

Steers Face Idalou In Bi-District Friday

The Farwell Steers will be trying to duplicate their feat of 1958 when they take on an experienced Idalou team in a Bi-District game Friday afternoon at Plainview.

Kickoff is scheduled for 2:30. It will be the third straight meeting of the two teams in the first round of the state Class A playoffs, the Farwell team representing District 3-A and Idalou the champion of District 4-A.

Both the Steers and Wildcats, who went through their respective conferences without a loss, will be competing for the bi-district championship and the right to meet the winner of the Stinnett-Lefors game for the regional championship next week.

In the first meeting between the two teams in 1958, Farwell came out winner by a 40-18 score and last year Idalou reversed the decision, 27-18.

This year's "sugar game" between the two foes could well be the best one yet, since it will feature possibly the most experienced Class A team in the region, Idalou, against an up-and-coming Farwell aggregation.

Idalou went through its 10-game schedule this season undefeated with a team that has eight returning starters, four of them who have been starting for four years and three who have been regulars for three seasons.

It's this experience that makes the Wildcats a formidable foe, points out Farwell Coach Dempsey Alexander, who says that "They have plenty of football savvy."

The Wildcats are not a heavy team, their offensive line weighing about the same as Farwell's, and their backfield being smaller. However, Alexander says, "They have the best balanced backfield of any team I've ever seen."

To win the game the Steers will have to stop all four of members of the Wildcats' shifty, talented backfield which includes Joe Wilbanks, a speedy halfback who is the top scorer on the South Plains. In 10 games this season, Wilbanks amassed more than 200 points.

The Steers have been a fast-improving team since mid-season, when, plagued by injuries, they dropped two games to Sundown and Plains. Since that time they have shown that they also have plenty of football "savvy", their greatest effort being a 38-6 win over a strong Sudan team.

Farwell will also field a strong backfield, directed by senior quarterback Benjy Dial, who has proven during the season that he can both pass and run with the ball. Behind him will be both the power and speed of senior halfback Carrol Huggins and junior fullback Jerry Lovelace. Both have been standouts for the Steers all season.

The other member of the quartet, junior halfback William Dannheim, who has been displaying a lot of hustle and drive in recent games, rounds out the Steer backfield which will be out to surpass any performance their Idalou counterparts might unveil.

The speed, size and past performances of the opposing lines indicates that the two teams will be evenly matched in that department, so everything points up to a close contest.

Farwell and Idalou have three common foes, Sundown, Morton and Springlake. In their season opener the Wildcats defeated Sundown, 26-6, while the Steers lost to the Roughnecks at mid-season, 15-6. Both teams defeated Morton, the Steers winning 30-8 and Idalou winning by a similar score, 30-6. Farwell defeated Springlake 42-6 and Idalou topped the Wolverines 33-0.

School at Farwell will be dismissed all day Friday for the game. Admission to the game will be $1.50 and 75 cents, and Farwell fans will view game from the east side.

"OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF PARMER COUNTY"

12 PAGES

FIFTIETH YEAR

SECTION 1

Due to the tremendous progress that has been made in recent years, Parmer County has come to be noted for its vast agricultural resources.

Promoters of the region are always pointing to the abundance of our underground water supply and the many other factors which contribute to making Parmer County the significant farming area that it is.

"We have more water than any other county on the High Plains" and "This county produces more grain sorghum than any region of similar size in the world" are claims that are always being made.

These claims aren't just idle boasts and they are pretty well backed up by the facts. It's only proper that area planners and promoters constantly advertise these points that make for Parmer County's thriving economy.

While some folks may question the value of another accomplishment I'm about to mention, it certainly does have merit. Many folks claim, and with good reason, that something of this nature makes for more publicity for a town than anything else combined.

What I'm making reference to is this:

For the first time in history (I don't think it's ever happened before) Parmer County has two champion football teams. The county has only four high schools and two of them, Farwell and Lazbuddie, won the championships of their respective districts.

Whether there are any other counties on the High Plains that can lay claim to an accomplishment such as this, I don't know, but I'm certain that success of this nature is more the exception than the rule.

It is a sports-minded nation that we live in, and with a good percentage of the space in news media devoted to sporting activities, accomplishments in the sports world get more attention than many other events.

Therefore, it only stands to reason that the feats of the Farwell Steers and the Lazbuddie Longhorns this past season, and especially their participation in the area playoffs this week, will do more to put the two communities on the map than anything that has transpired in a long while.

What good does all this publicity do a town?

Well, other than the fact that it gives every sport-minded person in town a feeling of pride and the fact that it gives due recognition to a group of boys and football coaches who have diligently applied their talents to one of the important facets of a modern day educational program, the success of a football team can be beneficial in other ways too.

When it comes to promoting a product, a certain region, or what have you, it's the name that's important and the more ways this can be done, the better off you are.

It has been said that the success of the Farwell football team in recent years, and Johnny Lovelace at Texas Tech, have done more to publicize Farwell than anything else.

Am sure that nobody can dispute this, and so, in the future Parmer County can be referred to in a manner such as this: "Parmer County--the largest producer of grain sorghum and good football players on the High Plains."

During the past 11 weeks, everybody who took part in the Farwell businesses football contest has been having a lot of fun trying to pick the winners of all the games, and most of all they have enjoyed picking the scores of Farwell's games.

At every football game and during coffee sessions, one of the main topics of conversation has been the contest. Everybody has been comparing predictions with his neighbor and giving reasons for picking a game this way or that way.

I was deprived of that privilege all season long, so now that the contest is over I'm going to do a little prognosticating of my own. Here's the way I see the two bi-district games involving Parmer County teams this week: Farwell 28 Idalou 15 Lazbuddie 19 Groom 14

One thing about starting my football predictions this late in the season, if I'm too far off, I won't have to stick my neck out another time.

ALTON PRUITT

Accident Fatal To Alton Pruitt

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church for Odes Alton Pruitt, 33, of Muleshoe.

Pruitt died shortly before noon Sunday from injuries received when he was thrown from a motor scooter and hurled headlong into the grill of a passing station wagon.

Highway Patrolman John Bentley, who investigated the accident, said Pruitt was trying out his son's newly-repaired motor scooter on FM road 2079, about four and one half miles northwest of Muleshoe, and apparently lost control of the scooter when he tried to swerve it back toward the edge of the road.

The scooter slid down the road, according to Bentley, hit a crack in the surface, and flipped, hurling Pruitt into the path of a slow moving station wagon driven by Willie Ellis, 64, of Muleshoe.

The patrolman said the scooter never collided with the station

School Bond Issue Faces Texico Voters

Will the old school building at Texico be retired from service and will a new, modern one be built to take its place?

That's the question that will come before the property owners in the Texico School District in the near future.

The Texico School Board Thursday night instructed Superintendent Buck Doran to begin laying the necessary groundwork preparatory to a bond election for construction of a new high school building.

Before the election can be called, approval has to be received from the state board of education. Preliminary paperwork and meetings with state officials are now underway, and after permission to hold the election is granted, a petition will be circulated among property owners of the school district.

The petition, requesting the school board to call the election, must bear the signatures of at least 10 per cent of the property owners before the election can be called. Doran says that all the preliminary work will probably be completed by January and the election may possibly be slated for sometime in February.

The exact amount of bonded indebtedness that the Texico property owners will be asked to approve is not yet known. This will

Longhorns To Bi-District

The Lazbuddie Longhorns will be playing in their first Class B bi-district football game when they take on the Groom Tigers Friday afternoon at 2:30 in Buffalo Stadium at Canyon.

Three years of football frustration came to an end Friday night when the Longhorns up-ended the Happy Cowboys, 26-6, for the District 2-B championship.

Coach John Bond's team was runner-up to the Cowboys in 1958 and 1959, but by winning Friday night the Longhorns finally ended Happy's long reign of being perennial district champions.

It was the first Class B championship for Longhorns since jumping from six-man football in 1956.

The Longhorns closed out their regular season with a 7-1 record and a 4-0 conference mark, their lone loss being to Farwell early in the season.

In the Happy game, Lazbuddie's line turned in a top-notch performance, opening up holes for the speedy backs, Odis Bradshaw, Freddie Savage and Billy Hardage, to break through for nice gains. Bradshaw scored three touchdowns, while Savage was picking up one.

Jim Broadhurst was outstanding on defense, making 12 tackles, while Norman Brantley and Ronnie Gustin each had eight.

It was homecoming at Lazbuddie Friday and during the halftime Patsy Marrow was crowned football Sweetheart. The pep squad hero was Odis Bradshaw.

The Winner of the Lazbuddie-Groom game Friday will play the victor of Anton-New Deal for the regional championship next week.

Tribune Plans Expansion

MAKING AN ADJUSTMENT on one of the Tribune's printing presses is Russell Grimes, who this week took over as manager of the printing department. Grimes comes to Farwell from Olton and will be in charge of commercial printing, a department of the Tribune that is to be expanded in the near future.

An extensive remodeling program, which will include expansion of the Tribune's print-int facilities, is scheduled to begin next week.

Present plans call for construction of three new offices on the north side of the Tribune building, remodeling of the present offices, and a complete revision of the printing department.

When the project is completed, the Tribune will be able to offer better printing service for Texico-Farwell and surrounding area, says W. H. Graham, publisher. Besides a general remodeling of the building, new printing equipment will also be added.

Joining the Tribune this week to manage the printing department is Russell Grimes, who comes to the Twin Cities from Olton. He has been employed by the Olton Enterprise for the past 10 years.

Grimes is married and he and his wife have three children. He is a member of the Baptist Church and has been active in Lions Club and other civic activities at Olton. Grimes and his family will be moving here as soon as they can find a place to live.

