BARGAIN OF THE CENTURY: Dirt, first-quality, used very little. We have an ample supply, conveniently piled next to paved street. Looks like about 40 truck loads.

We thought we knew how to landscape. Now we know better. Come help us haul it off. It's all free.

All occupations, so it seems, have their hazards. To illustrate our point: We were talking to Tom J. Finley in the barber shop the other day. He is one of the newest on the bay-window casualty list, you know.

Tom used to never notice his rather prominent tummy much, but he said that one day when he got down on a creeper to go under a truck at his service station in Texico, he hit high center. That was the time to draw a line, he said.

Tom says he feels a lot better now that many of his extra pounds have been left sitting on the dinner table, but losing weight has its drawbacks. His britches are too big for him nowadays, instead of it being the other way around.

Having your trousers taken up after going on a diet is what we call really burning your bridges behind you.

Speaking of filling station men, Cecil Rundell told us the other day of a man out north of town, Buddy Wiseman, who had three flats in a 12-hour period.

The old-time demountable rims would seem downright modern compared to the time the farmer lost going to town three different times to get tires repaired on his pickup.

Since we are living in an area which derives the biggest part of its income from agriculture, it is occasionally appropriate for a newspaper columnist to make a few remarks concerning the outlook of agriculture in general.

One question which we keep popping to farmers is "Well, what do you think of this fellow named Benson? Is he going to make us a good secretary of agriculture?"

We don't get many answers, at least not very many definite ones. Most of our acquaintances reply by saying that they won't know what they think of Benson for a while yet. They're waiting for him to do something. He hasn't done much for them, they say, but yet he hasn't done much to hurt them either.

Well, it looks as though there's going to be plenty doing in the national secretary's office in the near future. Mr. Benson, as you probably remember, is an avowed enemy of government controls.

Yet he is faced with a picture of some of the greatest surpluses in more farm commodities than any of his predecessors. The poor man has two strikes against him already, in one respect. He is bound by farm laws to impose production and marketing controls whenever the surpluses of certain crops go over predetermined figures.

He may not feel like imposing cotton and wheat acreage allotments, but there is very little he can do when the surplus begins to get out of hand.

Here are major national crops which are going to be under regulation next year unless some unforeseen development gobbles up our stockpiles: tobacco, peanuts, sugar cane, cotton, wheat, and corn.

There is but one reason for the controls: overproduction.

What most of us are now waiting for is July 1. That is the deadline for Mr. Benson to make up his mind about what he is going to do with wheat controls.

For the next two or three years, any cotton acreage allotment program is going to seriously curtail growing that crop around these parts. The reason, of course, is because our acreages have leaped-frogged with the introduction of deepwell irrigation.

Allotments probably will be based on production for the previous five years. What cotton was grown in Parmer County five years ago could scarcely compare with the approximately 60,000 acres we had the past year.

Regardless of what Mr. Benson is going to do, we'll wager that he makes himself mighty unpopular in the next six months. He

TWIN CITY WATER USERS NEAR MILLION GALLONS PER DAY

What would you think if someone told you that you and your neighbors in the Twin Cities have been running close to a million gallons of water per day out of your faucets?

The fact of the matter is you'd be hearing what's just about the truth, even if you couldn't believe it.

V. C. Venable, water superintendent for the Texico-Farwell Water-works, revealed yesterday that the extremely hot, dry weather had resulted in several days of consumption of around 800,000 gallons.

This total which is slowly creeping up on the million-gallon mark is taxing the facilities of the water company to its limit, Venable reports.

Storage in the old water tank in Farwell is 52,000, a mere drop in the bucket compared with the present needs of the community. Over in Texico, an additional 208,000 gallons is available from the storage tanks of the Santa Fe Railway.

22 Wheat Loans Already Taken In Parmer County

Parmer County wheat farmers had taken out 22 wheat loans on the 1953 crop by Wednesday of this week with the Production and Marketing office, said Joe Camp, secretary.

