Little Change In U. S. Markets Noted, However

Labor Regime Of Britain Facing Fight Of Its Life

Devaluation of currencies across half the world sent traders in sterling areas scurrying for gold and commodity stocks today but brought little change in United States markets.

MORNING AFTER IN LONDON'S WALL STREET—Brokers, clerks and traders jam the street in front of London's stock exchange as the clock points toward 10 o'clock and the usual opening hour. Exchange and banks remained closed to avoid financial turmoil on the morning after the announcement that Britain had devalued the pound by 30 per cent. (AP Wirephoto)

Truman Has No Plan To Avert Steel Strike

President Hand-Responsibility To Negotiators

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—Word from the White House that President Truman has no plan in mind for again averting a steel strike put the problem definitely up to labor-management negotiators today.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that Mr. Truman has "nothing in the works" to offer as a new formula for settling the dispute.

He said that also applies to the nationwide coal strike. "Nothing is in sight," Ross told a news conference.

A top presidential aide said privately that Mr. Truman is convinced there will be a steelmaking stoppage of midnight Saturday unless the industry and CIO steelworkers union reach an agreement by then.

Also Philip Murray, head of the CIO and the million-member steelworkers union, said the men will strike Saturday unless the industry agrees to a company-financed welfare plan.

These developments came as government conciliators pushed their efforts to break the steel labor stalemate before the deadline.

Cyrus S. Chang, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, hinted that he may have a peace plan or two to toss at the hotly arguing steel firms and union.

Ching told reporters he will have a "lot of suggestions to make" as the pension-insurance issues get boiled down in the talks. He called both sides in again today.

The steel industry has balked at putting into effect a 10-cent pension-insurance plan recommended by a government fact-finding board to be wholly paid by employers.

Steelmen contend that workers should bear part of such welfare costs.

Romulo Is Head Of UN Assembly

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (AP)—Brig Gen Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines was elected president of the United Nations Assembly today. He immediately challenged the 59 delegations to make this "the peace assembly."

Romulo was elected a few minutes after the assembly opened its fourth session in the packed blue and gold assembly chamber at Flushing Meadow Park, site of the 1939 world's fair.

The Soviet bloc cast five votes for Vladimir Clementis, Czechoslovak foreign minister. The other ballot was declared invalid.

Romulo pleaded for co-operation among the big powers. He said world political conditions already were improving and it was the job of the assembly to see that this trend continued.

"This session," he said, "coincides with a turning point in post war international relations.

"Though many formidable obstacles to world peace remain, the danger of a new war which overshadowed our deliberations in Paris a year ago has greatly abated.

"I hope this session will earn for itself the title, 'The Peace Assembly.'"

UN officials listed 18 foreign ministers at the head of delegations prepared to tackle 72 subjects already on schedule for debate.

VISHINSKY ARRIVES—Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet foreign minister, has a smile for his welcome as he alights from plane at LaGuardia field, New York, after flight from London. Violence Flares In Kentucky, West Virginia

Lewis Still Silent As Resumption Of Talks Set Today

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 20. (AP)—Developments in the nationwide United Mine Workers walkout came fast as lightning today—and unemployment from the stoppage passed the half-million mark.

Nearly all of Lewis' 400,000 dues payers stayed away from the pits for the second consecutive day.

Coal-hauling railroads said they are furnishing 26,000 employees. In rapid-fire order there were reports of violence in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Gov. William Tuck of Virginia took verbal swipes at Lewis, and so did two of the top men in the coal industry.

Lewis took it all in. He didn't say a word. And there was no indication from UMW headquarters at Washington whether he'd show up today for the scheduled resumption of contract negotiations with the Southern Coal Producers Assn. at Bluefield, Va.

The southerners are the "thorns in Lewis' side. Operators from the South have refused to continue paying 20-cents-a-ton royalty payments into the UMW's welfare and retirement fund.

Last week trustees of the fund said they were forced to get off the $100-a-month pensions and other welfare benefits to soft coal diggers.

Reaction from Lewis and his men was as fast as a double play in baseball. Lewis told the southern operators they were wrong in their contention lapses of the contract June 30 released them of their obligation to keep up the royalties.

"The bushy-browed labor chief then threw the ball to his men. They studied the issue briefly—and stayed at home yesterday."

It wasn't long before industry stepped into the battle. Joseph Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers, called the UMW fund a "Frankenstein," adding:

"If continued as it has been in the past, it will wreck both the coal industry and the union itself."

And Moody said suspension of the fund's payments wasn't caused by the operators' refusal to keep up their payments.

"The reason is that the fund was established on an unsound basis and that it has been operated in a manner that inevitably led to its collapse."

George H. Love, head of the Pittsburgh consolidation Coal Co., and operator spokesman for the National Bituminous Wage Conference, backed Moody to the limit. He said the walkout is "wholly unjustified."

TWO KILLED IN REFINERY BLAST

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20. (AP)—A terrific explosion rocked Magnolia Refinery No. 1 here at about 8:55 o'clock this morning, setting off a raging fire, killing at least two men and injuring at least eight others.

On-the-scene observers said that as late as 10:25 o'clock there was danger of another explosion, but city firemen were atop refinery super structure battling flames.

One of the dead men was identified as George Aston, 42, refinery "still man," who lived in a company cottage near the plant.

E. R. Harris, refinery worker is missing. Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital: J. W. Polmar, 58, refinery superintendent who lives at Hodge Station, broken leg and hand and face burns and arm cuts.

