All new elementary students and all kindergarten students are asked to report to the elementary school from 1:30-3:30 p.m. either Wednesday, Aug. 20, or Thursday, Aug. 21, for pre-registration.

New Junior High School students should report to the Junior High building between 1 and 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 21.

Students enrolled in Farwell elementary and junior high schools for the 1974-75 year are automatically pre-registered and need not report during this period.

Perkins stressed, however, that all high school students, seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen, are required to appear and pre-register for the new school year.

Freshmen will enroll for classes at 1 p.m. Aug. 20 with sophomores to report at 3:30 that same day.

Junior students are asked to register at 1 p.m. Aug. 21 and seniors are to report at 3:30 that day.

New students to Farwell should bring all records and immunizations when they register. Handbooks will be issued at the time of enrollment.

The superintendent stated that the 1975-76 school day will conform in length to that in the past. Classes are to be conducted from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Persons wishing further information are asked to contact the superintendent's office at 481-3682.

All teachers will report August 18 for the beginning of the one-week in-service program which will precede the actual beginning of the school year.

Registration Set At Texico Schools

Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 11 and 12, are the dates scheduled for students of the Texico Municipal School System to register for the 1975-76 school year.

Junior and senior high school students will register Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 11 and 12. On Monday, senior students will enroll in the morning with juniors registering during the afternoon.

Junior High School students will also be registering on these two days. All registration procedures will be conducted in the high school building.

Elementary School students are to enroll the first day of school, Monday, Aug. 18.

"All students attending school must have their shot records up to date before they can attend school this year," commented James Pierce, superintendent. "If all shots have not been received, students must be in the process of being inoculated."

He also commented that injections may be obtained from the Curry County Health office.

The Texico Municipal School has also announced its policy for free and reduced-price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch, Breakfast and Special Milk Programs.

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in application forms sent to homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office.

Under the provisions of the policy, the principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official he may make a request either orally or in writing to James Pierce, Superintendent, P.O. Box 237, Texico, N.M., phone 482-3305 for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

The "Russian Grain Deal" has stripped some of the cover off of who is the farmer's friend and who isn't. Some rather prominent politicians have not only exposed their farm ignorance but their political feeling as to which way they vote when the chips are down.

It should be obvious that the Big Labor boys swing a much larger stick in Congress than the Farm Bloc. This is apparent by the pure political hogwash being put out to the American public over selling grain to Russia.

If the sale of grain to Russia doubles the price of wheat or corn, it will not raise the price of groceries as much as a dollar an hour wage boost to the myriad of union members who live off of preparing, transporting or selling farm products.

The big cost of food is not in the price paid to the farmer. It is in the complex structure that brings the farm product to the housewife's table. In this vast structure, labor is one of the dearest commodities and the biggest factor in determining the final cost of food to the consumer.

Next in line in determining food costs is probably the overhead attributable to the almost unbelievable amount of government rules, regulations, reports and outright harassment the ordinary business is now subjected to.

This additional cost to the public is a direct responsibility of our Congress. These self-same "champions of the people" are the ones who have created the bureaucratic jungle that is slowly strangling free enterprise in this country. So... NBC, CBS and ABC, get off the farmer's back and get to the real culprits behind all this inflation. How about an "expose" series divided between union featherbedding and Congressional insanity? This we will see the same week that some commentator has a kind word for Richard Nixon.

While our thoughts are on the farmer, we will pass along a portion of another editor's column. W. H. Graham in the Lovington Daily Leader writes as follows:

SELL THE RUSSIANS our grain? You betcha. That goes for the Red Chinese too. Sell our grain to anybody who wants it and will pay the price (cash only, please - no taxpayer-financed terms).

The American people need to wake up and realize that the U.S. farming industry is the agricultural marvel of the world - bar none. The U.S. farmer - whose hayseed stereotype is usually depicted on TV - is dumb like a fox. He has outsmarted the brainiest captains of industry in this most industrialized of all nations. He has made state supported farmers in socialist nations all over the world look like a bunch of turn-of-the-century sharecroppers.

The Japs are outproducing and underselling us in electronics. The West Germans now skin us alive in steel-making. Hong Kong and a multitude of other low labor centers of the world now dominate our textiles. Big Oil, America's great contribution to world commerce, has had to go international to survive.

But the U.S. farmer, that marvelous, inventive, hard-working chap, has no peer elsewhere on earth. He is in a class by himself. He's the only thing we've got left who can stand up to foreign competition and thumb his nose at the best they've got. Lately he's singlehandedly been holding up our balance of trade. Considering the billions of bucks we are pouring into the foreign oil rathole - an international commerce ripoff if there ever was one - that's quite a feat in itself.

Give him room, folks, give him air. Let Farmer Jones produce. Let him get with it. He can feed and clothe us and to spare. Let him loose.

There's a lot of scare talk around, mostly from people who've never set foot on a farm, that the U.S. farmer has reached the limit. He's used up just about all the available land, and he's just about reached the practical limits of

RETURN OF POLE SITTING??? Not quite. Last week Lee Hutchins, Farwell electrician, topped one of the light poles at the practice field at Farwell School and detached the lights which he lowered to members of the Farwell Jaycees, the organization responsible for obtaining the lights to be placed at the tennis courts. The newly installed lighting facilities at the courts are being used for the first time to provide lighting for the Jaycee-sponsored tennis tournament being played Aug. 7-10 at the courts. Installation of the lights was done under the auspices of the Farwell Jaycee Chapter.

