

Parmer County Dirt Roads

Dirt roads in Parmer County can be either very good, very bad or fair, depending on when and where you are traveling.

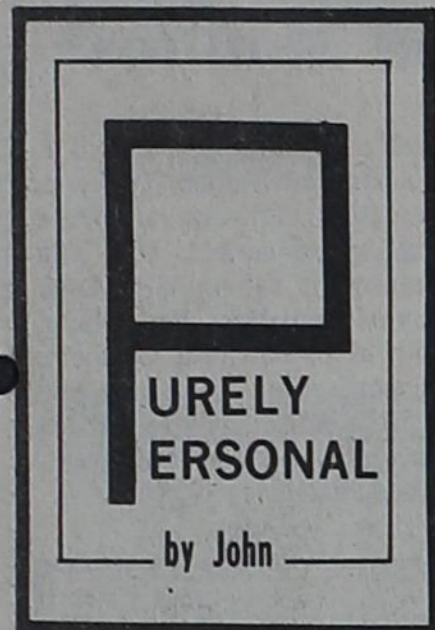

These four pictures show some "typical" examples of lateral roads in the county. The first three photos show roads with many, many deep ruts which make driving difficult at best and hazardous at worst. The road in the fourth photo is "good," but the dirt from the bar ditch has been left on the side of the road to "dry out," causing one-way traffic only for a short way. After the dirt is dry enough, county workers will spread it over the road. County officials say the graders are working every day and that they are doing everything they can to alleviate the situation.

Dirt Road Conditions Problem For County

Some dirt roads in Parmer County are potentially hazardous, full of ruts and difficult to travel on, say several concerned county residents who would like the Commissioners Court to take action on the problem now.

"The dirt roads in the Oklahoma Lane Community are horrible," says the wife of a man who farms in the community. "With school starting it can be very dangerous. I'm surprised there hasn't been an accident. I've complained to the Commissioners Court but it hasn't done any good."

"The roads are a disgrace," she said. "Sometimes when the bar ditches are cleaned out the dirt is left in the road causing one way traffic only."

Farwell School officials are also concerned about the problem with county dirt roads. When school is in session the buses follow designated routes over 200 miles of dirt road daily in Parmer County and about 50 miles in Bailey County.

"I've complained about the road situation, but I've gotten excuses rather than results," says one school official. "Our drivers have to be alert and drive carefully or we could damage our buses on these roads."

"We need the road work done," he continued, "but so far I have seen no evidence of it. I'd rather see the roads taken care of rather than have the money put on CD's."

"We have always had a bad problem. The roads are quite rough and in some instances the bar ditches have not been cleaned out. The worst roads are north, east and south, particularly around Oklahoma Lane and near Lariat."

The complaints continue. And the people who live and work in the area and travel the roads daily are beginning to ask questions.

Why isn't more being done? One concern voiced by a farmer's wife south of town is about road graders being driven back to the county's maintenance yard regardless of where they are working, and even if that same grader has to return the next day to continue working in the area.

"Sometimes when they are working a long way away from the maintenance yard which is located near the Oklahoma Lane Community, they have to quit about 3:30 or 4:00 in order to reach the yard by the five o'clock quitting hour. Then the next day they turn around and go back to the same place for more work. With the gas situation being what it is I think that is a waste of the taxpayer's money. In past years the graders have been parked near a farmer's barn."

That charge is flatly denied by one of the commissioners who said that the road graders are always left in the area where they have been working, if they have to continue working there the following day.

Still the complaints continue. Concerned people report complaining about the bad roads many times before something is done, and they are the lucky ones. Often the complaints are not acted upon.

Other stories are told of a farmer who plants the right of way across the bar ditch because it is level with his land, and turns his farming equipment around in the county road.

Another woman who lives south of town said that last school year she took her children to school many times because the school bus could not travel on the roads.

But not every one complains. For instance, a spokesman for the Farwell Post Office reports that whenever they have a complaint it is acted upon immediately. Indeed, county officials say that the commissioners in each precinct always give preferential treatment to bus and mail routes. However, people who live on those same routes often say they never see any improvement.

Farwell's rural route carrier travels 90 miles of dirt road a day, utilizing a super cab pickup in good weather and a four-wheel drive in bad weather.

"We did have a problem with one road on our route but the commissioner had it built up five feet so we could get through," the post office official said. "Now unless the weather is very bad we can get through and only a few times a year is it so bad that we can't make it," he continued.

One county official blames a great part of the problem on sprinklers and tail water rather than wet weather. Another official states that people who complain about the roads often travel them right after a rain, but he said work can't be done until the roads dry out.

One commissioner states that since about April 1, work records reveal that maintenance crews have spent over 50 percent of their time ditching for draining tailwater run-offs from the fields.

While financing road repairs isn't necessarily a county problem, one official did point out that "no precinct has limitless funds to purchase a lot of graders or hire a lot of men to do the work."

"We are doing all we can," a commissioner said. Each precinct was blading the roads this week throughout the county.

Farwell precinct has three graders. There are two in precinct IV, and three each in precincts I and II.

