

FROM THE HOPPER

BY HOP JR.

Since learning, at a pretty early age in life, that I can't always be a winner, I have concentrated considerably on being a good sport. This is pretty good training for oneself, and to prove it, I'll demonstrate by promising right now to vote again two years from now. This is in spite of getting practically whitewashed in the election a couple of weeks ago. Just about all of my favorite candidates got sent home.

Because hopes were pretty dim for Ford, Seale and Zahn, I can take their defeats without much of a strain, but when Des Barry got beat it was almost too much to bear. I know that Texas voters are notoriously poorly informed, but how they could refuse a man like Barry -- a man we need so badly -- is beyond my ability to understand.

On the national level, I think the Cuban situation aided the Democrats' cause enormously. Doubtless it was THE difference in some close races (two of them for statehouses), and if the truth were known, it may have resulted in some outright upsets where Republicans figured to win.

The national military strategy was made public at a moment that made it politically felt, but I will not side with those critics of the president who say he risked a nuclear holocaust to advantage the campaign.

The moment of his decision was politically propitious, but it was motivated by forces in the Kremlin, not Washington.

We have to have somebody left to believe in, and personally, I'll stick with the president, no matter what his name is, in moments of national peril.

Incidentally, as a sidelight on this election business I'd like to pass along a compliment to the wife, who chases down the county returns for the Texas Election Bureau. Mama turns the Graham household into quite a hectic place on election nights, but in the wee hours of the morning when it's all over I appreciate the job she's done. Somebody the other day seemed surprised to hear that Mama is interested in politics. This really is nothing new. She's been speaker of the house for over ten years now.

About half of the town wish Will and Gertie Foster would stop hemming and hawing and get their new house built. When they do, they will set off one of the dangest checkerboard plays you've ever seen.

The Herb Pottsies figure to move in right behind the Fosters, and the Wilfred Quickels will be taking up where the Pottsies left off. Following upon the Quickel vacancy will be the John Zahns, and hot behind them will be the Hurshel Hardings.

Spanish Children Present Problem For School Officials

Fourteen Spanish-American children, from the itinerant cotton workers families who arrived at the Oklahoma Lane Gin last week, were enrolled at the Farwell School, Monday morning, with three others enrolled Tuesday. School authorities expect that by the end of the present week as many as 25 children, from the families, who live in barrack buildings at the gin will be enrolled at the school.

The influx of the itinerant workers poses quite a problem for school authorities, as the children must attend school and no special facilities are available at the local school for the teaching of such children.

Only two of the children enrolled Monday were able to speak English and few were able to understand English well enough to follow instructions. Mrs. Thelma Alexander, who speaks no Spanish, was placed in charge of the group. She says she had no problems on Monday as the two English speaking children were able to translate her instructions to the group, and could then interpret the questions and answers of the children for her.

Of the 17 children enrolled by Tuesday, 12 were classified as first grade students, four as second grade pupils and one was classified, as able to do, third grade work. Their ages range from six to 12 years. Most of the children have never attended school and few have gone more than a few months at a time, as the families follow the cotton harvest from place to place. None have attended school this year.

All of the families came from Hidalgo County here, says Mrs. Benigna Rocha, mother of two of the children who enrolled Monday. She accompanied the first group of children to school and acted as interpreter for the children. Mrs. Alexander and Jack Williams, grade school principal who helped with the enrollment. Mrs. Rocha says most of the families will be here, at the most, approximately two months as they will move on as soon as the local cotton harvest is completed.

A special bus is running to Oklahoma Lane daily to pick up the children and return them to their homes. Williams says it is not known at this time whether the children will be placed in regular classrooms or if a special class will be set up for their instruction.

New Farwell Business Opens

Schueler Feed and Supply, a wholesale and retail supply store, recently opened for business in Farwell. The store which is owned by Gilbert Schueler of Friona, will be handling a complete line of "Texo" and "Heart's Delight" feeds, as well as a line of insecticides, remedies, garden fertilizers, and farm machinery. playing farm machinery and an area west of the store for customer parking.

Assisting Schueler with the operation of the business will be John Guthals of Clovis, who was in the produce business for a number of years in Clovis and has since been employed by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., and as a candy salesman.

Little Tough Guys Kill Farwell 20-0

Sudan's Hornets, otherwise known as the Little Tough Guys of the Plains, handed the visiting Farwell Steers a 20-0 lacing Friday night.

The whitewashing was notable for more than one reason. To begin with, it was the first time in 12 years that the Lamb County team has been able to beat Farwell.

