Puget Sound To Gulf Meet Soon

The 1921 convention of the Texas division of the Puget Sound-to-the-Gulf Highway Association will likely be held early in September either in Mason or Fredericksburg, according to Thomas F. Owen, secretary of the Board of City Development here.

As corresponding secretary of the association, Mr. Owen has opened correspondence with J. R. Lowrie of Lamesa, president; F. H. Burmeister of Journdanton, vice-president, and with Carl Runge of Mason, secretary-treasurer, for the purpose of setting dates and designating a place for the meeting. No session was held last year, heavy rains and resultant muddy roads preventing delegates from twenty-three Texas counties from reaching Mason.

The annual convention of the Kiwanis Clubs of Texas convenes in San Antonio on Monday, September 5, for a two days' session and Amarillo, Plainview, San Angelo, San Antonio, and Corpus Christi are five big towns on the highway which have Kiwanis clubs and will likely send delegates to the San Antonio meeting. It is Mr. Owen's idea to hold the highway session either in Mason or Fredericksburg one or two days before or immediately after the Kiwanis convention in order that persons may attend both sessions on one trip. Friday, September 2, is the date Mr. Owen has suggested.

Officers of the highway association within a few days will reach a decision as to the time and place of the 1921 convention. The Puget Sound-to-the-Gulf route through Texas is known as State Highway No. 9. It enters the state at Texline and extends through Dalhart, Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock, Lamesa, Big Spring, Sterling City, San Angelo, Paint Rock, Brady, Mason, Fredericksburg, San Antonio, Pleasanton, Cambellton and George West to Corpus Christi. The route is the shortest from Denver to the Gulf, the distance being only 1,204 miles, and is heavily traveled by tourists. Blue and red sigmas designate the route all the way.

The Puget Sound-to-the-Gulf Highway Association is affiliated with the National Highways Association and at its 1921 meeting will lay plans to secure federal aid in road building under appropriations now being considered by congress. Connecting some of the most popular health and pleasure resorts in the South and West, penetrating regions offering diversified scenery and climate and roads that are passable virtually the year 'round.

The association was organized in San Angelo in 1914 and since then none of the annual sessions has ever been held here. Tom Owen plans to invite the body to come here next summer. The 1919 meeting went to Big Spring. Since that time, many of the "twenty-three counties between Dallas in the Panhandle and Nueces on the Coast" have voted good roads bonds and many miles of permanent highways have been built. #### Opposes Rail Loan

Pittsburg, Texas, Aug. 2.—The son given by the President's special Congress for authority to go along the railroads to the tune of $300,000,000 are confusing to many of us in first place, if the government doesn't stand to win by the transaction, no one has even whispered that it enjoy a profit; is to receive one dollar, why sign the railroad law? Isn't it an axiom of good business that any proposition that the government won't advance money on, is of no value? Having signed none just to accommodate my friends afterward having to pay all and must confess that the transaction face value does not look promising any of us excepting the railroad your editorial review of the law leaves us under the impression that is what is purposed.

Some other authorities speak as a gift of $500,000,000 to the roads. And, having voted the amount between $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,000 is the enactment of the Railroads law, those of us who are to imagine that the only place got out of earning money is in gathered together by the President's only to be turned over to the railroads, would insist that the law slow in this instance. And Secretary Mellon confessed the law won't admit of our people's honest debts due our soldiers and ours, we do not feel that such a given the railroads just now is able.

Now, stripped of excuses, the truth of this latest and most serious attempt upon the Treasury of the United States is that the country after $500,000,000, and once that our Uncle Samuel will accept the gets it back. And no man with the influence and power of rail chieftains are able to get Congress imagines that one dollar of this money would ever be paid to the Treasury. No man who not want to go surety for the honor for the manufacturers, and brick masons, nor for the farmers. In fact, we are disposed to accept the doctrine of Secretary Mellon when applied only to the railroads in the world—the railroads. Let every tub fill its own bottom.—DAN F. SMITH, Las News.

Lord Northcliffe Bullish on American Business Outlook

"I am amazed to find your American business men so nervous, so pessimistic. You certainly have far better reasons for feeling easy and confident than we British," says Lord Northcliffe the greatest self-made man in the British Empire, who is among us.

"Your bank reserves are colossal, much higher than ours. You have close to one-half of all the gold in the world, and it is still rolling in on you. Except for the fact that your bankers charge more for the use of money than we see no legitimate reason why business should be slow in this country."

Northcliffe is dead right. There is no valid reason for our stagnancy. We have contracted the pessimistic habit, that's all. And we are merely slaves of a bad habit.

"Give Mother a Vacation Club" is the name of a new girls' organization in Houston. The club's purpose is attained easily. It will be a good thing for Mother, and it will benefit the girls by giving them an idea of the responsibility of home and family.

Answers to the question, "Why do farmers organize?" asked in a questionnaire recently conducted by a large eastern newspaper, are proving quite interesting to the officials of the Texas farm bureau, who say that some equally striking answers might be submitted by Texas farmers. Some of the answers that have been given are: A farmer cannot carry enough hides across the street from his wagon to the store to pay for a pair of good shoes. A South Dakota farmer may get 28 to 35 cents for his corn. It costs that much to ship the corn to the processing mills in New York. According to the most conservative figures, the corn costs the farmer from 75 cents to a dollar a bushel to produce. A farmer at Iowa City, Iowa, shipped a carload of hay to St. Louis. He got $82.61 for it. The freight and other charges tallied $92.13. Commenting on some of the answers quote above in connection with a discussion of the grain marketing movement instituted by the national farm bureau, the Philadelphia Public Ledger has this to say on its editorial page: "The report of the grain marketing committee of the American farm bureau federation has been adopted. There is nothing radical, Bolshevistic or dangerous about it. It strikes or will strike a terrible blow to grain exchanges and middlemen; but the farmer insists that he should have more than 34 cents of a consumer's dollar and that the exchanges and middlemen must take less. It is the sanest and most ambitious effort that the farmer has made for himself." Why shouldn't farmers organize? If there is any class of citizens under the sun that should organize, it should be the farmers who are producers of all wealth, either directly or indirectly. The merchants, the bankers, the professional, the skilled laborers and those engaged in commerce and manufacturing are all organized; then why should they not organize? We answer they should.—Sweetwater Reporter.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR.

