Farmers Eligible For FmHA Loans

Following devastating August hailstorms nine counties in the 19th Congressional District have been declared a disaster area. U.S. Representative Kent Hance made that announcement last week following final approval by the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA).

Parmer County was one of the nine counties declared as a natural disaster area. Other counties include Deaf Smith, Castro, Lamb, Hockley, Terry, Gaines, Dawson and Martin. Bailey County is also scheduled to be considered.

Farmers in the nine counties may begin applying for emergency loan assistance to recover losses from natural disasters estimated to exceed $200 million. Local FmHA offices will process all applications. Physical loss applications will be accepted for nine months and production losses for 12 months.

Qualifying farmers may receive FmHA loans for losses to crops, property, machinery and equipment caused by recent storms. Five percent interest will be charged for the loans. Nine percent interest will be charged for additional amounts in excess of the loss needed to restore production or to make major adjustments in farming operations for real estate purposes and 9 1/2 percent interest will be charged for annual operating and chattel purposes.

Hance said he expects the Small Business Administration to follow suit in a few weeks. He also added thanks to local, state and national FmHA personnel who responded quickly to the hail disaster in this area.

"I have also been informed that some of the farmers who have been hardest hit by the hailstorms may be eligible to get their current loan programs deferred for three years with a possible extension of seven additional years if they can maintain a status of good standing," Hance said.

Swisher and Briscoe, two counties outside of the 19th Congressional District, have also been declared disaster areas.

Hance praised Texas House Speaker Bill Clayton for his aid in getting the counties declared disaster areas.

Broom Sale Earns $804

The Texico-Farwell Lions Club earned $804 Saturday during its annual broom and mop sale, reports Dutch Quickel, chairman of the project. The Club's share will be $209.

Quickel said they would probably have done better if the sale had been longer than four hours. On behalf of the Club members he thanks everyone who bought goods.

Meet Postponed

Texico Chamber of Commerce did not meet Monday night because of a lack of a quorum. The next regularly scheduled meeting is October 8.

Take Top Awards --

Curry Fair Boon To Texico Youth

Numerous exhibitors from Texico and surrounding communities were winners last week at the Curry County Fair, billed as the largest county fair in New Mexico.

Texico students who competed in the Junior Livestock division brought home many of the top awards given at the fair. The students entered as members of the Texico FFA, Texico 4-H, and Pleasant Hill 4-H Clubs or in the open divisions.

On Saturday in the Junior Livestock Sale, 20 Texico students qualified to sell either one pig, one lamb, or one calf. The 20 animals sold for a total of $15,235.45. Only 40 pigs, 40 lambs, and 35 steers were sold in the sale. Selection of the animals is made on a percentage basis of breeds and breed classes.

Pleasant Hill 4-H member Jubal Pierce, a fifth grader, was the owner of the grand champion market hog, a 237-pound Hampshire. His sister Robin showed the hog for him since he was unable to compete because of illness.

The Grand Champion hog was purchased by Curry County Grain for a total of $1090.20. Jubal and Robin are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Pierce.

The Reserve Grand Champion market hog, a Cross gilt, was shown by Jeff Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Johnson. The eighth-grader, who had competed in a hog show only once before, is a member of the Texico 4-H Club. Citizens Bank of Texico purchased the Reserve Grand Champion hog for $470, and Farmers Coop Elevator added $125 for a total of $595.

Jeff Day and Jeff Johnson won trophies for their showmanship abilities during the swine show. Day, a sophomore member of the Texico FFA, won first place in the competition, and Holland, an eighth grade member of the Texico 4-H, won the runner-up trophy. Day is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Smith Day, and Holland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Holland.

In the swine showmanship competition, a total of 12 exhibitors are selected from all entrants by an anonymous panel of judges to compete for top showmanship honors. Seven of the 12 selected this year were Texico residents. Other competitors included James Barfield, Jeff Johnson, Ronnie Dunsworth, Jeff Tharp, and Kevin West.

In the lamb showmanship contest on Friday, Pam Southard, a graduate Texico FFA member and Pleasant Hill 4-H member, received third place. Pam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Southard.

Two other major trophies were earned by Texico students. At the Junior Livestock Sale on Saturday, the Pleasant Hill 4-H Club received the Sheep Herdsmanship award. Texico 4-H, Texico FFA, and Pleasant Hill 4-H members were judged as one cooperative unit and were winners of the Swine Herdsmanship trophy. Winners of these large traveling trophies are determined by an anonymous panel of judges who observe the various groups during the entire fair. Selection is made on the basis of cleanliness and maintenance of the group's livestock pens and exhibit areas, attitude, and cooperation.

In the booth competition,

Texico Schools' Booth received a first place award, the FFA placed second, Texico 4-H booth won first, Texico FFA placed fourth, and the Pleasant Hill Community Booth received second.

In addition to the livestock division, numerous area exhibitors won prizes in almost every area of competition available at the fair. A list of participants from the local area who won ribbons or prize money will be published in next week's Tribune.

Texico Swine Exhibitors

Texico swine exhibitors came home with the "bacon" from the Curry County Fair last Wednesday. Award winners are Jeff Day, standing left, Texico FFA, first place showmanship trophy; and Jeff Holland, Texico 4-H, runner-up showmanship trophy. Robin

Earlene Porter Nabs Top Contest Prize

Some persons believe in getting right down to business. And Earlene Porter of Clovis is one of them. She began the 21st annual Merchants Football Contest on the right foot last week -- picking all 12 games right -- and catching her opponents napping. Picking a perfect slate is no easy task, but Mrs. Porter rose to the occasion. For her efforts she received the first place weekly check of $7.50. Whoever said women do not know anything about football?

In hot pursuit of top prizes were Jerry Roddam and Carl Kirkland, each with 11 correct choices. Roddam missed the tiebreaker by two points and Kirkland missed by five. Roddam received the second place check of $5 and Kirkland garnered the $2 check for finishing third.

The first week of the annual contest was almost a case of deja vu as these same three persons also figured prominently in last year's guessing grill. In fact, Roddam emerged practically unscathed from last year's guessing arena, winning the top prize of two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $50.

The 1978 runner-up winner was Beulah Williams who received two tickets to the Sun Bowl and $25. However, Mrs. Williams name was not among last week's winners.

Two-hundred-and-thirty-two guessers entered the first week of the contest. Of that number seven others also had 11 right, but were farther off the tiebreaker than the second and third place winners. They were Donnie McDonald, Sue Kirkland, Doris Ford, Mrs. E.A. Key, Joe Jones, Gaye Roberts and Lisa Spears.

Since the contest is now just underway, it is not too late to enter into the fun of being an armchair quarterback and trying to outguess your neighbors, friends and family members. The $7.50, $5 and $2 prizes are "up for grabs" each week.

Rules for the contest are simple. Entries must be turned into the Tribune office by 5 p.m. Friday, or if mailed, bear a Friday postmark. Contestants must be 12 years of age or older and each person may submit only one entry each week.

Twelve games are listed each week. To enter, a person must circle the team of his choice to win that particular contest, then list a tiebreaker score. That is very important as the tiebreaker is used to settle tie games and will not affect the weekly won/loss totals.

Tabulation of all entries are kept on record and are always available for inspection.

Local and area merchants who are sponsoring this year's contest are: Worley Mills, Woolley-Hurst Implement Co., Cal Jordan Implement Co., Farwell Hardware, Wheels, Citizens Bank, Texico Branch, Kelly Green Seeds, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman Elevator, Sherley-Anderson at Lariat, Capitol Foods, Farwell Insurance, Security State Bank, Franse Irrigation, Gilbert Kaltwasser and Pioneer Seed, Aero Farm Chemicals, Gene's C.B. Kirkland and Vinton, Farwell Chemical, Farwell Fertilizer;

Also, Leric's, Sheets and Sheets, Castor Feed, Clara's Restaurant, Parmer County Farm Bureau, Golden West Seeds, Rose Drug, State Line Office Supply, Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply and Tri-County Tire Store.

