Twin Cities Record Growth, Prosperity

by Shirley Gorman

The year 1978 was a time of growth and prosperity for the Twin Cities of Texico and Farwell.

According to Janie Bowery, Farwell City Clerk, permits have been issued for five new homes during the past year as well as numerous permits for garages, extra rooms and new additions.

The assessed property value of the new homes and additions etc. is $218,965 she said. For the past year the total assessed value of property taxable by the city is $16,093,482, representing an increase of $1,241,901 over the 1977 assessed value figure of $14,851,581.

"The assessed property value for the year 1978 will mean that the city will actually receive a tax revenue of $48,280.45," Mrs. Bowery said.

She said the city now has 557 water meters registered compared to 546 for the year 1977.

"The Texas State Board of Water Resources estimates that Farwell has a water meter for every 3.3 persons," she added.

Mrs. Bowery went on to say that the city of Farwell has received $22,226.52 in sales tax revenue with another $3,000 (approximately) expected as the last quarter payment for the year 1978.

Nearly 10 years ago the national census computed Farwell's population at 1185, but Mrs. Bowery said that the city's projected growth is now expected to be 1400.

Marie Christian, Texico trustee and city clerk, says that since all building permits in Texico are issued by the state she has no record of the actual building permits issued for the city last year.

She did say that "there are no vacant homes in Texico," adding that as far as she knew a "modular home and a new mobile home were being set up in Texico."

She also said that a "home was being built in south Texico and the foundation for another home has been poured."

A major project for Texico was the construction of the KKR well which will be put into operation as soon as the necessary hookups arrive and are installed, Mrs. Christian said.

The assessed value of Texico's taxable property for 1978 is $1,162,327, representing a substantial increase over the 1977 figure of $1,108,456 and $1,080,476 for 1976. These figures were provided by the Curry County Tax Assessor-Collector's office.

According to the Curry County treasurer's office Texico city tax revenue for 1978 is set at $39,402.59.

Texico now is servicing 323 water meters which is 11 more than the 311 being serviced in 1977.

Mrs. Christian said the current population for the city is probably between 900 and 1000, which is better than the "erroneous population figure of 700 recorded during the 1970 census," she said.

Both Texico and Farwell are able to look back on 1978 and be pleased with the progress shown and to look forward to 1979 with new hopes for greater growth, expansion and prosperity.

Trial Date May 1 - -

Former Texico Clerk Arraigned In Clovis

Clara Wiehl, former Texico City Clerk, was arraigned Tuesday morning before District Judge Reuben Nieves on 38 counts of embezzlement, failure to deposit public money and tampering with public records.

Mrs. Wiehl pleaded not guilty to all charges and was released on her own recognizance. Judge Nieves set May 1 as the trial date. He will also preside at the trial.

A Curry County grand jury indicted Mrs. Wiehl December 15 on the 38 counts of embezzlement, failure to deposit public money and tampering with public records.

The charges stem from an alleged $27,500 which is missing from Texico city funds. However, the earlier indictment and this week's arraignment are centered on approximately $5,000 dating back to Oct. 20, 1977.

Rumors of missing funds began to circulate soon after an audit of Texico's books from July 1, 1976 through February 1978 showed that apparently a substantial amount of money was missing from the city's treasury.

Absentee Voting Underway - -

Special Election Set In Farwell

Farwell voters will go to the polls Saturday, Jan. 20, to decide whether to keep the present form of government or change to the Aldermanic System.

Under the Aldermanic System the City of Farwell will elect six aldermen and one mayor. Following the election the aldermen will draw lots to see who gets either a two or a four year term.

Under the present form of city government, Farwell has a mayor and two commissioners.

City officials approve the proposal because they feel it will provide the city with a better form of government. Since all positions will not be vacated at once, programs begun under one administration will continue even though some city officials may change, they said.

Polls will be open Jan. 20 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the City Hall. Absentee voting is underway this week and will continue through Jan. 16.

If the proposal is passed during the upcoming special election then a slate of six aldermen and one mayor will be elected during the next regular city election slated for the first Saturday in April of this year.

If it is turned down then a regular slate of city officers will be elected as in past years.

The petition to vote to change the form of government was signed by 72 qualified Farwell voters and was presented at the Dec. 27 City Council meeting. Commissioners Fred Chandler and Johnny Curtis accepted the petition in the absence of Mayor Walter Kaltwasser who was out of town.

