Border Town Days Queen - -

Lee Ann Williams Takes Title

Lee Ann Williams, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams of Farwell, received the crown and title of Border Town Days Queen for 1975 during coronation ceremonies held Saturday, July 26. The coronation was conducted prior to the final performance of the AJRA-sanctioned rodeo. Her first official duty as BTD Queen was to reign over the concluding rodeo performance.

Also seeking the title of 1975 Border Town Days Queen was Brenda Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orie Jones, also of Farwell.

The new queen received her crown from Lori Norton, 1974 Border Town Days Queen.

Contestants vying for the crown made their first appearance in the annual BTD parade Thursday, July 24. Appearing with the contestants were Miss Norton and Renee Keilt, Miss Rodeo New Mexico 1976. The contestants also appeared each night of the AJRA rodeo.

Judging of the contestants was done over three areas: horsemanship, personality and poise. Serving as judges were Ernest and Becky Wilson of Portales, Mrs. Frances Keilt of Portales, mother of Miss Rodeo New Mexico, and Mrs. Wilma Fulgham of Clovis.

Mrs. Keilt, Mrs. Fulgham and Wilson judged the contestants on personality and poise, and Becky Wilson judged them on pattern riding. The poise and personality portion of the contest included a personal interview by judges. The pattern riding was conducted Friday, July 25, at the Farwell Arena. A portion of the general horsemanship judging was done as the girls appeared in the parade.

The panel of three judges were each issued a score sheet on which they rated each contestant. The scores given by the judges were then tabulated and the queen was determined.

The 1975 Border Town Days Queen contest was sponsored by Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority.

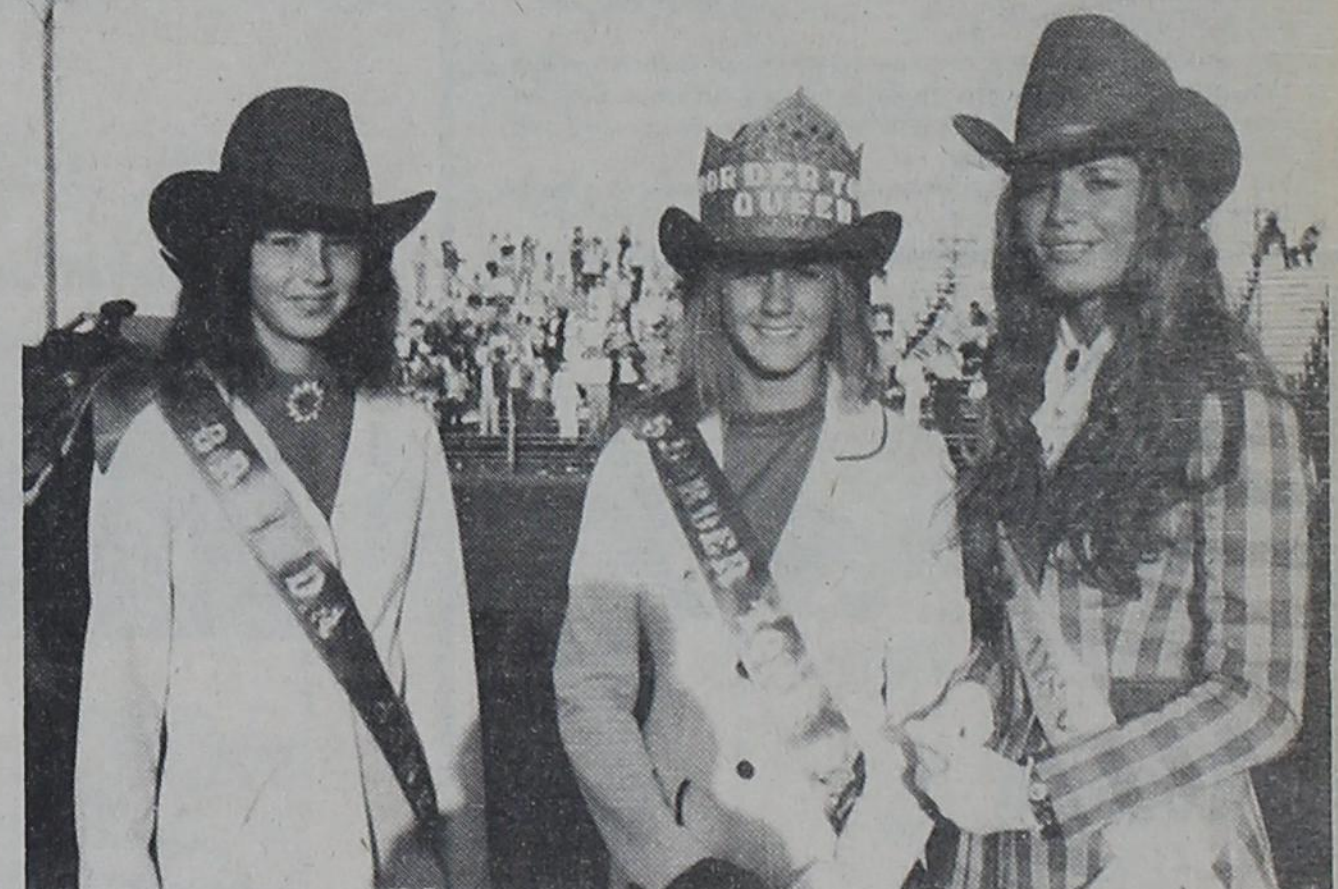

BEGINS REIGN - Lee Ann Williams, 1975 Border Town Days Queen for the Twin Cities, began her reign when she was selected for the honor immediately prior to the final performance of the AJRA Rodeo Saturday, July 26. Sept. 6 - -

City Sales Tax Election Ordered By Farwell City Commissioners

Members of the Farwell City Commission gathered for a regular meeting Monday, July 28, during which they approved an order calling for a one cent city sales tax election.

