

FROM THE HOPPER

BY HOP JR.

A man can't be first in everything, but one thing I'm going to lay claim to as having done more than anybody else around here is crustbusting.

This doesn't have anything to do with a farmer's rotary hoe. The kind of crustbusting I'm talking about is being the first out on the streets in the morning after a snow.

There's a certain satisfaction that can't be obtained elsewhere in pointing the headlights down a snow-filled street early in the morning, and hearing the tires glide through the virgin blanket. I think maybe it's knowing you're having a perfect sight all to yourself, and knowing that it won't ever look the same once you have passed that way. That view is reserved for you alone.

At any rate I get a big kick out of rutting out the streets and roads, and if you don't think I'm an early riser, just try me out some morning after a night-time of snow. Betcha I beat ya.

I like being out in snowy weather, but I like being well protected while I'm out, too. To be more precise, my idea of protection is a well-warmed automobile. Thus insulated from the biting cold, there's no place I can't -- or at least won't try -- to go.

I was thinking about how much I enjoy a warm car on a winter day Tuesday when I went to Amarillo. Telephone and power line crews were everywhere along the road, struggling against the ice and wind to keep the talk and the lights and power flowing into the towns that their companies serve. It was something I didn't envy them for.

However, it was their responsibility to do whatever they could to keep things going, and they were sure up and at it.

Later that same evening I had to go on over toward Plainview, and as I passed along the highway and neared Dimmitt, I could make out a striking scene alongside the road, even though the snow was still coming down.

There apparently had been a pretty serious power failure due to the ice-laden transmission lines, and a dozen or more men were out struggling in the darkness to keep the juice flowing. I thought to myself that this was a good night to get killed doing work like that.

Power poles were broken off, wires were tangled and whipped in the darkness. It must have been very confusing, but the crew seemed to have everything well organized. I was so impressed with the scene that I stopped and watched for a few minutes.

Trucks played their spotlights on the trouble and workmen were bathed in the beams. It happened that I didn't have the camera along, and I wished sorely for one. One sight I think would have made a good picture was that of a lineman atop a pole, hanging and splicing wire like mad.