Precinct Three --

Controversy Goes On Over Lateral Roads

The controversy concerning conditions of lateral roads in Parmer County -- particularly those in Precinct 3 -- continues this week as additional complaints have been reported to the Tribune. The matter of lateral roads was not discussed during the Parmer County Commissioners Court meeting on Monday.

An Oklahoma Lane farmer was very vocal with complaints involving maintenance of lateral roads in the Farwell area.

"I would like to know why they do not fill in the ruts and maintain the roads?" he asked. "For the past two or three years I have been maintaining my own roads by pulling a 10 foot drag float behind my pickup. We get a really nice road if the county workers add their own maintenance work, but that doesn't happen too often."

This farmer lives five miles from the county's maintenance yard. According to him the farthest north road in the precinct has been "maintained" maybe once this summer and it has "never been graded."

He said he also objects to county workers putting work for individual farmers ahead of road maintenance. "I pay my taxes for road maintenance," he said. "That should come first. I don't object to work being done for farmers as that is also necessary, but it should not come ahead of road maintenance."

The Oklahoma Lane farmer said lateral road conditions have been an on-going problem for the past 20 years. "We always hope it will get better, but it never does."

Another complaint aired concerned a packer which broke down in his area and was left on the side of the road, blocking traffic during harvest. He said it took numerous complaints to county officials and one final confrontation where the equipment was moved off the road and left on another farmer's land.

"It shouldn't be left there, but at least it's not blocking traffic anymore," he said.

The concerned farmer went on to say some roads he has to travel on are left too flat and others have too much bank after they have been maintained. He also said that county workers should check the tubes which drain off tailwater on a regular basis and if they need to be replaced they should be pulled out so that farmers can change it.

He related the following incident which occurred several months ago: A corn truck during harvest had smashed one of the tubes so that it could not drain the tailwater properly. Even though county workers were told that if they removed the tube it would be replaced with a workable one, that was not done until months later.

He said these tubes should be checked early in the year so that they can be changed before the height of the watering season. He also states that some ditches in his area are as much as three to four feet deep. "If you slide off into one of those you don't have a chance," he said.

He went on to tell about his young daughter who is still terrified of the thought of sliding into a ditch because it happened years ago when she was a baby.

"Just the thought is enough to make her hysterical," he explained.

Several years ago he said that Farm to Market Road 3333 (before it was paved) was so bad that he threatened to disk it. He said his complaints are usually met with either excuses or promises which aren't carried out unless he really presses for action.

He also questioned what happened to the mowing equipment he says the county purchased. "I have never seen them mow in my area. If they ever did I sure missed it."

He also said that wind erosion causes the most problems.

PURELY PERSONAL

by John

The 21st annual football contest jumped off to a big start last week with more than usual first week's entrants. Many of the old regular football guesstimators were in the running as we expected. We were also surprised at the many new names we encountered. We were particularly pleased with the number of out-of-town contestants from Bovina, Clovis and Muleshoe.

Having scored and kept track of this annual fall event for nigh on to the past two decades we wax a little philosophical each year as we note the constantly changing complexion of our society. Many of the past years' strong contestants are no longer with us, yet a new generation keeps coming on to try their skills at the art of football prognostication.

On a day-by-day basis most of us plug along life's way tending to think in the past. Things like this contest make us realize that change in a community is inevitable and also healthy. The present is with us and must be contended with daily. The future will soon be upon us and thought to it must be constantly given. The past is gone and cannot be retrieved. Dwelling thereon is futile and self-defeating.

The most recent meeting of the Parmer County Commissioners Court has come and gone without a mention of the road situation. Probably the reason for this omission was the fact that practically all their time was involved with a reading and discussion of the 1980 County proposed budget.

Elsewhere in this paper is a copy of the proposed budget with a notice of the next meeting to discuss it. This is a good time for concerned citizens and taxpayers to make their presence known and felt. Government is a two-way street and those who govern need very badly to have the help, advice and cooperation of the citizenry in planning their future actions and expenditures.

Taxes and expenditures go hand in hand. The number and level of government services are directly tied to the tax levies. Therefore in setting tax rates a knowledge of how much the government should offer is of vital concern to those charged with this responsibility. It is only through citizen participation that this knowledge is gained by these people. Government is an ongoing process and the people need to be heard from all the time, not just when they have a gripe.

We noted a Dennis the Menace cartoon the other day wherein Dennis finished up his evening prayers with the remark that it was a good summer but don't get carried away with the winter. We are sorta' like Dennis and hope that we do not fall heir to a winter as bad as we experienced last year.

Our Pampas grass almost succumbed to the cold, while almost half of our mimosa tree failed to bear leaves this year. We lost all our planter box shrubs along with two japonica bushes. Another winter like the last one and we will be out of the tree and shrub department altogether.

Farwell Council Tables Pager System Request

Farwell City Council discussed pagers for the fire department, accepted a tractor bid, appointed Dee Hammit, water superintendent, to attend a grant pre-application meeting in Austin, and interviewed a city marshal prospect Monday night during the regular meeting. Fire Chief Lee Hutchins reported to the council about the prices he had obtained for a Motorola pager system. The total cost of $7,752.34 includes an in-coder, 25 pagers, 25 charger amplifiers, batteries and carrying cases. Individual pagers are $306.85 each.

According to Hutchins, if the pager system is set up in Farwell, the department would use Texico's transmitter and all dispatching of fire and ambulance calls would be through the sheriff's office.

At a council meeting two weeks ago, Hutchins stated that the pager system would be beneficial for several reasons. Of primary concern is that too many unauthorized people follow the volunteer firemen and get in their way. Some firemen also have trouble hearing the siren, he said.

Also, Farwell does not presently have a dispatcher at the fire station since the Eugene Smiths moved to Clovis. All calls to Farwell's Fire Department are presently being routed through the Texico dispatcher -- Nadine Edge -- who is to be paid $50 per month for her extra work.

If the pager system is adopted the siren would become unnecessary except as a tornado alarm.

Hutchins indicated that the hospital district board had tentatively said that they would probably donate $1500. He also stated that they could probably use $500 from the firemen's account toward the purchase of a pager system.

The system is ultimately expected to pay for itself as Hutchins estimates that they can save about $2000 a year by not having to pay a dispatcher or keep up the home the dispatcher occupies.

Council members declined to make a final decision regarding the pager system pending further discussion and comparison of prices of various systems.

The Council also accepted a bid for a John Deere tractor from Decker Equipment Co. in Amarillo in the amount of $8932.43. The tractor will be delivered to Farwell.

Regarding the sewer plant to be built in Farwell in the future, the council asked Water Superintendent Dee Hammit to attend a grant pre-application conference in Austin, September 26. Since there is so much "red tape" concerning the building of a sewer plant and application of a federal grant to help finance its cost, council members felt Hammit should be in on the project from the beginning to make sure that everything would be done according to specifications.

In other business the council interviewed Ed Heskew, former Nixon City Marshal, for the same position here. However, no decision was made as another prospect is to be interviewed later this month.

The following request is made by Earl Roberts, caretaker of Sunset Terrace Memorial Gardens. He asks that all easels and flower stands be removed from the east side of the cemetery this week as reseeding with blue grass will be done.

Attending the council meeting were Mayor Walter Kaltwasser, commissioners Fred Chandler and Johnny Curtis; city employees Carrell Watkins, Hammit and John Johnson; and Lee Hutchins.

Dear Mr. Getz,

In regard to the column you published condemning bilingual education: I don't know who Henry C. Clausen is, or how qualified he's supposed to be in the field of bilingual education, but I notice he does not mention one single instance of a case where bilingual education is supposed to have hurt anybody's kid. I don't think he could give one. With today's rapid movement from place to place (our so-called "small world"), I don't see how any child could gain anything but benefit from the ability to communicate in more than one language.

But the pros and cons of bilingual education are only opinions -- everybody has one, and yours (or even Henry C. Clausen's, whoever he is) is as likely to prevail as mine.

My objection to the Clausen article (and my objection to you using your limited newspaper space to run such trash) is that he made bilingual education into a political issue and then supported his idea with a lot of statements that, to be nice about it, are "whoppers," but anyone who doesn't think seriously about what is said in the column might think it was true.

