and is assistant librarian to Mrs. Fred Danforth, head librarian.

Some of Glenda's favorites are: song, True Love; singer, Johnny Cash; pastime, reading and driving; hobby, boys; food, butter-scotch sundae; person, her mother; teacher, Mrs. Allman; subject, homemaking; and sport, badminton. Glenda recalls her most breathless moment when she first appeared on stage in her freshman year.

Glenda is a member of Pep Club, Press Club, Business Education Club, and is also working on the school annual, "The '57 Wolverine."

Upon graduation she plans to go to college to study for missionary work. We know Glenda will succeed in anything she sets out to do.

GOOD LUCK, GLENDA!

Girls 4-H Club Elects Officers

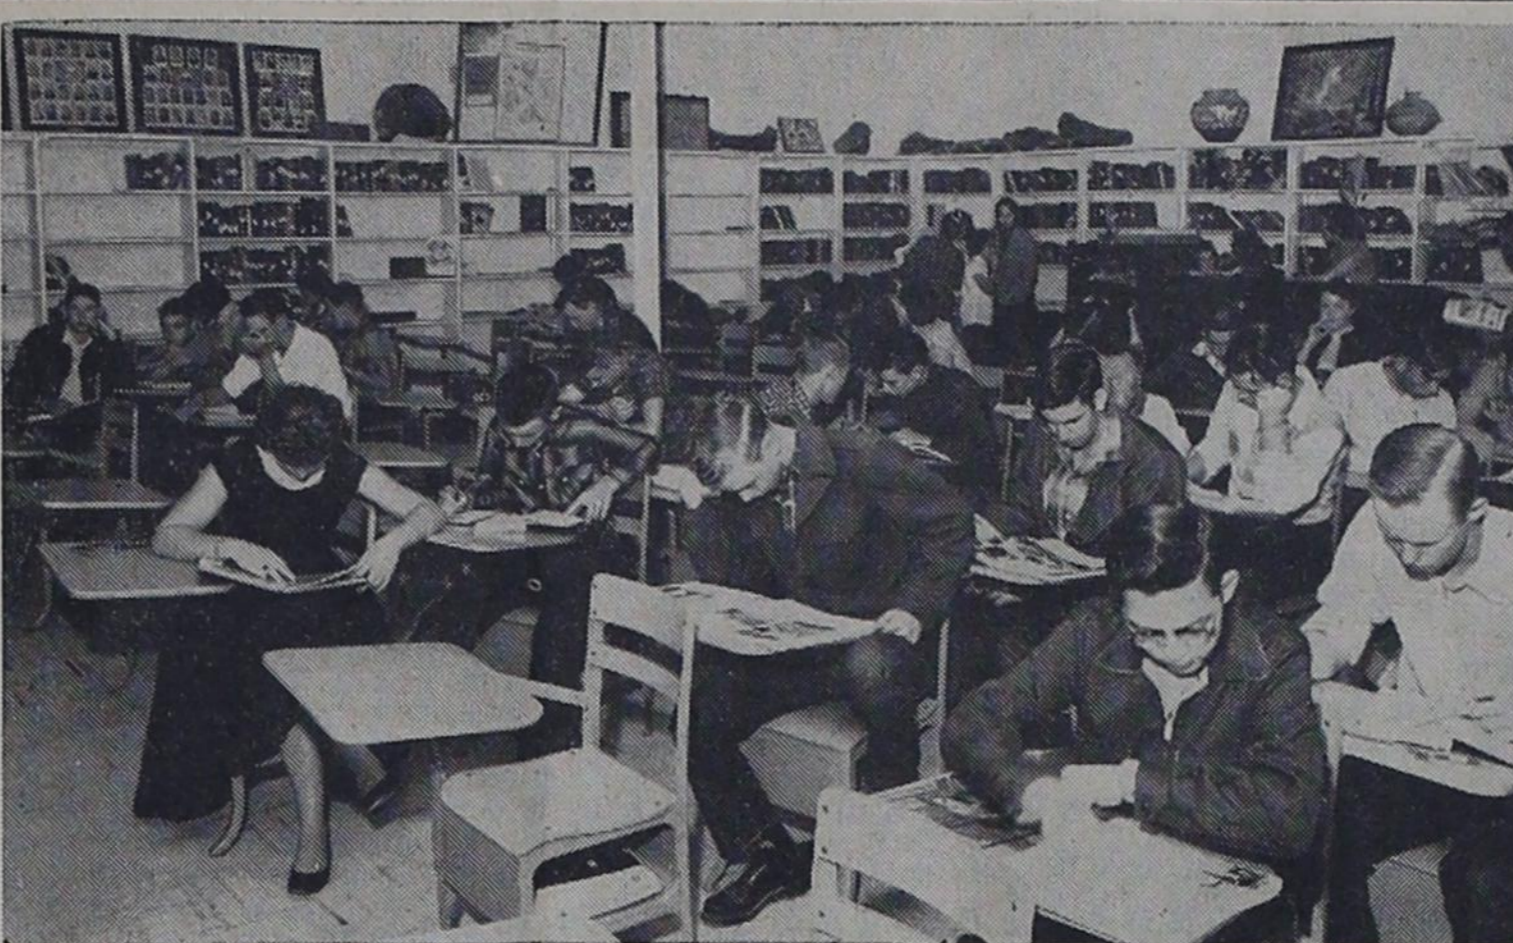

In an organizational meeting Friday, Gale Hadley was elected president of the Texico Girls 4-H Club.

Elected to serve with her were vice-president, Beth Ellen Peyton; secretary, D'Rene Danforth; assistant secretary, Sharon Hendrix; reporter, Patsy Hill; recreational leader, Jean Hadley, and song leader, Sandra Pendergrass.

Other girls enrolling in the club include Peggy Taylor, Jean Morris, Alice Martin, Betty Lockhart, Jenness Weisler, Duranna Curtis, Oriol Curtis, Dorothy Hapke, Sue Walton, Millie Autry, Hazel McDaniel, Callalya Roberts, Janice Adams and Carol Bell.

Mrs. John Hadley and Mrs. Fred Danforth are serving as leaders and express a desire that mothers encourage all girls in completing projects this year.

Mrs. N. W. Peyton has volunteered her services for club socials and trips.

HARD AT WORK—A familiar scene at Texico High School is students making use of the library facilities. Here is a group "hitting the books" in study hall.

"Pride and Joy" of THS--The Library

By Carolyn Curd

