Texico Girls Take State Track Crown

Texico's girls succeeded in taking the top state title in Class A track competition, edging defending state champion Tatum by two points.

The Wolverines accumulated 50 points in the weekend meet staged in Albuquerque, but had to wait until the final event to realize their dream of the state track crown.

Going into the final event -- the mile relay -- Texico was trailing by two points and knew they had to defeat Tatum's entry to gain the prize. The Wolverines came in second and Tatum ran fourth to give the Green and White the needed points to win.

Tatum finished the meet with 48 points, followed by Maxwell with 40, Dora with 30, and Elida with 28.

En route to the first place team victory several Wolverines won individual firsts and set some new records. The 880 yard relay team of Becky McDonald, Jill Jesko, Tonye Harrington and Corinna Hungerford picked up a first place medal with a time of 1:49.76, setting both a state and school record. Lisa Coffey brought home a first place medal in the 880 yard run with a time of 2:26.70. Harrington grabbed a first in the 110 low hurdles with a time of 15.98.

Other wins included a third for the 440 relay team of Pam Hoyl, Jana and Jill Jesko and McDonald. Their time of 53.02 was their "best this year," according to Coach Roy King.

The medley relay team of Lisa Crooks, Jana Jesko, McDonald and Harrington picked up second place and set a new school record with a time of 1:56.23. McDonald finished the 220 yard dash in 27.07 for third place.

Harrington placed second in the 80 yard low hurdles with a time of 11.51. The mile relay team of Lisa Crooks, Jill Jesko, Lisa Coffey and Tammy Landis took second with a time of 4:15.25. The girls bettered their district time by 16 seconds, but still fell victim to Maxwell's swiftness.

"They are a good bunch of kids," Coach King said of the Wolverine state champs. "They performed very well. We felt we had a chance to win at least second or third, but beating Tatum for first was great."

King is especially proud of the mile relay team as it is composed of two freshmen, one sophomore and one eighth grader.

"They are a very young team but withstood the pressure very well," he praised.

King says he is very proud of all the varsity girl thinclads as they have accounted for their share of track victories and have also set seven new school records.

It looks like this is the time for the famed American small operator to step into the breach and alleviate our gasoline shortage. To this end the Texas Legislature has recently made it legal to produce alcohol in the state.

However, under the prodding of the hard drink industry the alcohol so produced must be of the ill-natured variety and not consumable by the individual. Enforcing this particular provision might turn out to be a tad difficult if home stilling becomes a popular pastime.

We have several ingenious metal fabricators in the Twin Cities who should give some thought to producing a small home-operated still that could be sold on a reasonably priced basis. Harry Sheets, our local blacksmith and solar energy expert, opined it would be a good idea to develop a still that would operate off of solar power. Out here in the sunny southwest that's a good idea.

Pike Jordan or Johnny Hopkins might offer to buy the spent mash for their feed yards in return for a quantity of manure that could be used to produce methane gas for heating purposes. That could serve two ends at the same time.

We personally are going to investigate the possibility of a back yard operation in the unhappy event that gasoline either becomes too expensive or is allocated on a strict basis. In fact, we just might do it anyway!

We would have taken the recent anti-nuclear protest in Washington, D.C., more seriously if it hadn't been infested with the same old bunch of Vietnam War protestors. Seems like some crumbs can't pass up the opportunity to mess up the good old U.S.A.

The careful time of the year is upon the motoring public. Our schools will soon turn out a horde of exuberant youngsters for the summer. We all need to watch out for the bicycle rider or the tad chasing a ball or just some kid kicking a can and paying no heed to traffic. Let's have an accident free summer in the Twin Cities.

Writing headlines is not always as easy as might be assumed. Phil Chamberlin down at Fort Stockton has gathered up some humorously misleading samples of why editors get grey early. Some of his gems are:

"Student Found Shot To Death By Car."

"Oklahoman Hit By Auto Riding On Motorcycle."

"Safety Pins Presented To Car Drivers."

"Michigan Man Dies, Baked For Queens."

"Death Ends Life of Senator Cummings."

"Woman Injured When Bus Hits Her On Curve."

"Father Of Ten Shot, Mistaken For Rabbit."

"Two Banks Robbed, And One Killed By Nashville Bandits."

"Alleged Woman Tossed Out Of Car In Motion."

"Illinois Man Pulls Needle From Foot He Swallowed 66 Years Ago."

"Three States Hit By Blizzard, One Missing."

"Youth Born In U.S. In Polish Uniform."

"Mother Kills Her Daughter And Self, Then Burns Home."

"Meeting Will Draw Red Bloc Heads To U.S."

"Montana Farmers Turn To Horses, State Officer Says."

It must have been very late at night when the tired sports writer penned this classic:

Indians Win, 64-7 In Close Grid Tilt."

Picked up from Bill Tate:

One reason that few politicians check their roots is that so many find it difficult to trace their ancestry back to their fathers.

Texico School Board
Canvasses Bond Votes

Texico School Board met Tuesday, May 8, to canvass votes in the bond election conducted earlier that day.

In other business, Denese Runyan resigned as the kindergarten teacher. No replacement has been hired as yet.

Pending the approval of the state auditor for New Mexico, Darwin Sprows, accountant, will conduct an audit of the Texico Municipal Schools.

The Trustees agreed to ask Roosevelt and Curry county commissioners to consider road repairs for portions of the Texico School bus routes located within these counties.

Based on the time change survey conducted several weeks ago, Texico schools will keep the present hours of 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. At the time the survey was issued to parents, school officials had sought to begin classes a half-hour earlier each day.