Even more significant, the Steers were offered a veritable cinch for the district co-championship (and they would have represented the district in bi-district play) if they had beaten the Hornets Friday night. While the fur flew in Sudan, Kress' mighty Kangaroos were rolling over and playing dead at Hale Center. Thus, the championship was handed to the Farwell team on a silver platter, but it was out of the Steers' reach.

Apparently, Farwell didn't realize just how bad the Hornets wanted to win last week's game. If ever a team was keyed up to win, Sudan was. Even though they were smaller, the Sudan boys pushed the Steers all over the field. Their defense was indomitable. A hard-charging line crashed through to the Steer backfield on play after play, harrasing not only the ground game, but the Farwell aerial strategy as well.

The game itself was as lopsided as the 20-0 score. A look at statistics shows the Hornets earned 12 first downs, Farwell 7. They got 286 yard rushing to the visitors' 98. In the air, Farwell outpassed them 30 to 9, but actually Sudan didn't need to pass. Farwell tried 14 aeriels, Sudan only 6.

Sudan's timely derailment of the Farwell express brought such drama to that community that editor Dalton Wood of the Sudan Beacon-News was moved to publish an extra edition (see accompanying illustration).

Wood's comment in that issue makes interesting reading, even to a Farwell fan:

Momentous occasions, usually of a bad news nature, ordinarily are the cause of extra editions by a newspaper; however, good news of rare variety also is considered justification for an extra. In a decade of weekly newspapering, the only other extra we ever printed was at Newburgh, Ind., when ALCOA announced it was building an $80 million dollar smelting plant five miles away. Most avid Sudan football fans would have given a few million of their own, if they'd had

Play Ends For Little Leagues

Texico-Farwell little league football players closed out their season play with games against teams from North Clovis last Saturday.

Maverick team, 11-12 year old boys, won their game by a score of 27-6, giving them a season record of seven wins and three losses. They were second place winners in the district. Winner of first place was the "Indians" a team of East Clovis boys who won eight and lost two during the season.

Calves, 9-10 year old boys, defeated their opponents by a score of 12-0. "Calves" were in season playoffs with a team of boys from North Clovis. Each team had a season record of nine wins and one loss.

In the playoff game Tuesday, "Calves" and their opponents played to a standstill 13-13; however "Calves" were given the game as a result of their having made the most penetrations. Danny Prince made both touchdowns for the local boys and also ran the extra point. Greg Hargrove was a defensive standout for the local team. Five boys from each of the local teams have been selected to play on the all star team in Clovis.

Present plans call for all little league players and their fathers to meet at the Farwell School, Saturday morning 8:30 a.m. to go to the Texas Tech-Colorado football game in Lubbock.

With approximately 100 persons in attendance at the "Back To School Night" at Texico last Monday night, school authorities feel that the venture was a successful and a worthwhile undertaking. It helped to create a better understanding between parent and teacher.

were set up for a thirty minute period.

Parents of high school students visited each class in which his child was enrolled for a period of ten minutes. The work was explained and teacher and parents discussed ways in which pupils might be benefited.

Local Post Office Helps Survey

Rural mail carriers from the Farwell post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning, Nov. 16. "Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms, Postmaster Smith explained.

Rural carriers distribute the cards at random in boxes along their routes. This means that not every box will get a card, so for this reason, it is important that everyone who receives a card fill it out and return it to USDA, in order that they may get a true sample of the state's livestock holdings.

Carriers assisting with the survey are Lee Meeks route 1, and Melvin Burns route 2. Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas crop and livestock reporting service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

What's the best way to dry a teddy bear?

the modern answer is gas

A gas clothes dryer will fluff up the teddy bear in a few minutes — in time for Junior's nap. Stuffed animals, bath mats, pup tents, feather pillows, rag dolls, draperies — you name it, gas dries it! The beauty is, you don't have to dry a full nine-pound load to feel that you're getting your money's worth. Gas drying is so inexpensive — 1/4 the cost of electricity — you can handle those little laundry emergencies right when they happen. Ask your gas appliance dealer or Southern Union to demonstrate how a modern gas dryer can help you keep house, keep peace, and keep fuel costs down.

Speaker of the evening was

Dr. Lena Edwards M. D., who is doing volunteer work at the Hereford Labor Camp. Dr. Edwards subject, "One Woman's Obstacles Overcome", might have been rephrased "One Woman's Obsession, Service To Mankind".

Dr. Edwards is a colored lady but gave no indication that she had ever felt any handicap because of her race or color. She stressed the fact that education is not the amassing of much knowledge, but true education is equipping oneself by training or development of skills to enable one to effect mastery over situations to realize the greatest good.

