BTD Committee Plans Celebration

The 1979 Border Town Days celebration should be "bigger and better" this year if the first planning session of the BTD committee which met Monday night at Clara's restaurant is any indication. Eighteen persons representing 11 local clubs and organizations were present to discuss plans for this year's celebration.

John Getz, chairman, called the meeting to order. Tony Mendoza reported that the BTD fund still has $303.64 in a checking account and $2059.78 in a savings account which is drawing interest. More than $2200 was discovered last year in a BTD account at the Texico Branch of the Citizens Bank which had apparently been "forgotten" for a couple of years. Approximately $130 of this fund was spent for last year's celebration.

Several definite plans were made Monday night including a barbecue to be sponsored jointly by the Farwell Jaycees and the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club. Richard Haseloff, Jaycee president, reported that the club has approximately 800 lbs. of beef wrapped and ready for the barbecue which he said that they (Jaycees) all feel should be a part of the BTD celebration.

The Rotarians will be responsible for the cooking and preparations. This year's festivities will encompass the last weekend in July (27-28) to coincide with the annual High Plains Junior Rodeo Association rodeo which the Jaycees have sponsored for the past several years.

Tentative plans call for serving the barbecue starting at 1 p.m. CDT in Farwell City Park, following the parade which will again be part of the annual celebration. The parade will get underway at 12:30 p.m. CDT on Saturday, July 28, and follow this tentative route: form south of highway 60-70-84 at the Texaco station, proceed through the "main streets" of both Texico and Farwell, turn south on Fifth Street in Farwell and disband one block south of the Convalescent Center.

Glenn Fant will serve as parade marshal to be assisted by an entry committee comprised of members of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club.

"United We Grow" will be the theme of the 1979 BTD observance. That was adopted last August when members of the BTD committee met to discuss the 1978 celebration and to make future plans for this year's affair.

A BTD queen's contest will again be held this year with Joann Getz serving as coordinator assisted by the Farwell Study Club. Conducting a "Little Miss" contest was suggested, but no action was taken.

The queen's contest will be held at the start of the park activities following the parade and barbecue.

Two local sororities - Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and Alpha Rho Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi - will coordinate the park activities and entertainment. Julia Symcox and Ed Hardage will be in charge of the committee to build a gazebo or band stand for the Farwell City Park (where BTD events are held each year). It was noted that a gazebo will be decorative as well as useful for the queen's contests and other events held during the annual celebration.

Mrs. Symcox noted that last year many organizations said they would pledge contributions for a permanent band stand to be built at the park. She asks that any organization or club interested in helping (by donating time, labor and/or funds) to please contact her as soon as possible, preferably before the next meeting of the BTD committee slated for June 4.

Delton Wilhite will check into the possibility of securing a carnival for this year's shindig, proceeds to be designated for the BTD fund. The Committee decided that each year a money making activity for the BTD fund should be planned so as not to completely deplete the current fund within a few years.

Haseloff said he thought he could book a gunfighters act (not the same ones that appeared last year) for this year's celebration. These performers live in Tulia, have indicated to him that they would be interested in appearing during this year's celebration, he said.

Ann Cooper announced that the Texico Chamber of Commerce was already in the process of taking orders from Texico merchants for welcome banners, pennants and bunting to decorate the city during the celebration. The Committee decided to ask the Farwell Chamber of Commerce to do likewise.

Money prizes and other ideas were tabled until the next meeting which is to be June 4 at the Jaycees Community Center.

We read a letter to the editor the other day in which the writer says in part, "Never in our history has such a conglomeration of incompetents, demagogues and half-pint politicians been in power." Well now, sir - Where have you been for the last 40 years? Admittedly, the present occupants of Washington, D.C., are no paragons of political virtue, but they are no better or no worse than the swindlers, con men and shell game artists we have had for the past four decades.

Let us consider two very recent articles reflecting upon the integrity of those of past political influence and those presently servicing the public.

In the April 30, 1979 issue of U.S. News and World Report is an article titled, "Social Security - Will It Be There When You Need It?" The story lists several reasons for the SS system's present financial plight. One problem has been the long range forecasts of pay in and pay out. For example, the Senate-House Committee reports recommending SS changes adopted in 1950 said: "Fifty years hence, estimated benefit payments will be almost $12 billion per year." In reality the benefits paid out in 1978 came to $100 billion.

In the first place as long as we can remember private insurance companies have said repeatedly that the actuarial tables used by Congress were faulty and not reliable. We believe that those Congressmen in 1950 knew in their hearts that they were hoaxing the public.

Of course, actuarial tables used by the government over the years could not possibly take into account the constant liberalizing of benefits mandated by each succeeding Congress, usually just before an election.

This is the second reason for the plight of SS. Huge benefits given by Congress has been successful. They have made SS a massive welfare vehicle instead of the basic floor upon which thrifty Americans could build a reasonable retirement program.

By prostituting the original aims of SS our Washington representatives have created an almost insoluble economic quagmire that must be dealt with now. This approach is typical of the venal men we have had in Washington. Raise benefits, hold contributions down, buy votes today and let the next generation worry about the mess.