Another Reduction in Ford Cars

"Another reduction has been made in the list price of all types of Ford cars and the Ford Truck to take effect immediately. The list price, f. o. b. Detroit, are now as follows:

TOURING CAR.....	$415.00
RUNABOUT.....	$379.00
COUPE.....	$365.00
SEDAN.....	$369.00
CHASSIS.....	$245.00
TRUCK-CHASSIS.....	$495.00
TRACTOR.....	$225.00

"The big reductions last fall were made in anticipation of low material costs which we are now getting the benefit of, and this fact together with increased manufacturing efficiency and the unprecedented demand for Ford cars, particularly during the past three months permitting maximum production, have made another price reduction possible immediately.

"Ford business for April and May 1921 was greater by 56,633 cars than for the same two months in 1920; in fact, the demand has been even greater than the supply, so that our output has been limited by unfilled orders but by manufacturing facilities.

"During May we produced 101,424 Ford cars and trucks for sale in the United States alone—the biggest month in the history of our company—and our factories and assembly plants are now working on a 4000 car daily schedule for June.

"The Fordson tractor is still being sold at less than the cost to produce on account of the recent big price reductions, and it is impossible, therefore, to make any further cut in the price of the tractor."

Can you afford to go without a car any longer when Ford's are selling at these new low prices? There is no reason now why you should delay purchasing a Ford car, Ford truck, or Fordson tractor.

We will gladly advise you concerning the delivery of a Fordson tractor or the particular type of car in which you are interested. Just 'phone us or drop us a card.

Clothing Wanted.

There is scarcely a time during the year when clothing is not needed by some needy person or family and with a hard winter ahead of us there will be many folks in our own county who will suffer unless generous-hearted folks come to their aid.

Servicable used garments for men, men, and children of all ages, are red. There is hardly a home in county in which there are not garments that have been outgrown, or wear and tear. While no longer desired by the owner they would be deeply appreciated by some needy person.

In order to be prepared to meet this need the Howard County Chapter of the American Red Cross has decided to install a Clothing Depository at the office of the Chamber of Commerce and issue an appeal to every citizen of Howard County to donate such clothing, bed clothing, etc. as they have no further need for.

Make an examination of your clothing closets and see if you cannot find one or more articles of clothing to contribute to the Red Cross Clothing Depository.

Families wishing to dispose of discarded clothing can now do so and in a way that will greatly help those in need.

"PASSION", BIG PRODUCTION, WITH FAMOUS CONTINENTAL STAR

The most recent of super-film plays, "Passion" which shows at the Lyric Theatre here, August 17th and 18th, is said to mark a new epoch in motion pictures. "Passion" is an intimate version of the story of a little French milliner who rose to a position commanding a king and affecting the destinies of a nation. It is presented as an Associated First National attraction and it comes to this city with an actual record of establishing new ideals in screen production. Aside from its reputed new technical perfections there is a depth of panoramic perspective hitherto unknown to the silversheet and instanced by the passion of huge mobs rising in their might to overthrow the mighty, and of which there have been plenty of demonstrations lately in the form of strikes and rebellions. One of the big scenes in this photodramatic spectacle is the storming of a mammoth barricaded prison by a mob of 5,000 impassioned citizens, all of which becomes doubly impressive and realistic through the stereoscopic character of the new photography which displaces the flat photography that so often makes the illusion difficult. By this system are pictureized not only shadows and reflections, but bodies and scenes which seem endowed with their true dimensions, it is said. This novelty within itself should mark a distinct novelty which will arouse wide interest since the progress of the cinema development is being so closely watched by interested millions of devotees.

The cast in "Passion" is headed by Poll Negri, the famous Continental star, and her portrayal of the leading character is said to set a new high mark in motion picture artistry.

Mrs. Albert Deonts and children Lawson and Kathleen of Wichita Falls, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. D. C. Carter; her sister, Mrs. Anna Lewis and brother Geo. C. ### Methodist Notes

The attendance at S. S. picked up perceptibly the last week. It is nice to see so many familiar faces back from vacation. The work done in the two S. S. rooms adds so much in appearance. We are so grateful for added facilities for service.

At the close of the lesson period we had a delightful quarter of an hour listening to Miss Lucile Reagan tell of the customs and manners of Africa, and her expected work there. She is splendidly equipped to do valiant service in her chosen field, and our love and prayers enfold her as she goes forth in obedience to the Divine Commission. We appreciate greatly the opportunity this gave our Juniors of hearing at first hand the joy and gladness the Master's work affords to his loyal followers.

On Monday afternoon, we began our new study, "The Bible and Missions." It is a most wonderful book which we know will prove of greatest value to all who take the course. We invite all Methodist women to give this one hour of each second Monday to the study of something so very much worth while.

Look elsewhere in the Herald for announcement of where and when the Social Service Union meeting will be held.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Notes

Last Monday afternoon was program day for the Presbyterian ladies. There was a splendid attendance and a fine program.

In spite of summer's heat the interest in all departments of the women's Auxiliary is increasing constantly. A committee is now working on organizing a Mission Study class to begin in the fall. This class meeting on the first Monday in each month will complete our plan of work, as recommended by the higher authorities.

