Area Wheat, Barley Harvest Underway

Although summer has not officially arrived, soaring temperatures across the area belie the fact. And while many residents have voiced complaints about the intense heat, most farmers are smiling because the hot dry weather is just exactly what their barley and wheat crops have needed. Cotton is also responding to the warm temperatures and seems to be growing well.

Harvest of wheat and barley across the Parmer-Curry county vicinity has begun with most local elevators having received their first loads of barley during the past week.

Lonnie McFarland, manager of Sherley-Anderson-Lariat Grain Co., reported the first loads of both barley and wheat received by area elevators.

At 7 p.m. CDT on Wednesday, June 11, James Sides brought the Lariat elevator the first load of barley for the year, the elevator manager said. The 30,000 pound load had a moisture content of 13.90 and a test weight of 46 pounds per bushel. McFarland termed the grain "excellent."

Sides received a $25 premium for the first load of barley.

On Friday, June 13, Earnest Ramm of the West Camp Community south of Lariat delivered the first load of area wheat to Sherley-Anderson at Lariat. Moisture content of the wheat was 11.20 and test weight of the 16,360 pound load was 57 pounds per bushel. Ramm was also awarded a $25 premium.

Other area elevators report that they have also begun to receive barley and wheat from area farmers.

Bill Thigpen, Worley Mills, Inc., manager, gave June 13 as the day the first barley was delivered to the Farwell elevator. R.J. Garner, east of Farwell, received Worley's $25 premium for the grain, which had a moisture content of 10.1 and a test weight of 48 pounds per bushel.

Since that time Worley has received numerous loads of barley with moisture content ranging from 9.5 to 11.20 and test weights of 46 to 49 pounds per bushel.

Thigpen reported that the first wheat brought to Worley came on Monday, June 16, from Brown and Brown, south of Texico, with a moisture content of 9.90 and a test weight of 62 pounds per bushel. A $25 premium was also given for this grain.

Manager Fred Chandler of Sherley-Anderson-Pitman Inc., also named Friday the 13th as the date the first load of barley was brought to that Farwell elevator. Castor Farms garnered the $25 premium for the load which had a moisture content of 16.20 and a test weight of 44 pounds per bushel.

Chandler reported that the first wheat arrived at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman on June 16, being brought by Jim Curtis and Son, south of Farwell. Test weight of the bobtail tandem load of dryland wheat was about 56 pounds per bushel and the moisture content was approximately 11.0. S-A-P also awarded $25 for the first load of wheat.

Tax Appraisal Board Hires Chief Appraiser

In a regular meeting Monday night, the Parmer County Tax Appraisal Board hired Mrs. Patsy Nance as chief appraiser. Mrs. Nance, currently employed as the Bovina School Tax Assessor, will assume duties on July 1. She was chosen from 10 applicants, five of whom were interviewed for the job.

Board members also learned that the City of Bovina is to advertise for bids for construction of a building to house the Tax Appraisal

Board. Rent on the structure, which is to be financed by the Bovina bank at six percent interest, is to be prorated over a 20-year period to cover the cost of the building, plus interest and insurance. Present estimate for monthly rent is approximately $250, but hopefully will be less, board members say.

As earlier established, the Tax Appraisal Board can rent the building for only one year at a time. At the end of the 20-year period, the building will belong to the Tax Appraisal District.

Prior to the next regular meeting, scheduled for July 7, Mrs. Nance will prepare a budget showing expected operating expenses for the office and the cost to each taxing entity for the fiscal year, according to Gilbert Kaltwasser, board member from Farwell.

Additional employees will be hired by Mrs. Nance as needed.

Farwell City Well Nearing Completion

Farwell's new city water tower, located near the water tower, is almost ready for use, according to Water Superintendent Dee Hammit.

