Financial Blow --

Grain Embargo Affects Country's Elevators

by Alan Blanchard
News Editor

Amidst low grain prices brought on by the partial embargo ordered by President Carter on January 4, the country elevator continues to lose up to a $1,000 a day in interest costs. Unable to sell the grain which they purchased from farmers, the elevator has little recourse but to sit and wait, hoping that the market price of grains will climb again.

"If the market doesn't come back, not only is the farmer going to be hurting on this deal, but also the country elevators are going to receive a (financial) blow. The elevator people got caught with no market for the grain they just finished paying a high price for," Prentice Mills, county executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS), said.

"The elevators were so busy buying grain that they didn't arrange for buyers. The elevators usually have a pretty good idea of where they will sell their grain, but the rug was jerked from beneath them when the embargo was declared and the market halted," he said.

"So now the elevator is having to pay interest on their loans which they took out at 12 to 14 percent interest with which to buy the farmer's grain," Mills said.

"Before the embargo hit, farmers were able to break even and stay in business with the level of prices for grain then. Now, however, the cost of production exceeds the much lower market price for grain caused by the embargo," he said.

"One direct result of this drop is that there is an increased participation by farmers in our loan program. They are taking a wait and see attitude and the program provides some immediate protection for the farmer," Mills said.

In talking with area elevators, the Tribune learned that the country elevator has not in the past and is not currently eligible to receive federal assistance, such as farmers are able to with the ASCS loan programs.

"We were finally getting some hopper cars and preparing to sell our summer wheat when the embargo came along. So we're stuck with the wheat we purchased because we can't sell it," Fred Chandler, manager of Sherley-Anderson-Pitman Inc. of Farwell, said.

"This embargo could break some elevators that aren't financially sound. A $1,000 worth of interest is what some elevators are probably paying each day the market price of grain remains low on their loans and that's quite a bit," he said.

"It's just a gamble holding onto the grain, hoping that the prices will rally. If an elevator has 50 customers and each of those farmers are hurt financially, then the elevator is hurt 50 times as much. The nature of the elevator business is that we put all of our eggs in one basket," Chandler said.

Asked if the government decided to purchase grain from exporters in the U.S., would it help the country elevators, Chandler said, "it wouldn't help us because the exporters will sell grain to the government that they already have, not purchase more from the country elevators.

"We're left out in the dark when it comes to consideration for the country elevators and it's not going to help the farmers in this nation one bit if the country elevators go broke," he said.

"If things go back up in price and we get a market for our grain we'll be able to come out all right," Chandler said.

"If not, some country elevators which are not sound could collapse in three to six months," he added.

"We bought up all this grain from farmers with high interest loan money and now don't have a market for it. There are some bids on wheat, but not enough for the elevator to break even," Bill Thigpen, manager of Worley Mills Inc. (Continued on Page 2)

Storm Brings Needed Moisture

Old man winter showed his true colors last weekend when a rain and ice storm hit eastern New Mexico and western Texas.

The storm left everything coated with ice and icicles on Monday morning and created slick streets, roads and highways. Wheat farmers, however, were pleased with the precipitation the storm brought to the area.

It was estimated that surrounding areas received as much as a half inch of precipitation.

Homecoming Royalty Crowned At Texico

by John Kelley
THS Writer

Basketball homecoming activities for 1980 at Texico High School climaxed at halftime of the junior varsity game Saturday night when Becky McDonald and Britt Crooks were crowned as the 1980 Basketball Queen and King.

Becky is a junior and the daughter of Mrs. Phyllis Fenn. Crooks, a senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlye Crooks.

The new royalty was crowned by last year's winners, Keith Hadley and Tonye Harrington.

Members of the Royal Court were Lori Harrington, Schree Rucker, Lisa Coffey and Teresa Golledge, queen candidates; and James Hadley, Neal Haile, Steve Kittrell and Rusty Jameson, king candidates.

Crownbearer and flower girl for the coronation were first graders Joshua Autrey, son of Mrs. Shirley Autrey, and Shellie Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Morris.

Lights in the gym were dimmed as the candidates were presented. Each couple was spotlighted as they made their way to the lighted stage down an aisle outlined by candles.

In keeping with the theme of the homecoming "Deja-vu," the outer gymnasium lobby walls had been decorated with old jokes and the question, "Do you remember these?" In the inner lobby each wall was decorated with numerous old photos and once again asked the question, "Do you remember these?" The gymnasium itself was decorated with large white basketballs and several plants.

During the activities Kay Warmuth was named the most loyal Wolverine supporter and John Hadley of Texico was named the oldest attending graduate, having graduated in 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Armstrong of Gallup, New Mex., were recognized for both being Texico High School graduates and having traveled the farthest to attend the homecoming festivities.

A large crowd of alumni turned out for the district clash with the Dora Coyotes. Classes represented ranged from 1935 to 1979, with last year's graduates registering the greatest number of Wolverine supporters to attend the games with a total of 15, followed by the class of 1975 which registered a total of nine alumni attending. After the coronation, the Wolverines took a clean sweep of the evening's games as the junior varsity boys, varsity girls and varsity boys all claimed victories over the Dora Coyotes.

Following the final game a reception was in the school library co-sponsored by the Wolverine Booster Club and the Student Council.

The Homecoming Committee would like to extend special appreciation to all of those who worked on the festivities in any capacity.

Texico Royalty

Britt Crooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlye Crooks, and Becky McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Fenn, were crowned Texico's 1980 basketball homecoming king and queen Saturday night during half-time activities of the junior varsity boys game with Dora. The honorees both play varsity basketball at Texico High School.

Ice Palace

The gazebo in Farwell City Park, not unlike Cinderella, turned into a sparkling ice palace almost in the twinkling of an eye last Saturday night.

The lashing winds flung ice against the structure last weekend decorating it with icicles as if to make ready for an ice festival.

For Texico Election --

January 29 Is Date Candidates Must File

January 29, is the only day that persons may file declarations of candidacy for the upcoming municipal election in Texico, according to Marie Christian, city clerk.

The positions of two trustees, the mayor and the municipal judge will be up for re-election on March 4.

Persons interested in filing for candidacy for any of these positions should stop by the Texico City Hall in order to officially declare their candidacy. There is no charge for filing, Mrs. Christian said.

Persons may file between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on January 29, only. Persons who file for one of these offices will automatically have their name placed on the voting ballots. Each individual will have until 5 p.m. on February 8, in which to change his or her mind about withdrawing from the election, she added.

The person elected as municipal judge will serve two years, the one elected as mayor will serve two years and each of the two persons elected as trustees will serve four years.

Howard Billingsley is currently the municipal judge, Manford Turnbough is mayor, and Marie Christian and Bill Thigpen are trustees. All of these individuals terms are up this year.

Trustees Vane Doshier and Lewis Cooper are not up for re-election this year.

Texico Commission Votes For Increased Salaries

Texico City Commission met for a brief meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 22, and among other things discussed approval of the salaries of the judge, the trustees and the janitor.

The commission voted unanimously to approve pay raises in the amount of 15 percent for the judge's position, from $5 to $10 per meeting for trustees, and from $50 to $75 per month for the janitor.

According to Marie Christian, city clerk, the pay raises will take effect on the first pay period after the municipal election is held.

In other business the commission voted to purchase two more tires for the road maintainer.

It was also approved by the commission to accept the low bid by Western Industrial for a fire plug, a tapping valve and other fittings needed for the fire station. Couplings and a two-inch meter will be obtained from Viking Supply.

The commission approved the request to permit Dave Panter to ride in a voluntary, non-paid capacity with Texico Marshal Mickey Fenn as a deputy.

The minutes and bills were both approved. Present for the meeting were Mayor Manford Turnbough, trustees Bill Thigpen, Vane Doshier, Lewis Cooper and Marie Christian, Marshal Mickey Fenn, and Billy Hammit.