She termed culture not as the common conception of attainment of fine arts and as not concerned with financial status, but that one's culture consists of his making the best use of that which his forefathers have given him, and adding to that good to be the inheritance of those who follow.

Refreshments were served to approximately 70 guests and members by the host club.

THINK, IRRIGATION FARMER!

WATER is a commodity so precious that no tyrant has ever dared deny it to his people.

The earliest records of our civilization are linked to the spring and the waterhole, the river and the well

The Children of Israel faltered in the wasteland and were ready to revolt until Moses struck the rock and brought forth a spring

Wars have been fought over water rights and mighty nations have vanished because their water resources failed.

In view of these facts, can you afford the luxury of irrigation "TAILWATER"??

Steers Journey To Springlake

In a game that promises to be anti-climatic for both participants, Farwell will go to Springlake tonight (Friday) to wind up the 1962 football season.

The contest is a conference game, but it couldn't have less meaning, since both Springlake and Farwell have been squeezed out of district hopes by Sudan and Kress.

Regardless of the outcome of tonight's game, this season will be marked as one of the most peculiar in Farwell football history. To begin with, the Steers were rated as having mediocre prospects before the season opened, and most Farwell fans had set back for a year of "rebuilding" as they say in the Monday morning quarterback clubs.

But to the amazement of almost everyone, the Steers started off unusually strong,

Farwell 4-H News

Farwell 4-H club members met at the City Hall in Farwell, Tuesday night, Tina Rundell led the 4-H pledge and Janis Billingsley called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. She also gave a treasurer's report.

A report of the "Achievement Day" held recently was given by Reba Lesly and Peggy Lesly gave a financial report. Mrs. Lesly and Mrs. Billingsley were selected as a nominating committee. They will report to the next meeting.

All persons who would like to have a new or renewal subscription to any of the county papers or the Amarillo or Lubbock daily papers are asked to contact a member of the Farwell 4-H club. This is a money raising project of club members.

Miss Musil, HD agent gave a demonstration on "Gift Wrapping" after which she served refreshments.

Late Paper Next Week

Tribune readers are reminded that next week's paper will be mailed a day late because of Thanksgiving. However, the same advertising and news deadlines will be observed, in the hope that we won't have to work on Thanksgiving Day!

Little Tough Guys--

it, just to beat Farwell one time. Farwell repeatedly has rubbed our noses in the dirt, but this year's Hornet football team finally decided it was better to give than to receive.

The expense of printing and mailing this extra edition was borne by those whose advertisements appear in the paper. These people were contacted on a "we'll print it if we win" basis. And they all thought it would be well worthwhile, as often as we've lost to Farwell.

Beating Farwell makes this Sudan's most successful football season ever, even if Hale Center beats us 117-0. Of course, we want to win that one next week, too, but we've won the big one.

Most outsiders probably wouldn't consider just winning a football game as justification for an extra. But they haven't seen good Sudan teams get stomped by the Steers as often as we have in the past.

Farwell teams always have had a psychological edge on Sudan teams, but the victory last night should destroy that edge forever. In the future, when we have a team as good as theirs, we should win, because now they know it can be done.

charging into one of the state's toughest Class A scheduled without a blink.

When the blue chips were on the table, however, Farwell faltered, dropping a district opener to Kress 21-0. Amazingly, the Steers rebounded to beat Hale Center almost at will (and the Owls have since upset Kress), but fell back into the doldrums Friday night by getting run over by Sudan in another shutout, 20-0. Game time is 7:30.

The punk of a .22 bullet as it strikes a rabbit at 50 yards

The ripping-swish of a basketball as it passes through the net after a perfect goal

"Amen and you are dismissed"

The bubbly babble of a mountain brook

A sharp cross-cut saw at work

"Dinner's on," Ella Fitzgerald's voice

Buddy Hackett's trumpet

The solid chunk of a door on a Chrysler car when it closes

The chug-a-lug of a Heidelberg printing press

The rattle of a new $10 bill

Outstanding 4-H Club members in Farmer County were honored last Saturday at the annual 4-H Club Achievement Awards program at the Hub Community Center.

Katie Blackstone, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blackstone of the Lazubddle Community and Bruce Billingsley, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Billingsley, of Oklahoma Lane, were honored with the Gold Star Awards, highest county award for county 4-H Club members.

Billingsley has been a member of 4-H for six years. He entered his record book in Beautification of Home Grounds, winning both the county and district contests and placing well in state competition.