Of course we cannot solve the SS problem, but apparently nobody else can because it only gets worse. This is blatantly apparent from a story in the April 27 issue of the Amarillo Globe-News.

The head for this story says, "Social Security Benefits To Climb 10%," Joe Califano, the bleeding Secretary of HEW, said, "These increases help the elderly and the needy of our nation to cope with the terrible effects of inflation."

These benefits are all unfunded. They must come directly out of the paychecks of today's wage earners. The towering question is, how long before these wage earners revolt against this extortion? If polls are to be believed the breaking point is getting closer each SS tax raise.

How much better if these patrons of power in our Capitol got down to the nitty gritty and waged an all out war on inflation. Thereby not only helping the elderly and needy but all people, the wage earner in particular.

The present SS system cannot survive the huge unfunded benefit liabilities passed by former reckless congresses without grappling with the total economic problems that beset us today. Economic realism must take precedent over generosity and a comprehensive plan for economic stability must be devised for all segments of our country.

Competing At State

Farwell Steerette golf team left for Austin Tuesday of this week to participate in the state golf tournament Thursday and Friday. Team members include Robin Vinton, Lisa Hughes, Dondra Geries, Kim Marsh and Janene Berry. Mike Martin is the coach.

Steerettes To Austin For State Golf Meet

Steerette golfers are competing in the Class A state finals today (Friday) at Austin. The Farwell girl golfers qualified for state competition by coming in second in the regional playoffs two weeks ago in Odessa. In 1975, the first of three years for the Steerettes to win the Class A state title, they also entered the state meet as second place team in their region. This year's team members are, from left, Kim Marsh, Dondra Geries, Lisa Hughes, Janene Berry and Robin Vinton.

The Blue and White earned the right to advance to the finals in Austin by copping a first place win in District 3-A and a runner-up victory at the regional meet.

The local girls were Class A golf champs in 1975, 1976 and 1977. They did not advance to state last year as they finished fourth in regional competition.

No seniors are on the golf team, making the future for the Farwell girls golfing prowess look most promising as all these girls will be back to compete next year.

Rain, Hail Damage Corn, Cotton Crops

A combination rain and hail storm struck south of Farwell Monday afternoon, damaging newly-sprouting corn and just planted cotton.

John Range, who lives 10 miles south of town, reported that the hail storm began around 5 o'clock, continued for approximately 1 1/2 hours and that the hail varied from pea to golf ball size. After the hail abated rain continued to fall well into the night, he added.

Range said the worst damage occurred on the section where his hired hand lives. "About six inches of hail covered the corn, beating it down, and also covered the cotton fields," he explained. "I have hopes that the corn will come back and that the cotton will be all right if I can dig the dirt off of it."

That section of land received over five inches of rain, but Range said he only recorded 1.8 inches of moisture at his home which is one mile away. He added that the hail damage seemed to cover a "wide area," continuing south of him to Muleshoe. Range said that several of his neighbors also received hail damage.

Recent rains have deposited about .5 inch of rain in Texico and Farwell, with varying amounts from 1-1.5 inches being reported throughout Parmer County, reports Seth Ralston, county agent.

"From the reports I have compiled," Ralston said, "Fiona and the Oklahoma Lane area received about one inch and the Hub community received from 1-1.5 inches of rain."

He explained that the moisture will benefit the crops which have been planted, adding that hail damage should not be too severe as most of the corn and cotton planted had not had too much time to grow."