Those attending the meeting were school board members Arlye Crooks, Herman Geries, Ronnie Curry, Mike Spearman, and Greg Martin; and Paula Leighton, Max Carter, Jim . . . The Trustees will have a special meeting next Wednesday, May 23, at 7 p.m. in order to adopt a resolution to sell the bonds approved in last week's election.

Don Alana Resigns
Coaching Position

Don Alana has resigned as Farwell High School head football coach and athletic director, announces Superintendent W.M. Roberts. Alana's resignation is effective at the end of this school term.

Alana, who has been at Farwell for seven years, has accepted an assistant coaching position at Granbury High School where Van Tom Whatley, former Farwell coach, will be heading the athletic program.

Alana's wife, Nancy, who has taught in Farwell Elementary the past few years, plans to teach in one of the elementary schools in Granbury.

County Commissioners
Proclaim Veteran Week

Parmer County Commissioners at its Monday meeting issued a proclamation declaring the week of May 28 through June 3 as Vietnam Veterans Week in compliance with President Jimmy Carter's proclamation setting aside next week as a time for local towns, communities, organizations and clubs to honor the men who served during the Vietnam War.

The American Legion, Veterans, the Texas Veterans Affairs Commission and various groups and citizens throughout this state are participating in the National Salute to the Vietnam Era Veterans.

The Vietnam Era was ended by Presidential Proclamation signed on May 7, 1975. In the 14 years since the start of the Vietnam Era, the estimated number of veterans in civil life who served during that period has grown to nearly nine million.

In an official memorandum Texas Governor Bill Clements was quoted as saying: . . .

"The men and women who served in the uniform of our country have made a major contribution not only to the preservation of America's freedom but also toward the attainment and preservation of freedom throughout the world. It is most fitting and appropriate that we pay special tribute to all those who have borne the burden in defense of our freedom. . . ."

Some 500,000 Vietnam Veterans are currently living in the state of Texas.

In other business the Court went on record as opposing an extension to the annual pheasant hunt season which would extend the season from 16 to 30 days yearly. The Commissioners decided to draft a letter to the Parks Wildlife Department protesting the extension.

The Court discussed at length the maternity benefits which, according to recent legislation, must be included on all hospitalization policies which cover county employees. The new law went into effect May 1, but since the county's hospitalization policy is due to be renewed in July the Commissioners decided to wait until then to add the new maternity benefits.

Steve Willingham of Blue Cross/Blue Shield met with the Court to discuss the county's hospitalization insurance policy. He reported that a "sharp increase" is indicated when the policy is renewed in July.

The Commissioners voted to accept bids for graders for Precinct I, II. Bids will be opened June 11. They also approved the bond for Albert Smith, Farwell's new justice of the peace.

The Commissioners will meet Tuesday, May 29, rather than Monday of that week due to the Memorial Day holiday.

A Board of Equalization is scheduled for May 29 at 3 p.m.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Two Friona men were arraigned May 9 before Justice of the Peace Albert Smith for vandalism of a car and burglary of a car. They are Donald Hume, 19, and Jimmy Hume, 20. Judge Smith set bond at $2500 each.

According to Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace, the two men burglarized and vandalized a 1963 Dodge while it was parked in the field of the Tom Whaley place, eight miles northwest of Friona.

They allegedly broke out the windows and blasted three holes in the car with a shotgun. Lovelace said they found empty shells near the car which have been matched to the shotgun.

Fortenberry
Hears Cases

Parmer County Judge Paul Fortenberry has heard two cases since the last report.

Dale A. Fought, 23, Clovis, was fined $100 and court costs and given six months probation for driving while intoxicated. He was also fined $100 court costs and given six months' probation for possession of marijuana less than two ounces.

Castulo Morin, 35, Sudan, was fined $200 plus court costs and given three days in jail for driving with a suspended license.

FIRE CALLS

Neither the Texico nor the Farwell Fire Departments reported any fire calls or ambulance calls this week.

N-SERVE ★ HOW IT WORKS

N-SERVE blocks bacterial action that would quickly convert ammonium fertilizer to nitrates. Nitrates are subject to rapid loss through leaching and denitrification. This blocking action keeps nitrogen in the soil longer so that it becomes available slowly as it's needed. This reduces the crop stress that would occur from temporary nutrient shortages if you had to rely on side-dressings to maintain a steady nitrogen supply.

HEAVIER BOLL SET

Cotton treated with ammonium fertilizer containing N-SERVE consistently sets more bolls.

INCREASED YIELDS

If nitrogen has been the limiting growth factor, due to early losses and poor utilization, N-SERVE will aid in improving yields. Check the results in the following table.

Note that plant growth limitations due to soil and climatic conditions, shortages or excesses of other plant nutrients and excessive damage from insects and diseases may prevent a yield response from the use of N-SERVE.

Note the heavier boll set, larger plant size, and healthier root system of the plants which received nitrogen containing N-SERVE (left).

Convalescent Center Sets Open House, Patio Party

Farwell Convalescent Center is hosting an open house and party this Sunday beginning at 4:30 p.m. CDT, announces Floe Copeland, assistant administrator. The special occasion coincides with National Nursing Home week which began

May 13. Celebrity Hosts this year for National Nursing Home Week are entertainers Pat Boone and his daughter Debby who is at the crest of popularity right now due to her recording of "You Light Up My Life" which broke all sales records. "We have borrowed our theme from Debby's song," said Mrs. Copeland. "Light up a Life" is the perfect theme she said because "that is what happens when our residents meet new friends."

"That's what Nursing Home Week is all about... to get the public to visit and learn for themselves the fine quality of the total care being delivered by today's licensed nursing homes," the assistant administrator said.

"We are so grateful for this opportunity to invite the public to visit during our special week," she continued. "It is a heartwarming experience and as Pat Boone has said... the life you light up most will be your own!"

