

FROM THE HOPPER

BY HOP JR.

When Mom and Pop are telling Junior about George Washington and the cherry tree, it would be wise if they would bend an ear to the moral of that parable and apply it to themselves. We adults seem to have lost the respect that our forebears had for veracity. I do not refer to the little white lies as we call them that we use in casual conversation. I am talking about our carelessness in making statements about what we will do.

We agree to repair plumbing, report for work, take an assignment, pay a debt, make an appointment, and call a customer. Then, we don't do it. Our excuse is "I forgot" or "I got busy" or "I just couldn't find the time."

Mre accurately, we often just don't CARE as we would about what we say.

One of the things which the child psychologists ought to have a chapter on, but a subject which they assiduously avoid in all the books I've ever looked through, is what to do when a kid comes up with "Because."

Where this enigma began! can't imagine, and I suppose I used it on Mom and Dad just as devastatingly as my own children use it on me. There is nothing more maddening to a parent than to demand an explanation from an offspring as to why he performed some overt act, and to be answered with, "Because."

This answer is insurmountable. With stick in hand, you can implicate dire consequences when you demand (on the second, or third, or fourth confrontation): "Because what?" And always the response is the same: "Just because," which leaves you back where you started, except for your blood pressure, which is sure to be up several points.

If I were asked to offer any advice to new parents, it would be to never let the word "because" be spoken on the premises. This would go a long way toward preserving the sanity of mothers and fathers when disciplinary duties face them.

Here at The Tribune we're pretty proud of the offices we work in, which we think are about as nice as any around. But this time of year reminds

Wolverines Lose First Dist. Game, Win Next

Texico's "Wolverines" were beaten by the Dora "Coyotes" in a fight to the finish game at Texico Friday night. The Texico boys although inexperienced, put up a good fight before they were finally beaten in the closing minutes of play by a score of 40-38. Dora holds the title of district champion for the past two seasons and is a favorite to repeat again this year. This was first district game for both teams.

At the end of one quarter of play Dora had hit the basket for 18 points behind the shooting of Jimmy Harp, who hit for 15 points during the game pulling down scoring honors for the evening. Harp was backed by teammate, Clois Jefferies, who had a total of 12 points in the evenings play.

Vic Harrington hit the bucket for 13 points for Texico, followed by Spence with 10, Dyer 9, and Helton 6. Texico has a well rounded team this year and it is felt that with experience will develop into a fine ball club.

On Tuesday the local aggregation were in Logan for a makeup game, which was snowed out Saturday. The "Wolves" came home with a 52-47 win over the Logan "Longhorns."

In the Tuesday game Spence hit 20 points for Texico, copping scoring honors for the evening. Teammates Harrington and Dyer hit for 14, and 13 respectively while Hal Helton pulled the game out of the fire in the last few minutes of play by sinking four free throws.

Henry Gallegos with 16 points was high man for the "Longhorns". Ferrin Garcia followed with 12 points. Coach for the Logan boys is Alva Carter.

Texico "B" team boys took a couple of wins on Friday and Tuesday from the Dora and Logan teams; defeating the Dora boys by a score of 42-33 and Logan by a score of 41-27. Huddall of Texico was high point man on both occasions for the team making 10 points in the Dora game and 13 points in the Logan game.

All boys playing on the "B" team got into the scoring act in both games with Campbell and Rickstrew hitting the bucket for eight and Hill and Skaggs hitting for seven points each, in the Dora game. Spearman also accounted for three points.

Band Gets New Uniforms

Buck Gregory and J. T. Ford, representing the Farwell School Board, met with superintendent, W. M. Roberts and John McGee, band instructor, Monday afternoon to reach a final decision on the type and color uniforms to be ordered for Farwell Band members.

Approval for the uniforms was given at a recent meeting of Farwell Board members, and Gregory and Ford were appointed, as a committee, to meet with the band director and school superintendent to make final decisions as to color, type and number of uniforms to be ordered.