County officials agree that they act upon all complaints to the best of their ability. Regarding CD's, they have said that even though money is kept on CD's it is usually already earmarked.

They also say that when bar ditches are cleaned out the dirt is left by the side of the road in order to let it dry out before it is spread over the road.

The Commissioners Court is to take up the question of dirt roads in the county at its September 10 meeting in the county courtroom.

Whatever the solution, the problem of dirt roads in Parmer County will not soon go away.

For Fire Dept. --

Farwell City Discusses Pager System Purchase

Representatives of the Farwell Volunteer Fire Department met with the City Council Monday night to discuss the possible purchase of a pager system and to ask for an increase in funds for the recreation fund.

Representing the fire department were Lee Hutchins, fire chief; Smokey Gast and Joel White.

According to Hutchins, a pager system would cost approximately $5,000 and would include a master unit and 20 pagers for volunteer firemen. He pointed out that the pagers would be vital to the department for several reasons, first and foremost being that a dispatcher is no longer on duty.

Since the Eugene Smiths have moved to Clovis for health reasons, Hutchins said they have "rigged" wire to enable Nadine Edge, Texico's dispatcher, to monitor all calls to the Farwell station -- in addition to her own -- and to trigger Farwell's siren if necessary.

Hutchins said that even though the pagers would be expensive in the beginning they would save money in other ways as a dispatcher thereby saving the city salary and apartment upkeep costs.

Hutchins said the pagers have an approximate range of 10-12 miles and probably "would not need that much maintenance if they are cared for properly. Each unit has its own charger. Hutchins said the master unit would be installed at the sheriff's department along with a telephone and that the dispatcher on duty would notify the firemen of calls via the pagers.

Hutchins went on to say that eliminating the need for sounding the siren would prevent unauthorized persons from following the fire trucks or ambulance and getting in the way of firemen. The siren would still be used as a tornado alarm, he added.

The Council expressed an interest in the request and asked Hutchins to compile a cost estimate to be presented at the next regular Council meeting.

The fire chief also asked the Council to increase benefits to the recreation fund as "inflation has eaten away at what we have." Money in the recreation fund is used to maintain the firemen's meeting hall and to pay for insurance and other expenses on the building upkeep. Hutchins said that the building

Millions In Crop Damages --

Disaster Designation Sought For County

Members of the USDA Parmer County Emergency Board are asking Governor Bill Clements to declare the county a disaster area following a late-season rain and hail storm August 21 which caused millions of dollars of damage to area crops, homes and buildings.

Board members include Prentice Mills of the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service, Bill Boling of the Farmers Home Administration and Seth Ralston, Parmer County agent.

If Clements agrees with local officials he will then contact officials in Washington, D.C., and if federal approval is given the way will be paved for area farmers to try and recoup their losses through Small Business Administration loans or Farmers Home Administration loans.

Texas House Speaker Bill Clayton said Tuesday that Governor Bill Clements had assured him that he will ask President Carter to declare Castro, Parmer and Lamb Counties disaster areas.

Clayton said Clements indicated he would make the official request as soon as letters attesting to the damages had been received from the county judges in the counties affected. Clayton talk with the judges Tuesday afternoon and all had mailed reports of damages, he said.

The speaker also said that other counties receiving crop and personal property damage from last week's widespread hailstorm may also apply for assistance.

The governor must make application for disaster assistance before it can be considered for long-term, low-interest federal loans.

Other counties seeking similar aid are Lamb and Castro Counties. Since Parmer joins these two counties, hard-hit farmers will still qualify for SBA loans even if Lamb and Castro Counties are declared disaster areas and Parmer County is not. However, the feeling Tuesday morning was that the county would qualify as a disaster area.

According to the report to be forwarded to Governor Clements, 65 farmers suffered a 70-79 percent production loss; 14 a 60-69 percent loss; 22 a 50-59 percent loss; 30 a 40-49 percent loss; 45 a 30-39 percent loss; 208 a 20-29 percent loss; 106 a 10-19 percent loss, and 721 less than 10 percent loss.

The report further states that the recent storm resulted in a 30 percent yield loss for wheat crops; a 20 percent yield loss for corn and a 40 percent yield loss for cotton, grain sorghum, soybeans, sunflowers

Texico City Council Accepts Trailer Bid

Texico City Council accepted a bid Tuesday night from JJ's Mobile Homes in the amount of $16,900 for a mobile home for the dispatcher to live in after the new fire station is built. The mobile home is a 1980 Bella Vista Bellvue, 14x70 feet, with two bedrooms and two baths.

The bid for the condemnation of the Crane and Autrey properties was rejected and future bids will be sought. The bids are for destruction of the property and leveling of the lots.

The city will also seek bids for all of the city's insurance needs in an effort to lessen the cost. The Council also decided to use the old sign posts at the dump ground for fencing.

In other business, the Council discussed purchasing a sand trap for the city's new water well, but will take no action until cost estimates have been compiled and presented at the next meeting.

The Council will also contact property owners west of the school district regarding the extension of the city's limits.

