

Oscar Lee Parker Services Held

Funeral services were held in Friona Saturday afternoon for Oscar Lee Parker, a former Farwell resident, who succumbed to injuries received in a farm accident on the Wesley Barnett farm Thursday. He died a short while later at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. Burial was in the Friona Cemetery directed by Claiborn Funeral Home.

Mr. Parker, 56, who was born in Rockwell, came to Farwell at an early age and moved to Friona some 24 years ago. He had resided in that city since that time. At time of the accident he was putting up silage on the Barnett farm. His leg became entangled in the cutter and was severed. He is believed to have died from shock and loss of blood; it took some time to cut him from the machinery.

Survivors include his wife, Eva Marie; three sons, Billy Lee of Amarillo, and Jerry Duane and Danny Ray both of Friona; and one grandchild. His parents and a brother preceded him in death.

Pleasant Hill Baptist Set Revival Dates

Revival services are set for the Pleasant Hill Baptist church Sept. 10-Sept. 17. The series of services will begin at the evening worship service on September 10 and will conclude at the morning hour on Sept. 17 according to Rev. Billy Parvin, church pastor.

Evangelist for the special services is Gene Hawkins, former pastor of the Pleasant Hill church. Song director will be Tom Verner.

During the week services will be held at 10 a.m., and evening services will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a prayer service. Evening worship is at 8 p.m. All services will be held by Mountain Daylight Time.

The public is invited to attend all of the services.

Tonight --

Steers, Chieftains Collide In Opener

First big test for the Farwell Steers will come tonight (Friday), when they collide with the Friona Chieftains in the first football game of the season. Game time is 8:30 p.m. on the Friona field.

Coach Toby Booth said Friona is a tough team and are heavier than the Steers weighing approximately 180 to the Steers' 165 in the line. Backfield for the two teams is a little more equal with the Steers averaging around 165 and Friona 160.

In the scrimmage with Portales Rams on August 25, the Steers looked good crossing the goal line more often than did their opponents.

Coach Booth listed as possible offensive starters Kyle Sheets and Lawrence Bryant, ends; James Haseloff, Randy Johnson or Gerald Hanna, tackles; Denny Lunsford or Greg Martin, guard; Charles Bowery or Robert Haseloff, center; Lewey Bradshaw, quarterback; Craig Phillips, fullback; Al Phillips, tailback; and Bobby Chadwick, wingback.

Defensive ends will possibly be Ricky Stewart, Robert Curtis or Randy Johnson. Other defensive players are tackles, Craig Phillips and James Haseloff; guard, Warlick Dollar; linebackers, Al Phillips and Kyle Sheets; cornermen, Dean Stovall, James Symcox and Mike Doshier; safety, Lawrence Bryant or Lewey Bradshaw, rover, Denny Lunsford.

Coach Booth urges all Farwell fans to attend the game and support the Steers in this first game of the season.

Rummage Sales Continue

The ESA Sorority rummage sales which began the first week in August will continue through September, according to a spokesman for that organization. More rummage is needed for the sales and anyone having items to donate to the organization for its sales is asked to call any member of the group and the items will be picked.

Sales are 3-5 p.m. each Saturday in the old ASCS office in downtown Farwell.

OL Baptists Have New Pastor

The Rev. Charles R. Vick and his family arrived in the Oklahoma Lane community last week where he will assume duties as pastor of the Baptist Church in that community.

The family comes here from Wickett, Tex., where he was pastor of the First Baptist Church. Prior to moving to Wickett (near Monahans) he was pastor of Westside Baptist Church at Roby, Tex.

The new pastor says he was born at Yorktown, Tex., but moved to Houston at an early age and was reared there. Prior to entering the ministry, he had worked as a farm and ranch hand and as a truck driver. He has attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and plans to further his studies beginning in January. At this time, he is planning to attend Wayland Baptist College.

Mrs. Vick is an L.V.N. (licensed vocational nurse) and has also attended Hardin-Simmons University.