The number of signatures was well above the necessary 10 percent of the 611 qualified voters needed by law before the proposal could be presented in a special election.

Longest Tailfeather - -

Bovina Youth First In County

For the third time in four years, a Bovina hunter has captured first place in the Parmer County pheasant tailfeather contest.

Daryl Hawkins, 14, a high school freshman and son of Mr. and Mrs. Erith Hawkins, took the top county honors with a tailfeather measuring 25 1/4 inches in length. He will receive an engraved plaque from the Parmer County Game Management Association.

Bovina won the county contest in 1975, 1977 and 1978, with Farwell taking county honors in 1976.

Besides the overall county contest, the towns of Farwell, Bovina and Friona each had their own tailfeather contests.

The three Farwell winners each bagged feathers measuring more than 24 inches long, falling just short of the county winner.

Edwin Lingnau finished in first place with a feather measuring 24 15/16 inches in length. Mike Norris took second place with a 24 5/8 inch long feather. An out-of-towner, E. Kent Hawes of Universal City, Tex. had the third place winning tailfeather, measuring 24 1/2 inches in length.

The three local winners received checks of $15, $10 and $5 for their hunting expertise. Sponsors of the local contest were Security State Bank, Shirley-Anderson-Pitman and Farwell Hardware.

Hunters in Farwell took their tailfeathers to Farwell Hardware for measuring.

Lingnau also finished second in the county contest.

Other Bovina winners besides Hawkins were John Johnston, 24 5/8, and Ray Verner, 24.

Those winning in the Friona contest were Charles Hamilton whose tailfeather measured 24 7/8; Robert Zetzsche, 24 5/8, and Jayson Grimsley, 24 1/2.

Hamilton also finished third in the county competition.

Farwell Winner

Edwin Lingnau of Farwell displays the tailfeather he acquired during the recent pheasant hunting season in Parmer County. Lingnau's entry measured 24 and 15/16 inches which was good enough to capture first place in the Farwell contest and second place in the county. Lingnau received the $15 first place local prize sponsored by Security State Bank.

Brrr!!!!!! It's Cold!!!!!!

Texico elementary students, teachers and administrators spent a chilly day Wednesday trying to stay warm. A boiler was out in the building and temperatures remained quite cold indoors. These two second graders, Mike Williams, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams, and Shannon Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith, bundled up during the day while they completed their assignments. Most of the students and other elementary personnel temporarily set up classes in the high school building, but the first and second graders, whose classrooms face the east, decided to "tough it out" because they kept their rooms warmer than the other classrooms. Shannon and Mike are second graders in Mrs. Ann Pearce's class.

Snow, Cold Bring White New Year

Area holiday goers were not treated to a "White Christmas," but the past weekend ushered in a "white New Year," complete with record breaking low temperatures and five inches of snow.

Beautiful as it was (if you did not have to get out in it), the frigid blast of winter harassed holiday travelers who either cancelled much looked forward to plans or else braved hazardous roads and highways traveling to and from intended destinations.

The most recent winter storm began moving into the Twin Cities Saturday, beginning with sleet which rapidly turned to ice in the cold weather.

Adding to the already poor road conditions, a thin coat of snow fell in the area Saturday night. The snow then quickly froze in the extremely low temperatures and would-be holiday goers had to decide how, when or if to change their plans.

More snow fell in the Twin Cities and throughout the area Sunday night-bringing the total to five inches -- and by Monday, (New Year's morning) Amarillo had recorded a record breaking 10 degrees below zero.

No one had any trouble doubting the extreme cold weather conditions as they prepared to begin the work week on Tuesday. And for many area residents an added problem incurred by the weather were stubborn cars and weakened batteries which refused to turn over, much to the disgust of their owners. Frozen water pipes in homes throughout the area added to the misery.

Parmer County Agent Seth Ralston said that this snow was equally as dry as the snow which fell the first week in December and that it would provide very little moisture; however, what little wetness there was would benefit the wheat crop. The snow storm also halted the already late cotton harvest.

At mid-week a combination of snow and ice still covered the streets of Texico and Farwell, continuing to make driving a cautious adventure as temperatures remained below the freezing mark.

