FIFTY - THIRD YEAR

On the day that President Kennedy was murdered, I grieved, first of all, for his life. But I also was sad for the sake of Dallas. The crime of the century happened there. Dallas, proud Dallas, didn't deserve this ignominy.

I would like to withdraw from those who have said they are ashamed of Texas. I am not. I am proud I am a Texan. If I were a Dallasite, I would be proud of that, too. Dallas is one of the world's truly remarkable cities.

There is no need for us to shame ourselves if we disagreed with the late president. It does no dishonor to his memory to recall him as a political adversary.

Many thoughtless persons in the nation are heaping condemnation on the state simply because we permitted the assassination to occur within our borders. They think we are glad the president was killed. They think we encouraged the crime by our open opposition to President Kennedy's political ambitions. These accusations are so far from the truth that they are ludicrous; yet they are being believed elsewhere.

For myself, I would like to plead not guilty to the assassination of the president. I didn't do it. I'm not glad it happened. I'm not convinced anything I ever did or said contributed to his getting killed.

To my critics, I would like to point out I don't carry a gun. I have never thrown a rock, or demonstrated in any threatening way. I have been in attendance at gatherings where I was a part of a group I definitely did not agree with, heard speakers say things I could not stomach, and rose with the crowd (out of courtesy, not respect) to applaud them at the end of their stupid speeches.

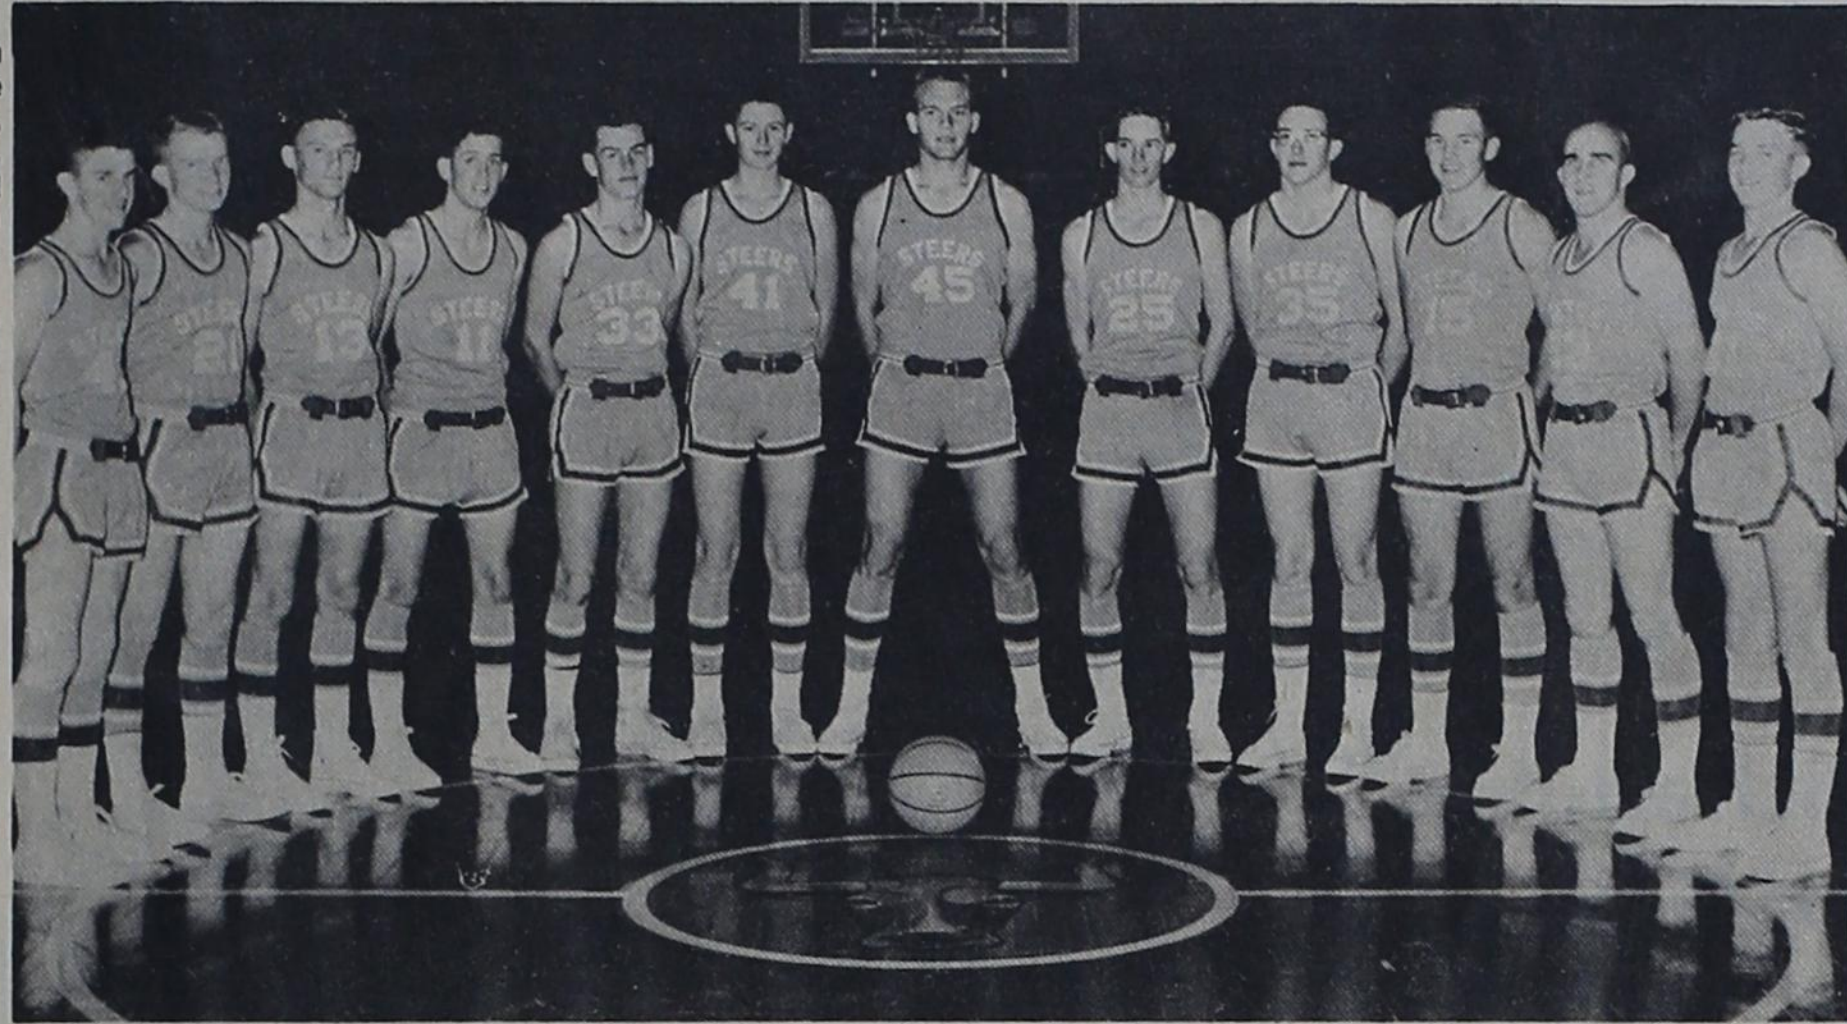

But I never once thought of physically harming them, or, for that matter, of denying them the right of expression. And I am unconvinced that my view is an exceptional one, I think, rather, that a lot of people feel just as I do.