State Senator Ron Clower (D-from Garland, Texas) tells us that as of the first of this year his bill to compensate victims of crime is in effect. According to Clower, a person injured during the commission of a crime could be awarded compensation of up to $50,000. This money would come from adding $15 to the court costs for any felony conviction and $10 for any misdemeanor and no additional costs for traffic violations or Class C misdemeanors.

Truly a noble experiment but one that sort of puts the cart before the horse. How nice it would be if we eliminated victims of crime by the simple expedient of eliminating crime. Well, we realize that all crime cannot be eliminated but we are of the firm conviction that a big slice of crime could be eliminated.

Crimes of theft are really not necessary. Today nobody actually steals to feed a starving family, only out of excessive greed, avarice or laziness. Theft should be treated very harshly the first time an individual commits it.

Crimes of passion will be harder to control, but crimes such as murder, rape, assault, etc. should likewise be dealt with in a stern manner. The judicial system should be strengthened, appeals limited, court time drastically reduced and sentences firmly carried out.

If Mr. Clower and his colleagues in the Texas Legislature would pass significant reform laws for our present criminal/judicial system his latest law might never be used in future years.

Moisture is hard to come by on these Old Baldies. When it does arrive let us not look a gift horse in the teeth. Or in other words we did appreciate last weekend's sleet-snow-hail and rain or whatever it was. Typical of our section of the country was the thunder and lightning accompanying the winter weather. The next four to six weeks should see what winter moisture we will receive. February especially is noted for its big, fat wet snows in the Panhandle.

We would certainly rather see the rest of our winter in the next month rather than put up with a cold and snowy April as occasionally occurs.

Last week saw more than usual use of our Emergency Ambulance Service. Another week in which our volunteer boys gave great service to the Twin Cities. Aren't you glad we have them?

About the Olympic games. We tend to side with the President about moving this international sports extravaganza out of Moscow. However, the President does add the weasling proviso, if the Russkies pull out of Afghanistan in 30 days. Well now Sir, in 30 days the Communists could well kill several hundred thousand people and leave the country a ruin in the hands of a few surviving bootlickers. Then where would we be?

"Hi Joe, how's it goin' Wal, the birds got the berries, the frost got the fruit, the crows got the corn, the drought got the grass, a salesman got my wife, the welfare got the kids, the bank got the house and farm, the finance company got the car, and the IRS got my money, but other than that I'm fine.

Funeral Services Held For Fidel Morales

Services for Fidel Morales, 44, of Farwell were held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 19, in Singleton-Ellis Funeral Home Chapel of the Chimes in Muleshoe. Rev. Frank Ancira of Texico officiated.

Burial was in Laures Cemetery in Mission, Tx. under the direction of Flores Funeral Home.

Morales was pronounced dead on arrival at West Plains Medical Center on Thursday after suffering an apparent heart attack at his Farwell home. He had been under the care of a physician.

Formerly of Mission, Morales lived in Friona 14 years before moving to Farwell a year ago. He was employed by PHP Farms.

Morales was a native of McCook and married Rosa Rivera on November 20, 1959 in Mission. He was a member of the Baptist Church in Texico.

Survivors include his wife, Rosa; a son, Fidel Jr., of the home; four daughters, Rosa Linda of the home, Juanita of Ogden, Utah, Dalia Ortega of Mission, and Mary Rodriguez of Cactus; a stepfather, Mateo Garza, Sr. of Mission; two sisters, Olivia Basaldua of Plainview and Ernestina Valdez of Arenal, Calif.; 10 brothers, Enrique, Ismael and Oscar Garza, all of Mission, German and David of Tulia, Mateo of Oakley, Utah, Pablo of Tarzan, Tx., Rene and Ernest of Friona, and Raul of Bovina; and four grandchildren.

Embargo Affects Elevators . . .

 in Farwell, said.

"We have a pretty good market for corn since we can sell 80 to 85 percent of our corn to feedlots in the area," he observed.

"Most of the feedlots are taking a wait-and-see attitude and are able to do this because they usually carry a supply of corn between 90 to 120 days out front," Thigpen said.

"Until the farm program gets set, we won't see any big increases in prices," he added.

"We have seen embargoes before, but not as expensive in terms of loss. Before, there were cheaper grain prices and interest rates and we were able to afford to hold on to the grain during earlier embargoes," Thigpen explained.

"If the embargo had been declared during harvest of wheat or corn you'd see grain piled up on the ground, rotting," he said.

"Come June if the embargo has not been lifted you may see this very thing at wheat harvest," he cautioned.

"This puts us, the country elevator, in the same position because we don't make money until the farmer does," Thigpen said.

"It appears that the government is worrying about the farmers and the exporters of U.S. grain, but not much attention is being given to the country elevators," he said.

"I heard recently that Mexico has agreed to step in and buy five million metric tons of grain from us and if other countries would decide to buy grain from us then the void left by being unable to sell to Russia would be diminished," Thigpen suggested.

"The lower grain price is to our benefit as a feedlot because it means cheaper feed. However, on the other hand every time you have cheap feed you have cheaper cattle prices too. Mainly due to the uncertainty prevalent in the market now, cattle prices have dropped to between $30 and $40 per head," Johnny Hopkins, manager of Far-Tex Feeders, said.

"The embargo against Russia has contributed to the uncertainty that is running through the whole economy now," he said.

"Most feedlots buy their grain out front 30 days or more and now are waiting to see what the market is going to do. On the one hand we like to see cheaper grain prices, but in the long run it doesn't help us because when there is cheap feed there tends to be more cattle put on feed which drives the cattle prices down," Hopkins said.

"It may not affect us greatly now, but down the line it would," he added.

"It seems to me that agriculture lives off of its different parts. When the cattle market is making money, then the farmers aren't and when the farmers are making money, then the cattle market is down," he observed.

"We're not too far, cattle-price-wise, from the price of cattle back in 1974 when the bottom dropped out of the cattle market," Hopkins said.

"Our government seems to kick agriculture in the rear end, rather than take care of her. In other countries, food is a number one priority and consequently they take care of agriculture. I guess it's because we have never been without food that agriculture gets kicked around," he said.

"There'll come a day in this nation when agriculture and food will become number one, perhaps when it's too late," Hopkins predicted.

74th Legislative District --

Clayton Seeks Re-election As State Representative

Bill Clayton, a Springlake farmer and a man considered one of the most effective political figures in Texas, is asking the voters of the 74th Legislative District to return him to the office of State Representative.

The seven counties which comprise the sprawling High Plains district are Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb, Oldham and Parmer. More than 75,000 persons reside in the area.

Since he was first elected to represent the district in the State Legislature, Bill Clayton has brought statewide attention to the area. In the opinion of many he did an outstanding job for the area by serving in key capacities on House committees dealing with water and conservation, with agriculture, with finance and appropriation of state funds.

For three terms Bill Clayton has, in addition to being a representative of the legislative district, served as Speaker of the House.

Only 58 other Texans have held the Speakership in the 135 years Texas has been a state. No other man has served three consecutive terms as Speaker, a post regarded by many with equal importance to the Governor and Lt. Governor.

"Bill Clayton has been an effective member from the first day he came to the Legislature. He is the kind of guy who gets things done. He looks after his people back home and just because he must spend part of this time in Austin he doesn't forget he's there to be the voice for all of us," said Dr. B.W. Armistead of Littlefield, who is coordinating a series of February appreciation dinners for Clayton throughout the district.

"By being Speaker of the House, he is able to speak just that much louder for us and for having the most capable and effective legislator in Austin we can be justly proud," Armistead added.