Next Monday the 15th is Circle day. Every member is asked to come to her Circle prepared for work. The Circles meet as follows—The Dorcas with Mrs. Littler; The Whatsoevers with Mrs. Taylor; The Kings Daughters with Mrs. J. I. McDowell.

Orphan's Home Box

The ladies of the First Baptist church are to meet at the church at 5:15 o'clock next Monday afternoon, after the Red Cross meeting to pack a box for Buckner Orphan's home.

Articles for the box may be sent to Mrs. Henley's, first door east of the church. If not convenient to send, please phone Mrs. Joe Copeland, 354, or Mrs. A. T. Lloyd, 115, and bundles will be called for Monday morning.

Thursday Club Notes

The members of the Thursday Rook Club were guests at the home of Mrs. Chas. W. Davis last week. In the interesting games Mrs. H. W. Leeper made visitor's high score while Mesdames C. A. Talbot and Kelly Hogg tied for club high score; Mrs. Hogg winning in the cut.

Delicious refreshments added to the pleasures of the guests.

Miss Maydell Birdwell left this morning for a visit with friends in Toyah.

Ennes Cope of Lubbock has been visiting old time friends here this week.

J. W. Millsapp of Sweetwater was a visitor here Tuesday.

Citation by Publication

THE STATE OF TEXAS. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Lloyd F. Hollenbeck by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the Honorable District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Spring, on the 1st Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of August A. D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 831, wherein Lady Grace Hollenbeck is Plaintiff, and Lloyd F. Hollenbeck is Defendant, and said petition alleging plaintiff is an actual bona fide inhabitant of Texas, and has been for a period of twelve months and has resided in Howard County, Texas, for a period of six months next preceding the filing of this suit; that plaintiff and defendant were married in Howard County, Texas on September 20th, 1920, and lived together as husband and wife till February 21st, 1921; that at no time when living together did plaintiff herein do anything to cause the omission, conditions and acts of defendant complained of; and she conducted herself with propriety and treated defendant at all times with kindness and forbearance; that soon after the marriage, defendant began a course of cruel and harsh treatment, disregarding his obligation to treat plaintiff with kindness and attention, and often cursed her, and beat her with his fist, and threatened to kill her; and on one occasion used a butcher knife to emphasize his remarks; on divers occasions he beat her and on one occasion he beat her in the presence of their land-lady till stopped by her; and about the 21st day of February, 1921, in Big Spring, defendant beat her, bruised her, and got the shot-gun and told her he was going to kill her, and attempted to kill plaintiff, and threatened to kill plaintiff's father and family, declaring he would kill himself afterwards; which conduct lasted over a period of six months and got worse, and rendered their living together insupportable and unbearable; and plaintiff left defendant February 21, 1921, and has remained away from him and intends to remain away. Plaintiff prays for the restoration of her maiden name, and that there is no community property; plaintiff prays for judgment, after hearing the pleadings and evidence and for judgment annulling the marriage and for further and other relief both in equity and law, as may appear from time to time.

Herein Fall Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon.

Fifteen Burn in Wreck

Houston, Texas, Aug. 9.—Fifteen men, unauthorized persons aboard, were burned to death in the wreck of Gulf Coast line freight train No. 32, east-bound near De Quincy, La., according to advices received in the general offices of the railroad company at Houston. Work of clearing the debris is proceeding and articles found substantiate the belief that many were killed, although the bodies are burned beyond recognition.

Wells Gives Reason For Resigning

San Angelo, Texas, Aug. 8, 1921
The Herald, Big Spring, Texas.

As I have always felt I was under special obligation to my friends at Big Spring for my position with the West Texas C. of C. and to some extent a representative of theirs in the organization I think I am due them some explanation for resigning.

As is generally known by you I was especially interested in the agricultural and fair work and I found this was to be abandoned or practically so. As the publicity department was inactive this left the traffic department only of the major activities.

I recognize the fact that times are very hard with those that are supporting the organization and could not justify myself continuing on a high salary with little service. Salaries of from $3,000 to $7,500 are not being paid by business houses for men of similar ability.

I am still interested in West Texas and in the W. T. C. of C. and will continue to work for the good of both but think with this as with all business concerns service must be placed before salary.

Thanking my many friends for their courtesies and confidence and assuring them I am still willing and anxious to serve them, I am, Respectfully
J. C. WELLS.

Whaley Denies Buying Daily Paper.

Stamford, Texas, Aug. 9.—The report that Porter A. Whaley general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has purchased an interest in the Sweetwater Reporter is incorrect according to W. K. Whipple, publicity manager of the organization.

In an interview this morning Whipple stated that he knew of no negotiations being made by Porter A. Whaley either for the ownership of the Sweetwater Reporter or any other publication. Whaley has been in Austin for the past two weeks in charge of the Austin Bureau of Organization during the special session of the legislature. He was in touch with the general office today and stated that the story was incorrect. In a telegram received this morning from Whaley he said, "Sweetwater newspaper story incorrect. Beyond comprehension to understand such a statement."

Citation By Publication

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon M. J. Scroggins and unknown owners of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in town of Big Spring in Howard County, Texas, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Howard County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Big Springs, on the 1st Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 12th day of August A. D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 852, wherein Henry C. Read is Plaintiff, and M. J. Scroggins and unknown owners of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in Big Springs, Howard County, Texas are Defendants, said petition alleging that Plaintiff is the owner of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in the town of Big Springs in Howard County, Texas, as shown by Deed duly recorded in Vol. 18, page 38—Deed Records of Howard County, Texas, having purchased same from Guss Brack and wife, L. E. Brack, May 28th, 1897.

Plaintiff is informed that defendants are setting up some kind of a claim to said land but that their claim is of no avail and only tends to cast a cloud upon plaintiff's title to said land. Plaintiff has had peaceful and adverse possession of said land for more than ten years next preceding the date of the filing of this suit; that he has used and enjoyed same and paid taxes on same since 1897.