Everyone is cordially invited to the open house and party. Families of the center residents have been asked to bring covered dishes for the meal.

and Mrs. Alvenia Cox, both of Farwell. Wedding vows will be exchanged on Saturday, June 16, at 3 p.m. Texas time at First United Methodist Church, Clovis. The bride's father will officiate. No local invitations are being sent, but all relatives and friends of the couple are cordially invited.

Son Visits

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Dane of Texico Sunday afternoon were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hudson, Diane and Barbara of Canyon.

4-H Offers Valuable Learning Experiences

How can anyone influence the development of people to make them responsible, self-respecting members of our democratic society?

The 4-H program can provide valuable learning experiences through family, church and community involvement, says Laura Jacobs, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Most of the things we want young people to become are a part of the 4-H program. The whole idea of 4-H is development of young people. Since 4-H is family oriented and co-educational, it is truly people.

4-H starts in one of our first "groups" - the family group which influences us so much. The 4-H program goes down to the "grass roots" because the people in it - from Extension people to local leaders and even the young people themselves - actually help decide programs and activities. So, besides involving the family group, 4-H also closely involves the community group.

Anyone who works with young people can tell you that most of them want and need to belong, to be recognized, to be respected for what they are, to develop a sense of responsibility and a sense of freedom which disciplines, and to have the good feeling of doing something meaningful by themselves. The 4-H program, a people development program, can provide these things.

For more information, call the Extension office at 481-3619.

CELEBRATE THE GRADUATE

Honor your favorite graduate with a very special brunch. Easily prepared in advance, sliced tongue covered with a white wine-enhanced aspic makes perfect party fare.

Toast the alumnus with a distinguished French white wine like Michelet Cotes de Duras imported by the Dennis & Huppert Company, a notable way to say "congratulations."

To complete the festivities, serve a pyramid of Ambrosial Meringue au Vin, a superb finale reflecting your admiration and pride.

TONGUE IN WHITE WINE ASPIC

- 1 3 to 4 pound cooked beef tongue, peeled, sliced in 1/4-inch slices
- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 2 cups dry white wine such as Michelet Cotes de Duras
- 1 can jellied consommé
- Stuffed olives for garnish

In a shallow serving platter, arrange slices of tongue in 2 long rows. Place a row of stuffed olives between the 2 rows of sliced tongue. Set aside. Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup of cold water. In a pan, bring consommé to a boil, add softened gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in wine, and cool. Place in refrigerator until wine and consommé are thickened slightly and become syrupy. Pour over tongue and chill until aspic is set. Serves 8. (May be made in advance.)

AMBROSIAL MERINGUE PYRAMID AU VIN

- 1 cup of egg whites, about 6
- 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/4 cups sugar

Butter to grease 2 cookie sheets
 2 teaspoons flour
 1 quart fresh strawberries, cleaned and hulled
 3/4 cup seedless grapes
 3/4 cup canned pineapple chunks, drained well
 2 cups heavy cream
 5 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
 2 tablespoons dry white wine
 2 tablespoons dry white wine
 1/2 cup toasted coconut (optional)

In a large bowl, beat the egg whites with the cream of tartar and salt until soft peaks form. Beat in sugar 3 tablespoons at a time until stiff peaks form. Butter and lightly flour 2 large cookie sheets. Drop meringue by tablespoonfuls to form round balls with a tiny curl on top, pushing the meringue off the tablespoon with a rubber spatula. Form about 40, leaving 1-inch between the balls. Bake in a pre-heated 250° F. oven for about 55 minutes. Do not open oven door. Turn off oven, cool meringue in oven overnight. Beat the cream with the confectioners' sugar. When soft peaks form, add the wine and continue to beat until stiff. Add half the fruit to the cream. Place 12 meringues on a large serving platter to form a ring. Spoon half the whipped cream and fruit on the meringues. Add more meringue balls, building to a pyramid, with the fruit and cream holding the meringues in place. Add the last meringue ball on top. Decorate with the remaining fruits. Sprinkle with coconut, if desired. Serves 10 to 12.

Energy Hints

If buying major appliances in the near future, consider the operating cost of the appliance, a family resource management specialist recommends.

The rapid increase in energy costs in recent years have caused the operating costs to amount to more than the original price, says Bonnie Piernot, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Learn energy efficient features to look for prior to shopping, the specialist says.

Never operate a window or attic fan in an air conditioned area, a housing and home furnishings specialist recommends.

It will force cool air outside, and waste energy, says Pat Seaman, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Looks Like We Made It" Jr.-Sr. Banquet Theme

Barry Manilow's hit song, "Looks Like We Made It," was featured as the theme when the Farwell High School seniors were honored at the annual junior-senior banquet and prom at Colonial Park Country Club in Clovis, Saturday night, May 12. Hosts for the banquet were members of the junior class.

The ballroom was decorated with spring flowers, and tables were covered with white and centered with candles in floral rings. Blue-covered programs bearing the theme words and a rainbow extending to a pot of gold marked individual places.

The theme, written in script of multi-colored sparkling letters decorated a banner hung above the speaker's table. Colored streamers hung from the center of the ceiling where a mirrored ball rotated.

A buffet dinner consisted of roast beef, turkey, dressing, salad, buttered corn, green beans, hot bread, cake, iced tea and coffee.

Rusty Smallwood, junior class vice-president, gave the invocation and Blaine Buchenau, class treasurer, introduced the Sisters Luck who presented several popular vocal selections with the accompaniment of electric piano.

Class president Donna Kalbas gave the official welcome to the attendants and the response was given by senior class president Kayle Watts.

In presenting the class prophecy, seniors Radney Robertson, Toby Curtis, Vicki Vinton and Randy Gerie portrayed characters from the Saturday Night Live TV show as they made Weekend Update into a lively and humorous presentation of what Farwell's seniors of 1979 would be doing 20 years hence.