Children in the family are Sherla, 10, a fifth grade student; Chris, 7, a second grader; and Julie, two.

The new pastor says he is enjoying getting acquainted with his new congregation and invites everyone in the community to come and visit with the church. If there are people in the community without a church home, the new pastor invites them to make the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church their regular worship home.

Rev. Vick succeeds Wayne Baldwin who has gone to Arizona to work in the Home Mission field.

PARSONAGE FAMILY -- Rev. and Mrs. Charles Vick and their children, Julie, Chris and Sherla, arrived last Monday to make their home at the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Parsonage where the minister will assume duties as pastor of the Oklahoma Lane Church.

As the natives hereabouts say, this weather is most unusual. In addition to unusual weather, we are also having to cope with unusual time. This daylight (ugh) savings time is certainly giving us an early fall. At my usual and accustomed rising time, the sun -- oops, moon -- is in about the same place as it is in late November. I just naturally feel like it should be late November, but my mind tells me it is only the first of September. This conflict between my conscious and subconscious completely destroys any efficiency I may possess in the morning hours. I wonder how many others may be similarly afflicted.

We have read of a so-called "inner clock" within each individual that is turned to a certain time cycle. When a person, through modern jet travel, is whisked from one time zone to another, and yet another, it eventually produces a definite sickness by throwing this personal "clock" out of order. We suspect that something akin to this is taking place among those of us forced to live in a sort of double daylight (ugh) savings time. This situation will persist until the last of October before we get back to standard time. As a reminder, due to this "funny" time, the Farwell Steers football games do not all take up on a regular time basis, so please check the time for each game to be sure you do not arrive late, or too early.

As NBC, ABC, and CBS so-called "weeks" bear down upon us, I feel like a cricket on a 40-acre lot being chased by a steamroller. It's just a question of time until it gets me.

We observed a very astute observation by Editor Guy of Lubbock's Avalanche-Journal, but observed that Editor Guy's observation did not observe quite far enough, obviously. Editor Guy observed, to wit, that the automobile strike would be settled by the public ultimately paying the bill. Yea, verily, this is true. Whatever Walter Reuther gouges out of the auto industry will eventually be paid for by the new car purchaser. But, we miss any observation of this impending cost of living rise by the White House.

It may be observed that very recently the President was "dismayed" at a slight rise in the price of some steel products. Well, here is his "dismay" at this blatant blackjacking of the auto industry by the United Auto Workers? What will a substantial rise in the price of automobiles do to the public pocketbook? It will further flatten it, that's what. Today, automotive transportation is not an elective luxury, it is a very hard economic necessity for far and away the majority of today's workers. When the time comes, most folks really have no choice about whether or not to buy a car, only what make and model.

Therefore we observe that Editor Guy's observation did not observe far enough, as it did not observe LBJ's lack of observation of the beating non-union people are going to take from the union people, obviously.

The program begins at 10 a.m., and will continue until 4 p.m.

"We cordially welcome all Parmer County farmers to see these demonstrations," Christian invites.

Armchair Football Gets Underway This Week

This is the week, and today is the day, for all of you armchair football fans, age 12 to 70 -- to get out the pen or pencil and limber up the old arm for a punt, pass or touchdown try in the annual football contest sponsored by local merchants during football season each year.

The contest begins in today's issue of the Tribune. Included in the contest this week are ten games (high school and professional) plus the tiebreaker game (Farwell-Friona). The Farwell - Friona game will serve as a tiebreaker game only in case of more than one person having the same number of games correct.

You must pick a score on the tiebreaker.

Each week during the contest, ten games including high school, college and professional games plus the tiebreaker will be carried on the contest entry blank. Any person ages 12 and up may enter the contest. All entries must be in the Tribune office no later than Friday 5 p.m., or postmarked no later than Friday.

At the end of the contest, two tickets to the Cotton Bowl plus $50 expense money will go to the person with the most games called right during the contest.