2 Men Arrested For Hog Thefts

Two Clovis men were arrested Saturday in Portales on Parmer County warrants, reports Sheriff Charles Lovelace. They waived extradition and were returned to Farwell Tuesday where they were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Ray E. Mears.

Charged with theft of hogs are Teofilo Oliverez, 28, and Wendell Davenport, 33. Mears set bond at $10,000 each. They were bound over for grand jury action slated for January 22.

Lovelace said the two men were apparently involved with the theft of some 60 hogs and two cows in the surrounding area. They reportedly are also involved in the theft of furniture from two mobile homes in Texico, the sheriff reports.

Lovelace said they are trying to recover all the stolen animals, but for the moment have only been able to recover 31 head of hogs belonging to Larry Scott.

According to the sheriff, Scott accompanied Parmer County officials to Portales Saturday where he identified the 31 head of hogs as belonging to his herd. He reported them missing shortly after the Christmas holiday.

With Scott's help, Lovelace said the two men were then taken into custody by Portales officials and eventually returned to Farwell this week.

Lovelace said that of the hogs taken several belonged to Scott as well as the Friona ag barn, Jake Perea of Friona, and Isidro Ortega of Lariat. The ag barn in Friona has been burglarized twice during the past few months, he said.

Besides identifying Oliverez and Davenport, Lovelace said they were also able to identify their vehicle as the one allegedly used in the Scott theft.

Besides the hogs and some pen feeders, Lovelace said two head of cattle had also been stolen, one an 850 pound steer.

Lovelace said they are trying to recover the other animals but he speculates that they probably have been disposed of through sales such as the one held in Bovina. However, he said they are still trying to recover them.

Heavily Laden

Winter's harsh and icy blast finally felled this beautiful clump of Pampas grass on First Street in Farwell and bore tribute to the fierceness of the recent storm. The lovely plumes which had stood so proudly through summer and fall were quickly leveled after ice thickly coated its branches and made the feathery fronds top heavy. Texico-Farwell looked like a real winter wonderland under the coating of ice which made the barren trees look as if they were dressed out in diamonds and other sparkling gems to bring in the New Year.

Well, back to another year of grinding out our weekly bit of balderdash. We took advantage of the two issues over the holidays and took a little rest from these chores. Much to our surprise we are at a loss for comment this week. We suspect column writing is like many other skills, they have to be exercised regularly to stay sharp.

Over the Christmas festive season, ol' Jimmy Carter played Santa Claus and left a rock in the sock of the Tiawanese. He sure picked a good time of the year to show the world what a good God fearing, honest, faithful, honorable country we are.

For the life of me it's hard to see where all the benefit will come from when we get so palsy walsy with the communist Chinese. We cannot think of one good item we need from Red China or if we really need it we are not already getting it under the old recognition program.

It will be difficult for us to forget and forgive the tens of thousands of our fighting men's deaths due to the same communists in Korea and Vietnam.

It is difficult for us to square the President's highly touted moral program of promoting "Human Rights" with our recognition of a country that knoweth not what "Human Rights" even means.

Well, so much for admitting we are stupid and President Carter brilliant.

On to things more pleasant. The High Plains enjoyed excellent weather for the Christmas season. From the crowds milling about area merchants also had a good selling season. From the smiles on faces it looks as if the people had a good year end. Cleveland may go down the drain, but our area is still a darn good place to live. We are amazed at folks who want to jump up and leave this part of the world.

For a little looking into the future we have rummaged around and retrieved our Dallas Cowboy "Eyes of Texas" format for the week the "Pokes play in the Super Bowl. How great it would be if the Super Bowl turns out to be an "ALL TEXAS" donnybrook.

After New Year's -- Brrr. Our good Christmas weather went down the old tube for the New Year's weekend. From our casual survey this seems to have been one of the least celebrated New Year's eve and day that we can remember on the High Plains.

With the thermometer plummeting well below the zero reading and a blanket of snow and ice on the ground and streets, most of the parties we heard about were wisely cancelled. Well, let's cheer up. Maybe our real bad portion of the winter will have been over early and we can enjoy a mild end of January and February.

Frank B. Farwell Rites Conducted In Amarillo

Graveside services for Frank B. Farwell, Sr., 94, of Amarillo were conducted December 27 in Llano Cemetery in Amarillo. Dr. Clifford Trotter, pastor of Polk Street United Methodist Church, officiated. Arrangements were under the direction of Blackburn-Shaw Memorial Chapel. Mr. Farwell died December 23.