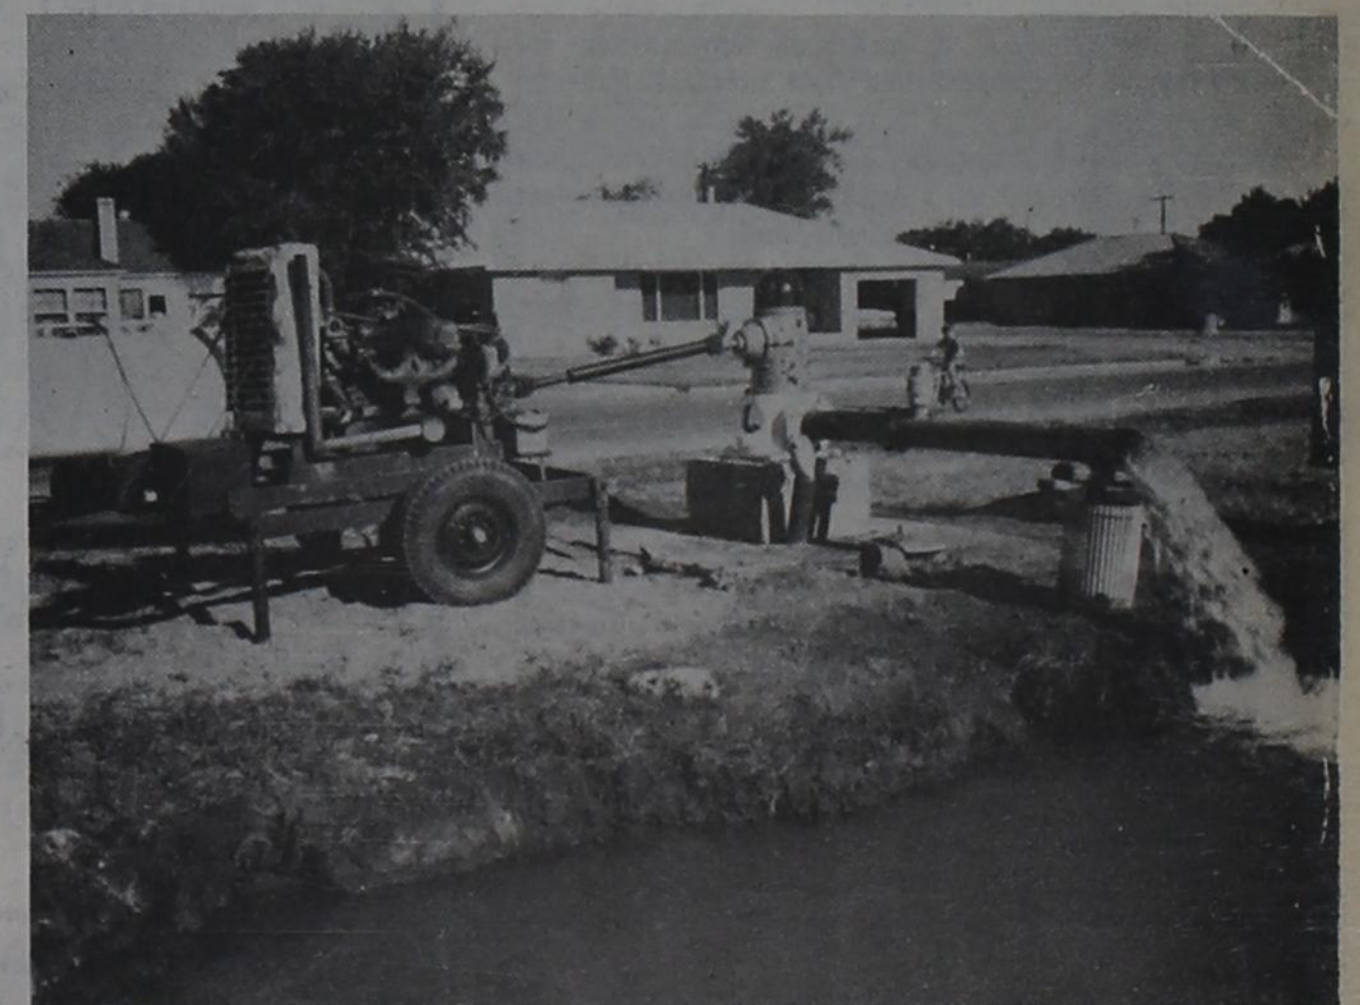

He said that the pump has been set and a gearhead and developing motor installed. At this time the city is in the process of pumping out the well in an effort to avoid sand. Hammit also said that the well has cleared up quite a bit but additional pumping will be done.

He termed the well, with a six-inch pump and 60 horsepower motor, a "real good one," and estimated that it is pumping 500 to 560 gallons per minute.

Work on the well, which is being done by Twin Cities Machines, began about three weeks ago and should be completed in a short time. In fact, Hammit surmised that by Monday it should be tied into ground storage and be in use by city residents.

He reported that Farwell has already had one day in which one million gallons of water were used in a 24-hour period. The three city wells in existence are keeping up with the present demand, but July will place additional strain on the water system unless there is substantial rainfall, he said. However, Hammit commented that with the new well the city should be in great shape.