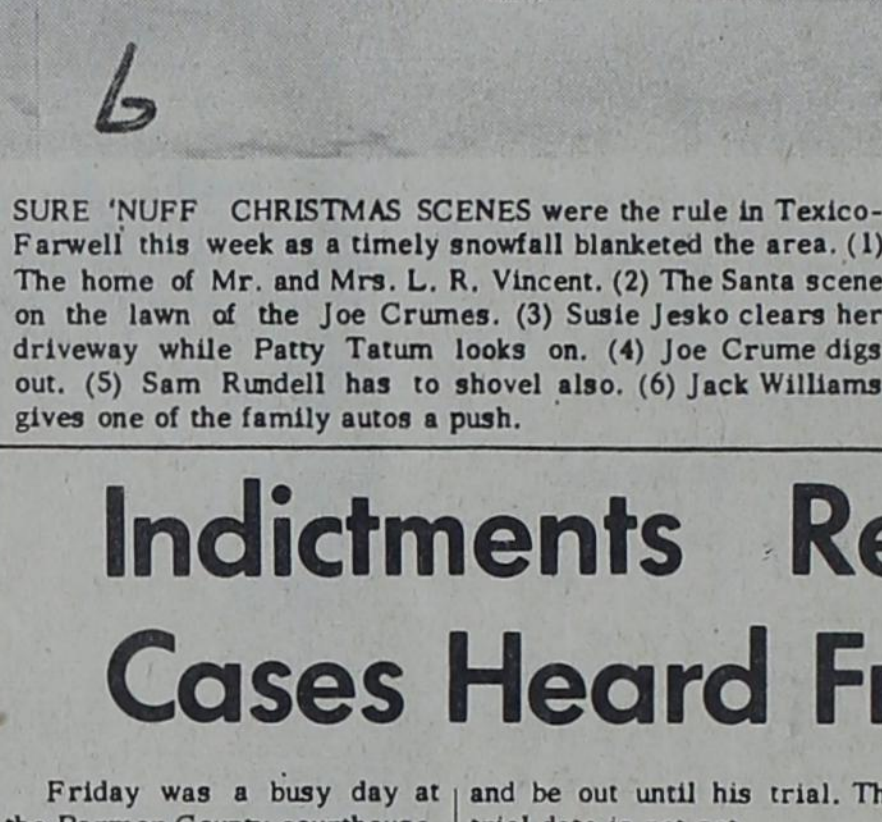

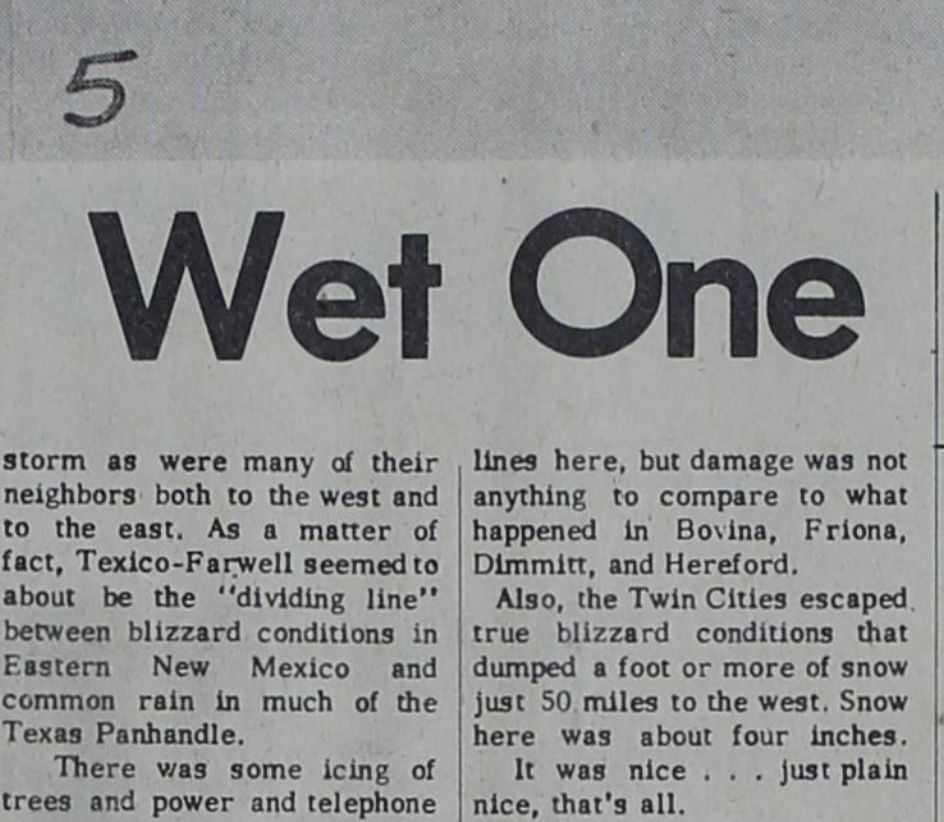

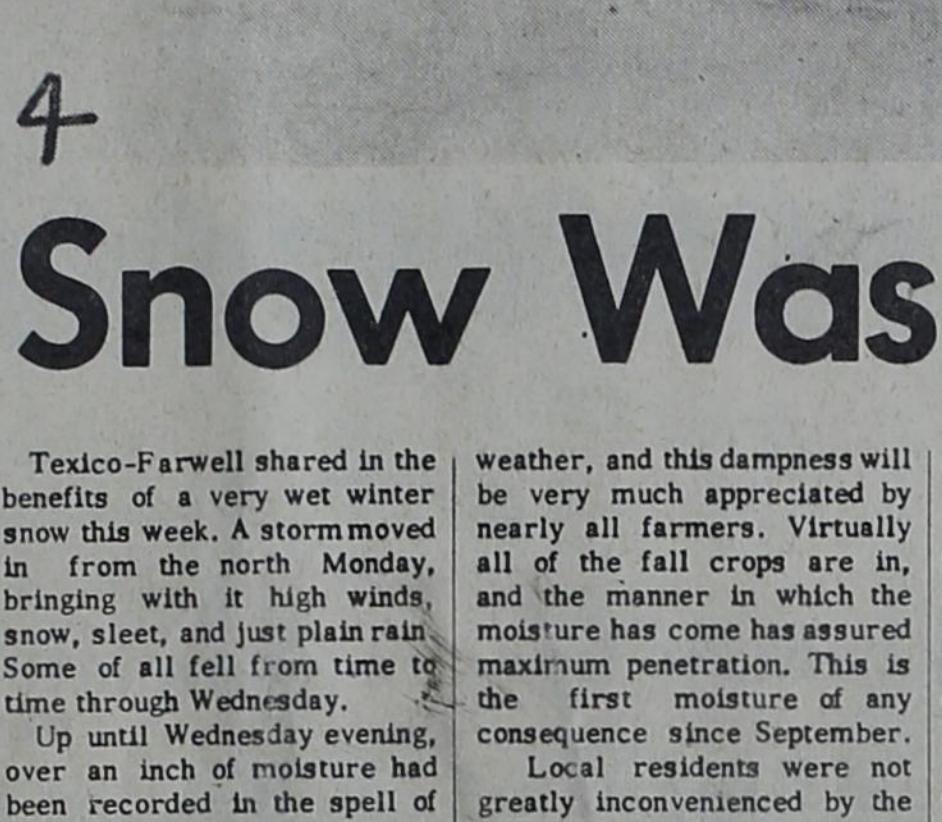

He swung from his belt and the steel spikes that held his feet to the pole glinted in the unearthly glow from below. He appeared to be suspended from the sky, caught there by the beams of two or three powerful spotlights. His white "hard hat" reminded me of a military policeman, and he whipped his gloved hands about furiously as he sought to get his job done.

It was a tableau that I'll remember a long time. Not particularly heroic, maybe, because the crews don't event take this as being extraordinary duty. But impressive just the same . . . perhaps in the sense that a fire fighter battling a fire is impressive, even though this is a common sight.

The next time you read one of those "common sense" advertisements advocating passage of an election to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, take careful note of how often the sponsors emphasize law enforcement, and control regulation of the dispensing of these intoxicants.

Such appeals were made in Castro County (our neighbor to the east), and Lubbock County recently. The wets were successful in a precinct in Castro County, and now they are our closest source of supply.

"Clean it up," is the hue and cry of the booze boosters, (Continued on last page.)

Snow Was Wet One

Texico-Farwell shared in the benefits of a very wet winter snow this week. A storm moved in from the north Monday, bringing with it high winds, snow, sleet, and just plain rain. Some of all fell from time to time through Wednesday.

Up until Wednesday evening, over an inch of moisture had been recorded in the spell of weather, and this dampness will be very much appreciated by nearly all farmers. Virtually all of the fall crops are in, and the manner in which the moisture has come has assured maximum penetration. This is the first moisture of any consequence since September. Local residents were not greatly inconvenienced by the storm as were many of their neighbors both to the west and to the east. As a matter of fact, Texico-Farwell seemed to about be the "dividing line" between blizzard conditions in Eastern New Mexico and common rain in much of the Texas Panhandle. There was some icing of trees and power and telephone lines here, but damage was not anything to compare to what happened in Bovina, Friona, Dimmitt, and Hereford. Also, the Twin Cities escaped true blizzard conditions that dumped a foot or more of snow just 50 miles to the west. Snow here was about four inches. It was nice . . . just plain nice, that's all.

An Obituary

Thousands of Christmas cards died last December 25 at your local post office.

There were no known survivors, due to the lack of proper addresses and lack of people registering their names with the post office and rural carriers.

Authorities agree death could have been averted if first class postage had been used and return address applied to upper left-hand corner, and if people would have let the clerks and rural carriers know where they were supposed to get their mail.