Camp said his office anticipates somewhere in the neighborhood of 200 or 300 wheat loans this year, since nearly all the current year's wheat is going into storage.

Farmers are netting $2,06½ on the loans.

Reports on county wheat acreages are now in, he said. The 1953 acreage is 113,446 acres, compared with 147,455 acres last year. In 1952, Parmer County farmers planted 194,853 acres.

Whether wheat acreage allotments will be imposed next year will be revealed by Secretary of Agriculture Benson July 1, says Camp, although he adds that it looks as though allotments are a sure thing already in view of the nation-wide surplus of the commodity.

There are 920 farms in the county this year which are growing wheat.

Rev. Morgan Accepts Call of Church Here

Rev. Morgan, who for the past three years, has been pastor of the Baptist church at Progress, has accepted a call of the Texico-Farwell Baptist church, and will arrive here next week to assume his duties. He succeeds Rev. C. M. Fields, who moved to Friona at the first of the month.

Rev. Morgan is married and has seven children, two of whom are at home, local people say. A more detailed story will be given after an interview with the new pastor.

Revival Services Begin Sunday Night

Revival services are to begin Sunday night at the United Pentecostal church in Texico, with Rev. C. E. Lott, conducting the services. Rev. C. A. Hatcher, pastor, says. Rev. Lott was here for services a year ago last March, so is not a stranger in the community.

Services are planned each evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Lott and his wife will also present sacred music. Rev. Lott is an outstanding young preacher, says Rev. Hatcher.

has too many heads in the way to start swinging any big axes and not hit somebody.

News note: Summer starts next Monday. Hasn't it been a lovely, balmy spring?

Those nice soft green lawns that so many people have over town really do a lot to the looks of the premises, as well as the entire community.

Noble Goldsmith told us a while back that raising grass is easy. We're scared ours will never come up because of all the sweat and tears that we've shed on our yard getting it ready for sowing.

Three wells furnish the domestic supply in Texico-Farwell, which deliver 1200 gallons per hour, which means that the plant can just about break even with its customers in a 12-hour day of pumping right now. However, Venable says that it has become necessary for him to sometimes pump 18 hours of the day even now.

"We'd really be in rough shape if we lost a well at this time," he said.

The reason that he has to work the pumps so hard is that he is being careful to maintain a 100,000 gallon supply in the Texico tanks in the event of fire. "We're going to keep that 100,000 regardless of whether we get a drink or not," he said.

Suggestions to help out during the present period of high use: Water your lawn early in the morning or after 5 in the afternoon; be sure to shut off everything if you hear the fire siren blow.

HOORAY! WE HAVE 'PHONES AGAIN

Jeanne Graham, society editor of The Tribune, who also fills in as housewife, mother, and husband-driver in her spare time, is once again available over the telephone.

Since the Grahams had moved into their new home (two weeks ago), they had been unable to procure a telephone, but now they are happy to announce the installation of the phone.

News sources of the paper, who have been loyal users of the old talking gadget, will be happy to learn that Mrs. Graham may be reached by dialing 8-6322 at her home when she is not in the office at the newspaper.

New Mexico Boys', Girls' State Ends

Texico Boys' and Girls' State delegates and the Farwell Boys' State delegate returned Sunday from sessions the past weeks. They were sponsored by the Legion and Auxiliary organizations, Texas Girls State members then left Sunday for the week long training in government.

Phyllis Tucker of Texico was in Albuquerque for the New Mexico Girls' State. She traveled with a group of Curry County girls. At the sessions, Phyllis ran for representative, winning in the primary election, but losing in the general election. She was also named director of petroleum. "We had a nice trip," she states "and learned a lot about parliamentary procedure, and city, county and state government."

Walter Curd, Boys' State delegate from Texico, was given an award for the greatest advance in citizenship of the delegates at Boys' State. He was made a colonel and aide de camp, and was sergeant-at-arms in Boys' State Senate.