Suit is brought to remove cloud and quiet Plaintiff's title to same and for cost of suit and for such other relief that plaintiff may be entitled to, both legal and equitable.

Herein Fall Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Big Springs, Texas, this the 12th day of August A. D. 1921.
J. I. PRICHARD, Clerk,
District Court Howard County.

The Safe Pilot on the Uncharted Sea. For though from out our bourne of time and place

The tide may bear me far, I hope to meet my Pilot face to face When I have crossed the bar.

—Alfred Tennyson.
Unlike the material sea of water, the sea of life is charted, and every rock and whirlpool, all the shallows and sandbars, are pointed out to the mariner, while the beacon light of God's infinite love shines always upon his course.

Indeed, it so shines whether on land or sea, for "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." He who heeds not this light and disregards the warnings against the certain destruction of those who willfully turn aside into courses where millions who have gone before have met their doom, has only himself to blame for his fate. Mind is the power which moves the rudder of reason and sets the sails of thought which take the human ship into the harbor of safety, or dashes it to pieces upon the rocks of sin and error. This is beautifully implied in these lines:

"Ships sail east, and ships sail west. As the self-same breezes blow

It is the set of the sails, and not the gales, That determine where they go."

It is necessary that as soon as one begins the voyage from the land of youth across the sea of life to the port where old age finds him, he make full decision that he will not drift with the current, nor ignore the well-marked course of those who have preceded him. Such a one is sure to reach this haven in safety, and upon arriving on the other side shall find his Pilot who has, unseen, been guiding his frail craft all the way. He has this assurance during the entire journey, "Fear not, for I am with thee," and he knows that unless he is earnestly trying to set his sails in the right direction, trying to follow in the course of the "old ship of Zion," his Pilot, who stands ready and willing to help and guide him, can not do so. He can not keep a straight course while wavering between Scylla and Charbydis of doubt and fear, for as the Apostle says, "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." Pathetic, indeed, is the plight of one who one day is contemplating with joy the leading of a spiritual life the next day becomes mesmerized with the frivolous pleasures and indulgences of material existence! And this condition is most often brought about by those supposed to be one's friends who insist and plead with such a one to take part in the very things which the day before he had determined to eschew the rest of his days. So he goes on from day to day halting "between two opinions," as Elijah phrased it, first rejoicing in moments of spiritual impulsions, then relapsing again into a condition of material hypnotism, until at last the time comes when he must get into the boat which takes him across the dark river, and he looks back with inexpressible sorrow that he has not been true to the best impulses which were his in the past; that he has allowed material and sensual things to overcome his good resolutions and the very moment which if it be peaceful is the most satisfying in our lives, becomes the most awful and terrifying because of a realization that he has not been faithful to what he knew to be right, or that he had taken the doubtful view of questions where good and evil, right and wrong, were involved. It is then he wishes with all his heart he had given God the benefit of the doubt. The most pathetic thing possible to behold is one who is vacillating between right and wrong, good and evil—trying to hold on to God with one hand and Mammon with the other; trying to experience the joys of spirit and the pleasures of sin at the same time. He had as well undertake to go up and down, east and west, simultaneously.

It is often that just one little voyage into unknown waters cripples the ship upon the rocks, runs it upon a sandbar from which it can not be floated, or causes it to lose the way back to the well known route of safety. But the glorious thought is that there is always One who can save from all perils if His aid be asked with sincerity and trustfulness. "Yea, though I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me." How beautiful William Cullen Bryant expresses this thought in "hat wonderful poem, "Ode to a Water Fowl!":

He, who from zone to zone Guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight,

In the long way that I must tread alone

Will guide my steps aright.

He will guide them aright only so long as the traveler seeks to have him do so. Although one may not have a full appreciation of God's loving kindness and mercy until he has lost his way and realize for the first time his utter helplessness, even then "the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it can not save; neither his ear heavy, that it can not hear." Unlike the hopelessness that attends a shipwreck upon the material sea of water, there can be no disaster from which Omnipotence can not save, no depths from which He can not deliver, no darkness in which the light of His love can not shine.

We must listen to the words of love; we must look up and see with the eye of faith the King in His beauty, and in this way rest "in the secret place of the Most High," keep "under the shadow of his wing," be held "in the hollow of his hand," while "underneath are the everlasting arms." It is then we can say with sincerity and truth—"Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom, Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,

By waters calm or troubled sea, Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me."

—Dallas News.

Oh, Where is my (Girl) Boy Tonight

Parked on Polk Street Saturday evening was a coupe car in which were two young men and two young women the latter seated upon the laps of the former.

No, they were not married, nor were they brothers and sisters. They were sons and daughters of some fathers and mothers, and therefore entitled to care they were not receiving, from society as a whole, as well as from their parents or guardians!

Did you see them? They were not difficult to see nor were they seemingly embarrassed by reason of their attitude out there on the city's most prominent street!

If, these girls had been your girls instead of the girls of some other parents, what would be your attitude about it?

While Amarillo has no monopoly on it, there is a polite laxity of moral attitudes and standards here, that is detrimental to the best interests of society. This is largely a result of the prevalence of a fact: "What's everybody's business is nobody's business." Men and women will not feel burdened by responsibility for young people, outside their own families.

It is not necessary that reference should be made to the undesirable psychological effect of such action as young people sitting in each other's laps, when both sexes are involved. Men and women know the evils of this character of conduct, and they likewise know that it should be stopped in the interest of the individuals involved, and in the interest of society at large.

When reference is made to an incident on Polk Street, let it be known that while this is a fact, and not a fanciful sketch, it is by no means an isolated case. On the other streets, on the country roads, on the inside of fenced enclosures in close proximity too, and in points more remote from the city, these things are witnessed, and always to the detriment of the community.