Red Terrell said some funny things at the exes banquet Saturday night, but his description of the assignment to this modest community was to me the most amusing.

As a rookie coach, Red was "sent" (so he says) to Farwell by the dean at West Texas with the admonition that this was a nice little town that had good basketball teams and now he was supposed to get in there and build up interest in football.

Curious about the magnitude of his opportunity, Red asked how big the town was. "Well, I'm not sure about the population," came the reply, "but the main street is at least half a mile long."

Red was understandably impressed by this estimate and no doubt manufactured some delectable visions about the community. As it proved out, his mentor was not exaggerating at all. Red told us last week, "I discovered that if you look on a map, you can easily conclude that Farwell's main street is about three thousand miles long," said Red.

Steers Take Second Win, Enter Tournament Play

Farwell Steers took their second win of the season Tuesday night when they defeated Friona on the home court 60-40. The Steers led all the way and were never in great danger although the Friona aggregation did come within five points of the locals at one time in the last quarter.

Danny Lindop with 18 points to his credit was high point man for the locals followed closely by Leon Lovelace with 17 and Jerry Childs with 13.

Danny Murphree contributed 14 to the Friona effort to take scoring honors for that school. In the first quarter of play Farwell scored 13 points while Friona had five. At half time Farwell had 24 and Friona 11 and at end of the third period Friona only had 26 points while Farwell had 33.

In the evening opener between the Friona and Farwell girls, the local lasses were defeated by a 75-30 score. Dianne Lovelace with 11 points was top scorer for the locals and Charlotte Nettles with 29 was top Squaw scorer.

Both of the local teams will be playing in tournaments this weekend with the girls traveling to Happy where they will participate in that tournament. First game for Farwell will be with Olton, Thursday morning, 11:05 a. m.

The boys will journey to Plainview where they will participate in that schools' invitational tourney. They will meet McAdoo, defending state champs in their first game scheduled for 12:30 Thursday.

Next home game for the teams will be with Bovina, their arch rivals, Dec. 10.

The Lazbuddie tournament in which the Steers were originally entered has been called off and it is not known at this time if it will be reset for a later date.

Jaycee Auction Sale Postponed To Dec. 17

The Jaycee sponsored auction sale which had originally been set for Dec. 10 has been postponed until Dec. 17. All consignments for the sale must be turned in no later than Dec. 10 and these consignments may be mailed to Jaycees, Box 584, Farwell, or turned in to any Jaycee member.

Reason for postponing the sale is the harvest which is in full swing at this time and Jaycees think more benefit would be derived from the sale if it is postponed until such time as a crowd can be in attendance.

In addition the Jaycees are busy this week installing the new Christmas lights the organization recently bought in downtown Farwell.

Jaycees will also begin a Christmas tree sale this week beginning Friday with the trees to be displayed in the downtown area. Sale of trees will continue until all trees are gone or until Christmas Eve.

The auction sale will be held on the Verney Townes lots in east Farwell, directly west of the Farwell Fertilizer Co. It is scheduled to get underway at 1 p. m. with all consignments to be on the sale grounds no later than 11 a. m. on the day of the sale, Dec. 17.

A special meeting of Jaycees will be held Tuesday night Dec. 10 announces Leroy Kitten, 2nd vice-president of the organization. He urges all men between the ages of 21-35 inclusive to attend this important meeting.

Young Couple Killed In Head-on Collision Wednesday

A young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Coleman, Frankfort, Indiana, were killed in a head-on collision 4 1/2 miles north-east of Farwell on highway 60 in the early morning hours Wednesday and driver of the other vehicle, Ray R. McCulston, remains in critical condition at Clovis Memorial hospital.

The crash occurred about 6 a. m. The young couple, in a 1960 model car, were headed toward Farwell, and the Amarillo Bakery Truck driven by McCulston was traveling east toward Bovina at time of the collision.

The car was enroute to Ft. Bliss where Coleman was to report back to duty at the army station, following a leave of absence.

The car was a twisted mass of metal and the truck was also demolished. The young couple, 19 and 20, were thrown from the vehicle. Driver of the truck was pinned in the cab, and officers had difficulty removing him from the wreckage, says Sheriff Charles Lovelace.

The wreck was investigated by Carel Parker, highway patrolman and Sheriff Lovelace.

Large Crowd Hears Terrell At Banquet

One of the largest crowds to attend an ex-students banquet in recent years was present Saturday night at Farwell for the annual get-together with a hootenanny setting the informal theme for the meeting.

A smorgasbord meal featuring roast beef or chicken was served to guests preceding the meeting.

Bobby Crume, president of the Ex-students Association for Farwell, Oklahoma Lane and West Camp Schools, was master of ceremonies. Donald Christian has served as vice-president the past year and Mrs. Shirley Ware as secretary.

To spur attendance at the open house, the company is offering a prize of $1000 worth of concrete irrigation pipe line. Some lucky farmer will win it. The new facilities include office space for the manager, bookkeeper and receptionist, dispatcher, office clerk and an inventory clerk; the plant which is equipped to manufacture not only the old mortar-type concrete pipe but the newer "Lock-Seal" pipe, and a shop where fabrication work and equipment maintenance is done.

The plant sprawls over 24.2

STATE WILL PARTICIPATE

County To Purchase Hwy 60 Right of Way

Announcement was received last week from the Texas Highway Department authorizing Farmer County to begin plans to purchase right of way along U. S. Highway 60, first step toward eventual four-lane construction on the road.

The Texas Highway Commission also set aside $50,000 to help the right of way fund get started. The state was asked a few weeks ago by the county commissioner's court for permission to begin purchasing right of way, and for state cooperation on a 50-50 basis for the project.

The state announced the authorization of $50,000 "to begin purchase of right of way along the New Mexico state line to the Castro County line."

"Additional funds will be made available for right of way and construction in future work programs, as the need develops and as available funds permit," the Commission said.

County Judge Loyde Brewer said that the announcement was "good news" for the county, but said that it might be some time before any actual right of way purchasing can begin.