Thomas W. Cooper, 39, burns. M. L. D. Smith, 52, burns. C. F. Unruh, 53, burns. W. T. Wallace, 42, burns, possible broken right leg.

W. A. Reagan, 46, burns. Lloyd Jamar, 36, burns. Charles R. Beshitt, 20, face, head, arm and leg burns.

Regan, a coker, said apparently a valve had been left open in the engine room and that gas possibly backed into the room. He said he found a leak closed the valve and then ran outside, escaping full force of the explosion in a few seconds.

"I thought everybody was out," he said at the hospital. "I don't know what caused the explosion. I mean it knocked me down. Look at me now."

Regan crawled away from the scene. The blast was heard over a great area of the city, and police and newspaper officers were deluged with telephone calls for more than one hour later.

Smoke rose above the scene to a height visible over much of the city.

Britain Rocked By Devaluation

LONDON, Sept. 20. (AP)—The snowballing impact of the cut in the dollar value of the pound rocked Britain today.

The stock market went wild. The Labor Government began closing ranks for the fight of its life. Workers unrest which had been smoldering for months flamed into open revolt against the wage freeze policy of the Attlee Government.

The normally staid and sober air of the London stock exchange dissolved into frenzy as prices of stocks and bonds swirled toward devaluation levels.

Quotations of some gold shares were nearly triple the official exchange closing price of Friday. Oil rubber and tin shares followed the trend.

Prime Minister Attlee's cabinet was reportedly to be planning an emergency session of Parliament now in recess.

This has been demanded by opposition leader Winston Churchill for a full dress airing of the whole situation.

Both the Lords and Commons are expected to be reconvened on Tuesday probably for about three days.

Torric was some speculation that Churchill may propose a motion of censure. It is unlikely to carry on less large sections of the ruling Labor Party rebel or abstain from voting. But the danger is there.

Trial Of Hanks Is Postponed Until Oct. 10

AUSTIN, Sept. 20. (AP)—Trial of Raymond N. Hanks charged with making false tax-refund claims against the state and with forgery, was postponed today until Oct. 10 in 126th District Court.

Postponement was on motion of the state, represented by District Attorney Bob Long. Long told the court some technical question has been raised regarding the validity of the indictments.

Defense Attorney Paul Holt said the indictments failed to allege that Hanks had done anything illegal in Travis County, where the indictments were filed, or that statutes had placed venue in Travis County.

Cases involving the state government may be tried either in the county where the alleged offense occurred, or in Travis County, where the state seat of government is located. However, the indictment must specify which route is being taken.

Holt said he expected the state would redraw its indictments.

Monday Deadline Set For Entering Centennial Floats Deadline for entering floats in one or more of the five Centennial parades is Monday, Sept. 26, Jack V. Smith, parade chairman, said today.

Thirty floats have been approved by the Centennial parade committee, Smith said. Other entries should be submitted promptly, he stated.

DELIGHTED BY MIRACLE OF SOUND—Deaf since birth, Patty Wyant, 5, utters a squeal of delight as she recognized the beat of a tom tom over the earphones of an auditory training unit in Des Moines, Ia. Cindy Cox, 4, also deaf, beats the drum at rear. Youngsters who have lived in a world of silence since birth are taught words like "mommy" and "daddy" and hear for the first time barking dogs and the sound of a train whistle. In this training session, Patty is expected to knock over a block each time she hears a beat of the tom tom. Both children have been training to hear sound for just a few weeks. (AP Wirephoto)

State Hospital Board Member Is Visitor In City

Big Spring State Hospital had its first official visit Monday from a member of the new State Hospital Board, the nine-member agency which has replaced the Board of Control in eleemosynary guidance.

He was the Rt. Rev. John E. Hines of Austin who, in addition to serving on the state board, is bishop-coadjutor of Texas for the Episcopal church.

The Rev. Mr. Hines arrived here by plane shortly before noon, remained until about 1 p. m. and made an exhaustive investigation into the local hospital operations.

He inspected all departments, interviewed all major employees. He was commendatory in his informal report on his findings.

Public Urged To Observe Big Spring Zoning Ordinances

An appeal for public cooperation in observance of city zoning regulations as they pertain to commercial signs, has been issued by the city zoning and planning board.

The board pointed out that in A and B districts (residential) name plates advertising businesses may not be more than one square foot in area; and signs pertaining to sale of rental property directly affected are not to be more than 12 square feet. In C and D (apartment) districts, the commercial name plates are limited to two square feet, real estate signs to 12 square feet.

"A number of places have signs out in the zoning districts that do not conform to the regulations," the board said. "It is felt that this is largely through misunderstanding. We are appealing to persons involved to arrange for signs in conformity with regulations, and prompt cooperation will obviate the necessity of the board having to take any further steps."

Possible Storm Areas Watched

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20. (AP)—The U. S. Weather Bureau here said today that two widely separated "areas of suspicion" in the Gulf of Mexico and east of the Lesser Antilles were "stirring still" and that there was no cause for concern at this time.

The area in the Gulf of Mexico was located about in the center of the western half, between 800 and 900 miles west of Miami.

Weather bureau officials here said it was too early yet to tell anything about the areas of suspicion.

However, the Miami Weather bureau said Navy hunting planes were sent out to investigate the suspicious area.

Weather men emphasized that the areas have not developed into a storm.

FALLS INTO 40-FOOT WELL

CLEBURNE, Sept. 20. (AP)—Ferdie the bull is a little puzzled, and vastly hurt, by the ways of man. The 1,200-pound Holstein was ambling around late yesterday when he ambled right on when he saw some planks.

