

Today it's "do or die" for Bovina boosters who want to pave their streets. They're voting on a $30,000 bond election which will be a co-op deal between the city and property owners — with the owners footing most of the bill.

This will come too late to do any good, but we certainly wish Bovina well in their effort to get paving. Texico-Farwell, Friona, Muleshoe, Dimmitt, and other small cities on the Plains all agree that it's the first step — outside of a sewer system, which is a downright necessity — to becoming a "city" instead of just a town.

Maybe we should be mad about it, but actually, it's sort of a joke in the Graham family about how everybody throws out their garbage whenever we pass them.

What we're talking about is that we always seem to pull up behind a car in readiness to pass just about the time that Junior, who's riding in the back seat of the car ahead, decides to let fly with a sucked-out orange, old apple core, or empty popcorn box.

We have had a dozen or so empty soft drink cups bounced off our windshield in the 70-odd thousand miles we've put on the family station wagon, not to mention all the other sacks, ice cream sticks, and miscellaneous traveling garbage that passes out the window of most cars.

Once, we were riding along at a good clip when somebody in the car ahead turned loose a banana peel. It hit our radio aerial with a "whunk" and hung there, near the top, for about 50 miles.

As we slowed down to enter a town, the wind pressure diminished, and the peel, which was spraddle-legged, began a slow descent down the antenna. It hung on one of the joints about two feet up, and we drove through a small town (it was named Hampton, or something like that) with our colors gaily fluttering in the breeze.

We bet that we're the only motorist who has ever passed through that town with a banana peel at half mast.

The papers say, and we don't doubt them, that the big drought downstate is ended for sure. They don't mean, of course, that there's going to be plenty of water from now on, but they do mean that the six and seven-year dry spell has been broken.

There've been a few pretty solid little rains right around here, though they've been spotty, we'll admit. We went south down the state line the other day to get a look at what we heard was a gulley-washer.

The country about seven miles south bore all the evidences of a big one, all right, though it wasn't the amount of rain so much as the short time it fell, they tell us.

The lower end of lots of those sandy fields are washed badly, and the ditches are cut and there's sand on the highway, showing where big run-offs caused considerable erosion. Bert Williams says the roads down there "ran like rivers" and that's the first time that's happened in years, he adds.

Ye gods, not again. Mountain States Telephone says we'll have to do some more dialing come September 1, when they'll institute a new system of numbering whereby we'll not only have a central office number (like the "8" before every number now), but a prefix as well.

This will put us right up to date with such places as Amarillo, Lubbock, and Lazbuddie, to whom memorizing prefixes has become old hat. Clovis' prefix will be POrter, Texico's HUDson, and Farwell's IVanhoe.