A report from Clarence Kube, Farwell Boys' State delegate, was not available at press time. Farwell girls are in Austin this week. They are Darlene Sprawls and Bel Willard.

HAS OPERATION

Mrs. Buck Bradshaw underwent a major operation in the Clovis Memorial hospital Tuesday. Reports Wednesday afternoon were that she was resting reasonably well.

PREACHES AT DALHART

Rev. C. A. Hatcher preached at the Dalhart Pentecostal church Sunday, for both services. Rev. Milton Stowers conducted the services here. He resides in Friona.

IN FULL SWING

Farm Labor bulletin of the Texas Employment commission reports that wheat harvest is in full swing in this area, with yields running from 10 to 30 bushels per acre. No shortage of men or machines is evident.

Bovina Recreation Program Planned For this Summer

The Bovina Women's Study Club is attempting to sponsor a supervised play program for the City Park. Since there is so much equipment in the park, children of all ages play there daily and the need for supervision has arisen.

The Women's Club is asking that any person in the Bovina community who is interested in helping, go to the Bovina Drug where they will find a large card made out for July. They may select a date and sign up as supervisor for the day.

The club is building a shelter to provide shade for the mothers of the children who play in the park. The club is asking that a different person go each day from 5-7 in the afternoon, Sundays included.

It is believed that the park and its equipment will be used to a better advantage if this plan is carried out successfully. It is hoped that the mothers of the community will find these hours convenient for their children. This is purely an experiment and if it proves successful a similar plan will be set up for August. The club hopes that everyone will cooperate in helping to make this a successful venture. It is hoped this will be the first step in having a well planned recreational program for children in the future.

Tuesday, June 23, has been set aside as work day at the City Park. Everyone is asked to come at 6:00 p. m. and bring rakes, hoes, wheel barrows, pickups and also any small plants that can be reset. Everyone is asked to bring a sack lunch and the Women's Club will furnish the drinks. There is a lot of work to be done. "If you can't come, send someone in your place", a spokesman says.

Dennis Raney Enrolls At A & M College

Dennis Raney, salutatorian of the Farwell senior class of 1953, has enrolled at Texas A&M, College Station. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jamison of Lariat.

Raney was active in both sports and music at Farwell, having lettered in football, track and band. He was captain of the Steers football team the past season.

The local boy will take college training in aeronautical engineering.

Wes Izzard Presents Dictionary to School

Wes Izzard of the Amarillo News-Globe, who delivered the commencement address at Bovina Schools the past week, awarded the school as a gift, a large Webster's dictionary. The book has over 600,000 entries on the high school level. "More dictionaries for the school library are always appreciated, but this one will be appreciated a little more than usual because of the generous spirit which prompted the gift," Supt. W. H. Willoughby says.

Izzard used the theme of "Opportunity" for the commencement address. He pointed out that students who were graduating this year had greater opportunities in the fields of science and technical skills than ever before in history. He also emphasized that possibly the world offered more than most students were prepared to receive, and that this changing chain of events leaves the ordinary person behind if he is not willing to realize that we are in an ever-changing period of history.

He also stated that in the next few years, much of the teaching in schools will be done by visual aid, and that television will play an increasingly important part in the schools and homelife of everyone.

HAVE PARK ROLLED

In a regular business session, Tuesday night of last week, Texico Chamber of Commerce voted to have the play courts at the Texico park rolled, LeRoy Faville, president of the group, says. The work has already been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Powell returned the past weekend from a honeymoon to California. She is the former Mary Lou Hatcher.

HEY, EVERYBODY, LET'S GO SWIMMIN'!

Texico-Farwell and Lariat kiddoes aren't in the notion of sitting around and doing nothing to beat the heat. They have responded to the summer swimming program offered this year by the dozens. When this picture was taken Monday morning, 66 young people were participants in the program. A 48-passenger bus, previously believed to be more than sufficient, is now accompanied by two or three cars to carry the load.