Services were conducted in the post office. Burial was in the local waste basket. Interment of the deceased was under auspices of the Dead Letter Branch of the Post Office Department. Pallbearers were local clerks, postmasters, and carriers.

Name Six Steers For District 'Dream' Team

Six of Farwell's football Steers were picked by District 3-A coaches as all-district players last week. The coaches picked offensive and defensive teams consisting of 16 players each. Larry McDorman, a steeler 160-pound senior end, landed a slot on the offensive unit, along with senior guard James Usery, a 145-pounder.

Robert Carthel, a stalwart junior tackle packing 200 pounds, and Carroll Huggins, a junior halfback who scales 170 and carried the ball for 1254 yards this season (averaging 11.4 yards per carry), were named to the offensive team. Barthel Ford, a senior defensive end at 150 pounds, was named to the defensive team along with sophomore fullback Jerry Lovelace, a 170 pound thunder - runner (1092 yards gained for an average of 8.4) who was the only unanimous choice at linebacker.

Huggins and Carthel (known around district gridirons as the Farwell wrecking crew) were

Try DWI Case Monday

While District court hummed along busily, things were pretty slack in Judge Loyde Brewer's Court the past week. He heard one case Monday morning.

Samuel C. Folkes was charged with driving while intoxicated. He was arrested between Farwell and Lariat Saturday night by the Highway Patrol.

The 54-year-old man was headed toward his home south of Lariat, where he is a farm laborer. He was driving alone at the time.

Folkes pled guilty and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail by Judge Brewer.

also picked to the defensive team. Kress won five places on the offensive team and four on the defensive unit. Farwell had four on each team, Springlake landed four on offense and three on defense, Sudan had three on each team and Anton one on each unit. Tackle Scotty Turner, center (Continued on last page.)

Funeral Services Held Today For Mrs. Boynton

Last rites for Mrs. Russell (Maggie) Boynton were scheduled today (Thursday) at Wheeler Mortuary in Portales, with Rev. William Hardwick in charge of services. She was 77 years of age.

Mrs. Boynton, who with her husband, had resided on Second St. in Farwell for the past several months, had been in ill health for some time. The couple moved here from Houston where they had made their home after moving there from Comanche County.

Services were planned at 11:30 this morning with interment in the Portales Cemetery, with Rev. A. E. Lenard of the Missionary Baptist Church assisting with the services.

Mrs. Boynton has been at the home of a daughter, Mrs. W. T. Wood in Portales for the past few days.

Mrs. Boynton was a member of the Methodist Church. Because of ill health, she was enrolled in the home department of the church.

The Boyntons had celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary in November.

A list of survivors was unavailable at press time.

Indictments Read, Cases Heard Friday

Friday was a busy day at the Parmer County courthouse. The fall term of the Parmer County grand jury was called back to investigate a number of cases, and they returned six indictments.

Also, District Judge E. A. Bills was on the bench in district court to hear non-jury criminal cases, and his trip to Farwell was not wasted.

Bill Rollings, 37-year-old man from Dallas, was indicted on a charge of fraud by the grand jury. He is alleged to have swindled J. D. Kirkland of Kirkland Pump Company in Farwell in a business transaction.

The dispute occurred about a year ago. Rollings is out on a $2000 bond and the date of his trial has not been set definitely, although it is likely that it will come up in March. Juan B. Chavez, 30, Amarillo, was indicted on two counts of burglary. He is the man who several months ago broke into the courthouse at night and made off with a sizeable cache. He was indicted for burglarizing the offices of Mabel Reynolds, treasurer; and Sheriff Chas. Lovelace.

He pled guilty before Judge Bills and was assessed a term of eight years in the penitentiary on each count. He can serve both terms concurrently, however.

Billy D. Carter, the 29-year-old Canyon man who ran into trouble when he tried to steal a car in Bovina two weeks ago, was indicted for that offense. The jury recommended that he be given a probated sentence. He is out on $1500 bond and his trial has not been put on the docket.

An indictment was returned against Charles Strickland, the 19-year-old Alabama Negro who shot a companion twice two weeks ago in Bovina. He was formally charged with assault with intent to murder. However, the grand jury did not choose the words "with malice" in their indictment, and as a consequence the maximum penalty in this case was three years. He drew the maximum assessment when he pled guilty before Judge Bills in district court.

Leroy Blaylock, 25, Friona, was indicted for theft of tools from Pruitt Elevator at Black. This case was opened last week when the man was arrested Wednesday in Friona in connection with the disappearance of tools from the northeast Parmer County business.

He admitted this act and others, according to Sheriff Lovelace. The grand jury, in making the indictment, requested that a deferred sentence be given in the event he should be found guilty. He is not eligible for probation, having once before been convicted of a felony.

Blaylock's bond was set at $1500 and he was in jail Monday, although it was expected that he would soon post the bond and be out until his trial. The trial date is not set.

Thus, the grand jury investigated and returned indictments in two felony cases which came to a head only last week.

This timeliness is unusual inasmuch as the grand jury is in session only infrequently. Sheriff Lovelace left the county Tuesday to take Strick-

Texico Alumni Banquet Set December 26

Texico's annual banquet for the School Alumni Association has been slated for Dec. 26, according to Dee J. Brown, president of the ex-students organization. The reunion is held yearly during the Christmas holidays, and this year occurs on a Saturday night by request of several members.

All former students and teachers of the Texico, Pleasant Hill, Fairfield, Locust Grove and Union schools are invited to attend the 8 p. m. (est) dinner meeting which will be held in the Texico Woman's Club building. Also eligible to attend the banquet are the current faculty and senior class at Texico.

Reservation cards, which are being mailed this week, should be returned immediately to the association secretary, Carolyn Curd, Box 116, Texico. Former students and teachers, who would like to attend but do not receive cards, are asked to contact Miss Curd at HU 2-3246 or PO 3-3431 for reservations.

"Since last year's event had to be cancelled because of a severe snowstorm," Brown says, "the association is hoping that all members -- especially those living in this area -- make plans to be present at the banquet next week."