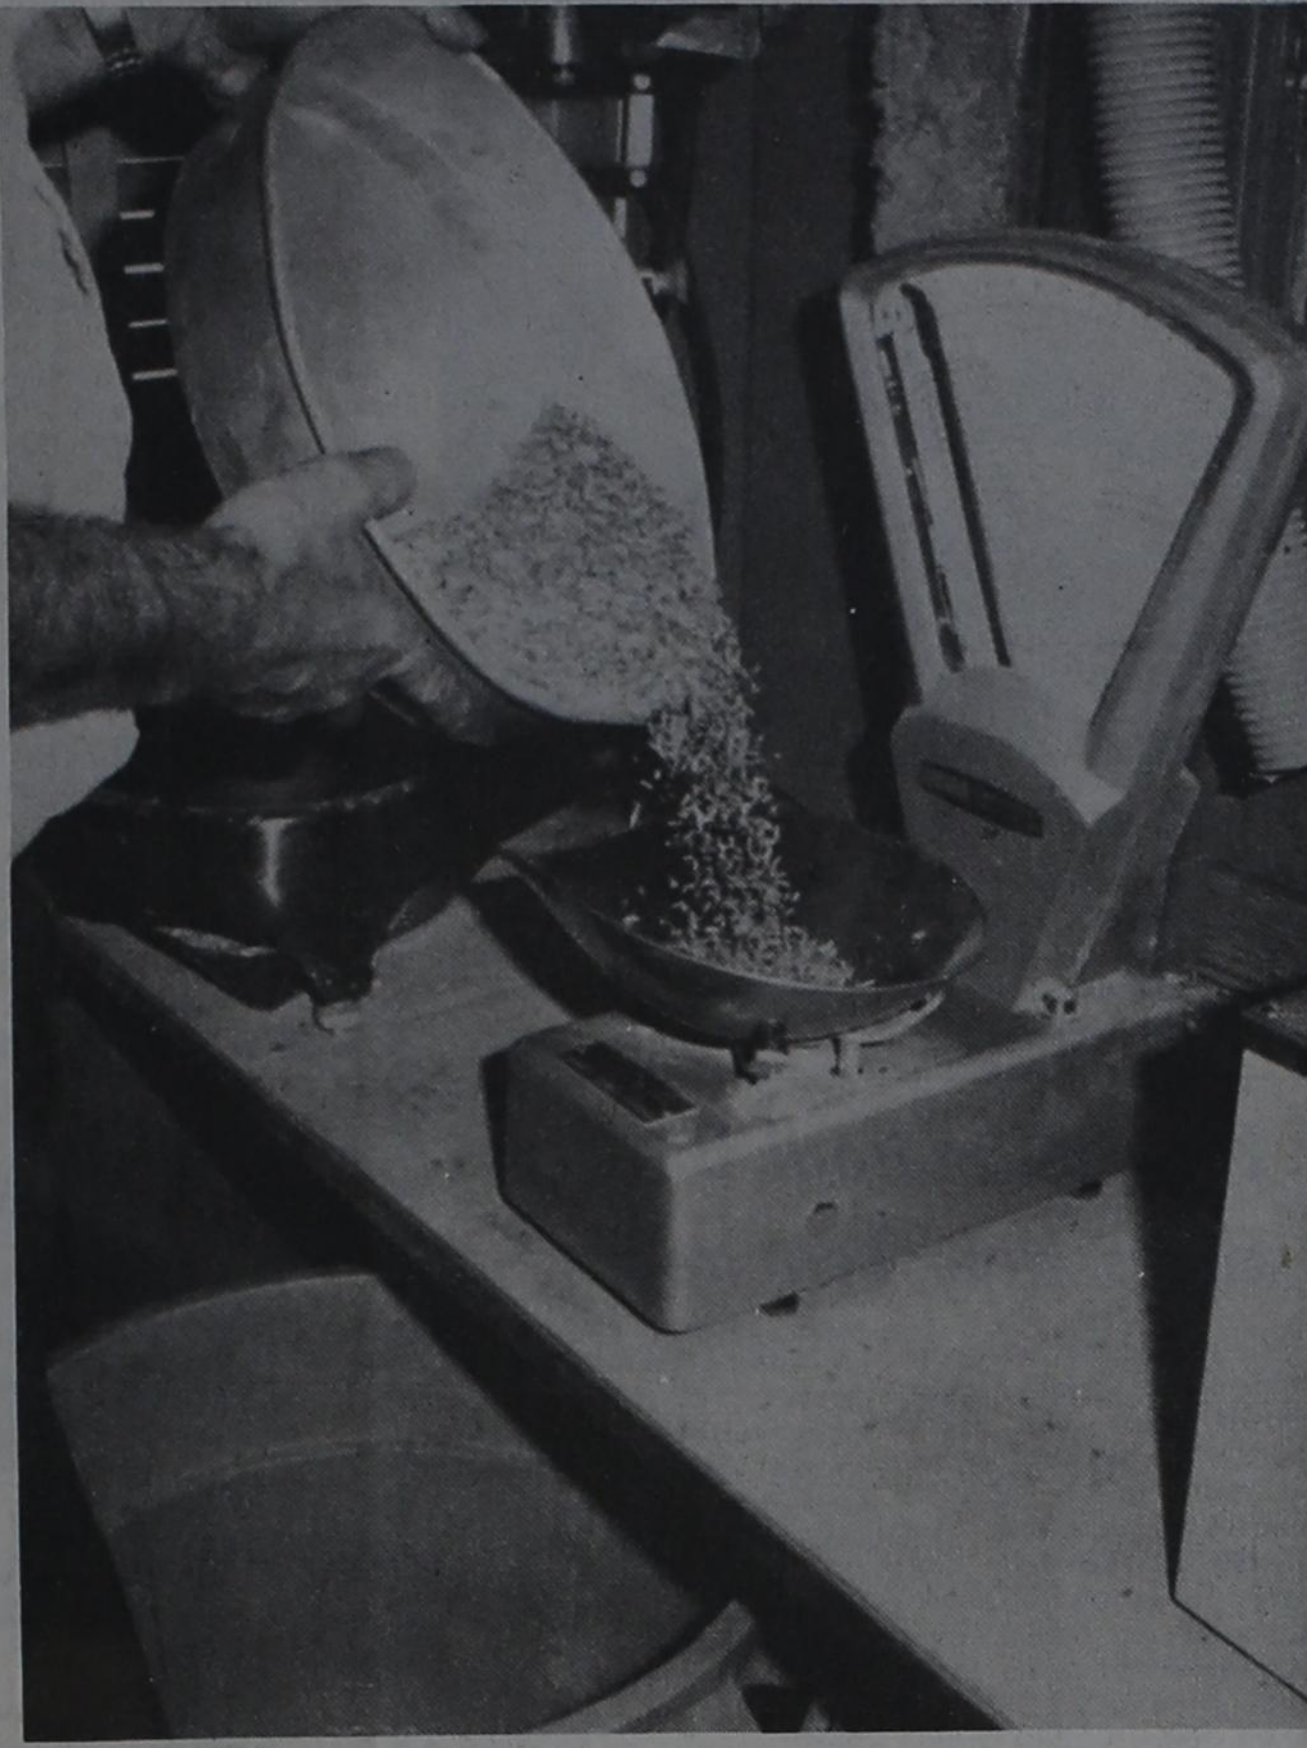

Water, Water Everywhere

Farwell residents have recently been treated to an unusual sight—water rushing down Third Street. In fact, the street has been inundated on three separate occasions as the new city well is being pumped out. Work on the well is progressing and Water Superintendent Dee Hammit estimates that it will be completed and in use by Monday. Meanwhile, pedestrians trying to cross south Third Street are getting wet feet and an occasional splash from passing vehicles.

Trickle Before The Flood

Nuggets of golden grain trickle into the bin on the test scale as area elevators begin to receive the first loads of barley and wheat from the current harvest. The hot dry weather of the past few weeks has helped to mature the winter planted crops of barley and wheat and soon harvest will be in full swing throughout Parmer and Curry counties. Some fields of barley and wheat have already been combined in the area while machines are being readied to make quick work of cutting the remainder of the golden acres.

Farwell City Council Has Lengthy Agenda

Farwell City Commissioners considered and took action on a number of business items for the city when the commission met in regular session June 16.

The group first considered several applications for employment. Although there is no funding for a city marshal at present, council members decided to hold the one application which had been received and to continue taking others. They then considered the application received for water department employment and hired Robert Diaz for this position. For the position open in the sanitation department, the council reached a decision to run an advertisement in order to obtain other applications.

In business dealing with the newly-procured statue for the cemetery, the commissioners agreed to meet at the cemetery one afternoon and decide on a location for the statue, then meet with Don Williams and Bob Anderson.

In action on a mobile home variance sought by Ernesto Pineda, the council announced that a public hearing would be held.

Residents of Sandia Drive had requested a street light be installed and had asked that they be allowed to plant grass, etc. on the median. The commissioners agreed to both requests; however, specifying that the light be a security light.

In other action, members of the council passed a resolution to allow Eastern New Mexico Rural Telephone to take over the telephone system, including the franchise, ordinance, and rate schedule within the city of Farwell from Mountain Bell.

The group also agreed to make necessary repairs and to install linoleum in a storage room of City Hall which had sustained water damage when a drain became plugged and overflowed.

The resignation of Joe Hughes from the Planning and Zoning Commission was accepted.