EARLY STRIPPING - This cotton field located six miles north of Farwell on the Amarillo Highway suffered damage as a freak wind or twister took its toll Sunday afternoon, Aug. 3. The crop belonged to Barthel Ford and was located on the Jack Dunn farm. Accompanying the wind or twister on its journey across the land was a shower of hail. Approximately 60 acres of cotton on the Ford farm was lost during the storm which dropped 1.1 inches of rain in the area of the farm. The leaves, blooms and bolls were completely removed from the field. Ford also lost 121 acres of corn and damage to his maize crop was spotted.

Co. Commissioners Okay Appraisals

First order of business on the agenda for Parmer County Commissioners during a regular meeting Monday, July 28, was the appraisals on rights-of-way on Highway 214.

Appraisals were submitted by Bill Moore of Amarillo and following a lengthy discussion, Commissioners approved and forwarded to the Texas Highway Department for consideration the following appraisals: F. M. Wilkerson, $500; Gary L. Graham, et al, estate, $1,231; Don Williams, dba S.I.B. Gin, $2,983; Leon Smith, $75; Eunice May Noland, $940; Sue Stevens, $210; Ira Bruce Parr, $3,385; and Albert Carroll, $217.

Commissioners agreed that a certificate of deposit, which matured July 25 of this year, be re-invested for a period of 30 days.

A request from the Mental Health / Mental Retardation Center in Plainview for a contribution was reviewed by the Court. It was then resolved that $1,000 be forwarded to the Central Plains Mental Health Center, as it was felt this figure is in line with the services received.

Glen Johnson of the Highway Department in Lubbock reported that the state office had approved a Farm to Market Road running directly south from Lazbuddie to the Bailey County line. It is understood that this road must now be approved by federal authorities.

Herb Evans of the Soil Conservation Service met briefly with Commissioners and reported on the mowing situation at the Bovina dam site and other projects of the Watershed Project.

Commissioners present for the session were Jimmy Briggs, Cecil Atchley, Charlie Jefferson and Tom Lewellen, and County Judge Paul Fortenberry.

According to spokesmen for the Jaycees, a total of eight cities are represented by the entrants. They are Bovina, Friona, Muleshoe, Maple, Plainview, Farwell, and Portales and Clovis, N.M.

No admission is to be charged for the tournament and the Jaycees will be operating a concession stand during matches.

The organization is sponsoring the tennis tournament for the first time and plan to make it an annual or semi-annual event due to the tremendous response of participants for the first tourney.

yield with fertilizers and advanced cultural practices.

Don't you believe it. He's just gotten started good. Oh sure, there's a difference between maximum and optimum production. When economics is put into the equation, there's a lid on how high you can go. There's a limit to how much can be spent on food nutrients and sophisticated practices because the point of diminishing returns is out there somewhere.

But we are due genetic revolutions just as earthshaking as those that have been achieved by better cultural practices. That part of the ballgame has only just begun.

The U.S. farmer is our "hottest property" and we ought to realize it and make sure he has every opportunity to produce even more.

County Leads State In Corn Production

Farmers in Parmer County made an important contribution to Texas agriculture in 1974 by leading the state in the production of corn and by placing Parmer in the top 10 counties in the production of sugarbeets, silage and sorghum. During the latter part of July, Parmer County was also named the number two Texas county for cattle on feed in a report from Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

According to Commissioner White, farmers produced almost 20 million bushels of corn, 63,900 tons of silage, 7.4 million bushels of sorghum, and 17,300 tons of sugarbeets.

Compared with 1973 county figures, countywide production for most field crops was down last year. Sugarbeet production dropped 58 percent, sorghum was down 52 percent and corn 17 percent.

Dry weather, lasting from late fall through winter, caused various planting problems on the Texas High Plains last year. Farmers either dry planted or waited for additional rain, and yields of some crops were down drastically from previous years. Growth in most dryland areas was spotty and much replanting was necessary.

Despite the many problems associated with 1974, Texas farmers were able to produce over 73 million bushels of corn, 370,000 tons of sugarbeets and 312 million bushels of sorghum. Texas led the nation in the production of sorghum.

Complete figures on Texas field crops have been compiled in the "1974 Texas Field Crops Statistics." Copies may be obtained by writing John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Tex. 78711.

GONE WITH THE WIND - High velocity winds, possibly a twister, and hail teamed together Sunday afternoon and almost completely destroyed corn and maize crops belonging to Barthell Ford. Debris gathered during the storm was dropped on Ford's corn crop, upper picture, clogging the area between stalks until irrigation or clean-up of the crop is "next to impossible." The corn stalks were blown, bent and broken with ears stripped and the same result of the storm was seen in spotted areas of Ford's maize crop, lower picture. Heads of the maize stalks were bent over with many of them broken completely off. Approximately 1.1 inches of moisture accompanied the storm which struck the Ford crops. Damage was estimated at 121 acres of corn, 60 acres of cotton and spotted damage to the maize crop.

Two Charged In Assault On Bovina City Marshal

Bovina City Marshal Mike Rielly was the victim of a shooting assault Saturday night, Aug. 2, which resulted in the apprehension of two men.

Following the incident, Ricky Flores, 17, and Faustino Garcia, 18, were arrested and charged.

Flores, charged with felony assault with a deadly weapon on a peace officer, was bound over for grand jury action and bond was set at $17,000. He remains in custody at the Parmer County Law Enforcement Center in lieu of bond.

Garcia, an alleged accomplice in the incident, was charged with simple assault. He was fined $35 in justice court. Garcia paid his fine and was released.

Members of the Parmer County Sheriff's Department are currently seeking a suspect involved in the passing of a $200 check forged on Kyle Sheets and passed at Rose Drug in Farwell.

County Sheriff Charlie Lovelace commented that a warrant has been issued in the incident.