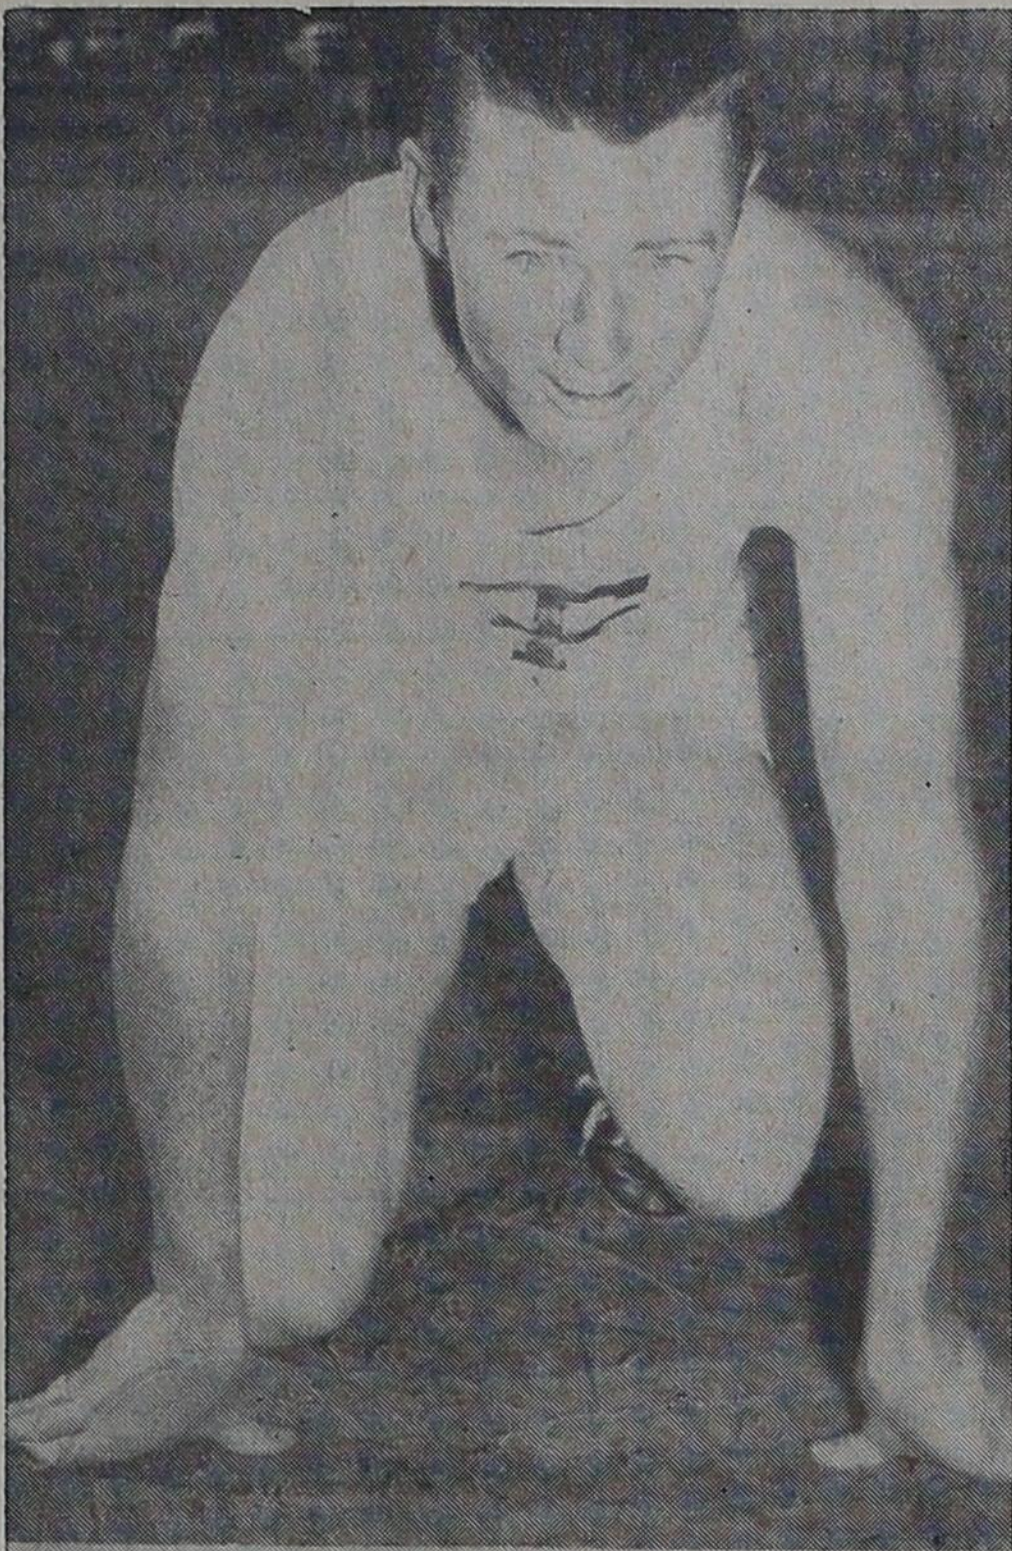

At Oklahoma Lane the prefix will be VALley, and central office numbers for Texico, Farwell, and Oklahoma Lane will then become 2, 6, and 5, respectively instead of 8 and 7 as they are now.

In other words, The Tribune's number on September 1 will become IVanhoe 6-6881. It will be, that is, unless the phone company changes the whole number, and they hint in a notice sent all subscribers that some of this complete changing will take place.

The stacking of numbers and more numbers reminds us of the little boy who visited his grandparents' farm way down in East Texas where the dial system hadn't yet been introduced. When he returned home, he commented to his parents that granddaddy and grandma still drew water from a well and burned coal oil lanterns for light, but, "Boy, do they have a modern telephone system."

"All you have to do is just pick up the phone, tell them who you want, and the telephone company does the rest!"

Mr. Businessman, your weekly newspaper is read leisurely at home by your prospects, not on the run. Put it to work for you.

OFF TO STATE MEET — Raymond Hadley, sophomore speedster from Texico, is the lone Twin City athlete to qualify for a state track meet. Here, he's shown in his starting position for the 100-yard dash, the event he qualified in. Hadley and Coach Chas. Stockton will be in Albuquerque this Friday and Saturday for the meet.

Spanish Course and Cemetery Are Topics At Chamber Meet

A conversational Spanish course and the possibility of getting something done about a cemetery for Farwell were the leading topics of discussion at a meeting of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

Also, the group voted to give $25 to help send local Boys' and Girls' State representatives to meetings this summer, and decided to send delegates to a mosquito control meeting at Friona on May 13 and the Highway 60 Association meeting today (Thursday) at Amarillo.

Wilfred Quickel, Chamber secretary, reported at the meeting that he had contacted various instructors for the Spanish course and said that one could be hired to teach such a course in Farwell.

The secretary is to get in touch with the instructor in the next few days and it is hoped that a course can be started here in the future. It is not known exactly what the cost will be and what nights it will meet, but this will be decided when Quickel speaks with the instructor.

Joe Blair, Chamber president, reported that Nickels' Gin was interested in the course and may help to defray expenses or assist with it in some other way.

More complete plans will be announced later, but anyone wishing to take the course is asked to contact Quickel. Quite likely, a tuition will be charged.

In regard to the cemetery, it was decided to have the civic improvement committee look into the project and possibly get the ball to rolling.

Over a year ago, the project was started and a developer from Portales consented to make necessary improvements on a plot of ground to make it a permanent cemetery. The developing would be done for half of the proceeds from the sale of lots.

At the time this was discussed with the Portales man, there was no property available and the cemetery committee last year was to work on obtaining a site. The committee later reported that the necessary land could be obtained at the old cemetery location, but since then nothing has been done on the project.

It was brought out at the meeting that the Chamber could do the

City Commission Meets Tomorrow

The first regular meeting of Farwell's new city commissioners will be tomorrow at 5:15 p.m. in the City Hall. Main item up for discussion will be the construction of the city's new fire station.

Other business will be routine and the meeting is open to any townspeople who would like to attend.

The newly-elected commissioners are Sam Aldridge, mayor; and L. E. McKillip and Smokey Gast.

class. Commencement exercises will be May 14.

Carolyn has attended school at Texico for 12 years and has received numerous honors. She has served on the annual and paper staff for three years and has been editor of "The Wolverine's Tale" for two years. Winning state journalism honors for three consecutive years is another of her accomplishments.

In the business education field, Carolyn has won state medals in typing, shorthand and bookkeeping and is a member of the state "400" club, the highest honor a business education student can receive in New Mexico.

Being in the FHA Club four years, one of which she was president, assisted her in winning the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award in the Texico School. In addition to FHA Club, she is a member of the Pep Club, Press Club, Business Education Club and has lettered in softball, basketball and volleyball for three years.

Changes Planned For Local Businesses

The business district of Farwell will undergo some radical changes this month, announcements this week indicate.

Clay Henson of Farwell Hardware has purchased the building now owned and occupied by Hard-age Motor Company on Highway 70-84. He will move his hardware business into that building.

To occupy the vacancy left by Henson will be K. D. Stone and Leroy Williams, who are opening an auto service business. That is in the Ed Muckleroy building next door to State Line Grocery.

Walter Hardage said this week that he will continue to do business as Hardage Motor Company and will sell cars from a lot he owns across the street from the business he is vacating.

"At least for now, we'll keep our DeSoto-Plymouth franchise," he said. With him will be two salesmen, Floyd Milstead and Jim Miller. "We have made a deal with Stoney and Leroy to service our cars," said Hardage. "I'm just trying to get out from under some of the headaches of being responsible for too much."

Hardage is also associated with Clyde Magness in a real estate business, and he says he will continue to sell real estate and cars.

Also in on the trade between the Hardages and Hensons was the Henson residence in southern Farwell. The Hardages will soon move into it.

Lions Breakfasts Start Next Week

The annual Texico-Farwell Lions Club breakfasts are to begin next Sunday, May 12, at the Farwell cafeteria. The second one is set for the following Sunday and a third one may be set at a later date.

The breakfasts are being staged to raise funds for the coming summer youth program for the Twin Cities. It is pointed out that more money is needed this year to operate the program in the same capacity as last year.

The meals will be served from 7-9 a.m. each Sunday morning and tickets may now be purchased from any member of the Lions Club. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children under 12.

When someone's lame, someone's to blame—if you fail to wipe up spilled liquids or pick up objects from the floor.