A quiet, restful place for relaxation and study is the Texico School Library which contains many books on varied subjects and revealing, obscurely but with certainty, a partial history of THS.

Can you spell these words? Pharsaic, chimeric and pyrotechnic. They are taken from one of the books in the library—an old blue-back speller, which was once a tradition to education in America. This speller, worn with age and use, is one of the oldest books in the library. Does this give you an idea of the stamina and fortitude of our forefathers?

On November 13, 1911, the student body presented to the library

New Committees Organized in Sixth

During a sixth grade class meeting, with Carole White presiding, several committees were appointed. These include room committee with Vernon Thigpen, Shirley Huber, and Willie Stover; art committee with James Hudson, Linda Palmateer, and Jean Morris; recreation committee with Hal Ed Helton, Carol Brown, and Peggy Taylor; Valentine committee with Carole White, Judy Sharp, Jackie Dyer and Lynn Doshier serving.

Room mothers for the Valentine party are Mrs. Ray Tharp, chairman, Mrs. Durwood Curtis, Mrs. Dick Doshier, and Mrs. M. A. Palmateer.

Ways of becoming a better citizen were discussed before the meeting was adjourned.

The class received new health books this week, reports Jenness Weisler.

"Sir Roger De Coverley's Papers." This book is in the present library in good condition after serving the students of Texico for the past 46 years. Containing 258 pages, it was purchased for forty cents.

Six other books are available to library users of 1957 that first made their debut in 1911. They include: "Joan of Arc," "Utopia," "Lives of the Presidents," "Four American Patriots," "Authors and Their Works," and "American History and Literature."

On April 15, 1914, Mrs. M. A. Todd donated "Ten Boys" by Jane Anderson to the school. It became the 258th book in the library.