Bottom side first he went crashing through the planks. He tumbled to a stop at the bottom of a 40-foot abandoned well.

He slaved there all night. When he looked up and saw Farmer Jim Cryer peering down he looked into a face as puzzled as his own.

Cryer didn't know—until this morning—what to do. "Take the bull by the horns," Cryer said to himself. "Take the bull by the horns."

Ferdy The Bull Has Harrowing Experience

wrecker it has a winch on the back. The steel line was lowered into the well. It settled snugly around Ferdie's ample horns.

At the well lip, Ferdie collapsed. But he kept on breathing. "Darn near pulled his head off," commented Reed. "Yeah shore did," said Cryer. Ferdie got up, very shakily, and ambled away.

MINISTER IS CHAMP LIAR

REINHOLDS, Pa., Sept. 20. (AP)—A minister who is also a state senator is the best Pennsylvania Dutch liar in these parts.

The Rev. Frank Ruth of Bernville won the first annual contest of the Pennsylvania Dutch Liars about a mean old tomcat who Club yesterday by telling a story eliminate the critter, Mr. Ruth couldn't be killed.

When ropes and guns didn't buried him under a pile of rocks. Three days later the old cat trotted on home, carrying his head in his mouth.

LEFT WAITING AT THE MINE—These four miners showed up for work at the Presto Mine of the Jeff Mining Co. at Bridgeville, Pa., but they were the only ones. Veterinarians Reward Humaneness To Animals

CHICAGO, Sept. 20. (AP)—A Pittsburgh policeman peered down a long, narrow sewer like a trapped puppy whimpered inside. "Stand back, everybody," the officer ordered. "The dog will have to be destroyed."

The crowd shifted uncertainly. A mother led her little boy away.

Tim Suter, a 16-year-old high school boy with a strong love for animals, shoved his hands in his pockets and crossed the street. At the next intersection he looked suspiciously at a manhole.

He studied the contour of the large round cover. Then he looked back at the crowd gradually dispersing 250 feet away. Quickly he rolled up his trousers, fugged the heavy iron cover aside and lowered himself in the hole.

At the bottom he found an 18 inch pipe leading towards the trapped dog. It was slow work crawling through the narrow tunnel, but Tim pushed ahead on his hands and knees. An hour later he arrived beside the puppy.

The pet had a broken leg. It barked joyfully as Tim carried it back the slow way he had come, up through the manhole and out into the street.

Cheers went up as the boy emerged, grimy and exhausted. That was in 1945. Later that same year Tim received the National Humane Act award, given annually by the American Veterinary Medical Association.

The AMVA believes that "a cornerstone of veterinary medicine is the relief of suffering of domestic animals and livestock." It presents the award to youngsters under 18, either boy or girl, for an exceptional act of kindness to animals during the year.

Nominations are received from throughout the United States and Canada. Winners are chosen by a three-member committee of veterinarians. Presentations are made at the association's annual convention. Winners get a certificate describing their act of kindness and a $100 U. S. Savings Bond.

The idea was originated by Dr. W. A. Young, 51, director of Chicago's celebrated Anti-Cruelty Society. He headed the award committee until last year when he was succeeded by Dr. S. T. Michael of San Francisco.

Not every award is won for a single act of heroism. The committee also takes into consideration a candidate's record of consistent kindness and mercy towards animals.

Activities of the youthful entrants include, in addition to the rescue of animals from danger, the staging of benefits for the care of lost dogs and volunteer work in animal hospitals.

Three of the association's six awards have been for heroism, the others for humane deeds for animal friends.

One of the winners was Frank Klempe, Chicago, who edits "Pet News," a weekly newspaper devoted exclusively to animal stories. The standard-size 10-page publication is circulated in 21 foreign countries.

Twelve-year-old John Newton of Columbus, Ohio, won the 1946 award for establishing National Cat Week. He gave up his vacation in summer camp to take over the job of winning nationwide recognition of the cat.

Suzanne Weller, 14, Pittsburgh, Pa., is the only girl honored. Pretty blonde Suzanne received the 1947 award for her singlehanded capture of a rabid fox terrier which had bitten more than 30 persons, including herself.

Winner of last year's award was Richard Swank, 15, of Mentor, Ohio. He rescued an abandoned and ill puppy. With the aid of a local veterinarian, the boy nursed it back to health. Later he worked to earn his own money to pay for an operation needed to save the animal's life.

A boy's love for his blind dog, a companion since childhood, won the association's 1949 award. Richard Rose, 17, of Detroit, was recognized for his thoughtfulness in building a special headgear fitted with bumpers so the dog could walk without injuring itself. Veterinarians believe the device will be useful for hundreds of other blind dogs.

DESIGNED SCIENTIFICALLY Echo Chamber Is Like Crazy Room

NEW YORK, (AP)—The newest echo chamber, a room that makes the hollow sounds you hear on radio and phonographs, looks like a schizophrenic's dream. Split personalities, when they draw a design, exaggerate size and proportions beyond all reality.

The engineers of sound of the RCA Victor Division, directed by Alfred A. Pulley, have achieved the same kind of design by careful calculation of how to make echoes. This is the chamber used to make Vaughan Monroe's recording of "Riders in the Sky," and Sammy Kay's rendition of "Four winds and Seven Seas."

The echo rooms' walls are built with the same rounded half-columns used in the world's finest music and radio studios. In the good rooms the columns are symmetrically placed.

