By Mike Pomper

Difficult question

I had several talks with folks last week about the inclusion of Texico and Farwell teams in the football contest.

The point made by some folks is that they don't want to vote against the local teams, but they also want to win the contest. And both Texico and Farwell face some pretty top-notch teams.

On the other hand, some folks note that one of the strengths of our contest is that it features local and area teams, and that Texico and Farwell should be part of it every week.

So here is what I decided to do: I will continue to use both teams in the tie-breaker games, and also use them when it appears their games will be competitive. But if a game comes up where our local team is a decided underdog, I may leave them out.

Here's a note for our readers who no longer live in the Texico - Farwell area.

We have had a bunch of thunder storms recently, complete with fireworks. The displays of lightning have turned some nights into daytime. And it seems they drift through at 11 each night like clockwork.

***

Correction department: I noted in last week's column that Bro. Pat Riley, former minister at the First Baptist Church of Farwell, had been called to head a Baptist church in his Texas hometown. Actually, it's in Eunice, N.M., where the Rileys now are.

***

The Texico - Farwell Lions Club will have a door - to - door light bulb sale Monday night in the Twin Cities.

***

A Lazbuddie lady stopped by the Tribune to say that a rumor was floating around that we no longer would report news from areas east of Oklahoma Lane.

False.

I'm sorry, Tom Landry, but I don't blame the Cowboys for their loss to St. Louis last week. I blame you.

There were 3 minutes left in the game and you have a 4th down and 2 inches on your own 30. The Cards were behind by 3 points. To give up the ball at that point, to a pro team with a good passing quarterback in Lomax and two outstanding deep receivers in J.T. Smith and Roy Green, was virtually saying the Cowboys were playing for a tie, and then into overtime.

The Cowboys should have gone for the 2 inches, thus keeping the ball and winning the game. If a team with Tony Dorsett and Herschel Walker can't make 2 inches on a rush, then they have no business winning anyway.

And what really got my goat is that I kept watching the Cardinal defense each time the Cowboys punted. Their whole team ran back to help out on a punt return. The Cowboy punter Saxon could have run all day long either left or right.

If I can see that on TV, what the heck is going on with all those high-paid coaches in those sky boxes? Are they blind?

Tom, I hate to say this, but the days when you were willing to take a chance - in order to win - may have passed.

I don't believe in a pro team giving up the ball in a close match with 3 minutes to go if

Mesmans see the Pope in San Antonio

Several local people went to San Antonio to see Pope John Paul II last week.

Mary and Johanna Mesman traveled with Helen Mazurek of Bovina and her daughter, Mary Ann Lloyd of Canadian.

They flew from Amarillo to San Antonio. They stayed at the home of Mrs. Mazurek's brother while they were there.

They were at the airport to see the Pope's plane, Shepherd I, land. Then they stationed themselves along the parade route so that they could see the Pope drive by.

"It was so exciting," said Mary Mesman. "He drove by in his popemobile, and he was only about four or five feet away. Just as I was ready to take his picture, he turned the other way."

Johanna Mesman was skeptical about going on the trip at first, "After all," she asked, "what are your chances of getting up close enough to see anything?"

But she said that she did get close enough to see him quite well. She described Pope John Paul II as a charismatic man who "radiates peace and love."

The group could see the altar through binoculars, and they could hear everything very well.

The Pope conducted the service in both Spanish and English. "His Spanish is better than his English," commented Miss Mesman.

"He had a message for all the people - all ages and all faiths. He stressed the quotation from the Bible: 'I give you a new covenant. Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for one another,'" she explained.

The Pope encouraged people to help one another - especially refugees - physically and spiritually.

"I'd say that the lasting result of the Pope's visit is a sign of hope for the Catholic Church," said Miss Mesman.

National media has made much during the Pope's visit of the controversies in the Catholic Church in America.

"The statistics shock me," says Miss Mesman. "I do not see as much controversy as they say there is. I see a solid core of committed Catholics."

Miss Mesman has been working as a lay apostolate in the Catholic Church. A lay apostolate is an ordinary person who volunteers his time and energies, but has not taken any type of vow.

For the past six months Miss Mesman has been staying at Madonna House in Ontario, Canada. The order was founded by Catherine DeHewick Doherty; it sponsors several missions in Canada and other countries.

Miss Mesman first came into contact with members of the Madonna House group when she was working as a lay apostolate at the Navajo Reservation at Fort Defiance, Ariz. in 1985.

Later she met a member of the group when she was working in Youth Ministry in Columbus, Ind.

She was impressed by "their dedication and determination to preach the Gospel without compromise."