Hadley Qualifies For State Meet

Raymond Hadley, sophomore dash man, was the lone member of the Texico track team to qualify for the state track meet this weekend at Albuquerque. He and his coach, Chas. Stockton, were scheduled to leave today (Thursday) for the meet.

Hadley qualified in the 100-yard dash at the District 6-B meet Saturday at Ft. Sumner. He sprinted the race in under 10:4, which was the qualifying time. In the finals of the race he came in third behind Jerry Widener of Melrose and Bob Smartt of Ft. Sumner in what was almost a dead heat.

While the young Texico speedster will compete only in the one race at Albuquerque, he placed in several others at the district. He finished third in the 220-yard dash, fourth in the 180-yard low hurdles and fifth in the shot put, to give him a total of nine points. Only first and second place winners were eligible for state participation in most of the events.

Ft. Sumner was off with the district affair, coping 13 of 17 first places and rolling up 153½ points. They were far ahead of second place Melrose with 56½. The other team point totals were Tatum 39½, Texico 12, Floyd 10½ and Grady 5. Dora, the other entry, failed to score.

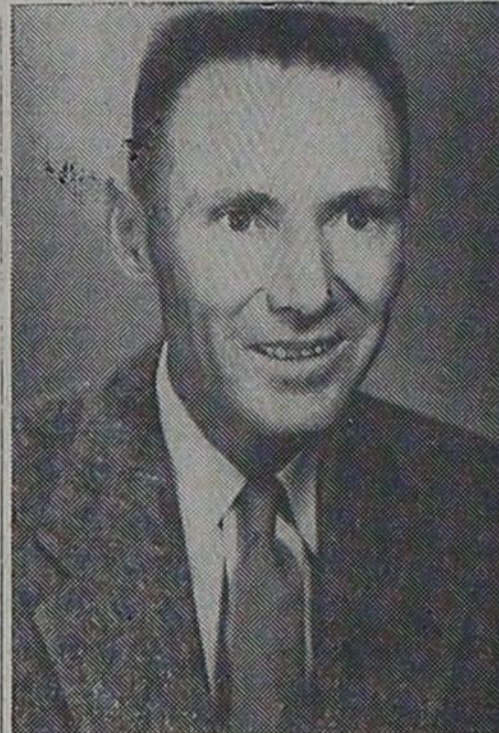

Three other Texico lads also placed in several of the events. Joe Glaze came in fifth in the 120-yard high hurdles, Jerry Reid was fifth in the mile, and Alex Brown finished fifth in the discus.

Hadley and Stockton will be in Albuquerque tomorrow and Saturday, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Jess Latham To Reopen Cover Shop

Reopening of the Cover Shop in Farwell is scheduled for the near future, reports Jess Latham, who will operate the business. Latham was the former operator of the business when it was open here before and recently he has been employed by the Furniture Mart.

The shop will be opened in a new location, the Muckleroy building, west of the State Line Grocery. Latham will offer upholstery service as well as television repair when the business opens.

Stockton Vacates Coaching Position

Charles "Son" Stockton, who has been senior boys athletic coach at Texico Schools for the past eight years, has vacated his position, effective at the close of this year. Stockton has coached the Wolverines in softball, basketball and track since coming to Texico in 1949.

Even though he is giving up coaching at the local school, Stockton will remain on the faculty, teaching biology and history next year. A reason given for leaving the coaching profession was, "I think I have been in the coaching game long enough and would be in better health if I gave it up."

"I might find that I can't give it up in the next year or so, but at present I don't believe I will go back to coaching," Stockton says. Other than teaching next year, Stockton says he may officiate some ball games in the area.

Also, he says, "I will be able to go and see basketball games when I want and enjoy them. I won't be under the constant mental strain as has been the case in past seasons."

Relieving Stockton at his coaching position next year will be Paul Frederick, says Supt. Agrie Jones. Frederick is presently high school principal and high school girls coach. He will continue his duties in these two capacities as well as take over the reins of the Wolverines.

Stockton has been coaching in Curry County for the past 16 years. Following his graduation from Continued rain in the Texico-Farwell area this past week boosted wheat prospects and made the outlook better for other crops as planting gets underway. Rainfall in the Twin Cities Saturday afternoon totaled about a half inch but as much as 1½ inches were reported at other points in the area.

The weekend rain brought the total moisture for the year in this immediate area to about 3½ inches. However, the total in Texico-Farwell appears to be lighter than other Farmer County and eastern Curry County points. Other places have probably measured four inches and up.

The rain which has fallen in this area is nothing to compare with the amounts downstate, but it has raised farmers' hopes considerably.

The rain at Lariat and West Camp Saturday afternoon was accompanied by hail, but there has been no serious damage reported. Chas. Felts at Lariat says there was a lot of it out there, but the hail stones were small and not much damage was believed to have been done.

At West Camp, Mrs. W. W. Couch says the hail was two inches deep in their yard for a while and several apricot and peach trees were damaged. All the leaves were knocked off and none of the trees are now expected to bear fruit, she says.

All in all, though, the hail did not do too much damage and in most places in the county, rain was all there was. An area-wide map elsewhere in the paper shows the rainfall at other points. Some of the places received rain on Saturday afternoon and others on Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

Band Students To Present Recital

Members of the beginner and junior bands of the Farwell music department will present a solo recital at the school auditorium on Friday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Erma Jobs, who directs the bands, says that the recital is on a voluntary basis and that the only participants are students who really wanted to play.

Juniors of the group will be presenting the solos which they will give at the junior band contests to be held in Plainview on Saturday, May 11. There will be no admission to the recital and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Those planning to participate in the recital include Larry Don, son, Jim Morton, Steve Foster, Peggy Martin, Bruce Billingsley, Mikala Austin, Linda Langston, Dale Gober, Mary Coffey, Sandra Rundell, Steven Hillock, Jerry Chiles, Danny Huffaker.

And, Dorris Donaldson, Ray Donaldson, Jane Hubbell, Monte Leslie, Leon Lovelace, Barry McCuan, Linda Nelson, Murrell Smith, and Sylvia Smith.

Optometrist To Practice Here

P. K. Palmer, optometrist from Lubbock, is scheduled to open an office in Farwell within the next week or 10 days. Conversion of the front portion of the Felix Monroe building, across the street from Piggly Wiggly, into an office is underway this week.

Monroe says it should be completed shortly and the optometrist is scheduled to be here sometime this week to make plans for moving in furniture.

It is not known just what the doctor's plans are for the local office. No announcement has been made concerning the days and hours the office will be open.

Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. Kate Phillips is reported to be getting along "all right" this week after undergoing surgery at Clovis Memorial Hospital on Friday of last week. Family members reported they do not know when Mrs. Phillips will be able to return home.