The commissioners also voted to have a bulletin board placed in City Hall showing city employees' proposed vacation dates, and all sick and personal leave. The council then approved the vacation for John Johnson of the sanitation department.

It was voted to have the firm of Jim Berry audit the city's books at the end of the fiscal year.

After a discussion of maintenance of vacant lots, councilmen voted to send registered letters to property owners who have not responded to earlier letters mailed by the city. The registered letter will inform each owner that he or she must make the necessary improvements to the vacant lots within ten days of notification or the city will clean up the property and the owner will be charged for the work.

Commissioners then decided to again ask the Texas Highway Department to work on the highway at the east end of the loop in order to alleviate the problem of standing water.

In addition, the group agreed to advertise for bids for approximately 20 blocks of paving and to donate to a joint effort by the Twin Cities for a fireworks display on July 4.

In final action, the commissioners approved the payment of bills.

Present were Mayor Kaltwasser, commissioners Johnny Curtis and Fred Chandler, city clerk, Janie Bowers, water superintendent Dee Hammit, sanitation department superintendent John Johnson, sanitation department employee Charles Johnson, and Mrs. Juanita Hadley.

Sheriff's Dept. Investigates Rash Of Thefts In County

Saturday morning, June 14, the Parmer County Sheriff's office received a report from Eddie Corn of Farwell of the theft of approximately $350 in tools from a barn on his farm in the Lazbuddie area. The items were taken on the night of June 13, said Charles Lovelace, sheriff.

Members of the sheriff's department checked with pawn shops in Clovis Saturday morning and located all of Corn's tools. Arthur Garcia, 22, of Garden City, Kan., has been charged in the case, with another local juvenile yet to be picked up, Lovelace said.

Virgil Schell of Farwell reported Saturday that a $250 self-propelled lawnmower had been stolen from his yard.

A battery valued at approximately $50 was reported stolen from an irrigation well on the Fred Burch farm in the Lazbuddie community.

On Monday, June 16, Robert White of Farwell reported the theft of a bicycle. Three other bicycles were located with the one stolen, but were not taken.

Sheriff Lovelace also said that 12 sprinkler heads in the City Park were vandalized over the weekend. Approximately $30 in damage was done.

Avis Carpenter reported to the sheriff's office that a large old air conditioner, valued at approximately $200, was taken from the Oklahoma Lane Community Center. The report was made Wednesday morning.

by John

Two ominous clouds hover over rural Texas. One is the long term effect of re-apportionment when the 1980 census is finally released. The other will probably be as bad for the rural areas. This is the recent indictment of House Speaker Billy Clayton.

