Romney Trips Over Tongue

Michigan Gov. George Romney may think that he is the prime candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, but after his recent bout with that old Nemesis of all politicians, "oral pedeticis", it is doubtful if many other people now share his belief.

George is not the first to place his foot within his mouth, but he is certainly one of the few who have managed to continue speaking after having done so. It was bad enough for George to have slipped once and admit that he was susceptible to brainwashing, but to press the point until he now has BOTH feet firmly implanted in his dental region is almost beyond belief. Topping it all off, George has now requested prime television time to talk to the people. Presumably, he will be lucky if the networks turn down his request, otherwise they may have to pump his stomach in order to remove his socks.

Somebody should have told George, long ago, that in politics, you do not change horses in midstream. George has not only changed horses, but he fell in the stream in the process. Having once advocated escalation of the war in Vietnam, George was classified as a hawk. Now he is apparently taking the dove line, claiming his previous "hawkish" stand was the result of a political brainwashing he received from the evil old generals. He has political ornithologists so confused now, that they are not sure how to classify him. I suggest that the appropriate classification would be a dodo, since he is now on the verge of political extinction.

I won't say that I am sorry, because I am not. It couldn't have happened to a more deserving guy. After deserting the party when he was needed most, in 1964, George has everything he is getting, coming to him, on a silver platter no less. Because of this retreat under fire, George would have had a difficult time securing the nomination, even if he had avoided tripping over his tongue.

If George were to come face to face with present reality, he would realize that the best thing for him to do would be to quietly withdraw from the race, in the most inconspicuous manner possible. The people simply do not want a president who is susceptible to brainwashing tactics, and George, bless his soul, has firmly convinced the people he certainly was. To attempt to deny it now would be worse than useless, it would only convince the citizenry that on top of being prone to brainwashing, George is also a blubbering idiot who doesn't know what he thinks. Yes, the fact of the matter is that George is stuck with the "brainwashed" label and nothing he can do now will remove it.

No tears have been shed however, at least from this corner. George would not have been much improvement over LBJ anyway. After eight years of liberal hogwash, a little common sense is needed in government. George has now proven that he would be incapable of providing this much desired service.

About the only thing I can think of that would be any funnier than George's tongue tumbling would be for a similar fate to befall the present political prestidigitator.

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on the proposed 1968 Parmer County budget on October 9, 1967 at 2 p.m. in the county courtroom in the courthouse at Farwell. Any and all persons desiring to be present are invited to be present at that time.

Signed Loyde A. Brewer, County Judge, Parmer County, Texas

SWPS Co. Has General Rate Increase

The first general increase in electric rates in 16 years is part of a rate simplification and adjustment program submitted to municipal governments for approval in the Texas communities served by Southwestern Public Service Company.

Teams Lose --

grade game getting underway at 5 p.m. It will be followed by the eighth grade game at 6:30 and the B team game following the 8th grade game.

Coach Kenneth Good was high in his praise of the B team offense who held Marshall scoreless through almost an entire game after their initial touchdown in the opening minute of play last week.

The game ended in a 22-0 score.

Although Marshall scored in the opening minute they were unable to score until the last two minutes of the game when they made a TD on a pass interception and seconds later scored on a fumble by the locals.

Offensively Randy Chandler was cited for a stellar performance while John Long was cited as outstanding defensively.

All sports fans are invited to be on hand for the opening gun when the seventh, eighth and B teams play tonight.

Damaged --

destroyed in the fire, which had apparently been smoldering for several hours before it was noticed by a neighbor who saw smoke coming out of the vacant apartment.

Both of the Texico fire trucks and the emergency vehicle made the run to the apartment which is located on Lamar Street.

An average increase of 7.62% for residential and commercial customers in the Texas portion of the company's service area will take effect upon approval of the proposal.

The new rates have already been approved for communities the company serves in New Mexico by the rate-making authority in that state, the New Mexico Public Service Commission, following thorough study of company's books and records by the Commission and the Commission Staff.

The 1951 rate increase, which added 10% across the board to electric rates, is the only general rate increase the company has ever requested. There have been some 25 reductions in rates by Southwestern Public Service Company, or predecessor electric companies in the area, 14 of them having gone into effect since the company took its present form in 1942.

The company proposes, under the rate simplification phase of the program, to reduce the number of rates applicable to residential service from 4 to 2. At the same time it will switch to single meter billing for all residential customers. Presently, those customers who heat their homes electrically or heat water with electricity are billed on two meters.

Single meter billing offers a number of advantages to the residential customer. There is a single minimum bill charge in the event of a long vacation or extended absence from the home. The customer has a smaller investment in the wiring needed to bring the service into his home. During the winter season, in electrically heated homes, all usage after 500 kwh per month will be billed at a rate of less than one cent per kilowatt-hour.

For residential service in homes which are not electrically heated or do not heat water electrically, the new rate schedule is as follows:

Report From The Sheriff's Office

Joe Pat Anderas, Anton, was sentenced to 12 years on a burglary charge for taking Treflon from Clay's Corner Tide Co. in district court here last week. He is to appear early next week before the judge for formal sentencing. At that time, a decision will be reached on appealing the sentence.