In 1961, Bruce competed in poultry method demonstration at the state level, and has had result demonstrations in crops, swine, electric, poultry and soil and water conservation. He is presently council delegate from the Junior Leaders Club. He hopes to be a veterinarian.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

If, as you have said, my baby's pigeon-toe walk may be caused by sleeping on his tummy why aren't my other three children pigeon-toed? They slept the same way.

First, my thanks for saying "may be caused." There are probably many other possible causes but they would be medical and I can't discuss them.

Second, for the record, I did not "say" it. I merely quoted Dr. Henry A. Sincoc, M.D., fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics, who told a convention of the Minnesota Academy of General Practice that he believes that the increase in cases of pigeon toe might be due to prone sleeping. He pointed out that other animals that are anatomically similar to humans sleep on their sides. The lecture was given in Duluth in 1954.

In 1955 Dr. Joseph H. Kite M. D., in an address to the International College of Surgeons, voiced his theory that prone sleeping not only causes pigeon toe in cases where the infant sleeps with his toes turned in but also that it causes flatfoot when the prone sleeper lies with his toes turned out. Dr. Kite recommends "training the baby to snooze in various positions, preferably on his side."

Now, your question, I'll bet that if you can recall, you will agree that your other three children began changing their sleeping positions at an earlier age than your youngest. If that is true, your experience would support rather than weaken the theory of the doctors.

Theory is a word we have learned to dislike but most of what we know for sure was once someone's theory. Considering how difficult it is to correct poor walking habits we should be careful not to scoff at this theory because it might well be the ounce of prevention.

Federal Grain Sorghum Insurance Is Expanded

All-risk Crop Insurance for irrigated grain sorghum was extended today to farmers in two additional Texas counties for 1963 -- Garza and Lynn -- according to an announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

This brings to 14 the number of counties in the state in which the improved insurance will be available for 1963 on irrigated grain sorghums. They include Dawson, Farmer and Terry which had been previously announced as New Crop Insurance counties for 1963 and Bailey, Castrol, Crosby, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock and Swisher counties were irrigated grain sorghum was insured for the first time in 1962. Hale county has had Federal Crop insurance on irrigated grain sorghum since 1959.

The protection for irrigated grain sorghum is in addition to the irrigated cotton insurance previously available or announced for 1963 in these counties.

In making the announcement, the Secretary said, "Growing recognition by farmers of the vulnerability of their financial positions to crop failure due to ing, coupled with major improvements in the protection offered and expansion of these offers to additional counties, should result in major expansion in the USDA's Crop Insurance service to Texas farmers and their business communities in the years ahead."

A previous announcement listed 14 other Texas counties where Crop Insurance on dryland grain sorghum would be available in 1963. They are Bell, Collin, Denton, Ellis, Falls, Grayson, Hunt, Jackson, McLennan, Milam, Navarro, Travis and Refugio. In 1962 all-risk Crop Insurance for dryland grain sorghums was available in Nueces, San Patricio, Wilbarger and Williamson counties.

Wheat Deadline

Farmer County wheat farmers were reminded this week that the deadline for signing up for the 1963 Wheat Stabilization program is less than a month away--December 14.

"Any farmer desiring to sign up should come in at their convenience, before the deadline starts to press them," said Prentice Mills, office manager of Farmer County ASCS.

Ginners Endorse CPI's Cotton Promotion Program

Representatives of 12 Farmer County gins met in Friona last week and agreed to support the Cotton Producers Institute, an organization to promote consumer use of cotton, lowered production costs and the development of new cotton quantities and uses.

The ginners are asking that cotton producers back the movement, financed by a $1 per bale fee, which will be collected by all cooperating gins during the harvest season.

In a letter being sent to cotton producers this week, the ginners pointed out that cotton profits are being seriously cut by rising production costs, loss of markets and acreage. (The recent 11.8 per cent acreage cut for 1963 is a bitter reminder of this situation.)

The letter pointed out that as the only basic answer to these problems, producer leaders have strongly urged an adequate research and advertising program, through the Cotton Producers Institute.

"In line with this request and the usual support gins give to progressive programs, we are agreeing to cooperate in the program," the letter says.

The $1 fee will be deducted along with regular gin charges to facilitate bookkeeping procedures. However, the ginners are quick to point out that the program is purely an optional one, and producers will not be pressured to cooperate. It is believed, however, that most producers will want to have a part in the program.

The institute is completely producer-controlled, non-political and voluntary, the letter states. All of its funds goes for research to cut production costs, find new qualities and uses, and nation-wide cotton advertising.

Also, the letter points out, the program has been cleared by Internal Revenue as tax deductible, and by lending agencies as production expense.