Farwell Council Seeks Vacation Guidelines

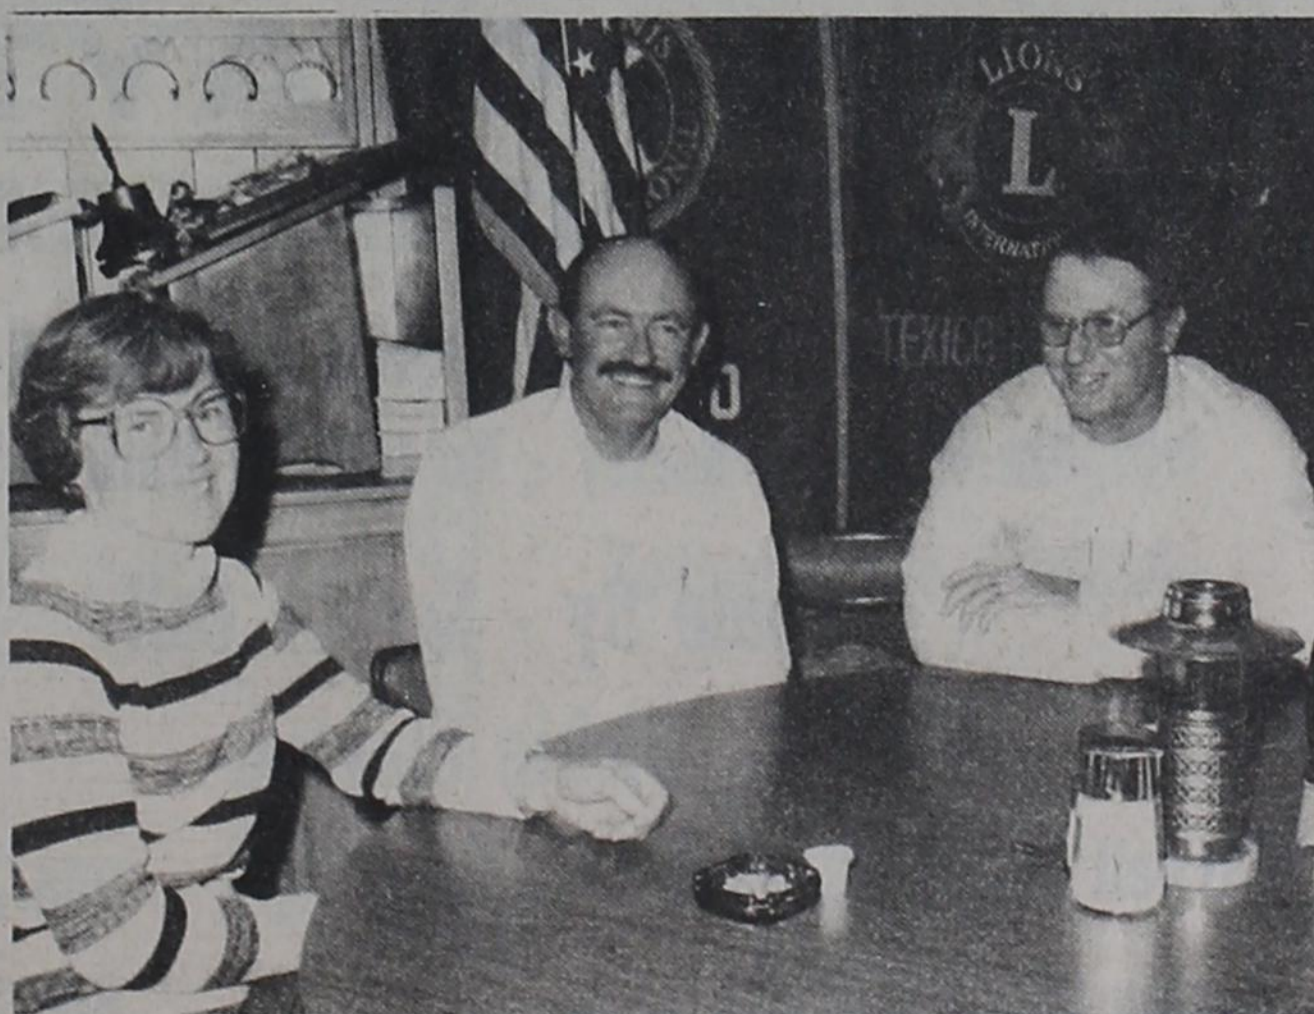

Mayor Walter Kaltwasser announced Monday night at the regular meeting of the Farwell City Council that they would be checking into guidelines for sick leaves and vacations for city employees to be discussed at the next council session. That decision was reached after a brief executive session with Janie Bowery, city clerk. In other business, Dee Hammit, water superintendent, asked that residents be reminded that the water charges are as follows: $22.65 for the first 50,000 units of water and $1 per every 1,000 units used thereafter.

Council members reported that they are taking applications for a city marshal, but no official decision has been made as yet regarding whether or not to hire a city marshal.

Those attending were Mayor Kaltwasser, Commissioners Johnny Curtis and Fred Chandler, and city employees Mrs. Bowery and Carrell Watkins.

Booster Club Officers

Texico Booster Club met Monday night at Clara's restaurant to finalize plans for the upcoming May 22 sports banquet. Officers present at the meeting were, from left, Janica Turner, secretary; J.K.

Barfield, vice-president; and Raymond Hadley, president. In other business, the club set next Monday as a work day on the press box at Wolverine stadium.

Former Texico Clerk - -

Embezzlement Case Ends In Mistrial

The embezzlement trial of Clara Wiehl, former Texico city clerk and treasurer, ended in a mistrial late Saturday afternoon in the Ninth District Court in Clovis. Judge Reuben Nieves declared the mistrial after Byron Black, foreman of the seven man, five woman jury, reported they were "hopelessly deadlocked."

The case will be retried July 30 in Ninth District Court with Judge Nieves again presiding. Bill Bonem, district attorney for Curry County, tried the case for the state after Michael Kaufman, assistant attorney general for the state of New Mexico, was called away by a family emergency early in the trial. Mrs. Wiehl was defended by Dan Buzzard.

Judge Nieves released Mrs. Wiehl under the same $5,000 personal recognizance bond which was in effect prior to the trial.

The jury deliberated for four hours and 20 minutes before announcing that it could not reach a unanimous verdict on any of the charges.

In December of last year a Curry County Grand Jury had indicted Mrs. Wiehl on 38 counts, including 16 counts of embezzlement, 16 counts of failure to deposit public money and six counts of tampering with public records.