Also sentenced by the judge in district court last week was Jaun Garcia Sammaron who was given a five-year probated sentence on a DWI charge. Raul Garcia, Hereford, was given a three-year probated sentence on a forgery charge.

In other news from the sheriff's office, a report was given that Ronnie Shackelford is in custody on a forgery charge and a hearing will be held on probation violation.

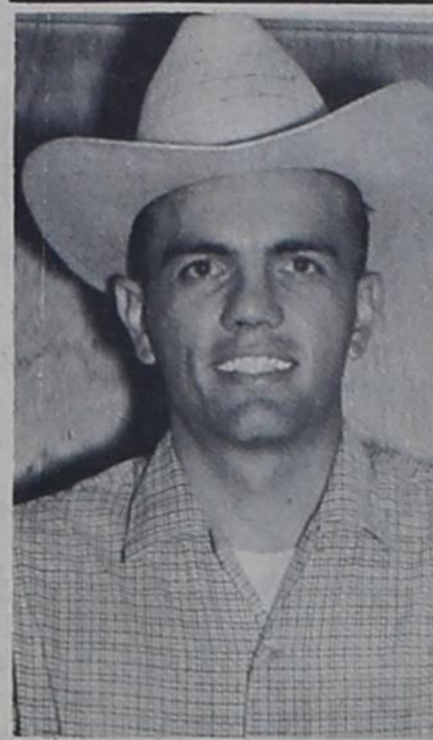

Jesus Carlos Blanco, 20, Friona, is in custody on a charge of burglary of the Ranza Bogness farm home at Friona. Entry was made through the back door of the home which had been removed from its moorings by the burglar.

In County court on Tuesday, several persons were sentenced on charges of possession and sale of alcoholic beverages in a dry area.

6.50¢ per kwh for the first 50 kwh used each month. 4.30¢ per kwh for the next 50 kwh used each month. 2.15¢ per kwh for the next 900 kwh used each month. 1.70¢ per kwh for all additional kwh used each month.

The 1.70¢ bottom step on the rate schedule for regular residential service is the lowest rate for this type of service the company has ever offered. This additional block recognizes the trend toward increased use of electric service in modern day living and offers to the customer the benefits accruing to the company when it is able to utilize larger, more efficient equipment.

Mury Redus, 28, Friona, was found guilty of possession of beer and selling beer in a dry area. He was sentenced $150 plus court cost on each count. Receiving a sentence of $150 plus court cost on the same charges (two) was Felomona Munguia, 55, of Bovina. Luis Serna, 45, Bovina, was sentenced

JERRY ISBELL

Parmer County Conservationist

Jerry Isbell assumed work as Work Unit Conservationist at the Parmer County SCS office in Friona in July. He replaces Eddy Willmon, who left the SCS work to take a job with a pharmaceutical firm in Longview, Tex.

Isbell, who has been in SCS work for a number of years, came to Parmer County from Dell City, where he had been work conservationist for a one-year period.

The new conservationist says that he is in the county to render assistance to farmers in this SCS district which includes all of Parmer County. Assisting him in the office and on the field in Parmer County are five other men. "We are always glad to render assistance," said Isbell in a recent visit to Farwell. The new district conservationist is married and father of a four-year-old son and a one-year-old daughter.

ed $150 plus court cost on a charge of possession of beer for sale in a dry area. His wife, was sentenced $150 plus court cost on a charge of sale of beer in a dry area.

Glen V. Holmes, Friona, arrested and charged with possession of beer for sale in a dry area is out on a $1,000 bond and his case is pending. His wife, Georgia Mae, is charged

A boy took his pet rabbit to a veterinarian to discover why the rabbit was ailing.

"What you been feeding it?" the doctor asked. "Goat's milk," the boy replied.

4-H'ers Salute --

National 4-H Club Week

Some 150 4-H boys and girls in Parmer County and their activities and programs will be in the spotlight during National 4-H Club Week, Sept. 30-Oct. 7, says County Extension Agents Cricket B. Taylor and Ronny McNutt.

There are about 76 thousand 4-H'ers in Texas with more than 2 1/4 million boys and girls enrolled throughout the nation. "4-H, A World of Opportunity" is this year's theme with activities focused on local, state, national and international achievements of the Head, Heart, Hands and Health program.

Locally, say the agents, 4-H Week activities will emphasize the opportunities 4-H offers the boy or girl nine to 19 years of age. Exhibits and displays will feature the work of current 4-H members and will be accented by the green and white four-leaf clover emblem. Several events and activities are planned to encourage youth to join 4-H.

4-H combines the best of learning and fun, point out the agents. It offers a wide variety of projects and activities which emphasize "Learning by Doing" and rewards the boy and girl for personal growth and achievement.