Showing their appreciation for good literature, the freshman English class of 1926 purchased for the library several books by Tennyson. Members of the class were: Ina Patton, Bessie Runnels, Claudia Williams, Sylvia Taylor, Sara Cotharp, Doris Blair, Virginia Davis, Jack Dooze, James Gillean, Arthur Wade, Carl Park, Dean Curtis and Earl Hawkins.

Tom W. Langston, now secretary to the president of West Texas State College, presented John Milton's "Paradise Lost" to the library on October 30, 1929.

Texico 4-H Boys See Safety Film

A 4-H meeting was held at the Texico School recently with Ralph Daugherty, assistant County Agent, directing the meeting.

A film, "Safety Motion Picture," was shown to a group of 15 boys.

Sponsor for the group is Fred Danforth, Texico elementary school principal.

Skippy Tipton, sixth grader, serves as president of the club.

"New Primer of Hygiene," by John Ritchie, is celebrating its silver anniversary in a dormant stage. It was last checked out April 5, 1932, by Pearl Taylor.

Alberta Clack and Annie Thomas were librarians in 1911, while Mrs. Fred Danforth and Glenda Richardson, senior, handle the duty at the present time.

Glenda says that the present library contains approximately 1,300 books and that 20 to 25 are checked out daily. She adds that Zane Grey and Grace Livingston Hill are the most popular authors with the students, while science fiction is the favorite subject.

And thus the library, a new structure housing the old and new, is one of the most interesting places on the campus!

Breakfast Cooked By Home Ec Girls

A two course meal consisting of orange juice, ham, eggs, biscuits, butter, jelly and cocoa was cooked by the Texico Home Economics girls, Thursday morning, January 31.

The girls divided into two groups and cooked two meals, having a host, hostess and a waitress for each group. Acting host for the first group was Velma Martin. Janel Seal acted as hostess with Virginia Lawson being the waitress. Betty Walton, D'Rene Danforth, Barbara Chapelle, Connie Tharp and Anita Moss were also in group I.

Acting as host for the second group was Christina Bowers with Valeria Meier being the hostess. Serving as the waitress was Phyllis Kelly. The rest of group II were Anna Gaines, Effie Mae Johnson, La Donna Stewart, Gale Hadley and Mary McDaniel.

A TRIBUTE

Editorial by Betty Pendergrass

Agrie Jones is the friendly, plain spoken, superintendent of Texico High. Although he seldom has any spare time, when he does, he walks across the campus smiling thoughtfully or practices the use of psychology on unsuspecting students.

He is a menace to hokey-players, class-cutters, eraser-throwers, and rule-breakers in general. He has an art for thinking of new, more effective ways to punish "criminal" students.

His school life is one great flurry of activity, leaving only short interrupted intervals, for such things as eating, breathing, and phone calls.

Having been here for seven years, Mr. Jones is responsible for many of the improvements that our school has added during this time.

Since his arrival in our community, he has established a firmer basis for education, by the addition of new educational departments.

Due to a large extent of his management, our school has a complete new business education department, a new home economics department, a modern gymnasium and a beautiful grade school, which adds a note of distinction to the general appearance of the school.

In addition to these accomplishments, he has classes to teach, meetings to attend and numerous organizations to speak to. Yet, with all these duties which he performs so well, Mr. Jones finds time for friendly conversation with students and faculty.

A TRIBUTE TO YOU, AGRIE JONES!

Nature Study Is on "Time"

As a nature study, members of the fifth grade wrote stories on "Why We Should Not Waste Our Time." The students selected the following statements as best from the class: "If you waste your time, you waste your life" by Kathleen Smith; "You can never catch the time you've lost" by Ronny Curry; and "There is a time to play and a time to work" by Willard Richardson.

Willard Richardson is ill with the measles.

Room mothers planning a Valentine's party for this class are Mrs. Orris Eshleman, Mrs. Claud Curry, Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mrs. Morgan Billington.