WIN TOP PRIZES — Winning three first places out of a possible six at the New Mexico State ESA convention in Artesia last weekend was the Texico-Farwell ESA Sorority. Displaying their books, which copied the honors, are Sylvia Watkins, president; Jeanne Graham, secretary; and Irene Dyer, treasurer.

ESA Wins Three First Places

Members of Theta Rho chapter of ESA came back from state convention in Artesia, with three first place awards in contests for the past club year.

The awards were presented at a brunch Sunday morning, after all entries had been displayed and judged on the previous day. Winning first place was the president's book submitted by Sylvia Watkins; the recording secretary's book submitted by Jeanne Graham; and the treasurer's book submitted by Irene Dyer, with the cover designed by Mrs. Watkins.

Theta Rho also had entries in the scrapbook and display contests, which were won by the local chapter last year. Albuquerque received the award on the top display and Hobbs won the top honors for their scrapbook.

Attending the convention from the local chapter were Mesdames Watkins, Graham, Don Williams, Mitz Walling, Joe Helton and Bert Williams. Arriving on Saturday to be guests at a portion of the social functions were the husbands of all the local members, with the exception of W. H. Graham Jr. Also spending the weekend in the convention city with their parents were Mike and David Watkins. Mrs. Joe Helton was named as head of the ways and means committee for the state of New Mexico when appointments were read by the new president Sunday morning.

Highlights of the convention other than the awards breakfast included election and installation of new state officers and workshops and reports on the work of ESA throughout the state. Special guests included E. Robert Palmer of Loveland, Colo., founder of the organization; and Eugenia Sapp of Fort Worth, Texas who is a member of the international board.

Carlsbad was selected as the convention city for 1958.

Would Merger Be Possible?

With Farwell working to get a fire department of its own, the time is nearing when the Twin Cities will have separate fire stations. If plans go according to what has been previously worked out, there will be two separate departments except for possibly the volunteer firemen.

Both departments will have someone on duty at all times to answer calls. It will mean an expense on both sides of the line, paying someone to be present every day around the clock. At first thought this sounds like the only logical thing to do, but looking at it in a more economical way, something else might work.

What about Texico and Farwell joining together and hiring only one family to be on hand to answer calls? Since the dial telephone system joins the two towns in this respect, could there be just one central office to take the calls and sound the alarms on both sides of the line?

We don't know whether or not the two departments will answer calls together, but this seems like the thing to do. We are certain that they will work together, especially on any major fire, and maybe even on the smaller ones.

Since the tenants at the present station in Texico have nothing to do with operating the truck, it doesn't seem that it would slow down the answering of a call. As for notifying the firemen where the fire was when they arrived at the station, could an inter-com system be installed?

At the present time, Farwell's city commissioners are confronted with trying to build a fire station and living quarters without adequate funds.

Sooner or later, we are sure that a complete station can be built for Farwell. But, it looks as though it might be a while before it can be done. Since Farwell already has its truck, fire whistle, and other equipment, it seems a shame that it has to be left in storage, especially when money for a complete station and equipment was voted in bonds way last summer.

Not only would such a set-up enable Farwell to go ahead and build a station without living quarters immediately, but it would also assist the town of Texico. The expense of having one see after the telephone calls would be cut in half with Farwell's help.

We know that there are some people in both towns who would rather see their community completely independent of the one on the opposite side of the tracks. Why, we don't know, but that seems to be the case. However, the volunteer firemen who have been operating the lone department on the New Mexico side of the line, don't feel that way about it. And, as we understand it, they would like to remain as one organization after the Farwell station is built.

The above plan is offered as a suggestion. It might be something to think about.

jottin's from jeanne

We've been wanting this recipe for quite awhile and here it is. We think it will be a "conversation piece" for the cooks who try it. We asked Avis Carpenter to send the recipe to us quite some time ago. She says it has a nutty flavor and is so simple to make. "Why, you can stir up this pie as quickly as cornbread," she remarks.

SALTY CRACKER PIE

3 egg whites
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup pecans, finely chopped
 1/2 tsp. baking powder
 1 tsp. vanilla
 12 soda crackers

Beat egg whites. While whites are beating in mixer, crush crackers, very fine. After egg whites are stiff, add sugar gradually to mixture, then beat in baking powder and vanilla. Last, fold in nuts and cracker crumbs. Pour mixture into well-greased 9-inch pie plate and bake at 350 degrees.

Avis says it is very important that the plate be well-greased. The finished pie is a light brown.

After pie is cooked, cover with whipped cream and let set one hour before serving.

Avis says recipe is amazing; while baking, both top and bottom pie crusts are formed.

Ella Ruth Williams says that the first time the fire whistle in Farwell blew, it really caused a turmoil in their household. The whistle is right across the street from the Williams home.

It was such a frightening sound and so near that the cat went under the bed, and it was quite a while before they could coax the poor creature back into other parts of the house.

Discussing woman's work over coffee with The Tribune gals, we got some pretty good answers when we asked the group what tasks around the home would be most enjoyable.

Our newest bride on the force, June Magness, informed us her favorite task was "going out to eat." Then she seriously admitted that she isn't just "thrilled" over any of the regular household chores.

Joann Getz listed sewing as her first love and housecleaning second. She says it isn't the actual cleaning that is so much fun, it's the pleasure derived when she finishes the job and can feast her eyes on a dustless domain.

Audrey Terrell mentioned her love for cooking, and somewhere in the conversation mentioned gardening, which she seems to be pretty adept at.

But when it got down to us, we couldn't pin ourselves down on what we like best. We love to cook when we have lots of time, and very few interruptions. With children, that rarely happens. We thoroughly enjoy doing fancy cakes, cookies and all, like the one we did for Ronny on his birthday to resemble a truck. But even that is spasmodic. We wouldn't want to do one every day.

We love our children, but we can't say we actually enjoy the day-to-day jobs of wiping gravy off their little faces, and sweeping

We don't mind washing since an automatic washer almost does the job for us, and ironing is the job we'll put off if we can.

But we love being a housewife instead of a housewife and newspaper wife. So putting all the jobs together, we must like them as a whole.

Two Judging Teams Place in Area Meet

Two Farwell FFA judging teams which participated in the area meeting at Lubbock last Saturday placed in the contests, says Robert "Prof" Morton, agriculture instructor at Farwell Schools.

The local meat judging team won fifth in the area, one place short of qualifying for the state meet, which is scheduled in Austin this weekend. The land judging trio won sixth in the area and placed 10th in the overall meet, which was composed of two areas and part of another.

Morton points out that 1,600 boys from 150 schools in the three areas all competed, and were ranked in the entire meet first. Following the meet, the different areas determined their winners and the ones qualifying for the state.