His ever-growing duties in guiding the House has made it impossible for him to spend considerable time in the district. To remedy the situation when he must be away from the district and whenever the Legislature is in session, Clayton devised a unique "mobile office" that each month for almost three years has visited each city, town and community in the seven counties at least once every other week. The concept of bringing government to the people has worked remarkably well.

"When I first came to office I said I was running to represent all of the people. I haven't changed my opinion in the least and that's what I have done.

"Representing doesn't mean just showing up in Austin and taking part in the debates. Representing means when people come to you with problems that you work to the best of your ability to resolve those problems.

"In seeking re-election, Clayton expressed concern over major issues that will confront the 67th Legislature, particularly that of redistricting to comply with the decennial census count. I intend to make every effort in the very crucial redistricting session ahead to maintain the voice this area has in the U.S. Congress, the State Senate and the House of Representatives," Clayton said.

Clayton, who is regarded in the Legislature as an expert on water and conservation legislation, as he passed most of what is now Texas water law, has served on every major committee in the House.

As Speaker he has been involved in statewide legislation which has had a direct effect on the district. The tax relief amendment of 1978 was sent to the state's voters through the guidance of Clayton. He has also been active in seeing that the implementation of tax relief benefit homeowners and farmers and rancher alike.

His innovative ideas in education and financing of the state's educational system have been credited with increasing educational excellence throughout the state. He has long been an advocate of cutting red tape in government and reducing its size, primarily through the Sunset law which he helped pass.

Agriculture, roads and highways, the fight against crime, strengthening private enterprise, energy ideas, protection for natural resources and care of the state's needy are all areas in which Bill Clayton has been an effective voice.

Bill Clayton's principal source of income is from his farming operation in Springlake where he and his wife Delma reside. They have two children and three grandchildren.

ASCS Outlines 1980 Program For Cotton

NO SET-ASIDE -- There is no set-aside or diversion requirements for the 1980 upland cotton crop. All producers of upland cotton, who sign in the program and report their acreages, will be eligible for target price protection and price support loans.

LOAN RATE -- The preliminary loan price is set at 48 cents per pound for Strict Low Middling (SLM) with a staple length of 1-1/16 inches and micronaire of 3.5 thru 4.9.

TARGET PRICE -- Is expected to be between 57 and 61 cents per pound. The preliminary 1980 target price is 59.5 cents per lb.

To guarantee full target price protection, producers must reduce their 1980 acreage by at least 10% below their 1979 planting; Otherwise, the allocation factor will apply.

HOW DOES THIS ALLOCA-

TION WORK? -- To start with we have a national program acreage (NPA). This is 11,602,285 acres of upland cotton for crop year 1980. Now, let us assume that there is 14,110,000 acres of upland cotton planted in 1980 - so, the acreage must be factored back to determine which acreage is eligible for a deficiency payment. This is done by dividing the 11,602,285 by 14,110,000 which gives us a factor of .8223. This factor is applied to the acreage on a participating farm that made no acreage reduction from 1979.

For Example -- Farm had 400 acres of cotton planted in 1979 and has 400 acres planted in 1980. Now, if there is a deficiency payment made for the 1980 cotton crop, this farm would receive payment on 328.9 acres. (.8223 x 400). If this same farm has only 360 acres of cotton (or less) in 1980 (a reduction of at least 10%) it would receive the full deficiency payment.

DEFICIENCY PROVISIONS -- The upland cotton deficiency payment rate is the difference between the target price and the higher of (1) the national average market price received by farmers during the calendar year 1980 or (2) the loan level.

PAYMENT LIMITATION -- The total amount of deficiency payments which a person may receive under a combination of the upland cotton, wheat, feed grain and rice programs is $50,000.00. This limitation does not apply to loans or purchases.

DISASTER PROGRAM -- There is none for 1980 as yet. To provide for same will require congressional action.

Farwell Steers Football Team Works Hard During Offseason

Neck Builder

Alex Paez, freshman at Farwell High School, works at building up his neck muscles. Alex will play split end on the varsity football team next season, according to Coach Adrian. The program is to help football players who don't play basketball to keep in shape for the football season.

Up And Away

Lenny Beal, a sophomore at Farwell High School this year, played center on the Steer junior varsity team this past season. Here he works at building up his chest and shoulder muscles as he bench presses some weights.

Military Press

Mac Langford, a junior at Farwell High School, works out with the military press as part of the off-season conditioning program for the Steer football team. The program is to help the football players who don't play basketball during football's off-season to keep in shape.

Winter has come, basketball season is in gear and on the surface it might appear that football has been tucked away until August. This, however, is not the case at Farwell High School since the football players who don't play basketball participate in an off-season conditioning program under the direction of Randy Adrian, athletic director.

"My players have developed a lot of pride in their weight-lifting program. They work on weights on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and on various other things on Tuesday and Thursday," Adrian said.

"The Tuesday workouts include the following competition drills:

1. Take downs - This involves a player kneeling while trying to take the opponent to the mat.
2. Bull neck - Two players get on all fours, lock necks and then try to take the other off the mat in 20 seconds.
3. Cat and mouse - Three people get on all fours on the mat, then two other people get on all fours with one chasing the other around the first three people until a tag is made.
4. Shuttle run - Is simply a race while on all fours in which the objective is to run to a spot pick up an eraser and run back (all while on all fours) put the eraser down and so on until all the three erasers have been moved to the other spot.

Also on Tuesdays and Thursdays running is used by the players instead of the above exercises on occasion.

Different types of running exercises include the goose step; running with the knees straight; crossover, running and crossing legs as they run; overstride, taking long steps while running 3/4 speed; and running backwards.

These dedicated players practice from 9 until 10 a.m. five days a week whether it be working out with weights, practicing take downs or running wind sprints.

"Contrary to what some people may think, off-season for football players is not a time of rest. They are working harder now in off-season than they will be in August. This way it won't be so much of a shock to them when the August practices and football season start," Adrian said.

"Football season ended November 16, 1979, and we started our off-season conditioning program on November 26, 1979," he added.

The weight room will be available to the players during the summer if they want to work out then to keep in shape, Adrian said.

"My team members are out to make themselves better football players and they already have a strong desire to win the district championship next year," he said.

"The team's main strength that I saw in them this past season was their persistence. For example, if they were behind by three touchdowns they would keep coming back trying to score. They wouldn't give up," Adrian said.

"We were picked to finish last in the district at the outset of football season last year, but the players decided they weren't going to come in last and so we ended up tying for second place," he said.

"Last year our defense was our strongest point, but this year our strength will be in the experienced offensive and defensive line that is returning," Adrian pointed out.

"We haven't decided on who will be our main quarterback, but David Daniel, a sophomore, and Juan Diaz, a junior, are under consideration. We will have an experienced team to start next year's season and there are only eight new openings on the varsity team," he said.

Three different clubs have been formed by Adrian for the football players as an incentive to excel in their workouts. They are the "bench press club," "the military club," and the "4.9-4.8 clubs."

When a player can bench press 200 pounds he has the privilege of joining the bench press club and purchasing a t-shirt with the number 200 stenciled on it. For every 25 additional pounds pressed (for example for 200, 225, 250, etc.) a new t-shirt with the higher number can be purchased, Adrian said.

It is the same with the military club except that it increases in increments of 20 pounds, beginning at a military press of 160 pounds. T-shirts are also sold for this club.

The third club, 4.9-4.8, is for those players who run the 40-yard dash in a time of 4.9-4.8 seconds or less. A t-shirt for each tenth of a second the running time is lowered is offered.

Adrian explained that the clubs are to increase the player's desire to achieve during their workouts.

Next season Farwell will be playing in Class AA as opposed to Class A as it did last season. The change was prompted to align the Texas athletic system with that of neighboring states. Hence, there will no longer be a Class B division but instead there will be Class A, Class AA, Class AAA, Class AAAA and Class AAAAA schools.