When asked about the role of women in the Catholic Church, Miss Mesman answered, "Christ chose men to be his apostles. Women had different roles in the early church. Women today don't know what their true roles should be. We need to get back to our roots, and not throw out 2,000 years of history."

Miss Mesman has returned home to help her family make preparations for her brother Tom's wedding. Three families of relatives from Holland will be arriving soon, so there is much to be done.

"I haven't decided what I will be doing after that," says Miss Mesman.

10% pay hikes tentatively OK'd

The Parmer County Commissioners tentatively okayed a budget Monday which calls for 10 percent across - the - board pay raises for county employees.

Last year, county employees did not receive any raises.

County Judge Porter Roberts said very little increase in taxes is expected. He said the pay raises will be paid for by three methods: some carryover funds are left from last year, the county tax base has increased, and the commissioners are using some reserve funds.

A hearing on the proposed budget will be held at 5 p.m. Sept. 28 at the county courtroom.

In other business, the commissioners:

- Agreed to pay Justices of the Peace mileage when they act as coroners.

- Decided to seek bids for a maintainer for Pct. 2.

- Voted to meet with ENMR Telephone officials on the pros and cons of leasing phones vs. buying them.

- Agreed to provide financial assistance for County Home Extension Agent Janette Pierce to go to Louisville, Ky., Oct. 4-8, to receive a national award for her work.

- Appointed election officials (the same group as last year). Presiding judges are: Martha Hamilton, Black; Linda Black, Friona 2; Valoris Osborn, Friona 2-1; Danny Kendrick, Friona 2-2; J.E. Sherrill Jr., Bovina; Billie Blain, Farwell; Marvin Mimms, Lazbuddie; Harold Carpenter, Oklahoma Lane; Raymond Schueler, Rhea, and Connie Willard, Lakeview.

SEVENTY-SIXTH YEAR

25 CENTS

Ledbetter wins 1st grid contest

The 29th annual Merchants Football Contest began last week, starting the 12-week season with 3 contestants guessing correctly on 10 of the 12 games.

Scores were generally low as major upsets prevailed: Although Hereford wiped out Clovis last year, the Wildcats came back last week for a big win. Muleshoe was shocked by Boys Ranch, Texas, long a powerhouse, fell for the second time straight, to Brigham Young. And the Houston Oilers surprised the Los Angeles Rams, picked to win their NFL division.

The three contestants with 10 right were Carl Ledbetter, Anthony Heacock and Stephen Ketcherside.

Ledbetter was declared the first place winner by virtue of being closer to the tie-breaker than the others. He was 14 points off the tiebreaker: Texico 20, Capitan 12. Heacock was 21 off, and Ketcherside 44 off.

Thus, Ledbetter, a Farwell High student, received a check for $10 for winning the first contest. And Heacock, a Texico High student, received $5 for second place.

The number of participants in the football contest keeps increasing. For the first game, there were 380 entrants. Last year, there were 370 who started. Similar figures for the first game for 1985 were 312; 1984 - 282, and 1983 - 233.

By contest's end last year, there were 734 entrants.

Last year's overall winner, Cheryl Scott, began this year with 5 right.

Besides those with 10 right, here are the other early leaders:

9 right - Jason Christian, Monica Duran, Carl Dean Goettsch, Larry Gulley, Jody Ketcherside, Jeff Lynn, Leslie Monk, Raymond Robertson and Tony Vega.

Also, Eugene Lonsdale, Scott McClerry, Harlin Obenshain, Ruben Ortega, Kevin Owen, Larry Powell, Roger Robertson, Shorty Robertson, Trent Schilling, Colleen Stover, Texico U.S. History (11th grade), Sherilyn Thigpen, Chris Thomas, Bruce White, Jimmy Donahy, Richard Engelking and Bruce Keeler.