To begin with, I haven't heard of anyone who is saying Spanish or French should replace English as our official language, so the political angle of the entire article is irrelevant from the beginning. On top of that, it's inaccurate.

"A common language is the unifying force of a people," as you quote Clausen, may be true of a RACE of people but certainly not necessarily true of a POLITICAL "people." To support the statement just quoted, Clausen cited France (even though half a dozen departments of eastern France are still largely German-speaking) and Sweden (even though there are people in northern Sweden who speak Lapp). But the real belly-laugh comes when he mentions Russia.

Modern-day Russia, or more accurately the Soviet Union, boasts as "major" languages no less than Russian, Ukrainian, Belorussian, Uzbek, Azerbaijani, Tatar, Georgian, Lithuanian, Armenian, Yiddish, Latvian, Mordvinian, Kirghiz, Tajiki, Estonian, and Kazakh -- at least that many. By "major" languages, I would arbitrarily include any "lingo" that might have a million and a half or so native speakers.

Clausen mentioned the problems Spain has had with the Basques, but forgot to point out that the problems probably have more to do with the Basque temperament than their language, since Spain has more people who speak Catalan than Basque, and I have not heard of any problems from the Catalans.

Clausen also forgot to mention that for as long as there's been a Belgium, Belgians have spoken French in the south and Flemish in the north, or that the Swiss speak French in the west, German in central and northern areas, Italian in the south central and Romansch in the southeastern section of Switzerland!

There are at least a couple of dozen other countries that manage to bungle through with more than one language, and I doubt that their governments are in much worse shape than ours -- how could they be much worse?

If you really believe that bilingual education represents a threat to the U.S. of A., I would say "put up or shut up" -- give us some specific cases where really KNOWING a second language has ever done anyone any harm, or just give us a really rational, logical discourse on why you think it's so bad, and I'll yield the floor, but that Clausen mess is not going to convince any serious person of anything! In fact, the high-flown oratory without a single supporting fact reminded me of Senator Haya-kawa of California -- but I certainly don't want to get you started on him!

Thanks for reading "my side,"
 Ronn Smith

Journey Began Here --

Waddle To Waltz Across West Texas

By Shirley Gorman

Everyone yearns for a chance to create a slice of history and to be remembered by his peers for doing something just a little out of the ordinary, but few people ever get a chance to achieve this kind of dream. Not so with David Waddle of Amarillo, a country and western dancer and dance instructor at Amarillo College, whose dream is to waltz his way into the record books.

Waddle, who tells everyone that his name is "just like the duck" and his partner, Linda Tschishart of Dumas, began their waltz across West Texas Monday morning. They embarked at the pole designating the county line between Parmer and Curry County and continued on their journey to Bovina ultimately to arrive in Hollis, Okla., by the 29th of this month, "in time to celebrate my birthday," Waddle said.

Even though Linda began the waltzing adventure with Waddle she will not be his partner throughout the journey, but rather Waddle will take turns dancing with several women.

"It was an obvious thing to do," answered Waddle, when queried as to why anyone would want to do such a thing. "I'm doing just what Ernest Tubbs' country song suggests," he continued.

Waddle intends to dance across the Panhandle on a route which will carry him through Turkey, Tex., "Bob Wills' country." The 203-mile trip is expected to take about two weeks. Waddle has set a personal goal of 11 miles per day, with 8-10 hours spent dancing.

The dancer says he first thought of the idea after Ernest Tubbs' birthday party in Amarillo last year. "I've been training for it. I've given up cigarettes, have been getting into shape and practiced wearing weights on my feet."

Waddle's entourage consists of dedicated friends who want to see him accomplish his goal and three converted old Willis jeeps which dub as his "Cowboy Hilton" hotel.

If Waddle has anything to say about it he will reach his goal according to his deadline, and one more thing, he will enjoy himself and have a lot of fun. And after all, isn't that what life is all about?

Waltzing Across Texas

David Waddle of Amarillo and Linda Tschishart of Dumas are doing something that no one else has done before - waltzing across West Texas. The two some began their unusual sojourn Monday morning near Clara's Restaurant and will follow Highway 86 to Hollis, Okl., where Waddle hopes to arrive in time to celebrate his birthday on the 29th day of this month. Waddle, a dance instructor, said he decided upon this project because it was "a natural thing for someone to do" and because "no one had ever done it before."

Farwell School Board To Conduct Survey

At its regular meeting Monday night the Farwell School Board adopted a resolution, set substitute teacher pay, and agreed to conduct a survey of parents of first and second grade students.

The resolution adopted stated that Gilbert Kaltwasser would serve as the Board's appointee to the ballot of the Parmer County Tax Appraisal Board. According to a new Texas law which is gradually being put into force, all taxing agencies in a county are to become one appraisal board.

In other business it was agreed that substitute teachers are to be paid $25 per day. Don Malone, elementary principal, met with the Board to request that first and second graders be dismissed at 2:30 instead of the regular 3:30 hour. Board members said they would conduct a survey of the parents to be affected and base their decision on parents' reaction to the request.

Walter Hughes, Joe Jones and Webb Goyer were appointed to serve as the Board's Board of Equalization with R.J. Garner as alternate.

Board members attending were Joe Hughes, Caroline Anderson, Bill Martin, Doyle Ford, Billy Mayfield, Wilbert Kalbas and Jim Walker. Also attending were James Craig, Don Malone, Tom Knoy, Jerry Dee Owen, Betty Turner, Lynn Roberts and Dorothy Eason.

County Commissioners To Let Precinct 3 Bids

Parmer County Commissioners decided to let several bids for Precinct 3 Monday during its regular bi-monthly meeting. Bids will be opened at 11 a.m. October 8 for one 70 hp diesel tractor with hydraulically operated side-mounted shredder and hydraulically side-mounted rotary ditcher.

On that same day bids will be open for a 1 1/2 ton Kaiser cargo truck. Precinct 3 will have vehicles to trade in which can be considered by potential bidders.

In other business it was noted that Judge Paul Fortenberry has been appointed the census liaison officer for the county.

Several CD's were also renewed: $50,000 from the General Fund for 60 days; $40,000 from Precinct 2 for 90 days; and revenue sharing funds of $37,411.58 plus interest for 60 days.

The 1980 budget hearing has been set for 3 p.m. September 4 in the county courtroom.

Extension agents gave reports of their past, present and upcoming activities.

The Commissioners also inspected the dam site at Bovina, noting that there were no cracks, trails or damage etc.

Extension Agents Urge 4-H Club Membership

4-H Clubs are starting up for the 1979-80 year and if you are between the ages of 9 and 19 you are invited to join.

4-H is a youth development program designed to develop young people through the involvement of parents and other volunteers. In 4-H, young people can grow in knowledge, skills, citizenship and leadership.

As with all Texas Agricultural Extension Service programs, 4-H is open to anyone without regard to age, socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin. Young people and their parents are encouraged to attend a meeting and find out what 4-H is all about. Come see if this is what you're looking for.

4-H Clubs in Parmer County meet at the following times and places:

Bovina: 1st Tuesday of the month, 3:45, School Cafeteria.

Lazbuddie: 2nd Monday of the month, 3:45, School Cafeteria.

Frona: 3rd Monday of the month, 7:30, Methodist Church.

Farwell: 3rd Tuesday of the month, 3:30, Jr. High Library.

For more information, County Extension Agents Seth Ralston and Laura Jacobs, will be glad to visit with you in their office on the 2nd floor of the courthouse in Farwell, or call 481-3619.

ard, Jerry Sadberry, Rebecca Topf, Herman Gerles, Mike Littlejohn, Eddie West, Kay Burch, Danalee Sluder, Connie Elliott, Audrey Kittrell and Raymond Hadley.

Since New Mexico State regulations have increased it is more difficult for a person to be certified as a school bus driver, Jim Pierce, superintendent said, adding that is why the Board approved so many new drivers. Of those approved it is hoped that the necessary number of activity drivers will become certified.

The contract of Kathleen Whitehouse was extended one more period -- to four -- because of an overload in the junior high social studies department.

Kenneth Shaw and James Harding were also approved as voting delegates for the junior high and high school to the New Mexico Activities Association. The organization covers all types of school activities.