Oriol Curtis enjoyed her party Sunday, January 27, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Curtis, in honor of her tenth birthday. Guests were Dorothy Hapke, Callalya Roberts, Hazel McDaniel, Ronny Curry, Buddy Spence, Linda Palmateer, Cynthia Spence, Robert Curtis, Duranna Curtis, Betty Mae and Billy Curtis. Jello whip, cake and Kool-Aid were served.

Wanda Morgan reports for the second semester that this class has three new pupils, including Johnnie Mannin, from Cortez, Colorado; Charles Johnson from Bovina, and Zenaida Alonzo from Mission, Texas.

Poor Heating And Lighting

By Gary Singleterry

The first thought in a school should be of the comfort of the students and teachers.

If students and faculty are to be at school five days a week, the buildings should be made healthful to eyes and warmed sufficiently.

For one thing, the heating in the high school building is very poor. In many rooms, unless one is near the heater on cold days, it is very cold. In the film room on cold days, it is so cold that one cannot enjoy the film.

The lighting is very poor in this building also. Although a school nurse checks pupils eyes yearly, no regard is paid to the lighting system.

Surely something should be done about these hazards to health.

Texico Press Club Visits Tribune Office

Have you ever thought how much work it takes to print the newspaper you are reading right now?

Well, neither had most of the members of the Texico Press Club until they visited the State Line Tribune recently and saw how it was done.

Mrs. Jeanne Graham, wife of the editor, took 18 members of the Press Club on a tour of the building and explained to them about the linotype machine, a job printing machine, the press and all the parts of the office.

She showed members of the class how a newspaper used to be set up by hand. The office only printed about four pages in a paper then, whereas they can print about 32 pages now.

Mrs. Graham showed the students the various steps in setting up a newspaper from the time the copy is received until it is printed, folded, addressed, and ready to mail.

A demonstration was given using the job-printing machine which is used for printing envelopes, check-books, stationary, and handbills.

Texico Splits Games With Forrest Pirates

A jump shot in the last 15 seconds gave the Texico Wolverines a 48-46 win over the undermanned Forrest Pirates in a contest at Forrest Friday night. Preliminary action saw the Forrest girls smother the Whirlwinds 71-37.

Jerry Henson dumped in the winning goal after the teams had been deadlocked at 46-46. Forrest had a chance to tie the game again after a Wolverine had fouled, but the free throws were missed and the final buzzer sounded.

The Wolverines led all the way to take their tenth win of the year. Henson led the Wolverine scoring with a 17 point output. Servis led the Pirates, also scoring 17 points.

The Forrest lassies jumped to a 20-12 first quarter lead and were never headed by the Whirlwinds. Barbara Sapp led the scoring for Texico with 18 counters. Mitchell was high for Forrest with 36 points.

Modern Agriculture Day Is Next Tuesday

By W. H. GRAHAM JR.

In these days of rising costs and dwindling profits, farmers are becoming increasingly interested in new developments in their industry which open the way to more efficient means of production, and consequently, greater returns from their farm operations.

In fact, it has almost become axiomatic that the successful farmer is the farmer who plans his work carefully and follows through with all that agricultural technology has to offer.

High Plains farmers of this area, then, should be more than just passively interested in a special program which has been prepared for "Modern Agriculture Day", which will be held Tuesday, February 12, at the Friona High school auditorium. Arranged for cooperatively by Burlington Railway Lines and the Texas A&M Extension Service, this special program will have wide appeal for both farmer and homemaker of the county and area.

Featured will be four specialists in their field, who will analyze their subjects from the point of both experience and professional training. They include Bob Cherry, Extension economist of A & M, who will tell listeners "What's Ahead for Farmers." His talk starts the program at 1:30.

"Soil Management Under Irrigation" will be the topic of Jack Barton, Extension soil and water conservationist of A & M. He will aim his remarks at the special problems encountered in his field. His talk starts at 2:10.

JACK BARTON

Dr. W. E. Irwin, employed by Phillips Chemical Company of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, will speak on "The Extra Benefits from Nitrogen on High Plains Crops" at 2:50. He will show color slides in connection with his talk.

Dr. Irwin was a pioneer in the field of experimental study using anhydrous ammonia on major High Plains crops. He received his formal training at Oklahoma A & M.