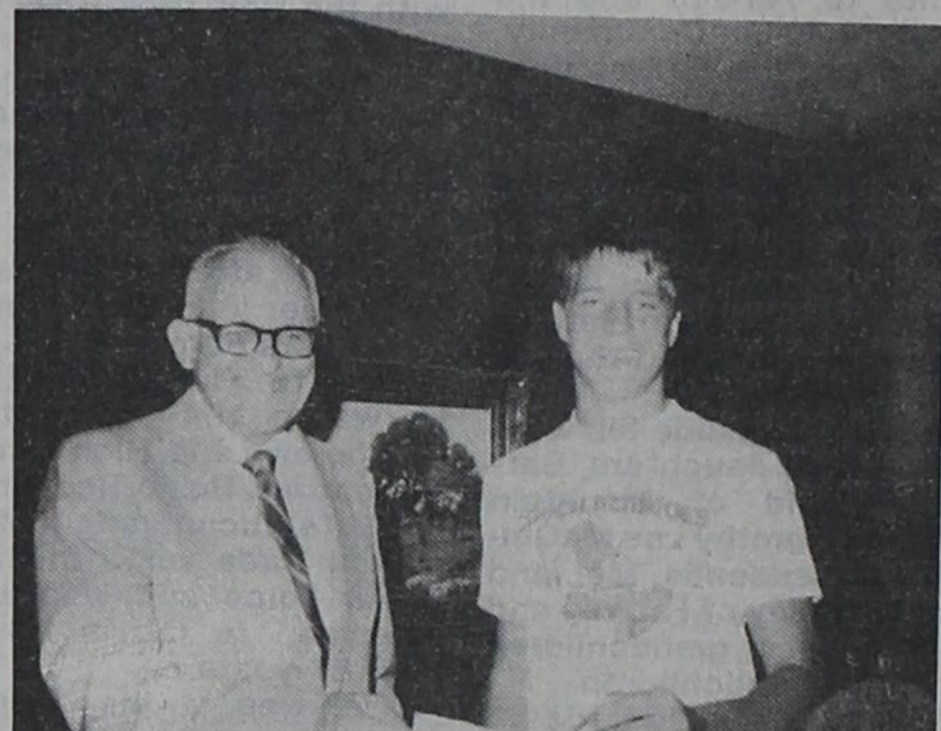

Results of last week's games were:

New Deal over Farwell, Clovis over Hereford, Friona over Idalou, Boys Ranch over Muleshoe, Brigham Young over Texas, Texas Tech over Colorado State, New Mexico State over New Mexico, Notre Dame over Michigan, St. Louis over Dallas, NY Jets over Buffalo, Houston over LA Rams and New England over Miami.

All the totals are on display at the Tribune office during normal business hours. Entrants must be 12 years old or older.

All entries must be turned in at the Tribune office before 5 p.m. Friday (today) or, if mailed, must bear a Friday postmark.

The grand prize of the 12-week contest will be two tickets to the Dallas Cowboys - St. Louis Cardinals game Dec. 27 in Dallas. The prize also includes lodging at the Carl Ledbetter, the winner of the first week's Area Merchants Football Contest, receives his $10 check from Bob Anderson of Security State Bank, one of the contest's sponsors.

Airport Hilton, transportation to and from the airport, and to and from the stadium, free brunch, tour of Cowboys Center and $50 spending cash. These all go to the person with the most points at the end of the remaining weeks.

Thus, persons can still enter the contest for the first time this week and still have a chance at both the weekly prizes and the grand prize. Entry blanks are on the contest page in today's newspaper and are available at the Tribune office.

'Kookies for Kellie'

Kinzi Woods and Leesa Patterson helped to deliver the "Kookies for Kellie" which members of Beta Sigma Phi prepared to raise money for Kellie Anderson. Trays have been placed in several businesses, and cookies will be sold in the school cafeteria on Friday.

Kellie makes more progress

Kellie Anderson continues to make progress toward recovery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix.

Kellie has been in the hospital since July 26 when she entered the hospital in a coma due to viral encephalitis.

"Kellie is doing beautifully," said her mother, Mrs. Marvin Anderson. "We see improvement every day."

Doctors still do not tell the Andersons exactly how long Kellie will have to remain, but they want her to regain her strength and vitality before she resumes her normal schedule.

"Kellie really wants to come home. She misses everybody," said her mother.

"Yesterday Kellie had a really good day. She told me I'd better start packing. The nurses joked that we would be taking the whole room with us because we have it wallpapered with cards," said Mrs. Anderson.

"Now that Kellie is awake, she is aware of all the cards. It just thrills her to sit and look at all of them."

There will be a Kookies for Kellie day at the Farwell Cafeteria on Sept. 18. Cookies will be sold by members of Beta Sigma Phi to raise money for the Kellie Anderson fund.

Plates of cookies have also been placed in some businesses and in the courthouse with jars for donations to Kellie's fund.

An account has been opened in Kellie's name at Security State Bank.

Bus to go to Steers, Plains game

The Farwell Booster Club Tuesday agreed to take a bus to Plains tonight (Friday).

The bus will leave at 5 p.m. from the bus barn. The cost is $2 per person; this fee only covers the cost of the bus ride.

Coach Rex Cumpton introduced all the varsity players. Then a film was shown of the New Deal game.

Next week, the Booster Club will meet at 8 p.m. in the Farwell cafeteria. The Junior Varsity players will be introduced.