Girls of tender years, mere children who are not out of the grades in the schools in some instances, it is reported dress and deport themselves in manner formerly attributed to hardened brazen women of the streets. With carmined lips, rouged cheeks, with betweezered eyebrows, with frowned hair, with the swagger of daring attributes of the public characters, invite attention to the coarse, grosser members of the opposite sex. In view of these facts, and they are facts, and only part of the more repellent facts at that, what are the parents, the teachers, the ministers, the publicists going to do about it?

Yes, we must admit that this is not very polite, not an over aesthetic matter to place in print, and yet The News feels that it has a duty in connection with the public morals, and particularly as to those dangerous attitudes affecting the young life of both sexes. It is for this reason that this newspaper dares to bring the existing undesirable state of affairs in this manner, to the minds of those who are concerned for the welfare of the community.

Amarillo has a duty to perform in the interest of public morals—duty that is not being discharged at present. Question: What are we going to do about it?—Amarillo Daily News.

Yes, it is an awful condition! The statements made in the article above regarding Amarillo can be duplicated in Lubbock, and it is only a matter of time till some dire calamity will befall some of Lubbock's young people. In fact it has already befallen some of them, but others will be in the same awful predicament if the parents of the young folks of this community do not show more concern regarding their boys and girls

The same capers are pulled in Lubbock as in Amarillo. The parents seem unconcerned. They allow their girls to frolic till a late hour with young men, and auto ride till late in the night, and they seem to care nothing about them further than to turn them "bog wild" and let them ramble.

They seem to think it nothing wrong for their girls to go to the dance halls, auto ride and attend base ball games, races or what not. They let them go when they want to and where they want to, and what they are saving now will reap a harvest of heartaches or we will be badly fooled.

The days of restrictions are no more! Many parents know nothing about where their children are, or where they are going when they leave, they guard not their characters, but not careful who they go. Never in our lives have we seen anything like this, and they are at present, and as a warning that many broken as a result of being sown now.

Take this for what it is, and long! Think for yourself and concern yourself with your girl is, and call it time!

This bit of prophecy is not done you will be sure to come, be undisturbed! Will be blighted? Will breaks are not applied, town. They are going fast! Blow down! Be modest! Be Avalanche.

Faith is Needed

Lack of faith is responsible for adverse business conditions, according to the American Lumberman, which points out that there should be no cause for complaint by the people of the richest nation in the world, having abundant harvests, which are crowding already bursting granaries, having millions of acres bearing readiness to yield their annual wealth of grain, and with unnumbered flocks and herds upon a thousand hills.

It is asked if the farmers are likely to stop buying lumber, machinery and other commodities and if they are going to remain content with inadequate and often run-down buildings? Are the residents of cities and towns going to stop building homes in the face of a shortage of one and one-half million dwellings? Are no more factories, stores, hotels, theaters, churches and schools to be built? Can the railroads postpone indefinitely the replacement of falling equipment? Are all the normal processes of life in a nation of 100,000,000 people, accustomed to the high standards of living, suddenly to stop? It is well known and not denied that the people of America will keep on buying and building in steadily increasing volume; marrying and setting up new homes, buying new furniture, machinery, automobiles, clothing and shoes; demanding more and better transportation facilities and everything else required by intelligent and ambitious people.

It is faith we need, according to the Lumberman, which says: The trouble with business, at the present stage of affairs, is essentially a lack of that faith which is the twin brother of confidence and the inseparable companion of courage. In one of the greatest chapters of the greatest of books we are told that "without faith it is impossible to please God," which profound spiritual truth has a material and practical application, for without faith no great achievement has ever been wrought. Faith, declared the Great Teacher, will even remove mountains. "Nonsense," says the iconoclast, yet not many years ago a man went down to Panama, where many a man has died, to slit the the sliding mountains, and lift the eternal tide. A man stood up in Panama, and the mountains stood aside.

Faith removed mountains, and built the Panama canal—the faith of a great statesman and a great engineer. Money, machinery and men were merely the agencies through which faith triumphed over apparently unsurmountable obstacles. Faith and America are almost synonymous. By faith Columbus turned the prows of his tiny caravels westward and when his terrified and almost mutinous crew implored him to turn back, each day gave the unshaking command "Sail on!" Three hundred years have passed since by faith the Pilgrims "moored their bark on the wild New England shore." By faith the signers of the Declaration of Independence took their lives in their hands and defied King George the Third. By faith Washington and his ragged Continentals endured the hardships of Valley Forge, and ultimately achieved our national independence. By faith the pioneers subdued the wilderness, and by faith the empire builders of a later generation linked East and West, North and South, with highways of steel.

As has been said, faith is the essential thing—but faith without works is dead. The only way to revive industry is for everyone to resume buying all along the line, thus enabling the railroads and the manufacturers and distributors in all lines to give employment to the thousands of men now idle. Not only is a great economic loss being sustained through the decreased, or vanished, buying power of these hordes of idle men, but they constitute a grave menace to our national well-being. We cannot afford in the present unsettled and in flammable condition of the world, to augment the forces of discontent, crime and pernicious radicalism of every sort, through wide-spread unemployment.

In proportion as a man's faith and courage are strengthened his productive capacity is increased, whether he be a brain worker or a hand worker. The man who is depressed and apprehensive of the future unconsciously slows down. Have faith, be courageous, be optimistic and you will inspire your associates, your customers and your employees.—Fort Worth Record.

In Times Like These

In a half dozen different instances lately we have seen expressions from business leaders, financiers and others in magazines and newspapers to this general effect:

The foundations of fortunes are laid in times like these.

And it is the truth.

Innumerable cases from the past can be cited to prove it.

Many a young man who has not a dollar today, but who within the next ten or twenty years will become independent financially, will look back to the times through which we have been passing as the beginnings of success.