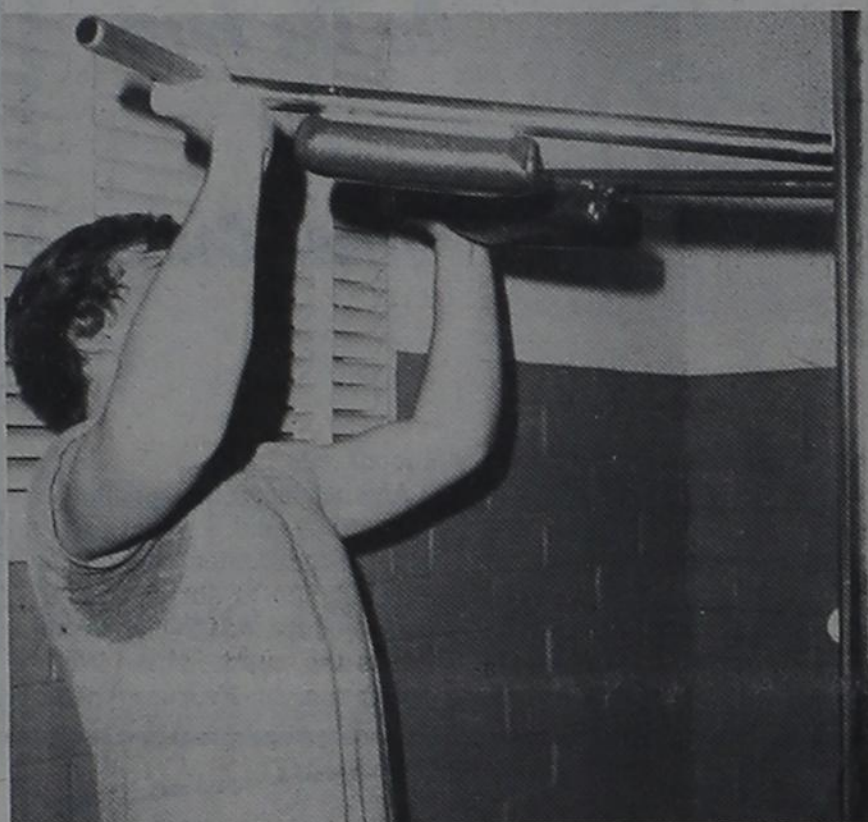

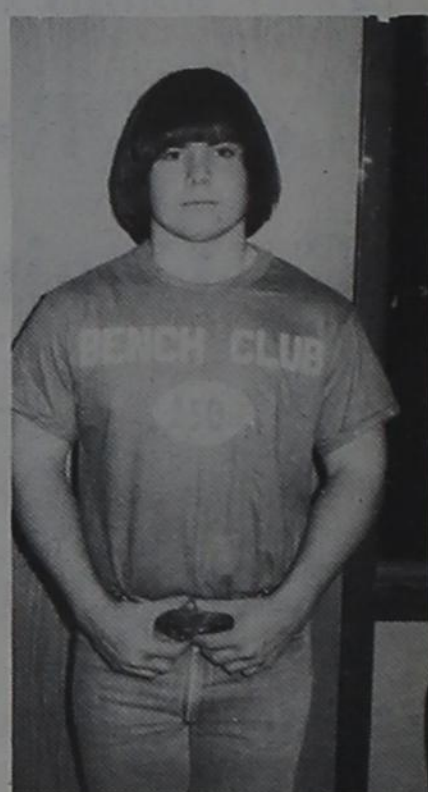

Thrust Machine

Purpose of the thrust machine is to develop the leg muscles, similar to the action experienced by a football player as he comes off the football.

Augustine Martinez gives his all as he works out with the exercise machine. He graduates this year and played tackle for the junior varsity team last year.

Weight Lifting Club

Brian Langdon has accomplished a feat that not many students or adults have done, that of pressing 250 pounds of steel weights. He has been rewarded for his achievement by being received as a member of the bench press club. He also holds membership with the military press club for pressing 160 and 180 pounds. According to Randy Adrian, athletic director at Farwell High School, Langdon is the team's most aggressive player who "really gets after it and does well playing offensive and defensive tackle."

Reverse Curls

Working with the reverse curls, Tim Watkins, a freshman who played tackle on the Steer junior varsity team this past season, hopes to build his forearms up in order to be in shape for next season.

Psychiatrist Offers Tips On Rearing Children

(Editor's Note: The following suggestions for effective child-rearing were put out by Dr. Thomas P. Johnson, a psychiatrist who serves as a part-time consultant to the San Diego County Probation Department. He is the author of a booklet, "Guidelines For Disciplines," published by the Youth Service Bureau of the Probation Department, from which the following 12 rules for rearing children are taken. This material was furnished to the Tribune by Farwell Public Schools.)

1. Don't disapprove of what a child is -- disapprove of what he does.
2. Give attention and praise for good behavior -- not bad behavior.
3. Encourage and allow discussion, but remember it's the parents who should make the final decision.
4. Punishment should be swift, reasonable, related to the offense and absolutely certain to occur -- it does not have to be severe.
5. Throw out all rules you are unwilling to enforce and be willing to change rules if you think it's reasonable to do so.
6. Don't lecture and don't warn -- youngsters will remember what they think is important to remember.

7. Don't feel you have to justify rules, although you should try to explain them.
8. As your youngster grows older, many rules may be flexible and subject to discussion and compromise. However, on the few rules you feel strongly about, enforce them no matter what rules other parents have.
9. Allow the child or youth to assume responsibility for his decisions as he shows the ability to do so.
10. Don't expect children to show more self-control than you do as a parent.
11. Be honest with your youngster - hypocrisy shows.
12. The most important factor in your youngster's self-image is what he thinks you think of him, and his self-image is a major factor in how he acts and what he does.

Letter To The Editor

January 8, 1980

Dear John and Joann:

Yes, we still like to know what is going on in Farwell! Enclosed is my check for Mary Belle's paper. And, I am still sending mine to California for a former resident to read. She went to school in Poland; and for a very short period at that. But she likes the people of Farwell; and manages to read well enough to feel that she is keeping in touch. She writes me about once a year, to assure me that she is glad to have the Tribune.

We are 23 degrees today at noon. I enjoy the changing seasons. The heavy snows have hindered us in getting about somewhat. Even the taxis were not in use the morning that I was trying to get to the Airport before Thanksgiving.

I send all good wishes that you may have a good year.

Sincerely,
Lillian Aldridge

Steers Enjoy Victory Over Springlake-Earth

"In our game against Springlake-Earth we played our best team ball, in fact the best we have played all year," Steer Coach Mike Martin said.

Farwell defeated Springlake-Earth on Tuesday with a final score of 64-58.

"We also played the best defense that we have played all year. Richard May scored 19 points from the post position and 8 of 10 (80 percent) from the board for us with a total of 19 points," Coach Martin said. "The team did an excellent job of hitting the open man in the offense. Shooting was better. We shot 44 percent from the field and 74 percent from the free throw line," he added.

"It was a big win for us and it places us in the thick of things for the district," said the Farwell basketball coach.

"We have improved 100 percent since we started the season. Sometimes we don't play team ball like we did against Springlake-Earth last night, but the team's improvement is evident. We played real well," Coach Martin said.

"We need all the fans to come out and support us," he said.

High scorer for Farwell was May with 19; followed by Mark Owen, 12; James Castleberry, 11; and Richard Carpenter, 10. Leading in rebounds was May with 16, followed by Carpenter, 9.

In varsity roundball action last Friday night, Farwell Steers fell to the Bovina Mustangs 64-72 on the Bovina court.