Texico Nips Tigers, Broncos, In. 6-B Tilts

Texico's relentless Wolverines sounded a mighty warning to all District 6-B members last week as they soundly thrashed Elida...

Invading the Floyd Broncos' home grounds Friday night, the Wolverines received well-balanced scoring from Wesley Ingram with 10, Don Johnson hit 12, and Charles Stockton posted 13.

Floyd jumped to an early lead, then the Wolverines played catch-up and tied the score, 9-9 at the end of the first period.

The Wolverines sailed to a 24-20 lead at the half-way mark, then staved off a last minute rally by the Broncos to cop the victory.

Harold Borden, Floyd's leading scorer, stopped all point makers with 17 for the night.

Saturday night at Texico, the towering Wolverines completely outclassed the Tigers from Elida to post their seventh win against a single loss, 42-33.

Once again it was Ingram, as the tall Wolverine pivot meshed 16 points to lead scoring for the contest.

Johnny Tivis and Sam Howell each had 10 points to lead Elida, but the trio of Ingram, Johnson, and Stockton (16-8-9 points respectively) lead the Wolverines past the Tigers.

Elida box score:

The Wolverine B team added a pair of victories to push their skein to eight straight, clipping Floyd 41-19, and brushing Elida, 37-26.

Bill Reed dunked 10 points to lead scoring, although he was challenged by team-mate Bobby Curtis who posted 8, in the Friday night preliminary fray at Floyd.

BILL TURNER IN THE LITTLEFIELD COUNTY WIDE NEWS: There's never any news in the paper.

That's something we hear in the newspaper business every now and then.

When I hear it, I don't figure somebody's just picking on me. Every paper I know of runs into the same sort of comment once in a while.

But let's take that statement about "no news" and look at it for a minute.

Take the case of John Doe and his sweetheart. They get married and Mrs. Doe has her picture in the paper, complete with a long story about the wedding.

A year or so later Mr. and Mrs. Doe have their first child. In the paper is an item saying that a baby boy was born yesterday to the Does. He was named Jimmy, and he weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces.

Jimmy becomes 5 or 6, and he goes to kindergarten. There's his picture in the paper, with his kindergarten teacher and a few school mates.

When he's 9 or 10, Jimmy starts playing Little League baseball. And there's his picture with his team. Look! He even got his name in the story when he hit that two-bagger!

Jimmy goes on to high school and he gets his name in the school paper. Soon he is graduated, and there's his picture again, along with a story on his graduating class.

Then Jimmy goes off to college, and there's a story in the paper telling where he is.

He finishes school, and darned if his name isn't in the paper again.

Then he takes a job and meets a girl. Soon they are married, and Jimmy makes the paper again. There's a picture of his bride, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doe

OL Residents Have Meet In Community Building

After almost a year of working, planning and building, residents of Oklahoma Lane community held their first meeting in the newly-constructed community building.

The building is completed on the outside, but no work has been done inside. Plumbing for the kitchen and rest rooms, lighting and heating facilities and various finishing touches remain before the building is completed.

About 50 residents of the community were present for the meeting to hear the bylaws concerning use of the building.

Gil Lamb from Muleshoe was guest speaker for the occasion and spoke on "How to Use the Community Building for Bettering Community Relations."

He pointed out in the talk that a community building brings any community closer together by bringing residents to a central meeting place for fun and recreation.

A pie auction was held to raise money for a community Christmas project.

After the meeting, refreshments of coffee and spudnuts were served.

become parents, and there's an item telling about 6-pound, 15-ounce Frank, born yesterday at the local hospital.

But Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doe aren't hogging all the spotlight. They soon find a picture of Grandpa and Grandma Doe in the paper. It's their Golden Wedding Day.

Later there's a family reunion, and the Doe clan reads about it in the paper. The story tells how Cousin James came all the way from California and the big weekend the family enjoyed at Grandpa Doe's house.

Grandpa Doe is retired by now, but he's not too old for a fishing trip with grandson Frank. The paper tells about their trip, and how Frank out-fished his Grandpa.

The family is saddened a while later when Grandpa Doe dies. Grandpa's obituary is in the paper and it tells how he came to this part of the country many years ago.

It's Jimmy's turn to be grandpa. His son Frank was married and he and his wife have a new baby, whose name is listed in the paper as Henry.

And so it goes. There's "no news" in the paper, just the story of life.

THE STORY OF THE GAME on either side of the fence. Texico's Wesley Engram's high for a lay-up as he helps the tall Wolverines short-change the Steers.

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR for Benjy Dial as he attempts a shot against Texico. The ball bounded away, as time ran out on the Steers.

Wolverines Win Twin-City Rivalry from Steers 49-46

BY WAYNE EOFF

When two old-time rivals meet in any type of athletic contest, it is usually subdued free-for-all from the word "go." Such was the case in Texico, Tuesday night when the Wolverines' across-the-line neighbors, the Farwell Steers, invaded Texico to do basketball battle.

Texico, riding a seven-game winning streak after losing the season opener, and Farwell, owning a four won, two lost record, both entered the gym with a look of victory in their eyes.

The Wolverines, preserving their skein, posted a 49-46 win, but the Steers had their tall hosts reeling on the ropes through most of the last half of the contest.

Looking at the game through the eyes of a would-be pugilist, or rather writing the game story as though it were a prizefight, the following would emerge. (We must consider the teams as the fighters, with individual players as parts of the opponents' anatomy.)

Texico, the heavy favorite at fight time, entered the ring, draped in the customary green warm-up, and Farwell, an under-dog in name only, wore the traditional blue.

The Wolverine, long and lean, with an impressive record carried the KO weapons known to seven previous opponents, Charles Stockton, Wesley Engram, and Don Johnson. While the Steer, possessing only a mediocre ticket, had a short, but stocky and strong crew.

Round one: The Wolverine got the jump, scoring with short jabs, an occasional looping shot, and looking strong at the foul line, as Johnson hit three. Engram posted two good right hands for scores, and Stockton, Johnson, and Murdick followed suit to total 13 big points for the Wolverine.