Radney portrayed Dan Akroyd and Gilda Radnor while Toby and Randy played the roles of Jane Curtin and Bill Murray. Vicki portrayed Mrs. Lucille Franse, class sponsor, in an interview with Tom Snyder, a part also ably carried out by Robertson.

"Point-Counterpoint" on the subject of Senior Trips was debated by Toby and Radney.

Toby and Vicki then read the last will and testament of the senior class members who donated almost everything imaginable to their eagerly awaiting "heirs."

Lucretia Turner, junior class secretary, gave the benediction prior to the prom which was hosted by the senior class, class sponsors and class parents.

The disco dance began and ended with the theme song and the seniors cheerfully agreed that indeed it "Looks Like We Made It."

The seniors will be winding up their official school days this Thursday, and that night 35 members of the class and eight adult sponsors will board a chartered bus for a trip to Houston and Galveston, returning to Farwell May 23 just in time to graduate on Thursday night, May 24.

Mrs. Kelley presented a discussion on "Witnesses To Church of Christ Members," with the other members present taking part in the Scripture readings. She then dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Those present were Mesdames Day, Mary Dell Brown, Margaret Horne, Hudnall, Kelley and Gracie Dane.

All Sports Banquet Set Tuesday At Texico

Texico varsity athletes will be honored with a banquet next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. MDT at the Wolverine Gymnasium. Gay Benson, head women's basketball coach at Texas Tech, will be the keynote speaker.

Deadline for purchasing tickets is today (Friday) and they will cost $4 each. The Booster Club is again sponsoring the banquet and, for the second year in a row, will furnish the trophies. The meal will be catered by a Clovis restaurant.

Awards will include outstanding boy and girl athlete, most valuable player for each sport, football's most valuable offense and defense and a "sparkplug" award. Sportsmanship trophies will also be presented.

Banquet theme is "Memories Are Made Of This" and will feature decorations based on remembrances of the past school year.

In the interest of saving time and not having an overlong banquet, players will be called up as a team and then receive their individual honors rather than be called to the stage one at a time, announces Janice Turner, banquet chairman.

Raymond Hadley, president of the Booster Club, will be the master of ceremonies and introduce the guests and speaker. Hadley and J.K. Barfield, Booster Club Vice-president, will present special awards.

Other awards will be given out by coaches Paul Toppliff, Becky Toppliff, Cecil Davis, Roy King and Billy Carlyle. Mrs. Toppliff will also present the cheerleader awards.

Lisa Coffey will give the invocation and Doug Scioli will say the benediction. Keith Hadley will lead the pledge to the flag, and Superintendent James Pierce will give the welcome.

Before assuming her role as head women's basketball coach at Texas Tech two years ago, Benson coached volleyball, basketball and track at Slaton Public Schools for 15 years, compiling a career record of 337-97 in basketball at Slaton High School, winning 11 district championships and one state championship. Her collegiate coaching record is 48-31.

From 1977-1979, she was a member of the state Volleyball Officials Association and she directed "Little Dribbler" basketball camps in 1974, 1975 and 1976. She conducts the annual

Texas Tech Women's Summer Basketball camp and is the director of the annual Texas Tech Women's Basketball Clinic.

The speaker is a 1958 graduate of Pettit High School. That year she was also a member of the AAU National Team. She attended Clarendon Junior College for one year and was selected as an alternate to the Pan-American games in Chicago.

She attended Wayland Baptist College in 1960-62 where she was selected Honorable Mention All-American and served as team captain. She also toured the Soviet Union with the 1962 USA team. She is currently completing her Masters in Education at Tech.

Carlyle, Joe Martinez, Ron Kirby and Coach Paul Toppliff. The Green and White tracksters earned 33 points. Tatum and Hagerman captured the first two slots in the Class A meet.

Wolverines Place 3rd In State Meet

Few in numbers, but big on determination and perseverance, Texico Wolverine varsity boy tracksters nabbed third place in the New Mexico State Class A track finals last weekend in Albuquerque. The local boys garnered 33 points to claim third place.

Tatum finished first with 62 points followed by Hagerman in second with 45½. Mountainair had 31 points for fourth place and Logan finished fifth with 22.

The Hadley brothers -- James and Keith -- each accounted for one first place medal during the two-day meet. Keith copped the 220 yard dash with a time of 22.86, narrowly missing the state record. However, his time was more than enough to break the old Texico record. James claimed the high jump with a leap of 5' 10".

Keith finished third in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.38 and second in the 440 yard dash with a time of 50.78.

David Cavallero added points by taking fifth in the pole vault with a jump of 11'.

Joe "Bear" Martinez captured second in the discus with a toss of 125' 7" and third in the shot put with a throw of 43' 11¾". Ron Kirby finished second in the 120 high hurdles with a time of 15.56.

"I am very proud of the kids," coach Paul Toppliff said. "They competed well and did everything I asked them to do. I'm very happy with them."

"We did not have any relay teams to help us get points so I think they did a good job to earn as much as they did," Toppliff continued. "Lack of numbers has been a problem all year."

Toppliff pointed out that Keith Hadley has won six first places in state meets during the past three years.

State Board Of Education To Call For New Textbooks

AUSTIN - The State Board of Education will call for new textbooks in six high school subjects for use in Texas public schools beginning September 1, 1980.

The 1979 textbook proclamation, approved March 10 by the Board, will carry an estimated price tag of $6,821,669.

Additional costs, including readoption of current textbooks, additional purchases of books now in use, Braille and large type books, and freight will boost estimated 1980-81 costs to $23,415,491, or $7.82 per student.