Making up the Farwell land

judging team were Roland Hillock, John McCuan, and Delvin Langford. Judging meats were Billy Smith, Jerry Turner and Gerald Christian. Jimmy Hardage was alternate for the meats team.

The local chapter also had entries in three other contests. The teams and the boys who participated are:

Dairy products judging—David Berggren, Jerry Vestal and Eddie Collins. Dairy cattle—Joe Hughes, Barthel Ford, and Morris Reed. Poultry—Jimmy Martin, James Burleson, and Don Hendrickson.

Rev. C. C. Morgan, Pastor

Sunday school attendance on April 28 was 178. Eighty-six persons were present for training union. Nathan "Butch" Tharp, son of the Ray Tharps, preached his first sermon at the church on Sunday evening. He surrendered to preach several months ago and filled the pulpit Sunday night in the absence of Rev. Morgan who was preaching at Melrose.

Rev. Morgan preached at the Melrose church both Sunday morning and Sunday evening in the absence of their pastor, Rev. Vance Zinn.

Good crowds were on hand for both worship services Sunday.

Members of the WMU met at the church for a business session last Wednesday. Routine business was attended to and reports from various chairmen were given. Also discussed were counselors for the G. A. and R. A. groups and the possibility of having business meetings in the homes of members. The next business meet is to be at the home of Mrs. Ed Henry.

Present last Wednesday were Messdames B. A. Kelley, Nora Day, M. H. Poteet, Ed Henry, D. J. Brown, C. C. Morgan and J. O. Ford.

Mrs. Day led the mission study on prayer at this week's meeting of the WMU.

A tape recording was made of the Sunday morning services to be sent to the Morgan's son, Airman First Class Charles Morgan, who is serving with the Air Force at Laon Air Force Base, Loan, France. Several recordings of the worship services of the church have been sent to him, and he reports that all the men in his company really enjoy playing the recordings.

An associational Brotherhood rally is to be held at Ranchvale later this week.

Sunday school classes meeting this week were the Ruth class which met Tuesday night and the Companion class which meets tonight (Thursday).

Golden Circle class of the church will meet in regular session on Monday evening, May 6.

How Valuable Is Local Paper Advertising?

Here's what the American Bankers Magazine, a publication which represents a traditionally hard-headed profession, has to say:

"No businessman or businesswoman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town—it's the best possible town advertiser.

"The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

It's consistent advertising that counts. Try your home-town newspaper FIRST.

Mr. Businessman, did you know that advertising in newspapers reaches your prospect's homes and also reaches your prospect's eyes?

Don't forget that every reader of this newspaper has paid to have your advertising message brought into his home.

BUT IS IT FAIR

The business man who doesn't advertise reminds us a bit of the batter who gets a walk. He arrives at first base safely enough, but from then on he is dependent on the hitting of the others.

Best Repellent Yet For Ticks, Mosquitoes

The latest thing in all-purpose insect repellents is diethyl toluamide. Test repellents containing this chemical display twice as much resistance to normal "wear-off action" as do other types. It will probably be available in several commercial products this spring.

The new repellent can be safely applied to the skin or clothing and will successfully protect the wearer against mosquitoes, chiggers, ticks, fleas, and biting flies, according to the USDA. It offers better protection against mosquitoes generally than any other single chemical or combination of chemicals.

Its high resistance to rubbing means longer-lasting protection for farmers and all outdoorsmen. The new repellent out performs all others against the stable fly and is as good as any other for deer flies or sand flies. It is the best repellent so far developed for ticks. In addition, a pleasant lotion "feel" makes it ideal for picnickers and backyard gardeners.

Clothing and other fabrics can be readily treated with diethyl toluamide by saturating them with emulsions or dry-cleaning preparations containing the chemical.

Carry only as much as you can see over. When you block your vision you might as well be blindfolded. If the load's too big, make two trips.

Spring Football Under Way for Junior High Boys

Spring football is in full swing at Farwell this week as the junior gridmen are working out under Coach Shelby Jobses and Jerry Dee Owens. Jerry, who hopes to play college football and be a coach, is doing a fine job as assistant, says Jobses.

More than 20 boys are participating and the coach says that his boys are coming along fine in their fundamentals. "They are hitting good, the blocking and tackling is improving, and our backs are beginning to run and have some drive."

"I believe we will be able to throw a lot next fall," the coach remarks. "Jerry Lovelace is coming around good as a quarterback and passer and we have some good receivers."

The Farwell coach is stressing the split T offense with flankers and peels. The defense looks good if we can develop our defensive ends, he says.

Workouts for the juniors got underway April 7 and the team will probably close out training around May 15.

After graduation, they go to different places, and as they scatter to other towns, they want to keep in touch with their friends. So stationary makes a lovely gift. We remember how thrilled we were when we received this gift for graduation.

Speaking of swimming pools, Earth is in the middle of a fundraising drive too. We note that the people there are trying to raise $25,000. One reminder they are using is that donations are income tax exempt.

The only other first round game in the senior division saw House defeating Ranchvale 28-14. Rosedale, the other tourney entry, drew a bye.

In the junior high first round games, Melrose defeated Grady 43-10, House won over Ranchvale 32-18, Rosedale topped Center 36-24 and Field rolled past Texico 33-17. In the semi-finals House eked by Melrose 27-26 and Field won over Rosedale 25-21.

The tournament closed out the volleyball season for the Whirlwinds, who compiled a 6-2 record for the season, under the guidance of Coach Paul Frederick.

Ball-playing days were also ended for five Texico lasses. Seniors who bowed out with the final game are Carolyn Curd, Mikala Faville, Barbara Sapp, Susan Levins, and Joyce Gillean.

She has been a majorette in the school band for six years and was elected Band Sweetheart when she was a sophomore. Her biggest highlight came when she appeared on the Ted Mack Television Show in New York City.

Her other honors include most beautiful, class favorite, and most popular. Representing Texico, Susan attended Girl's State last year, and she too, has been named as "Who's Who" for three years.

Susan is a member of the band,

Pep Club, FHA Club, Press Club and the student council. She has lettered in basketball, volleyball and softball for three years.

Winning an award for excellency in dramatics at the Speech Festival at ENMU this spring is the most recent of Susan's awards. She plans to attend Eastern New Mexico University next year majoring in drama and minoring in music.

Stockton Resigns As Texico Coach

Highlands University in 1939, he started his coaching career at Hollene. He spent one year there and went to Rosedale when Hollene and Bellview schools consolidated, where he stayed for three years. Later he went to Grady and coached there for four years before coming to Texico.