Grimes replaces Clyde Newell as manager of the Tribune's printing department.

Fire Zone, Signs, Get Attention

Redesignation of the fire zone was the main topic of discussion at a recent meeting of the Farwell City Commission, but action on changing the zone limits was postponed until the next meeting.

A letter to the city from George C. Hawley, chief engineer of the State Insurance board, proposed that the zone be reduced in size to cover the area from the west city limits, east to Ninth Street, and one block north of Main Street to one block south of Main.

The zone redesignation was acceptable to the two commissioners present, Mayor Sam Aldridge and C. C. Christian, but in the proposed map sent to the commission by Hawley, the two city blocks south of Main Street, from First Street to Third Street, were omitted from the zone.

It was the opinion of the commissioners that these two blocks should be included in the zone and they instructed the city secretary, Dorothy Eason, to make an inquiry to the engineer as to why the two blocks were left out.

Maxine Is Winner

It was a photo finish, but Maxine Williams came out winner in the Farwell businesses football contest, edging out Glenn Phillips for grand prize of an expense-paid trip to the Cotton Bowl January 2.

Going into the last week of the contest, Maxine had a three game edge over her nearest competitors, but a rash of upsets in the final week almost cost her the grand prize. Phillips, in a desperation attempt, picked all the upsets in a final contest and had he changed his mind on one game, would have been the winner.

Phillips first had Littlefield picked to defeat Hereford, but then crossed out the name, changing it to Hereford. This caused him to finish in a tie with Maxine, and on comparison of the 11 tie-breaker scores during the contest, Maxine was declared the winner. She was closer to the combined total of the 11 scores) by 39 points than was Phillips.

In the final contest, Phillips failed to pick the winner of only two games, (Hereford-Littlefield and TCU-Texas) and this was enough to give him third place in the weekly contest. Winning the contest and the first prize of $5 was Jim Clements, center on the Farwell Steer football team. He also missed only two games (Colorado-Kansas and Muleshoe-Abernathy) but was nearest to the tie-breaker score.

Clements predicted the score to be 48-6 and the actual count was 42-6.

In second place was the assistant Farwell coach, Dan Truelove. He missed on the Muleshoe-Abernathy and Texas Tech-Wyoming games and his score was 38-12.

Maxine missed five games in final go around, but her

CHECKING OVER A STACK OF ENTRIES is Maxine Williams, winner in the second annual Farwell businesses football contest. Maxine tied with Glenn Phillips in the final standings but won the contest by being closest on the 11 tie-breaker scores. Both had scores of 76. Next in the standings was Dempsey Alexander with a score of 73.

Wolverines Open Season Friday Night

The Texico Wolverines will open their 1960-61 basketball season Friday night against Bovina. Both the A and B boys teams are scheduled to meet the Mustangs in a pair of games at Bovina, the B game scheduled to get under way at 7:30.

Following Friday's games the two teams will go to Logan Saturday night and will then play the home opener Tuesday night against Dora. All home games this season will start at 7:30.

Turkey Shoot This Weekend

A second turkey shoot, sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Lions Club, is scheduled for this Friday and Saturday at a site east of Farwell on Highway 70-84.

The shoot Saturday will begin at 1 p. m. and on Sunday activities will start at 2 o'clock.

Participants will compete in groups of five and the winner of each contest will receive a certificate good for either a turkey or ham. Entrance fee for each contest will be $2.

The Lions Club just recently acquired its own trap-shooting machine, which will be in use for the first time this week. At the club's first turkey shoot in August, a trap machine was borrowed from the Whitharral Lions Club.

Community Sale Scheduled At Oklahoma Lane

The first annual community sale is scheduled for the Oklahoma Lane Community Building Thursday, December 15. The sale will be a money raising event to help pay of indebtedness on the community building.

Col. Dick Doshier will be the auctioneer and Vernon Symcox is heading a drive to acquire consignments for the sale. Deadline for turning in listings for the sale is December 7.

Not many years ago the pork-rind black eel was devised. It was a complete innovation in lures, and often proved extremely successful for bass—for which it is used almost exclusively—when other lures failed.

But don't forget that, bass still being bass, it will quite frequently fail completely when one of the other lures works fine.

The black eel is best fished without a weight. It is fished by short, quick twitches, with long pauses between. Practice this in shallow water where you can watch it, and you'll find that you can make it look more alive than a live eel. Then you're ready to use the same movements in deeper water, where you can't see it.

Latest of all, and closely related to the black eel, is the plastic worm. This usually comes with a weighted head. Nothing could look less promising for bass, especially since live worms are about the poorest bait possible for bass in most places. But, surprisingly enough, these artificials are often very fine producers indeed.

A lure we've taken over recently from sea fishermen, who have used it a long time, is the jig. Jigs are at times among the best producers of bass and some other species. They are usually fished by the bottom-skipping method.

Finally, is it true, as one so often hears, that the newer lures are far more effective than the old ones—so much so that they're responsible for the decline in fishing almost everywhere, which every angler of moderately long experience admits?

The fact is that the old lures which have been on the market for perhaps two generations or more will, on the average, catch more fish than will new ones on the average. The reason is simple enough when we realize that when those old-timers were devised, hundreds of other plugs came out at the same time. Fishermen found that a small number of them caught a lot more fish than the rest, and those few very productive ones have remained on the market long after the rest have been forgotten. It was a process of "survival of the fittest" and it is still going on.

Meaning Of Equality Explained

(Editor's Note: The following was taken from the Canadian Record, which is published by Ben Ezell.)

Some 16 years ago, a good friend of mine received a letter written to him by his 16-year-old daughter who was attending boarding school. She was puzzled about the meaning of "Equality," when she wrote to her Dad, as you will see when you read his reply:

"The question of equality of which you wrote in your last letter is most interesting. A great many people talk about it, but very few really think about it.

"Our country is the political expression of a spiritual idea. The Founding Fathers believed that man was made in the image of God and that consequently men should be free and that they could be free only if all men were equal one to another. This obviously does not mean that men are equal in physical strength. It does not mean that they are equal in mental ability, in imaginative quality or in character. And because they are not physically and mentally equal, I cannot believe that they will ever be equal in material possessions.

"Remember that the concept of equality in this country always has been a spiritual concept, never a material one; it ever has been that men were equal to one another before God, so that no man should be a ruler over his fellow man. This was a revolutionary thought coming as it did at the culmination of the period that had featured the 'Divine Right of Kings.'

"In this country men were equal before the law and no man was to be administrator or judge over his fellow men without the consent of the majority of his community, whether it was city, state or nation. Of the same importance in this idea of equality was the fact that the administrators and judges were at all times subject to the same laws as the rest of the people, from whom they came and whose interests they were selected to serve. This grew up in our country the belief in a government of laws, not a government of men.

"But, people will also say to you that there should be equality of opportunity. To the extent that all children should have as much love and happiness and education and reasonable discipline as we can give them, that is so. But opportunity is for him who takes it. Booker Washington and George Washington Carver were, I believe, born as slaves. Nearly all of us have had greater opportunity than they had, but they became two of our greatest citizens.

"The realization of opportunity then does not depend on electricity or modern plumbing. The realization of opportunity depends on ability and character. And since ability without character is usually worthless, character is the final determining quality that brings opportunity to its fulfillment. Thus, it is true, to a great extent that while you can offer opportunity to people, you can never give it to them. The people must have the character to perfect their own opportunities.

"So it is with freedom and democracy. You cannot give freedom or democracy to anyone and anyone who talks about doing so is either a knave or a fool. Both are the result of self-discipline which is a part of character. You can restore freedom to the Norwegians and other peoples who have previously won it for themselves, but other peoples must acquire it through self-discipline and self-control. "It is because of these facts that citizenship in the United States is so much more glorious a thing than being a slave to totalitarian government. Here we make our rules and we tax ourselves to enforce them. In a communist or fascist state the people are told what to do and have no free discussion concerning it, and no choice but to obey.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

In discussing lures, a strange situation presents itself—a single good lure will catch as many fish of most species as would the largest assortment of lures. But the well-informed fisherman carries a large number along, because he never knows what that unpredictable and temperamental critter, the fish may want at a given moment.

Justifiably, one of our oldest lures, the spinner spoon, should head the list of lure types. Though designed for trolling, this lure can be cast—if you're a skillful enough caster. You must add a dipsey sinker to give proper casting weight for your tackle, of whatever type it may be; merely slip the brass eye of the dipsey onto the snap along with the eye of the spoon.

You'll also need that dipsey when trolling, for without it, casting or trolling, your line would soon twist so badly as to become unmanageable. Most American spinners, except the smallest, which do not usually twist a line much, seem to have some provision—usually a lead keel to prevent line twisting.

Then there are the wobbling spoons, or casting spoons, of a completely different type, not revolving. Some of these have a treble hook dangling loosely behind; some, a single larger hook brazed onto the blade. For about all species other than bass, these and spoons of the spinner type are equally effective. But the unpredictable bass may show a strong preference for one or the other, so it's well to have both along to try for him.

With most wobbling spoons, a pork rind has even more advantages than there are with the spinner-type spoon, in that it greatly improves the lure's action, and it will often also prevent the lure from revolving at certain speeds. It's most convenient to replace a treble hook by a fairly large single, because the rind will often tangle with a treble on a cast.

Jason Lucas, Angling Editor of Sports Afield Magazine, is often asked whether spoons or plugs will catch most fish. Lucas says it depends on the species. Generally one can get most pike, pickerel or muskies on a spoon-type lure. But this is the case where it is considered desirable to have just two lures along, the other being some good plug of suitable size.