Lazbuddie truck sent to California

It left in the same caravan of fire trucks that the Farwell fire truck joined.

None of the Lazbuddie Volunteer firefighters was able to go with the truck, but it is being driven by National Forest Service personnel.

"The truck is about 3 to 4 years old, but we love it," says Lust.

"If we arrive at a fire with the WEPS truck and our old pumper, the pumper empties and goes back to fill up while the WEPS truck keeps spraying foam the whole time," says Lust.

Speaking of football (not much else to talk about in the fall, eh?), I watched the Texas Tech Red Raiders win a game Saturday. It wasn't great football, but fun and interesting.

I predict a .500 season for them.

By the way, they have a new mascot, Midnight Raider. Their old horse was officially retired. That means his last public appearance probably was at our Border Town Days this year.

Our first week's football contest was off to a flying start, with hundreds of folks involved.

We had an entry from "Rusty." He forgot to write down his last name. If you get a chance, Rusty, please let us know that it is.

Also, our Spanish foreign exchange student, Juan Rojo, entered and got 6 right. And three high school classes entered, all with high results.

Texico surprises Capitan

by Janice Jenkins

The mighty Texico Wolverines came up with a big win Saturday night as they beat Capitan 20-12.

Texico did not score in the first quarter of play and Capitan's Kerry Clements scored on a 38 yard pass from Tino Gallegos. The extra point was no good, and the first quarter of play ended with Capitan on top 6-0.

Both teams played tough defense in the second quarter of play as neither team could put any points on the board. The half ended with the score remaining Capitan 6, Texico 0.

When the teams came out for the second half, Texico came out fired up and ready to play ball. They played very strong defense and Paul Brown ran in for a touchdown, tying the game 6-6. But the tie was only for a short time as Larry Powell's extra point was good.

The third quarter of play ended with Texico ahead 7-6. Texico remained strong in the fourth quarter and Brown again ran in for six points giving Texico a 13-6 lead. Powell kicked another extra point right through the goal post for an extra point and giving Texico an 8 point lead. With just over four minutes left in the game, lightning was getting close and officials called the game until the storm moved past. The boys left the field and waited out the storm in the dressing rooms. After the lightning and rain moved on, the boys continued play. The storm may have cooled things off a little, but both teams came out hot.

Texico was making good yardage before leaving the field. Brian Rogers quickly scored on a 6 yard pass from Powell to make the score 20-6. Larry Powell attempted his third extra point kick of the night, but the kick was no good.

Capitan was not ready to quit either, as they received the ball and quickly scored on an eight yard pass from Tino Gallegos. Kerry Clements scored the points and Capitan tried to run in for extra points, but were stopped by the Wolverines.

The game ended with Texico winning 20-12. Texico had 18 first downs to Capitan's 9, and 164 yards rushing to Capitan's 47 yards.

Capitan led in passing yards with 119 to Texico's 78. On total yardage, Texico overpowered the Tigers with 242 to 166.

Texico tried eight passes and completed six. Big Lick

Offensive player was Justin Barnes, and David Johnson was the Big Lick Defense player.

Hector Orozco made 11 tackles and two big defensive plays. David Johnson made eight tackles one quarterback sack and one big defensive play. Paul Brown had six tackles, one defensive block and one big play on offense. Coming up with five tackles was Larry Dudley. He got one interception, giving him one big defensive play. Urban Orozco made four tackles and one defensive block; Lance Akers made four tack-

Keith Harrison made four tackles, three blocks, and one big defensive play and two big offensive plays. Mike Williams got three tackles and Brian Rogers also had three tackles but came up with a big interception giving him one big defensive play and one big offensive play and one block. Larry Powell had one tackle and one big offensive play. Byron Martin came up with one tackle and one block.

Texico will host Eunice Saturday at 3 p.m.

Big Lick Award

Texico's Big Lick honors this week go to Justin Barnes, left, and David Johnson. "Justin had a super ball game - his best ever," said coach David Lynn. "Johnson had eight tackles. We're looking for big things from him. He's only a sophomore, but he came through in several crucial situations."

Lana Copp to head

Lazbuddie Homemakers

Lazbuddie Homemakers began their new year, Sept. 3 with installation of officers.

Officers for the year are: Lana Copp, president; Debbie Magby, vice-president; Mandi Seaton, secretary-treasurer; Pat Ranadolph, reporter-historian.

Debbie Magby explained some of the programs planned for the first part of this year. The homemakers are looking forward to programs on color analysis, crafts, and Christmas recipes.