The Texico coach has long been a resident of eastern New Mexico, having attended high school at Forrest. He played basketball at Forrest and was on the state champion team two years. When Stockton was playing basketball at Forrest, there was no class division in New Mexico athletics and his team competed against the larger ones in the state for the Class A crowns.

Steers Drop Game To Friona Chiefs

The Farwell Steers dropped their first district game of the young campaign to the Friona Chiefs Tuesday at Friona. A four-run outburst by the Chiefs in the fourth inning overcame a 1-0 Farwell lead and gave the home team the 6-2 win.

The Steers scored one run in the first inning and held on to the lead until the Chiefs connected for three hits, aided by one Farwell error, to score the four markers. The Chiefs added two insurance runs in the bottom of the sixth and the game was in the bag. Charles Hough was the winning pitcher for Friona but had to have relief in the fifth when Farwell scored one run and had two runners on base. The Steers collected only six hits off the two Friona hurlers.

Donnie Carpenter went the distance on the mound for Farwell and gave up seven hits. "Carpenter pitched a good game, but our boys just couldn't bunch any hits," said Farwell coach, Calvin Murray, after the game.

Following the Chiefs' win over the Steers the district race looks like a close one down to the wire. Not including the Springlake-Morton game Tuesday, the standings are Friona 2-1, Farwell 1-1, Morton 1-1, and Springlake 1-2. However, should Morton have won over Springlake Tuesday they will be tied with Friona for the lead.

The Steers continue district play tomorrow (Friday) when they go to Springlake for a game and next Tuesday they will go to Morton before playing Friona here next Friday in a makeup game.

PERMITS ISSUED

Two building permits were issued in the City of Farwell during the past week. One went to Johnny McDonald, for the purpose of building a concrete drive and carport on lots 25, 26, and 27, block 30. The second was issued to Lee Meeks, for making an addition to his house on lots 1 through 4, block 18.

Anita Moss Elected To District Office

Anita Moss, of the Texico High School Student Council, was elected district secretary at a recent meeting of the district student councils at Tucumcari. Anita will serve as secretary for the coming school year.

Jerry Henson ran for district president but was defeated by Rex Worrell, Clovis. Other officers elected were John Dickinson, Tucumcari, vice-president; and Judy Stratton, treasurer.

Theme of the meeting was "safety" and a state patrolman from Tucumcari gave a talk to the students on forming safety clubs at their schools.

Next district meeting is to be at Texico sometime next fall.

Rootworms, Maggots, Wireworms Stopped By Seed Treatment

"Good control of corn rootworms, wireworms, and seed corn maggots can be obtained with Dieldrin, Lindane, or Heptachlor used as a seed treatment," County Agent Joe Jones suggests, as planting activity rises on area farms.

"Control of these soil insects is very important in getting up and keeping good stands," he says. "The old wireworm seems to be the one in this area that gives the trouble, and farmers are reminded to treat their seed for insurance against losing stands."

The cost of hybrid seed makes this even more important. Every year many farmers are forced to either replant or settle for poor stands which is unnecessary when proper seed treatment is carried out. Use 1 oz. actual Dieldrin or Lindane to 100 pounds corn seed or Heptachlor at the rate of 1 to 1 1/2 ozs. actual Heptachlor per 100 pounds of seed corn, advises the agent.

Use 2 ozs. of actual Dieldrin or Lindane per 100 pounds grain sorghum, wheat, rye, barley, or oat seed. Use Heptachlor at the rate of 2 to 3 ozs. actual Heptachlor per 100 pounds of grain sorghum, wheat, rye, barley, or oats.

Dieldrin, Lindane, or Heptachlor may be applied to seed whether or not they were treated previously or will be treated with a fungicide. Avoid over dosage of insecticide and always distribute well so each seed will be coated. Any method that will properly distribute insecticide can be used. Use concrete mixers, homemade barrel mixers or have seed treated commercially by people in that business.

When the seed are treated in a concrete mixer or homemade barrel-type mixer, sprinkle 1 pint of water on each 100 pounds of seed and mix to coat the seed with moisture. Then add the correct amount of insecticide to the seed and mix thoroughly.

CAUTION: Seed treated with insecticides must not be used for food feed purposes. All recommendations are given in actual amounts: For example, 2 ozs. of 50 percent Dieldrin contains 1 oz. actual Dieldrin. For further information, go by and see your county agent.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

An interesting fact was called to our attention the other day about the effect organic matter has on soil temperature. Two temperature checks were made side by side.

One was on land which had had cotton burrs applied, the other without. The soil temperature where burrs and anhydrous ammonia were applied was 8 degrees F. higher. We also know that in soils with high organic matter there is an insulating effect in summer and soils are cooler, thus have less evaporation. Organic matter also improves the infiltration rate of the soil.

Conserve your organic matter.

A. L. Black, chairman of the Parmer County SCD board of supervisors, and several Friona merchants interested in the promotion of the district and its objectives, including J. G. McFarland, Steve Bavousett, and Bill Nichols, attended a meeting in Dumas sponsored by the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts. A. L. tells us that they had an interesting meeting and enjoyed the trip.

The SCD office has some more help in measuring pipelines this month. John Burket, SCS aide from Canyon, is helping us two days a week.

The district has two cooperators putting in bench leveling. W. P. McMimm is in the process of putting in seven more acres. When this is completed, he will have about 17 acres total. Also Thomas Lewellen is putting in about eight acres.

New cooperators with the district are: Thomas Lewellen, Gerald Gungman, Glenn Floyd, and Glen Stevick.

THE H. D. AGENT'S CORNER

Jimmie Lou Wainscott

Expecting the youngsters to help with work around the house this summer? If so, it will pay to give attention and patience to raising them in jobs they are to do, reminds Mrs. Eloise Johnson, extension family life specialist.

Children are often confused because adults are not consistent in teaching them to do things; not clear in the direction given. Children need to know why certain things should be done or why certain ways of doing things are better than others.

Patience pays — you might try his pattern to train children and others in doing a job. First, explain to the child exactly what he is to do, and how it is to be done — step by step. Work with him several times, helping as needed. Watch him do it alone, making suggestions as he works. Leave him while he does it.

Finally, it's important to praise him for good work or effort, so that he leaves a job with a feeling of satisfaction.

Garnish for Baked Ham

Golden canned cling peach halves are the perfect garnish for baked ham. Use their syrup to glaze the ham. Combine 1/2 cup peach syrup, 1 cup honey and 1/2 teaspoon each cinnamon and cloves. Simmer 10 minutes. Baste scored ham often with glaze during last half hour's baking.

Avocado and Fresh Fruit Cocktail

Combine diced fresh avocados, fresh strawberry halves and diced apples. Sprinkle with fresh orange juice and serve in cocktail glasses. Makes a good start to any dinner party.