According to Commissioners, a city sales tax will be paid by all persons patronizing establishments within the city. In this manner everyone will be responsible for contributing to city funds. The one percent sales tax will be levied in conformation with the state sales tax structure. Tax exemptions will also conform to state sales tax levying.

The additional revenue raised through the city sales tax will, in all probability, alleviate the burden of higher taxes on city property owners.

The city sales and use tax election is to be held September 6 at which time voters may cast ballots on one of two propositions. The first proposition is "FOR adoption of a one percent local sales and use tax with the City" with the second proposition being "AGAINST adoption of a one percent local sales and use tax within the City."

Absentee voting for the election will be held at City Hall in Farwell beginning August 18 and continuing through September 2. Absentee ballots may be cast between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays during the period.

The September 6 election will be held at City Hall in Farwell between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Kay Hagler will serve as presiding judge and Wanda Walker as alternate presiding judge.

At Monday's meeting it was noted that the election was called during the previous meeting and City Clerk Janie Bowery was instructed to prepare the Order and related papers for signatures. Again it was pointed out that unless the sales tax proposition passes and the city derives revenue in this manner, the property tax rate may have to be raised in order to meet expenses.

The matter of traffic control signs for the city was reviewed by the Commission. City Marshal Ronald Mitchell presented a traffic map showing recommended sign and traffic patterns. Resolution for the grant application and an ordinance were read and approved by Commissioners. The following ordinance was accepted by the Council:

Ordinance No. 78 - "An ordinance authorizing existing traffic control devices, the installation of new traffic control devices, signals and signs, and directing the City Marshal to erect such devices, signals and signs as may be provided for in any subsequent ordinance, and providing for the prima facie evidence rule with respect to such devices, signals and signs as may be actually installed."

This ordinance may be read in its entirety at the City Hall in Ordinance Book, Volume 2. Commissioners then discussed liability insurance for the city. Mrs. Bowery stated that investigation shows that a policy can be written to include the Mayor and Commissioners, collectively and individually. A proposal from Aldridge Insurance Agency in the amount of $543 was accepted by the Council.

A Farwell resident appeared before Commissioners and requested that restrictions be waived to enable him to construct a metal garage and workshop on his property. The property is currently restricted to masonry only. Tentative plans are for a pre-fab metal building. The matter was taken under advisement.

The matter of a city well pump was brought before the Commissioners. Farwell Water Superintendent V. C. Venable reported that the pump has been pulled and inspected and is deemed completely worn out. He did state that there is only 38 feet of water in the hole at the present time because of something in the well.

It was noted that there is the possibility of "fishing out" the obstruction or spudding (going down) another 25 feet. Approximate cost of the spudding will be $300-$400. It was recommended that a submersible pump of at least four inches be used.

Commissioners agreed that the spudder be attempted if workers are unable to unodge the obstruction. As soon as work on the well is completed, a special meeting will be called to advertise for bids for the pump replacement.

Smokey Gast of the Farwell Volunteer Fire Department reported that three men attended the A&M Fire School and expressed the department's thanks to the Commission for the opportunity for the men to attend. Joel White was instructed in pump maintenance and will be able to teach the other fire fighters the basics of pumper repair and maintenance.

Gast took the Fire Marshal course and will be teaching fundamentals of investigation of arson and fire origin. Jerry Utsman also attended and studied Firemen II course which is actual fire fighting.

A resident of the city submitted a complaint to Commissioners regarding the upkeep and cleaning up of "nuisance areas" within the city. It was pointed out that some residences in Farwell are a disgrace to the other property owners. The complaint stated that the city either has or is in need of a nuisance ordinance which can be enforced.

Members of the City Commission stated that the complaint is valid and there is an ordinance on the books to take care of the matter. Marshal Mitchell was instructed to visit property owners whose premises are in bad condition in an effort to get them to clean up voluntarily. If property owners do not comply with the

Chamber Hears Report On Hospital District Bonds

The regular session of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce convened Tuesday, July 29, and a report was given on the rating of the Farwell Hospital District Bonds and a visit made to the Chamber by a prospective doctor for the nursing home.

It was reported by Bob Anderson that the Hospital District bonds had received an "A" rating from Moody's Investors Service in New York City.

Bonds were presented to the organization which checked into the economic status and market and all things relating to the economy of the Farwell Hospital District to determine the capability of the District to repay the bonds and interest.

According to Charles Aycock, officer of the Farwell Hospital District Board of Directors, the higher the rating given the bonds, the lower the interest rate on repayment of the bonds.

The "A" rating received for the local bonds is a very good rating which indicates Moody's believes the bonds are a very sound investment. Hospital District bonds are to be sold in the near future, according to Aycock.

Aycock also gave a brief report on the status of the nursing home. He commented that a tentative date of August 21 has been set for receiving contractor's bids on construction of the facility.