At 3:30, Reagan Brown, another Texas A&M representative (Ex-

Jones emphasizes that the ladies are invited to attend. "Everybody will enjoy this meeting," he predicts.

Careful Addition Can Save Time

Most of us are not surprised when the tax folks tell us one of the most common errors that we make in our tax returns is failing to add and subtract right. They say that most of us add in favor of ourselves instead of in favor of Uncle Sam. Most of us would save ourselves time and trouble by checking our tax returns before we mail them. The Government has lots of adding machines and they check the tax return carefully and usually send a bill for the mistake.

THE H. D. AGENT'S CORNER

Jimmie Lou Waincott

Pattern alterations were the problem at a clothing workshop conducted by Miss Fannie Brown Eaton at Amarillo last week. I attended this meeting along with nine agents from District I. The new pattern sizes make pattern alterations a little different, but we still buy by bust measurements. All the information that I received will come in handy when our semi-tailoring classes start this month.

Color Trends for Kitchens

Pink and yellow, two leading colors for kitchens, are about to take "second place" to two exciting new colors—aqua and orange. In addition to appearing in curtains, contemporary lighting fixtures and walls, these four favorites are used in both standard and built-in appliances and minor kitchen accessories. All four are good for accenting the beauty of naturally-finished wood cabinets, according to extension home furnishing specialist. Today more than 85 percent of kitchen cabinets being installed are wood.

Pumpkin or tangerine (vivid orange), combines well with richly-grained darker-hued cabinetry, as does yellow. Aqua is favored with lighter toned cabinetry. Today we see color coordination in both kitchen appliances, utensils and small accessories. Copper and brass are favored accent notes with the bright new kitchen colors. Like the natural figure pattern of wood cabinets, they will harmonize with any colors yet have a distinctive character of their own.

These bright colors now being used in kitchen accessories have boosted the use of wood cabinets as the permanent element of the decor. Modern wood cabinets are built to last as long as the home. The beauty of their natural grain is timeless and combines well with a variety of colors.

Meat Tenderizers Aid Tough Cuts

Medium and lower grades of beef can be made more tender through the use of commercial tenderizers on the market. A granular or liquid substance made from the papaya, the tenderizer contains a valuable digestive substance. As a result of its use, meat is made more tender and easier for the body to digest, according to extension foods and nutrition specialists. At the California Experiment Station, it was found that most of the tenderizing takes place when the meat reaches 140 to 174 degrees. The once recommended practice of letting the meat stand after the applications of the tenderizer is unnecessary.

It is suggested, however, that the tenderizer be "forked" into thick cuts so it can penetrate deeper into the muscle.

Meat tenderizers can be bought at grocery stores.

A Plant Disease Diagnostic Laboratory is now in operation at College Station. Dr. Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist, is in charge and details on the lab and its services may be obtained from local county extension agents.

Acresage Reserve Sign-Up Underway In Parmer County

Parmer County farmers may now sign up for the cotton acresage reserve under the soil bank program, announces Prentice Mills, County ASC manager. The county office began accepting agreements for the 1957 reserve on Monday and the deadline for signing up is March 1.

The money allotted Parmer County amounts to $584,000 and agreements will be signed up on a "first come, first served" basis as long as funds are available.

On the initial agreement, a farmer may sign up for a maximum of 10 acres or 30 percent of his allotment, whichever is the larger. If a farmer wants to put more than the maximum into the program, he will indicate this on the original agreement, and additional acresage will be accepted if necessary funds are made available after the program sign-up is closed, Mills says.

The acresage reserve agreement is a legal and binding contract which cannot be cancelled by the farmer after the close of the sign-up period. Any violation of the agreement may result in reduction of the payment, or termination of the agreement by the USDA.

Other conditions which apply to the agreements are:

1. The designated acresage is not to be grazed or a crop harvested from it (except designated drouth areas.)

2. Acresage designated in the agreement may be inspected by the County ASC Committee to determine whether the land is suitable for the eligible acresage reserve crop and whether the productivity is as represented by the farmer.