For bass, nearly all experienced anglers seem to prefer plugs to spoons—but, bass being what they are, will take spoons of both types when they decide that that's what they want. Though a pork rind works excellently with a spoon, it generally does more harm than good with a plug.

JOINING THE WINNERS CIRCLE in high school newspapers is Leslie (Dyer) Winsper representing Texico high school, at Texas Tech J-Day. Texico tied with Brownfield for first place in the mimeographed newspaper division. The winners' cup was provided by the Slaton SLATONITE. Presentation of trophies is a part of the annual J-Day activities at Tech. This year more than 275 high school students gathered on the campus to discuss various phases of high school journalism. Newspapers were awarded trophies on the best in large, medium, small and mimeographed divisions. Yearbooks were judged on the basis of large, small, medium and most improved books.

Steers Defeat Springlake, 42-6

Farwell's potent Steers won their third straight district championship, their fourth in five years, Friday night when they easily overpowered the Springlake Wolverines, 42-6, in the final regular season game.

With reserves playing half the game, the Steers built up a 21-0 lead in the first half and then coasted to the win over the game, but undermanned Wolverines.

The win left the Steers with an unblemished district record and an 8-2 record for the season.

Jerry Lovelace, Farwell's versatile fullback, got the scoring underway early in the first quarter when he intercepted a Springlake pass and dashed 55 yards for the score. Quarterback Benjy Dial passed to Halfback Carroll Huggins for the extra points.

Early in the second period Dial went over from six yards out following a drive which started on the Steer 25. Dial also kicked the extra point to put the Farwell team out-front, 15-0.

The Steers' third touchdown came seconds later following a pass interception at midfield. On the first play after the interception, Dial hit end David Lindop for a long downfield pass that was good for 51 yards and the score.

As the second half opened, Huggins turned in the best run of the night by taking the kickoff and rambling 90 yards for a touchdown. He took the ball on the 10, went straight upfield to the 35, cut to the left, and then followed his blockers down the field for the score. Dial booted the extra point.

The next touchdown came midway through the quarter when Quarterback Tommy Williams heaved an aerial downfield to Halfback Joe Reed, who gobbled up the ball and ran it into the end zone. The play covered 48 yards, and again Dial kicked the extra point to make the score 35-0.

Farwell then pulled an onside kick, with Jerry Lovelace picking up the ball and running it to the Springlake 24. Four plays later Joe Reed went over from the three for the Steers' final score. Dial came in to kick the extra point, his fourth in five attempts.

Springlake scored its lone score early in the fourth period and then the two teams battled on even terms for the remainder of the game.

Miss Peyton Third In Sewing Contest

Beth Ellen Peyton of Texico placed third in the junior division of the Make It Yourself With Wool contest held last Saturday in the music building at ENMU.

Miss Peyton's sportswear entry was slim jims, a wool jersey blouse and a plaid tunic. She received a pair of button-hole scissors as her prize.

Another Texico High girl, Judy Lovett, entered the dress division with a wool turquoise sheath. Both Miss Lovett and Miss Peyton received a skirt length of wool material for entering the contest.

A tea given by Eastern's Home Economics club for the winners and contestants completed the program.

Those attending the program from Texico were Mesdames Jimmie Allman, N. W. Peyton, Ellen Daniels, Troy Lovett, J. A. Chandler, Lowry Winkles, and the Misses Alice Gentry and Gwinette Lovett.

Jimmy Webb Gets Deer

Jimmy Webb, age 11, was a very happy and excited young lad last Saturday, for he shot his first deer, a young doe.

Jimmy and his father, C. H. Webb, hunted this past week end in the Guadalupe Mountains near Carlsbad. Others in the party were Perry Winkles and Harvey, Lowry Winkles, Larry Dwayne Winkles, Aurileo Rodriguez and Alfonso Cabrea.

This was Jimmy's second time to go hunting.

12 Texico Juniors Register For Test

Twelve Texico High School juniors have registered for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test to be given in March.

The test, given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, awards scholarships on the basis of intellectual merit and financial need.

As a part of the New Mexico testing program, all juniors have taken the School and College Ability Test and the Sequential Tests of Educational Progress.

These tests are valuable to students in selecting careers or planning courses in high school and college. Results will be in the hands of the students by May 15.

Grants by the Ford Foundation, Carnegie Corporation of New York as well as about 115 other industrial corporations, foundations, and individuals give scholarships through the New Mexico program.

Monte Singleterry Joins Fraternity

Monte Singleterry, Texico, was one of thirty-three members of the School of Business and Economics at ENMU, including two faculty members, who were recently initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business fraternity.

The international fraternity initiation and charter ceremonies were presided over by Homer T. Brewer, Atlanta, Ga., district president; Warren Armstrong, Albuquerque, district director; Charles Sutton, Phoenix, intermountain regional director; and Joe Hefner, Lubbock, southwestern regional director.

Faculty members initiated into the organization were Derrell Bulls and Paul Stangle, instructor and assistant instructor, respectively, in Business and Economics, both advisors to the student organization.

FTA Delegates Attend Meeting

The sponsor and officers of the Farwell chapter of the Future Teachers of America attended the district FTA meeting at West Texas State College Nov. 1. The purpose of this meeting was to compare the projects and meetings of the different chapters in district nine.

Mrs. Mary Alexander, president of the Texas State Teacher's Association, brought the keynote address to the general assembly. Following this, workshops were held on several different topics.

The delegation from Farwell attended the workshop on program planning. Among other things, they learned different topics for program and ideas for money-making projects.

Those attending from here were: Mrs. Alice Jay Tucker, sponsor; Emalee Tucker, president; Jerald Gober, vice-president; Jolene Donaldson, secretary; and Gwen Verette, treasurer.

The Farwell chapter of the FTA was organized Oct. 27.

Larry Cooper Receives Honors

LARRY COOPER

Larry Cooper, a Farwell senior at McMurry College, has recently received two honors. He was initiated into Alpha Chi, a national scholastic honor society for the second year, and he was accepted for medical school in Dallas.

The speed with which his acceptance for medical school came through may be something of a record. Cooper applied to Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, mailing the letter October 13. Two days later he received an appointment for an interview, scheduled October 22 in Dallas.

He concluded the interview in Dallas on the scheduled day and returned to Abilene. Four days later he received notice of acceptance to Southwestern. Sometimes students wait months for acceptance to medical school.

Cooper was invited to join Alpha Chi along with the other students in the top ten percent of the junior and senior classes at McMurry. Out of the junior class there were 18 eligible for membership and 14 from the senior class.

According to Jennie Tate, head of the mathematics department and sponsor of Alpha Chi, the purpose of the organization is to "encourage sound scholarship and devotion to the truth, not only among its members but among all the students."

Cooper, who has maintained a 2.5 grade point average during three years at McMurry, will begin medical studies in Dallas next September.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Cooper of Farwell and is a 1957 graduate of Farwell High School. His wife, the former May Ann Walls, is also from Farwell. They have a son, Royce, aged nine months.

Cooper, an employee of the Electrolux Corp. in Abilene, is a chemistry major and has minors in biology and math. He is a member of Chi Omicron, men's social club, and of the McMurry Science Club.

Scholarship Given Leroy Favilles Son-In-Law

Sherron Buddy Stephens, a senior speech correction major at West Texas State College has been awarded a Jeanne Braniff Terrell Scholarship by the Braniff Women's Auxiliary of Dallas.

Don E. Schomburg, district manager for Braniff Airways in Amarillo, presented a $150 check to Stephens to assist him in completion of his studies in the field of speech correction.

Mrs. Stephens is the former Mikala Faville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Faville, Texico. They have a daughter, Shawn, who is eight months old.

Mrs. Stephens is also a senior at West Texas, majoring in elementary education.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. T. J. Massongill, mother of Mrs. Kate Phillips, underwent emergency surgery about two weeks ago in Seymour and has been in critical condition. The last few days she has shown some slight improvement.

Iris Goldsmith has been released from Memorial Hospital where she has been since receiving a concussion Nov. 8 while playing basketball.

Post Office Helps Count Livestock

Rural mail carriers from the Farwell post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 16.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster John Zahn explains. In distributing the cards, rural carriers pick boxes at random along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Zahn says. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are Nelson C. Smith and Lee E. Meeks.

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

"This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the Post Office and the Agriculture Departments since 1924," concludes Zahn.

"Rightness expresses of actions, what straightness does of lines; and there can no more be two kinds of right action than there be two kinds of straight line."

The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and featured a dried pink and white floral arrangement. Colors were further carried out with pink lemonade served from a crystal bowl and a white cake topped with miniature babies. Plate favors were tin pacifiers made of Life Savers and jelly beans.

Attending were Mesdames Luella White, Bob Jones, Jackie Brown, Vernon Symcox, Dee Brown, Lora Brown, Effie Splawn, Clarence Johnson, Cloyce Hunt, Robert Hunt, Woodrow Surratt, Raymond Scott, Claude Watkins, R. E. Blankenship and Lynn, D. W. Carpenter, Neil Stewart, Davis Gulley, Delbert Garner, and Leon Smith Sr. Many who were unable to be present sent gifts.

It happened in a teen-age, rock 'n' roll joint. The waiter dropped a tray of dishes and six couples got up to dance.

JOTTIN'S

By Jeanne

One of the colorful old-time newsmen of Texas is J. Claude Wells of the Memphis Democrat, who has been an active newsman for 57 of his 81 years. He is still at it.

We always enjoy seeing Mr. Wells at press conventions and like to hear him tell about newspapering when he was a young man. But the story we like best is about his early baptism of fire back around the turn of the century when he was working as a printer on the old Texico Trumpet. A gambler, enraged by a story about him in the paper, came gunning for the printer, Claude broke up the party with a stove poker as the gunman's shots went wild. He makes it sound pretty exciting.