In addition, weekly prizes of $5, $3, and $1 will be given to the persons with the most games called correctly. Hurry NOW and GET IN the contest for the winner could be YOU!

Merchants sponsoring the contest this season include Monsanto Agricultural Center, Lariat Gin, Farwell Equipment, Security State Bank, State Line Grain, Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman, Worley Mills, Piggly Wiggly, Nickels Gin, Williams Fertilizer, Farwell Motor, Kelly Green Seeds, Texico Citizens Bank, Texaco, Inc., Shuman-Haseloff, Farwell Grain Exchange, Capitol Food, Clara's Cafe, City Cleaners, Continental Oil Co., and West Texas Drilling.

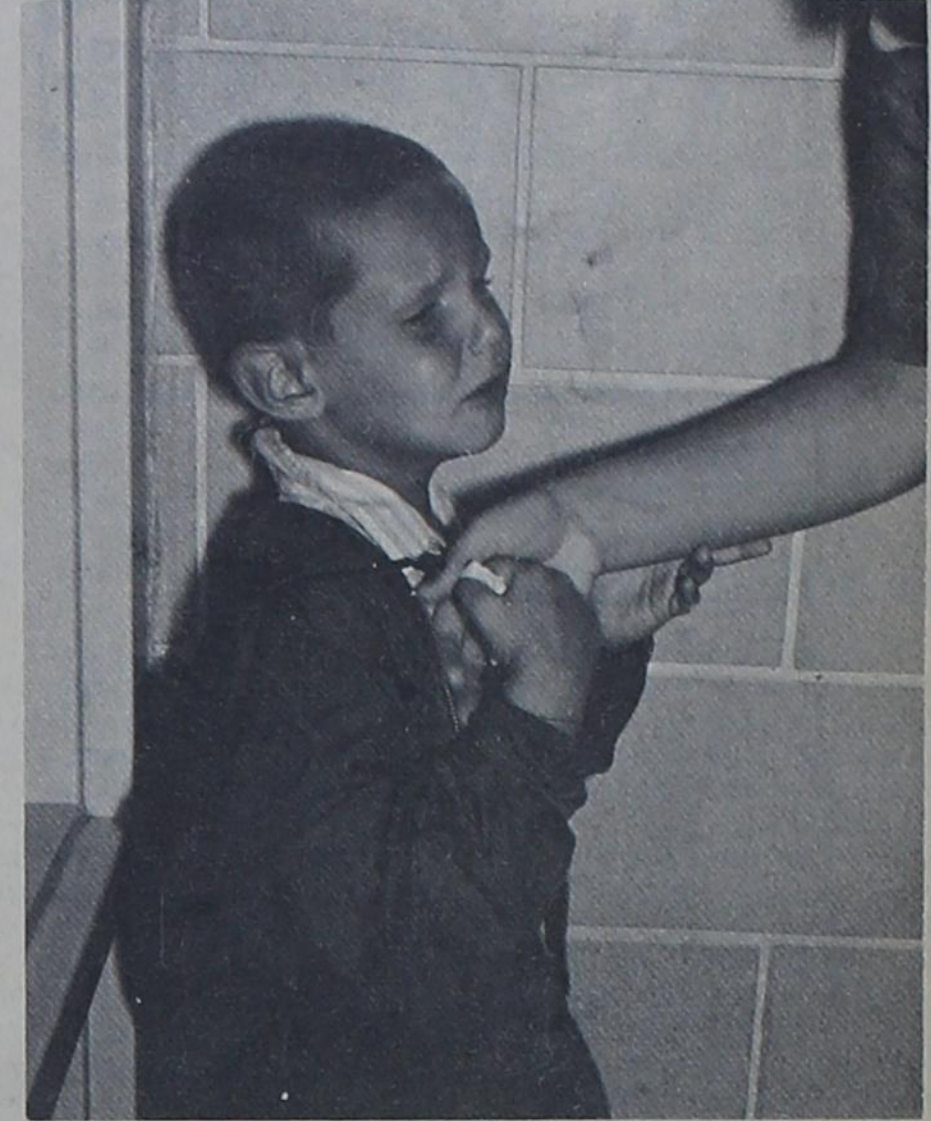

Previous winners of the contest have been Dee Owen, Maxine Williams, Bunk Phillips, Mrs. L. C. Herington, A. D. Kirk, Jerry Dee Owen, Dodie Atkinson and Thelma Alexander.