"First, a contract has to be entered into between the county and state, for participation on a 50-50 basis for purchasing right of way. A survey of the road would then be necessary to determine its possible route when widened. Then deeds would have to be drawn, and an appraiser would have to appraise land along the road to determine its value," Brewer stated.

But Brewer noted that the county has taken a giant step toward protecting its interests in the four-lane road. The county can more or less direct the developments along the road from Farwell to northeast of Black.

"Now if something comes up along the road so that we need to purchase right of way, we can buy it and share the cost with the state," Brewer said.

On October 24, Judge Brewer and members of the court appeared before the Highway Commission in Austin. "The Commissioner's Court realizes that it will be some time before any construction can be started, but also believes that it would be a great saving to the county to start buying as soon as possible, out of our current revenues," they told the commission.

"Due to the great increase in land prices, as well as development and building along the road, the State now estimates that right of way for the 37 miles at $750,000. This figure may reach the million-dollar mark in a few years," Brewer told the group.

He also explained that the

Wolverines Schedule Two Weekend Games

With two wins and one loss to their credit the Texico Wolverines will be going into play this weekend against Grady and Ft. Sumner, with both games to be played away from home.

Next home game for the Wolves is Dec. 12 when they will meet the Elida Quintet on the Texico court. All of the games will be preceded by games played by the schools B teams. The Thursday game with Elida is a change from the regular schedule, and Coach

Frederick is anxious that patrons of the school note the change and come out and support the team.

Coaches at the Texico school say "It is too early in the season to make any predictions on the way the season will end," adding that they, the team, has a good start for a young inexperienced team but reminding that they have had only one hard game and that with the defending district champs, Dora who took a win from the Texico boys by a small margin.

Jimmy Cains Live In Canyon After November Wedding Here

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cain

Miss Marian Zell Billingsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Billingsley of Canyon, and Jimmie Delbert Cain, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mears of Farwell, were married in a double-ring ceremony at Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church Nov. 16.

Rev. Vernon Willard of Pampa read the vows. The Billingsleys are former local residents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of chantilly lace and net over taffeta with a fitted basque waist and a lace accent extending to a point on the full skirt. The softly rounded neckline was scalloped and edged in tiny pearls and sequins, and the long fitted sleeves came to points over the hands and were held with five minute buttons.

Her full length veil of illusion was edged with scallops of lace, and was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a white Bible given her for graduation by her church, with the book holding a bouquet of white gardenias.

Traditionally, she chose something old, a ring belonging to Mrs. Conda (Granny) Jones; new was her dress; blue was her garter and her veil was borrowed from Mrs. Bill (Carolyn) Owen. Pennies in her shoe were minted the years of the births of the young couple.

Best man was Dickie Gerles and groomsmen were Ronny Henson and Tommy Wurster. Ushers were Mike Billington and Michael Nelson.

Mrs. Owen was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Karen and Sharon Ruthart of Canyon, nieces of the bride. Candelights were Donna Ruthart of Canyon niece of the bride; and Gwendolyn Rundell of Farwell, cousin of the bridegroom.

Large baskets of palms and candelabra were framed by cathedral windows tied with white satin bows for the altar arrangement. The white iron kneeling bench was placed in the foreground, and flanked by greenery and candelabra. Pews were marked by white tapers tied with white bows.

Sherril Austin provided background and traditional music for the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Ross Blankenship as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Bridal attendants chose identical gowns of royal blue cotton velvet with fitted waists and long fitted sleeves and high necklines. The skirts were designed with tiny pleats and each attendant carried a blue velvet muff with an attached gardenia corsage. Matching velvet pillbox hats were accented with white net veils. Satin pumps were dyed to match the ensembles.

Mrs. Billingsley, mother of the bride, chose a two-piece dress of blue with white accessories and a white carnation corsage and Mrs. Mears wore a beige ensemble with a beige hat and cranberry accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church, with the serving table laid with a white cloth of cutwork linen. Crystal appointments were used and blue tapers were placed in crystal holders.

Mrs. Pete Rundell and Mrs. Fred Curtis, cousins of the bridegroom, registered guests.

Sisters of the bride, Mrs. Bill Glenn of Amarillo and Mrs. Crawford Ruthart of Canyon served punch and cake to guests. The three-tiered cake was decorated with blue rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Napkins were inscribed with the names "Zell and Jimmy". A silver bride's knife was a gift of Ruth Ann and Lynn Blankenship.

The young couple went to Roswell and on to Mexico for a wedding trip. Mrs. Cain traveled in a blue suit with brown accessories and a corsage from her wedding bouquet. The young couple will be at home at Canyon.

Mrs. Cain is a 1961 graduate of Farwell Schools and attended business school in Amarillo. She is now employed at First National Bank in Canyon. The bridegroom was graduated from Farwell Schools in 1961 and attended New Mexico Military Institute. He plans to work in Canyon until fall when he plans to enroll in college.

Research Foundation Presses Study Of Midge

Delbert Langford, agronomist for the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, reports that a long-term research study of the overwintering habits of midge has been set into motion at the Foundation.

On November 16, Delbert made selections of heads of grain sorghum that contained larva and pupa of midge. Some of the heads will be put into cold storage at temperatures ranging from above freezing to below freezing, as well as field conditions.

The purpose of the study is to find at what stage or stages midge can over-winter under field and experimental conditions. Delbert said that this study will help to determine the time of hatching after over-wintering occurs, and thus will be able to get an idea of the size of the population of midge for the next year.

Langford reports that this project will give information as to how long midge can live and at what temperatures the insect will survive or die. This will give research information for further studies of control measures. From this, predictions can also be made as to how far north the midge can live as well as midge movement in other areas. This report will aid in the prediction of the possible seriousness of the midge problem for the next growing season. Dr. Earl H. Collister, director of the High Plains Research Foundation, said, "This research on midge is something that the area must have now. If some control measures are not found soon that can successfully eradicate this insect, the economy of the entire state of Texas will be seriously affected."

Mrs. Meryle Massie Homemaker Of Week

Chosen as homemaker of the week by the Farm and Home staff is Mrs. Meryle Massie, a member of the Northside HD Club at Friona.

She is serving for the second consecutive year as president of the club and has held the same office on another occasion as well as having filled most of the other local club offices. In addition to serving in the local club as an officer she has also been a member of the County HD Council.

She explains that the Northside club is the old Green Acres Club with most of the present members of the organization members of that club when HD work was begun in Farmer County.

Mrs. Massie, who was born in Dickens County, first came to Farmer County and the Friona area in 1946. She met her husband, Meryle, while she was attending Texas Tech in Lubbock and he was stationed with the air force in that city.

Following their marriage she chose to leave school and travel with her husband as he was moved from bases in Georgia, Kentucky, other parts of Texas and New York.