It was also reported that Health Care Management, Inc. has signed a management contract on the nursing home. The organization has requested that the Chamber compile a list of prospective residents for the facility along with a list of names and addresses of prospective employees. Local labor is to be utilized as much as possible in the operation of the home in all fields including nursing, kitchen, janitorial, aides, bookkeeping, etc.

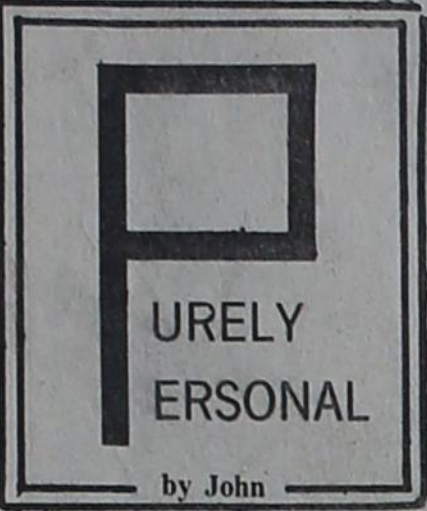

It was pointed out that

David Prickett, a student doctor at Guadalajara University in Mexico, visited with Chamber members last week. Prickett is looking for a place to settle after he completes his education and receives his medical license.

The prospective doctor toured the community and, according to reports, was favorably impressed with the area as a place to settle and begin his medical practice.

A proposal was presented whereby the local citizenry would guarantee a loan for Prickett to complete his education. Upon completion of studies, he is to return to Farwell to practice for a specified period of time.

Prickett is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. He served as a fighter pilot for six years before deciding on a medical profession. The medical student was in the Twin Cities and attended the annual Border Town Days parade and barbecue.

Border Town Days was the setting of two class reunions for Farwell High School graduates. The classes of 1950 and 1955 took the occasion to gather and renew acquaintances and also to reminisce on the "Good Ole Days."

We were invited to several of their functions and the wife and I thoroughly enjoyed the time spent with the "youngsters." After all, from our more mature vantage point it is difficult to realize that these kiddoes who we remember primarily as teenagers are adults with families and responsibilities.

It is such occasions as this that reinforce our contention that education is what the individual makes it. These classes were small by big city standards, but the areas of personal success and individual accomplishment scaled by these local graduates would be almost impossible to top by a like graduating class from, say Amarillo or Lubbock.

We wish the eggheaded, high level pursuers of consolidation could take a census of a graduating class from some of their larger schools and compare the 20-year history, on a per capita basis, with a small school. We suspect that they would soon find out that the percentages of success and happiness lie with the small "country" school, rather than with the large school . . . in spite of a supposed lack of curricula.

This, of course, goes back to our original argument against mass consolidation of schools. It isn't how much educational material a youth is exposed to; it's how much the individual person absorbs and puts to constructive use in life that counts.

Many small schools such as Farwell, Texico, Bovina, etc., continue to thrive! Our country needs this caliber of future citizens.

Now, we have a sour note to inject. Some fathead is turning in false alarms with disquieting regularity. A call sent the Farwell ambulance and fire truck on another fruitless dash down the Lubbock highway last Thursday.

To compound this irresponsibility, the person picked right after the end of the Border Town Days parade for the call. This meant that both emergency vehicles plus several law enforcement cars and several vehicles containing volunteer firemen had to thread their way through all that traffic.

There could well have been a serious accident as a result of this thoughtless action. Had there been, the person who turned in the false alarm would have been liable for criminal as well as civil prosecution.

This rapidly gets out of the area of fun. In fact, it is so far past the "fun" stage that the hospital emergency room may well be the next stop for our "prankster" if his identity becomes known to several of our "hard knuckled" fireboys.

The Farwell City Council has set a city sales tax election for September 6. In support of this tax election, we note that the Comptroller of Public Accounts, for the tax period ending July 3, 1975, reports the following towns and accounts received: Bovina, $710.93; Dimmitt, $4,340.06; Friona, $2,317.28; Hale Center, $978.24; Hart, $559.24; Muleshoe, $4,055.80; Olton, $1,110.57; Seagraves, $1,556.39.

Some of these towns are larger than Farwell and some are about our size, but all received a nice check from the State to help their local budgets.

This is one tax that somebody besides the local property owners can help pay. We're for it.

Texico-Farwell All-Stars Lose Squeaker

The Texico-Farwell Little League All-Stars entered competition in the New Mexico Little League District Tournament Friday, July 25, at Clovis.

The local baseballers were pitted against Clovis Southern League and were dropped by their opponents by one point, 4-3.

The clash turned into a "battle of pitchers" as John Scott, representing Texico-Farwell, gave up only four hits to Clovis. The local All-Stars picked up three hits from their opposing pitcher during the game. Catching for Scott during the action was Randy Herington.

Runs for the local team were credited to Waverly Coates and Monty Powell, who both took bases on walks. The third run was credited to Mac Langford who gained access to the bags on a hit.

All-Star Coach Bill Stone commented, "Our boys played a real good game. We had a good attitude on the team. What it boils down to is the best team won."

Coach Eddie Smith stated, "We had the rains that postponed our game. Our boys were ready but they had to wait and I feel as if this might have caused them to lose a little of their pre-game excitement. They really looked good as a whole and John Scott pitched real well."

Members of the All-Star team included Allen Hall, Clint Stone, Joel Edwards, Ricky

Foreman, Todd Meeks, Blake Buchenau, Randy Herington, Brent Green, Steve Smith, Waverly Coates, John Scott, Boyd White, Mac Langford and Monty Powell. Alternates were David Daniel and Mike Arnold.