However, prompted by a question from the jury regarding whether the four counts of embezzlement involving amounts less than $100 (a misdemeanor) should be given the same consideration as those involving greater amounts, Judge Nieves instructed the jury to disregard those charges and the court declared on its own motion that it was dismissing the four misdemeanor charges.

When Mrs. Wiehl goes on trial again in July she will be charged only with the alleged theft of approximately $7,000 taken during the months of October 1977 through March 1978.

Mrs. Wiehl resigned her position March of last year, after serving 15 years as Texico's city clerk and treasurer.

Witnesses for the state included Olan (Dutch) Rains of Clovis, the auditor who conducted the audit for the city of Texico. He produced a chart discarded posting machine receipts list and utility bill stubs were discovered in a trash can, revealed that some $27,500 was missing from the city's treasury, covering the period July 1976 to March 1978. However, Mrs. Wiehl is being charged only with the alleged theft of approximately $7,000 taken during the months of October 1977 through March 1978.

Man Arraigned On Rape Charge

Joe Whitesides, 44, of Hereford was arraigned Monday before Farwell Justice of the Peace Albert Smith for the alleged rape of a Friona woman. Judge Smith set bond at $25,000 and bound Whitesides over for grand jury action.

In other law enforcement action, the Parmer County Sheriff's office has been investigating the burglary of the Adelaido Godinez home two miles south of Clay's Corner. The thieves entered the home by forcing the back door open, taking a Curtis Mathes television valued at $1000, two radios and several household items, reports Sheriff Charles Lovelace.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Morgan traveled to Roswell Wednesday to return Richard Clyde Petty, 18, of Roswell to face alleged hit and run charges. Roswell authorities had been holding Petty for alleged burglary charges.

Sheriff Lovelace said his department is also investigating the theft of a chrome piece endgate from a pickup belonging to Joe Wallace of Clovis. The pickup was parked at the Tri-County Tire Co. in Farwell. The piece is valued at $25.

BTD Committee

which listed the amount of water-sewer deposits made to the bank, the corresponding amounts which were posted to the individual ledger cards and the difference between the figures which amounted to $7,306.80.

Rains testified that the most likely way for the theft to have occurred was for payments received to be posted to the appropriate ledger cards but not deposited to the bank. The yellow backing sheet from the NCR posting machine and the utility stubs would have to be destroyed in order to avoid detection, he said.

Mrs. Wiehl's bank statements from October 1977 through March 1978 were entered into evidence Wednesday. Bill Christian, vice-president of the Texico branch of the Citizens Bank of Clovis, testified that the bank statements showed that of the $5,719 deposited by Mrs. Wiehl during those six months, $3,170 of the deposits were in cash.

Mrs. Wiehl later said that the money was given to her by her mother and a long time friend, James Harvey. Harvey also testified that though he did not keep a record of his gifts to Mrs. Wiehl, he estimated that he gave her between $200 to $500 each month.

Under cross examination Harvey said that he netted from $13,000 to $15,000 yearly from his trucking business.

Several character witnesses testified that Mrs. Wiehl was "peaceful and law abiding" and that she had a reputation for "truth and veracity." The state constantly hammered away at their contention that Mrs. Wiehl was the only person working during the months of October 1977 to March 1978 who could operate the posting machine and have sufficient knowledge of the bookkeeping system to embezzle the money.

However, the defense countered by pointing out that several times during the six-day trial that Mrs. Wiehl was not the only person who had a key to the cash box or to the city hall building, and theorized that other persons could have operated the posting machine.

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers

Present Spring Style Show

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers presented their annual Spring Style Show Tuesday, April 10, in the school cafeteria. Theme for this year's presentation was "An Easter Parade of Fashions."

The stage was set with a path of green grass lined with white picket fence, potted plants and Easter baskets. At the side was a floral patio set consisting of a canopied lawn swing, and beige wrought iron Granny rocker with matching tables. The furniture was furnished by Poyner's Whites Auto of Muleshoe.

Throughout the room individual tables were decorated with pastel streamers and centerpieces of Easter baskets holding colored eggs. Decorations of spring flowers, bunnies, butterflies and birds were on the walls.

Guests were greeted and registered by Mrs. Harrol Redwine at a table covered with a yellow and white floral print cloth. A spring bouquet and the club's scrapbook decorated the registration table.

Mrs. Lloyd Bradshaw narrated the style show and introduced special guests, Mrs. Mary Davis and Mrs. Neva Barnes from a Clovis dress shop who furnished clothing for the show.

Guests from the Farwell Young Homemakers Club attending were Mrs. Sharon Eubanks and Mrs. Bobbie Pierson.

Some of the new looks shown for spring were jackets with narrow lapels and loose cut; blouses with small collars tied at the neck with narrow ties, and pants with pleats and narrow straight legs. Vests were shown worn with almost anything.

Soft Quiana knit dresses are the dressier look as is sheer polyester fabrics. Many skirt and blouse ensembles will be worn this spring. Many of the after-five garments are of sheer flowing fabric.