Golden canned cling peach halves, fresh pineapple spears sprinkled with chopped mint leaves, avocado crescents and whole unstemmed strawberries make a colorful fruit arrangement to serve with cottage cheese balls rolled in chopped walnuts. Dip the drained peaches and sliced avocado into fresh lime or lemon juice for extra flavor and to keep the delicate avocado from darkening.

Scrambled eggs and avocado make an interesting brunch. Stir cubed cream cheese and avocado balls into semi-cooked scrambled eggs. Finish cooking and spoon into hollowed toasted "poor boy" French rolls. Garnish with crumbled crisp cooked bacon.

For something different in picnic fare, try beef kabobs. You don't need a recipe. Just cut beef into inch-size chunks and stock an assortment of mushrooms, onions, tomatoes and what-have-you. Spear the ingredients alternately on metal skewers or long green sticks about one-fourth of an inch thick. Broil over hot coals until done. This way, everyone does his own cooking.

THE PARMER FARMER

Activity on all the area farms is heavy. Pre-irrigation, seedbed preparation, and even planting is keeping many a farmer's nose to the grindstone for long hours.

It is surprising to see what a difference there apparently is in the climatic conditions of northern and southern Parmer County. Lots of cotton has already been put to rest in the south, and very little planting of any crop has been done in the north. Thirty miles in a north-and-south direction sure does make the difference, it seems.

We have always felt that one of the prettiest spots in the county has been south from Bovina to the Oklahoma Lane area.

Good, level land, many fine homes, good farmers have turned what was once open prairie into a beautiful sight. That area is especially attractive right now, because as one drives along the road, the rich green wheat and alfalfa fields give color to the brown landscape that usually greets the eye this time of year.

In about ten miles, as one drives south from Running Water Draw, the land changes from heavy, clay-type soil to sandy loam. Somewhere along this road can be found soil to suit almost any farmer.

Heavy grain crops are raised in the northern "hardlands," while the loams to the south seem to be the pick of the cotton country. This diversity, in fact, typifies all of Parmer County. It's just that it's more noticeable in this spot than anywhere else, we feel.

To illustrate the plight that faces some communities of the Southwest in regard to a dependable water supply, let us consider the small city of Post, just off the Plains to the southeast.

The April 25th issue of the Post Dispatch, weekly newspaper in that city, has a lead story headlined, "City Faces Most Serious Water Shortage in History; Drilling Continues."

The wells that supply the city have been depleted. Production has dwindled to less than 800,000 gallons per day from 16 wells (a good 8-inch well will easily pump 1,000,000 gallons per day.)

Post has just finished drilling three wells on a nearby plot of land leased for purposes of water development. Two were dry holes—the other "a 40-gallon-a-minute well," according to the Dispatch.

Of three drilled before that inside the city, two were dry and the other yielded less than 20 gallons per minute. The best well the city owns pumps 100 gallons per minute.

"Even there," says the Dispatch, however, "there is only about two feet of water in the well, and the pump is setting on the bottom."

Asphalt-Coat Sacks Get Thumbs-Down

A drive to knock out one of cotton's worst enemies was announced today by Gilbert Kaltwasser, president of the Parmer County Farm Bureau.

The farm leader urged all persons interested in the welfare of the cotton industry to join in the drive to eliminate the use of asphalt coated picksacks in harvesting cotton.

He said retail stores in the area are being urged not to stock the asphalt coated picksacks. He also asked farmers to let the retailer know their feelings in regard to this type sack.

The asphalt coated sack, he pointed out, is a major source of tar spots in cotton yarn and fabrics. Such fabrics often are downgraded and sell for from 10 to 20 percent less than normal value.

Although no part of this loss shows up on the farmer's invoice when he sells his cotton, he loses just the same. The mill must eventually reflect part of the loss back to the farmer in the price paid for cotton.

The purchase and use of the asphalt coated sack represented only from 5 to 8 percent of the total in 1956 as compared with from 45 to 50 percent the previous year. The Farm Bureau president said the reduction was due to the active efforts of a number of organizations, agencies and their leaders during the spring and summer of 1956. He called for the same cooperation in 1957.

"Well that's too bad," Jake said, "We'll just have to call the whole thing off." After a minute or two David replied, "No we won't, we'll just send John Bill off to college."

Mosquito Meeting May 13

The Parmer County Home Demonstration Council, in its drive for mosquito control in Parmer County this year, has scheduled a meeting for all interested parties to be Monday night, May 13, at the study hall of Friona school at 8 p. m.

Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, home demonstration agent in the county, says that all churches, Lions Clubs, study clubs, chambers of commerce, city commissions and all civic organizations in the county have been notified of the meeting in hopes that all these organizations will be represented at the meet.

Dr. Paul Spring, county health officer, will show a film and give a talk on mosquito control and

34 Wells Drilled During March

Parmer County farmers drilled 34 new irrigation wells during the month of March, records at the High Plains Water Conservation District office in Lubbock reveal this week.

Completing the most wells in the District was Lubbock County, which had 119 installations, Bailey County had 32, Castro 36, and Deaf Smith 19.

Farm observers point out that there is no distinction made in District records between "new" irrigation wells and those which classify as "replacements" for lost or depleted wells.

THAT TIME AGAIN — Cotton farmers have "planting fever," and a lot of the seed is already in the ground. This is a planting scene on the L. W. Routon farm in the Oklahoma Lane community. The hand has stopped his tractor to check how the planting operation is coming along.

troublesome one in the area, and considerable complaints were heard regarding 2-4D's use. The hormone, which sometimes drifted away from its intended resting place to a cotton field, stunted or altered the growth in a damaging manner. Tempers flared and suits were threatened.

The purpose of the law is to control the use of hormone-type herbicides so these unfortunate incidents won't happen. At least, their frequency will be greatly reduced.

Herbicides can't now be legally stored or transported with seed, fertilizer, or other supplies because of the danger of contamination. All spray must be screened with 75-mesh screen.

A cut-off valve must be used between the tank and the outlets. Maximum wind velocity is 10 miles per hour at time of application. Ground equipment outlet pressure is limited to 40 pounds.

Isolation for spraying (including potency of spray) is clearly set forth, and spacing must be maintained.

Records regarding the place where the herbicide was purchased, when and how much was used, and other data must be kept.

The law reads: "Any person violating any provision of the Texas Herbicide Law is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $2,000, or confined to jail not more than 30 days or given both such fine and jail sentence."

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Have you seen the new plastic collanders for use in the home kitchen? They are very attractive and come in several different colors. Each collander has a companion mixing bowl which allows freshly washed foods to drain thoroughly without tying up space at the sink?