But the echo chamber reminds you of a crazy room in which the rafters run wrong, side wall beams are horizontal where they should be vertical and vertical supports are misplaced so that they could

Defense Again Goes To Bat In Profanity Trial

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20. (AP)—The defense will have more to say today in the trial of Mickey Cohen, the cousin's clothing.

Informally the little haberdasher has been described as mobster, gambler, vice lord and Public Enemy No. 1. But swearing at a brace of officers is the charge on which he is being tried.

The naughty word trial opened yesterday, and red faced jurors, nine of them women, heard the expurgated police version of Cohen's vocabulary.

Cohen, the prosecution contends, unleashed his unprintable tirade at Officer James Barrick and Federal Narcotics Agent Oscar Polcuch when he asked for the keys to Cohen's clothing store last Aug. 23, after the arrest of one of his henchmen.

It was shocking, Polcuch testified Cohen shouted the nasty words so all the neighbors could hear. Shades were drawn and lights switched off up and down the street.

"Were you disturbed by his speech?" Deputy City Atty. Robert Burns inquired.

Polcuch allowed as how he was. The prosecution rested its case at the conclusion of Polcuch's direct testimony and cross examination. Defense Counsel Sam Hummel then read a deposition of Earl Brown, Life Magazine writer who was present at Cohen's home when the incident occurred. Cohen cussed the deposition said, but not as badly as the officers claimed.

Mexican States May Form Good Neighbor Commission Of Own

McALLEN, Sept. 20. (AP)—Some Mexican states may soon form an organization similar to Texas' Good Neighbor Commission.

Raul Guerra, a member of the Texas commission, said yesterday the possibility is strongest in Mexico's border states, particularly Tamaulipas. He said Gov. Raul Garate of Tamaulipas may discuss his state's plans at a meeting of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission in Austin Oct. 11.

The Good Neighbor Commission is an official Texas agency set up to work for better relations with Mexico.

Probe Railway Derailment

NEWTON, N. C., Sept. 20. (AP)—Southern railway investigators today sought the cause of a passenger train derailment that killed two trainmen early yesterday and injured about 50 passengers.

Their-sons persons still were in a hospital here. The fireman and two railroad employees were reported in critical condition.

The diesel engine and six following cars tumbled into a ditch as the train, running about 20 minutes late in a morning fog, came into a U-turn near the Newton station. The toll might have been greater if four Pullman cars on the back of the Salisbury to Charlotte train had left the tracks. Most of the passengers were asleep in the Pullmans, which had come from Washington and points north and been attached to the train in Salisbury.

Two Negro rooks on the train were killed. They were identified as Robert Freeman, 60, of Salisbury, N. C., and Hersten Longmire, 50, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Mother Held In Gunshot Death Of Daughter

KINGWOOD, W. Va., Sept. 20. (AP) — A 65-year-old woman is in jail here today on first degree murder charges after authorities quoted her as saying she killed her 25-year-old daughter and kept the body at home for a week.

Mrs. Jennie McIntee was ordered held without bond for the Preston County grand jury after she pleaded innocent at a hearing in magistrate's court yesterday.

Sheriff J. H. Benson said Mrs. McIntee told him she shot her daughter, Mrs. Mae Piper of nearby Grape Thicket, last Tuesday because "she perted me."

Mrs. Piper's body was found yesterday on a cot in the home she shared with her mother. Benson said she suffered a 22 calibre bullet wound in the head.

The officer reported finding the body after a neighbor asked Mrs. McIntee about her daughter and was told:

"She is out back lying on a bed. I shot her."

The reason for the shooting, Benson quoted Mrs. McIntee as saying, was, "she perted me last Tuesday."

Listed in the Funk & Wagnall new college standard dictionary as an adjective meaning "disrespectfully forward or free," the word "pert" is used in these West Virginia hills as a verb.

It means the same thing, though.

NEWEST WAY TO RIDE HERD

Freight Rate Hike Boosts Living Costs

WASHINGTON — The recent increase in railroad freight rates brings about a double-barreled boost in living costs.

It raises the ordinary charges for shipments of goods, which results in increasing the amount paid in federal excise taxes on the transportation of property. These extra charges customarily increase the prices paid by consumers for those goods.

The federal tax on transportation of property is three per cent of the regular transportation charge. (The 15 per cent tax on passenger fares is not affected by the new rate increase.)

The Interstate Commerce Commission granted the railroads a general four per cent increase in freight rates to compensate for the costs of installing a five-day week schedule for non-operating employees Sept. 1.

It is expected that Congress will give primary attention to the property transportation tax when it tackles the excise levy issue at next year's session. Tax specialists say it is the one tax which virtually everyone favors abolishing.

That's because it tends to increase living costs more than any other single excise tax. One reason is that it applies to all kinds of commodities and another is that it often keeps pyramiding.

For example, it is applied first to raw materials being shipped to an assembly plant. Second, these materials are taxed again when shipped in a semi-finished state. Finally, there is a tax on shipments of the finished product.

President Truman generally has opposed the elimination of excise taxes, but in his mid-year economic report he said the property transportation tax should be wiped out. He didn't advocate repealing the 15 per cent tax on passenger travel.

However, there will be pressure for abolishing the passenger tax when Congress tackles the property transportation levy. Many Congressmen contend that much travel is in the necessity, rather than the pleasure class.

The 15 per cent bite is considered particularly rough on persons who regularly ride commuter trains to and from work.

LEGAL AID SOCIETY HELPS POOR

Getting Justice Is Not Too Difficult In New York City

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. — Florence Kelley's office in New York's Criminal Courts Building is a modest, carpetless room, functionally equipped with a desk and a few chairs. It is as impersonal as the rows of heavy law books in the bookcase.