Some 45 ensembles were modeled by Mesdames Billy

John Thorn, Junior Matthews, Don McGuire, Scotty Windham, Dewayne Sexton, Mike Blackburn, Kirby Burch, Dave Engleking, Robert Gallman, Skip Magby, Darrell Mason, Bill Morris, Wesley Putnum, Roy Don Rector and Rick Seaton.

Mrs. Clay Mimms, assisted by Britton Collum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collum, drew for the door prizes. Winners included Marilyn Engleking, Teresa King, Barbara Matthews, Elfrieda McGehee, Jo Ann McGuire, Becky Nolan and Karan Sexton.

Refreshments of lime punch and ice cream rolls were served from a table laid with a white cloth printed with tiny yellow flowers. An arrangement of pastel colored silk flowers centered the table and paperware was printed with springtime floral motif. Assisting at the serving table were Mesdames Collum, Mimms, Johnny Mitchell, Jimmy Dale Seaton and Tim Smith.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Shirley Gorman

Mrs. Seth (Anita) Ralston of Farwell, our area homemaker this week, is an active woman who is involved with family, organizations and now the Girls Little Dribblers program, serving as its vice-president and coach this season.

Our homemaker is naturally interested in basketball as she played on both her high school and college teams. While attending Spearman High School, Anita was a member of the Lynxes team that won the state basketball title her senior year. Later she played basketball for Ranger Junior College.

Anita devotes much of her time to her two children, Danna, 6, who is in first grade, and Wesley, 18 months.

"Wesley is at the active age and I spend a lot of time keeping up with him," she said. "He loves to play ball and he loves the outdoors."

"When Danna was growing up I worked and did not have the time to spend with her that I would have liked to," Anita said. "I am enjoying being home with Wesley more as he grows up."

Since the Ralstons raise registered Airdale dogs and Hampshire pigs, Anita also stays busy helping out with those chores. "When Seth is away at stock shows I have to attend to the pigs and dogs," she explained.

Sometimes she joins her husband at stock shows, and little Danna has already tasted her first experience at showing pigs in the open show, winning approximately $70 in prize money at the recent Lubbock Junior Livestock Show.

"Danna likes to show and she did pretty good for her first attempt," Anita related.

Our homemaker also likes to crochet, embroidery and needlepoint. She said she never had any creative art lessons but learned from watching her friends do things. She learned to play the piano several years ago and still likes to play today.

The Ralstons have been busy repainting several rooms of their home on Avenue D. They moved into their home shortly before school started in the fall and have not had the time to do everything they have planned, she said.

Other home finishing projects, such as painting the outside of the house, are slated for this summer. They hope to add a farrowing house for the pigs and Anita said that Seth eventually wants to paint their animal houses "barnyard red."

Seth stays involved with 4-H clubs through his job as Farmer County Extension Agent and very often Anita joins him at meetings and banquets. Seth also coaches the rifle and livestock judging teams, she said.

They have started to plow up a large area for a garden where vegetables will be raised to be canned later, she said.

Anita is a member of the Farwell Young Homemakers Club and the Oklahoma Lane Extension Homemakers Club.

The family attends First Christian Church in Clovis.

For the past two years Anita says they have gone deer hunting, but she has yet to get a deer of her own.

Our homemaker has consented to share the following recipes with our readers:

BROCCOLI CASSEROLE

1 pkg. chopped broccoli
1 medium box Uncle Ben's Wild and White Rice
1 small jar Cheez Whiz
1 can cream of chicken soup
Cook broccoli and rice separately for 10 minutes. (Be sure to add the package of seasoning that is in the rice.)
Mix rice and broccoli, add small jar of Cheez Whiz and stir until melted. Add one can cream of chicken soup. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake for 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

EASY DEVILED CHOPS

6 pork chops
½ c. chopped onion
½ c. chopped green pepper
1-8 oz. can tomato sauce
2 t. Worcestershire sauce
1 T. prepared mustard
Brown pork chops, onion and green peppers in skillet. Make a mixture of tomato sauce, Worcestershire sauce and mustard. Pour over browned pork chops, cover and simmer 30 minutes.

PECAN ICE BOX COOKIES

1 c. white sugar
1 c. brown sugar
1 c. butter
1 c. pecans
1 egg
2 t. vanilla
½ t. soda
½ t. baking powder
pinch of salt
3 c. flour (may have to add a little more flour)
Cream butter, sugar, egg and vanilla. Sift all other ingredients. Then mix with creamed ingredients. Roll into rolls, wrap in waxed paper, chill for 24 hours then put in freezer. Slice and bake until golden brown.

Honor Society Inductees

Ruth Ann Whitesides assists Clay Williams in donning the new National Honor Society pin he received at the NHS induction ceremony conducted Monday morning at Farwell High School. The two students were the only two inducted to the Farwell NHS chapter this year. Miss Whitesides, a junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitesides, and Williams, a sophomore, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams.