The Steers led in points in the first and third quarters of play but the Mustangs' impressive 30-point scoring spree in the last quarter compared to the 21 points scored by the Steers in that quarter cost Farwell the game.

Mark Owen led the Steers in scoring with 16, followed by James Castleberry with 15. Craig Kaltwasser had a 100 percent free-throw average with 6 of 6 attempts.

Other scorers for the Steers were Richard Carpenter and Richard May, 11 each; Craig Kaltwasser, 10; and Boyd White, 1.

May averaged 80 percent on his field goal attempts while the team averaged 44 percent. The team managed a 56 percent average on its free throw record.

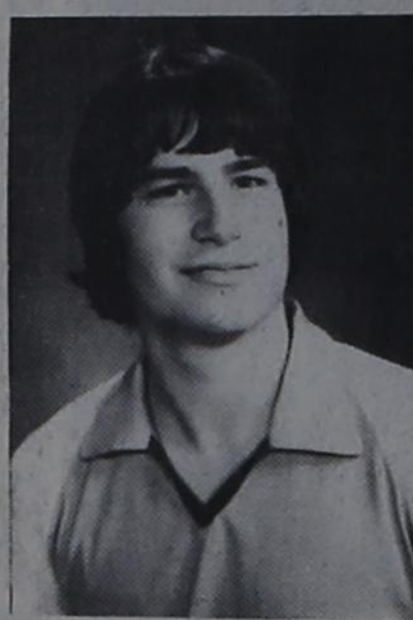

Top rebounder for the Steers was May with 11 rebounds while Carpenter pulled down 9.

Farwell Players Of The Week

MARK OWEN

Mark Owen, senior at Farwell High School, is one of two Steers who have been selected by Coach Mike Martin as Players of the Week. "He scored 16 points against Bovina and 12 against Springlake-Earth. Owen played good defense and hit five crucial free shots in the last minute of the game against Springlake-Earth. He averaged 12 points per game in district play," Coach Martin said.

RICHARD CARPENTER

Richard Carpenter, a junior at Farwell High School, is one of two varsity Steers selected by Coach Mike Martin as Players of the Week. "He did an excellent job on the boards during our game with Springlake-Earth. He scored 10 points and also performed well on defense in this game," Coach Martin said.

Steerettes Give Bovina Run For Their Money

The Farwell Steerettes varsity girls basketball game against the Bovina Fillies Friday ended 60-62, in favor of Bovina, but was marked by a strong comeback by Farwell that almost made the difference between the home town team winning or losing.

"The first half was the story of the game. We just couldn't get started, we scored 17 points by the end of the second quarter to Bovina's 35 points," Steerette Coach Larry McDorman said.

"Then after halftime we started getting after them, I was very proud of the girls for their performance during the second half. It seemed as if we dug down and pulled up some pride that we have lacked all year long," he said.

"We scored 43 points during the last half and all of the girls played very well. After being down about 22 points we had a chance to tie the game at 62-62."

"We fouled them with 6-7 seconds left in the last quarter and as a consequence Bovina was on the line for a 1 + 1 free shot. We had a time out before the free shot was thrown and I told the girls to go for a fast break," Coach McDorman said.

"Well, the Fillies missed their first free shot and on a fast break Karen Magness rebounded the ball, made an outlet pass to Robin Vinton who in turn kicked the ball to Janene Berry in the middle. Berry went up for a layup, but the ball didn't go in," he said.

"There wasn't enough time for a second shot and the buzzer rang ending the game in Bovina's favor, 62-60," Coach McDorman said.

Leading scorer for Farwell was Berry with 20 points, followed by Ginger Ellison, 16; Gina Eubank, 8; Lori Turner, Karyn Blain and Sharmy Christian, 4 each; and Tracy Williams and Magness, 2 each.

Leading in rebounds was Ellison with 11; followed by Blain, 8; Magness, 7; Christian, 5; Turner and Eubank, 3 each; and Lori Curtis, 2.

"I was very proud of a bunch of girls that finally decided that the Farwell Steerettes had PRIDE," Coach McDorman said.

The Steerettes were defeated by Springlake-Earth in a close 42-39 decision Tuesday night in Farwell.

"We did not play well with 23 turnovers, but we still shot our highest percentage since we won our last game," Coach Larry McDorman said.

"We shot 49 percent from the field, but only four of 14 from the free shot line. It seems our free throw shooting has kept us from winning a lot of games. In the second half 15 of 23 turnovers hurt us bad and only four offensive rebounds did not give us the second and third shot," he added.

The Steerettes had the momentum and the lead going into the fourth period, but turnovers and six unanswered points for Springlake turned the tide and Farwell could not recover.

High scorer for Farwell was Janene Berry with 9 points; followed by Gina Eubank and Sharmy Christian with 8 each; Karyn Blain, 6; Lori Turner, 3; Lori Curtis and Ginger Ellison, 2 each; and Karen Magness, 1.

Leading in rebounds was Blain with 6; followed by Christian, 5; Eubank, Ellison and Turner, 2 each; and Berry, Curtis and Magness, 1 each.

KARYN BLAIN

Karyn Blain has been selected by Coach Larry McDorman as the varsity Steerette Player of the Week at Farwell High School. "She is the leading rebounder for the last two games with 14 and also leads in rebounds for the season with 110. She shot 60 percent from the field against Springlake-Earth and is a team player. She plays to the best of her ability every game," Coach McDorman said.

Farwell Graduate Joins Texas Tech Picadores

Robin Roberts, 18, recently finished up his first season with the Texas Tech Picadores, a junior varsity football team, as a place kicker. The Picadores have two kickers and Roberts was the alternate or substitute kicker.

The Picadores played three games last season, finishing the year with a 1-2 record.

Roberts was not recruited for the football team, but was a walk-on who tried out for the team. The result -- he was selected as second place kicker for the team.

He is currently a freshman at Texas Tech. He graduated from Farwell High School in 1979 where he played quarter-

The girls, off to the best start in their school's history, pushed their record to 3-0 in district and 13-1 overall. They placed four girls in double figures, while scoring their highest point total of the year. Texico jumped out to a commanding 16-4 lead in the first period. Lori Harrington had the hot hand in this period as she hit on 4 outside jumpers for 8 points.

The Wolverines keep pouring it on during the second period as they outscored their opponents 19-12 to take a 35-16 lead at halftime.

Halftime intermission didn't cool down the girls as they extended their lead in the third period to 53-22.

Texico, playing substitutes all the fourth quarter, still outscored the Coyotes 12-10 to make the final margin, 65-32.

games this year," commented Coach Roy King. "Our team is in this period with 7 points.

Wolverines Split Games With San Jon, Tatum

by Dwight Brown

Jameson, 2 each.

The Wolverine boys added another win to their record last Tuesday when they defeated San Jon, 69-60, in Wolverine Gym.

In the first quarter the Wolverines took an early lead, starting the second quarter with a 16-12 lead. Texico had their best quarter of the game in the second period, scoring 26 points, while San Jon only scored 14.

At the start of the second half, the Wolverines increased their lead by 16 points. San Jon scored only 9 points in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, San Jon cut the Wolverines' lead down from 23 points to only 9, but the Wolverines were on top when the final buzzer sounded, 69-60.

Scorers for Texico were James Hadley, 26; Neal Haile, 12; Britt Crooks, 9; Todd Gerles and Shawn Perkins, 5 each; David Cavallero and Gary Mitchell, 4 each; and Steve Kittrell and Rusty

Last Friday the Wolverines traveled to Tatum, and were defeated 46-41.

In the first quarter the Wolverines took the lead 9-7, but in the second quarter Tatum made 11 points to take over the lead.

The Wolverines scored 8 points and went into the locker room one point behind, 17-18. In the third quarter the Wolverines had their best scoring quarter by adding 13 points. Tatum only scored 8 points and lost the lead to the Wolverines 30-26. In the final quarter Texico scored 11 more points; however, Tatum regained the lead by adding 20 points and won the game 46-41.