Rev. Dewey Horton To Be First Pastor At Farwell Baptist

Rev. Dewey Horton, who for the past few years has been an architect for Southern Baptist association, has accepted the position as pastor of the newly-organized Farwell Baptist church it was announced this week. Rev. Horton is the man who drew the plans for the new church building here.

The church members approve Rev. Horton as their pastor by a 100 percent vote. The new pastor preached here Sunday, met with the men of the church that afternoon and read his acceptance that evening. He was accompanied by his wife, who also had a part in the program that evening.

Rev. Horton will be here for coming services, but will not move here for a while yet. The Hortons have three daughters all of whom are married.

First Wheat Hits Local Elevators

First loads of the meager 1953 wheat crop began dribbling into Texico-Farwell elevators last week. Roberts Seed Company and Lovelace Grain & Storage Company both got loads on last Thursday, June 11.

Bringing in the first load for Roberts was Dee J. Brown, south of Texico. His yield was surprising, considering that the wheat was dry-land. He reported the yield to be between 15 and 20 bushels per acre. Several other loads were received at Roberts the same day, and about 15,000 bushels had been taken in by Tuesday.

Sam Rundell and Hamlin Overstreet brought in the first wheat at Lovelace. The 16,520-lb. load, also dry-land, graded No. 1. No report is available on the estimated yield per acre.

Mrs. Gene Lovelace says she is surprised at the amount of wheat that has been harvested already. "We thought there wasn't going to be any wheat harvest this year," she said. Between eight and ten carloads had been received there by this week.

Jim Curtis, another farmer consigning to Lovelace, reports his dryland yield to be in excess of 15 bushels.

Virtually all of the wheat of the area is going into government loan storage grainmen report. They foresee little or no trouble in finding storage space for the crop.

Eighty-Five Pupils Attend Bible School

The Oklahoma Lane Methodist Vacation Bible School closed Sunday June 7, and was successful in every way. Eighty-five pupils were enrolled and thirty workers attended.

On Sunday morning, there was an open house session so that the parents and friends might see the children actually studying and working together.

A candlelight service with a child from each class participating and Mrs. Tom Foster as leader, was followed by a sharing session and presentation of attendance certificates by the teachers on Sunday night.

Rev. Vernon Willard thanked everyone who had a part in making the Bible School a success, and extended a cordial invitation to everyone to continue the Bible studies in the group session each Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Local Firemen Go To Raton Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Huggins and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Helton and family returned Wednesday afternoon from Raton, N. M. where they had attended a Firemen's convention. The group left here Sunday.

Huggins and Helton attended three days of school with fire drills as part of the training. Two hundred registered for the convention.

Warlick Thomas, who recently completed his degree at Abilene Christian College, was home Monday night on a short business trip. Thomas has entered Texas University at Austin for work on a law degree.

Amherst Red Sox Still Unbeaten In Conference Play

Farwell dropped its second game in conference amateur baseball Sunday afternoon on its home field when the Amherst Redsox moved two runs across the plate in the eighth inning to win 2-1.

Up until that point, the game had been a pitcher's duel all the way, with Bruce Davis on the mound for the local team. Slug Smith, left fielder, lost control of a high fly permitting the two runs to get in for the visitors. Teammates point out that Smith had to run hard to get under the fly, however, and the wind that day didn't help things, either. They didn't blame him for loss of the game.

That puts Farwell about four notches down from the top, the league being led by Amherst with a 3-0 record. Lazbuddy is second with a won two, lost one; Bovina third with the same; and Needmore and Farwell colored share the cellar with three losses and no wins each.

Farwell will play Bovina out of town Sunday in a game that could result in shaking up the league standings considerably.

Boys and Girls To Give Reports 29th

Auxiliary members decided to sponsor a special program, June 29 at the Legion hall, with Boys' and Girls' State delegates as guests. Delegates will then give reports on the meetings which they attended this month.

Auxiliary meeting was Monday night, and women set 8:30 as the time for the special program, to which the public will be invited. Refreshments of sandwiches and pop will be served. Special invitations are issued to members of organizations who helped financially to send delegates.