Since spring of the year always brings with it tornadoes to some sections of the Texas Panhandle, all homemakers should be on the alert for any approaching danger. It is also important that care be taken to watch with caution. One of the most essential things that anyone should do in any emergency is to remain as calm as possible and face whatever dangers arise without exaggeration. If you have a storm cellar, make use of it if a tornado is sighted. Homemakers should learn to recognize a storm cloud and should not be scared of every cloud that happens to drift across the sky. Small children seem to sense any emotion which their parents feel, and for this reason mothers of small children should make an effort to feel as calm as possible at all times.

Tornadoes, like all other impending dangers, should be explained as fully as possible to preschool age children as well as to those who are a few years older. Unnecessary stress should not be put upon the possibility of a tornado striking your home. "Face your fear" is good advice whether that fear be of tornadoes, polio epidemics, or any of the other fears that come upon us.

Although spring cleaning isn't nearly as popular with most homemakers as it was with their mothers and grandmothers, it is still good to take time off occasionally and do more than the routine cleaning.

Right now would be a good time to clean up and remove all winter rubbish that has accumulated in the back of your garage, in the closets, attics, or store rooms, and by so doing remove some of the fire hazards. It is also a good time to take care that all tools are properly taken care of.

If you leave a hoe, rake, or some other garden tool lying where you finish working with it, another member of the family, or maybe even you, could trip over it, step on it, or be injured by coming in contact with it accidentally.

It is surprising to read the statistics on the number of accidents that happen in American homes each year. Most of them are directly or indirectly caused by carelessness on someone's part. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is certainly true when applied to safety in the home.

Have you received merchandise through the mail which you did not order and do not want? Several publications in our area have carried reports of readers receiving razor blades, books, socks, handkerchiefs, and other items in this manner.

According to the information we have been able to get on the subject, you are not obligated to pay for the merchandise unless you use it. Under these circumstances, the proper thing to do is to write the sender that the merchandise has been received and at the same time inform the firm that you do not want it and request that postage be sent you so that you can return it.

If you want "something extra" to serve for dinner or to take to the next covered dish dinner you are invited to, try this recipe for Mexican Corn Relish. Heat one 1 lb. can whole kernel corn; drain and cool. Combine with 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped pimento, and 1/2 cup French dressing. Chill several hours, then serve.

Set to Spray? Just a Minute!

Rains have come, the weather's warming, and weeds by the millions are sprouting on area farms. Even though crops have barely gotten a start, farmers' thoughts are already turning to weed control, which sometimes is a big problem.

A little caution is in order, however, and especially this year, since Parmer County has come under a special law governing the sale and use of herbicides. The county invoked the law last fall, and most farmers are only remotely acquainted with its provisions. Briefly told, the law means that there's more to worry about when spraying one's crops than just the neighbor's ire if some of the 2-4D should drift over on his cotton. This is a law that has teeth in it. A farmer would need the services of a patient attorney if he expected to know all the details of the law. Fortunately, however, it won't be necessary to go to this extreme to feel safe.

Main points to remember:

1. Everyone must get a permit and pay a fee of ten cents per acre if he applies herbicides on areas larger than 10 acres.
2. Everyone selling hormone herbicides must have a dealer's license.
3. Everyone doing commercial work must have a bond for himself and his equipment.
4. Equipment must be inspected before used on planes every 30 days and on ground equipment once a year.
5. Everyone using herbicides must have access to a wind gauge and comply with specified wind velocities.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU By RAYMOND EULER

Spuds Sprout in Lariat Area

The Lariat country of southern Parmer and northern Bailey counties, always regarded as good vegetable country because of its sandy soil, temperate climate and abundant water, will be in the potato business again this year.

Buck Gregory, a farmer southwest of Lariat, put a packing shed in the little community on Highway 70-84 two years ago, and after a drab season in 1955, "struck it" last year with the best prices in history.

Gregory, who has been growing potatoes since 1952, is his own best customer, and in the strictest sense, doesn't operate a commercial shed. The shed on the Santa Fe siding is primarily for his own use, though some other growers make use of the facilities occasionally.

For instance, Gregory has seeded 125 acres of potatoes this spring, and has supplied seed stock for about another 100 acres of spuds on the farms of his neighbors.

That's about the same acreage as was grown for the shed last year.

"I figure that raising potatoes is like raising hogs," says the easy-talking Texan. "You've got to get in and stay in every year if you figure to make any money at it."

As for the spud crops since he's been in the business, it's been "on" and "off" pricewise every other year for Gregory. All in all, though, he has done pretty well. Last year was especially fruitful when spuds sold all the way from $5 to $8. Gregory has planted Pontiac, Lasoda, Sheridan, and Russet potatoes, all of which, save the Russets, are of the red variety. Three cars of seed are being shipped to Lariat now for planting in late June for the fall crop. These will be white spuds.

Preparatory to planting, Gregory flat broke, floated, and listed his land. He did not pre-irrigate his land, which is unusual. "We didn't have time to get everything done this year," he says.

A 500-pound application of 16-20-0 fertilizer was made on the spuds, most of which went where cotton grew last year. Planting rate was 1500 pounds per acre. The crop was watered up, and now, about six weeks after planting, it's sprouting nicely.

As the potatoes progress, Gregory is prepared to dust for sillet bugs and blight.

Potatoes aren't the only thing that Gregory is interested in. He has his eye on the onion business, but figures this isn't the year to take the plunge. He has grown some lettuce in previous years, but doesn't plan to plant any of that this year, either.

One thing the Lariat man will try this year that is a fairly recent innovation on the Plains is to store his fall potato crop. He has erected a 40x60-foot steel barn near the farm home, and has insulated the walls with a fiberglass material.

It won't be possible to store potatoes during the summer months, he feels, but for the fall crop, it will be possible to keep them in the barn should market conditions not be ideal at the moment of harvest. Cooler weather will prevent deterioration of the crop, but the insulation won't let the spuds freeze, he thinks.

Falls killed 20,000 persons in 1956. Only traffic accidents took more lives.

TATERS-TO-BE — Buck Gregory, Lariat area spud grower, takes a careful look at a newly-sprouted potato plant on his farm. These were seeded on March 10, and are now up and coming.

District 4-H Contest Saturday In Canyon

The annual district 4-H Club contests are to be held Saturday, May 4, at West Texas State College, Canyon.

Parmer County's only participant in the contests will be Miss Barbara Rea of the Bovina Senior 4-H Club. Miss Rea will give a demonstration on "Milk For All" in the individual dairy foods demonstrations. She will show how to prepare barbecue hamburger patties using powdered milk.

No boys from the county clubs will enter the contests this year.