Those ginners signing the letter were Don Sides of Bovina Gin Company; Wendol Christian, Oklahoma Lane Gin; Steve Hargus, Friona Country Club Gin; Ovid Lawlis, Lawlis

Gin Company; Ed Nickels, Nickels Gin; G. W. Fleming, Fleming and Son Gin; E. L. Cooper, Cooper Gin; E. W. Chester, Chester & Fleming Gin; Leo J. Ruzicka, West Hub Gin; Howard Baker, Lariat Gin, L. D. Gal-line, Farmer County Gin and J. R. Fletcher, Friona Farmers Co-op Gin.

Meeting with the ginners was John Gregg of Plains Cotton Growers, who explained the CPI to the group, and pointed out the challenges which lay ahead of the cotton industry if it is to maintain its present position.

Gregg pointed out that eleven research products are currently being carried out by the Institute at colleges, universities and laboratories.

The Institute's promotion budget calls for expenditures of $1 million in the next 15 months, using both day and night time television as a means of selling American consumers on the advantages of buying products made from cotton.

Parmer's Cotton Acreage Cut To Resemble Average

Parmer County's cotton acreage slice for 1963 probably will conform with the national average of 11.8 per cent, it was speculated this week by county ASCS officials.

"Our acreage cut shouldn't be any greater than the national average," said Prentice Mills, ASCS office manager.

However, farmers who failed to plant all of their 1962 acreage will likely take a greater cut, it was stated.

Kepley Sells Registered Bulls

Dale and Laura Hart, Friona, have purchased Cleo's Improver P173121, a nine-year-old bull, sired by Belle's Improver P95925 RM, and out of Defender's Gladys Cleo 2d P98405, from F. E. Kepley of Farwell.

The new animal is a registered Milking Shorthorn and the record of the transfer of ownership has been made by the American Milking Shorthorn Society at Springfield, Missouri.

Another bull, Highland Cherry P277745, a three-year-old, was sold by Kepley to Carl Pollard, McAllister, New Mexico.

Forrest Assists Development Of REA In Latin America

Leo Forrest, manager of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative at Hereford, has been selected as a member of the first team of rural electric cooperative experts in a new U.S. program to assist the rural electrification and development of Latin America.

Forrest and Louis Strong, manager of the Kay Electric Cooperative at Blackwell, Okla., will arrive November 27 in Colombia where they will help to organize electric cooperatives. Forrest will work in the Bochalema area of Colombia while Strong will be assigned to the San Francisco area.

The two co-op leaders are making the trip under the provisions of a contract entered into last week by the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association and the Agency for International Development (AID). The contract was signed before President Kennedy in a ceremony at the White House.

Under the non-profit agreement, NRECA, the national servie organizations for 970 rural electric systems around the country, will provide technical assistance in organizing and operating electric cooperatives in Latin America and other parts of the free world.

Describing rural electrification as one of the dramatic stories of this nation's development, President Kennedy last week said the agreement was one of the most significant actions taken by the AID agency. "One of the most significant contributions that we can make to the underdeveloped countries is to pass on to them the techniques which we in this country have developed and used successfully," the President said, "it seems to me, therefore, that the contract signed today holds special promise for those countries which have realized only a small fraction of their energy potential."

Forrest has taken a 90-day leave of absence from Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative to assist in the program. Forrest has been manager of the co-op since 1945. He formerly taught school in New Mexico and Texas and was superintendent of schools at Farwell, Texas, for six years.

Forrest was a member of the Hereford School Board for a number of years and is currently president of the County Board.

Farm Facts

Some 20 years ago only about 50 basic farm chemicals were in use. Today there are about 200 basic available and perhaps as many as 50,000 formulations of them.

"Without the fruits of research put to work through the industrial machine," comments Director George L. Mehren of the Giannini Foundation of Agricultural Economics, "production of broilers, turkeys, eggs, red meat, and dairy products could never have reached today's levels, simply because disease losses would have prevented it."

"Present methods of producing important truck crops, such as tomatoes and potatoes, would not be possible."

"Had not such pests as the Mediterranean and Mexican fruit flies been controlled by chemicals, our peaches, cherries, citrus, apples, and pears might now be luxuries."

"Modern methods of finishing livestock for market would not have developed and we would not have so abundant a supply of tasty as well as nutritious meat as we now enjoy.

DERYL COKER

Unless something changes we are going to have a 10 to 12% deduction of cotton acres next year because of cotton surpluses. The main reason for this is we have lost some of our exports and also the people that are making synthetics are doing a better job of advertising and publicizing their product. Just to be frank, we have done a very poor job of getting publicity and advertising of cotton.