3. A new producer for any crop established for 1957 is not eligible for the acresage reserve.

4. A farm may have cropland in the acresage reserve and in the conservation reserve but the same acres cannot be in both programs at the same time.

5. Acresage reserve agreements cover the period from the date of signing by producer through December 31, 1957.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Did you know that there is a gadget on the market which if properly used will eliminate the problem of socks that do not match? It was developed by a grandmother who worried over the fact that her daughter was always coming up with "one of a kind socks" for her children.

The gadget is called a "soklok" and is made of nylon powder molded into a round disc about the size of a quarter, with two slots for inserting sock toes. The gadget will stay locked through the wash and can be tossed over the clothesline without any need for clothespins.

The "soklok" goes through the wringer, will not melt in hot water or in an automatic dryer. It is not affected by laundry bleaches or laundry chemicals and does not break when tossed about in a spinner.

Sure sounds good, doesn't it? Will be glad when they are available in local stores.

If your family consistently calls for lemon pie and you get tired making the same kind, here is a recipe you might like to try.

LEMON CHESS PIE

4 eggs
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup lemon juice (plus 2 tps.

grated lemon rind)
1/4 cup butter
1/2 cup sweet milk
1 tbs. flour.

Beat eggs, add sugar and flour. Mix together, then add lemon juice, milk, butter and lemon rind. Put in 9 inch unbaked pie crust and bake in moderate oven 30 to 45 minutes.

So many new things have been placed on the market in recent years to aid homemakers who like to "do it yourself" that it is possible for most anyone with average ability to turn out professional jobs that would have been impossible a few years ago.

The latest one that has come to our attention is a new scalloped pleater tape. With this tape it is a cinch for the home seamstress to whip up handsome cafe curtains in a jiffy. The scalloped tape is pre-stitched. The right side of the tape is faced to the right side of fabric and is basted or pinned. The tape is sewn along the top edge of pockets, following the outline for scallops. The scallops are then cut out to within 1/4 inch of stitching. The tape is then turned to the wrong side of the fabric and the bottom edge of the tape is sewn to the fabric.

Do you enjoy making yeast breads, but dislike kneading the dough? We ran across a recipe for Easy Cheesy Buns recently that you will surely like. Ingredients: 1 envelope active dry yeast, 1/2 cup warm water, 2/3 cups soft yellow cheddar cheese, 2 table-spoons butter or margarine (melted), 2 1/4 to 2 1/2 cups sifted flour.

Sprinkle the yeast over warm water in mixing bowl. Let stand five minutes. Add cheese, sugar, salt, unbeaten egg, melted butter and 1 cup of the flour. Beat two minutes or until the cheese is well blended. (with electric mixer, use slow speed) Gradually add remaining flour to form a dough. Mix well. Fill well greased muffin cups about half full of dough. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled in size. Bake in moderate oven 12 to 15 minutes or until a deep golden brown. Serve hot. Makes 12 buns if muffin wells are each about three inches across top and 1 1/4 inches deep.

If you want to use compressed yeast, 1 cake may be substituted for the one envelope active dry yeast. In making this substitution, be sure to use lukewarm or tepid water. Yeast bread should always be set in a warm place where there are no drafts while it is rising.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL * OUR STRENGTH

It looks like maybe we will be able to get around a little better now. We have a new employee now working for the Soil Conservation Service to assist the two other technicians assisting the Parmer County SCD. Milburn M. Wright Jr. who is a January graduate of Texas Tech is the new man. We want all the cooperators of the district to meet him and get acquainted.

The District Supervisors held their regular meeting last week to start the new year. The first meeting started off with a great deal of zip. Supervisors present were Chairman A. L. Black; Joe Blair, secretary; and Carl Schlenker, member. Others present at the meeting were Wright Williams, of the Friona Chamber of Commerce, Steve Bavousett, Phillips 66 fertilizer leader, and John Lamb of Parmer County Implement. These men were invited to assist the supervisors in the preparation of their annual plan of operations for the year 1957.

Just a note to those who may not have seen the column last week—trees for farmstead windbreaks will be made available again this year. If you want to get Arizona Cypress, they can get purchased through the district for 30c each. Applications will be taken at Steve Messenger's office in the Mabry Building in Friona, or at the County Agent's office in the courthouse in Farwell.