A bus will be chartered to the Hatch-Wolverine football game. Pierce reported that the football boys are raising some of the cost of the journey themselves.

November 27 has been set as the 'program review day' for the Texico schools. Three officials from the state will visit the schools at that time to examine all programs etc.

The Board also adopted a policy for purging special education records which are three or more years old. Under this policy parents of special education children may see the records and obtain a copy if their permission is obtained in writing and retained as part of the school's records. When the records are to be destroyed the principal of each building will burn them.

Attending the board meeting were members Arlye Crooks, Herman Gerles, Ronny Curry, Mike Spearman and Greg Martin. Also attending were Superintendent Pierce, Marcia Leavell and Paula Leighton.

Priscilla Wauson Wed To Rodney Herington

MR. AND MRS. RODNEY HERINGTON

Priscilla Ann Wauson of Plains and Rodney Scott Herington of Farwell were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, Aug. 4, in the First Baptist Church in Plains.

Rev. Glenn Harlan, pastor, officiated at the ceremony which was at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Wauson of Plains and Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Herington of Farwell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length white satin gown overlaid with sheer nylon. The white lace bodice had an empire waist trimmed with bridal pearls as was the mandarin collar. Long sheer sleeves with embroidered lace motifs were edged with fitted lace cuffs. Her chapel length illusion net train was edged with chantilly lace and pearls and was attached to a caplet of white lace.

Her cascade bouquet was of blue and white carnations accented with baby's breath and blue satin streamers. In carrying out bridal tradition her garter was blue; her dress was new; something old was her Grandmother Carter's wedding band; and something borrowed were pearl earrings. She also carried pennies minted in the years of the couple's births.

The couple repeated their vows at an altar setting of a golden arch decorated with greenery and blue bows. The archway was flanked by bouquets of blue carnations and baby's breath accented with large blue bows. Family pews were marked with blue bows.

Brenda Winegeart of Farwell was the maid of honor. Pauline Wauson of Lubbock, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride's attendants wore formal length gowns of light blue crepe with empire waistlines, sheer white yokes and long sheer sleeves.

Keith Herington of Farwell, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Steven Cole of Plains, cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Robert Wauson of Plains, and Wayne Wauson of Muleshoe, both brothers of the bride.

Caroline Johnson of Farwell, sister of the bridegroom, registered guests.

Rhonda Cason of Plains sang, "Your Tender Love," "All My Life," and "It Seems I've Always Loved You." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Royce Blair of Plains who also played traditional wedding selections.

At a reception following the ceremony the bride's table was laid with white lace over light blue. An arrangement of blue and white carnations centered the table. The three-tiered white wedding cake trimmed with light blue confection roses was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Crystal and silver appointments completed the table setting. Presiding at the bride's table were Paula Myers of Littlefield, Gloria Wauson and Theada Wauson of Plains, sisters of the bride.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a blue cloth and a three layer chocolate cake with chocolate frosting was served with coffee. Presiding at this table were Mary Wauson of Muleshoe and Janette Wauson of Brownfield, sisters-in-law of the bride.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Plains High School and attended South Plains College at Levelland. Herington attended Farwell High School and is engaged in farming at Farwell. Following a wedding trip to Roswell, N.M., the couple is at home at Farwell.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Dean R. Kuhn of Clovis announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathleen, to Tim Bradshaw, son of S.W. Bradshaw of Farwell. The couple will exchange vows Saturday, Sept. 22, at 3 p.m. MDT in the Cannon Air Force Base chapel. All friends and relatives of the couple are cordially invited to attend. The bride-elect is a 1975 graduate of Clovis High School and a 1978 graduate of Eastern New Mexico University. She is presently employed by a Clovis physician. The prospective bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of Farwell High School and a 1977 graduate of the Lincoln Technical Institute in Dallas. He is presently employed by a transport trucking company.

JAY ABERNATHY

Snacks For After School Nibblers

The start of school will bring the challenge of providing snacks to bridge that gap from lunch to dinner. Snack time is a good time to sneak in some extra nutrition packed foods, to boost energy, says Mae Martha Johnson, Extension food specialist at New Mexico State University.

The best way to insure a supply of nutritious snacks is to plan for them when you plan regular meals. If the day's menu is short of fruits and vegetables, plan snacks of apples and oranges or crisp vegetables with a cottage cheese dip. If you're short of milk in the day's menu - serve cheese or pudding for snacks.

There are favorite snacks within each of the four food groups. The meat group contains cubes of luncheon meat, peanut butter sandwiches and hard cooked eggs. From the milk group select milkshakes, cottage cheese, cheddar cheese cubes and cheese dips.

Cold juice, hot soup, fresh fruits and raw vegetables are good choices from the vegetable and fruit group. Enriched bread for sandwiches, cereal snack mix and oatmeal cookies come from the bread and cereal group.

With the many possible combinations from the four food groups, planning will make snacks interesting, appetizing and nutritious, Mrs. Johnson says.

Has Birthday

Jay Abernathy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Abernathy of Albuquerque, N.M., celebrated his eighth birthday August 23 at the home of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Gast in Farwell.

The birthday cake was decorated with a stage coach and Indians on horses. Ice cream was also served.

Jay's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hez Abernathy of Clovis, also attended the party along with his aunt and cousins, Mrs. Randy Abernathy, Jeff and Jennifer, also of Clovis.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Worley, John and Matt Chandler, LaWanda Williams and Charles Frakes, all of Clovis, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bishop and Dolly Aldridge, of Farwell.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Susan Meeks And Doug Scioli

In an afternoon ceremony in Farwell Church of Christ on Saturday, Aug. 11, Susan Gay Meeks of Farwell became the bride of Norman Douglas Scioli of Texico. Leonard Harper, minister of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Meeks of Farwell and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Scioli of Texico.

The couple stood before the altar which was decorated with a heart-shaped candelabrum holding yellow tapers and centered with greenery. The candelabrum was flanked by arrangements of gladioli, daisies, roses and baby's breath in colors of yellow and blue. At the side of the center arrangement was a white unity candle which the couple lit at the close of the ceremony.

J.R. Sewell, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "Follow Me," while the parents and grandparents were being seated. After the bride was given in marriage by her father, a group from the church sang "Wedding Song." "Speak Softly Love" was sung by Sewell while the couple lit the unity candle. Traditional processional and recessional selections were sung by the group. All songs were sung a cappella.

The bride wore a formal gown of white organza featuring an empire waist, high neckline and a ruffled yoke forming the short sleeves. The bodice was trimmed in alençon and venise lace. The full a-line chapel length skirt had a lace-trimmed flounce circling the hemline. Her two-tiered finger tip veil in matching lace was attached to a lace-covered camelot cap.

Her bouquet was a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses, white daisies, baby's breath and stephanotis attached to a small white Bible which was a gift from the bride's mother.

For something old she wore a wedding band which belonged to her late Grandmother Birchfield. Something new was her dress. She borrowed pearl earrings from her sister, Mrs. Debbie Sewell, and something blue was the traditional garter. She also carried pennies minted in the years of the couple's births.

Debbie Sewell served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a sleeveless floral gown of yellow featuring a peasant neckline. The waistline was accented with a self belt and the skirt was gathered and had a deep ruffle.

Other bridal attendants were Lou Ann Kennett of Clovis, sister of the bridegroom, and Ann Scioli of Clovis, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They wore dresses in blue styled identically to that of the matron of honor.

Best man was Mike Scioli of Clovis, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Tom Kennett of Clovis, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and J.R. Sewell, brother-in-law of the bride. Ringbearer was Doug Sewell of Farwell, nephew of the bride, and flowergirl was Trishia Castillo of Hereford, cousin of the bride.

Candlelighters were Jerry and Steve Daniel, cousins of the bridegroom from Warner, Okla. Ushers were Bob Haynes and Bill Kraach, both of Clovis, and Jerry and Steve Daniel.

Vicki Vinton, classmate of the bride, registered the guests at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The registration table was covered with blue lace and held a white plume pen.