For it is not in boom times that men usually make a real start. In such cases the reaction is too near in the future and the progress they make during a boom too frequently is undone when the reaction comes. There are exceptions to this, to be sure. But we are not talking of exceptions. As a rule it is true that in times like these, immediately after the reaction, and when things begin to look again that most men lay the solid foundations of their success. But more than that, many a man who gains only a moderate competence in life but does not become rich in a material sense, dates his start from such times as these.

If you are holding a job now, even though your salary has been cut, you may be sure that you possess one of the essentials of success. If you are out of a job, but not discouraged; if, on the contrary you are determined to grab a job and make good as soon as things get a little better and are doing your best in the meantime, you possess one of the essentials. With such material you can lay the foundations of your future success.

It is the fellow who cannot stand the gaff, who says that the game is all wrong simply because it is not all going his way, who takes a long step toward failure in such times as these.

Whether you are a young man in a more or less humble position, or a business man who has been hit by the recent depression, your future success will be determined by how you are acting now and what use you are making of your opportunity.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

D. W. Christian who recently returned from a business trip to Brady, states that those who imagine this section is in bad shape because we have not had all the rain we would like should make a visit to the section south and east of Tom Green County. He reports crops almost totally destroyed in some sections and grass so scarce that many cattlemen are compelled to purchase feed for their cattle. With the cattle industry so hard hit already this drought is certainly a knockout blow to many ranchmen in that territory.

Letter From California

Dear Herald and Home Folks:

Today we turned our faces away from this wonderland of the Pacific slope towards home and Texas. And by the way, Texas never felt a hotter, dryer wind than that which sweeps this part of the world in summer. They say it is 140 at Needles today and 125 at Tapok. Tapok is higher than Needles and on the Colorado river which forms the boundary between Southern California and Arizona.

The California of which the world has heard so much is a miracle of irrigation. Bit by bit it has been reclaimed from a barren rocky rainless waste, and transformed into a paradise. Surely the Real Paradise itself, could not be any more wonderful or beautiful than the coast lands of California.

But credit to whom credit is due, and honor to whom honor. The Chinese and Japanese have made it. They were the first to demonstrate what could be done by irrigation. It was their patient painstaking, persistent toil which gathered out the rocks and planted the vegetation.

To one who has lived always in West Texas it seems like a land of magic. I had to touch the flowers and eat the fruit to convince myself they were real and the cool, damp air keeps them everlastingly in bloom.

We have enjoyed our little visit, but shall be happy to get home again and see our friends and neighbors. We love them all. Mrs. S. H. Morrison

Keep Away Roaches

An ounce-of-prevention-pound-of-cure remedy is to pour a little kerosene down the kitchen sink to prevent water bugs. Two thirds boracic acid and one third powdered sugar sprinkled around wherever there are roaches will kill them as this mixture is poisonous to these bugs.

Chandler and Benjamin F. Parmelee are Defendants, and said petition alleging that plaintiff is the owner of and has possession of Lots 1, 2 and 3 in Block 16 in the Earle's Addition to the town of Big Springs, in Howard County, Texas, and has recently been informed that defendants are asserting some kind of a claim to said property and have cast a cloud on plaintiff's title to same.

That whatever claim defendants and their unknown heirs have ever held or appeared to hold is of no force and effect now, if it ever was, other than clouding plaintiff's title to said land, because plaintiff and those under whom he claims by deeds of conveyance, duly registered, has had peaceful and adverse possession of said land for a period of ten years next before the commencement of this suit and have been using, enjoying and paying taxes on same as they have become due from year to year.

That said lots are enclosed and have a house on same and have been in the possession of and occupied by plaintiff and those claiming under him for more than ten years prior to the filing of this suit.

That plaintiff purchased said land from I. J. Sullivan and wife; that said Sullivan purchased same from Frank Lester and said Lester acquired same from H. C. Read.

That notice is hereby given that the deed records showing said deeds of conveyance will be offered in evidence at the trial of this case.

Plaintiff prays that cloud be removed from his title.

Herein Fall Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

That Plaintiff and Defendant, Lizzie Ward, then a single woman by the name of Lizzie Stephens, were married in El Paso, Texas, on the 24th day of December A. D. 1914; that they continued to live together as husband and wife until the first day of April A. D. 1920, when, on account of the cruel and unwomanly conduct of the defendant toward Plaintiff, Plaintiff was forced to leave Defendant.

That after the first nine months of Plaintiff's and Defendant's married life, the defendant without the least provocation would curse and abuse Plaintiff, calling him vile names, and at all times claimed that she did not only hate Plaintiff and despise his very presence but that she hated all men, and wished that Plaintiff was dead.

That during the year 1918, Plaintiff moved from El Paso, Texas, to Deming, New Mexico, and sent money to defendant to come to and Deming, and that when she arrived she was not satisfied and cursed Plaintiff and told him she wished that when he started to Deming he had kept on going and never come back, that during the time they lived in Deming up until the time Plaintiff left defendant, Plaintiff was forced to sleep in a tent in the yard, while defendant occupied the house.

That Plaintiff, at all times, was kind to defendant, and considerate of her rights, but the course of conduct by her toward him was such, and is such, as to render their further living together insupportable.

Wherefore, Premises Considered, Plaintiff prays that citation issue to the defendant to appear and answer herein and that upon final hearing he have judgment of divorce from the bonds of matrimony, and for such other and further relief as he may show himself entitled to receive.

Herein Fall Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Big Springs, Texas, this the 28th day of July A. D. 1921. (SEAL)

District Court, Howard County.

Citation by Publication
THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Paul Jones by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Thirty-second Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said Thirty-second Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Springs, on the first Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 25th day of July A. D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 847, wherein Gladis May

Jones is Plaintiff, and Defendant, and said citation that plaintiff is a bona fide citizen of Howard County, Texas, and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, for one year next preceding the filing of this petition, and has been a resident citizen of the County and State of Texas for six months next preceding this petition.