Those attending the meeting were Bill Thigpen, mayor pro tem; trustees, Lewis Cooper, Vane Doshier and Marie Christian; and City Marshal Mickey Fenn.

Purely Personal

guage, they also learned what it means to be an American. They learned the lessons of our heritage of freedom, of our love of country and of our dedication to justice and equality of opportunity.

During the decades of greatest immigration, from the 1880's to the 1920's, the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor greeted the "huddled masses yearning to breathe free." They settled throughout our Nation, impatient to learn English so as to become part of the American Way of Life. For those who were reluctant to abandon the old ways and who held on to their native dialects, President Theodore Roosevelt had some brave and stern words. He did not pussyfoot or succumb to political expediency. He declared:

"We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language, for we intend to see that the crucible turns our people out as Americans, and not as dwellers in a polyglot board-inghouse."

With typical hearty patriotism, the "Rough Rider" President believed that every immigrant should be required to learn English within five years - or leave. He was convinced that:

"the one absolutely certain way of bringing this nation to ruin, or preventing all possibility of its continuing to be a nation at all, would be to permit it to become a tangle of squabbling nationalities." Our newspaper headlines today show the wisdom of Roosevelt's observations. Look at the problems of Canada as the French-speaking people of Quebec Province argue for separation, or consider the violence in Spain as the citizens of the Basque Provinces use their special dialect as a basis for "national" identity and secession. Geography, economics, or politics do not bind a people and a nation together as much as the shared cultural and ideological heritage of a common language..... The ultimate end of the present trend toward bilingualism could be the destruction of the American goal. John Selden has correctly asserted "syllables govern the world." The patchwork of special interest language schools would result in blocks of language-oriented voters. Segregation would extend beyond the classroom into all aspects of society. Theodore Roosevelt's rejection of America as a "tangle of squabbling nationalities" could become a horrible reality.

To avoid this catastrophe, certain steps must be taken. First of all, English must be established as the primary means of instruction in all grades, but especially on the primary levels. The grammar taught in grammar school must be English. Secondly, we must not allow the Supreme Court decisions regarding bilingualism to be misinterpreted as a blank check to set up extensive and exclusive non-English school programs. The focus of any bilingual program must be clearly transitional.

The bilingual election materials should be discarded. Those who were required to read, write and speak English in the naturalization process as a prerequisite to American citizenship should be similarly qualified for voting.

The pluralistic equality of our culture must continue to be enriched with additions from other cultures. But let us not slight our great heritage of American speech. While keeping English the language of all Americans, we can still encourage the complementary, but definitely secondary, use of other languages in schools and throughout society. The resulting diversity then will be integrative, not separatist. Thus America will not become a "Babel" of jangling tongues, a nation in name but not in fact, but truly will fulfill its historic destiny as the "Nation of nations."

Sidewinder Chili Team Enters Lubbock Cook-Off

The Sidewinder Chili Team, Farwell's contribution to the nation's chili cookers society, made its debut in chili cook-off competition Saturday at the third annual Lubbock Jaycees Lone Star Chili Cook-off held on a ranch near Slaton.

Some 50 chili teams entered the event with their special concoctions with the local cooks taking 7th place with their entry.

Composing the Sidewinder team were Ted Magness, Bob Vinton, Walter Hughes and Bill

Craft, all of Farwell, and Jerry White of Dumas. Another member of the crew, Gene Deeds of Lubbock, was unable to be on hand for the cook-off.

Although the local men have been attending chili cook-offs as spectators, the Lubbock affair was the first time for them to enter the cooking competition.

The Sidewinders took their name from the fact that several of their team members have been known to hunt a rattlesnake or two, thus the monicker which also describes a rattler found in the southwestern United States which is known for its lateral movement.

A large crowd was on hand for Saturday's activities with all the teams hoping to earn points to make them eligible to attend the granddaddy of all chili cook-offs, the World's Championship Cook-off scheduled for November in Terlingua, Tex.

Magness, who headed up the cooking team Saturday, has attended the event at Terlingua for many years, and last year was accompanied there by Vinton and Hughes. Their appetite to enter the competition with their own brand of chili was whetted, but they'd never taken the step until last weekend. They were all pleased at the Number 7 ranking their chili rated since it was their first try and there were so many teams vying for the top three places. Only the top three teams receive points towards the world champion cook-off.

Accompanying the cooks to Saturday's affair were Sharon, Lisa and Penny Hughes, Rubie Craft, Alice Vinton, June Magness, and Rose and Mandy White. Joining the group there Saturday afternoon were the Craft's son, Terry, and four friends from Lubbock.

Other Farwellites also on the scene to witness the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Barthell Ford, Darissa Ford and Darren Suddorth.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Bobby Chadwick of Farwell and Mrs. L.V. Durham of Amherst; a son, Joe Boultinghouse of White Oak; three sisters, Mrs. Ola Emerson of Sabinial, Mrs. Lena Taylor and Mrs. Era White, both of Uvalde; two brothers, Leonard Alley of Uvalde and Le Roy Alley of Cleveland; 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

would be needing a new roof in the near future and that the insurance premium was due to be renewed soon.