Mr. Wells was on the Trumpet, which was a daily newspaper incidentally, in 1907 and 1908; and spent the following year as publisher of the Farwell Tribune. Next he went to Claude in 1910, about the time the present Tribune was established.

Recently we learned that the newly organized Extension Club in Texico was not the first one in history as everyone had thought.

Bettie learned that in February of 1939, there was a new club in Texico and even found the names of the officers. Mrs. T. W. Reed was listed as president; Mrs. Rupert Paul as vice president; Mrs. S. H. Richards as secretary; and Mrs. S. B. Lovett as reporter.

According to the Curry County Extension office, this was the 15th club in Curry County that year.

Ever notice how fast it gets Later, once you Buy Now?

How's your telephone voice? It seems to us that your telephone manners are as important as any phase of your personality. We carry out many of our daily plans by phone and we are always amazed at how voices vary by phone and in person.

Back in our teen-age days, we had a sister whose voice sounded like ours by phone. She wasn't above an impersonation at times, just for the fun of it. It gave us some exciting times, since we were allowed to date at that time and she was still too young.

We've found that most of the people that call in to the Tribune have pleasant, cheerful voices. So we always enjoy our week's work, with the aid of the telephone.

It's hard to believe, but the stress and strain of meeting our weekly deadlines become more hectic each week. Even on a weekly paper, it's pretty time-consuming to check all our news sources each week, make call-backs, write the stories, copyread our information and then assemble it into pages.

The bottleneck is always on Wednesdays when by necessity, we have to get news that occurs Tuesday night or late in the week. It's hard for those unfamiliar with newspapers to understand, but since there is only so much space, and we can never estimate the news potential ahead of time--an important late news story will be shorter than it should be, or in rare cases will be left out entirely. Sometimes news of lesser importance is found and another story should have been in, but didn't make it.

Local news we collect over the weekend or early Monday is already set and ready to go by Monday afternoon, and therefore, is ready when we need it. We always rush around pretty fast Tuesdays and Wednesday mornings and try to roll about three days work into one on those days, which leaves us pretty tattered and torn on Thursdays when the paper is finally published. Then we learn if we have missed some important news or made an error that we shouldn't have.

That happens too--we still have a red face when we recall an error that appeared in the Stone Variety ad a few years ago. We'll never forget it--and doubt if Ruby Stone will. She did learn how many people read her ad in the Tribune. We're still too embarrassed to tell you the nature of the error.

We do appreciate your understanding, and the help most of you give us, by getting your stories in as early as possible. Sometimes, the best stories coming in later, just don't receive the "full" treatment, or will miss the paper entirely. It's distressing, but we haven't yet found the solution.

Life Is Worth Your Living

By Robert O. Tomlinson

We believe that the power of God released in Galilee, Judea, and Samaria less than two thousand years ago (a short span in God's calendar), is not exhausted. In fact we believe that anything approaching an all-out demonstration has scarcely begun.

There seems to be on the part of some people, a widening recognition of the fact that man cannot save himself. For people to realize that in order for life to be great, filled with rich and satisfying experiences, it must come from a higher source than man himself.

Man, in his saner moments of self-examination, knows that he cannot save himself, and this is the first step toward something better. With all of God's desire to rescue man from his failure and defeat, and with all His infinite power, He has never been able to give man life worth-while until man confesses that he is incapable of waging a successful battle against the forces of evil.

To confess and repent is to open the door to the Lord who is saying, "Let me come into your life, and I will have fellowship with you." This will give inner peace and outward victory and you will find that life is worth your living.

ESA Doll To Be Given Away Soon

Miss ESA, the doll to be given away by Theta Rho chapter of ESA, could well make the best-dressed list for dolls, as her wardrobe increases day by day, according to Mrs. John Getz, president.

The blonde doll and complete wardrobe will be given away November 26 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the vacant lot near City Cafe. The promotion is a money-making event to finance Christmas projects of the chapter, including Santa's visit to the Twin Cities.

On display at Southwestern Public Service Co., the doll has a wardrobe of 17 ensembles, with accessories including purses, shoes, hose, gloves, hats, and jewelry plus an engagement ring. She has a satin and net bride's ensemble with fingertip veil. Tickets may be obtained by contacting ESA members.

Pep Rally Is Friday

A pep rally to precede the Farwell - Idalou bi-district game is scheduled by the Farwell Pep Club Friday morning at 10:30 in the parking lot near Holiday Store.

Patrons who want their cars decorated for the trip to Plainview are asked to have their cars in front of the school building between 9 and 10:30. The pep club will do the decorating. There will be no charge but donations will be accepted.

The pep club urges everyone to be on hand for the big rally and then to journey on to Plainview for the game which starts at 2:30.

Election Day

Dinner Successful

Members of the Texico Cemetery Association were well pleased with the results of the election day dinner, stating that it was one of the best attended they had ever had. $266 was raised, with the proceeds to be used for the upkeep of the Texico cemetery.

They wish to express their appreciation to both Texico and Farwell and the surrounding areas for the good attendance, and special thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Texico Fire Department for paying for the use of the building in which the dinner was held.

Bryant and his unknown wife or wives; Frank Triplett and his unknown wife or wives; and all the unknown husband or husbands and unknown wife or wives of the above named parties, and should any of the above named parties be deceased, then his or her unknown legal representatives, heirs, and assigns, Defendants, GREETING;

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff's Petition at or before ten o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 19th day of December, A. D. 1960, at or before ten o'clock A. M. before the Honorable District Court of Parmer County, Texas, at the court house of said county in Farwell, Texas.

Said Plaintiff's Petition was filed in said court, on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1960, in this cause, numbered 2144 on the docket of said court, and styled, ANNE H. OVERSTREET, a single woman, Plaintiff vs E. C. BRYANT, ET AL, Defendants.

The names of the parties to the cause are as follows: Anne H. Overstreet, a single woman, is Plaintiff, and E. C. Bryant and her husband, James S. Bryant; J. T. Wilsey and his unknown wife or wives; J. S. Bryant and his unknown wife or wives; Frank Triplett and his unknown wife or wives; and all the unknown husband or husbands and unknown wife or wives of the above named parties; and should any of the above named parties be deceased, his or her unknown legal representatives, heirs and assigns, are Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Suit in trespass to try title, Plaintiff alleging that on or about the first day of August, A. D. 1960, she owned in fee simple and was in possession of All of Lots 17, 18 and 19, Block 44, of the Original Town of Farwell, Parmer County, Texas, as shown by plat of said town of record in the Deed Records of Parmer County, Texas, and that Defendants unlawfully entered thereon and ejected her therefrom and withhold possession thereof from her, and praying for judgment for title to and possession of said property, and for writ of possession, and further claiming title by virtue of the 5-year statute of limitations, all as is more fully shown by

"I LIKE ITS SMALL SIZE!" "I LIKE ITS SMART STYLING!" "I LIKE THE DIAL THAT LIGHTS UP!"

All over town the lovely, little Princess phone is attracting attention and making friends—because it offers so many features that people want in an extension telephone. It's small—to take up less room on desk or table. The dial lights up. It glows in the dark so you can find it quickly and, when you lift the receiver, lights up brightly to make dialing easy. It's modern—styled to go anywhere in your home, and go beautifully. Take your choice of five decorator colors—white, beige, pink, blue and turquoise. See the Princess phone at our business office. Or ask a telephone serviceman to show it to you.

The Princess phone with dial and night lights built in costs only pennies a day after a one-time charge. Your choice of five colors.

Farm Facts

Today's farmer has the tools and know-how to do his job more efficiently. This makes it possible to supply himself and 23 other persons, a production ratio achieved by farmers in no other country.

The U. S. farmer's capacity to produce thus makes it unnecessary to maintain a large labor force on the land. This makes more workers available for industry, freeing them to supply the many goods and services which contribute to our high standard of living.

To achieve this efficiency, U. S. farmers are continually increasing their investment in equipment and supplies.

Porter Included In Exercise

MANNHEIM, GERMANY (AHTNC) -- Army Capt. Edward J. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Porter, Farwell, Tex., recently participated with other personnel from the 8th Infantry Division in Operation Flash Back in Europe.

The 12-day exercise tested the efficiency of Seventh U. S. Army Support Command units under actual field conditions, and involved NATO land, sea and air forces.

Captain Porter, an aviator in the division in Bad Kreuznach, Germany, entered the Army in 1951 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty last February.

Porter attended New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell. His wife, Bunkie, is with him in Germany.

ABUNDANT LIFE by ORAL ROBERTS

Does it matter? What if David had said, "My neck is too valuable to risk under the sword of such a mighty warrior as Goliath?" Would it have mattered? What if Abraham had said, "Ask anything, but do not ask the life of my son Isaac?" What if Esther had said, "I dare not face King Ahasuerus, for he will destroy me?" What if the lowly widow had said, "Elijah shall not have the little measure of meal and oil which stands between my son and me and starvation?" Who would have blamed any of them for refusal under their circumstances, and would it really have mattered if they had acted otherwise? Does it matter how you act in your circumstances of life? We know the great spiritual significance of Abraham's willingness to kill his own son in obedience to God. We know the course of the history of the physical world would have been changed if Goliath had slain David. Esther's decision was in behalf of a great people. Perhaps, more than they realized, we now realize the significance to others of their decisions. But did it really matter?

From Soda And Acid Cart To Modern Fire-Fighting Force

BY MRS. FRED DANFORTH

From a soda and acid cart with 150 feet of hose in 1926, to a well-organized group of 14 firemen with approximately $30,000 worth of equipment is the progress made in 34 years by the Texico Volunteer Fire Department.