Members also voted to have no July meeting. Attending Monday were Nell Walling, Dardanelle Helton, Mae Porter, Joan Getz, Gladys Kaltwasser, Liz Kaltwasser, Iris Thornton, Julia Symcox, Mrs. J. R. Thornton and Dorothy Quickel.

Mrs. Crawley Receives Broken Arm last Week

Mrs. Perry Crawley received a broken arm, while attending a family reunion at Hurley, N. M. last week. Mrs. Crawley and three younger children left Texico June 5 and returned Friday.

Mrs. Crawley, her seven brothers and sisters and their families and the parents had gone on a picnic in the mountains close to Silver City. Mrs. Crawley stepped back on a boulder and fell, receiving the arm fracture.

RATING ADVANCED

WASHINGTON—The Bureau of Naval Personnel has announced an advancement in rating for Phillip E. Garrett, machinist's mate third class, USN, and Robert H. Garrett, hospital corpsman third class, USN, sons of Mrs. Birda Garrett of Muleshoe, Texas. Both men received their rates while serving aboard the Pacific Fleet attack aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge.

The advancement came as a result of a world-wide competitive written test which consisted of questions testing military and professional skills.

To be eligible for the written quiz. Navy personnel had to exhibit proficiency in the on-the-job phases of their ratings.

Damages Paid to 11 Landowners

The last legal complications were removed Friday from the next county farm-to-market paved road to be constructed in Parmer, which when completed will link the "crossroads" north of Bovina to Friona, a distance of approximately 10 miles east-and-west.

The county commissioners appointed a special commission back on May 26 to settle disputes over right-of-ways which had arisen along the proposed location of the road.

The commission was composed of R. H. Schueler, C. L. Mercer, and I. W. Quickel. Damages awarded to 11 Parmer County landowners were based on an appraisal of $125 per acre set by the county commissioners some time ago in a similar situation.

The Highway Department has required that Parmer County provide an 80-ft. right-of-way for the road, which would mean that 40 feet would have to be secured on each side of the center of the road.

It is customary for landowners to give this land, but damages were awarded on account of special circumstances.

There is one correction line between the Crossroads and Friona which was "straightened out" from the present right angles in order to make the highway more safe. This made it necessary to angle through land owned by Ance English, Lubbock, and B. H. Dunlap, also non-resident owner.

In addition, there were some other minor departures from the standard 80-ft. right-of-way.

The following damages were awarded by the commission following four suits:

1. G. Campbell, Archer City, Texas, $1 damages for the regular 40-ft. right-of-way.
2. S. L. McLellan, Friona, $5.69 for a 20 x 100 ft. channel.
3. Ance English, Lubbock, $508.75 for 4.07 acres in the correction line.
4. B. H. Dunlap, $533.75 for road in correction line.

Damages which were awarded to owners who did not file suits: Blanton Butane, $6 for .04 acre; Sloan Osborn, $13.75 for .11 acre; J. W. Baxter, $13.75 for .11 acre; Ralph G. Wilson, $41.13 for .329 acre; Bert Chitwood, $10 for .08 acre; G. W. Williams, $10 for .08 acre; and F. W. Reeve, $38.75 for .31 acre.

It is hoped that construction on the road will now get underway sometime late this summer, but officials point out that no definite word has been received here yet to that effect.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Pointing Out What We Think Are A Few Inequalities

Our good neighbors up to the northeast who live in Randall county are exhibiting some concern over their county tax structure, and some of the things which they have uncovered during their investigations have set us to wondering, too.

Some of the people who own property in Canyon are becoming extremely anxious to have assessments placed on a more equitable level, and not a few of them are working toward that end.

At least one of the county's four commissioners is also quite concerned. He has gone so far as to suggest that all property in the county be appraised to establish either its true market value or real value. That is, he would throw away the old tax assessment books and start all over from scratch.