In the past a 25 cent per meter surcharge has been added to each water meter in use in the city to provide money for the recreation fund. The Council voted to raise that amount to 50 cents per month per meter. There are approximately 550 water meters in use throughout the city.

The 50 cent surcharge becomes effective for the month of September and will be shown on the October billing notices.

In other business the Council agreed to pay $108 in dues to the Emergency Medical Service in Amarillo. The communication network in Amarillo allows the ambulance to communicate directly with a hospital.

Tractor bids were discussed but no decision was made pending further study.

Ricky Stewart was appointed to serve on the Planning and Zoning Commission, replacing Charles Hargrove who has moved.

The Council denied a request by Joe Rodriguez to rent the city's dump ground to him. The tax roll was approved and arrangements will be made to meet personally with two applicants for the city marshal's position.

Present besides those previously mentioned were Mayor Walter Kaltwasser, commissioners Johnny Curtis and Fred Chandler, and city employees Dee Hammit, Janie Bowery and John Johnson.

Crop Disaster Designation . . .

The late-season thunderstorm which wiped out thousands of acres of crops in the Lazbuddie area August 21, began forming over Curry County and left a trail of damage behind as it traversed to Parmer County.

The storm hit the southern part of the county around 4 p.m. and when it had finally abated, some farmers had their crops totally destroyed. A farmer who lives southeast of Lazbuddie said the hail wiped out his cotton and ruined his sunflowers. A similar hailstorm struck that same area Memorial Day weekend.

The destructive hailstones ranged in size from marble to golfball size and were banded about by a ferocious wind which added to the immense damage.

Cotton plants were bent and twisted with many being broken off and left lying on the ground, and corn stalks were stripped of their leaves. In most cases the ears were left on the stalks but according to later reports the corn was souring on the stalk. Homes also sustained damage with many windows being broken.

The 45-minute hailstorm in the Lazbuddie area also dumped a large amount of rainfall as some 2.1 inches of rain were reported by area farmers.

Some farmers agreed that they had not seen such a devastating hailstorm since 1949 or 1950.

Besides the Lazbuddie area, crop damage was also noticeable at Clay's Corner and the Sunnyside Community. Most of the hail damage was reported on the south side of the Running Water Draw. Farmers on the north side reported less hail.

In the wake of the worst of the destruction, the storm beat the almost-grown cotton bolls off the stalk, as well as the plant leaves. Patches of cotton leaves and bolls which washed out of the fields during the deluge could be seen near the draw and other places where there were inclines.

Rainfall was also recorded in Farwell, Texico, Clovis, Bovina and Friona, but not the same devastating crop damage experienced by other areas.

Numerous Winners Named At Texico Achievement Day

Members of the Texico FFA, Texico 4-H, and Pleasant Hill 4-H Clubs shared ribbons, advice, and plans Saturday at the first combination Texico Achievement Day. The "mini-fair" served as a preparation period for the Curry County Fair which begins September 4.

Six trophies were awarded to winners in three livestock divisions while other exhibitors earned ribbons. Trophy winners included: Jeff Day, Grand Champion Swine; Chris Curry, Reserve Grand Champion Swine; Beth Kelley, Grand Champion Lamb; Justin Barnes, Reserve Grand Champion Lamb; John Kelley, Grand Champion Steer; and Doyle Duncan, Reserve Grand Champion Steer.

Seventy four market pigs were entered in the swine division. Breed champions were exhibited by Jeff Day, Duroc; Chris Curry, Chester White; Kevin West, Hampshire; and James Barfield, Polands and Spots. Breed champions in the lamb and steer divisions were the same as the first place winners in each category.

Judge in the livestock division was Seth Ralston, Parmer County Extension Agent. "He did an excellent job of instructing the exhibitors on better showing procedures and different ways to correct minor problems with their animals, which should really help us be ready for the Curry County Fair," said Eddie West, vocational agriculture instructor at Texico.

Mrs. Kendale Burch, Texico home economics instructor, was the judge for the home arts division for 4-H members. Gary Hathorn, new Assistant County Extension Agent for Curry County, assisted with the judging of 4-H record books. In these divisions, each of the judges wrote notes to the students with suggestions for improvement, and awarded ribbons for their accomplishments.

Trophies for the livestock division were donated by J.P.'s Hog Farm, Rip's Western Wear, J.J.'s Mobile Homes, Helton Oil Company, Citizens Bank of Texico, and Feed and Ranch of Clovis.

Superintendent for the livestock show was Mike Spearman. He was assisted by Jim Pierce, announcer; James Harding, ring-man; Richard Hadley, official for weigh-in; Monty Leavell, swine classification; J.D. Kelley, lamb classification; and J.K. Barfield, official for weigh-in. "It's really impossible for us to mention everyone who helped, because so many people worked in numerous capacities - either in the show ring, the fine arts division, or in the concession stand. But, the success of the program is directly related to all of the help we had. Without the work of so many people, the show could never have been a success," commented West. During the show, Jimmy Walker, Citizens Bank representative, talked to the audience about forming a Buyers Club before the Curry County Fair. The Buyers Club would

Be on Lookout for So-called Bargain Stolen Herbicides

AUSTIN—So-called "bargain" herbicides may really be stolen goods, warns Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

Brown said thefts of herbicides are up this year in Texas and asked farmers to buy the weed killers from reputable dealers only.