Following his discharge from the armed services they returned to Friona to make their home on a farm north of town.

The Massie family had been residents of the area since 1914 and "we simply came home," she explains. Mr. and Mrs. Massie now operate a 1700 acre farm and ranch northeast of Friona. The Massies are parents of three daughters, Marca Lynn, 18, a senior; Merylene, 17, a junior; and Jayn, 11, a fifth grade student.

In addition Negriz Yazgan, a 16 year old Turkish girl, who is attending school at Friona as an exchange student, is making her home with the family.

Negriz, who arrived in the United States in August, will leave Friona in June following the close of school. She is doing senior work although her classification would be different in her home country. She is part of the family and does her share of the chores along with the Massie trio.

Three years ago Anni Jensen, an exchange student from Denmark, made her home with the Massies while attending school in Friona.

Questioned as to how the girls came to live with them, Mrs. Massie replied, "One makes application to the American Field Service for a student and if he is lucky the student will be assigned to his home."

She thinks her family gains much from the exchange students living with them as ideas are exchanged and customs of other countries are learned by close contact with the students.

She adds that the two students who have lived with them have been quite different, with Anni Jensen, the Danish girl, quickly copying the American mode of dress and manner of speech.

Negriz has not been so quick to adopt the American ways although she likes life in America quite well.

Anni, says Mrs. Massie, could hardly wait to have her hair styled in the American "duck tail," while Negriz chooses to keep her hair in the shoulder-length style to which she is accustomed. Only on rare occasions does she curl the ends of the long straight hair.

Young people are one of the hobbies of Mrs. Massie. They are always welcome to come to the Massie home after dates for a snack, which can be cooked by the individuals themselves or by Mrs. Massie ahead of time if she knows they are coming.

Like any proud mother, Mrs. Massie related that one of her daughters had been chosen Miss Friendship and FFA Plowgirl in the Friona School this year. "We are especially proud of our family," she says.

Mrs. Massie, who worked as a secretary during the summers while she was attending college and while her husband was in the armed services, is a busy person with her club work, Girl Scout work and church activities. She has served as a girl scout leader for the past ten years and at the present time is neighborhood chairman for the group. She especially likes to camp out with the girls and Cotton farmers will go to the polls this coming Tuesday and cast the vote that will decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for 1964 crop cotton.

It is felt that each eligible voter should be fully informed about the allotment-quota program, so that the outcome of the referendum will represent the opinion of all voters, says Prentice Mills, ASCS manager.

The facts relative to the referendum are as follows:

1. This is not a question of whether allotments will be in effect. Allotments will be in effect regardless of a favorable or unfavorable vote.

2. The question to be decided in the referendum Tuesday are

(A) quotas or no quotas, and (B) the level of price support (guaranteed price or loan rate) to be available for the 1964 upland cotton crop.

3. If the vote is favorable, quotas will be in effect for the crop -- with penalties on any cotton produced on "excess" acreage on the farm, and price support will be offered to growers who comply with their farm allotments at a level of from 65 to 90 percent of parity.

4. If the vote is not favorable, there will be no quotas or penalties applicable to the coming year's cotton crop, and price support to growers (who stay within their allotment) will be at 50 percent of parity.

5. Persons eligible to cast ballots are all those (including wives in Texas) engaged in the production of the upland cotton crop in 1963. This would include landlords as well as farm operators and tenants.

Cotton acreage allotment notices were mailed to Farmer County cotton producers on this past Monday.

The polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Polling places are located as follows:

Bovina Gin Co., Chester-Fleming Gin Inc., Clay's Corner Gin Co., Farmer County ASCS Office, Country Club Gin, Fleming & Son Gin, Friona Farmers Co-op Gin, Larlat Gin Inc.,

Lawlis Gin Co., McBride Gin, Rhea Elevators, North Lazbudie Gin Co., Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, Farmer County Gin (Smith Bros.), Black Grain Co., West Hub Gin Co.

Farmer County cotton growers have led the state for the past several years in "turning out the vote" in these referendums and it is hoped that this year will be the biggest of all. All eligible voters are urged to be sure to cast their ballot this coming Tuesday.

Any person having a question concerning the referendum are urged to contact the ASCS office.

Hats, shoes, undergarments -- even furniture upholstery -- may soon be made of a single piece of cotton fabric that has been permanently molded into shape. The new process which makes this possible comes from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Shop For These Food Items

Biggest produce news this week is in citrus fruits, reports Texas A&M University consumer marketing specialists. Tangelos and tangerines have made their appearance in local markets, and quality of all citrus appears to be excellent. However, supplies are shorter than last year, so prices reflect this smaller supply.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clayatt, Extension consumer marketing specialists, also suggests cranberries for holiday menus. Apples, grapes, bananas and pears are other good fruit choices, she adds.

The production of edible tree nuts is expected to break records this season, with the pecan crop likely to be the largest ever recorded, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Nut prices should be relatively low in comparison with past seasons, and homemakers may want to freeze some for later use, Mrs. Clayatt reminds.

A typical scene in the Massey home is Mrs. Massey busily engaged in preparing a meal for guests.

to go quail and pheasant hunting with her husband.

She does much work in the Methodist church of which she is a member. She has taught in the children's department for a number of years, is WSCS children's representative and is teaching a junior MYF group each Sunday night. In addition she serves as a teacher in the summer vacation church school.

With all of these activities Mrs. Massie still finds time for all of her hobbies, including flower arranging, basket weaving, coppercraft, sewing, cooking, gardening and experimenting with many other kinds of crafts, the latest of which is making seed pictures.

Displayed in the home was a coffee table with a mosaic tile top, made by Mrs. Massie. The floral arrangement in the hall of the home is changed to fit the season and the arrangements are made by Mrs. Massie from any available seasonal material.

With this busy schedule she still manages to assist her husband with farm duties, driving a truck during the harvest season and keeping the farm record books.

She cooks for hands during the busy season and says "there is nothing I had rather do than cook for a group."

"Home is what we make it," said Mrs. Massie and from all indications this is truly a lively, happy home in which to live.

Rabies is often found in wild animals such as skunks and in domestic ones like dogs and cats. The disease, a virus infection spread in the saliva of infected animals, can be guarded against by vaccinating pets.

Search Begins For Best Conservation Homemaker

The search for Texas' champion conservation homemaker for 1964 is getting underway, reminds Claudia G. Williams, Texas Agricultural Extension Service program specialist and state judging committee chairman.

Each county in a Texas Soil Conservation District may nominate one woman who lives on a conservation farm or ranch by submitting a record of her conservation accomplishments to the county home demonstration agent, Miss Williams explains. Records of all nominees should be ready for county judging committees by Feb. 1.