The town of Farwell was named for his family.

Mr. Farwell, born in Montezuma, Iowa, had been an Amarillo resident for 10 years. He served as mayor of Dalhart in the 1930s and was one of the organizers of the XIT Reunion.

He was a grand-nephew of Charles B. and Frank V. Farwell, the original owners of the three million-acre XIT ranch. He once worked as a cowhand on what was then the world's largest fenced ranch.

Charles B. and John V. were both in their 60's when they decided to build the capitol building of Texas in exchange for three million acres of land in the Panhandle district of Texas, later to be known as the famous XIT ranch. The town of Farwell was named in honor of these two men who had come west in a prairie schooner with their parents in 1838.

Frank B. Farwell was a former vice-president of Amarillo National Bank and a retired wholesale agent for Texaco. He was a member of Polk Street United Methodist Church and of the McDavid Sunday School class there.

His wife, the former Carrie Lawson, died 10 years ago.

Survivors include two sons, Frank B. Farwell, Jr., of Agriculture Census Begins This Week

The 1978 Census of Agriculture gets underway this week with the mailing of report forms to all farms and ranches in the 50 states, the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, has announced.

Farmers and ranchers are being asked to report on their agricultural operations during 1978. This 1978 census, the nation's 21st farm census in a series that started in 1840, will update data most recently obtained in 1975 for 1974 operations. Information will be sought on all agricultural operations.

With report forms for the 1978 census drastically reduced from the 22 pages of the last census, most agricultural operators will receive a four-page form in the mail, and about 20 percent will receive a five-page version. The overall time required by farmers to complete the form has been reduced by more than one-third.

The census will continue to monitor trends in domestic ownership and control of land. The last census showed a five-year gain in the number of U.S. corporate farms from 22,000 to 29,000; the amount of acreage they farmed rose from 80 to 97 million acres, and the value of their farm products rose from $6 billion to $14 billion.

The census asks whether the farm is operated by a family or individual, a partnership, a family-held corporation, an investor-owned corporation with more than 10 stockholders, or some other legal entity such as cooperative, estate or trust, grazing association, etc.

The apparent increase in foreign ownership of land has raised questions in the Congress and with business and agricultural groups. In 1974 a Department of Commerce survey showed about 5 million acres of the nation's one billion acres of farm land were owned by foreign interests, or less than one-half of one percent of the total. The new farm census will measure the increase.

As in earlier censuses, information obtained about farming operations will be published for each of more than 3,000 counties with agricultural operations, for each state and for the entire nation.

Each report form will have a control number printed on the address label. Because response is required by law (Title 13, U.S. Code), each control number must be accounted for by the Bureau of the Census. Follow-up letters will be sent to non-respondents. Everyone who receives the agriculture census report form should answer the first four items and as much more of the report as applies, and return it, so that it will not be necessary to spend more tax money on obtaining a response.

Despite careful screening of the mailing lists used, some persons not engaged in agricultural activities will receive report forms. Those persons should return the form with that fact noted in order to stop additional mailings.

The 1978 Census of Agriculture will be conducted as follows:

--All respondents will be asked to report either from their records or by estimate, the following information: amount of farm acreage by type of ownership; land use; acreage, production, and sales of crops; inventory, number sold, and sales value of livestock and poultry; and selected characteristics of farm operators and farm management.

--About 20 percent will receive an additional page seeking answers to: value of land and buildings; selected production expenses; selected farm equipment; hired farm labor; fertilizer and pesticide use; and petroleum fuel usage and storage capacity.

Congress and Federal agencies, as well as agricultural and business organizations, universities and other groups rely on this information to develop and revise farm programs. Individual farmers may benefit from a railroad allocating storage cars during grain harvest, or from farm machinery or bulk fertilizer dealerships being located in new areas of farm development.

Stressing that publication of its data will be accomplished more speedily in this census, Bureau officials are setting October 1979 as the beginning data issuance deadline for more than 3,000 individual counties. They expect to publish the additional volumes of statistical information for the state and nation within the following two years.

Census officials also point to these features of the 1978 census:

--A second copy of the report form which the respondent can complete and keep for his own records.

--The option of receiving major county data merely by checking a box on the form.