In other action involving the department, Johnny Smith of Amarillo was brought before the jury in County Court Monday. Smith was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated in an incident in November, 1974.

He pleaded innocent to charges and acted in his own defense. A mistrial was declared when deliberation of evidence resulted in a hung jury.

Denzil Smith of Muleshoe, was arrested by Highway Patrol officers Tuesday evening, July 29, and brought before County Judge Paul Fortenberry.

Smith, who was charged with DWI, pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and court costs and given a six-month jail sentence which was probated. Smith paid his fine and was released.

Robert Gutierrez was brought before the Court on charges of escape from a peace officer. Gutierrez was fined $150 and court costs. He was still confined at present time, unable to pay his fine.

Sunday morning, Highway Patrol officers apprehended four Mexican nationals. It was later discovered that one of the persons was a citizen of the United States and he was released. The three remaining persons were turned over to Border Patrol officers from Amarillo.

Zehner James Douglas of Bovina was arrested by the Highway Patrol Sunday for DWI. He was released by Judge Fortenberry without bond to appear later for trial.

Lubbockite Critically Injured In Monday Morning Mishap

A Lubbock man, James Curtis Foster, 51, suffered head and chest injuries in an accident which occurred near Farwell early Monday morning. As of press-time, Foster was listed in critical condition at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. Foster was injured when the

The pickup was hit broadside by the oncoming truck and was split in half as a result of the collision.

Damage to 121 acres of corn and 60 acres of cotton along with spotted damage to a maize crop as reported as a result of a freak storm Sunday afternoon.

The crops, belonging to Barthell Ford, were located on the Jack Dunn farm situated six miles north of Farwell on the Amarillo Highway.

The cotton suffered the most damage as high velocity winds, possibly a twister, and hail hit the crops. The cotton was stripped down to the stalks with the leaves, blooms and bolls completely removed from the field.

The corn was damaged as stalks were blown, broken and ears torn off. Leaves and other debris were piled between the rows in such a manner that it is "next to impossible to clean or irrigate the corn."

Damage to maize on the farm was scattered and heads on the stalks were bent over and broken off.

Uvon Ford reported that a quonset hut belonging to Don Suddertff had collapsed during the storm as one side of it was blown out.

Ford also reported that at his home several trees were twisted as they "just seemed to blow up."

Approximately 1.1 inches of moisture accompanied the storm on the farm.

In the 14th century, rhinoceros horn shavings were considered a good cure for epilepsy.

Preparations For Resistance Continue In American Colonies

by Donald Whisenhunt

The month of August 200 years ago was a time when nothing spectacular happened in the American colonies. It was an important period, however, since preparations were underway to continue the resistance to British authority.

The Continental Congress had adjourned for a month's recess at the end of July. For the men who had assembled in Philadelphia this was a crucial period. Without doubt many of them returned to their homes with some fear and uncertainty. After all, the Congress was not an official body, but when it assembled in 1775 war had already begun with the British. Therefore, this predominantly young body of men had assumed governmental authority including the military role of appointing George Washington as military commander.

Since a large segment of the population was loyal to Great Britain, these men probably worried as they rode horseback or in carriages to their homes if their friends and neighbors would agree with their actions. After all, in the eyes of the British, these upstart Americans were committing treason, an action not to be taken lightly.

Thus, most members of Congress, with the possible exception of those from Massachusetts, probably went home to gauge public opinion. Several members of Congress did go first to Cambridge where Washington's army was located. Here they viewed American military preparations first hand so that they could inform their constituents about the state of the army.

During this month members of Congress were also worried about British reaction to the latest American attempt to reconcile their differences. The "Olive Branch Petition" arrived in England in August; even though no definite action was taken until September, during August American representatives became convinced that it would not be received favorably.

Meanwhile in the Spanish Southwest there was also a certain amount of tension concerning other nations. The Spanish government was very worried about infiltration by the French who might have designs on Spanish territory.

During the 1770's John Rowzee Peyton, a Virginian, was captured in the Gulf of Mexico by the Spanish and brought through Texas where he was held captive in Santa Fe for several months. Even though he was an American, Spanish officials were very fearful that he was a French agent.

Since Peyton wrote a very vivid account of his experiences, we will take a look at Texas and the Spanish Southwest through his eyes in the next several columns.

68 And Going Strong

by Patti Hall

What do you do when you reach the age of 68 and have eight children who live lives of their own, 38 grandchildren and 37 great-grandchildren? You find something to fill your time. And Mrs. Ila Jernigan of Texico has discovered more than one way to accomplish this.

The vibrant lady celebrated her 68th birthday Thursday, July 31, and is making plans for the future. Topping her list of hobby activities at the present time is the sport of tennis.

"I took up tennis about two years ago because I just didn't have anything else to do at that time," Mrs. Jernigan commented. "The only game of tennis I ever saw I liked and decided I wanted to learn how to play."

The self-instructed tennis bug plays frequently at the Farwell School and plays with anyone wishing to tackle a round of the game.

Fishing comes next on the list of sport hobbies for the Texico resident who says she likes to fish and is ready to go everytime someone can accompany her. "I fish anywhere there's water. Whether it's a lake, river, pond or mountain stream, I fish in it." Her favorite fishin' hole is a lake located at Eagle Cliff in California. To reach the lake requires a "mite of mountain climbing" but, according to Mrs. Jernigan, the area is so beautiful, the climb is worth it.

The largest fish ever hooked by "Gran," as she is affectionately called by her family, weighed seven and one-half pounds. "At one time, my grandson and I caught over 100 fish at a spot and they all weighed from one and a half to two pounds each." The fisherlady baits the hook, catches the fish, unhooks them, cleans them and cooks them but, "I don't like to eat fish."