Randall county tax rolls indicate that farm land owners are paying on an evaluation of approximately $5 per acre, while owners of five-room homes in the northern part of the county (in South Amarillo, really) have evaluations of between $1300 and $1500.

There are many, many more gaping discrepancies in the system of the Randall County tax structure that we don't need to go into right now.

But it did set us to thinking of our own county. We recall a fairly recent transaction in which one of the nicest farms in Parmer County, complete with brick home and many farm improvements, sold for over $400 per acre.

In checking with the tax rolls of Parmer County, it can be found that the entire 480 acres of which the farm was comprised, had a total evaluation of $3430, or a little over $7 per acre. Something is wrong here, it seems to us.

By contrast, in town, we see on the records that only four regular city lots and a brick house of about the same category are valued at $3500. This means, for tax purposes, that the house on four city lots in the city of Farwell is worth more than a house in the country of about the same value plus 480 acres of choice farm land.

It is true that the closer a piece of property is to town, the greater is considered its worth, but it scarcely seems logical to assume that the difference between the two could be made up in the distance of five or six miles.

Examples such as this one are no exaggeration, as anyone acquainted with county taxes can testify. It is not unusual to find that a modest stucco home with four city lots in some Parmer County town is considered more valuable than a full half-section of land.

Irrigation wells in the county are valued at a flat $500 each, regardless of whether they are six-inch or twelve-inch wells, and regardless of whether they cost $5000 or $10,000 to install. Is this really a just means of determining value?

We all are going to have to pay taxes, and we all are entirely willing to pay what should be expected of us. But it occurs to the editor of this newspaper that valuations are in many instances out of proportion.

We have no quarrel with the farmers; our entire economy is built around them. As a matter of fact, most farmers will themselves admit that something should be done to make the tax load more evenly distributed. Farmers who have recently moved to town and begun paying taxes on a house in the urban areas are particularly aware of this.

When meeting as a board of tax equalization such as they did a week or two back, the commissioner's purpose is to "not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of the county at any sum believed to be less than its market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as a member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed in a year at less than its true market value, or real value, raised to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value; and if not, then to its real value . . ." according to the Texas Commissioners Legal Guide book.

It is this newspaper's hope that, being the fine men that they are, our county commissioners will take note of these few remarks that have been made in good faith, and advise us as to how correct we are in believing that there exist inequalities in the manner of assessing Parmer County taxes.

Here Comes Civilization, Again

People out here used to go visiting and stay all day long. They rode in buggies in those days, and time for talking, singing, or just sitting still for a while was plentiful.

Each summer we note with regret that the community get-togethers are fewer and farther between. Rural communities such as Oklahoma Lane have been strong hold-outs for this type of diversion, and we think its the finest thing in the world.

Now, however, the singing conventions, the family visitations, the basket dinners, the horseshoe tournaments—they're slowly drifting away from us.

Maybe what we need is a good old fashioned depression. Then Citizen Jones wouldn't pile his gear and family into the car and run off to the mountains to mingle with pure strangers whenever he could get a few hours off work.

We used to like to go down town on Saturday afternoons and see people milling around on the street, visiting in a friendly leisurly fashion.

Today people won't come to town at all if they can't drive right up to the Super Market and get their shopping done with efficiency and then dash off somewhere else, scarcely pausing to nod to an acquaintance.

The front porches used to all have swings. They don't any more. The Southwest is coming of age, whether you enjoy it or not.

So you don't believe in advertising? Look at the community in which you live: Who does the business? Who does the advertising? Is it strange that they are both the same?

What is the most valuable thing General Electric ever built?

Is it the jet engine? In 1942, General Electric gave America's air arm its first jet muscles. Would you say that is our most valuable product?

Or would you elect the fluorescent lamp? We placed the first ones on sale in 1938. With the growth of fluorescent lighting Americans are using 3½ times more light than even 10 years ago.

Maybe you would say our star performer is the steam turbine. All you do is flip a switch, and a turbine somewhere instantly responds to provide the power to pump for you, or push or lift.