The Steer, striking fast, showed the tall, rangy opponent his intentions, for being faster afoot, scored heavily on the inside with sharp jolting jabs as Benjy Dial, Carrol Huggins and Mickey Rundell slammed in 2, 1 and 1 for 8 points.

Round two: The Wolverine lengthened his stride, mostly on free shots by Engram, who hit 6 and two baskets, by controlling the boards in both ends of the house. The Wolverine added 15 more points in his best round of the night, to total 28 at intermission.

But the Steers showed promise, as Jerry Lovelace, posting hard and raking rights, added 6, Rundell 2, and Larry McDorman 1 to total 9 in the period and 17 for the first two cantos.

In their respective corners at halftime, Steer coach Calvin Murray and Wolverine mentor Paul Frederick undoubtedly had words of advice and encouragement for the gladiators.

The Wolverine, using his height to an advantage, had played a deliberate game, waiting for an opening and then capitalizing on the opponent's miscue. While on the other hand, the Steer, short but speedy, had moved at will, posting shots from all positions, hoping that the big punch would land home.

Round three: The Wolverine continued to play the same, but the Steer had stepped up the pace, striking with Dial, McDorman, Rundell and Tommy Williams to total 13 points, mostly by rushing the opponent, forcing him all over the court. The Steer dealt a telling blow early in the half, moving the big weapon of the Wolverine, Engram, out of the scoring area, and covering well when the pivot man got the ball.

But the Wolverine had another trick up the sleeve, using Engram and Stockton to sweep the boards, Johnson was breaking fast as the Steer crowded in the back court, hoping for a throwing error. Johnson was usually alone when the tall men passed downcourt, and he scored 8 points in this period, on either lay-ups or free throws.

Round four: The Steer now trailed 38-30, but again the short right hand was beginning to make its mark. Dial, Lovelace, Rundell, Williams, and Huggins brought cheers from the crowd when they scored, and Farwell fans hoped the clock would break, rather than run out, as the Steer had scored 16, their best effort of the night.

But the Wolverine, with Engram, Johnson, Murdick, and newcomer Bill Reed hitting short chopping shots, had added to their margin, and when the bell rang, the decision was in the hand of the Wolverine, 46, with no rounds even. The box score:

Just call me snag. Most of us have heard the song, "All I want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth." Well, I know one fellow that would settle for just one. I have never understood how a dentist could get so many hands and tools into such a mouth, even as big as some of ours are. I really don't see how these solid smooth mouth boys find room for their tongues.

Do you need cottonseed meal or cake? If so, Golden West has the old style with plenty of fat. This is a soft cake and we have both cattle and sheep size and there is nothing like a pound or so of cake to warm up an old hay burner on a frosty morn.

It may be a little early to start thinking about spring planting, but we would like to pass this information along on grazing sweet sudan. We were talking to Barney Kelly, who farms north of Texico, and he stated that last summer he grazed 180 head of cattle on 30 acres of greenleaf for a period of two and a half months. Barney was not exactly sure of his gain per animal per day, but normally you can expect at least one and a half pounds gain per animal per day. At this rate that gives over 600 pounds of beef per acre which is pretty good returns even on 20 cent cattle. It is this writer's opinion that we could expect even more than this if pastures were rotated and fertilized heavy with nitrogen. You might think on this for the winter and give it a try next summer. Incidentally we'll have sudan seed for sale.

Come see us.

disease had been reported in the area a couple of weeks ago, and as an extra precaution, all water mains were tested. The drinking water is routinely tested every month and the last six cards from the state health department had also tested as "pure."

Win Loser Trophy Texico B Spanks Farwell, 32-24

The hardcourt Steers, after losing their opening first round game to Lazbuddie 38-35, came back strong to win the loser's bracket of the Hart tournament last weekend by thumping Amherst 53-26, and copping the crown with a 53-41 victory over Adrian.

Darrell Jennings, Lazbuddie's ace point-getter, led all scorers with 17 points to pace the Longhorns to the win. Farwell's scoring was well balanced but small, as Dial and Rundell hit for 8, McDorman got 7, Williams and Lovelace 5 each, and Huggins 2.

The Steers trailed at half-time, 20-14, and at the end of the third period, 32-26.

Time ran out on the locals as they outscored the Longhorns in the final frame, 9-6.

Again Amherst, it was a question of how much? Coach Calvin Murray used reserves the entire second half out they too controlled the game.

Farwell led at the half 27-7. Dial, Williams, and reserve Maurice Smith all totaled 10 points to tie for scoring honors, and Gerber posted 8 to lead Amherst.

A great second half effort by the Steers enabled them to whip Adrian, for the locals trailed at the half, 22-16.

McDorman hit 8 points in the third period, incline the Steers within one, 31-30 at the end of the stanza.

Farwell pushed to 23 points in the final frame to put the game on ice, 53-41.

McDorman, led all scorers with 16 points, with Rundell hitting for 12 and Dial 11. Adrian was paced by S. Blankenship, who garnered 12.

Texico's B team, owning the best record of all twin-cities basketball teams handed the Farwell B a 32-24 whipping to post their ninth straight win without a loss.

Texico jumped to an early lead, never relinquished it in stopping the Farwell B's first encounter of the year.

The score at the end of the first period was 7-3, then Texico padded the margin to lead at halftime, 19-6.

The Texico juniors added 13 more in the third stanza, while Farwell could muster only one, and now led 32-7.

Now the tables turned, as Texico unloaded the bench giving each and every player a chance, and Farwell took advantage of the opportunity.

The junior Steers, led by Maurice Smith scored 17 points while allowing Texico zero. But the Wolverines led held, and Farwell found the rope short, 32-24.

Freshmen Cop Muleshoe Loser

Farwell's girls basketball team ran out of gas in the Hart tourney, but coach R. B. Tucker's grade school and freshmen girls broke even with two wins and two losses to add some glitter to the gloomy weekend.

In the Hart tournament, Farwell dropped a 48-41 decision to Lazbuddie, a team which Farwell had beaten in regular play, 62-33.