McGee, speaking on behalf of the band extended thanks to board members for its decision to purchase the uniforms at this time. He says "We will always do our best to make the city and community proud to be the sponsors of the band."

Ninety uniforms will be ordered and it is hoped that they will arrive in time for the spring concert.

Farwell band has been quite busy this year as it has performed at all football games both at home and away; participated in the ENMU "Homecoming parade" where they were judged the number 1 band in Class B schools.

On October 14, they participated in the "Cannon Air Force Appreciation Day Parade" in Clovis, and on October 23, they were in Amarillo where they participated in the region 11 marching contests with other schools from throughout the Panhandle. In the regional contest they were given a rating of three, which was considered quite good for a school of this size. Two twirlers, Dianne Lovelace and Susan Blair were given ratings of two and three, respectively in the twirling contest the same day.

Other activities of the band have been two socials. They entertained members of the Morton High School band, and the Hale Center Band after the football game with these schools.

Instructors from several area schools have been guests of the band since the beginning of school and they have all been high in their praise of the band saying "A great improvement has been made since its first performance with 20 members at the beginning of school." The band now has 51 members.

Next appearance for the band will be a "Christmas Concert" December 16, at the school auditorium. Admission will be 75¢ for adults and 25¢ for all school age children. More details will be forthcoming.

Announcement has been made that band calendars will arrive and be delivered by members of the band booster club before the first of the year. A band week is planned in the spring and other trips are also planned for the band later in the year.

Mrs. Alexander Wins Cotton Bowl Contest

The Cotton Bowl football contest which has been a feature of the Tribune for the past 11 weeks came to a finish this week with Mrs. Dempsey Alexander, wife of the head football coach at Farwell, edging out Champ Porter by a scant one game for the win. Mrs. Alexander and Porter were tied for second place at the end of ten weeks with 61 games called right and Henry Haseloff led the field with 62 games right.

For the second year in a row Haseloff lost his rabbit's foot and called only 3 games right in the final week of the contest. Mrs. Alexander called six games right and Porter called five of the ten games right. Final score for Mrs. Alexander was 67, Porter had 66 right games, with Haseloff and R. S. Shuman each calling 65 games right during the contest.

Sponsors of the contest have been Security State Bank, Piggy Wiggly, Texaco Inc., Shuman - Haseloff Agency, Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, Nickel's Gin, Sherley - Anderson - Pitman Inc., and Sherley - Anderson - Grain.

me that the smart guys who thought up this fancy air conditioning we have these days have engineered out some of the solid comforts of old-fashioned living that I earnestly long for.
On a chilly morning, there's nothing more satisfying to body and soul than to back up to or stand over a stove. But in this day of "climitized working" I come into an office that is a perfect 74 degrees and for a good half hour I freeze to death until I get accustomed to those ideal conditions.
I hated to wag kindling and coal to the old pot-bellied stove in the middle of the Tribune office as much as anybody, and I was sure glad to see that day go. But I feel like I've lost a friend in not having anything I can back up to for a few minutes early in the morning.

Homemakers Given Tips For Current "Gobbler Season"

The gobbler season of the year is here. More turkeys are bought during this time than any other season of the year, says F. Z. Beanblossom, poultry marketing specialist, Texas A&M College.

He says that homemakers who buy their turkeys through retail stores should consider a number of things when making their purchase. First of these is the size of the bird and will depend on the number of people to be served and how well the family will eat the leftovers. Generally, 3/4-pound of ready-to-cook turkey per person should be allowed for generous portions.

The next factor to consider is the quality of the turkey, according to Beanblossom. The best quality birds are Grade A and will have an even covering of fat over the entire body. Grade A turkeys are broad breasted and have bulging thighs and large drumstick and give the best meat to bone ratio for your turkey dollar. The homemaker should select a bird without blemishes, such as torn skin or bruises, the specialist says.