Remember, 5 p.m. today (Friday) is deadline for entries for this week's contest. The games you pick could make you a WINNER, so look them over and select your winning teams.

Employees of the Tribune office are not eligible to enter the contest; however, all other persons including sponsors of the contest may join the game and get into the fun!

"I did it before, and maybe, just maybe, if my luck holds, I can do it again," said Mrs. L. C. Herington as she began preparations for entering this year's football contest by looking over some of the games in the 1966 contest. She was winner of the 1964 contest and will be striving for another win in this year's event. The Herington family are all avid football fans and enter the contest each week, "trying to beat each other at calling the games. It is more than half the fun," stated Mrs. Herington.

EVERYBODY BUT ME! -- John Scott, four, son of Coach and Mrs. Vernon Scott, was having a hard time trying to understand "just why" everybody but him could go to school this year, as several playmates and an older brother were enrolled in first grade on Monday. When his mother explained that next year he could attend kindergarten, he wailed, "but that won't be school."

Farwell School -- Over 600 Register

A few students were still completing registration at Farwell Public School on Tuesday; however at that time, well over 600 students had registered, according to W. M. Roberts, superintendent.

Of this number, some 275 were in the elementary school which has 63 first grade students, 53 second graders, 47 third graders, 59 fourth graders and 53 fifth grade students. In the junior high division, James Craig, principal, revealed that 56 students had registered in the sixth grade, 53 in the seventh and 62 in the eighth. He stated that a few more students are expected to register later this week.

Enrollment in Farwell High School totaled 189 on Tuesday with more expected to enroll within the next few days. The sophomore class led the enrollment with 57 students, ninth grade has 49; eleventh grade, 42 and the senior class has 41 students.

Enrollment in Farwell school is approximately the same as at this time last year.

Jury Finds For Plaintiff

A jury decided in favor of the plaintiff in a civil suit involving S. V. Chittwood VS Sem-Inole Irrigated Farms, plaintiff, last week. The suit involved the ownership of some cattle, according to Dorothy Quicke, district court clerk.

One other suit which was to have been heard by a jury was decided out of court.

CHECKING THE LIST -- Mrs. Ann Glenn checks over the list of household items which the Lions Club will be selling during its annual "Broom" sale next week. She is assisted by Lion secretary Bill Christian, Sandy Glenn, who was accompanying her mother on a shopping trip, was much more interested in the photographer than the list of items.

Lions Set Annual Broom Sale, Sept. 15-16

Annual "broom" sale for Texico-Farwell Lions will be held Friday and Saturday, Sept. 15-16, according to Bill Christian, secretary of the organization.

Christian announces that the truck with the household items will arrive in Farwell around 10:30 a.m. on Friday and will be parked at the Holiday Store parking lot all day both days. A house to house canvass will be conducted on Saturday.

Handbills bearing the list of items available from the Lions are being distributed to the homes in Texico-Farwell this week and Lion Christian urges that all housewives check the list of items for things they may need and have the list ready to hand to the salesman when he appears at your door.

Included in the list of items available will be brooms (various sizes and kinds), dish cloths, sponges, tea towels, ironing board covers, and cover and pad sets, damp and iron bags, pot holders, dust cloths, skirt hangers, lint brushes, oven mitts, garment bags, mops (all kinds), handles for mops and brooms, wax applicators, rubber door mats, and many other items too numerous to mention.

Funds raised from the sale of the items are used in the "slight conservation" program sponsored by the Lions Club.

Kerr invites you to come and bring your neighbor.

A Salary To Loaf?