Mrs. Jernigan was born in Montague County, Tex., and came to this area 10 or 12 years ago. She has made a hobby of traveling also. "In seven years I've visited 38 states and want to see the others." But topping her list of places to visit at the present time are Hawaii, Switzerland, Acapulco and Alaska.

Her next planned visit is one to North Carolina. Mrs. Jernigan is to depart Saturday, Aug. 9, for North Carolina where she will join her son, Rev. Wayne Jernigan, an Assembly of God minister. She will accompany him on a two-week revival crusade across the state before returning home.

"When I talked with my son he said he's already making plans for us to do some fishing in the mountains," she related. Next on her scheduled travels at this time is a trip to Florida in November.

Three years ago, during a junket to California, Mrs. Jernigan dipped into the art of mountain climbing. "I'm a pretty good climber and enjoy it so much because everything is always so beautiful," she related.

In describing some of the experiences she has had in climbing and exploring, she laughingly told of one of the very few times she has ever "popped out" on an exploration.

"I went to Utah one year and visited the copper mines and decided to go through the Devil's Kitchen. We explored it all by foot and it is really something to see. At the last Indian ruins in the cave were three eight-foot ladders in a row. I didn't climb these, I just decided it was a little too much."

Why would a lady pursue travel, fishing, mountain climbing and other things? Mrs. Jernigan commented, "I love meeting different kinds of people and learning about them and their customs. God gave us this world and I believe we should explore it to see as many of His wonders and beautiful things as we can."

In slowing her pace a little, Mrs. Jernigan tells of panning for gold in California. "I was in this little pioneer town that hasn't changed from the days when it was a gold town back in the mid or early 1800's. I bought a pan and went panning in a river stream." Upon her return, she presented each of her children with a sample of the gold which she found.

When traveling she uses many forms of transportation including car, plane, bus and motorcycle. She really doesn't "travel" by motorcycle but rides them everytime she gets a chance. She enjoys a short jaunt with her family or friends and says she does better on a motorcycle than on a bicycle. "I've tried to ride bicycles by myself but they just won't stand up straight with me."

This interviewer was beginning to think that Mrs. Jernigan had done about everything there was to do when she commented that she has one major goal left. "It would be the thrill of my life to learn to snow ski. My late husband and my children would never let me try. But, someday when I get the right chance at the right time, I'm going to try."

Mrs. Jernigan also has a few quieter hobbies. She is currently involved in making Indian necklaces and earrings. She constructs the pieces from silver and turquoise. "I just sit down and make my own pattern then make the necklaces I want from them." At the current time she has sold 11 sets "which I haven't even made yet."

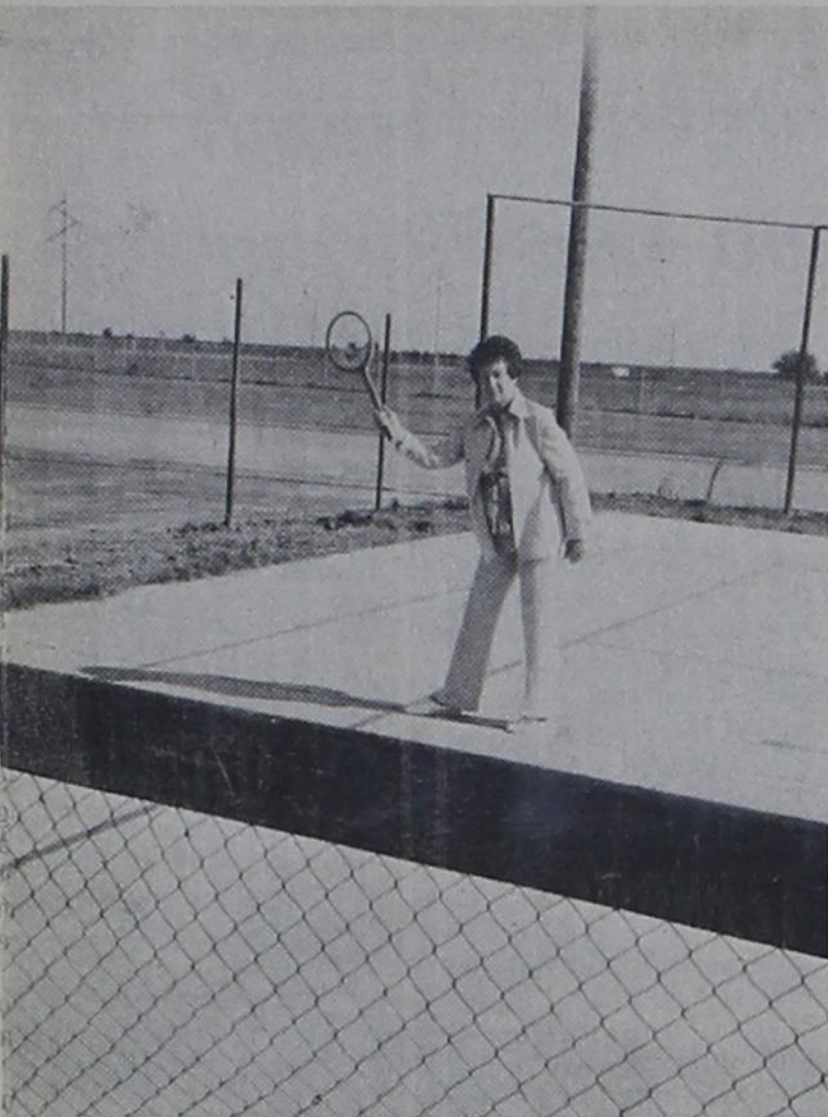

In an attempt to expand her scope of the hobby, she is planning to go to Albuquerque to study the making of bracelets and rings.