The grade and inspection identification is important and should be noted when buying, Beanblossom says. These are metal or cardboard tags and are on the bird for the buyer's benefit. A tag saying "Inspected for wholesomeness by U. S. Department of Agriculture" shows that it was processed in a plant under the supervision of the USDA inspection program. The tag reading "U. S. Department of Agriculture Grade A" means that the turkey has been given an official grade of A by the USDA grader in the plant.

Beanblossom also recommends that the homemaker cook the turkey according to its weight. Allow 15 to 20 minutes per pound of ready-to-cook turkey and cook in a 325 to 350 degree F. oven.

David Lawrence writes: "The road to socialism is plain to see. The administration, however, can shift its course and start in earnest to travel the road of sound capitalism and free enterprise. It cannot assume the function of omniscient supervisor with a club in his hand. It must let the laws of supply and demand and of competitive influences operate. Then labor will find itself compelled to become realistic, too, and there will be a pause in excessive wage demands and a chance for American business to get on its feet again."

HERMAN GERLES, center, consults with W. W. Grisham, left, District Extension Agent, and County Agent Deryl Coker, after being elected as chairman of the Parmer County Program Building Committee last week at Farwell.

County Program Committee Re-organizes, Elects Slate

The County Program Building Committee elected new officers at a re-organizational meeting last Thursday morning at the District Courtroom in Farwell.

Herman Gerles, who farms in the northwestern part of Parmer County, was elected president of the committee, succeeding Jack Patterson of Bovina, who headed the old Program Building Committee.

Also elected were Leon Grisham, vice chairman, and Mrs. Davis Guley, secretary-treasurer.

Bill Grisham, District Extension Agent from Amarillo, explained the Extension Service's roles as applied to the Rural Area Development program (RAD), and what affect it had on the local committee.

"Let me emphasize that your committee will be no different than it has been in the past, although it will be expanded somewhat," Grisham said.

"You are the ones who will make the decisions as to what needs to be done, and how it is to be done," he told the gathering. "We're just to assist in setting up the committee," he said of the Extension Service's role.

Grisham explained that the broadened committee will have the services of a county Technical Actions Panel (TAP) on which it may call for assistance.

Making up the TAP committee in Parmer County are representatives of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS), Soil Conservation Service (SCS) and Farmers Home Administration (FHA).

Jimmy Smith, work unit conservationist for Parmer County, has been elected chairman of the TAP committee.

"This phase of the program is not something you have to do, but something we have to do for you," emphasized Grisham on behalf of the USDA organizations.

It was emphasized that the purpose of the Parmer County Program Building Committee, as it has been in the past, would be to determine the present county situation, identify county problems, and plan and carry out an educational program designed to aid the people in the solution of the problems.

Also elected last Thursday were four members to the county's executive committee. In addition to the three officers, Jack Patterson was selected, as past chairman of the organization.

Others selected to the executive board were Bob Wilson, Harry Hamilton and Mrs. J. D. Sanders.

Standing rules for the committee were discussed, with members given mimeographed copies to take home for further study.

Representation on the committee was the main topic of discussion. Preliminary plans call for at least 10 members on the committee.

The tentative list of organizations to be represented on the committee in its expanded form are: Chambers of Commerce, banks, Farm Bureau, Farmers Union, Commissioners' Court, Home Demonstration Council, Production Credit Association, Grain Sorghum Producers Association, Cotton Producers, and Soil Conservation District board of directors.

It was decided that the executive committee shall have the authority to approve other members to serve on the Program Building Committee as it deems necessary.

BY MISS ETTIE MUSIL

It's that time again. Yes, I know your thoughts are probably on a number of different items, but it's almost income tax time. We want to let you know far in advance about our annual Income Tax - Management meeting to be held December 10, in the Hub Community Center at 1:30 - 3:30.

Once again James Murphrey, Farm Management Specialist, will be in charge of the very important meeting. Subjects to be discussed will be Records to be Kept, Income to be Reported, Deductions and Personal Exemptions, Farm Business Expense, Depreciations and Depletions, Soil and Water Conservation Expenses, Capital Gains and Losses, Trades, Condemnation and Diseased Livestock, and Federal Estate Taxes and State Inheritance Tax. A question and answer period will be provided.