Cannon Air Force Base Little Leaguers battled opponents to take the championship title and the right to represent Clovis at the State Little League Tournament.

The champions dropped three opponents in competition to advance to the play-offs where they met the Clovis Evening Lions Club and defeated them 5-3 for the title.

Family Land Honorees Contribute To History

AUSTIN--People who qualify for the 1975 Family Land Heritage Program will contribute to the historical record of Texas, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said recently.

A brief history of the land of honorees will appear in the Family Land Heritage Registry, a book charting Texas history through the eyes of those whose families made it.

"We never anticipated the interest the (1974) registry had," said White. "We thought it would be a nice record for the honorees, but we've had requests for it from as far away as the University of California."

Registries were sent to honorees, Texas state agencies and major public libraries in the state. People writing histories and state archeologists wanting the book as a field trip aid have also requested it.

White has asked local historians and county historical groups to encourage persons whose families have worked the same farm or ranch for 100 years or more to apply to the program, sponsored by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Registration opened June 1 and will close Aug. 15.

Applications have been sent to the office of the county judge in each county settled by 1875. Families in areas settled after that date may write to the Texas Department of Agriculture for a form if they think they qualify.

Applications have been expanded this year to include the historical documentation necessary for complete record. White said applicants must use the new forms to qualify.

Last year 565 landowners qualified for the first Family Land Heritage Day at the State Fair in Dallas where they were honored at special ceremonies. They also received certificates.

To qualify, persons must live on and work the land, or if they live off the land, they must actively manage and direct its everyday operation. Absentee ownership of land devoted to hunting, timber leases and similar operations will not qualify. Land that has been rented out at any time will not qualify.

Nancy Norris Weds R. Rickey Cooper

Nancy Norris and Robin Rickey Cooper were united in marriage in a ceremony conducted July 6 in Farwell at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Norris of Atlantic Beach, N.C. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cooper of Farwell.

Rev. Oran Smith of the Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church led the couple in the exchange of doubling vows in a terrace setting of yellow, blue and white potted mums and daisies.

Royce Cooper of Springtown, Tex., nephew of the groom, provided music on the harp-cord and electric piano.

The bride was attired in a white muslin dress trimmed in blue. Her headdress was a garland of white daisies. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath tied with yellow ribbon.

Her bridal ensemble served as something new, and something old was a gold locket which was attached to her bouquet. The traditional garter, presented the bride by her bridesmaid, was something blue. The bride and bridegroom borrowed twin gold four-leaf clover good luck pins which the bridegroom had given his parents while he was serving in the Navy.

Bridesmaid Greta Murphy of Morehead City, N.C., was attired in a yellow and blue floral, full length dress. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Serving as groomsman was William J. Windley of Gravette, Ark.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the Cooper home. The serving table was adorned with a yellow floral arrangement and blue and yellow napkins. Milk glass and silver appointments were used to serve cake and punch.

The tiered cake was decorated with white doves, blue wedding bells and yellow flowers. Leslie Rushing, sister of the bridegroom, and Mary Ann Cooper, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the wedding punch.

Texico Students At J-Workshop

Three students of Mrs. Kay West, journalism instructor at Texico High School, attended a journalism photo workshop at Texas Tech University recently.

In Lubbock from Sunday through Friday, week before last, were Joe West, Don Cherry and Ken Richardson.

Texico School 1974 yearbook, "The Wolverine," in recent competition received an "excellent" rating. Steve Harrington was editor of the yearbook.

Helen of Troy, whose lovely face the poet said launched a thousand ships, was really the prize in a fabulous contest. Three Greek goddesses asked Paris, prince of Troy, to judge which of them should be awarded the golden Apple of Discord. He gave it to Aphrodite who had promised him in return the love of the fairest of women, namely Helen. So Paris took Helen to Troy—and the Trojan War resulted!

SWDC NEWS

by Herb Evans

Water has really been traveling around during the rains of the last few weeks. Neighbors become upset with one another when rain water starts moving around.

Rainwater is hard to control once it gets enough volume and enough velocity to start causing problems. But, rain water can be controlled. If runoff is controlled on short watersheds, the water can never gather enough force to cause any damage.

What does this mean? It means that on dryland farms and sprinkler irrigated farms, parallel terraces will keep the water run-off well controlled.

On furrow irrigated farms, the row lengths and the degree of slope are the key factors. The steeper the slope the shorter the rows have to be to keep water from attaining damaging velocity.

If you are interested in controlling the water on your farm before it washes away your neighbor - contact the Soil Conservation Service in Friona.

Newcomer to the crowd is the Zapper. The "crowd" is the continuing deluge of technological innovations being utilized by the American farmer. Among the observable effects of this wave of modernity are the following: the new commercial cotton flour processing plant at Lubbock, soybean cheese experiments at Iowa State University, new hybrid wheat developments, new farm equipment... and the Zapper. Testing is continuing, but the initial results are interesting if not down right exciting for the most unique system of weed control since the hoe. Emitting a high energy microwave transmission directly into the soil... or Zapping it... has proven in a variety of tests to be an effective control device for weeds. All the side effects seem to be beneficial. First there are no harmful environmental factors and those involved in testing the zapper report a definite improvement in crop performance in the zapped soil. Welcome to the crowd, Zapper.