If we expect to maintain or increase our cotton production we will have to take advantage of every means possible of selling people on cotton.

Also, since we will have diverted acres of wheat, grain sorghum, and cotton it will give us a very good opportunity to clean up our farms by getting rid of Johnsongrass and other noxious weeds.

There is still a lot of interest in sugar beets in our area and I received word from Mr. C. A. Lavis, that they are still awaiting word from Washington regarding our application for allotments, etc., which would enable them to go ahead with the proposed ultramodern beet sugar factory near Hereford.

With all our idle land, getting a sugar beet allotment would certainly be an asset to us now.

We are getting ready to get into the cotton harvest at full capacity and it's natural for everyone to try to get their cotton out as soon as possible but it certainly would be worth your time if you could delay getting your strippers into the field early in the morning especially, if we have a heavy dew or frost during the night. If the cotton is drier it makes it easier for the ginner to gin it. Also it could possibly improve your grade of cotton. Also, if you have trailers setting in the gin yard and there is a possibility of rain it would pay you to put a tarp over the trailer if you have one.

Bale Grouping Aids Ginning Procedure

The simple process of grouping unginned bales of cotton according to their moisture and trash content is suggested by B. G. Reeves, extension cotton ginning and mechanization specialist, as an aid to better ginning and improved quality. This is especially true during periods of damp weather, explains Reeves.

Here's an example. A bale of fairly dry cotton goes to the gin which can be processed into a low middling grade with a 31/32 inch staple without too much difficulty. But, what happens when this fairly dry cotton is ginned behind a bale with a much higher moisture content? Reeves says a low middling plus grade could result but with a drop in staple length to 15/16 of an inch. There could also be a loss of 19 pounds in weight as a result of the over-drying. Currently, he says, the price of LM 31/32 inch and LM plus 15/16 inch are the same, 29.11 cents per pound. However, the 19 pound loss in weight means a loss of $5.53 in the bale's value. A higher grade but an actual loss in bale value.

The same kind of loss results from the ginning of a damp bale of cotton following a dry one.

It makes good sense, points out Reeves, to gin several bales of damp cotton after the heat and machinery have been properly set to handle it most efficiently. When the ginning of such a grouping has been completed, adjustments can then be made easily and quickly to handle dry cotton.

By following this simple process, Reeves says, everyone concerned is better served — farmer, ginner and spinner.

If some of your family and friends enjoy hot relish and the others prefer sweet relish, clip the following recipe and use it often. The basic mixture can be made and after some jars have been filled you can add the chopped hot peppers. About 1 quart of peppers to half the basic mixture will make good hot relish.

Run 12 onions, 12 green bell peppers, 12 red bell peppers and 1 quart green tomatoes through a food chopper. Add this mixture to 1 gallon chopped cabbage which has had 1/2 cup salt poured over it. Let entire mixture stand overnight.

In a separate bowl, if you are going to make hot relish, put the quart of chopped chili hot peppers — the little green slender ones.

Next morning drain the liquid from the basic mixture and add 3 quarts vinegar and five cups sugar. In a small bag place 4 tablespoons mustard seed, 3 tablespoons celery seed and 2 tablespoons whole pickling spice. Lower the bag into the relish mixture and bring it to a boil. After boiling for a minute or two, seal in sterile jars.

For the portion that is to be made into hot relish, add the hot peppers and boil then seal in sterile jars.

Before you put your garden tools away for the winter, be sure they are all in good shape. Give them a thorough cleaning before you put them in storage. Remove caked soil with scraper and emery cloth or steel wool. Oil the cleaned metal parts with a rag dipped in used motor oil to ward off rust.

If handles are smooth and in good shape, give them a coat of paste wax and a polish job before putting them away. If they have had rough treatment, they may need sanding to smooth them and a coat of spar varnish to preserve them.

Sharpen the cutting edges of hoe, sickle, pruner, hedge shears and other sharp edge tools. File or whetstone used in sharpening should be worked against the edge, not away from it. Do not put a sharp edge on the spade or sharpshooter, for it may nick or dent them.

A new plastic zipper is on the market. It is heat resistant, snag proof and soft. If clothing catches in coils, you simply bend the zipper in half and free cloth then zip again.

This zipper should prove to be very practical and popular. In the past homemakers have had to choose between a metal zipper and a plastic one that any kind of heat would damage.

With this new type zipper we will not have to worry about getting too close to the coils while we are ironing.