The bride's table was covered with a blue lace cloth and held a centerpiece of a four-pronged candelabrum and a floral arrangement of blue and yellow. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and two of the tiers were separated with white columns. White napkins were inscribed in silver with "Susan & Doug, Aug. 11, 1979." Yellow, blue and white daisy mints were served with punch and cake.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of fresh fruit. Chocolate sheet cake was served with coffee from a silver service.

Reception hostesses were Mrs. Bill Meeks, Mrs. C.L. Mahaney, Mrs. Glenn Throckmorton, Mrs. Gerald Curtis, Mrs. Herman Gerles, Mrs. Bill Thigpen, and Tina Gerles. Serving at the bride's table were Val Bass, Rhonda Suderth, Lari Curtis and Sonie Thigpen. Serving at the bridegroom's table were Junelle Miller, Carolyn Hardage and Ruth Ann Whitesides.

For a wedding trip to Lubbock the bride wore a three-piece blue pantsuit.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Farwell High School and is attending ENMU, Clovis Campus. The bridegroom was graduated from Texico High School in 1979 and is employed at McDaniel's Carpet and Tile in Clovis where the couple is at home.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. Mary Scioli of Newark, N.J., grandmother of the bridegroom; Jerry and Steve Daniel of Warner, Okla., Mrs. Mae Shaw and Marsha of Logan, N.M., Jai Meeks, Mrs. Bob Renie, and Chad Banks of Lubbock, Mrs. Kandy Castillo and daughters of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Meeks of Coahoma, Tex. A special guest was Mrs. Chloe Crawford, a resident of Farwell Convalescent Center.

Lazbuddie Homemakers Install New Officers

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers met Thursday, Sept. 6, in the Home Ec room of the Lazbuddie School to install new officers.

Mrs. Bill Morris, advisor, presided over the installation ceremony. Installed were Mrs. Darrell Mason, president; Mrs. Rick Seaton, vice-president; Mrs. Dave Engelking, secretary; Mrs. Kirby Burch, reporter; and Mrs. Clay Mimms, historian.

Each new officer lighted a candle, symbolizing her office and her pledge to fulfill the duties of that office. They were each presented a red silk carnation.

The new president then presided over the business meeting. Discussed were plans for the membership tea to be held Thursday, Sept. 13, in the school cafeteria.

The next order of business was the exchanging of gifts and revealing of secret pals. The door prize, a frosted crystal butterfly sculpture, was drawn by Mrs. Darrell Mason.

Refreshments of donuts and soft drinks were served to Mrs. Lloyd Bradshaw, Casey and Lori; Mrs. Kirby Burch, Jessica and Keith; Mrs. Jim Collum, Tracy and Christy; Jonathan Wilson; Mrs. Dave Engelking and Heather; Mrs. Skip Magby, Dawnda and Mandy; Mrs. Darrell Mason; Mrs. Clay Mimms and Blake; Mrs. Bill Morris; Mrs. Harrol Redwine, Susan and Russell; Mrs. Jimmy Dale Seaton and David; Mrs. Rick Seaton; and Mrs. Doyle Weir.

Mustangs Corral Steers In Season Opener

by Karen Magness

In a game that would have better suited Farwell had it ended at halftime when the Steers held a 7-6 margin, the Olton Mustangs came back for a 26-point scoring spree in the second half to upend the Blue and White 32-13 in the season opener for both teams.

Field condition at Steer Stadium were perfect for the opener which attracted a large crowd.

The Steers got the nod and went to work on offense after James Castleberry took the opening kickoff. On the first play Max Lonsdale, who wound up with over 100 yards in the game, took the handoff and scampered for 11 yards and a Steer first down. On the next play Lonsdale again carried, but the gain was nullified by the first of many offsides penalties assessed against the Blue and White throughout the game.

After a third down quarterback sack of Mark Owen, the Steers were forced to give up the ball. Owen punted and the Mustangs set up shop on their own 39-yard line.

The Steer defense went to work and forced Olton to punt after three downs and regained possession on the Farwell 23. Again cited for an offsides infraction, the Mustangs managed to hold the Steers without a first down and received Owen's punt to start offensive play on their 46.

On second and nine, Mustangs quarterback Vance Strooble picked up 18 yards on a keeper making it first and 10 on Farwell's 37. Strooble was again the key man in the new series picking up another first on Farwell's 21. From there he ran two more plays for first down yardage setting up first and goal on the one. On the next call Johnny Hutson scored the first TD of the game.

Castleberry broke through to recover the scrambled snap on the try for extra point and the Mustangs led 6-0 with 3:13 left in the first quarter.

Steer sophomore Waverly Coates carried twice and picked up the first down on Farwell's next possession. An illegal procedure flag put the Steers back five yards making it first and 15 on their own 35. Owen threw an incomplete pass and then hit Richard Carpenter but yardage was not sufficient for the first down and Owen booted the ball which rolled dead at the Olton 36.

Olton managed to pick up a first down to their 48 as the first period ended.

Strooble was stopped for no gain on the second and nine situation, and on the next down Owen intercepted Strooble's pass and Farwell started offensive operations again.

Coates, Lonsdale and Castleberry handled the ball-toting chores on this drive which netted four first downs as the Steers marched to the Olton goal line and with 4:11 left in the first half, Lonsdale made the Steers' first touchdown. The PAT kicked by Mac Langford was good and Farwell led 7-6.

Olton returned the kickoff to their own 28 and managed to pick up two first downs before the Steer defense dug in to force the punt. Farwell ran three plays and punted to the Mustangs as the first half closed.

The Mustangs came out fired up in the second half with Charles Brown scoring two touchdowns to put his team ahead 19-7.

In Farwell's futile effort to get back in the game, the Steers tried a half-back pass play. Lonsdale threw an incomplete on the first try and on the repetition of the play was intercepted by Marty Walters and the Mustangs again had possession.

As the third quarter ended, Olton held a 19-7 lead over the Steers. In spite of a 15-yard mark off for holding, it took the Mustangs only seven plays to go the distance for their third TD of the second half.

On Farwell's next possession they scored their second and final touchdown of the game when Owen drove in from the one. Castleberry started this drive by returning the kickoff nine yards. Lonsdale then picked up the first down and Owen completed two passes, one to Castleberry and another to Carpenter putting the ball on Olton's 44. Lonsdale then picked up 32 yards on second down and on third down he went for another 11 to set up the scoring play. The Steers' try for two points failed and the score was 26-13, Olton.

On Farwell's attempt at an onside kick the ball failed to travel the required distance and Olton took over with good field position and with 1:37 left in the game, Strooble connected with Roy Luera for a TD. The extra point kick was blocked by Castleberry making the score 32-13.

After a 27-yard runback of the Mustang kickoff, Owen was intercepted on first down and Olton retained possession of the ball until the final gun.

Steer Speedster

The Farwell Steers played host to Class AA Olton Friday night in the first gridiron match of the season. Steer Max Lonsdale (#42) rushes for good yardage in the first quarter as fellow Steer Willie Martin (#77) paves the way with a good block. The Blue and White's next action is this Friday against Morton at 8 p.m.

Catching Coates

Several Olton defenders are shown in hot pursuit of Farwell Steer Waverly Coates (#22) who streaks for good yardage near the end of the second stanza of Friday's season opener. Regular season action continues tonight (Friday) as the Steers host another Class AA school -- Morton. Game time is 8 p.m.

Job Well Done

Several Steer defenders are shown walking away after a job well done -- namely stopping the Olton ball carrier. In spite of moments like this, the Blue and White fell to the powerful Class AA team, 32-13.

Farwell JV Whops Olton

The Farwell junior varsity football team started its season last Thursday with a soft bang as they defeated Olton, 6-0, at Olton. Ralph Paez scored the lone run from five yards out. The point after attempt failed.

"We played real well," commented coach Mike Martin. "It was a good team effort."

Players drawing the coaches' praise were Emilio and Ralph Paez on offense and Brian Langdon on defense.

Steers Of The Week

Mac Langford (#50) and Boyd White (#40) have been named "Steers of the Week" by the Farwell coaching staff. Langford was chosen "offensive player of the week" because he did a "super job of blocking Olton's middle linebacker," said head coach Randy Adrian.