Several memorial gifts were made by the Homemakers during the summer. Memorials were made to the David Seaton Scholarship Fund in memory of David Seaton, and to the Parmer County Child Welfare in memory of Phillip Jeskko. Books were placed in the school library, in memory of Mrytle Steinbock and the mother of Mrs. Anne Ferris.

Some projects discussed were the new water fountain for the grade school playground and pecan sales. The members voted to take orders on Del Cerro Pecan Halves. Pecans will be $3.50 a pound or $42 a case. Anyone wishing to purchase pecans should call Lane Copp at 965-2806 or contact Mandi Seaton at 965-2438.

The meeting ended with the "revealing" of Secret Pals and refreshments. Members present to enjoy the meeting were: Lana Copp, Debbie Magby, Sherri Jesko, Janice Bradshaw, Reta Mimms, Tonya Scisson, Mandi Seaton, JoAnn McDonald, Pat Ranadolph, Mary Autry, and Barbara Lust, Advisor.

sembly was all completed in about 2 1/2 hours.

By LYNNE GANN
Activity Director

We have a few changes in our staff positions we'd like to tell everyone about.

Linda Winegeart is now our Social Services Coordinator. Lupe Vidaurri is now our Dietary Director.

These jobs are much more involved than one would think. It takes 90 clock hours in a Food Service Supervisor course at Amarillo College to become a Dietary Director. To maintain this license, you must have 7 hours of continued education a year.

Linda Winegeart has been in many positions at the center. She started out in 1978 as a nurses' aide for 9 months. In November 1978 she became Activity Director and receptionist. She received her certificate as a Certified Activity Director in May 1979.

In April 1981 she received her Food Service certificate for 90 hours of training. Not sitting still, she went back to the office as bookkeeper and receptionist. When the Good Samaritans took over, Linda went to Sioux Falls, S.D., for training in office management.

Gathering no moss, she then moved back to the kitchen as Food Service Supervisor in September 1984. She remained there until she accepted her new position as Social Service Coordinator.

To Lupe and Linda, congratulations for bigger and better things. And jobs well done.

1/2 c. low-fat cottage cheese

Sift flour, baking powder and sugar. Add wheat germ. Combine the milk and oil and stir into the dry ingredients until just moistened. Stir in cottage cheese only until mixture is slightly lumpy. If a smoother batter is desired, you may whip the cottage cheese with the liquid ingredients in a blender. Drop by spoonfuls onto a greased pan. # Steers defeated

by Robbie Dyer

The Farwell Steers lost to the New Deal Lions Friday, 40-0, at the New Deal stadium.

The Steers, who are a comparatively young team, played a team composed mostly of seniors and juniors and still came out well. Even though New Deal made six touchdowns, the Farwell defense was still great.

At the start of the first quarter, Farwell won the toss. This was the beginning of an action-packed, hard-hitting game. Farwell took several rough hits from the Lions, but still came out fighting hard. New Deal scored the first touchdown of the game. Then the Steers punted. New Deal scored again which was followed by another Steer punt.

At the start of the second quarter, the score was 14-0. New Deal punted and Shawn Stewart got the ball and moved it 15 yards up the field. Then Farwell threw the ball and New Deal's safety intercepted it. Damon George, Farwell's quarterback, made the tackle. Greg Actkinson blocked an important pass at the 5 yard line. New Deal scored two more touchdowns and both field goals were good.

Jeff Actkinson punted the ball to the 10 yard line, which put Farwell in excellent position. Unfortunately, the clock ran out, and we wrapped up the first half with a score of 27-0.

At the start of the second half, New Deal kicked off. Shawn Stewart again received and made 20 yards for the Steers. Later, New Deal fumbled the ball and Farwell recovered it at the 35 yard line.

Then New Deal got a big gain which moved them to Farwell's 35 yard line. Big penalties on New Deal's part and tough Steer defense moved them back to the 50. Then several minutes late Farwell recovered it at the 20.

"We had a pretty good defensive ballgame. We were able to control some of the things that they did well. They scored three times on our offense, once on a tipped pass. Our offense did not have a very good game. We were not able to control the line of scrimmage like we needed to. We will need to improve on that this week in order to play Plains," said Coach Rex Cumpton.

Jeff Actkinson was the leading rusher with six carries for 20 yards. Ruben Ortega was the leading receiver with two for 19.