--A time extension which will be granted farmers who request it.

--An improved mailing list, and a "Were You Counted," campaign for any farmer inadvertently omitted.

The law which requires farmers to answer the census items also protects the privacy of answers. Since 1900, census report forms have been confidential by law. They may be seen only by sworn Census employees and may be used only for statistical totals. Even other government agencies cannot obtain or use the reports made by any farm operator. Neither can anyone use legal means to obtain a copy of the report retained by the operator in his files.

Farm operators who do not receive a form during the first week of January should request one from the Bureau of the Census, 1201 East 10th Street, Jeffersonville, Indiana 47132.

OUR "THINK-SO" is legitimate, and acceptable in some things; but not in our relationship to God.

I THOUGHT WITH MYSELF- "I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth." (Acts 26:9) Thinking he was right did not make him right. Thinking we are right will not make us right.

WE CAN BE WRONG, even though we sincerely think that we are right. What we think is important, but God has not made "what we think" the standard of our acceptance with him.

GOD HAS GIVEN his revealed truth to guide us, and we are right when we learn and submit to this divine truth. This is objective truth which originates in the mind of God, and the only acceptable authority in what we think and do in our spiritual life.

IF WE INSIST upon holding to our "think-so", rather than diligently seeking to know God's word; we are being wise in our own eyes. This is a tragic mistake. "Be not wise in your own conceit (individual opinion)." (Rom. 12:16).

YOUR "THINK-SO" is as "good" as mine, or as "bad". Neither one of us can please God on the basis of our opinions, but by faithfully obeying God's word. (Rev. 22:14).

Farwell Hosts Friona; Win One Of Four

The Farwell Steers, Steerettes and junior varsity boys and girls hosted Friona Tuesday night, winning only one of four games.

The Steers ripped the Chieftains, 67-58, and the Steerettes lost 72-61. The JV boys also lost narrowly, 44-41; and the JV girls lost a 27-25 squeaker.

During the Christmas break the Steers and Steerettes competed in the Muleshoe tournament. The boys dropped the first game to Lockney, 63-47, but came back December 29 to blast Springlake-Earth, 43-30. Reportedly, they played a third game in the tournament but no report or information was available at press time.

The Steerettes lost two tournament games back to back: Lockney, 34-32; and Springlake-Earth, 53-40.

High point men in the Steers Tuesday game with Friona were Kayle Watts, 12; Rowdy Chandler and Max Lonsdale, 10 each. Also scoring were Randy Gerles and D.D. Foster, 8 each; Robin Roberts and James Castleberry, 6 each; Mark Owen, 5; and Radney Robertson, 2.

Names of Steerettes scoring in the Friona game were not available.

For the JV girls, Janene Berry and Robin Vinton, scored 8 and 9, respectively. Also adding points were Ginger Ellison, 3; Tracy Williams and Lari Curtis, 2 each; and Karen Magness, 1.

Double figure scorers in the JV boys game were Richard Carpenter, and Richard May, 10. Others scoring were Craig Kaltwasser, 5; Byron Mayfield, Boyd White, Kevin Shults, Blake Buchenau, 2 each; and Waverly Coates, . . .

Steers making points in the game with Lockney were Watts, 12; Castleberry, 8; Robertson and Owen, 6 each; Foster, 4; Lonsdale, 2.

In the Dec. 29 game with Springlake-Earth, Chandler made 16 points followed by Castleberry, 8; Watts, 6; Gerles and Foster, 4; Roberts, 3; and Lonsdale, 2.

High scoring Steerettes in the Lockney game were April Coffman, 13, and Jana Berry, 8. Also scoring were Yolanda Martin, Lisa Hughes, Paula Christian, Karyn Blain and Gina Eubank, 2 each; and Sharmy Christian, 1.

For the game with Springlake-Earth Paula was high point girl with 13. Others scoring were Jana, 11; Yolanda, 7; Gina, 5; and Karyn, 4.

"We played Lockney a tough game," coach Larry McDorman said. "We outscored them 20-10 in the second half, but we couldn't quite catch up after a poor first half. April had a very good game. She ignited the whole team and sparked our comeback.

"Karyn, the top rebounder for the game, played well," McDorman said. "When Karyn decides she can play she will be a good one. We played one of our poorest games against Springlake, but to their credit (Springlake) they did come out and get after us," he said.