White was selected for the defensive player of the week honors because of "key tackles in the secondary." Other Steers receiving awards but not pictured are Chris Bristow, "big hit," and Max Lonsdale, the "win" or enthusiasm award.

AVISO PUBLICO

Breves Declaraciones Explicativas De Las ENMIENDAS CONSTITUCIONALES PROPUESTAS ELECCION ESPECIAL 6 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 1979

PROPOSICION NO. 1 EN LA BOLETA (H.J.R. 108)

La Resolución Conjunta #108 de la Cámara de Representantes propone una enmienda en la constitución de Texas referente al nombramiento y a los plazos de los notarios públicos.

La enmienda propuesta: —Requerirá que el Secretario de Estado nombre a un número conveniente de notarios públicos para el estado; y —autorizará para que los plazos oficiales para notarios públicos sean por no menos de dos años y por no más de cuatro años.

La provisión temporal de la enmienda constitucional propuesta declara que la enmienda entrará en vigor el 1° de enero de 1980; que cada persona que haya sido nombrada como notario público antes del 1° de enero de 1980 continuará ejerciendo como notario público hasta vencerse el plazo por el que fue nombrado; y que esta provisión temporal se vencerá el 1° de enero de 1982.

La enmienda propuesta aparecerá en la boleta como sigue: "La enmienda constitucional para el nombramiento de notarios públicos para el estado para un plazo de no menos de dos años ni de más de cuatro años, según lo provisto por la ley."

PROPOSICION NO. 2 EN LA BOLETA (H.J.R. 133)

La Resolución Conjunta #133 de la Cámara de Representantes propone una enmienda en la constitución de Texas para proveer una revisión del proceso reglamentario en las agencias del departamento ejecutivo. Esta enmienda propuesta permitirá a la Legislatura el decretar leyes:

—Para proveer una revisión legislativa del proceso reglamentario en las agencias del departamento ejecutivo;

—Para prescribir condiciones para que las leyes sean puestas en vigor;

—Para suspender, revocar o expirar las reglas;

—Para delegar autoridad a cualquiera o a ambas cámaras, o a los comités de cualquiera o de ambas cámaras.

La enmienda propuesta aparecerá en la boleta como sigue:

"La enmienda constitucional para autorizar a la Legislatura para que por medio de la venta de bonos de obligación general del Estado de Texas, provea una garantía para que las personas calificadas puedan obtener préstamos para la compra de bienes raíces agrícolas y ganaderas."

PROPOSICION NO. 3 EN LA BOLETA (S.J.R. 13)

La Resolución Conjunta Senatorial #13 propone una enmienda en la constitución de Texas para autorizar a la Legislatura para que provea una garantía de préstamos, a las personas calificadas, para la compra de bienes raíces agrícolas y ganaderas. De esta manera, la enmienda propuesta podría permitir a la Legislatura el proveer, emitir y vender bonos de obligación general llamados "Farm and Ranch Loan Security Bonds" (Bonos de Seguridad Para Préstamos Agrícolas y Ganaderos) del Estado de Texas, sin exceder la cantidad de $10 millones de dólares. Todo dinero recibido de la venta de estos bonos sería depositado en un fondo diferente en la Tesorería Estatal y sería administrado por el comisionado de agricultura, sin más apropiaciones. Estos fondos garantizarían préstamos para la compra de bienes raíces agrícolas y ganaderas. El comisionado de agricultura usaría estos fondos bajo las provisiones prescritas por la Legislatura, con el propósito de garantizar préstamos para la compra de bienes raíces agrícolas y ganaderas; para adquirir hipotecas de bienes raíces o escrituras de bienes raíces compradas con préstamos garantizados. Estos fondos serían usados también para adelantar un porcentaje del principal y del interés debido en esos préstamos, a la persona que califique para el préstamo. La Legislatura también podría autorizar al comisionado de agricultura para que venda cualquier terreno adquirido mediante esta enmienda. El comisionado de agricultura requeriría al menos un 6 por ciento de interés en dichos préstamos. La enmienda propuesta aparecerá en la boleta como sigue:

Varsity, JV Steerettes Lose First Games To Dora

The Farwell varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams suffered back-to-back losses to Dora last Thursday. The Dora Coyotes took advantage of the home court to upend the varsity Steerettes, 15-8 and 15-9 and to defeat the Farwell JV, 15-9 and 15-4.

commented. "They have a tough schedule to play this year and the girls will need all the support they can get. Competition will be tough."

Varsity high scorers were Terri Cole, 7, and Sharon Kalbas, 3.

Other varsity players include Alice Cantu, Tammy Hernandez, Trini Garcia, Dolly Bermea and Rhonda Dale.

JV team members are Dana Hukill, Kalbas, Toni Spears, Wanna Menning, Angelica Jaime and Diane Coleman.

Anybody can "talk" energy savings. Olson did something about it.

Olson's extra big 7" mainline will save you thousands of energy dollars over others' 6" or 6 1/2" mainlines.

Any engineer will tell you: the larger the mainline the less friction you'll have pumping water through it. Less friction means less hp and less power consumption. That's why, of all major center pivot manufacturers, only Olson gives you a big 7" mainline as standard equipment. All others are 6" or 6 1/2".

Texico Wolverines Crush Mountainair Mustangs

Gotch Ya

The Texico Wolverines were in fine form Friday night as they whipped the Mountainair Mustangs, 43-14, before an ecstatic home crowd. James Robinson

Texico Wolverines blasted visiting Mountainair Friday night, 43-14. Herbert Bibbs and Robert Thornton each rushed for two touchdowns as the Green and White won their first game of the new season.

Even though Texico won the game, the visiting Mustangs drew first blood as Ray Getman fired a 35-yard pass to Pat Paez. Jim Lem added the point after.

The Wolverines bounced right back with a 36-yard scoring run by Herbert Bibbs. The extra point attempt was no good and the Mustangs led 6-7 after the first quarter.

Key blocking and Herbert Bibbs' nimble feet combined to earn Texico another score -- a 94-yard dash to pay dirt. Britt Crooks kicked the PAT and Texico took a 13-7 lead.

The see-saw first half battle continued as Getman passed 30 yards to Martie Lovato who went in for the score. Lem again added the PAT and Mountainair went ahead, 14-13.

But before the first two quarters of play were over Texico regained the lead permanently when they moved the ball down the field and Thornton went in from the three. Crooks kicked the extra point and at the half Texico was ahead 20-14.

The tough "mean green" defense refused to let the visitors score in the second half while in contrast the explosive Wolverine offense added four more scores to their credit.

Thornton scored on a one-yard run and David Cavallero caught a Hadley pass for the two-point conversion, giving the Wolverines a commanding 28-14 lead after three quarters.

Hadley came back to score on a 15-yard run, but the extra point was missed, giving the Wolverines a 34-14 bulge. Newcomer Shawn Perkins, split end, took a turn at scoring, catching a seven-yard pass from Hadley. Again the extra point was missed.

Crooks added the final Texico score with slightly more than five minutes left in the game -- a 24-yard field goal.

Herbert Bibbs led Texico's scoring game with 212 yards on 22 carries and two touchdowns.

Hadley rushed eight times for 54 yards and one touchdown and Thornton had 24 yards rushing on nine carries and two touchdowns.

Perkins was leading receiver with five receptions for 127 yards and one touchdown. David Cavallero made two receptions for 18 yards and Crooks had one for 13 yards.

Quarterback Hadley completed eight of 19 passes for 158 yards and a touchdown.

"Good First Game" --

Topliff Sums Up Wolverine Victory

"It was a good first game," Texico head coach Paul Topliff said after the Wolverines trampled Mountainair, 43-14, in the first game of the season. "We needed that win. We made a few more mistakes in the first half than I would have liked which kept the game going back and forth a while," Topliff continued.

According to the fourth year head coach, the Wolverines played a "good aggressive game with a lot of physical contact." However, the secondary did not perform as well as expected. They were not aggressive enough, according to the coach, and the kicking game was off with several extra points being missed.

Several Wolverines have been singled out for honors, including Herbert Bibbs and Ron Kirby who were named "Wolverines of the Week."