Its occupant, however, is in sharp contrast to her office and the job she is doing. Miss Kelley is attorney-in-charge of the New York legal aid society's criminal courts branch. She is young, slim, pretty and well-dressed.

In a year the New York County district attorney's office handles some 16,000 cases. Miss Kelley and her staff of eight represent the defendants in about 8,000 of these.

"We can't touch a case when a defendant can afford to hire a lawyer," she said. "The people we defend are poor people, beset 24 hours a day with financial worry."

Most of the cases involve some kind of stealing, burglary, robbery, larceny, or attempts at same. Miss Kelley and her staff automatically take on the cases of all qualified comers and give them the same service their better-heeled brethren receive as paying clients.

"Every person is entitled to legal counsel," Miss Kelley said. "In the old days it was the custom to assign an attorney as they came before the court. It usually was some lawyer who happened to be in court."

Lots of times, however, the assigned lawyer wasn't interested in the case, or was too busy with paying matters to give it proper time. Lawyers in the city decided to get rid of the assignment system and undertook to help underwrite the legal aid society's criminal courts branch. Criminal cases of all types below first degree murder are referred to it.

As administrative head of the office Miss Kelley personally handles the pleading of clients to charges and indictments.

"I do much rather try cases," she admitted, "but by pleading them at the beginning I can get an idea of what each case is about, assign it to the proper staff member and discuss it fairly intelligently afterward."

At each pleading session of general sessions court, the brown-haired Miss Kelley steps into the crowded detention pen to discuss forthcoming business. She consults frequently with judges, works closely with the probation department. She is as much concerned with the correctness of punishment as she is with trying to get her client off as lightly as possible.

"Serving time in prison is not a deterrent of crime," she says frequently. "All you are doing is eliminating a person from society for a certain number of years. When he gets out, branded as a criminal, he find employment problems so tough that his chances of going back to prison are very good indeed."

Like all other lawyers who defend persons charged with crime—many of them quite as black as painted—she forever is being asked how she can bring herself to protect them. Her answer is she is only following the law.

"Under the law a person is innocent until proved guilty," she remarks. "If the prosecutor has not enough evidence to prove the crime was committed, the law says it was not committed. The law also says the person is entitled to have someone help him see he gets the benefit of the law."

"There's another thing," she added. "You try to make the defendant feel he is properly defended—and properly prosecuted. I always want my clients to know our legal system is working as it should. Some of them get to have quite a respect for it."

Miss Kelley's grandmother was one of the first women lawyers in the country. Her father is an attorney and so is her elder brother. But she never had thought about law as a career for herself until her senior year at Smith College when one of her professors practically arranged over her head for her acceptance by Yale Law School.

Her first job was as an assistant on the staff of District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey.

"It was a break," she commented. "I wasn't a Republican; I just applied."

She was put in charge of the "abandonment bureau" and handles other matters through Dewey's term. His successor, Frank Hogan, reappointed her. She quit the D. A.'s office early in the war to enter a firm specializing in corporation and labor law. A couple of years ago she was appointed to her present job.

"Some of the judges made me promise I wouldn't try any messy cases that might be embarrassing. As a matter of fact, she says, she frequently gains the confidence of many clients easier and quicker than a man could.

"They probably think of me as mamma," she smiled, "but sometimes their candor frightens you."

"One day I called for a man in the detention pen and said 'oh, you're the man who threw a milk bottle in a delicatessen window'."

"No, ma'am," he said. "I'm the man who threw the lady out the 13th story window."

Negro Given Life Term in Slaying

SILVERTON, Sept. 20. (AP) — George Holland, Negro, was sentenced to life in prison for the fatal shooting Aug. 2, 1947, of Sheriff J. J. Pierce.

A 110th District Court jury fixed punishment after Holland pleaded guilty.

Death Penalty Is Asked In Patricide

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Sept. 20. (AP) — The death penalty has been asked for a 14-year-old boy accused of killing his father because he wouldn't buy him a bicycle.

Upshur County Prosecutor J. D. Jennings asked the death sentence yesterday in opening remarks to a jury convened to try Jerry Riggs, 14, of nearby Tallmansville for the fatal shooting of his father on Aug. 9. Jerry pleaded innocent.

Jerry's younger brother and sister found the body of their father, Harry L. Riggs, 48, in a cornfield with a bullet wound in his back.

State Police Corp. R. C. Culp quoted Jerry as saying he shot his father because he spanked him and wouldn't give him money for a bicycle.

Culp said the boy told him he later bought a bike after he had taken $1,325 from a cache in his home and hidden all but $60 of it along a road.

Noronic Disaster To Be Investigated

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 20. (AP) — A justice of Canada's supreme court will head an investigation of the Noronic disaster whose toll still stood today at 121 known dead and 84 missing.

A commission headed by Justice R. L. Kellock will begin its inquiry "as soon as possible." Canada's Transport Minister Lionel Chevier told the House of Commons in Ottawa last night the department of transport already has started a preliminary investigation of the fire which flashed through the Great Lakes pleasure steamer Saturday night.

Police and Red Cross officials have made another appeal for survivors of the ship fire to report their safety. They hope many missing passengers from the ship have returned to their homes without reporting their escape.

Early today 41 of the 121 charred bodies in the emergency morgue here had been identified.