The top Texas homemaker will be selected, along with five regional winners, from among the outstanding district and regional candidates whose records are to be submitted to Mrs. Florence W. Low, assistant director for home economics with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The annual judging activity is sponsored by the Fort Worth Press, in cooperation with Soil Conservation Districts, the Agricultural Extension Service and other groups. It offers recognition for achievements of Texas women in the area of conservation in the home and on the farm.

All homemakers -- whether they live in the city or in the country -- are land users in their own right if their home has a plot of land, and they have the opportunity and need to practice soil and water conservation, as well as conservation of time, energy and family finances. "Active attention to the care of your land may help to refresh your partnership with the nation's farmers and ranchers as stewards of the land," Miss Williams reminds homemakers.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

How Will We Find The Time?

The weak feet of many children need the wonderful exercise of running barefoot in sand. We often hear that doctors recommend this exercise in addition to corrective shoes or whatever therapy they prescribe but, when we mention it, the parents protest that they are too busy. Other parents promise but never get around to doing it.

It probably won't do much good but we suggest that if the child had a condition that required visits to the hospital three times a week time would be found.

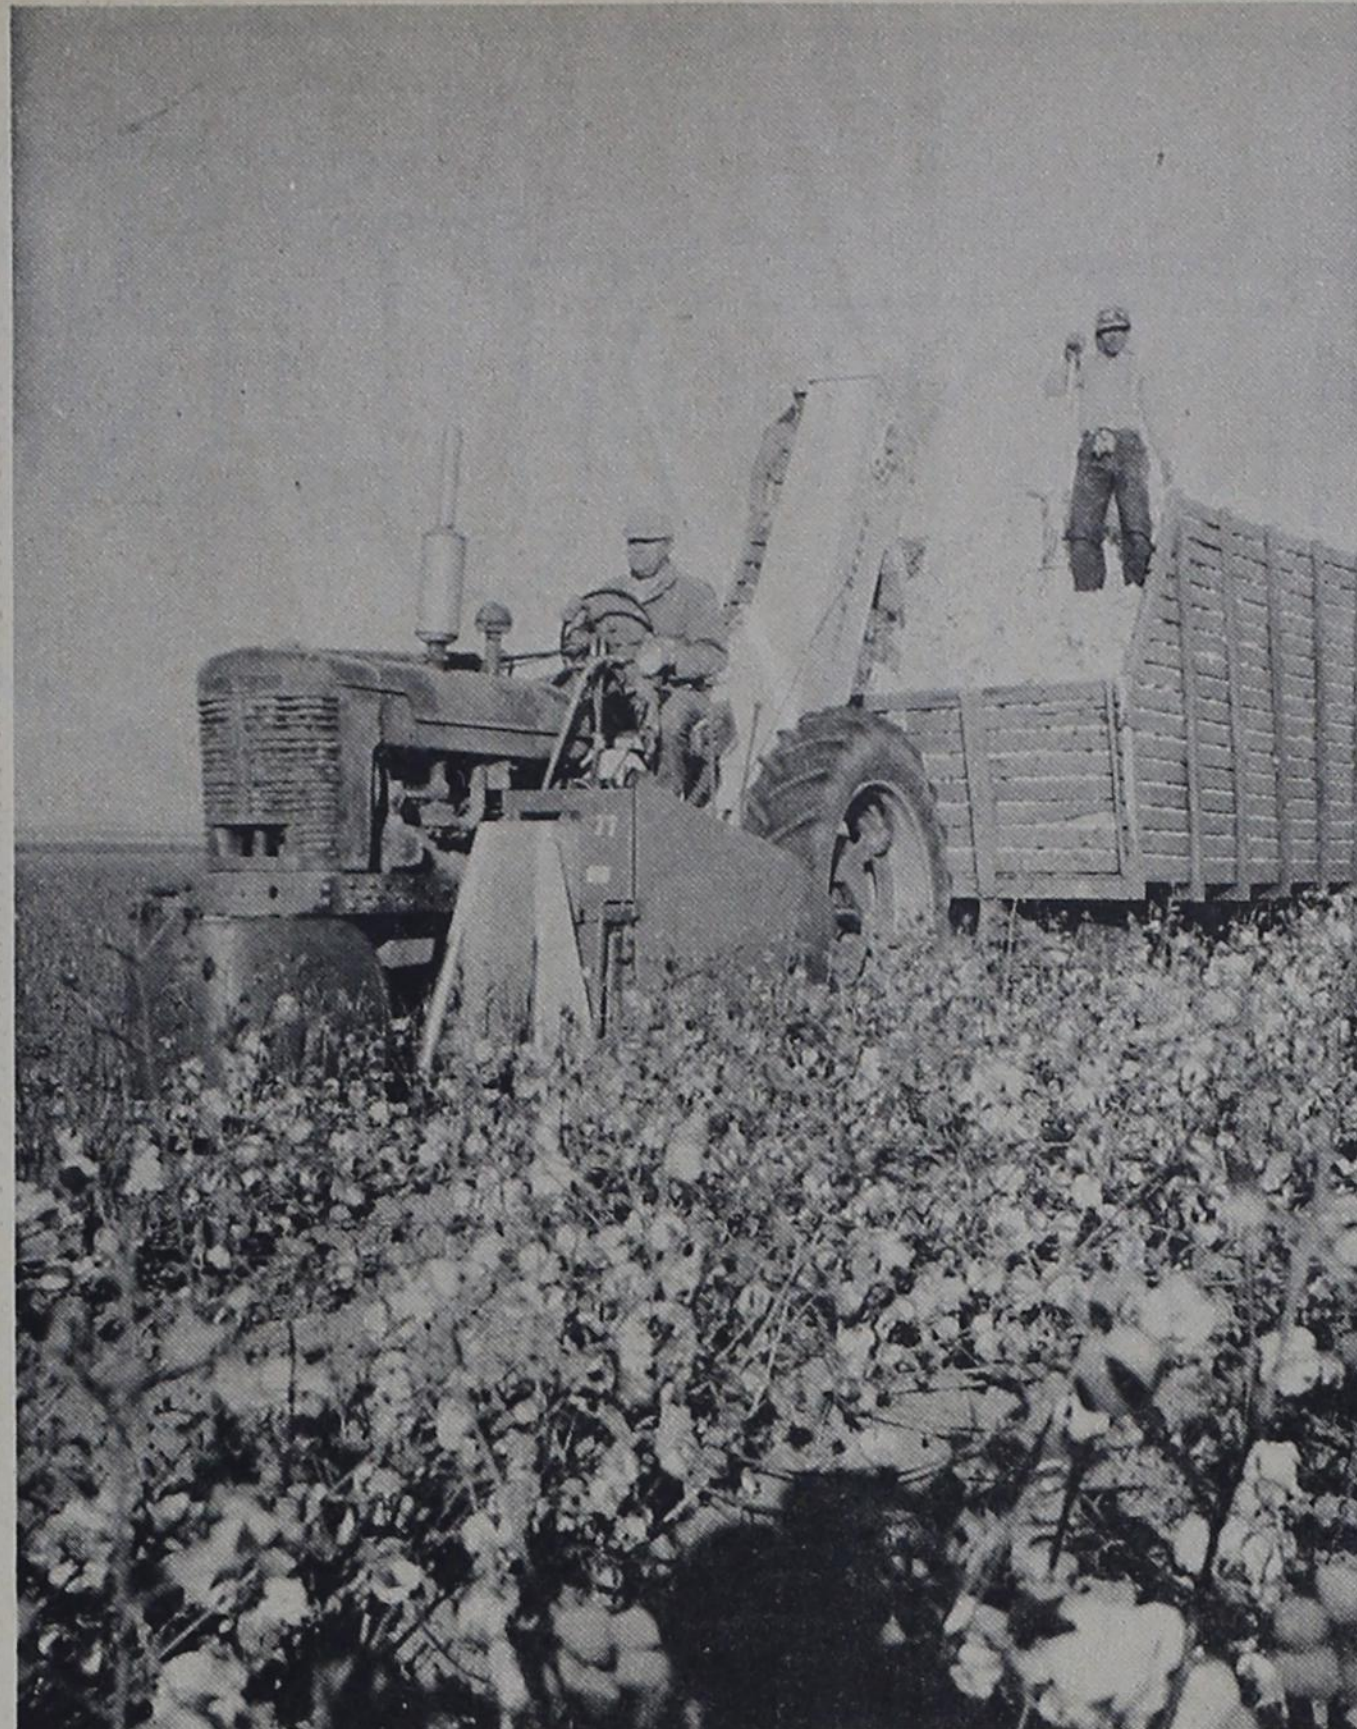

Could it be that down through the years we have acquired the idea that remedies must be distasteful or expensive to be effective? Exercise is certainly not distasteful to children, bless 'em, and no amount of money can buy the strengthening of weak muscles.

Many Farmer County area farmers are plumb surprised--and downright proud--of their 1963 cotton crop which has made an amazing recovery after a slow, slow start this year. This field east of Farwell is producing over a bale-and-a-half per acre, according to the custom stripper. The field looks like it's every bit that good, too.

IN DALLAS --

4-H Club Congress Delegates Meet

Texas 4-H Club members will be represented at the 42nd National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, December 1-5 by 35 of their most distinguished members, 19 girls and 16 boys. The delegation will assemble in Dallas on November 29 and will be guests of the First National Bank in Dallas for a noon luncheon and a get acquainted meeting before boarding the train for Chicago and America's number one 4-H meeting. Their all-expense trips are provided by donors from business and industrial concerns and organizations in Texas and the nation. The delegates first were named winners of the various award programs offered annually through the National 4-H

Service Committee in their home counties. Were later additional district winners and still later were named state winners, and they still have a chance for national honors. One of the group, Margie Lux of Comal County was only recently named a sectional trip winner in the dairy foods program. Official chaperons for the delegation -- they will meet the group in Dallas -- include Floyd Lynch, state 4-H Club leader, two assistant state leaders, Marshall Crouch and Margie Sellers and Miss Gena Brazeale, home demonstration agent in Hale County and Don Kachtk, assistant county agricultural agent in Hidalgo County. The two county Exension agents were selected on the basis of their county 4-H programs and both have memberships in the official delegation. Texas 4-H Club members have participated in the 'blue ribbon' 4-H meeting almost from its beginning and few awards are more eagerly worked for by 4-H members than are the trips to Club Congress, the state 4-H leaders said. Almost every section of Texas will be represented by the delegation and they will join some 1,500 other state winners for an unforgettable five days of entertainment, educational experiences and fellowship. More than 200 will receive college scholarships and national recognition for their outstanding achievements.

December Foods Assure Ample Holiday Supplies