Farwell was definitely "off" in the game. Plays and shots were missed with which we never have any trouble, Coach Tucker said.

June Ritchie and Brown of Lazbuddie led scorers with 17 points, but Johnson and Smith had 15 each for Lazbuddie, while Routh hit for 10, Goldsmith 9, and Billingsley 5 for Farwell. Game totals: FG FT PF TP FARWELL 14 13 25 41 LAZBUDDIE 16 16 24 48

Against Nazareth in the consolation bracket of the tourney, Farwell never had a chance. Nazareth's guards completely halted Farwell scorers while their forwards scored easily. The halftime score was 23-4 in favor of Nazareth.

Reserves finished the game for Nazareth, adding 13 points and limiting the Farwell girls to 13. Conrad and Bickenfield of Nazareth were high scorers with 13 and 11 points, while Farwell received scoring from Paine, 6; Goldsmith, 5; Ritchie and Billingsley, 3 each.

At the Muleshoe junior tourney, Farwell's grade school girls' basketball team lost to Kress, 32-22, but Melody Coffman hit 20 points for the Farwell six.

In the freshmen division of the tournament, Farwell lost the opening game to Olton, 34-31, but Sandra Hendrickson posted 22 points for Farwell. Second round consolation bracket game found Farwell topping Lockney, 24-20, and Patricia Kaltwasser hit 17 to lead the locals.

In the finals, Farwell rolled to a seven point lead with 2 minutes remaining, when Kress caught fire, scoring five points before the locals put out the blaze, 35-33.

Kaltwasser hit 24 points in the final. Coach Tucker was proud of the young girls, especially Patsy Herington, who played guard and forward in all three games the coach said.

The freshmen girls received a trophy for the consolation winners.

Jerry Henson on College Who's Who List

Jerry Clay Henson, 20, Farwell junior in Hardin-Simmons University, has been elected to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Election to Who's Who is based on scholarship, character, leadership and service. Young Henson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Henson of Farwell, recently was named to membership in Alpha Chi, scholarship fraternity at Hardin-Simmons.

Henson, an ordained Baptist minister, is majoring in Bible with minor in history. He is a member of the Ministerial Alliance and works part time as photographer for the H-SU News Bureau. He is district leader for Royal Ambassador work in Baptist churches.

In that series of crimes, eight Farwell businesses were burglarized. Hopkins was indicted for two of the burglaries (Midget Cafe and Buck's Superette) in the September session of the fall grand jury, but until this week he had not pled guilty. He changed his mind this week, and was sentenced to two years on the two counts.

Mail Packages Now Advises Postmaster

"The time has passed to talk about 'Mailing Early for Christmas,'" Postmaster John D. Zahn said this week, "but our patrons can still help the Postal Service avoid a tremendous last-minute pile-up of Christmas mail by sending all packages and cards right now!"

To the inevitable last-minute mailers he suggests that Air Mail postage be used on all gifts and cards going to distant cities.

The Postmaster said that Regional Postal officials were expecting the Christmas mail volume this year to break all previous records. And this mail load is expected to hit its peak next week.

He cautioned local post office patrons to make sure that all packages are addressed carefully and that zone numbers are included on mail going to large cities with zoned delivery.

"There is still time to mail cards for local delivery," Mr. Zahn said, "but they should all be in the mail by the end of this week."

He recommended that cards going out of town be sent by first class mail (4¢ postage) in order that they may be returned or forwarded in case the addressee has moved. And he pointed out that it is quite proper to affix your return address on Christmas cards.

The Farwell Post Office offers window service from 8:30 a. m. until 5:00 p. m.

Vegetable Harvest Still In Progress

Vegetable harvesting, processing and shipping is still in progress in Parmer County, but Kenneth Neill of Friona Growers and Shippers says harvesting will be over in about two weeks.

The company manager reports a poor year for vegetable crops. He says both price and yields are below average.

"Carrots have been below average in both price and yield.

"I imagine six tons per acre; he says of the average carrot yield. About 300 acres of carrots were raised in the Friona area this year.

"It's about $25 on the ton," Neill says about the present market price. He sees no prospect for a more favorable market.

Neill says there was not much lettuce grown and that it was a very poor year for that crop.

Potatoes is the largest crop handled by the company with about 600 acres grown in the area.

"It would be somewhat below average," he says of the yield and price of potatoes.

Neill reports that cabbage was the only crop to have had a good year, but there was less than 100 acres raised, he says.

KENNETH NEILL, manager of Friona Growers and Shippers, examines a sack of carrots processed and packaged by the corporation. He reports that it has been a poor year for carrots, both in yield and prices, as well as a bad year for all vegetables. Neill thinks the harvest will continue for two more weeks.

Income Tax Time

It's that time of year again and many Parmer County area farmers are about to dive headlong into filing their income tax return.

For the benefit of the bewildered, Farmers Income Tax Guides are now available for the asking. Joe Jones, Parmer county agent, says anyone who would like one of the guides may pick it up in his office or write and he will send them one.

"They are good and they give examples and discuss in detail any income tax problems farmers have."

He says farmers need one to understand the fundamentals of income tax procedure that applies to them.

WORKERS PROCESS CARROTS at the Friona Growers and Shippers in preparation for packaging and shipping the vegetables. Kenneth Neill, manager, feels the vegetable harvest will continue for about two weeks before dropping off. About 30 workers were on the job, processing the carrots, Saturday afternoon.

Income Remains Stable for Many

"For farmers who didn't receive excess hail and didn't lose wheat and cotton, gross income is running about the same as last year," reports Bill Nichols, agriculturalist for the Friona State Bank.

He says farmers made enough yield on milo to offset the low price of the crop, but many farmers were hailed out on cotton and wheat.

"Most farmers don't expect anything better, so they have to make a good crop at lower production costs.

"This was a good year for production and a poor one for prices."

Although many farmers have lost, Nichols indicated that the average gross income remains about the same as last year.