Texico scorers were Haile, 19; Hadley, 10; Crooks, 8; and Mitchell and Jameson, 2 each. Wolverine coach Cecil Davis had the following comments about the two games:

"Tatum game: Very slow and deliberate type game as the final score indicates. Texico was extremely cold from the field, hitting only 15 of 56 shots. Tatum didn't play very well either, they had opportunities to blow the game wide open, but they committed turnovers that kept the game close or tight in a sloppy manner.

"San Jon game: This game was a fast moving, well-played game before a capacity crowd. Both teams were fast breaking and providing a thrill a minute for the fans.

"The fourth quarter was really exciting. San Jon made a terrific come-back and with two minutes to go it looked as if they had a chance to win. Their fourth quarter offense was Kendall Wallin. He scored 12 points from inside - nothing the Wolverines did could stop him."

The Wolverines district record is 2-2.

In Homecoming action last Saturday night the Texico varsity boys defeated Dora 69-52. In the first quarter the Wolverines took a 23-12 lead.

In the second period Texico held their lead and added 16 more for a total of 39. Dora scored 12 more for a total of 24.

At Panhandle Sports Ceremonies --

Carol Vinton To Be Named Golf Athlete Of Year

Carol Vinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vinton of Farwell, will be honored as Golf Athlete of the Year at the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies which will be in Amarillo on Sunday, Jan. 27.

Three members are to be installed to the Hall of Fame along with a presentation of awards to the outstanding coaches and other athletes of the year. Dean Kelley is to be master of ceremonies.

During her high school years

Carol was a member of the Farwell High girls Golf team and won many honors during that time. In 1975 the Farwell team won the Class A State Championship and Carol was named runner-up medalist at the State Golf meet.

In 1976 Carol won third place medalist and again the Farwell team won the State Championship.

Carol was named Class A medalist in 1977 at the State Golf meet and the Farwell team brought home the State Championship for the third consecutive year.

Carol attended Temple Jr. College in Temple, Tx., on an athletic scholarship for two years and was a member of the golf team while there. The Temple J.C. team went to nationals both years that Carol was on the team and in 1978 they came in second. In 1979, Carol was third medalist in the nationals and played the number one position on the team.

Award will be presented to Leonard Duncan of Stratford. This award is annually presented in memory of the late Dee Henry of Amarillo, to the athlete who has shown the most courage and desire in coming back from an illness or injury to continue participating in sports.

Three Lazbuddie Longhorns On All-State Football Team

Three members of the 1979 Lazbuddie Longhorn football team received Class B All-State honors with one player making the first team while two others were second team choices.

Selected to the first team as safety was Apolonio Sanchez, senior. Making the All-State second team as offensive guard was Keihm Smith, also a senior; and named to the second team as a kicker was Dennis Steinbock, senior.

Sanchez, a 5'8" 145 pounder, had nine interceptions on the year for 162 yards. He had 47 unassisted tackles and 87 assists. He returned 11 punts for 101 yards for an average of 9.1 yards. He picked up 401 yards on 14 kickoff returns for an average of 28.6. He was responsible for causing two fumbles and recovered two fumbles.

A unanimous choice for All-District safety in 1979, Sanchez also made the All-District second team as half-back. In 1978 he was named to the All-District second team as a safety and wide receiver.

This year he was also named to the All-South Plains first team as safety.

Head Coach Dewayne Sexton had the following comments about Sanchez:

"Apolonio was our secondary defensive signal caller and second leading tackler. He was an outstanding leader by example (not by mouth) for us and was probably the hardest hitter (pound for pound) on our team. He missed one game due to injury in four years and that was against Silverton this year because he had bruised a kidney making a hit in the third game of the season and began passing blood. He won our team's Strike Award (best hit) three times during the season and was named our team's Defensive Player of the Week three times. Apolonio uses his speed, hitter's ability and 'nose for the ball' to play the pass equally as well as the run. He's the best safety that I've coached and I've coached three All-South Plains, one First Team All-State, and one Second Team All-State Safety."

Named to the All-State second team as offensive guard was Keihm Smith, 6'1" 190 pound senior who was a unanimous choice for All-District guard and All-District linebacker in 1978 and 1979. He was also named to the All-South Plains first team as offensive guard for 1979.

Smith's average blocking percentage for the year was 94 percent. Coach Sexton had the following to say about Smith's abilities:

"Keihm is one of the top offensive linemen to come out of Lazbuddie and one of the top graduating Class B linemen in the state this year. Keihm is the best Class B lineman in the Panhandle-South Plains Region and will be recruited by the smaller colleges. He could play guard or linebacker in college. Keihm has all the tools to be a good college football player, speed, hitter's ability, desire, savvy and the frame to carry more weight if he needs to. Most of this year Keihm was called on to block straight ahead and power the opponent out of the hole but due to his speed and pulling ability we were able to run more sweeps, traps and G-blocks to enhance our offensive scheme. Keihm was a four-year letterman and starter at guard, captain for two years and a definite leader of our team."

Dennis Steinbock at 5'11" and 175 pounds was named the All-South Plains kicker for 1979 as well as being a unanimous All-District choice as kicker and defensive lineman in 1978 and being unanimously selected the All-District first team kicker in 1979. He was named

All-District second team defensive lineman and tight end for 1979.

The second team All-State kicker punted 32 times during the past season for 1354 yards and a 42.3 average. He made 14 of 18 PAT attempts and made seven of nine field goal attempts with his longest being 39 yards scoring a total of 35 points.

Steinbock's coach had the following comments:

"Going into the 1979 season Dennis was our top college prospect and was named to a pre-season all star team. Dennis was the hardest worker on our team and worked many hours after every one else had gone home. During the fourth game of the season he suffered a torn cartilage in the knee of his kicking leg. This slowed down the amount of kicking he was able to do in practice but he never missed a game due to his injury. His knee had to be drained several times during the remainder of the season but he never once complained or offered the injury as an excuse for a missed attempt. Dennis' punting was a pleasant surprise and got us out of a few tight situations. Dennis was probably a better punter into the wind because of his form rather than raw power and he also executed our quick-kick for us on third down situations."

UT Press issues book on football

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) -- It happens in many small Texas towns in the fall -- bonfires, pep rallies, beribboned cars, refrigerated mums, bands, happy and sad locker rooms.

It is high school football, and the special kind of fervor it seems to generate has been captured in a new book from The University of Texas Press, "Rites of Fall: High School Football in Texas."

About 170 photographs record the rituals of Texas high school football -- from gridiron action to partisan fans. The photographs are by Geoff Winningham of Rice University; the text by Al Reinert, a contributing editor of Texas Monthly.

Colorful Images Of Olympic Games

Bright spots attracting the attention of visitors at the new Olympic Sports Center skating rink in Lake Placid, N.Y., are colorful murals by American artist Don Nice. The two 7-foot by 30-foot canvases high on the upper level lobby walls depict in glowing colors the coveted gold medal plus equipment used for the games. Canvases are mounted on plywood glued to wood supports attached to the cinder-block wall. High strength neoprene adhesive holding the support system in place is tough, reliable and weather-resistant, so the cold humid atmosphere of the rink poses no problems. Made by H. B. Fuller Co. from Du Pont neoprene, Pow'r Grip® adhesive has long been used by manufacturers and do-it-yourselfers who need a fast-setting waterproof glue for bonding a wide variety of materials.

Parmer County --

Friona Man Takes Pheasant Contest

Winner of the Parmer County pheasant tail feather contest is Dee Willard of Friona who entered a feather measuring 26 1/4 inches in length, Parmer County Extension Agent Seth Ralston said. This year makes the first time in five years that a Friona resident has won the contest.