Ample food will be the least among problems for Texans, this December, as they plan festive get-togethers. Producers and processors, together, are keeping trade channels full of holiday grocery needs. Seven foods are particularly abundant. They make up the U.S. Department of Agriculture's December plentiful foods list, points out the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Beef and pecans -- two important Texas products -- are featured on the list. Pork, turkeys and peanuts, also grown extensively in Texas, will be plentiful all month. Apples and cranberries complete the list for December. Beef takes a top spot on the list because of its abundance and favorable prices for consumers. The all-time record pecan crop of 297 million pounds for the nation is 66 per cent above the 1957-61 average; four times more than last year's small crop. Prices being paid to growers are lower, and therefore, more favorable for increased use by consumers. Similar reasons stand behind the listing of pork, turkeys, peanuts, apples and cranberries. USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, that keeps in constant touch with available supplies of all farm-produced foods, says consumers will find it to their advantage to shop the "plentiful route." Food markets regularly promote these items with special prices and a wide choice of quality.

High Plains Prepares Against Boll Weevil

The dreaded boll weevil is a definite and ominous threat to the entire High Plains cotton industry and a million-dollar "diapause" control program has been recommended to prevent threat from becoming reality. This conclusion and the recommendation came from some of the foremost experts in the field of entomology November 26 when they met with the 13-member High Plains Boll Weevil Steering Committee in Lubbock under the auspices of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. While it has not yet been determined that weevils hibernate on the High Plains, Technical Advisory Committee member Dr. J. C. Gaines, Head of Entomology Department at Texas A&M, said "The weevil is obviously a threat to the area. He was here in 1963 and will come again."

Dr. Gaines said he felt the weevil off the High Plains is the diapause program." In further discussion it was generally agreed that such a program would not only set up a barrier to prevent the further westward encroachment of the weevil, but would also effectively deter weevil damage in those areas already infested. The recommendation of the Advisory Committee was accepted by the Steering Committee, and will be discussed further at the first meeting of the Areawide Boll Weevil Committee, scheduled in January. The Areawide Committee is composed of one member from each of the 23 counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers. Current plans call for initiation of the diapause control program in the Fall of 1964. Other Advisory Committee members, all of whom concurred in Dr. Gaines' appraisal of the seriousness of the problem and with the recommendation for a diapause control program are: Dr. J. C. Gaines, Head, Entomology Department at Texas A&M; Dr. James Brazzel, Department of Entomology at State College, Mississippi; Dr. Sloan Jones, Head of the Insects Research Division, Agricultural Research Service; Dr. H. G. Johnston, Entomologist for the National Cotton Council; Dr. Gerald Thomas, Dean of Agriculture at Texas Tech; Dr. R. E. Patterson, Dean of Agriculture at Texas A&M; Welton H. Jones, Lubbock District Agent of TAES; Charles Fisher, Superintendent of TAES #8; Ralph Griffiths, Lubbock and Crosby County FHA Supervisor; D. H. Russell, U.S.D.A. Plant Pest Control Division, Lubbock; Gene Cupp, Texas Department of Agriculture; Charlie Scruggs of the Progressive Farmer Magazine; Walter Labay, District Superintendent of Vocational Agriculture Teachers; Byron Frieron, Manager of the Texas Prison Farm; Joe Ramsey, President of the Texas Aerial Applicators; Dr. Perry Adkisson, Texas A&M Department of Entomology; Dr. Theodore B. Davich, Director of the Federal Boll Weevil Research Laboratory at State College, Mississippi; and Dr. W. H. Cross, Staff Entomologist at the same laboratory.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By DERYL COKER County Agent

A great number of grain sorghum fields this year were infected with head smut. This is a serious disease, even though our losses have been fairly light. The seriousness of the disease lies in the outlook for its future and its potentially heavy losses which it may cause.