The new text materials are scheduled for six high school subjects, including beginning typewriting, advanced typewriting, health education, computer mathematics, civil government, and automotive trades. There are no elementary subjects on the list.

Materials to be submitted by national publishers will be reviewed by the new State Textbook Committee throughout the summer. The 15-member committee, all professional administrators and teachers now serving in Texas public schools, will be appointed by the Board at its April 14 meeting.

All books submitted for the Texas adoption will be reviewed by members of the State Textbook Committee and their advisors from the schools throughout the summer. At the same time, sample copies will be available for review by interested citizens at each of the state's 20 regional education service centers.

Dr. M.L. Brockette, Texas Commissioner of Education, and the State Textbook Committee will hold a joint public hearing on the materials August 13-17 in Austin.

The State Textbook Committee will meet September 10-12 in Austin to select the books to be recommended for adoption. Brockette may remove materials from this list before sending his final recommendation to the State Board of Education. The Board may also remove books from the list. However, none may be added once the State Textbook Committee has made its selection.

The State Board of Education will hold a final public hearing on the 1979 adoption November 8 in Austin. The Board will adopt books at its regular meeting on November 10.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By SETH RALSTON
County Agent

There is something about a beautiful lawn; it is almost as if the best part of spring spent the summer at your home. A bit poetic, but a lush, green lawn is still the result of knowing and keeping tabs on what you have done.

More frequently, we are finding that some homeowners have lost track of what is occurring on their lawns. As a result, these homeowners are beginning to learn new words such as chlorosis (yellowing and poor growth), iron deficiency and micronutrients.

These conditions and the need for micronutrients can be brought about by excessive phosphorus levels in the soil. The very high to excessive soil phosphorus levels can be caused by naturally high phosphorus levels in the soil or from continuous over-utilization of fertilizers containing phosphorus.

A survey of the soil samples tested in 1978-79 indicated that 21 percent of West Texas homeowners with lawn problems had very high to excessive phosphorus levels, reported Dr. Dale Pennington, Extension area soil chemist who supervises the Texas A&M University soil testing laboratory at Lubbock.

To address how and why this situation occurred, one can only guess. The first guess is that the homeowner did not realize how to properly apply the correct amount of fertilizer. The second guess is that the homeowner, over the years, failed to keep tabs of how much phosphorus may have resulted in the phosphorus build-up.

A soil analysis prevents this phosphorus build-up from occurring and it also determines how much phosphorus should be applied. If you feel you need a soil test, here are some tips that will help you obtain better results from your soil analysis.

Prior to taking small samples, scrape the litter from the surface; then, use a spade, soil auger or soil-sampling tube. To use a sharp shooter, dig a V-shaped hole and take a half-inch slice of soil from the smooth side of the hole. Repeat in 10 to 15 different places.

Place subsamples in a clean container (plastic bucket, paper sack, etc.), mix thoroughly, and take out approximately one pint for the composite sample.

To aid in the interpretation of the soil test and in making recommendations, fill in Form D-495, "Soil Sample Information Sheet for Lawn, Garden and Flower Beds," as completely as possible and submit with your samples.

Each soil sample should be marked with your name and sample number, which should correspond with the information sheet. Mark the analysis desired and include the proper fee. The information sheets and soil sample boxes are available at the county Extension office at the Courthouse in Farwell.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Mr. John Getz, Publisher
The State Line Tribune
Farwell, Tx. 79325

Dear John:

Thank you for the supportive comments you have had recently in your "Purely Personal" columns.

It had not occurred to me before that Farwell had never been visited by a congressman except during an election year. I am very glad this precedent has been broken and hope to do it twice in a row.

I have been one of few congressmen to conduct these town hall meetings and have found them tremendously beneficial in learning the feelings of the people. The excellent coverage you gave the meeting is greatly appreciated. Please feel free to contact me anytime I can be of service.

Sincerely,

Bovina Man Hired To State Ag Committee

A veteran Panhandle area farmer from Bovina has been employed to assist the Agriculture and Livestock Committee of the Texas House of Representatives.

House Speaker Bill Clayton, state representative of District 74, said that Ralph Roming will assume permanent duties with the committee May 15.

"Ralph will serve as a resource person for the committee and his duties will include coordination of information gathering and dissemination of facts pertinent to agriculture," Clayton said.

In the position, Roming will work directly with chairman Forrest Green of Corsicana and the committee staff.

"I am particularly encouraged that Ralph has agreed to accept the position because being from our area and having such an extensive background in agriculture he will be a great source of information and provide a definite benefit to the farmers of Texas," Clayton said of the appointment.

Roming, 40, is a fourth generation Texas farmer. He has been a production farmer in Parmer County for 18 years and continues to farm. He serves as Parmer County committeeman for the High Plains Underground Water Funfest Fever Running High!

Funfest is coming again! The super fair for the entire family will take place Memorial Weekend, May 26-28.

Last year over 50,000 people came from the four corners of the Texas Panhandle and beyond to attend Funfest. The three-day festival is once again scheduled from noon until 9:00 p.m. at Thompson Park in Amarillo. The co-sponsors are the Amarillo Parks and Recreation Department and the Junior League of Amarillo.

Admission is only $1.00 per adult, with children under six admitted free. Free for everyone's enjoyment are four stages of live continuous entertainment.

Funfest will feature 33 different foods and 30 games of fun and sport. People of all ages and preferences will find a good way to have a good time.

A 26-mile marathon race and a half-marathon race will open the festivities. Hot-air balloons will be launched when the marathon winner crosses the finish line. First prize for that winner is an all-expense-paid trip to the Boston Marathon.

A new 10,000 meter race will occur on Monday, May 28. This race will become an annual event known as the Memorial 10,000. Persons interested in running in any of these races should register as soon as possible.