Window shades do powerful "blocking" - for energy-saving touchdowns. They block out heat during summertime and block in heat during winter months. Opaque, light-colored shades block air flow better than draperies and venetian blinds, saving up to 21 cents on every home-cooling dollar and eight cents on each home-heating dollar.

Since glass in windows conducts heat, window shades save energy by blocking the passage of heat through the glass itself. Window shades reduce heat gain in a home from the summer sun by 63 percent, and they prevent 24-31 percent heat loss in the winter.

For maximum energy-saving, install window shades inside the window frame about one inch from the glass. That sets up an effective barrier between the glass and the shade. The one-inch of dead air space acts as insulation. Be sure the shade "fills" the window space as much as possible, leaving only the narrowest margin possible between the shade and the window frame. For the biggest energy savings in the summer, pull shades down during hot, sunny parts of the day. That will deflect the sun's hot rays and keep their heat from building up inside the house - and that will save home-cooling energy. Raise the shades during early morning, evenings and nights - to allow cooler air inside and reduce the need for air conditioning.

For big energy savings during the winter, keep shades down during the coldest hours of the day - early morning, evenings and nights - to keep indoor heat locked inside the home. Raise the shades during the warmest parts of the day and let the sun's heat help warm the house.

Little Wesley Ralston, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Ralston of Farwell, tries to keep from falling asleep for his afternoon nap as his mother reads the story of the "Shy Little Kitten." Consumer Food News

Best buys at Texas grocery markets this week include poultry items, pork, canned produce and some fresh produce, Gwendolyn Clyatt reports.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

POULTRY - Egg prices are attractive, along with turkey prices, especially on turkey parts. Fryer chickens have higher prices, but they are still a protein bargain, so buy extras and freeze for later.

Some markets offer boned chicken breast, but check the prices before buying. It may be more economical to bone chicken at home.

PORK - Prices are a bit lower as supplies increase. More supply increases are expected later in the year forcing prices down even further. Specials include end and loin chops, quarter-loin cut into chops, rib-end roasts, frankfurters and liver.

ALONG GROCERY MARKET AISLES - Features include canned fruits and vegetables, salmon, tuna, sugar, bread, pancake mix and syrup.

FROZEN FOODS - Best buys are strawberries, pies, ice cream and vegetables.

DAIRY - Features are cheeses, milk, sour cream and yogurt.

FRESH VEGETABLES -

Best buys at moderate prices include carrots, celery, head lettuce, dry onions and squash, along with collards, mustard, turnips and greens.

Asparagus prices are as economical as they will be, but cauliflower and cabbage prices are high due to short supplies caused by bad weather.

FRESH FRUITS - Best buys at moderate prices include bananas, apples, pineapple, avocados and pears.

Pear quality is excellent, but let them ripen at room temperature a few days. Apples are from "controlled storage," so refrigerate them to maintain quality.

Strawberries are available, but consumers can expect better berries and lower prices in about two weeks.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Economy beef cuts are those with little waste - those with a small amount of bone that give maximum number of servings per pound.

There are over six million more women of voting age than there are men.

Minister

MANY PEOPLE ASSUME that God does not care for us; that He is not interested in us; that He is not concerned. This is a great loss, an unnecessary loss; because God does care.

THESE PEOPLE have been misinformed about how God expresses his love, and, because God does not show his interest in the ways they think he should, they assume that He is not interested in mankind.

THEY THINK THAT GOD should stop wars; and eliminate such things as poverty and crime. They see that there is pain, sickness, sorrow, death and other conditions of imperfect humanity; and they think that God doesn't care.

THEY ASSUME that God arbitrarily imposes his will upon us; that physical and material things are incorruptible; and they ignore the fact that God has an established order in which He permits happenings to transpire according to human choices.

GOD CARES - God is mindful of us. (Heb. 2:6-8). He gave us primary sovereignty. (Heb. 2:7-8). He has provided a Savior. (John 3:16-17). He is not willing that any should perish, but that all come to repentance. (2 Pet. 3:9-12). He established the church. (Matt. 16:13-18).

GOD PROVIDES BLESSINGS for all people, and salvation for those who obey him. (James 1:17).

Benefit Basketball Games To Aid Little Dribblers

Benefit basketball games for the Little Dribblers program are slated for May 12 at 6:30 p.m. CST at Farwell School Gym. All proceeds from this special event will be donated to the Little Dribblers organization to help defray the cost of the regional tournament and the $400 charter application deficit. Each year a fee of $100 per team is assessed each Little Dribblers team which participates in competition. The $400 fee this year covers both the boys teams (which have already ended their season) and the girls teams which are still playing. Each team is assessed this fee in order to finance the various tournaments held after regular season play ends.

Admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for students. The benefit basketball games will pit the 1970-74 Steerettes against the 1975-78 Steerettes, and will be followed by the 1970-74 Steers playing against the 1975-78 Steers. The 1970-74 ex-students are asked to wear blue jerseys of their choice and the 1975-78 team members are asked to wear white jerseys of their choice.