There is no seed treatment for head smut that has proved effective. If you notice any head smut in your grain sorghum while harvesting, now is the time to start to work, to keep it from multiplying on your farm. In talking with ginners and farmers, I find that cotton yields are turning out better than we all thought they would. Of course this is due to the extremely good fall. There are still green leaves on trees in Farwell, when possible. The black dust which you see on the smutted heads is a large number of spores of the fungus. These spores will be carried in the soil for up to ten years while retaining their viability. When susceptible plants, grain sorghum, corn, or sudan grass, are grown in the infected soil, the seedlings will be infected and will produce only smutted heads. Thus a trace of infection this year may multiply to 1 or 2 per cent next year and so on until a high degree of infection is reached.

The per cent of loss from the disease will equal the per cent of infection observed by counting infected plants in a row. The only control for this disease is the use of resistant hybrids. There will be some resistant hybrids released for commercial culture in 1964. Rotation of crops always helps in slowing down a disease, and we should rotate our crops

Research scientists with the U. S. Department of Agriculture have developed a new way to process jelled applesauce. The sauce holds its firmness at temperatures up to 120 degrees Fahrenheit, and can be served on the same plate with other foods, even warm foods, without spreading. Molded desserts or attractive salads can be made by heating the jelled applesauce to liquefy it and pouring it into a mold dish over pieces of fruit, berries, vegetables, nuts, raisins or meat.

Foods -- whether fresh, frozen or canned -- lose nutrients if not properly handled by the homemaker. Methods for conserving these nutritive values are described in a new bulletin, written by USDA nutritionists. Single copies are free from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250. Ask for "Conserving the Nutritive Value of Foods," HG-90.

At Home In Farmer County

By CRICKET B. TAYLOR
County HD Agent

As the season for "giving" draws near there will be many shopping for small electric appliances.

Appliances are versatile, but they are only as useful as the place in which they are stored.

When considering another appliance be sure to think about how often it will be used, where it will be used and where will it be stored. Would the appliance cause more labor or would it really be a labor-saver?

The point of first use and size will help determine the home for each. How often do you use the appliances you now have? Before buying another small cooking appliance stop and think what can be done by those you have on hand. Take the electric sauce pan, it will cook: Pot roasts, bake beans, stews, soup and chili, deep fried foods, casserole combinations and puddings.

The fry pan can be used for cooking: Some baked foods, Pot roasts, deep fried foods, pancakes, casserole combinations, puddings, grilled meats and eggs.

The kind of cooking you do will help determine the appliances that you will need and use. Any appliance not used is expensive. How often will you use it? Other questions to consider are: Is the wiring in your home adequate? Do you have conveniently located outlets? You know some people think that if they have a lot of outlets in which to plug appliances that they have plenty of power--the wiring is sufficient. This is not necessarily true. An appliance circuit will carry only about 2300 watts. Many of our heating appliances, like the fry pan will use 1500 to 1800watts.

Homemakers in Farwell and the surrounding area interested in modern information in homemaking are invited to a coffee 9:30-11 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 in the home of Mrs. C. M. Meeks, 210-2nd St. in Farwell.

A home demonstration club will be organized. Homemaking information is a part of the extension service program.

If you are interested in being in a club where you have an opportunity to learn and to be a leader, receive homemaking information in foods and nutrition, clothing, management of time and energy, child care, housing, landscaping and many others you will want to attend this meeting.

The HD Council Educational Committee will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by the County Council Chairman, Mrs. J. D. Sanders and the County HD Agent, Cricket B. Taylor.

An exhibit of Christmas gifts made by HD Club homemakers will be on display during the coffee.

NEWS FROM THE

FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

"Economics in Our Times" is one of three books approved by the State Board of Education for use in economics classes in Texas Public Schools. We are glad to note that Herbert O. Willborn, state board member who lives in Amarillo, voted against retention of the book on the approved list. Critics say that it gives very little true information on the American Free Enterprise system, but leaves the impression that socialism may be the best of systems economically, for a nation to adopt for its citizens. We trust that local school book committees, who will be meeting soon, will not select Economics in Our Times for students of Farmer County Schools to study. Alternate books are Economics, and Understanding Our Free Enterprise, allegedly good, American type books.

We hope it's not out of line for us to mention that we're glad to see a Christian Book Store going in the old Bill Sheehan Office, Clovis or Amarillo have, until recently, been the closest places where purchase of such books and materials could be made.