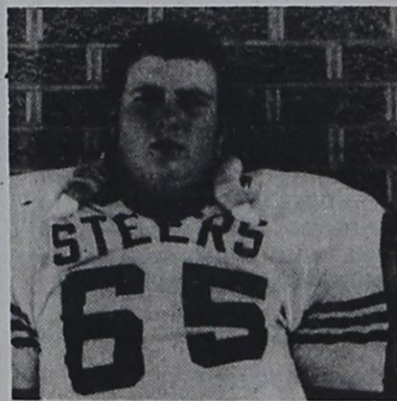

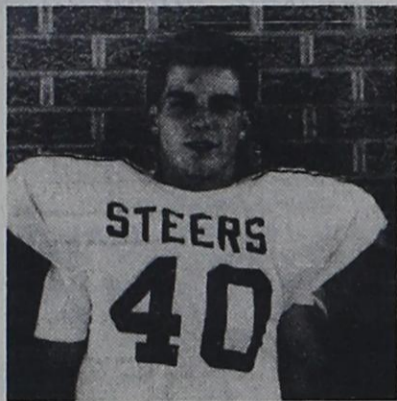

Farwell had 4 first downs, lost 21 yards rushing, made 21 yards passing, and passed three times for 20 yards with four interceptions. Farwell punted eight times for 32 yards. They lost one fumble and were penalized one time for five yards.

New Deal had 19 first downs, made 106 yards rushing, and made 127 yards passing. They passed 13 times and completed four of them with one interception. They punted six times for 38 yards. They recovered one fumble, and they were penalized 10 times for 115 yards.

In last week's report of the Farwell game, there was an error. It should have read, Damon George got 96 yards for 14 carries.

Steers of the Week

Jeff Actkinson, left, and Bruce White share the Steer of the Week honors this week. Actkinson made 11 tackles in the Farwell-New Deal game, and White made 7.

Thunderstorms strike area

The Twin Cities area saw several heavy thundershowers over the weekend. Rain totals average about .5" for the weekend, but the individual showers were scattered.

Walter Curd of Texico reported .6" over the weekend.

Scott Brown at the Sherley Anderson elevator in Lazbuddie reported .4" on Friday, and .10" on Monday morning.

Smith fights fires

Curtis Smith left Farwell 2 weeks ago with the Farwell WEPS truck, and has been fighting fires near Willows, Calif.

He is part of a group of firefighters paid by the National Forest Service to help relieve firefighters on the west coast who have been battling forest fires there for the past several weeks. The fires have destroyed thousands of acres of forest and several homes.

Smith has been camping about 47 miles from Willows.

The conditions are very primitive; most people are camping in tents. But, there are about 1,500 people camping there.

The fires in the area were very bad at first, but firefighters are just mopping up now.

"I didn't get to talk to Curtis very long," said Mrs. Smith Monday. "He had to drive 47 miles to talk to me, and there was a long line of guys waiting to use the phone."

"I expect he will be home in time to read about this in the Tribune," she said.

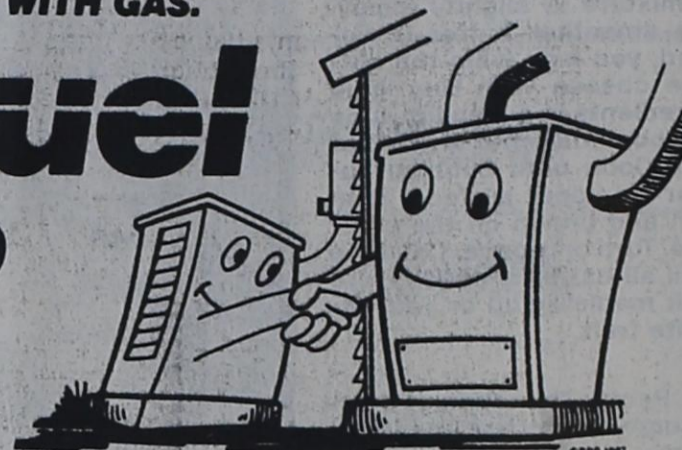

Both the Farwell and Lazbuddie WEPS trucks were funded in part by the National Forest Service.

Quickels see Northern Lights

I.W. "Dutch" and Dorothy Quickel of Farwell have recently returned from a trip to Alaska where they visited with their daughter, Mrs. Dale Dickman, and her family.

The Quickels left Farwell on the morning of Aug. 13. They drove to Amarillo where they caught a plane. The trip included a 2 hour lay-over in Dallas-Fort Worth, a 5 hour lay-over in San Francisco, and a 1 hour lay-over in Seattle.

Between Seattle and Fairbanks, the Quickels got a very good look at the "northern lights," the aurora borealis. "It sure was pretty - red and orange. It looked like the world was on fire," said Quickel.

"But," he added, "it sure messes up the tv reception in Alaska."

The beauty of the northern lights helped to make up for the length of the trip. Even with a three hour time change, they did not arrive in Fairbanks until 10 a.m. on the 14th.