She has dabbled in crocheting and embroidery but "I never could enjoy knitting." She has even "had a hand" in ceramics.

One of the beautiful end products of her ceramics work is a potbellied heater approximately 16 inches in height which is an almost perfect replica of the once necessity.

"I love doing things and can do almost anything anyone else can or I give it a good try," she said.

In addition to her son in North Carolina, Mrs. Jernigan's children are Don Ray of San Diego, Calif., Robert of Anderson, Calif., Bill of Plainview, Matline Chumley of Texico, Sue Chumley of Burkburnett, Mae Menasco of Wichita Falls and Louise Schlegel of Archer City.

TENNIS BUFF - Mrs. Ila Jernigan of Texico is a self-instructed tennis bug who plays as often as she can. The 68-year-old "athlete" also enjoys motorcycling, fishing, mountain climbing, playing softball, traveling and has a dream of learning to snow ski.

During the past week, the Farwell Volunteer Fire Department has received four calls for the emergency vehicle. The first call was received July 30 to take a Farwell woman to the Clovis hospital where she was treated and released.

Aug. 2 the ambulance was summoned to the Buttons Howard Arena but transportation to the hospital was refused by an accident victim.

Aug. 4 firemen were called to the scene of a wreck east of Farwell. They transported a man to the Clovis hospital and he was later transferred to Lubbock.

Also on Aug. 4, the vehicle was summoned to a business establishment on Avenue A to take an apparent diabetic shock victim to the Clovis hospital.

A false alarm was received by the department Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 5.

No calls for the fire trucks or emergency vehicle were received by the Texico Volunteer Fire Department.

Visit Week In Arkansas

Mrs. Eunice Crume of Farwell and Mr. and Mrs. Davis Gulley and John of Route 2, Muleshoe, returned Monday from a week's visit in Arkansas.

They first visited in Mountain View, Ark., where they were born and reared. While there they visited relatives, toured the caverns in the Ozarks and did some other sight-seeing.

In Springdale, Ark., they visited their sister, Mrs. E. R. Parker, and other relatives.

HOME ECONOMICS AT A GLANCE

Don't let the color of the egg shell fool you - the breed of the hen determines the color of the shell, according to Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. She added that nutrition value, quality or cooking performance of the egg is not influenced by the color of the shell.

An infant born without congenital defects appears to be completely protected in his home, but suffocation, falls, poisonings, drownings and burns cause more deaths in this age group than all diseases combined, Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System noted.

HANDCRAFTS - In addition to being a sports and traveling enthusiast, Mrs. Ila Jernigan of Texico also pursues several areas of handcrafts. She is shown with an Indian Necklace she constructed of silver and turquoise and a potbellied heater she made when she delved into ceramics.

Loucile Foster Reflects On Trip Through Caverns

The sun seemed to be rising a little more brightly for it was to be an exciting day, according to Mrs. Loucile Foster, as she along with Alan Warren, Tod Meeks and Teresa Foster made plans to visit Carlsbad Caverns recently.

It was to be Tod's and Teresa's first visit to the cave and Alan was seeing it for his second time, but Mrs. Foster tells a very different story.

Her first trip through the caverns had been on the first anniversary of its opening. No electric lights had been installed and a few of the men visitors carried lanterns, while the guides carried flashlights. These were used to point out the formations that would have otherwise been missed and for SOS signals in case of an emergency.

"Forty-two plus 200 wooden steps led us downward to the interior, and seemingly twice as many led us out as the long tiring day closed upon the final sight," stated Mrs. Foster about her first trip through the caverns. "The paths had barely been formed and the entrances to some of the chambers were only a crevice with only a few handrails made of rope on the most dangerous spots."

As years passed, Mrs. Foster made many trips into the caverns but 20 years have passed since the last excursion. Twenty years of vast improvements on the trails, lighting and other facilities that made the walk easy and safe, according to the local resident. "But God's beautiful handiwork had not changed. Neither had the human amazement, gasps of 'ohs' and 'ahs' were heard constantly," she said.

What was so different about Mrs. Foster's last trip through Carlsbad Caverns? "Well," says Mrs. Foster, "two of the thrillseekers who went through with me this last time were my grandchildren, and the imagination of all ran amuck when it came to naming the formations."

In concluding, she affirms that "we are lucky people to have such natural beauty so very near us."

MR. AND MRS. TERRY OLIVER REID

Beverly Duncan, Terry Reid Exchange Doublering Vows

Beverly Karen Duncan became the bride of Terry Oliver Reid in a doublering ceremony performed Friday, July 11, at the Rosedale Baptist Church in Bellview.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duncan of Texico. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Reid, also of Texico.

Rev. Wayne McLemore of Forrest Heights Baptist Church of Clovis led the couple in the exchange of vows before an altar centered with a white kneeling bench and accented by a half moon candelabrum holding 15 tapers. Centering the candelabrum was a bouquet of yellow and green carnations and baby's breath. The kneeling bench was flanked on either side by palms. A gold stand with the white unity candle and two smaller candles stood just to the left of the altar.

Yellow satin bows marked the family pews. A white aisle cloth was unrolled by Jimmy Reid, brother of the bridegroom, just before the bride was escorted to the altar.

Musical selections were provided by Elizabeth Pierce who accompanied Mrs. Milton Autrey as she sang "Never, Never My Love" following presentation of the bride, and "You Make Me Feel Brand New" just after vows were exchanged.