For centuries, the old adage that "the road to success is paved with hard work" has been recognized as somewhat of a truism. Indeed, the struggle to get ahead was what molded a person's character, and overcoming an obstacle did more to mature a man than a battery of psychologists and social workers could do in a lifetime.

Today however, some of our most prominent, (or at least our most loudmouthed) leaders have been advocating that struggle be removed from a man's life. Walter Reuther wants a guaranteed annual income for all union members, Martin Luther King wants a guaranteed annual income for all Negroes, and in addition, the good Dr. King would like for the federal government to "create" a half million jobs in order to solve the unemployment problem among Negroes.

Taking up the first proposal, one is forced to wonder just how giving to those who do not work, a guaranteed annual income, would affect the salaries of those unfortunate few who are still forced to work for a living. Revolting as the thought may be in this liberally and culturally oriented great society of ours, the working class is still the ultimate source of "federal" money. There is no great federal money bin in the sky from which unlimited funds for worthwhile social projects may be obtained, a fact which may come as a shock to Reuther and King. The truth of the matter is, that giving to those worthless, work-shy few a guaranteed annual income would necessitate another hunk of the working man's paycheck being sent through the federal grinder. Perhaps King and Reuther would just like to condense all the nation's wealth and then slice it up like a cake, giving equal shares to all, except of course to themselves who naturally would get a larger share owing to their superior intelligence.

The second proposal of King's is even more absurd than the first. How do you create a job if there is no need for that job? Indeed the biggest problem today is not the lack of jobs, but rather the lack of qualified people to fill the jobs that are available. King reasons as though it were possible to fit the job to the man, rather than fitting the man to the job as has been the custom throughout the ages. Assigning a half million uneducated and unskilled Negroes menial tasks, and then paying them the salary of a skilled worker for performing them is tantamount to simply giving them a guaranteed annual income, which is probably what King prefers in the first place. Besides, many Negroes have indicated that they will not be satisfied with mere jobs, wanting instead a "position", a fact which bespeaks the truth of the old "give an inch, take a mile" saw.

Summing up, it appears that King and Reuther have not been able to come to grips with the reality of life. A healthy society is not one in which the ambitious support the shiftless; rather it is one in which opportunity exists for all who have the foresight to prepare themselves, and the gumption to do an honest day's work. This is the way it must be, for to do differently would lead to a mass lack of ambition and the ultimate decay of a great nation.

Now that school is here again, mothers find themselves starting the day a little earlier. Breakfast for the school children at an earlier hour does mean a special effort on her part. Is it worth it or should they just go away with empty stomachs?

After a night of "fasting", it's time to break the fast. An adequate breakfast is needed for all ages. The body needs refueling regularly and breakfast is the meal that follows the longest stretch of non-eating. Research has shown that without an adequate breakfast, work output is reduced and all reaction time slows down. So, provide an attractive, tasty and adequate first meal of the day. This does not have to fit standard breakfast patterns. Try something new to tempt appetites on cool mornings. It does not have to be conventional to be nutritious. Particularly, when it means the difference between eating or skipping this important meal.

If you know your children aren't interested in breakfast, plan a menu to appeal to them. Maybe they'd like their favorite fresh fruit on cereal -- or maybe a hot dog suits their fancy. Just try to see that fruit, cereal and/or bread and milk -- with hearty food like meat, eggs, fish or cheese are included in some form.

NEW FABRIC WITHOUT CLING -- Watch for the new fabric which contains a small amount of stainless steel combined with nylon or acrylic. Garments and household items made from this fabric are static free without the undesirable cling properties found in synthetic garments. The new fiber is so fine that 10 or 12 bundled together scarcely equal the diameter of human hair. These stainless steel fibers blend with familiar fibers in proportions as low as 1 to 100.

WE'LL LEARN TOGETHER -- Mrs. Ruth Durham who had just enrolled this group of children in first grade at Farwell explained to the group, "We'll learn a lot of things together beginning today since I am a new teacher and you are a group of new students."