Clayton has been virtually the only politico of state stature that had roots in the country. Billy understood the problem of the non-urban folks and worked in their behalf. It is apparent that with this indictment Clayton's political future will suffer a decline. As his influence wanes in the scheme of Texas state politics so will the fortunes of the rural areas.

We feel quite strongly that the upcoming legislatures will be controlled by the urban center politicians and that they will tailor laws to benefit the big cities and these laws will work to the detriment of other parts of the state.

This population imbalance can be partially offset if the country folks would go to the polls in greater numbers and therefore make their voting bloc more attractive to politicians running on a state wide basis.

The only vote that counts is the vote that is cast at the polls. If rural Texas could double the percentage of people that go to the polls and vote it would make an impression that would be heeded by all state wide candidates. In this instance party affiliation should take a back seat to the simple fact of going and voting.

While we are on politics let's put in a good word for our United States Representative Kent Hance from Lubbock. A recent resume of his congressional voting record reveals that he has been against the new Department of Education, the windfall profits tax on oil producers, funds to implement the Panama Canal treaty, the 10c a gallon gas tax and withholding on dividends and interest on saving accounts.

Hance has been for tighter sanctions on Iran, a balanced budget, an amendment to stop forced busing and increased defense spending. With a record like that, even this old conservative can't fault him.

Federal taxes are going up today primarily for three reasons:

1. Inflation, which raises the price the government must pay for everything it purchases and which is reflected in year-to-year increases in the federal budget.

2. Inflation, which pushes millions of Americans into higher tax brackets, where pay raises to offset higher prices simply earmark a larger share of their income for taxes.

3. Inflation, which has pushed the economy into a serious recession, creating unemployment conditions that require greater outlays for jobless pay benefits, welfare and other anti-recession measures.

Despite all the talk of balancing the federal budget in 1981, there is no serious effort in the Nation's Capital to reduce spending, and thus help dampen inflation. Instead, if the budget is balanced at all, it will be through increased tax revenues which the U.S. Chamber estimates will reach $85 to $95 billion.

Isn't it time to cut both taxes and federal spending? And reduce inflation, inflation, inflation.

Hospital Board
Discusses Doctor

Farwell Hospital District Board met in regular session June 17 and the main item of business was discussion of a doctor for the Farwell Clinic. It was reported that Dr. Prickett, who proposes to establish a practice in Farwell after completing his hospital residency next year, had been in town a few days last week looking for housing in anticipation of his move here. He was accompanied here by his wife.

Originally from West Virginia, Dr. Prickett is in his third year of residency in emergency medicine.

Board members report that in 1975, several local persons agreed to help Prickett with financial aid while in medical school with the stipulation that he would come to Farwell to practice when he had finished his schooling.

Dr. Prickett and his wife plan to move here next June.

Receives Award

Bill Christian of Texico was honored last weekend in Albuquerque by the New Mexico Bankers Association for 25 years of service to the banking industry. Christian is vice-president and manager of Texico Branch of Citizens Bank.

Bill Christian Honored For 25 Years Of Service

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Christian of Texico were in Albuquerque weekend before last attending the state convention of the New Mexico Bankers Association. While there, Christian was presented an award signifying 25 years of service to the banking industry.

Christian, who is vice-president and Branch manager of the Texico Branch of Citizens Bank, has been with the bank in Texico since its opening in 1965; however, his career with Citizens Bank began long before.

He first went to work for the bank in the late '40's and has continued an association with the firm since then, interrupting from time to time in order to obtain a degree from Draughn's Business College in Lubbock, to serve in the United States Army for two years as a medic during the Korean War, to establish Christian-Stone Motor in Farwell, and to work with SIC Finance in Midland and Albuquerque.

In addition to his business life, Christian is an active Rotarian, past president of the Texico Chamber of Commerce, a former member of the Texico City Council, and, with his wife, is a member of Texico First Baptist Church. He admits that, at one time or another, he has belonged "to everything but the Woman's Club."

Christian's wife, Marie, is Texico City Clerk. They have three sons: Steve, 21, who works for Amarillo Diesel in Amarillo; Jeff, 19, who is currently on wheat harvest; and Jason, 7, who is a third grader.

Was none other than that great labor leader of yesterday John L. Lewis who said, "He who tooteth not his own horn, the same shall not be tooted."

Item No. 611C in our Love and War man's file labeled "Domestic Relations" is an unpretentious line delivered by a diplomatic husband to his wife: "How can you expect me to remember your birthday when you never look any older?"

Why more boys are born in the summer while more girls are born in the winter is another medical mystery.

HARDING

Q. A good many U. S. presidents delivered lines for which they've been remembered years after. Like Franklin D. Roosevelt's "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." And Harry Truman's "The buck stops here." And John F. Kennedy's "I am a Berliner!" What was President Warren G. Harding's most memorable line?