The bride was escorted to the altar on the arm of her father and given in marriage by her father and mother. She was attired in a floor-length gown of bridal satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and full sleeves of white mist gathered into a lace-covered cuff with a ruffle. The dress had a standup collar trimmed with lace and a ruffle. Lace accented the dress down the sleeves and bodice and around the bottom. The gown was designed longer in the back to make its own train. Her chapel-length veil fell from a headpiece of daisies edged in lace and pearls. The veil was trimmed with the same lace as the gown. She carried a stylized cascade of white carnations, baby's breath and white sweetheart roses centered with yellow carnations atop a white Bible. A gold bracelet and white streamers enhanced the bouquet.

In keeping with tradition, the bride carried the gold bracelet in her bouquet as something old. The bracelet belongs to the bridegroom's paternal grandmother, Ruth Reid, and has been in her family for more than 70 years. Also a 1904 Indian head penny belonging to Mrs. Reid, was worn in the bride's shoe. Something new was her bridal ensemble, something borrowed was the white Bible which belongs to Mrs. Jack Eshleman, and for something blue the bride wore the traditional blue garter. In her shoes she wore pennies minted in the birth years of the couple.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride presented the bridegroom's mother a red rose and a kiss while the bridegroom presented the bride's mother a red rose and a kiss.

Cindy McCormick of Bovina served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Freda Leavell and Kim Harrison, both of Texico. The matron of honor was attired in a floor-length, high waisted dress of mint green double knit which featured short puffed sleeves and a scoop neckline. She wore a green floppy hat trimmed with green ribbon. The bridesmaids were attired in dresses of yellow which were fashioned after the gown worn by the matron of honor. They wore yellow floppy hats trimmed with yellow ribbon. Each carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations and baby's breath.

Tommy Galvan served as best man with David Turnbough of Texico and Jackie Reid, brother of the bridegroom, acting as groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Duncan selected a floor-length pink double knit dress with tiny white polka dots. It featured a V-neck which was trimmed with a ruffle and long fitted sleeves with a ruffle at the wrists.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a floor-length sleeveless white double knit dress with very small pink and blue flowers. It also had a V-neck and was gathered just below the bodice with a tab accented with two tiny white buttons. Each wore a corsage of white miniature carnations.

DeLinda Duncan, sister of the bride, registered guests at a table covered with white double knit edged in lace.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was covered with a green cloth edged with a white skirt and trimmed with green ribbon. The three-tiered wedding cake was enhanced by a fountain with flowing water underneath the first tier. The tiers were separated by columns with the cake being accented by yellow roses trimmed in green and wedding bells. A crystal punch bowl, a silver coffee service and mint dishes featuring yellow, green and white mints completed the bride's table.

For a honeymoon trip to Amarillo, the bride selected a three-piece pink pant suit.

The bride and bridegroom are both 1975 graduates of Texico High School. The bride is presently employed at a home decorating firm in Clovis. The bridegroom is associated with a Clovis tractor company.

Steamex gets the carpet dirt other methods don't reach!

1. Six Steamex powerjets penetrate to the ground-in dirt and old shampoo, yet are harmless to carpet fibers.
2. Steamex solutions loosen and lift all the dirt out of carpeting.
3. The Steamex vacuum draws dirt and solution into clear tube, so you can see when your carpet is thoroughly clean. At the same time, Steamex actually restores fibers to an upright position. And your carpet dries quickly.

No other method compares to Steamex. It's as simple to use as a vacuum, yet it does so much more. In tests by a major fiber manufacturer, only the Steamex method was found to do "excellent cleaning" with "pile restoration" and "no residue." Other methods didn't even come close in effectiveness. And Steamex uses six heavy-duty powerjets. That puts us five ahead of most other hot water extraction cleaners. Get everything out of your carpets that you put into them. Rent a Steamex. All Steamex solutions carry the As seen on CBS' Good Housekeeping Guaranty Seal. 60 Minutes, Sunday night. CBS

Captivate With Mushroom Caps

Served as an hors d'oeuvre, or as a special buffet dish, continental mushrooms are as elegant as they are appetizing. Consider them also as an entree, using two giant caps per person, perhaps in tandem with a mild cheese soufflé.

These stuffed mushrooms are salted with Morton Lite Salt mixture, the first iodized salt product with all the flavor of regular salt but only half the sodium. Used measure for measure as regular salt, it serves as a total replacement for table salt in cooking, baking and at-the-table seasoning. It is Not To Be Used By Persons On Sodium Or Potassium Restricted Diets Unless Approved By A Physician.

- STUFFED MUSHROOMS
- 1/2 pound large fresh mushrooms (8-10)
 - 1/3 cup dry bread crumbs
 - 2 tablespoons chopped walnuts
 - 2 teaspoons dry chopped chives
 - 1 teaspoon parsley flakes
 - 1/2 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 teaspoon Morton Lite Salt, a salt and potassium chloride mixture
 - 1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons half and half salad oil

Wash mushrooms, trim stems. Carefully snap off stems from caps. Drain caps on paper towels; chop stems. Combine chopped stems with dry ingredients; mix well. Add half and half; toss with fork to moisten all ingredients. Brush caps, inside and out, with salad oil. Sprinkle lightly inside with Lite Salt mixture. Heap each cap with crumb filling. Drizzle with salad oil (about 1/8 teaspoon for each mushroom). Place in greased pan and bake at 400°F. for about 20 minutes, until caps are just tender and crumb mixture is lightly browned. Serve hot.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. SERRAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60633

SEVEN TIMES A FAILURE

Despite man's natural tendency to boast, history has proven again and again that he is a failure, in deep need of God and His grace.