Linda Autrey, Alan Haile Wedding Vows Exchanged

Wedding vows were exchanged between Linda Ann Autrey and Alan Haile July 3 at the First Baptist Church of Texico. Rev. Joel Horne of Clovis officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Autrey of Texico. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Haile, also of Texico.

Nuptials were said before a tiered, cathedral brass candelabrum centered on the altar with brass, three-branched candelabra on either side with yellow cathedral tapers. In front was a brass preduie covered with crushed velvet where the couple knelt to seal their vows. Numerous palms of emerald and plaques of jade foliage interspersed the candelabra and completed the setting. Yellow bows marked the family pews.

After the bride was given in marriage by her father, "The Wedding Song" was sung by Carola Moore, accompanied by Rosetta Brannon on the organ. After the couple exchanged rings, "You Make Me Feel Brand New" was sung by Miss Moore, accompanied by Regina Kelley at the piano.

The bride selected a formal gown of organza and Venice lace, designed with a fitted empire bodice and victorian neckline. Her sheer full sleeves were caught at the wrists with lace cuffs. Her mantilla veil featured a chapel length train. She carried a cascade arrangement of white pixie carnations, tufts of baby breath, with apricot miniature "Tropicana" roses cascading down through it.

In her shoes, the bride wore pennies minted in the year of the couple's birth, given by her grandfather, Clarence Moore. Something old was a pearl necklace belonging to the groom's grandmother, Avis Haile.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Lorena Landrum. Bridesmaids were her sisters, Betty Wagner and Connie Benton. Junior bridesmaid was Tracy Moore. The attendants wore formal gowns of mint green, apricot, light blue and yellow, with empire waists that had dark contrasting velvet ribbon which tied in the back. Each attendant carried a colonial matching the color of her dress, with a cascade of velvet streamers matching the trim of the dress.

Flower girl, Glenda Owen of Lubbock, carried a basket of flowers. Ring bearer was Terry Moore of Bovina.

Serving as best man was Delvin Dupuy of Odessa. Groomsmen and junior groomsmen were Blake Haile, Buddy Lunsford and Kevin Brannon. Candelighters were Roxanne Brannon, Albuquerque, and Neal Haile, Texico. Ushers were Curtis Lindley, Texico, and Charles Rice, Albuquerque.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Autrey selected a mint green formal-length dress softly gathered at center front featuring a high waistline. The mother of the bridegroom wore a formal-length dress with a beige bodice belted at the waist and rainbow colors on beige skirt. Both wore corsages of coral-colored, miniature "Tropicana" roses.

Othena Smith of Texico registered the guests.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white nylon cloth with a gathered skirt and scoop tiers accented by bows carrying out the bride's colors.

The table featured a four-tiered cake with Roman columns separating two of the tiers between which stood the miniature bride and groom. Each tier was enhanced by small multi-colored bouquets. Adorning the top tier was a nose-gay of multi-colored flowers.

Cake, lime sherbert punch, nuts and rainbow colored mints shaped as rosebuds with green leaves were served by hostesses Bernice Norton of Farwell, Gaylene Owen of Lubbock and Mary O'Brian of Houston.

The groom's table, covered with a beige lace on beige tablecloth, featured a dark green candle draped with apricot grapes and a chocolate cake of intertwining rings, made by Connie Benton, Tucumcari, and served by Georgia Armstrong and Kim Pearce.

Rice bags were provided to the guests by Rhonda Brannon, Albuquerque, and Rochelle Rolan, Lubbock.

As a going away outfit, the bride wore a blue and green pant suit.

The couple, who are 1973 and 1974 graduates of Texico High School, plan to make their home in Odessa, Tex., where the groom is presently employed.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a lingerie shower given by Sylvia Burgett and Cynthia McDaniel, and a miscellaneous shower hosted by the Golden Circle Sunday School Class.

A rehearsal dinner at a Clovis restaurant was hosted by the Haile family, July 2.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies Honor Mrs. Jimmy Franse

Mrs. Jimmy Franse, the former Susan Symcox, was honored with a pre-nuptial luncheon Monday, July 21, at the home of Bernice Norton. The affair was hosted by Mrs. Norton and Leslie Lunsford.

The honoree and her mother, Mrs. Vernon Symcox, were each presented a corsage of daisies.

Decorations for the luncheon included a centerpiece of a garden basket containing white daisies and peach spinnwheel daisies with clouds of gypsophilia. The main table was covered with a white linen cloth with matching napkins.

Two of the small luncheon tables were decorated in red and two were decorated in yellow. The smaller tables were centered with miniature Italian baskets designed after the centerpiece adorning the large luncheon table.

Guests were served refreshments of tomato juice cocktail, hot chicken salad, vegetable salad, broccoli casserole, hot sliced bread and butter and fresh fruit with mint sauce.

The 24 guests attending were registered in a bridal book which was then presented the honoree.

On Friday, July 18, Mrs. Vernon Symcox, Mrs. Franse's mother, honored her daughter and wedding attendants, Mrs. Mickey Lunsford, Mrs. Buddy Foster and Joyce White, with a dinner at a Clovis restaurant.

Doubling Ceremony Unites Ruth Corley, William Wilson

Ruth Ann Corley and William Martin Wilson were united in marriage Thursday, July 17, at the House of Prayer in Clovis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Corley of Portales. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wilson of Texico.