Though some herbicides are sold for $6-$10 a gallon, those used on row crops range from $20-$70 a gallon.

"Farmers may find a bargain," said the Commissioner, "but may not get the product they think they are buying. Anyone who steals is also likely to water the product or contaminate it in some way. The only way you can be sure of getting what you pay for is to buy from a reliable dealer."

Farwell School Board Has Called Session

Farwell School Board met Tuesday night in a special called session to discuss several items of business, including the Farmer County Tax Appraisal District; parking cars on the football field area, hiring a new teacher and approving a tax schedule.

The Board adopted a resolution to make Farwell ISD a part of the Farmer County Tax Appraisal District. They also asked Gilbert Kaltwasser to be a candidate for a director's post on the county's tax appraisal board.

Parking will be allowed inside the football field area for all home football games. A charge of $2 will be made per car and admittance will be on a first-come first-served basis. Pam Williams was employed as a third grade teacher and Mrs. Pat Graham was hired as librarian.

The Board also accepted transfers of out-of-district children providing they meet the bus on its regular route.

They also decided to use the same tax schedule as last year and accepted the 1978-79 budget amendment.

Commissioners Pay Dues
Farmer County Commissioners Court decided Monday during its regular bi-monthly meeting to pay annual dues to the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Center at Plainview in the amount of $2150.

In other business the Commissioners discussed the 1978 audit in detail and have begun working on the budget for 1980.

It was reported that Max Steinbock will replace T.L. Gleason as an election official for Lazbuddie.

New Farwell Teachers

Representatives of Farwell and Farmer County taxing entities met August 16 at the courthouse in Farwell to discuss and plan the implementation of State Senate Bill 621 which decrees that all taxing entities in a county join one appraisal district.

Several steps must be taken in order for taxing entities in the county to comply with the bill. By September 15 each must submit to Bonnie Warren, county clerk, their 1978 levied taxes as well as a nomination or nominations for the directors for the appraisal board. Board members will then be elected and will assume their posts January 2.

Since some school districts levy taxes in two counties each must decide by that date also which county's appraisal district they wish to join. The number of votes accorded to each taxing entity will be determined by the levied tax base. Each director will serve for two years.

Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace reports that Tony Marroquin, 20, of Bovina, was sentenced to four years probation Friday in the court of Judge Pat Boone, Jr., for the burglary of the Bobby Calloway farm house in Oklahoma Lane.

According to Sheriff Lovelace, Ernest Stevens, 48, of Odessa has waived his grand jury rights and will be tried at a later date without an indictment. He is wanted in connection with the theft of a motor vehicle from Bruce Parr in Friona.

The Sheriff said they also have two Friona men in jail for probation violations: Johnny Gutierrez, 29, assault; and Zenon Gutierrez, 28, burglary.

Psychologist To Open Practice In Farwell

Dr. Coy Little of Clovis, a psychologist, will open his practice at Farwell Clinic on September 1, Pudge Rose, president of the Farwell Hospital District board, announced at the Tuesday noon meeting of Farwell Chamber of Commerce.

In other Chamber business Don Williams gave an updated report on the statues which have been ordered for Sunset Terrace Memorial Gardens cemetery. He said he has heard nothing further since the original communique which said it would be six months before the statues would arrive.

Williams added that he and

R.W. Anderson have been looking into pedestals for the statues but have not found what they are looking for. He also pointed out that donations for the statues have been "nil."

Dutch Quickel, Chamber secretary, announced that Kelly Dobbs, the 1979 BTD Queen, would appear in the Maize Day parade in Friona September 8.

The Chamber also discussed a possible alcohol plant for this immediate area, agreeing that they needed to be kept abreast of developments, but that for the moment at least there was nothing they could do as a Chamber.

4-H Program - -

Texas Families Host Japanese Students

The Texas 4-H Program has established an exchange program with the LABO Foundation of Japan as a cultural and language development activity for both Japanese and American youth.

LABO originated in Japan in 1966 as an English teaching program, developing into a language laboratory, hence the name LABO.

Japanese children enroll in this program to learn English. Language is taught through stories and drama in group situations. In 1972, LABO and the 4-H Clubs of America joined to foster friendship and cultural exchange by sponsoring one month home-stay program.

In 1978, 1,650 Japanese students and tutor-chaperones lived with American host families in 18 states. Three hundred and one American young people and accompanying adults stayed in LABO homes in Japan - all arranged and conducted through each state's 4-H program.

THE TEXAS - LABO EXCHANGE: Seventy-five Japanese students, aged 12-18, and adult chaperones were hosted by Texas 4-H families, July 24 - August 23, 1978.

Host families were selected by application to the State 4-H LABO Coordinator and ranged from the Texas Panhandle to the Rio Grande Valley.