Among the equipment now available for fire protection are three fire trucks -- a 1960 Ford, 1951 Chevrolet and 1946 Ford. The new white 1960 fire wagon was purchased recently for approximately $11,299 and is the pride of the organization. Last year the department acquired a 1959 white panel Chevrolet to be used as an emergency vehicle. It is valued at $1,831. Other equipment owned by the department is valued at $7,009.

Because of the efficiently trained men and well-equipped department, insurance rates on property in the city of Texico were lowered a few years ago as the department rose from tenth place in insurance rating to eighth place.

Money to run the local fire department comes from an allowance governed by the State Corporation Commission and paid by the Department of Insurance.

The local department spends its budget on new equipment and maintenance of other equipment. There are no paid firemen.

A large three-room apartment is provided rent free to a couple who provide 24-hour telephone answering service for the people of Texico in case of fire or accident. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lewis and family reside at the apartment now. The apartment is located in the eight room city owned building which also houses a fireman's office, space for the three fire vehicles, and the two-room City Hall.

Signals for help are one long blast or several short ones. F. S. Thigpen, welder, is fire chief, having served in this capacity for 13 years and 7 months. Perry Winkles, blacksmith, serves as assistant.

Requirements for belonging to the organization are to be physically able and to be a resident of the city. The average volunteer gives a minimum of 140 hours per year just attending meetings. This excludes any time spent in answering calls or fighting fires.

These men devote many hours to learning to use modern fire-fighting equipment and they regard fire fighting for what it is--a community service in which there is some measure of risk.

Seven hundred twenty hours a month, 52 weeks a year, winter or summer, day or night the department's apparatus is ready for service upon call.

The department holds weekly meetings with most of the time being devoted to instruction classes and drills that train the men to skillfully handle the equipment. A volunteer is not a specialist--he must be able to drive a fire truck, handle a hose, or do any other job that might be required. Delegates attend the annual New Mexico State Fireman's Convention, thus keeping up with the newest trends. Movies showing particular techniques are often shown in their regular weekly meetings.

Although the fire station is unmanned, the volunteers are remarkably efficient in reaching the scene of a fire in the shortest time possible. The first man or men to arrive take the trucks out. Volunteers arriving too late to ride on the fire vehicles speed to the scene in their private cars.

One incident occurred here where only one fireman knew of the alarm. He rushed to the station, took the truck out, extinguished the fire, and put the equipment safely back into place.

Protection of farm property is a service given by this department when possible. The small-town volunteer must not only be familiar with the highways but also the dirt back roads. They must learn the art of fighting fire under such handicaps as having to pump water from wells if their tank trucks do not provide a sufficient supply. Grass fires that get out of control of householders and farmers form a large portion of the calls the department receives.

Many times the Volunteer Fire Department is the core of civic activity. The men assist in fund-raising campaigns, help send a boy to Boy's State each year, furnish a fire truck for the appearance and transportation of Santa Claus each year, and help on community projects, the latest being a large contribution of cash to the bath house at the new city swimming pool.

Another service performed by this group is the spraying of the streets and alleys in Texico for mosquitoes. This is a messy, unpleasant job, performed several times a year for the comfort and protection of the Texico citizen.

Otis Huggins, who joined in October, 1944, has 16 years of active service to his credit, which makes him the longest serving member of the department. Huggins is manager of Southwestern Public Service Co. and can boast membership in both the Texico and Farwell Volunteer Departments. He attends the weekly meetings of both and his wife is a charter member of the newly organized Ladies Auxiliary in Texico.

The department is proud of its younger members--Don Johnson, nineteen year old carpenter; Bill Thigpen, 19, employee at Kemp Lumber Company; and Donald Callouet, senior at Texico High School.

Other members, besides the chief and assistant chief, include Rip Snodgrass, local merchant; Russell Johnson, water superintendent; John Adams, Fred Danforth, and James Pearce, teachers; Don Fought, carpenter; C. H. Webb, employee at Gifford-Hill-Western; and Elmer Teel, manager of Southern Union Gas Company. Wives of the firemen recently decided to form an auxiliary and they met Sept. 12 in the home of Mrs. F. S. Thigpen for this purpose. There are nine charter members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Texico Fire Department.

Mrs. Perry Winkles was chosen to serve as president of the organization. Assisting her will be Mrs. F. S. Thigpen, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Danforth, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. C. H. Webb, reporter; and Mrs. Russell Johnson, historian. Other charter members are Mesdames Otis Huggins, Rip Snodgrass, John Adams, and Elmer Teel.

There are 34 units in New Mexico belonging to the State Auxiliary. The main objective of the auxiliary is to help the local firemen. Among other things, the women serve food and coffee to the firemen when they are fighting big fires and provide aid in the way of food and clothing to any family having the misfortune of having their home and possessions go up in fire.

One of the local firemen says, "I think I speak for every volunteer when I say that, after all, I live here, this is my town, and it's my home and my family that I am protecting."

Ex-Students To Meet Nov. 26

All ex-students and teachers of Oklahoma Lane, West Camp and Farwell Schools are urged to make plans now to attend the annual reunion Saturday, November 26, by officers of the association, Mrs. C. C. Christian, president, says.

The banquet is planned at 8 o'clock that evening in the Farwell School cafeteria, and Dr. Leon Hill, a noted retired Baptist minister of Amarillo, will be speaker. Dr. Hill is well-known in this area as an after-dinner speaker. An Underwood's barbecue will be served.

The inmates, Farwell musical group, will present special music. Another plan is to honor the class of 1950-51, and students who were members of the group, are especially urged to attend.

Trophies are to be awarded to the person traveling the greatest distance to attend the reunion and to the person representing the earliest graduating class.

Deadline for reservations is November 21, and persons may call Mrs. Christian 481-3238, Farwell or drop a card in the mail as soon as possible.

Some leaders are interested in the flock; others, in the fleece. The auto is here to stay, even if many motorists aren't.

Meet The Teachers

MRS. ROY WOODARD

Another new teacher at Farwell this year is Mrs. Roy (Peggy) Woodard. This is her first year to teach, after receiving her BA in Business and Economics from ENMU in August. Her husband is an accounting major at ENMU and they have one son, Royce Lane, who is three and one-half months old.

Mrs. Woodard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker of Rogers. She was reared and received her schooling in that community. While in high school she was very active in FHA and held chapter, district, and state offices and was a delegate to the national convention at Chicago in 1956.

She belongs to the Baptist Church and her hobby is sewing.

Mrs. Woodard is the junior high English teacher, but she also has a class in math and one in science.

She and her family live at 403 Ave. B in Farwell. She states that she enjoys working here and definitely enjoys living in Farwell. "The people are so nice and friendly they make us feel right at home," she says.

His wife, Laura, and family live at 406 Ave. C. Their four children are Johnny, 16; Laura Jean, 12; Larry, 6; and Gary, 8.

This is Mr. Gray's seventeenth year to teach. He began his teaching career at San Angelo, where he was raised. Before coming here, he was band director for four years at Stanton.

Most of his college work has been through music scholarships. His degrees are a BS from Texas A & I at Kingsville and an ME from Texas Tech.

He is a member of the Lions Club and he and his wife belong to the Farwell Baptist Church. His hobbies are wordworking and the pastime for the whole family is camping.

For the past three years Mr. Gray has been honored by being selected to play in the Directors' Band at the TMEA Music Convention. He has also had first division concert bands and musicians.

Mr. Gray states that he believes this is a fine school system and that the high school band has improved considerably since the beginning of the school year.

JACK GRAY

Jack Gray is the new band instructor at Farwell. He and

Juanita Range In Dedication Service

Juanita Range, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Range of Pleasant Hill, was one of 25 Baylor University sophomore nursing students who participated in a dedication ceremony last Sunday afternoon at the 7th & James Baptist Church Memorial Chapel, which is near the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Range attended the ceremony in which the students receive their caps and wear their uniforms for the first time. They were presented lighted candles and white Bibles by Mrs. Nan Stephens, president of the Baylor nursing alumnae.

The main address for this annual service was by Roy Harrell, BSU director of the Baylor medical center. He gave an inspirational talk to the nursing students about their coming career.

Nancy Aldridge Studies Medicine

Nancy Aldridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aldridge, is attending the School of Medicine. She is enrolled for the 1960-61 winter session as a new student at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

The University is made up of three undergraduate colleges and eight graduate and professional schools.

Texico Girls Win First Two Games

Texico High School girls kicked off the basketball season with a 36-17 win over Grady last Friday night. In the first game of the evening, Texico Junior High girls edged past the Grady Junior High girls 15-13.

The Whirlwinds had very little trouble in posting their win as they led from the very start. With Pat Patterson leading the way with 25 points, the Whirlwinds built up a 15-5 first half lead.

Pauline Servatius and Sue Martin each contributed 5 points and Glenda Billingsley made one point to help in the scoring column. The Whirlwind guards played an important part in the game, as they kept the Grady girls well in check all the way.

The junior girls game was a different story, as they had a fight all the way for their win. Grady jumped to a 6-4 lead in the first quarter but could not score in the second quarter, while Texico held for 2 points to tie it up at the half 6-6. The little Whirlwinds scored nine points while holding Grady to 7 in the last half to take the game.

Scoring for Texico were Duranna Curtis with 4 points, Jackie Hughes, 2 points, Marquetta Wall, 4 points, and Grace Hamilton, 5 points.

BUILDING PERMITS

Only one permit was issued in Texico during October, that going to A. D. Mendoza to build two bedrooms to his residence at 208 Garwood.