Two practice sessions have been slated on May 11 from 8-10 p.m. and on May 12 from 10 a.m. until noon. The gym will be opened during those hours for the convenience of the two teams. Coaches for the exes teams have been named. Vernon Scott, superintendent of Hedley Public Schools and former Farwell Steer coach, will be in charge of the 1970-74 boys team and Jerry Dee Owen will coach the 1975-78 boys team. Gayle Nicholas, girls coach at South Plains Junior college and former Steerettes head coach, is tentatively slated to coach the 1970-74 girls team. Should she be unable to attend, Jerry Dee Owen will take over her coaching duties. Joe Allen who coached the varsity girls during the 1975-76 school year will be in charge of the 1975-78 girls team. Anyone interested in playing on one of these teams is asked to contact Jerry Yows at 481-9131 between the hours of 9-4 p.m., or write Box 326. Everyone is urged to participate and to support the Little Dribblers organization.

2nd In Regional

Farwell's boys major team Little Dribblers All Stars recently won second place in the regional tournament in Dalhart. Pictured with the individual trophies they received are, from left, Wesley

Steers Fail In Regional Events

Farwell Steers who qualified for regional competition last week were unsuccessful in their bids to go to the state events, losing out in golf, tennis and track.

The golf team managed a 10th place tie with Paducah in regional play at Odessa, carding a 696 two-day total.

James Castleberry, the only Steer tennis player to advance to regional, was defeated 1-6, 1-6 in the first round. Castleberry also qualified for regional track competition in the intermediate hurdles but did not place high enough for state qualification.

Other Steer tracksters competing at regional but not placing in the state bracket were D.D. Foster who threw the discus, and Max Lonsdale who ran in the 100 and 440 yard dashes.

Individual golf scores for the first day were Rowdy Chandler, 40, 40, 80; Nicky Liethen, 43, 45, 88; Robin Roberts, 43, 46, 89; Brent Green, 48, 45, 93; and Kayle Watts, 56, 48, 104, for a team total of 350.

For the second day the Steers shot 346 as a team. Individual scores were Roberts, 41, 36, 77; Chandler, 44, 40, 84; Green, 47, 45, 92; Watts, 50, 49, 92; and Liethen, 47, 46 and 93.

"Even though we didn't advance to state, I am pleased with the way we played," Steer golf coach Mike Martin said.

Track coach Royce Baker said of his charges, "The boys have worked well this year. I am pleased with their attitude. They did what I asked them to do with very little complaining."

ACCEPTED

In Ephesians 1:6 the Apostle Paul sings a doxology, as it were, "to the praise of the glory of God's grace, wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved" (Eph. 1:6).

In the story of the Prodigal Son it is touching to see the Father accept his wayward son back to his bosom - and so generously! He does not merely admit him back into his home; he clothes him with his best robe, puts a ring on his hand, shoes on his feet and kills for him the fattest calf so that they call all to "eat and be merry" in celebration of his return.

But the prodigal was after all the Father's son, whereas Paul bids us "Gentiles in the flesh" to remember that originally we were "without Christ...aliens from the commonwealth of Israel...strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world" (Eph. 2:12).

Hence it is even more touching to contemplate God's gracious acceptance of us who were not sons but "aliens" and "enemies" (Col. 1:21).

The word "accepted" in the above passage actually comes from the word "grace" (Gr. karis) with which the verse begins: "... His grace, wherein He hath engaged us in the Beloved One."

Thus God looks upon us now with delight; He delights to favor and bless the believer because He sees Him in Christ, His beloved Son.

This passage reminds us how God once broke through the heavens to declare: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matt. 3:17). And now He is delighted with us and blesses us with "all spiritual blessings in the heavens" because we are "in Christ," the "Beloved Son". Not that we have attained to this position. Far from it, for "HE hath MADE us accepted"... HE hath engaged us in the Beloved.

REC Gives Van To Girlstown

Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, serving the four-county area of Oldham, Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer, recently presented a van to Girlstown. Board of Directors President, Sloan Osborn, presented the title of the vehicle to Marshall Cooper, Administrator of Girlstown, at a brief ceremony in Friona. Girlstown, located approximately nine miles south of Whiteface, is the home of 66 girls at the present time and 88 percent funded by contributions. Cooper stated that the van would be used to pick up clothes, furniture and food

The Grass Was Greener

Two Detroit men discovered that U.S. Customs inspectors are not fooled by a lot of bull. James Paul Allen, 32, and Wallace Burton Drew, 55, were arrested by officers at a checkpoint two miles north of the Mexican border driving a truck officers said was loaded with 5,400 pounds of marijuana, worth $4.5 million. The marijuana was concealed under a load of cattle manure.

donated to the girls. "We believe in the good the organization is doing and we, along with other residents of the area, like to support Girlstown in their efforts," Osborn said. Bains Signs supplied the art work on the side of this, the third vehicle the REC has donated to Girlstown. The other two had been pickups. Girlstown had expressed their need for another vehicle, and the Board of Directors of Deaf Smith REC decided to make the donation of the van. "It will be somewhat more versatile than a pickup, and will still do whatever a pickup could," Osborn stated. Also attending the presentation were REC Board Members, A.W. Anthony, Jr., of Friona, and Eldred Brown from the Bootleg area.