Entertainment on Funfest's four stages will be continuous. Last year more than 1,000 entertainers performed on Funfest's four stages: FunBowl (the largest stage featuring large groups, dance groups, etc.); Frontier Stage (featuring rock music and country and western); FunSpot Stage (for singles and small groups); and Fantasyland Stage (children's entertainment).

Wonderland Park will be open during the hours of Funfest and accessible through the Funfest grounds. Wonderland is a complete amusement park with many of the world's favorite and most up-to-date rides and amusements. During Funfest, all rides will be open at regular prices.

Fantasyland, a special area for children ages two to twelve, is absolutely free. Children will enter Fantasyland through a nine-foot rainbow and will be greeted by favorite cartoon characters: Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Mother Goose, Humpty Dumpty, the Little Red Hen, the Tortoise and the Hare, and the Gingerbread Man.

Once inside Fantasyland, children will have fun with 19 exciting events including Face Painting, Panning for Pennies, Bullseye Bozo, Tom Sawyer's Fence, Wood Wonders, and Silly Stilts. They will also be entertained by clowns, magicians, dancing, plays, and music on their very own stage. By all reports, Funfest this year will be bigger and better. The area of the Funfest grounds has been enlarged. There will be more foods and more games. There is a newly-constructed stage for the FunBowl, Water events, featured continuously in the Thompson Park pool, will be a new attraction. There will be continuous art demonstrations, sidewalk artists, parades of bands.

Another new event this year is the FunAuction. People may bid on any of 12 special celebrations: for example, a Super Bowl Supper for Super Bowl Day in January, a St. Patrick's Day Party, a Queen-for-a-Day Party for the sweetheart on February 14. The FunAuction will take place on Sunday, May 27, at the FunBowl.

Free parking will be provided at the Civic Center. Free shuttle buses will run from there to the gates of Funfest every 15 minutes. The buses are being provided as a convenience to Funfest guests, because parking at Thompson Park is limited.

The most special fact about Funfest is that funds raised from Funfest are returned to the Panhandle area through charitable projects of the 56 participating community groups. The investment of these funds into charitable services in the Panhandle area will mean help for thousands in all walks of life and in many kinds of need.

Funfest '79

The Hare and the Little Red Hen are waiting with Humpty Dumpty to greet 75,000 guests at FUNFEST '79. This second annual "Fabulous Festival of Family Fun" will be Memorial Weekend - May 26, 27, and 28 - in Amarillo at Thompson Park, adjacent to Wonderland Park on the Dumas Highway. There will be food, entertainment, balloon rides, water sports, Fantasyland for the very young, and games for all ages.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—Two bills now pending in Congress could be cause for concern among Texas citizens. HR 2626 and SB 507 now before the United States Congress relate to hospital cost containment.

Although at first glance the bills appear to be a panacea for reducing skyrocketing medical costs, they deserve a second look with an eye toward the effect they would have on our State.

The bills provide for an annual 9.7 percent increase in hospital costs and utilizes the percent of increase in hospital cost as the only criteria for cost containment. This means that in states where the cost of hospitalization is already high, the percentage increase will also be higher than in states such as Texas which have already made an effort to reduce the cost of hospitalization.

For example, Massachusetts which has the highest cost per admission in the nation at $2057, would be allowed a $223 increase per admission while Texas which has a $1,169 cost per admission would be allowed only a $113 increase per admission.

Aside from this fact, Texas has the highest percentage of increase of the two states cited. From 1976 to 1977 Texas had a 2.1 percent population increase while Massachusetts has only a .2 percent population increase.

The national cost of hospitalization is 29 percent higher than in Texas, therefore, Texas has only about two-thirds the base of other states with which to calculate the percentage increase.

What does this mean in terms of available health care? This question has not yet been resolved, however, it is possible that such governmental regulation may jeopardize the quality of hospital care. Government regulation may also add to the cost of hospital care through increased paperwork and other bureaucracy activity which has been so in conflict with business and industry. Texas' hospitals have already made an active stand toward reducing the increase in hospital costs. These hospitals voluntarily reduced the cost of hospital care from 15 percent per admission in 1977 to 12 percent in 1978. The goal for 1979 is a 9.8 percent reduction in the rise of hospital care cost.

I feel that our experience with regulations handed down from Washington would point us away from viewing such regulation as an ultimate problem solver. I believe that we would do better by allowing our hospitals to continue trying to stem the rise in these costs voluntarily.

At one time it was thought gold dissolved in dew.

Damaged Trees, Shrubs Need Homeowners' Care

LUBBOCK - Severe winter weather has caused greater than normal injury to evergreen plants and fruit trees on the Texas High Plains. Homeowners need to take steps now to save these damaged plants, says a plant pathologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Injury to perennials occurred during subzero weather around Christmas and the New Year, said Dr. Robert Berry, Extension area plant pathologist. Fruit and flowering trees were damaged during recent cold snaps while they were trying to flower, he said.

"If the damage was severe to some types of plants in certain locations in your landscaping, it is reasonable to assume that such damage will recur under similar weather conditions," Berry said.

"This might be a good time to replace these types in your landscaping with other plants or varieties that are more hardy and less susceptible to winter damage."

The most seriously damaged plants are Euonymus hedges, the Extension plant pathologist said. Many of these plantings have been killed to the ground.

In protected areas, some Euonymus plants just have dead leaves and should be putting out new growth now. But unprotected plants may have been killed back to the crown and should be pruned back to live wood, Berry advised.

"If they have good root systems, they'll make rapid regrowth after pruning," he said.

Another type of damage is seen on privets, magnolia and similar broadleaf evergreens. On these, the plant pathologist said, the leaves have been killed at the edges and tips. The plants look brown but have some green growth.