In Farwell, Mrs. Lucille Brittain received a permit to park a house trailer on the south half of lots 8-12, block 32. A permit went to Virgil Woodson for a brick veneer dwelling with double garage, lots 25-28, block 59.

Billy Wyatt received one to remodel his office building on block 95, lots 4-14.

Farwell Students Rank High In Tests

Results of the National Merit Scholarship Tests have just been released by the Farwell School Counselor, Mrs. R. B. Tucker. Cathy Bell made the highest percentile ranking of the Farwell seniors who took this test in the latter part of their junior year. At that time, these tests were given to over one-half million students in the nation. Miss Bell ranked in the upper 4% of this national group taking the tests. Jerald Gober ranked in the upper 6% and was rated the second highest from Farwell.

These tests included English, Math, Science, and Social Studies.

One-third of the senior class had requested the tests. Those taking the entire group of tests were: Cathy Bell, Jerald Gober, Judy Billingsley, Benjy Dial, Darlene Hromas, Jean Reed, Emalee Tucker, Tommy Williams, and Tommy Wurster. Each student had a composite score which ranked well above the high average for the nation.

School Bond Issue--

depend on recommendations by the state and the type of structure that will be decided upon by the school board.

Members of the school board have already made inspection trips to several new school buildings in the area and another trip is scheduled for the near future to Maxwell where a new $91,000 high school was recently completed.

The present high school building at Texico has been in service since 1918, and the school board feels that it is no longer adequate to meet the needs of a modern instructional program, Doran says.

The superintendent has consulted with Lemoine Langston, administrative assistant to State School Superintendent Tom Wiley, and has received assurance that the state department of education will assist in any way possible with the proposed building program.

At the meeting last Thursday, John Hadley, chairman of the school board, gave a report on the state school board clinic at Alamogordo recently. As a result of conclusions made at this clinic, the local board decided their policies should be revised and brought up to date.

The last time Texico had a school bond election was in 1955, when a new $70,000 elementary building was approved. This bonded indebtedness has been paid off.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

DOES GOD HAVE A SURPLUS FOR US?

I once heard about a man who was very wealthy. He lived on a large, beautiful estate. He drove a long, sleek car. He was able to dress in the latest fashions and enjoy all the luxuries of life. But no one was envious of this man's wealth--no one resented his having so much. He knew how to use his surplus.

Many small church groups worshipped in lovely buildings that this man had given them. The hospital in his city built and furnished an entire wing with his donations. Charitable organizations were never refused aid from this great man. He even supported an entire mission school and contributed to the missionary teacher's support. And God blessed him and prospered him even more. His surplus was a blessing to his fellow man.

Is God interested in people having a surplus? Does He ever give more than is needed? I believe He does. In my opinion, while a surplus is not necessary to the salvation of a soul, it is vital to the well-being of a witness for Jesus Christ.

From the very beginning God has given surpluses to His followers. Remember how God provided food for the Israelites in their forty years of wandering? He gave them manna six days a week and on the sixth day provided a surplus for the Sabbath. But if they gathered too much or unwisely used the surplus, it spoiled. This shows that we are to use our surpluses as God tells us to and only for His glory and service.

David the Psalmist said, "My cup runneth over." It got too full; it had a surplus.

Once Christ took a little boy's lunch of five small loaves and two fish and multiplied it. He blest the lunch, fed five thousand men and had twelve baskets of surplus left over.

The Apostle Paul wrote, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." That Scripture means that our needs shall be met, not by minimum standards or with just enough to get by, but according to the riches of God. This promise is not to supply part of our needs, but God promises to supply all our needs.

Christ has offered us the abundance of His eternal life. He said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Here is a promise of surplus. Christ specifically mentioned have life more abundantly.

God is pleased to bless all of us with a surplus of everything we need in this world if we will dedicate it to His glory.

God has a surplus for you.

The late, E. T. Meredith, successful publisher, once said, "If one hundred men each tell me something they have learned as the result of ten years of experience, I am in position to profit by their combined wisdom; that is, by one thousand years of experience?"

He was merely pointing out in a dramatic way that no man today, considering the volume of publishing experience, need rely entirely upon his own judgment in making important personal and business decisions. Men who have attained high places in business or professional seldom make "snap judgments." They base their decisions on accumulated wisdom, gained through personal experience, observation, and reading.

Doran Participates In Satellite Program

UNIVERSITY PARK, N. M. -- Ursel Doran, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Buck Doran, Texico, is among more than 100 students in New Mexico State University's Transit satellite tracking program. Doran, a 1960 graduate of Texico High, participated in softball, basketball and track. He was president of his junior class and vice president of the Student Council. He was also a member of Science Club and a delegate to Boys State. A freshman at NMSU, he is a mechanical engineering major.

New Mexico State's Physical Science Laboratory is responsible for Transit tracking under a contract with the Navy's Pacific Missile Range. University students will be teamed with laboratory personnel to operate tracking stations in the U. S., Canada, Brazil, Hawaii, the Philippines, Australia and Japan. Students are paid a minimum of $1.65 an hour during the work phase, plus $10 per day for off-campus assignment. Compensation at minimum rates would total $2,360 for a four-month work period. During work phases the students will assist in operation, maintenance, and modification of tracking station equipment and associated facilities. Students in the program already have had a two-week training session prior to the fall semester. They also are receiving 10 hours a week instruction during the fall semester. Enrollment in the program is limited to students who graduated in the top one-third of their high school classes. They must maintain a 2.3 average (a B is 3, a C 2) in college while majoring in electrical, civil, mechanical engineering, mathematics or physics.

Fire Zone--

to the zone, the commissioners indicated they would approve the new zone at the December meeting. Previously, the fire zone had taken in all the area proposed in the new zone, in addition to the land north of the railroad tracks to the city limits. Also, it included an area two blocks south of Main Street. Under the new proposal, the zone will take in only the first block south of Main.

In his letter to the mayor, Hawley said that the city's present building laws were adequate, but he said the fire zone was much too large, taking in industrial and residential sections not necessary. It was the opinion of the engineer that changing the zone would help the city better enforce construction provisions of the zoning law.

In other business, the commission passed an ordinance on speed limits through town. Speed limits on the two main highways (60 and 70-84) and the Farm-to-Market loop around town, were proposed by the state highway department. The department made a traffic check on the amount of traffic through town and it was from this study that it based suggested speed limits.

Speed limits will range from 30 miles per hour to 55 miles per hour. The highway department will post signs designating the speed zones on each of the highways in the near future. The ordinance called for a speed limit of 30 miles per hour in areas throughout the city limits where no signs are posted.

Also, during the meeting the commission instructed Douglas Landrum, city employee, to place stop signs at designated locations in the city. In order to slow traffic down on several streets the commission instructed Landrum to make the intersection at Avenue G and Third Street a four-way stop and to place signs on Avenue B and Avenue C, stopping traffic as it approaches Fifth Street.

A ragged hillbilly boy watched a man at a tourist court making use of a comb and brush, a toothbrush, a nail file, and a whisk broom. Finally he asked, "Say, mister, are you always that much trouble to yourself?"

Farwell Band To Tech Band Day

The Farwell High School band went to Lubbock last Saturday to participate in the Texas Tech Band Day. The Farwell band was one of 18 bands who joined with the 186-piece Tech band for a combined performance at the half-time of the Tech and Wyoming game. A total of 1,238 students participated in this performance.

The band will also play at the Farwell-Idalou bi-district game Friday afternoon at 2:30 in Plainview. There will be no school Friday in order that all who wish may attend this game. The band will play at the games as long as Farwell remains in the state class A play-offs.

He was a native of the Oklahoma Lane community, and had recently gone into partnership with his brothers in the Muleshoe firm of Pruitt Brothers Implement Co.

Survivors include his wife, Betty; a son, Robert, 14; and daughter, Melissa, 11, all of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pruitt of Oklahoma Lane; two brothers, Elmer and Harold, both of Muleshoe; and two sisters, Mrs. Corrie Merriman, Grand Junction, Colo., and Mrs. Wanda Joy Coston, of House, N. M.

Rev. Vance Zinn, of Lubbock, and Rev. E. E. Houlette, of Plainview, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in the Oklahoma Lane Cemetery under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Serving as pallbearers were Perry Powers, Gene Atkins, Joe Garcia, S. L. Carter, Willard Parker, and Curley Brantley.

Honorary pallbearers included Jim Morphey Jr., Weldon Rundell, Melvin Moraw, Frank Doshier Jr., Dee Chitwood, J. B. Young, E. C. Armstrong, Bill Christian, Benny Gulley, and Bobby Gulley.

THINGS ARE BUZZIN' DOWN ON THE FARM

The fall season is a busy time of year for the High Plains farmer. Not only is he in the midst of harvesting his milo, but it's also time to start gathering the cotton, and to harvest fields of sesame, castor beans and other minor cash crops.

In an effort to find out just what was taking place throughout Farmer County, a High Plains Farm and Home photographer took off one day this week, stopping to shoot pictures of the different activities he saw.

Mostly, he found that the farmer was doing one of four things--either stripping his cotton, combining his milo, shredding the stubble remaining after the heads had been clipped from the field, or plowing the ground in preparation for another crop.

THE HIGH PLAINS FARM AND HOME

DRIVING ALONG SIDE a combine on the M. F. Carson farm near Bovina is this truck, relieving the combine of its bin load of grain. Hail took its toll of grain sorghum, but there is still a lot of grain being harvested. Lodging was a problem in this field and the header had to be lowered, thus slowing down the operation of the combine.