Tell all of your friends about this annual meeting to help you and them in filing income tax returns. Every year we hear of several folks who were sorry they missed the information, that they did not know about it, so tell everyone.

Cold weather is here. Of course, we'll have warm spells throughout the remainder of fall and winter months. Cold weather outdoors causes a problem of sweating windows and walls indoors.

There are several suggestions you can do to prevent this sweating of windows and walls. For one thing you can put on storm windows. Also, installing a ceiling vent fan in the kitchen and bathroom to carry off moisture from cooking, washing and drying clothes, and bathing.

Make a practice of ventilating the house by opening windows or doors occasionally. The secret of preventing window and wall sweating is to prevent the buildup of humidity in the warm house, which condenses on areas that are not insulated against the colder temperatures outside.

During the cool weather we have in store for the rest of the winter months we tend to keep the house too warm. Check the temperature at body level that it is 70 to 75 degrees. Not only can high temperature be uncomfortable, but many open-flame heaters can become dangerous in burning up too much oxygen that is vital to good breathing and health.

Are you thinking of repainting your house? At this time of year it is difficult, due to lack of ventilation while painting, and the cold temperature does not allow paint to spread as easily. But nevertheless, experts in the Forest Service of the USDA say it's better to apply the same type of paint that's already on the house. If, however, the paint has not been satisfactory, you can change. But wait at least 4 years before you do.

When you change color schemes, make the change from a white or light color to a darker color. Never apply a light paint over a dark colored paint. Also, never add colors-in-oil to white mixed-pigment paints. Instead, buy the tinting base paint made by the same manufacturer for this purpose.

Thought you might like to know that Miss Jimmie Lou Wainwright and Uel R. Stockard, Extension Service agents have been selected to accompany the Texas delegates to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 25-29. You will remember that Miss Wainwright was County Home Demonstration Agent here in Farmer County before my assignment.

Thirty-one Texas 4-H boys and girls have earned the right to attend the National 4-H Congress for their outstanding method demonstrations and record books. The group will leave Dallas, Friday, November 23 by special train. Accompanying the boys and girls besides the two agents will be several other Extension program leaders and Marshall Crouch and Miss Peggy Wilsford of the state 4-H office.

Be careful during these Thanksgiving holidays while in travel or while hunting. Many accidents seem to be frequent around fires, over-heated homes with open flame heaters, and everyday farm and home duties.

Classing Activities Reported Near Normal

Mr. W. K. Palmer, Officer-in-Charge, reported classing activities are beginning to look normal for this time of the year at the Lubbock Classing Office. Daily sample receipts are running over 20,000 samples per day. A full shift of forty classers has been in operation for the past week. A double shift will be started on November 19.

The Lubbock office classed 93,000 samples for the week ending November 16. This brought the total classed at Lubbock to 231,400 and the office had a carry-over of 20,000 samples. The Lamesa office reported 12,000 samples classed for the week. This brought the total classed for the year to 53,800 samples, with a carry-over of 2,000 samples. The Brownfield office classed 22,200 samples for the week. This gave the Brownfield office a total of 69,800 samples for the year. A carry-over 8,000 samples was reported by that office.

The three classing offices had classed a total of 693,400 samples through November 16, 1961. A total carry-over of 33,900 samples was reported at that time.

Light Spotted grades accounted for one-half of the samples classed. Strict Low Middling and Middling Light Spotted were the predominant grades, with percentages of 30 and 39 per cent. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted accounted for 10 per cent. Eleven per cent of the samples classed were Middling.

The average staple length was slightly shorter for the week compared with the previous week. For the week of November 9 it was 30.2 thirty-seconds of an inch, this past week it was 30.1 thirty-seconds of an inch. The predominant staple was 15/16 with 57 per cent. Twenty-nine thirty-seconds of an inch was 18 per cent.