Bibbs carried the ball 22 times for 224 yards and two touchdowns, one a 94-yard scoring ramble. "He's given us that outside speed that we haven't had at Texico," Topliff said. "He cuts off blocks as well, as anybody I've ever coached and he runs across the grain well."

Bibbs also received the "hardest hit" award. Other honors include the Amarillo Daily-News naming him as one of their runner-up New Mexico players of the week.

Kirby was very aggressive on defense earning two unassisted and 10 assisted tackles and sacking the quarterback twice for losses of three and seven yards.

James Hadley received the specialty team award. According to Topliff, Hadley was also "outstanding as quarterback" and will remain in that position with Todd Gerles, sophomore, as backup.

Even though the defense played well, Topliff is concerned with the secondary who "weren't reacting right."

"They had good defensive position but kept letting Mountainair catch the ball," he said. Topliff also praised the offensive line, crediting assistant coach Roy King with

"doing a good job" with both the offensive and defensive lines.

He also credits some of their mistakes to "first game jitters." He expects the offense to "be more explosive this year." But the key to a successful season remains how healthy the Wolverines will continue to be.

Texico's next challenge is Christ the King school from Lubbock at Wolverine Stadium this Friday at 6:30 p.m. MDT.

"They are a big team," Topliff said. "Even though they lost 10 seniors off last year's squad I still expect them to be tough."

Hadley Scores

When James Hadley, #10 on the Texico Wolverine squad, runs he really runs. Here he takes off with the ball on a quarterback keeper while Clyde Bibbs [461] and other Wolverines provide key blocks. Their efforts were successful as Hadley made it all the way into the end zone for a fourth quarter score.

Wolverines Of The Week

Ron Kirby and Herbert Bibbs have been selected "Wolverines of the Week" for the Texico-Mountainair game which found the Wolverines on top of the 43-14 score. Kirby drew defensive honors for making two unassisted and 10 assisted tackles and sacking the quarterback twice for losses of three and seven yards. Bibbs is the offensive standout on the strength of his 22 carries which netted the Wolverines 224 yards and two touchdowns. He also received the "hardest hit" award. The

Girls Win Volleyball Games

The varsity and junior varsity Texico Wolverine girls traveled to Dora September 4 for the first games of the volleyball season with the varsity girls winning the final game, 15-11, and the JV claiming back-to-back wins of 15-7 and 15-11.

"Serving was our strong point," commented Mike Littlejohn, varsity coach. "We fell behind 3-9 in the final game, but our girls didn't give up and came back to win, 15-11. I was very proud of the way they fought back. Becky McDonald served the first six straight points for the victory," he continued. "Lori Harrington's serving in the final game was excellent, scoring 11 of 15 points."

"The JV girls also looked real good," Littlejohn said. "Their serving was very good in both games. We struck hard and fast in both games. Tracy Dobbs and Jacque Tatum served exceptionally well."

Total points scored by varsity players were Harrington, 16; Roxanne Cherry and Lisa Coffey, 6 each; Becky McDonald, 8; and Tracy Dobbs, 1.

Scoring points for the JV were Jacque Tatum, 9; Tracy Dobbs, 7; Laura Horne and Kerri Donahey, 6 each; Schree Rucker and Jo Beth Hill, 1 each.

Amarillo Daily-News also cited Bibbs as one of the runner-up New Mexico Players of the Week.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 6, 1979

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 108)

House Joint Resolution 108 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution relating to the appointment and terms of notaries public. The proposed amendment would: --Require the Secretary of State to appoint a convenient number of Notaries Public for the state; and --Authorize terms of office of Notaries Public of not less than two years nor more than four years.

A temporary provision of the proposed constitutional amendment provides that the amendment would take effect January 1, 1980; that each person who was appointed a notary public before January 1, 1980, would continue to serve as a notary public for the term for which the person was appointed; and that this temporary provision would expire January 1, 1982.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the appointment of notaries public for the state and for a term of not less than two years nor more than four years as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 133)

House Joint Resolution 133 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department. The proposed amendment would enact laws:

- To provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department;
 - To prescribe conditions for rules to take effect;
 - To provide for suspension, repeal, or expiration of rules;
 - To prescribe procedures; and
 - To delegate powers to either or both houses or to committees of either or both houses.
- The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution authorizing the Legislature to provide for the guarantee of loans used to purchase farm and ranch real estate for qualified borrowers. The proposed amendment would allow the Legislature to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds called "Farm and Ranch Loan Security Bonds" of the State of Texas not to exceed 10 million dollars. All money received from the sale of such bonds would be deposited in a separate fund with the State Treasurer and administered by the commissioner of agriculture without further appropriations. These funds would be used to guarantee loans for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate. The commissioner of agriculture would use these funds, under provisions to be prescribed by the Legislature for the purpose of guaranteeing loans used for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate, to acquire real estate mortgages or deeds of trust on lands purchased with guaranteed loans. These funds would also be used to advance to the borrower a percentage of the principal and interest due. The Legislature may also authorize the commissioner of agriculture to sell at foreclosure any land acquired in the manner authorized by this amendment. The commissioner of agriculture would be required to charge at least 6 percent interest on such loans. The proposed amendment appropriates an amount that is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds that mature or become due during the fiscal year less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the guarantee of loans for purchase of farm and ranch real estate for qualified borrowers by the sale of general obligation bonds of the State of Texas."

Adrian Sizes Up Steers; Contemplates AA Morton

The Farwell Steers opened their 1979 gridiron season Friday night with a disappointing loss to Olton. "Our defense hurt us," commented first year Steer coach Randy Adrian. "Olton really took it to us the second half. We couldn't stop them. However, I think we moved the ball well against their defense. Even so we should have scored one more time in the first half."

According to Adrian, a big difficulty Friday night was that many of the defensive players were not experienced at the positions they were playing.

"Our defensive line and linebackers played poorly and that is something we are going to have to correct," he said. Another problem is that a Class AA school like Olton has more depth than Farwell.

"We stayed with them in the first half but later their depth took its toll on us," Adrian commented. The Steers were also hindered by penalties which killed key drives.

The Farwell coaches have selected two players as "Steers of the Week." Offensive standout is Mac Langford who "blocked Olton's middle linebacker well." Langford also graded out 88 percent for total effort.

Defensive honors went to Boyd White for making key tackles in the secondary.

Chris Bristow earned the "big hit" award on a kickoff in the second half and the "win" or enthusiasm award was bestowed upon Max Lonsdale "who showed enthusiasm throughout the game."

Lonsdale rushed 15 times for 102 yards. Waverly Coates carried 11 times for 44 yards and James Castleberry earned 34 yards on five carries. He also made two receptions and Richard Carpenter had three.

Farwell will get another chance to test its mettle against a Class AA school this Friday when they host the Morton Indians at 8 p.m.

"It will be another tough game because they are bigger than we are," Adrian said. "We will have to play our best and not make the same mistakes we made against Olton. We have to be able to shut down their offense and move the ball against their defense."

Even though Morton was 2-8 last year and 0-10 the year before, first year head coach Tony Mauldin is confident that he has the nucleus of a good team. He feels that he has some good players in the 30 kids who are out for football this year.

A contender to watch is senior halfback and linebacker David Moore (180 pounds) who rushed for 600 yards last year even though he was plagued with an injury which caused him to miss three games.

Others in the Indians' backfield will be fullback James Dent, junior, (170 pounds) and Lonnie Bracken, senior wingback (150 pounds). However, Morton is not expected to start

Upcoming Sports Events In Texico And Farwell

The Farwell Steers will host Morton this Friday at 8 p.m. in the second shoot-out of the regular gridiron season. Everyone is encouraged to don their blue and white duds and come and support their team.

This should be quite a grudge match. The Texico Wolverines will host Christ The King School of Lubbock tonight (Friday) at 6:30 p.m. MDT. Last season Christ The King was one of the two teams to defeat Texico, the runner-up Class A State Champs.

The Steerettes' varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams will have two opportunities next week to pick up a win in the 1979 season. On Monday they travel to Logan and on Tuesday they host Elida. Game times are 5:30 and 6:30 p.m., respectively.