Mechanics Course

Officials at James Connally Technical Institute, Waco, have announced a class in agricultural machine mechanics beginning September 7. James Connally Technical Institute is a part of Texas A&M University and conducts a large number of classes in various professional fields.

Officials of the Institute indicate a need for high school graduates who are interested in agricultural machinery mechanics. Anyone interested in entering this course may write or call the registrar of James Connally Technical Institute, Waco, Tex.

Report From The Sheriff's Office

According to a report from the office of Farmer County Sheriff Charlie Lovelace early this week, the Methodist Church in Friona was burglarized on Sunday night, Sept. 3. Taken from the church were a Smith-Corona typewriter, an electric clock, a radio, and a portable RCA record player with the name J. T. Gee on the back. The record player was taken from a different part of the church than the other items. On Tuesday morning, a break-in was reported at the Twin Clinker Machine Shop by Vane Doshier. Doshier indicated that some $90-$100 in scrap brass was taken. Officers are investigating the two incidents at this time.

On The Farm In Farmer County
By RONNY MCNUTT
County Agent

COUNTY FIELD DAY SET
A tour of several farms in Farmer County will be made on Tuesday, Sept. 12. The tour will begin at Friona on Tuesday morning.

Check your paper for an article giving further information on when, where and what.

MITE INFESTATIONS
Extremely heavy mite populations are present on grain sorghum in several South Plains counties. To date, heavy infestations are reported in portions of Hale, Floyd, Swisher, and Briscoe counties.

Heavy leaf damage has been observed in a number of fields with 30 to 90 per cent of the leaves killed. In heavy infested fields, stalks appear to be drying out and dying. Some shrinkage has been noted in grain that was damaged during the milk to soft dough stage. After a plant is past soft dough it will probably not be necessary to spray for the mite. According to entomologists the mite is cream colored. A magnifying glass is necessary to see the mite. They are normally found near the midrib of a leaf.

Reports indicate that both Parathion and Systox are controlling the mites satisfactorily.

As of Thursday, August 30, no reports of mites in Farmer County have been received.

LIVESTOCK SPECIALIST & ENTOMOLOGIST JOINS EXTENSION STAFF

Officials of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service here have announced the appointment of a new livestock specialist to serve the high and rolling plains of Texas.

The new specialist, Dr. Lowell Schake, assumed duties August 23 at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, according to Extension Director John E. Hutchinson.

He succeeds Dr. Dixon Hubbard who joined the Federal Extension Service at the beginning of the year.

Schake will work closely with cattle feeders and producers in the West Texas area and will cooperate closely with county

All children who will be six years of age before January 1, 1968 must be in school and all boys and girls who have not reached their 17th birthday must also attend school.

Birth Certificate Necessary When Applying For Driver's License

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety, reminds Texans today that any person, regardless of age, must have a birth certificate or other legal document showing birthdate in possession at the time they first make application for a driver license.

"Apparently many applicants are unfamiliar with this new requirement in the law," Garrison advised, "and large numbers of prospective drivers are being turned away until they return home and get such a document. This part of the law applies only to those drivers who make application for their first Texas drivers license, and not to those wishing to renew a license."

Garrison outlined the procedure to be followed to obtain a license in order to clear up any misconceptions brought about by changes in the driver license law.

... First, the applicant must be the proper age. A person 16 years old may obtain a license provided he has completed an approved course of driver education or has a certificate showing that such a course is not taught at the school regularly attended by the applicant. Persons 18 years of age or older may qualify for an Operator's License without taking driver education. Persons 15 years of age or older may be licensed to operate a 5-horsepower motor scooter.

You're Invited -- HESSTON BEET HARVESTERS

Demonstration & Free Lunch at Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply Wednesday, Sept. 13 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Free Lunch at Noon!