The number of samples with micronaire readings of 3.4 and below increased this past week. For the week ending November 9, twelve per cent of the samples miked 3.4 or below. Nineteen per cent of the samples had micronaire readings of 3.4 or below for the week ending November 16. Thirty-seven per cent of the samples were in the range of 3.5-3.9. The range of 4.0-4.4 had 34 per cent. Ten per cent miked 4.5 or better.

The Lubbock Cotton Exchange reported 37,200 bales purchased for the week ending November 16. This was 14,800 bales more than the previous week and compares with 68,000 bales reported for the same week a year ago.

The cotton price quotations remained unchanged over the past week. Middling 1 inch quotation is 32.30, which compares with 33.00 a year ago. Some of the Lubbock quotations are: Middling 15/16 31.30, Middling 31/32 31.80, Strict Low Middling 15/16 30.20, Strict Low Middling 31/32 30.90, Middling Light Spotted 15/16 30.30, Middling Light Spotted 31/32 31.00, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 29.50, and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 31/32 29.75.

The HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

Most homemakers generally boil or fry any kind of vegetables they cook. Of course, these two methods of cooking are very good. But any homemaker who doesn't surprise her family and guests occasionally with an unusual baked vegetable dish is missing a pleasant experience.

If you want a taste treat for any noon or evening meal, try one of the following dishes each meal for the next few days.

Baked Onions
Peel medium-sized sweet onions; cut in half crosswise. Place in baking dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add enough water to cover bottom of dish.

Cover and bake at 375 degrees about 30 minutes. Top with crumbs mixed with melted butter or margarine and bake uncovered 15 to 20 minutes longer, until crumbs are brown and onions tender.

Scalloped Potatoes
3 medium-sized potatoes, pared and sliced
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon salt
pepper
1 cup hot milk
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Put a layer of potatoes in a greased baking dish and sprinkle with some of the flour, salt, and pepper. Repeat until all the potatoes are used.

Four milk over potatoes and dot with the fat.
Cover and bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes. Remove cover and continue baking until potatoes are tender—about 30 minutes. If potatoes are not brown enough on top, place the uncovered dish under the broiler for 3 to 5 minutes.

Baked Tomatoes
Wash medium-sized tomatoes, ripe or green, and cut off the stem ends.

Place tomatoes in a baking dish. Sprinkle tops with salt and pepper and crumbs mixed with butter or margarine. Add just enough water to cover bottom of dish.

Cover and bake at 375 degrees until tomatoes are soft—about 30 minutes for ripe tomatoes, 45 minutes for green tomatoes. When tomatoes are about half done, uncover the dish to brown the crumbs.

Stuffed Baked Potatoes (Sweet or Irish)
Select medium sized sweet potatoes or Irish potatoes. Rub with fat if soft skin is desired. Bake at 425 degrees until soft—35 to 60 minutes. Cut slice off top of potato, scoop out inside. Mash potato and season with salt and butter or margarine. Add pepper and hot milk to white potatoes, brown sugar and cinnamon to sweet potatoes.

Stuff shells with the mashed potato and put back in oven a few minutes to brown.

Scalloped Sweet Potatoes With Oranges
2 large sweet potatoes, cooked, peeled and sliced
1 large orange, peeled and sliced
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
3 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup orange juice

Place a layer of sweet potatoes in a greased baking dish, add a layer of orange slices. Sprinkle with orange rind, salt and sugar and dot with fat.

Repeat until all ingredients are used. Pour orange juice over the top. Cover dish.
Bake at 350 degrees 45 minutes to 1 hour.

Baked Squash
Cut acorn squash in half, Hubbard in 3 to 4 inch squares. Remove seeds. Place squash in baking pan.

Sprinkle with salt and brown sugar and dot with butter or margarine. Pour a little water into the pan. Cover.
Bake at 400 degrees until squash is partly done—about 30 minutes for acorn squash and 45 minutes for the Hubbard variety.

Uncover and continue baking until squash is soft—about 20 minutes for acorn and 30 for Hubbard.