Mrs. Dickman and her two sons, Brian and Craig, met the plane. Son-in-law Dale, Major Dale Dickman was in the "lower 48" evaluating a National Guard unit, so he was gone the first week the Quickels were there.

"We caught up on our sleep the next day," relates Dutch. Then they spent the balance of the trip visiting, taking pictures, and enjoying themselves.

"This was our second trip to Alaska, so we didn't feel like doing as much sight-seeing this time," Quickel added.

The Quickels visited Two Rivers Lodge, a restaurant near Chena Hot Springs where they enjoyed a very good meal.

They also had brunch at The Pump House Restaurant near the place where the Chena River joins the Tonana River. "The food was great," said Quickel. The Pump House was formerly the pumping station for some of Fairbanks' hydraulically operated gold mines.

The weather was sunny and bright while the Quickels visited, but it isn't that way all winter. "People in Fairbanks get the 50/50 blues in the winter - 50" of snow and 50" below zero," said Quickel.

They left Fairbanks at 11:30 p.m. on Aug. 26, and repeated their trip home. They arrived in Amarillo at 12:20 a.m. where they were met by Dorothy's sister Iris and her husband. They spent the night in Amarillo and returned to Farwell the next day.

Texico volleyballers unbeaten

Texico's varsity volleyball team defeated Dora on Sept. 15. The Wolverines won 15-0, 15-3, and 15-8.

This was their first district match, and they are now 1-0 for the district. They have an overall 4-0 record this year.

"The team played pretty well," said coach Michael Littlejohn. "Leslie Steward passed and hit well, Geneva Garcia and Angie Liggins served well, and Heather Delaney set up well."

Texico's volleyball team won the Cloudcroft Tournament by beating Eunice three games, Capitan three out of four games, and Mountainair three games.

Capitan gave Texico the toughest fight, but Texico won, 15-7, 15-9, 13-15, and 15-13.

Tobacco smokes better when it's cured with smokeless Philgas heat.

It takes clean, steady heat to get the most out of your tobacco crop. The kind you get with efficient, economical LP-gas heaters.

Because LP-gas burns completely, there's no carbon or oily fumes to contaminate the leaves. Night and day, the atmosphere remains con-

Melissa Howard home from hospital

Melissa Kay Howard came home from the hospital on Sept. 13, to a home decked with yellow ribbons.

Greg and Roberta Howard of Pleasant Hill, was born at St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock on July 26.

On July 27, her doctors, Dr. Phan and Dr. Sutter, informed the Howards that they thought Melissa had a problem. On July 28, she underwent abdominal surgery. Dr. Goldthorne is the surgeon who performed the operations.

On Aug. 15, she was operated on for the second time. Then, the Howards had to wait until she regained her strength and weight, and ate enough at each feeding to sustain herself.

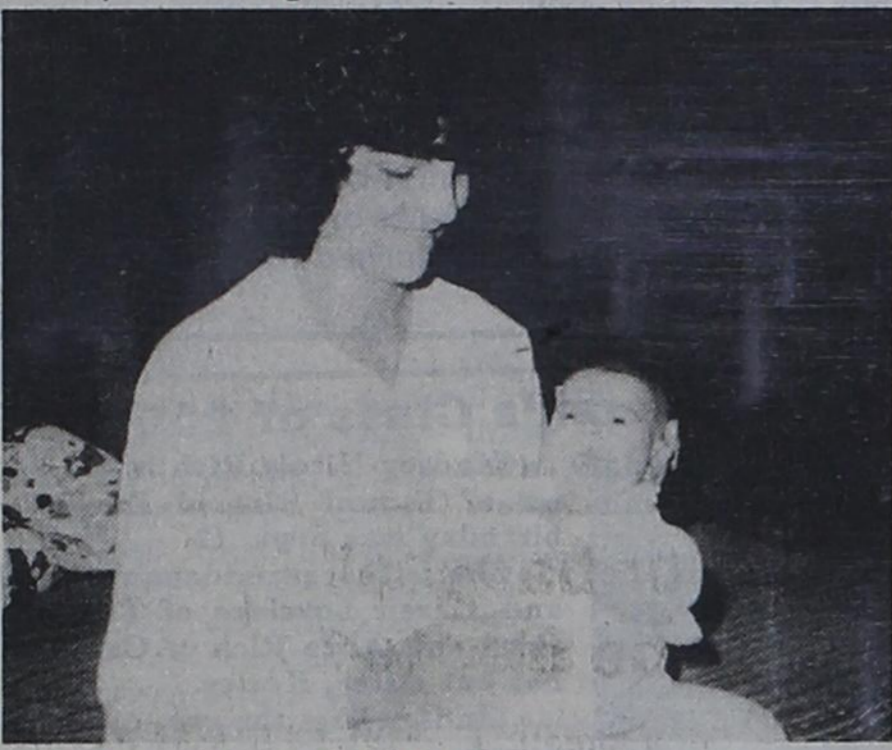

Melissa weighed 6 lbs. 6 oz. at birth. She went down to 5 lbs. 1 oz. after her surgeries. She now weighs 6 lbs. 13 oz.