Second place, county-wide, was Randy Kirkpatrick of Bovina with a tail feather that measured 26 1/8 inches in length and third was won by Roy Lovelady of Farwell with a feather measuring 25 13/16 inches. Willard will receive an award from the Parmer County Game Association for winning the county-wide contest.

The top three winners from Farwell were, in order, Roy Lovelady, Brent Green and David Norton. Tail feathers they submitted measured 25 13/16, 24 7/8 and 24 5/8 inches respectively.

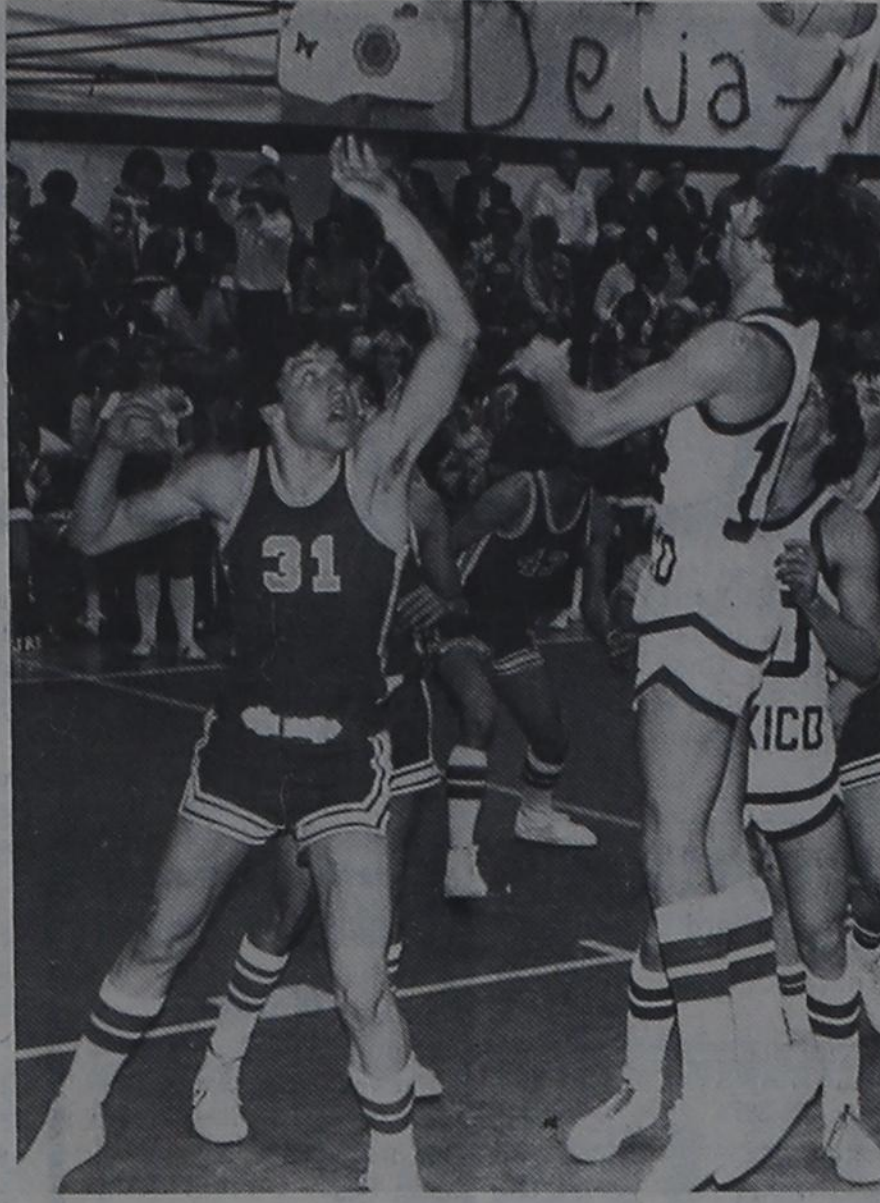

The three winners from Bovina included Randy Kirkpatrick with a feather measuring in at 26 1/8 inches; Vidal

Vargas with one 25 3/8 inches; and Roy Hartzog with a feather 24 5/8 inches long.

Friona winners included Dee Willard, 26 1/4 inches; John Taylor, 25 5/8 inches; and Jim Taylor and Terry Copley each with one at 25 1/2 inches.

Last year Daryl Hawkins, then a high school freshman and son of Mr. and Mrs. Erith Hawkins of Bovina, took the top county honors with a tail feather that measured 25 1/4 inches in length.

The three Farwell winners received checks of $15, $10 and $5 for their hunting expertise. Sponsors of the local contest were Security State Bank, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman and Farwell Hardware.

Clayton, Price Honored For Service

State Representative Bill Clayton and State Senator Bob Price were among 20 state lawmakers honored Friday, according to Jay Naman, President of TFU.

"The 66th Legislature will be regarded as one in which a progressive step was taken for rural interests, especially in light of passage of the Family Farm and Ranch Security Act," Naman noted. "The support given that several other key agricultural issues by Speaker Clayton and Senator Price is deeply appreciated by our organization and we are proud to bestow this honor upon them."

Other issues of TFU concern upon which voting records were measured included prohibition of foreign ownership of farm land, productivity valuation for agricultural property taxes, and legalization of alcohol fuels produced from farm products.

Beferendum --

Cattlemen To Vote On Program

Cattlemen will have an opportunity in the next few weeks to vote for a unique self-help program that can assure them a better future, according to J.D. Sartwelle and O.J. Barron, state chairmen of the Texas Beferendum. Sartwelle is a rancher at Sealy, and Barron a rancher-feeder at Spur.

Beferendum is a cattle industry effort to win approval of a uniform collection plan for beef research, consumer information, promotion and foreign market development.

Registration will begin next week, January 28, at the county ASCS office and continue through February 6. Then, cattlemen who register may vote Feb. 19-22 at the ASCS office.

people do. And the result is a gradual erosion of demand for beef.

"If a majority of cattlemen voting approve the program," he continues, "20c out of each $100 of value added to an animal will be used to:

- Fight anti-beef propoganda
- Promote the nutritional value of beef
- Combat beef substitutes
- Counter extremes in the cattle cycle
- Increase demand for beef."

"This is a cattlemen's program all the way," adds Barron. "Cattlemen developed it, cattlemen will finance it and cattlemen will run it - through a Beef Board comprised of 60 cattlemen. Members of the Beef Board will be selected by existing cattlemen's organizations and Texas will be entitled to six members.

"This program is voluntary in that any cattlemen not wishing to participate can get a prompt refund," concludes Barron. "It's a positive program aimed at increasing markets for beef and increasing profits for cattlemen. It deserves the support of all cattlemen who favor a self-help, free enterprise approach to solving our problems."

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE ROMANS

One of the most enlightening books of the Bible, and indeed of all literature, is St. Paul's great Epistle to the Romans.

Paul was by nature and training a logician, perhaps the greatest logician of all time, and in this case his words were Spirit-inspired, so that we have in his epistle to the Romans a powerful logical argument as to God and man, condemnation and justification. It is wonderful thus to have God's plan of salvation explained for us. This is all too lacking in modern evangelism.

The doctrinal argument of Romans begins by demonstrating the moral depravity of man and says, even to the self-righteous: "Therefore thou art inexcusable..." (2:1).

The apostle then goes on to show that the law was given, not to help men to be good, but "that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought in guilty before God" (3:19). The conclusion: "Therefore by the deeds of the law shall no flesh be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin" (3:20).

The apostle presses his argument further by showing how the Lord Jesus Christ gave Himself as a satisfaction for sin that we might be "justified freely by God's grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (3:24). His conclusion: "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith, apart from the deeds of the law" (3:28). Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (5:1).