If you want to lift beets ... when others stay home see the HESSTON DIRECT BEET HARVESTER

In fields so dry dust hides the rows... or in mud so deep that trucks bog down, Hesston Direct Beet Harvesters have proven their ability to lift clean, low-tare beets when others stay home. Big 29-inch lifter wheels run shallow for light draft and compress the dirt to "pop-out" beets. Tandem wheels provide extra flotation on the "heavy side" and walking-beam action stabilizes and levels the harvester in rough conditions.

Hesston's self-cleaning riend bed, proven grab-roll cleaning, and wide steep-angle vertical elevators combine to deliver cleaner beets to your truck. Self-contained hydraulic systems are available to add convenience and reduce the load on your tractor system. Automatic Row Finders will add tonnage by keeping your harvester on the row and permit the use of less skilled operators if necessary. Come in today and see the Hesston that will give you a fast, high-tonnage harvest... and the cleanest beets at the dump!

The punch and cookies were served from milkglass appointments.

Airman Tells Of Life In Spain

A2C Darrell L. Crook, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crook and a 1964 graduate of Farwell High School, who is stationed in Seville, Spain, as a member of the Armed Services, is spending a 30-day leave with his parents in Farwell.

The airman volunteered for the Air Force and began his training in January 1965 at Lackland AFB at San Antonio. He later attended a 35-week teletype training career school at Sheppard AFB at Wichita Falls. He has been stationed at the same AFB at San Pablo (Seville) Spain since January, 1966. He works as a teletype maintenance man.

Since going to Spain, almost two years ago, Airman Crook has had the opportunity to attend an IBM repair school in Germany and upon his return to San Pablo will be sent to Germany for further training in the same field. When questioned as to his plans after getting out of the service (some 17 months hence), Airman Crook said, "I'll stay with the IBM service."

The young airman, who had spent much of his life in Farwell and all of it in Parmer County, has had the privilege of visiting in Germany, Luxembourg, Portugal, Gibraltar, Belgium, Sweden, and has flown over France. He hopes to visit England before his tour of duty is completed.

He stated that the climate where he is stationed is little different from that which he has known all his life with the exception of "little or no wind." "It rains quite a bit in the winter-but does not get too cold and the temperature in the summer climbs to around 110 degrees," stated the airman.

He has seen little of the effects of the war from his base, since Spain was not involved in the war, but while visiting in Germany he did see a few of the old castles which had been bombed.

He notes that in Spain most of the people are of the low class (peons), some in the middle class, and only a few in the very high class (wealthy). "If one wishes to buy anything in the middle of the afternoon in Spain he must wait a considerable time," according to Crook.

for the shopkeepers and most other businesses as well as laborers observe the "siesta" from 2-5:30 p.m.; however, the shops remain open until around 10 p.m. in the evening.

Articles made and sold in Spain cost very little but if they are shipped back to family or friends in the states, the import tax is quite high. Therefore most civilians visiting the country or servicemen can buy very little to return to the states. He also states that an automobile made in the United States and sold in Spain would sell for $2,000 to $3,000 more than in the states due to the tax. "Needless to say most of the Spaniards drive cars made in their own country," he said.

He frowned upon the custom of the Spanish people in requiring that their daughters be accompanied by an escort (chaperone) when on a date. He stated that most dating is "double" thus solving the chaperone problem. Girls marry later in Spain than in the United States, he said.

Living facilities in the cities are quite "good" he said, but on the other hand, living facilities in the farm area surrounding the San Pablo AFB are poor. Few families have running water in their homes and fewer still have "hot" water (even if they have running water), he stated. He also stated that many of the homes have housing for their animals under the same roof in which they live. "This eliminates the cost of building another building," he said.

Although he has spent only a few weeks in Germany, he was quick to state "I like the Germans much better than the Spanish since most of them speak at least some English, and few of the Spanish people speak any English."

He stated that the Easter holiday is the one most celebrated by the Spanish people with the week prior to Easter spent in parading statues of the saints around the towns and through the streets and in other religious ceremonies. The week after Easter is spent in celebrating and making merry.