At St. Michael's Cathedral here yesterday, nearly 1,500 persons attended a Solemn High Mass for the Noronic victims.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulky person in five has some glandular disturbance and that is a truly easy case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 90 per cent who are trying to fight the "battle of the bulges" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diets on the market, which have appeared on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

Publicity will not save souls, but it will attract people to services for salvation. That's the opinion of the Rt. Rev. and the Rt. Hon. J. W. C. Wand, Bishop of London, who is making a coast-to-coast tour. He is a bishop of the Anglican (church of England) which is the mother church to the Protestant Episcopal church in this country.

The bishop used every advertising medium this summer to turn London upside down in a revival to attract people to the churches in his diocese.

London's walls were plastered with thousands of posters. A million handbills were passed out and streetcars and laymen invaded stores, pubs and homes to promote the revival.

The bishop doesn't believe that publicity will save souls, but that the churches need it. The revival was staged because the bishop and other clergymen were distressed at the apathy of Londoners to religion. Exact figures on what effect the spectacular revival had on religion in London are not available, but it is known that communists in many of the churches doubled.

There is still some doubt among clergymen and laymen alike concerning the use of publicity for promoting church activity. While some groups have gone all-out for all sorts of publicity and have even employed full-time workers for public relations, others feel that such movements cheapen the gospel.

We've never had much sympathy for the churchman that whines because the church has so much competition. After all, if it is really the force which it claims to be, it should be able to stand the competition. There is nothing to be gained by "cheapening the gospel," but the right use of certain commercial methods does not necessarily cheapen.

It is true that the church does face a great deal of competition, but it also seems true that the church which does not have the ability to stand the competition is probably on the wrong track and should change its ways or turn its job to someone else.

Branca, Barney Hitting Stride For Brooklyn

Brooklyn's "B" twins — Ralph Branca and Rex Barney — have hit their old stride again and the Dodgers' pitching staff appears at peak strength for the stretch run in the tight National League pennant race.

This is disconcerting news for the St. Louis Cardinals, who saw their lead chopped to a game and a half last night and who have a three-game series with the pursuing Dodgers coming up tomorrow.

Branca and Barney, the erratic roommates who fell short of the 20-game victory marks predicted for them in the spring, may play a big role in the important St. Louis stand.

Both fashioned notable conquests the last couple of days over the Chicago Cubs. Manager Burt Shotton, who has used them spasmodically, indicates they can expect regular work here on out.

Barney turned in one of the best pitched games of the season yesterday in shutting out the Cubs on one hit, 4-0. He faced only 28 men, none reached second and the only blow off him was Phil Cavarretta's single opening the eighth.

It was his eighth victory against eight defeats but a vital one for the Dodgers.

A few hours later the Cardinals ran afoul a couple of Philadelphia rookies and lost to the Phillies, 4-3, to have their advantage whittled to 1 1/2 games.

This adds new pressure to the Dodger-Cardinal series opening with a day-night doubleheader in St. Louis tomorrow.

Shotton announced he wouldn't use big Doc Newcombe in two of the games as originally planned. Newcombe will pitch the first one, he said, followed by Preacher Roe and Branca or Barney as starters in the other two.

Branca, who pitched only 20 innings since Aug. 1, showed top form in setting down the Cubs Sunday, 7-1.

While the National League was growing tighter, the American began to loosen up a bit. The New York Yankees increased their lead to three full games over the idle Boston Red Sox by trimming Cleveland, 6-0.

It was the fourth straight triumph over first division foes for the Yankees and their ninth victory in the last 10 games. They're not giving quarter.

Lefty Ed Lopat pitched a five-hitter in shutting out the Indians, recording his 15th victory of the season. Bob Feller was Cleveland's losing hurler.

Rookies John (Jocko) Thompson and Ed Sanicki were the Phillies who joined the Cardinals. Thompson, a 29-year-old left-hander, held the Cards scoreless for six innings and went all the way while giving up 11 safeties. Sanicki, a 22-year-old outfielder, batted in three runs for the Phils, two of them on a homer.

In the other National League games, the New York Giants won a ten-inning affair from Pittsburgh, 6-4, and the Boston Braves whipped Cincinnati, 6-2.

Ralph Kiner hit his 50th home run of the season for the Pirates to become the first player in the National League to hit that mark twice. Kiner, who is pressing Hack Wilson's league record total of 56 poked 51 in 1947.

Warren Spahn turned in his 19th pitching victory for the Braves in the game at Cincinnati which was a replay of the previous day's 1-1 tie.

The only other game in the American League saw the Philadelphia Athletics push over three runs in the eighth to subdue the St. Louis Browns, 7-4. Dick Fowler won his 14th game of the season, going all the way.

EXPRESS—Carroll Cannon, Big Spring high school football back, will be seen in action with the varsity Steers for the first time locally when Coach Carl Coleman's Steers entertain Brownfield Friday night. Cannon was not eligible last year and confined his efforts to the B team. Big Spring and Brownfield played one of the all-time thrillers in Brownfield last year, when the Steers won a 34-27 victory. LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Howard County Junior college's football game with Odessa JC in Odessa Saturday night drew around 3,500 paid admissions.

If the Hawks do anywhere near as well in their first home game with ACC's reserves here Saturday night, then college officials can cease worrying about the game paying its own way.

The San Angelo Optimist Club wants it noised about that two of the better service teams in the South, Randolph Field of San Antonio and the Memphis Navy Helicats, are to play football in San Angelo the night of Friday, October 21.

All proceeds will go into the Optimist Boy's work fund, which is used toward the maintenance of the theby's hobby shop, Sunday school and Boy's Ranch.