Rev. Royce Corley, father of the bride, led the couple in their doubling vows before an altar decorated with an archway of red and white carnations with greenery and a five-branch candelabrum on each side. The setting was accented with palms. A kneeling bench completed the decorations.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Wesley, the bride was attired in a white peau de soie gown with Alencon lace covering the bodice and sleeves. The scalloped hem of the skirt was appliqued with Alencon lace. Her cathedral train was of silk bridal illusion appliqued with pearlized over-lay lace outlined with scalloped Alencon lace. The bridal gown was designed by the bride and made by the bridegroom's mother. The bride carried a bouquet of white miniature carnations, red roses and baby's breath with white lace streamers.

Carrying out bridal tradition, for something old the bride wore her mother's wedding shoes. Her bridal ensemble served as something new, and her train, belonging to the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Gary Heidenreich, served as something borrowed. Something blue was a blue lace garter.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Martha Corley, and bridesmaid was Lynn Ann Wofford. The attendants wore princess style gowns of red and white nylon dotted swiss with mandarin necklines and puffed sleeves.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Randy Chandler of Farwell. David W. King of Stanley, N.M., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, acted as groomsmen. Ushers were Frank and David Baca. Candelighters were Linda Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, and David King.

Sarah Corley, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gown of red and white dotted swiss and carried a white and gold basket filled with red roses, white carnations and baby's breath with ribbon streamers.

Ring bearer was David King II, nephew of the bridegroom. He carried a heart-shaped pillow of white satin overlaid with Alencon lace from the bride's gown. The rings were secured by red satin bows. The pillow was handmade by the bridegroom's mother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Corley selected a yellow gown with a lace jacket. Mrs. Wilson was attired in a blue satin crepe princess style gown with a shawl collar. Each wore a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

Wedding music was provided by Sally Stiles, pianist and soloist; Debbie Clark, accordion; Skippy Hearst, trumpet; and Mrs. Randy Miner, violinist. Selections were "Rule In Thy Temple," "Psalms Thirty-Four" and "I Will Bless The Lord."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. The bride's table was covered with white lace over red satin. The wedding cake, which served as the centerpiece, had four tiers separated by columns and was decorated with red roses, clusters of rosebud blossoms and white wedding bells. The cake, accented by two accompanying cakes with the date and name of the bride on one and the bridegroom's name and date on the other, was made by Mrs. Kenneth Baum.

Hostesses were Debbie Bachelor, Linda Wilson, Allyson Yarbaugh and Mrs. George Taliaferro.

After a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Colorado, the couple is making their home in Clovis.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Portales High School and is presently employed as a licensed beautician. The bridegroom is a 1971 graduate of Texico High School and is a senior at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales. He is presently serving as pastor of the House of Prayer.

Perrys Attend Family Camp

Attending a Minister's Family Camp at Sacramento Methodist Assembly near Cloudcroft, N.M., last week were Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Perry. Rev. Perry is pastor of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church of Texico-Farwell.

Minister's Family Camp is held each year under the direction of the Board of the Ministry of the New Mexico Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. A seminar-type school is held with classes for both ministers and their wives.

This year, Dr. Robert Thornburg of the Division of Ordained Ministry of the Board of Global Ministries was the resource person for ministers, and Mrs. Thornburg met with the minister's wives.

Rev. Perry reports that the morning hours of the schedule were designed so that informal dialogue might be held with the Thornburgs, with preaching worship services held at noon and in the evening.

Granddaughters Stay Here While Mother In Hospital

Karen and Kathy Williams, granddaughters of Mrs. Onie Bradshaw of Farwell, returned to their home in Lubbock last Saturday.

The girls had been staying with their grandmother while their mother, Mrs. Janie Williams, was in the hospital in Lubbock, following a serious automobile accident on Friday, July 18.

The accident was a chain reaction, four-vehicle wreck, and Mrs. Williams' car was the third vehicle in line and was hit from the back knocking it into the two cars in front which had collided, reports Mrs. Bradshaw. Mrs. Williams had just put her two daughters on a bus to Farwell for the visit with their grandmother.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BERIAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

HOW THEY SHINE!

Years ago, while preaching the Word at a Bible conference, I noticed a young lady in one of the front pews who wasn't listening to a word I was saying. I could understand, however, for evidently she had just become engaged to be married. Her eyes were focused on the ring on the third finger of her left hand, and her heart and mind on the young man who had placed it there. With a pleased look on her face, and cocking her head from one side to the other, she gazed at that diamond from every angle. No matter how she looked at it, it shone - entirely apart from the quality of the stone. It shone because it spoke to her of him and of his love for her, and was the symbol of her betrothal to him.

For some time after I had concluded my message, my mind went back to that scene. The ring that had so occupied this young lady's attention, made me think of the Bible, the very Book we had been studying that night. Examine that blessed Book ever so carefully; look at it from any angle and it shines! It made me think too of the grand Subject of that Book, the Lord Jesus Christ, to whom we believers have been "espoused...as a chaste virgin" (II Cor. 11:2). Unlike any earthly friend, He shines no matter how we look at Him. Examine His words, His deeds, His personal attributes, from any angle and ever so carefully, and no matter how you look at Him HE SHINES!

Former Tribune News Editor - -

Mama Chris Moss Schools With Hundreds Of 'Daughters'

LEVELLAND - Whether it's getting up at midnight to discover an impromptu birthday party in the lobby, or lending a friendly ear to a tale of woe, instant motherhood is a joy for Crystal Moss.