Gift To Girlstown

Crop And Livestock Reports Needed From Residents

During late May and June, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the service's field staff. The information gathered through the questionnaires and interviews provides the basis for determining the acreage devoted to the various crops and midyear livestock numbers for the state of Texas and for each county. Crop and livestock reports provide a dependable, unbiased picture of Texas' most important industry -- agriculture. The estimates in these reports are tools to help farmers and ranchers work out their planting, breeding, feeding, storing, producing, and marketing plans.

Farm organizations and legislatures use them in planning programs. The estimates are also used in establishing the various government program acreage and payment levels to farmers for the state and county. Extension economists and private farm and ranch management consultants use them as a basis for advising farmers and ranchers. Exporters use them in planning and promoting the sale of agricultural products abroad.

Prompt and accurate completion of the survey forms provides for more reliable estimates and helps to reduce survey costs. All individual farm and ranch information is kept confidential, and only state and county summaries become part of the final published estimate. This is a cooperative effort of the USDA's Economics, Statistics, and Cooperatives Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Education Workshop Set For 4-H Leaders

4-H leaders in Parmer County who are interested in receiving training in several new and exciting outdoor subjects and activities will want to mark May 5-6 on their calendars.

That's when special training sessions will be held at the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood to prepare leaders for county 4-H camps and other outdoor projects and activities, points out Laura Jacobs, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Leaders attending will be able to choose training in 4-H shooting sports or in such county camp activities as outdoor cookery, hiking and backpacking, planning day camps, bicycle rodeos and other events designed to make county camps better for 4-H members. There will also be a special training session on canoeing.

So, for a full-filled weekend that will provide learning opportunities and practical skills to use in county programs, Miss Jacobs encourages interested 4-H leaders to attend the workshop. Additional details, including registration forms, are available at the county Extension office.

N-SERVE* HOW IT WORKS

N-SERVE blocks bacterial action that would quickly convert ammonium fertilizer to nitrates. Nitrates are subject to rapid loss through leaching and denitrification. This blocking action keeps nitrogen in the soil longer so that it becomes available slowly as it's needed. This reduces the crop stress that would occur from temporary nutrient shortages if you had to rely on side-dressings to maintain a steady nitrogen supply.

HEAVIER BOLL SET

Cotton treated with ammonium fertilizer containing N-SERVE consistently sets more bolls.

INCREASED YIELDS

If nitrogen has been the limiting growth factor, due to early losses and poor utilization, N-SERVE will aid in improving yields. Check the results in the following table.

Note that plant growth limitations due to soil and climatic conditions, shortages or excesses of other plant nutrients and excessive damage from insects and diseases may prevent a yield response from the use of N-SERVE.

Note the heavier boll set, larger plant size, and healthier root system of the plants which received nitrogen containing N-SERVE (left).

Sidedressing Nitrogen Boosts Yields

Sidedressing nitrogen on sandy soils within 30 days after emergence can boost sorghum yields, reports Seth Ralston, Farmer County Extension Agent. The irrigated sorghum producer can increase yields as much as 2000 lbs./A. On unfertilized sandy soils, dryland producers with adequate soil moisture this year should be considering sidedress applications.

Past research conducted on Amarillo fine sandy loam soils has shown sidedressing nitrogen to be sound. This research was conducted for two years by Dr. Arthur Onken, professor at the Texas Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. His work was in conjunction with the SEA-USA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland.

Research results indicate that nitrogen is leached below the root zone by heavy applications of irrigation water on sandy soils. Large amounts of rainfall could produce the same effect, the researcher says. Leaching of nitrogen on sandy soils also occurs when it is applied prior to preplant irrigation.

While nitrogen application is critical on sandy soils, it is not a problem on clay and clay loam soils. Nitrogen can be applied to these soils with equal effectiveness if applied anytime from fall to early sidedress.

Producers using split applications of nitrogen fertilizer (half preplant and the remaining half sidedressed) are also reminded that the proper time for sidedressing is within 30 days after emergence.

Dr. Onken and his associates have shown there is no economic advantage from the practice of splitting nitrogen applications. Splitting the nitrogen on sandy soils also enhances the possibility of bad weather preventing the sidedress nitrogen application.

There is, however, one advantage obtained if high rates of fertilizer are to be utilized for maximum yields. This being a lower probability of stand problems caused by high nitrogen in the seedbed.

In studies on sandy soils, sidedressed nitrogen produced irrigated sorghum yields ranging from 7,180 to 7,540 pounds per acre. These sorghum yields were dependent upon the amount of nitrogen required. If sorghum producers are interested in how much nitrogen to apply, they should have their soil tested for nitrogen. A soil analysis for nitrogen provides the irrigated and dryland producers the advantage of maximum utilization of residual nitrogen thus reducing production costs.

Contact your County Extension Agent for information on soil testing.