How about x-ray? Your doctor holds a negative up to the light and peers at bones he says are really yours. Who can say how many lives the x-ray tube has saved?

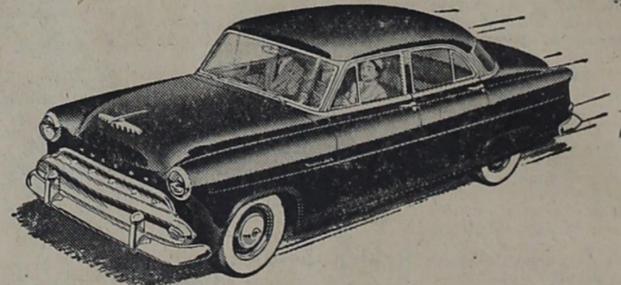

Important as these products are, more valuable to us—and to you—is something these products have helped to build. Something born quietly in 1878, when electricity was still a curious toy. And something that has grown steadily through the years.

The most valuable thing we ever built is your good will. For your year-after-year confidence in the things we make has given us the means to serve you better. Better engineering, research, manufacturing—all have come from your belief in us. It returns to you in a constantly improving and expanding way of life.

Married 24 Years

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bradshaw were surprised recently when three couples they had known when they were all first married dropped in to help the Bradshaws celebrate their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary. They came after church on Sunday bringing a dinner with them. They enjoyed visiting during the afternoon and remembering the good times they had in past years.

The couples dropping by were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cox of Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Schlueter of Texico, and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Thomas of Field, New Mexico.

Girl Scouts Plan Many Activities

Mrs. H. J. Charles, co-leader of the Intermediate Troop of the Girl Scouts, entertained the girls with a swimming party and picnic Thursday afternoon at Muleshoe, Texas.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Earl Derrick, Mrs. Scott Gober and Mrs. Ernest Woelfel, Scout leader.

Mrs. D. C. Looney was the guest attraction of the afternoon as swimming instructor of the girls, giving them some of the preliminary procedures of swimming. The girls would like to take this means of thanking her, also Mrs. Derrick for her transportation.

Beginning in July the Scouts will have a new co-leader, but will continue with their swimming parties, sponsored by Mrs. Charles, but not under the Girl Scout Organization.

Those attending the affair were Sandy Martin, Sue Moody, Glenna Berry, Ellen Berry, Sondra Rhinehart, Kay Leake, Wilbur Dee Pounds, Jane Wassom, Patricia Lloyd, Harriette Charles, Mrs. E.

A. Derrick, Mrs. Scott Gober, Mrs. Mary Looney, Mrs. E. E. Woelfel and Mrs. Charles.

The Girl Scouts and Brownies are planning several activities for the rest of the summer months. They are going to have a cooking school at Bovina the last week in July and the first week in August. This will only be for the Intermediate Girl Scouts and they will be able to get their badges in Cooking and Handywoman at this school.

They are also planning on attending a Cooking School in Clovis on June 29th and 30th. This will be for the Brownies as well as the Girl Scouts but will not be badge work. The school will be conducted just like the ones for the adults with prizes being given to the lucky girls.

They also plan to attend the Day Camp at Friona on August 19, 20 and 21. This will be conducted with the Friona Scouts also. This camp will be for both Girl Scouts and Brownies, but they do not know yet if the Brownies from Bovina will attend.

Youth Fellowship Hour 9:00 P. M.

Activities Last Week

Last Sunday evening a large group attended the worship services of our church and heard Reverend W. G. White preach on the subject, "The Christ Who Went A Little Farther". Following the worship hour 22 young people of high school and college age went to the parsonage where they enjoyed playing the popular radio and TV game "Twenty Questions". It was decided that evening that the group would continue having this fellowship together, & therefore they planned another program of his kind for next Sunday evening at the church. It is certain from the enthusiasm shown that the youth will have more and more attending future meetings of this nature.