Although a mother in her own right, Chris becomes instant mother, friend and adviser year-round as dorm director to her young charges in Mary Gillespie Hall, one of several women's residence halls on the campus of South Plains College. The girls affectionately call her "Mama Chris."

And Chris reciprocates the feeling. "I love people, particularly young people. They're my thing," said Chris, a petite, attractive woman with lively blue eyes.

Chris came to South Plains in 1970 following a 10-year stint as news editor for the State Line Tribune in Farwell. Just before leaving newspaper work, Chris won an award for the Best Woman's Page Feature in 1970 presented by the Panhandle Press Association.

The award-winning plaque hangs on a wall in her comfortable combination living room, bedroom and kitchen at Gillespie.

"When my husband, Jim, died in 1964, my children thought that Mother ought to get into this kind of work (dormitory director) because Mother liked kids and kids liked Mother. My youngest son was in college when his dad died and he thought this would be a great idea," Chris explained.

"I wasn't quite ready then, but I took training and attended some workshops." In the spring of 1970, Chris made up her mind. "If you are going to do it," she told herself, "now is the time to start."

So she left Farwell, her home since early childhood, where she had grown up, married and reared a family and came to SPC, where a brand new family of "daughters" awaited her. "I've enjoyed every minute of my work at SPC," Chris noted. "I wouldn't go back."

"We've had a lot of funny things happen here. We have alarms on the doors so that we can be aware if someone goes out after she shouldn't. This particular night we had been having a seige of alarms being set off," Chris recalled.

"The dorm president and I walked barefooted down the hall turning off the alarms. I noticed one girl in the hall and thought it strange that no one else had come out of their rooms. We walked through the lobby and flipped on the light switch." A chorus of "Happy Birthday, Chris," belted out by the mischievous residents, kicked off a surprise midnight birthday party for the unsuspecting dorm director, who had even forgotten what day it was.

"The lone girl I had seen earlier in the hall had stayed inside while all the others sneaked out to unlock the door. She unlocked the front door to let them into the lobby after the alarms had been turned off," said Chris.

Mementoes as well as memories abound for Chris.

A whimsical chalk caricature of Chris sketched by a student's mother and a water-color painting of a windmill by a student artist are among the original art pieces on display. A tiny red pair of Japanese sandals, a wooden saki cup, (from which to sip the potent wine), and a bamboo toothpick holder, gifts from several international students, vie for space in a small bookcase filled with tiny whatnots and figurines. Student gifts of potted plants lining the windowsills and a healthy totem pole ivy give a touch of greenery to the cozy apartment.

Chris often takes time out for visits or long telephone chats with her three children, Jimmy Don of Wilcox, Ariz., Mrs. Jerry L. (Anita) Henson of Clovis, N.M., and Glendon of Kailau, Hawaii.

She has flown to Hawaii three times, once as a Christmas present. And she often corresponds by tape with her Hawaii family.

Grandkids, seven in all range in age from 15 to one year, and she proudly pulls out a small photo album filled with color snapshots of the youngsters.

The birth of a grandson, James Rick, four days after his grandfather's death, helped ease the family's sorrow. Although Chris was never able to attend college (money for such a luxury was scarce during the Depression), she has attended workshops and taken college courses, such as a writing course last spring at SPC.

She is looking forward to additional courses this fall, and of course, eagerly awaiting a batch of new "daughters" at Gillespie.

"With him it's the long-range view of everything."

TRIBUNE RIVIA

The last two months, particularly, the Tribune has carried the stories of many weddings or announcements of weddings to be. Most of the brides and brides-elect are going to be cooking for the first time on their own.

Many news releases and articles cross our desk, and the following article was prepared by the General Foods Consumer Center, which we feel would be most helpful to all new brides.

We would like to share it with all of our area homemakers:

THE BRIDE AND BREAKFAST

June, July and August are the most popular months for brides. Whether the new bride (or groom) is a great cook or not, it's always a good idea to have some nice and easy recipes and suggestions to make the beginning of each day very special. Turn breakfast into a good habit, you'll get a good start on the day.

Breakfast in bed? Why not! It's a wonderful way to pamper the one you love. Try a simple bed tray with a fresh flower and the morning newspaper. Serve a complete nutritious breakfast, such as a bowl of cereal, fresh fruit, milk, a croissant with butter, and tea.

Wake-Up Beverage Empty 1 envelope (1.25 oz.) instant breakfast - vanilla flavor - into tall glass. Add 1 cup cold milk; stir until completely dissolved. Add 2 tablespoons frozen concentrate for orange breakfast beverage; stir to blend. Makes about 1 cup or 1 serving.

Try a Little Sunshine Change the place of breakfast. On a nice sunny summer morning, take the meal outdoors. Enjoy it on the back porch or patio, and on week-ends venture to the city park or countryside.

Orange Glazed Doughnuts Combine 1/4 cup frozen concentrate for orange breakfast beverage and 2 tablespoons confectioners sugar in a shallow bowl; blend thoroughly. Dip about 12 heated doughnuts in the mixture to glaze. Serve warm. Makes 1/2 cup glaze.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

Swine producers in Parmer County can take positive steps to control atrophic rhinitis in their herds.

This disease causes sniffing, sneezing, coughing and pneumonia in young pigs that are infested by their mothers or older swine.

Severe cases of the disease damage bones of the snout and bony structures of the head, resulting in twisted and distorted snouts. Often, eyes become infected with secondary bacteria, indicated by a weeping and reddened appearance.

The disease also depresses growth and causes poor feed efficiency.