"They shot real well the first half and then we started playing in the second half, but with 23 turnovers we can't hope to win. We have to cut down on turnovers if we are to win games," McDorman said.

The varsity and JV teams travel to Olton tonight and next Tuesday the Steers, Steerettes, JV girls and freshman boys and girls will host Hart.

The 7th and 8th Yearlings and the 7th and 8th girls will host Hart on Monday, Jan. 8.

Texico Roundballers Back Into Action

Texico roundballers, who were idle during the holiday break, will step into action again this week.

The varsity Wolverine boys will participate in the Clayton tournament Jan. 4-6. The boys were to meet Clayton Thursday night at 8 p.m. MST. The varsity girls will travel to Tucumcari today (Friday).

The 7th through 9th teams will travel to Bovina this Saturday.

The Wolverine Basketball Homecoming 1979 is slated for next Friday, Jan. 12, against Elida.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By SETH RALSTON
County Agent

(Editors note: In place of his regular column, Seth Ralston, Parmer County Extension Agent, has submitted the following article by Dale A. Lovelace, Area Agronomist.)

Early fall rains throughout most of the Rolling Plains allowed most of the wheat to be planted early. Many of the early planted fields already have winter weeds emerging. Later planted fields will have weeds emerging soon as most of the state has received adequate moisture for germination. However, some of these late planted fields may not have weeds until January or February. The time to control winter weeds are when they are young and growing. Most of the broadleaf winter weeds form a "rosette" and lay flat on the ground. Best control is achieved by spraying when these rosettes are 1 to 2 inches in diameter. The primary weeds will be Tansy mustard, pepperweed and kochia. At the young stage, 1/2 pound of 2, 4-D will give good control.

Research on weed competition has been conducted by Dr. Allen F. Wiese at the Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland. His studies indicate that one weed per square foot can reduce wheat yields by 10 percent. If a potential yield of 40 bushels per acre is assumed, the yield loss would be about 4 bushels or about $12.00 at current prices. With an estimated spray cost of $3.00 this could mean an extra $9.00 per acre as a result of controlling the weeds.

Wheat can be sprayed any time after tilling is completed up until "jointing" is started in the spring. Spray applications during tilling or jointing can result in deformed plants and reduced yields.

Wild oats are still a major problem. Since much of the area just received rains, fields should be watched closely for wild oat emergence. The only post-emergence material is very effective if the wild oats are sprayed in the two-leaf stage. Research and demonstrations have shown that substantial yield increases can be obtained if the early flush of wild oats are controlled.

If wheat has not yet been planted and wild oats are known to be a problem, a pre-emergence material is available and cleared for use.

Church services for last Sunday were cancelled due to bad weather. Very few visitors have come to the center and very few residents have been out of the building due to the inclement weather.

Flo's Quote: "People can be divided into three groups: those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder what happened." John W. Swern.

Visiting Ruth Myers and Harold Mardis was Dorothy Myers of Hayden Lake, Idaho and Richard Myers of Salt attending were Nora Edens, Lyra Holland, Maud Wilson and Robert Hollis.

Visiting Robert "Jack the Burro Kid" Hollis was Christie Lundy of Friona.

Assistant Farmer County Extension Agent for Home Economics

A potful of beans will go a long way, economically, nutritionally and tastefully. And what's a better time than fall for the ever ready hearty fare provided by seasoned-to-taste cooked dry beans?

No matter where you live - or what the occasion is - you can't go wrong with beans on the menu. Prepare them for immediate serving or have them ready to heat in the refrigerator. Or, serve them cold. And, have you ever tried a pork-and-bean sandwich?

Beans are popular fare in every part of America. Can you imagine a Texas barbecue without beans? or, a campout in the Rockies? or, a country supper in Kansas or Alabama? Beans belong, no matter where.

If you're traveling in New England, you may be struck by the simply worded announcement "Saturday Nite Supper" on restaurant bills of the or for community get-togethers. That's enough said. Sound up in the traditions of the area, the homely pork 'n beans combination is as truly New England as crepe suzettes are truly France.

In pioneer days of the Britan settlers, the baked beans and pork, seasoned with molasses or brown sugar, were cooked in long and leisurely fashion all day Saturday. They were ready for serving at night and also for Sunday dinner, in observance of religious restrictions forbidding cooking on the Sabbath.