Next, he shows how those who trust in Christ and confess His death as their just penalty for sins, are "baptized into Christ" (6:3), made one with Him by faith. The conclusion: "There is therefore now no condemnation (judgment) to those who are in Christ Jesus" (8:1).

And the apostle closes the doctrinal part of this great epistle by exclaiming: "Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect?... Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" (8:33,35).

Our advice to those who have questions about salvation: Read Paul's Epistle to the Romans.

Texico Coach Attributes Success To Weight Program

Texico's Wolverine football team played in the state championship game the past two years in a row. Prior to this the school had never been to state and the team's coach, Paul Topliff, attributes their success in part to a weight-training program which continues through the off-season.

"Each year I ask the team to sit down and write three team goals they will have for that season. In 1978 their three goals were to win district, have a winning season and to be in the state playoffs. In 1979 their goals were to win the district again, go undefeated in the season and to win state," the Texico football coach said.

"They were only two points short of fulfilling all three goals rather than just two of them in 1979," he said. Texico was edged out of the state championship by two points in the bout with Hagerman.

"We cut down on game-related injuries by encouraging the players to get in the best physical shape possible by working out with weights during football season as well as during off-season," Topliff explained.

"During the season we work out with the weights twice a week and three times a week during the off-season," he said.

"Defensively, the team became so much stronger as the 1979 football season progressed. For a while we would give up 12 to 14 points per game to our opponents, but during the last five games we gave up zero points in three of these, seven points in one and nine in the other," Topliff pointed out.

"The key is to keep the injuries down as the football season progresses. We combine their working out with weights with playing volleyball, wrestling and anything that promotes agility and quickness," he said.

"I would say that our strongest point as a football team last year was our maturity and our confidence. What I mean to say is that we (the team) were confident that we would win when we went on the field for a game. The players didn't worry about losing, rather they thought about how well they were going to play the game," Topliff said.

"I only have a couple starters coming back next year and I would say that we will have a young team next year as a lot of my starters are graduating," he said.

"I see the strength of my team next year as being that they know what it's like to win. And success breeds success and winning breeds winning. It always helps a team to have won the year before," Topliff said.

"We get six months to work with our team and if they get with it, who knows, we could have a winning team again next season," he said.

"Herbert Bibbs is the best tailback in the state and he will be returning next season," Topliff said.

"We have a buddy system we employ in which a senior will pair up with a sophomore or a junior. The senior will be responsible for his partner reaching the point where he can lift a specified amount of weights by the end of the school year," he said.

"I sit down with each player and suggest a weight that I feel he should be able to work up to pressing by the end of the school year," Topliff said.

"When I came here in 1976 hardly any of the players could bench press 200 pounds and the weight equipment available was some plastic coated weights," he said.

Some changes took place and since then the weight room has been equipped with various kinds of exercise equipment. In 1978 all seven linemen were able to bench press 200 pounds or more.

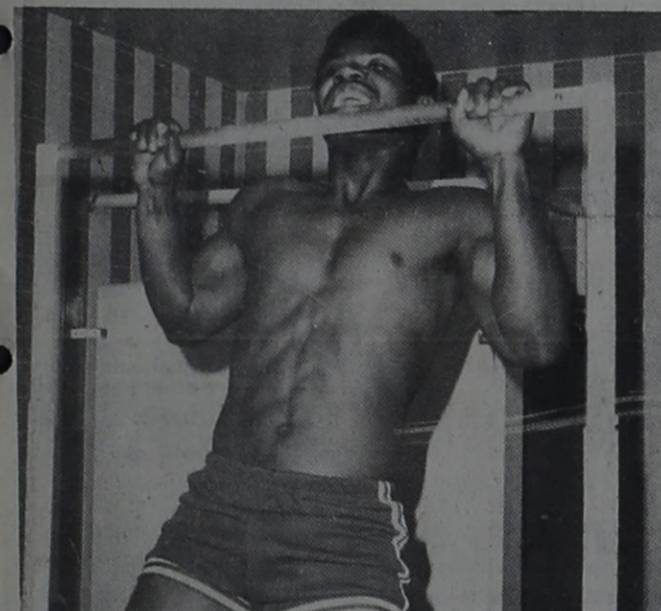

One key to a good football program is proper conditioning of players. And Coach Topliff emphasizes that weight training plays an integral part in that conditioning.

Work And Desire

Only hard work and the desire to win can produce a good football player and a good team. Ron Kirby, Texico Wolverine, has exemplified these qualities in years past.

Although he will graduate this year he continues to work out and help some of the younger players with their own conditioning.

Chin Up

It's chin up for Herbert Bibbs who is considered by some as the best tailback in the state. As a junior last year he rushed for almost 2,000 yards and will be returning to pace the Wolverines in 1980. This is part of the strengthening program to keep the Texico athletes in shape for next season.

Muscle Tone

Proper muscle tone is essential for a football player to avoid game-related injuries. James Robinson, a Wolverine sophomore, works out with weights with this goal in mind. He plays defensive end.

Texico Kindergarten Gets Into Full Swing

Kindergarten got off to a smooth start Thursday, Jan. 10, as parents made the trek to Texico to enroll their children in kindergarten.

"We've enrolled 23 youngsters so far which is below that of last year, but that number can increase," George Herrington, Texico Elementary School principal, said.

Texico, unlike many other schools in this area, operates its kindergarten in a different way. At Texico children go to kindergarten for only half a year or one semester, but have all-day sessions.

This marks the fourth year that kindergarten has been conducted in this manner with enrollment starting in January.

"We go as far as 20 miles south and about 40 miles north to bus kids here and it isn't practical to make a separate trip for kindergarteners if they only went a half day all year round," the elementary principal said.

"This way the little kids can ride the bus to school and home from school at the same time the big kids do," he pointed out.

"One person pointed out to me that one benefit of this kind of program is that the student is four and a half months older and consequently more mature when he or she starts kindergarten since they don't start until January," Herrington said.

As can be seen in the adjoining picture the kindergarten children enjoy the aspect of eating in the lunchroom with all of the other "big kids," a privilege permitted by the fact that they attend school all day.

Like The Big Kids

Jeffrey Moser, left, and Manuel Estrada both seem to be thinking "yum, yum" as they eat in the lunchroom in Texico Elementary School with the other elementary students. This was only their second time to eat there as kindergarten began the day before on Thursday, Jan. 10.

Appreciation Dinners Set For Bill Clayton

A great number of people from throughout the seven counties of the 74th Legislative District are involved in planning and carrying out five appreciation events honoring Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake.

The first Appreciation Dinner was Saturday, Jan. 19, in Dimmitt.

Dates for the other dinners will be Saturday, Feb. 2, in Morton for Cochran County; Monday, Feb. 11, in Hereford for Deaf Smith and Oldham counties; Monday, Feb. 18, in Friona for Parmer and Bailey counties; and Saturday, Feb. 23, in Olton for Lamb County.

"These events are not to raise funds for Representative Clayton," Dr. B.W. Armistead of Littlefield, coordinator for the events, said. "The sale of tickets are to cover the costs incurred. They are intended to honor a man who has given a great deal of his life in public service for this area. It is our way of publicly showing how we feel about the sacrifices he has made on our behalf."

For the Parmer and Bailey counties event, co-chairmen are Bill Ellis and Nelda Merriott. Ticket chairman will be H.H. Morton, Jr., and Tom Jarboe will serve as food chairman.

Winter Wonderland

The ice storm which hit the surrounding area Saturday night transformed the countryside into an ice palace. The simplest of trees and bushes took on a beauty unparalleled by its appearance during any of the other seasons with perhaps the exception of fall. This small tree glistened in the field where it was rooted when the rays of sunshine struck its ice-coated branches.