LENDING A HELPING HAND is Gaylen, four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carson, who farms north of Bovina. After the grain is dumped into the truck it has to be leveled, to assure a maximum load before it is hauled off to the elevator. It's a tough job for a small boy, but Gaylen shows that he can take a part in the harvest too.

JUST GETTING STARTED is the cotton harvest, and here near the Hub community a farmer speeds through a field, stripping the plants of all their nice white, fluffy fruit. In spite of adverse weather conditions during much of the growing season, there are still going to be some good yields of cotton.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH
Do you know what Soil Conservation Districts are and what we stand for?
We are people, working together in our communities and in our countries and in our water-sheds to protect and improve this nations most vital resources--Soil and Water.

We stand for local leadership in doing this job, a job that becomes more urgent every day. As our population grows at the rate of a quarter of a million people a month, and our cities and industries expand, we demand more from our land. We are cutting in our good farm land for non-agricultural uses at the rate of 1,000,000 acres a year. This land goes into urban developments, airports, highways and other uses where it is lost for production of food or fiber.

We cannot afford to let our soil and water conservation "insurance" lapse. Combatting soil erosion and encouraging good land use is a job Soil Conservation Districts can do well. Why? Because from the very beginning, Americans have fought for great principle--the principle that free men can govern themselves successfully. We believe in personal liberty and the dignity of the individual. We are determined that our families shall have the opportunity to live in peace and safety, without fear of compulsion.

Our government is founded on the principle that we--all of us together--have the spirit and the ability to decide for ourselves the actions we want to take together in our joint interest and common welfare. This is what we stand for. This is a representative self-government--the best government and the best society that men and women have ever enjoyed on Earth. This is the kind of government and society that offers the greatest advantages in personal liberty and the greatest opportunities for accomplishment.

State Acreage Cotton Allotments Announced

College Station.--The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced state acreage allotments for the 1961 crops of upland and extra long staple cottons.
The upland allotment for Texas was set at 7,849,196 acres which includes 10,686 acres as the state's share of the national reserve. The Agricultural Act of 1958 authorizes a national acreage reserve of 310,000 acres for apportionment among the states on the basis of the estimated needs for additional acreage to establish minimum farm allotments as provided by legislation.

The extra long staple acreage allotment for Texas was set at 21,893 acres out of the national allotment of 63,740 acres.
The state allotment will be apportioned among the counties to establish county allotments and these will be further broken down among the individual farms of the counties in accordance with the provisions of the law and regulations issued by the secretary of agriculture.
Farmers who were engaged in the production of cotton will vote in a national referendum on December 13 to determine whether marketing quotas will be operative for the 1961 crops--upland and extra long staple. At least two-thirds of those voting must approve quotas if they are to continue in effect.
Only one allotment-price support program will be available to upland cotton growers for 1961. If marketing quotas are approved in the referendum, price support will be available to upland growers who comply with their farm allotments at a level within the range of 70 to 90 percent of parity. The exact level of support will be announced at a later date.
If quotas are not approved, allotments will remain in effect and price support at 50 percent of parity will be available to upland growers who comply with the allotment program.
The USDA announcement noted that farm acreage allotments will be mailed to operators of cotton farms prior to the December 13 referendum.
Farmer County farmers should be notified of their allotments by December 1, says Prentice Mills, manager of the county ASC office. He estimates that the total acreage increase in the county will be 10 or 11 per cent above last year's allotments.

COTTON TRAILERS ARE ON THE ROADS throughout the area, loaded down with the fruits of the harvest, and they all suddenly congregate at the gins. As the harvest begins in earnest, ginners find themselves swamped with trailers such as these and are having to work around the clock.

TWO COMBINES GET THE JOB DONE TWICE AS FAST and that's the situation in many fields where farmers are in a hurry to get their maize cut and into the elevators.

Dr. L. S. Bird, one of the nation's top research workers on cotton diseases, will be the featured speaker at the Plant Disease Short Course, to be held November 21-22 in Texas A&M's Memorial Student Center. Another special feature will be an exhibit of plant disease control equipment. This is the second year that the Short Course, which is coordinated by the Texas A&M Department of Plant Physiology and Pathology, has been held.

The HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

Within the next few weeks many of us will be making gifts for friends and relatives for the approaching holiday season. The nicest thing about making gifts for those near and dear to us is that we put a part of ourselves into the gifts and in return receive much more pleasure from the giving than if we just go out and buy gifts.

There is really no end of the things we can make that will bring pleasure to the recipients. It isn't important whether you start in the kitchen, at the sewing machine or on a work table with dried weeds, left over garden products, cotton burs, maize heads and grains of corn.

A very pretty winter bouquet at the Floyd home was made by Susan, youngest member of the family, at a Brownie meeting Monday afternoon. The container is a coffee can that has been sprayed with gold paint. All the other articles were gathered up along the roadside or in the field and garden.

Some of the prettiest improvised flower vases we've seen recently have been made from plastic liquid soap containers. All that needs to be done is to cut scalloped edges near the top of the containers with manicure scissors.

The ones we've seen have been pink, aqua and white. Possibly there are other products on the market that come in re-usable plastic containers, too.

Since cookies and candy are year around favorites with most homemakers, we've decided to share our favorite cookie recipe with our readers.

This is the first oatmeal cookie recipe we had ever tried that called for molasses. We used white Karo syrup and the cookies were very crisp and chewy.

RAISIN OATMEAL COOKIES
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups sugar
1/2 cup molasses
2 eggs
1 3/4 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups rolled oats
1 1/2 cups raisins

Beat together shortening, sugar, molasses and eggs. Sift dry ingredients and combine with creamed mixture. Add raisins and oats. Shape in roll and wrap in waxed paper. Chill. Slice and bake in 375 degree oven 8-10 minutes. Remove from tray and let cool thoroughly before storing.

If you, like a lot of other homemakers, dislike dropping cookies on a sheet, you will probably enjoy using the following recipe.

COCONUT BARS
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/4 cup milk
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/3 cups coconut

Have shortening, eggs and milk at room temperature. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, sugar and spices and sift again into mixing bowl. Add shortening, eggs, 2 tablespoons of the milk and vanilla. Beat two minutes. Add remaining milk and the coconut. Beat 1/2 minute or longer. Beat vigorously by hand or at low speed of electric mixer. Chill 2 hours. Spread mixture in two greased 8 x 8 x 2 inch pans. Bake in moderate oven 20 to 25 minutes. Cool. Spread with a butter cream frosting and decorate with colored coconut.

Cut in 2 1/2 x 1 inch bars. Makes 4 dozen bars. To keep cookies soft, store in tightly covered container with a slice of fresh bread.

The domestic supply of wheat for the marketing year July 1, 1960 to June 30, 1961 is estimated to be about 2,682 million bushels, another record, says John McHaney, extension agricultural economist. According to McHaney, the minimum national average support price for the 1961 crop wheat is $1.78 per bushel, the same as the 1960 average support price.

Twenty-five people attended the Income Tax Meeting held at Hub on November 10. The meeting was very good and proved to be helpful to those attending. Mr. Howard Martin, with the Internal Revenue Office out of Amarillo is very familiar with our area and was able to hit the points of interest here. Mr. James Murphey, Area Specialist with the Extension Service is also familiar with the management problems of this area and brought good information to those present. The Income Tax Meeting was only one phase of the "Management Program" planned by the County Extension Committee on Management.

The Lazbuddie Junior 4-H Club elected new officers at its October meeting, and at a meeting of the club in November several members gave demonstrations.

Officers elected were Danny Miller, president; Terry Parham, vice-president; Timmy Foster, secretary; Ronald Mayfield, pledge leader; Mike Hinkson, council delegate; and Bobby Gleason, reporter.

Members who gave demonstrations at the November meeting were Danny Miller and Billy Jones. Those who will give demonstrations at the December meeting are Larry Morrow and Terry Parham on "Feeding and Fitting a Lamb for Show"; Ronald Mayfield and Timmy Foster on an "Electric Motor"; and Mike Hinkson on "Wiring a Plug-In."

The new soil testing laboratory in Lubbock will officially be opened on Monday night, November 21. This laboratory is presently located at Erskin Road, two blocks East of the Plainview Highway, but will be permanently located at the new site of the Lubbock Agricultural Experiment when facilities are completed. This laboratory should offer us a real service in the field of soil testing. Mr. James Valentine, area soils chemist, will be in charge of the Laboratory.

Information sheets showing how to take Soil Samples are available in my office along with the address of the laboratory at Lubbock and College Station.

Farmers who want to go ahead with their cotton harvest can field store their stripped cotton and expect just as good grades. Storing mechanically stripped cotton in ricks on the ground without cover has proven to be a satisfactory method of handling cotton when the Plains gins are unable to take care of the peak harvest.

Keep in mind cotton should be packed into trailers. Use three bale trailers for three bales, not four.

Seedling trees for windbreak purposes are available through the Texas Forest Service again this year. The cost is $1.50 per hundred. I have order blanks for those desiring trees that can be secured by coming by, writing, or calling my office on the Second Floor of the Courthouse.

Record Supply Of Wheat

College Station--The domestic supply of wheat for the marketing year July 1, 1960 to June 30, 1961 is estimated to be about 2,682 million bushels, another record, says John McHaney, extension agricultural economist.

This large supply is the result of a carryover on July 1, 1960 of 1,313 million bushels, and a 1960 crop estimated to be about 1,362 million bushels. Added to this will be about 7 million bushels of imports.

Domestic disappearance in the present marketing year 1960-61 will probably be about 610 million bushels, about the same as in 1959-60, McHaney continues. The expected slight decline in per capita consumption will be offset by the population increase, however. Seed and feed use of wheat will be about the same as last year.