The Age of Innocence closed with man rebelling against his Creator and becoming a fallen, sinful creature (Rom. 5:12).

The Age of Conscience opened with one murder (Gen. 4:8) and before another age was ushered in "the earth was filled with violence" (Gen. 6:11).

Then came Human Government, but the world's first ruler made a spectacle of himself through drunkenness (Gen. 9:20,21). Little wonder we soon find the race intoxicated with its own importance so that God must confuse their language at Babel (Gen. 11:4,7,8).

The Age of Promise came next, with Abraham failing to enter into the promised land through unbelief (Gen. 11:31-12:3). It closed with Israel, his seed, failing to enter the promised land through unbelief (Heb. 3:19).

The Age of Law began with Israel worshipping a golden calf before Moses even got down from Sinai. Little wonder it ended with the rejection of Christ.

The Age of Grace commenced with the Apostle Paul, God's ambassador of love and grace, persecuted and imprisoned (Eph. 6:20). It will be brought to a close because man has chosen to go on in his sin rather than accept redeeming grace through Christ (II Cor. 4:4).

The Kingdom Reign of Christ, which is to follow the present age, will begin with our Lord rebuking strong nations (Micah 4:3) and will close with multitudes who have rendered enforced obedience, following Satan (Rev. 20:7-9).

How all this demonstrates man's need of God and salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ! "All have sinned" (Rom. 3:23) but, thank God: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:12), and in the midst of all this failure, multitudes have called and been saved.

Letter To The Editor

Galveston, Texas
July 30, 1975

Mr. John Getz, Publisher
The State Line Tribune
Farwell, Texas

Dear Mr. Getz,

I've just read the July 25th issue of your paper and was saddened by the news of the death of a lifelong friend, Ebb Randol, and the wife of Olan Schlueter.

The purpose of this letter though is to get the mailing address in Tempe, Ariz., of Mrs. Mary Probasco Nickell whose article, "Texico and the People," was carried in the same newspaper.

I would like to ask Mrs.

Nickell if she or any of the Probasco family remembers if the grocery store my father, J. W. Daniel, operated about 1906 and 1907 was the first grocery store in Farwell. He sold it to Mr. B. E. Nobles in 1907 or 1908.

I'm also enclosing for you a picture of the first Farwell schoolhouse, in the foreground, where I attended high school in 1909-1910. The brick building in the background was the 1910-1911 Farwell School building.

The 1909-1910 teachers were mentioned in Mrs. Nickell's letter, ie: T. Guy Rogers, principal, Lin Fertsch and Miss Roxie Witherspoon.

I'm sending you an extra copy of the picture for Mrs.

Lizzie Roland who, according to another article and photo in your July 25th paper, thinks her home may be the old Farwell school house.

These photos match pretty well. There was also a room at the back, not shown in my picture, where Miss Witherspoon taught the younger children.

Sincerely yours,
P. Hicks Daniel
1404 Bowie Drive
Galveston, Tex. 77550

Texico Trustees To Let Contract

Members of the Texico City Council will meet Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 6:30 p.m. MDT at City Hall for a regular session. During the meeting bids on the resurfacing of paving in the city will be opened and the contract is to be awarded.

INSUR-MATION

P.C. Farm Bureau Insurance
Billy Watts Ph. 481-3395

Where is the best place to keep my policies?

At home where you and your family have easy access to them. Insurance policies are simply a copy of a contract. There is no reason to keep them in a safety deposit box since if the policies are lost, stolen or in a fire, duplicates can be obtained from your company. Occasionally legal problems make it preferable to keep policies within easy reach. In the case of life insurance policies, a beneficiary might need a court order to open a safety deposit box and this could delay payment. Numbers of the policies and company names should be kept in a separate place from the policies as a double check.

FIRST FARWELL SCHOOL - In response to the article "Texico and the People" and a photograph published in the July 25 issue of the Tribune, P. Hicks Daniel of Galveston, former Farwell resident, submitted this photo as the first Farwell schoolhouse, in the foreground, where he attended high school in 1909-1910. Mr. Daniel says he thinks the photo is a good match to the one Lizzie Roland submitted as the building she was told was the first Farwell school. The brick building in the background was the new 1910-1911 Farwell School building.

If you have been around cattlemen (pardon me, cattlemen) the last two years, you have heard conservation talked. How come? It seems as though there is going to be more grass fat cattle than in the past.

There is no better conservation practice than well managed grass. I say well managed because abused grass land is only good for low grass production and high weed production.

Just why is grass such a good conservation practice? A few reasons are:

1. A good grass cover puts cover on the soil. This cover prevents rain drops from hitting the bare soil, sealing it over, and running off.

2. The fibrous root system allows the rain or irrigation water to percolate. This cuts down on runoff. If during heavy rains water does run off it is clear water.

3. Grass cover prevents wind erosion.

I could go on and on about the advantages of grass, but I just want to conclude with the opening statement that when cattlemen are talking grass fat cattle they are talking conservation.

Next week will talk about grass planting and management.

Sgt. Wayne Kube Reports To Germany

For AIP - -

Eugene Lonsdale Named Parmer, Curry Chairman

Eugene M. Lonsdale, former Belen, N.M., resident, has accepted the position of Western States Regional Coordinator for the American Independent Party, including Alaska and Hawaii, as the AIP Curry County Party Chairman in Clovis, as the Parmer County AIP Chairman in Farwell and as chairman of the AIP's Educational Committee.

Lonsdale, an employee of the Santa Fe Railway system, has purchased the John Porter home in Farwell, and will reside there with his wife, Patsy, and their three children, Ridley Allen, Peggy Ann and Eugene, Jr.