A. "It's a good thing I'm not a woman. I'd always be pregnant."

Q. Isn't it illegal in Logan County, Colorado, to tickle a girl?

A. No, that's against the law in Norton, Va. In Logan County, it's illegal to kiss a woman without first waking her up.

Q. What's a "Thwittle"?

A. An archaic word. Used to be the name of a sort of knife. It's where we got our word "whittle."

WRESTLER

A professional wrestler named Stanley Pinto earned quite a distinction for himself sometime back in Providence, R. I. He got tangled up in the ropes in such a manner that his own leg pressure forced his shoulder to the mat for three seconds, and he lost therefore. It was a different way to go.

Response is still needed from county and ex-county families in writing their family histories to be published in the second Parmer County history book.

There is no fee charged to have the history published in the book if it does not exceed 500 words. More space will be provided, if needed, at ten cents per word ($10.00 per hundred words).

Writers are asked to submit stories preferably typed, double-spaced on 8 1/2 x 11 typing paper with the title at the top and the author's name at the conclusion of the story. Number of words in the story should be indicated in pencil after the author's

The Parmer County Historical Commission wishes to impress upon everyone who has ever lived in Parmer County that their stories are needed to make this book a complete history.

Field representatives are busy making contacts with county residents, encouraging them to write family histories. Anyone who has not been contacted or who has questions about how to write the story is asked to contact a field representative in that community, or to call Otho Whitefield, Friona, phone 806-265-3542, or to write Parmer County Historical Commission, Box 577, Friona, Texas 79035.

Deadline is July 20 for submission of stories.

Reid Suffers Broken Arm

On June 6, Danny Reid of Texico, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Reid, sustained a bad break to the radius of his right forearm while working with his father erecting a steel building at Odessa.

The arm required surgery for the insertion of a plate and four screws.

Danny, who returned home from an Odessa hospital over the weekend, reports that he is wearing a half cast which, along with the staples, is to be removed hopefully on June 26, when he must return to the doctor for a checkup.

Full use of the arm is expected in time, he says.

Farwell Seniors Enjoy Sights In Arizona And California

The West still beckons the traveler and although most of the 1980 graduates of Texico and Farwell High Schools are too young to know the "California, Here I Come" tune, they apparently felt the call in their sub-conscious as both this year's senior classes took to the Golden State for their respective senior trips.

Texico's seniors were returning to the Twin Cities about the time the Farwellites took to their chartered bus and van for the week-long trip.

Not long after singing the alma mater to close out their years at FHS, 47 Farwell seniors along with seven sponsors hit the road for the long-awaited trip.

After a breakfast stop in Gallup and a gasoline break in Albuquerque the group finally arrived in Phoenix about 1 p.m. Saturday. Immediately after checking into their motel, they went to Big Surf where they stayed until the place closed. Graduates and sponsors alike took to the artificial waves like ducks, along with several hundreds of others so inclined, and enjoyed an afternoon of riding rubber rafts over, through and under the waves.

One sponsor remarked that they were truly surprised that they didn't lose a single body during this excursion.

After spending the remainder of that night in Phoenix, the group started out early Sunday for Anaheim, Calif., arriving there in time to go to Knotts Berry Farm for a lengthy visit.

Monday they spent the day at Disneyland and reported that the weather was "cold" and that they needed jackets, windbreakers etc. for the surprising weather.

Tuesday the travelers headed for San Diego and it was while they were en route to the bay area that the earthquakes of that week were felt in the vicinity. (Fortunately, the local group knew nothing of the quakes until they later heard about them on the radio.)

After a long stay at Sea World the sightseers were ready to get back to their motel and the bay where they were content to play and enjoy the beach although the water was COLD.

A bus tour through the San Diego Zoo took up part of Wednesday, but again the group was anxious to be back in the bay area. Here they all rented skates and skated along the streets with the local residents. It is reported that street skating is quite a lot more difficult than skating around and around in a roller rink. Besides other people to dodge, there are cracks and holes in the sidewalks and numerous other hazards that made the sport quite tricky.

In addition to the street skating, enjoying the beach and the Olympic sized pool at their motel, some of the Farwell group rented a sailboat to go across the bay. But alas, the very first of the would-be sailors overturned their craft and had to be rescued, making others in the group less inclined to venture into that pastime. Most of the group could then be seen taking rides in the somewhat tamer and safer paddle boats.

Some of the group who were enjoying beachcombing heard what they thought was surely an earthquake and wondered at all the roaring and rumbling, but later heard that it had only been a sonic boom. Apparently many California natives had also thought the noise a tremor as it was reported the news media had received thousands of calls pertaining to said noise.

On the final night of the trip the group enjoyed a wiener and marshmallow roast on the beach and no one wanted to leave the area the following morning to start the ride back home.

An unexpected three-to-four hour stop in Yuma, Ariz., was needed for bus repairs; so it was quite late when they finally unloaded at Willcox for the night. The motel manager could see that the group had been "caged up" for quite some time and made a special concession to them by opening the motel's swimming pool for them to enjoy at that late hour.

Lunch in Las Cruces the next day was one of the last stops before the exhausted bunch landed in Farwell at 8:30 p.m.

After the group disembarked from the bus and van, they formed a circle, joined hands, and Rusty Smallwood led a prayer. Then they all joined in singing the school song for an appropriate finale to their sojourn.

Sponsors accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Castleberry, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lonsdale, Randy Long, Randy Adrian and Sarah Marsh.