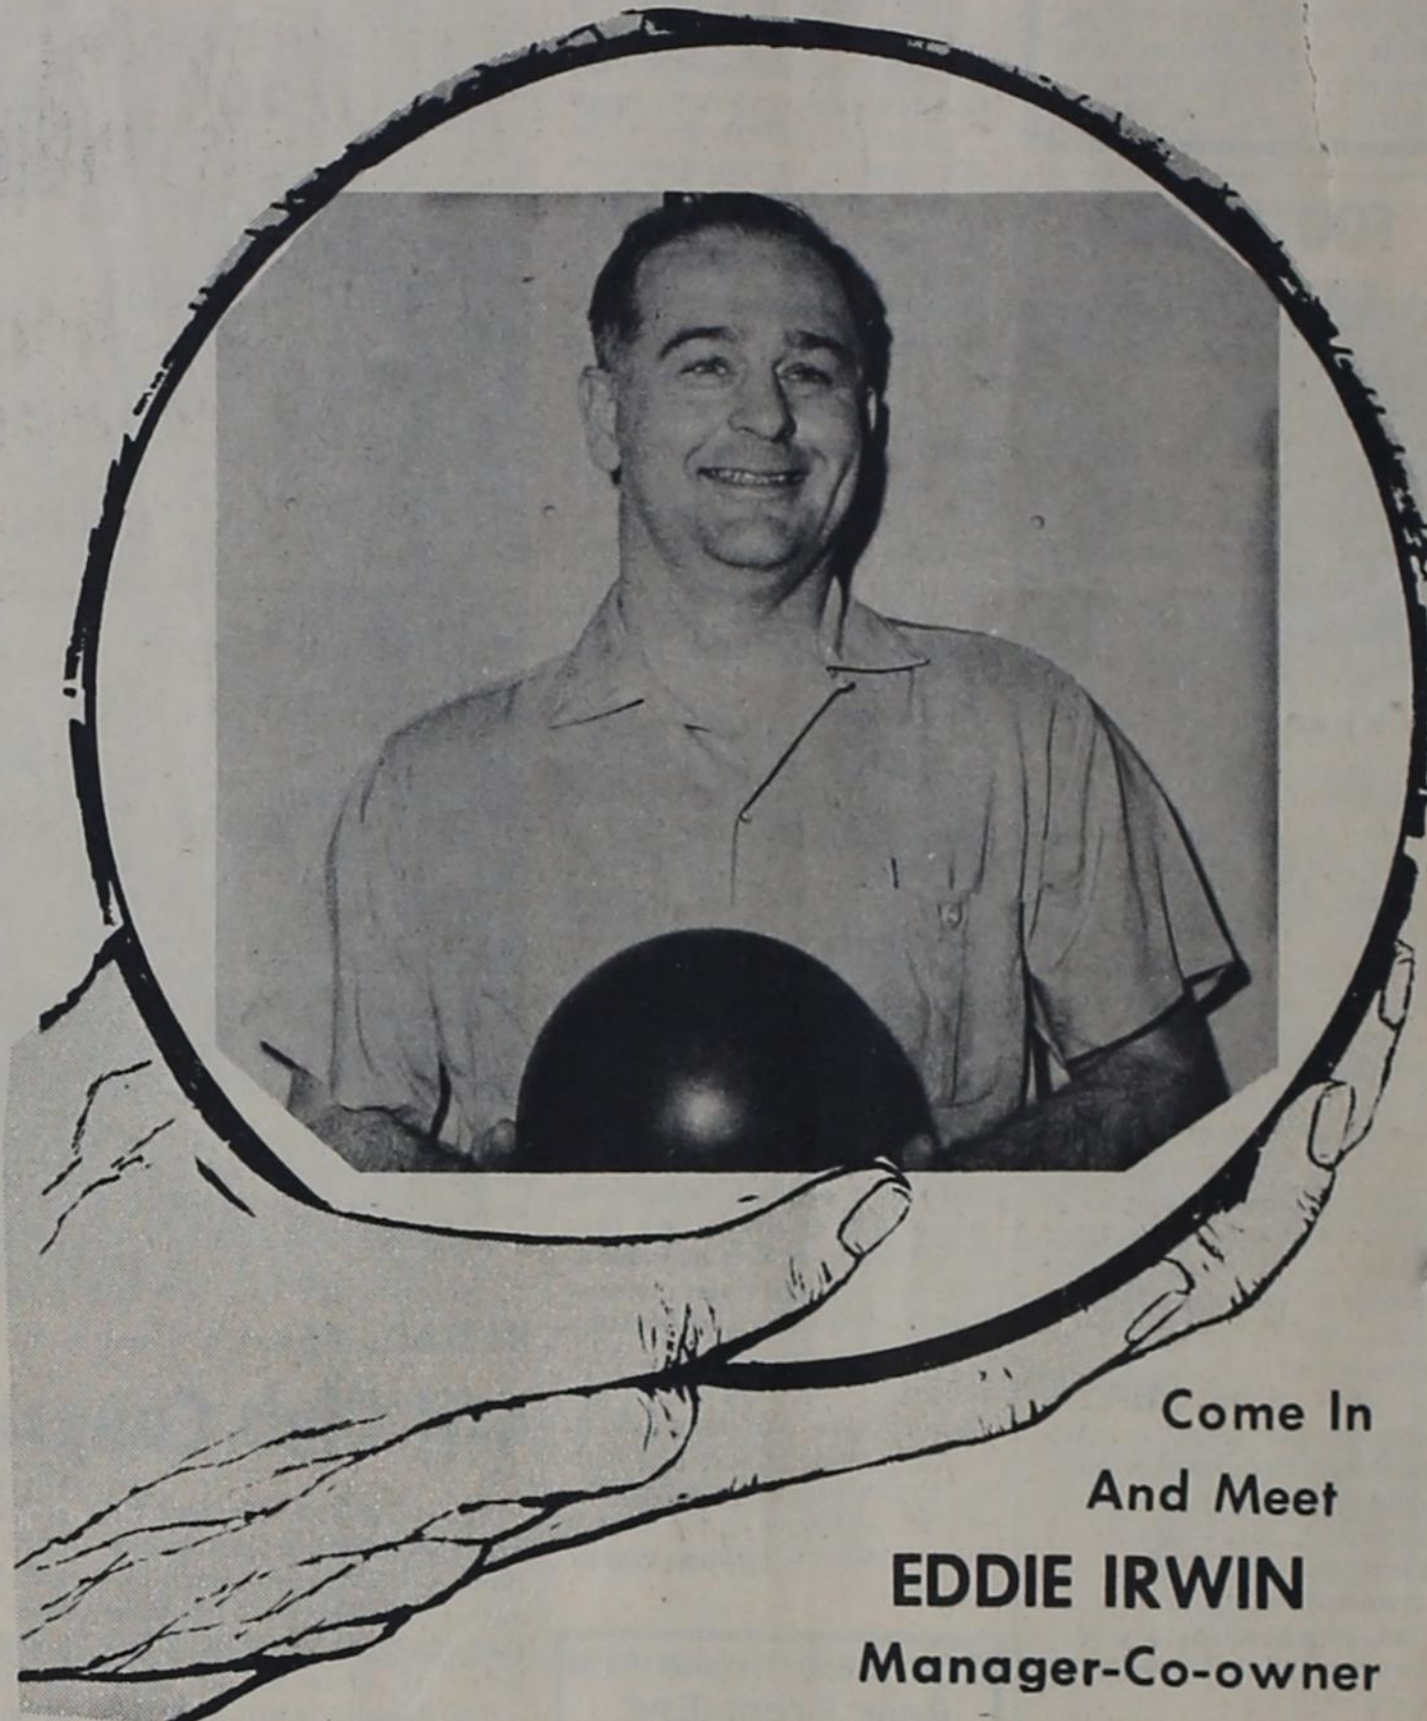

Cotton legislation is not really expected this year, although a lot of administration push is being given the bill to subsidize domestic mills to the same extent foreign mills are subsidized. This is a strange proposal in the minds of many people, some of whom call it a "double subsidy."

A few people are still coming in to file for state gas tax refund. If you have not filed in the last year, let us remind you to do it now and get the money for Christmas.

CONSIDER THIS: he that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor. Proverbs 22:9.