That Gladis May Jones, Plaintiff, married to defendant on the 13th day of 1919, and that they lived together as husband and wife until the 31st day of July A. D. 1921, and that by the cruel and harsh conduct of the defendant toward Plaintiff, Plaintiff was forced to leave the defendant and did not live with him since.

That prior to such separation, through his promiscuous and debauched and adulterous conduct at the time of such separation, defendant was under conviction and for the purpose of securing conviction and punishment consented to marry Plaintiff. Such ceremony was performed in Room at Hillsboro, Hill County, Texas.

About one week after said defendant requested Plaintiff to marry him, saying that he did not care and cared nothing for her.

That defendant caused Plaintiff to Cleburne, Texas, and refused to pay Plaintiff's support, Plaintiff, read and humiliated and was told that she was not wanted, which facts were known to Plaintiff.

But while Plaintiff was a defendant as his wife, she was the constant attendant, tending to the needs and comforts of the defendant, and at the time of the defendant's departure from the home she became intimate with a man, so that he could get a divorce from her.

That such conduct of the defendant toward Plaintiff was such as to render their further living together insupportable.

That such marriage is null and void.

Wherefore, premises considered, Plaintiff prays that citation issue to the defendant, commanding him to appear and answer herein and that upon final hearing she have judgment of divorce from the bonds of matrimony, and for such other and further relief as she may show herself entitled to receive.

Herein Fall Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Big Springs, Texas, this the 26th day of July A. D. 1921. (SEAL)

Big Spring, Friday, August 12, 1921.

A seventy-five kilowatt generator weighing 3770 pounds, was shipped by express from this city Wednesday evening. The field coils of the generator were burned out about two weeks ago, due to overloading, and it was necessary to send the generator to Waco to be rewound. The generator was the property of the West Texas Electric Co.

Mrs. M. J. Price of San Antonio enroute to California where she will make her home stopped over in Big Spring this week for a visit with her sister Mrs. C. W. Macpherson Sr. This is the first time these sisters have seen each other in more than twelve years and their meeting is an especially happy occasion.

All the mystery about the man in the black hat who deposited $1,823.02 to the credit of Dr. Carrick has been exploded. Dr. Davis, former state health officer deposited this amount which came from a border fumigation fund. Thus another graft charge has been eliminated.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Episcopal church enjoyed a swimming party at the Jones swimming pool and a picnic party following same Wednesday evening and an especially happy time was reported by everyone present.

SLATS' DIARY

Friday—I opened pa's chest of tunes
tonite and tuk out his brace & bit & was going out of the house and pa seen me & he sed Hay Slats
what you doing
with that brace & bit & I replied
I have organized a band of campfire boys & we hafta drill tonite.
He sed Slats if yure branes was grass you cud
sell yure lawn more.

Saturday—I tuk a walk over past Jane's house today. Just happened to aksidently go thataway & was studying how cud I make 17 cts so as 2 go see Wm S. Hart & Jane sed Wot are you thinking about & I answered & sed Nothing & she sed You all ways have yure mind on your own self it seems. Threw with women. That's wot I yam.

Sunday—I got 2 tawking 2 Jake & ast him wot he thot about me & Jane & he sed he thot I showed a lots better taste than she does. So we are not good friends enny more.

Monday—ma & pa including me went
2 the Confectionary & had ice Cream
& then pa got sum cigarets & went 2 lite 1. The owner sed Mister no smoking in here & pa sed That's funny you sell them dont you. The man sed Yes & they sell unlon Underware up 2 the dry Goods store but they dont let you put them on in the store.

Tuesday—I was telling pa & ma & sum other ladys about a girl wich hurt her leg in swimming & ma sed
You must say hims not legs. So later in the evening I told them of a man arrested for boot limning & ma never under Stood me a fall. Shes so awful wise at times.

Wednesday—walked down the street with my skool teacher today & we saw a house wich was being blit & she sed Slats do you know when & where shingels was 1st used I sed I dont know when but I got a good idea where they was 1st used. But I did-dent care to discuss it with her. Nor nobody else.

Thursday—In Swimming today. Lots of people was in. Blisters was there & he can dive & turn summer Sets & note & all & the girls are after him to lern them 2 swim. Even Jane is. She wanted me 2 jump off of the bridge like Blisters but I sed 2 her that they was lots of littal boys in hevin wich had tried that & I woud rather not try it. She called me a big frade calf.
But I shud worry. I dont care.

School Land Not To Go On Market

Governor Neff, on Wednesday, filed in the Secretary of State Department the concurrent resolution adopted in both branches of the Legislature which postpones until Aug. 25, 1922 the forfeiture of school land for non-payment of interest.

This means that 500,000 acres of land which had been advertised to go on the market September 1, 1921 have been withdrawn from the market.

Big Spring Man May Open Tailor Shop

J. Athans, of Big Spring, was here this week for a few days looking over the city with a view of locating here. He has a large tailoring establishment in Big Spring, and stated that if he could make the necessary arrangements for a building, he will move his plant to this city. He is well pleased with our town, and while he recognizes that Lubbock already has among the best plants of this kind in this country, he believes in the future of this country, and the opportunity of building a still bigger trade in this line. Mr. Athans says he not only does cleaning and pressing work, but makes clothing for men and women right here at home, which would be an added feature to the tailoring business in the South Plains.

He had not closed a deal for a building, and had not fully determined to locate here, but is figuring on several propositions in town, and will make another trip here in the very near future, and will likely close a deal within the next few days.—Lubbock Avalanche.