BIGGER BURK SHOULD BE MUCH BETTER

One season the Baylor football Bears will be tough this fall. Adrian Burk, a great back who weighed but 175 pounds in 1948, is up to 190 now. Jack Russell, the one-time Baylor end, says Burk is the best passer he's seen since Sammy Baugh.

EAGLES BEING COMPARED WITH 1941 BEARS

The Philadelphia Eagles, with whom Cliff Patton of Big Spring plays, are now being compared with the Chicago Bears of 1941, usually considered the top pro eleven of all times.

One authority claimed he'd rather meet any other club in the National league three times than the Eagles once.

Gil Johnson, the ex-SMU star who passed up his final year of eligibility to sign with the pros, completed three passes in three tries in his first start with the New York Yankees. The passes were good for 62 yards.

WALLACE SEES CAKE WALK FOR SOONERS

Francis Wallace, the Ohio scribe who used to write an annual feature on grid prospects for Saturday Evening Post but who changed to Collier's this year, is another who jumped on the Oklahoma university band wagon.

Wallace contends OU will race through its 10-game schedule without drawing a deep breath and return to the Sugar Bowl to play Tulane.

That's going to surprise a lot of folks, who expect the University of Texas Longhorns to give the Sooners a whale of a battle next month.

Wallace rates Notre Dame, Cornell, Michigan, Tulane, SMU, Northwestern, Army, USC and Tennessee in that order behind Oklahoma. He places Texas 19th on the list.

The writer also sees USC and Minnesota tangling in the Rose Bowl. SMU and Tennessee meeting in the Cotton Bowl and Mississippi and North Carolina in the Orange.

Card Closing In On Leader In Mace Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (AP)—Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn and Enos Slaughter of St. Louis are hooked up in a man-to-man battle for the National League batting title.

Robinson's lead, one some 35 points, has melted to three points under Slaughter's persistent attack. Jackie has faded a bit, to be sure, but Slaughter's sensational rise has been the main factor. Slaughter is smashing the ball at a 341 clip, close behind Robinson's leading 344. Averages include Sunday's games, with only two weeks to go.

Stan Musial of the Cards is third at 332.

After the first three, it's strictly a race for fourth position. Only nine points separate Bobby Thomson of New York, fourth at 310, and Red Schoendienst of St. Louis, tenth at 301.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20. (AP)—Boston's Ted Williams is tightening his monopoly on American League batting marks, taking the lead in six divisions of play.

He topped five brackets a week ago and now has added a sixth—most runs batted in. In statistics through Sunday's games, Williams is ahead in batting with 331, scored the most runs, 143, slammed the most hits, 18, most doubles, 39, and homers 40, and has hammered across 153 runs.

Dale Mitchell of Cleveland was tops in three-baggers with 23 and St. Louis Bob Dillinger continued in the base-stealing lead with 18.

Second to Williams in batting was George Kell of Detroit with 341. He was followed by Dillinger with 316, Dom DiMaggio, Boston, 313.

Boston's Ellis Kinder took over the top pitching percentage record with 21.5 for .808.

After two outs, Midland scored on an error a walk and a single in the ninth to cap the contest.

The teams play here Tuesday night and if Midland wins, the series is over. Should Vernon win, the teams will move to Midland to conclude the series to determine Big Spring's opponent in the final play-off round.

Yearlings Host Colts Thursday

The Big Spring Yearlings are to play the Sweetwater Junior high school football team here Thursday afternoon. It will be the first game of the season for the Yearlings.

The Big Spring high B team will go to Sweetwater for a clash with that school's B squad Saturday afternoon. Earl Crawford and Roy Baird are coaches for the Yearlings.

Locals Await Final Round

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 20.—Francisco (Pancho) Perez pitched the Big Spring Broncs into the finals of the Longhorn baseball league's Shaughnessy playoffs when he shut out the San Angelo Colts, 4-0, before some 2,500 fans here Monday night.

In rare form, Perez set the onerous Colts down with six hits, enabling the Steeds to win their fourth straight game in the set.

The Broncs managed only six hits off Julio Moreno but took advantage of some erratic fielding on the part of the Colts to come in ahead.

Six Angelo misplays greased the skids for Moreno. Jake McClain committed three boners. Red Cowley bobbled twice and Manager Sam Harshaney once.

Felix Gomez and Al Valdes scored for the Cayuses in the third frame while Bert Baez and Ray Vasquez registered tallies in the sixth.

Perez, the only Big Spring player to get as many as two hits, walked five but was brilliant in the clutches. He struck out six men.

The victory was the 17th for the Broncs in 24 starts against the Angeli and represented their 98th win of the campaign. It was also Perez's tenth victory for Big Spring and his 17th of the year. He won seven for Orlando, Fla., before arriving in Texas.

The Big Springers will now await the outcome of the playoff between Midland and Vernon. They meet the winner in a four-of-seven game series for the Shaughnessy title.

Right Address, But Wrong City

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—"Battalion Chief Eleven," drowned the fire department dispatcher over the short wave radio. "Fire reported at 2620 Lake View Terrace."

Battalion Chief Eleven returned the call a few minutes later.

"There's no such address," he said angrily.

"You mean to tell me I don't know my Los Angeles?" the dispatcher snapped back.

There was a pause. The party on the other end chuckled.

"You may know Los Angeles, but this is Cleveland, Ohio."

Sure enough, it was a trick of the atmosphere had tangled up the two fire departments. They operate on the same wavelength.

Sees Squirrel, Shoots Parents

CANTON, O., Sept. 20 (AP)—John Reese, 33-year-old hunter, saw a squirrel move in a dense woods near here yesterday, so he shot at it.