Big Crowd At Big Surf

One of the main attractions for Farwell seniors on their recent trip to Arizona and California was a stop at Big Surf near Phoenix where they enjoyed riding [?] the waves with hundreds of other water lovers. Reports are that when the huge waves made their way to shore, thousands of flailing arms and legs could be seen attempting to master the tide on the rubber rafts. [The photographer said this picture was taken after most of the swimmers had already left.]

Just Waiting

This group of Farwell seniors of 1980 are just waiting to enter the gates at Knotts Berry Farm where they enjoyed an afternoon of various activities. The 47 seniors and seven sponsors enjoyed sights and events in Arizona and California during the week-long senior trip which began after graduation on May 30 and concluded the following Friday night when they returned safely to Farwell.

by Juanita Hadley

Kay Warmuth of Texico, this week's area homemaker, is a spritely woman of many talents.

Included in her numerous hobbies are latch hooking rugs, decorating sequined special event calendars, reading, cooking (especially Mexican food), and doing house work. "Cleaning is no chore to me," she says.

Kay also enjoys needlepoint and sewing, although she now has less time to devote to this avocation.

In addition, she and husband Ronnie share a number of activities. Ronnie, a math teacher by profession, does professional photography as a sideline, with Kay assisting in many ways. They also join efforts in a variety of woodworking projects. Together they have made all types of cut out signs and mirrors, glass and wood candleholders, and a combination mirror - bulletin board.

The Warmuths are a very close family who enjoys riding bicycles together and attending all types of sporting events.

Members of Parkland Baptist Church in Clovis, Kay teaches Sunday School for four- and five-year-olds, while Ronnie will start teaching a young adult class in early July.

In the Warmuth family, Ronnie does the gardening, with Kay canning the "fruits of his labors."

Although this energetic couple is constantly busy on one project or another, they have very few of the items they have made, for most are given as gifts.

Below are three recipes Kay has consented to share.

Bake in 13x9x2 greased pan and bake at 375 degrees for 20-25 minutes.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60633
THE BIBLE A CONFUSING BOOK?
We ran across an article recently, entitled: "Yes, the Bible is a Confusing Book."
The article did not even attempt to dispel this "confusion," or in any way help its readers to understand the Bible. It did not suggest even one basic rule of interpretation. Nor did it explain why the Lord Jesus Christ and the apostles constantly exhorted men to study the Bible.
The Bible is indeed a very large book, so that the greatest of us will never understand it all. Moreover, it is God's Book and must necessarily contain much that is "hard to understand." But this makes it the greater challenge to the believing heart to seek divine aid in exploring its depths and the greater joy when precious stones are brought up from this exhaustless mine.
God does not reward lazy and indifferent Christians with light from His Word, but confusion invariably vanishes as we prayerfully obey His command:
"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD OF TRUTH" (II Tim. 2:15).
In studying the Bible there are basic distinctions to be observed; e.g., between the twelve apostles and Paul, the apostle for this age; between the "gospel of the kingdom" and the gospel for our day; the "gospel of the grace of God," etc., but meantime there are many passages of Scripture so plain and simple that a child can understand them and no theologian can explain them away. For example, in John 3:35, 36, we read:
"The Father loveth the Son, and HATH GIVEN ALL THINGS INTO HIS HAND."
"HE THAT BELIEVETH ON THE SON hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him."
At the other end from the spiritual poverty experienced by those who deem the Bible "a confusing Book," we have what St. Paul, by divine inspiration, calls "all [the] riches of the full assurance of understanding" (Col. 2:2).

Students Attend N.M. State FFA Convention

Last week six members of the Texico FFA chapter attended the New Mexico State FFA Convention conducted on the campus of New Mexico State University in Las Cruces.

Representing Texico High School were James Kelley, Jeff Dunsworth, Doyle Duncan, Kent Harding, Gary Cain, and Kevin West. Sponsoring the group were Eddie West, Vo-Ag teacher, and his wife Kay.

Theme of this year's convention was "Preparing for Progress."