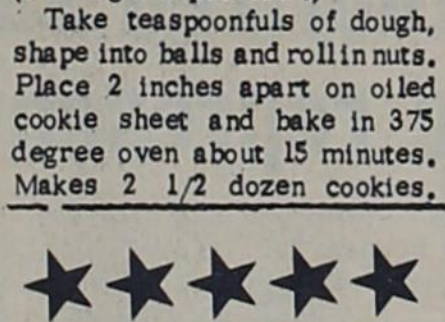

For an appauce cake that is really different, try Chocolate Appauce Cake

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup margarine
1 2/3 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons cocoa
1 1/2 cups cold unsweetened appauce
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg

Mix together sugar, margarine, flour, soda, salt and cocoa with pastry blender or fork. Add vanilla to appauce and blend into flour mixture. Add beaten egg and stir into mixture lightly. Place batter into a greased floured loaf pan. Bake in 350 degree oven 35-40 minutes. Makes one large loaf cake.

Traditionally Christmas time is cookie making time. If you have a cookie press and want to adapt your favorite cookie recipe to use with it, you may do so by adding flour, a small quantity at a time, until mixture is proper consistency for the press.

Mocha Rounds
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg
1 square unsweetened (1 ounce) chocolate, melted
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons instant coffee
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour, sifted
1 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 cup finely chopped nuts
Cream butter, add sugar and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in chocolate and vanilla. Add dry ingredients which have been sifted together and mix to form dough. Chill thoroughly (overnight if possible).
Take teaspoonfuls of dough, shape into balls and roll in nuts. Place 2 inches apart on oiled cookie sheet and bake in 375 degree oven about 15 minutes. Makes 2 1/2 dozen cookies.

Leaf Rust Threatens Area Wheat Farmers

Leaf and stem rusts are showing up in northwestern Texas wheat fields. The rusts, says Dr. Maurice Futrell, USDA plant pathologist, are causing more damage than is casually seen by growers. The rusts cause the leaves of the infected wheat plants to die, and hence, a loss in forage production. Three years of research on rust resistant small grain varieties by Texas A&M College shows that resistant varieties will produce from 2,000 to 4,000 pounds of high quality forage per acre, says Futrell, as contrasted with a forage yield of 1,000 to 1,500 pounds an acre for susceptible varieties.

The plant pathologist points out that leaf rust spores on wheat will live through the winter in most areas of Texas. However, in the northern part of the state rusts will be drastically reduced by cold weather. The quality of rust which overwinters in South Texas is one of the factors that determines how much rust will develop on the wheat crop the following year. Rust spores produced in this area during the spring months is blown northward into the main wheat belt, explains Futrell. However, rust epidemics develop only when weather conditions become favorable for disease development.

Leaf and stem rusts weaken the wheat plants and cause heavy forage losses as well as causing the plant to lose water. Thus, the plant makes poor use of soil moisture, adds Futrell. Local county agents, he adds, can supply information on recommended varieties.

Mr. W. K. Palmer, Officer-in-Charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office, reported sample receipts were still increasing but at a very low rate. Daily receipts are running about 4,000 samples per day. Mr. Palmer also reported that the quality of the grades and staple lengths declined over the past week.

The Lubbock office classed 55,200 samples for the week ending November 9. The Lamesa office classed 13,900 samples and the Brownfield office classed 15,800 samples.

For the year the Lubbock office has classed 138,450 samples and has a carry-over of 6,200 samples. The Lamesa office has classed 42,700 samples and has a carry-over of 2,000 samples. The Brownfield office has classed 46,300 samples and has a carry-over of 3,500 samples.

A year ago all three offices had classed 566,000 samples and had a total carry-over of 12,200 samples.

The amount of Low Middling and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted cotton classed increased this week with 8 percent Low Middling and 12 percent Strict Low Middling Light

Spotted. A week ago percentages were 3 and 6 percent, respectively. Strict Low Middling and Middling Light Spotted continued to account for the majority of the cotton classed, with percentages of 26 and 37 percent. Only 8 percent of the cotton classed was Middling.

Staple length decreased this week with an average staple length of 30.2 thirty-seconds of an inch. Last week it was 30.4 thirty-seconds of an inch. Fifteen-sixteens of an inch accounted for 58 percent of the cotton classed. Twenty-nine thirty-seconds of an inch was 12 percent and 31/32 was 22 percent. Micronaire readings showed some decline, but are still running very good. Three percent of the cotton classed miked 2.9 or below. Nine percent was in the range of 3.0 - 3.4. Eighty-eight percent of the cotton classed had a micronaire of 3.5 - 5.4. There was a trace of 5.5

or better cotton found in the cotton classed.