What Reese hit, said Deputy Sheriff Nick Maxin, was his parents.

Maxin said the squirrel already was dead and was dangling from the hand of Reese's mother, Hazel, 57. Her husband, Homer, was sitting next to her on a stump.

Attendants at Mercy Hospital here said Mrs. Reese was wounded in the hip and abdomen and in serious condition. The elder Reese was struck in the hip.

Barkley Flays Foes Of Administration

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20 (AP)—Vice President Barkley made a vigorous attack last night on critics who accuse the administration of developing a welfare state.

After completing his prepared address to the western states democratic conference, the vice president pounded the table and declared:

"It is charged we are on the last mile toward a welfare state, we might in all propriety ask who started us on the first mile."

He said he would like to ask critics to look at all the accomplishments of his party, and then see if they would want to repeal the social legislation and the remainder of the program.

In his prepared speech, Barkley said it is difficult in these complex days to separate our domestic and international concerns.

Fishermen Thankful This One Got Away

FERRIS (AP)—Two professional fishermen here have a new angle on the story of the fish that got away. This time, so they say, it was a whale and it nearly took them with it.

According to their story, the two men, J. Harrison and C. Oden were fishing in their 16-foot boat about 10 miles off the coast. Suddenly three large whales surfaced about 15 feet away. One, a 45-ft. humpback whale, dove under their boat. The fishing lines caught in its flippers.

The whale surfaced again and made a left turn, dragging the boat on a crazy course after it.

After about 50 yards, it broke free taking the fishing lines with it.

For Better Life in Texas

Highways and By-ways..

Famed for superb highways, Texas is also striding forward in the development of its by-ways—the farm-to-market road system which contributes so much to the comfort and convenience of all of its citizens.

By investing in Texas county and district road bonds during the past forty six years, Southwestern Life Insurance Company, exclusively a Texas institution, has had a substantial part in aiding this State's road-building program.

Such investments not only assure continuing security and protection to owners of Southwestern Life policies, but also work for all Texans as capital in the development of one of the State's highly essential resources—its highway network.

MYTHICAL LASS IS COMPOSITE

Cinderella Of Movie Cartoon Owes Looks To Many Artists

HOLLYWOOD—What does the most famous girl in all legend look like?

This was Walt Disney's first problem when the cartoon wizard decided to film "the story of Cinderella."

"Should the storied slaves of the hearth be blond or brunette, slender or plump, sexy or prim?" Casting a cartoon is infinitely tougher than casting human actors. Cinderella's photograph isn't listed in the casting directory. She exists only in the imagination of men.

So the Disney brain trust, Walt, his story men, two artists and directors, began thinking, talking even dreaming about Cinderella. She had to be cast with caution, for the mythical lass is a world figure, and Disney shoots for the world market.

Walt's researchers learned that versions of the Cinderella legend are part of the folk lore of almost every land, except America. The European nations, Egypt, India, even oriental countries, have their Cinderellas.

The myth of the simple girl whose goodness is rewarded by marriage to a prince may have been the first "boy meets girl" theme. As fundamental as Adam and Eve, it has been twisted into fables for countless plays, operas, soap operas, movies and song lyrics.

Here a how Disney found his Cinderella.

His artists submitted more than 50 conceptions of the Cinderella sweeper. The brain trust analyzed each, mulling possible faces, figures, hair styles, costumes, complexion, they even worried about the size of her feet.

They psychoanalyzed her. The eggs to riches girl had to be more than a mere looking picture. They created a temperamental mannerisms and plotted a code of behavior for her.

The final Cinderella was a composite of the best features of many drawings and ideas.

But Cindy still was not cast—she had yet to be "bred off."

Tearing off as the process of breathing life into a cartoon character it is done by drawing it in an angel repose, joy and tears.

The tee artist gives the picture a personality. His sketches are the models which animators—men who draw the pictures you see on the screen—use as guides.

Casting a tee off artist is often more touchy than casting a cartoon's star.

Artists fingers are our actors. says Hal Adelquist, head of Disney's story department. "And like actors, not all artists are versatile."

"Some can paint rabbits but not deer. Some can draw a beautiful woman but can't get men right. Others who specialize in comedy characters fall flat on straight subjects. They have to feel the character they draw."

"On this project one artist was miscast. By the time we discovered it, we had lost thousands of dollars in time and misspent energy."

Cinderella was successfully teed off. And what kind of a girl did she turn out to be?

The athletic type—tall, slender, Junoesque. Her hair is a rich brown, her eyes blue-violet. Her skin is vividly colored.

"We didn't want to make her a 'sweater girl,'" one Disney man said, "but her curves are obvious and correctly placed."

"Sound like the ideal American girl?" She is, despite her foreign extraction. Disney felt that making Cinderella purely American was appropriate, inasmuch as Americans are a patpourri of races.

Cinderella is attractive, but her looks are not dazzling, as story man Adelquist explains it.

"We want her to appeal to all women. Thus she can be neither too beautiful nor too homely. We want her to be a universal type, so any woman looking in a mirror will see something of Cinderella in herself."

Radio Singer Irene Woods, 23, and a mother, speaks Cinderella's lines and warbles her six songs. To assist the animators, the brain trust ordered the complete story filmed, using a live actress. Her actions were studied, but not copied. The cartoonists improved upon the model, who was heavier than the pen and ink Cindy. The screen Cinderella was made willowy and ideally graceful.

The brain trust thought the legendary ash sweeper was too docile—so they made her gay.