The Farwell Junior High 7th and 8th grade Yearlings were to kick off their season Thursday night at Morton. The JV was also to play. All three teams will be open next Thursday, but action resumes September 27 when the 7th and 8th Yearlings and the JV squad travel to Friona.

The combined 8th and 9th grade Texico junior high team will take on Tucumcari this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. MDT at Wolverine Stadium. It will be their first game of the regular season and a first for Mike Littlejohn, who is a first-year Texico coach.

The Texico varsity, junior varsity and junior high girls were to travel to Grady Thursday for several volleyball matches. On September 20 they will take to the road seeking wins against Melrose. Game time is 4 p.m. MDT.

Gains Yardage

Texico Wolverine Britt Crooks was way out in front of several Mountainair defenders Friday night as he churned up the turf in the third quarter. His actions were not for naught as a few plays later the Wolverines charged into the end zone for still another score.

You Can Help Your Child Improve In School Work

After remembering last year's report cards, you and your child may both be resolved to see better grades this year. However, you may not know how to help your child because you don't know what is causing the problem. "High distractibility is the single trait that most influences a child's performance in school," said Leo Yates, Extension family life specialist at New Mexico State University. "Your child's attitude towards new experiences may spell success or failure in school work.

"You must recognize that your child has a certain learning style and it is influenced by his own personality characteristics," Yates said. "You can help your child learn more efficiently by showing him that you have a respect for learning."

Officials Inspect Bovina Dam Site

Officials of the Parmer County Commissioners Court, Soil and Water Conservation District, and the Soil Conservation Service met on September 10, and toured the Bovina dam site on Catfish Draw, a part of the Running Water Draw Watershed project.

The grass made an excellent seed crop this year and all were pleased at the progress being made on establishing a permanent grass cover on the dam.

Although several good rains have fallen in the area in the past weeks, the dam does not have water in it. However, the playa lake behind the dam has some water in it and hopefully the lake will fill and hold water in the future.

The Parmer County Commissioners Court and the Soil and Water Conservation District are the sponsoring organizations. The Bovina floodwater retention dam was completed and dedicated in 1973.

Construction on Parmer County's second dam, near Lazbuddie, is complete and will be seeded to grass next spring.

Other structures are scheduled to be built between Parmer County and the city of Plainview.

Inspect Bovina Dam

Several Parmer County officials inspected the Bovina Dam site Monday. They are, from left, M.C. Osborn, Soil and Water Conservation District Director; Ernest Anthony, county commissioner; Archie Tarter, county commissioner; Raymond McGehee, county commissioner; Paul Fortenberry, county judge; Jack Peterson, county commissioner; and Drew M. Mauldin, Jr. district conservationist. [SWCD Photo]

Hay Mulching Completed At Lazbuddie Dam

The contract for plowing and hay mulching site #3 Running Water Draw Watershed dam, near Lazbuddie has been completed.

The rate of hay mulch applied was two and one-half tons per acre, with 65 acres hay mulched.

With this rate of mulch, little or no water or wind erosion will occur. The hay mulch will also provide organic matter for the grass mixture to be planted next spring.

The plowing and hay mulching was completed by Cooper Vegetation from Sentinel, Okla.

The Soil Conservation Service built this dam, in cooperation with the local sponsoring organizations, the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District and the Commissioners Court.

In choosing upholstery fabrics, ask yourself how much wear and tear the fabric will receive. Then select one that can "take the action" at your house. Read hangtags for fiber content.

For low-to-medium cost fabrics, nylon, vinyl or olefin make reasonable choices, but cigarette burns will melt these fabrics.

If vinyl is the choice, be sure it's expanded vinyl with a knit fabric backing for long wear under hard conditions.

In studying different fabrics, consider those with tightly twisted fiber and firm weaves. These wear well.

Also, look for a fabric made of same-size yarns rather than fabrics with heavy yarns running one way and light-weight yarns another way.

Check to see how much light comes through the fabric. Looser weaves show more light, a sure sign they won't wear well.

Also, raised yarns will snag and pull, and they generally do not wear well.

A rubberized backing can help fabric keep its shape, but beware of too much backing - it may be holding together a fabric woven too loosely for long wear.

Ask about finishes that will protect fabrics from stains. Olefin is naturally stain resistant. Others may need some type of added protection.

Agricultural Briefs

Causes of poor egg production -- A drop in egg production in small flocks is most often due to reduced daylight, health problems, old age, improper nutrition and poor management. A poultry specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, suggests the use of artificial light and providing plenty of fresh water and a high-protein (17 percent), well-fortified, properly balanced ration for laying hens.

Energy Efficient Cattle Industry -- The cattle industry must continue to work toward being more energy efficient, says an animal scientist with the Texas A&M University System. Some ways in which the cattle industry has conserved energy are changing from double-decker to triple-decker trucks for hauling cattle, merchandising cattle directly to buyers in feedlots, and streamlining packing houses to handle more cattle in less time.

Vegetable Producers Meeting Set Oct. 17-18

Vegetable producers from all over Texas will be attending the annual meeting of the Texas Vegetable Association in Houston, on October 17 and 18. The theme of the conference this year is "Better Energy Utilization in Vegetable Production." The conference this year promises to be the best ever, stated Jerral D. Johnson, Executive Secretary of the organization. Topics will vary from getting the most from your irrigation pumping dollar to the possible use of vegetables in gasohol production. The feature address will be by the Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Reagan Brown.

The meeting will begin at noon on October 17 and will involve a tour of vegetable variety plots, fungicide trials and the use of JMS stylet oil for the control of viruses in squash. The formal meeting will begin on the 18th of October at the Quality Inn Motel near the Intercontinental Airport, 6115 Jetero Blvd. in Houston.

The meeting is open to anyone interested in vegetable production. For further information on the upcoming meeting, contact Dr. Jerral D. Johnson, Executive Secretary of the Texas Vegetable Association, P.O. Drawer B5, Aggeland Station, College Station, Texas, telephone - 713-845-8032.

'Accident-Free' Driving Earns Employee Honors

Safety is a number one concern of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative. Recently, 18 employees were honored with an award breakfast by USF&G Insurance Company for their safe driving.

Calvin Stevens of USF&G Company, Lubbock, and Bud Eades of Plains Insurance, Hereford, complimented these drivers for their skills, expertise and safety consciousness, despite their continued exposure to accident-causing situations.

Certificates were presented to drivers who logged a total of 514,811 miles from April 1, 1978 through March 31, 1979.

Boyd Collins, the Safety Coordinator, was cited for driving 18 years without an accident, and Tommie Weemes for 17 years of safe driving.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60633

CAN THE LAW SAVE?

This writer does not wear clerical garb, but somehow when he visits a church away from home, someone is apt to step up to him and ask: "Are you by any chance a minister?" Acts 13 tells how this once happened to Paul and Barnabas. They had entered a synagogue as strangers and simply sat down to listen. After "the reading of the law and the prophets," however, the leaders of the service sent someone to ask them: "Ye men and brethren, if ye have some word of exhortation for the people, say on" (Verses 14 and 15). Somehow Paul and Barnabas had been recognized as men of God.

The custom at that time was to read a passage from the Law and then some passage in which the prophets urged the people to observe the Law. This was followed by an exhortation by one or more of the religious leaders present.

Well, Paul did have a word of exhortation for the people, but it would be somewhat of a surprise. Getting to the point of his message, he preached to them Christ and the resurrection, and closed his talk with the words: "Be it known unto you, therefore, men and brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; and by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Verses 38 and 39). This was the gist of his "exhortation": Don't trust in the Law for salvation—trust in Christ, who fulfilled the Law and died for your sins. This makes sense, and it agrees with the Bible as a whole. "By the law is the knowledge of sin" (Romans 3:20); "it was added because of transgressions" (Galatians 3:19); "for as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse" (Gal. 3:10); but "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us" (Gal. 3:13). "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law" (Romans 3:28).

It should be obvious that the Law can only condemn sinners, but it is also a fact that Christ died for sinners, to save them from the condemnation of the Law. "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:1).