It usually is the small-expense items, especially those paid for in cash, which are overlooked at income tax reporting time, says Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist. He urges farmers to learn which of these items are tax deductible and to keep accurate records of all expenses and receipts.

ACP Cost-Sharing Practices Announced

Through the 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program, the federal government is sharing with Parmer County farmers and ranchers the cost of carrying out several approved soil and water conservation practices.

Funds in the amount of $104,200 have been allocated to the county for use in the program, which started January 1, and is to continue through December 31, says Prentice Mills, Parmer County ASC manager.

As provided in the operating procedure, the county program funds will be budgeted for each quarter year. For the first quarter of this year, $75,000 has been budgeted for these practices, according to Mills.

Information in regard to the practices which costs will be shared, and the exact specifications and rates of each practice, may be obtained at the county office. Presently, the cost-sharing practice underway in the county is the installation of concrete pipe. For the benefit of dryland farmers assistance may soon be available for listing and chiseling, the ASC manager says.

Prior to the beginning of each budget period (each three months) farm operators will be mailed notices, specifically setting out the inclusive dates during which farmers' requests will be taken by the county office. No requests are accepted after such sign-up period for a particular quarter, except in the event the total of all approved requests does not equal the funds available.

The county committee has established a cost-share limit of $750 per person for the program year of 1957.

USDA Plentiful Foods List For February Announced

College Station—The feature spot on the USDA's plentiful foods list for February for the southwestern area goes to eggs. Supplies of this highly nutritive food are heavy and prices attractive. Consumers are urged to take advantage of the situation.

Beef, lamb, broilers and fryers, and ocean perch and haddock filets are also listed by the USDA as in plentiful supply.

Other foods expected to be plentiful during February include rice, milk and other dairy products, potatoes, canned sweet corn, dried prunes and canned purple plums.

A monthly survey made by the southwest food distribution division, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA, forms the basis for determining the plentiful foods list for the southwestern area.

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,500,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12, marking the 47th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Since 1910, Scouting has served over 26,000,000 boys and adult leaders.

Through its Four-Year Program, "Onward for God and My Country," the organization seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to high spiritual ideals.

Boy Scout Week observances will feature preparation for the Fourth National Jamboree, which will find 50,000 Scouts and leaders camping where Washington camped at historic Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, next July 12 to 18. The nation's 111,000 Scout units will feature rededication ceremonies on February 8, the actual birthday of Scouting in America.

BITS BY BETTY

Giving a wonderful appearance on the trampoline Thursday morning was Jimmie Don Starkey. It seems with a little training he is going to be a professional star. The audience thoroughly enjoyed the performance.

It certainly is a pleasure to have Mrs. Seale back with us after her recent illness.

Don't you think Curtis Miller and Tom Hudson did a wonderful job refereeing the boys' games last Thursday night? The next day Mr. Hudson said that he was going into training before refereeing another game.

While attending a journalism meeting at Lubbock recently, the editor of the Avalanche Journal warned us against beginning columns. Since necessity was the inventor of this column, this is our first and probably last attempt at being a columnist.

The Wolverines and Whirlwinds are participating in the county tourney this weekend at Melrose.

Fourth Graders To Study Science

Fourth graders are finishing their geography books and are looking forward to studying their new science books. The new science books are very attractive and interesting. Several experiments are going to be had before the books are finished.

Two new books in Mrs. Byrd's fourth grade library are about the "Happy Hollisters." Cynthia Spence and Winnie Weisler have already read the books and say they are very interesting, reports Bobby Woodward, a class reporter.

A new student, Bobby Ray Johnson, from Bovina, was welcomed last week by Mrs. Patterson's fourth grade. Eileen Morin, fourth grader, has just recently moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Third graders have two new students. They are Mavis Manning from Cortez, Colorado, and Gary Meier from Bovina. They are also sorry to lose six members of their class, who have moved to different places. They are Harold Morin, Jerry Miles, Ricky Richardson, Glen Powers, and Patricia and Jimmy Porter. Harold has moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico.