Young people may choose their own individual 4-H projects from some 50 to 100 offered. These range from the traditional beef calf, poultry, gardens, foods and clothing to automotive, career exploration, photography and baby sitting. The young scientist may choose a project in entomology, electricity, conservation or others. And there are projects too, for the young owner of dogs and horses.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK -- Andy Bowery and Joyce White, members of the Farwell Lucky Clover 4-H Club, display a poster urging boys and girls to join 4-H for "A World of Opportunity", as they watch County Judge Loyde A. Brewer sign a proclamation declaring the period Sept. 30-Oct. 7 "4-H Club Week in Parmer County."

Boys and girls like 4-H for the many activities and projects it offers groups and clubs, say the agents. Clubs may select such worthwhile activities and projects as community beautification, safety, health, recreation, leadership and conservation. Volunteer adult leaders help guide and advise members of community and neighborhood 4-H Clubs.

Speaking of adult leaders, National 4-H Club Week also provides an opportunity to give the volunteer leaders a well-deserved "pat on the back." More than 40 dedicated citizens of Parmer County give their time and skill in assisting 4-H boys and girls and in promoting 4-H Club work. Not only do they assist at 4-H Club meetings but they also help with project studies, train demonstration teams, manage county fair exhibits and recreational projects and give individual training to 4-H'ers.

The junior 4-H leaders in Parmer County should also be commended, add the agents. They devote their spare time and use their 4-H experiences to assist the adult volunteers in making 4-H the outstanding youth organization which it is today.

Texico Loses Softball Games Steer Marching Band --

All of the Texico softball teams were defeated in games played last week, according to a report from Coach Charles Coburn.

The junior high girls played in Melrose on Tuesday and were trailing by one point at end of the third inning, when the game was called due to rain. Final score in the game was 19-18. The high school girls did not play due to the inclement weather.

On Thursday, the junior and varsity boys teams met Elida on the local diamond. Final score in the junior high game was Elida 7, Texico 1. Johnny Dane was losing pitcher. Danny Pearce was catcher.

Baptist Revival

In Progress

Revival services are in progress at the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church, according to pastor Charles Vick. Services are held twice daily at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. The revival will conclude this coming Sunday, Oct. 1.

Speaker for the services is Rev. A. W. Wellborn of Balmorhea and directing the singing is Rev. Glenn Reeves, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Imperial, Tex.

The Oklahoma Lane pastor issues an invitation to all area residents to come and enjoy the evangelistic preaching of the revival speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coffman accompanied by Mrs. Arma Coffman of Friona spent last week in Fayetteville, Ark., visiting with the Clifton Coffman family.

4-H offers many opportunities for the youngster who is interested in preparing for the difficult, challenging tasks which lie ahead. Now is a good time to join 4-H. Clubs throughout the county are reorganizing for the new year and new clubs are just starting. Anyone interested in joining 4-H or in finding out more about the organization should contact the County Extension Office, a local 4-H Club member, or an adult leader.

In the varsity game which ended in a 7-5 score, pitching chores were taken care of by Ricky Stanley and Manuel Martinez while Roddy Pearce served as catcher.

The boys will collide with Dora on the local diamond at 2 p.m. (CDT) today (Friday).

Next week (Oct. 6) the girls will be playing in the softball tournament in Melrose. The boys tourney is the following week.

Men's Night To Be Observed By PTA

Texico PTA will hold its first meeting of the year Tuesday, Oct. 3, 8 p.m. (CDT) in the auditorium. Men's night will be observed and Bob Stevens, Juvenile Officer of Curry County, will be guest speaker.

A skit "Responsible Freedom" will be presented, and the boy and girl stagers will be recognized. A pre-school nursery will be provided in the band hall for the convenience of parents with small children.

A short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Buddy Pearce, president of the organization. All parents of school children (all ages) are urged to attend the session.

Guest Speaker

At the Monday night meeting of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club, Pat Gant, zone chairman, was guest speaker. He emphasized that October is membership month and urged the local Lions to make plans for the Fall Roundup which will be held in Roswell, Oct. 21-22.

The program was presented by Chic Conway who showed films of a recent trip

Receives Fourth At South Plains Fair

The Steer Marching Band was in Lubbock where members marched in the South Plains Fair Parade on Monday. In competition with other class "A" schools, they received a fourth place. Petersburg was first place winner.

Cash prizes were awarded to the first, second and third place winners. Jerry Phillips, who has been directing the band since the beginning of school, stated, "We are proud of the fact that the 38 bandsmen (marchers) received such a high rating in competition with bands which were much larger (some over twice as large)."

The band played John Cacas' arrangement of "More" and the "Farwell Fight Song", written by Charles Turner, former band director.

After the parade the band attended the fair. Phillips, who will complete his work with the school this week, stated that the band will give a halftime performance at the Tucumcari-Farwell football game Friday night. "It will possibly be a twirler routine," said Phillips.

Lynn Burton, new band director, is expected to be here to begin his duties early next week.

Band boosters and school personnel are high in their praise for the fine job young Phillips has done with the band this year. He is a student at Eastern New Mexico University, and has been helping out until the new director arrives.