Many families today have their own cherished recipes for Boston Baked Beans passed down through the generations. Generally, the recipes call for cooking all day. Special ingredients used vary from a touch of ginger toraham cracker crumbs and an assortment of sweeteners. The type of pork used also varies. The most common is under salt pork, but many New Englanders also use flavorful ham, bacon, or other spicy pork products.

The beans used also depend on the recipe, but leading contender for a favorite variety in New England is the pea bean, with kidney, yellow-eyed and many other kinds also popular. Seasoning also may vary widely. In Vermont, maple syrup is a traditional touch. New Hampshire bean pots may be flavored with molasses.

But you don't have to be in New England to enjoy the goodness of beans. Travelers in Canada may recall the French variation "cassoulet," which combines white beans, garlic and spices, with goose fat, pork and bits of goose meat.

In Mexico, we have the frijoles, a pork and beans dish cooked at simmering temperature all day. A South American dish called Black Beans Brazillian includes sausage, bacon and other pork with the beans. Then, they'll add onion, garlic, chili pepper and olive oil. This delicious treat is served over rice.

Because beans are so adaptable to any occasion and because they are such excellent hosts to such a variety of seasonings, you can adopt - or adapt - any of the many baked beans recipes in your cook book, as your own.

This is an especially good year to enjoy the abundance, the variety and the economy of dried beans, suggests the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). Beans are so plentiful this month that USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service has issued a special Food Alert, to call attention to their abundance.

The crop is 18 percent larger than a year ago, reports USDA. Also, large carry-over stocks are on hand. So bean producers are not happy about the prices they receive for their bean crop. Many have to sell at less than actual cost of production.

But it means a bonanza of bountiful beans for the consumer - a bargain in nutrition - whether you go the New England, Canadian, Mexican or typically Southwestern route of preparing and serving them. Tell your family to be ready for a "Saturday Nite Supper." Enough said.

Texico WMU Meets For Day Of Prayer

Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church in Texico met recently at the church for their "Day of Prayer" for foreign missions with chairman Lois Hudnall in charge. Twenty-three persons attended.

The program opened with the congregation singing "Tell It Out With Gladness." Connie Elliott led the singing accompanied by Mrs. Hudnall at the piano.

Theme of the program was

"Tell It Out With Gladness" and the scripture reading was taken from Matthew 28:18-20.

Names of missionaries having birthdays on that day were given by Danny Pearce. Afterwards he led in prayer.

Rev. Joel Horne, pastor, and several women participated in the program. Mrs. Elliott provided the special music, "So Send I You." Rev. Horne gave the closing prayer.

After the meeting adjourned a luncheon was served.

Texico Kindergarten To Register Jan. 12

Kindergarten students at Texico Elementary will register Friday, Jan. 12, at 9 a.m. MST, reports George Herrington, elementary school principal.

Registration and the first day of school will be the same, Herrington says, adding that those registering must bring their birth certificates and immunization records that day.

Those eligible to attend kindergarten are children who were five years of age prior to September 1, 1978. They will be attending classes for a full day rather than having split sessions, Herrington says.

To our dear friends,

We want to thank everyone for your visits and cards, but most of all for your prayers. The love offering was so kind of everyone. We just can't thank you all enough. Come to see us and continue to pray for us.

Love,
Little Michelle Foster and family
Thank you again.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES. BEREAH BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

LIVING TO THE GLORY OF GOD

"WHETHER THEREFORE YE EAT, OR DRINK, OR WHATSOEVER YE DO, DO ALL TO THE GLORY OF GOD" (1 Cor. 10:31).

This is the great guiding principle of the Christian life.

The Apostle Paul points out in the preceding context that what may be perfectly right for one person to do may trouble another's conscience. The sincere and gracious believer, therefore, will not carelessly violate his brother's conscientious scruples, offending him by indulging in that which he considers wrong. In Paul's day, this particularly involved the foods of which men partook, but from both Romans 14 and 1 Corinthians 10, it is evident that Christian conduct in general is involved.

If, in my daily conduct, I consider not only my own, but also my brother's conscience, it does not follow from this that I am disobeying Gal. 5:1 by failing to "stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free." True, I have no right to give up my blood-bought liberty, but I do have liberty to give up my rights. This the world about us is slow to do, but it is one of the signs of true regeneration.