A2C Darrell L. Crook was too tired to relax when he arrived at the home of his sister, Mrs. Pat Worley, in Charleston, Va., from his trip via plane from his AFB at San Pablo, Spain.

Says H.D. Agent --

ConsumerCompetive A Growing Problem

"Just when I start thinking I can make ends meet, someone moves the ends!"

That quote could fit a lot of families today, says Cricket B. Taylor, County Extension Agent in Parmer County.

Consumer competence, one of five major problems areas defined and included in the Panhandle Economic program guidelines will receive considerable emphasis in the months and years ahead.

From all indications, the problem of achieving and maintaining the desired level of living with available resources will increase in intensity. This will occur despite rising incomes, according to authorities in the field of consumer education.

How to buy and allocation of resources will involve decision making for the new married couples, which is on the rise.

The bulk of young adults are the people born since World War II. They have no mercy of the Depression of 1930's. Debt holds no horrors for today's young adults, who become accustomed to satisfying their wants now -- paying later. Using consumer credit will continue to be a major area.

Recent legislation passed gives the lender the legal right to charge higher rates of interest. This makes it imperative that borrowers know the law and how to compare rates from different sources.

The ability to live within an income, even an ample one, will be a highly-prized skill. Competence as a consumer begins with recognition of individual and family values. The need for a stronger sense of direction for families today is indicated.

Knowing and using principles of planning for spending, determining income, estimating living expenses, and planning for big, infrequent expenditures is an important tool to have. But even more important for the family is the growth in ability to recognize their values, set goals and work together to reach the goals.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Irby from Abilene are visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Bunk Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cox, and Mrs. Kate Phillips this week. They have been visiting in Raton with Irby's parents. They will return to Abilene where he is a student at McMurry College later this week.

Mrs. C. M. Frost has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. James M. Cox, for the past week. Mrs. Cox, who has been hospitalized in Friona, is now a patient at Retirement Ranch in Clovis. She is able to be up a part of the time and enjoys company.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christian and daughter, Caren, are visiting in Raymondville, Tex., this weekend with Mrs. Christian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Nielsen. Prior to going to Raymondville they took their son, Niel, to Kerrville, to enroll in the Military Academy.

Visitors in the Ted Magness home are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams and son from Waco, and Miss Connie Williams of Gary, Ind. Here over the weekend were Mrs. Magness' brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hensley and children of Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Don Moss and children, Mike, Jeris and Rick, from Roswell spent the Labor Day weekend visiting in the Twin Cities with Mrs. Crystal Moss and other relatives, and in Clovis with the Jerry L. Henson family.

Light Furnaces Early Says SUG

Farwell and Texico customers of Southern Union Gas are being urged by the Company to have their central heating units and floor or attic furnaces lighted before cold weather arrives.

As part of its normal service to customers, Southern Union is providing light-up service free if requests are received by October 13, according to Elmer Teel, local manager for the gas company. Requests received after the deadline are subject to a $2.50 service fee. Many householders light their own pilot lights, while others call on plumbing firms to handle the job, Teel pointed out. If customers do not call until cold weather, they may have to wait for service, Teel said. This results because when chilly weather arrives the gas company is flooded with calls for light-ups and it is difficult to handle requests without some delay.

Takes a good man to wear it...

... a man who wants to serve leading farmers in this area, help them to higher yields and higher incomes. They train us, supply us with quality products and equipment, and back us up with agronomic research, quality control, distribution know-how, and the integrity of a leader in fertilizers, TULOMA Gas Products Company. That's why you can be sure there's more under the TULOMA cap than just a local manager. A lot more. And it's there for one reason . . . to serve you and your neighbors. Come in or call now. Then start planning on higher crop profits.

As selected TULOMA representatives we offer the TULOMA products and advice that are designed to bring you top results from your fertilizer investment. Our recommendations are based on planned fertilizer applications that will meet the needs of your crop . . . your yield goal. When TULOMA says, "Takes a good man to wear it..." they mean it.