Entire families met their new son or daughter at the airport upon their arrival in Texas, July 25. From that point the Japanese student became a member of the 4-H family with the same responsibilities and privileges as their 4-H brother or sister as they gradually built cultural confidence and language ability.

Knowing the stress placed on both the exchange and the host family to adapt to new cultures and languages, a Jamboree was held at the mid-exchange point. This was done to provide a relaxing, breather time for Japanese youth to enable them to speak their own language, compare experiences, and have group fun. For the host families, it provided a change to relax with other hosts and share experiences. It also provided a time at which the LABO youth could share with their 4-H families an example story drama by which they study English.

The last part of August saw host families and exchangees trying to re-pack suddenly inadequately small suitcases. So with two, three, and even four carry-on packages, exchanges returned to Tokyo on August 23.

The Texas 4-H LABO Exchange Program contributed to the people of Texas in many respects - another cultural awareness, language, though different is similar, and a better appreciation of their own state and country. Simultaneously, Japanese youngsters learned more about America, its customs, its language, and its people.

Success of this first Texas 4-H-LABO Exchange can be inferred by the fact that approximately half of the host families have indicated an interest in hosting again next summer. An equal number of families have also expressed the desire to send one of their 4-Hers to Tokyo next summer on the reciprocal exchange.

Host families summarized: "We enjoyed every moment. It was truly a rewarding experience and he was so precious."

"It was an experience we will never forget - never enjoyed a guest so much as we did her."

"Yes, we enjoyed having our exchangee in our home. It was a learning experience for all concerned."

"Our boy was such an outstanding young man. We probably gained more from him than he did from us."

"The exchangee has provided memories that our family will always remember."

"We developed a very sincere interest and concern for these lovely people. Teenager in family related very well and made interesting comparisons and many similarities."

"Our children became more tolerant of likes and dislikes of others and began to realize not all are raised by same standards."

"It helped children see how important a second language can be."

"Our children were rather rude at first. They show respect to adults but we didn't know they show no respect to other children. When we realized this we began working on changing the situation."

One County Extension Agent stated, "Teens, regardless of national origin or culture have a lot in common. The exchange helped alleviate pre-conceived ideas of prejudiced feelings about other races."

"The exchange program has made memories for our family we will treasure always. He was special and his family is to be thanked for allowing their son to become our Japanese son."

"You did not tell us our hearts would break to see them go back to Japan knowing we might never see them again."

Texico Captains

The 1979 Texico Wolverines are captained by these players, from left, Joe Martinez; Robert Thornton, Ron Kirby and David Cavallero. The Green and White have an impressive record to live up to as last year's Wolverines were the runner-up Class A state champs. The season begins September 7 at Wolverine Stadium when they meet Mountainair.

Texico Offensive Line

These six Texico footballers make-up the 1979 Wolverine offensive line. They are, from left, standing: Joe Martinez, tackle; Ron Kirby, guard; John Kelly, center; kneeling: Britt Crooks, tight end; Clyde Bibbs, guard; and Rickey Foreman, tackle. The Wolverines will host Mountainair next Friday in the season opener.

Barrel Race Champion

The action was fast and furious this past weekend in Clovis as Karen Snodgrass, Texico rodeo competitor, guided her faithful steed around the barrels in the finals of the High Plains Junior Rodeo Association Rodeo. Karen, who is the daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snodgrass, won the season average in that event, claiming the coveted title for 1979. [Photo by Sam Jenkins]

Wolverines Recuperating; Prepare For '79 Opener

The Texico Wolverines were scheduled to scrimmage Meadows, last Friday, but the match was cancelled because too many Wolverines were on the sick list and were unable to play.

"Todd Gerles, our sophomore quarterback, was in the hospital with suspected appendicitis and three other players also were unable to play,"

Wolverine coach Paul Topliff said. "We tried to re-schedule the scrimmage, but when we couldn't, we just cancelled it."

Topliff and his staff are disappointed that they were unable to play as the scrimmage would have given them a chance to see the team in action, Topliff said, especially the younger players who have never been tested in a varsity game situation.

Topliff said that Gerles did not have appendicitis, but rather a virus and is now home recuperating. James Hadley was to direct the Wolverine offense Thursday when they scrimmage the Clovis JV at 3:15 p.m. MDT. He is also the probable starting QB against Mountainair in the season opener September 7.

"If Gerles hadn't become ill the change probably wouldn't have become necessary," Topliff said. "But he missed some valuable practice time and I want to give him a chance to catch up before starting him."

"We have a good ball club," the Texico mentor continued. "But we have no depth and we must stay healthy. Our goal will be to improve every game."

Looking ahead to the first game of the year, Topliff said that to defeat Mountainair they have to be physical and make very few mistakes. He said it is something all teams and coaches aim for, but do not always achieve.

"We have improved since practices started," Topliff said. "We are still pumping weights along with regular practices."

The Wolverines have also been done in with a "virus bug," the coach said, but things are beginning to improve and the Green and White are raring to go for the 1979 season.