Exports during the present marketing year will probably be higher than in 1959-60. About 525 million bushels will be exported as compared to 508 million exported last year. Government export programs, which will account for about two-thirds of the exports, will continue to play a major role in the movement of wheat abroad, the specialist points out. Less favorable crop conditions in Europe, however, will also aid U. S. exports.

The 1959-60 price to U. S.

bushels would be produced, the economist continues. A 1961 crop of this size would be about 9 percent below the 1,362 million indicated for 1960, but 13 percent above the 1950-59 average. Assuming that domestic disappearance and exports are the same as that estimated for 1960-61, the carryover on July 1, 1962 may be increased about 100 million bushels. The minimum national average support price for the 1961 crop wheat is $1.78 per bushel, the same as the 1960 average support price, McHaney concludes.

farmers averaged $1.76, about 5¢ above the average support rate after allowing for storage charges. The price in 1960-61 is expected to again average above the effective support, storage deducted. This is mainly because large quantities of wheat continue to be placed under the price support program, explains McHaney. The support rate for the 1960 crop is $1.78 as compared to $1.81 for a year earlier.

With minimum allotments in effect for 1961, it is estimated that about $3 million

Donations Of Surplus Foods Heavy

Donations of surplus foods by the USDA at home and overseas totaled almost 2.8 billion pounds in the year ending June 30, 1960. This total is down slightly from the all-time record of 3.0 billion set the previous year.

The foods donated are acquired by USDA in its price-support and surplus-removal operations, and are made available to schools and charitable institutions in this country and to needy persons both here and abroad through the Agricultural Marketing Service's Direct Distribution Program. Eligible recipients in the U. S. receive commodities through designated State and local government agencies. Foreign distribution in over 90 countries was handled by about 20 U. S. voluntary agencies in the fiscal year just ended.

Distribution to domestic recipients in the past year showed a 17.5 percent decrease from the previous year. This decrease was due largely to the improved dairy situation, coupled with a decline in the number of eligible needy persons in family units.

Schools, under priority rules established by Congress, continued to receive available stocks of butter and cheese, and registered a gain of about 6 percent in volume of surplus commodities used. Supplementary foods purchased by the USDA exclusively for schools taking part in the National School Lunch Program were not included in these totals.

The largest child ever born, according to medical records, was the 23 3/4 pound, 30 inch long son born in 1897 to seven-foot-five tall Nova Scotia mother, Anna Bates.

Census Bureau To Take County Farm Survey

The 1960 Sample Survey of Agriculture will be conducted in this county during the next several weeks, it was announced today by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

The 1960 Sample Survey of Agriculture will collect information on ownership and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, and livestock production and inventories. Information will be collected also on farm equipment, farm income, construction of new farm buildings, farm contracts, and farm operator debts. This survey will supplement information collected in the 1959 Census of Agriculture.

Farms in the county which will be covered in the 1960

Sample Survey of Agriculture were selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all farms in the country. Information collected locally will be combined with that collected in other areas of the country to provide national estimates.

Local interviews for the 1960 Sample Survey of Agriculture will be conducted by Louise B. McDaniel.

The family had finished dining in the restaurant and the father requested the waiter to put their beefsteak leavings in a bag to take home to their dog. His small boy shrilled excitedly, "Oh, daddy, are we going to get a dog?"

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

George Meany, President of Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee, in the interest of AF of L and CIO, has released some organizational information that we have been reading with alarm. If you are interested in reading it and giving some consideration to methods of combatting the intentions described in it, you are welcome to do so. Farm Bureau, locally and on the state and national level, has had for several years resolutions against this sort of thing. Your MEMBERSHIP in Farm Bureau strengthens your position on it. Here is one portion of the information referred to:--The warm, earthy picture of family-farming has masked the transformation of agriculture into AGRI-BUSINESS, America's largest industry, without the accompaniment or creation of one single new law to control it. Agribusiness is free to recruit and use SEMI-SLAVE LABOR (underlines ours) free to maintain and use wage-breakers and strikebreakers, free to operate without minimum wages, maximum hours, unemployment insurance, or any of the social, ethical and financial controls society imposes on the rest of the industrial community. . . The organizing effort has as a major task, if it is to succeed, the destruction of this false image of family-farmerism, and the identification of agribusiness for what it is: RUTHLESS, COLDBLOODED BIG BUSINESS EXPLOITATION OF PEOPLE AND THE LAND."

The document goes on to outline the methods of destroying this warm family farmer picture of the farmer in the eyes of the public. Here is an easy way for people to decide whether they believe in communism or capitalism, as far as economic principles are concerned: (1) Communism: Some persons other than the one who produces the goods and service can decide who shall have the right of possession or use, and (2), Capitalism: Each person may be allowed to have whatever he produces.

At this time, we are still not sure who went to the Farm Bureau Convention in Dallas. We have heard good reports from the convention, however. We know that positive action was taken on the above mentioned labor threat.

File for gas tax refund if you have not done it lately. . .

CONSIDER THIS: Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me. Prov. 30:8

The USDA has announced that the 1961 upland cotton allotment for Texas will be 7,849,196 acres. Extra long staple acreage allotment for the state was set at 21,893 acres out of the national allotment of 63,740 acres. Only one allotment-price support program will be available to upland growers in 1961, but this will not be determined until the December 13 referendum is held.

Unusual weather in some areas of Texas has prevented the planting of winter temporary pastures. George McBee, extension pasture specialist, says, however, that late pastures can be planted and they can be profitable if they are managed correctly. Seed treatment and fertilizer are the keys to successful production of late-planted winter pastures, the specialist says.

Do You Really Understand The Bible?
Many people maintain that the Bible is so simple and clear that anyone can understand it. Yet today the Christian world is divided into conflicting opinions as to what the Bible means.
How would you interpret the following passages from the Bible: "I say to thee, thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matthew XVI, 18ff). "For, behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed," (Luke I, 48). "Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John XX, 23). "He who believes and is baptized shall be saved." (Mark XVI, 16).
Catholics recognize the complete Bible as the inspired Word of God. If you wish to know the Catholic interpretation of the above mentioned Bible passages as well as other beliefs of Catholics, write for a free pamphlet explaining Catholic teachings. Soil Testing Lab Opens In Lubbock

Area Soil Chemist James H. Valentine, A&M College Agricultural Extension Service, has completed preparations for the formal opening of a new soil testing laboratory in Lubbock, Nov. 21. Above, he is making a final check of the delicate chain balance which is used to measure the minute quantities of chemicals required in running a soil analysis. A native of Willis Point in Van Zandt county, Valentine is a former Future Farmer of America. He received both his B. S. and M. S. degrees from Texas A&M College with a major in agronomy and minor in plant physiology. The overseas veteran of World War II served for 5 years as soil scientist with the Soil Conservation Service and for the past 9 years has been director of the soil testing laboratory at Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches.

Valentine says the new laboratory, which he heads, will devote full time to fertility problems of farmers in the Panhandle and High Plains areas of Texas.

County Agent Joe W. Jones urges local farmers, home gardeners and others with fertility problems, to take advantage of the laboratory's facilities. The cost per sample is only $2. Vocational agriculture teachers and soil conservation service technicians, as well as the county agent, will be glad to assist in obtaining samples.

THE LIONS LAUGH
The police of a big city were hot on the trail of an escaped convict. When they learned that the fugitive was heading for a small town downstate, they called the local constable there.

"You send me a picture of that guy and I'll get him," the constable promised. Immediately, the city police mailed the constable a dozen pictures of the wanted man--profile, full face, standing, sitting and in various costumes. Within twenty-four hours, the constable called back. "We got eleven of those crooks," he boasted excitedly, "and I guarantee to jug the last one before morning!"

Some politicians have a lot of gas but not much spark.

Break-In Attempt Fails At Farwell

An attempted break-in at Holiday Stores, Inc., at Farwell Sunday night proved fruitless, and the would-be burglar (or burglars) were successful only in damaging the back door of the business.

"They tried to force the back door open but couldn't make it," said Parmer County Sheriff Chas. Lovelace, who investigated the attempted break-in.

There were several burglaries in Clovis Sunday night and it is possible that the attempt in Farwell can be linked with the several successful ones in Clovis, the sheriff says.

In other activity for the sheriff's department this past week, Bill Morgan, newly-appointed deputy at Friona arrested F. L. Adams, a 20-year-old Negro for theft. He was picked up last Wednesday and charged with stealing tires from the Deaton Service Station in Friona.

Adams was tried Friday morning by County Judge Loyde Brewer and was sentenced to 15 days in jail and fined $20.

Modern man is one who drives a mortgaged car over a bond-financed highway on credit-card gas.

Brother Dies In Oklahoma

Word has been received here of the death of Carl Snider of Hollis, Okla., brother of M. A. Snider and Mrs. Willie Williams of this city.

Snider passed away Tuesday morning in a Mangum hospital where he had been confined since Friday. He had suffered a heart attack at a football game that day.

Services had not been announced at press time.

You can't swap freedom for security without losing both.

Judge: "Isn't it true that your friend was in the habit of talking to himself when he was alone?"

Witness: "To tell the truth, your honor, I never was with him when he was alone."

A longtime inmate of a mental hospital was pronounced cured by the examining board and came to bid the director goodbye before faring into the outside world.

"What are your plans?" asked the director.

"I haven't quite made up my mind," confided the ex-patient. "I've also been thinking about becoming a newspaper reporter. Then, on the other hand, I may be a tea Kettle."

AFRICAN INFLUENCE—The striking pattern in this tufted, washable cotton rug by Cabin Crafts owes its influence in design and coloring to North Africa. A large sofa in rich, brown cotton velveteen helps carry out the theme.