Sulfamethazine and other sulfa drugs can be used to suppress the infection which causes atrophic rhinitis. Give young sows 180 grams of sulfa in their ration for about two weeks before farrowing and one week after. This will help the sows rid themselves of the infection and lessen the chances of infecting newborn pigs.

Sows tend to develop natural immunity to the disease as they mature.

Also sulfa drugs can be added to pig starter feeds so the pigs are receiving treatment as soon as they begin eating. Continue the medication until they reach 75 to 100 pounds, as this is the period in which severe damage occurs to the snout and lungs.

A veterinarian can make a positive diagnosis of carrier animals by making nasal swabs of several pigs for culturing by the diagnostic laboratory. Cultures should be taken from pigs between the ages of 4 to 10 weeks for best results.

If sows or pigs are purchased which are claimed to be free of atrophic rhinitis, the purchaser should insist on evidence that the animals are from a SPF accredited herd. Producers should understand that "specific pathogen free" (SPF) swine are not necessarily resistant to disease, so they can still become infected when removed from SPF sources and exposed to disease organisms.

When attempting to control atrophic rhinitis, as with all disease conditions, nourished swine are much more able to cope with the effects of any chronic disease.

Border Town Days Draw 'Excellent Turnout'

Activities in the Ninth Annual Border Town Days celebration for the Twin Cities began Thursday, July 24, under partly cloudy skies which later drenched Parmer County, and the surrounding area with rain. Despite the weather, an excellent turnout was recorded for the parade, barbecue and rodeo performances.

First scheduled activity for BTD participants was the annual parade during which three float winners and riding club winner was declared. Judges Johnnie Rundell and Donna Westphal declared the float entry submitted by the Farwell Jaycees as top float winner with Hughes Auto Parts taking second place and the Texico Woman's Club placing third. Each of the floats was awarded a trophy. Theme for the 1975 parade was "We Feed The World."

Only one riding club officially entered the parade and the Texico Riding Club was presented the riding club trophy for 1975.

Judge Pat Boone, Jr. of Littlefield, County Judge Paul Fortenberry, Parmer County Commissioners Tom Lewellen, Charlie Jefferson, Jimmy Briggs and Cecil Atchley and Parmer County Sheriff Charlie Lovelace.

Plans Being Finalized For Baylor Homecoming

Plans are being finalized for the return of thousands of Baylor University alumni, parents of students and Bear-backers to Waco and the Baylor campus Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 for the university's 1975 homecoming activities.

Graduation classes of years ending in fives and zeroes will have reunions in the Baylor Student Union Building. Class registration, starting with the Class of 1925, will begin at noon Oct. 31 on the front lawn of the union building. Exes who graduated before 1925 will register and meet as part of the university's "over 50 club."

Two outstanding alumni awards will be presented during the homecoming weekend. Those to receive that recognition are Mrs. Lois Murray Strain of Gatesville, a Baylor graduate, long-time teacher and former employee in the university's development department; and William Stone (Red) Wells, vice-president of Tenneco Inc., of Houston.

Popular homecoming activities will include Oct. 31 performances of "Pigskin Revue" in Waco Hall and "Cabaret" in the Baylor Theater. Tickets for these two entertainment presentations usually are sold out well in advance. The traditional Singspiration, pep rally and bonfire will highlight activities on Oct. 31.

The annual homecoming parade, complete with colorful floats, bands and nominees for homecoming queen, will move through downtown Waco to the Baylor campus beginning at 9 a.m. Nov. 1. After the parade, barbecue will be served on Founders Mall in front of Pat Neff Hall on campus.

Sheriff's Report

Members of the Parmer County Sheriff's Department have been investigating three burglaries in the county.

Bill Foster of Farwell reported the theft of two bridles, one hackamore and two saddle blankets from a box car located on Ninth Street. Sheriff's officials investigated the theft Monday.

According to Sheriff Charlie Lovelace, it is thought the thief or thieves were frightened away as there were saddles and other equipment stored in the box car which had not been bothered.

Officials estimate the value of the stole articles at over $50.

A theft at the Hollis Horton place, located seven and one-half miles north of Friona, has been investigated by law officials.

FIRE CALLS

The Farwell Volunteer Fire Department reports one call being received during the past week.

Wednesday morning, July 30, the emergency vehicle was dispatched to transport a Farwell woman to the Clovis hospital where she was treated and released.

The Texico Fire Department reports no calls for the fire truck or the emergency vehicle.

Thursday afternoon, July 24, a false report sent members of the two units out to a location on the Lubbock highway.

A goat and a small calf are believed to have been stolen from the location. The animals belong to Fidel Morales.

Sheriff Lovelace reports that the calf was discovered wandering loose but the goat has not yet been located.

Ten miles north and west of Friona on the Richard Vaughn farm a theft occurred during which one case of canned oil, a truck tarp and a quantity of gasoline were stolen. Department officials are still attempting to locate the stolen articles.

The company I work for has a retirement pension plan and although I could participate in it, I would rather have my own. Is this possible?

Yes, it's possible but not very practical. Under IRA you make the entire contribution...under most companies' retirement plans, the employer contributes most of the money that goes toward the pension plan. An employer-designed plan will accomplish more because of the reduced administration costs per individual participant. It would seem you may be attempting to trade a lot of benefits for the sake of mobility. Your employer's pension plan automatically takes care of most of the paperwork, time and money needed to set up a comprehensive retirement pension plan.