Texico Booster Club Sets Future Projects

Texico Wolverine Booster Club decided at its August 21 meeting to sell ads for the high school All-Sports Calendar. President Eddie Dunsworth officiated at the meeting. Other officers include Roy Thornton, vice-president; and Alta Gerles, secretary-treasurer.

The Club voted to have its meetings on the first Tuesday of every month starting October 2. However, there will be a special meeting September 11 at 7 p.m. MDT to discuss the chartering of a bus to Hatch, N.M., for the September 28 game.

Dunsworth urged all interested fans to attend this meeting. Anyone interested in reserving a seat on the bus is asked to contact Thornton,

Texico Boosters also voted to sponsor a hamburger fry at each home football game starting with the first home game on September 7.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Booster Club is asked to contact Mrs. Gerles, 389-5406, or they may join at the first home game. Dues are $5 per person.

The Booster Club has actively supported the sports program at Texico since its inception. Projects completed include high school all-sports banquet, junior high sports award festivities, furnishing a chartered bus for the football team to travel to Capitan last season and sponsoring a watermelon feast at the beginning of the season.

They have also furnished pre-season refreshments for other sports; purchased an ice machine which is used by many organizations; purchased the video machine and tripod as well as having paid for several repairs for the items; purchased leggings for basketball girls, towels for athletic department and assisted in making sports coats for all coaches and administrators.

The Boosters contributed cash to boys and girls to attend state track meets last year and have effected repairs etc. for the press box. The press box committee is still making plans for further work. Anyone who can assist is asked to contact Raymond Hadley, chairman, 482-3857.

Karen Snodgrass Is HPJRA Barrel Champ

Karen Snodgrass of Texico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snodgrass, is the 1979 High Plains Junior Rodeo Association barrel race champion. The HPJRA finals were held in Clovis Friday and Saturday nights.

Members accumulate points throughout the rodeo season.

During the finals Miss Snodgrass won the average in barrel racing.

The young rodeo rider also competed recently in the American Junior Rodeo Association finals in Snyder, Tex., winning third in the average for barrel racing and goat tying.

Coach Adrian Pleased --

Farwell Steers Garner First Scrimmage Win

Farwell Steers scrimmaged Melrose last Thursday night at Melrose, winning two touchdowns to none.

For the Blue and White's first score, Mark Owen pitched the pigskin to Max Lonsdale who scored on a 15-yard run. The second TD came when Owen fired a 55-yard bomb to Craig Kaltwasser who went in for the score.

Owen also powered another 55-yard bomb to James Castleberry, advancing the ball to the goal line; however, a fumble on the next play ended hopes of scoring another TD.

The Steers amassed 311 total yards in 40 plays, rushing 32 times for 164 yards and completing six of 10 passes for 147 yards. The varsity Steer defenders held their hosts to minus six yards on offense.

The Farwell JV and second string players also combined efforts to hold Melrose to minus 37 yards. The JV offense rushed 17 times for 75 yards.

Quarterback Owen had a 60 percent completion ratio, an admirable performance for someone who was just recovering from the "flu bug."

"I was most impressed with the defense," Coach Randy Adrian said. "We still have work to do though. The offense is behind the defense right now and we have to catch up," he continued. "We lost three fumbles and that hurt us. We need to work on execution, blocks and firing off the ball."

Adrian also singled out several Steers for "words of praise."

"On defense, Leonel Jaime played a good game and Willie Martin did a good job," he said. "Mac Langford and Byron Mayfield did a good job as linebackers. The secondary did a good job with Boyd White making one interception. They also sacked the quarterback several times." "I am pleased with the efforts of the JV and second team defense," Adrian said.

The Steer mentor cited Castleberry, Lonsdale and White for "doing a good job of carrying the ball." He also said the offensive line did a good job of blocking. Players receiving the coach's praise were Byron Mayfield, Leonel Jaime, Mac Langford, Chris Bristow, Willie Martin and Richard Carpenter.

The Steers were to scrimmage Anton Thursday night at 7 p.m. CDT. "I expect that to be a tough challenge for us," Adrian said. "It will be a good test for our ability to play as a team."

Even though Coach Adrian is looking forward to a good year, depth is a major weakness of the team and should the Steers sustain key injuries they could be in trouble. The Steer squad is comprised of 11 seniors, seven juniors and three sophomores.

Adrian expects a lot of help from sophomore Waverly Coates who can play three positions: linebacker, running back and tight end. Another sophomore, David Daniel, is a backup quarterback. A third sophomore -- Ricky Armstrong -- is a guard.

The Steer backfield is "small, but quick," according to Adrian. Lonsdale, a 9.8 sprinter, is testimony to the Blue and White quickness. Langford, center, was all-district last season.

Richard Carpenter fills in as tight end and Craig Kaltwasser is the split end.

The Steers are not without experience as 14 lettermen have returned, including seven offensive and eight defensive starters.

The entire secondary is intact, including Lonsdale, Owen and Castleberry who received all-district honorable mention honors last season. Owen also received all-district honors as a punter.

Good weather marked Farwell's two-day practices. After several days of strenuous activities the Steers are ready to start playing in a game situation.