For a pretty salad that is unusual and tasty, serve

Red Apple Salad
4 firm tart apples
1 1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup red cinnamon candies
3 cups water
1/2 cup cottage cheese, or 3 to 4 ounces cream cheese
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
Pare and core apples. Add sugar, salt, and candies to the water.

Put over heat and stir until candies are dissolved. Cook apples slowly in this syrup in covered pan until just tender, turning occasionally to color evenly. Drain and chill. Mix cheese with green pepper and stuff the apples. Serve on watercress or other dark greens.

WITH THE COUNTY AGENT

DERYL COKER

A large per cent of the farmers in Farmer County are donating two pounds per thousand pounds of grain to the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. This organization has done a lot of work and has developed a large number of markets abroad as well as in the United States. Also they are spending money on research and market developments. Since Farmer County is the number one grain sorghum county in the state, I certainly believe we should support the Grain Sorghum Producers Association because it is our grain that they are helping to market.

Also, driving through the county I notice several cotton gins are burning burs. Of course, they have to get rid of them if the farmers do not pick them up, and adding burs to the land is one of the cheapest sources of adding humus and improving the physical condition of the soil. Burs also increase the water holding capacity of the soil and have nearly in all cases increased yields of crops that follow.

The Lubbock Experiment Station has come up with the following statistics which would make bur application very profitable:

Rate Tons Per Acre	Yield Lint Lbs. Per Acre	Lbs. Lint Per Acre Inch. Water
0	652	22.8
2	727	27.8
4	652	29.6
6	727	33.0

As the chart shows there are advantages to putting burs back on the land, also the addition of 30 pounds and 45 pounds of nitrogen to 4 tons increased lint yield average by 87 pounds and 211 pounds respectively. One of the most practical methods of using burs to improve the soil is to apply 2 to 4 tons per acre per year. The above test was conducted at Lubbock, Texas.

There are also disadvantages to putting burs back on cotton land. They are that you could introduce diseases, or bring in diseases that could hurt you in the future, also, you could put weed seed on your farm that you don't want. Burs go on feed land to a great advantage also.

If you are not afraid of the disadvantages, burs could be a profitable way to add organic. Nearly 90 per cent of the cotton harvest will be by mechanical strippers this year. Remember don't start the strippers too early in the morning following heavy dews or showers.

Research has shown that harvesting cotton with a high moisture content can cause farmers to lose $10 to $15 a bale in quality.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

Why Do My Son's Shoes Wrinkle So?

This is an important question because mothers who wear high heels do not have wrinkles in their shoes and if they buy children's shoes that do not wrinkle they will ruin their children's feet.

Walking can be accomplished in high heeled shoes without bending the foot. Like a stilt-walker, the ladies just pick 'em up and put 'em down. In low-heels, the body weight lands on the heel and rolls forward as the leg muscle lifts the heel. When the weight-bearing reaches the ball of the foot the pressure pushes the toes up and the shoes must wrinkle where the toes project from the mass of the foot.

A well fitted shoe turns up and since the toes do not reach the ends of the shoes to hold the toes down the wrinkles are permanent fixtures.

Wrinkles mean ample toe room. No wrinkles mean trouble.

FBLA Plans To Market "Yule" Wrapping Paper

FBLA of Texico high school will be selling Christmas wrapping paper again this year. The price is $1.25 per box of 20 sheets in 10 different patterns. These packs contain cards and tags also.

There will be a limited number of the boxes sold, says Donald Chandler president of FBLA. The wrappings may be seen in the Business Education room at Texico High School. At a recent meeting of FBLA members, Milton Davidson, manager of New Mexico Security Commission and New Mexico State Employment Service in Clovis, spoke to members present on "How To Get A Job." He stressed the fact that high school preparation is essential. Accuracy is more important than speed, spelling is one of the weakest points found in stenographers, and shorthand will almost always hand a job for the one, who is able to use it well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spurlin left Wednesday night for Boulder, Colo. where they will visit in the home of their son, Jack Spurlin, for the next six weeks.

Sale To Be Completed