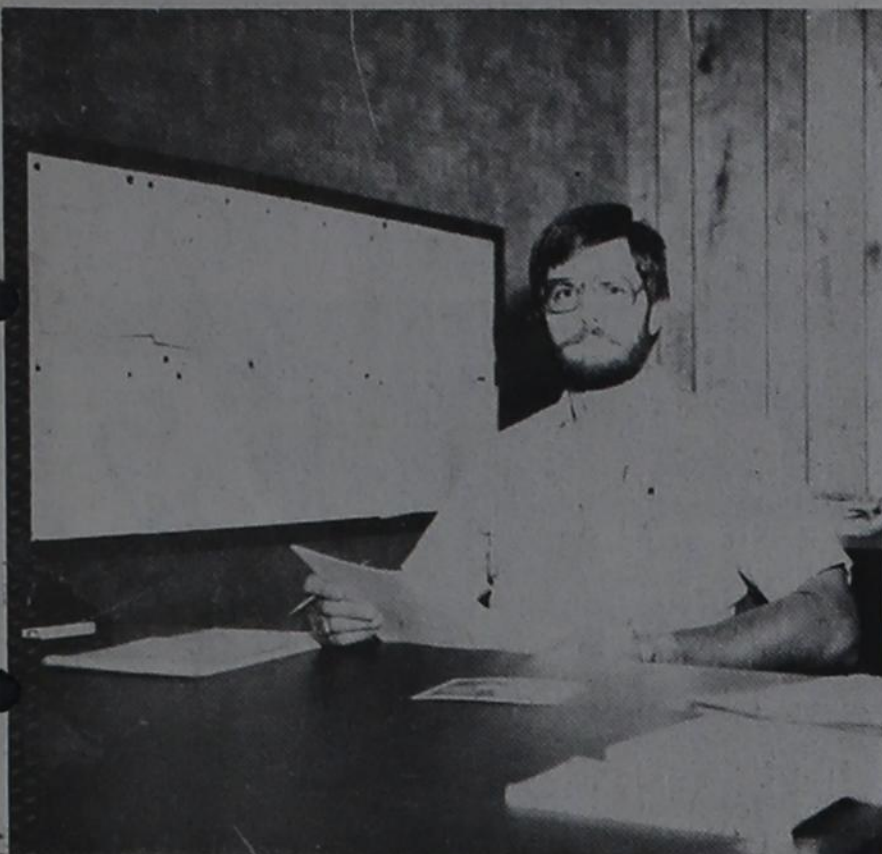

The 1980-81 President of District IV, of which Texico is a member, is Richard Gatewood of Dora. Retiring State President, Jamey Widener of Melrose, is the brother of Lawrence Widener, Vo-Ag teacher at Bovina.

At the close of the convention, Harding and Cain remained in Las Cruces with Harding's mother.

The group visited sights in El Paso and Juarez before leaving the area and stopped in Ruidoso en route home to see a horse race. While there they also viewed a concrete solar house under construction. The structure, designed by a Scottish engineer and belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Down Jameson, is tri-level and is being built into a mountain. Mrs. Jameson is a cousin of Mrs. West.

Clay Williams Attends Boys State

Farwell senior Clay Williams recently returned from Austin where he was one of 941 young men from throughout the state taking part in the 40th annual Texas Boys State session sponsored by the American Legion.

were three outstanding events during the week-long gathering. On Wednesday, June 11, the group was addressed by Gov. Bill Clements, marking the first time that a governor has ever left his office to speak to the youths.

young men on another occasion were Speaker of the House Bill Clayton and several other dignitaries.

The third highlight was the presentation of a movie "SALT Syndrome" with live narration. Clay, who was quite impressed with the film, said that it brought out the fact that Russia is leading the U.S. over 49 to one in defensive weapons and over 9 to 1 in offensive weapons. The film also stressed that SALT II will allow Russia the use of over 200 new supersonic bombers, while the U.S. will be held to only 200 B52's currently in the Arizona desert, three-fourths of which are inoperable.

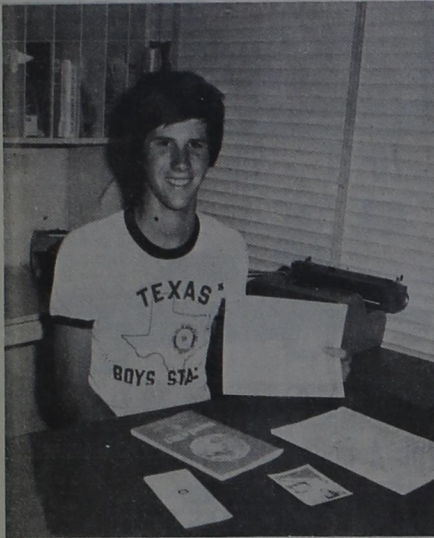

The young men, who were not allowed to leave the campus of the University of Texas during their stay in Austin, were however offered a number of pastime activities. Clay took part in a tennis tournament while there, ranking third out of the 64 participants.

At Boys State, each young man is assigned to an imaginary city, county and district, where he takes part in any political activities. Clay, who was defeated in his bid for State Representative, was elected county commissioner.

On one occasion the delegates, marching to the Capitol Building, consisted of more than 100 lines of boys extending more than four blocks in length. While at the Capitol Building, the young men visited the various offices and departments of their choice. Clay, with a group of approximately 22 others, met with the Secretary of State in his office.

When asked his opinion of the annual affair, Williams said it was very worthwhile and that he knows a lot more about government as a result of his experiences in Austin.

Clay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams of Farwell.

Farwell's Boys Stater

Clay Williams of Farwell is shown with his attendance certificate and several pieces of literature he obtained when he recently attended Texas Boys State in Austin.

The week spent on the University of Texas campus learning about government proved enjoyable and educational, says Clay.

Hadley Receives Baton From Golden Knights

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hadley of Texico were among members of the public who attended a Community Appreciation Day open house Saturday, June 7, at Cannon Air Force Base.

Present at the open house were nine members of the Golden Knights, an Air Force precision parachutist team. After the group demonstrated their skills for the crowd, Texico Mayor Hadley was presented the baton which members of the team had passed among themselves during their descent.

Mrs. Hadley was also honored, receiving a kiss from each of the Golden Knights.

Other highlights of the day included flight demonstrations of F-111D's and F-15's, working dog teams from Kirkland AFB, performances by the Air Force Band of the West from Lackland AFB, and a display of World War II aircraft belonging to the Confederate Air Force of Harlingen, Tex.