"The brown leaves will drop off soon and will be replaced by new growth," Berry advised. Most of these plants are not suffering any real harm, he said.

Winter injury, especially mechanical injury from winter wind, has caused a lot of leaf spotting on wax-leaf ligustrum. These plants will put out new growth, Berry said. Unless the plants are misshapen, they won't need pruning, he added.

Similar spotting is found on holly. This is mostly mechanical injury caused by spines of older leaves puncturing tender new leaves due to wind action.

"Homeowners should provide windbreaks now to protect new leaves from being punctured," Berry said. Once the puncturing occurs, there is nothing that can be done, he warned. The real damage will become apparent in the fall.

Ground cover, especially vinca, were frozen back this winter, leaving nearly all their leaves dead. The best treatment is to clean the beds and cut the plants back to stubble to force new growth.

Many fruit trees in most areas of the South Plains have lost their fruit buds to winter damage, Berry said. Many of the flowering shrubs suffered similar damage.

The thing homeowners must remember with these trees, Berry cautioned, is that they should not be heavily fertilized. Heavy fertilization and watering, he warned, will cause the trees to grow too fast since they have no fruit load. They will then be more sensitive to cold damage next winter.

Established junipers and Arizona cyprus have had very little winter problem, the Extension specialist said. But he cautioned that plants put in the ground last spring may have suffered more damage than normal, especially if fertilized and watered heavily right up to first frost.

"On all plants, if the roots and lower parts are healthy, there will be regrowth," Berry said. Homeowners should prune damaged plants carefully and water and fertilize them as needed. "It is always in order to cut dead growth out of a plant," Berry said.

Ready For Balloon Flight

Amanda Easley, a Texico first grader, daughter of Mrs. Debbie Easley, waits patiently as George Herrington, elementary principal, fills her balloon with helium. Moments later Texico's first and second graders had great fun as they let their balloons loose and watched the wind carry them away. Messages inside each balloon listed the child's name, grade, how many books he had read, and a request to notify him when and where the balloon had landed. Children who had read 10 books were allowed to send up a balloon.

A. S. Hollomon Rites Thursday In Clovis

Funeral services for A.S. Hollomon, 96, of Clovis were conducted Thursday at 10 a.m. MDT in Steed-Todd Memorial Chapel with John Townsden of the 16th and Pile Church of Christ in Clovis and Rev. Kerry Hurst of the Sudan United Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Mission Gardens Cemetery in Clovis.

Mr. Hollomon died Monday at a Clovis nursing home. He was born Aug. 7, 1882 in Tennessee. He moved with his family to Williamson County, Tex., in 1885. They moved to Hardeman County, Tex., in 1906 and then to Collingsworth County, Tex., in 1916. Mr. Hollomon lived in various other areas in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Louisiana while working as a railroad agent for the Ft. Worth, Denver, Texas Pacific, Burlington and Rock Island Railroads and as a telegrapher for the Sinclair and Gulf Oil Companies.

He moved with his family from Shamrock to the Melrose area in 1934, moving to Sudan in 1950.

Survivors include four sons, John C. of Van Nuys, Calif., Cletis E. of Sudan, William P. of Sudan and Ribble of Clovis; one sister, Mary Lou West of Sudan; one brother, John of Kingsville, Tex.; five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Pallbearers were Bill Johnson, Harold May, Truman Parrish, Jim Thomas, Buford Walser and Ben Fletcher. Honorary pallbearers were his friends.

issued by the National Safety Council were presented for last school year's safe driving record. Tonya Skaggs, who received a three-year pin, was not present for the picture.

Being too shy may be a handicap

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Being too shy can have serious consequences, a University of Texas speech teacher says.

While talkative persons tend to be rated more positively, Dr. John Daly says shy people often are evaluated negatively by teachers, job interviewers and even their peers. He has found that such non-talkers are seen as being less attractive socially, less likely to do well in school and harder to train in work situations.

However, Dr. Daly says shy persons are needed for many jobs that require little communication. "Where shy people have a hard time is first impressions," he notes, "but once they get past that they generally do okay."

Skunks Account For Most Rabies Cases

Small puppies have a playful way about them, and they love to gnaw and chew on almost anything - even fingers and toes.

As the result of these playful - and not so playful - actions of a seven-week-old puppy recently in Matagorda County, 23 persons began a series of rabies shots. The playful pup, given as a present to grandchildren, became rabid and exposed 23 people.

Rabies is no stranger to Texas, says the Texas Department of Health.

Last year, in the biggest year since 1961, rabies was confirmed in 563 animals in Texas. This year, in certain parts of the state, rabies has been twice as bad as last year.

One human death was recorded in Fort Bend County last year. The victim, a native of Guanajuato, Mexico, is believed to have been exposed to the rabies virus in Mexico.

Wild animals accounted for an overwhelming majority of the 1978 rabies cases, but nine dogs, 17 cats, 11 cows and 13 horses were included in the statewide total.

Largest number of cases in wildlife was diagnosed in skunks, a normally retiring black and white creature which lives in close proximity to man. Skunks accounted for 449 cases of rabies last year and traditionally will total approximately 80 percent of Texas cases annually, according to Dr. Foy V. McCasland, chief of the Bureau of Veterinary Public Health of the Texas Department of Health.

Since skunks do live close to man - particularly in rural areas and small towns - there is always the chance that a pet and a rabid skunk will make contact. Each year, many pets have to be destroyed because of fights with skunks and other wild animals which have rabies, said Dr. McCasland.

Although skunks and other wild animals - called "exotics" - may be pretty and apparently make interesting pets, the Texas Department of Health is strongly against this practice.