On Monday evening Reverend and Mrs. Walter G. White took the following young people to Muleshoe for the monthly Sub-District Meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. They were Pat Burnam, Donna Smith, Mark Charles, Pat Steelman, Zorttenberry, Janie Alverson. Over a 150 youth from this area were at the meeting.

The District Set Up Meeting held at Plainview First Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon was attended by the local church delegate, C. F. Hastings and his wife together with Rev and Mrs. White. Plans were discussed at the meeting for this coming year's activities in the district.

Last Wednesday evening the Sunday School picnic was held at the City park with a large number of the church membership attending. Bedford Caldwell, church School Superintendent, directed the planning for the social, and was aided by the Hammond's Class who were sponsors of the picnic. A ball game began at six o'clock in the evening for both boys and girls, and at 7:30 all family groups came together for the "Pot Luck Picnic Dinner". Mr. Vern Estes was the recreation leader for the family night affair.

Following the picnic, the choir practiced at the church under the direction of Mrs. Bedford Caldwell.

The Juniors and Intermediate children of the church will meet at the parsonage Friday evening for a "Get Acquainted With The Minister and His Wife" party at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Caldwell and Mrs. Lloyd will assist in chaperoning the group.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU
By RALPH SMITH

SENATOR ANDY ROGERS

Bovina Farm Bureau meets Monday night, June 22. Wilbur Charles, program chairman, says Andy Rogers, senator, will be there to speak, and everyone in the county is invited to attend. Andy, in the opinion of many, has come as near to keeping faith with his constituents as anyone of the legislators. His "Rogers Roundup" reports of legislative activity and pending bills help keep people informed. The meeting will be at the Bovina school house.

Texas Cotton Association has made some voluntary improvements in the dockage basis for under and overweight bales, but not as much as most growers feel should be made. A Farm Bureau Committee is still working to find who benefits from the dockage and then they can work on the right people.

Walter Hammond, State President of Texas Farm Bureau, presented the resolutions formulated by the district 2 legislative committee to the proper authorities in Washington a couple of months ago. It is believed there is a good possibility of humidity control, and the most important factors in the hi-plains area grading, being incorporated in the Lubbock plant.

The National Cotton Congress will be held in Lubbock June 25, 26 and 27; that's Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. This is the first time the congress has been in this area, and those who know say it is well worth the three days to attend and sit in on the meetings. Ezra Benson, our new Agricultural Secretary will speak at Tech Stadium Saturday. Maybe you would like to hear what he has to say about farmers in relation to the national economy.

Consider this: All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits. Proverbs 16:2

Congress Planned Congress Planned

Cotton Industrial leaders from over the nation will gather in Lubbock June 25-27 for the 14th annual session of the American Cotton Congress.

Their theme for 1953 is "Cotton's New Frontier." Backed by cotton organizations representing every phase of the industry from cotton seed to cotton shirts, the American Cotton Congress is a research and educational organization devoted to the exchange of ideas and to the spreading of new information concerning the industry.

Mornings of the first two days are technical meetings in which experts bring the top men in the industry up to date on foreign markets, new problems in the crushing industry, trends in cotton consumption, the world cotton situation, new developments in research and education, and opportunities in farm research. But the afternoons are touring hours to acquaint the leaders with Lubbock and Texas Tech.

Lubbock is located in the center of one of the richest cotton producing areas in the world. Over 10% of the nation's cotton is produced within 75 miles of Lubbock, and the producers' wholesale mechanization has come to the attention of the whole industry.

Tech, the only textile engineering school west of the Mississippi and the center of textile research for the Southwest, has done much toward the utilization of Texas cotton, normally a short-stapled product.

The public's big day of the congress is the Field Day in the Tech campus June 27 when Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson is scheduled to give an address.

About 400 industrial leaders are expected for the technical sessions, but between 5,000 and 10,000 are expected for the field day. Besides the address by Secretary Benson, a special program and an implement show are planned.

Burrus Jackson, Hillsboro, is general chairman of the Congress and is scheduled to give the keynote address at the opening session June 25.