Steer Offensive Line

The Farwell Steers are looking forward to a good year this season as they prepare for the season opener next Friday. Among the Blue and White hopefuls who have been busy getting in shape for the start of the 1979 season are these players who make up the

To Lead Steers

These four Steers have been elected captains of the 1979 Farwell varsity squad. Sharing the honors this season are, from left, Leonel Jaime, Max Lonsdale, Willie Martin and Mark Owen. The Steers were to scrimmage Anton Thursday night at Steer Stadium and next Friday they host Olton in the season opener.

Jr. Varsity Roster

Randy Adrian, head football coach and athletic director at Farwell High School, has released the following names of members of the junior varsity team.

Players for the 1979 JV Steers are as follows:

Sophomores: Dwayne Winter, Rocky Ford, Lenny Beal, Brent Green, Douglas Teel, Emilia Paez, Curtis Little, Brian Langdon, Roger Castillo, Stacy Turner, Doug Brewer, Raul Garza and Alvino Lopez.

Farwell Boosters To Provide Color Film

Farwell Booster Club voted to provide a color film for the filming of all varsity Steer football games as its main project of the year Tuesday night during its regular weekly meeting at Clara's.

The poster and ad sales have also been set in motion along with a drive for new members. Anyone interested in becoming a member may pay their $10 in dues to any current member.

Club members are also taking orders for the blue Steer jackets which cost $30 each. Orders must be in by September 11. Call Leon Langford 389-5465 or Jeanette Ford 225-6266. Mrs. Ford advises that if her number is not in service to call information for the Oklahoma Lane exchange.

Steer Receivers

When the Farwell Steer quarterback puts the pigskin in the air this season one of these four receivers will be scrambling for the ball. They are, from left, Waverly Coates, Danny Davis, Richard Carpenter and Craig Kaltwasser.

The Steers finished two-day drills last week and scrimmaged Melrose last Thursday. They are getting in shape for the first game of the season which is slated for September 7 at Steer Stadium against Olton.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE WITH CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635 'THE BIBLE AND THE AMERICAN HOME' More than nineteen hundred years ago St. Paul wrote to a young man named Timothy: 'From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus' (I Tim. 3:15). Timothy was a fortunate young man. His father was not a believer in God, but his godly mother made up for the lack, and her mother helped, as day after day from his earliest childhood, they taught him the Word of God. As a result he came to know Christ as his Savior at an early age, and later became Paul's faithful co-worker and closest associate in making known the wonderful 'gospel of the grace of God.' In his very last letter, the great apostle recalls Timothy's 'unfeigned faith, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice' (I Tim. 1:5). 'If only we had more such grandmothers today, with husbands to help them! If only our children were not set adrift on a tossing sea of human speculation, but were taught the eternal truths of that Old Book, the Bible! Certainly the rebellion of so much of our youth against law and authority and morality is directly related to the disappearance of the Bible from the American life. It is not the young people who have been brought up in Bible-reading...

Farwell Tennis Open Termed Successful

Farwell's Open Tennis tournament played on the local courts over the weekend has been termed a big success, says Farwell tennis coach Glen Morton who was in charge of the event.

Winners listed in the two-day tournament include Dave Scheiding of Clovis who captured first place honors in the men's singles division and Clay Williams of Farwell finished in second place.

Anita Shelton of Morton finished first in the women's singles division and second place honors went to Jo Ann Dudley of Clovis.

In the men's doubles Dave and Doug Scheiding of Clovis captured first place while Doug Cole and Morton, took second place.

Women's doubles honors went to four Clovis women: Becky Rowley and Carolyn Goff, first place; and Jo Ann Dudley and Martha Cole, second place.

In the mixed doubles, Dave Scheiding and Goff captured first place and Debbie Williams and Morton took second place.

"We received many compliments about the open and the community really supported it," Morton said. He extended special thanks to the following people who helped with the open: Miller Cunningham, Jim Berry, the J.W. Eubanks, the Jimmy Castleberrys and Marcia Cole.

Morton said some of the proceeds from the tourney will be applied toward the purchase of a tennis ball machine. Part of the proceeds were also shared with the Texico-Farwell Youth Commission.

Jim Bishop, DPS trooper, is investigating a possible hit-and-run accident which occurred at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday. He said that Rena D. Tietjan of Jarales, N.M., was northbound on Seventh Street in a 1977 Hornet when a black car apparently ran a stop sign at the intersection of Seventh Street and Avenue C and collided with the left side of her car. Bishop said he has been unable to find the car, but is continuing his investigation.

Fender Bender

DPS Trooper Jim Bishop investigated this "fender bender" late Sunday afternoon in Farwell. Luann Edwards, 15, of Texico was northbound on Manana Boulevard when she allegedly drifted to the right and collided with a 1975 Ford pickup parked on the boulevard. One passenger in the 1972 Opel, Tammy Adkins, 15, of Texico received minor injuries. Other passengers in the car who were unhurt were Tonya Beavers, 15, and Jeremy Ortiz, 3, of Texico and Brint Harrison, 3, of Farwell. Bishop said he cited Miss Edwards for driving without a driver's license and for failure to control speed.