Skunks born in captivity have come down with rabies. The incubation period of rabies in skunks may be from approximately 20 days to as long as 18 months. "This extreme variation of incubation and infectivity makes the skunk an insidious time bomb as a household pet," said Dr. McCasland.

The disease may not be apparent in a skunk until the damage is done, said Dr.

McCasland. It has been demonstrated that skunks are capable of excreting virus in their saliva as long as 18 days before death and at least eight days before the onset of clinical signs of rabies infections.

Rabies is endemic in wildlife, and the skunk is the number one target. Since 1960 skunks have become the most frequently reported rabid animal AND the most common source of human rabies in the United States.

Practicing veterinarians often are confronted with clients who have or want wild animals for pets. Dr. McCasland has urged veterinarians to refrain from de-scenting them or otherwise encouraging the keeping of skunks for pets. He said there is no rabies vaccine approved for use in skunks, or other wild animals, and there is little evidence that any vaccine is effective in protecting them from rabies.

Adding to his argument, Dr. McCasland says a skunk owner can expect to be bitten by the pet. In one study, he said 58 percent of pet skunks had bitten people. In households with pet skunks, he added, 21 percent of all family members were bitten by their pet skunks.

Minister
Farnell Church of Christ

WHATEVER ELSE we may say and do, regardless of pious claims we make; irrespective of how we feel; GOD STILL REQUIRES OUR OBEDIENCE.

CHRIST SAID, "Why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46). If Christ is not the Lord of our life, he is not the Saviour of our soul. Obedience is the only way.

PRAYER IS NOT A substitute for obedience. It is a very helpful Christian activity, but it was never intended to accomplish what God has decreed must be accomplished by our obedience to his commandments.

FEELING GOOD, and feeling right are both important in our personal experiences, but these feelings do not make us acceptable to God, and must never be used as substitutes for obedience. When we obey God, we will feel good, and feel right; we will be right. (I John 2:1-5; 5:1-5).

"THERE IS A WAY THAT SEEMS RIGHT unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." (Prov. 14:12). It is possible to go to the judgment "thinking we are right", but "being wrong". (Matt. 7:21-23).

WE MUST BE SINCERE in what we believe and do, but "being sincere" is no substitute for diligent obedience to God's commands, as they have been revealed to us.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEERAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60633

LET IT GET YOU DOWN

"For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 3:14).

When adversity strikes, the world keeps telling us: "Don't let it get you down," but believers in the Lord Jesus Christ have learned that it is good to let troubles, and difficulties get them down - down on their knees.

A native evangelist in Africa sat outside his hut discouraged and unhappy. Trouble and disappointment had brought "great coldness" into his heart and he seemed ready to give up. The Lord, he felt, had utterly forsaken him.

As he sat there, though, his little girl kept nudging him and saying: "Daddy, go inside and pray."

Finally it worked! The evangelist went inside, poured his heart out to God and arose feeling sure that the Lord would see him through.

It is good for us to get down on our knees before God. There is no attitude more appropriate to the redeemed sinner. And as we pray, often falteringly....

"The Spirit also helpeth our infirmities, for we know not what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit Himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

"And He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because He maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:26-28).

Two-Vehicle Accident

These two vehicles were involved in an accident Saturday morning 2 1/2 miles north-east of Friona on Highway 60. Bob Davis of Friona, Parmer County Deputy Sheriff, was driving along the shoulder of the highway in his official unit, a 1975 Ford LTD, when Wayne McCutchen of Hereford, driving a 1978 Chevrolet pickup, allegedly drifted off course and plowed into the back end of the deputy's car, totaling the unit. Both men received minor injuries. Davis was treated at the hospital in Friona and McCutchen was treated and released at the hospital in Hereford. DPS Trooper Jim Bishop, investigating officer, cited McCutchen for "failure to control speed." At the time of the incident Davis had been helping move some cattle across the highway.

Water District Discusses Tailwater Waste

High Plains Underground Water Conservation District met in regular session on May 7 in the District's office at 2930 Avenue Q in Lubbock, Texas. The Board first considered and approved minutes of the April 10 meeting, reviewed the District's financial status, approved bills and approved staff travel vouchers. Clifford Thompson reported on pending well applications. The Board approved 53 applications, eight extensions, and five amended permits recommended by County Committees and in compliance with District rules. The Board then reviewed management policies for handling District rule violations and determined to take action over persistent tailwater waste problems. Members discussed legal options available, as indicated by the District's attorney, for dealing with chronic violators of the rules governing tailwater.

The Board agreed on the need for continued strict enforcement of the District's rules concerning waste with particular emphasis being directed against habitual offenders in the District. Violators will be notified of the District's intent to take action; however, the landowners and operators will be encouraged to correct the problem themselves without court action.

The District's rules are enforced by seeking injunctions at the District Court level. If a violation occurs after an injunction is issued by the District Court, the violator would be in "contempt of court" which carries a maximum fine of $1,000 and/or six months in jail per occasion.

The Board's intent is to act in such a way as to seek remedy of the problem at the most local enforcement level to discourage further controls by the state or federal government.

The Manager then reviewed for the Board a supplementary text being developed by the District to be used in teaching area public school youngsters about water and its wise use on the High Plains. Draft copies of the text and a developing teachers guide, complete with a test of "Your Water IQ," for eighth and ninth graders were examined. The Board is eager for comments and suggestions from the review of these materials by state and local water authorities.

Directors were brought up to date on the Water Conservation Workshops being conducted in the District service area. A schedule of field workshops has been charted for the testing and in-field training of SCS and Water District personnel. Where conditions dictate, area County Committeemen's farms will be the site for the mobile field water conservation labs.

The Board recessed into Executive Session to discuss water District personnel matters before setting the next meeting for June 12, 1979, at Hereford and adjourning at noon.