Band to play

The Texico Band will perform in the parade in Albuquerque for the New Mexico State Fair. They will perform today, Sept. 18.

"She spent about 6 weeks in intensive care," said Mrs. Howard. "About all we could do is watch and wait and pray."

While Melissa was recuperating, the Howards moved into a trailer behind St. Mary's. Melissa now appears to be active and alert and ready for each feeding.

Lonsdale explains a 'spike haircut'

Ridley "Red" Lonsdale has been Farwell's barber for the past 11 years.

"It's a real good trade," says Red, "I'm glad I got into it."

Sterling Billington owned the barber shop on Avenue A when Lonsdale moved to Farwell from Belen where his father worked with the Santa Fe Railroad. It was Billington who gave Lonsdale the idea to go into barbering.

Long hair was in fashion in most parts when Lonsdale took over the shop in January 1977, but it didn't deter business in Farwell.

"Oliver North style haircuts have been a big favorite around here for 11 years," says Red.

"The spike haircut that is so popular with the young guys now is just a flattop with fingers," quipped Red.

Spotlight on Business

"Short hair is back in, and what's popular now is the same as it was when Herman Gerles was a boy," he added.

Conversation in the barber shop can range from important matters to ridiculous ones. "It gets real deep in here sometimes," says Red.

When conversation gets short, Red has been known to sing to the customers.

Red Lonsdale is single. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lonsdale and his brother, Max Lonsdale, live in Farwell. He has a sister in Gallup. He also has three neices and two nephews.

Red Lonsdale cuts Ricky Stewart's hair.

Offer To Sell Leased Telephones To Members

The Texas Public Utility Commission's Rules require ENMR Telephone Cooperative to implement certain changes which affect your telephone service. Beginning September 1, 1987, ENMR Telephone Cooperative, Inc. is required to offer you, the customer, the option of buying the telephone equipment you currently lease from us. The Commission's Rules permit the Cooperative to continue leasing telephones and other equipment.

You, the customer, have the following options:

1. You may purchase the telephone sets you are currently leasing at the prices shown below.

ROTARY DIAL DESK & WALL $9.00

PUSHBUTTON DESK & WALL $11.50

For prices of other telephone instruments, please call your local ENMR business office

2. You may continue leasing at the new monthly rates

LEASE CHARGES

Residential Rotary .....	$1.50 per month
Residential Trimline .....	2.50 per month
Business Rotary .....	2.00 per month
Business Trimline .....	3.00 per month
Residential Pushbutton .....	2.50 per month
Residential Pushbutton-Trimline .....	3.50 per month
Business Pushbutton .....	3.00 per month
Business Pushbutton-Trimline .....	4.00 per month

3. You may request a service representative to pick up the leased instrument presently in your home or business that you do not wish to purchase or continue leasing.

Now, let's look at the results of these options. If you purchase your telephone, whether from the Cooperative or from another source, it becomes your responsibility to maintain it. Many of the telephones on the market today may not be designed for use on the long rural lines in our area. If a trouble call is reported to us and the trouble is a result of your own instrument, then you would have to pay a service fee to compensate the Cooperative for the service representative's time. Our service representative cannot repair the instruments you have purchased from another vendor. The telephones you buy from the Cooperative will carry a 90-day limited warranty, excluding telephone housing and cords, and may be billed on your next regular bill.

If you continue leasing your telephone from the Cooperative, any necessary repairs are included in the monthly rental fee. You would not have to worry about purchasing a new telephone or trying to find someone to repair it if it should give you trouble. The Cooperative's telephones are quality instruments designed to provide you the best possible service in your area.

Please consider these options carefully before making your decision. The new lease rates will go into effect on January 1, 1988. If you choose to purchase your instruments, the deadline is December 31, 1987. According to the Public Utility Commission's Rules, "a customer's failure to respond to the question will be treated as a decision to continue leasing."

The Cooperative would like to continue to be your full-service telephone provider. If you have any questions about your telephone equipment, please call the ENMR business office in your area. Thanks for your cooperation in this matter.