As Christmas gets closer and closer we feel more and more like a ten year old girl friend of ours. She wants a fur coat for Christmas (who doesn't) and when her parents tried to reason with her, she said, with tears in her eyes, "I just wish I still believed in Santa Claus then I'd get one."

Have Soil Tested For Best Results

Farmers who plan to have soil tested for the next season should send off their test now so they will have it in time to plant in the spring, according to Joe Jones, Parmer county agent.

"If a farmer is going to fertilize, soil testing tells him what type fertilizer and how much to use.

"Soil testing is only a guide to go by in a fertilizing program."

Since farmers need to cut production costs, a fertilizing program based on what soil needs can be a good way to cut expenses.

"If you feel you don't know what to do, soil testing will serve as a guide," he says to farmers who are not sure about fertilizing.

The agricultural agent has available in his office, cartons, questionnaires, and everything needed to send in a soil test.

The material will be given to anyone who goes by the office. "I think it could be recommended that a farmer do some sampling on his farm every year, but it may not be necessary every year."

Jones says farmers who want to can send their samples to the Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Testing Station, College Station, Texas. Cost is $1 and a sample is about a pint.

Additional information may be obtained in the county agent's office.

Time To Water Wheat, Says Agricultural Agent

Now is the time to start watering winter wheat, says Joe Jones, Parmer county agricultural agent.

"Most of our wheat is off to a good start, but it is dry. Freezes and wind have taken out the surface moisture. It is time every wheat grower water, if they haven't already started."

Even though the plants are not growing much, there is a great need to keep the roots of the wheat healthy.

Jones points out that although watering is important, overwatering can be serious as failure to water. The danger of overwatering is especially present in sandy areas.

"If farmers go ahead and water now, they will be ready to top dress in February and follow that with another watering."

"I think too many times we don't water in winter, but if we would roots will be in better shape and we will wind up with better crops next year."

When watering, about three to four inches is enough water to prevent overwatering. Jones emphasized the need for winter irrigation of wheat and other small grains and also the need for top and side dressing as the crops are coming up.

to promote a program which will bring a higher net income to farmers. The obvious and natural aim of labor unions is to promote programs with the intent of securing our products (food and fiber) at the lowest possible cost. Since our primary interests are in conflict, it seems highly undesirable for any farmer or rancher to affiliate with a labor organization.

SUBSIDIES: We are basically opposed to subsidies and believe that a healthy agriculture could exist in an economy free of subsidies. We would favor a removal of all subsidies, including those hidden in permissive and compulsory legislation. . . . Until steps are taken to eliminate ALL SUBSIDIES, we will continue to support programs provided in our current policies.

FARM PROGRAM, NATIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS: We vigorously oppose any attempt to adopt production payments as a substitute for price supports or as a means of bringing income into agriculture, regardless of whether such payments are financed by direct appropriations from the treasury or by a tax on the marketing of farm commodities.

Grain Sorghum Yield Reported at Halfway

The average yield of fifty-five varieties of grain sorghum was 4,563 pounds per acre in one of the 1959 grain sorghum tests at the High Plains Research Foundation, Dr. T. C. Longnecker, director, announced today.

The hybrids and varieties were planted June 18 and had a total of 12 inches of water in three irrigations of 4 inches each on August 5, August 24 and September 8.

The top twelve in this test were close in their yields. Each hybrid or variety was planted in 100-foot plots in four different locations throughout the test area. The two center rows of each four row plot were harvested to determine the grain yield. The average yield of the four plots for each variety is the basis of the yield report.

The yields of the top 12 were: Redlan Kaffir, 5,706 lbs.;

Texas 601, 5,485 lbs.; Pfister 665S, 5,314 lbs.; Pfister 625S, 5,256 lbs.; Steckley's R103, 5,248 lbs.; DeKalb E56A, 5,248 lbs.; DeKalb C44A, 5,207 lbs.; Plainsman, 5,101 lbs.; Texas 608, 5,052 lbs.; DeKalb C44A, 5,207 lbs.; Plainsman, 5,101 lbs.; Texas 608, 5,052 lbs.; DeKalb F63, 5,052 lbs.; Pfister 605S, 5,044 lbs. and R. S. 610, 5,036 lbs.

Other grain sorghum tests will be reported as soon as all statistical analyses are completed, Dr. Longnecker said.

ments will have to be maintained for a transitional period. Where this is the case, care must be exercised to protect the rights of individual producers. Since the purpose of allotments is to reduce the acreage devoted to specific crops, an allotment should be looked upon as a ceiling on acreage rather than a requirement to plant. No producer should be forced to plant an allotment to maintain history. We oppose minimum farm allotments.

Candy thermometers are the best guides for testing a candy mixture, according to Extension foods and nutrition specialists.

Before you begin make sure your thermometer is accurate. You can check it quickly by placing it in boiling water. To get a correct reading make sure the thermometer does not touch any part of the pan, and that the bulb is completely covered with the candy mixture. Read the temperature at eye-level -- not from above or below.

You can use the cold water test as a cross-check. Drop a small portion of the candy mixture into a bowl of cold water and note the kind of ball formed. Fondants, when done, should form a small soft ball which flattens out when held on the tip of the thumb. A firm ball -- the test for caramels -- will hold its shape when lifted on the finger. For divinity and popcorn balls the syrup should form a hard ball which can be manipulated with the fingers. The soft crack stage for butterscotch or taffy means that threads are hard but not brittle. Hard crack threads will snap when tapped against the side of the bowl. Use a fresh bowl of cold water each time you make a test.

For best results with candy making, read your recipe carefully before you begin, have all supplies ready and follow the directions given.

Toys are more than just playthings -- they teach, too. Mrs. Eloise Johnson, extension family life specialist, says they contribute to a child's development and should be selected to fit that development at any stage.

For example, push-and-pull toys, wheel toys, balls, sports and gym equipment are typical playthings which aid PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT . . . Blocks, construction toys, drawing and painting equipment and hobby kits are aids to CREATIVE play . . . Dolls, housekeeping equipment, train systems and dress-up costumes are typical of the kind of equipment which stimulates IMITATIVE and DRAMATIC play.