The Lubbock Cotton Exchange reported 22,400 bales purchased for the week ending November 9. This was 5,600 bales more than the previous week and compares with 58,000 bales reported for the same week a year ago.

Cotton prices remained steady over the past week. Middling 1 inch is quoted at 32.30, which compares with 33.00 a year ago. Some of the Lubbock quotations are: Middling 15/16

Counties Honored At TFB Convention

County Farm Bureaus were honored at the state organization's annual convention for outstanding accomplishments in membership acquisition, public relations and citizenship.

In recognition ceremonies at the Villita Assembly Hall, Ellis County received the top membership award, Williamson County won the public relations award, and Gaines County was named citizenship winner.

Ellis County received the coveted John Gorham Award for having the largest membership in the state--1,617. This makes the third year in a row for Ellis to win this trophy. McLennan County FB, with 1,503 members, was runner-up.

Williamson County Farm Bureau was named recipient of the Texas Farm Bureau Information and Public Relations Award. The trophy is presented annually to the county judged to have done the best job of keeping its members informed and in building better public relations for agriculture.

The third annual citizenship award loving cup was presented to Gaines County Farm Bureau for outstanding citizenship activities and programs.

In other membership awards, the Silver Loving Cup for the biggest percentage gain went to Starr County which increased its membership by 71 percent, from 42 to 72 members.

Kleberg County received the High Plains Plaque which is given annually to the county with the largest percentage of eligible farmers enrolled in Farm Bureau. Hartley County was runner-up.

HD Agent's Notes

BY MISS ETTIE MUSIL

Don't overlook the use of pumpkins, now that Halloween is past. This fall vegetable can be used in many ways for delicious dishes for your family.

First, select a pumpkin which is heavy for its size. The rind should be hard and free from blemishes. Extra-large pumpkins may have stringy coarse flesh and be less flavorful than small or medium-sized ones.

Pumpkins, with their yellow to orange color, belong to the group of vegetables famous for Vitamin A. We remember Vitamin A is needed for growth, normal vision, and for healthy condition of our skin.

Pumpkin pie at this time of the year or around Thanksgiving is the most popular. Besides using it in pie, have you ever tried pumpkin in custards, cookies, and nut bread? Or maybe you would like to serve it mashed, seasoned with butter, salt and pepper. I've heard that you can also use pumpkin added to waffle batter.

Those of you who have our bulletin "Vegetables, Vegetables" may have tried the recipe, Pumpkin Souffle. If you would like a copy, do let me know so that I can send you a copy. Here's the recipe for the Pumpkin Souffle:

2 1/2 cups mashed pumpkin, canned or cooked
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine

1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 cup hot milk

3 eggs, beaten separately
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/2 cup raisins or coconut

Add butter, salt, sugar, milk and beaten egg yolks to mashed pumpkin. Beat until fluffy. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold in stiffly beaten whites, lemon rind, raisins or coconut to pumpkin mixture. Put into ungreased casserole and bake at 350 degrees F. 1 hour or until lightly brown. Serves six to eight.

Freezing pumpkin now for use later is very easy. Simply wash, and cut the pumpkin into small pieces. Remove the seeds and peel. Then cook in a small amount of boiling water, or in a pressure cooker or sauce pan, or in an oven.

After the pumpkin is tender mash the pulp or put it through a sieve. Cool by placing pan containing the pumpkin over chopped ice, and stir the pumpkin occasionally for cooling. Then package in freezer jars, or plastic freezer containers. Freeze immediately, and store at zero degrees or lower.

Last week seven 4-H adult leaders were trained in the Unit 2 of the Favorite Foods leader and member guides. These leaders will work with 4-H club girls in small groups of three to six. In this way the leaders can show the girls how to prepare certain foods in the lessons, and then the girls can practice preparing and serving the same food dish after the demonstration. The girls learn by doing immediately.

Attending the leader training last Wednesday, in the Hub Community Center were Mrs. U. L. Lesly, Mrs. Johnnie Rundell, and Mrs. Leon Billingsley of the Farwell 4-H Club, and Mrs. Charles Howell of the Friona 4-H Club, and Mrs. Freeman Davis, Mrs. Harvey Blackstone, and Mrs. Ralph Broyles of the Lazbuddie 4-H Club.

Through these leader and member guides that were organized by our Extension Service Foods and Nutrition Specialists, the 4-H boys and girls will learn how to plan, prepare, and serve different foods. Also they shall learn the importance of good nutrition in eating well-balanced foods daily for good health now and in the future. We are most grateful for the adult leader who are giving their time for the boys and girls. The youth will long remember the help these and all adult leaders for their interest and training.