The primary concern of his political efforts will be directed at organizing each county with a county chairman, get registered voters into the American Independent Party, maintaining a roster of qualified speakers, and provide information and educational materials to schools, interested individuals and groups.

Lonsdale says he will maintain his employment with the Santa Fe and will make short trips around New Mexico and his 20-odd state districts by plane and automobile for meetings, speaking engagements, etc.

With one farm bill dead as a result of veto, Washington lawmakers are now at work on a second one. Members of the Senate and House Agricultural committees are predicting early fall as the time the new bill should be ready for formal consideration. From reports which have come out so far the consensus is that the measure will be pretty much a rewrite of the emergency bill earlier this year. Higher dairy, grain and cotton supports are considered a priority along with a target price program for rice. Some sort of new approach for a commodity reserve system is reported to be under consideration and there may be some changes in the disaster payment program. Perhaps the most extensive part of the bill will be indirectly related to agriculture since support is said to be heavy for an expanded food stamp program.

Rest easy.

Alateen Group Assists Children

Alateens, made up of persons whose parents are problem drinkers, are given an opportunity to hold group meetings at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday nights at 705 E. Grand, Clovis.

Children in drinking homes become confused, bitter, resentful and lose respect for their parents, according to Larry Null, Curry-Roosevelt council on alcoholism.

It is estimated that there are 3,000 such families in the Clovis area alone.

"We are strongly urging children in such homes to participate in an Alateen program," said Null. "In Alateen we learn to become individuals and try to realize that alcoholism is a disease.

"It is important for young adults to accept the fact that we are powerless over alcohol but that we can develop the ability to detach ourselves emotionally from our parents' problems while continuing to love them."

The Alateen program is designed to change the attitude of the children living in the home in hopes that the changed attitude will inspire the alcoholic to seek help. This may lead the parent to seek help with AA or Al-Anon, said Null.

"It is important that young adults do not get discouraged because they may be the ones who lead their parents to happiness and sobriety," said Null.

During the Alateen meetings, the parents are not discussed. The sole topic is the solution of one's own problems, according to Null.

Alateen is for persons 12 through 20 who live in an alcoholic situation. The main purpose of Alateen is to discuss difficulties teenagers face in which alcoholism plays a destructive role; to exchange experiences; and to encourage one another to learn effective ways of coping with problems.

Alateen teaches that compulsive drinking is a disease. Therefore, no one should condemn the alcoholic. Only through understanding alcoholism as a three-fold disease - body, mind and spirit - can we once more become a happy, united family," said Null.

Help is available for the alcoholic through AA; for the non-alcoholic through Al-Anon; and for the teenager through Alateen.

Following is a list of regular meetings for AA and Al-Anon.

- Monday, 7:30 p.m. at 612 Axtell, Clovis.
- Tuesday, 8 p.m. at 705 E. Grand, Clovis.

Sharon Booth Recruited For South Plains College Texanettes

Sharon Booth, an all-district forward from Farwell, is one of nine new recruits for the South Plains College Texanettes, announced Gayle Nicholas, women's basketball coach at SPC.

The 5-8 star averaged 16.3 points a game for the Farwell Varsity Steerettes. She was named to the All-District 3-A team in 1973, 1974 and 1975. And she was named Most Valuable Forward in 1974 and 1975 and was on the Muleshoe All-Tournament team. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert "Toby" Booth.

She also competed in track for four years. In 1972 and 1973 she qualified for the regional tournament in the 440-yard dash. Last year she ran the second leg of the Steerettes' mile relay team which finished third in the regionals.

"Sharon is a great shooter from the outside," Miss Nicholas said, "and she also plays good defense."

Joining Booth as new players will be Lisa Risinger of Bula, Lynn Kimbrow of Midland-Greenwood, Jane Goheen of Abernathy, Cynthia Haechten of Paint Rock, Belinda Throckmorton of Muleshoe, Cindy Ramsey of Iraan, Melaine King of Post, and Beth Terry of San Jon, N.M. Returning from the 1974-75 Texanette team will be starting guard Jan Hall of Post.

N.M. Law Makes Immunization Mandatory

During the 1975 Legislative Session, Representative Pena, Bernalillo County, N.M., proposed a change in the existing School Immunization Law. The law change alters a provision that followed a 30-day grace period for a student to receive the necessary immunizations following enrollment, to a mandatory requirement that a student have the necessary immunizations before registration will be allowed. A record of immunizations from a physician, county health department, or other health facility must be presented at registration. If a student has not received the necessary immunization they will be referred to their physician or the county health department. Once they receive an immunization, registration will be allowed.

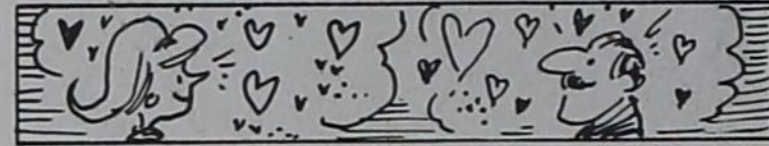

Children who are enrolled in school but do not complete the immunization series become in violation of the law. A directive to school superintendents from Mr. DeLayo, Director, Education Department, and Dr. Zalma, Director, State Health Agency, endorses the suspension of students that have not provided proof of immunization, with tentative plans for suspension after November 15. According to Dr. Zalma, a student entering school for the first time who had not previously been immunized, could complete the necessary series before the November 15 suspension date.

Dr. Zalma also stated that county health departments throughout the state will be open during registration to assist parents in qualifying their children for registration by providing the necessary immunizations, but strongly urges parents to avoid the last minute rush by getting immunizations done now.

The Curry County Health Department will be offering immunizations each Monday from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m.