The Hatchet is Best Method of Treating Sick Fowls

Once disease gets into the flock, or a single bird is badly affected, the free use of the hatchet usually is the most practical method of wiping it out, as it does not pay to spend two dollar's worth of time in trying to cure an ordinary bird, says poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Slight troubles, however, often can be cured with little work or expense. In nearly every case it is better to remove the well birds and put them by themselves. In case of infectious disease the premises should be disinfected thoroughly.

Nothing is better for growing chickens than a liberal supply of sour milk. If it can be obtained it should be kept before them in an open dish or pan where they can eat and drink it freely. Where sour milk is fed, the amount of beef scrap in the dry mash may be reduced one-half.

Fresh cakes always on hand. POOL-REED CO.

Shirey Resigned as Legion Chief

Austin, Texas, Aug. 8.—Dr. Guy O. Shirey tendered his resignation as commander of the American Legion, department of Texas, to the executive committee which met here yesterday, giving as his reasons that "the interests of the American Legion can best be served by my resignation."

Dr. Shirey announced that he will resume his medical practice in Fort Worth, which he neglected during his connection with the Legion.

The thirty-six post commanders present at the meeting adopted resolutions thanking Dr. Shirey for his services as commander.

Dr. Shirey repudiated the statement alleged to have been made by him that $10,000 was spent by the Legion for legislative purposes and placed the sum for this purpose at $1,829.71.

Major J. E. Rossiter, vice commander of the Legion, succeeds Dr. Shirey. Tom Johnson of San Marcos, was elected national committeeman from Texas, to succeed Colonel John W. Young, resigned.

Resolutions were also adopted at the meeting expressing confidence in the legislature in handling the Kerrville tubercular hospital situation, and urging that the appropriation not be cut. Cutting of university and A. & M. salaries was opposed in another resolution.

Search for Missing Virginian

George L. Bosman, a prominent attorney of Portsmouth, Va., has been missing since July 4, 1921.

Description—Height 5 feet 8-3/4 inches; weight 135 pounds; age 28; hair, brown; deep set hazel eyes; student type; slightly stooping shoulders. Particular feature when talking running hand thru his hair. Hair brushed back; incessant talker.

A lunacy warrant has been issued for his apprehension. If found please detain him and wire Portsmouth, Va., Lodge No. 82, B. P. O. E.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brooks and Mrs. Blanche Richardson returned Monday from an auto trip to Austin, San Antonio and other points in South and Central Texas. Judge Brooks says that the cotton crop at all the places he visited is in poor shape; and, taken as a whole, he never saw such a poor outlook for this crop; as the dry and hot weather which is doing great damage is in evidence throughout the district. Speaking of good roads, he stated that our county is not so far behind many of the rich black land counties and far ahead of many counties he passed thru on this trip.

Moonshiners and bootleggers, when caught should be sentenced to drink some of their manufactured poison. That would kill them off and end the whole matter in a satisfactory way.

The Business Situation

The Wall Street Journal makes the following observations on the business situation at the opening of August, which are worth passing on:

"Business, at present, is like a great river whose surface is exposed to opposing winds and cross-currents, making the waters to appear as if standing still, or perhaps going backward. Yet, underneath the surface the main body is slowly moving onward.

"Complete business recovery must be preceded by an equalization of prices of commodities and services. The workings of economic law must be depended upon to bring this to pass. Its processes are always slow, and in the present readjustment many hindrances have been put in its way. The tenacity with which some labor unions have clung to their inflated schedules and retailers to prices out of all proportion to a fair profit, are illustrations. However, all hindrances are gradually weakening in their resistance.

"The price index is steadily moving toward an equality in the different groups and of different members of a particular group. The lists of commodities that for so long time resisted deflation is becoming less and less. With the gradual passing away of the period of price uncertainty a great obstacle to the making of forward commitments is being removed.

"Production of goods does not equal consumption and we are eating into the stocks that a year ago seemed so burdensome and gave rise to the term of 'frozen credits.' Fundamental to this is the increased purchasing power of the farming communities. Last season the farmers listened to the agitators preaching the doctrines of discontent, and lost thereby. Now they are marketing products as rapidly as they can, paying debts and creating a better mercantile and banking situation. Increase of consumption over production brings us nearer to the time when there must be a larger resumption of industry to satisfy domestic needs.

"In due time the saving in railway wages must be reflected in increased buying by the roads which, in the last analysis, means the employment of more labor and the use of more raw materials. There is a countrywide hope that Congress will not delay the President's railway plan, for its speedy adoption would be another forward movement toward recovery.

"European demand is the balance wheel to American industry, and for a time it functioned unsteadily. But compare present conditions with those of a year ago and see what a change for the better. Even Bolshevism, Communism and German reparations no longer hang like a black shadow over the world. The contrast is wonderful in every way.

"When the Bank of England reduced its discount rate coincident with a similar action here, that great seer, Finance, whose predictions never fail, was chronicling the fact that the former era was closing and a better one beginning. It told that Europe had turned the corner toward recovery. The way is long and the pace may be slow, but progress is toward improvement."

All of which is justified by the facts. It may not be much consolation to say that the worst is past. But it is the plain truth, and the strong man who faces conditions as they arise and makes the best of every situation will be gratified over the fact.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram

"You Tell 'Em" English
More expressive than elegant—perhaps, but

You tell 'em mail carrier, You're a man of letters!
You tell 'em, my tongue's in my shoe!
You tell 'em powder puff My lips stick.
You tell 'em parcel post, I can't express it.
You tell 'em pony, I'm a little horse.
You tell 'em corsets, You've been around women longer than I have.
You tell 'em salad, I'm dressing.

New farmers' organizations are almost of daily occurrence. There are now too many. Why not discard the many weak organizations and give undivided support to the strongest? Full co-operation with the most active will prove their right to existence or put them out of business. The best planned and most efficiently managed cannot succeed unless wholeheartedly supported. Many weak, inefficiently managed organizations are worse than none at all.—Farm and Ranch.