My aim in life should not be to gratify my own desires, much less to show up my brother's weaknesses by vaunting my liberty in Christ. My one aim should rather be to glorify God in all I say and do.

All this, of course, has to do only with the conduct of believers in Christ. The unbeliever can do nothing "to the glory of God." His very rejection of Christ is a continual offense to God who, in love, gave His Son to die in our place. The only way in which the unbeliever can honor God is to turn from his unbelief and trust Christ as Savior and Lord.

Seven Ferrets Discovered At Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply

by Shirley Gorman

A few weeks ago Roy Donaldson of Farwell spied what he thought was a rat in the Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply Store. Thus began the somewhat bizarre "Great Ferret Adventure," or more aptly termed "misadventure."

As Donaldson entered the side door of the building he spied first one small creature and then another one sticking their heads out from behind a tire rack. "Its face was like a racoon's face," Donaldson said.

Within a few moments seven of the tiny creatures had been sighted on the premises.

"I think they came out of the gin," Donaldson said. Floyd Coates, owner, and Raymond Sierra, gin superintendent, "then came to see what the fuss was all about."

"Sierra left and wouldn't come back in and the rest of us brave souls jumped up on the table," Donaldson said, somewhat facetiously. Finally, another employee of the store decided to "take his chances" and utilizing a tire tool managed to capture seven creatures, later determined to be ferrets -- a weasel-like animal now almost extinct.

"They were real friendly until we started trying to catch them," Donaldson said. "We tried to stop one with ether, but we couldn't even get it to slow down. Finally we just gave up and let the other guy catch them."

Donaldson said the ferrets had long bodies and long tails, and looked as if they had been weaned for awhile.

"It was evidently a litter but we never saw the mother or the father," he said.

Donaldson said the men wore leather gloves when trying to round up the animals, but that one bit through a glove anyway. The man who ultimately caught the ferrets wore welding gloves.

He added that the ferrets made a continual sound which was a "mixture of a duck's quack, a pig's squeal and a cat's meow." They also emitted a strong skunk-like odor.

Donaldson said he thought they were attracted to the area by the peanut hulls kept in the trash box around this time of year.

"They were real gentle at first," he said. "One came up to Floyd's feet just like a pet."

Donaldson said the creatures were turned over to Joe Bujnosek who farms in the Oklahoma Lane Community who identified the animals as ferrets.

According to Donaldson, Bujnosek had had experience with ferrets some two years ago.

After that strange encounter Donaldson said he looked in the encyclopedia to find out more about ferrets and according to the book, ferrets drink blood and will kill chickens, etc. to obtain it. They also eat meat.

Donaldson and Bujnosek turned the ferrets loose near his place and intended to feed and care for them.

"We probably would have turned them over to a zoo if we had known whom to contact," he said.

Tax Representative In Farwell Tuesday

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has announced that he is sending a representative from his Plainview office to Farwell on Tuesday, Jan. 9, to assist local taxpayers and answer their questions about state taxes.

Enforcement Officer Benito Rocha will meet with local taxpayers at the Parmer County Courthouse from 2 to 4 p.m.

"If Farwell-area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, Rocha will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office and we believe these face-to-face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.

Taxpayers who are unable to meet with the representative on January 9 are reminded that they can still get their questions answered quickly by calling the TOLL-FREE tax information number in Austin. That number is 1-800-252-5555.

The Lubbock/Plainview office, headed by Vance A. Porfiro, serves Lubbock and surrounding counties.

Inflation - Fighting IDEAS TIPS TO HELP YOU

Fuel Efficiency

You can insulate your budget from some of your fuel bills' assaults, if you know ways to keep inside temperatures in, and outside out.

To keep your heating and cooling efforts from going up the chimney, always be sure the fireplace damper is closed when the fire is not lit. Use bath and kitchen ventilating fans only as needed.

INSULATION AND INGENUITY can help you save a cool amount on your fuel bills.

You can make your home both look and feel better very inexpensively with nature's insulators--ivy and vines.

Planted on the walls or on trellises near the walls, they help block out summer sun and keep buildings cooler on the inside, while drawing warm air away from the wall.

In winter, ivy and vines planted on the windward side of a building help block out chilling winds and serve as insulation to keep heat in and cold air out.