How much you spend is not important . . . IT IS important to consider the child's play interests and his stage of development.

Hunting seasons are in full swing and reports indicate good hunter success in most areas of Texas. There are many who enjoy hunting but do not enjoy eating game meats -- and there is usually good reason. Improperly cooked duck, or deer meat, for example, is less palatable than good grade leather.

Properly prepared game, however, can be even more delicious than domestic meats. Mimeographed leaflets on cooking game meat are available from the specialist in wildlife conservation.

Following are some tips in handling a deer that has just been killed. These practices will improve the quality of the meat (and thus provide you a good argument for hunting again next year).

1. If the deer does not bleed thoroughly as a result of the bullet wound, bleed the deer immediately after the kill (Be sure he is dead before you try this! Avoid his antlers and hooves). Place the deer on the ground with its head downhill, insert a knife blade just in front of the breast bone and sever the large blood vessels of the neck. This type of cut will not ruin the head if it is to be mounted.

2. Dress the deer as soon as possible to insure rapid loss of body heat. Avoid cutting the internal organs. Care should be taken to prevent hair from coming into contact with the meat. Trim away meat that has become blood-shot by the bullet.

3. Rapid cooling is the next important step. This is accomplished by hanging the carcass in a shady, cool spot. Wipe the body cavity dry with a clean cloth and spread the body cavity with a stick for better cooling. Black pepper, if available, sprinkled on the raw edges will help keep flies off the meat. Leave the carcass hanging overnight, if possible.

4. Even though you may want to exhibit your deer, it is best to transport the animal in the trunk of the car. If draped over the front fender of the car, engine heat will start meat spoilage.

5. Before cutting-up the carcass, be sure it has been aged properly. One week or longer at 40 degrees F is considered proper. This "ripening period" should be allowed even if the deer meat is to be frozen.

6. Butchering a deer is very similar to butchering a beef. If the hunter is unfamiliar with the butchering process, it is best to let a butcher do the job.

A sweater and skirt can become a related costume if you use your creative skill. Collars, skillfully applied bands or appliques are not only decorative on a sweater but they can also tie together two unrelated garments to give an ensemble look.

Another way to get a coordinated ensemble in your wardrobe is to plan a sweater addition to harmonize with the next dress you make. It's very easy to line a classic cardigan sweater with the dress fabric, and it can be very smart and expensive looking.

To do this, buy enough extra fabric to line your cardigan sweater. Using the sweater as a pattern, line the front and back in the contrasting material. Sleeves do not need to be lined.

The right kind and amount of trimming adds interest and individuality to a costume . . . Too much can be distracting and confusing, according to Reba Merle Boyles, extension clothing specialist of Texas A&M College.

The secret of effectiveness in trimming lies in discriminating use. Self-covered buttons and belts, or those that blend with the garment, can be used without danger of a spotty or overdecorated effect. Self trim of this type becomes part of the design of the garment and gives more leeway in choosing other accessories.

If you plan for contrasting trim, study your figure carefully to determine where to place the emphasis. In other words, "accentuate the positive." Make certain the trim is appropriate to the garment and the occasion for which it will be worn.

Shop for ideas that are different. Study garments displayed in exclusive dress shops and adapt ideas to your own purse and personality.

A final word . . . When in doubt, leave that extra trim off . . . It's better to use too little than too much.

Also received this recipe for Louisiana Cream Pralines that were good and thought you might like to try it for Christmas.

LOUISIANA CREAM PRALINES

1 pound light brown sugar
few grains salt
3/4 cup evaporated milk
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups (1/2 pound) pecan halves

Cover a large baking sheet with aluminum foil, or butter baking sheet lightly. Mix sugar, salt, evaporated milk and butter in medium size sauce pan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Add pecans and cook over medium heat to soft ball stage (234 degrees F.), stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and let cool 5 minutes. Stir rapidly until mixture begins to thicken and coat pecans lightly.

Drop rapidly from a teaspoon onto baking sheet to form patties. (If candy becomes too stiff at the last to handle easily, stir in a few drops of hot water.) Let pralines stand until cool and set. Makes about 44 small pralines.

Note: To make large pralines, drop from a tablespoon. Recipe makes about 20 large pralines.

TO MAKE ORANGE CREAM PRALINES: Add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind to sugar mixture before cooking, then proceed as above.

TO MAKE COFFEE CREAM PRALINES: Add 1 1/2 teaspoons instant coffee to sugar mixture before cooking, then proceed as above.

TO MAKE GINGER CREAM PRALINES: Add 2 to 3 tablespoons finely cut crystallized ginger root or 3/4 to 1 teaspoon ginger during last few minutes of cooking to soft ball stage, then proceed as above.

Evaporated milk is ideal for candy-making, for it assures a creamy flavor and superbly smooth texture. If you would like additional evaporated milk candy recipes, we shall be happy to send them at your request.

A sweet bread that would be welcomed by family or friends at meal time or as an in-between snack is

PRUNE AND SPICE BREAD

3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/8 teaspoon cloves
2 tablespoons soft shortening
1/2 cup sweetened, drained, cooked prunes
3/4 cup warm water
1 package active dry yeast
1 egg, room temperature

Blend the first seven ingredients in a bowl. Pour the warm water into another bowl, sprinkle yeast on top. Let stand a few minutes, then stir to dissolve. Blend in the egg.

Add about 2/3 of the flour mixture and the prunes to the yeast mixture. Beat about 2 minutes, until smooth. Beating replaces kneading in this recipe.

Pour in all the rest of the ingredients and beat again with a spoon until smooth, 1 to 1 1/2 minutes. Scrape batter down from sides of bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Grease 9x5x3 inch pan. Beat raised batter hard 50 strokes. Pour into the pan, spread into corners of pan with a spoon. Rap pan on table to settle batter.

Let rise in warm place until doubled, about 30 minutes. Bake in 375 degree oven 40 to 50 minutes or until well browned on sides and top. Remove from pan and cool on rack.
